NORTHEASTERN (7-5, 6-0 CAA) vs. JAMES MADISON (6-4, 1-0 CAA)
JAN. 23, 2021 // 12 p.m. // NESN // BOSTON (CABOT CENTER)

OPENING TIP

• The Huskies played the 17th-toughest non-conference schedule (per ESPN's College Basketball Power Index); Northeastern faced three Power 5 opponents for the first time since the 2018-19 season when the Huskies took on four, including No. 17 Kansas in the NCAA tournament

• Northeastern played just two games on its original 2020-21 schedule, UMass at home (12/13) and at Georgia (12/22); NU added road games at Syracuse (12/16), Old Dominion (12/20) and No. 9/8 West Virginia (12/29)

• The Huskies are 6-0 in CAA play for just the third time in program history and looking to start 7-0 for just the second time in program history (Won first 8 CAA games of 2012-13 season and won regular-season title at 14-4)

• Northeastern has seven players born outside the United States, third-most in the country behind Maine's 11 and Cal Baptist's eight

• The Huskies rank 319-of-343 active D1 teams in the country in terms of experience with just three upper classmen and no seniors (KenPom.com); This is the first time in head coach Bill Coen's 15 years that he has coached a team without a senior (Last team to not have a senior was 2002-03)

• The Huskies lost 70% of their scoring from a season ago, and replaced it with freshmen and sophomores that account for 65% of the team's offense (next closest in the CAA is Towson at 55%)

• Coach Coen's 248 wins at Northeastern is two shy of the all-time record of 250, set by Jim Calhoun from 1972-86; He is second all-time in CAA history with 169 wins in league regular season and postseason play

• The Huskies are the winningest program in CAA play since Coach Coen's arrival in 2006 with 152 conference victories; The Huskies have a CAA-best five CAA Championship game appearances since 2013

• The Huskies became the fifth program in CAA history to make three consecutive CAA Championship Game appearances (2018, '19, '20), earning their ninth NCAA tournament bid in 2019

- The 6-foot guard rallied the Huskies against Elon (1/3), Hofstra (1/9) and Charleston (1/16) when it looked like leads were slipping away

SOCIAL JUSTICE MESSAGING ON WHITE JERSEYS

#00 JASON STRONG says ...

I chose the word equality to wear on my jersey because it is a baseline word for what should be present in the world. The definition is, the state of being equal, especially in status, rights, and opportunities. That is what is needed in America to continue to make it a better place. By having this on my jersey I want to remind people that we can never stop working toward equality.

#10 GREG EBOIGBODIN says ...

Since the beginning of October, Nigerians have taken to the streets to protest police brutality in their country. Young people in particular are mobilizing in major Nigerian cities, calling for the abolition of the SARS special police task force that has been operating for more than two decades. The task force, which is under government jurisdiction, has been accused of inflicting severe human rights violations on its citizens. And people have had enough.

The #EndSARS hashtag dates back to at least 2017, when people began using it online share their experiences of violence and assault at the hands of SARS. This most recent protest was launched by an October 8 viral video which allegedly showed SARS officers killing a young man in one of the country's southern states. While authorities have denied that the video is real, according to Al Jazeera, the man who filmed it has been arrested, leading to more outrage from citizens. And this recent round of mass protests has led to further violence against the protestors themselves, including 25 people who were shot in Lagos, Nigeria while demonstrating on October 21, with an unnamed witness telling BBC News that soldiers "pulled up... and they started firing directly" at protestors. An investigation by Amnesty International also found that Nigerian army and police killed at least 12 peaceful protesters on October 20.

In addition to protesting police brutality, demonstrators are also speaking out against Nigeria's bad governance, citing grievances such as poor educational opportunities for citizens.

#24 SHAQUILLE WALTERS says ...

My word revolutionise is a testament to the facts that there needs to be fundamental change and we are all collectively responsible to doing so, because the inequalities that exist within the interchanging parts of our society come in various forms and sizes.

#1 VITO CUBRILLO says ...

I chose to put 'One Love' on my jersey as it represents a force/matter (love) that connects all humans. I believe that this love is present amongst people at all times, no matter their race, religious views, or any other characteristic that differentiates them. It is also stronger, or at least should be stronger than the forces that divide us. I think it's important to be mindful of that love and use it as a starting point whenever we engage with others, especially during times of conflicts and crises like right now, because it is a crucial factor to achieve compromise, unity, and peace.

#33 CHRIS DOHERTY says ...

I chose 'peace' because 2020 has been a year full of hardships. However, rather than break each other down, now is the time we must come together. A nation together as one is far more productive than a nation divided.

#32 CONNOR BRAUN says...

Mark 12:30-31: '30 And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' 31 The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'

There is no other commandment greater than these. The Bible says that loving your neighbor as yourself is not just loving people you know, but even people that are unlike you in every aspect. In this current time, it is important to love everyone with your heart, soul, mind, and strength. This can happen by protecting people physically, using your mind to be a part of social and political change, and using your heart to love first and make a difference on a day-to-day basis. Our team goal of promoting equality needs to start with loving your neighbor as yourself.

#22 QUIRIN EMANGA says...

The reason I chose the words 'Be the change' is because I think that protesting and all that was great to start conversation and make people aware of the problems at hand, but I think it is important, now that not as many protests are happening anymore, and the topic of social justice is not in the media as much any more, that we keep being the change in our every day lives. We can do this by educating people around us and speaking up when we hear or see injustice happening so that the fight against social injustice is still being fought on an individual level.

#2 TYSON WALKER says...

This year has been a very unpredictable year. In several instances justice hasn't been served. By putting 'Justice' on the back of my jersey, I believe I'm taking advantage of my platform to help fight racial injustice. I feel that we all know that we need equality, but the next step after that is to have justice for the things that are going on. The whole country is seeing what's going on, but even with that it doesn't make the judicial system make the right decision. It's just scary to think that one day you can go outside and that could be your last day just because someone is having a bad day.

#12 ALEXANDER NWAGHA says ...

Love is the answer to all problems. I chose to put the word love on the back of my jersey because regardless the topic or scenario love is the solution. Whether it be war, poverty or racism if we loved each other and loved God we would be able to solve all of these problems. Love is so important that when Jesus was asked what are the greatest commandments it was to love God above everything else and to love your neighbour as yourself. Hence, I hope by putting love on my jersey that I can spread the love of God so that when people look at it they know that I love them and so does God. I also hope they feel inspired to love more.

#15 COLEMAN STUCKE says ...

The verse on the back of my jersey is John 15:12. In this verse, Jesus says 'My command is this: Love one another as I have loved you'. I believe that Christ's love for the world and His sacrifice on the cross to redeem each one of us from our sins is the solution to every problem this world has. Additionally, the solution to hate is love. There has never been a greater love than Christ's love for us and if we all did our best to emulate that love to one another, the world would be a much better place.

#3 J'VONNE HADLEY says ...

The phrase I chose to include on the back of my jersey is 'Speak Up'. The first thing that comes to mind when thinking of that phrase is 'Speak up for all of those who can't.' To me that means so much because of all the horrifying things that our world is facing right now. Our country as a whole is not in the right position nor the right mindset we should be in and I encourage all of you to at least speak up and voice your opinion, whether that's on your social media or in person at public events. Never be silenced!!! Parts of our society come in various forms and sizes.

#11 JAHMYL TELFORT says ...

My message on the back of my jersey 'Love Thy Neighbor' is from the Bible and it says in there that you have to love your neighbor as you love yourself. I wanted that to be my message because with everything that is going on in the world as far as social justice/racism, I wanted to tell people how it doesn't matter the differences between all of us whether it is skin color or religion or etc. All that matters is that we treat our neighbors as we would like ourselves to be treated and I truly believe in that.

HAMILTON '83 | 15TH SEASON 2018 CAA COACH OF THE YEAR

BILL COEN

- 2013 USBWA District I Coach of the Year
- 2013 & 2018 NABC District 10 Coach of the Year
- 2013 Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year Finalist
- 33 All-CAA selections in 14 seasons
- 25 former players signed professional contracts

THE COEN FILE

Bill Coen enters his 15th season as head coach of the Northeastern basketball program. He is currently second in school history with 248 wins, trailing Jim Calhoun's 250 from 1972-86, and second all-time in CAA history with 169 CAA wins (league+postseason), trailing Miami (FL) head coach Jim Larranaga's 183 wins at Georgia Mason from 1998-2011.

Coen is widely regarded for his ability to evaluate and develop talented players. In his previous 14 seasons at Northeastern, NU players have earned 33 All-CAA honors, including 10 first-team accolades and eight All-Rookie selections. A total of 25 of Coen's former players have earned professional contracts and 12 Huskies remain active in professional basketball.

Coen's teams have remained the most consistent in the CAA. The Huskies have finished .500 or better in 11 of Coen's 14 seasons at the helm, including back-to-back 14-win seasons in 2017-18 and 2018-19. Northeastern has appeared in the CAA tournament quarterfinals in 13 of 14 seasons under Coen, advanced to the semifinals eight times, and to the title game five times, including three straight appearances (2018-20) and two titles (2015, '19). Since Coen took the reins of the Northeastern men's basketball program 14 seasons ago, Northeastern has accomplished the best win percentage among current CAA teams in conference and CAA tournament play.

The Huskies became the fifth program in CAA history to make three straight CAA title game appearances in 2019-20, falling just short to top-seeded Hofstra, 70-61, in Washington, D.C. Northeastern is a CAA-best 11-4 in the league tournament since 2015, and have a pair of NCAA tournament appearances in 2015 and '19.

Northeastern has won a league-best 147 league games during Coen's leadership, and won a CAA-best three regular-season titles since joining the league in 2005-06 (2012-13, 2014-15, 2017-18). The Huskies have appeared in the NCAA postseason in two straight seasons with an NIT appearance in 2018 and NCAA tournament appearance in 2019. The NCAA canceled all winter and spring championships in 2020, immediately following the 2020 CAA Championship.
