DUKES HEAD NORTH TO FACE HUSKIES

- The James Madison Dukes will head north for their first full Colonial Athletic Association road swing this weekend, travelling to Boston for a pair of noon bouts at Northeastern on Saturday and Sunday afternoon.
- The two programs currently represent the only undefeated teams in the CAA standings, though Northeastern has played six league contests, while the Dukes have played just one due to multiple postponements owing to positive CoVID-19 cases in other programs.
- Entering the weekend, the Dukes have improved to 6-4 (1-0) on the season after hitting 15 three-pointers on their way to an 81-72 victory at Towson last Saturday on the road.
- Seniors Matt Lewis and Zach Jacobs return to lead a new-look JMU squad that welcomes 10 newcomers and returns just five players from last season's 9-21 campaign that saw the Dukes go 2-16 in league play.
- Lewis is playing the best basketball of his career, having been named the USBWA National Player of the Week this past Wednesday, while leading the Dukes in scoring, rebounding and assists through the opening 10 contests.
- The senior guard is averaging 22.5 points per contest, fourth-most in Division I, climbing to third place on JMU's all-time scoring list, while newcomer guard Vado Morse is adding 12.6 ppg.
- Two weeks after his first career CAA Rookie of the Week nod, freshman Justin Amadi enters Saturday averaging 9.6 points per contest on an impressive 74.1% (40-54) percentage from the floor, to go along with 5.0 rebounds per game.

SCOUTING THE HUSKIES

- Northeastern enters the weekend having won six straight to improve to 7-5 (6-0 CAA) on the season. The Huskies have not lost since entering league play, notching sweeps over Elon, Hofstra and College of Charleston already.
- Sophomore guard Tyson Walker has made a leap for Northeastern, leading the Huskies with 16.2 points per contest while adding a CAA-best 6.4 assists on the season. Junior swingman Shaquille Walters contributes all over the court, chipping in 10.8 points and a team-high 6.8 rebounds per game through the Huskies' first 12 games.

SERIES HISTORY

- Northeastern has controlled the recent series between the two teams, having won six straight contests to extend its lead in the all-time series to 7-22, including a 3-9 advantage over the Dukes in games played in Boston.
- JMU last won in Boston on Jan. 14, 2016, when the Dukes grabbed a 75-63 victory. In last year's contest at Matthews Arena, then-junior racked up 17 points and five assists, but the Huskies used 50% shooting from the field (30-60) to take an early 26-10 lead and pull away in a 77-57 Northeastern win.

LAST TIME OUT

- Senior guard Matt Lewis helmed a long-range shooting barrage on Saturday, January 16, leading James Madison to an 81-72 win over Towson at SECU Arena in both programs' Colonial Athletic Association men's basketball opener.
- Lewis tied a JMU school record with nine three-pointers to lead the way for the Dukes (6-4, 1-0 CAA) with 30 points, as JMU lit up the Tigers (1-5, 0-1 CAA) for a total of 15 made three-pointers, just one shy of the team record for a single game.
- All told, the Dukes hit 46.9% (15-of-32) of their shots from behind the arc, minimizing a Towson size advantage that saw the Tigers out-rebound JMU by a 41-32 margin.

LEWIS ON NATIONALLY-RENOWNED THREE-POINTER TEAR

- Senior guard Matt Lewis has hit at least one three-pointer in 47 consecutive games, a streak that ranks as the longest active streak in Division I at the moment.
- Lewis has hit a shot from range in every contest dating back to February of his sophomore year, when he went 0-1 from deep in a win 71-69 win over Drexel on Feb. 14, 2019. Then-sophomore Dwight Wilson went for 20 points and 18 boards that evening.
- The previous longest active streak in the country was also the newly-christened NCAA Division I all-time record, as Mack Smith of Eastern Illinois has made at least one trey in 91 straight games before seeing his streak end in January of this season.
- If Lewis were to extend his streak to 59 contests, he would enter the top 10 in Division I history.

STRICKLAND OPENS CAREER WITH HISTORY

- Freshman guard Terrell Strickland wrote himself into the record books in his first-ever collegiate game on Nov. 25, racking up 10 steals in the Dukes' win over Limestone University to set new single-game records for both JMU and the Colonial Athletic Association.
- Three players held the previous record of seven at JMU: Darius Banks (11/6/18 and 11/9/18), Andre Nation (2/15/14) and Fess Irvin (11/24/89). Two players shared the previous CAA record of nine: Craig Ponder of UNCW and Tony Skinn of George Mason.
- Strickland's effort was tied for the 25th-most steals in a single game in NCAA Division I history and was tied for the third-most ever recorded by a Division I freshman.

LEWIS NAMED PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR

- Senior guard Matt Lewis was named the 2020-21 Colonial Athletic Association Preseason Player of the year, as announced by the league on Nov. 11 after a poll of the league's coaches, media relations directors and media members.
- Lewis, who returns as a senior with the fourth-most career points in JMU history, is JMU's first CAA Preseason Player of the Year on record. In his first three seasons at JMU, Lewis has already written himself into the program record books, scoring 1,574 points though his junior year, already fourth on the Dukes' all-time scoring chart. He also ranks sixth all-time at JMU with 195 career made three-pointers and third all-time with 411 made free throws.

DUKES OPEN FIRST SEASON IN ATLANTIC UNION BANK CENTER

- The Atlantic Union Bank Center opened in November, 2020 as the sparkling new home of the James Madison University men's and women's basketball programs, while also opening the door to a multitude of other events to benefit the campus and the local community. It stands as the preeminent facility of its type in the entire Shenandoah Valley.
- The Convocation Center debuted as home to JMU basketball in 1982. Plans for a new facility were first publicly shared in April of 2015. In October of 2017, Union Bank & Trust was named as the naming partner for the venue. General contractor S.B. Ballard broke ground on the construction project in April of 2018, and in spring of 2019 a rebrand by the naming partner resulted in the facility's new official name as the Atlantic Union Bank Center.
- In addition to S.B. Ballard as general contractor, Moseley Architects worked in collaboration with Populous on the facility design process. Anthony James Partners designed the technology infrastructure of the building while Advent took the lead on graphic design elements. The completed building includes two primary sections with a 8,500-seat event venue as well as a comprehensive basketball program area, designed to maximize student-athlete success across all aspects of the collegiate experience. The project also included construction of a 1,500-car parking deck, which officially opened in the Fall of 2019.
- The AUBC offers a comprehensive array of services and spaces to maximize student-athlete success in line with the holistic experience provided at James Madison University. Spaces include a practice court, locker room, film room, staff offices, academic success area, sports medicine with hydrotherapy area and strength and conditioning, including a cardio mezzanine.
- Further information on the project can be found at AtlanticUnionBankCenter.com.
