Back-To-Back CAA Regular Season Titles: Hofstra has won the last two Colonial Athletic Association regular season titles. Nine previous teams have won at least back-to-back CAA regular season titles, but Hofstra is now one of only six to win at least two consecutive outright regular season titles. The Pride is the first since Virginia Commonwealth did it in three consecutive years from 2006-07 to 2008-09.

Team	Years
Hofstra	2018-19 and 2019-20
Virginia Commonwealth	2006-07 to 2008-09 (three)
UNCW	2001-02 and 2002-03
James Madison	1989-90 and 1990-91
Richmond	1987-88 and 1988-89

NLI: The Hofstra men's basketball program added a pair of talented student-athletes already as Griffin Barrouk and Jaquan Carlos signed National Letters of Intent with the University. Barrouk, a 6-5 guard, is a native of Glen Mills, Pennsylvania, and attends Bayard Rustin High School in West Chester, PA. Barrouk was named honorable mention All-Chester County by the Daily Local as a junior after averaging 14 points per game. He also earned first team All-Ches-Mont League accolades, while adding seven rebounds and four assists per outing. A strong student, he carries a 3.8-grade point average. Carlos, a 6-1 guard, is a native of Brooklyn, New York, and attends Thomas Jefferson High School. Ranked as the sixth-best point guard in New York State by 247Sports, he was also ranked as the 38th best point guard in the nation by 247Sports in the class of 2021. Over the past three seasons at Thomas Jefferson, Carlos averaged 25 points and seven assists per outing.

108 - Senior Jalen Ray has totaled 108 points over the Pride's last five games, including a career-best 29 at Monmouth on December 15. The 57 combined points scored against Monmouth and St. Bonaventure is the most points scored in consecutive games in Ray's career. He is averaging 21.6 points per game over this span and has twice been named the CAA Player of the Week during this stretch.
