Scouting the Eagles

The Eagles are coming into this one winning their last two and will have another game on Wednesday, Sept. 11 prior to the game against the Wildcats.

Northwest is 1-0 against NWC teams and they will take on Lewis & Clark on Wednesday.

Last time out for the Wildcats

Linfield fell 3-1 to Corban on Saturday, Sept. 7. Scoring for the Wildcats was Madison Topaum via a penalty kick.

Starting goalkeeper, Madi Reimer, missed the game due to an injury. Freshman goalkeeper, Erin Isbister made her first career start, stopping seven shots.

Junior college transfer, Madison Topaum leads the NWC in goals and points.

The Wildcats are 1-1 against Cascade Collegiate Conference teams, the conference the Eagles play in.

Head Coach Steve Simmons

Steve Simmons begins the first year of his second tenure as Linfield women's soccer coach in 2019.

Simmons brings 15 years of Division I coaching experience at Oregon State and Northern Illinois, in addition to serving five years as head coach of the Linfield men's and women's soccer and women's lacrosse programs from 1996 until 2000.

Simmons owns a career record of 190-166-31 in 20 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

During his first tenure at Linfield, he took over a men's team that went 1-15-0 in 1995 and led the Wildcats to three seasons of double-digit wins, including a 21-1-1 mark in 2000. That team knocked off top-ranked Ohio Wesleyan in the NCAA Division III quarterfinals losing in the NCAA Division III semifinals to eventual national champion Messiah College. On the women's side, the Wildcats rose from ninth place to fourth place in his final season as coach.

Most recently, Simmons spent nine years as head coach of the Oregon State men's soccer program. Simmons won 63 games with the Beavers in his first seven seasons, including a Pac-10 runner-up finish in 2009. Prior to Oregon State, Simmons compiled a 59-47-3 record in six seasons as head coach at Northern Illinois.

2019 Linfield Women's Soccer

2019 Season Storylines

NEW LEADERSHIP

Simmons returns to McMinnville after 15 years of coaching in Division I at Northern Illinois and Oregon State. He was the Wildcats' men's and women's soccer head coach from 1996-2000, compiling a record of 23-53-6 at the helm of the women's soccer program.

THE SKY IS THE LIMIT

The Wildcats finished the 2018 campaign with a 10-5-5 record and a 7-4-5 record in the conference, placing them fifth in the NWC standings. Simmons believes the roster has enough talent to win the NWC.

LEAD BY EXAMPLE

The Wildcats return all but one starter from a season ago, led by 2018 all-conference honorees Sydney Kuehn, Michayla Sponsel and Taylor Cole.

NEW AND YOUNG

The Wildcats welcome 14 new players to the squad, including Claire Steele, Izzy Chauls, Laney Green, Erika Olivera-Gutierrez, who have emerged through first few weeks of training camp.

SEASONED BACK FOUR

In 2018, the Wildcats gave up just 0.90 goals per game, fourth-lowest in the conference. Simmons believes having another season under the belt for the back-line defenders Cole, Lexi Kerr, Steele and Ashley Guldager can make it possible for the goals-against average to go drop even further.

SHIELDING THE NET

Madi Reimer stopped 80.5 percent of shots she faced a year ago, which was fourth-most in the conference. The Sherwood, Ore. native, begins her third season as the Wildcats' starter in the net.

SCORING BY COMMITTEE

The Wildcats returns most of their offensive firepower, including Sydney Kuehn and Amidee Colleknon, who were among the top-four goal scorers in the conference and Michayla Sponsel, who was fourth in the conference in assists.
