EAGLES NOTEBOOK

LAST CCC TRIP: Northwest makes its final Cascade Collegiate Conference road trip Sunday and Monday with games in Eugene, Oregon, against Bushnell. Both games begin at 5 p.m.

FINISH STRONG: Southern Oregon announced Friday that the men's soccer team was on a Covid pause and canceled its last six games. That included possible make-up games with Northwest. The elimination of those games erased the final postseason possibilities for the Eagles.

THE RIVALRY: Northwest has won 14 of the last 15 games in the series and has a 14-4-1 record in the series all time.

Bormann

LAST MEETING: Northwest scored a 2-0 win in Kirkland last season. Leon Bormann and Kyle Han had goals, with Noah Prophet and Dmitriy Zorchenko getting assists. Alexander Thiehofe had a four-save shutout.

LAST GAME: Northwest tied Corban 1-1 and lost 2-1 in last week's series. The Eagles' defense limited Corban to its lowest two-game output this season.

ASSISTS: Elliot Mistic is 33rd in the NAIA with 0.57 assists per game. He leads the team and is fourth in the Cascade Collegiate Conference in that category. Mistic leads the team with four assists, followed by Tyler Hopp with two and Jacob Moon, Gian Herrera, and Noah Prophet with one apiece.

Mistic

Herrera

GOAL: Elliot Mistic leads Northwest with three goals, followed by Gian Herrera and Kyle Han with two apiece. Leon Bormann, Tyler Hopp, Benjamin Banks-Forder, Noah Prophet, Angel Trejo-Delgado, and Justin Harden have one goal apiece.

Han

SHOOTERS: The Eagles average 12 shots with six shots on goal per game. Elliot Mistic leads with 18 shots, and Kyle Han is next with 11. Mistic has a team-leading seven shots on goal, while Han, Leon Bormann, and Angel Trejo-Delgado have five apiece.

IN GOAL: Alexander Thiehofe and Brandon Karberg have split time in goal, each playing four games. Thiehofe leads the team with 17 saves and a 1.86 goals-against average. Karberg is at 2.57 goals per game.

Thiehofe

McIntosh

McINTOSH LEADS: NU Head Coach Gary McIntosh returns for his school-record 18th season. He has 142 wins on the Eagles' sidelines and 192 in his career. McIntosh has been the all-time leader in men's soccer coaching wins at Northwest since 2008.

SCOUTING THE BEACONS: The Beacons have two goals this season, one each by Esgar Avila and Kyle Aure. Aure has the team's lone assist. Bushnell is 0-8 overall and 0-6 in the CCC after 5-0 and 4-0 losses to Oregon Tech last week.

UP NEXT: The Eagles host Oregon Tech April 5-6.

HEAD COACH GARY MCINTOSH

Coach Gary McIntosh II enters his 18th season as the men's soccer coach and 13th season as director of athletics at Northwest in 2020-21

Coach McIntosh is the all-time leader in men's soccer wins at Northwest and has guided the Eagles to six consecutive double-figure wins seasons (2011-16). He has twice been named Cascade Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year.

Prior to his first season at NU in 2003, McIntosh was the head coach for San Diego Christian College for three seasons (1998-2000).

Gary has led the NU soccer team to the CCC play-off's in 2008, '09, '11, '12, '13, '14, '15 and '19, and the conference semifinals in 2009 and 2011. He also named 2009 Cascade Conference Coach of the Year by a vote of the CCC coaches and CCC Co-Coach of the Year in 2011.

While at San Diego Christian College he collected three consecutive Coach of the Year awards for the NCCAA West Region, compiled a 50-25 cumulative record, and trained six NAIA All-Americans. McIntosh also served as an adjunct professor for Azusa Pacific University.

McIntosh, in 2006 and again in 2007, took the helm of the Salem, Oregon-based Cascade Surge of the Premier Soccer Development League (PDL), which is part of the United States Soccer League.

A three-year captain, McIntosh played four years at Christian Heritage College, where he earned his bachelor's degree in physical education. He also holds a master's degree from Azusa Pacific and is working toward a doctorate in strategic leadership from Corban University.

Gary and his wife, Laura, have three daughters, Morgan, Ashlyn and Shannae, and one son, Kyler. The family attends Bethany Christian Assembly. Gary also enjoys hiking, fishing and walks with his wife.
