NUMBERS TO KNOW

20 NSU tied a program single match record with 20 blocks at Texas A&M-Commerce. It was the second match in the past two seasons where they had 20 blocks, doing so against Fairleigh Dickinson on opening weekend of 2022.

100 Sean Kiracofe became the first NSU volleyball coach to record 100 victories in a career with the Demons' 3-0 sweep of Grambling on Sept. 12.

10 NSU is returning 10 players from last season's 19-win squad that made the SLC Tournament semifinals. Of the 10 returners, six of them were starters and four of those were either freshmen or sophomores.

NSU AT A GLANCE

- Now in his ninth season, Sean Kiracofe is the longest tenured coach in program history, surpassing NSU Hall of Famer and multi-sport coach Rickey McCalister. He also became the all-time career wins leader this past year, moving passed McCalister's total of 87 wins and is the only coach in program history with more than 100 wins.
- NSU returns 10 total players from the 2022 team including six of the seven starters and the starting libero. They also return both setters from a year ago from their 6-2 offense (Piper Boydston and Amina Attra) that dished out 1,157 assists between the two of them with a nearly 50/50 split.
- Breanna Burrell, Symone Wesley and Ashlyn Svoboda are all within striking distance of respective 1,000 career stat marks this season. Burrell is closing in on the kill milestone while Wesley and Svoboda near the dig mark.

G-UNIT

- Division I transfers Teresa Garza and Tessa Gerwig not only share initials and number of letters in their names, but they also share impressive production levels in the NSU offense.
- Both T.G.'s rank first or second for the Demons in kills, kills per set, points and points per set this year.
- The duo have combined for 301 of NSU's 751 total kills, more than 40 percent of the total production.
- Of the 21 total double-digit kill matches by NSU players this season 14 of them have come from Garza (9) or Gerwig (5).

WELCOME TO BLOCK-ITOCHESES

- Reaghan Thompson currently leads the Southland and ranks 9th in the NCAA in blocks per set at 1.49. As a team NSU sits atop the SLC and tied for 20th in blocks per set at 2.67.
- Thompson and fellow sophomore Jordan Gamble (1.05) both average more than one block per set and rank in the top three in the SLC in blocks per set.
- NSU has had double-digit blocks in nine matches this year and have had fewer blocks than their opponent just three times this year.
- NSU tied a program record that was set last season with 20 blocks in a single match at Texas A&M-Commerce.
- The Demons had 10 or more blocks in four straight matches, matching the second longest streak since 2010. The 17 blocks against SLU during the streak was tied for the most in a match in the past 15 years. NSU had 54 total blocks and a 3.6 per set average, both the highest totals in any four-match stretch in more than 20 years.

LONE STAR DEMONS

- 13 of the 15 players on this year's roster hail from the state of Texas, that is the most since 14 in the 2018 season and the second straight season with 13.
- Perry Flanningan is the only non-Texan on the team hailing from Arkansas. Lorelei Freling played for and graduated from Ruston in Louisiana but also lived in Dallas before moving to North Louisiana.
- Over half of this year's team come from the greater Houston area, a total of nine.
- With the addition of Freling to this year's roster, NSU has only had four players in the past 10 years come from Louisiana high schools. Reagan Lee (Ruston, La.), who graduated in 2021, was the most recent Louisiana native to play for the Demons. Hannah Brister (2017-19) and Jessica Gutierrez (2010-12) are the only other Louisiana natives to play for NSU in the past 10 years. By contrast there have been 63 players on the roster from Texas in that same time.

DEMON ROYALTY

- Associate head coach Stacey Aldredge, formerly DiFrancesco, is one of the all-time greats in program history.
- She is NSU's all-time leader in kills (1,318) and ranks in the top 10 in eight other career categories. She is one of four players in program history to reach the 1,000/1,000 club, with the most kills and digs of anyone in the group.
- In May of 2019 she married former NSU tight end Justin Aldredge.
- He was an Academic All-American, joining his grandfather Corwyn Aldredge as the first grandfather/grandson combo to be named to the elite group at NSU.
- Aldredge led the team in touchdown receptions in his final two seasons and was awarded the Joe Delaney Memorial Leadership Award (2011).
- On July 3, 2023 the couple welcomed the latest addition to the royal family in daughter Finnley Jo Aldredge.

20-KILL MATCH?

- The Demon offense has been spreading the offensive wealth among its list of kill options for the past few seasons. The result, a drought in the eye-popping 20-kill match.
- Hannah Brister had 27 kills in the SLC Tournament match against Sam Houston on Nov. 23, 2019, the last time NSU had a 20-kill performance. Brister surpassed 20 kills in 10 matches that season, of the 11 total times any player did it, on her way to SLC Player of the Year honors.
- The closest player to recording 20 kills in a match since Brister before this year, was Breanna Burrell with 19 against UT Arlington on Sept. 18, 2021. Teresa Garza has reached the 19-kill mark twice this year -- vs. Southeastern and Lamar.
- It has been 93 matches since NSU had someone score 20 kills in a single match.

HOME IS WHERE THE MEAT PIES ARE

- The Demons, and their fans, have turned Prather Coliseum into a difficult place to win, especially of late.
- This year NSU is 6-2 in home matches, the only losses coming to UCLA and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, they won six straight matches between losses.
- The Demons are 8-2 in their last 10 home matches going back to last season.
- NSU has had a winning home record in each of the past five non-COVID affected seasons.
- The most home wins in a single season is nine in both the 2012 and 2014 seasons. The best home winning percentage is .900 (9-1) from the 2012 season. NSU has eight home matches remaining this season.

ALL-TOURNEY HONORS

- Reaghan Thompson was named to the Cougar Challenge All-Tournament Team in the second weekend of play at Washington State. Across three matches that weekend she totaled 16 kills, with a .342 attack percentage, and 16 blocks including nine in three sets against Drake.
- Amina Attra and Symone Wesley each received all-tournament honors at the NSU hosted Battle for the Boot. Attra averaged 4.6 assists per set and had a assist-dig double-double in the sweep of Louisiana Tech with 22 assists and a team-leading 14 digs. Wesley did a little of everything for the Demons during the weekend with 16 kills, 25 digs, seven blocks, seven assists and four aces across three matches.

50 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

- NSU is celebrating 50 years of program history throughout the 2023 season, dating back to the initial 1973 team.
- NSU volleyball has three members in the Northwestern State N-Club Athletics Hall of Fame - Robyn Justin was the first inductee in 2008, Tiffany Cronin entered in 2012 and multi-sport head coach Rickey McAllister joined in 2018.
- The Demons have won one Southland Conference Tournament title (2014) and been to the postseason on two occasions.
- NSU has had at least one player win each of the four postseason individual awards for the Southland Conference, taking Freshman of the Year the most at four and most recently with Symone Wesley being named Newcomer of the Year in 2021.
- Hannah Brister, winner of Southland Freshman of the Year and Player of the Year, was just the fifth player in conference history to win both awards in their careers. Brister was the top freshman player in 2017 and the top overall player two years later in 2019.

SEAN KIRACOFÉ

Sean Kiracofe is in his ninth season leading Northwestern State volleyball. During the 2022 season he became both the longest tenured coach and the one with the most overall wins in program history and will add to his lead in both places in 2023.

The Lady Demons recorded their fourth .500 or better season during conference play under Kiracofe in Southland Conference play during the 2022 season, the most by one coach in program history. The 19-win season by a largely young team was the fourth most by any team ever.

Kiracofe's wealth of knowledge as a blocker has helped NSU produce six of the top 10 blocking seasons during his tenure. In 2021, Jaylibeth Garcia-Rosa produced the then eighth highest single-season in total blocks of 99. A year later, the freshman duo of Reagan Thompson and Jordan Gamble became the first teammates to record 100 or more blocks in a single season in school history.

Thompson's 148 total blocks in 2022 were the second most in a single season as she also became the first player to record multiple kill-block double-doubles in the same season or career, leading her to an all-conference selection and LSWA Freshman of the Year honor.

His emphasis on defense was also proven by libero Ashlyn Svoboda and six-rotation outside hitter Symone Wesley being the first teammates to record 500 digs in the same season.

Wesley's defensive prowess came one year after she earned the Lady Demons' first Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year award. She totaled more than 300 digs and nearly matched that in kills with 292 for the season. She was the only player that season to rank in top 10 in both kills/set and digs/set.

NSU had one of its best seasons in program history in 2019 under Kiracofe. Behind the outstanding senior leadership of four-year stars Alexis Warren, Megan Lohmiller and Kourtney Seaton the Lady Demons recorded their 5th 20-win season and second postseason appearance.

Guiding those key players along with junior Hannah Brister who turned in one of the best seasons in NSU history, earning the first Southland and Louisiana Player of the Year awards for the Lady Demons, Kiracofe was the easy choice for Louisiana Coach of the Year in 2019.

In 2017, the Lady Demons posted double-figure conference victories for just the fourth time in program history while producing the Southland Conference Libero of the Year (Channing Burleson) and first-team all-conference selection Reagan Rogers.

Along with Burleson and Rogers earning All-Southland and All-Louisiana acclaim during their junior seasons, Kiracofe shepherded fellow junior Madeline Drake to one of the strongest defensive performances by a middle blocker in school history. Drake's 101 block assists rank third in school single-season history and put her within striking distance of a top-three career finish in block assists.

In 2016, the Lady Demons increased their win total by five from Kiracofe's first season and returning to the Southland Conference Tournament after a one-year absence.

Kiracofe's squad did so by relying on underclassmen such as Burleson, who tallied the third-highest single-season dig total in program history (572) and freshman middle blocker Kourtney Seaton, whose 89 block assists were the most by a freshman in school history and the third-highest single-season total in school history.

In his first season at NSU, Kiracofe helped mold middle blocker Glynna Johnson into a first-team All-Louisiana selection. Kiracofe's aggressive mentality paid off as the Lady Demons ranked 11th nationally in aces per set (1.69). Individually, Natalie Jaeger finished the season sixth nationally in aces per set (0.50).

Kiracofe came to Northwestern State armed with a reputation of being a technician, a developer of talent and an architect of successful programs.

Kiracofe became the 14th head coach in NSU program history on April 7, 2015, after his second stint as an assistant at SMU.

Kiracofe brought a decorated resume to the position, having coached at SMU, UNLV, Montana State and UTEP in a career that has spanned more than a decade.

Kiracofe spent his last four-year stint at SMU primarily developing middle blockers and coordinating the team's blocking strategy and efforts.

The results of Kiracofe's expertise were clear.

In 2011, his first season after returning to SMU, Kiracofe tutored Courtney Manning, the NCAA's leader in blocks (184). Kiracofe produced the top blocking team in the American Athletic Conference in 2014 and the 2011 Conference USA leaders in that category.

A native Texan, Kiracofe helped lead SMU to a 48-14 record in his final two seasons in Dallas and coached a pair of first-team all-conference middle blockers. Under Kiracofe's direction, SMU's Caroline Young was a three-time, first-team all-conference selection and an honorable mention All-American.

Kiracofe's experience, which also includes collegiate positions at UNLV, Montana State and UTEP alongside club positions with Tejas Volleyball Club, North Texas High Performance and the Austin Metro Volleyball Club, gave him an introduction on the various skills needed to run his own program.

Kiracofe is a 1999 graduate of Texas Tech with a bachelor of arts in political science and a minor in history. He was a four-year starter and a two-year captain for the Red Raiders club team, which he helped lead to top-25 rankings in 1998 and 1999.

His junior career was spent with the Austin Juniors club team that competed in the Junior Olympics each year from 1990-94. He became the first male from the state of Texas to be named to Volleyball Monthly's FAB 50 list, doing so in 1994.

Kiracofe began his coaching career in 1999 with the Austin Metro Volleyball Club. He spent four years with Austin Metro before joining Swanson's staff at UTEP in 2002.

After spending one year with the Miners, Kiracofe began his first stint at SMU.

In five seasons with the Mustangs, he produced a pair of all-conference middle blockers and a freshman all-conference middle blocker.

Kiracofe then spent two seasons at Montana State where he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. During his tenure with the Bobcats, he guided Kyla Hendry to an honorable mention all-conference season.

He moved to UNLV for one season, maintaining his dual role as assistant and recruiting coordinator with the Rebels, before returning to SMU.

Kiracofe and his wife, Kerri, have two children – a son, Walker, and a daughter, Reese.
