HOME OPENERS UNDER BARBIER HAVE BEEN EVENLY SPLIT

As Northwestern State welcomes LSU-Alexandria for the seventh home opener under head coach Bobby Barbier, the Demons will try to break a slight downward trend in home-opening games.

Northwestern State has dropped its past two home openers, falling to Stephen F. Austin in 2022 and to Tarleton in 2021. Those two defeats dropped the Demons to 3-3 in Barbier's home openers.

Prior to that, the Demons had won three straight Brown-Stroud Field openers, defeating Binghamton in 2018, Southern in 2019 and Wichita State in 2020.

THE SERIES WITH LSU-ALEXANDRIA

Northwestern State and LSU-Alexandria have become familiar faces in the past few years.

The Demons hold a 4-0 advantage in the all-time series, which began in 2014 and has been played in each of the past two seasons and three of the past four. The lone season in that stretch where the I-49 rivals did not square off was the COVID-19 pandemic-shortened 2020 season.

However, the Demons and Generals were scheduled to meet March 25, 2020, before the pandemic scuttled the season.

Senior outfielder Jeffrey Elkins has appeared in three previous games against the Generals, going 5-for-14 with a double, a home run and seven RBIs.

PRESTWICH EMERGING AS MID-WEEK OPENER CHOICE

Sophomore right-hander Chase Prestwich is scheduled to start tonight's game, marking the second straight season the Fredrick, Colorado, native will start the first mid-week game of the season for Northwestern State.

Prestwich started the 2022 mid-week opener against UL Lafayette, pitching 2 1-3 innings and taking the loss in an 11-8 Cajun win.

THREE DEMONS LAND ON PRESEASON ALL-SOUTHLAND TEAMS

Three Northwestern State players were included on the 2023 preseason All-Southland Conference teams.

All three are returning postseason All-Southland Conference selections — first-team designated hitter Bo Willis and second-team selections Daunté Stuart at second base and left-handed pitcher Cal Carver.

Willis was an all-conference selection in his debut season at Northwestern State while Carver earned his second all-conference selection in 2022 as did Stuart, making the duo 2-for-2 in making postseason all-conference teams as Demons.

DATTALO'S DEBUT COMES AS SURPRISE, TURNS OUT PRODUCTIVE

Head coach Bobby Barbier had no idea he was penciling freshman infielder Michael Dattalo's name into the opening-day lineup until less than 48 hours before the Demons took on South Alabama on Feb. 17.

As it turned out, putting Dattalo in the lineup was fortuitous for the Demons.

A corner infielder from Keller, Texas, Dattalo hit safely in all three games of the South Alabama Jaguar Classic, going 5-for-12 with a pair of RBIs. Included in his weekend was a 3-for-4 performance against UAB, marking the third straight season an NSU freshman has had a three-hit game and the second straight year it was done by a true freshman.

Gray Rowlett had three three-hit games in 2022 as a true freshman while Jake Haze produced a three-hit game in 2021 as a COVID freshman.

In addition to Dattalo, freshman shortstop Caleb Castle hit safely in two of the three games and reached base safely in all three.

DEMON DEBUT DAYS PLENTIFUL IN MOBILE

Northwestern State saw six new faces make their first Demon appearances during the season-opening South Alabama Jaguar Classic from Feb. 17-19.

Three position players — freshmen infielders Caleb Castle and Michael Dattalo and Colby Community College transfer outfielder Brayden Cust — were in the lineup on opening day while three pitchers — junior college transfers Kyle Froehlich and Corbin Talley and freshman Tyler Bryan — also saw their first Division I action.

Additionally, right-handed pitcher Alex Makarewich made his first career start after 31 relief appearances in his first two seasons.

ELKINS ENTERS SENIOR SEASON WITH EYE ON HOME RUN CROWN

In his fifth season on the Northwestern State roster, senior outfielder Jeffrey Elkins already has etched his name in the program's career top 10 in Demon home run history.

As his final season in Natchitoches begins, Elkins is within striking distance of the top spot in that category and should find himself in the top 10 in eight other categories.

Elkins enters tonight eight doubles, 10 walks, 12 RBIs, 15 runs, 24 total bases, 38 games, 45 hits and 86 at-bats shy of earning an outright place in the career top 10 in those categories.

With 24 career home runs, Elkins needs eight to surpass the All-American duo of David Fry and Daryl Woods shared home run record of 31.

MORE HISTORY POSSIBLE FOR ELKINS

In addition to being eight home runs shy of becoming Northwestern State's all-time leader in that category, senior outfielder Jeffrey Elkins can do something only one other Demon player has — produce a 30-30 career.

Elkins needs five stolen bases and six home runs to reach 30 for his career in each category. Should he hit those marks, he will join Chase Lyles as the only Demons to go 30-30 in a career.

Lyles homered 30 times — third-best in school history — and stole 78 bases — second in NSU history — from 2007-10.

CATCHERS CONTINUE TO SLUG FOR DEMONS

When Bailyn Sorensen connected on a solo home run against Eastern Kentucky in the second inning of the Demons' Feb. 19 loss, it made him the second straight catcher to hit Northwestern State's first home run of the season.

A year ago, Sorensen's fellow backstop, Bo Willis, crushed the Demons' first home run of the season, which also came on Feb. 19.

Sorensen's home run was the second of his career — both of which have been solo shots leading off innings and both of which have come on the road. Sorensen's first home run was April 6, 2022, at Lamar.

WHAT'S BACK FOR THE DEMONS?

Offensively, Northwestern State returns seven of its primary eight position players and its designated hitter. All told, NSU brings back 11 position players from its 2022 roster.

That group, which includes first-team All-Southland catcher Bo Willis, accounted for 78.2 percent (61) of the Demons' 78 doubles, 66.7 percent (36) of their 54 home runs, 66.2 percent (206) of their 301 RBIs and 52.8 percent (19) of their 36 stolen bases.

Northwestern State returns nine pitchers who were responsible for 304.2-3 of the Demons' 458 innings pitched (66.5 percent), 295 of the team's 404 strikeouts (73 percent) and pitched to a 5.25 ERA.

DUTCHTOWN LINE AT SHORT COMES TO AN END

For the first six seasons of his head coaching career, Bobby Barbier has not had to worry about who to pencil in the lineup at shortstop.

Caleb Ricca manned the position from 2017-19 before being drafted by the Seattle Mariners. Starting with the pandemic-shortened 2020 season, Cam Sibley locked down the spot for the next three seasons before graduating this past spring.

When Caleb Castle started at shortstop against South Alabama on Feb. 17, it marked the end of a six-year run for Dutchtown High School and NSU. Both Ricca and Sibley attended Dutchtown, which is located in the Baton Rouge suburb of Geismar.

While Sibley has graduated, there is one former Dutchtown Griffin on the NSU roster. Right-handed pitcher Will Reed played his high school ball at Dutchtown before pitching two seasons at Delgado Community College in New Orleans.

BROWN STINGY NO MATTER THE ROLE

Right-handed pitcher Drayton Brown will begin his junior year as a starter pitcher for the second straight year.

Regardless of whatever role Brown has filled, one thing has remained constant — the junior from Nacodogoches, Texas, does not allow many hits.

In his two seasons, which included a six-save freshman season in 2021, Brown has surrendered an average of 6.23 hits per nine innings, a number that ranks among the top 10 among active Division I pitchers (minimum 75 innings pitched) entering the 2023 season.

Brown continued that trend in his season-opening start Feb. 19 against Eastern Kentucky, allowing three hits in 5.2-3 innings.

CAN DEMONS EXTEND POWER FIVE STREAK?

Since Bobby Barbier took over the reins at his alma mater in the 2017 season, his Demons have scored at least one victory against a Power Five conference foe in each year NSU has faced such an opponent.

The lone exception in that six-year span was the COVID-19 pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign where the Demons did not face a Power Five opponent before the season was shuttered 16 games into it.

This season the Demons have five chances to extend the run to six straight as they face Oregon in a four-game series in Eugene from March 24-26 and travel to LSU on May 9.

The Tigers are the consensus No. 1 team in the nation's preseason polls while Oregon is ranked anywhere from 19th (Collegiate Baseball) to 25th (D1Baseball.com).

BASH BROTHERS REDUX?

During the 2022 season, Jeffrey Elkins and Bo Willis did something not seen at Northwestern State in nearly five decades.

Both Elkins (13) and Willis (11) crossed the 10-home run plateau, making them the first Demon teammates to hit at least 10 home runs in a season since Darryl Woods (19) and Tommy Henry (11) in 1974.

Elkins' 13 home runs placed him in a tie for sixth on NSU's single-season home run list while he moved into a tie for eighth with 24 career home runs.

CARVER OPENING A SERIES HAS BECOME COMMONPLACE

Northwestern State left-hander Cal Carver began his college career at Wichita State in 2019, but the Lincoln, Nebraska, native has made a home in Natchitoches, especially on Friday nights.

Carver made his second opening-night start as a Demon when NSU opens the season against South Alabama on Feb. 17, making him the first Demon pitcher to start consecutive season openers since Nathan Jones in 2018-19.

Dating to May 14, 2021, Carver has been the Demons' first starting pitcher in a weekend series or a tournament for 17 straight weekends.

Carver becomes the third Demon in the past decade to make multiple starts in season openers, joining Jones and Adam Oiler (2015-16). Carver's run of 17 straight starts in series or tournament openers is the longest for a Demon since Ridge Heisler started 24 straight across the 2018-19 seasons.

A preseason second-team All-Southland Conference selection, Carver has started 30 games in a Demon uniform and entered the 2023 season as NSU's active leader in that category as well as wins (11), appearances (32), strikeouts (175), innings pitched (186.2-3) and complete games (3).

With six strikeouts against South Alabama, Carver moved into a tie for ninth on NSU's all-time strikeout list, matching current Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame artist Chris Brown with 181.

Carver needs seven starts, eight wins, and 50 1-3 innings pitched to enter the school's career top-10 in those categories.

2023 SCHEDULE FEATURES UNIQUE START

Northwestern State plays its first opening-weekend tournament since 2009 when it travels to the South Alabama Jaguar Classic.

The Demons follow that with a second straight tournament a week later, taking part in the Sugar Land Classic at Constellation Field.

Because of the back-to-back tournament weekends, the Demons will face seven different opponents in the first seven games of the season. NSU's run of unique opponents will end when it faces Stephen F. Austin to close out the Sugar Land Classic on Feb. 26 before hosting the Lumberjacks in a mid-week game Feb. 28.

NSU's five scheduled neutral-site games match the number the Demons played a season ago, although three of those were the result of inclement weather that moved NSU's three-game series against Oklahoma to Globe Life Field, home of the Texas Rangers.

KELLER CONNECTIONS GROW DEEPER ...

There are 287 miles between Keller, Texas, and Natchitoches, according to Google Maps.

The Northwestern State baseball team, however, is attempting to shrink that distance year by year. For the third straight season, the Demon roster features a freshman from Keller High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex.

Following junior right-handed pitcher Alex Makarewich and sophomore first baseman Gray Rowlett is freshman infielder Michael Dattalo, who could see time at either corner infield spot in his first season at the Division I level.

... AS DOES THE DEMONS' CANADIAN PIPELINE

On a more macro level than its Keller connection, Northwestern State also has become a destination for Canadian baseball players.

For the sixth straight season, there will be at least one Canadian on the Demon roster. The 2023 season also marks the third straight in which more than one Canuck will wear the Demon uniform.

This year's Canadian connection is a trio — senior right-handed pitcher Ethan Francis (Miscouche, Prince Edward Island), junior outfielder Brayden Cust (Sherwood Park, Alberta) and junior pitcher/DH Kyle Froehlich (Nipawin, Saskatchewan).

All three played junior college baseball at Colby Community College before transferring to Northwestern State.

D1BASEBALL.COM AGAIN LIKES DEMONS' DRAFT PROSPECTS

Northwestern State has produced the top Southland Conference draft pick in five of the past six years, including in 2022 when Johnathan Harmon was drafted in the 13th round by the Cincinnati Reds.

According to D1Baseball.com, the Demons have their share of potential draftees again this season. Five of the publication's top 26 Southland Conference draft prospects are NSU players — No. 8 2B Daunté Stuart, No. 11 RHP Andrew Cossio, No. 16 RHP Alex Makarewich, No. 25 RHP Drayton Brown and No. 26 OF Jeffrey Elkins.

Additionally, the Demons have two of the conference's top four prospects for the 2024 MLB Draft — No. 2 C Bailyn Sorensen and No. 4 1B Gray Rowlett.

Finally, freshman shortstop/right-handed pitcher Caleb Castle was named the conference's No. 9 impact freshman in D1's preseason conference survey.
