SATURDAY'S RECAP

Makenna Tryon had a career-high 14 kills and added 10 digs despite while the Northwestern State Demons took one set from the East Texas A&M Lions before falling 3-1 (25-19, 25-23, 18-25 and 25-15) Saturday on the road in Southland Conference action.

The Demons had the lead midway through the first set 12-11 after Jade Longlad's kill. However, the Lions scored six of the next seven to take a 17-13 lead. The Demons closed the gap to two, 17-15, after a kill by Julia Whitfield and an attack error by the Lions. But ETAM scored the next four to take a 22-16 advantage before clinching the set.

In the second set, NSU had a 15-13 lead going into the media timeout following Whitfield's fourth kill of the match. But coming out of the timeout, the Lions went on a 7-1 run to take a 20-16 lead late in the set. The Demons responded as they cut the lead to 21-19 after a kill by Olivia Bush and Tryon. NSU eventually cut the Lions' lead to one, 24-23, after a kill by Samaya Wesson, an ace by Emmarie McFarland and an assisted block by Melis Ozipek and Deja Benjamin. But Giana Brown's kill sealed the set for ETAM.

The Demons really came out strong in the third set as they had a 15-10 lead following a kill by Wesson. NSU stretched their lead out to 21-15 late in the third set after two more kills by Wesson and an ace by Reagan Hamm. Wesson and Benjamin's assisted block would clinch the third set win for the Demons. The win was the first set victory in conference play for the Demons.

However, in the fourth set the Lions came out strong, taking a 9-3 lead and never looked back as they stormed to the win and series sweep over the Demons.

The Demons were led by Tryon's 14 kills and 10 digs for her first career double-double. Wesson added 11 kills while Emmarie McFarland had 10 digs. NSU also ended with 10 ½ blocks led by Whitfield and Wesson with 2 ½ each.

NSU NICKNAME STANDS ALONE

Northwestern State may share a piece of its name with the Big Ten's Northwestern University, but another part of NSU's identity is its alone.

Northwestern State's use of Demons is unique among NCAA Division I volleyball teams.

DePaul is NSU's closest mascot neighbor with its use of Blue Demons.

CUE THE REPLACEMENTS

Northwestern State will be getting its offense and backrow defense from all new sources in 2025 after the departure of its top two six-rotation outside hitters, both setters and libero.

The Demons lost 65 percent of their kills from a year ago with the departure of senior Teresa Garza and the transfer of junior Reaghan Thompson. Both recorded over 300 kills on the season and flirted with 300 digs on top of that. Add the graduation of libero Ashlyn Svoboda and the Demons bring back less than 10 percent of their total digs from a year ago, just 94 total of the 1,323 on the year.

They return just 14 assists from the 2024 team, another stat category where they bring back less than 10 percent of their production from a season ago. The most assists in a season by an NSU player entering this season is five from Olivia Bush and Samaya Wesson.

NSU returns less than half of their production from last season across four different categories – kills, digs, assists, aces.

They bring back 133.5 of the 216.0 blocks (61.8%) thanks to the middle combo of Deja Benjamin and Samaya Wesson, who each ranked in the top 10 in the conference in total blocks last year.

BENJAMINS FOR BENJAMIN

For the past two seasons middle blocker Deja Benjamin has been one of the best and most productive middles in the Southland Conference.

After leading then Texas A&M-Commerce with 107 blocks in 2023, she upped her total in her first year at NSU last season with a career high 117, with a 1.29 block per set average.

Her 1.29 per set average was the second highest in the Southland last year and the second highest for a single-season at NSU.

She has finished fourth in the Southland in total blocks in each of the past two seasons and is one of just two players in the conference with 100 or more blocks in each of those years. (Audrey Pearce, HCU)

This year Benjamin is searching for her third straight 100-block season, which would give NSU four straight seasons with a player reaching that milestone and set a new program best for consecutive individual 100-block seasons.

Benjamin tied the mark with her 117 a year ago that followed two straight record-setting performances from Reagan Thompson. Thompson set the freshman block record with 148 in 2022 and broke the school single-season record with 164 in 2023.

The only other time NSU has had a player reach 100 blocks in three straight seasons was from 2013-15. They were all done by NSU's all-time career block record holder Glynn Johnson – 127 in 2013; 160 in 2014; 101 in 2015.

NEW DEMONS, NEAR...

First-year head coach Ben Kaszeta's ties to the growth of volleyball in Louisiana is already showing itself in his first roster as the Demon head coach.

The 2025 version of NSU volleyball features three players from the state of Louisiana, while not an overwhelming number, it is the most Pelican State players on one team since 1999. Harper Cauley (Ruston), Riley Schubert (Covington) and Julia Whitfield (Mandeville) make up the largest class of Louisiana natives to play volleyball at NSU since the turn of the century.

Prior to this season there were only four Louisiana natives to play for the Demons over the previous 11 years – Lorelei Freling (2023-24), Reagan Lee (2018-21), Hannah Brister (2017-19), Jessica Guttierrez (2010-13).

The last team to have three Louisiana players in 1999 team featured Lori Dyer (River Ridge), Leslie Landry (Morgan City) and April George (St. Martinville).

NEW DEMONS, FAR...

While head coach Ben Kaszeta has begun tapping into the talent within the state of Louisiana, he simultaneously has looked beyond the borders of the United States to add to his roster.

This year the Demons have three international student-athletes – Jade Longlad (Canada), Melis Özipek (Türkiye) and Elsie Sanchez Oliver (Spain).

CAREER MILESTONES

Player	Next	Current #
Deja Benjamin.....	500 kills	473
Deja Benjamin.....	300 blocks	286
Olivia Bush	200 kills	197
Olivia Bush	100 blocks	86
Samaya Wesson.....	350 kills	334
Samaya Wesson.....	250 blocks	212

It is the most international players on one roster since the Demons had four back in 2007, all of which hailed from Minas Gerais, Brazil. A state in southeastern Brazil sandwiched between the capital Basilia and Rio de Janeiro.

The set of three international players on this year's team are the first for the Demons since Luan Henriquez, who was part of the four Brazilain on the 2007 team, played here in 09.

NSU did have a middle blocker from Puerto Rico, Jaylibeth Garcia-Rosa, for two years in 2020-21. She was the last player not from the contiguous United States to play for NSU.

SCHUBERT A TWO-SPORT STAR

Multi-sport athletes are a commonplace in this day and age, but there are few in the state of Louisiana that had the success across multiple sports that freshman Riley Schubert had in her four year prep career.

Schubert, who attended Archbishop Hannan in her hometown of Covington was a star middle on the volleyball court and goalkeeper on the soccer pitch for the Hawks.

In her college sport of choice, she was a 2023 state champion, finished as state runner up in 2024 and had a record of 105-21 on the court in her final three seasons.

The volleyball success didn't stop with her high school team either. During her club seasons with WD Nation and Infnit South, she won eight tournament and finished second in four more.

As the keeper on the Archbishop Hannan soccer team she tied a school record with 11 clean sheets in consecutive seasons, collecting 40 total in her career and was an all-state honoree and defensive player of the year as a senior.

She led the Hawks to the final four of the LHSAA soccer playoffs in each of her four years there.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

With eight freshmen on the 13-player roster in 2025, Northwestern State percentage wise is the youngest team in all of Division I volleyball, with 61.5 percent of the roster either a true or redshirt freshman.

The eight freshmen are the second most on one team in NSU program history, only behind the nine from the 2011 team.

There are only seven schools in the nation this year with more than eight freshmen.

That freshman class included the likes of Stacey Aldredge, Mackenzie Neely, Keelie Arneson and Vanessa Coleman that were all part of NSU conference championship team during their senior seasons of 2014, earned six different all-conference selections, still hold four career individual records and are featured in the top 10 on 10 other occasions in the NSU record books.

HAMM'S COMEBACK SEASON

Although technically a returner since she was with the team a year ago, redshirt freshman setter Reagan Hamm is in her first year of college volleyball this season.

Hamm suffered a fracture in L5 vertebra of the spine in her lower back in early August of 2024 that forced her to miss the entire season.

She came to NSU expecting to contribute right away during her freshman season. The injury changed that plan, but in turn offered Hamm an opportunity to grow.

"Having to sit and watch my teammates play a whole year without me hurt," she said. "There was definitely a lot of depression at the time. But I think I needed that struggle. God says that He takes you through valleys and brings you out of them. You don't realize the why until after the fact a lot of the time. The injury helped me to grow as a person and an athlete."

She was a highly touted setter coming out of high school, ranked in the top 15 in Texas at the position.

She tallied over 1,000 assists as a junior and had seven triple-doubles during her senior season.

Hamm is also the daughter of Jason Hamm, who played basketball for Bill Musselman at South Alabama before coaching in college and the NBA with his son Eric Musselman.

BEN KASZETA

Ben Kaszeta was named the 16th head coach in Northwestern State volleyball program history in January of 2025.

Kaszeta comes to Natchitoches following a year in Beaumont, Texas, where he was part of the staff that engineered one of the largest single-season turnarounds in the country at Lamar. Northwestern State marks the third Southland Conference stop in Kaszeta's career that also featured a stint as an assistant at McNeese.

The 13-win improvement at Lamar, constructed by Kaszeta and first-year head coach Ariel Apolinario, was the third-best in the NCAA in 2024 as the Cardinals went 15-14 on the year, their first winning season since 2009, and earned the first trip to the Southland Conference Tournament since 2011.

Under Kaszeta's guidance, Lamar freshman outside hitter Maja Malinowska finished sixth in the conference in kills per set (3.61) and seventh in points per set (4.08) to become the Cardinals' first all-conference player since 2016.

The turnaround at Lamar was just the latest instance in Kaszeta's career that a team enjoyed a double-digit win increase with him on staff.

In 2017, Kaszeta's first season as associate head coach at Louisiana, the Ragin Cajuns saw an 11-win improvement from the previous season, also sparked by a talented freshman outside. Hali Wisnoskie was named Sun Belt Freshman of the Year, an AVCA Southwest Region honorable mention and produced the second most kills by a freshman in program history during the rally scoring era.

Wisnoskie was one of six all-conference players for the Cajuns during Kaszeta's two seasons in Lafayette from 2017-18.

The Rochester, Mich., native and Eastern Michigan graduate began his collegiate coaching career as a head coach at Mott Community College in Michigan from 2007 through 2009 – the first of his four head coaching positions at the collegiate level prior to his arrival at NSU.

After a one-year stint at his alma mater as a volunteer assistant in 2010, where the Eagles experienced a record 19-win increase from the previous season, Kaszeta took over at Lake Superior State for two seasons before making his first foray to Louisiana and the Southland Conference.

Kaszeta's served as an assistant at McNeese in 2013, where he helped lead the Cowgirls to their first winning season in four years, before following head coach Terry Gamble from Lake Charles to Jacksonville State the following season.

His ability to develop players has also made him highly successful on the club volleyball scene throughout his coaching career.

He helped found three different club programs, where he also served as coach and trainer, and worked with numerous club teams and organizations across Michigan, Louisiana, North Dakota and Alabama.

His most recent efforts include time with the Cajun Elite club, based out of Lafayette, where he was the lead trainer and recruiting director. Kaszeta was a catalyst for the clubs rapid expansion from 18 teams to 68 in a few years. Cajun Elite qualified six teams for nationals in the span of six years thanks to the guidance and training Kaszeta provided to both players and coaches.

As a high school coach in both Michigan and Louisiana, Kaszeta produced a 153-45 (.773) overall record across six seasons.

Kaszeta received his bachelor's degree from Eastern Michigan in 2010.
