THE HEAD COACHES . . . NSU's ROB ROBINSON (William Jewell, '00) is in his first season as the RiverHawks head coach . . . he was named the 19th head football coach in school history on Dec. 19, 2013 . . . he owns a 0-6 all-time record . . . Robinson spent the previous 12 years under Craig Schurig as a member of the Washburn Ichabod coaching staff, serving as the offensive coordinator for the last four seasons . . . he also directed the running backs from 2007-13 and coached the wide receivers from 2002-06 . . . he served as the recruiting coordinator from 2002-10 and was the academic coordinator from 2010-13 . . . Robinson was an integral member of a Washburn staff that completely turned around the Ichabod program . . . Washburn averaged 3.3 wins from 1989-03 and had just one winning season, but the Ichabods averaged 7.9 wins from 2004-13 and posted 10 straight winning campaigns . . . Robinson is the second former coordinator under Schurig's tutelage to become the head coach of another program, joining Fort Hays State's Chris Brown . . . Robinson spent the 2001 season at Pittsburg State as a graduate assistant, coaching the defensive backs with Ichabod head coach Craig Schurig . . . the Gorillas won the MIAA Championship that year.

MSSU'S DARYL DAYE (LSU, '86) is in his third season with the Lions . . . he has compiled a 15-12 record during his tenure . . . Daye was named the 11th HC in the history of Missouri Southern football on December 16, 2011 . . . in his second season at the helm of the Lions, Daye lifted the program to a level unseen in the past 20 years . . . the Lions finished the season 7-3 overall and were 5-3 in the MIAA. Southern also broke a 20-year drought with a 35-21 win at No. 9 Pittsburg

State in the season-finale . . . the Lions won for the first time in Pittsburg since 1983 and for the first time against the Gorillas since 1999 . . . nine Lions were named All-MIAA, and 11 players were named to the MIAA Academic Honor Roll . . . in all, the Lions ranked in the top 10 nationally in nine different categories, while ranking 14th in turnovers lost . . . in his first season as the head coach with the Lions, Daye led the team to a 6-5 record, its first winning season since 2007 and just the third winning season in the prior 20 years . . . he helped mentor the Division II National Defensive Player of the Year as Brandon Williams broke the Southern sack record and was named to five different All-America teams. Williams was also selected to play in the Senior Bowl . . . Daye came back to Southern after serving two seasons with the NFL's Buffalo Bills as Assistant to the Head Coach . . . he assisted Defensive Coordinator Dave Wannstedt in coaching the inside linebackers and also helped to coach the special teams units . . . prior to his stint with the Bills, Daye served for four years with the Lions as the team's defensive coordinator . . . he was also the special teams coach and also coached the Southern linebackers.

TRICKERATION . . . The Northeastern State offense has yet to score a point in three road games this season . . . the RiverHawks' special teams, however, got on the board in the second quarter against Northwest Missouri State on Oct. 4 . . . NSU came out in punt formation from NWMSU's 45-yard line midway through the second quarter, and Daniel Murray's snap went to upback Prince McJunkins instead of punter Garrett Powell . . . McJunkins waited momentarily for Peter Udoumoh to get behind the defense, and he found the sophomore defensive back wide open for a touchdown . . . the points were the first in the second quarter by NSU this season and are the only road points for the RiverHawks so far in 2014 . . . Northeastern State has still yet to score in a third quarter this year.

SCHEDULE RELIEF . . . The RiverHawks played the most difficult schedule of any MIAA program through the first five weeks . . . the teams Northeastern State has faced through the first five weeks of 2014 were a combined 18-7 . . . the 72 percent win percentage was the highest strength of schedule of any team in the conference, and the 22 combined victories currently rank third in the nation for opponent wins . . . the back half of the season for Northeastern State looked dramatically different from the first five contests, as the final six teams on NSU's docket were a combined 12-18 (40 percent) after five weeks . . . the five teams NSU faced to start the year were Pittsburg State (5-1), Fort Hays State (3-3), Missouri Western State (4-2), Emporia State (3-3), and Northwest Missouri State (6-0) . . . the final six opponents are Nebraska-Kearney (1-5), Missouri Southern State (2-4), Central Missouri (4-2), Central Oklahoma (5-1), Washburn (2-4), and Lindenwood (1-5).

NOTES FROM THE EMPORIA STATE GAME . . . After NSU posted just 13 points total through the first three games of the season, the RiverHawks exploded for 35 points and 504 yards of total offense against Emporia State . . . the RiverHawks fell in double overtime to the Hornets by a 42-35 scoreline, which was the first double OT game for NSU since Nov. 11, 2006 . . . quarterback Kevin Pantastico broke school records for completions (34) and attempts (56) . . . he also threw for a career-high 369 yards - which was the most by an NSU QB since 2011 - and a pair of touchdowns . . . he had 26 yards rushing and a TD run in overtime . . . he led NSU on three TD drives of 52, 75 and 79 yards in the fourth quarter to send the game to OT . . . NSU trailed by 14 points twice in the final quarter before scoring the third TD with less than a minute to play in regulation . . . Terrance Dixon's first rushing touchdown early in the fourth quarter was the first TD on the ground for NSU this year . . . the RiverHawks were also penalized 201 yards, which broke both the school's all-time record and the MIAA's all-time record for penalty yards in a single game . . . NSU was flagged for 19 penalties, which broke the school's all-time record for most penalties called against a team in a single game . . . the mark also tied the MIAA's all-time record, which was matched most recently by Central Missouri in 1999 . . . NSU ran a school-record 90 plays, which broke a mark that hasn't been equaled since Sept. 27, 1980 . . . Garrett Powell had a career-high 14 receptions for 179 yards . . . Northeastern State finished the game with 135 yards rushing, which was the first time in 2014 that NSU eclipsed the 100-yard plateau on the ground. . . the 21 points NSU scored in the fourth quarter was the most points in a quarter since the RiverHawks had 24 in the second frame against Lincoln on Nov. 3, 2012 . . . the last time NSU scored 21 points in a fourth quarter was against East Central on Sept. 27, 2008 . . . there have only been three double overtime games in NCAA Division II this season (Catawba defeated Newberry 37-34 on Sept. 20, Central Oklahoma defeated Missouri Southern State 43-41 on Oct. 11).

FIELD GOAL WOES . . . Northeastern State was one of just two teams in the entire country (Malone University) to not have attempted a field goal in the first five games of the season . . . both the RiverHawks and Pioneers missed field goals in their sixth game on Oct. 11 . . . there are currently eight teams in the NCAA that have failed to make a field goal through the first six weeks, and NSU and MU are the only two teams in the country to only have attempted one . . . Northeastern State graduated one of the most prolific field goal kickers in school history last season in Drew Patton . . . he finished his career with 39 made field goals and 223 points . . . Dylan Beers and Blake Williams have split time serving as NSU's extra point kicker and kickoff specialist this season . . . the lone missed field goal was attempted by Beers, and it was blocked by Nebraska-Kearney.

FROM RECEIVER TO LEADING THE D . . . Sophomore Steffon Herd came to NSU as a wide receiver . . . he played in 10 games and made four starts as a redshirt freshman in 2013, and he finished the campaign with 14 receptions for 217 yards . . . due to depth issues in the secondary, new coach Rob Robinson made the decision to convert Herd to safety . . . that decision is paying off in spades, as Herd leads the RiverHawks in both total tackles (44) and solo tackles (35) through six weeks this season . . . his solo tackle total ranks 25th in the country this season.

POWER OUTAGE . . . Northeastern State has struggled on the offensive side of the ball in five of the first six games this season, specifically in the running game . . . NSU failed to reach 100 yards rushing in four contests, posting totals of 48, 48, 67, 135, 24, and 105 to start the season . . . this past week against Nebraska-Kearney, NSU reached the 100-yard plateau thanks in large part to a 72-yard run by Derrick Moore late in the contest when the RiverHawks were already down 34-0 . . . of 167 NCAA Division II teams, Northeastern State currently ranks in the bottom 15 in 11 categories . . . NSU ranks low in total offense (154), rushing offense (159), scoring offense (162), scoring defense (152), turnover margin (163), team passing efficiency (155), turnovers gained (158), passes had intercepted (158), fewest penalty yards per game (158), fewest penalties per game (158), and red-zone offense (167) . . . Northeastern State was shutout in two of its first three games this season . . . the last time NSU was shutout twice in one season was 1986 . . . the last time NSU began the season with two shutouts in the first three games of the year was 1938.

RECONSTRUCTING THE O-LINE . . . From left to right, Northeastern State entered the 2014 season with a projected starting offensive line of Ethan James (LT), Jonathan Brown (LG), Ross Dvorak (C), Trevon Lawson (RG), and Tyler Easter (RT) . . . due to a plethora of injuries, the front five looks much different heading into Week 7 of the season . . . the projected starting lineup this week is Brown (LT), Lawson (LG), Anthony Frazier (C), Brian West (RG), and Easter (RT) . . . James was hurt in the preseason and will miss the entire year . . . redshirt freshman Dakota Ritchie started the first game of the year at the left tackle position, but he suffered a season-ending injury in that contest . . . Dvorak was recently ruled out for the season . . . Lawson, Frazier and Chance Douthit have all missed time due to injury . . . NSU has started a different offensive-line unit in all six games this season . . . Brown and Easter are the only two who have started all six games.

ROBINSON ON THE RADIO . . . Northeastern State football coach Rob Robinson, in conjunction with Lakes Country 102.1 FM, has announced the debut of the new Rob Robinson Coach's Show . . . the weekly show is held at Mazzio's Pizza in Tahlequah on Thursday nights at 6 p.m. . . . it began Sept. 4 and will run through the end of the football season . . . the host of the coaches show is Matt Reynolds . . . Robinson will be live each week highlighting last week's contest and previewing NSU's upcoming MIAA matchup . . . various assistant coaches and players will join the show throughout the season . . . NSU encourages students, faculty and fans to come out and support the RiverHawks football program every Thursday night at Mazzio's . . . Mazzio's is located at 1712 S. Muskogee Avenue . . . all 11 Northeastern State football games will also be broadcast live on 102.1 FM this season.

THE SEASON OPENER . . . Northeastern State opened the 2014 season against No. 9 Pittsburg State University for the third year in a row . . . the Rob Robinson debut was seen by the fourth-largest crowd in Carnie Smith Stadium history (10,814) . . . Steffon Herd made his first start on the defensive side of the ball and finished the game with a team-high eight tackles . . . six different RiverHawks made their first start in the green and white, and those were Romon Beard, Garrett Powell, Dakota Ritchie, Tyler Easter, Kevin Pantastico and Michael Davis . . . the contest also marked the first time NSU was shutout since Sept. 5, 2009 . . . the NSU defense held Jeff Seybold to a career-low 14 yards rushing . . . Seybold was an All-MIAA First Team member a year ago . . . the RiverHawks also had more fourth-down conversions (3-for-5) than third-down conversions (2-for-16).

THE RETURN OF THE ROCK . . . Joel Rockmore returned for his junior campaign after missing most of last year . . . the shifty running back was injured in the second game in 2013 and was awarded a medical redshirt . . . he made the start in the season opener and finished with 13 yards rushing before leaving with a minor injury . . . he has since returned to the lineup, and he currently has 1,874 career rushing yards, 15 career rushing touchdowns and 2,757 career all-purpose yards . . . he finished the 2012 campaign as the nation's 23rd-ranked rusher (113.8 ypg), and he was also 22nd in all-purpose yards (151.4 ypg) . . . he only rushed for 13 yards in the first two games of the season and averaged 126.4 yards rushing over the final eight games . . . he rushed for at least 100 yards in six of his last eight games, including a career-high 198 yards on 33 carries Nov. 10 against Central Oklahoma . . . he had a stretch of four-straight contests where he eclipsed his career high for carries in a game, with his newest mark of 38 coming against the Bearcats . . . Rockmore also recorded 200 all-purpose yards three times, against Washburn (211), Missouri Western (203) and UCO (223) . . . he was named to the All-MIAA Second Team and the Don Hansen All-Super Region Three Third Team for his efforts in 2012 . . . he was also named a 2013 USA College Football Division II Preseason All-American prior to last year.

the most by any NSU team in the modern era and the most by any NCAA team in a single game last season . . . the feat was so rare, there have been two NSU teams in the modern era (2004, '05) that recorded five interceptions all season . . . those that picked off Ichabod QB's were Kyler Harris (2), Chandler Barr, Carson Smallwood, and Darrain Winston . . . not to be outdone, the RiverHawks matched that effort against Central Oklahoma in a 45-38 victory in the regular-season finale, making them the only team in the MIAA with two 5-INT efforts last year . . . Langston Jones (2), Harris, Winston, and Barr all posted picks against the Bronchos.

JONES EARNS ALL-AMERICAN ACCOLADE . . . Langston Jones was named to the 2013 Don Hansen NCAA Division II All-America Honorable Mention Team, giving NSU its second All-American in as many years (Michael Bowie in 2012) . . . the linebacker was the leading tackler from Super Region 3 (for the second-straight year) by a 21-tackle margin . . . he finished fourth in the NCAA in both total tackles (141) and tackles per game (12.8) . . . the versatile player also ranked 12th in the MIAA in tackles for loss (9.0) and 15th in pass breakups (8), while finishing with a pair of interceptions. He is fourth in career tackles (387) amongst all active Division II players . . . Jones was also honored as the 2013 Oklahoma State College All-Star Defensive Player of the Year, and he was named to the 2013 Daktronics All-Super Region 3 Second Team and the All-MIAA Second Team . . . he was also named to the 2013 Don Hansen All-Super Region 3 Second Team . . . a total of 168 players earned some form of Don Hansen All-America honors. Players from 78 of the 166 football-playing schools in Division II earned Don Hansen All-America accolades.

NSU SELECTED LAST IN PRESEASON POLLS . . . The Northeastern State football team was picked to finish 12th in both the 2014 MIAA Pre-season Coaches' and Media Polls . . . the RiverHawks collected 17 points in the coaches' poll and 66 points in the media poll . . . they were selected to finish 10th in the media poll and 11th in the coaches' poll last season . . . Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State locked down the top two spots in both rankings . . . the Bearcats brought in 11 of 12 first-place votes (121 total) in the coaches' poll and raked in 37 of 39 first-place votes (466 total) in the media poll . . . Pittsburg State earned one first-place vote in both polls and was slotted second with 106 and 422 total votes, respectively . . . Central Missouri was picked third in the coaches' poll with 94 points and sixth in the media poll with 285 points. Emporia State (88) and Missouri Western State (82) rounded out the top 5 in the coaches' poll, while the Hornets (353), Griffons (348) and Washburn (306) comprised the rest of the top 5 in the media poll . . . NSU finished 2-9 overall a year ago and tied for 11th in the conference with a 2-8 league mark.

GAME 1 • SEPT. 6 • PITTSBURG, KAN. • CARNIE SMITH STADIUM (10,814)

	NORTHEASTERN STATE	0	0-1, 0-1
	#9 PITTSBURG STATE	37	1-0, 1-0

GAME NOTES

- The RiverHawks dropped their season opener for the third-straight year and for the 10th time in the last 12 seasons. Rob Robinson also made his coaching debut.
- The announced attendance of 10,814 was the fourth largest in Carnie Smith Stadium history.
- Steffon Herd made his first start on the defensive side of the ball for NSU. He led the team with eight total tackles (seven solo).
- Six RiverHawks made their first start in the green and white (Romon Beard, Garrett Powell, Dakota Ritchie, Tyler Easter, Kevin Pantastico, and Michael Davis).
- This was the first time the RiverHawks were shutout since Sept. 5, 2009, when they lost 6-0 to Tarleton State.
- NSU had more 4th-down conversions (3-for-5) than 3rd-down conversions (2-for-16).
- Pitt State running back Jeff Seybold, who was named to the All-MIAA First Team a season ago, was held to a career-low 14 yards rushing.
