THE MATCHUP

Northeastern State leads the overall series 7-4 over the Ichabods but in Topeka, the RiverHawks hold two wins in five appearances in Lee Arena. The RiverHawks won in the opening round of the 2014 MIAA Tournament (79-75) and during the 2016 regular season (70-67). Both teams have met once in the NCAA Tournament during NSU's 2003 National Championship season.

THE COACHES

Mark Downey was introduced as NSU's tenth men's basketball coach on April 11, 2017 and carries a 207-114 overall head coaching record, with four NCAA Division II Tournament Appearances, and has been named Coach of the Year six times. Downey comes to NSU after two seasons at Fort Wayne (NCAA DI) as the program's top assistant on the bench, and has helped the Mastodons to appearances in the Collegiansider.com Tournament (CIT) and the NIT, while going 44-23. Prior to Fort Wayne, Downey spent the 2014-15 season at Bowling Green where they went 20-12, and he helped direct them into the second round of the CIT.

Brett Ballard (44-33) is in his first season as head coach at Washburn and was named on April 6, 2016 after spending the 2014-15 to 2016-17 seasons as an assistant coach with the Wake Forest basketball program after working under head coach Danny Manning 2014-17 seasons and at the University of Tulsa during the 2012-14 seasons. Before joining Tulsa, Ballard spent two seasons as the head basketball coach at Baker University going 33-30 overall, including a 21-12 mark in his final season at the helm in 2011-12.

LAST TIME OUT FOR NORTHEASTERN STATE

Northeastern State erased a ten point second half deficit but could not hold onto a late lead to fall 77-66 on Saturday evening to Lincoln at the NSU Event Center. The RiverHawks pulled ahead by eight points with eight minutes to go but a run of 14 straight points by the Blue Tigers back peddled NSU to their ninth consecutive loss. NSU had three in double-figure scoring with graduate guard Jamir Andrews having 13 points, Coryon Mason and Tanner Mouse both added 12. Montre' Williams scored eight on Saturday to bring the senior to 910 career points.

LAST TIME OUT FOR WASHBURN

The Washburn Ichabods used a 9-0 second half spurt turning a three-point lead into a 12-point advantage en route to their ninth-straight win in an 83-69 win over Emporia State in the first edition of the Turnpike Tussle. Javion Blake led the Ichabods with 22 points inching closer to 1,000 career points lifting his two-plus year total to 974 points.

CHASING 1,000

NSU senior returner Montre' Williams is the lone NSU player who has seen action in the past three seasons for the RiverHawks and was an All-MIAA selection last year. The senior from Copperas Cove, Texas led the RiverHawks in scoring with 12.3 points per game one year ago and has 910 career points in 95 games played.

TAKE THE BALL

Northeastern State is third in the MIAA with 7.5 steals per game and is forcing over 15 turnovers a game. The RiverHawks have five players with ten or more steals this season.

A NSU WIN WOULD...

- End an eight game skid.
- Second road win of the season.
- First MIAA win of the season.

A WU WIN WOULD...

- Be their tenth win in a row.
- Third straight win over the RiverHawks.
- Maintain first place in the MIAA standings.

TOUGH SLATE

Northeastern State has had to battle against some tough competition in their last seven games and including last Saturday's contest against Dallas Baptist, NSU's combined opponent record is 58-19 (.753 winning percentage). Including, Dallas Baptist four of the seven contests are against an undefeated team or have one loss on their record.

PERFECTION

NSU sophomore Trent Cantrell was perfect off of the RiverHawks bench in their 91-77 win over Oklahoma Baptist on Nov. 21 this season. Cantrell went 6-for-6 from field and was 3-for-3 at the free throw line for a career high 16 points.

BUILDING LOCAL SUPPORT

In their home opener on Nov. 15 against Rogers State the RiverHawks had 1,503 in attendance which was the third largest crowd to visit the NSU Event Center. To date, NSU's contest on Nov. 16, 2013 against Harding (1,757) in their third ever game in the complex is the high-water mark for the program.

CHIP ON YOUR SHOULDER

Despite a nearly overhauled roster and a coaching change, Northeastern State was voted in the MIAA Preseason Men's Basketball Coaches Poll to finish 12th.

The RiverHawks finished the 2016-17 season in the same spot and qualified for the MIAA Tournament with a 5-23 record, and 4-15 mark in the MIAA.

Team	1st Place	Points
1. Northwest Missouri	13	169 points

11. Lincoln		45 points
12. Northeastern State		41 points
13. Southwest Baptist		40 points
14. Missouri Western		18 points

NEW FACES

Northeastern State will start the year with 13 newcomers to its squad to complement six returners from last season. Of the group of fresh faces, four NSU players have NCAA Division I experience (Lucas Antunez, Jamir Andrews, Josh Bougher, and Zach Lee) and two who transferred from NCAA Division II programs (Marquise Harris and Pete Okonkwo).

THE KENNEDY CONNECTION

First year NSU assistant coach Nathan Kennedy and HC Downey were on-staff together at West Alabama during the 2012-13 season. In only one season at UWA, Downey and Kennedy were able to lead the Tigers to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 1982. They also won a school record 14 games in Gulf South Conference and were Co-Champs of the Battle for Atlantis Mainland Classic defeating NCAA Division I opponents Abilene Christian and The Citadel.

Mark Downey

Head Coach • 1st Season at Northeastern State

Downey joins NSU Athletics as its tenth men's basketball coach in its history and carries a 207-114 overall head coaching record, with four NCAA Division II Tournament Appearances, and has been named Coach of the Year six times.

Downey has a long history of success and coached 35 All-Conference Players, seven Conference Players of the Year, five All-Americans, four Conference Tournament MVPs, four Freshman of the Year, and over 45 former players playing professionally.

In the postseason, Downey is 19-6 in the conference tournaments, and he holds a 17-6 record in overtime games, with two wins against the top-ranked team in the nation.

Downey comes to NSU after two seasons at Fort Wayne (NCAA DI) as the program's top assistant on the bench, and has helped the Mastodons to appearances in the CollegenInsider.com Tournament (CIT) and the NIT, while going 44-23. Prior to Fort Wayne, Downey spent the 2014-15 season at Bowling Green where they went 20-12, and he helped direct them into the second round of the CIT. While with the Falcons, he helped coach Richaun Holmes, the Mid-American Conference Defensive Player of the Year, and a second round NBA draft pick of the Philadelphia 76ers.

Downey will be returning to NCAA Division II Basketball where he directed three different programs into the NCAA Tournament.

At West Alabama during the 2012-13 season, Downey directed a one-year turnaround and qualified UWA for their first NCAA Tournament Appearance since 1982. Downey won 14 Gulf South Conference (GSC) contests which was the most in the program's history, and beat two NCAA Division I opponents: Abilene Christian, and The Citadel.

Downey spent three seasons at the University of Charleston as its head coach, returning to program he played for as a team captain for two years (1993-95). In 2012, Downey finished the season ranked #17 in the nation, and with 26 wins which was fifth most in 140 years of basketball at UC. Additionally, in 2012, he qualified UC for the first NCAA Tournament Appearance in 11 years. One year later, Downey beat the top-ranked team in the nation, West Liberty, giving them their only loss of the season (30-1).

Downey kick-started the Arkansas Tech men's basketball program during his four seasons as head coach (2006-10), and making a 24-win improvement during that time span. For eight weeks during the 2009-10 season he had the Wonder Boys ranked #1 in the country while winning 30 games, and starting the year on a 25 game winning streak. Downey led ATU to their first GSC West Division title and won the GSC Postseason Tournament. The Wonder Boys reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament and Downey was picked to coach the 2010 NABC/NCAA Division II East All-Star Team. Downey was also voted as the 2010 NABC South Region Coach of the Year for going 30-2 during his 2009-10 campaign.

One-year prior, Downey led ATU to their first NCAA Tournament appearance, and their first GSC Tournament Championship.

Before arriving at Arkansas Tech, Downey served as an assistant on University of New Orleans coaching staff for five seasons (2001-06). Downey had three straight winning seasons and his 2001 recruiting class was voted top-20 in the country. In 2014, New Orleans reached the Sun Belt Conference Tournament Championship before Hurricane Katrina uprooted the program to Tyler, Texas for much of his final season there.

Downey's first head coaching experience came at the age of 26 at Independence Community College (1999-01) where he won the 2000 NJCAA Region VI Championship in his first season. Downey went 50-20 in two seasons, while being named as Region VI's Coach of the Year. During the 1998-99 season, he was Independence CC's assistant coach and they finished runner-up in the Jayhawk Conference Eastern Division with a 22-10 record.

Downey also had a two years (1996-98) at Marshall where they won the Southern Conference North Division. In 1997 and 1998, his recruiting classes was voted best in the league by ESPN.

After playing collegiately for the University of Charleston and Wheeling Jesuit, Downey spent the 1995-96 season at Barton College where he recruited a team that went 25-6 the following year and advanced to the NCAA Division II Tournament.

Downey has also appeared in the 2004 Jerry Bruckheimer film "Glory Road," playing #30 Tommy Kron for the University of Kentucky.

Downey and his wife Ericka are the parents of two sons, Bryce, and Andrew. He earned his degree in Sports Medicine from the University of Charleston in 1995 and a Master's Degree in Athletic Administration from Marshall University in 1998.
