THE STORY

NSU men's basketball returns to Tahlequah and will host a midweek MIAA contest Wednesday against Missouri Southern.

The RiverHawks (9-6, 6-5 MIAA) are reeling from a 76-68 setback at Lincoln Saturday, where inconsistent shooting in each half was too much to overcome. Northeastern State led that contest into the final six minutes, with Christian Cook pacing the team for the seventh time this season with 17 points.

Missouri Southern (11-5, 7-3 MIAA) comes to NSU after seeing a seven-game winning streak snapped Saturday in overtime (83-79) to Emporia State. This season, the Lions are undefeated in all four of their MIAA road games. Missouri Southern shares its offense with fourth players averaging over ten points per game. Ndongo Ndaw leads the MIAA with 23 blocks and is sixth with 6.8 rebounds per game.

Christian Cook is fifth in the MIAA in scoring with 16.5 points per game and has landed 829 points in 67 games. Dillon Bailey has scored at least ten points in the last eight games and is tenth in the MIAA, averaging 14.1 points per game. Obi Agu has averaged nearly ten points in the previous two games while shooting 80 percent from the field. The RiverHawks are second in the MIAA, shooting 50.7 percent from the field and are a league-best 41.7 percent from the arc.

The Lions lead the series 27-19 over Northeastern State and have won the last three meetings. While at home, NSU has controlled the series 14-5 over Missouri Southern.

TEAM STORYLINES

- » The RiverHawks return nine from last season with four starters coming back.
- » Northeastern State has its season opener altered in two of the last three seasons.
- » Northeastern State was ranked inside the top-25 in NCAA-DII men's basketball attendance during the 2021-22 season.
- » The RiverHawks has made a three-pointer in 140 consecutive games. Feb. 2, 2017 against Southwest Baptist is the last time NSU did not make a three.
- » The 2022-23 season is the 95th for men's basketball at Northeastern State.
- » The RiverHawks are entering their 11th season as members of the MIAA and 26th season as an NCAA Division II program.

Ja Havens is NSU's eleventh head men's basketball coach and played at Northeastern State for two seasons (1996-98) under NSU Hall of Fame head coaches Ken Hayes and Larry Gipson. After one year away from NSU, he returned as a graduate assistant under Gipson. They won two straight Lone Star Conference North Division championships and advanced to the regional semifinals of the NCAA Division II tournament. He has been a member of teams that have gone to nine NCAA Division II Tournaments and two NCAA Division I Tournaments.

The RiverHawks made an 11-win improvement in Havens' second season and qualified for the MIAA Tournament, where they won their first postseason game since 2013. Northeastern State would have one of its most attended seasons, finishing in the top 25 nationally in NCAA Division II attendance.

In his first season at the helm of the NSU program, it was a season unlike no other for Havens and his staff with the RiverHawks going to multiple COVID-pauses and a limited roster. NSU played six games in nine days to end the season and swept rivals Central Oklahoma.

Havens came to NSU from East Central University (Ada, Okla.) where he was head coach for seven seasons, carrying a record of 131-74, and was the fastest coach in ECU history to win 100 contests. Havens led the Tigers to back-to-back Great American Conference (GAC) Regular Season Championships (2016 and 2017) and won the 2017 GAC Tournament. He also took the Tigers to their first NCAA Division II Central Regional during that 2017 season.

At East Central, Havens posted a winning record in each of his seven-seasons and never missed the postseason, with 14 players named All-GAC, and one named as Player of the Year. Havens posted three straight 20+ win seasons at ECU and won 25, a program-best in 2017.

Under Havens, ECU earned honors in the classroom, claiming the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Team Academic Excellence Award three times (2018, 2019, and 2020).

Before arriving in Ada, Havens spent eight years as the assistant basketball coach at Drury University, which claimed the 2013 NCAA Division II National Championship. He helped the Panthers to five Great Lakes Valley Conference West Division Championships and two tournament championships. Drury had great success in the NCAA, advancing to the NCAA Division II Tournament six times and going 173-68 in the eight years he spent with the program.

Prior to moving to Drury, he spent four seasons at the University of Tulsa as an assistant coach and director of basketball operations. The Golden Hurricane earned two Western Athletic Conference championships during his tenure and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division I Tournament.

Havens started his coaching career at St. Gregory's in 1998 and helped the team improve from a six-win season in 1997-98 to 14 in 1998-99.

Havens' father Jerry is a member of Oklahoma Coaches Association Hall of Fame, Oklahoma Basketball Coaches Hall of Fame and National High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame. His brother Jon is the head men's basketball coach at Richland College (Texas) and was an assistant coach at NSU.

Havens grew up in Stillwater, Okla. and graduated high school in Lewisville, Texas.

Havens' wife Angie is an occupational therapist and also played women's basketball at Northeastern State. The couple has three sons: Trey, Trent, and Ty and one daughter, Tatum.
