Fala Suaiaunua was named as Northeastern State's head women's basketball coach on April 1, 2017.

With ten years of NCAA head coaching experience, Suaiaunua is 141-171 overall.

In her NSU debut, the Suaiaunua and the RiverHawks nearly upended Arkansas and took a four-win improvement from the prior season to put the team in the MIAA postseason.

The RiverHawks in Suaiaunua's second season at the helm battled through adversity and picked up an early-season win over Azusa Pacific who went onto the Elite 8. Northeastern State set an MIAA record for points in a half and matched a 1981 program record with 126 points in a game against Bacone. The RiverHawks had two players reach 1,000 career points in Cailyn Long and Bailee Eldred, and Joi Bertrand set a program mark with 80 blocks. In the postseason, NSU had three MIAA Honors and Eldred being named Academic All-District.

The 2019-20 season had Cenia Hayes earn her second All-MIAA selection in the postseason, and newcomer Shae Sanchez score her 1,000th career point at Rogers State. With four true-freshman and a key post player sitting out the season, the RiverHawks staged several close contests against one of the most rigid schedules in the nation.

In 2020-21 NSU started strong by winning its first two games in a 6-16 COVID-19 conference-only shortened season. Cenia Hayes and Zaria Collins each earned All-MIAA Honorable Mention recognition following the season. Hayes, the lone four-year player for Suaiaunua, scored her 1,000th point and finished with 1281 for her career.

Prior to returning to NSU, she has spent four seasons (2013-17) as head coach at NCAA Division II Armstrong State University, where she recorded a career mark of 61-52. In her first season at Armstrong State, she led the Pirates to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in program history and reached the Sweet 16.

Suaiaunua replaces Randy Gipson who retired at the conclusion of the 2016-17 season after leading the NSU women's basketball program for 18 years.

Coach Suaiaunua is no stranger to the NSU program, playing for Gipson for two seasons, and was a graduate assistant under Gipson from 2004 to 2006. As a student-athlete, Suaiaunua played in 57 games and NSU went 36-19, winning the 2003 Lone Star Conference Tournament, and made the program's first NCAA Tournament berth. As a member of Gipson's coaching staff, NSU reached the Sweet 16 in 2004 and qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2005 and 2006.

At Armstrong State, Suaiaunua has coached five all-conference players, one Peach Belt Conference Freshman of the Year, and was named PBC Co-Coach of the Year in 2014.

Suaiaunua came to Armstrong State from Central Georgia Technical College in Macon, Ga., where she started the program in 2011 and directed the Cougars to an impressive 25-6 record in just their second season of competition in 2012-13, advancing to the GCAA Championships.

Suaiaunua was the assistant coach as well as the Senior Woman's Administrator (SWA) at Columbus State for two years. The Cougars featured a WBCA first team All-American selection and compiled a 32-23 record in her two seasons with the program.

Suaiaunua earned her bachelors of science degree in health and human performance from Northeastern State in 2004 as well as her masters of science degree in kinesiology from NSU in 2006.

Following her time at NSU she spent one season as an assistant coach at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College before moving on to NCAA Division II Midwestern State as an assistant coach from 2007-09.

The Irvine, California, native began her intercollegiate career at Irvine Valley College, transferring to Northeastern State as a junior.
