TOP STORIES

- 1 Following their 52-3 win over Lincoln (Mo.), their largest road triumph since 1970, Northeastern State continues a three-contest road trip by facing William Jewell in a first-time matchup from Greene Stadium. WJC joined the NCAA ranks in 2011 and have been members of the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) ever since. Notably, William Jewell is the alma mater of former Kansas State head football coach Bill Snyder, who played for the team from 1959-62.
2 Explosiveness was a key to NSU's dominant win last week. Northeastern averaged 9.96 yards per play in the 49-point victory against the Blue Tigers, their highest average in a single game as NCAA members. Ramon McKinney Jr. had three of his five longest rushes of the season during Saturday's game in Jefferson City, having a pair of 38-yard sprints before dashing for a 48-yard score in the second half as part of a 172-yard day on the ground.
3 The defense showcased their toughest performance of the season in last week's win, holding the Blue Tigers to just 178 total yards and three points from Dwight T. Reed Stadium. It marked the fewest yards surrendered to an NCAA opponent since 2006, while it also marked the fewest points allowed in a road game since NSU shut out Ouachita Baptist in 1996, their last season in the NAIA ranks.
4 Donnie Smith continued his efficient play as Northeastern State's signal caller last week, throwing for 216 yards on 16 completions (13.5 yards per completion) with three touchdowns. Smith became the first NSU quarterback to throw for at least three touchdowns in consecutive games since Cade Yeager in 2017.
5 Marvelous Owens intercepted his fifth pass of the campaign and returned 24 yards to the end zone for a score in the third quarter as part of the team's 28-0 run to finish the game. Owens is the first NSU player to have five interceptions in a single season since Vernon Jones in 2012, while the RiverHawks have picked off 11 total passes on the year, only two off of their 2024 total of 13.

QUICK HITS

- >> Darrin Chiverini leads the offense for his second season in Tahlequah. Six games into the season, the RiverHawks have seen gains in points per game (27.9 in 2024, 36.5 in 2025), passing offense (206.2 yards per game in 2024, 281.7 in 2025), total offense (337.7 yards per game in 2024, 428.8 in 2025) and yards per play (5.1 in 2024, 7.1 in 2025).
>> Entering the 2025 season, Northeastern had punted in every game dating back to 2000, while they had been forced to punt at least twice in every game since 2008. In two of the team's last three games, the NSU punt team has stayed on the sideline for the entire contest.
>> Donnie Smith's last three games have seen him complete 52-of-63 (82.5%) passes for a combined 731 yards and eight touchdowns. His top targets during that span have been tight end Cam Woods (12 catches, 273 yards, five touchdowns across his last three) and La'Vontae Shenault (17 catches, 184 yards, one touchdown across games against West Florida and Lincoln).
>> With five games left, Donnie Smith's quarterback efficiency rating (156.24) is the highest since 2011 and currently sits in third across all single-season efforts in program history.
>> Ramon McKinney Jr.'s 172 rushing yards marked his second-highest total of the season and his fourth career performance of at least 100 yards on the ground. The true sophomore crossed 1,000 career rushing yards in last week's win, while he added three touchdowns (two rushing, one receiving) to leave Jefferson City with a career total of 19 (13 rushing, five receiving, one passing).
>> McKinney enters the last five weeks of the regular season with 933 all-purpose yards (155.5 per game). He is on pace to finish second in program history in average all-purpose yards per game, only behind Carlton Booe (158 per game in 1998). Additionally, he is on pace to finish third across program history in total all-purpose yardage across the season, only behind Booe (1,774 in 1999) and Trey McVay (1,845 in 2011).
>> La'Vontae Shenault ranks sixth in all of Division II football in catches per game (7.4) and is on pace to finish the season with 74 receptions, a total that would rank second across program history behind Trey McVay (82 catches in 2011). Shenault enters the week with 519 receiving yards (103.8 per game) and is on pace to become NSU's first 1,000-yard receiver since 2017 and just their fourth in history.
>> Cam Woods has reached the end zone in four straight games, catching six touchdown passes across that span. He becomes the first NSU player since Mark Wheeland in 2021 to have touchdown catches in four consecutive contests.
>> Junior Tanuvasa and Jeremy Atwell lead the defense as co-defensive coordinators. Both coaches are in their second seasons with the program. Six games into the season, the defense has seen progress in scoring (35.7 points allowed per game in 2024, 23.8 in 2025) and opposing rushing yardage (195.2 per game in 2024, 144.3 in 2025). Meanwhile, the RiverHawks have picked off 11 passes this season, only two off of their entire 2024 total (13).
>> Kale Brakebill tied with Ousmane Doumbia for the team lead in tackles (seven) last week, while he blocked a Max Roth punt in the opening half and contributed on a tackle for loss. The blocked punt marked NSU's first in almost a year, dating back to LaKedrick Holmes blocking a Grayson Miller punt against Central Oklahoma on Oct. 19, 2024.
>> Kale Charboneau had one of his strongest performances of the season, providing five tackles with two going for a loss of yardage. Additionally, the true freshman from Wagoner, Okla. recovered a fumble inside NSU's ten-yard line to end one of LU's two trips to the red zone last week.
>> For a second straight week, the RiverHawks kept the penalty count low. Just four penalties against NSU were accepted for 44 yards. Across the last two weeks, the RiverHawks have been penalized just seven times for 61 yards.

ABOUT THE CARDINALS

>> William Jewell is its second season under head coach Jason Ambrosion, a 2023 inductee into the Missouri Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Ambrosion won 172 games across a high school head coaching career that spanned 2001-23 in Missouri, notably winning a state title in 2021 at Smithville.

>> Lindenwood transfer Tyler Kubat leads a passing unit that sits in fifth in yards (1,519) and fourth in touchdowns (15) across the GLVC. Kubat has thrown for seven scores in his last three games.

>> Struggling with the departure of All-Region running back Keaundre McCullough (1,262 rushing yards, 15 rushing TD in '24), the Cardinals have found limited success on the ground. They are seventh in the GLVC in rushing yards (615) and yards per carry (3.4).

>> Nate Barnett and AJ Austene were among the top returning receivers from last season's five-win team. Six games into 2025, Barnett leads the team in catches (19), receiving yards (386) and touchdowns (five), while AJ Austene is second in touchdowns (three) and tied for second in receptions (18).

>> The WJC defense has struggled in GLVC play, surrendering 166 points through four conference matchups, the second-highest total in the league. They also sit in eighth across the nine-team association in yards allowed (1,811) and touchdowns surrendered (20) during GLVC action.

>> Opposing quarterbacks have attacked the Cardinals this season, as the WJC defense has surrendered 14 throwing scores across six games this year, including nine in their last three.

>> Redshirt freshman linebacker Kyle Craig tied for the team lead in tackles last week with a season-best ten take-downs. He enters the week with 39 on the season, also tying a team best.

>> Derrick Von Hubbard is tied for fifth in the GLVC in tackles for loss (7.5).

Darrin Chiaverini Head Coach • @CoachChev6

Darrin Chiaverini enters his second season as the head football coach at Northeastern State University in 2025.

Offensively in 2024, the RiverHawks gained 138.2 more yards per game compared to the previous season, in addition to 1.4 more yards per play, while more than doubling their touchdown total from 15 to 41. Defensively, the RiverHawks displayed significant progress, allowing 6.36 fewest points per game and 70 fewest points overall. The unit also notched the program's first shutout since 2011 in a Homecoming victory over Lincoln (Ca.).

The former NFL and University of Colorado wide receiver has coached at the NCAA Division 1 and junior college levels for 16 years. Chiaverini came to NSU from Chaffey College, where he took over a program that was a combined 2-18 during the 2021 and 2022 seasons. In his first season with the Panthers, he completely revitalized the program, coaching the team to an 11-0 record and ending the season as the American Metro Conference Champions and 2023 American Division Bowl Champions.

Additionally under his watch, QB Dereun Dortch was named American Metro Conference MVP and the Panthers set four school records during the 2023 campaign, including 46.0 ppg (ranked #1 in conference, T-#1 in CA), 513.0 ypg (ranked #1 in conference, #2 in CA), 58% - 3rd Down Conversions (ranked #1 in conference, #1 in CA), and 89% - Red Zone Scoring (ranked #1 in conference, #1 in CA). Chiaverini was awarded the title of American Metro Conference Coach of the Year for his work during the season.

Chiaverini spent the 2022 season as senior analyst for UCLA. Under his leadership, the offense ranked fourth in the country with 507.8 ypg, and ranked ninth in the country averaging 39.6 ppg. UCLA finished the season ranked 17th in the final AP Poll, and earned a berth in the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

Prior to his time at UCLA, Chiaverini was on the staff of his alma mater, the University of Colorado, filling several positions during his tenure from 2016-2021. In those six years, he was wide receivers coach (all six years), offensive coordinator (five seasons), assistant head coach (one year) and briefly interim head coach, while also serving in the dual role of recruiting coordinator. He has been nationally recognized for his recruiting efforts; Rivals.com named him one of the top 25 recruiters in the country for the three recruiting classes pre-COVID (2018, 2019 and 2020).

Under Chiaverini's mentorship during his time at Colorado, he coached five receivers that finished among the university's all-time top 20 in yards (passing Chiaverini on the list, dropping him down to 21st). He also worked with the top two quarterbacks in passing yards in CU history, Sefo Liufau and Steven Montez.

Chiaverini was the special teams coordinator and outside receivers coach during the 2014-15 seasons for Texas Tech. During his tenure with the Red Raiders, he recruited from the Dallas, Houston, and the Southern California regions. One of his players, Jakeem Grant, earned second-team All-America honors at kick returner for the 2015 season.

Prior to his time at Texas Tech, he spent four years at Riverside (Calif.) City College from 2010-2013, where he was the associate head coach and co-offensive and special teams coordinator, in addition to being in charge of recruiting. Riverside was 40-5 during his four years and produced 15 NCAA Division I players.

His special teams units at Riverside were some of the best of the junior college ranks, with an impressive 22 blocked kicks in four seasons. Chiaverini coached the top punt returner in the state of California in 2011 and 2012, while Riverside's offense led California in scoring in 2011 and in total offense in 2013. Before Riverside, he rejoined his college coach, Rick Neuheisel, as the assistant special teams coach at UCLA for the 2009 season. He helped pilot one of the top units in the Pac-10 conference and the Bruins captured the Eagle Bank Bowl trophy with a 30-21 win over Temple.

Chiaverini got his start in coaching at Mt. San Antonio College in 2007, starting as a receivers coach and then promoted to co-offensive coordinator in 2008.

Prior to his coaching career, Chiaverini was one of Neuheisel's first commitments in Colorado's 1995 recruiting class. He earned four letters from 1995-98 and served as one of the team captains his senior season. He caught 97 passes for 1,199 yards and six touchdowns, averaging 12.4 yards per reception in his career, exiting at the time as CU's seventh all-time receiver. He remains in the top 15 in both catches and yards. He led the team as a senior with 52 catches for 630 yards and five scores.

He was a member of three CU bowl champion teams (Cotton, Holiday and Aloha), making an additional 10 catches for 190 yards and two touchdowns, one a 72-yard bomb from his best friend, quarterback Mike Moschetti, against Oregon in the '98 Aloha Bowl.

He was a fifth-round selection by the Cleveland Browns in the 1999 National Football League Draft and went on to set the club's rookie receiving record with 44 catches for 487 yards and four touchdowns. He spent four years in the NFL, also playing for Dallas and Atlanta; he would conclude his NFL career with 62 catches for 662 yards and seven scores. He then finished his professional playing days with the Austin Wranglers in the Arena Football League.
