SUPER REGION 4 PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

JOHN MATOCHA (QB), COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES Offensive Player of the Year

John Matocha wins his second consecutive Offensive Player of the Year award after guiding Colorado School of Mines to the national quarterfinals and the #1 poll ranking. Matocha has 3,511 passing yards with 39 touchdowns and three more on the ground, and was the repeat RMAC Offensive Player of the Year coming off his 2022 Harlon Hill Trophy campaign.

TANNER VOLK (S), CENTRAL WASHINGTON Defensive Player of the Year

College football's interceptions leader, LSC Defensive Player of the Year Tanner Volk has led a tenacious Central Washington defense that has danced into the NCAA quarterfinals. Volk has 13 interceptions in 12 games to go with 115 total tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss, and four break-ups. He ranks top-10 in D-II in interceptions, tackles, and passes defended.
