PRESIDENT MORTON SCHAPIRO

Morton Schapiro began his term as the 16th president of Northwestern University on September 1, 2009. He is a professor of economics in Northwestern's Judd A. and Marjorie Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences and also holds appointments in the J. L. Kellogg School of Management and the School of Education and Social Policy.

President Schapiro is among the nation's leading authorities on the economics of higher education, with particular expertise in the area of college financing and affordability and on trends in educational costs and student aid. He has testified before US Senate and House committees on economic and educational issues and is widely quoted in the national media on those issues.

Previously President Schapiro was president of Williams College from 2000 to 2009. Earlier he had served as a member of the Williams College faculty from 1980 to 1991 as professor of economics and assistant provost. In 1991 he went to the University of Southern California, where he served as chair of the Department of Economics until 1994 and then as dean of the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences until 2000.

During his last two years as dean, he also served as the university's vice president for planning.

President Schapiro has written more than 100 articles and five books and has edited two others. He has received research grants and contracts from the National Science Foundation, the US Department of Education, the World Bank, the Spencer Foundation, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the College Board, the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, and other groups to study the economics of higher education and related topics. In 2010 he was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

He received his bachelor's degree in economics from Hofstra University and his doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS AND RECREATION
JIM PHILLIPS

James J. Phillips became Northwestern's 21st director of intercollegiate athletics and recreation on April 14, 2008, bringing with him a track record of success at the Division I level and a commitment to the values Northwestern always has maintained in collegiate athletics. In August of 2011, Phillips received a new 10-year contract that will keep him at Northwestern through 2020.

"The opportunity to lead Northwestern's athletic and recreation programs is both exciting and humbling," Phillips said. "Northwestern is a world-class institution that does things right in terms of college athletics and what they should stand for."

One of 10 children from a middle-class family and a native of the Portage Park neighborhood on the northwest side of Chicago, Phillips has proven to be the perfect fit to head up Northwestern's 19-sport program in the nation's No. 3 market. His deep Windy City roots and family orientation are an integral part of his core philosophy of providing student-athletes with a "world-class experience" that enables them to succeed academically, socially and athletically.

Phillips took little time to make a big impact on the Northwestern athletic department, hiring ultra-successful women's basketball coach Joe McKeown in June of 2008. McKeown came to Evanston after 19 years as the head coach at George Washington, where he took his team to the postseason 17 times. McKeown never had a losing season in 22 years as a head coach prior to arriving in Evanston, bringing a career record of 509-174 (.745) with him to NU.

Phillips' second coaching hire was to name Tracey Fuchs the head of the field hockey program in January of 2009. Fuchs had arguably the most successful playing career in the history of USA Field Hockey and has been referred to as the "Michael Jordan of field hockey." In 2012, Phillips tapped Michael Moynihan as the head coach of NU women's soccer following Moynihan's remarkable 19-year stint at Milwaukee, during which time he coached the Panthers to 13 Horizon League championships and nine NCAA Tournaments.

In addition, Phillips has elevated a pair of Northwestern assistants to head coaching positions, naming Jarod Schroeder the men's swimming and diving head coach in 2009 and NU graduate Drew Pariano the wrestling head coach in 2010.

Phillips also has worked to keep successful coaches at NU. In June of 2009, he inked head football coach Pat Fitzgerald to a new seven-year deal, then extended that contract to 10 years in May of 2011—keeping Fitzgerald on the Wildcats' sideline through at least 2020.

Women's lacrosse coach Kelly Amonte Hiller and men's soccer coach Tim Lenahan also received long term extensions from Phillips. Hiller took charge of the program when it returned from club status in 2002 and has built NU into a dynasty, capturing seven of the last eight national championships. Lenahan has mentored his program to NCAA tourney appearances in six of the last eight seasons, twice reaching the NCAA quarterfinals. In 2011, men's soccer achieved the Big Ten Double by capturing both the regular season and tournament titles.

On the field, Northwestern has continued to succeed across the board at a very high level. Football has won 30 games in the last four seasons, earning a trip to a bowl game each of the last four seasons. Men's basketball won 20 games in 2009-10 and 2010-11, making NIT appearances each of the last four years and advancing to the quarterfinals in 2011. Women's basketball also has reached the NIT in two of the last three years, moving on to the third round in 2010 and the second round in 2011.

In addition to those successes and the aforementioned championship run of women's lacrosse, Northwestern has thrived across a wide range of its 19 programs. Women's tennis became the first northern school ever to capture the ITA National Indoor championship in 2009 before earning its second-straight crown in 2010, and in 2012 extended its run of consecutive seasons with a Big Ten championship to 14. In Phillips' time at Northwestern, women's lacrosse, softball, men's soccer, men's golf, women's fencing, women's tennis and wrestling all have won team or individual conference championships.

Individually, student-athletes have won the Tewaaraton Trophy in women's lacrosse (Hannah Nielsen, Shannon Smith), the Big Ten Wayne Duke Award (Mark Ison), the Hodge Trophy in wrestling and the Big Ten Conference awards for male and female athletes of the year (Jake Herbert in 2009 and Shannon Smith in 2011, respectively). Since Phillips' arrival in 2008, 33 Wildcats have received first-team All-America honors, 30 have picked up conference Player, Coach or Freshman of the Year accolades and 14 have been named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

Academically, Wildcat student-athletes have had banner years with Phillips at the helm. In 2008-09, Northwestern had a school-record-tying 879 student-athlete quarters in which a 3.0 GPA was earned, and 17 varsity teams achieved a 3.0 or better team GPA with all 19 varsity squads recording a 2.9 or better team GPA for two academic quarters (fall and spring) for the first time in school history. The department's combined student-athlete GPA for the spring quarter of 2009 was a school-record 3.26 average, one spot ahead of the 3.19 the Wildcats earned during the winter quarter of 2010. Northwestern's APR and GSR scores ranked in the top five and 10 in the nation, respectively.

Academic success continued to improve in 2009-10 when Northwestern received its best APR rating from the NCAA in the program's history. The trend reached a new peak with the most recent scores announced in 2012, as eight of NU's 19 varsity programs earned perfect 1,000 scores and all teams scoring above 983, up two points from the previous year's low score. In total, 16 programs were honored by the NCAA with public recognition awards for being in the top-10 percent of their respective sports with their latest multi-year APR scores. NU football tied for the best multi-year score (995) among all FBS or FCS schools.

In the fall of 2010, Northwestern earned 90 Academic All-Big Ten honors including 32 by members of the football team to break that program's record for the fifth-straight season. All told during the 2010-11 academic year, a school-record 201 Wildcats were named Academic All-Big Ten, marking the first time NU received more than 200 such awards in school history. NU's fall student-athletes established a sport-season record for the fifth-straight year in 2011 with 97 Academic All-Big Ten awards.

Northwestern continues to be among the nation's leaders in community service under Phillips. In 2008-09, NU set a then-school record with 5,346 hours of community service. Ninety-five percent of student-athletes representing all 19 varsity sports participated in community service in 2009-10, compiling a total of 5,417 hours of work to break the school record again. That trend continued in 2010-11 when NU increased its impact in the Evanston and Chicagoland areas by more than 200 hours over the previous year, easily exceeding the 5,000 hour mark again. Student-athletes are participating in the Undergraduate Leadership Program, four groups are receiving leadership coaching by the Center on Leadership Fellows, five student-athletes attended the APPLE Conference in 2011 and three student-athletes have been selected to attend the DERU Conference in the past two years.

Phillips has embarked on a number of major projects at Northwestern. One of his first actions was to begin the implementation of a Department of Athletics and Recreation re-organization that was completed in January of 2009. The athletic department's existing infrastructure was broken into three key "silos:" internal, external and student-athlete welfare.

In the external silo in 2010, Northwestern launched the first wide-ranging marketing campaign in the history of the athletic department. The campaign, with the tagline "Chicago's Big Ten Team," is aimed at building brand awareness and driving ticket sales over a multi-year time frame.

To raise awareness of Northwestern's brand in Chicagoland, Phillips moved a pair of Northwestern home events into the city of Chicago. In 2009, the Wildcats' baseball team defeated Notre Dame at U.S. Cellular Field, the home of the Chicago White Sox. In 2010, Phillips signed a deal for Northwestern to face Illinois at Wrigley Field on Nov. 20 in what was the first football game at the "Friendly Confines" since 1970 and the first college football game at the venue since 1938. Phillips inked a deal with Allstate to serve as the title sponsor of the game, dubbed the Allstate Wrigleyville Classic. Another coup for Phillips came in 2011 when he negotiated a contract to play a home-and-home series with Notre Dame beginning in 2014, marking the first time those two programs will meet since NU's historic win in South Bend in 1995.

NU has signed major corporate sponsorship deals with Northwestern Memorial Hospital and Harris Bank while transitioning to Learfield Sports as its multimedia rights holder in March of 2011 and re-branding the entity Northwestern Sports Properties (NSP). Northwestern also signed a television deal with Comcast SportsNet Chicago to carry the new Pat Fitzgerald Show in 2010 as well as a basketball show with men's head coach Bill Carmody and women's basketball head coach Joe McKeown. NU also created a new Annual Report to showcase the department's achievements over the previous year.

Additionally, in 2012, Northwestern and Under Armour began a new multi-year partnership that designates Under Armour as the official outfitter of the university's athletic program. The partnership represents Under Armour's first outfitter agreement with an athletic program that competes in the Big Ten Conference. Under Armour, the leader in performance apparel, footwear and accessories, will outfit all of Northwestern's 19 men's and women's varsity athletic teams beginning in the 2012-13 season. The comprehensive partnership also includes marketing and promotional rights.

Phillips launched the first master facility plan study in Northwestern history in November of 2010. The final plan will establish an architectural program to align athletic facilities design and use with new services, identify priorities for improvements or options for existing facilities, propose strategies to stage renovations and identify where and when additional facilities may be needed in the future.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS AND RECREATION
JIM PHILLIPS

In June of 2011, Phillips was selected 3rd Vice President of the National Association of Collegiate Director's of Athletics (NACDA) by his peers and went on to garner 2011-12 AD of the Year honors for the Central Region. This year, Phillips holds the post of 2nd Vice President and eventually will serve as the President of NACDA in 2014-15—something a Northwestern AD has never done.

In June of 2009, Phillips was asked to serve on the NCAA Champions Forum panel, a group of football coaches and athletics directors making an effort to increase the hiring and awareness of minority football coaches. He is a member of the NACDA Executive Committee, the World Sport Chicago Board, the NCAA Fellows Leadership Development Program and previously served on Chicago's bid committee for the 2016 Olympic Games. Phillips currently instructs a Kellogg School of Management course entitled "Comprehensive Perspectives for Leading a Sports Entity." He has previously lectured in the Northwestern School of Continuing Studies' Master's in Sports Administration program.

Prior to arriving in Evanston, Phillips served as Northern Illinois' athletic director for four years beginning in 2004. During that time, the Huskies had unprecedented athletic success and consistent academic achievements. On July 1, 2006, Phillips was promoted to associate vice president, in addition to his director of athletics title, after already being recognized by his peers in the Mid-American Conference with his selection to serve as chairman of the MAC Athletic Directors' Council. He also was a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball committee during his time in the MAC.

Phillips was extraordinarily successful in fundraising and marketing at Northern Illinois. He spearheaded the fundraising and construction of the $14-million Yordon Academic and Athletic Performance Center at NIU, the largest capital project in the athletic department's history, and led several successful fundraising campaigns for athletics. In addition, the Huskies opened an indoor practice facility for baseball, softball and men's and women's golf, and began construction in the spring of 2008 on a new soccer/track and field complex.

During Phillips' tenure in DeKalb, he was instrumental in scheduling high-profile football games against Michigan and Ohio State that resulted in the first national television appearances for NIU. He also negotiated playing the University of Iowa in 2007 at Soldier Field in Chicago as a home game at NIU, a game that sold out in less than a week. In addition, Phillips negotiated a multi-year radio rights agreement for WSCR-AM (The Score) in Chicago to carry football, men's basketball and a weekly NIU live radio show discussing all Huskie athletic programs. Phillips also negotiated a television deal with Comcast SportsNet Chicago to carry football games and a weekly show called Inside Huskie Sports.

Phillips helped secure the 2007 NCAA Men's Golf Central Regional, which the Huskies hosted at the new home of NIU golf, Rich Harvest Farms in Sugar Grove, Ill.

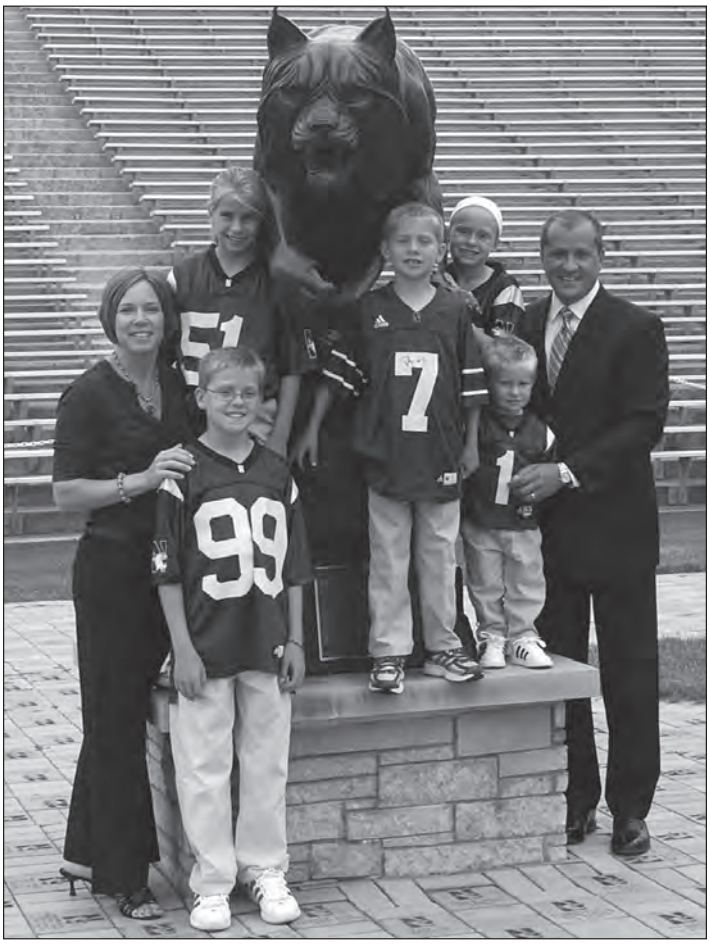

A 1990 graduate of the University of Illinois, Phillips started his career as a manager and student assistant in Illinois' athletic department. He earned a master's degree in education at Arizona State University while serving as a restricted earnings basketball coach during a period in which the Sun Devils reached the postseason in five-straight years.

Phillips also holds a Ph.D. in educational administration from Tennessee, which he completed in the summer of 2007. Phillips served as an assistant athletics director with the Volunteers until 2000. He directed a $12.4 million annual athletics giving program, and was directly responsible for identifying, cultivating and soliciting all major gifts and donations for the Volunteer athletic program. He helped originate the first-ever capital campaign for athletics at UT that raised more than $50 million for endowments, facilities and programs. In addition, he supervised several athletic programs and a variety of other areas.

Phillips then moved to the University of Notre Dame in 2000, where he served as associate director of athletics and senior associate director of athletics for external affairs. During 2002-03, he helped launch the Rockne Heritage Fund, which became the first athletics annual fund that directly benefited student-athlete grant-in-aid scholarships. In addition, he managed the ticket office, various corporate sponsorships, athletic programs and a weekly Irish radio show.

At the same time, Phillips played an integral part in the funding of a new $24-million, 96,000-square foot athletics facility. At Notre Dame, Phillips directed all phases of the athletics community relations program and helped develop new institutional and departmental advancement programs.

SEASON NOTES

WILDCATS SEEK TO REPLACE MEMBERS OF WINNINGEST SENIOR CLASS
After ushering out not only the winningest but one of the largest senior classes in school history, Northwestern will take advantage of fall camp to begin replacing its departed leadership and production. NU returns 52 letterwinners from last year's squad but brings back a modest 14 starters—five on offense, six on defense as well as its punter and primary place-kicker and kick returner. Fifteen Wildcats are entering their final year of playing eligibility.

BOWL APPEARANCES THE NORM FOR NU
Northwestern is savoring its most successful stretch of football in school history having been bowl-eligible each of the last five years; prior to this run, NU had never assembled three straight seasons of bowl eligibility. Since 1995, the Wildcats have posted 11 seasons with six or more victories, including nine since 2000. In the last 16 years, only Ohio State, Michigan and Wisconsin have won more Big Ten titles than the Wildcats' three conference crowns.

NEW NUMBERS, NEW POSITIONS
A host of Wildcats either changed uniform numbers, moved positions or made both switches during the offseason. After making significant contributions as a superback in his true freshman season, Jack Konopka has moved to the offensive line—and now will wear No. 75—while senior offensive tackle Pat Ward has shifted from the right to the left end of the unit to replace departed four-year starter Al Netter. New additions to the superback group include Evan Watkins and Tim Riley, both of whom began the transition during December bowl practices. Other notable number changes include those of Tony Jones (No. 6), Tyris Jones (No. 3), Jimmy Hall (No. 9), Jarrell Williams (No. 4) and Jordan Perkins (No. 25).

KAIN COLTER

NU ELECTS 12-PLAYER LEADERSHIP COUNCIL FOR 2012
On Jan. 31, Pat Fitzgerald released the outcome of a team-wide selection process to determine the members of NU football's 2012 Leadership Council. The 12-player group, composed of student-athletes at each class level, meets weekly throughout the year with Fitzgerald to discuss issues that affect the entire program. This year's leaders are: seniors Brian Arnfelt, Demetrius Fields, Brian Mulroe, David Nwabuisi and Quentin Williams; juniors Kain Colter, Mike Jensen, Damien Proby and Tyler Scott; sophomores Ibraheim Campbell and Christian Jones; and redshirt freshman Geoff Mogus. Williams is now a four-time selection to the Leadership Council, which was instituted by Fitzgerald before the 2008 season.

'CATS BEST ALL FOOTBALL PEERS IN APR SCORES
With a score of 995 out of a possible 1,000, Northwestern ranked first among all Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) programs in Academic Progress Rate (APR), according to the data released by the NCAA on Wednesday, June 20. The APR scores measure the retention and eligibility of student-athletes at each school for the four-year period between 2007-08 and 2010-11 academic years. NU's program-record score of 995 placed it in a tie with Davidson for the top tally among all institutions competing at the FBS or FCS level, ahead of Yale, Brown, Pennsylvania and Dayton.

The honor capped off another phenomenal academic year for NU, which saw 31 athletes earn Academic All-Big Ten honors for the fall quarter—one shy of the school record set in 2010—and achieved a program-best 3.14 team GPA for the 2012 winter academic quarter.

SKILL POSITION ROLES UP FOR GRABS
Northwestern graduated many of its top veteran starters at the skill positions following the 2011 season, including All-Big Ten quarterback Dan Persa, 1,000-yard receiver Jeremy Ebert, Big Ten Tight End of the Year Drake Dunsmore and starting tailback Jacob Schmidt. In fact, NU returns just 64.3 percent of its rushing yardage, 28.1 percent of its passing and 41.2, percent of its receiving totals from a year ago.

On the perimeter, Demetrius Fields is the lone senior in a crop of talented wide receivers that includes junior Rashad Lawrence and sophomores Christian Jones and Tony Jones, who returns after missing 2011 with an injury. Another 'Cat who missed time to injury last year, Mike Trumpy, is in the mix to regain a prominent role in the backfield along with true sophomore Treyvon Green.

SEASON NOTES

COLTER TAKES THE REINS AT QB
After one of the most impressive all-around seasons in recent memory by a Big Ten player, Kain Colter has the unique distinction of being the leading returning passer (673 yards), rusher (654) and receiver (466) to the 2012 Wildcats. The true junior is poised to be NU's opening-day starter at quarterback for the second straight season after he ably filled in for the injured Dan Persa in a road win at Boston College to kick off 2011. A true dual-threat signal-caller, Colter has twice rushed for 100 yards from under center but also owns a career completion percentage of 63.7 and six touchdown passes compared to just two interceptions.

WEALTH OF CONTRIBUTORS RETURN TO DEFENSE
After a 2011 season in which no fewer than seven players in the starting rotation had little or no starting experience, the Wildcats bring back a host of competitors ready to take the next step in their development. Up front, Northwestern will count on seniors Quentin Williams and Brian Arnfelt as well as junior Tyler Scott to create pressure while a returning linebacker corps of David Nwabuisi, Damien Proby and Collin Ellis fill the gaps. Ibraheim Campbell, a Freshman All-American selection at safety in 2011, is the only returning starter to a secondary that will see position battles play themselves out during spring practice and fall camp.

NU RETURNS COMPLETE SPECIAL TEAMS CORPS
The Wildcats' group of specialists needs little by way of introduction this season, bringing back all key components from their 2011 units. Among them are: punter/holder Brandon Williams, long snapper Pat Hickey, place-kicker Jeff Budzien, kickoff specialist Jeff Flaherty and dynamic returnman Venric Mark, who begins his true junior season just 35 yards shy of NU's career record of 1,499 kickoff return yards. Mark, who in addition to his duties as a kick returner will battle for time at running back this season, was named to the preseason watch list for the Paul Hornung Award, presented to the nation's most versatile player.

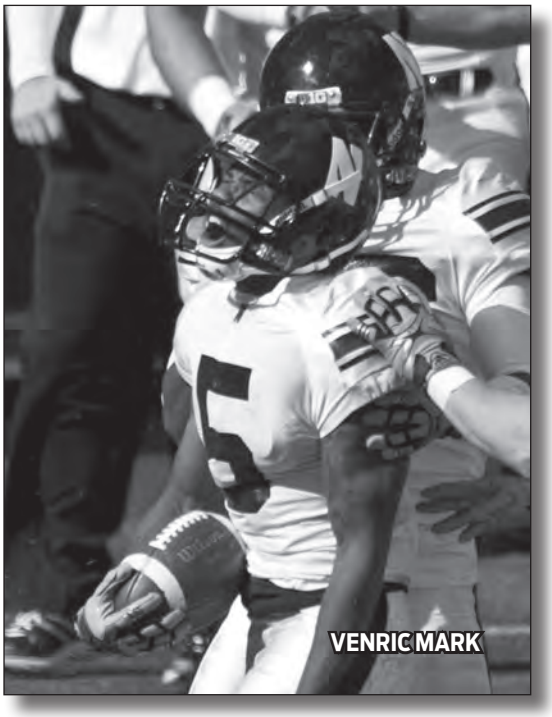

IBRAHEIM CAMPBELL

TOGETHER AGAIN
Northwestern is one of only 16 teams in FBS football that kept its entire coaching staff intact from 2011 to 2012, returning Pat Fitzgerald for his seventh year as head coach and all nine assistant coaches from a year ago. NU joins fellow Legends Division members Michigan, Michigan State and Minnesota as the only Big Ten schools that can make that claim. Veteran coaches Mick McCall and Mike Hankwitz each are in their fifth seasons coordinating the Wildcat offense and defense, respectively.

NEW TO NU
In addition to welcoming 21 freshman scholarship athletes and 10 additional walk-ons to the Wildcat Family, Pat Fitzgerald also brought in a pair of upperclassmen transfers during the offseason. The first was local product Kyle Prater, a talented 6-foot-5 wide receiver who comes to NU following two seasons at Southern California. In June, Fitzgerald announced the addition of cornerback Quinn Evans, who earned his undergraduate degree and spent four years on the football team at Stanford. Evans, who missed all of 2011 due to injury, is eligible to compete immediately while seeking his master's degree in NU's School of Continuing Studies.

NONCONFERENCE, NO PROBLEM
Northwestern posted a 3-1 mark against nonconference foes in the 2011 regular season, raising Pat Fitzgerald's all-time record vs. non-Big Ten opponents in the regular season to 19-5. The mark includes a perfect 6-0 record in season-openers under Fitzgerald as well as four wins over BCS conference opponents. This year's nonconference schedule is a challenging one for the Wildcats, with a season-opening road test at Syracuse followed by home dates with Vanderbilt, Boston College and FCS foe South Dakota.

THE "NEW" BIG TEN CONFERENCE

A new era of Big Ten football began in the fall of 2011 with divisional play leading up to the first ever Big Ten Football Championship Game in Indianapolis on Dec. 3. With the addition of Nebraska on July 1, 2011, football competition was reorganized into two divisions: "Legends" and "Leaders." A divisional breakdown of the 12 Big Ten members is listed below:

LEGENDS:
Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern

LEADERS:
Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue, Wisconsin

"'Legends' is a nod to our history and to the people associated with our schools who are widely recognized as legends—student-athletes, coaches, alumni and faculty.

"'Leaders' looks to the future as we remain committed to fostering leaders, the student-athletes who are encouraged to lead in their own way for the rest of their lives, in their families, in their communities and in their chosen professions," said Delany. "We're proud of our many legends and even prouder of our member institutions that develop future leaders every day."

The Big Ten Conference announced on Aug. 5, 2010, that Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis had been chosen as the proposed site for the inaugural Big Ten Football Championship Game to be played Dec. 3, 2011.

The event was an undisputed success, with Wisconsin (Leaders) edging Michigan State (Legends) in a thrilling back-and-forth affair, 42-39, to earn a berth in the Rose Bowl. The game was played in primetime and carried live on FOX Sports and drew a crowd of 64,152 to Lucas Oil Stadium.

The Big Ten and the Indiana Sports Commission have entered into an agreement to host the Big Ten Football Championship Games at Lucas Oil Stadium through 2015, with the 2012 contest set for December 1.

Running Back
Tomball, Texas
St. Pius X

2012 SCOUTING REPORT

An electrifying kickoff and punt returner ... Ranks fifth all-time at NU with 24.0 yards per kick return ... Needs just 35 kickoff return yards to become NU's all-time leader and is 11 kick returns shy of matching school mark of 72 ... Looking to make an impact as a running back, where he found a home midway through last season after previous playing at wide receiver ... Named to the preseason watch list for Paul Hornung Award, presented to the nation's most versatile player.

Played in all 13 games, shifting from receiver to running back midway through the season ... One of the top kickoff return men in the conference ... Set an NU single-season record with 40 kickoff returns, topping the previous record of 38 that had stood since 1974 ... One of only six players in FBS football with six returns of 40 or more yards on the year ... Ranked eighth in the Big Ten with 22.9 yards per kick return ... Averaged 15.9 yards per punt return, but did not have enough attempts to qualify for a national ranking (would rank third nationally and first in Big Ten) ... Returned two kickoffs for 46 yards at Boston College ... Totaled 120 kickoff return yards (three attempts) against Eastern Illinois—two of his three returns went for 49 and 63 yards ... Earned team's special teams player of the week honor for the EIU game ... Had a 17-yard punt return at Army ... Notched a season-long 28-yard punt return at Illinois and followed that up with a 20-yard return vs. Michigan ... Named team's special teams player of the week vs. the Wolverines ... Totaled 142 kickoff return yards at Iowa (seven returns) ... 50 kickoff return yards vs. Penn State ... Versus Indiana, returned two kickoffs 53 yards, with one of the returns covering 46 yards ... Also had a single-game-best 47 rushing yards (four carries) vs. the Hoosiers ... Notched a 23 and a 41-yard KO return at Nebraska ... Had kickoff returns of 44 and 42 yards vs. Minnesota ... Totaled 78 kickoff return yards (four returns) vs. Michigan State ... Had two punt returns for 50 yards, including a 47-yarder vs. Texas A&M while playing in his hometown of Houston ... Totaled 198 all-purpose yards (141 kickoff return yards) vs. the Aggies ... Rushed for seven yards and his first career rushing TD against Texas A&M.

True freshman ... Averaged 10.0 yards per punt return on five attempts and 23.8 yards per kickoff return on six attempts ... Joined Rashad Lawrence as one of two true freshmen to play in all 13 games ... By season's end, was team's primary kickoff and punt returner ... Ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 32nd nationally with 26.2 yards per kick return (21 attempts) with one return TD ... Also averaged 12.9 yards per punt return on nine attempts ... Named second-team punt returner on Freshman All-American squad and first-team on Big Ten All-Freshman squad by Rivals.com ... Compiled 141 all-purpose yards in the TicketCity Bowl vs. Texas Tech, including 108 kickoff return yards on five attempts ... At Wisconsin, shattered NU's previous record for kick return yards in a game with 273 yards on nine attempts, including a 94-yard return for a touchdown ... It was the first kickoff return for TD by a Wildcat since Sept. 22, 2007 ... His 273 return yards were 10 shy of the Big Ten Conference record ... Also returned two punts for eight yards vs. the Badgers ... Against Illinois, broke off a 58-yard punt return—the longest by a Wildcat since 2005—returned one kickoff for 26 yards and posted two special teams stops ... One kickoff return at Penn State for 26 yards ... At Indiana, compiled 77 all-purpose yards, including 56 kickoff return yards on two attempts and two punt returns for 17 yards ... Racked up 97 all-purpose yards vs. Michigan State, rushing once for 29 yards, returning two punts for 26 yards and returning two kickoffs for 42 yards ... One carry for two yards and one tackle at Minnesota ... Two catches for 12 yards at Rice ... Recorded his first career reception vs. Illinois State ... Made his collegiate debut at Vanderbilt, returning one kickoff ... Named NU's special teams player of the game vs. Central Michigan, Indiana and Illinois.

HIGH SCHOOL

HEAD COACH
PAT FITZGERALD

No matter what the setting, Pat Fitzgerald invariably feels comfortable using his passion, unwavering set of core values and enthusiasm to inspire and improve those around him.

It's apparent to anyone who has watched Fitzgerald join in his squad's linebacker drills during practice to demonstrate proper tackling form. Or to the hundreds of Northwestern freshmen to whom Fitzgerald teaches the right way to sing the school fight song at the start of each academic year. It's even clear to members of the state government of Illinois, whom in January 2009 invited Fitzgerald to serve on the Illinois Reform Commission aimed at rooting out political corruption.

That passion was also a primary factor in Fitzgerald's Hall-of-Fame playing career at Northwestern, when he was a two-time Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik Award winner for NU's back-to-back Big Ten title-winning teams in the mid-'90's. The 'Cats posted a two-year Big Ten record of 15-1 and made appearances in the 1996 Rose Bowl and 1997 Citrus Bowl with Fitzgerald serving as the centerpiece of a defense that ranked among the nation's best.

Although Fitzgerald's passion and commitment to excellence may be difficult to quantify, the positive impact he has made on all aspects of the Northwestern Football program since becoming head coach in 2006 is not. "Fitz" has guided the Wildcats to an active streak of four consecutive postseason berths while simultaneously helping his players set program records for academic achievement and community outreach.

An assistant coach for the Wildcats from 2001 through the summer of 2006, Fitzgerald was named Northwestern's 29th head coach on July 7, 2006, succeeding Randy Walker, who died suddenly on June 29, 2006. He remained the youngest head football coach among Football Bowl Subdivision schools until Lane Kiffin (six months younger) was hired by Tennessee on Dec. 1, 2008.

By no means was this the circumstance Fitzgerald envisioned when landing his dream job, but he knew he was prepared when the Northwestern administration asked him to succeed Walker.

"We're continuing Coach Walker's legacy and building upon his successes," said Fitzgerald, who began the 2012 season ranked second all-time at NU in career victories. "Northwestern will continue to have a football program built upon great work ethic, attitude and investment."

In May of 2011, NU Director of Athletics Jim Phillips announced that Fitzgerald and the school agreed to a new 10-year deal that will keep him on the Northwestern sidelines through 2020. The 10-year deal is unprecedented in Northwestern Athletics history.

"I'm humbled and appreciative of the commitment shown by Northwestern" said Fitzgerald. "With this support from our administration, our coaches and players expect to compete for championships."

It is not surprising that Fitzgerald's arrival on campus in 1993 coincided with the renaissance of Northwestern's football program. Since 1995, the Wildcats have won three Big Ten titles (only Michigan and Ohio State have won more in the last 15 years) and won six or more games in nine of those 15 seasons.

The program has steadily gained momentum in the six years since Fitzgerald took over as head coach, starting with a challenging 4-8 campaign in 2006, when just weeks before the season began, Walker's death rocked the NU football program. In 2007, the Wildcats achieved bowl-eligibility with a 6-6 mark but did not play in a postseason game due to a lack of bowl slots for Big Ten teams. The 2007 Wildcats boasted a prolific offense that has become synonymous with NU teams of late, leading the Big Ten in regular-season total offense.

In 2008, a dramatically improved defense and strong special teams play led the 'Cats to a nine-win season and a berth in the Valero Alamo Bowl against Missouri, their first postseason appearance since taking on UCLA in the 2005 Sun Bowl. Northwestern touted the nation's fifth-most improved scoring defense and the Wildcats set a single-season school mark for rushing defense (126.4 ypg), breaking the mark that Fitzgerald and his teammates established in 1995. NU's 5-0 season start in 2008 was its best since the 1962 campaign, when the Wildcats were 6-0 and ranked No. 1 in the nation. For his efforts, Fitzgerald was named the 2008 Big Ten Coach of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award and a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award.

In 2009, the Wildcats returned to a New Year's Day Bowl game, their first since Fitzgerald was a student-athlete playing Tennessee in the 1997 Citrus Bowl. Fitzgerald's 2009 club was, perhaps, one of the most resilient teams in recent memory, overcoming a number of injuries (especially on defense) and some difficult defeats, only to finish with a "November to remember." The Wildcats opened the month by knocking off unbeaten Iowa, which at the time was ranked No. 4 in the BCS. NU then went to Illinois and defeated its instate rival before returning home to edge No. 16 (BCS) Wisconsin in the regular-season finale.

The strong finish made the Wildcats a "wanted" bowl team and they landed a berth in the Outback Bowl on Jan. 1. In that game, Northwestern played with the "heart of a Wildcat," overcoming a number of double-digit deficits only to fall 38-35 in overtime to Auburn. That game was widely recognized as the best bowl game of 2009-10, and one of the all-time most exciting postseason games.

In 2010, Northwestern raced to another 5-0 start before beating nationally ranked Iowa on Nov. 13 to move to 7-3 and climb back into the top-25. A season-ending injury to first-team All-Big Ten quarterback Dan Persa, however, slowed the 'Cats' ascent in the national rankings and NU closed the season with a 7-6 mark. Still, NU's third straight winning season under Fitzgerald was capped with yet another New Year's Day bowl berth, a bid to the inaugural TicketCity Bowl at the famed Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

This past year, with another strong finish to the schedule (four wins in their final five games), the Wildcats became bowl-eligible for a fifth straight year. The stretch was highlighted by a 28-25 upset of No. 9 Nebraska in Lincoln, which helped position NU for an eventual berth in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas at Reliant Stadium, home of the NFL's Houston Texans.

With that sustained run of success under Fitzgerald, NU's recently graduated 2011 senior class left Northwestern as the school's all-time winningest five-year senior group, with 36 victories to their credit.

Off the field, the Wildcats are reaching unprecedented academic heights. Recent years have seen the Wildcats double the number of players earning Academic All-Big Ten awards under Fitzgerald's watch, from 16 in 2006 to a school-record 32 in 2010. Each of the last four years, the football team registered a combined team grade point average above a 3.0 for an academic quarter, including a program-best 3.14 for the winter quarter in 2012.

Additionally, Northwestern continues to lead or rank near the top of the country in annual graduation rate. In 2010, for the fifth time since 2002, Northwestern captured the AFCA's Academic Achievement Award, which is given to the top FBS football program for graduation rate. In the NCAA's most recent multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) report, NU recorded a score of 995 out of a possible 1,000, the highest score among all FBS (Football Bowl Subdivision) or FCS (Football Championship Subdivision) institutions.

Even with remarkable athletic and academic achievements, the NU student-athlete experience is not complete without making a significant contribution to the campus and Evanston communities, which is why so many of Fitzgerald's players have been recognized for giving back.

Fitzgerald, his family and his players partake in countless charitable events, including NU's annual campus-wide Dance Marathon. 2009 graduate Eric Peterman received the National ARA Sportsmanship Award for his off-the-field efforts while a Wildcat also has been selected to the prestigious Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® each of the last six years. Only 11 players from FBS football claim the honor each season. Each year, the Wildcats make an impact on their communities through weekly hospital and elementary school visits as well as volunteer efforts with Special Olympics, Misericordia and the NU chapter of Uplifting Athletes, among countless other organizations.

Fitzgerald and his wife Stacy are the annual honorary chairpersons for Erin Olmsted Memorial Scholarship 5K Race in their Illinois hometown of Orland Park. He also is a regular participant for the St. Baldrick's Foundation, an organization that helps raise funds for childhood cancer research.

As a player in 1995, Fitzgerald was the leader of a suffocating Wildcat defense that led the nation in scoring defense and anchored NU's storybook run to the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl. He ended the year by being named winner of both the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's top defensive player. He also was the Big Ten, Chevrolet and Sports Illustrated

Pat Fitzgerald and the Wildcats invite guests from Misericordia to a practice every spring. The team cans throughtout Evanston to raise money for Misericordia as an annual event.

Dan and Susan Jones Family Head Football Coach

PAT FITZGERALD

Defensive Player of the Year. Fitzgerald accomplished all of this despite suffering a broken leg in the penultimate regular-season game.

Fitzgerald recovered from that injury, and in 1996 he again led the Wildcats to a share of the Big Ten title. As a result, he once again won the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards, becoming the first two-time winner of both honors and laying the groundwork for his selection to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008. Fitzgerald also repeated as Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and Linebacker of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, and was the recipient of Northwestern's George Ballantine Jr., Memorial Leadership Award.

Stacy, Jack, Brendan, Pat and Ryan Fitzgerald

A two-time first-team All-American, Fitzgerald started 23 career games and totaled 299 tackles, including 20 for loss. He also forced five fumbles and intercepted three passes.

Fitzgerald signed a free-agent contract with the Dallas Cowboys following his Northwestern career, playing in three preseason games before taking a one-year hiatus from football.

Prior to his return to Northwestern, Fitzgerald was a defensive graduate assistant at Maryland (1998) and Colorado (1999) before taking his first full-time position at Idaho in 2000. In 2001, Walker brought Fitzgerald back to Evanston, hiring him to coach the defensive secondary. In 2002, he moved to linebackers coach and in 2004 added recruiting coordinator to his title.

Named one of college football's top recruiters by SI.com in 2005, Fitzgerald played an integral role in coaching and recruiting during his five years as an NU assistant. He mentored two-time All-Big Ten linebacker and former St. Louis Ram Tim McGarigle, the all-time leading tackler in NCAA history. In February 2003, Fitzgerald was inducted into Northwestern's Athletic Hall of Fame.

In addition to his January 2009 appointment to the Illinois Reform Commission, Fitzgerald was named to the AFCA's Ethics Committee, beginning his term in the fall of 2009. Fitzgerald also is dedicated to helping improve youth football safety as a member of USA Football's Tackle Advisory Committee, which works diligently to provide a safe experience for the nearly three million children who are playing the game of football. In 2012, Fitzgerald announced his involvement with the Positive Coaching Alliance, a national non-profit dedicated to fostering environments where youth and high school athletes can enjoy a positive, character-building youth sports experience

A graduate of Orland Park's (Ill.) Carl Sandburg High School, Fitzgerald resides in Northfield with his wife, Stacy, and three sons, Jack, born in November 2004, Ryan, born in September 2006, and Brendan, born in February 2009.

QUOTES ABOUT FITZ

Gary Barnett, former Northwestern head coach (1992-98)
"Pat personifies Northwestern football. The honors he received as a player, the way he handled himself as a student-athlete and the name he has made for himself in the college football world, makes it a real natural fit for Northwestern. Pat loves Northwestern; he will be a guy that the Northwestern community can count on to represent them for years and years."

C.J. Bachér, former Wildcat quarterback (2005-08)
"Coach Fitzgerald is the true definition of a Northwestern Wildcat. He is defined as a coach by his passion, loyalty, commitment to excellence and exuberance. He is defined as a player by his accomplishments, his leadership and his will. Coach "Fitz" has learned a lot from the late Coach Randy Walker and developed a similar style of coaching with a bit more of a "hands-on" approach."

Pat Fitzgerald has garnered the respect of former players, national commentators and countless members of the coaching fraternity, including New York Yankees manager Joe Girardi.

Ron Vanderlinden, Penn State University, linebacker coach
Ron Vanderlinden was NU's linebacker coach during Pat's playing days in Evanston
"Pat played with tremendous passion and a relentless resolve. He also was a natural leader and team captain who motivated all around him to raise their levels of play. As I have watched Pat grow as a coach, I see these same qualities in Pat and the players he coaches. Pat is a fun person to be around, he is committed to his family and grounded in his faith. Pat Fizgerald is a winner."

Frank Lenti, Mt. Carmel High School, head coach
"What he accomplished as a player transitioned into becoming a great coach and he did all that at Northwestern. He has talked-the-talk and walked-the-walk and I look forward to what he will accomplish in Evanston."

Joe Girardi, manager of the New York Yankees and Northwestern alum
"When I watch [Pat] coach, it would be someone who I'd want my son (Dante) to play for because he has a ton of passion, he has a ton of energy, he's a huge encourager and education comes first."

Tim McGarigle, former Wildcat and NFL linebacker
"As a young linebacker, Coach Fitzgerald was my mentor not only athletically, but also academically and socially. He firmly believes in not only making you the best football player you can be, but also the best man. As the head coach at one of the best schools in the nation, Coach Fitz is mentoring an entire football team. That is extremely appealing to anyone who wants to play football at Northwestern."

Tom Lemming, national recruiting commentator
"Head coach Pat Fitzgerald has certainly proven to be one of the more polished and enthusiastic recruiters in the nation. There is no place he or his staff won't go for talent, and his classes have proven that point. Northwestern under Fitzgerald has shown the ability to land blue chip athletes away from other national schools."

Mike Kafka, former Wildcat quarterback (2006-09) and current Philadelphia Eagles quarterback
"It's hard to believe that any former Northwestern athlete bleeds more purple than Coach Fitz. His enthusiasm and passion for his alma mater is unmatched. There's no question that he is going to be the face of Northwestern Football, and perhaps Northwestern Athletics, for years to come."

WHAT FITZ IS SAYING ABOUT NORTHWESTERN

"IT'S NO SECRET that I WANT TO BE the head football coach AT NORTHWESTERN for many years to come."

COACHING STAFF

JERRY BROWN

20th Season at NU
32nd Overall Season
Assistant Head Coach
Defensive Backs Coach

Jerry Brown, the dean of the Wildcat coaching staff, is in his 20th season with NU. In January 2002, Brown was named assistant head coach. He currently oversees the Wildcats' defensive secondary after serving as defensive coordinator from 1999 to 2001.

Brown's coaching career includes stops at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. Before his return to Evanston in 1993, he served as an assistant on Jerry Burns' staff with the Minnesota Vikings, tutoring wide receivers in 1988 and 1989 and defensive backs in 1990 and 1991. The Vikings' defensive unit held opponents to the lowest passing yardage in the NFC in 1990.

Before moving to the professional ranks, Brown served eight seasons as an assistant at Cal State Fullerton. He coached the Titans' wide receivers during that time and also served as offensive coordinator for his last five seasons. Brown also coached defensive backs at Eastern Illinois for three years (1977-79) and coached at his high school alma mater, Roosevelt, in Kent, Ohio, from 1973-77. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northwestern in 1972 under head coach Alex Agase.

In 1995, Brown's secondary was a big reason NU led the country in scoring defense (12.7) and was third in turnover margin (+1.82). Three of his defensive backs—Rodney Ray, Hudhaifa Ismaeli and Chris Martin—earned All-Big Ten honors.

Brown's defensive back unit also was a huge part of Northwestern's defensive resurgence in 2008, helping the Wildcats rank 25th in the nation in pass efficiency defense. The three upperclassmen in the unit (Sherrick McManis, Brad Phillips and Brendan Smith) earned All-Big Ten recognition while freshman Jordan Mabin was named to Rivals.com, Phil Steele, Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and Sporting News Freshman All-America squads.

In the past four seasons, Brown's defensive secondary has combined to win eight All-Big Ten honors including a trio of first-team selections. Senior Brian Peters became the most recent to claim first-team accolades under Brown in 2011.

Brown lettered in his sophomore and junior seasons with the Wildcats as a wide receiver, catching 24 passes for 442 yards and two touchdowns. He played defensive back as a senior, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors and helping NU finish second in the conference. That year, he set the single-season record for pass breakups (12). In 1994, one of his pupils, Rodney Ray, broke that mark with 13 pass breakups. Brown was selected in the ninth round of the 1972 NFL draft by the San Francisco 49ers. He graduated from Northwestern's School of Education in 1972.

Brown and his wife, Denise (a 1974 Northwestern graduate), have a son, Jerry, and daughter, Kimberly. The Browns reside in Evanston.

MIKE HANKWITZ

Fifth Season at NU
42nd Overall Season
Defensive Coordinator

Veteran defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz, who has been part of more than 300 victories at the collegiate level, is in his fifth season with the Wildcats and his 42nd college season overall. He began his Wildcat tenure Jan. 18, 2008.

In Hankwitz's first season, the Wildcats' defense was the fifth-most improved unit in the country. After allowing 31.0 points per game in 2007, NU gave up 20.2 to rank 27th nationally. NU also ranked in the top-30 in sacks (18th), pass efficiency defense (25th) and TFLs (28th). NU posted 20 defensive shutout quarters and held four foes to under 100 yards rushing—including a school-record four against Ohio.

Hankwitz's 2009 defense was turnover oriented, ranking 11th nationally with 30, comprised of 17 interceptions (16th in the country) and 13 fumble recoveries (21st). In 2010, NU limited half of its regular-season opponents to 105 total rushing yards or less while holding two foes to under 50 yards passing.

The 2011 effort was highlighted by an upset of No. 9 Nebraska on Nov. 5. NU limited the Huskers to a season-low 122 yards rushing—101 yards below their final season average. It also marked the first of three straight games in which the 'Cat defense held an opponent to three points or fewer in a half.

In addition to Northwestern, Hankwitz has served as defensive coordinator at Western Michigan, Colorado (twice), Kansas, Texas A&M, Arizona and Wisconsin since 1982. He spent 2006-07 with the Badgers, touting one of the nation's top defenses in 2006. Wisconsin was No. 1 nationally in pass efficiency defense (84.19 rating, third-lowest in Big Ten history), No. 2 in scoring defense (12.1 ppg) and fifth in total defense (253.1 ypg).

Prior to UW, Hankwitz spent two years as Colorado's defensive coordinator and interim head coach for the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl. CU won Big 12 North titles in 2004-05. Before Colorado, he was as Arizona's 2003 defensive coordinator (and later interim head coach).

Hankwitz was the defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Texas A&M (1997-2002) where he guided the Aggies' famed "Wrecking Crew" defense. During that span he had five top-20 defenses and won two South Division crowns and one Big 12 title.

Hankwitz spent 1995-96 as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Kansas. The '95 Jayhawks recorded the school's first 10-win season since 1905 and ranked 10th in the final polls.

Hankwitz enjoyed a 10-year run in his first tenure with Colorado (1985-94). After coaching outside linebackers and punters his first three years, he was named defensive coordinator in 1988. Colorado put together the nation's fifth-best record (58-11-4) from 1989-94—winning the 1990 national title, three Big 8 titles and six national top-20 rankings (with three top-five finishes). The 1989 and 1991 teams set the school record for fewest points allowed (150).

Mike, Jacob and Cathy Hankwitz

Following stints at Arizona and Purdue, Hankwitz earned his first defensive coordinator position at Western Michigan in 1982.

Hankwitz began coaching as a graduate assistant (1970-72) at Michigan under Bo Schembechler. As a Michigan player, he earned three letters and started on the 1969 Big Ten championship Rose Bowl squad. He earned a bachelor's of science degree in education.

He was born in Ludington, Mich., and graduated from Mason County (Scottville, Mich.) Central High School, where he lettered in four sports: football, basketball, track and baseball. He and his wife, Cathy, have a son, Jacob.

MICK McCALL

Fifth Season at NU
24th Overall Season
Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks Coach

Mick McCall is in his fifth season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Northwestern, where he has mentored two different signal-callers to All-Big Ten honors since 2009.

In McCall's first year in 2008, quarterback C.J. Bachér finished second in the Big Ten in total offense. When an injury kept Bachér out for two games, McCall tweaked the offense to allow Mike Kafka to break the then-Big Ten record for rushing yards by a QB with 217 at Minnesota. Fourteen different 'Cats caught passes in McCall's 2008 spread, with Eric Peterman leading a group of eight 'Cats with double-digit receptions. Keeping with NU's tradition of spread-offense rushing, Tyrell Sutton averaged 98.9 yards per game and was NU's fourth-best receiver to earn All-Big Ten honors.

In 2009, All-Big Ten quarterback Mike Kafka made NU the Big Ten's top passing attack, ranking 13th in the country with 286.5 passing yards per game. Kafka, a fourth round NFL Draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles, led the Big Ten in total offense (286.5 ypg), passing yards (263.8 ypg), completion percentage (64.8), completions per game (24.5) and fewest interceptions (2.44 percent).

McCall's offense gained 625 total yards at the 2010 Outback Bowl, leading to 31 broken or tied Bowl records during a dramatic 38-35 overtime loss. Kafka's 532 passing yards were a school record, while his 47 completions and 78 attempts were NCAA bowl records. Kafka's 98 offensive plays (78 pass, 20 rush) and the 'Cats' 115 total offensive plays were NCAA bowl and NCAA FBS records.

In 2010, for the second-straight year, McCall coached Northwestern's starting quarterback to All-Big Ten honors. Dan Persa was the coaches choice as top QB while the media named him second-team after he completed a Big Ten-record 73.5 percent of his passes for 2,581 yards and 15 touchdowns against just four interceptions. Persa also ran for 519 yards and nine more scores. The Wildcats ranked third in the Big Ten in passing offense with 242.6 yards per game, compiling a 7-3 record after a win over then-No. 13 Iowa on Nov. 13. Persa's season came to an end on the winning touchdown pass of that game after he ruptured his achilles tendon.

In 2011, McCall orchestrated an NU offense that was led by two dynamic playmakers in quarterbacks Persa and Kain Colter. McCall helped Colter post a 2-1 mark as the starter while Persa fully recovered from injury and, after Persa's return, employed Colter as a quarterback-running back-receiver hybrid. Colter compiled 673 passing yards, 654 rushing yards and 466 receiving yards and was involved in 18 total touchdowns on the year en route to honorable mention All-Big Ten honors.

McCall spent 2007 Bowling Green State University's offensive coordinator, averaging over 400 yards per game. Prior to '07, McCall was BGSU's quarterbacks coach for four years, leading All-Americans Josh Harris (2003) and Omar Jacobs (2004). Jacobs set an NCAA record with 41 TD passes against four interceptions in 2004, the best ratio in college football history. Harris completed 325-of-494 passes (65.8 percent) for a then-school-record 3,813 yards and 27 TDs.

McCall began coaching in 1979 at his alma mater, Southern Colorado, as the quarterbacks and running backs coach. He then spent 1983-87 as the running backs/tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at Idaho State. He joined Oregon State from 1988-90 as the Beavers' wide receivers and tight ends coach.

At Mullen, he led the program to a 68-17 mark and the 1998 state title, earning Denver Post Coach of the Year honors.

McCall played QB at Southern Colorado—now known as Colorado State-Pueblo—from 1975-78 earning two All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference nods and lettering in basketball. In 2012, CSU-Pueblo announced that McCall would be inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame.

McCall and his wife, Joanne, have two daughters, Ashley and Brittany.

RANDY BATES

Seventh Season at NU
31st Overall Season
Linebackers Coach

Randy Bates is in his seventh season as Northwestern's linebackers coach after a six-year stint at Louisiana Tech. Bates was Tech's defensive coordinator/secondary coach in 2005.

Bates assumed linebacker duties after Pat Fitzgerald was named Northwestern's head coach in July of 2006. Three of NU's top-six tacklers from 2006 were part of the linebacking corps, led by Adam Kadela's team-high 80 tackles. Current Chicago Bear Nick Roach was fourth with 62 despite missing four games due to injury.

In 2007, Kadela ranked 21st in the nation and third in the Big Ten with 125 tackles (10.4 pg), concluding his career four shy of the 300 mark. He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors.

Bates' linebacking corps was a huge part of NU's defensive resurgence in 2008. Prince Kwateng ranked eighth in the Big Ten and among the nation's leaders with 8.2 tackles per game. The linebackers posted 24.5 tackles-for-loss, including 8.5 sacks. In 2009, Quentin Davie and Nate Williams combined to make 176 tackles (19.5 for loss) on their own. The entire group had 26.5 tackles-for-loss, bettering its stellar number from a year before. The following year, Bates had a deep and veteran group, led again by Williams and Davie; the pair combined for 29 stops alone at the TicketCity Bowl against Texas Tech.

In 2011, NU's corps of linebackers regularly went six deep in the rotation. The unit's highlight of the year undoubtedly came in NU's 28-25 upset of No. 9 Nebraska on Nov. 5, when the group combined for 21 tackles, 4.0 TFL's, a forced fumble and a pass breakup while shutting down a heralded running attack.

Prior to Northwestern, Bates spent six years at Louisiana Tech, including 2005 when he led the school to one of its top defensive seasons in a decade, resulting in a 7-4 record and third-place finish in the WAC. The defense gave up its fewest points since 1994 and ranked fifth in the nation in turnover margin.

While coaching the Louisiana Tech secondary, Bates mentored defensive back Tramon Williams who led the country in pass defenses with 19, which included 16 pass breakups and three picks.

In his six years with the Bulldogs, Bates served in numerous capacities, all on the defensive side of the football. He worked with the entire secondary in 2000 and 2001, the cornerbacks in 2002, linebackers in 2003, the entire secondary in 2004 and finally defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2005.

Prior to Tech, Bates served two years as the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Kent State University, where he coached standout Pittsburgh Steeler James Harrison.

Bates was the linebackers coach at New Hampshire from 1992 through 1997, during which time the program won three conference northern division titles and Bates coached three of the top 10 tackle leaders in school history. In 1994, New Hampshire went undefeated, won the Yankee Conference championship and reached the NCAA playoffs.

He also coached at Navy (1989-92), St. Joseph's College (1984-88), Miami (Ohio) (1983-84) and Muskingum College (1982-83).

Bates earned a bachelor's degree in physical education at Ohio State in 1983 and a master's in education at Miami (Ohio) in 1985. A retired Naval Lieutenant, he and his wife, Tracey, have three children: Samantha, Alexandra and Olivia.

ADAM CUSHING

Ninth Season at NU
11th Overall Season
Offensive Line Coach

Adam Cushing is in his ninth season on the Wildcat staff and his eighth as a full-time assistant. In February of 2009, he was promoted from superbacks coach to offensive line coach.

In his first year in charge of the offensive line, Cushing molded a young group which gelled and excelled toward the end of the 2009 season. The line blocked for eventual fourth-round NFL Draft pick Mike Kafka and contributed to a record-breaking offensive performance in the 2010 Outback Bowl, where Kafka threw for a school-record 532 yards while NU broke the NCAA record for offensive plays in a game.

Cushing's offensive line came together in 2010 to pave the way for four 100-yard rushing performances in Northwestern's final six games—NU's first such efforts since the 2008 Alamo Bowl. Overall, NU's regular-season rushing total increased 25 percent over 2009. Left tackle Al Netter earned All-Big Ten honorable mention from the media for the second-straight season while center Ben Burkett began the year as a member of the Rimington Trophy watch list for the second-straight time. The group helped Dan Persa earn an All-Big Ten first team honor from the coaches and a second-team nod from the media, allowing him to complete a Big Ten-record 73.5 percent of his passes on the year.

NU returned one of the nation's most experienced offensive lines in 2011, with newcomer Brandon Vitabile joining Netter, Burkett, Pat Ward and Brian Mulroe up front. All five started all 13 games for the 'Cats, helping NU post the fifth-best rushing attack in the Big Ten. After going without a 300-yard rushing game since 2005, Northwestern achieved the feat twice in 2011.

As the Wildcats' superbacks' coach, Cushing mentored then-true freshman Drake Dunsmore, who was named to the Sporting News Freshman All-Big Ten team in 2007. Dunsmore ranked third on the team with 12.8 yards per catch among players with 10 or more catches, picking up 141 yards on 11 receptions.

After Dunsmore was hurt prior to 2008, Cushing's crew diversified well. Josh Rooks and Brendan Mitchell each caught touchdown passes while helping block for an offense that averaged 141.8 yards on the ground per game.

A Chicago native, Cushing joined NU after spending two years as an assistant coach at the University of La Verne in La Verne, Calif. He coached tight ends in 2002 and the offensive line in 2003.

Cushing played at prep power Mt. Carmel High School, and went on to play at NCAA Division III University of Chicago. There, Cushing was a three-year starter at tight end and senior captain, and was named to the all-University Athletic Association team three-straight years (1999-2001). He helped the Maroons win UAA titles in 1998 and 2000. He finished his collegiate career with 72 receptions, good enough for 10th on U of C's career catches list.

A Dean's List honoree, Cushing graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology from Chicago in 2002. He completed work on his master's degree in general education at La Verne in 2004.

Cushing is married to Dr. Jaime Cushing, DDS. They have a daughter, Abby, and reside in Evanston.

BOB HEFFNER

Fourth Season at NU
29th Overall Season
Superbacks Coach

Bob Heffner, a veteran of 29 seasons as a college coach, is in his fourth year in charge of Northwestern's superbacks unit.

In his first season, Heffner's superbacks played a large role in NU's passing offense, which topped the Big Ten and ranked 13th nationally. Drake Dunsmore ranked second in the Big Ten among tight ends and third on the team with 47 catches. In 2010, Dunsmore was NU's second-leading receiver with 40 catches for 381 yards and five touchdowns. Dunsmore earned consensus All-Big Ten honorable mention honors at the tight end position.

Heffner's tutelage of Dunsmore over the last three years represents a resounding success, culminating in Dunsmore being voted the inaugural winner of the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year Award in 2011. Dunsmore, who also was a consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, became NU's career leader for receiving yards by a tight end and graduated with 1,567 yards on 143 catches.

BOWL EXPERIENCE

- 1979 Garden State (Temple)
- 2010 Outback (Northwestern)
- 2011 TicketCity (Northwestern)
- 2011 Meineke Car Care (Northwestern)

Prior to NU, Heffner spent 2001-08 at Lafayette College, becoming associate head coach in 2002 while serving as offensive line coach from 2001-07 and as offensive coordinator in 2008. In a five-year span, his linemen earned 13 all-league honors.

As offensive coordinator in 2008, Heffner's squad ranked second in Patriot League rushing and led the nation with the fewest turnovers. In 2006, Lafayette won its third-straight League title and advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs. Heffner's offensive line blocked for tailback Jonathan Hurt, the conference Offensive Player of the Year. Six times in his last eight seasons with Lafayette, the team ranked first or second in League rushing or passing. He won three-straight Patriot League titles.

Heffner also had two earlier successful stints at Lafayette, which were sandwiched around four years in the professional ranks. In 1988-89, he coached the offensive line and helped the 1988 Leopards to the Patriot League title. He then worked with CFL's British Columbia Lions (1990-92) as their co-offensive coordinator, coaching Doug Flutie, the CFL's MVP in 1991 and Jim Mills, the two-time Most Valuable Offensive Lineman in 1990-91. Heffner spent one season with the AFL's Tampa Bay Storm as the line coach and director of player personnel in 1993 before returning to Lafayette in the fall of '93. He was the Leopards' offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for three seasons, which included a Patriot League title in 1994.

In 1996, Heffner coached offensive line at Northern Illinois. In early 1997, Heffner joined former NU assistant coach Ron Vanderlinden at Maryland, coaching tight ends and tackles for two seasons before serving as offensive coordinator from 1999-2000.

In Heffner's first season directing Maryland's offense, the Terrapins posted the 10th-best scoring average in school history. Maryland ranked first in the ACC and 12th nationally in rushing yards per game (234.1), and LaMont Jordan earned second-team All-America honors, ranking fifth in the nation in rushing.

Heffner graduated from Temple in 1979 with a secondary education bachelor's degree, helping the Owls from his spot on the offensive line to consecutive Mirage Bowl appearances in 1977 and 1978. He began full-time coaching at Illinois State with the interior defensive line in 1981 before coaching offensive line in a seven-year stay.

MARTY LONG

Fifth Season at NU
25th Overall Season
Defensive Line Coach

Marty Long is in his fifth season at the helm of Northwestern's defensive line, coming to the Wildcats prior to the 2008 campaign, and his 25th season overall coaching at the college level.

In his first year at NU, Long's defensive line was Northwestern's most-improved and impressive unit. Led by first-team All-Big Ten selection Corey Wootton at defensive end, the Wildcats ranked 18th in the nation and second in the conference in sacks with 2.62 per game. As an individual, Wootton led the team both with 10.0 sacks (21st in the nation) and 16.0 tackles-for-loss (35th in the nation). NU's five regular starters all had a minimum of 3.5 sacks and 5.5 tackles-for-loss. NU's line helped hold four different opponents to under 100 yards rushing, including limiting Ohio to a school-record four net rushing yards. John Gill joined Wootton as an All-Big Ten honoree, while Vince Browne was a Rivals.com and Sporting News Freshman All-American.

BOWL EXPERIENCE

- 1997 Insight (Arizona)
- 1998 Holiday (Arizona)
- 2005 Hawaii (Nevada)
- 2006 MPC Computer (Nevada)
- 2008 Alamo (Northwestern)
- 2010 Outback (Northwestern)
- 2011 TicketCity (Northwestern)
- 2011 Meineke Car Care (Northwestern)

In 2009, NU's defensive line recorded 30.5 tackles for loss including 18 sacks to help the Wildcats rank 34th in the nation in sacks. Wootton recovered from a devastating knee injury in the 2008 Alamo Bowl to finish strong, becoming a fourth-round NFL Draft pick of the Chicago Bears.

Long's unit held half of NU's 2010 regular-season foes to under 105 yards rushing while combining for a whopping 41.5 regular-season tackles-for-loss. Much of that production came from Browne, whose 15.5 tackles for loss ranked him third in the conference and ninth in NU single-season history. Browne earned an All-Big Ten second-team accolade from the media while Corbin Bryant was an honorable mention choice of the media.

In 2011, Long oversaw a defensive line group that regularly went eight deep, using a number of personnel combinations over the course of the year. Northwestern racked up an impressive 53.0 tackles for loss in 2011, up from 41.5 in the 2010 regular season and 29.5 the season prior.

Long spent 12 years on the West Coast prior to NU, coaching at Arizona (1996-2003), Nevada (2004-06) and Washington State (2007). He also coached (1987-93) at his alma mater, The Citadel, working with the defensive line and outside linebackers.

Since graduating from The Citadel in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in math and computer science , where he played running back, Long has coached college for all but two years. He was a defensive graduate assistant at Western Kentucky (1986) and The Citadel (1987) before earning full-time status at his alma mater from 1988-94 when he jumped to the pro ranks, serving two years as a defensive assistant with the CFL's Baltimore Stallions.

Long moved back into college coaching as defensive line coach with Arizona under head coaches Dick Tomey and John Mackovic. The Wildcats fielded some of the nation's top defensive teams in that span, ranking 12th nationally in rushing defense in 1997 and '98, and ranking eighth in rushing defense and 21st in total defense in 2000. In 2004, Long began a three-year stint with Chris Ault at Nevada, coaching the defensive line. He then served on Bill Doba's staff at Washington State.

In his career, Long has been part of several championships. At The Citadel, he helped win a Southern Conference title (11-2) in 1992. With the Baltimore Stallions, he won the 1995 Grey Cup (18-3) with the best record in league history. At Arizona, the 1998 Wildcats went 12-1 (best season in school history) and won the Holiday Bowl. At Nevada, the Wolfpack won the 2005 WAC title (9-3) and played in the Hawaii Bowl. In 1992, Long earned a Coach of the Year Medallion from the Eastman Kodak Company.

Long is a native of Rock Hill, S.C., where he attended Northwestern High. He and his wife, Donna, have a son, Jerrell, and two daughters, Anna and Kayla.

MATT MacPHERSON

Seventh Season at NU
14th Overall Season
Running Backs Coach
Recruiting Coordinator

Matt MacPherson is in his seventh season as the Wildcats' running backs coach, returning to NU after serving as the program's defensive graduate assistant from 2000-02. In February of 2011, he took on the additional responsibility of being Northwestern's recruiting coordinator.

MacPherson's first season in charge of NU's running backs notched him a 1,000-yard rusher in Tyrell Sutton, who followed his record-breaking freshman year with 1,000 yards on 189 attempts with 40 receptions (261 yards) out of the backfield in 2006.

In 2007, Sutton was named an honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the coaches despite missing five-plus games with an ankle injury. In Sutton's absence, both Omar Conteh and Brandon Roberson recorded 100-yard rushing games.

BOWL EXPERIENCE

- 2000 Alamo (Northwestern)
- 2008 Alamo (Northwestern)
- 2010 Outback (Northwestern)
- 2011 TicketCity (Northwestern)
- 2011 Meineke Car Care (Northwestern)

MacPherson's running back corps was hit hard by injuries in 2008. Sutton appeared in parts of nine games during the regular season, averaging 98.9 yards per game and 4.8 yards per carry. He also was NU's fourth-leading receiver en route to honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades from the coaches, the fourth All-Big Ten nod of his career. Sutton finished the regular season with 1,195 all-purpose yards, averaging 132.8 yards per game.

The Wildcats employed a running back by committee approach in 2009 and 2010 due to similarly skilled players and injuries. All told, six different running backs recorded carries and five started at least one game in 2010, when NU's regular-season rushing total increased 25 percent over its 2009 total. Jacob Schmidt emerged as a reliable starter, scoring four touchdowns in four starts. After an injury to Schmidt, Mike Trumpy stepped up to start the next four games until an injury kept him out of the regular season finale and TicketCity Bowl. In his four starts, Trumpy put together two 100-yard rushing efforts, averaging 4.6 yards per carry on the year while leading NU in rushing for the season.

The running game remained consistent in 2011 despite losing Trumpy to an ACL injury in the Big Ten-opener vs. Illinois. Schmidt started 12 of 13 games including a career-best performance of 110 yards and two touchdowns at Indiana. Schmidt also keyed one of NU's most memorable drives of the year, a series of 13 plays covering 66 yards and ending in seven points that sealed the 'Cats' win at No. 9 Nebraska.

Prior to joining the Wildcat staff, MacPherson spent two seasons working on Jeff Genyk's staff at Eastern Michigan University, coaching the Eagles' safeties. Prior to his two-year stint at Eastern Michigan, MacPherson was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, MacPherson attended DePauw, where he was a two-time first-team all-conference linebacker. He also was named a third-team Football Gazette All-American in 1998. He was DePauw's Defensive Player of the Year in 1998, and went on to be selected to the school's All-Century Team.

Following his graduation in 1999, MacPherson stayed at DePauw as a graduate assistant/recruiting coordinator, working as running backs coach and the junior varsity offensive coordinator. He earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical performance.

COACHING STAFF

DENNIS SPRINGER

Second Season at NU
20th Overall Season
Wide Receivers Coach

Dennis Springer joined Northwestern as its wide receivers coach in 2011 after spending the previous three seasons at Indiana University, serving as the assistant head coach and running backs coach, as well as the Hoosiers' co-special teams coordinator.

In his first season in Evanston, Springer oversaw the continued growth of Jeremy Ebert into one of the most prolific wide receivers in the Big Ten. Ebert's 1,025 receiving yards in 2011 represent the first 1,000-yard season by a Wildcat pass-catcher since D'Wayne Bates in 1998 and the fourth-highest single-season total in school history. Ebert, a second-team All-Big Ten selection by the media who later was drafted by the New England Patriots, ranked second in the league with 11 touchdown catches and third with 5.9 catches per game.

BOWL EXPERIENCE

- 1993 Las Vegas (Ball State)
- 1996 Las Vegas (Ball State)
- 2003 Motor City (BGSU)
- 2004 GMAC (BGSU)
- 2011 Meineke Car Care (Northwestern)

Springer's best rushing season in Bloomington came in 2008 when Indiana finished sixth in the Big Ten with 2,003 yards on the ground and 19 touchdowns. The Hoosiers averaged 4.5 yards per carry for the year, posting their best rushing season since 2001.

On special teams, Indiana ranked third in the Big Ten in 2010 in kickoff returns, averaging 23.1 yards after racking up 1,476 yards on 64 returns. Tandon Doss led the Hoosiers with 1,016 yards on 41 returns (24.8 yard average).

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Springer spent one season as the assistant head coach and defensive secondary coach at Western Kentucky University as the Hilltoppers made the transition from the Championship Subdivision (FCS) to the Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

Springer's coaching career has its roots in the Mid-American Conference as he spent four seasons at Bowling Green State University prior to joining the staff at WKU. Springer was in charge of the running backs from 2003 to 2005 before making the transition to the defensive side of the ball, taking responsibility of the safeties for the 2006 season. He helped guide the Falcons to the 2003 MAC West Division title and a 28-24 victory over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. BGSU also won the 2004 GMAC Bowl, defeating Memphis 52-35, and captured the 2005 MAC East Division championship.

Springer's lengthiest tenure came at Ball State University where he spent 10 seasons with the Cardinals in a handful of capacities. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the 1993 and 1994 seasons before being promoted to wide receivers coach in 1995. Springer filled that role until the 1999 season when he resumed responsibility of the outside linebackers, a position he held for two years before being named the defensive secondary coach for the 2001 and 2002 seasons. Ball State made a pair of appearances in the Las Vegas Bowl (1993, 1996) during that time.

A Fort Wayne, Ind., native, Springer earned his bachelor of science in secondary education from Butler University in 1993 after helping the Bulldogs to three Midwest Intercollegiate Football Conference championships. Springer also served as a team captain of the 1991 team.

Springer and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Sophia and Sydney.

RICKEY JACKSON

First Season
Offensive Graduate Assistant

Rickey Jackson is in his first year as a graduate assistant for the Wildcats, transitioning to the football program after spending 2011-12 in the role of Assistant Director of Sports Performance for NU.

Jackson was the strength and conditioning intern at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif., during the spring of 2011. While at the Olympic Training Center, Jackson worked with athletes from various sports including track & field, BMX, and Paralympic soccer. Jackson has served as a strength and conditioning graduate student assistant at James Madison University.

Prior to JMU, Jackson was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Howard University where he also played defensive back from 2003-07 on the Howard Bison football team and graduated with a B.S. in physical education. After his final season at Howard, Jackson was invited to a tryout with the Washington Redskins. A native of Colorado Springs, Colo., Jackson is a graduate of the Exercise Physiology Master's Program at JMU.

Jackson holds a certification from the National Strength and Conditioning Association as a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

JOHN KUCEYESKI

First Season
Offensive Graduate Assistant

John Kuceyeski, who began working with the Wildcat program in the spring of 2010, was named the team's offensive graduate assistant coach in March 2012. Kuceyeski was elevated to the GA position after working as Northwestern's offensive quality control intern in 2011.

A Libertyville, Ill., native, Kuceyeski worked as a student manager and undergraduate assistant coach at Penn State University from 2005-09. On the field, he worked specifically with the defensive line for individual drills, as well as running the scout special teams and the scout offensive teams on a week-to-week basis. During his time at Penn State, Kuceyeski worked with five defensive linemen who were drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft and also was an integral part of the 2008 Big Ten Championship team.

Since joining Northwestern, Kuceyeski has assisted in all phases of the program, including scouting, self-scouting, video breakdown, strength and conditioning and recruiting.

Kuceyeski earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Penn State in December of 2009.

ROB NOEL

First Season
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Rob Noel is in his first season as a defensive graduate assistant at Northwestern after joining the Wildcats program in May of 2012. Noel came to NU from Butler University, where he served for three seasons as the defensive line coach and assistant recruiting coordinator for his alma mater.

A 2009 Butler graduate, Noel played both offensive guard and offensive tackle for the Bulldogs from 2005-08. He set a Butler record for most games played in his career with 44, including 29 straight to end his career. Noel earned All-League recognition as an offensive lineman and was a two-time Academic All-League honoree.

McNEIL PARKER

First Season
Defensive Graduate Assistant

McNeil Parker joined the Wildcats' staff in the summer of 2010 and spent his first two seasons with Northwestern as a recruiting assistant before being elevated to the graduate assistant position for 2012. As a recruiting assistant, Parker designed and maintained the football program's social media sites, oversaw NU's recruiting database and helped organize prospects' recruiting trips and visits.

A native of Lake Bluff Ill., Parker attended Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio. During his time at Kenyon he was a four-year letterwinner in both football and tennis, playing quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back for the Lords.

Parker earned his bachelor of arts from Kenyon College in 2010 and is currently enrolled in Northwestern's Master's in sports administration program.

SUPPORT STAFF

JENNIFER BROWN

Ninth Season
Associate Athletic Trainer

Jennifer Brown is in her ninth year as an athletic trainer at Northwestern, working directly with the defensive side of the ball while overseeing NU's men's and women's tennis programs.

Brown earned her bachelor's degree is human development and psychological services from NU in 1999 before obtaining a master's degree in fitness and wellness management from the University of Nebraska at Omaha in 2003. She is a NATABOC Certified Athletic Trainer, is certified as an ACSM Health Fitness Instructor and is an American Red Cross Professional Rescuer.

Prior to her return to her alma mater, Brown served as an athletic trainer at Colorado, the University of Nebraska at Omaha and Northern Illinois.

CHRIS BOWERS

Second Season
Director of Player Personnel

Chris Bowers returned to Evanston in 2011 after spending four years building his college football resume at Defiance College, Concord University and most recently at Valparaiso where he served as the special teams coordinator and secondary coach.

Bowers previously was on staff at Northwestern as NU's recruiting assistant (2003-04) and assistant director of football operations (2004-05) before becoming a defensive graduate assistant in 2005 and 2006. He left in January of 2007 to become defensive coordinator at Defiance College.

Bowers spent two seasons at Defiance as the defensive coordinator as well as the recruiting coordinator before moving on to Concord University, a Division II school in Athens, W. Va., serving as as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2009-10.

Bowers earned a B.A. in history from Wittenberg University in 1999 and his master's degree from the University of Findlay.

A native of Lima, Ohio, Bowers and his wife, Christina, have one daughter, Davalyn.

CODY CEJDA

Fourth Season
Director of Football Operations

Cody Cejda is in his fourth season at Northwestern and his second as the Director of Football Operations after being promoted prior to the 2011 season. He also is continuing in his role as NU's NFL liaison, assisting NFL personnel with their visits and helping student-athletes understand the transition to the NFL and other professional leagues.

Prior to 2011, Cejda spent two years as coordinator of player development, coordinating summer jobs and internships, community outreach and academic issues. He also played a major role in all day-to-day recruiting operations.

Cejda served as a recruiting assistant and as the senior student manager for Michigan, where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2007. Prior to joining Northwestern, Cejda worked as a consulting analyst for Accenture.

RYAN COLLINS

Fourth Season
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Ryan Collins, ATC, is in his fourth year as an assistant athletic trainer at Northwestern.

Prior to NU, Collins served as the head athletic trainer for two years at Dominican. Before his two-year stint at DU, he spent five years as an assistant athletic trainer as well as a clinical supervisor and lecturer in the accredited athletic training curriculum at Eastern Illinois University (2002-07), his alma mater.

Collins earned a bachelor of science with a specialization in athletic training from EIU in 2000. Before he joined the EIU staff in 2002, Collins received a master of education with an emphasis in curriculum and instruction from Arizona State (2000-02).

He served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the football team during his two-year stint at ASU. Collins earned football athletic training experience in the NFL as an intern with the Indianapolis Colts in 1998.

JAY HOOTEN

Fourth Season
Director of Football Performance

After two years as Northwestern's assistant director of strength and conditioning, Jay Hooten was elevated in July of 2011 to Director of Football Performance, assuming oversight of all aspects of NU football's strength, speed and conditioning training.

Hooten came to Northwestern in January of 2009, directing the training programs of the wrestling, baseball and men's soccer teams while also devoting significant time to football.

An Ohio native, Hooten spent six years as a football performance assistant at Ohio State, where he assisted with the strength and conditioning program for the three-time Big Ten and 2002 national champion Buckeyes. Hooten then spent a year as the Director of Sports Performance at Wayne High School in Huber Heights, Ohio, before taking over as the owner and director of Fast-Twitch Performance Enhancement in Dayton.

Hooten is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a certified specialist with the National Association of Speed and Explosion.

Hooten earned his bachelor's degree in health and sport science from Capital University in Columbus, Ohio. He was teammates with current NU assistant Matt MacPherson at Northridge High School in Dayton, Ohio.

Hooten and his wife Lori have four children, daughter Joss, son Landon and twin boys Jaxn and Jeremy. They reside in Skokie.

KEN KOWALSKI

Fourth Season
Director of Video Operations

Ken Kowalski joined the Northwestern football family as its director of video operations on June 1, 2009.

Kowalski previously spent four years as the video coordinator at Bowling Green State University, handling all aspects of Falcon football video including practice and game film, video exchange, team pre-game highlight film and coach and player video packages.

Kowalski graduated from BGSU in May of 2009 with a bachelor's degree in liberal arts and an emphasis in sport management. Prior to attending Bowling Green, he served as the game day operations manager for the Toledo IceDiggers, a junior hockey team in the North American Hockey League.

Kowalski is a member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

ERIC HOWITT

Second Season
Assistant Athletic Director
Equipment Services

Eric Howitt joined Northwestern as its assistant athletic director for equipment services in June of 2011. He most recently was the director of equipment services, branding and licensing at San Jose State University.

Since arriving in Evanston, Howitt has been instrumental in facilitating Northwestern's transition to Under Armour apparel for all 19 of its varsity programs, which began officially on June 1, 2012.

In his three years at San Jose State, Howitt oversaw the procurement of athletic equipment for the school's 17 athletic programs, while expanding the university's brand recognition through retail merchandise sales.

Prior to his time at San Jose State, Howitt spent five years as the assistant director of equipment operations at the University of California-Berkeley where he worked as the budget manager for the men's basketball, baseball, women's soccer, men's water polo and men's crew programs.

Howitt is a 1999 graduate of Oregon State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in forest recreation resources. After spending two years at his alma mater, he went on to hold related positions at Florida Atlantic University, University of Cincinnati and University of California-Los Angeles

A member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association, he earned his equipment manager's certification (E.M.C.) in 2001. He has previously beenn published in the Equipment Managers' Journal.

Eric and his wife, Karen, have two children, Aaron and Ashley. They reside in Evanston.

TORY LINDLEY

11th Season
Associate Athletic Director
Director of Athletic Training Services

Tory Lindley, ATC, a 2011 inductee to the Illinois Athletic Trainers Association (IATA) Hall of Fame, is in his 11th year as NU's head athletic trainer.

Lindley supervises NU's athletic training staff, interns and students and works primarily with football. He also supervises strength and conditioning services and serves as the sport administrator for wrestling.

A published author in the Journal of Athletic Training, Athletic Therapy Today and Rehab Management, Lindley is in his seventh year of service to the Illinois Athletic Trainers' Association Board of Directors. He serves as past-president after a stint as the association's president and vice president. He is president of the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers Association and associate editor of Athletic Training & Sports Health Care Journal. Tory is the 2009 recipient of the GLATA Dedicated Service Award and the 2007 NATA Athletic Training Service Award.

Lindley has served as the IATA's Vice-President, President-elect and was the organizations 13th President from 2006-2008. He also served on the Board of Directors as Past-President in 2009. Among the many accomplishments during Lindley's Presidential term, the IATA founded its Student Congress, created an electronic communication release, rewrote the association bylaws, redesigned the association's logo and marketing platform, and established permanent association archives in the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library.

Before coming to Evanston, Lindley was head athletic trainer at Eastern Michigan and a clinical supervisor and lecturer in the accredited athletic training curriculum for two years. Prior to EMU, he spent four years as a staff athletic trainer at his alma mater, Michigan State (1996-2000), where he earned a bachelor's degree in education with a specialization in athletic training in 1991. The Suttons Bay, Mich., native served as head ATC at Hamline University in St. Paul (1993-96) after receiving an MA in kinesiology with a biomechanics emphasis from Minnesota in 1993.

He earned football athletic training experience in the NFL as an intern with the Washington Redskins (1989) and the New York Giants (1990) and as an assistant ATC for the Houston Oilers (1992-93).

Lindley and his wife, Bethann, have three children: Jonah, Evan and Genevieve.

JACOB SCHMIDT

First Season
Director of Player Development

After a remarkable playing career at Northwestern that saw him go from walk-on to starting running back, Jacob Schmidt was hired as NU's Director of Player Development in March of 2012.

In his new role, Schmidt will coordinate various aspects of players' off-the-field experience at Northwestern, including NU's Big Brother program that matches current Wildcats with NU football alums in the professional world.

A native of Rhinelander, Wis., Schmidt arrived at NU as a walk-on in 2007, redshirting in his initial year on campus before playing in all 13 games on special teams in 2008. He gained 217 yards on the ground and 147 yards receiving as a sophomore in 2009 and, in his junior campaign, scored four rushing touchdowns despite being limited to eight games due to injury.

Schmidt earned the starting running back role as a senior in 2011 and finished as the team's second-leading rusher with 471 yards and six touchdowns. His stellar season featured a career-best 110-yard performance on 15 carries (7.3 yards per carry) with two touchdowns in a road win vs. Indiana.

Schmidt was a key contributor to what became the winningest senior class in Northwestern football history, a group that won 36 games during its five years in Evanston and led the Wildcats to a school-record four consecutive bowl game appearances.

CURTIS SHANER

25th Season
Assistant Equipment Manager

Now in his 25th season working with the Wildcat football program is assistant equipment manager Curtis Shaner. He also handles all equipment responsibilities for Northwestern's baseball program.

A native of Bowling Green, Ohio, Shaner attended Bowling Green High School, where he became an equipment aide and ball boy at Bowling Green State University for Glenn Sharp, who was the equipment manager and founder of the AEMA (Athletic Equipment Managers Association). Following high school, Shaner attended Ashland College.

Upon graduation, Shaner became the head equipment manager at Ashland for one year. From there, Shaner worked as an equipment manager at Oklahoma State for five years and Western Michigan for one year before becoming a member of Northwestern's staff.

As the equipment manager for football, Shaner sets up and takes down practice sets, helps coordinate the transportation of all equipment for Camp Kenosha as well as all road contests, handles team laundry and oversees student managers.

SUPPORT STAFF

GREG VALENZISI

Fourth Season
Assistant Equipment Manager

Greg Valenzisi joined Northwestern as an assistant equipment manager in the summer of 2009. He now is in his fourth season with the Wildcats, also working with the men's basketball team.

In his role with the football program, Valenzisi coordinates all aspects of day-to-day practice activities and gameday preparations for the equipment and locker room facilities. He also is heavily involved in maintaining equipment room inventory and dealing directly with vendors.

The brother of former Northwestern All-America kicker Sam Valenzisi, Greg came to Northwestern after a stint at Bowling Green State University in Ohio.

MELISSA WUELSER

18th Season
Associate Athletic Trainer

Melissa Wuelser is in her 18th year as an athletic trainer at Northwestern, working directly with the offensive side of the ball on football while also overseeing athletic training efforts for NU's men's and women's swimming and diving programs.

Wuelser graduated from Michigan State with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1991 before earning a master's degree in sports medicine from Illinois in 1994. She is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and is a certified American Heart Association Health Care Provider.

Prior to her arrival at Northwestern, Wuelser served as an athletic trainer at the University of Washington, the Greater Flint Sports Medicine Center and the University of Illinois.

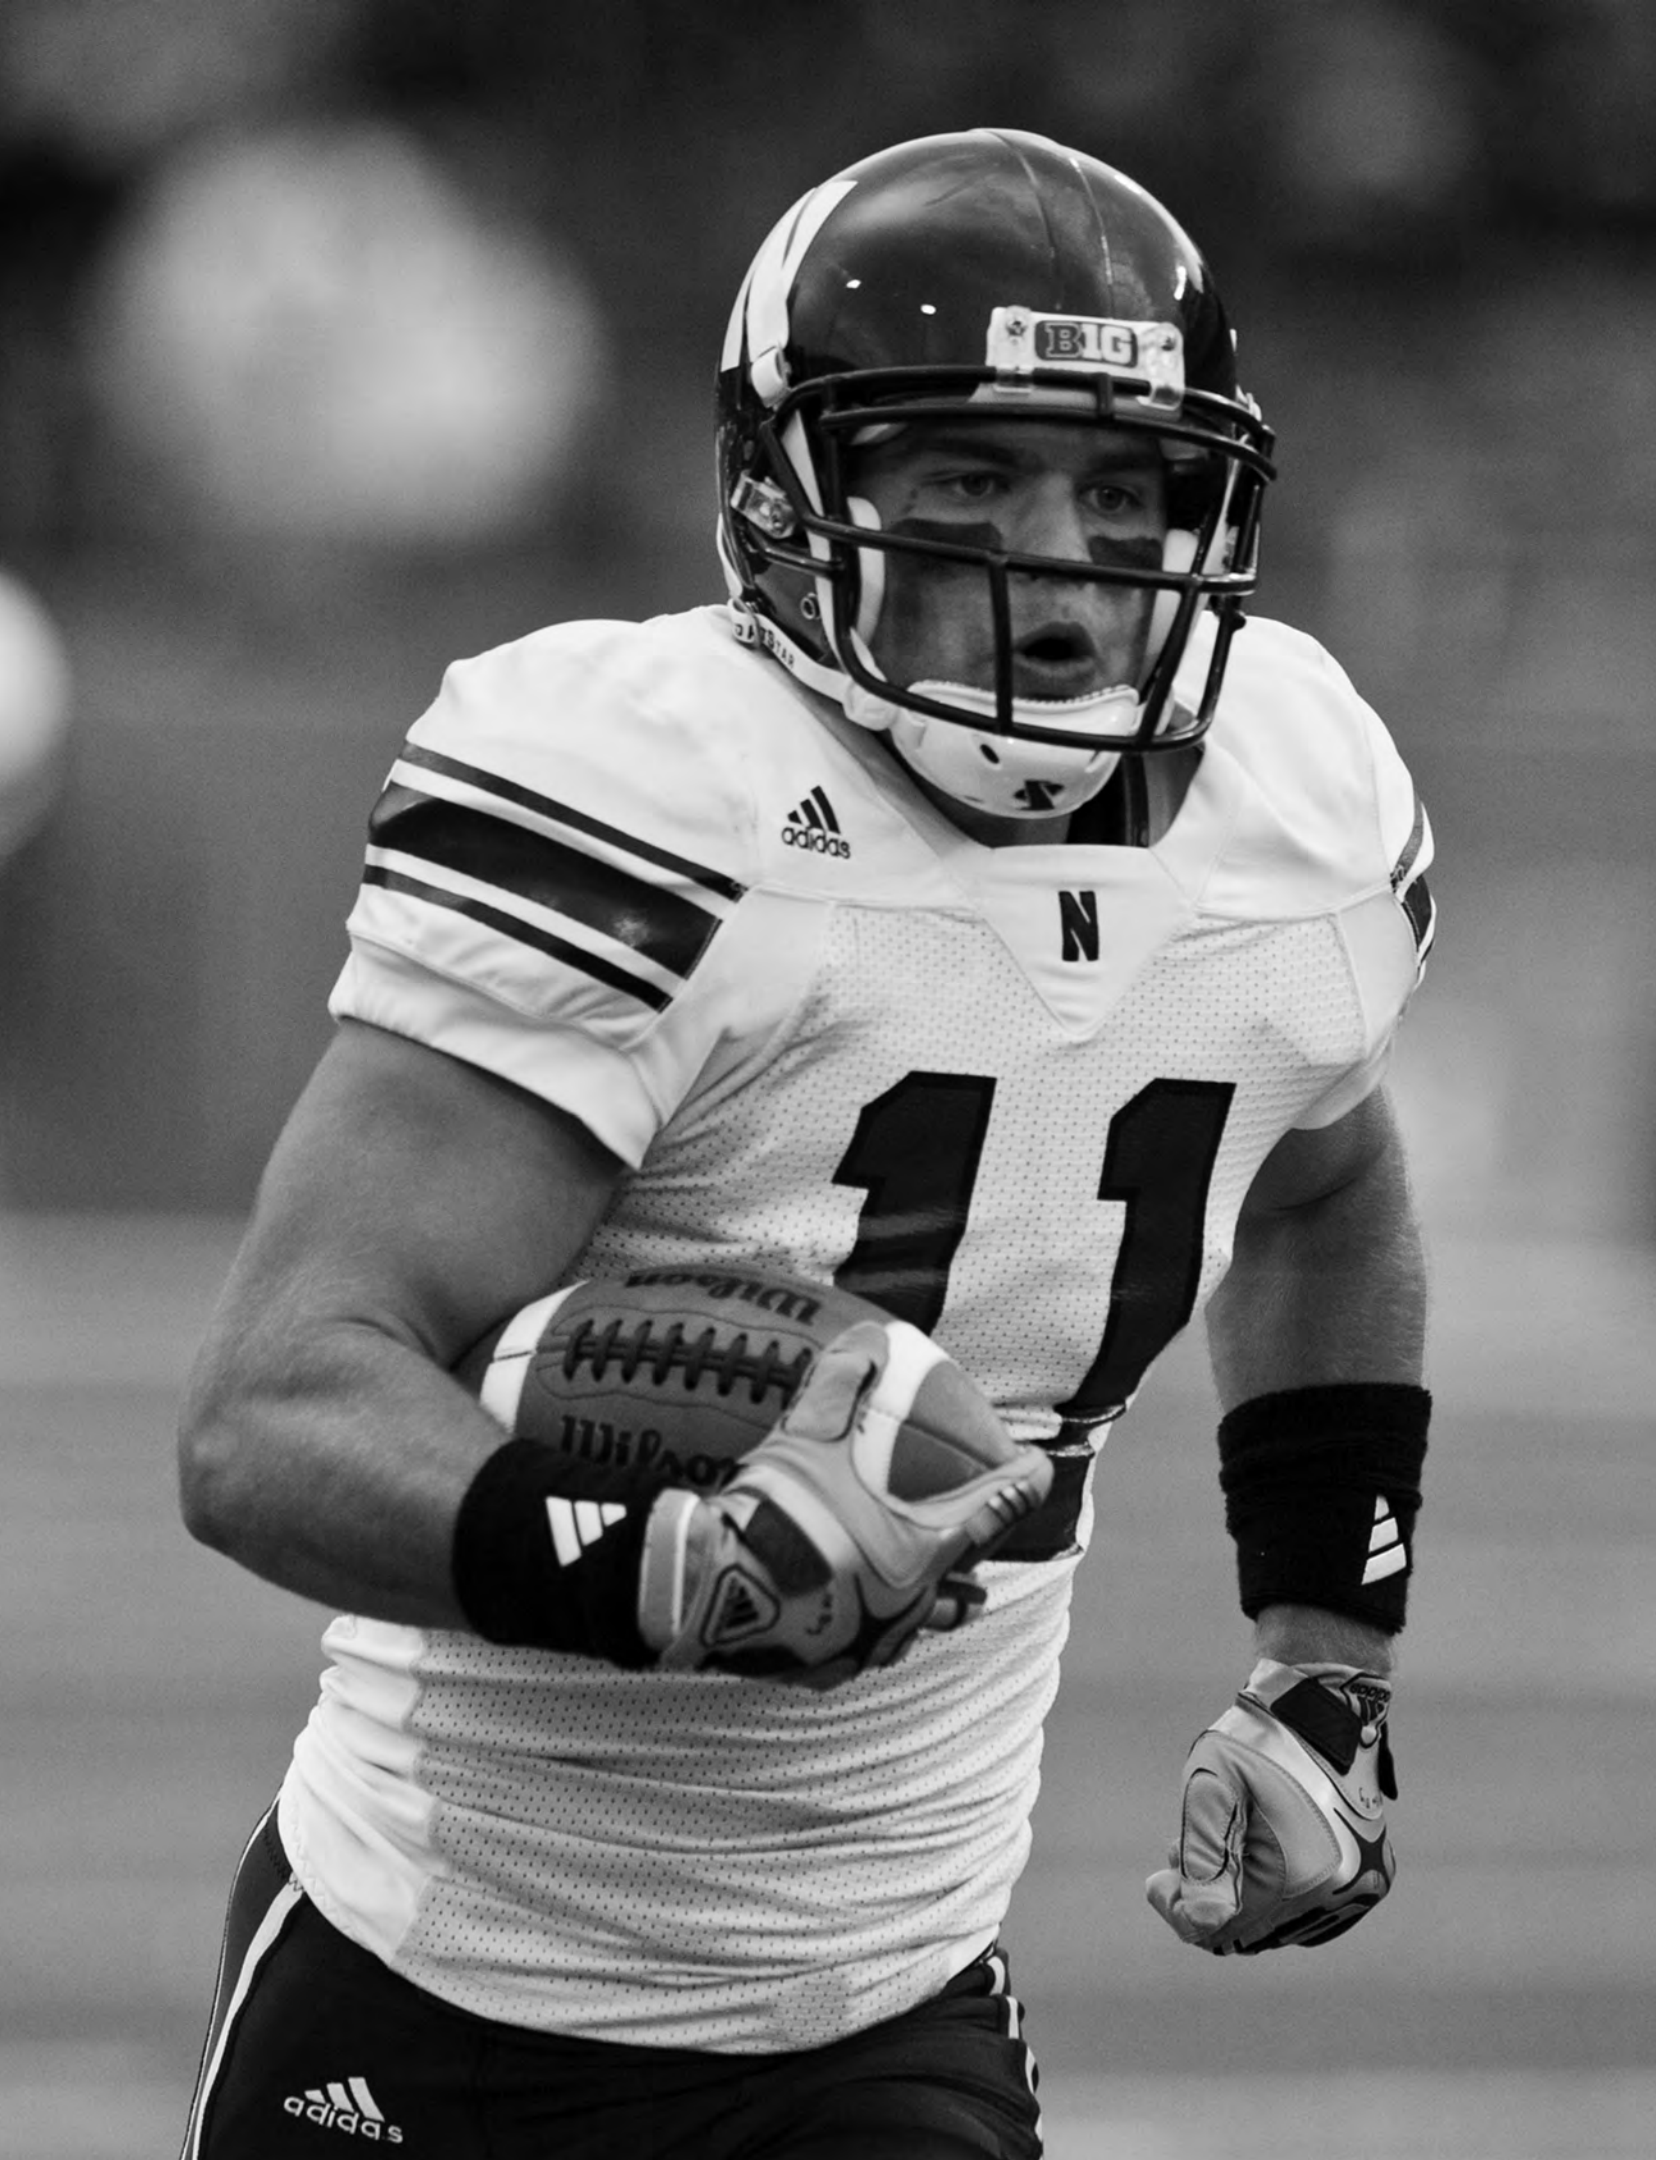

Wuelser has made several presentations dealing with football injuries in recent years at the Big Ten Sports Medicine Meeting, and is a member of Northwestern's Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act Committee.

NORTHWESTERN	24
BOSTON COLLEGE	17

Back-to-back 80-yard touchdown drives on either side of halftime vaulted Northwestern to a 24-17 road victory over Boston College in its 2011 debut in Chestnut Hill, Mass. NU used a balanced attack with 197 passing yards and 227 yards on the ground on its way to winning its seventh-straight season opener.

Boston College wasted no time seizing momentum, bursting out of the gates with a 69-yard run by Andre Williams down to NU's 4-yard line on the first play from scrimmage. Northwestern's defense regrouped at the other end, however, stopping the Eagles on three straight plays to force a BC field goal.

With senior Dan Persa sidelined for the game while still recovering from his ruptured Achilles tendon, Kain Colter received the start under center. On NU's second possession, Colter moved the 'Cats into field goal range. Sophomore Jeff Budzien came on to convert his first career field goal attempt, putting it through the uprights from 43 yards to even the score.

With only 3:25 left before halftime, Northwestern found its groove offensively. Colter completed four straight passes while contributing to 35 NU rushing yards on the ground, including Colter's three-yard dart into the end zone to even things up at 10. That put the finishing touches on an 80-yard drive that lasted just 2:47. It turned out to be a preview of NU's opening drive of the second half, on which the 'Cats' racked up 73 yards on the ground highlighted a Mike Trumpy 34-yard dash off a misdirection. NU stayed with Trumpy to finish the drive as his 5-yard scamper gave Northwestern its first lead at 17-10. That remained the score into the fourth, where the Eagles came up scoreless on a second missed field goal attempt by Freese, this one from 40 yards. Northwestern made the most of the change of possession, as Colter struck for a 27-yard pass play down the sideline to Christian Jones. The 'Cats made their way down to the 1 for first and goal, and Adonis Smith easily trotted in on the option to open a two-touchdown advantage for the 'Cats.

BC responded with a 2-yard TD run by Williams on its next drive to cut its deficit to seven. The Eagles would get one last shot, driving to NU's 18-yard-line with 14 seconds remaining in the game, but a false start penalty and a Vince Browne QB tackle on the final play sealed the win.

EASTERN ILLINOIS	21
NORTHWESTERN	42

Northwestern turned a pair of first-quarter Eastern Illinois turnovers into touchdowns and never looked back as the Wildcats posted a 42-21 win in their home-opener at Ryan Field. NU quarterback Kain Colter, who finished with a career- and game-high 109 rushing yards, was one of four players to rush for 55 or more yards in the game. In all, NU rushed 67 times for 320 yards. The 67 carries were the most by Northwestern since the 'Cats rushed 70 times against Illinois on Nov. 22, 2003. Besides Colter, Treyvon Green (70), Jacob Schmidt (57) and Adonis Smith (55) also eclipsed 50 rushing yards in the contest.

The Wildcats pounced on the Panthers right out of the gate. Eastern Illinois received the opening kickoff, but Bryce McNaul picked off EIU quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo on the fourth play of the game, giving the Wildcats the ball at the Panthers' 42 yard line. Five plays later, Colter and the Wildcats were on the board as the NU quarterback scored his first of three TD's on the day from 5 yards out. Eastern Illinois drove down the field on the ensuing drive and faced a 3rd-and-1 from the Northwestern 26, but consecutive fumbles helped the Wildcats take over on downs.

A 16-yard run by Colter and a 21-yard completion from Colter to Drake Dunsmore on the Wildcats' next possession highlighted an eight-play, 65-yard drive capped by a one-yard rush by Schmidt that increased NU's lead to 14-0 with 3:41 left in the opening quarter. After EIU cut the deficit to 14-7, it took the Wildcats just three minutes to get their 14-point lead back. On Northwestern's seven-play drive, Colter had an 11-yard completion to Demetrius Fields and rushed five times for 35 yards, capped by a four-yard rush for his second score of the game. A quick three-and-out helped NU get the ball back at the EIU 47 with 2:13 left in the opening half. Green, a true freshman, finished the drive off with a two-yard TD run, the first of his career, with 31 seconds remaining in the stanza for a 28-7 halftime lead.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Trevor Siemian came on to engineer a game-tying touchdown drive midway through the fourth quarter, but Army got a late score to earn a 21-14 victory and hand the Wildcats their first loss of the season.

Army looked poised to go ahead by two scores midway through the fourth quarter, putting together a 14-play, 81-yard drive down to the Northwestern 8-yard line. But Alex Carlton suffered his second missed field goal of the day, leaving the door ajar for the Wildcats. Siemian took over under center for Northwestern on its ensuing drive and quickly went to work, hitting Drake Dunsmore and Rashad Lawrence on back-to-back plays for a first down. On the next play, Siemian found Jeremy Ebert open over the middle with room to run. Ebert sprinted the rest of the 62 yards to paydirt to tie the score.

However, the Black Knights answered right back as quarterback Trent Steelman capped a quick nine-play drive with a one-yard plunge to post the decisive score with 2:49 remaining. NU had an opportunity to tie the game as it started its next drive at its own 40 following a kickoff that went out of bounds. The 'Cats got to the Army 33 with just over a minute left, but Siemian's pass on fourth-and-1 was incomplete and the Golden Knights were able to run out the clock.

The loss was just the second for the Wildcats in their last 16 regular-season nonconference games.

Ebert also tallied NU's first touchdown when he made a spectacular play, leaping to catch a 14-yard pass in the back of the end zone. That score tied the game at 7-7 midway through the second quarter. Ebert finished the game with 108 receiving yards on six receptions. Siemian completed 5-of-7 passes for a game- and career-high 105 yards. Defensively, four Wildcats posted double-figure tackles as Bryce McNaul (15), Ibraheim Campbell (13), Nwabuisi (12) and Matthews (10) all notched career-high totals in stops.

ILLINOIS	38

Illinois scored the game-winning touchdown with 13 seconds remaining in the contest Saturday to defeat Northwestern, 38-35, following a pair of fourth-quarter comebacks from each team in a wild Big Ten opener.

Illinois came back from 18 points down midway through the third quarter to take a 31-28 lead with 6:53 remaining in the game. A late Illini fumble gave NU the opportunity to re-gain the lead, 35-31, on a 6-yard Jacob Schmidt scamper with 1:15 to play, but the home team drove 69 yards in 1:02 to get the final score. Senior Dan Persa made his first start of the season after suffering an Achilles tendon rupture against Iowa in 2010, recording a career-high four passing touchdowns to move into a tie for 10th on Northwestern's career list. He was hurt later in the game and did not play on NU's final three drives. Senior receiver Jeremy Ebert also had a big day with a career-high three TD catches to move into third all-time at NU with 15.

Northwestern notched three TFL's on the game's first series—including sacks on second and third down—but the Illini offense managed to sustain a drive its next time on the field. Illinois moved the ball inside the Northwestern 5-yard line, aided by back-to-back Wildcat penalties. But on second down, great secondary coverage by NU forced an ill-advised pass by Nathan Scheelhaase that was intercepted by Brian Peters. But the Illini took advantage of good starting field position on its next drive, getting on the scoreboard first when Scheelhaase hit A.J. Jenkins on a crossing pattern for a 14-yard scoring play with 2:28 to go in the first quarter.

NU responded by going to work against the nation's fifth-best rushing defense, picking up 48 ground yards on its ensuing drive to get inside the red zone. Persa then finished the deal when his play-action fake set up an easy six-yard touchdown pass to senior Drake Dunsmore. NU finished the contest with 169 rushing yards.

Northwestern recorded three first-half interceptions and led 24-14 at the break, but couldn't hold off 12th-ranked Michigan in front of a sold-out crowd at Ryan Field.

After Michigan scored on its opening possession, the Wildcats gained control of the first half by scoring 24 of the game's next 31 points. Kain Colter, playing as a wide receiver/slotback much of the game, scored on a 15-yard run to tie the game at 7-7. Ibraheim Campbell then came up with the first of two first-half interceptions and the Wildcats turned that takeaway into seven points when Treyvon Green scored on a 7-yard scamper late in the first quarter.

Following a Michigan touchdown with 4:13 left in the first half, Northwestern responded with a 7-play, 82-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 2-yard TD run by Adonis Smith. NU then used an interception by Brian Peters in the closing minutes of the first half to help set up Jeff Budzien's 20-yard field goal with no time remaining on the clock. That score sent the Wildcats to the locker room with a 24-14 lead.

In the second half, the Wildcats suffered just their third and fourth turnovers of the season, and the mistakes proved costly as Michigan outscored Northwestern 28-0 to remain unbeaten through six games.

Quarterback Dan Persa threw for a career-high 331 yards by completing a personal-best-tying 32 passes (44 attempts).

Northwestern bounced back from an early 17-0 deficit in a Big Ten road test at Iowa, tying the score in the third quarter before ultimately dropping a 41-31 outcome to the Hawkeyes under the lights in Iowa City. Senior receiver Jeremy Ebert set a career best with 13 receptions on the evening, totaling 107 receiving yards with one touchdown.

Northwestern moved the ball well all game, picking up 29 first downs compared to 17 by Iowa and converting 16-of-22 third-down tries. NU had season highs for yards (495), first downs (29) and passing yards (342).

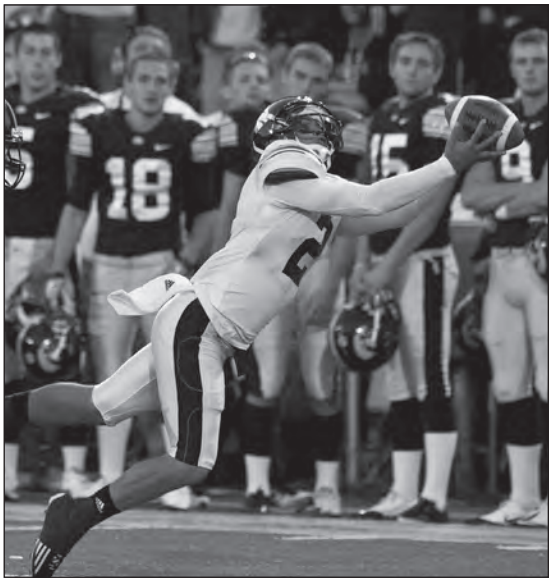

After falling behind 17-0, the Wildcats came storming back in the second and third quarters to tie the contest at 17-17. Quarterback Dan Persa found Ebert cutting down the seam for a six-yard touchdown completion to get NU on the scoreboard. Northwestern wasted no time narrowing its deficit after halftime, continuing its success on third-down conversions and sustaining a drive that took them down to first-and-goal on the 4-yard line. Kain Colter pitched to Smith on the option for a touchdown and suddenly the Wildcats trailed by just three, 17-14, with over nine minutes to go in the third.

The 'Cats forced a three-and-out and pieced together another stellar drive, this time a nine-play series that resulted in a career-long 47-yard field goal by Jeff Budzien, knotting the score at 17 apiece.

Unfortunately for the Wildcats, they could not carry the momentum into the final quarter and the Hawkeyes scored on four straight possessions to pull away and post their first win over NU at Kinnick Stadium since 2002. Colter finished the game with a team-high 76 rushing yards, 71 receiving yards and 48 passing yards. Persa completed 30-of-39 passes for 242 yards and a touchdown.

PENN STATE	34
NORTHWESTERN	24

It was a tale of two halves in Northwestern's annual homecoming game against Penn State. The 'Cats racked up 281 yards and 24 points in the first half but were shut out in the second despite putting up a fierce battle as Northwestern fell to Penn State. Northwestern totaled 406 yards in the game as quarterback Dan Persa finished 26-of-34 passing for 294 yards. Jeremy Ebert accounted for 109 yards on five receptions, including a 54-yard catch in the second quarter.

The Wildcats' special teams were opportunistic from the start as Mike Jensen forced a fumble on the game's opening kickoff that was recovered by Jeravin Matthews, giving NU the ball on the Penn State 34-yard line. Persa completed a seven-play drive by sneaking it into the end zone from less than a yard out on fourth down to help give Northwestern an early 7-0 lead. Following two back-to-back touchdowns by the guests, Northwestern knotted the game at 14-14 late in the first quarter on a Persa to Kain Colter 12-yard TD toss. It was the first TD reception of Colter's career. After a 37-yard field goal gave Penn State the lead again at 17-14, Northwestern went in front 21-17 on Colter's 4-yard TD run with 8:43 left in the second quarter. The two teams then exchanged a pair of field goals, and NU led 24-20 with 47 seconds left in the half. Penn State, however, executed its two-minute offense to perfection and regained the lead for good on Stephfon Green's 1-yard scoring run with seven seconds left in the half.

The Wildcats started the second half on offense and marched 62 yards to the Penn State 22-yard line. On a first-and-10 play, a Nittany Lion defender tipped a Persa pass at the line of scrimmage and the ball deflected into Gerald Hodges' hands, who then raced 63 yards to the NU 19. Silas Redd then scored on the next play, which turned a potential NU lead into a 10-point deficit. From that point on, neither team would score another point.

NORTHWESTERN	59
INDIANA	38

After a first half shootout in which Northwestern and Indiana combined for 59 points and nearly 700 yards of total offense, the Wildcats closed out a 59-38 victory over the Hoosiers at Memorial Stadium in Bloomington. Senior superback Drake Dunsmore enjoyed a record-setting day, establishing Northwestern standards for single-game touchdown catches (4) and career receiving yards by an NU tight end (1,373). He also tied the Memorial Stadium record for TD receptions by a single player.

As a team the Wildcats tied a school record by throwing for five TD's—three by Dan Persa and two by Kain Colter—and racked up 616 yards of total offense. Jacob Schmidt also secured his first career 100-yard rushing game, finishing with 110 yards on the ground and two rushing scores.

After scoring a field goal on its opening drive to make the score 7-3 in favor of the Hoosiers, Northwestern went to work, scoring touchdowns on eight of its next nine possessions. The only drive they didn't score came on the final first-half drive when they took a knee to run out the clock.

Brian Peters' 10th career interception helped NU take the lead for good at 10-7. Five plays following Peters' pick, Colter dropped back and lofted a pass to Jeremy Ebert, who made an over-the-shoulder catch to give the Wildcats the 3-point lead less than seven minutes into the game. NU was just getting started, quickly marching down the field on its next possession thanks to big completions to Dunsmore and Jacob Schmidt. Treyvon Green completed the series with a 1-yard plunge into the end zone, giving NU a 17-7 advantage late in the first. The hits kept coming for Northwestern, which scored for the fourth-consecutive drive when Persa faked a screen pass and instead found Dunsmore all alone in the corner of the end zone.

NORTHWESTERN	28
NEBRASKA	25

Northwestern's first Big Ten Conference trip to Memorial Stadium was a memorable one as the Wildcats jumped out to an early lead and dominated the trenches en route to a 28-25 win over No. 9 (No. 10 BCS) Nebraska.

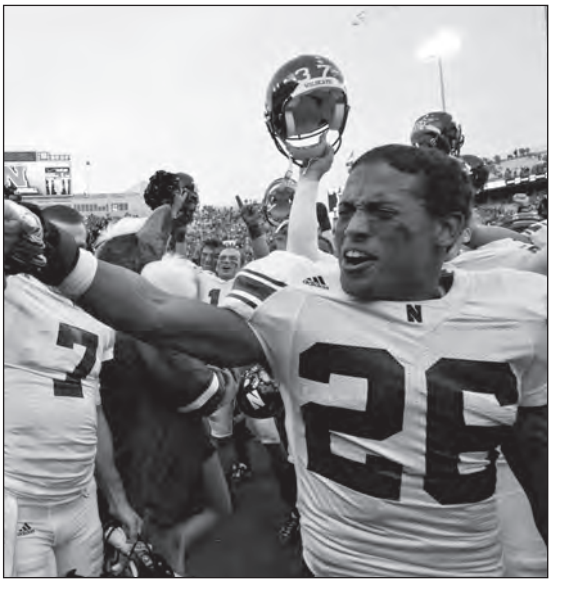

Northwestern took the ball on its second drive and marched inside the red zone, where a pass interference call against the Huskers placed the ball on the 2-yard line. Jacob Schmidt took care of the rest, diving in for the touchdown and a 7-0 Northwestern lead. NU's defense was the story of the first half as the 'Cats held the Huskers to just a field goal and NU took a 7-3 into halftime.

The first drive of the second half was an eventful one as Kain Colter and Trevor Siemian led the Wildcats on a six-play scoring drive. NU had a touchdown taken off the board for an illegal receiver downfield penalty but recovered on Colter's acrobatic 3-yard dive for the pylon, giving Northwestern a 14-3 advantage. The Wildcats were poised to add to their lead before a Nebraska interception in the end zone spoiled a promising NU drive and set up the Huskers' first TD of the day.

After a missed field goal by the 'Cats and an NU defensive stop, the next Wildcats possession featured the game's biggest play. Colter found Jeremy Ebert for an 81-yard catch-and-run, tied for the second-longest passing play from scrimmage in NU history. Nebraska mounted its rally on the next series, scoring on a 1-yard touchdown rush by Rex Burkhead and running in a two-point conversion try to pull within a field goal, 21-18. The Wildcats answered by running the ball down the Huskers' throats, grinding out a 13-play, 64-yard drive that milked 7:21 off the clock and ended with Colter's second rushing TD of the game to give NU a 28-18 lead with 1:34 to play. Though Nebraska would score late to pull within a field goal, Charles Brown fell on the ensuing onside kick to seal the victory for Northwestern.

Dan Persa completed 25 of 32 passes for a career-best 372 yards while tying another career high with four touchdown passes as Northwestern rolled to a 28-6 nonconference win over Rice at Ryan Field. Senior wide receiver Jeremy Ebert was the primary beneficiary of Persa's strong right arm, hauling in seven receptions for a career-best 208 yards and a pair of scores. Ebert's yardage total ranked as a tie for the third-best single-game effort in school history.

The Wildcats got on the board first in a big way on its second drive. With NU, facing third-and-four on its own 10-yard line, Persa hooked up with Ebert on a 90-yard scoring strike to make it 7-0. It marked the second-longest pass play in Northwestern history, surpassing the 81-yard hookup between Kain Colter and Ebert on the same play at Nebraska one week earlier.

Meanwhile, the Wildcats defense made things tough on the Owls offensively as Rice was forced to punt on each of its first five possessions. Northwestern was finally able to build on its lead with 4:26 remaining in the opening half as Persa and Ebert connected once again, this time from 17 yards out, to give the hosts a two-touchdown lead. The big play of the drive was a 50-yard completion from Persa to Demetrius Fields for a third-down conversion. On Rice's ensuing drive, Ben Johnson pressured Nick Fanuzzi into an interception that fell into the waiting hands of Tyler Scott to give Northwestern the ball back with 65 seconds remaining in the stanza. The Wildcats took over at their own 45-yard line and it took them just four plays to drive 55 yards for one final score in the half. Fields displayed some fancy footwork to get into the end zone for a 15-yard reception on Persa's third touchdown pass of the half.

Northwestern extended its lead to 28-0 with 13:12 remaining in the contest as Colter was the recipient of Persa's fourth touchdown toss as the duo connected from three yards out.

Northwestern produced 21 points in the first quarter, scoring on its first three drives, but the defense took over the rest of the way as the Wildcats defeated Minnesota, 28-13, to become bowl-eligible for a school-record fifth straight season.

Four different players scored touchdowns for Northwestern as Kain Colter, Demetrius Fields, Treyvon Green and Jacob Schmidt all reached the end zone. NU quarterback Dan Persa finished the day 22-31 with 216 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, Brian Peters had 11 tackles, including one for a loss of four yards, a forced fumble, fumble recovery and interception. Bryce McNaul also had 11 tackles for the NU defense.

Northwestern used a 44-yard kickoff return by Venric Mark to set up its six-play 54-yard scoring drive and take the 7-0 lead on its first possession of the game. Minnesota was whistled for pass interference and a personal foul on back-to-back plays deep in its own territory, giving the Wildcats the ball on the 7-yard line. Dan Persa then completed the drive, finding Kain Colter for the touchdown reception. Minnesota then evened the score on its first possession before the Wildcats scored two more times in the first quarter for a commanding 21-7 lead. A 28-yard touchdown catch from Demetrius Fields and a 2-yard scoring run by Treyvon Green gave NU its two-touchdown lead.

Neither team would produce a touchdown until 11:02 remained in the fourth quarter, and that was a 2-yard plunge by NU's Schmidt. That put the Wildcats in front 28-10 and NU's defense did the job the rest of the way, limiting Minnesota to just one more score.

MICHIGAN STATE	31
NORTHWESTERN	17

Key third-down conversions on offense proved to be the difference as Legends Division champion Michigan State spoiled Senior Day at Ryan Field.

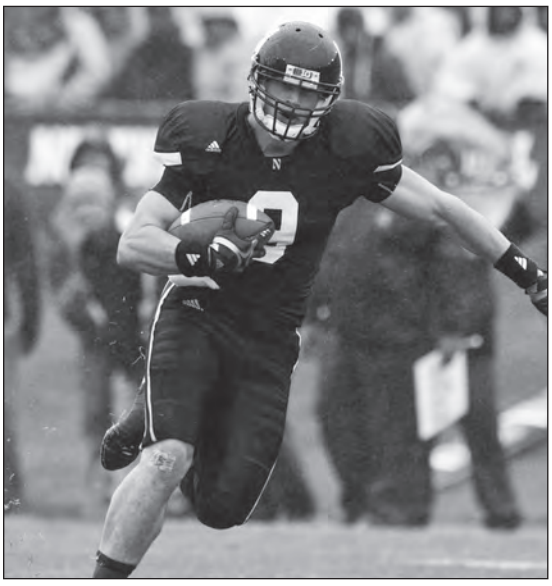

After MSU jumped in front 3-0 with a 25-yard field goal from Dan Conroy, the Wildcats quickly answered with a scoring drive of their own, which was capped by a 34-yard Jeff Budzien field goal. On the ensuing drive, Jeravin Matthews intercepted Cousins at NU's 35-yard line and the offense looked to capitalize yet again. The Wildcats methodically moved the ball toward the end zone and looked to punch it in until Treyvon Green fumbled on Michigan State's 3-yard line and the Spartans' Denzel Drone recovered the ball for the visitors.

Northwestern forced another third down on the next drive, this time at their own 32-yard line. However, Cousins found tight end Brian Linthicum over the middle for nine yards and a first down and on the very next play, the senior signal-caller hooked up with Keshawn Martin for a long 46-yard pass to the NU 7-yard line. Michigan State wasted little time as Bell scored the first touchdown of the contest for either side on the next play and the Spartans led, 10-3. Martin provided another spark for his squad after the Spartan defense held the Wildcat offense to a three-and-out. The senior speedster fielded Brandon Williams' low, line-drive punt on a bounce and took off for the end zone resulting in a 17-3 lead that the Spartans would maintain at the half.

Northwestern and MSU traded a pair of touchdowns in the second half as the Wildcats could get no closer than seven points to the Spartans. A 2-yard touchdown pass from Dan Persa to Jeremy Ebert along with a 12-yard Demetrius Fields' TD catch accounted for NU's two second-half TD's. The second TD pass marked the 32nd of Persa's career, good for fifth on NU's all-time list.

LETTERWINNERS

The listing of all-time football lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow and includes only those players which earned a varsity letter; student-managers and trainers are not listed. The information on each student-athlete was compiled from media guides, programs, yearbooks and letterwinner records. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to Northwestern Athletic Communications.

WILDCAT LEGEND OTTO GRAHAM

When Otto Graham graduated from Waukegan, (Ill.) High School in 1938, it was safe to say that he did not envision one day becoming a member of college football's Hall of Fame, let alone the NFL's. In fact, he did not even come to Northwestern to be a football player. Otto Graham originally attended Northwestern on a basketball scholarship. It was only after Northwestern football coach Pappy Waldorf watched one of Graham's freshman intramural football games that Otto got his chance. In one of the greatest coaching decisions in Northwestern football history, Waldorf invited Graham to try out for the football team. The rest of Graham's story is written in the record books.

Nicknamed "Automatic Otto" for his precision passing, Graham broke every existing Big Ten passing record during his tenure (1941-1943). He was a two-time All-America and won the Big Ten Most Valuable Player Award. He still holds the Northwestern record for most points (27) scored in a single game. As a senior, he averaged 38 yards per punt, four yards per carry rushing, and converted on seven extra points. In addition, Graham won eight letters in three sports at NU (football, basketball, and baseball) and is one of two Northwestern athletes ever to earn All-America status in two sports (football and basketball).

After leaving Northwestern, Otto was a commissioned officer in the United States Navy Air Corps and served for two years in World War II. After serving his country, he played professional football with the Cleveland Browns. With the Browns, Graham passed for 23,584 yards and 174 touchdowns in his career and led them to four-straight America Football League titles. After merging with the NFL in 1950, he played in six-straight title game appearances with Cleveland.

Graham retired from professional football after Cleveland's 1955 championship season.

Graham will forever be synonymous with triple-threat football—rushing, passing, and kicking. In 1956, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. In 1965, Graham was inducted into pro football's Hall of Fame. He was named Northwestern football's greatest player ever in the Big Ten's 75th anniversary year—all because Coach Waldorf was impressed at a freshman intramural football game and decided to give a kid named Otto a try-out.

Otto Graham passed away during the 2003 season. In memory of the legend, the Wildcats donned "Otto" decals on their helmets during the Motor City Bowl.

The OTTO GRAHAM TROPHY CASE displays many of Graham's college and professional trophies. The case recently was relocated to the Stadium Club in Ryan Field.

Otto Graham is one of two Northwestern athletes to earn All-America honors in two sports. He did it in football and basketball.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

A total of 15 former Wildcat coaches and players are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. They range from Paddy Driscoll, a halfback for the 'Cats from 1915-16, to Pat Fitzgerald, a two-time All-American, Chuck Bednarik and Bronko Nagurski award winner, who was NU's most recent inductee in 2008. There are four former Northwestern coaches in the Hall, Charles Bachman, 1919, Alex Agase, 1964-72, Ara Parseghian, 1956-63 and Lynn Waldorf, 1935-46.

A new Hall of Fame opened in the summer of 1995 in South Bend, Ind. It features reflective photo galleries filled with memorabilia and state-of-the-art interactive exhibits. Inside the Hall, visitors can see film clips of coaches discussing their craft; test their kicking, passing and throwing skills; search for their favorite players on video kiosks; or wander through the photo galleries, where each Hall of Fame member is enshrined.

The Wildcats were the first college football team to visit the new Hall of Fame. The tour fired up NU so much that the next day it upset Notre Dame, 17-15.

The first members of the College Football Hall of Fame were selected in 1951. Today there are more than 700 players and coaches in the Hall.

The Hall of Fame is a part of the National Football Foundation, which was conceived in 1947 by the late Grantland Rice. In addition, to sponsoring the Hall of Fame, the Foundation has awarded more than $3 million in graduate school scholarships to college football players.

CHRIS HINTON (left) and OTTO GRAHAM (right) are Northwestern's two highest draft picks, both taken fourth overall in their respective drafts. Hinton, selected in 1983, played with three different teams before retiring in 1995 as a seven-time Pro Bowler. "Automatic" Otto was taken fourth overall by the Detroit Lions in 1944, but after serving in the United States Coast Guard he began his career with the Cleveland Browns in 1946. Graham is considered the greatest winner in the history of professional sports after leading the Browns to 10 championship games in his 10 pro seasons, winning seven titles.

1949 ROSE BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

Northwestern's first bowl appearance came on Jan. 1, 1949, when the Wildcats—considered by many to be the surprise team of the season—knocked off California in the 1949 Rose Bowl, 20-14.

The Wildcats got on the scoreboard first when left halfback Frank Aschenbrenner burst through the right side for a 73-yard touchdown, at the time the longest run from scrimmage in Rose Bowl history. Jim Farrar's extra-point made the lead 7-0. On Cal's next play, All-American back Jackie Jensen scampered 67 yards over the left end to tie the game at 7-7. The score remained deadlocked until midway through the second quarter when Art Murakowski capped a 78-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for a 13-7 lead. The touchdown was marred by controversy as Murakowski fumbled the ball in the end zone, but the officials ruled it had crossed the goal line first.

Early in the third quarter, California lost Jensen to a back injury, and many felt the Wildcats would roll through the remainder of the game. This was not the case as the Bears converted a Wildcat fumble into a 56-yard touchdown drive and a 14-13 lead heading into the fourth quarter. With the clock winding down, the Wildcats had the ball at their own 12-yard line and seemingly needed a miracle to win. Early in the drive, NU came up with its only pass completion of the game, an Aschenbrenner to Donald Stonesifer connection which put Northwestern on the California 45- yard line. Two plays later, on a direct snap from center, right halfback Ed Tunnicliff reaped the benefits of excellent blocking and raced 43 yards down the sidelines to give NU a 19-14 lead. Farrar's extra-point increased the Wildcat lead to six at 20-14 with 2:59 remaining.

The Bears gave it one final shot, but Loran "Pee Wee" Day intercepted the ball at the five-yard-line inside the final minute. Two keepers by NU quarterback Don Burson ran out the clock and the Wildcats brought home the roses.

1996 ROSE BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

The 1995 Wildcat team was the college football story of the season, shocking the experts in capturing the team's first winning season since 1971, and first bowl game appearance since the 1949 Rose Bowl.

USC scored first in the opening minutes of the game, but NU quickly evened the score when Darnell Autry capped off a 68-yard scoring drive with a three-yard touchdown run. The Trojan offense attacked in the second quarter, scoring on two touchdowns and a field goal. Brian Gowins kicked a 29-yard field goal to cap a drive that began when Tim Scharf forced a USC fumble with 12 seconds remaining in the half, cutting the gap to 24-10.

In the third quarter, Gowins started NU's scoring bonanza with a 28-yard field goal. The Wildcats then completed an on-side kick, which Josh Barnes scooped up. Three minutes later, Autry scored on a nine-yard run to narrow the gap to 24-19. USC struck back with a touchdown midway through the quarter, but the 'Cats answered with Schnur's one-yard TD plunge. NU took the lead for the first time early in the fourth when Autry ran two yards for his third touchdown of the game. USC regained the lead for good with a field goal on the next possession and then converted a rare Schnur interception into a touchdown. The Wildcats gave it one last effort late in the game. Gowins' 48-yard field goal attempt with 35 seconds left had the distance, but hit the left upright and bounced out.

Steve Schnur had a career-best day, connecting on 23-of-39 passes for 336 yards with one rushing touchdown.

BOWL HISTORY

1997 CITRUS BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

Northwestern defied the odds again in 1996, capturing its second-consecutive Big Ten Championship and the third January 1 bowl game in school history. The Wildcats traveled to Orlando, Fla., to take on the ninth-ranked Tennessee Volunteers in the 1997 CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl.

Despite rallying from a 21-0 first quarter deficit to tie the score, Peyton Manning and Tennessee were too much for Northwestern as the Volunteers posted a 48-28 victory.

Manning threw two TDs and ran for another as the Vols built a 21-0 lead with 2:00 left in the first quarter. Northwestern hung tough, though, and it paid off as Darnell Autry cut the lead to 21-7 on a two-yard run midway through the second quarter. Steve Schnur then hooked up with Brian Musso, a little over four minutes later, on a 22-yard scoring strike to cut the lead to seven.

Almost immediately, NU got the ball back as Tim Scharf jarred the ball loose from the runner and Mike Nelson recovered for the Wildcats. Autry then broke free on a 28-yard scoring scamper to knot the score at 21-21.

The Volunteers went back up by seven and 30 seconds later, added a field goal as time expired to go up, 31-21, at half. On the third play of the second half, Tennessee intercepted a Schnur pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 38-21 lead. NU would add one more score on a 22-yard TD pass from Schnur to D'Wayne Bates, but it wasn't enough.

Schnur threw for 228 yards and two scores. Barry Gardner led the way on defense with 10 tackles.

2000 ALAMO BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

When the 2000 college football season began, the idea of Northwestern and Nebraska meeting in a bowl game was nearly laughable. After all, the Wildcats were coming off a 3-8 season in 1999, while the Cornhuskers began the season ranked No. 1 in the country.

Yet on December 30, the two teams with 'N' on the helmet stood toe-to-toe on the astroturf housed by the Alamodome in San Antonio.

Northwestern gave the Huskers fits in the early part of the game, and even held a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter. However, it was all Nebraska from that point on, as the Huskers outscored the 'Cats 31-7 before halftime and then tacked on 28 unanswered points in the second stanza for the win.

Nebraska drew first blood with a 15-yard touchdown run by Dan Alexander just 2:11 into the contest before Northwestern got on the board with a 44-yard Tim Long field goal three minutes later. In the second quarter, the Wildcats briefly took the lead when Zak Kustok found Teddy Johnson in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard TD reception.

The lead lasted all of 20 seconds. Nebraska stormed back, as QB Eric Crouch scampered 50 yards for a touchdown, starting a 24-point explosion. Down 31-10, Northwestern briefly revived itself when All-American running back Damien Anderson broke off a 69-yard touchdown run with just 1:10 left before halftime. The Huskers took the momentum right back, however, as Crouch hit Bobby Newcombe with a 58-yard TD pass to give Nebraska a 38-17 halftime lead.

Anderson finished the game with 149 yards on 18 carries to lead NU.

2003 MOTOR CITY BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

In what turned out to be one of the more exciting bowl games of the 2003 season, Bowling Green and quarterback Josh Harris got the final word with Northwestern and Jason Wright. Harris and Wright turned in two of the more impressive postseason performances and shared the game's MVP honors. The Wildcats led for three-plus quarters until Harris fired an 11-yard TD pass with 11:32 remaining in the game, which gave BGSU a 21-17 advantage.

NU countered, however, thanks to an 88-yard kickoff return by Wright. Noah Herron, who tallied two touchdowns, scored on a 2-yard scamper with 10:01 left to put the 'Cats back in front, 24-21. But Harris and the Falcons had one more scoring drive left in them, and NU was unable to muster an offensive threat on its final possession. Wright finished with a bowl and school-record 336 all-purpose yards. He totaled 237 rushing yards, also a bowl mark.

Harris completed 38-of-50 passes for 386 yards—all Motor City Bowl marks. NU's secondary helped control the Falcons early, picking off three BGSU passes.

Luis Castillo, named the bowl's UAW Lineman of the Game, had eight tackles (five solos). Northwestern ran for a bowl-record 357 yards. Herron added 80 yards on 12 carries.

2005 SUN BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

Despite returning two interceptions for touchdowns and winning the turnover battle 4-3, Northwestern fell 50-38 to No. 17 UCLA in the 72nd annual Sun Bowl held in El Paso, Texas.

NU jumped to an early 22-0 first-quarter lead when Kevin Mims and Nick Roach each returned UCLA quarterback Drew Olson interceptions for touchdowns. The two defensive touchdowns followed a Joel Howells' 33 yard field goal and sandwiched a 19-yard Mark Philmore reverse for a touchdown. Northwestern's defense picked off Olson three times in the first quarter alone, equaling the number of interceptions Olson threw in his first 11 games combined.

The Bruins, however, came storming back from the 22-0 deficit, scoring 36 unanswered points for a 36-22 lead. Amado Villarreal booted a 31-yard field goal at the end of the third quarter to halt the UCLA scoring string.

The Wildcats mounted a furious comeback. A Brett Basanez touchdown pass to Philmore cut the score to 36-31 with 2:29 left in the game. Then, UCLA's Brandon Breazell recovered NU's onside kick and returned it for a touchdown. The Wildcats came charging back, scoring on Shaun Herbert's 5-yard TD catch with 24 seconds left, trimming the UCLA lead to 43-38. Then the unthinkable happened. Breazell returned another onside kick for a score to ice the contest with 18 seconds left.

Despite the disheartening defeat, Northwestern set a Sun Bowl record with 584 yards of offense, with 448 coming courtesy of Brett Basanez.

BOWL HISTORY

2008 ALAMO BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

C.J. Bachér tied a Valero Alamo Bowl record with three touchdowns passes and threw for more than 300 yards, but No. 21 Missouri kicked a game-tying field goal late in the fourth quarter before defeating No. 23 Northwestern in overtime, 30-23.

In a game against former Heisman finalist Chase Daniel, Bachér won the battle of the QB's. The fifth-year senior completed 27-of-43 passes for 304 yards and three scores. Mizzou's offense came into the game averaging almost 500 yards per game, but was held to under 300 yards in regulation.

Eric Peterman opened the scoring with a 35-yard scoring reception in the first quarter. Rasheed Ward took a season-long 46-yard catch into the end zone to begin the second half before Ross Lane gave the Wildcats a 23-20 advantage with an acrobatic 23-yard TD grab late in the third quarter. Ward finished the game with a career-best 101 receiving yards on seven catches.

Senior Tyrell Sutton came back from a wrist injury in the eighth game of the year to record his 16th-career 100-yard rushing game. He finished with 114 yards on 29 carries, adding 29 yards on five catches.

Northwestern held its 23-20 lead until late in the fourth quarter when Missouri's Jeff Wolfert made his third field goal of the contest. He had another chance to end the game in regulation, but his 44-yard effort as time expired sailed wide right. The Tigers scored a TD on their opening possession of overtime before keeping the Wildcats out of the end zone to secure the victory.

2010 OUTBACK BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

Senior Mike Kafka broke an Outback Bowl record with a school-record 532 passing yards, throwing for four scores and running for another to lead a furious Northwestern comeback to force overtime, but the Wildcats ultimately fell to Auburn, 38-35.

With NU trailing by 14 and three minutes to play, Kafka scrambled for a 2-yard score to draw the Wildcats within eight, 35-27, after the extra point was blocked. On the ensuing Auburn possession, Brad Phillips forced a fumble recovered by Sherrick McManis, setting up a Kafka to Sidney Stewart 18-yard strike with 1:15 to go. A tricky 2-point conversion pass from Andrew Brewer to Brendan Mitchell tied the game.

A fumble on the ensuing kick gave NU the ball back again, but a field goal attempt went wide to force overtime. After Auburn kicked a field goal on their possession, Northwestern first attempted one of its own, but it clanged off the right upright. Auburn drew a roughing the kicker penalty to give NU another shot, however. A fake field goal on fourth-and-goal from the 2 was not successful, ending the game.

Kafka recovered from five interceptions in the game to set NCAA records for total plays by an individual (98) and total plays by a team (115). He hit Brewer for two scoring strikes and also found Drake Dunsmore in the flat before Dunsmore broke several tackles on a 66-yard catch-and-run touchdown scamper.

Brewer finished with 133 yards receiving while Dunsmore had 120. Zeke Markshausen caught 12 passes while Stewart caught 10.

2011 TICKETCITY BOWL

GAME SUMMARY

Trailing 31-9 midway through the third quarter, Northwestern staged a furious rally at the inaugural TicketCity Bowl, pulling within one touchdown before falling to Texas Tech, 45-38.

Texas Tech held a 10-0 lead after the first before NU got on the board in the second with a 15-play, 78-yard drive capped by a Colter one-yard rush. The PAT failed, making it 10-6 before TTU pushed its lead to 24-6 at the half.

The third quarter was a wild one on the scoreboard, with both teams combining for 32 points. NU forced a fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, converting the turnover into an 18-yard Stefan Demos field goal, but Texas Tech got an 86-yard touchdown run on the next play from scrimmage to make the score 31-9 with 11:05 left in the third. Kain Colter scored on the ensuing drive on a 15-yard rush before he found Josh Rooks on a two-point conversion pass to make it 31-17. After Texas Tech scored another touchdown, Northwestern recovered an onside kick attempt and needed just two plays to punch it in on a four-yard Evan Watkins' rush, making the score 38-24 entering the fourth.

NU scored on its third-straight drive when Watkins found Demetrius Fields for an 18-yard touchdown on fourth-and-four, cutting the deficit to 38-31 with 10:33 left to play. Texas Tech kept punching, extending its lead back to 45-31 with 7:13 left during a drive that saw Hunter Bates, NU's leading tackler with 11 at that point, carted off the field with a major leg injury.

Jordan Mabin kept the 'Cats alive with an 39-yard interception return for a touchdown to make the score 45-38 with 5:37 left, but Texas Tech all but ran out the clock on its next drive to secure the win.

2011 MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL OF TEXAS

GAME SUMMARY

Appearing in a bowl game for a fourth straight year, Northwestern came out on the short end of 33-22 outcome against Texas A&M in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas. NU scored the first touchdown of the game but TAMU ran off 27 straight points to take command.

In the final game of his NU career, quarterback Dan Persa established himself as Division I's (FBS or FCS) all-time record-holder in completion percentage. Persa wraps up his tenure at 72.7 percent (460-of-633), besting the previous NCAA record of 70.4 as set by Hawaii's Colt Brennan.

Senior safety Brian Peters came up with his 12th career interception in the game, giving him sole possession of third place on NU's all-time list, with three of those coming in bowl games.

Against the Aggies, Persa threw for 213 yards, but the Wildcats were held in check by a stout A&M defense that collected eight sacks on the day. NU gained a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter when Houston native Venric Mark scored his first career rushing touchdown on a pitch from Persa. That score capped a 13-play drive that ate up nearly five minutes off the clock. Texas A&M, however, then dominated the game's next 25 minutes, running off 27 unanswered points to take a 30-7 lead with 5:59 remaining in the third quarter.

The Wildcats responded and scored back-to-back touchdowns to cut the TAMU lead to eight, 30-22. But A&M then converted a third-and-13 deep in its own territory before gaining another first on a circus catch that set up a field goal and put the game on ice, 33-22, with 30 seconds to play.

MEDIA INFORMATION

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football athletic communications are coordinated by Paul Kennedy, assistant athletics director, and Scott Hammer, secondary football contact. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to either Kennedy (coach) or Hammer (player).

NU's Athletic Communications office is located in Anderson Hall, which is directly northeast of Ryan Field (behind Ryan Field's video/scoreboard).

CREDENTIALS

Season and single-game credential requests for Northwestern football must be requested online. Season requests must be received by Aug. 30 to assure a season seat in the press box. Media members can call/email our office (serranilla@northwestern.edu or hammer@northwestern.edu) for online instructions.

Credentials will be mailed if the request is received 10 days prior to a game. Once a request is submitted, you will receive an automatic reply stating that your request has been received. Shortly thereafter, you will receive notification whether your request has been approved or denied. Credentials also may be picked up at the athletic communications office in Anderson Hall prior to game day.

Reporters may not use a credential to cover the game for another newspaper, TV station, radio or internet site. In addition, photographers may not use a credential for the sole purpose of selling images for a profit. Failure to comply will result in both agency's credentials being revoked for the entire season.

NUSPORTS.COM

The official website of Northwestern Athletics is NUsports.com. Updated daily, the site includes NU's football releases and features many other football related information. Links to all of the other 18 Wildcat sports are provided and include schedules, history, school traditions and campus information.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Programs, flip cards, statistics and notes will be provided before each game. A play-by-play will be distibuted at the conclusion of each quarter along with quarter quickie stats. Complete team and individual statistics, a scoring summary, game notes and coaches' quotes will be provided after the game. Coffee and pastries will be served before an afternoon game. A light meal will be served during halftime. Sodas, water and coffee will be available throughout the game.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media website for Big Ten football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for the conference and each of its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media, or you may apply for a password by sending an email to password@collegepressbox.com.

PARKING

Parking credentials will be provided only upon request and cannot be left at will call. Parking requests must be received seven days prior to a game in order to be mailed in time. Requests made after that will only be granted if the pass is picked up prior to game day. Due to limited space, parking credentials will be issued on a first-come, first-served basis.

Press parking is located in the west lot, at the corner of Central and Ashland streets. The entrance to the press parking lot is located on Ashland Street, directly across from the stadium's press elevator.

Additional parking is available at the Evanston Hospital parking garage, near Central and Ridge Streets.

When covering practices on campus, parking is recommended along Ashland Avenue (west of Ryan Field) or in one of the visitor parking spots in the East Lot (last row near the FB practice field). You are subject to a parking ticket if you park in the East or West Lots without a permit during the week (8 a.m. to 4 p.m.).

RELEASE AND STATISTICS

The Portable Document File (PDF) versions of the Northwestern release, along with statistics and other up-to-date information can be found at NUsports.com. Contact our office if you wish to receive the PDF release via e-mail each week.

Because of this technology, Northwestern does not mail or fax its football release to members of the media.

The press releases for all Big Ten sports will now be available on the Conference website, www.bigten.org, along with up-to-date statistics, standings, schedules and more. In addition, media who are interested in receiving the PDF version of a Big Ten sport-specific press release as soon as it is available can contact the Conference Communications staff to be added to that sport's email distribution list.

ROAD GAME CREDENTIALS

Requests for credentials to Northwestern road games should be made through NU's athletic communications office or the host school (if the school has its own credential site). Names and phone numbers of Northwestern's opponents can be found in the opponents section (page 26) of this media guide.

MEDIA INFORMATION

PHOTOGRAPHY/SIDELINE CONTROL

All photographers must work outside the 25-yard lines as dictated by NCAA rules. Photographers are not permitted in or behind the bench area.

If this occurs, the photographer's pass will be revoked. Flip cards are available in the press box and elevator lobby.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

After a 10-minute cooling-off period, Coach Fitzgerald and selected NU players will be made available in the Nicolet Football Center Team Meeting Room. Please enter the building on the east side between Nicolet and McGaw Hall. Fitzgerald will meet with the media first, followed by the NU players. The opposing coach and players will be available in the South Ryan office complex (just to the east of NU's ticket office). Requests for player interviews should be given to an athletic communications representative in the press box at least five minutes prior to the end of the game.

ON-LINE SERVICE COVERAGE REGULATIONS

Credentials are granted to recognized subscription on-line services or to on-line services of credited media outlets. No credentials are issued to on-line services that have a direct link to gambling sites. Reports shall not purport to be exclusive, live, play-by-play or official coverage. Reports and scoring updates shall be used solely in connection with the on-line services regular collegiate football coverage and allowed no more frequently than two times per hour. Audio transmissions may not exceed two minutes in length and there may be no more than two audio reports per hour. No video transmissions of the game/broadcast will be permitted.

BLOGGING POLICY

Like other online media outlets, bloggers will be issued credentials if affiliated with an accredited media outlet or are an established and/or recognized entity. Blogging is allowed as long as individuals abide by our online reporting policies. Updates are allowed on a reasonable basis—no continuous live play-by-play reports, etc.

Blogging and/or Tweeting is not allowed at practice sessions. One daily blog report is allowed following a practice session.

TELEPHONES/INTERNET ACCESS

Media outlets requiring telephones should order their own lines through Northwestern's athletic communications office at 847-491-7503 (ask for Jocelyn Serranilla). An invoice from Northwestern will be mailed directly to your media outlet.

Northwestern provides a limited number of telephones in the press box for collect or credit card calls only. These phones are available on a first-come, first-served basis, but may not be used as your personal line. This policy will be strictly enforced. Media outlets requiring immediate access to a phone line are encouraged to order their own line. Radio entities who make live game reports should order their own lines, as should newspapers filing reports at halftime or on deadline. Live radio reports may not exceed two minutes in length and there may be no more than two audio reports per hour.

Northwestern offers free wireless internet access in its press box.

VIDEO FOOTAGE

A maximum of two minutes of game video footage (without audio) may be used during the one week period following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

COACH/PLAYER AVAILABILITY DURING THE WEEK

Coach Fitzgerald is available at a weekly news conference on Mondays during the season at noon. The briefings are held in the Nicolet Football Center, located to the west of McGaw Hall. (A transcript of the news conference will be posted on NUsports.com later in the day.)

Fitzgerald also is available on Tuesdays as part of the Big Ten football teleconference. Coach Fitzgerald is scheduled from 11:10 to 11:20 a.m. CT. Please contact the Big Ten office at 847-696-1010 for the teleconference number.

For those unable to use these two mechanisms, please contact Paul Kennedy at 847-467-2028 to arrange time on Tuesday or Wednesday to talk with Coach Fitzgerald. He is not available for interviews after Wednesday.

If class schedules permit, selected Northwestern players are available at the weekly Monday press conference. Players also are available to the media after practices on Tuesday and Wednesday. All phone and radio interviews are conducted on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Players' telephone numbers will not be made available to media members.

Players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval.

No player interviews will be granted Sundays, Thursdays or Fridays.

These sessions are for media members only. Place requests one day in advance for best results.

NU's football team practices are open to the media on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. The first 20 to 30 minutes along with the final 10 minutes of Tuesday's and Wednesday's practices are open for filming and photography needs. When requested in advance, Fitzgerald can speak to television reporters briefly prior to the start of practice. Practices, which are closed to the public, are held on the grass and FieldTurf practice fields behind McGaw and Anderson Halls.

THE PAT FITZGERALD SHOW

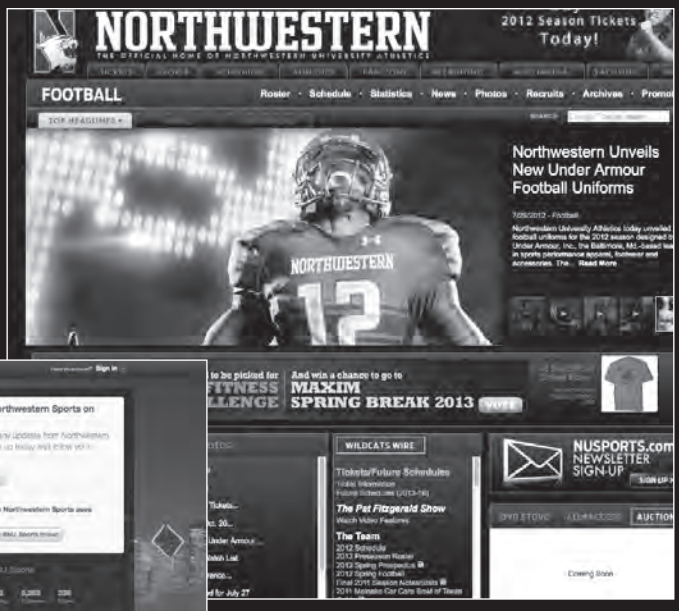

Once again this season, Northwestern Athletics, in conjunction with Northwestern Sports Properties, will produce "The Pat Fitzgerald Show," the weekly program now in its third year. Head coach Pat Fitzgerald and WGN sports director Dave Eanet sit down to recap each week's football game and preview the upcoming opponent. Fans can catch the weekly debut on Comcast SportsNet in Chicago, with re-airs to follow throughout the week. A special edition of the show was taped at Wrigley Field in advance of Northwestern's game at the historic venue in 2010 and earned a 1.22 rating on CSN Chicago, reaching more than 42,000 households.

BROADCAST PARTNERS

720 WGN, winner of the 2001, 2002, 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2009 Illinois Radio Station of the Year Award from the Illinois Broadcasters Association, is the radio voice of Wildcat football. In recent years, WGN has won Best Sports Play-by-Play honors from the Illinois Broadcasters Association and the March of Dimes A.I.R. award for "best sports play-by-play," for its coverage of NU football.

The 50,000-watt clear-channel station is heard in 38 states and in Canada. WGN, "The Voice of Chicago," is also home to the Chicago Cubs, Blackhawks as well as Northwestern men's basketball.

In January of 2009, Northwestern and WGN Radio announced a new agreement that will allow Wildcat fans to listen to football and men's basketball games on the station through the 2012-13 season.

"We are extremely pleased that Northwestern Athletics will continue its long partnership with WGN-AM 720," Northwestern Director of Athletics and Recreation Jim Phillips said at the time. "WGN is one of the nation's premier radio stations and is the No. 1 station in Chicagoland."

Handling the broadcasts for WGN again this season are Dave Eanet, Ted Albrecht and Sam Valenzisi. Eanet, sports director at WGN, is now in his 23rd season as the play-by-play voice of Wildcat Football and has been honored for sports reporting and play-by-play coverage by many organizations, including the Associated Press, United Press International, Illinois Broadcasters Association and the Chicago Headline Club. In 2011, Eanet was recognized as the Illinois Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, the first such honor of his impressive career. A graduate of NU's Medill School of Journalism, Eanet was inducted as an honorary member of Northwestern's Athletic Hall of Fame in February, 2005.

Eanet also has handled pre- and postgame broadcasts for the Chicago Bears and Cubs, and handles play-by-play duties for Big Ten women's basketball on the Big Ten Network. He also is frequently seen as sports anchor on WGN-TV's News at Nine. Eanet has been the voice of Wildcat basketball since 1996, and is heard every weekday on WGN's morning show with Jonathan Brandmeier.

Albrecht, a seven-year offensive lineman with the Chicago Bears, is in his 19th season as radio analyst for the Wildcats. Albrecht started 33 games at offensive tackle for California, where he was a two-time all-conference and 1976 Associated Press All-American. He started in four postseason All-Star games: the East-West, North-South Shrine, Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl games. Albrecht was the Chicago Bears' first-round draft pick in 1977. He started 82 games for the Bears before suffering a career-ending back injury. He was the eighth recipient of the Brian Piccolo Award. Albrecht is a partner at Thread Designs and resides in Winnetka, Ill.

DAVE EANET was inducted as an honorary member of NU's Athletic Hall of Fame in February 2005.

Valenzisi, who is in his thid year as the Wildcats' sideline reporter, was an All-American place-kicker and team co-captain for Northwestern in 1995, when the 'Cats shocked the college football world and won the Big Ten championship outright with an 8-0 league mark. Valenzisi currently serves as a vice president for Lincoln International LLC in Chicago.

FITZGERALD FEATURED WEEKLY ON WGN RADIO

Head coach Pat Fitzgerald is heard regularly on 720 WGN throughout the football season. Coach Fitzgerald appears on WGN before and after every game as well as periodically on WGN's regular morning programming.

OTHER WAYS NOT TO MISS A PLAY

If you cannot get to a game in person or are out of the WGN Radio listening area, fans can listen to Wildcat football by either logging onto WGN on the web at wgnradio.com, or by calling Teamline at 1-800-846-4700, ext 1065. Your Teamline call can be charged to any major credit card.

Fans across the world can also listen to WGN on Sirius XM Satellite Radio.

TRAVEL INFORMATION

DIRECTIONS TO RYAN FIELD

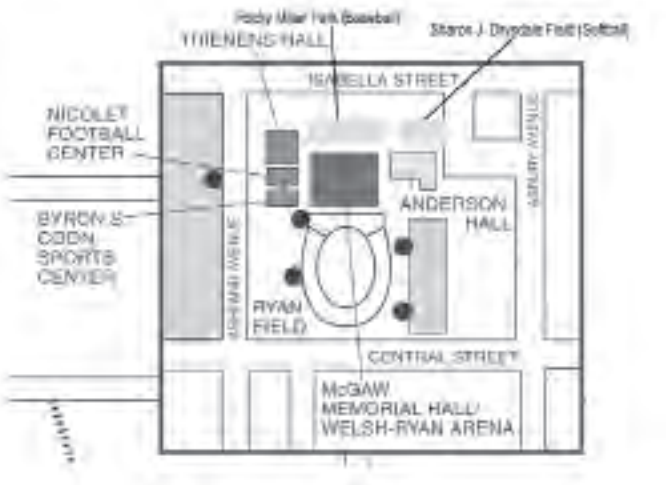

From the North: Take I-94 (Edens Expressway) East. Exit on Skokie Blvd. and turn left at stop light at Lake Ave. Go east on Lake to Green Bay Road. Turn right and proceed south to Central Street. Turn left and go east approximately one-half mile to Ryan Field.

From Chicago: Take either Lake Shore Drive or I-90/94 (Kennedy Expressway). If you go the Lake Shore Drive route, follow LSD until it ends and merges with Sheridan Road. Take Sheridan north through Evanston (follow the signs as Sheridan winds through south Evanston). Turn left on Central Street, just north of the main campus. Go west approximately one mile to Ryan Field. If you take the expressway, stay on the Kennedy until I-90 and 94 split. Take I-94 West (Edens Expressway) toward Milwaukee. Exit on Old Orchard Road and proceed east. Turn left on Gross Point Road and then turn right at the next light which is Central Street. Proceed approximately two miles to Ryan Field.

DIRECTIONS TO NICOLET FOOTBALL OFFICE
