OPENING KICKOFF

Homes Away From Home: With construction ongoing at Lanny & Sharon Martin Stadium, the Wildcats will play their 'home' games at a pair of locations in 2015. The 'Cats will play two games at UIC's Flames Field - including Saturday's season opener - and six games at the home of Major League Soccer's Chicago Fire, Toyota Park.

All-Time Series: The Wildcats and Raiders will be meeting for just the third time in program history as they have split the first two meetings. The Raiders came away with a 1-0 victory in 1990 before the 'Cats earned a shutout of their own in 2007, 3-0.

Welcome Back: Northwestern returns 82 percent of its goal scoring (18-of-22) from last season and is led by senior tri-captain Joey Calistri. The forward enters the season climbing towards the top of the NU record books, ranking fourth in program history in goals (27) and sixth in points (62). Matt Eliason (2007-10) is the career leader in both goals (33) and points (82).

Between the Pipes: One of head coach Tim Lenahan's top priorities early in the season is replacing 2014 Big Ten Goalkeeper Tyler Miller. The program's all-time leader in shutouts (34) was a two-time All-American and is currently on the Seattle Sounders FC2 squad. Senior Zak Allen played the most minutes in net for the 'Cats in exhibition, registering 180 minutes in the three games.

Scouting the Raiders: Colgate went just 6-10-2 a season ago, but 11th-year head coach and former Northwestern assistant Erik Ronning returns 10 starters and 22 letter winners this season. Ethan Kutler is the team's leading returning on the offensive end after a 12-goal, 7-assist campaign a year ago.

The Schwaben Athletic Club has been a mainstay in the Chicagoland area since 1926 and played host to the Wildcats in Buffalo Grove while the city's annual Oktoberfest took place nearby.

Senior Joey Calistri scored the lone goal for the Wildcats on a penalty kick after Schwaben AC was called for hand ball in the box just eight-plus minutes into the contest. Calistri, the 'Cats' active career leader with 27 goals, went high and right down the middle while the opposing goalkeeper guessed right to no avail.

Corner Kicks	2	3
Saves	6	3
Fouls	6	8
Offsides	0	1

While head coach Tim Lenahan played three goalkeepers in the win over Schwaben AC Sunday, it was senior Zak Allen that started between the posts for the second-straight game Wednesday. Allen played all 90 minutes for the 'Cats, making six saves in posting the shutout.

The Bulldogs held a 12-7 advantage in shots in the contest, but Chicago's Big Ten Team was able to play a more even match in the final 45 minutes as both teams had five shots in the half.

OMAHA, Neb. — The Northwestern men's soccer program played its final exhibition match before the start of the regular season next week, falling to Creighton at Morris Stadium Saturday evening, 5-0.

The Jays, who advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament a season ago, provided the Wildcats with an important test to close the preseason as they are ranked No. 6 in the NSCAA preseason coaches poll. Northwestern will open the regular season a week from today when they host Colgate at UIC's Flames Field in Chicago.

Northwestern mustered just three shots in each half, while Creighton finished the game with a 19-6 edge. The Jays also had nine shots on goals to the Wildcats' five.
