Northwestern University President

MORTON SCHAPIRO

Morton Schapiro began his term as the 16th president of Northwestern University on September 1, 2009. He is a professor of economics in Northwestern's Judd A. and Marjorie Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences and also holds appointments in the J. L. Kellogg School of Management and the School of Education and Social Policy.

President Schapiro is among the nation's leading authorities on the economics of higher education, with particular expertise in the area of college financing and affordability and on trends in educational costs and student aid. He has testified before US Senate and House committees on economic and educational issues and is widely quoted in the national media on those issues.

Previously President Schapiro was president of Williams College from 2000 to 2009. Earlier he had served as a member of the Williams College faculty from 1980 to 1991 as professor of economics and assistant provost. In 1991 he went to the University of Southern California, where he served as chair of the Department of Economics until 1994 and then as dean of the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences until 2000. During his last two years as dean, he also served as the university's vice president for planning.

President Schapiro has written more than 100 articles and written or edited nine books. The books include: Cents and Sensibility: What Economics Can Learn from the Humanities (with Gary Saul Morson, Princeton University Press 2017); The Student Aid Game: Meeting Need and Rewarding Talent in American Higher Education (with Michael McPherson, Princeton University Press 1998); Keeping College Affordable: Government and Educational Opportunity (with Michael McPherson, Brookings Institution 1991); plus an edited volume: The Fabulous Future? America and the World in 2040 (with Gary Saul Morson, Northwestern University Press 2015).

He has received research grants and contracts from the National Science Foundation, the US Department of Education, the World Bank, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the Spencer Foundation, the College Board, the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, and other groups to study the economics of higher education and related topics. In 2010 he was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and in 2017 he was elected to the National Academy of Education.

He received his bachelor's degree in economics from Hofstra University and his doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania.

President Schapiro and his wife Mimi have three children: Matt, Alissa and Rachel.

Vice President for Athletics and Recreation

DR. JIM PHILLIPS

James J. Phillips became Northwestern's 21st director of intercollegiate athletics and recreation on April 14, 2008, bringing with him a track record of success at the Division I level and a commitment to the values Northwestern always has maintained in collegiate athletics. Four years into his tenure, Northwestern President Morton Schapiro elevated Phillips to the position of Vice President for Athletics & Recreation.

One of 10 children from a middle-class family and a native of the Portage Park neighborhood on Chicago's northwest side, Phillips has proven to be the perfect fit to lead Northwestern's 19-sport program in the nation's No. 3 market. His deep Windy City roots and family orientation are an integral part of his core philosophy of providing student-athletes with a "world-class experience" that enables them to thrive academically, socially and athletically.

While successfully elevating the profile of Northwestern Athletics locally, Phillips has simultaneously garnered the respect of his peers across the college sports landscape. He was elected as the inaugural chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Council in February 2015. During a two-and-a-half year term, he served as the first-ever sitting athletic director on the NCAA Board of Directors and Board of Governors. In March of 2017, he was appointed to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Selection Committee, Northwestern's first representative in 50 years. He also was appointed to the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors in early June.

In February of 2016, Phillips was honored as the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year in FBS, his second honor in four years after also being recognized in 2012. During the summer of 2016, he and Northwestern hosted the Division 1A Athletic Directors' Association Institute, a development conference for aspiring athletic directors, the first campus to do so.

During the course of his Northwestern tenure, Phillips has completed a two-year stint as the Athletic Director Chair of the Big Ten Conference, representing the league's A.D.'s on the Executive Committee of the B1G Joint Group, while simultaneously working as a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee. He served as a member of the NCAA Awards, Benefits, Expenses and Financial Aid Cabinet, and is an athletic mentor in the NCAA Pathway Program. He also has served on the NCAA Champions Forum panel, a group of football coaches and athletic directors making an effort to increase the hiring and awareness of minority football coaches.

He served as the president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NCAA), the first Northwestern A.D. to be elected to the position. He also is a member of the NACDA Executive Committee, a mentor in the NCAA Fellows Leadership Development Program, and a member of the Association of Governing Boards of Colleges & Universities. Phillips serves on the boards of World Sport Chicago as well as GENYOUth, and previously served on Chicago's bid committee for the 2016 Olympic Games. He is an adjunct professor of management and organizations at Northwestern's world-renowned Kellogg School of Management, instructing a course in Comprehensive Perspectives for Leading a Sports Entity. He has previously lectured in the Northwestern School of Continuing Studies' Master's in Sports Administration program.

Academically, Wildcats student-athletes have had banner years with Phillips at the helm. Northwestern has surpassed 200 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in each of the last seven years, including in 2016-17 when a school-record 245 NU student-athletes earned the distinction. The group of nearly 500 student-athletes representing 19 varsity athletic programs combined to post a record GPA of 3.338 during the academic year. The spring of 2017 represents the 33rd consecutive quarter in which the Wildcats exceeded a 3.0 average GPA as a group, with more than 75 percent of student-athletes posting a GPA of 3.0-or-better individually. Northwestern's young men and women also earned 60 prestigious Big Ten Distinguished Scholar Awards, representing a school-record 18 teams.

NU scored a 97 percent overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in the latest data released by the NCAA, a figure which leads the Big Ten by seven percentage points and ranks among the best scores in the nation. The Wildcats have scored 96 percent-or-higher overall in every year that GSR data has been released, finishing in the Top-4 among FBS athletic departments.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) data, Northwestern Football ranked second among all FBS programs with a multi-year rate of 991, while a Big Ten-record 15 Northwestern teams earned Public Recognition Awards in 2015 for ranking in the top 10 percent of their respective sports in the latest multi-year APR reports. The Wildcats have paced the Big Ten in APR every year since the award's inception in 2004-05.

Ten varsity programs earned Public Recognition Awards from the NCAA for their performance in the Academic Progress Rate, marking the sixth consecutive year more than half of all Wildcats teams received the honor. Northwestern football (995) posted the No. 1 rate in the nation among all FBS schools. The Wildcats football family has ranked first or second among FBS institutions for seven consecutive years. Wildcats men's soccer, women's golf and volleyball are among an elite group of 93 teams from across the country that have received the Public Recognition Award each year. In 2017, among the more than 470,000 student-athletes across the NCAA, Nandi Mehta was one of just two awarded the prestigious Walter Byers Postgraduate Scholarship.

Northwestern continues to be among the nation's leaders in community service under Phillips, who in 2011 oversaw the creation and hiring of NU's first assistant A.D. for community relations. All of Northwestern's nearly 500 student-athletes participated in at least one philanthropic initiative during the 2016-17 academic year, with the group totaling more than 5,500 hours in service of more than 100 community organizations. This marks the seventh-consecutive year Wildcats have accumulated more than 5,000 hours of service in Evanston and throughout Chicagoland. That emphasis on outreach has also included athletic department staff since 2012, during the annual Staff Service Day in early June.

Further improving the student-athlete experience, not just while they are in school but for the remainder of their professional lives, Phillips facilitated the 2012 institution of the trailblazing 'NU For Life' program, managed by the assistant A.D. for career enhancement and employer relations. The innovative four-year program is dedicated to guiding student-athletes toward their professional passion, connecting them with desirable internship and job opportunities, and preparing them for lifelong success after their playing careers are complete.

Phillips has pursued an aggressive plan to ensure success for Northwestern on and off the field of play, embarking on a number of major projects during his tenure. One of his first actions was to begin the implementation of a Department of Athletics and Recreation re-organization that was completed in January of 2009. The athletic department's existing infrastructure was broken into three key areas: internal, external and student-athlete well-being.

In the external area in 2010, Northwestern launched the first wide-ranging marketing campaign in the history of the athletic department. The ongoing campaign, with the tagline "Chicago's Big Ten Team," aims at building brand awareness and driving ticket sales over a multi-year time frame. Northwestern athletic competitions and events in Chicago have become a regular occurrence under Phillips, raising the awareness of Northwestern's brand throughout Chicagoland. In 2009, the Wildcats baseball team defeated Notre Dame at U.S. Cellular Field, the home of the Chicago White Sox. In 2010, Phillips signed a deal for Northwestern to face Illinois at Wrigley Field on Nov. 20, in what was the first football game at the "Friendly Confines" since 1970 and the first college football game at the venue since 1938.

Phillips then solidified NU's relationship with the historic North Side franchise, announcing in 2013 a reciprocal event and marketing agreement with the Cubs that provides opportunities for numerous NU programs to stage competitions at the venue. The series officially began on April 20, 2013, when Northwestern defeated Big Ten rival Michigan in the Friendly Confines, and continued in 2014 when the Wildcats' seven-time NCAA champion women's lacrosse team hosted the first-ever college lacrosse game at the ballpark, defeating the University of Southern California.

In February of 2016, Northwestern Athletics agreed to a broadcast rights extension with WGN Radio AM-720 as the home of Wildcats football and men's basketball through the end of the 2019-20 basketball season. WGN has been the home of the Wildcats, with play-by-play voice Dave Eanet, since 1996.

Phillips launched the first master facility plan study in Northwestern history in November of 2010 and, in 2012, announced approval by the Board of Trustees to build a major complex for athletic and recreational activities on the north end of NU's main Evanston campus.

The first steps in that plan were to address the needs of the campus community, and in 2012 the university opened a multi-million dollar sailing center on Lake Michigan, recognized as a leader in energy and environmental design and honored by the U.S. Green Building Council with USGBC LEED Gold Certification.

The university also unveiled a 30,000 square-foot expansion and renovation of Henry Crown Sports Pavilion, which included three new fitness studios, a 7,000-square foot strength and conditioning area, two massage therapy suites, classrooms and offices. Recreational facility visits by the university community have increased by 27 percent since 2008, to more than 530,000. Club sport participation has risen 41 percent over that same period to 1,300, and intramural participation exceeds 8,600. New flooring and branding has been installed in both Patten and Blomquist gyms, refurbishing two of campus' most used recreational facilities.

Northwestern opened the new Rocky & Berenice Miller Park, a rigorous two-year project built on the exact site of the former Rocky Miller Park, without displacing Northwestern Baseball from its home. In 2016, the new Lanny & Sharon Martin Stadium, Chap & Ethel Hutcheson Field and Lakeside Field venues alongside Lake Michigan were officially opened, and NU broke ground on the $265-million Walter Athletics Center, Ryan Fieldhouse and Wilson Field, the core pieces of the university's transformational lakefront athletics facilities.

Approved in 2016, work began this spring on a complete, $110-million renovation of Welsh-Ryan Arena, an ambitious 18-month rebuild of the department's most used and versatile venue. It also was announced that the new $20 million Trienens Performance Center, a state-of-the-art development facility to be constructed inside the existing Trienens Hall, will open in late 2018 or early 2019.

Northwestern and Under Armour began a historic and unprecedented multi-year partnership in 2012 that designates Under Armour as the official outfitter of the university's athletic program. The partnership represented Under Armour's first outfitter agreement with a Big Ten Conference athletic program. A leader in performance apparel, footwear and accessories, Under Armour outfits all of Northwestern's 19 men's and women's varsity athletic teams.

Along with the landmark Under Armour agreement, the department has signed major corporate sponsorship deals since partnering with Learfield Sports in March of 2011 and re-branding the entity Northwestern Sports Properties (NSP). Northwestern's total number of sponsors has increased from 40 to more than 100, including prominent partners such as AT&T, BMO Harris, USG, Allstate, Northwestern Medicine, Nissan, State Farm, Coca-Cola & Athletico Physical Therapy.

The Wildcats football season ticket base increased from 10,600 in 2009 to more than 21,000 just four years later, an all-time high. Attendance is up more than 6,000 fans per game at Ryan Field over the last ten seasons, and NU established three football ticket revenue records in the past seven years.

In advance of its complete overhaul, the old Welsh-Ryan Arena went out with a bang as Northwestern sold out a record five 2017 men's basketball games in advance of gameday. The basketball season ticket base has risen from 2,100 in 2009, to nearly 3,700 during the 2016-17 campaign. Basketball ticket revenues hit record highs in seven consecutive seasons from 2010-11 to 2016-17.

In collaboration with the Office of Alumi Relations & Development, Phillips completely overhauled and expanded the Athletics Development staff beginning in 2012 in preparation for We Will: The Campaign for Northwestern. Since launching the campaign, Athletics & Recreation has secured nearly $340 million in gifts, surpassing the initial $285 million goal with nearly three years remaining. The department launched the elite Otto Graham Society, which consists of 60 members who have committed nearly $11 million to the Wildcat Fund. Annual giving to the Wildcat fund has increased more than 60 percent from FY12 to FY16, while total donors have increased from 4,700 to a projected 6,000+.

In competition, Northwestern has achieved historic success. During Phillips' time in Evanston, lacrosse, softball, women's golf, fencing, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's tennis, field hockey, men's swimming and wrestling all have won team or individual conference championships.

Seven of Northwestern's 13 all-time bowl appearances have been earned since 2008. Two of the program's three bowl victories have captivated the Wildcats community in the last five seasons. And three of the team's four 10-win seasons, including two in the last five years, have happened with Dan & Susan Jones Head Football Coach Pat Fitzgerald on the field as a student-athlete or coach. The Orland Park native, and two-time National Defensive Player of the Year, recently signed a contract extension securing his future in Evanston through 2026. In addition to posting the best academic performance in major college football, the 'Cats have had multiple players selected in each of the last three National Football League Drafts.

In 2013, former Illinois Mr. Basketball Chris Collins was recruited away from his alma mater, Duke University, to lead the Wildcats men's basketball program. Now endowed as the Sullivan-Ubben Head Men's Basketball Coach, the 'Cats win total has gone up every season since Collins arrived, culminating in a school-record 24 this year. During the spring of 2017, the team took the entire Wildcats family on a joyous ride to the program's first NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament in 78 years, as well as its first NCAA Tournament victory. In April of 2017, Phillips announced a long-term contract extension for Collins that secures his future in Evanston through 2025.

Women's soccer needed a transformational leader in 2011, and Michael Moynihan was identified as the perfect fit for the Wildcats. He took the program back to the NCAA Tournament in 2015 for the first time since 1998, and this past season guided the 'Cats to their first Big Ten Conference championship and a run to the NCAA Sweet 16. Men's soccer has captured three pieces of Big Ten hardware in the last five seasons, and head coach Tim Lenahan and staff have produced professionals Tyler Miller, Cole Missimo and Joey Calistri.

An outside-the-box hire when made in 2008, Emily Fletcher has helmed Wildcats women's golf to three Big Ten titles in the last five years, a 2017 NCAA stroke play championship, and a runner-up finish in the NCAA Match Play Championship. Northwestern's male and female golfers are the beneficiaries of a collaborative leadership structure put in place in 2014 that includes Fletcher, head men's coach Davis Inglis and Director of Golf Pat Goss, one of the world's top teachers.

Regarded as one of the most prolific players in the history of the sport, head coach Tracey Fuchs is a field hockey icon. She was recruited to Northwestern and quickly turned the Wildcats into a national power with a pair of Big Ten titles in recent years. The Hall of Famer has coached four student-athletes since 2010 who have totaled eight All-America honors, and has also been actively involved with Team USA where she coached in the Pan-American Games and the Junior World Cup.

Women's basketball returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1997, and this spring Nia Coffey was selected with the fifth overall pick in the WNBA Draft by the San Antonio Stars.

Northwestern's powerhouse lacrosse program has won five national championships in the past 10 seasons, earned a national runner-up finish and advanced to two more national semifinals. Head coach Kelly Amonte Hiller has guided the Wildcats to a winning record - and the postseason - in each of the past 10 years.

Wildcats swimming & diving was able to lure two-time Mountain West Coach of the Year and Northwestern alumna Abby Steketee back to Evanston. She has invigorated the program, including sophomore Olivia Rosendahl's 2017 NCAA Platform Diving championship, the first in school history.

The Wildcats have been represented in each of the last three Summer Olympic Games, including by swimmers Valerie Gruest-Slowing and Jordan Wilimovsky in Rio in 2016. In the summer before his senior season, Wilimovsky became the first American to compete in both indoor and outdoor swimming events in the same Olympics.

Men's tennis has posted five straight 20-win seasons and played in six consecutive NCAA tournaments under head coach Arvid Swan. His squad has boasted multiple All-Big Ten honorees in six consecutive seasons.

Women's tennis has been a model of consistent excellence, earning a Big Ten championship trophy in seven of the last 10 seasons with Claire Pollard at the helm. Since 2008, Pollard has coached five All-Americans and been recognized twice as Big Ten Coach of the Year.

The softball program, under head coach Kate Drohan, has had significant success in the past decade, winning 30-or-more games four times and advancing to six NCAA tournaments. Three Wildcats have earned a total of five All-America nods under Drohan, while four have been recognized as Academic All-Americans.

An opening atop the volleyball program in 2015 lured Shane Davis, the head coach of the two-time defending national champions in the men's college game. A similar opportunity to lead Northwestern baseball brought Spencer Allen to Evanston, the first-ever African-American head baseball coach in the Big Ten Conference. In his second season, Allen took the Wildcats to the Big Ten championship game for only the second time in history.

Recruited away from a national powerhouse in 2015, head coach 'AHavahla Haynes, a Northwestern alum, has raised the standard for Northwestern cross country. First-year student-athlete Audrey Roberts was the third-fastest member of Team USA at the 2017 IAFF Cross Country World Championships at the Kololo Independence Grounds in Uganda.

Three wrestlers have won national championships going back to 2008, including freshman Jason Tsirtsis in 2014. Mike McMullan became the third four-time All-American in program history in 2015. Five Northwestern wrestlers have combined to win six Big Ten championships in that span.

Northwestern fencing has been a model of consistency with 10 straight 30-plus win seasons. The program won its conference championship in 2016 and has earned 18 All-America honors in the past decade alone.

Individually, student-athletes have won the Tewaaraton Trophy in women's lacrosse (Hannah Nielsen, Shannon Smith), the Big Ten Wayne Duke Award (Mark Ison and Drew Ratner), the Hodge Trophy in wrestling (Jake Herbert) and the Big Ten Conference awards for male and female athletes of the year (Jake Herbert in 2009 and Shannon Smith in 2011, respectively).

Prior to arriving in Evanston, Phillips served as Northern Illinois' athletic director for four years beginning in 2004. During that time, the Huskies had unprecedented athletic success and consistent academic achievements. On July 1, 2006, Phillips was promoted to associate vice president, in addition to his director of athletics title, after already being recognized by his peers in the Mid-American Conference with his selection to serve as chairman of the MAC Athletic Directors' Council. He was honored with the 2007 General Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director of the Year award while at NIU, and was a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball committee during his time in the MAC.

Phillips was extraordinarily successful in fundraising and marketing at Northern Illinois. He spearheaded the fundraising and construction of the $14-million Yordon Academic and Athletic Performance Center at NIU, the largest capital project in the athletic department's history, and led several successful fundraising campaigns for athletics. In addition, the Huskies opened an indoor practice facility for baseball, softball and men's and women's golf, and began construction in the spring of 2008 on a new soccer/track and field complex.

During Phillips' tenure in DeKalb, he was instrumental in scheduling high-profile football games against Michigan and Ohio State that resulted in national television appearances for NIU. He also negotiated playing the University of Iowa in 2007 at Soldier Field in Chicago as a home game, which sold out in less than a week. In addition, Phillips negotiated a multi-year radio rights agreement for WSCR-AM (The Score) in Chicago to carry football, men's basketball and a weekly NIU live radio show discussing all Huskie athletic programs. Phillips also negotiated a television deal with Comcast SportsNet Chicago to carry football games and a weekly show called Inside Huskie Sports.

A 1990 graduate of the University of Illinois, Phillips started his career as a manager and student assistant in Illinois' athletic department. He earned a master's degree in education at Arizona State University while serving as a restricted earnings basketball coach during a period in which the Sun Devils reached the postseason in five straight years.

Phillips holds a Ph.D. in educational administration from Tennessee, which he completed in the summer of 2007, where he served as an assistant athletics director with the Volunteers until 2000. He directed a $12.4 million annual athletics giving program, and was directly responsible for identifying, cultivating and soliciting all major gifts and donations for the Volunteer athletic program. He helped originate the first-ever capital campaign for athletics at UT that raised more than $50 million for endowments, facilities and programs. In addition, he supervised several athletic programs and a variety of other areas.

Phillips then moved to the University of Notre Dame in 2000, where he served as associate director of athletics and senior associate director of athletics for external affairs. During 2002-03, he helped launch the Rockne Heritage Fund, which became the first athletics annual fund that directly benefited student-athlete grant-in-aid scholarships. In addition, he managed the ticket office, various corporate sponsorships, athletic programs and a weekly Irish radio show. At the same time, Phillips played an integral part in the funding of a new $24-million, 96,000-square foot athletics facility. At Notre Dame, Phillips directed all phases of the athletics community relations program and helped develop new institutional and departmental advancement programs.

Phillips and his wife, Laura, have five children: Luke, Madeline, Meredith, John and James.

Ryan Fieldhouse, Wilson Field, the Walter Athletics Center, Martin Stadium, and Hutcheson Field from the north

Ryan Fieldhouse and Walter Athletics Center

On November 13, 2015, Northwestern broke ground on new athletics and recreation facilities on the Evanston campus. The new facilities on Lake Michigan are critical to Northwestern's ability to deliver a world-class experience—academically, socially, and athletically.

Ryan Fieldhouse will provide one of the most versatile indoor practice, competition, and recreation venues in the nation. Housing Wilson Field, it will host football and soccer practice, lacrosse competition, club and intramural activities, and special events such as Dance Marathon and Freshman Convocation.

The fieldhouse's footprint will also include the following spaces:

- Strength and conditioning space for Olympic sports teams
- Student-athlete wellness and support floor (sports medicine, locker rooms, equipment rooms, and meeting spaces)
- The Mitchell and Valerie Slotnick Family Atrium will provide a dramatic and versatile entrance into Ryan Fieldhouse.

The Walter Athletics Center will serve as the new operational home for Northwestern Athletics. Offering the best in sports performance, nutrition, locker rooms, and academic support that Wildcats need to flourish, this vital facility will streamline the day-to-day experience for student-athletes. The building will feature:

- Football leadership center (locker room, meeting rooms, strength and conditioning space, and coaches' offices)
- The Kimberly K. Querrey and Louis A. Simpson Wing, the student-athlete development and nutrition floor (includes the nutrition center, dining facility, academic services, NU for Life, and compliance).
- Athletics leadership floor, including Olympic sports and administrative offices
- Auditorium, accommodating team and staff meetings

Outdoor venues have been transformed as well. Lanny and Sharon Martin Stadium, home to Northwestern lacrosse and soccer, received significant renovations including a new turf field, lighting upgrades, and state-of-the-art video equipment.

Chap and Ethel Hutcheson Field provides a turf practice field for football with spectacular views of Lake Michigan and the Chicago skyline.

At Lakeside Field, a new artificial playing surface was installed for our field hockey program in the summer of 2015.

The renovated Henry Crown Sports Pavilion, serving the entire University community, features new locker rooms and improved space for aerobics, yoga, and other exercise classes. The facility's expansion added 30,000 square feet of studios, a wellness area, and strength-training space.

Additions to the Dellora A. and Lester J. Norris Aquatics Center will include a dedicated dry-land training space, varsity locker rooms, and support spaces critical for training and competition.

These investments represent a transformational opportunity to unite the Northwestern community and provide our student-athletes with resources to compete at the highest level.

2017 NORTHWESTERN WILDCATS

Dan and Susan Jones Famiy Head Football Coach

PAT FITZGERALD

Already the second-longest tenured Big Ten head coach at the age of 41, Pat Fitzgerald's 11 seasons at the helm of Northwestern have been spent building upon the tradition he helped establish as a Hall-of-Fame linebacker for the Wildcats in the mid-1990's. Characterized by his motivational skills, enthusiasm and passion for all things Northwestern, Fitzgerald has shaped Chicago's Big Ten Team into one that consistently achieves excellence in all three phases of the student-athlete experience: academics, athletics and community outreach.

Taking over as head coach in 2006 after the sudden passing of his friend and mentor, Randy Walker, Fitzgerald provided leadership and stability in a trying time and has continued Walker's legacy of producing winning football teams while preparing young men for long-term success in life.

Fitzgerald has led the Wildcats to seven bowl appearances in his 11 seasons and has guided the 'Cats to two of their three bowl wins in program history. Most recently, Chicago's Big Ten Team defeated No. 23 Pittsburgh in the 2016 New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium, 31-24. After a slow 1-3 start to the season, the Wildcats won six of their last nine games to finish the 2016 season with a winning record of 7-6 for the sixth time under Fitzgerald.

The fifth-year seniors of the 2016 class became the first group in program history to earn a pair of bowl victories with their wins in the Pinstripe Bowl and TaxSlayer Bowl in 2013.

The 2015 season saw the Wildcats earn a trip to their sixth bowl under his guidance with an appearance in the New Year's Day Outback Bowl in Tampa, Florida. Behind one of the nation's stingiest defenses and a ground and pound offense, the Wildcats opened the season with a 16-6 victory over No. 21-ranked and 2016 Rose Bowl Champion Stanford. The victory sparked a 5-0 start for the 'Cats and led to Chicago's Big Ten Team matching a program record with 10-wins, including five straight to close the regular season. NU finished the season ranked in the top 25 in both the Associated Press and USA Today/Coaches Poll.

Northwestern's senior class of 2016 became the first in program history to post a pair of 10-win seasons and a pair was selected in the 2016 NFL Draft as defensive Dean Lowry was picked by the Green Bay Packers in the fourth round and superback Dan Vitale was taken in the sixth round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Additionally, five members of the 2016 class signed undrafted free agent contracts.

From 2008-12, Fitzgerald guided the Wildcats to five consecutive bowl berths, most recently in the 2012 campaign when NU capped a tremendous 10-win season with a landmark victory over Mississippi State in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl. The 2012 'Cats, who played in a New Year's Day bowl game for the third time in five years, earned a No. 17 year-end ranking in the USA Today/Coaches Poll, the best positioning for any Big Ten team.

Consequently, four consecutive senior classes to graduate from the Northwestern football program during that timeframe set or tied the school record for most career wins by a five-year senior class, with the 2012 group going out as the winningest NU senior class in history with 40 victories to its credit. Likewise, Fitzgerald's Gator Bowl victory on Jan. 1, 2013, marked the 50th of his career, officially making him the winningest head coach in Northwestern Football history.

Away from the gridiron, Fitzgerald's players have achieved at the highest levels in the classroom, last fall placing a record 39 players on the Academic All-Big Ten team en route to posting a program-record 3.14 GPA for the 2015-16 academic year. In 2012, Northwestern collected top national honors in the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the seventh time since 1998. Additionally, Fitzgerald's program ranked second among all FBS programs in the recently released multi-year Academic Progress Rating (APR), posting a score of 992 out of a possible 1,000 in the measure of player retention and eligibility.

Beginning in January 2018, Fitzgerald will being a three-year term as a member of the National Football Foundation's Board of Directors.

NU also goes to great lengths to make a difference in the community. Fitzgerald, his family and his players partake in countless charitable events, impacting the NU and Evanston communities through their participation in Northwestern Dance Marathon, Special Olympics, Misericordia, the NU chapter of Uplifting Athletes, weekly school and children's hospital visits, and dozens of other organizations. Additionally, a Wildcat also has been selected to the prestigious Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® in seven of the last year years (only 11 players from FBS football claim the honor each season), most recently place-kicker Jeff Budzien in 2013.

As a player in 1995, Fitzgerald was the leader of a suffocating Wildcats defensive unit that led the nation in scoring defense and anchored NU's storybook run to the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl. He capped the year by winning both the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's top defensive player and also was the Big Ten, Chevrolet and Sports IllustratedDefensive Player of the Year. Fitzgerald accomplished all of this despite suffering a broken leg in the penultimate regular-season game.

Fitzgerald recovered from that injury and in 1996 he again led the Wildcats to a share of the Big Ten title. He repeated as recipient of the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards, becoming the first two-time winner of both honors and laying the groundwork for his selection in 2008 to the College Football Hall of Fame. A two-time first-team All-American, Fitzgerald started 23 career games and totaled 299 tackles, including 20 for loss. He also forced five fumbles and intercepted three passes.

Prior to his return to Northwestern, Fitzgerald was a defensive graduate assistant at Maryland (1998) and Colorado (1999) before taking his first full-time position at Idaho in 2000.

In 2001, esteemed NU head coach Randy Walker brought Fitzgerald back to Evanston, hiring him to coach the defensive secondary and eventually tabbing him the 'Cats' recruiting coordinator. Named one of college football's top recruiters by SI.com in 2005, Fitzgerald mentored two-time All-Big Ten linebacker and former St. Louis Ram Tim McGarigle, the all-time leading tackler in NCAA history.

Fitzgerald remained an assistant coach before being named Northwestern's 29th head coach on July 7, 2006 under the most difficult of circumstances, succeeding Walker after his sudden passing on June 29, 2006. Fitzgerald remained the youngest head football coach among Football Bowl Subdivision schools until Lane Kiffin was hired by Tennessee on Dec. 1, 2008.

The program has steadily gained momentum in the years since Fitzgerald took over as head coach, starting with a challenging 4-8 campaign in 2006, when just weeks before the season began, Walker's death rocked the NU football program. In 2007, the Wildcats achieved bowl-eligibility with a 6-6 mark but did not play in a postseason game due to a lack of bowl slots for Big Ten teams. The 2007 Wildcats boasted a prolific offense that has become synonymous with NU teams of late, leading the Big Ten in regular-season total offense.

In 2008, a dramatically improved defense and strong special teams play led the 'Cats to a nine-win season and a berth in the Valero Alamo Bowl against Missouri, their first postseason appearance since taking on UCLA in the 2005 Sun Bowl. Northwestern touted the nation's fifth-most improved scoring defense and the Wildcats set a single-season school mark for rushing defense (126.4 ypg), breaking the mark that Fitzgerald and his teammates established in 1995. NU's 5-0 season start in 2008 was its best since the 1962 campaign, when the Wildcats were 6-0 and ranked No. 1 in the nation. For his efforts, Fitzgerald was named the 2008 Big Ten Coach of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award and a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award.

In 2009, the Wildcats returned to a New Year's Day Bowl game, their first since Fitzgerald was a student-athlete playing Tennessee in the 1997 Citrus Bowl. Fitzgerald's 2009 club was, perhaps, one of the most resilient teams in recent memory, overcoming a number of injuries (especially on defense) and some difficult defeats, only to finish with a "November to remember." The Wildcats opened the month by knocking off unbeaten Iowa, which at the time was ranked No. 4 in the BCS. NU then went to Illinois and defeated its instate rival before returning home to edge No. 16 (BCS) Wisconsin in the regular-season finale.

The strong finish made the Wildcats a "wanted" bowl team and they landed a berth in the Outback Bowl on Jan. 1. In that game, Northwestern played with the "heart of a Wildcat," overcoming a number of double-digit deficits only to fall 38-35 in overtime to Auburn. That game was widely recognized as the best bowl game of 2009-10, and one of the all-time most exciting postseason games.

In 2010, Northwestern raced to another 5-0 start before beating nationally ranked Iowa on Nov. 13 to move to 7-3 and climb back into the top-25. A season-ending injury to first-team All-Big Ten quarterback Dan Persa, however, slowed the 'Cats' ascent in the national rankings and NU closed the season with a 7-6 mark. Still, NU's third straight winning season under Fitzgerald was capped with yet another New Year's Day bowl berth, a bid to the inaugural TicketCity Bowl at the famed Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

Another strong finish to the schedule (four wins in their final five games) rendered the 2011 Wildcats bowl-eligible for a fifth straight year. The stretch was highlighted by a 28-25 upset of No. 9 Nebraska in Lincoln, which helped position NU for an eventual berth in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas at Reliant Stadium, home of the NFL's Houston Texans.

A graduate of Orland Park's (Ill.) Carl Sandburg High School and a 2003 inductee to the Northwestern Athletics Hall of Fame, Fitzgerald resides in Northfield with his wife, Stacy, and three sons, Jack, born in November 2004, Ryan, born in September 2006, and Brendan, born in February 2009.

DEFENSE

OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

Northwestern ranked fifth in the Big Ten in rushing offense last season and fourth in passing offense, averaging 26.0 points and 398.2 yards per game.

WHAT SOPHOMORE SLUMP?

Quarterback Clayton Thorson is coming off a record-setting year, setting a Northwestern single-season record with 22 touchdown passes and becoming the fourth player in school history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season. His 3,182 yards was the most-ever for a Wildcat sophomore.

He was able to keep the ball away from the defense, mounting a 1.88 interception percentage (378 attempts, nine interceptions), which is the fourth-lowest in a single season for a Wildcat tosser (min. 100 attempts). The Wheaton, Illinois, native was named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten to cap off the campaign.

JUSTIN JACKSON THE BALLCARRIER

Running back Justin Jackson was named First Team All-Big Ten after leading the conference in rushing last season with 1,524 yards and 15 touchdowns. Since starting as a freshman in 2014, he has accumulated 4,129 yards, good for second-most career yards in school history, trailing only Damien Anderson's mark of 4,485 by only 356 yards.

The Carol Stream, Illinois, native is the first player in NU history with three-straight 1,000-yard seasons, thanks in part to his usage rate — he has run the ball 312 times and 298 times in the last two seasons, respectively, and is 98 attempts shy of the Northwestern record for most attempts by a running back (Damien Anderson, 953).

THAT'S DEEP

Jackson will be joined once again in the backfield by sophomore John Moten IV and junior Auston Anderson. Moten IV put up numbers twice last season, with 16 rushes for 119 yards against Purdue and 14 rushes for 128 yards and two touchdowns against Illinois. Redshirt freshman Jeremy Larkin, a four-star recruit from Cincinnati, will also add to the daunting rushing threat.

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

Northwestern's receiving corps will be without last year's top target with the graduation of Austin Carr, who set the NU single-season receiving yards record in 2016 with 1,247. He led the Big Ten in receiving yards, receptions (90), and touchdowns (12).

Stepping up is last season's second-leading receiver, junior Flynn Nagel. After missing most of the 2015 season due to injury, Nagel had 40 catches for 447 yards and two touchdowns in 2016. He'll be joined by senior superback Garrett Dickerson, whose five touchdown catches last season was second-most on the team. He had 34 catches for 318 yards in 2016, including five catches for 46 yards and a key late touchdown in the Pinstripe Bowl.

Jalen Brown, a transfer from Oregon and a junior eligibility-wise, will also add depth to the offensive attack, after a 318-yard, three-touchdown 2016 seasons. Redshirt freshman Ramaud Chiaokhiao-Bowman, a three-star recruit and the number-10 prospect in the state of Minnesota, will present another option as a 6-foot-2 receiver for Mick McCall and the Wildcat offense.

THAT'S ENTIRELY OFFENSIVE

The offensive line will have four of last year's five starters returning, with junior Tommy Doles, junior Blake Hance, senior Brad North, and junior J.B. Butler. Doles was named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten last season, while Butler started the last seven games of 2016, which included two of the Wildcats' best rushing games.

Trey Glock, a graduate transfer from Georgia Tech, is a former three-star recruit who made five starts and appeared in 22 games for the Yellow Jackets, will make an impact for Northwestern. Also adding to the line's depth is Gunnar Vogel, who stands 6-foot-6, 286 pounds, and surrendered just two sacks during his varsity career in Columbus, Ohio, will add much-needed depth.

OLEIN

DEFEND YOURSELF
The Wildcats' defense in 2016 was highlighted by their ability to pick the ball off — the squad was third in the Big Ten with 16 interceptions. Northwestern also played a bend-but-not-break style of defense: despite being 10th in the conference by allowing 404.4 yards per game of total offense, the 'Cats were sixth in points per game at 22.2.

SAFETY DANCE
Safety Godwin Igwebuike returns for his senior season after being named Second Team All-Big Ten in 2016. He led the team with 108 tackles and seven pass breakups while also accumulating six tackles for loss. He ranked ninth in the country with 6.0 solo tackles per game and had a season-high 15 tackles with one forced fumble against Nebraska.

He'll be joined by fellow senior safety Kyle Queiro, who had a career-high 53 tackles last season with 3.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, and six pass breakups.

IN THIS CORNER...
Leading the cornerbacks is junior Montre Hartage, who started all 13 games last season and was second among Big Ten defensive backs with five interceptions — tied for the fifth-most in a single season in Northwestern history. He also led the team with nine pass breakups and 14 deflections and earned Honorable Mention All-Big Ten recognition.

Junior Keith Watkins returns to the secondary after a season-ending injury suffered during training camp forced him to miss the entire 2016 season.

Look for redshirt freshman defensive backs Brian Bullock and Travis Whillock, who were both rated three-star recruits. Bullock was named 2015 First Team All-District and Third Team All-Central Texas while Whillock had 300 tackles, 12 interceptions and 30 pass breakups during his varsity career, and earned All-State, All-District, and All-Greater Houston honors.

NEXT MAN UP
Northwestern will have a big hole to fill at linebacker with Anthony Walker Jr. leaving early for the NFL. Walker Jr. had 105 tackles and forced four fumbles last season, finishing his Northwestern career with eight forced fumbles, tied for the most in a career in program history.

Redshirt sophomore Nathan Fox, who appeared in all 13 games last season and had 12 tackles, and redshirt freshman Paddy Fisher, will both have their shot at middle linebacker in 2017. Fisher was named a three-star recruit and was named one of the nation's Top-50 inside linebacker recruits.

Providing linebacker depth will be junior Nate Hall, who finished third on the team last season with 73 tackles to go along with six tackles for loss, and senior Warren Long, moving from running back to linebacker. Long returns after missing last season with an injury sustained in Northwestern's 2016 opener against Western Michigan.

ON THE FRONT LINE
The Wildcats' defensive line will be missing two of its key players from last season, Ifeadi Odenigbo and C.J. Robbins. Odenigbo led the team with 10 sacks last season and finished his Northwestern career second in program history with 23.5 career sacks. Robbins was a team captain who finished the 2016 season with a career-high 29 tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss.

Returning for Northwestern is redshirt sophomore Joe Gaziano, who tied for second on the team last season with 4.5 sacks, and senior Tyler Lancaster, who finished 2016 with 28 tackles, including 3.5 for loss.

Also adding to the mix is redshirt freshman defensive end Tommy Carnifax, who was an early enrollee and began his Northwestern career during the 2016 winter quarter. He earned a three-star rating coming out of high school, which ranked him as the No. 24 prospect in the state of Ohio.

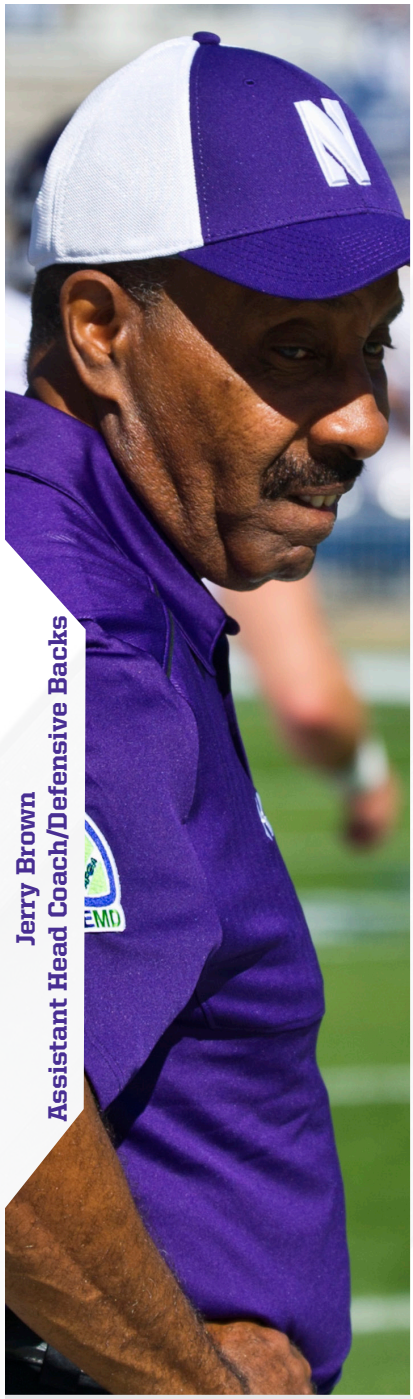
JERRY BROWN • 25th Season



Jerry Brown
Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Backs

Jerry Brown, the dean of the Wildcat coaching staff, is in his 24th season with Northwestern. In January 2002, Brown was named assistant head coach. He also coaches the Wildcats' defensive secondary after serving as the defensive coordinator from 1999 to 2001.

Brown's coaching career includes stops at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. Before his return to Evanston in 1993, he served as an assistant on Jerry Burns' staff with the Minnesota Vikings, tutoring wide receivers in 1988 and 1989 and defensive backs in 1990 and 1991. The Vikings' defensive unit held opponents to the lowest passing yardage in the NFC in 1990.

Before moving to the professional ranks, Brown served eight seasons as an assistant at Cal State Fullerton. He coached the Titans' wide receivers during that time and also served as offensive coordinator for his last five seasons. Brown also coached defensive backs at Eastern Illinois for three years (1977-79) and coached at his high school alma mater, Roosevelt, in Kent, Ohio, from 1973-77. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Northwestern in 1972 under head coach Alex Agase.

In 1995, Brown's secondary was one of the main reasons that NU led the country in scoring defense (12.7) and was third in turnover margin (+1.82). Three of his defensive backs from that year, Rodney Ray, Hudhaifa Ismaeli and Chris Martin, earned All-Big Ten honors.

A decade later, Brown's defensive back unit was a huge part of Northwestern's defensive resurgence in 2008, helping the Wildcats rank 25th in the nation in pass efficiency defense. The three upperclassmen in the unit (Sherrick McManis, Brad Phillips and Brendan Smith) earned All-Big Ten recognition while freshman Jordan Mabin was named to Rivals.com, Phil Steele, Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) andSporting News Freshman All-America squads.

That high level of performance continued in 2009 when NU made 17 interceptions, the 16th-best total in the country. McManis ranked eighth nationally in interceptions and 14th in passes defended, earning All-Big Ten first-team honors along with safety Brad Phillips. McManis was chosen in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

Brown coached Mabin to an All-Big Ten honorable mention award in 2010 (media) after the junior cornerback led the conference with 15 passes defended. That total ranks third all-time in school single-season history and ranks Mabin fourth all-time in PBUs. Safety Brian Peters also earned All-Big Ten honors, picking up second-team accolades from the media and an honorable mention nod from the coaches. Peters led NU with 107 tackles and three interceptions on the year.

Peters and Mabin continued to anchor the secondary in 2011, with Peters earning first-team All-Big Ten accolades and finishing third all-time at Northwestern with 12 career interceptions. Redshirt freshman safety Ibraheim Campbell also emerged on the scene, leading the team with 100 tackles and earning Freshman All-America honors from multiple media outlets.

In 2012, the Wildcats secondary was again a source of strength despite its relative youth. Sophomore safety Ibraheim Campbell excelled in his second year as a starter with 11 pass breakups, two forced fumbles and two interceptions. Campbell earned consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition.

The Wildcat secondary delivered a strong performance in Northwestern's landmark victory in the Taxslayer.com Gator Bowl. Campbell recorded his fourth career interception on a sideline pass from Mississippi State quarterback Tyler Russell and VanHoose stepped in front of a dying quail of a pass for his third interception of his redshirt freshman season before returning it for 39 yards.

Brown's secondary was part of a Northwestern defense that recorded 13 total interceptions and helped NU lead the Big Ten in turnover margin for the season (+13).

2013 saw the emergence of two talented underclassmen in the secondary; true sophomore Traveon Henry assumed the starting safety spot alongside Campbell, while true freshman Matthew Harris earned a starting cornerback role following the season-ending injury to opening-day starter Daniel Jones. Campbell, a consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten choice, matched a school record for consecutive games with an interception (5) as the NU defense ranked among the nation's leaders with 19 picks on the season.

The secondary continued to shine under Brown in 2014. Campbell earned All-Big Ten second team honors from the league's coaches, while VanHoose received an All-Big Ten second team nod from the media. Campbell would go on to be selected by the Cleveland Browns in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL draft.

Brown's secondary lived up to its "Sky Team" nickname in 2015 as it continued its aerial prowess, and ranked third in the country in defensive passing efficiency. Nick VanHoose intercepted a career-high 4 passes, broke up 12 passes and earned an All-Big Ten second team selection while Matthew Harris broke up a team-high 13 passes and was named to the All-Big Ten third team. Safety Traveon Henry signed as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after a strong senior season where he notched 74 tackles and 2 interceptions. Safety Godwin Igwebuike also racked up 87 tackles, the second-highest total on the team.

Including his playing days, Brown has a hand in 165 wins at Northwestern, more than 30 percent of the school's all-time total.

Brown lettered in his sophomore and junior seasons with the Wildcats as a wide receiver, catching 24 passes for 442 yards and two touchdowns. He played defensive back as a senior, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors and helping Northwestern finish second in the conference. That year, he set the single-season record for pass breakups (12). In 1994, one of his pupils, Rodney Ray, broke that mark with 13 pass breakups. Brown was selected in the ninth round of the 1972 NFL draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Brown, graduated from Northwestern's School of Education in 1972.

He and his wife, Denise (a 1974 Northwestern graduate), have a son, Jerry, and daughter, Kimberly. The Browns reside in Evanston.

MIKE HANKWITZ • 10th Season

Mike Hankwitz
Defensive Coordinator

Veteran defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz, who has won 371 games as a college assistant coach and coordinator, recently concluded his ninth season with the Wildcats and his 46th college season overall. He began his Northwestern tenure Jan. 18, 2008.

Hankwitz immediately had a measurable impact in his first season in Evanston, making the Wildcats' defense the fifth-most improved unit in the nation in the 2008 campaign. After allowing 31.0 points per game in 2007, Northwestern surrendered just 20.15 in 2008 to rank 27th in the country and fourth in the Big Ten. The Wildcats also ranked in the top-30 nationally in sacks (18th), pass efficiency defense (25th) and tackles for loss (28th).

The Wildcats posted 20 defensive shutout quarters on the year and held four opponents to under 100 yards rushing -- including a school-record 4-yard performance against Ohio. In the 2008 Valero Alamo Bowl, Northwestern's defense held Missouri, which touted one of the nation's most potent offenses, to 286 yards of total offense and 17 points through four quarters of play (Missouri came into the game averaging 497.5 yards of offense per game and 43.2 ppg). The Wildcats eventually fell 30-23 in overtime to the Tigers.

Hankwitz's 2009 defense was turnover-oriented, ranking 11th nationally with 30 takeaways. That number was comprised of 17 interceptions (16th in the country) and 13 fumble recoveries (21st). In 2010, NU limited half of its regular-season opponents to 105 total rushing yards or less while holding two foes to under 50 yards passing. Northwestern's defense also did a great job getting off the field, ranking third in the Big Ten with a 36.1 percent opponent's third-down conversion rate. Four members of his defense earned All-Big Ten awards, led by second-team honorees (media) Brian Peters and Vince Browne.

Hankwitz's defense made great strides over the back half of the 2011 season, highlighted by its effort in a road upset of No. 9 Nebraska on Nov. 5. NU limited the Huskers to a season-low 122 yards rushing -- 101 yards below their final season average -- and forced two turnovers. It also marked the first of three straight games in which the 'Cat defense held an opponent to three points or fewer in a half. Hankwitz' safeties each earned extensive postseason recognition, with Peters garnering first-team All-Big Ten honors (media) and Ibraheim Campbell being named a Freshman All-American by numerous outlets.

In 2012, Hankwitz oversaw a defense that was vastly improved from a year prior, ranking No. 3 in the Big Ten in rushing defense and holding eight of NU's 13 opponents to 20 points or fewer. The 'Cats thrived at creating timely turnovers, with NU leading the Big Ten in turnover margin (+13) and tied for fifth in the nation in fumbles recovered (16).

Hankwitz' unit also made its mark with late-game stands in 2012, preventing possible go-ahead, fourth-quarter drives against Syracuse, Vanderbilt, Boston College, Minnesota and Michigan State as well as in NU's landmark Taxslayer.com Gator Bowl win. Hankwitz' unit recorded four takeaways against Mississippi State -- the third straight game to close the year it had four takeaways -- to deflate their SEC opponent and secure a bowl victory for the 'Cats.

The Wildcats defense picked up in 2013 where it left off the previous year, posting two INT returns for touchdowns in the season-opener at Cal and ranking among the FBS leaders with 19 total picks on the season, one shy of the school record.

The Northwestern defense grew as a unit in 2014, led by Ibraheim Campbell, who earned All-Big Ten second team honors from the league's coaches, and Nick VanHoose, who received an All-Big Ten second team nod from the media. Campbell would go on to be selected by the Cleveland Browns in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL draft. In the upset over Penn State, the defense tied a season-high for sacks (4) and set a season-high for tackles-for-loss (9). The Wildcats also set a season record in the victory over Wisconsin, recording four interceptions, including three by Godwin Igwebuike.

In 2015, Hankwitz put together a truly formidable defensive unit that was ranked 13th best in the country in yards allowed per game and 12th in points allowed per game. The Wildcats posted two shutouts and held opponents to 14 points or fewer seven times on the season. Anthony Walker Jr. was named to the All-Big Ten first team, while Dean Lowry and Nick VanHoose made the All-Big Ten Second team. Dean Lowry was drafted in the fourth round of the NFL draft by the Green Bay Packers, while Deonte Gibson and Traveon Henry also signed as free agents with the Detroit Lions and Tampa Bay Buccaneers, respectively.

Hankwitz began coaching in the college ranks in 1970 as a graduate assistant at Michigan, his alma mater, and has worked every year since then at an NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly Division I-A) institution. He has served as a defensive coordinator at seven different schools (Western Michigan, Colorado [two times], Kansas, Texas A&M, Arizona, Wisconsin and Northwestern) since 1982.

Hankwitz spent two years as the Badgers' defensive coordinator, touting one of the nation's best defenses in 2006. Wisconsin was No. 1 in the country in pass efficiency defense (84.19 rating, third-lowest in Big Ten history), No. 2 in scoring defense (12.1 ppg) and No. 5 in total defense (253.1 ypg). The Badgers limited six of their opponents to 10 points or less and allowed just three foes to reach the 20-point mark. In two years with the Badgers, Hankwitz coached 13 players who received at least honorable mention All-Big Ten honors.

Prior to Wisconsin, Hankwitz spent two seasons as defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Colorado. He served as the program's interim head coach for the Buffaloes' 2005 Champs Sports Bowl game against Clemson. CU won the Big 12 North Division title in both 2004 and 2005. Hankwitz had moved to Colorado after serving as Arizona's defensive coordinator (and later interim head coach) in 2003.

Before his stint at Arizona, Hankwitz was the defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach (he also coached inside linebackers and punters) at Texas A&M (1997-2002) where he guided the Aggies' famed "Wrecking Crew" defense. During that span he had three top-10 ranked defenses, two top-20 defenses, won two South Division titles and one Big 12 championship. Among Hankwitz's standout players at Texas A&M was Dat Nguyen, who won the Lombardi and Bednarik Awards, as well as being named Chevrolet Defensive Player of the Year in 1998.

Hankwitz spent two seasons (1995-96) as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach for head coach Glen Mason at Kansas. The 1995 Jayhawks recorded the school's first 10-win season since 1905, played in the Aloha Bowl and ranked 10th in the final national polls.

Hankwitz enjoyed a highly successful 10-year run in his first tenure with Colorado (1985-94). After coaching outside linebackers and punters his first three years with the Buffs, he was named the program's defensive coordinator in 1988. Colorado put together the nation's fifth-best record (58-11-4) from 1989-94, including a national title in 1990, three Big 8 titles, two appearances each in the Orange and Fiesta Bowls, and six national top-20 rankings (including three top-five finishes). The Buffs' 1989 and 1991 teams set the school record for fewest points allowed (150) in a season. Among Hankwitz's standout players at CU were Jim Thorpe Award winners Deon Figures (1992) and Chris Hudson (1994), and Butkus Award winner Alfred Williams (1990).

Hankwitz was defensive coordinator (with additional responsibilities for the secondary, punters and punt team) at Western Michigan from 1982-84. The 1982 WMU defense allowed only 72 points, the fewest in Division I-A or I-AA. He was the outside linebackers and punting coach at Purdue from 1977-81. Prior to his time at Purdue, Hankwitz was the outside linebackers and secondary coach (along with punt return/punt rush) at Arizona from 1973-76.

Hankwitz began his coaching career as a graduate assistant (1970-72) at Michigan under head coach Bo Schembechler. As a defensive G.A., Hankwitz helped the Wolverines to two Big Ten titles, a 30-3 record, three top-10 national rankings and a 1971 Rose Bowl appearance. As a player at Michigan, he earned three letters and started on the 1969 Big Ten championship squad that played in the Rose Bowl. He earned a bachelor's of science degree in education.

Teams for which Hankwitz has coached have had a winning record in 37 of his 44 years. Ten of those clubs won conference championships and 12 more were league runners-up. He has coached in 28 bowl games, including every major New Year's Day bowl game -- Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Outback Bowl, Capital One Bowl and Gator Bowl.

In his 29 years as a defensive coordinator, his defense has ranked in the nation's top 25 on 14 occasions. As coordinator, his teams have 38 wins over ranked programs, including eight wins over top-five clubs and two wins over No. 1-ranked teams.

Hankwitz also has coached 14 first-team All-Americans (including four straight punters at Colorado), five conference defensive players of the year, 50 first-team all-conference choices and 16 team MVP's. As a coordinator, Hankwitz has won 235 games and seven championships, and overall has won 354 games (354-178-7, .675) as a college coach (including his three years as a G.A. at Michigan).

He was born in Ludington, Mich., and graduated from Mason County (Scottville, Mich.) Central High School, where he lettered in four sports: football, basketball, track and baseball. He and his wife, Cathy, have one son, Jacob.

Mick McCall recently concluded his ninth season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Northwestern, where he has mentored an All-Big Ten quarterback in five of the last eight years. He began his Wildcat tenure on Jan. 17, 2008.

The 2016 season saw McCall and the Wildcats take strides forward with second-year signal caller Clayton Thorson at the helm. Thorson ranked fourth in the Big Ten with 3,182 passing yards and set a new NU single-season record with 22 passing touchdowns. His 3,182 passing yards were the most by a sophomore quarterback in program history and rank fourth on the NU single-season chart. The Wildcats'' offense ranked fourth in the league in passing offense and fifth in total offense with 398.2 yards per game.

In addition to Thorson's breakout campaign, senior wide receiver Austin Carr became just the third player since 1990 to lead the Big Ten in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns. Carr finished the 2016 campaign with a program record 1,247 receiving yards and tied the single-season record with 12 touchdowns. His 90 catches rank third in single-season history at NU. Carr combined with junior running back Justin Jackson as the only duo in the country to lead a conference in receiving yards and rushing yards as Jackson rushed for a career-high 1,524 yards and 15 touchdowns, becoming the first player in program history to eclipse 1,000-plus yards in three consecutive seasons.

After a slow start to the season, the Wildcats' offense exploded for 38 points in a win at Iowa on Oct. 1 before defeating Michigan State a week later, 54-40, in what ended as the most points by allowed by the Spartans at home in history. The 'Cats eclipsed 38 points four different times during the 2016 campaign, including a 45-17 win at Purdue and 42-21 win over rival Illinois in the regular-season finale.

McCall has been the architect of some of the most unique offensive systems in recent seasons. That includes 2012 when he utilized a pair of quarterbacks with contrasting styles, with both Kain Colter and Trevor Siemian taking charge of the offense throughout the season. Colter started 12 of 13 games and posted a passer efficiency rating of 129.3 while also running for 894 yards and a team-best 12 touchdowns. Siemian, meanwhile, was a lethal pocket passer and orchestrator of the two-minute offense, throwing for 1,312 yards and six touchdowns off the bench.

McCall also took advantage of one of the nation's most dynamic running backs, inserting Venric Mark as the team's opening-day starter and helping the junior become NU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2006. Mark racked up eight 100-yard rushing games and 12 touchdowns, leading an NU rushing attack that ranked fourth in the Big Ten with 226.3 yards per game. McCall's offense produced 31.7 points per game and a pair of second-team All-Big Ten selections in Mark and offensive lineman Brian Mulroe.

McCall also successfully implemented the two-quarterback system in 2011 as returning All-Big Ten signal-caller Dan Persa shared snaps with the dynamic Kain Colter. McCall helped Colter post a 2-1 mark as the starter while Persa fully recovered from a ruptured Achilles tendon and, after Persa's return, employed Colter as a quarterback-running back-receiver hybrid. Colter compiled 673 passing yards, 654 rushing yards and 466 receiving yards and was involved in 18 total touchdowns on the year.

Persa in 2011 led the conference in passing yards per game (237.6) eventually finished as the most accurate passer in NCAA history with a record-setting career completion percentage of 72.7. In all, Northwestern landed six offensive players on the 2011 all-conference teams: Persa, Colter, WR Jeremy Ebert, OL Al Netter, OL Brian Mulroe and Big Ten Tight End of the Year Drake Dunsmore.

McCall helped NU to a 9-4 record in his first year in Evanston while dealing with a bevy of injuries to standout performers on NU's offensive unit. Quarterback C.J. Bachér finished 33rd in the nation and second in the Big Ten in total offense. When an injury kept for him out for two games, McCall tweaked the offense to allow Mike Kafka to break the Big Ten record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 217 at Minnesota.

McCall's version of the spread offense truly spread out the ball in 2008, with 14 different Wildcat catching passes on the year. Senior Eric Peterman led the team with 737 yards receiving and six touchdowns en route to an honorable mention All-Big Ten nod. Senior Ross Lane had a team-high 60 receptions to lead a contingent of eight Wildcats who earned double-digit catches.

Remaining true to Northwestern's tradition of running out of the spread, McCall's offense saw great production from Tyrell Sutton before an injury felled him for the remainder of the regular season after eight games. Sutton averaged 98.9 yards per game rushing and also was the team's fourth-leading receiver to earn an honorable mention All-Big Ten nod from the coaches -- his fourth All-Big Ten honor in his career.

In 2009, McCall took advantage of All-Big Ten quarterback Mike Kafka's abilities to turn his offense in the Big Ten's top passing attack, ranking 13th in the country with 286.5 yards through the air per game. Kafka was selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles after leading the conference in total offense (286.5 ypg), passing yardage (263.8 ypg), completion percentage (64.8), completions per game (24.5) and fewest interceptions thrown (2.44 percent) as a senior.

McCall's offense was astounding in the season-ending Outback Bowl, gaining 625 total yards while contributing to 21 broken Outback Bowl records and an additional 11 tied during a dramatic 38-35 overtime loss for the Wildcats. Kafka's 532 yards through the air were a school record, while his 47 completions and 78 passing attempts were NCAA bowl records. Kafka's 98 offensive plays (78 pass attempts, 20 rushes) and the Wildcats' 115 total offensive plays were both NCAA bowl and NCAA FBS records.

In 2010, for the second-straight year, McCall coached Northwestern's starting quarterback to All-Big Ten honors. Dan Persa was the coaches choice as the conference's top QB while the media tabbed him as a second-team honoree after the junior completed a Big Ten-record 73.5 percent of his passes for 2,581 yards and 15 touchdowns against just four interceptions. Persa also ran for 519 yards and nine more scores. The Wildcats ranked third in the Big Ten in passing offense with 242.6 yards per game, compiling a 7-3 record after a win over then-No. 13 Iowa on Nov. 13. Persa's season came to an end on the winning touchdown pass of that game after he ruptured his achilles tendon.

After two productive years of rotating QBs in 2011 and 2012, McCall again allowed Colter and Siemian to share snaps in 2013. Siemian turned in several high-octane performances, including in the final game vs. Illinois when he racked up 414 yards -- the 10th-best single-game total in NU history -- and four touchdown passes. Although shortened because of injury, Colter's production in his final year left him as a 2,000-yard passer and rusher for his career, departing with a career passer efficiency rating of 139.0.

In 2014, Siemian's final year at Northwestern, he passed for 2,214 yards as well as rushing for five touchdowns. He finished his career ranked fourth all-time at NU in career passing yardage (5,931), fourth in completions (550), sixth in total offense yards (5,908) and seventh passing TDs (27), and was drafted by the Denver Broncos in the 7th round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

In 2015, McCall was tasked with bringing redshirt freshman quarterback Clayton Thorson into the Wildcats' offense. Thorson's dual-threat capabilities helped the Wildcats tie a program-record ten wins as Thorson passed for 1,522 yards and seven touchdowns and added five touchdowns on the ground.

McCall spent the 2007 season as the offensive coordinator at Bowling Green State University, directing the Falcons' spread offense, which averaged over 400 yards per game (402.5 ypg). Prior to '07, McCall spent four years as BGSU's quarterbacks coach, and mentored All-Americans Josh Harris (2003) and Omar Jacobs (2004).

At Bowling Green, McCall played a pivotal role in the development of Harris and Jacobs, arguably two of the top quarterbacks that BGSU and the Mid-American Conference have produced. In 2004, Jacobs had the best year ever for a Falcon signal caller, setting an NCAA record by throwing an NCAA-best and MAC-record 41 TD passes with just four interceptions, the best TD/interception ratio in the history of college football.

Jacobs, who declared early for the NFL Draft, also was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year while completing 309-of-462 passes for 4,002 yards. He also led the nation in points responsible for at 22.5 per game and was second in the nation in passing (333.5 ypg) and total offense (358.5). In 2005, Jacobs led the MAC in total offense (294.7 ypg) and was second in TD passes with 26.

Harris, who quarterbacked the Falcons in the 2003 Motor City Bowl against Northwestern, completed 325-of-494 passes (65.8 percent) for a then-school-record 3,813 yards and 27 TD's. He also had 830 yards rushing and ranked third nationally in total offense (331.1 ypg).

McCall began coaching in 1979 at his alma mater, Southern Colorado, as the quarterbacks and running backs coach. He then spent five seasons (1983-87) as the running backs/tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at Idaho State. From there, he joined Oregon State (1988-90) as the Beavers' wide receivers and tight ends coach.

After a successful 10-year stint (1991-2000) as the head coach at Douglas County and J.K. Mullen high schools in Colorado, McCall spent two seasons (2001-02) as the quarterbacks/running backs coach at Wyoming before moving to Bowling Green. At Mullen High School, he led the football program to a 68-17 record and a state championship in 1998, which earned him Denver Post Coach of the Year honors.

Among the more notable players McCall has coached is former Idaho State running back Merril Hoge. Hoge went on to star for the Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL from 1987-93 and is currently an NFL analyst for ESPN.

Prior to starting his coaching career, McCall was a quarterback at Southern Colorado in Pueblo, Colo., from 1975-78 where he was a two-time All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference performer and lettered in basketball. He was invited to participate in the training camp of the NFL's Detroit Lions following his college playing career.

He and his wife, JoAnne, have two daughters, Ashley and Brittany.

Linebackers

Randy Bates has led the Northwestern linebackers for 11 seasons and has spent 36 years overall in the coaching profession. Bates assumed his current role at NU after Pat Fitzgerald was named the Wildcats' head coach in July, 2006.

Prior to arriving in Evanston, Bates spent six seasons at Louisiana Tech, serving as the team's defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2005.

Most recently, Bates help mold Anthony Walker, Jr., into one of the best linebackers and players in program history. An All-American and first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2015, Walker again earned all-conference honors as a junior before becoming the first player since 1996 to declare early for the NFL Draft.

During Bates' first season on staff in 2006, three of NU's top six tacklers belonged to the linebacker corps, led by Adam Kadela's team-high 80 tackles. Current Oakland Raiders linebacker Nick Roach, who missed the season's final four games because of injury, still finished fourth with 62 tackles.

In 2007, Kadela ranked 21st in the nation and third in the Big Ten with 125 tackles (10.4 pg), concluding his career just four shy of the coveted 300 mark. He earned consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten honors.

Bates' linebacker corps was a huge part of Northwestern's defensive resurgence in 2008. Senior Prince Kwateng ranked eighth in the Big Ten with 8.2 tackles per game, leading an athletic group from his outside linebacker position. Bates' linebackers earned 24.5 tackles-for-loss in 2008, including 8.5 quarterback sacks. In 2009, Quentin Davie and Nate Williams combined to make 176 tackles (19.5 for loss) on their own. The entire group had 26.5 TFLs, bettering its stellar number from a year before.

In 2010, Bates had a deep and veteran group to coach, led again by Williams and Davie. Williams recorded 96 tackles and 9.5 tackles for loss to rank second on the team in both categories while Davie led the team with three interceptions, returning one for a touchdown, while harassing opposing QBs with a team-best six quarterback hurries. The pair combined for 29 tackles alone in the TicketCity Bowl vs. Texas Tech.

Bates' contingent in 2011 regularly went six deep in the rotation, with David Nwabuisi leading the NU defense with 8.5 TFL's on the year and finishing with 84 tackles. Proby assumed the starting middle linebacker position midway through the year and thrived in that role, while redshirt freshman Collin Ellis made 10 starts and developed a reputation as the team's hardest hitter. The unit's highlight of the year undoubtedly came in NU's 28-25 upset of No. 9 Nebraska on Nov. 5, when Proby, Nwabuisi and Ellis combined for 21 tackles, 4.0 TFL's, a forced fumble and a pass breakup while shutting down a heralded Nebraska running attack.

In 2012, Bates oversaw a unit that was the strength of the 'Cats' defense all season long, with three starters -- Nwabuisi, Proby and sophomore Chi Chi Ariguzo -- ranking as the Wildcats' top three tacklers and all three garnering honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades.

In 2013, Northwestern's trio of starting linebackers -- Damien Proby (112), Chi Chi Ariguzo (106) and Collin Ellis (78) -- ranked as the team's three leading tacklers. Both Proby and Ariguzo earned honorable mention All-Big Ten nods from the league's media voters.

A second-year starter, Proby ranked as the team leader and was sixth in the Big Ten in tackles with 9.0 per game. Nwabuisi led NU with three interceptions -- including one return for a touchdown -- while Ariguzo topped the Big Ten with four fumble recoveries to go along with his team-best 10.5 tackles for loss.

Under Bates' tutelage, Ariguzo was the team's leading tackler in 2014 with 104. The veteran coach also helped Jimmy Hall transition from safety to linebacker and the senior finished the season with 58 tackles, two interceptions and a team-high three fumble recoveries. Redshirt freshman Anthony Walker also burst onto the scene a year ago. The newcomer led the Wildcats with 9.0 TFL's. He also earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors on Sept. 29 after he had eight tackles and an interception return for a touchdown in his first career start at Penn State.

Bates' linebackers enjoyed an outstanding 2015 highlighted by the breakout season of Anthony Walker, who was named as an All-American and to the All-Big Ten First Team. Walker led the team with 122 tackles and his 20.5 tackles for a loss was the fourth highest total in the nation and third most in NU single-season history. Drew Smith also had a strong year with 59 tackles and 10.5 tackles for a loss. Jaylen Prater contributed 46 tackles in only nine games, and Nate Hall stepped into a larger role with seven games left in the season and posted 56 tackles. The tenacity and the depth of the linebacker unit helped the Wildcats form an imperious defense.

In his six years with the Bulldogs, Bates served in numerous capacities, all on the defensive side of the football. He worked with the entire secondary in 2000 and 2001, the cornerbacks in 2002, linebackers in 2003, the entire secondary in 2004 and finally defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2005. In his final season at La Tech, Bates led Louisiana Tech to one of the school's top defensive performances in the last decade, which resulted in a 7-4 overall record and third-place finish in the Western Athletic Conference. The defense gave up the fewest points since 1994 and ranked fifth in the country in turnover margin.

Bates coached some of Louisiana Tech's top defensive standouts, including several who reached the ranks of the NFL: Bobby Gray (Chicago Bears), Jerron Wishom (Dallas Cowboys) and Tramon Williams (Green Bay Packers).

Prior to Tech, Bates served as the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Kent State University for two years where he coached Pittsburgh Steeler James Harrison.

Bates was the linebackers coach at New Hampshire from 1992 through 1997, during which time the program won three conference northern division titles and Bates coached three of the top 10 tackle leaders in school history. In 1994, New Hampshire went undefeated, won the Yankee Conference championship, was ranked No. 12 nationally in Division I-AA and reached the NCAA playoffs.

He also had coaching stints at Navy (1989-1992), St. Joseph's College (1984-1988), Miami (Ohio) (1983-84) and Muskingum College (1982-83).

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Ohio State University in 1983 and his master's degree in education from Miami University in 1985.

Bates is a retired Naval Lieutenant.

Bates and his wife Tracey have three children, Samantha, Alexandra and Olivia.

Offensive Line

Adam Cushing is in his 13th season on the Wildcat staff and his 11th as a full-time assistant. In February of 2009, he was promoted to offensive line coach after previously serving as the Wildcats' superbacks coach.

Cushing also made a name for himself on the recruiting front during his days as the Wildcats recruiting coordinator (2008-11), twice earning recognition from industry media members as one of the Big Ten's top recruiters (Rivals.com in 2007,ESPN.com in 2009).

In his first year in charge of the offensive line, Cushing molded a young group which gelled and excelled toward the end of the 2009 season. The line blocked for eventual fourth-round NFL Draft pick Mike Kafka and contributed to a record-breaking offensive performance in the 2010 Outback Bowl, where Kafka threw for a school-record 532 yards while NU broke the NCAA record for offensive plays in a game.

Cushing's offensive line came together in 2010 to pave the way for four 100-yard rushing performances in Northwestern's final six games. Overall, NU's regular-season rushing total increased 25 percent over 2009. Junior left tackle Al Netter earned All-Big Ten honorable mentions from the media for the second-straight season while center Ben Burkett began the year as a member of the Rimington Trophy watch list for the second-straight time. The group helped Dan Persa earn an All-Big Ten first team honor from the coaches and a second-team nod from the media, allowing him to complete a Big Ten-record 73.5 percent of his passes on the year.

Cushing returned one of the nation's most experienced offensive lines in 2011, with newcomer Brandon Vitabile joining seniors Al Netter and Ben Burkett and juniors Pat Ward and Brian Mulroe in the trenches. All five started all 13 games for the 'Cats, helping NU post the fifth-best rushing attack in the Big Ten along the way. After going without a 300-yard rushing game since 2005, Northwestern achieved the feat twice in 2011 (320 vs. Eastern Illinois, 317 at Indiana). Cushing's group further demonstrated its prowess in the running game on the game-sealing touchdown drive in the fourth quarter at Nebraska; NU ran on 13 straight plays to cover 66 yards to paydirt and eat up 7:14 off the game clock. The left side of Cushing's line, Netter and Mulroe, earned honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades after the season.

Mulroe and Ward then anchored an O-Line that in 2012 was simply one of the Big Ten's best. With the addition of converted superback Jack Konopka at right tackle and first-year starter Neal Deiters to right guard, the unit helped Venric Mark become Northwestern's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2006 and guided an offense that finished fourth in the Big Ten with 225.5 rushing yards per game. Cushing's group also led the league in fewest sacks allowed on the year, with just 16 surrendered in 13 games.

The 2014 unit helped true freshman running back Justin Jackson to post only the 16th 1,000-yard season in program history. Jackson ran for more than 1,100 yards and 10 touchdowns in his inaugural campaign. The line was anchored by an All-Big Ten honorable mention selection (coaches and media) in Vitabile. Cushing lined up Vitabile as the starter at center in all 50 games of his career. The native of New Jersey was a finalist for the prestigious William V. Campbell trophy that is considered to be the "Academic Heisman."

Cushing put together another dominant offensive line in 2015 that paved the way for Justin Jackson to post a back-to-back 1,000 yard season, the fifth such occurrence in program history. Jackson ran for over 1,400 yards and the rushing offense racked up 16 touchdowns from four different players. The Wildcats averaged 188.5 yards per game on the ground and the offensive line also helped quarterback Clayton Thorson in his first year behind center.

As the Wildcats' superbacks' coach, Cushing mentored then-true freshman Drake Dunsmore, who was named to the Sporting News Freshman All-Big Ten team in 2007. Dunsmore ranked third on the team with 12.8 yards per catch among players with 10 or more catches, picking up 141 yards on 11 receptions.

After Dunsmore was hurt prior to 2008, Cushing's crew diversified well. Josh Rooks and Brendan Mitchell each caught touchdown passes while helping block for an offense that averaged 141.8 yards on the ground per game.

A native of Chicago, Cushing joined the Wildcats after spending two years as an assistant coach at the University of La Verne in La Verne, Calif. He coached tight ends in 2002 and the offensive line in 2003.

Cushing is a former player at prep power Mt. Carmel High School, and went on to play at NCAA Division III University of Chicago.

At Chicago, Cushing was a three-year starter at tight end and was named to the all-University Athletic Association team three consecutive years (1999-2001). He helped the Maroons win UAA titles in 1998 and 2000. Cushing was a team captain his senior year. He finished his collegiate career with 72 receptions, good enough for 10th on U of C's career catches list.

A Dean's List honoree, Cushing graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology from Chicago in 2002. He completed work on his master's degree in general education at La Verne in 2004.

Cushing's older brother, Matt, was an Academic All-Big Ten tight end at Illinois and played four years for the Illini (1994-97). He also played six seasons for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Cushing is married to Dr. Jaime Cushing, DDS, and has two daughters, Abigail and Dana, and a son, Alexander. They reside in Evanston

Running Backs

A former defensive graduate assistant for Northwestern under Randy Walker, Matt MacPherson is entering his 12th season as the Wildcats' running backs coach and his fifth as the program's recruiting coordinator.

MacPherson has helped tutor three of the most explosive running backs in program history in Justin Jackson, Tyrell Sutton and Venric Mark. Jackson and Sutton ranks second and third in program history in career rushing yards, while Mark is fourth in school history in all-purpose yards.

Jackson burst onto the scene as a true freshman in 2014 and took the Big Ten by storm, rushing for 1,187 yards and 10 touchdowns. He was NU's leading rusher in all 12 games, with six 100-yard rushing performances (all against Big Ten opponents and Notre Dame). He was only the second freshman in program history to notch over 1,000 yards on the ground. His 98.9 yards per game were the fourth-most by a Power-5 conference freshman during the 2014 regular season and were sixth-most overall in the Big Ten.

MacPherson helped Justin Jackson sustain his excellence in 2015 as Jackson rushed for 1,418 yards and became only the fifth player in program history to run for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Jackson had seven games where he rushed for over 100 yards and finished 18th in the country in rushing yards. Warren Long also had a strong season and added five rushing touchdowns of his own.

Jackson had his best season to date in 2016, leading the Big Ten with a career high 1,524 rushing yards and ranking third in the league with a career-high 15 rushing touchdowns. He culminated his junior campaign by earning MVP honors in the Wildcats' victory over No. 23 Pittsburgh in the 2016 New Era Pinstripe Bowl with 32 carries for a career-high 224 yards and three touchdowns. Jackson rushed over 100 yards six times and scored three touchdowns in three different games. He became the first player in program history to rush for 1,000-plus yards in three-consecutive seasons and will enter his senior campaign just 357 yards shy of breaking the Northwestern record for career rushing yards.

MacPherson's first season as the running backs coach also notched him his first 1,000-yard rusher in Tyrell Sutton. Sutton followed his record-breaking freshman campaign with a 5.3 yard per carry average in 2006. He finished with 1,000 yards on 189 attempts and also caught 40 passes (261 yards) out of the backfield.

In 2007, Sutton was named an honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the coaches despite missing five-plus games with an ankle injury. In Sutton's absence, both Omar Conteh and Brandon Roberson recorded 100-yard rushing games.

MacPherson's running back corps was hit hard by injuries in 2008, but the group stepped up and performed well regardless. Sutton appeared in parts of nine games during the regular season, averaging 98.9 yards per game and 4.8 yards per carry. He also was NU's fourth-leading receiver to earn honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades from the coaches, the fourth All-Big Ten nod of his career. Sutton finished the regular season with 1,195 all-purpose yards in his nine appearances, averaging 132.8 yards per game. As a team, NU averaged 141.8 yards on the ground per game.

The Wildcats employed a running back-by-committee approach in 2009 due to similarly skilled players and injuries. The quartet combined for 10 touchdowns on the season.

MacPherson again came into the 2010 season without a true starter named from among his unit. All told, six different running backs recorded carries and five started at least one game. NU's regular-season rushing total increased 25 percent over its 2009 total when all was said and done. Jacob Schmidt emerged as a reliable starter midway through the year, scoring four touchdowns while starting four games. After an injury to Schmidt, redshirt freshman Mike Trumpy stepped up in a big way to start the next four games until an injury of his own kept him out of the regular season finale and TicketCity Bowl. In his four starts, Trumpy put together two 100-yard rushing efforts (110 at Indiana and 129 versus Illinois), averaging 4.6 yards per carry on the year while leading NU in rushing for the season.

The running game remained consistent in 2011 despite losing Trumpy to an ACL injury in the Big Ten-opener vs. Illinois. Schmidt started 11 of 12 games and led NU's running backs with 465 yards and six touchdowns, including a career performance of 110 yards and two touchdowns at Indiana. Schmidt also keyed one of NU's most memorable drives of the year, a series of 13 plays covering 66 yards and ending in seven points that sealed the 'Cats' win at Nebraska.

MacPherson oversaw a unit that keyed Northwestern's 10-win season in 2012, as converted wideout Venric Mark found a home at running back and exploded on the scene to become NU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2006. Mark recorded the sixth-best single-season rushing total in school history (1,366 yards), scored 12 rushing touchdowns and topped 100 yards rushing in a game eight times, en route to being named a consensus second-team All-Big Ten performer and a finalist for the coveted Doak Walker Award.
MacPherson combined Mark's dynamism with the hard-nosed running styles of Mike Trumpy and Tyris Jones to help the Wildcats rank fourth in the Big Ten in rushing yards per game (225.5) and come within 70 yards of matching the program's single-season record for team rushing yards.

With Venric Mark enduring several injuries that resulted in a medical redshirt season in 2013, MacPherson relied on Treyvon Green and Mike Trumpy to carry the rushing load, with Green surpassing 100 yards in three different games. Redshirt freshman Stephen Buckley also emerged as a dynamic runner in the mold of Venric Mark -- posting a career-high 99 yards at Iowa -- before seeing his season end with an injury at Nebraska.

Prior to joining the Wildcat staff, MacPherson spent two seasons working on Jeff Genyk's staff at Eastern Michigan University, coaching the Eagles' safeties. Prior to his two-year stint at Eastern Michigan, MacPherson was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, MacPherson attended DePauw University, where he played football for four seasons and was named a two-time first-team all-conference linebacker. He also was named a third-team Football Gazette All-American in 1998. He was DePauw's Defensive Player of the Year in 1998, and went on to be selected to the school's All-Century Team.

Following his graduation in 1999, MacPherson remained at DePauw as a graduate assistant/recruiting coordinator and worked as the running backs coach and the junior varsity offensive coordinator. He earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical performance.

MacPherson and his wife, Pamela, have three children: Thomas, Andrew and Emily.

Marty Long
Assistant Coach/Defensive Line

MARTY LONG • 10th Season

Marty Long recently wrapped up his ninth season at the helm of Northwestern's defensive line after coming to the Wildcats prior to the 2008 campaign.

Long helped mentor one of the top pass rushers in program history in Ifeadi Odenigbo, who culminated his career with a First-Team All-Big Ten selection in 2016. Odenigbo led the Big Ten with 10 sacks during his senior campaign and finished his career ranked second in program history with 23.5 career sacks. He set a single-game record with four sacks at Iowa and recorded two more sacks in a win over Michigan State to become the first player in program history with multiple sacks in back-to-back games.

In his first year at NU, Long's defensive line was Northwestern's most-improved and impressive unit. Led by first-team All-Big Ten selection Corey Wootton at defensive end, the Wildcats ranked 18th in the nation and second in the conference in sacks with 2.62 per game. As an individual, Wootton led the team both with 10.0 sacks (21st in the nation) and 16.0 tackles-for-loss (35th in the nation). NU's five regular starters all had a minimum of 3.5 sacks and 5.5 tackles-for-loss.

NU's line helped hold four different opponents to under 100 yards rushing, including limiting Ohio to an NU-school-record four net yards on the ground. Senior John Gill joined Wootton as an All-Big Ten honoree, while redshirt-freshman Vince Browne was a Rivals.com and Sporting News Freshman All-America award winner.

In 2009, NU's defensive line recorded 30.5 tackles for loss including 18 quarterback sacks to help the Wildcats rank 34th in the nation in sacks. Wootton recovered from a devastating knee injury in the 2008 Alamo Bowl to finish his year strong, becoming a fourth-round NFL Draft pick of the Chicago Bears. Browne followed up on a strong freshman campaign with eight tackles-for-loss and five sacks in 2009.

Long's unit held exactly half of Northwestern's regular-season opponents in 2010 to under 105 yards rushing as a team while combining for a whopping 41.5 regular-season tackles-for-loss -- up from 30.5 all of 2009. Much of that production came from Browne, whose 15.5 tackles for loss ranked him third in the conference and ninth in NU single-season history. Included in that total are 7.0 sacks, good for the second-best per-game average in the conference. Browne's performance earned an All-Big Ten second-team accolade from the media. Also picking up an All-Big Ten nod was senior interior lineman Corbin Bryant -- who has earned a spot with the NFL's Buffalo Bills -- whose 8.5 tackles for loss ranked third on the team.

In 2011, Long oversaw a defensive line group that regularly went eight deep, using a number of personnel combinations over the course of the year. Northwestern racked up 53.0 tackles for loss in 2011, up from 41.5 in the 2010 regular season and 29.5 two years ago. Senior Jack DiNardo was the leader among Wildcat down linemen with 6.5 TFL's and 3.0 sacks and was second in total tackles with 32.

The unit evolved into a force for the Wildcats during the 10-win 2012 campaign, ranking third in the Big Ten with 127.6 rushing yards allowed per game -- one yard shy of the school record Long's unit recorded in 2008. The defensive end tandem of Tyler Scott and Quentin Williams combined for 21.0 TFL's, 13.5 sacks and five forced fumbles, while Williams provided the exclamation point on the year with his INT return for touchdown on the third play from scrimmage at the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl. Senior DT Brian Arnfelt contributed 6.0 TFLs to NU's cause in his best season as a 'Cat, and sophomore Sean McEvilly grew under Long's tutelage into a starting role next to Arnfelt.

Scott's playing career under Long came full circle as a senior in 2013 when he registered 10.0 TFLs, 6.0 sacks, two interceptions and two forced fumbles en route to being named Northwestern's team MVP after the season. Long also groomed underclassmen Dean Lowry, Deonte Gibson and Ifeadi Odenigbo into impact players at defensive end, with the redshirt freshman Odenigbo notching 6.5 TFLs and 5.5 sacks on only nine total tackles for the year.

The defensive line was one of the strongest components of the NU defense in 2014, with Dean Lowry as the biggest standout of the unit, notching a team-best 4.0 sacks and a second-best mark of 8.0 TFLs. He was named to the honorable mention category of the All-Big Ten following the season.

Long engineered another superb defensive line in 2015 that formed the formidable teeth of the Northwestern defense. Dean Lowry led the way with 52 tackles, 13.5 for loss, and 3 sacks that earned him an All-Big Ten second team selection and ultimately a fourth-round selection in the draft by the Green Bay Packers. Deonte Gibson also had a strong season with a team-high nine sacks that led to an honorable All-Big Ten Mention and a free agent signing with the Detroit Lions.

Since graduating from The Citadel in 1986, where he played running back, Long has been coaching in the college ranks for all but two years. He was a defensive graduate assistant at Western Kentucky (1986) and The Citadel (1987) before assuming a full-time position with his alma mater in 1988. He continued coaching the Bulldogs until 1994 when he made the jump to professional football, serving as a defensive assistant with the CFL's Baltimore Stallions for two seasons.

Long then moved back into college coaching and spent 12 straight years on the West Coast, beginning with an assistant position (defensive line coach) with Arizona under head coaches Dick Tomey and John Mackovic. During his tenure in Tucson, the Wildcats fielded some of the nation's top defensive teams, ranking 12th nationally in rushing defense in 1997 and '98, and ranking eighth in rushing defense and 21st in total defense in 2000.

In 2004, Long began a three-year stint with Chris Ault's Nevada Wolfpack, coaching the defensive line. He then served on Bill Doba's staff at Washington State this past season.

Throughout his coaching career, Long has been a part of several championship teams. At The Citadel, he helped the Bulldogs to a Southern Conference championship (11-2) in 1992. With the Baltimore Stallions, they won the 1995 Grey Cup (18-3) with the greatest record in the history of the league. At Arizona, the Wildcats went 12-1 in 1998 (best season in school history) and won the Holiday Bowl. At Nevada, the Wolfpack won the WAC title in 2005 (9-3) and played in the Hawaii Bowl.

In 1992, he earned a Coach of the Year Medallion from the Eastman Kodak Company.

Long is a native of Rock Hill, S.C., where he attended Northwestern High. He graduated from The Citadel in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in math and computer science. He and his wife, Donna, have a son, Jerrell, and two daughters, Anna and Kayla.

Bob Heffner
Assistant Cocah/Superbacks

BOB HEFFNER • Ninth Season

In February of 2009, Bob Heffner joined Pat Fitzgerald's staff to coach the Wildcats' superbacks (NU's hybrid position for its tight ends, h-backs and fullbacks), bringing with him more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience to Evanston.

Tasked with replacing current Cleveland Browns starting fullback Dan Vitale, Heffner helped turn Garrett Dickerson into an all-league superback in 2016. Dickerson started all 13 games for the Wildcats, hauling in 34 catches for 318 yards and five touchdowns, including what proved to be the game winner in a 31-24 victory over No. 23 Pittsburgh in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. He ranked second among Big Ten tight ends with five touchdown catches.

Heffner's tutelage of NU's Drake Dunsmore over his first three years on staff represented a resounding success, culminating in Dunsmore being voted the inaugural winner of the Kwalick-Clark Big Ten Tight End of the Year Award in 2011. Dunsmore, who also was a consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, became NU's career leader for receiving yards by a tight end and graduated with 1,567 yards on 143 catches.

Also a celebrated run-blocker, Dunsmore put his pass-catching abilities on display in a memorable performance at Indiana on Oct. 29. Dunsmore set an NU school record with four touchdown catches and finished with 112 yards receiving (16.0 yards per reception) in the game.

A year later, Heffner's guidance ensured a smooth transition to Dunsmore's replacement, which came in the form of true freshman Dan VitaleClick here to hear it. Vitale arrived at Northwestern with the possibility of playing multiple positions but found a home in Heffner's position room and soon was making major contributions on the field for NU. He went on to start 10 games and finish fifth on the team in both receptions (28) and receiving yards (288). An ESPN.com All-Rookie Team selection, Vitale came up especially big for the 'Cats in wins at Michigan State (nine catches, 110 yards) and in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl (seven catches, 82 yards).

As a sophomore in 2013, Vitale finished third on Northwestern with 34 catches and three touchdowns and fourth with 382 receiving yards. The next year, in 2014, Vitale was second on the Wildcats with 40 catches and with over 400 yards. He was tied for first with two touchdowns.

In 2015, Vitale excelled in his last year under Heffner, earning a spot on the All-Big Ten Second Team and ultimately a selection in the NFL Draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Vitale was an integral part of the offense and led the team in receptions (33), yards (355) and touchdowns (4).

In his first season at Northwestern, Heffner's superbacks played a large role in Northwestern's passing offense, which topped the Big Ten and ranked 13th nationally. Dunsmore, then just a sophomore, ranked second in the Big Ten among tight ends and third on the team with 47 catches, including a memorable 66-yard catch-and-run touchdown in which he broke multiple tackles in the 2010 Outback Bowl.

The Wildcats' superbacks were led by Dunsmore for the second-straight season in 2010. Dunsmore was NU's second-leading receiver on the year with 40 catches for 381 yards and five touchdowns. Dunsmore earned consensus All-Big Ten honorable mention honors at the tight end position.

Heffner spent the last eight seasons (2001-08) at Lafayette College, serving as the Leopards' offensive line coach from 2001 through 2007, before assuming Lafayette's offensive coordinator position in 2008. In 2002, Heffner, was named the program's associate head coach. During those eight seasons, he mentored offensive lines that served as fronts for some of the Patriot League's most prolific offenses. In the past five years, Leopard linemen have been honored 13 times for all-league play.

During the 2008 season when he oversaw the Leopards' offense, Lafayette finished 7-4 overall, ranked second in Patriot League rushing and led the nation with fewest turnovers. In 2006, when Lafayette won its third straight Patriot League title and advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs, Heffner's offensive line blocked for tailback Jonathan Hurt, the conference's Offensive Player of the Year. Six times in his last eight seasons with Lafayette, the Leopards ranked either first or second in Patriot League rushing or passing. He won three-straight Patriot League titles and went to the FCS playoffs in all three of those seasons.

Heffner also had two earlier successful stints at Lafayette, which were sandwiched around four years in the professional ranks. In 1988 and '89, the Coshocton, Ohio, native coached the offensive line and helped the 1988 Leopards to the Patriot League title. He then worked with CFL's British Columbia Lions (1990-92) as their co-offensive coordinator, which featured Doug Flutie, the CFL's MVP in 1991 and Jim Mills, the two-time Most Valuable Offensive Lineman in 1990 and '91. Then Heffner spent one season with the Arena Football League's Tampa Bay Storm as their offensive coordinator and director of player personnel in 1993 before returning to Lafayette for his second coaching stint with the Leopards in the fall of '93. He was the Leopards' offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for three seasons, which included a Patriot League title in 1994.

In 1996, Heffner was hired by then-Northern Illinois coach Joe Novak and coached the Huskies' offensive line. In early 1997, when former NU assistant coach Ron Vanderlinden was tabbed the head coach at Maryland, Heffner joined the Terrapins' staff, coaching the Terps' tight ends and tackles for two seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator for the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

In Heffner's first season directing Maryland's offensive unit, the Terrapins posted the 10th-highest scoring average in school history and its best in seven previous seasons. Maryland ranked first in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and 12th nationally in rushing yards per game (234.1), and tailback LaMont Jordan earned second-team All-America honors after finishing fifth in the country in rushing.

He graduated from Temple University in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education, and then served as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater for the '79 season. That season, the Owls played in the Garden State Bowl against California. Heffner then began his full-time collegiate coaching career at Illinois State as the interior defensive line coach in 1981 before taking over as offensive line coach during a seven-year stay with the Redbirds.

As a student-athlete at Temple, Heffner played three years as an offensive guard and was a member of Owl teams that made Mirage Bowl appearances in 1977 and 1978.

Heffner, and his wife, Nancy, a native of Warren Glen, N.J., have three daughters, Katie, Molly and Shelby.

DENNIS SPRINGER • Seventh Season

Dennis Springer
Assistant Coach/Wide Receivers

Dennis Springer recently concluded his sixth year as Northwestern's wide receivers coach after joining the program on Jan. 31, 2011. He came to NU after spending the previous three seasons at Indiana University, serving as the assistant head coach and running backs coach, as well as the Hoosiers' co-special teams coordinator.

In his sixth season leading the Wildcats' receiving corp, Springer saw senior Austin Carr post arguably the greatest season by a receiving in program history. Carr became just the third player since 1990 to lead the Big Ten in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns and was named a finalist for the 2016 Biletnikoff Award given to the nation's top receiver. He set a new NU single-season record with 1,247 receiving yards, tied the program mark with 12 touchdown receptions and hauled in 90 catches, the third-best mark in program history.

In his first season in Evanston, Springer oversaw the continued growth of Jeremy Ebert into one of the most prolific wide receivers in the Big Ten. Ebert's 1,025 receiving yards in 2011 represent the first 1,000-yard season by a Wildcat pass-catcher since D'Wayne Bates in 1998 and the fourth-highest single-season total in school history. Ebert, a second-team All-Big Ten selection by the media who later was drafted by the New England Patriots, ranked second in the league with 11 touchdown catches and third with 5.9 catches per game.

Additionally, Springer mentored true freshman Christian Jones during his rise to the position of starting 'Z' wideout and helped Kain Colter thrive in his newfound receiver role. Veteran Demetrius Fields came on down the stretch, catching a touchdown pass in three straight games to end the season and totaling a career-best 309 receiving yards for the year.

In all, Springer's wideouts contributed to the Wildcats leading the Big Ten in passing average with 256.6 yards per game.

In 2012, Springer developed a deep corps of receivers that was equally as committed to run-blocking on the perimeter as it was to making its presence known through the air. At season's end, Christian Jones emerged as the team leader in receptions (35) and receiving yards (412), while Tony Jones made a successful return from a leg injury that kept him out of the 2011 season to haul in four TD catches.

Those two Jones (no relation) were again hard to keep up with in 2013, combining for more than 100 receptions and nearly 1,300 yards receiving. Christian Jones completed the year with a monster game vs. rival Illinois, grabbing 13 passes for 182 yards and two highlight reel TDs. Senior Rashad Lawrence also completed his Wildcat tenure with 31 grabs for 463 yards on the year, including a career-high 149 against No. 4/3 Ohio State.

Kyle Prater led all Wildcats in receiving in 2014, leading the team in catches (51), yards receiving (535) and touchdown receptions (2). He caught 10 passes en route to an upset over Notre Dame and collected his first career touchdown in the matchup versus Northern Illinois. Tony Jones trailed just behind Prater, making 35 catches with an average of 9.2 yards receiving per catch.

Christian Jones and Austin Carr led Springer's receiving corps in 2015, as they picked up two touchdowns each. Garrett Dickerson, Miles Shuler, and Mike McHugh also had strong seasons as the receiving unit developed chemistry with redshirt freshman quarterback Clayton Thorson.

Springer's best rushing season in Bloomington came in 2008 when Indiana finished sixth in the Big Ten with 2,003 yards on the ground and 19 touchdowns. The Hoosiers averaged 4.5 yards per carry for the year, posting their best rushing season since 2001.

On special teams, Indiana ranked third in the Big Ten in 2010 in kickoff returns, averaging 23.1 yards after racking up 1,476 yards on 64 returns. Tandon Doss led the Hoosiers with 1,016 yards on 41 returns (24.8 yard average).

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Springer spent one season as the defensive secondary coach at Western Kentucky University as the Hilltoppers made the transition from the Championship Subdivision (FCS) to the Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

Springer's coaching career has its roots in the Mid-American Conference as he spent four seasons at Bowling Green State University prior to joining the staff at WKU. Springer was in charge of the running backs from 2003 to 2005 before making the transition to the defensive side of the ball, taking responsibility of the safeties for the 2006 season. He helped guide the Falcons to the 2003 MAC West Division title and a 28-24 victory over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. BGSU also won the 2004 GMAC Bowl, defeating Memphis 52-35, and captured the 2005 MAC East Division championship.

Springer's lengthiest tenure came at Ball State University where he spent 10 seasons with the Cardinals in a handful of capacities. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the 1993 and 1994 seasons before being promoted to wide receivers coach in 1995. Springer filled that role until the 1999 season when he resumed responsibility of the outside linebackers, a position he held for two years before being named the defensive secondary coach for the 2001 and 2002 seasons. Ball State made a pair of appearances in the Las Vegas Bowl (1993, 1996) during that time.

A Fort Wayne, Ind., native, Springer earned his bachelor of science in secondary education from Butler University in 1993 after helping the Bulldogs to three Midwest Intercollegiate Football Conference championships. Springer also served as a team captain of the 1991 team.

Springer and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Sophia and Sydney.

Cody Cejda
Director of Football Operations

Cody Cejda is in his ninth season at Northwestern and his seventh as the Director of Football Operations after being promoted prior to the 2011 season. He also is continuing in his role as NU's NFL liaison, assisting NFL personnel with their visits and helping student-athletes understand the transition to the NFL and other professional leagues.

In his role at Northwestern, Cejda oversees the day-to-day operations and budget of the football program. His duties include coordinating team travel, bowl game preparations, training camp schedules, off-site events and team meals. He also operates as the football program's liaison to members of the Northwestern Athletics administrative staff as well as NU's marketing, athletic communications, academic services departments.

Cejda's tenure as director of operations includes Northwestern's 10-win season in 2012, when the Wildcats claimed victory in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl and ended the year ranked No. 16 in the USA Today/Coaches poll and No. 17 in the AP.

Prior to 2011, Cejda spent two years as coordinator of player development, coordinating student-athlete summer jobs and internships, community outreach and academic issues. He also played a major role in all day-to-day recruiting operations.

Cejda served as a recruiting assistant and as the senior student manager for Michigan, where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration in 2007. Before joining Northwestern, Cejda worked as a consulting analyst for Accenture. He earned his MBA from Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management in 2017.

Jacob Schmidt
Director of Player Development

After a remarkable playing career at Northwestern that saw him go from walk-on to starting running back, Jacob Schmidt was hired as NU's Director of Player Development in March of 2012.

In his new role, Schmidt coordinates various aspects of players' off-the-field experience at Northwestern, including NU's Big Brother program that matches current Wildcats with NU football alums in the professional world.

A native of Rhinelander, Wis., Schmidt arrived at NU as a walk-on in 2007, redshirting in his initial year on campus before playing in all 13 games on special teams in 2008. He gained 217 yards on the ground and 147 yards receiving as a sophomore in 2009 and, in his junior campaign, scored four rushing touchdowns despite being limited to eight games due to injury.

Schmidt earned the starting running back role as a senior in 2011 and finished as the team's second-leading rusher with 471 yards and six touchdowns. His stellar season featured a career-best 110-yard performance on 15 carries (7.3 yards per carry) with two touchdowns in a road win vs. Indiana.

Schmidt was a key contributor to what became the winningest senior class in Northwestern football history, a group that won 36 games during its five years in Evanston and led the Wildcats to a school-record four consecutive bowl game appearances.

A Capital One second-team All-American in 2011, Schmidt completed his undergraduate studies at Northwestern with a degree in human development and psychological services and currently is pursuing his master's degree in sports administration at NU.

Chris Bowers
Director of Player Personnel

Chris Bowers returned for his second stint with the Northwestern Football program prior to the 2011 season, overseeing many of NU's recruiting efforts as the program's Director of Player Personnel. Bowers previously spent four years in Evanston as a recruiting assistant and graduate assistant before moving on to build his college football resume at Defiance College, Concord University and Valparaiso.

Bowers began his first stint in Evanston as a recruiting assistant (2003-04) and assistant director of football operations (2004-05), during which time he worked closely with then-linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator Pat Fitzgerald. In 2005, Northwestern signed one of the most highly touted recruiting classes in program history, a group that featured seven players that went on to play at the professional level -- including Tyrell Sutton, Mike Kafka and Corey Wootton.

Since returning to Northwestern, Bowers has helped the Wildcats assemble two of the most highly rated recruiting classes in program history, including a 19-player class in 2013 that is ranked No. 1 in NU history.

Off the field, Bowers recently was published in the Manual of Football Drills and Skills, a resource for coaches at all levels which benefits Lauren's First and Goal Foundation. The organization was established in 2004 by John and Marianne Loose in honor of their daughter Lauren, a pediatric brain tumor survivor, and has raised more than $1 million in financial support for brain tumor research and cancer services.

Bowers earned a B.A. in history from Wittenberg University in 1999 and his master's degree from the University of Findlay, where he began his coaching career as a GA for the 2001 and 2002 seasons.

Bowers, a native of Lima, Ohio, and his wife, Christina, have a 2-year-old daughter, Davalyn.

Tim Brandon
Offensive Graduate Assistant

Tim Brandon enters his second season on the Wildcats' coaching staff as an offensive graduate assistant.

Brandon focuses on the offensive line under the guidance of assistant coach Adam Cushing.

Tim Brandon spent the 2015 season as the wide receivers coach and video coordinator at the Colorado School of Mines. He spent three seasons as a student assistant for the offensive coaching staff at the University of Wyoming, where he earned a degree in business administration, before one year as an offensive assistant at Regis Jesuit High School in Aurora, Colorado.

Brandon will work with the Wildcats' offensive staff with a focus on the offensive line.

Erik Frazier
Offensive Graduate Assistant

Frazier joins Chicago's Big Ten Team on the offensive side of the ball working with the wide receivers after spending the last two seasons as the wide receivers coach at Dayton University where the Flyers posted a 19-4 record. A trio of Flyers finished with 500-plus yards receiving in Frazier's two seasons, including 2016 Honorable Mention All-PFL selection Jack Euritt.

Prior to Dayton, Frazier had a two-year coaching stint at Delaware Valley University. He coached wide receivers in 2014 and wide receivers and quarterbacks in 2015. DVU was 9-2 in both seasons, reaching the NCAA Division III playoffs in 2014 and winning the Centennial-MAC Bowl in 2015. In 2014, Frazier coached All-American, Rasheed Bailey, who is currently signed to a reserved/futures contract with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Frazier was an all-American himself at Kutztown University. As a senior, he was named a USA College Sports Division II All-American in 2011. That culminated a senior year that saw him named team captain and help Kutztown win the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference championships. He was a two-time All-PSAC selection and a member of the school's Football leadership council as a junior and senior. The Philadelphia native earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from Kutztown in 2011 and a master's in policy studies from Delaware Valley in 2016.

Deonte Gibson
Defensive Graduate Assistant

The former Wildcat star Gibson joins the staff as a defensive graduate assistant focusing on the defensive line after spending last season with the Detroit Lions and Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League. Gibson was a third-team All-Big Ten selection for the 'Cats in 2015 after registering nine sacks and finishing with a career-high 38 tackles on the year. He finished his career ranked seventh in program history with 15 sacks, while also tallying 84 tackles and 25 tackles for loss.

Gibson was a team captain of the 2015 squad that went 10-3 and earned an appearance in the 2016 Outback Bowl. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, Gibson earned a degree in communications studies and is pursuing a master's in integrated marketing communications.

Jay Hooten
Director of Football Performance

After two years as Northwestern's assistant director of strength and conditioning, Jay Hooten was elevated in July of 2011 to the position of Director of Football Performance, assuming oversight of all aspects of Northwestern Football's strength, speed and conditioning training.

Hooten joined the NU strength and conditioning staff in January of 2009 and spent the next two seasons directing the training programs of the Wildcats wrestling, baseball and men's soccer teams while also devoting significant time to the football program.

An Ohio native, Hooten spent six years as a football performance assistant at Ohio State, where he assisted with the strength and conditioning program for the three-time Big Ten and 2002 national champion Buckeyes. After leaving Ohio State, Hooten spent a year as the Director of Sports Performance at Wayne High School in Huber Heights, Ohio, before taking over as the owner and director of Fast-Twitch Performance Enhancement in Dayton.

Hooten is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association and also is a certified specialist with the National Association of Speed and Explosion.

A graduate of Capital University in Columbus, Ohio, Hooten earned his bachelor's degree in health and sport science. He graduated from Northridge High School in Dayton where he was teammates with current NU assistant coach Matt MacPherson.

Hooten and his wife Lori have four children, daughter Joss, son Landon and twin boys Jaxn and Jeremy. The Hootens reside in Skokie.

Darby Dunnagan
Director of Video Operations

Darby Dunnagan joined Northwestern as the program's Director of Video Operations in July, 2013, after a successful six-year stint as video coordinator for the football program at the University of Memphis.

In her role with the Wildcats, Dunnagan is responsible for the supervision of Northwestern's football video staff, coordinating filming of every practice and providing edited practice and opponent footage to the coaching staff. She also contributes to the football program's efforts related to shooting and editing post-production features on players and special events.

Dunnagan maintained similar responsibilities at Memphis and also assisted in the online streaming of various athletic competitions and press conferences to the Tigers' official athletic website. Dunnagan was named the Conference USA Video Coordinator of the Year in 2010-11 and 2012-13 and also was the 2013 Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year.

In August, 2014, Dunnagan began her tenure as the Vice President of the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA).

A native of Rural Retreat, Va., Dunnagan worked two years as a graduate assistant in the video department at Marshall prior to coming to Memphis. While at Marshall, she prepared and distributed weekly opponent exchange tapes, supervised student assistants and assisted the video coordinator in the day-to-day operations of the department. She earned her master's degree in sports administration in May, 2007.

Dunnagan got her start in athletics at the University of Virginia while working on a bachelor's degree in anthropology and sociology. She was a student manager for the football team for two seasons before switching to the video department. She worked three years in video operations and earned her bachelor's degree in May, 2005.

Mike Valentine
Assistant A.D. (Equipment)

Mike Valentine joined Northwestern Athletics as Assistant Athletic Director for Equipment in May 2016. He is responsible for overseeing the department's day-to-day equipment operations for 19 varsity sports and works closely with the men's golf program.

Valentine is a certified athletic equipment manager and is actively involved in a leadership role in the Athletic Equipment Managers Association, currently serving as assistant director of District 5, which includes equipment managers in college athletics in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, Wisconsin and Ontario, Canada.

Prior to Northwestern, Valentine served for three years as director of equipment operations at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb, where he oversaw rebranding and uniform design for the football program. His career in college athletics started in September 2006 at Tulane University where he maintained the equipment operations of the baseball and track and field programs. From 2009-2010, he worked as coordinator of Equipment and Facilities at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale. He became an assistant equipment manager at the University of Arizona for the 2011 and 2012 seasons and handled the day-to-day equipment responsibilities of the Arizona Wildcat football program.

The Greenwood, Indiana native attended DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind., where he earned a degree in history in 2004. He played varsity football for the DePauw Tiger for two years and stayed on as a student assistant coach and manager for the last two years of his collegiate career as a Tiger.

He resides in Evanston, Ill.

Tory Lindley
Associate A.D./Head Athletic Trainer

Tory Lindley, a 2011 inductee to the Illinois Athletic Trainers Association (IATA) Hall of Fame, has served as NU's Head Athletic Trainer since 2002. He supervises NU's staff athletic trainers, sports performance coaches, as well as interns and students in both units. Tory assists in managing healthcare providers in fields such as sports psychology, sports nutrition and manipulative medicine. On a day-to-day basis, Tory manages athletic training health care services for the football program.

The National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) elected Tory as the vice president of the organization in July, 2016.

In 2016, the Great Lakes Athletic Trainer's Association (GLATA) recognized Tory with the Golden Pinnacle Award, the association's highest honor.

In 2012, NATA named Tory the NCAA Division I Head Athletic Trainer of the Year. A published author in the Journal of Athletic Training, Athletic Therapy Today and Rehab Management, Tory is an associate editor of Athletic Training & Sports Health Care Journal. Tory also is a recipient of the 2012 NATA Most Distinguished Athletic Association (GLATA) Dedicated Service Award and the 2007 NATA Athletic Training Service Award.
(1996-200), where he earned a bachelor's degree in education with a specialization in athletic training in 1991.

Since the late 1990s, Tory has provided over 85 local, regional and national sports medicine and leadership presentations.

Kyle Schumacher
Senior Athletic Trainer

Kyle Schumacher has been a member of the Northwestern University Sports Medicine Department since 2016. His primary responsibility is for managing the health care of the football team, but he is also the co-rehabilitation coordinator for all of Northwestern University Athletics.

Kyle is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin – La Crosse where he earned a degree in Athletic Training. He earned his Doctorate in Physical Therapy from the University of Wisconsin – Madison.

Kyle has had the opportunity to work with high school, collegiate, and professional athletes in an out-patient orthopedic physical therapy setting at Midwest Orthopaedics at Rush in Chicago. He also spent two summers interning with the Seattle Seahawks.

Kyle is interested in manual therapy, functional rehabilitation, injury prevention and holds certifications in Trigger Point Dry Needling, Active Release Technique, and Graston Technique Instrument Soft Tissue Mobilization.

Kyle resides in Chicago with his wife, Kimberly, and their dog, Randall.

Alexa Bannerman
Associate Athletic Trainer

Alexa K Bannerman has been a member of the Northwestern University Sports Medicine Department since 2014. She is responsible for managing the health care of the football team. Administrative responsibilities include management of NU institutional, Big 10, and NCAA drug testing.

Alexa is a graduate of the University of Central Florida where she earned a Bachelor's degree in Athletic Training. As a graduate assistant at Troy University, she worked with the women's basketball, women's soccer, and cheer teams.

Alexa is interested in increasing her exposure to various soft tissue techniques and applying them to rehabilitation. She is also interested in advancing her knowledge and understanding of anaerobic training, periodization models, and Olympic/power lifts for the football athlete

Alexa and her husband Daniel reside in Wilmette, IL. Alexa enjoys lifting, beach days, outdoor activities, attending sporting events, and spending time with Daniel. They love visiting their families as often as possible in Michigan, North Carolina and Florida.

GAME 1: WESTERN MICHIGAN 22, NORTHWESTERN 21

EVANSTON, Ill. – Junior running back Justin Jackson posted 171 all-purpose yards and a career-high three rushing touchdowns but Northwestern came up just short in its season-opener at Ryan Field Saturday afternoon, falling 22-21 to Western Michigan.

With 124 rushing yards, Jackson recorded his 14th career 100-yard game. Redshirt sophomore quarterback Clayton Thorson completed 15 of 22 passes for 196 yards for the Wildcats. On the defensive end, linebacker Jaylen Prater and safety Godwin Igwebuike both had career highs, with 18 tackles and nine solo tackles, respectively.

Having won nine of their last 10 season openers, head coach Pat Fitzgerald and the Wildcats rolled the dice on an aggressive first drive, attempting two fourth-down conversions. The latter was a one-yard plunge from Jackson to give Northwestern the early lead. Jackson, who started the game in sixth on Northwestern's all-time rushing charts, Jackson moved into fourth all-time rushing for Northwestern with a 4-yard rush with four minutes left in first half.

After being held to just three first downs in the first quarter, Western Michigan gleaned seven in the second en route to scoring a pair of field goals to go into the half trailing 7-6.

The Broncos took the opening possession of the second half right down the field, capped by a 13-yard touchdown pass from Zach Terrell to D'Wayne Eskridge that gave the visitors a 13-7 lead.

Jackson again soothed the nerves of the Ryan Field faithful, taking a sweep to the right and bursting through with a 46-yard touchdown rush to regain 14-13 lead halfway through the third.

A third field goal by Butch Hampton – this time a 30-yarder, put the Broncos back in front 16-14 with 17 seconds remaining in the third quarter. However, Jackson again found space on the outside at the start of the fourth, receiving a swing pass and going 37 yards to the WMU 2. Jackson's touchdown rush on the next play reclaimed lead for the #B1GCats, 21-16.

WMU drove down field for a one-yard touchdown run by Jamuauri Bogan to take the lead with 5:38 left in the contest, but Northwestern stopped the two-point conversion to keep the deficit at one, 22-21.

Needing a score, Northwestern charged 66 yards down the field in five plays. On first-and-goal from the 6, Thorson kept the ball for himself and ran towards the east corner of the end zone, where he was met by a Bronco defender on the goal line. The ball popped out, and Western Michigan recovered it in the end zone for a touchback. Western Michigan was able to run out the final 2:54 to preserve the win.

GAME 2: ILLINOIS STATE 9, NORTHWESTERN 7

EVANSTON, Ill. – Austin Carr pulled down seven catches for 73 yards and a touchdown, and Northwestern's defense picked off a pair of Illinois State passes, but the Redbirds nailed a 33-yard field goal as time expired to defeat the Wildcats, 9-7, Saturday at Ryan Field.

Montre Hartage snared his first-career interception in the end zone as well as wrapping up a career high nine solo tackles. Jared McGee also picked off a pass deep with Illinois State deep in Northwestern territory.

The loss moves Northwestern to 0-2, while Illinois State remains perfect at 2-0.

After a first quarter of jostling for field position, Illinois State looked poised to score first, getting to the Northwestern 8 yard-line after a 69-yard drive, when Hartage grabbed an interception to keep the game scoreless.

Illinois State's George Moreira punched in a six-yard run to break the deadlock 32 seconds before the half, with the extra-point going wide left to keep it at 6-0. Northwestern's defense was keeping points off the board, allowing just the one score on three Redbird trips to the red zone in the first half.

Punter Hunter Niswander set a personal best for the second straight game when he blasted a career long 62-yard punt in the second quarter.
Defenses dominated the third quarter, as Northwestern held ISU to just 62 yards in the quarter on four first downs, while NU put together a 76-yard drive, but their fourth-down attempt from the 22 came up empty.

The Wildcats burst out of the stagnant third quarter on the first drive of the fourth. After receiving a punt to open the quarter, Northwestern picked up two quick first downs to move to the ISU 28.

Quarterback Matt Alviti entered for two plays, rushing for three himself, and handing off to Auston Anderson for four yards and a crucial fourth down conversion. On fourth-and-five from the 10-yard line, Thorson found Carr in the corner for the #B1GCats' first score of the day, and Jack Mitchell's extra point split the uprights, giving Northwestern a 7-6 lead with 9:10 to play.

ISU reclaimed possession on their own 13-yard line with 3:11 remaining. Over 10 plays, they drove 68 yards to the Northwestern 16-yard line, taking a timeout with three seconds remaining to set up a 33-yard game winning-field goal attempt. After missing both a 49-yard field goal and an extra point in the first half, Sean Slattery hit the top of the left upright as time expired, giving Illinois State a 9-7 victory.

GAME 3: NORTHWESTERN 24, DUKE 13

EVANSTON, Ill.— Clayton Thorson threw for a career high 320 yards and connected on a trio of long touchdown tosses to Garrett Dickerson, Solomon Vault and Austin Carr as Northwestern defeated the Duke Blue Devils, 24-13, Saturday night at Ryan Field.

Justin Jackson gained 94 yards on the ground and Carr's six receptions netted a career high 135-yards. Anthony Walker, Jr. had five tackles, including two for loss, moving him into 10th in program history with 32, while Jared McGee led the game with nine total tackles, more than double his previous career high.

Jackson started the game by tearing out 36 yards rushing on the first drive. Thorson sealed the drive with a 26-yard pass to Dickerson for the receiver's first-career touchdown. Jackson's 69 yards in the first quarter tied the most he has registered in a quarter in his career.

Both offenses were looking to the air for early yardage, with 298 of the 422 yards gained in the first half from passes. With the Blue Devils driving late in the first quarter, Godwin Igwebuike stepped into a pass at the Northwestern 22, his first interception preserving the Wildcats' advantage.

Duke looked poised to christen the second half with a score on their opening drive, having reached the Northwestern 17-yard line. Duke quarterback Daniel Jones then rolled right, where Walker met him at the line of scrimmage, popping the ball out with his right fist for his both his fifth-career forced fumble and recovery.

With 5:52 left in the third, Duke looked to punt from the NU 47-yard line when their punter could not handle the snap, gifting Northwestern the ball on the 44. For the second-straight season, Solomon Vault gave Northwestern a lead over Duke early in the second half, snaring a 44-yard pass from Thorson to take a 14-7 lead. (Vault returned the second half kickoff to paydirt in the 2015 meeting between these teams.)

Mitchell added a 40-yard field goal seconds from the end of the third quarter, moving Northwestern's advantage to 17-7. It was Mitchell's 33rd career field goal, the seventh most in program history.

The game opened up in the fourth quarter, with 215 total yards gained in the period. Duke had a chance to pull back within one score with 10 minutes left, but their 34-yard field goal attempt missed wide right. Carr sealed the victory with a career-long 56-yard touchdown reception with five minutes to play.

GAME 4: #20 NEBRASKA 24, NORTHWESTERN 13

EVANSTON, Ill.— Aiming for its second-straight victory under the lights at Ryan Field Saturday night, Northwestern was unable to stymie No. 20 Nebraska in a 24-13 loss to the Huskers to kick off Big Ten play.

Austin Carr set a career-high for receptions for the second-straight week and Clayton Thorson threw for 249 yards on 24 completions. Justin Jackson rushed for 84-yards on 20 rushes, while Godwin Igwebuike led the game with 15 total tackles.

Northwestern moves to 1-3 (0-1 B1G), while Nebraska is now 4-0 (1-0 B1G).

Both offenses shifted up a gear in the second quarter, gaining a combined 307 yards. Northwestern gave their response to Nebraska's score four minutes later when Clayton Thorson ripped off a 42-yard touchdown run for a 7-3 lead. It was Thorson's first scoring run since October 24, 2015, at Nebraska.

Despite giving up yardage, the Wildcats defense was bending but not breaking. With the Cornhuskers again looking ready to score, Igwebuike forced a fumble at the goal line, which Joseph Jones recovered for Northwestern's second touchback off of a fumble in the game.

Northwestern received the ball with just 101 seconds left in the half after Nebraska scored to reclaim a 10-7 lead. Starting from their own 22, the Wildcats drove 57 yards to the Nebraska 23, with 19 seconds remaining. Jack Mitchell lined up for the 40-yarder, but the Wildcats opted for a fake field-goal, which garnered just two yards and sent the game into the half at 10-7.

The offensive floodgates burst in the second half, with the first three drives all going for touchdowns. After Nebraska's opening score, Northwestern went 52-yards in just five plays, with Carr hauling in a 24-yard touchdown to cut NU's deficit to 17-13. It was Carr's third straight game with a touchdown reception, the first Wildcat to do so since Jeremy Ebert in 2011. But the game would again shift back Nebraska's direction, as Mitchell missed a PAT and the Cornhuskers found the end zone once more, taking a 24-13 lead to the end of the quarter.

Needing stops in the fourth quarter, the Wildcats defense pinned the Cornhuskers behind the NU 41 for the final 15 minutes. While Northwestern was able to gain 70-yards in the quarter, including a thrust to the Nebraska 27, but couldn't put more points on the board, falling 24-13.

GAME 5: NORTHWESTERN 38, IOWA 31

IOWA CITY, Iowa — Northwestern's offense exploded for 38 points Saturday at Iowa led by a trio of Austin Carr touchdown catches and 171 Justin Jackson rushing yards en route to a 38-31 Big Ten road victory over the Hawkeyes.

Northwestern jumped out to an early lead in the game and eventually led 17-7 early in the second quarter before Iowa came roaring back for a 21-17 lead at the half. After the Hawkeyes made it a seven-point lead over the Wildcats early in the third, NU reeled off 21-straight points to put the game out of reach.

Junior Xavier Washington and senior Joseph Jones set the tone for the Wildcats on the Hawkeyes' opening drive, forcing a three-and-out. That set the stage for a career-best 47-yard punt return to the five-yard-line by sophomore Flynn Nagel, setting up the opening score of the game. It took the 'Cats just two plays to find the back of the end zone as sophomore Clayton Thorson scored from four yards out with 12:20 on the clock to put NU in front, 7-0.

A pooch punt by Iowa quarterback C.J. Beathard flipped the field later in the quarter and pinned Northwestern on its own one-yard line. A three-and-out and a 32-yard punt return from Iowa's Desmond King gave the Hawkeyes their own five-yard field to work with. Akrum Wadley scored one play later to tie the game, 7-7.

Senior Jack Mitchell gave the Wildcats a 10-7 lead with 50 seconds left in the first quarter when he nailed a 25-yard field goal and the Wildcats extended the lead to 17-7 on a nine-play, 54-yard drive that was capped on an 11-yard strike from Thorson to senior Austin Carr.

The Hawkeyes scored a pair of touchdowns to end the first half – the first on a six-yard run by Wadley and the second on a 15-yard pass and catch from Beathard to Riley McCarron – and added a field goal at the start of the second half to score 17 straight points and claim a 24-17 lead.

The Wildcats responded following the Hawkeyes' 25-yard field goal to start the second half, marching 75 yards on 11 plays in 5:14 to even the game at 24 apiece. Justin Jackson got the drive rolling with a 13-yard scamper and Thorson converted a fourth-and-one with a three-yard rush on the 'Cats' side of the 50 to keep the drive going. A 15-yard completion to redshirt freshman John Moten IV put the Wildcats in striking distance and Thorson found Carr in the back corner of the end zone for a 16-yard strike to cap the drive.

After senior Ifeadi Odenigbo's second of FOUR sacks in the game, the Wildcats needed just five plays to reclaim the lead. Facing a second and four from his own 42-yard line, Jackson found a seam in the Hawkeyes' defense and scampered 58 yards for a touchdown and a 31-24 NU lead.

The Wildcats then went ahead two scores when Thorson again connected with Carr, who this time bounced off a Hawkeyes defender and raced 25 yards into the end zone to complete his hat trick and put NU on top, 38-24, with 12:06 to play in the game.

Iowa answered quickly to get back within a score, then got the ball back following a #B1GCats three-and-out. With the clock ticking down under three minutes to go and the Hawkeyes approaching midfield, Odenigbo got to Beathard again for his fourth sack, this time forcing a fumble that Iowa recovered. The play put the Hawkeyes so far behind the chains, they had to punt the ball away with just 2:35 remaining in the contest.

NU gave the ball back mere seconds later on a three-and-out, but Trae Williams made his first career interception on Iowa's last-ditch drive to secure the win for NU.

GAME 6: NORTHWESTERN 54, MICHIGAN STATE 40

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Less than seven minutes into Saturday's game at Michigan State, Northwestern found itself down 14 points, but the Wildcats responded with a monstrous 33-3 run over the next two quarters to take command in a wildly entertaining 54-40 victory in East Lansing.

Justin Jackson the Ballcarrier led the Northwestern onslaught with a career-high 188 yards on 34 carries, including touchdown runs of 26 and 29 yards. Clayton Thorson connected on 27 of his 35 throws for 281 yards and three scores.

Austin Carr, who entered the game leading the Big Ten in catches, receiving yards and receiving TDs, will stay atop the conference in those categories after hauling in 11 catches for 130 yards and two more scores.

After MSU converted a field goal to start the second quarter, the Wildcats scored 26 straight points between the second and third quarters to turn a 17-7 deficit into a 33-17 lead with 6:49 to play in the third.

Thorson found Carr for a touchdown for the fifth-straight game with to cap a 12-play, 75-yard drive with 10:04 to play in the second quarter and redshirt freshman Joe Gaziano's first career sack on the Spartans' next drive resulted in a safety to cut the deficit to one, 17-16. Senior Jack Mitchell nailed a 33-yard field goal with 6:42 left in the half to give the Wildcats a 19-17 lead at the break.

Chicago's Big Ten Team made quick work of extending the lead to start the second half, scoring on just its fourth play of the half when Thorson found a streaking Flynn Nagel down the visiting sideline for a 57-yard score to extend the lead to 26-17 with 13:28 to play in the third quarter.

After a defensive stop, Thorson and the offense continued to click as the sophomore went 5-for-6 for 60 yards and capped a 10-play, 86-yard drive with a nine-yard touchdown run to extend the lead to 33-17.

The run ended there when Michigan State connected on TD passes of 59 and 86 yards on its next two drives to pull back within two points of NU, 33-31, with 2:08 left in the third quarter.

On the very next football play, Solomon Vault made a huge football play. On an awkward kickoff that bounced in front of him, Vault corralled the ball and picked his way through Michigan State tacklers before cutting upfield and accelerating to the house for a 95-yard return, immediately restoring Northwestern's nine-point lead, 40-31.

NU did not look back from there. Jackson added a 26-yard touchdown scamper with 8:25 left in the game to make the score 47-31. Though MSU immediately answered with another touchdown drive of its own, Northwestern put an exclamation point on the game with five minutes left in the fourth quarter.

On fourth down and six to go from the MSU 29 yard line, the #B1GCats sent the offense back out on the field, and Thorson found Carr wide open on a corner route toward the front pylon of the end zone for another NU touchdown and a 54-37 lead.

GAME 7: NORTHWESTERN 24, INDIANA 14

EVANSTON, Ill. – It was a tale of two halves for Northwestern Saturday in its 2016 Homecoming game against Indiana. The Wildcats blitzed out to a 24-3 halftime lead before the defense took over in the second half to preserve a 24-14 victory, giving NU three victories in a row in the month of October.

Justin Jackson added 34 receiving yards to his 94 yards on the ground.

The Wildcats wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, going 70 yards on 11 plays on the opening drive, with Thorson finding Solomon Vault for the 17-yard touchdown. Northwestern then made it 14-0 on their next drive, with Jackson breaking free for a 27-yard rush before Thorson hit Carr with a 34-yard touchdown.

Carr's ninth touchdown of the season also marked the sixth-straight game in which he's had a touchdown reception, the first Wildcat to do so since 2000. Carr's nine touchdown receptions is also the third-most in program single-season history, three behind D'Wayne Bates' total of 12 in 1996.

The #B1GCats outgained the Hoosiers 192 yards to 54 in the first quarter, and while Indiana converted a late field goal, Northwestern's dominance continued into the second, with Thorson's third touchdown pass of the game coming on the first play, a 32-yard connection with Macan Wilson. Thorson has now thrown for three touchdowns in three-straight games, the longest such streak by a Northwestern quarterback since 2000.

While the offense was churning to the tune of 371 yards in the first half, the Wildcats defense was equally impressive, holding Indiana to just 120 yards in the first half. Hartage ripped a ball out of a Hoosier receiver's hands for an interception on what would have been a 45-yard pass, and when Indiana threatened to score on their next drive, Queiro came up with a huge fourth-down tackle two yards short of a first-down to force the turnover-on-downs and keep the game at 21-3. The Wildcats were then able to take a 24-3 lead into the half when Jack Mitchell completed a 19-yard field goal attempt as time expired.

Northwestern came into the game 54-16 when leading at the half during Pat Fitzgerald's tenure, and was well poised to extend that mark. While the offense cooled down from its blistering pace, the defense continued to shut down the Hoosiers. Walker, Jr., recorded six tackles, including one for loss in the quarter, and while Indiana did score a field goal and touchdown, the Wildcats were able to break up the two-point conversion to keep the score 24-12.

The game quieted down in the fourth, with eight straight scoreless drives. Halfway through the fourth, Queiro made the play of the game, doing his best Odell Beckham impression and reaching all the way back with his right hand to snatch an interception, igniting the Homecoming crowd at Ryan Field.

Indiana had a chance to cut into the deficit with three minutes remaining, but the Wildcats made their second fourth down stop in the red zone on the day. Northwestern brought down the clock to 23 seconds, before taking a safety in an effort to run out the remaining time en route to securing a 24-14 victory.

GAME 8: #6 OHIO STATE 24, NORTHWESTERN 20

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Northwestern gave No. 6 Ohio State a scare on Halloween Weekend in Ohio Stadium, driving deep into Buckeyes territory with a chance to tie the game late on Saturday before the Buckeyes escaped with a 24-20 win over the Wildcats.

Clayton Thorson threw for 256 yards on 22 completions, and Austin Carr -- the Big Ten's leading receiver -- had another monster day hauling in eight receptions for 158 yards. OSU quickly went up 10-0 in the contest and held a 17-10 lead at the half, but Northwestern fought back to knot the score, 17-17, heading into the final quarter.

Though the Buckeyes regained the lead, 24-17, early in the fourth, the Wildcats came storming right back down the field and had first and goal to go inside the OSU five-yard line with under five minutes to play. NU was forced to settle for a field goal, and OSU ran out the clock from there.

While Ohio State was able to jump out to a 10-0 lead in the first nine minutes, Northwestern's defense largely cracked down on the Buckeyes. After those two drives, the Wildcats tightened the clamps, allowing just two scores the rest of the game.

With time winding down in the first quarter, Carr made a tiptoe catch on the sideline for an 11-yard gain, and Garrett Dickerson's reception converted a fourth-and-two from the four to bring Northwestern within striking distance. Clayton Thorson made it 10-7 when punched it in to open the second quarter, the second consecutive game the Wildcats have scored on the first play of the second quarter.

Ohio State responded with their third score to pull ahead 17-7, but the Wildcats were able to continue their offensive outburst. Thorson broke out a 33-yard run to break into the red zone, setting up a Jack Mitchell 23-yard field goal to pull the #B1GCats back within a score at 17-10 to head into the half.

The #B1GCat offense continued to roll in the second half, again changing the scoreboard halfway through the quarter. Thorson found Carr for a 35-yard reception to bring the Wildcats to the 5-yard-line, giving Carr over 100 yards on the game for the third straight contest and the fifth overall this season. Three plays later, Thorson connected with Dickerson to tie the game, 17-17.

The Wildcat defense continued to stymie the Buckeyes, holding them to just 85 yards in the third quarter. Ohio State took a 24-17 lead, however, with just under 10 minutes to play. Northwestern clawed back, going 60 yards on 16 plays to get deep into the red zone, where Mitchell drilled a 33-yard field goal with 3:31 to play.

Northwestern needed a stop to upset No. 6 Ohio State, and twice it forced the Buckeyes into 3rd and 7 or longer, but on the second of those third-down plays, Ohio State's J.T. Barrett was able to scramble for a first down, and the Buckeyes ran out the clock from there.

GAME 9: #8 WISCONSIN 21, NORTHWESTERN 7

EVANSTON, Ill. — Northwestern's Austin Carr caught his 10th touchdown of the season late in the first half Saturday against No. 8 Wisconsin at Ryan Field -- part of yet another career day for the senior receiver -- but the Badgers stymied the Wildcats' offense in the second half to pull away for 21-7 victory.

Northwestern tallied the most passing yards by a Wisconsin opponent this season with 277, led by four Wildcats with at least 30 yards receiving. Carr was the star, snaring a career-best 12 throws from sophomore Clayton Thorson for 132 yards, giving him 1,010 receiving yards on the year.

Defensively, juniors Brett Walsh and Tyler Lancaster each had career highs of eight tackles, while classmate Godwin Igwebuike had a game-high 10.

Two of the best scoring defenses in the Big Ten showed their mettle in the first quarter, allowing just nine first downs in the quarter. Despite Wisconsin possessing the ball for 10 minutes in the first, the Wildcats held the Badgers scoreless with just 98 yards of offense.

Both offenses began to find gaps in the second quarter, and Wisconsin was the first on the scoreboard after hitting a 40-yard field goal four minutes into the period. The Badgers added a rushing touchdown on their next drive to mount a 10-0 lead midway through the second.

The Wildcats clawed back with their final drive of the half. Starting on their own 22 with 1:41 left on the clock, Justin Jackson ripped off a 28-yard carry to get to midfield. On an ensuing fourth-and-one, Garret Dickerson broke a tackle for a 28-yard gain, reaching the 13-yard line. Thorson then split the seam to find Carr to head into the half 10-7. The touchdown was Carr's 10th of the season, the third-highest mark in program history.

Fresh off the halftime break, the stalwart defenses returned to dominate the third quarter. Both offenses combined for just six first downs, 138 total yards, and a solitary drive of more than seven plays. Walsh and Igwebuike led the #B1GCats with three tackles in the period, holding the Badgers to a lone field goal.

With Northwestern trailing 13-7, Carr again had a strong finish to a quarter. Carr caught a short pass over the middle before scampering down the sideline to the Wisconsin 30. The 32-yard reception clinched the receiver's fourth consecutive -- and seventh total -- 100-yard receiving game this season. An eight-yard completion to Andrew Scanlan had the Wildcats driving as the third came to a close. But in the fourth, Thorson was hit as he began to throw and the ensuing loose ball was ruled a fumble. The Badgers recovered to end the scoring threat.

Wisconsin was able to find the end zone off of the short field and converted a two-point conversion to take a 21-7 lead with eight minutes to play. While Northwestern held Wisconsin to just 33-yards in the quarter, the offense couldn't capitalize on their five first downs in the period, as they fell by that 21-7 score.

GAME 10: NORTHWESTERN 45, PURDUE 17

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Northwestern's offense exploded for 605 yards while the defense picked off four Purdue passes to lead the Wildcats to a massive 45-17 Big Ten road win Saturday over the Boilermakers.

Clayton Thorson threw for a career-high 352 yards with a rushing touchdown and three passing TDs, including a pair of scores to all-world receiver Austin Carr. Justin Jackson scampered for 127 yards on the ground and John Moten IV tallied a career-best 119 rushing yards to give the Wildcats two 100-yard runners in the game. Montre Hartage had his first multiple-interception game with a pair of picks to lead the Northwestern Sky Team.

Purdue jumped out to an early lead, going ahead 10-0 after its opening two drives. Hartage flipped the momentum on Purdue's third drive however, intercepting a pass on the Purdue 26. Four plays later, Thorson found Carr on a short crossing route to pull within 10-7 with three minutes left in the quarter.

The touchdown flipped the momentum of the game. After allowing eight first downs in the first quarter, the Wildcat defense didn't allow one in the first 11 minutes of the second, and conceded just two in the period. Anthony Walker recorded nine tackles in the half en route to a team-best 12 in the game.

With eight minutes remaining in the half, Thorson fired from the midfield-logo to hit Austin Carr for a 33-yard touchdown. The touchdown was Carr's 12th of the season, tying him for the most in single-season program history. The #B1GCats got the ball back deep in their own half with a minute remaining in the quarter and gained 75 yards to reach the 12, but were unable to find the end zone.

No worries, though: Northwestern pulled away with a big third quarter, scoring touchdowns every time they touched the ball. Jackson capped off a seven play, 71-yard drive with a 14-yard TD run. Jackson broke 1,000 yards on the season with the run, making him the first Wildcat in program history to do so in three-consecutive seasons. A

After Walker came up with an interception near midfield, Thorson had his second long touchdown of the day, finding Garrett Dickerson with a 42-yard score. Northwestern racked up 267 yards in the quarter, before Jackson scored his second touchdown of the game on the first play of the fourth to extend the Wildcats' lead to 35-17.

The sky team, Northwestern's vaunted secondary, showed their mettle, recording three of their four interceptions in the second half. Hartage recorded his second, and Trent Goens picked off his first collegiate interception. Thorson added a late TD scamper and Jack Mitchell tacked on a field goal as Northwestern cruised to a 45-17 victory.

GAME 11: MINNESOTA 29, NORTHWESTERN 12

MINNEAPOLIS -- Northwestern traveled to Minnesota Saturday for its final Big Ten road trip of the 2016 season and had trouble getting its high-octane offense heated up the cold TCF Bank Stadium weather, falling to the Gophers, 29-12.

Minnesota got off to an early start, scoring on their opening possession, but missing the extra point. From there on, both defenses clamped down. Northwestern held Minnesota to just 13 yards the rest of the quarter. The offense almost got on the scoreboard with two minutes left in the quarter, but Jack Mitchell's 44-yard field goal attempt into the wind was dragged wide.

Northwestern continued keeping points off the board to start the second. On a deep Minnesota pass, Marcus McShepard out jumped a Golden Gopher receiver for an interception, preventing a probable score. Minnesota did tack on a field goal halfway through the quarter, extending its lead to 9-0. Northwestern responded by driving 56-yards on nine plays, but, facing fourth-and-one in the red zone, its conversion fell short. The Golden Gophers would score just before the half to go into halftime leading 12-0.

Things began to turn around for the Wildcats in the third quarter. While Minnesota used a field goal to take a 15-0 lead, Northwestern's defense shut them down for the rest of the quarter. Minnesota would record just 34 yards in the quarter while earning just two first downs.

Northwestern was dealt a setback when Austin Carr was on the receiving end of a targeting foul, knocking him out of the game. But the Wildcats quickly galvanized, going the length of the field with a 12 play, 75-yard drive, capped off by Justin Jackson plunging into the end zone with a four-yard run. After failing to convert a two-point conversion, the #B1GCats were kicking off down 15-6. On the kickoff, Anthony Walker, Jr., stripped the Minnesota kick-returner of the ball, giving Northwestern possession on the 22-yard line. On fourth-and-one, Thorson's pass to Eric Dickerson fell incomplete, leaving NU short on the opportunity.

Minnesota found the end zone to start the fourth quarter, leading 22-6, but the Wildcats continued to claw back. Getting the ball with 6:46 remaining, the Wildcats picked up three first downs before needing to convert on fourth-and-12 from the Minnesota 42. Minnesota committed a defensive holding penalty to keep the drive alive, then three plays later, Clayton Thorson found Flynn Nagel in the corner of the end zone to claw back to 22-12 with two and a half minutes remaining. The two-point conversion failed again, and the ensuing onside kick was returned inside the NU 15-yard-line.

The Golden Gophers added a late touchdown to account for the 29-12 victory over the Wildcats.

GAME 12: NORTHWESTERN 42, ILLINOIS 21

EVANSTON, Ill. — Northwestern built a quick 21-0 lead Saturday in the battle for the Land of Lincoln Trophy against Illinois at Ryan Field before holding off the Illini, 42-21, to earn bowl eligibility. The hat has remained in Evanston four of the last five years.

The Wildcats ran for a season high 278 yards and five touchdowns to finish the regular season 6-6 (5-4).

Both Justin Jackson and John Moten IV rushed for over 100 yards in Saturday's game, the second time this season that has happened. Jackson scored three times in the annual trophy game for the Land of Lincoln hat, while Moten added two scores of his own.

Northwestern's defense forced four turnovers, including three fumbles, and limited Illinois to just 57 yards on the ground, while sacking Illini quarterback Wes Lunt three times.

The Wildcats got on the board first midway through the opening quarter on a nine-yard run by Moten, the first touchdown of the redshirt freshman's career. Moten followed that on the next drive with his second touchdown on a career-long 43-yard run to put Northwestern up 14-0.

Jackson put the 'Cats up 21-0 with his 10th rushing touchdown of the season, which tied his career high set in 2014. He then scampered 54 yards for his second touchdown of the day and career high 11th of the season to put Northwestern up 28-14.

Illinois scored late in the third quarter to make it 28-21 and looked to have some momentum with the Wildcats punting on their next possession. Offensive lineman J.B. Butler made the tackle and forced a fumble on the return that was recovered by the 'Cats.

The Northwestern offense marched down the field, and Thorson found superback Garrett Dickerson on a nine-yard flip throw to put Chicago's Big Ten Team up, 35-21.

The 'Cats broke the game wide open with Jackson's third rushing touchdown of the day to make it 42-21 after a 60-yard interception return by sophomore cornerback Montre Hartage put the ball at the five-yard line.

Anthony Walker, Jr. finished the day with a game-high nine tackles, two of them for loss. He moved into fourth place on the Northwestern all-time TFL list with 39.5 for his career, passing Corey Wootton. Matt Rice is up next at 42 career TFLs.

Quarterback Clayton Thorson played an efficient game, completing 65 percent of his passes. His 13 completions went to six different receivers for 121 yards and a touchdown.

GAME 13: NORTHWESTERN 31, #23 PITTSBURGH 24 (NewEra Pinstripe Bowl)

NEW YORK -- Justin Jackson rushed 33 times for 226 yards and three touchdowns Wednesday at Yankee Stadium, leading Northwestern to an exciting 31-24 win over No. 23 Pitt in the Pinstripe Bowl. Jackson was named the Bowl MVP.

NU's defense helped shut down an incredible high-powered Pitt offense with stellar red-zone defense, including a pair of interceptions near the goal line.

Quarterback Clayton Thorson added a touchdown toss to give him a Northwestern single-season record 22 on the year.

Despite giving up an early field goal, the Wildcats responded with 14 unanswered points on the back of Jackson.

The #B1GCats made a key fourth-and-goal stand in the first quarter when junior linebacker Anthony Walker, Jr., stopped Pitt running back James Conner mid air. After a short quarterback sneak by sophomore Clayton Thorson, Jackson matched his career long with a 68-yard run to move the 'Cats into Pitt territory.

Jackson finished the first quarter with 91 rushing yards, the most in a quarter in his career, and capped the drive early in the second quarter with an eight-yard score to put NU in front, 7-3.

Pitt drove into the red zone for the third time and again came up empty when junior Godwin Igwebuike picked off Nate Peterman at the goal line. Unfortunately, the Wildcats gave the ball back on the ensuing drive when Thorson threw an interception in the end zone.

The Wildcats forced a punt on Pitt's next drive and quickly went 74 yards on eight plays in just 2:34 to take a 14-3 lead. Thorson found junior Macan Wilson for a gain of 32 yards to put NU inside the Pitt 30 and Jackson found room to the right side just two plays later to score his second touchdown of the game from 16 yards out.

The two-score lead was short lived for Northwestern however as the Panthers went deep on the first play of the next drive for a 69-yard score to pull within 14-10.

Both teams drove into their opponents territory as the first half came to a close, but the 'Cats turned it over on a lateral pass and Pitt's last-second hail mary attempt was batted down by junior Kyle Queiro to protect the lead.

Pitt took the lead back early in the second half when Quadree Henderson raced 57 yards on a jet sweep to set up a five-yard touchdown run by Peterman two plays later to give the Panthers a 17-14 lead with 13:13 to go in the third quarter.

The 'Cats wasted no time taking the lead back thanks again to their workhorse running back Jackson. On 3rd and 7 from the Pitt 40 yard line, Jackson went up the middle and juke a defenders out of his shoes to score his third touchdown of the game and eclipse the 200-yard mark for the first time in his career.

His third rushing touchdown matched his career high set against Western Michigan and Illinois earlier this season and also tied Darnell Autry's Northwestern bowl game record set in the 1996 Rose Bowl.

Pitt drove down into the Northwestern red zone again on its next drive before a bad snap and a shared Joe Gaziano and Xavier Washington sack pushed the Panthers back. An ensuing field goal went wide, but Pitt got a second change when Northwestern's punt following an offensive three-and-out was blocked. This time the Panthers converted early in the fourth quarter to regain a 24-21 lead with 13:15 to play in the game.

On Northwestern's next drive, Thorson stayed poised in the pocket and guided the Wildcats deep into Pittsburgh territory while converting on multiple fourth-down plays. On the final one, Thorson found a wide open Garret Dickerson in the flat, and Dickerson raced 21 yards to the end zone to put NU back on top, 28-24, with 8:23 to play in the game.

The TD toss was the 22nd of Thorson's year, giving him the NU single-season record.

Northwestern immediately got the ball back when Walker, Jr., forced a fumble and Tyler Lancaster pounced on it. Four plays later, Jack Mitchell booted a 37-yard field goal to make NU's lead 31-24, with just over six minutes to play.

Pitt again drove deep into the Northwestern territory, but yet again the Wildcats red zone defense stood tall. On third down, Jared McGee broke up a sure touchdown in the end zone before, on the very next play, making the interception at the 3-yard-line to give NU the ball back with 2:49 to go.

Northwestern had to punt, and Hunter Niswander responded with a beautiful 50-yard boot. Kyle Queiro then stepped in front of a pass to seal the game with the Wildcats third interception of the game.

* New Era Pinstripe Bowl (New York, N.Y.)

The listing of all-time football lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow and includes only those players which earned a varsity letter; student-managers and trainers are not listed. The information on each student-athlete was compiled from media guides, programs, yearbooks and letterwinner records. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to Northwestern Athletic Communications.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

A total of 15 former Wildcat coaches and players are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. They range from Paddy Driscoll, a halfback for the 'Cats from 1915-16, to Pat Fitzgerald, a two-time All-American, Chuck Bednarik and Bronko Nagurski award winner, who was NU's most recent inductee in 2008. There are four former Northwestern coaches in the Hall, Charles Bachman, 1919, Alex Agase, 1964-72, Ara Parseghian, 1956-63 and Lynn Waldorf, 1935-46.

The College Football Hall of Fame is a hall of fame and museum devoted to college football. In August 2014, the College Football Hall of Fame and Chick-fil-A Fan Experience opened in downtown Atlanta, Georgia. The National Football Foundation (NFF) launched the Hall in 1951 to immortalize the players and coaches of college football. In 2009, Atlanta Hall Management, Inc. partnered with the NFF to construct and operate the new Hall of Fame facility, which will also provide a platform for community outreach, education and character development initiatives, as well as serve as a special event space in Atlanta.

The Wildcats were the first college football team to visit the new Hall of Fame. The tour fired up NU so much that the next day it upset Notre Dame, 17-15.

The first members of the College Football Hall of Fame were selected in 1951. Today there are more than 700 players and coaches in the Hall.

The Hall of Fame is a part of the National Football Foundation, which was conceived in 1947 by the late Grantland Rice. In addition, to sponsoring the Hall of Fame, the Foundation has awarded more than $3 million in graduate school scholarships to college football players.

1949 ROSE BOWL

Northwestern's first bowl appearance came on Jan. 1, 1949, when the Wildcats—considered by many to be the surprise team of the season—knocked off California in the 1949 Rose Bowl, 20-14.

The Wildcats got on the scoreboard first when left halfback Frank Aschenbrenner burst through the right side for a 73-yard touchdown, at the time the longest run from scrimmage in Rose Bowl history. Jim Farrar's extra-point made the lead 7-0. On Cal's next play, All-American back Jackie Jensen scampered 67 yards over the left end to tie the game at 7-7. The score remained deadlocked until midway through the second quarter when Art Murakowski capped a 78-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for a 13-7 lead. The touchdown was marred by controversy as Murakowski fumbled the ball in the end zone, but the officials ruled it had crossed the goal line first.

Early in the third quarter, California lost Jensen to a back injury, and many felt the Wildcats would roll through the remainder of the game. This was not the case as the Bears converted a Wildcat fumble into a 56-yard touchdown drive and a 14-13 lead heading into the fourth quarter. With the clock winding down, the Wildcats had the ball at their own 12-yard line and seemingly needed a miracle to win. Early in the drive, NU came up with its only pass completion of the game, an Aschenbrenner to Donald Stonesifer connection which put Northwestern on the California 45- yard line. Two plays later, on a direct snap from center, right halfback Ed Tunnicliff reaped the benefits of excellent blocking and raced 43 yards down the sidelines to give NU a 19-14 lead. Farrar's extra-point increased the Wildcat lead to six at 20-14 with 2:59 remaining.

The Bears gave it one final shot, but Loran "Pee Wee" Day intercepted the ball at the five-yard-line inside the final minute. Two keepers by NU quarterback Don Burson ran out the clock and the Wildcats brought home the roses.

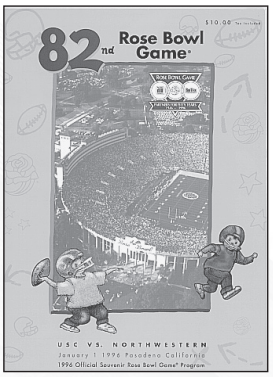
1996 ROSE BOWL



The 1995 Wildcat team was the college football story of the season, shocking the experts in capturing the team's first winning season since 1971, and first bowl game appearance since the 1949 Rose Bowl. USC scored first in the opening minutes of the game, but NU quickly evened the score when Darnell Autry capped off a 68-yard scoring drive with a three-yard touchdown run. The Trojan offense attacked in the second quarter, scoring on two touchdowns and a field goal. Brian Gowins kicked a 29-yard field goal to cap a drive that began when Tim Scharf forced a USC fumble with 12 seconds remaining in the half, cutting the gap to 24-10.

In the third quarter, Gowins started NU's scoring bonanza with a 28-yard field goal. The Wildcats then completed an on-side kick, which Josh Barnes scooped up. Three minutes later, Autry scored on a nine-yard run to narrow the gap to 24-19. USC struck back with a touchdown midway through the quarter, but the 'Cats answered with Schnur's one-yard TD plunge. NU took the lead for the first time early in the fourth when Autry ran two yards for his third touchdown of the game. USC regained the lead for good with a field goal on the next possession and then converted a rare Schnur interception into a touchdown. The Wildcats gave it one last effort late in the game. Gowins' 48-yard field goal attempt with 35 seconds left had the distance, but hit the left upright and bounced out.

Steve Schnur had a career-best day, connecting on 23-of-39 passes for 336 yards with one rushing touchdown.

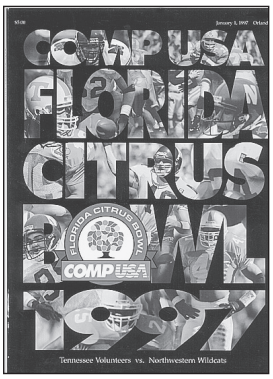
1997 CITRUS BOWL



Northwestern defied the odds again in 1996, capturing its second-consecutive Big Ten Championship and the third January 1 bowl game in school history. The Wildcats traveled to Orlando, Fla., to take on the ninth-ranked Tennessee Volunteers in the 1997 CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl.

Despite rallying from a 21-0 first quarter deficit to tie the score, Peyton Manning and Tennessee were too much for Northwestern as the Volunteers posted a 48-28 victory.

Manning threw two TDs and ran for another as the Vols built a 21-0 lead with 2:00 left in the first quarter. Northwestern hung tough, though, and it paid off as Darnell Autry cut the lead to 21-7 on a two-yard run midway through the second quarter. Steve Schnur then hooked up with Brian Musso, a little over four minutes later, on a 22-yard scoring strike to cut the lead to seven.

Almost immediately, NU got the ball back as Tim Scharf jarred the ball loose from the runner and Mike Nelson recovered for the Wildcats. Autry then broke free on a 28-yard scoring scamper to knot the score at 21-21.

The Volunteers went back up by seven and 30 seconds later, added a field goal as time expired to go up, 31-21, at half. On the third play of the second half, Tennessee intercepted a Schnur pass and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 38-21 lead. NU would add one more score on a 22-yard TD pass from Schnur to D'Wayne Bates, but it wasn't enough.

Schnur threw for 228 yards and two scores. Barry Gardner led the way on defense with 10 tackles.

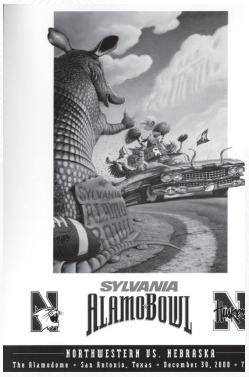
2000 ALAMO BOWL



When the 2000 college football season began, the idea of Northwestern and Nebraska meeting in a bowl game was nearly laughable. After all, the Wildcats were coming off a 3-8 season in 1999, while the Cornhuskers began the season ranked No. 1 in the country.

Yet on December 30, the two teams with 'N' on their helmets stood toe-to-toe on the astroturf housed by the Alamodome in San Antonio.

Northwestern gave the Huskers fits in the early part of the game, and even held a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter. However, it was all Nebraska from that point on, as the Huskers outscored the 'Cats 31-7 before halftime and then tacked on 28 unanswered points in the second stanza for the win.

Nebraska drew first blood with a 15-yard touchdown run by Dan Alexander just 2:11 into the contest before Northwestern got on the board with a 44-yard Tim Long field goal three minutes later. In the second quarter, the Wildcats briefly took the lead when Zak Kustok found Teddy Johnson in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard TD reception.

The lead lasted all of 20 seconds. Nebraska stormed back, as QB Eric Crouch scampered 50 yards for a touchdown, starting a 24-point explosion. Down 31-10, Northwestern briefly revived itself when All-American running back Damien Anderson broke off a 69-yard touchdown run with just 1:10 left before halftime. The Huskers took the momentum right back, however, as Crouch hit Bobby Newcombe with a 58-yard TD pass to give Nebraska a 38-17 halftime lead.

Anderson finished the game with 149 yards on 18 carries to lead NU.

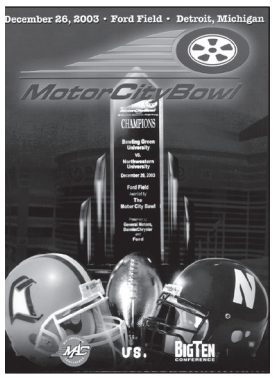
2003 MOTOR CITY BOWL



In what turned out to be one of the more exciting bowl games of the 2003 season, Bowling Green and quarterback Josh Harris got the final word with Northwestern and Jason Wright. Harris and Wright turned in two of the more impressive postseason performances and shared the game's MVP honors. The Wildcats led for three-plus quarters until Harris fired an 11-yard TD pass with 11:32 remaining in the game, which gave BGSU a 21-17 advantage.

NU countered, however, thanks to an 88-yard kickoff return by Wright. Noah Herron, who tallied two touchdowns, scored on a 2-yard scamper with 10:01 left to put the 'Cats back in front, 24-21. But Harris and the Falcons had one more scoring drive left in them, and NU was unable to muster an offensive threat on its final possession. Wright finished with a bowl and school-record 336 all-purpose yards. He totaled 237 rushing yards, also a bowl mark.

Harris completed 38-of-50 passes for 386 yards—all Motor City Bowl marks. NU's secondary helped control the Falcons early, picking off three BGSU passes. Luis Castillo, named the bowl's UAW Lineman of the Game, had eight tackles (five solos). Northwestern ran for a bowl-record 357 yards. Herron added 80 yards on 12 carries.

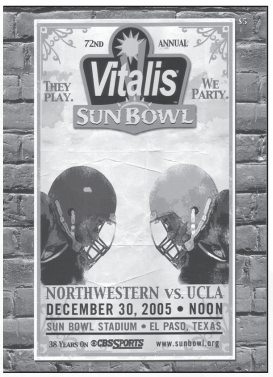
2005 SUN BOWL



Despite returning two interceptions for touchdowns and winning the turnover battle 4-3, Northwestern fell 50-38 to No. 17 UCLA in the 72nd annual Sun Bowl held in El Paso, Texas.

NU jumped to an early 22-0 first-quarter lead when Kevin Mims and Nick Roach each returned UCLA quarterback Drew Olson interceptions for touchdowns. The two defensive touchdowns followed a Joel Howells' 33 yard field goal and sandwiched a 19-yard Mark Philmore reverse for a touchdown. Northwestern's defense picked off Olson three times in the first quarter alone, equaling the number of interceptions Olson threw in his first 11 games combined

The Bruins, however, came storming back from the 22-0 deficit, scoring 36 unanswered points for a 36-22 lead. Amado Villarreal booted a 31-yard field goal at the end of the third quarter to halt the UCLA scoring string.

The Wildcats mounted a furious comeback. A Brett Basanez touchdown pass to Philmore cut the score to 36-31 with 2:29 left in the game. Then, UCLA's Brandon Breazell recovered NU's onside kick and returned it for a touchdown. The Wildcats came charging back, scoring on Shaun Herbert's 5-yard TD catch with 24 seconds left, trimming the UCLA lead to 43-38. Then the unthinkable happened. Breazell returned another onside kick for a score to ice the contest with 18 seconds left.

Despite the disheartening defeat, Northwestern set a Sun Bowl record with 584 yards of offense, with 448 coming courtesy of Brett Basanez.

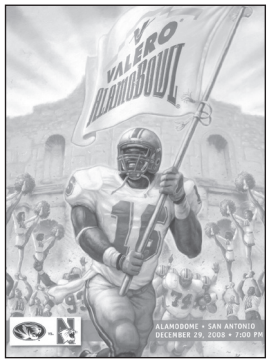
2008 ALAMO BOWL



C.J. Bachér tied a Valero Alamo Bowl record with three touchdowns passes and threw for more than 300 yards, but No. 21 Missouri kicked a game-tying field goal late in the fourth quarter before defeating No. 23 Northwestern in overtime, 30-23.

In a game against former Heisman finalist Chase Daniel, Bachér won the battle of the QB's. The fifth-year senior completed 27-of-43 passes for 304 yards and three scores. Mizzou's offense came into the game averaging almost 500 yards per game, but was held to under 300 yards in regulation.

Eric Peterman opened the scoring with a 35-yard scoring reception in the first quarter. Rasheed Ward took a season-long 46-yard catch into the end zone to begin the second half before Ross Lane gave the Wildcats a 23-20 advantage with an acrobatic 23-yard TD grab late in the third quarter. Ward finished the game with a career-best 101 receiving yards on seven catches.

Senior Tyrell Sutton came back from a wrist injury in the eighth game of the year to record his 16th-career 100-yard rushing game. He finished with 114 yards on 29 carries, adding 29 yards on five catches.

Northwestern held its 23-20 lead until late in the fourth quarter when Missouri's Jeff Wolfert made his third field goal of the contest. He had another chance to end the game in regulation, but his 44-yard effort as time expired sailed wide right. The Tigers scored a TD on their opening possession of overtime before keeping the Wildcats out of the end zone to secure the victory.

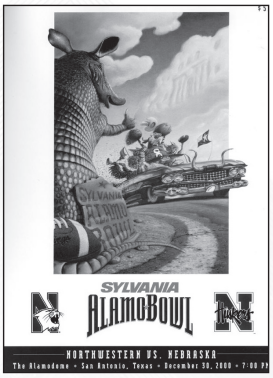
2010 OUTBACK BOWL



Senior Mike Kafka broke an Outback Bowl record with a school-record 532 passing yards, throwing for four scores and running for another to lead a furious Northwestern comeback to force overtime, but the Wildcats ultimately fell to Auburn, 38-35.

With NU trailing by 14 and three minutes to play, Kafka scrambled for a 2-yard score to draw the Wildcats within eight, 35-27, after the extra point was blocked. On the ensuing Auburn possession, Brad Phillips forced a fumble recovered by Sherrick McManis, setting up a Kafka to Sidney Stewart 18-yard strike with 1:15 to go. A tricky 2-point conversion pass from Andrew Brewer to Brendan Mitchell tied the game.

A fumble on the ensuing kick gave NU the ball back again, but a field goal attempt went wide to force overtime. After Auburn kicked a field goal on their possession, Northwestern first attempted one of its own, but it clanged off the right upright. Auburn drew a roughing the kicker penalty to give NU another shot, however. A fake field goal on fourth-and-goal from the 2 was not successful, ending the game.

Kafka recovered from five interceptions in the game to set NCAA records for total plays by an individual (98) and total plays by a team (115). He hit Brewer for two scoring strikes and also found Drake Dunsmore in the flat before Dunsmore broke several tackles on a 66-yard catch-and-run touchdown scamper.

Brewer finished with 133 yards receiving while Dunsmore had 120. Zeke Markshausen caught 12 passes while Stewart caught 10.

2011 TICKETCITY BOWL

Trailing 31-9 midway through the third quarter, Northwestern staged a furious rally at the inaugural TicketCity Bowl, pulling within one touchdown before falling to Texas Tech, 45-38.

Texas Tech held a 10-0 lead after the first before NU got on the board in the second with a 15-play, 78-yard drive capped by a Colter one-yard rush. The PAT failed, making it 10-6 before TTU pushed its lead to 24-6 at the half.

The third quarter was a wild one on the scoreboard, with both teams combining for 32 points. NU forced a fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, converting the turnover into an 18-yard Stefan Demos field goal, but Texas Tech got an 86-yard touchdown run on the next play from scrimmage to make the score 31-9 with 11:05 left in the third. Kain Colter scored on the ensuing drive on a 15-yard rush before he found Josh Rooks on a two-point conversion pass to make it 31-17. After Texas Tech scored another touchdown, Northwestern recovered an onside kick attempt and needed just two plays to punch it in on a four-yard Evan Watkins' rush, making the score 38-24 entering the fourth.

NU scored on its third-straight drive when Watkins found Demetrius Fields for an 18-yard touchdown on fourth-and-four, cutting the deficit to 38-31 with 10:33 left to play. Texas Tech kept punching, extending its lead back to 45-31 with 7:13 left during a drive that saw Hunter Bates, NU's leading tackler with 11 at that point, carted off the field with a major leg injury.

Jordan Mabin kept the 'Cats alive with an 39-yard interception return for a touchdown to make the score 45-38 with 5:37 left, but Texas Tech all but ran out the clock on its next drive to secure the win.

2011 MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL OF TEXAS

Appearing in a bowl game for a fourth straight year, Northwestern came out on the short end of 33-22 outcome against Texas A&M in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas. NU scored the first touchdown of the game but TAMU ran off 27 straight points to take command.

In the final game of his NU career, quarterback Dan Persa established himself as Division I's (FBS or FCS) all-time record-holder in completion percentage. Persa wraps up his tenure at 72.7 percent (460-of-633), besting the previous NCAA record of 70.4 as set by Hawaii's Colt Brennan.

Senior safety Brian Peters came up with his 12th career interception in the game, giving him sole possession of third place on NU's all-time list, with three of those coming in bowl games.

Against the Aggies, Persa threw for 213 yards, but the Wildcats were held in check by a stout A&M defense that collected eight sacks on the day. NU gained a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter when Houston native Venric Mark scored his first career rushing touchdown on a pitch from Persa. That score capped a 13-play drive that ate up nearly five minutes off the clock. Texas A&M, however, then dominated the game's next 25 minutes, running off 27 unanswered points to take a 30-7 lead with 5:59 remaining in the third quarter.

The Wildcats responded and scored back-to-back touchdowns to cut the TAMU lead to eight, 30-22. But A&M then converted a third-and-13 deep in its own territory before gaining another first on a circus catch that set up a field goal and put the game on ice, 33-22, with 30 seconds to play.

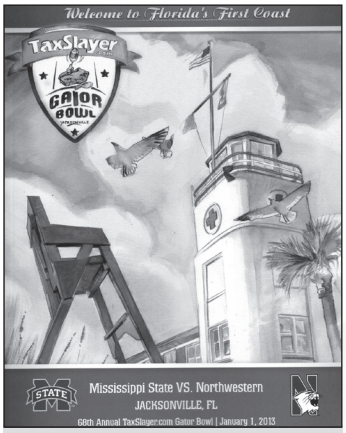
2013 TAXSLAYER.COM GATOR BOWL



JAN. 1, 2013
EVERBANK FIELD
ATTENDANCE: 48,612

Northwestern jumped out to a fast 13-0 lead at the 2013 TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl and rode an NU-bowl-record four interceptions to a 34-20 victory over Mississippi State and its first 10-win season since 1995. The Gator Bowl win also gave Pat Fitzgerald his 50th victory as NU's head coach, giving him sole possession of first place on Northwestern's career coaching wins list.

The Wildcats' four interceptions matched the program's previous bowl best set in the 1949 Rose Bowl, which Northwestern won over California. Mississippi State QB Tyler Russell, who was responsible for all four interceptions, had thrown only six picks in the Bulldogs' 12 regular season games this year.

With a game-high 10 tackles and a near interception late in the game, Jared Carpenter was named the 2013 Gator Bowl MVP.

Offensively, quarterback and Florida native Trevor Siemian finished 12-of-20 passing for 120 yards—including several clutch third-down conversions—and one rushing touchdown. Among his most popular targets on the day was freshman superback Dan Vitale, who led the 'Cats with seven catches for 82 yards.

As they have all season, the Wildcats started fast when, on the third play from scrimmage, senior DL Quentin Williams dropped into coverage and intercepted Mississippi State's Tyler Russell. Williams went untouched 24 yards on the return for his first career touchdown and a quick 7-0 Northwestern advantage.

The Bulldogs regrouped on their next drive and moved inside the Wildcats red zone, but the NU defense answered the bell again when safety Ibraheim Campbell stepped in front of a Russell pass on the sideline for his fourth career interception.

Northwestern brought a 13-10 lead into the locker room but found itself in a tied game early in the third. Siemian led a quick six-play, 76-yard TD drive to restore an NU lead, then scored on a 4-yard TD rush of his own to put the 'Cats ahead by 14. MSU would pull with one score early in the fourth, but cornerback Nick VanHoose helped ice the win with an interception and long return to set up Mark's 12th rushing TD of the year and a bowl-clinching score.

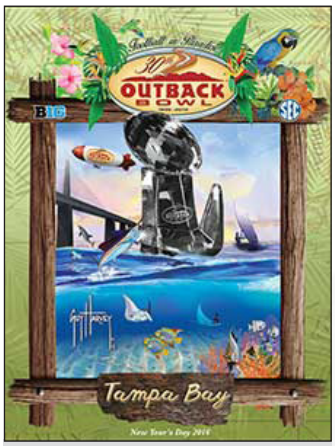
2016 OUTBACK BOWL



JAN. 1, 2016
TAMPA, FLA.
ATTENDANCE: — 53,302

No. 13 Northwestern returned to the New Year's Day bowl scene Friday at the 2016 Outback Bowl after the fourth 10-win season in program history, but fell in the game to No. 23 Tennessee, 45-6.

Despite the loss, Northwestern's second 10-win campaign in the last four years marked a return to upper echelon of the college football world.

Northwestern's 24-member Senior Class is the lone class in #B1GCats history to win 10 games in two different seasons, winning the 2012 Gator Bowl during a 10-3 campaign and finishing 2015 with an identical 10-3 record.

Two offenses largely trying to find their way early struggled to make huge gains in the first quarter. Tennessee had a field goal try doink off the upright after intercepting an NU pass at the Wildcats' 22-yard line while Northwestern took advantage of three Volunteers late-hit penalties in the quarter -- including two on back-to-back plays -- to drive deep into UT territory prior to missing a field goal of its own.

Tennessee would open the scoring late in the first quarter with a 14-yard Joshua Dobbs run, then add a field goal on its next possession early in the second to take a 10-0 lead.

Northwestern bounced back with an effective, well-executed 12-play, 75-yard drive capped by a Justin Jackson five-yard scoring scamper. Jack Mitchell's extra point sailed wide, making the score 10-6 after the TD.

Tennessee answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive of its own to take a 17-6 lead into the half. Coming out of the break, the Wildcats never were able to get momentum, and the Volunteers added touchdowns late in the third quarter and again on a long quarterback scramble early in the fourth to make it a 31-6 game before one final touchdown and a pick-six with eight seconds remaining made the final 45-6.

OPPONENT INFORMATION

NEVADA WOLF PACK

Nevada ended the 2016 campaign with a 5-7 overall mark, finishing in a tie for third in the Mountain West's West Division with a 3-5 conference record.

The Wolf Pack enters the 2017 season with a new head coach, former Arizona State assistant Jay Norvell. The 53-year-old first-time head coach was the offensive coordinator at Nebraska, UCLA, Oklahoma and Texas before running Arizona State's offense in 2016. He spent six years as an NFL assistant with the Oakland Raiders and Indianapolis Colts prior to his collegiate coaching career.

Quarterback David Cornwell joins the Wolf Pack in 2017 after transferring from the University of Alabama, where he served in a backup role. In 2016, junior quarterback Ty Gangi took over the starting job midway through the season. Gangi threw for 257 yards per game with 11 touchdowns in Nevada's final five games of 2016. The team improved from 20.9 points per game to 31.2 points per game during that stretch.

Wyatt Demps is the team's top-returning offensive threat. He led the team last season with 53 receptions, 686 receiving yards and nine touchdowns. His best performance of the 2016 season came when he caught nine passes for 124 yards and three touchdowns in the Wolf Pack's 27-22 win over Fresno State. Nevada finished ninth in the Mountain West in total offense in 2016 with 393.6 yards per game.

Nevada will have to replace running back James Butler, who transferred to Iowa before the 2017 campaign. Butler rushed for 1,336 yards on 260 carries with 12 touchdowns in 2016 and posted over 1,300 yards in each of his last two seasons. Jaxson Kincaide, who played as a true freshman last season, is the Wolf Pack's top-returning rusher. He tallied 78 carries for 334 yards and had seven catches for 88 yards. Kincaide was named Nevada's newcomer of the year in 2016.

The defense returns five of its top six players from last season, which led the Mountain West in pass defense, allowing only 150.5 passing yards per game. Junior defensive end Malik Reed led the team with five sacks and 59 tackles, and led all defensive linemen in the conference with 4.9 tackles per game. Nevada finished 11th in the Mountain West, allowing 469.5 yards per game.

Northwestern and Nevada last met in 2007 at Ryan Field and the Wildcats walked away with a 36-31 victory over the Wolf Pack. Northwestern's C.J. Bachér capped off a six-play 80-yard drive with a 13-yard touchdown pass to Ross Lane with 21 seconds left to seal the victory. Northwestern running back Brandon Roberson rushed for 128 yards and one touchdown on 9.8 yards per carry.

DUKE BLUE DEVILS

After winning eight-or-more games in three consecutive seasons (2013-15), the Blue Devils finished the 2016 season 4-8 overall and last in the ACC with a 1-7 conference record.

Duke had eight players named to the 2017 Preseason All-ACC team, including sophomore quarterback Daniel Jones, redshirt senior center Austin Davis, senior running back Shaun Wilson, redshirt senior offensive tackle Gabe Brandner, junior wide receiver T.J. Rahming, junior linebacker Ben Humphreys, redshirt freshman linebacker Joe Giles-Harris and redshirt senior cornerback Bryan Fields.

Jones first took over the starting quarterback job in 2016 after a season-ending injury to Thomas Sirk. In his first year as the starter, Jones threw for 2,836 yards and matched or tied 23 school records. Jones secured the 2017 starting job after Sirk transferred to East Carolina in the offseason.

Duke finished 2016 10th in the ACC in total offense, averaging 23.3 points and 393.3 yards per game. Three of Duke's top four receivers from last season return in 2017, including Rahming, who led the team with 70 catches for 724 yards. Other receivers include redshirt freshman Scott Bracey, and Keyston Fuller, who is on his way back from a knee injury that forced him to miss the 2016 season. Wilson led the Blue Devils' ground game in 2016, and was ranked fourth in the ACC in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 623 yards with four touchdowns.

The Blue Devils finished 11th in the ACC in total defense, allowing 28.2 points and 414.7 yards per game. Humphreys and Giles-Harris tied for the team lead with 107 tackles. Graduated defensive tackle A.J. Wolf led the team in 2016 with 5.5 sacks. Humphreys was second on the team with 4.5 and Giles-Harris finished third with four. Humphreys added 12 tackles for loss and one forced fumble.

In Duke's final game of 2016, the Blue Devils beat North Carolina 28-27. Jones scored three touchdowns in the game, two on the ground and another through the air. He threw for 240 yards and rushed for 94. Rahming had eight catches for 100 yards and Wilson ran for 107 yards with a touchdown on 24 carries.

Duke and Northwestern meet for the 19th time in 2017, with Northwestern having won eight of the last nine games, including the last three straight. Northwestern earned a 24-13 victory when the programs met in 2016 thanks to Clayton Thorson, who had a 320-yard performance with three touchdowns. Northwestern wide receiver Austin Carr had six catches for 135 yards, including a 58-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

BOWLING GREEN FALCONS

Bowling Green went 4-8 overall in 2016 after appearing in three straight MAC Championship games.

After a 1-8 start in 2016, the Falcons capped the season by winning three straight games, defeating its opponents by an average of 17 points during the stretch.

Head coach Mike Jinks returns for his second season with the team. He was hired prior to the 2016 season after serving as Texas Tech's running backs coach for three seasons. Before his stint at Texas Tech, Jinks coached three seasons at Steele High School in San Antonio, Texas, where he won a state title in 2010.

Josh Cleveland, Bowling Green's returning rusher, ran for 649 yards last season and averaged 6.4 yards per carry. He is one of seven players on the Falcons' roster named to the Preseason All-MAC Team, including First Team selections wide receiver Scott Miller, offensive lineman Tim McAuliffe and punter Joseph Davidson. Offensive lineman Ryan Hunter and defensive lineman Gus Schwieterman were named second team, while Cleveland and defensive back Jamari Bozeman were named third team.

Bowling Green finished first in the MAC in scoring offense in 2016, averaging 42.2 points and 546.8 yards per game. Miller had 986 yards receiving and 10 touchdowns last year in his sophomore season. In his first full season as the team's starting quarterback, redshirt sophomore quarterback James Morgan threw for 2,082 yards with 16 touchdowns and 15 interceptions.

His top performance of the season came in a loss to Toledo when he threw for 335 yards and five scores.

The Falcons finished ninth in the conference in total defense in 2016, allowing 28.9 points and 417.8 yards per game. Schwieterman had 28 tackles in 2016 and a team-high five sacks and 12 tackles for loss. Bozeman was named Third Team All-MAC in 2016 and led the team with three interceptions.

Northwestern's offensive coordinator Mick McCall spent the 2007 season as the offensive coordinator at Bowling Green, directing the Falcons' spread offense, which averaged over 400 yards per game (402.5 ypg). Prior to 2007, McCall spent four years as Bowling Green's quarterbacks coach. Northwestern wide receivers coach Dennis Springer spent three seasons with the Falcons coaching running backs and safeties from 2003-06.

Northwestern last faced Bowling Green in the 2003 Motor City Bowl, falling to the Falcons, 28-24. Northwestern's Jason Wright ran for 237 yards on 21 carries and finished with 336 all-purpose yards.

WISCONSIN BADGERS

Wisconsin finished the 2016 season 11-3 overall and on top of the Big Ten's West Division with a 7-2 mark in conference play. The Badgers lost in the Big Ten Championship game, to Penn State 38-31, before capping the season with a 24-16 victory over No.15 Western Michigan in the 2017 Goodyear Cotton Bowl.

Quarterback Alex Hornibrook made a good first impression in 2016 during his first-ever start when he threw for 195 yards and a touchdown in the Badgers' 30-6 victory over Michigan State. He split snaps last season with Bart Houston, who left to graduation.

The sophomore from West Chester, Pennsylvania, threw for 1,262 yards with nine touchdowns and seven interceptions in 2016 before a concussion forced him to miss the Big Ten title game.

Now in his second season, Hornibrook prepares for his first full year as Wisconsin's starter, with the help of the team's top target and one of the best tight ends in the nation, Troy Fumagalli. A Mackey Award Watch List selection, Fumagalli caught a team-high 47 passes for 580 yards and two touchdowns in 2016.

The Badgers look to replace the services of graduated running back Corey Clement, who ranked third in the Big Ten in rushing last season with 1,375 yards rushing and 15 touchdowns. Three players will share the carries in 2017, including Pittsburgh-transfers Rachid Ibrahim and Chris James, along with redshirt sophomore Bradrick Shaw. Ibrahim had 60 carries for 399 yards in two seasons with Pittsburgh, but redshirted the 2015 season after tearing his Achilles during training camp. Shaw had 88 carries for 457 yards and five touchdowns in 2016 for the Badgers.

Former Badger safety Jim Leonhard will take over the defensive coordinator duties in 2017 after spending the 2016 campaign as the program's defensive backs coach. Wisconsin had the best run defense in the Big Ten last season, allowing 98.9 yards per game, and led the Big Ten with 22 interceptions. The defense will be without graduated outside linebackers T.J. Watt and Vince Biegel, who combined for 15.5 sacks in 2016. Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP and 2016 All-Big Ten honorable mention selection T.J. Edwards is coming off a team-high 89 tackles last season to go along with three sacks and three interceptions.

Northwestern defeated Wisconsin, 13-7, the last time the two teams played at Camp Randall in 2015. The Wildcats defense held Wisconsin on a fourth-and-goal from the 11-yard line with two seconds left to seal the victory. Northwestern running back Justin Jackson led the way with 139 yards and a touchdown on 35 carries.

PENN STATE NITTANY LIONS

The 2016 Big Ten Champions are back in 2017 with its two biggest offensive weapons, quarterback Trace McSorley and running back Saquon Barkley. Head coach James Franklin was named the 2016 Sporting News Coach of the Year as PSU recovered from back-to-back 7-6 seasons and went 11-3 overall in 2016, finishing the season with a come-from-behind, 38-31, win over Wisconsin in the Big Ten title game. The Nittany Lions suffered a three-point loss to USC in the 2017 Rose Bowl, 52-49.

McSorley enters his junior season after leading the Big Ten in total offense with 3,614 yards and 29 touchdowns passing. He turned in one of his best performances of the year in the Big Ten Championship game, going 22-for-31 with 384 passing yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions. Barkley ran for over 200 yards twice in 2016, and his 18 touchdowns led the Big Ten and ranked seventh in the country. The Nittany Lions averaged 37.6 points per game in 2016 and led the Big Ten in yards.

Penn State had 12 Athlon Preseason All Big-Ten selections, led on the first team by Barkley, wide receiver DaeSean Hamilton, safety Marcus Allen and punter Blake Gillikin. Hamilton finished third on the team in 2016, with 34 catches for 506 yards one touchdown.

The Nittany Lions ranked eighth in the Big Ten last season in total defense, allowing 367.9 yards per game, and finished second in the Big Ten with 40 sacks. Allen, who finished third in the Big Ten in total tackles in 2016, leads the secondary along with cornerback Grant Haley, who, in 2016, became the first player in school history to return a blocked field goal for a touchdown, taking it back 60 yards versus Ohio State following a block by Allen. Penn State lost sack leaders Garrett Sickels and Evan Schwan, but return defensive lineman Kevin Givens, who was third on the team last season with five sacks.

Northwestern has won the last two meetings between the teams. They last met in 2015 at Ryan Field, with Northwestern winning, 23-21, on a 35-yard field goal by Jack Mitchell with nine seconds left in the game. Justin Jackson had 186 yards on 28 carries for the Wildcats.

MARYLAND TERRAPINS

The Terrapins finished the 2016 campaign with an overall record of 6-7 under first-year head coach D.J. Durkin. Durkin came to Maryland after serving as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Michigan, where he led the fourth-ranked defense in the country in 2015. Prior to that, he was defensive coordinator at Florida, where they finished seventh in the country in pass defense in 2013, his first year on the job.

In his first season at Maryland, Durkin helped the team improve its record by three wins (6) and brought the program back to a bowl game after the team posted a 2-9 overall mark in 2015. The Terrapins started the 2016 season by winning four straight games, before dropping seven of its final nine contests, including a 36-30 loss to Boston College in the 2016 Quick Lane Bowl.

Durkin's past success recruiting followed him to Maryland, signing Kasim Hill, a four-star recruit out of St. John's College High School in Washington, D.C., and the country's fourth-ranked pro style quarterback in the class of 2017, according to Rivals. The Terps' other options to take over the quarterback job from last year's starter, Perry Hills, include junior Caleb Henderson, sophomore Tyrrell Pigrome and sophomore Max Bortenschlager. Henderson transferred to Maryland from North Carolina prior to the 2016 season.

The Terrapins had the fourth best rushing offense in the Big Ten in 2016, led by junior Ty Johnson and sophomore Lorenzo Harrison. Johnson racked up over 1,000 yards in 2016, averaging 9.1 yards per carry with six touchdowns. Johnson had his best performance in Maryland's 50-7 win over Purdue, rushing for 204 yards with two touchdowns. Harrison rushed for 633 yards with five touchdowns on 7.2 yards per carry in 2016. The two combined for 220 yards in Maryland's 28-17 victory over Michigan State.

Maryland's top returning receiver is junior D.J. Moore, who went over the 100-yard receiving mark twice in 2016, including a six-catch, 147-yard, two-touchdown performance in Maryland's 41-14 win over Florida International.

The defense ranked third in the Big Ten in sacks in 2016, led by senior linebacker Jermaine Carter with six sacks, nine tackles for loss and one interception returned for a touchdown. He'll be joined on the defense by senior linebacker Shane Cockerille, who ranked third in the Big Ten in 2016 with nine tackles per game.

This year's game will be the first-ever meeting between Northwestern and Maryland.

IOWA HAWKEYES

Iowa is coming off an 8-5 campaign in 2016 that ended in a 30-3 loss to Florida in the Outback Bowl.

The Hawkeyes graduated impact starters: quarterback C.J. Beathard, running back LeShun Daniels and top receiver Riley McCarron on offense, while safety Desmond King and defensive tackle Jaleel Johnson will need to be replaced on the defensive end.

Akrum Wadley comes in as the projected top running back after previously sharing the workload with Daniels. In 2016, Wadley ran for 1,081 yards with 10 touchdowns. He went over 100 yards rushing on six occasions last season.

The battle at quarterback will come down to sophomore Nathan Stanley, Beathard's backup last season, and sophomore Tyler Wiegers, who lost the backup job to Stanley in 2016. Stanley appeared in four games last season, throwing for 62 yards. Wide receiver Matt VandeBerg will be back after his 2016 season was cut short by a foot injury. In Iowa's 42-3 win over Iowa State, VandeBerg had seven catches for 129 yards and one touchdown. Senior offensive lineman and Athlon Preseason All Big-Ten First Team selection Sean Welsh returns after being named Second Team All-America by USA Today in 2016.

The Hawkeyes finished 2016 ranked No. 23 in the nation in total defense, holding opponents to 351.2 yards per game. Redshirt sophomore defensive end Anthony Nelson returns after coming up with six sacks last season, second on the team behind Johnson.

Senior linebacker Josey Jewell was named to the Athlon Preseason All Big-Ten First Team. Jewell led the team and ranked second in the Big Ten in tackles in 2016 with 124, to go along with 1.5 sacks and six tackles for loss. Jewell has earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors in each of the past two seasons.

Northwestern beat Iowa, 38-31, in 2016 at Kinnick Stadium. The Wildcats' Justin Jackson led the way with a touchdown on 171 yards rushing and Clayton Thorson completed three touchdown passes, all to Austin Carr.

MICHIGAN STATE SPARTANS

Michigan State enters 2017 looking to bounce back from its first losing season since 2009 and the first time it missed a bowl game since 2006. The Spartans went 3-9 overall in 2016, losing nine of their last 10 games in a stretch that included a seven-game losing streak.

Running backs L.J. Scott, Gerald Holmes and Madre London return for the Spartans. Scott rushed for 994 yards and six touchdowns in 2016, running for over 100 yards on five occasions. In Michigan State's 17-16 loss to Ohio State, Scott rushed for 160 yards and caught two passes for 76 yards with two touchdowns. Holmes added 431 yards and five touchdowns, while London ran for 120 yards on 28 carries. The trio will look for more success behind Athlon Preseason All-Big Ten First Team offensive lineman Brian Allen, leading a line that lost three 2016 starters to graduation.

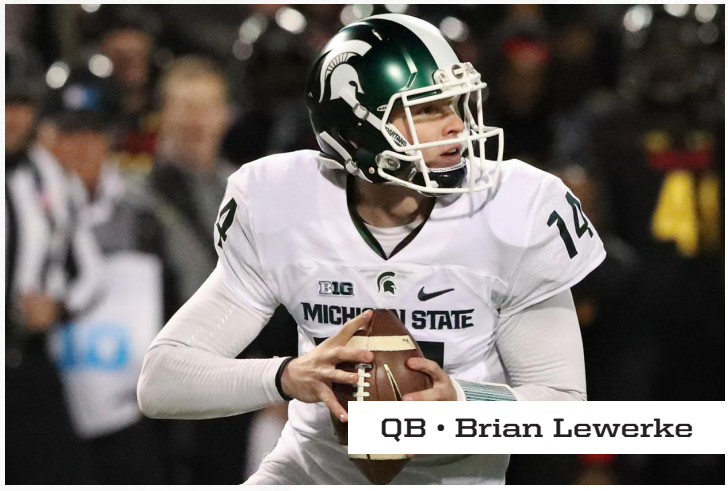
Sophomore Brian Lewerke is projected to take over the starting quarterback job in 2017. He appeared in four games last season before suffering a season-ending leg injury. Before the injury, Lewerke went 11-for-24 passing for 156 yards along with 10 rushes for 79 yards against Maryland, and followed that up by starting 6-for-10 for 100 yards and a touchdown against Michigan before leaving the game. He also ranked third on team with 149 rushing yards on 21 carries in his limited action.



QB • Brian Lewerke

LB • Chris Frey

Michigan State will be without its four top receiving targets from last season, R.J. Shelton, Josiah Price, Donnie Corley and Monty Madaris. The four accounted for 70-percent of the team's receptions in 2016. Junior Felton Davis III is the top returning wide receiver after racking up 12 catches for 150 yards and one touchdown in 2016.

With the losses of Riley Bullough and Montae Nicholson, the defense will be anchored by senior linebacker Chris Frey, who was named to the Athlon Preseason All Big-Ten Third Team. He had 96 tackles in 2016 with a season-high 13 against BYU. Michigan State looks to some of their underclassmen to fill the gaps on the line, like defensive tackles sophomore Mike Panasuik and redshirt freshman Raequan Williams.

Northwestern beat Michigan State, 54-40, last season in East Lansing behind 188 yards and two touchdowns by Justin Jackson. Clayton Thorson went 27-for-35 for 281 yards and three touchdowns, while Austin Carr had 11 catches for 130 yards and two touchdowns in the win.

NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS

Nebraska improved its record to 9-4 overall in 2016 after posting a 6-7 campaign in 2015.

Fifth-year junior and Tulane-transfer Tanner Lee is projected to take over the starting quarterback duties after sitting out the 2016 season due to NCAA transfer guidelines. Lee made 19 starts in two seasons at Tulane. In 2015, Lee threw for 1,639 yards and racked up 11 touchdowns, while completing 52 percent of his passes.

Nebraska had seven players named to Athlon's Preseason All-Big Ten list. Cornerback Chris Jones and wide receiver/returner De'Mornay Pierson-El were named to the first team. As a junior last season, Jones had three interceptions and 10 pass breakups to earn All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors. Pierson-El returned last season from a knee injury suffered in 2015. He had 20 catches for 254 yards and one touchdown.

Junior running back Devine Ozigbo averaged 4.2 yards per carry with five touchdowns in a limited role last season. Ozigbo had seven carries for 66 yards in the 2016 Music City Bowl, including a career-long 42-yard run. Stanley Morgan was second on Nebraska in receiving last season with 33 catches for 453 yards and two touchdowns.

Others receiving preseason recognition by Athlon include offensive lineman Nick Games (second team), safety Aaron Williams and kicker Drew Brown (third team) and kick returner Tre Bryant (fourth team).

Former University of Connecticut head coach Bob Diaco takes over as Nebraska's defensive coordinator this season. A former All-Big Ten linebacker at Iowa, Diaco's Huskies led the American Athletic Conference in total defense in 2015.

Senior safety Kieron Williams led the team and tied for second in the Big Ten in interceptions in 2016 with five. He was also fourth on the team in tackles. He'll be joined in the secondary by fellow senior Joshua Kalu, who had 66 tackles last season with 11 pass breakups and one interception.

Northwestern topped Nebraska, 30-28, in its last visit to Lincoln. Clayton Thorson led the way for Northwestern with 177 passing yards, 126 rushing yards, one passing touchdown and a rushing score. Northwestern cornerback Nick VanHoose returned an interception 72 yards for a touchdown.

The Wildcats knocked off then-No. 9 Nebraska, 28-25, at Memorial Stadium in 2011, the first season the Huskers were members of the Big Ten Conference.

PURDUE BOILERMAKERS

Purdue enters 2017 with a new head coach in Jeff Brohm. The Boilermakers went 3-9 overall in 2016, losing eight of their nine final games.

Brohm went 30-10 in three seasons as head coach at Western Kentucky, where he led the Hilltoppers to a pair of Conference USA Championships. The Hilltoppers were consistently in the top-10 nationally in total offense and scoring offense in each of his three seasons at WKU. Brohm takes over a Purdue offense that finished 2016 first in the Big Ten in passing offense and last in rushing offense.

Junior quarterback David Blough returns for the Boilermakers. In 2016, he led the conference in completions and was second in touchdowns and total offense. He threw for 3,352 yards with 25 touchdowns, but he also led the conference with 21 interceptions and was eighth in completion percentage. He threw for over 400 yards twice in 2016, including 458 yards and five touchdowns in a loss to Iowa.

Last season's leading receiver DeAngelo Yancey left for the NFL, which means a number of young receivers will compete for snaps in Purdue's offense. Blough's most reliable returning receiver is tight end Cole Herdman. Herdman was named to Athlon's Preseason All-Big Ten Third Team, and was fourth on the team in receiving in 2016 with 35 catches for 344 yards and three touchdowns. He had seven catches for 104 yards with one touchdown against Iowa last season.

Junior running back Markell Jones led Purdue last season with 616 yards and four touchdowns. His top performance came in the team's 2016 opener against Eastern Kentucky, with 145 yards rushing and one touchdown. He'll team up again in the backfield with Brian Lankford Johnson, who did his most damage last season in Purdue's overtime win over Illinois, running for 127 yards and one touchdown on 18 carries.

The defense is led by sophomore linebacker Markus Bailey, who had a team-high 97 tackles to go along with four interceptions in 2016, recording double-digit tackles in four games. He is joined by senior defensive lineman Gelen Robinson, who led the team in 2016 with five sacks. Western Kentucky transfer T.J. McCollum will be reunited with his former head coach after finishing third on his team in tackles in 2016 with 85.

Northwestern has won five of the last six meetings between the teams, including a 45-17 rout in 2016 in which Northwestern outscored Purdue 31-7 in the second half. Northwestern's Clayton Thorson passed for a career-best 352 yards with three passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown. Justin Jackson and John Moten IV combined for 246 yards and Jackson rushed for two touchdowns for the Wildcats.

MINNESOTA GOLDEN GOPHERS

New head coach P.J. Fleck takes over the reins for a Minnesota team coming off a 9-4 season in 2016, capped off by a 17-12 victory over Washington State in the National Funding Holiday Bowl.

Fleck spent the last four seasons as the head coach at Western Michigan, where he was 30-22 overall before being announced as the Golden Gophers' new head coach in January. He led Western Michigan from 1-11 in his first year in 2013 to 13-1 and a conference championship last season. He was named MAC Coach of the Year in 2014 and 2016. Prior to coming to Western Michigan, Fleck was the wide receivers coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012.

Offensive coordinator Kirk Ciarrocca joined Fleck from Western Michigan to help a Minnesota offense that ranked 11th in the conference in total offense in 2016, averaging 357.2 yards per game. Minnesota will have to replace a graduated Mitch Leidner at the quarterback position. Leidner threw for 2,169 yards with eight touchdowns and 12 interceptions in 2016. The starting job is projected to be between Conor Rhoda, who played in three games last season, or Demry Croft, who redshirted in 2016.

The Gophers' offense has leaned on its run game in recent seasons, boasting the Big Ten's fifth-ranked run game thanks to a two-back duo of Rodney Smith and Shannon Brooks. In 2016, Smith rushed for 1,158 yards with 16 touchdowns, ranking fourth in the Big Ten. Brooks had 650 yards with five touchdowns on the season, including 100 yards and one touchdown on 14 carries against Penn State.

Junior wide reciver Rashad Still leads a group of receivers playing without last season's leading pass catcher Drew Wolitarsky. Wolitarsky, who left to graduation, led the team as a senior with 66 receptions, 860 yards and five touchdowns.

Minnesota ranked fourth in the Big Ten last season in total defense. The Gophers were second in rushing defense, allowing only 117.8 yards per game on the ground, and tied for third with 37 sacks. They'll be without graduated leading tackler Damarius Travis, who had 83 tackles last season. All-Big Ten tackle Steven Richardson returns after racking up seven sacks and 11 tackles for loss in 2016. He was named to the Preseason All-Big Ten team along with Jonathan Celestin, who finished second on the team last season with 80 tackles. Antoine Winfield leads the secondary.

Northwestern shut out the Gophers, 27-0, the last time the two programs met at Ryan Field in 2015. Northwestern's defense held Minnesota to 173 total yards and Justin Jackson led the Northwestern offense with 120 yards on 20 carries.

ILLINOIS FIGHTING ILLINI

Illinois finished the 2016 season 3-9 overall under first-year coach Lovie Smith.

Illinois ranked 13th in the Big Ten in scoring offense (19.7 points per game) and total offense (315 yards per game), while its defense allowed 31.9 points per game and 35 rushing touchdowns on the season.

Redshirt senior running back Kendrick Foster returns for 2017 after he led the offense with 1,328 all-purpose yards. He rushed for 720 yards and seven touchdowns, including 146 yards and two scores against Michigan State. Senior wide receiver Malik Turner led the team with 712 yards and six touchdowns.His best outing in 2016 came against Northwestern, catching 11 passes for 164 yards and two touchdowns.

Redshirt junior Chayce Crouch takes over the starting quarterback job from graduated Wes Lunt, giving offensive coordinator Garrick McGee a dual-threat quarterback to work with after spending 2014-15 at Louisville working with Lamar Jackson. Crouch saw his most 2016 action when he came in for the injured Lunt against Purdue, going 10-for-14 for 142 yards to go along with 17 carries for 137 yards and two scores in one of Illinois' highest scoring games of the season.

Among Crouch's weapons will be Illinois' 2014 leading receiver Mike Dudek, who missed the last two years with knee injuries. Dudek led the team in his freshman year, catching 76 passes for 1,038 yards and six touchdowns.

Illinois had the third best pass defense in the Big Ten in 2016, allowing only 185.9 yards per game and 11 touchdowns. Redshirt junior Tre Watson was fifth in the Big Ten with 102 tackles to go along with 4.5 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles in 2016. He had five double-digit tackle games, including 16 against Michigan State and 15 against Iowa.

Northwestern has won four out of the last five meetings between the teams. The Wildcats' dominating run game helped the program to a 42-21 victory. Northwestern's Justin Jackson rushed for 173 yards and three touchdowns and John Moten IV rushed for 128 yards with two touchdowns. The teams last played in Champaign in 2013, a 37-34 Northwestern win led by Wildcats quarterback Trevor Siemian, who threw for 414 yards and four touchdowns.

MEDIA INFORMATION

WEEKLY MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Fitzgerald will hold weekly media briefings at Noon CDT each Monday during the regular season in the Nicolet Football Center. Fitzgerald will make comments and answer questions until approximately 12:25 p.m. Selected players will be on hand to meet with the press at approximately 12:30 p.m., class schedules permitting. The entire news conference is available on NUsports.com (All-Access video site for a fee).

BIG TEN WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Coach Fitzgerald takes part in the Big Ten Conference's Coaches Teleconference each Tuesday throughout the regular season. All 14 head coaches are available to answer questions for eight minutes. Fitzgerald's segment begins at 11:56 a.m. CT. Media members wishing to participate should call or email the Big Ten office (847-696-1010) for the call-in phone number. Playback of the teleconference is available for 24 hours following the completion of the original format.

COACH/PLAYER AVAILABILITY

Coach Fitzgerald and student-athletes who did not participate in the Monday press conference are available after morning practices on Tuesdays and Wednesdays each week. Depending on class schedules, players may also be available in the afternoon on those two days. No player interviews will be granted on Sunday, Thursday or Friday. Depending on his schedule, Coach Fitzgerald may also be available during the late-afternoon hours on Tuesday and Wednesday. Please call in advance to set up an interview.

WILDCATS ONLINE
