2013 BIG TEN/ACC CHALLENGE

Northwestern travels to NC State Wednesday, Dec. 4 at PNC Arena in Raleigh, N.C., as part of the 2013 Big Ten/ACC Challenge Presented by Dick's Sporting Goods. The contest is being televised live by ESPNU.

NC State posted a 24-11 record last season, including an 11-7 mark in ACC play, and participated in the NCAA tournament. The Wolfpack will be looking to replace their top four scorers and each of the five individuals who started the majority of their games a year ago. Rising sophomore T.J. Warren is the team's leading returning scorer, averaging 12.1 points per game in 2012-13.

ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU will combine to televise all 12 games of the two-day event matching top college basketball programs playing for conference supremacy and the Commissioners Cup. All 12 games will also be available via WatchESPN.

NU is 6-8 in its first 14 Challenge matchups. The Wildcats won four straight contests in the event before dropping a 77-57 home decision to Maryland last season.

BIG TEN TOURNAMENT

Follow a one-year stint at United Center in Chicago, the Big Ten men's and women's basketball tournaments return to Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis following the 2013-14 regular season. The site served as the host of the tournament for seven straight years prior to last season's appearance in Chicago.

The men's and women's tournaments are alternating being held in Chicago and Indianapolis through 2016.

Both tournaments will continue to be held at Bankers Life Fieldhouse on the years they are in Indianapolis. The men's tournament will be held at United Center, while the women's tournament will be played at Sears Centre Arena in Hoffman Estates, Ill.

The Big Ten Conference is known for its enthusiastic crowds and Northwestern's historic Welsh-Ryan Arena is no exception. When opponents arrive to play a game in Evanston, they know they're in for quite a battle.

McGaw Memorial Hall has been the home of the Wildcats since 1952, when it was built in part to accommodate a meeting of the World Council of Churches at the University. One of the best facilities of its size in the nation when it opened, McGaw Hall played host to the 1956 Final Four, which saw San Francisco win an 83-71 decision over Iowa in the championship game—a contest which drew a crowd of 10,653, still the building's basketball attendance record. McGaw Hall was one of just three different arenas to stage the event from 1953-59.

McGaw Hall was officially dedicated on Jan. 18, 1953, although the first game in it was played Dec. 6, 1952, with Northwestern taking on Western Michigan. The fieldhouse was donated to the University by Foster G. McGaw and friends in memory of his father, the Reverend Francis A. McGaw, a Presbyterian minister who died at his mission in Nairobi, Africa, in 1942.

After its early glory days, the structure to which the Wildcats returned in 1983-84 was not the same one they had left 12 months earlier. A $6.75 million renovation of the building had dramatically altered its interior, with the biggest improvement being the completion of Welsh-Ryan Arena. NU played its home games at Alumni Hall on DePaul University's campus during the 1982-83 season while the renovations were taking place. Now considered one of the top facilities of its size in the nation, Welsh-Ryan Arena is situated at the south end of McGaw Hall, and has a seating capacity of 8,117.

As a part of the $20 million Campaign for Athletic Excellence, various facilities in McGaw Hall were updated and improved. New wood basketball courts were added to the back of McGaw Hall for extra practice and playing time for the men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball teams.

The arena is named in recognition of a leadership gift to the $21 million Athletic Facilities Campaign by the Patrick G. Ryan family of Kenilworth, Ill. Ryan, the recently retired chairman of Northwestern's Board of Trustees, is president and chief executive officer of AON Corporation. The name-gift pledge to the Campaign was made by the Ryan family in honor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick G. Ryan Sr. and his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Welsh Sr.

Prior to their move to McGaw Hall, the Wildcats played their home games at Patten Gymnasium from 1910-40. One of the most important events held in the building during its final year was the championship game of the first NCAA tournament on March 27, 1939, when Oregon defeated Ohio State 46-33. Northwestern split its home games between Chicago Stadium and Evanston High School from 1940-52 before McGaw Hall opened for the 1952-53 season. The facility was constructed at a cost of $1.3 million.

The men's and women's basketball programs moved into brand-new locker rooms during the 2007-08 season as part of a $4 million project. The second phase of the efforts was completed in time for the 2008-09 campaign as the coaching staffs moved into their new offices on the second floor of the project.

Morton Schapiro began his term as the 16th president of Northwestern University on September 1, 2009. He is a professor of economics in Northwestern's Judd A. and Marjorie Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences and also holds appointments in the J. L. Kellogg School of Management and the School of Education and Social Policy.

President Schapiro is among the nation's leading authorities on the economics of higher education, with particular expertise in the area of college financing and affordability and on trends in educational costs and student aid. He has testified before US Senate and House committees on economic and educational issues and is widely quoted in the national media on those issues.

Previously President Schapiro was president of Williams College from 2000 to 2009. Earlier he had served as a member of the Williams College faculty from 1980 to 1991 as professor of economics and assistant provost. In 1991 he went to the University of Southern California, where he served as chair of the Department of Economics until 1994 and then as dean of the College of Letters, Arts and Sciences until 2000.

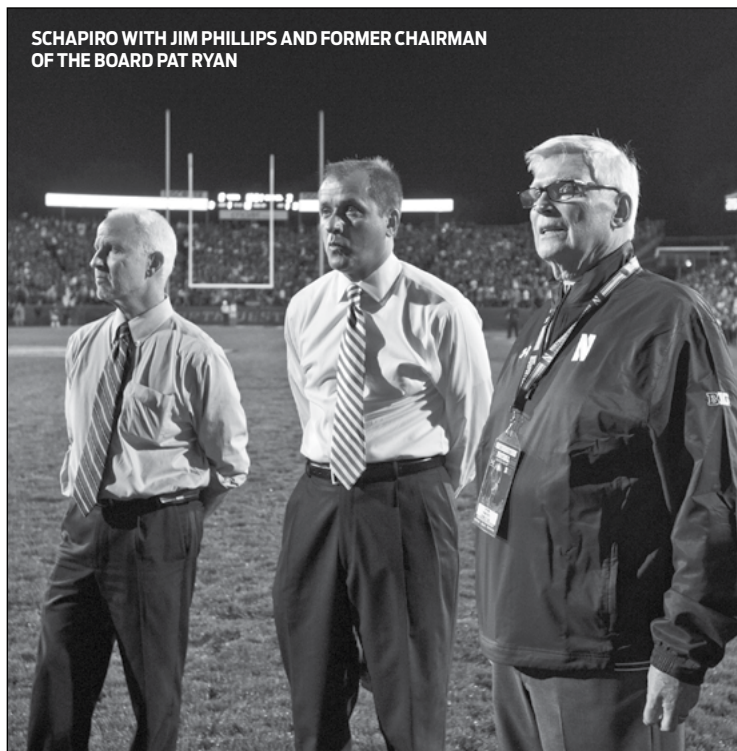

During his last two years as dean, he also served as the university's vice president for planning.

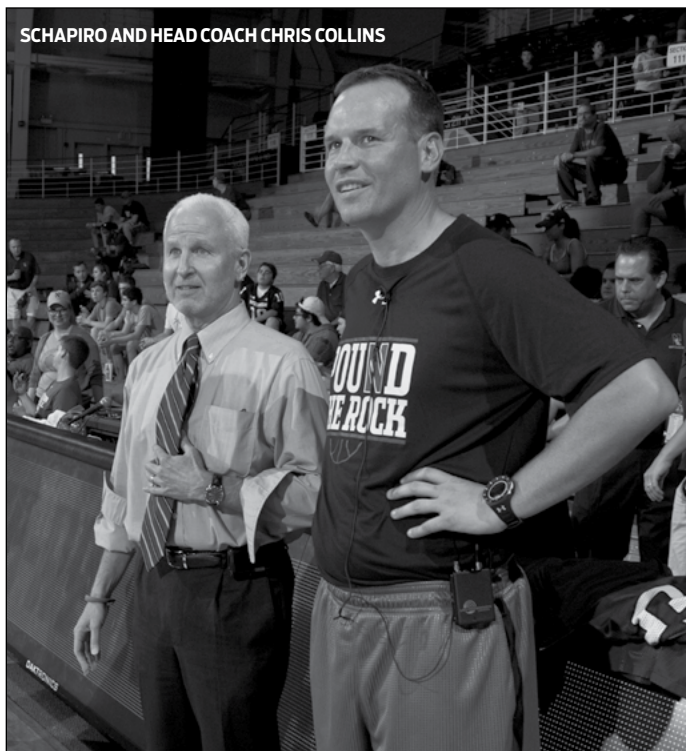

President Schapiro has written more than 100 articles and five books and has edited two others. He has received research grants and contracts from the National Science Foundation, the US Department of Education, the World Bank, the Spencer Foundation, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the College Board, the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, and other groups to study the economics of higher education and related topics. In 2010 he was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

He received his bachelor's degree in economics from Hofstra University and his doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania.

SCHAPIRO WITH JIM PHILLIPS AND FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD PAT RYAN

SCHAPIRO AND HEAD COACH CHRIS COLLINS

James J. Phillips became Northwestern's 21st director of intercollegiate athletics and recreation on April 14, 2008, bringing with him a track record of success at the Division I level and a commitment to the values Northwestern always has maintained in collegiate athletics.

One of 10 children from a middle-class family and a native of the Portage Park neighborhood on the northwest side of Chicago, Phillips has proven to be the perfect fit to head up Northwestern's 19-sport program in the nation's No. 3 market. His deep Windy City roots and family orientation are an integral part of his core philosophy of providing student-athletes with a "world-class experience" that enables them to succeed academically, socially and athletically.

In June of 2012, Phillips was honored as the Under Armour Central Region Athletic Director of the Year. In addition, as a reflection of the respect he has earned from the industry and his peers, Phillips was selected 3rd Vice President of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in June of 2011. He is slated to serve as 1st Vice President in 2013-14 before becoming the President of NACDA in 2014-15—a first for a Northwestern AD.

Additionally, Phillips recently completed a two-year stint as the Athletic Director Chair of the Big Ten Conference, representing the league's A.D.'s on the Executive Committee of the B1G Joint Group, while he simultaneously worked as a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee. He is also currently serving on the NCAA Awards, Benefits, Expenses and Financial Aid Cabinet, and as an athletic mentor in the NCAA Pathway Program.

Academically, Wildcat student-athletes have had banner years with Phillips at the helm. Northwestern has surpassed 200 Academic All-Big Ten honorees each of the last three years, including a school-record 206 in 2011-12. In the NCAA's most-recent Academic Progress Rating (APR) data, Northwestern's football program led both Division I FBS and FCS schools with a score of 997. Nine NU programs earned perfect 1,000 scores in the multi-year rate while an additional six teams had perfect 1,000 totals for the 2011-12 data cycle — totaling 15 programs with perfect 1,000 scores in 2011-12.

Northwestern continues to be among the nation's leaders in community service under Phillips. During the 2011-12 academic year, all 486 Northwestern student-athletes participated in some form of community service, with the group totaling well over 5,000 combined hours for the fourth consecutive year. In June of 2012 that initiative stretched to department staff with the first annual staff community service day, which sends more than 100 Wildcat staffers into the community. Northwestern also welcomes over 1,000 local school children to campus annually to tour athletic facilities and meet-and-greet student-athletes. Student-athletes are participating in the Undergraduate Leadership Program, receiving leadership coaching by the Center on Leadership Fellows, attended the APPLE Conference in 2011 and have been selected to attend the DERU Conference.

Phillips has pursued an aggressive and progressive plan to ensure success both on and off the field of play, embarking on a number of major projects at Northwestern.

One of his first actions was to begin the implementation of a Department of Athletics and Recreation re-organization that was completed in January of 2009. The athletic department's existing infrastructure was broken into three key areas: internal, external and student-athlete welfare.

In the external area in 2010, Northwestern launched the first wide-ranging marketing campaign in the history of the athletic department. The campaign, with the tagline "Chicago's Big Ten Team," aimed at building brand awareness and driving ticket sales over a multi-year time frame.

Northwestern athletic competitions and events in Chicago have become a regular occurrence under Phillips, raising the awareness of Northwestern's brand in Chicagoland. In 2009, the Wildcats baseball team defeated Notre Dame at U.S. Cellular Field, the home of the Chicago White Sox. In 2010, Phillips signed a deal for Northwestern to face Illinois at Wrigley Field on Nov. 20 in what was the first football game at the "Friendly Confines" since 1970 and the first college football game at the venue since 1938. Phillips has since solidified

PHILLIPS AND HEAD COACH CHRIS COLLINS

NU's relationship with the historic North Side franchise, announcing in 2013 a reciprocal event and marketing agreement with the Cubs that will provide opportunities for numerous NU programs to stage competitions at the venue in coming years. The series officially began on April 20, 2013, when Northwestern defeated Big Ten rival Michigan in the Friendly Confines. Another coup for Phillips came in 2011 when he negotiated a contract to play a home-and-home football series with Notre Dame beginning in 2014, marking the first time those two programs will meet since NU's historic win in South Bend in 1995.

Northwestern and Under Armour began a historic and unprecedented multi-year partnership in 2012 that designates Under Armour as the official outfitter of the university's athletic program. The partnership represents Under Armour's first outfitter agreement with an athletic program that competes in the Big Ten Conference. A leader in performance apparel, footwear and accessories, Under Armour outfits all of Northwestern's 19 men's and women's varsity athletic teams.

Northwestern's revenues are at an all-time high under Phillips. NU's paid football season-ticket base grew to an all-time high in 2013 after nearly doubling over the last four seasons. During the 2011 campaign the Wildcats hosted the largest crowd in the history of Ryan Field in its current configuration, welcoming 47,330 on October 8 for a game against Michigan. Men's basketball season ticket sales are up 34 percent over the last three years, and Northwestern has posted the sixth-largest increase in the nation in average attendance over the last four seasons.

The department posted significant gains in average attendance across the board in 2012-13 relative to the 2011-12 campaign, including a 60 percent increase for men's soccer, an increase of 55 percent in volleyball, a 45 percent rise for Big Ten baseball games and an 11 percent improvement for the women's lacrosse program, which ranked second in the nation in attendance. In addition, Development has established positive trends in donor cultivation and engagement.

Along with the landmark Under Armour agreement, the department has signed major corporate sponsorship deals with Northwestern Memorial Hospital, BMO Harris Bank, Gatorade and Coca-Cola while transitioning to Learfield Sports as its multi-media rights holder in March of 2011 and re-branding the entity Northwestern Sports Properties (NSP). That group has tripled NU's corporate sponsorships in the last two years.

Phillips launched the first master facility plan study in Northwestern history in November of 2010 and, on Sept. 15, 2012, announced approval by the Board of Trustees of plans to build a major complex for athletic and recreational activities and a new parking structure on the north end of NU's main Evanston campus. The centerpiece of the complex will be an indoor multipurpose facility to provide room for major events, training and competition space for varsity programs and enhanced recreation areas that will affect all members of the Northwestern University community. In December, Phillips and President Schapiro announced an unprecedented series of lead gifts—together worth more than $70 million—in support of the project.

Northwestern's Fitness & Recreation unit has grown as an integral part of the overall collegiate experience for many students, offering intramural sports as well as clubs and classes. The department services undergraduate and graduate students, faculty, staff and alumni across the Northwestern community, providing accessible, fun and innovative ways to live healthy and well. The 33 sport clubs served 1,052 undergraduate students during the 2011-12 academic year, while the intramural sport program had 9,494 participants during the campaign.

On the field, Northwestern has achieved historic success across the department. The football program has earned a bowl berth in five straight seasons—most recently recording a victory over Mississippi State in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl on Jan. 1, 2013—while women's lacrosse has won seven of the last nine NCAA Championships. Women's tennis has compiled a string of 15-straight years with a Big Ten title, and men's soccer captured Big Ten regular-season championships in both 2011 and 2012. In Phillips' time at Northwestern, women's lacrosse, softball, men's golf, women's fencing, men's soccer, women's tennis and wrestling all have won team or individual conference championships.

To sustain that success, Phillips has worked to solidify the leadership of each program, securing Pat Fitzgerald (football), Kelly Amonte Hiller (women's lacrosse) and Tim Lenahan (men's soccer) with contract extensions. In June of 2009, he inked Fitzgerald to a new seven-year deal, then extended that contract to 10 years in May of 2011—keeping one of the finest players in school history on the Wildcats' sideline through at least 2020. Amonte Hiller took charge of the women's lacrosse program when it returned from club status in 2002 and has built NU into a dynasty with seven national championships. Lenahan has mentored his program to NCAA tourney appearances in seven of the last nine seasons, twice reaching the NCAA quarter-finals, and claimed the aforementioned Big Ten titles.

In addition, Phillips elevated a pair of young Northwestern assistants to head coaching positions, naming Jarod Schroeder the men's swimming and diving head coach in 2009 and NU graduate Drew Pariano the wrestling head coach in 2010.

He also recruited sought-after head coaches Tracey Fuchs (field hockey), Joe McKeown (women's basketball), Michael Moynihan (women's soccer) and Chris Collins (men's basketball) to Evanston. Fuchs had arguably the most successful playing career in the history of USA Field Hockey and has been referred to as the "Michael Jordan of field hockey." McKeown came to the Wildcats after 19 years as the head coach at The George Washington University, where he took his team to the postseason 17 times. Moynihan arrived at Northwestern in 2012 following a remarkable 15-year stint as the head coach at Milwaukee where he coached the Panthers to 13 Horizon League championships, including 12 in a row, and nine NCAA tournament appearances. At the time of his hiring, Collins was one of the most highly regarded assistant coaches in the country after 13 seasons on the bench next to one of the game's coaching legends, Duke's Mike Krzyzewski, at Collins' alma mater. In addition to helping Krzyzewski win 356 of 428 games in his 13 seasons on staff, Collins also was an assistant during gold-medal runs for USA Basketball at the 2008 and 2012 Olympics before returning to his native Chicago to become the Wildcats head coach.

Individually, student-athletes have won the Tewaaraton Trophy in women's lacrosse (Hannah Nielsen, Shannon Smith), the Big Ten Wayne Duke Award (Mark Ison and Drew Ratner), the Hodge Trophy in wrestling (Jake Herbert) and the Big Ten Conference awards for male and female athletes of the year (Jake Herbert in 2009 and Shannon Smith in 2011, respectively). Since Phillips' arrival in 2008, 33 Wildcats have received first-team All-America honors, 30 have picked up conference Player, Coach or Freshman of the Year accolades and 14 have been named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

In June of 2009, Phillips was asked to serve on the NCAA Champions Forum panel, a group of football coaches and athletics directors making an effort to increase the hiring and awareness of minority football coaches. He is a member of the NACDA Executive Committee, the World Sport Chicago Board, the NCAA Fellows Leadership Development Program and previously served on Chicago's bid committee for the 2016 Olympic Games. Phillips currently instructs a course entitled "Comprehensive Perspectives for Leading a Sports Entity" in Northwestern's Kellogg School of Business and has previously lectured in the Northwestern School of Continuing Studies' Master's in Sports Administration program.

Prior to arriving in Evanston, Phillips served as Northern Illinois' athletic director for four years beginning in 2004. During that time, the Huskies had unprecedented athletic success and consistent academic achievements. On July 1, 2006, Phillips was promoted to associate vice president, in addition to his director of athletics title, after already being recognized by his peers in the Mid-American Conference with his selection to serve as chairman of the MAC Athletic Directors' Council. He was honored with the 2007 General Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletic Director of the Year award while at NIU, and was a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball committee during his time in the MAC.

Phillips was extraordinarily successful in fundraising and marketing at Northern Illinois. He spearheaded the fundraising and construction of the $14-million Yordon Academic and Athletic Performance Center at NIU, the largest capital project in the athletic department's history, and led several successful fundraising campaigns for athletics. In addition, the Huskies opened an indoor practice facility for baseball, softball and men's and women's golf, and began construction in the spring of 2008 on a new soccer/track and field complex.

During Phillips' tenure in DeKalb, he was instrumental in scheduling high-profile football games against Michigan and Ohio State that resulted in national television appearances for NIU. He also negotiated playing the University of Iowa in 2007 at Soldier Field in Chicago as a home game at NIU, a game that sold out in less than a week. In addition, Phillips negotiated a multi-year radio rights agreement for WSCR-AM (The Score) in Chicago to carry football, men's basketball and a weekly NIU live radio show discussing all Huskie athletic programs. Phillips also negotiated a television deal with Comcast SportsNet Chicago to carry football games and a weekly show called Inside Huskie Sports.

Phillips helped secure the 2007 NCAA Men's Golf Central Regional, which the Huskies hosted at the new home of NIU golf, Rich Harvest Farms in Sugar Grove, Ill.

A 1990 graduate of the University of Illinois, Phillips started his career as a manager and student assistant in Illinois' athletic department. He earned a master's degree in education at Arizona State University while serving as a restricted earnings basketball coach during a period in which the Sun Devils reached the post-season in five-straight years.

Phillips also holds a Ph.D. in educational administration from Tennessee, which he completed in the summer of 2007. Phillips served as an assistant athletics director with the Volunteers until 2000. He directed a $12.4 million annual athletics giving program, and was directly responsible for identifying, cultivating and soliciting all major gifts and donations for the Volunteer athletic program. He helped originate the first-ever capital campaign for athletics at UT that raised more than $50 million for endowments, facilities and programs. In addition, he supervised several athletic programs and a variety of other areas.

Phillips then moved to the University of Notre Dame in 2000, where he served as associate director of athletics and senior associate director of athletics for external affairs. During 2002-03, he helped launch the Rockne Heritage Fund, which became the first athletics annual fund that directly benefited student-athlete grant-in-aid scholarships. In addition, he managed the ticket office, various corporate sponsorships, athletic programs and a weekly Irish radio show.

At the same time, Phillips played an integral part in the funding of a new $24-million, 96,000-square foot athletics facility. At Notre Dame, Phillips directed all phases of the athletics community relations program and helped develop new institutional and departmental advancement programs.

Phillips and his wife, Laura, have five children: Luke, Madeline, Meredith, John and James.

HEAD COACH CHRIS COLLINS

Chris Collins was named the 24th head men's basketball coach at Northwestern University on March 27, 2013.

He came to Evanston after serving on the coaching staff at Duke since July 22, 2000. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2008. During Collins' 13 seasons on the Blue Devils' staff, Duke posted an overall record of 385-77 while recording eight ACC tournament championships, four ACC regular season titles, eight in-season tournament titles and national championships in 2001 and 2010.

Collins worked primarily with backcourt players during his time at Duke and tutored All-Americans Jason Williams, Mike Dunleavy, Chris Duhon, J.J. Redick, Gerald Henderson, DeMarcus Nelson, Jon Scheyer, Nolan Smith and Austin Rivers, in addition to NBA draft picks Daniel Ewing, Kyrie Irving and Kyle Singler.

Collins also served as a court coach and scout for Mike Krzyzewski, assisting the USA Basketball Senior National Team staff with on-court duties as well as game preparation from 2006-12, including during the program's gold-medal performances at the 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championships and 2012 London Olympics.

In his first season as a coach at Duke, the Blue Devils won the 2001 national championship with an 82-72 victory over Arizona. Along the way, Williams earned unanimous first-team All-America and National Player of the Year honors by the NABC. Duhon, a freshman under Collins' tutelage in 2001, was named the ACC Rookie of the Year.

In Collins' second season at Duke, the Blue Devils posted a 31-4 record, won the ACC tournament for the fourth-consecutive season and were ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final Associated Press poll. Williams, one of Collins' understudies, earned National Player of the Year honors for the second-consecutive year and became just one of seven repeat winners of that prestigious honor.

During the 2002-03 season, Duke posted a 26-7 record, a fifth-consecutive ACC tournament championship and reached the Sweet 16 for the sixth-straight year. One year later, Duke went 31-6 and returned to the Final Four for the second time in Collins' Blue Devil coaching career. Two of his backcourt players, Duhon and Redick, earned All-America and All-ACC recognition.

Collins helped the Blue Devils to a 26-7 overall slate that included the ACC tournament crown and yet another berth in the NCAA tournament in 2004-05. Redick was named the National Player of the Year while Ewing was a second-round selection of the Los Angeles Clippers in the 2005 NBA Draft.

In the 2005-06 season, Collins watched his star pupil, Redick, register one of the most impressive scoring seasons in Duke history. Redick ranked second in the NCAA with a scoring average of 26.8 points per game, while setting the Duke and ACC career scoring records and the NCAA career three-point field goals record. He was a consensus National Player of the Year and a unanimous first-team All-American for the 32-4 Blue Devils.

In 2007-08, Collins helped Nelson elevate his game and garner several honors along the way. Nelson was tabbed the ACC Defensive Player of the Year and also earned NABC third-team All-America, first-team All-ACC and ACC All-Defensive team honors. In 2008-09, Collins guided Henderson to All-America and first-team All-ACC honors. Collins also coached Scheyer in his transition to point guard late in the year, which led to an ACC tournament championship and NCAA Sweet 16 berth.

Collins helped lead Duke to its second national championship during his tenure in 2009-10 as the Blue Devils defeated Butler, 61-59, in the NCAA championship game. Collins coached the top-scoring trio in the NCAA as guards Jon Scheyer, Kyle Singler and Nolan Smith combined to score 53.3 points per game. Those three players earned numerous awards during the season with top honors, including second-team All-America for Scheyer, NCAA Final Four Most Outstanding Player for Singler and 2010 NCAA Tournament South Region MOP for Smith. All three players were also selected All-ACC and to ACC all-tournament teams while leading the Blue Devils to ACC tournament, ACC regular season and NIT Season Tip-Off championships.

The 2010-11 season marked the third-straight 30-win campaign for the Blue Devils. Collins coached a pair of senior all-stars for the Blue Devils, Singler and Smith. Singler earned first-team All-ACC honors, while Smith led the ACC in scoring at 20.6 points per game to claim ACC Player of the Year and first-team All-America honors.

In 2011-12, Collins was integral in the development of a backcourt featuring NABC third team All-America Austin Rivers and third-team All-ACC pick Seth Curry. Rivers averaged a team-high 15.5 points per game to become just the third Duke freshman to lead the team in scoring. He was also tabbed as the ACC Rookie of the Year and was just the seventh freshman in league history to earn first-team all-conference honors.

Before returning to his alma mater, Collins served as an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two years with Tommy Amaker. In 1999-2000, Collins was part of a staff that guided the Pirates to a 22-10 record and the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament. Prior to Seton Hall, Collins spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant with the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Collins played professional basketball in Finland during the 1996-97 season, leading the league in scoring.

CHRIS COLLINS spent the last 13 seasons at Duke, including the last five as associate head coach, prior to coming to Northwestern.

While at Duke, Collins was a team captain as a senior and four-year letterman from 1993-96. He currently ranks 11th among Duke's all-time leaders in three-point field goals (209) and 10th in three-point field goal attempts (539). Collins averaged 9.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.4 assists as a collegian. He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior.

Collins was a member of a Duke senior class that had 83 total victories, three NCAA Tournament bids, one Final Four appearance, two ACC regular season championships, an ACC tournament title, and two in-season tournament championships (the 1992 Maui Classic and the 1995 Carrs Great Alaska Shootout).

As a senior in 1996, Collins had his most productive season, leading the Blue Devils in three-point field goals (79), three-point percentage (.441), free throws made (83) and attempted (115), assists (132) and steals (37). Collins also ranked second on the team by averaging 16.3 points per game. He was among the ACC leaders in scoring (10th), assists (fourth), field goal percentage (.467, seventh) and free throw percentage (.722, 10th).

Collins is the son of former NBA All-Star, Doug Collins, who is currently the head coach of the Philadelphia 76ers. A native of nearby Northbrook, Ill., Collins is a 1996 graduate of Duke with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Collins and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ryan and Kate.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT CHRIS COLLINS

"Chris has a brilliant basketball mind and is a great communicator. I'm sure he'll do a great job at Northwestern, and I wish him the best of luck."

Kobe Bryant
Los Angeles Lakers

"Chris Collins is a terrific hire for Northwestern. He is enthusiastic and has a great technical knowledge of the game. He is an outstanding recruiter who will be able to bring blue-chip athletes to Northwestern. He is the perfect hire for getting Northwestern to that magical moment of reaching the NCAA tournament."

Dick Vitale
ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"I'm not sure there will be a better off-season coaching addition than Chris Collins at Northwestern. He's got the entire package—he can coach, recruit and connects with the players. That's a rare combination these days. Honestly, this was a complete no-brainer. I'd be shocked if Collins doesn't get this program to the NCAA tournament. He just gets it. In every way. Period. This wasn't just a home-run hire. I think it'll prove to be a grand slam."

Jeff Goodman
ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"I've known Chris since I was 16 years old and have witnessed first-hand his passion, work ethic, and knowledge of the game. Chris will be a tremendous representative of Northwestern University and I look forward to watching him build the program into a great success."

J.J. Redick
Los Angeles Clippers, Former Duke Player

"Chris has been a great mentor of mine. This is a great chance for him to really show why he was a great coach at Duke. Northwestern got a steal. He has worked alongside Coach K for a number of years now and he has learned from the best. Now he's ready to head a tremendous, prestigious program like Northwestern. I wish him all the best and I love him to death."

Kyrie Irving
Cleveland Cavaliers

"Chris has an incredible basketball pedigree and is an intelligent coach with a great basketball mind. He was successful as a player and coach at Duke and I expect that he will be a strong and confident leader for the program at Northwestern."

Grant Hill
Former NBA and Duke Player

"Chris has the right combination of talent, enthusiasm and work ethic to be a terrific success. He isn't just a guy who was sitting close to Mike Krzyzewski on the bench. That provides a heck of an education, obviously, but he has proven to be an excellent position coach with Duke's backcourt players, an eager recruiter and an important aide to Coach K."

Mike DeCourcy
Sporting News and Big Ten Network College Basketball Analyst

"I'm so excited for Chris. Northwestern provides an opportunity to be at a great school, a private institution with an A.D. and president who are totally committed to building a great program and upholding the standards of their school. It's just perfect for Chris...He'll be great there. He hasn't just worked for me at Duke, but for the seven years that I've been the national coach for our country, Chris has been with me every step of the way. He has worked with the greatest players on this planet and has earned the respect of those players too."

BRIAN JAMES

Assistant Coach
First Season

Brian James is in his first season as an assistant coach at Northwestern on Chris Collins' staff.

James served as Collins' coach during his high school career at Glenbrook North where he helped Collins gain McDonald's All-America status as well as the title of Illinois' Mr. Basketball.

James comes to Northwestern after spending the last three seasons as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia 76ers alongside head coach Doug Collins, Chris Collins' father. He helped the Sixers reach the 2012 NBA Eastern Conference Semifinals.

The Taylorville, Ill., native has 14 years of NBA coaching experience. Prior to joining the Sixers, James served as an assistant coach with the Milwaukee Bucks for three seasons from 2005-06 through 2007-08. In addition to the Bucks, James had held assistant coaching positions in the NBA with Washington (2001-03), Toronto (1998-2001) and Detroit (1995-98). His stints with the Wizards and Pistons also came as a member of Doug Collins' staff.

The Raptors reached the semifinal round of the Eastern Conference playoffs in 2001 and James helped coach the Eastern Conference squad at the 1997 NBA All-Star Game while on the coaching staff of the Pistons.

During his time in the NBA, James coached such notable players as Michael Jordan, Grant Hill, Vince Carter, Tracy McGrady, Michael Redd, Elton Brand and Andre Iguodala.

He also served as an NBA analyst for ESPN.com and spent two years as an advance scout for the Seattle Supersonics.

His 18 years of high school coaching experience in the state of Illinois were split between four different high schools. In addition to Glenbrook North, James also served head-coaching stints at Romeoville and Wilmington. He compiled a varsity career coaching record of 196-79 (.713) and helped his teams reach the state tournament four times.

A 1977 graduate of Illinois State University with a degree in physical education, James holds a masters degree in educational administration from Northeastern Illinois University.

He has three children: Christopher, Dayna and Brady.

PAT BALDWIN

Assistant Coach
First Season

Pat Baldwin was named to Chris Collins' staff as an assistant coach on April 19, 2013.

A 1994 graduate of Northwestern, Baldwin returns to Evanston after most recently serving as an assistant coach at Missouri State for the last two seasons.

During his time with the Bears, Baldwin recruited Marcus Marshall, the 2013 Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year.

Prior to spending two seasons on Paul Lusk's staff at Missouri State, Baldwin spent seven seasons at Loyola Chicago. He was an assistant coach for six seasons before being promoted to the role of associate head coach for the 2010-11 campaign.

While with the Ramblers, Baldwin coached Blake Schilb to first-team All-Horizon League honors while Leon Young was named the Horizon League Freshman of the Year in 2005-06 by CBSSportsLine.com.

Baldwin was a standout player for Northwestern from 1990-94. He ranks first in school history with 272 career steals, second all-time with 452 assists and 19th with 1,189 points. His 90 steals as a freshman in 1990-91 are the school single-season record, while his 154 assists as a senior in 1993-94 rank second in school history, only trailing the 157 handed out by Tim Doyle in 2006-06.

Baldwin is the Northwestern single-game leader with 14 assists against Youngstown State on Dec. 5, 1992 and nine steals vs. Oakland Nov. 27, 1990. He posted seven or more steals in a game six times during his career and was named the 1993-94 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year.

Following his graduation from NU, Baldwin spent three years as a business analyst at Dean Foods in Rosemont, Ill., before playing professional basketball in Bosnia and Croatia from 1999-2001.

The Leavenworth, Kan., native got his coaching start at Division II Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo., during the 2001-02 season. From there, he coached for two years at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay before coming back to Chicago as a member of the staff at Loyola.

Pat and his wife, Shawn (nee Karey—a former Northwestern volleyball player), have four children: Patrick, Tatum, Brooke and Claire.

ARMON GATES

Assistant Coach
First Season

Chicago native Armon Gates is in his first season as an assistant coach at Northwestern.

Gates joined the Wildcats after spending the last two seasons just down Sheridan Road on the staff at Loyola University Chicago.

In his first year at Loyola, Gates helped forward Ben Averkamp earn second-team All-Horizon League honors to become Loyola's first all-conference performer since 2006-07. In addition, Walt Gibler finished his career as one of only 18 players in Loyola history to total both 1,000 points and 500 rebounds under Gates' tutelage.

Prior to his time in Rogers Park, Gates spent the 2010-11 campaign as an assistant at TCU. Gates worked with the Horned Frogs' guards and helped Hank Thorns become a third-team All-Mountain West Conference selection. Thorns finished the season as the only individual ranked among the top 12 in the nation in both assists per game and assist-turnover ratio. His 225 assists ranked No. 2 in MWC single-season history while also averaging 10.7 points per game.

Prior to his brief stay at TCU, Gates spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Kent State, helping the Golden Flashes to the 2009-10 Mid-American Conference regular-season title. In his final year at Kent State, Gates was part of a staff that guided the Golden Flashes to the second round of the NIT.

Gates began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Western Kentucky. In his lone season on the Hilltoppers' staff, the team recorded a 29-7 overall record and reached the NCAA Sweet 16.

During his playing days at Kent State, Gates helped the Golden Flashes to a 88-42 record and three postseason appearances. Kent State recorded four straight 20-win seasons during his time on campus and he closed out his career tied for second in school history with 200 3-point field goals.

Gates graduated from Kent State in 2006 with a degree in leisure studies and earned his master's degree in sports administration from the same institution in 2007. He was a MAC All-Academic selection.

Gates prepped at Hillcrest High School and his brother, Dennis, is currently an assistant coach at Florida State.

WILDCAT FAST BREAK

In 2011, Northwestern Athletics, in conjunction with Northwestern Sports Properties, launched the first season of "Wildcat Fast Break," which in 2014 will once again air weekly throughout the basketball season. Head coach Chris Collins and WGN sports director Dave Eanet sit down to recap each week's basketball game and preview the upcoming opponent. Fans can catch the telecast on Comcast SportsNet in Chicago on Tuesday evening. Entire episodes of the show will be available on Northwestern Athletics' YouTube page.

(H)EARNING HIS KEEP

Senior guard Reggie Hearn took his game to another level during his senior season. He tallied a team-high 20 points on Jan. 17 in leading Northwestern to a convincing 68-54 victory at then-No. 23/22 Illinois. It was the second straight year that Hearn scored 20 points in a victory at Assembly Hall. The Fort Wayne native followed up the performance by scoring a game-high 22 points against Indiana on Jan. 20 and then a career-high 26 points in a win over Purdue Feb. 2. The former walk-on led the Wildcats and ranked 13th in the Big Ten with a scoring average of 13.4 points per game. Hearn was recognized as an honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the media.

GOING OUT WITH A BANG

Alex Marcotullio saved his best for last against Penn State March 7. Appearing in his final home game at Welsh-Ryan Arena on Senior Night, Marcotullio drained a career-best six 3-pointers and scored a career-high 22 points. His previous high for 3-pointers in a game was five his freshman year against Chicago State March 3, 2010 and his previous scoring high was 18 points vs. Minnesota March 2, 2011. Marcotullio's 155 career 3-pointers rank eighth in school history while his 127 games played ranks third.

REGGIE HEARN went from a walk-on who played a combined 72 minutes his first two seasons to an honorable mention All-Big Ten selection as a senior.

TAKING A HIT

Northwestern was ravaged by injuries throughout the 2012-13 season. Jared Swopshire suffered a season-ending injury when he hurt his right knee at Iowa on Feb. 9 and then underwent arthroscopic surgery on Feb. 12 that ended his campaign. Swopshire was the fifth member of the team who either suffered a season-ending injury or missed the majority of the campaign. Drew Crawford (shoulder), JerShon Cobb (violations of team policy), Sanjay Lumpkin (wrist) and Chier Ajou (knee). Alex Olah also missed the Feb. 14 game at Ohio State due to an upper body injury suffered against Iowa.

DISHING IT OUT

Sophomore Dave Sobolewski was in a giving mood during the 2012-13 season. His average of 3.9 assists per game led the team and ranked sixth in the Big Ten. The point guard handed out a career-best nine assists in Northwestern's season-opening win over Texas Southern Nov. 13 and then followed it up with eight helpers against Mississippi Valley State Nov. 15. Sobolewski has 248 assists through his first two seasons at Northwestern, compared to 242 that Michael Thompson (school's all-time leader in career assists) had during his first two years in a Wildcat uniform.

THE BIGS CAN DISH IT TOO

It's not only the guards in the Northwestern lineup who can set up their teammates. Mike Turner's eight assists at Ohio State Feb. 14 tied for the fifth most in the nation during the 2012-13 season by any player 6'8" or taller. Also, Alex Olah led all players in the nation 7'0" or taller with an average of 2.0 assists per game.

HELPING HAND

Northwestern is well known for playing "team" offense and that's reflected in the statistics. The Wildcats ranked 14th in the nation with a 1.37 ratio (467 assists, 342 turnovers). NU ranked second nationally to only Wisconsin with a 1.70 mark in 2010-11. Northwestern ranked first in the country with a .707 assist percentage.

NCAA Assist Percentage Leaders—

1. Northwestern	.707
2. Denver	.698
3. Ohio	.668
4. The Citadel	.664
5. Notre Dame	.658

PROTECTING THE ROCK

NU committed an average of just 10.7 turnovers per game, ranking 11th in the nation. Though the end result didn't go the way they would have liked, the Wildcats did a great job of taking care of the basketball against Maryland Nov. 27. Northwestern committed just four turnovers in the entire contest, the fewest since it committed three in an overtime game at Illinois on Dec. 30, 2009.

BOMBS AWAY!

The Wildcats ranked third in the Big Ten with an average of 7.6 3-point field goal makes and were 9-4 when they made at least eight shots from behind the arch. Northwestern led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in 2011-12 with an average of 9.0 3-point makes per game.

CHALLENGING START

Everyone acknowledges how good of a conference the Big Ten was during the 2012-13 season and Northwestern certainly was challenged to begin the season. The Wildcats played six of their first nine league contests against ranked opponents. During that span, NU faced Minnesota and Michigan twice as well as Indiana and Illinois once apiece.

MEET SWOP

Jared Swopshire was playing his best ball of the season at the time of his injury. In the five contests prior to his injury at Iowa Feb. 9, he was averaging 12.2 points and 8.8 rebounds per game. Northwestern was 9-3 this season when Swopshire scored in double figures. His 16 rebounds against Nebraska on Jan. 26 were the most by a Northwestern player since Evan Eschmeyer had 21 against Penn State on Jan. 20, 1999. His average of 6.7 rebounds per game is the highest by an NU player since Eschmeyer averaged 10.1 per game in 1998-99. Swopshire's average of 7.5 rebounds per game in Big Ten play ranked fourth in the league. He spent the first four seasons at Louisville, appearing in 109 contests.

REACHING FOR THE TOP

The 2013 senior class finished with 72 career victories. The total finished just shy of the school record for wins by a senior class which is 76 victories achieved by the 2011-12 group. The Wildcats posted a school-record 20 wins in 2009-10 and again in 2010-11 before notching 19 wins in 2011-12.

MESSING WITH TEXAS

The Lone Star State was kind to Northwestern during the 2012-13 season. The Wildcats were a perfect 3-0 in games played in the state of Texas, posting wins over TCU and Illinois State in the South Padre Island Invitational Nov. 23-24 prior to a Dec. 4 win at Baylor. NU was also undefeated in four games against teams that hail from the state of Texas, posting wins over Texas Southern, TCU, Baylor and Texas State.

TRIO NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Seniors Drew Crawford, Reggie Hearn and Alex Marcotullio served as the team captains. All three were in their fourth year with the program and led the Wildcats to postseason berths in each of their first three seasons.

JARED SWOPSHIRE posted an average of 6.7 rebounds per game, the highest by a Wildcat since 1998-99. He grabbed a career-high 16 rebounds Jan. 26 at Nebraska.

CRAWFORD MISSES MAJORITY OF 2012-13 SEASON

Senior forward Drew Crawford missed the final 22 games of the 2012-13 season after undergoing surgery on Dec. 20 to repair a torn labrum in his right shoulder. Crawford had started all 10 of the team's games and he was averaging 13.5 points per contest. He twice scored 20 points this season in wins over Texas Southern and Illinois State as well as 19 points in a victory at Baylor.

STARTING ON THE RIGHT FOOT

Northwestern posted at least seven wins through its first nine games for the fifth-straight season. The Wildcats opened 2010-11 with eight-consecutive wins before winning their first seven in 2011-12. NU began the 2009-10 campaign 10-1 en route to earning an AP national ranking.

SETTING THE STANDARD

The 31 points that Northwestern limited TCU to on Nov. 23 were the fewest in Bill Carmody's 13 seasons as head coach and rank as a tie for the second-lowest total by an NU opponent since 1944. Only Oakland has scored fewer points against the Wildcats in a 68-30 loss to NU on Nov. 22, 1998. SIU-Edwardsville was also limited to 31 on Dec. 1, 1982.

SOUTH PADRE ISLAND INVITATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 'Cats posted wins over TCU and Illinois State to win the 2012 South Padre Island Invitational. It was Northwestern's third in-season tournament victory in the last four seasons. Jared Swopshire was named the tournament MVP, while Drew Crawford and Dave Sobolewski were also named to the all-tournament team.

BESTING THEIR BEST

Seniors Reggie Hearn and Jared Swopshire each posted career-best point totals in a win over Mississippi Valley State Nov. 15. Hearn's team-high 23 points topped his previous best of 20 points in a win at Illinois Feb. 5, 2012. He later topped the mark with a 26-point performance against Purdue Feb. 2. Swopshire's 22 points bested his previous career-high point total of 15 against St. John's on Jan. 9, 2010 while he was playing for Louisville. He knocked down five of his 3-point attempts in the victory over the Delta Devils. During the entire 2011-12 season at Louisville, Swopshire made five of 24 attempts from 3-point territory.

DAZZLING DEBUT

Northwestern freshman Kale Abrahamson got off to a good start in his collegiate debut Nov. 13. The native of West Des Moines, Iowa, hit each of his first four field goal attempts—including three 3-pointers—while making all four of his free throw attempts in scoring 15 points. It was the highest-scoring debut by a Northwestern freshman since Michael Thompson scored 16 points against Stanford on Nov. 15, 2007.

DOING IT ON DEFENSE

Northwestern took a step forward defensively in 2012-13. The Wildcats limited their opponents to an average of 63.7 points per game after allowing 68.2 points per contest in 2011-12. NU also held its foes to a .428 field goal percentage. The 'Cats held 10 of their opponents to below 40 percent shooting in a game. During the 2011-12 season, Northwestern's opponents shot 45.2 percent from the field. Three times in 2012-13 (Texas Southern, Fairleigh Dickinson, TCU), the Wildcats limited the opposition to 14 first-half points, while holding three others (Brown, Minnesota, Penn State) also under 20 points in the opening stanza. The 48 points scored by Minnesota on Jan. 23 were the Gophers' lowest total of the season at the time by 18 points and were the fewest allowed by NU in a Big Ten game since Illinois had 48 on Feb. 18, 2007.

CRAWFORD NAMED CANDIDATE FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Drew Crawford's efforts both on and off the court allowed him to be named one of 30 national candidates for the Senior CLASS Award. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence—community, classroom, character and competition. An economics major, Crawford was named a CoSIDA second-team Academic-All-American as a junior. Crawford has also been heavily involved in community service, including working with Special Olympics, Misericordia, Northwestern's Dance Marathon and Relay For Life, as well as making numerous visits to area schools as well as the Illinois Youth Center.

Game 1

NU 79, Texas Southern 49

Nov. 13, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Drew Crawford keyed a first-half onslaught as Northwestern rolled to a season-opening 79-49 win over Texas Southern at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Crawford connected on each of his first eight field goal attempts in scoring all of his game-high 20 points before the break. NU set the tone off the opening tip as Crawford scored off a feed from Alex Olah. The Naperville, Ill., native was just getting started as he scored the Wildcats first six points. Jared Swopshire also connected on a pair of early baskets to help Northwestern surge out to a 13-4 lead seven minutes into the contest. The advantage was 13-7 when the Wildcats' defense took over, holding the Tigers scoreless over a span of five minutes and 24 seconds while Northwestern rattled off nine straight points to extend the advantage to 15. In all, the 'Cats went on a 27-2 run over a stretch of nine-plus minutes as Olah capped the surge with a slam to make it 40-9 with 3:43 left in the opening half. Northwestern took a 43-14 lead into the intermission as it limited Texas Southern to 6-of-29 shooting. Freshman Kale Abrahamson picked up where Crawford left off, tallying 15 second-half points and hitting three 3-pointers. Northwestern's lead reached as many as 37 points when Olah stepped outside to hit a triple and then scored in the paint, giving the hosts a 68-31 lead with 8:23 left. Dave Sobolewski dished out a career-high nine assists in the contest with Northwestern helping on 24 of its 29 field goals in the contest. Texas Southern was limited to 29.3 percent shooting in the contest, compared to 50 percent for the Wildcats.

Reggie Hearn scored a career-high 23 points and Jared Swopshire added a career-best 22 as Northwestern pulled away late to fight off a scare from Mississippi Valley State 81-68 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Dave Sobolewski added 13 points, eight assists and six rebounds. Northwestern surged out of the gates, posting a 14-5 lead five minutes into the contest. However, the Delta Devils were able to hang close throughout the remainder of the half. Davon Usher, who had 35 points in the contest, scored the final five points of a 6-0 run to close the half and get the guests within 40-38 at the break. The Delta Devils tied the game at 43-43 early in the second stanza before the Wildcats went on a 13-2 run as they appeared primed to pull away. Alex Marcotullio's 3-pointer out of the corner with 13:18 remaining forced the guests to burn a timeout. MVSU responded, though, scoring 10 consecutive points to get back within one. The 'Cats didn't have much of an answer for Usher most of the night as his two free throws with 6:28 remaining cut Northwestern's advantage to 64-60. NU was able to clamp down on Usher down the home stretch, though. Sobolewski answered Usher's free throws with two of his own before scoring on a backdoor layup off a feed from Hearn. Following one free throw by the Delta Devils, Swopshire pushed the lead to 10 with his fifth triple of the night. Swopshire then split a pair from the charity stripe before Sobolewski delivered the dagger with a trey to make it 75-61 with four minutes left. As a team, NU assisted on 25 of its 27 field goals in the contest.

Game 3

NU 80, Fairleigh Dickinson 53

Nov. 18, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Eleven different Wildcats found the scoring column as Northwestern opened up 27-point halftime lead and rolled to an 80-53 victory over Fairleigh Dickinson Sunday afternoon. Reggie Hearn led NU with 14 points—all in the first half—while Alex Olah contributed 10 points and nine rebounds in just 16 minutes of action. Alex Marcotullio and Kale Abrahamson contributed nine points apiece off the bench. Northwestern's lead was 8-5 when the Wildcats rattled off 23 of the game's next 29 points to increase the edge to 31-11. The 'Cats took a 41-14 lead into the intermission. Hearn didn't miss in the opening half, hitting all four of his field goal tries and all four of his free throw attempts. Olah used his size advantage to his benefit, posting six points, seven rebounds and two blocked shots before the break. For the second time in three games to open the season, the Wildcats allowed just 14 first-half points. After holding Texas Southern to 14 in Tuesday's season-opener, NU limited the Knights to the same total as the guests made just six of their 28 field goal attempts over the opening 20 minutes of play. Northwestern got solid contributions across the board as the lead grew to as many as 36, 60-24, just over eight minutes into the second stanza. The 'Cats boasted a 50-34 advantage on the boards, including hauling in 15 offensive caroms, and held a 46-26 edge in points in the paint. Mike Turner handed out a team-high five assists as Northwestern dished out 24 helpers as a team.

Game 4

NU 69, Delaware State 50

Nov. 20, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Drew Crawford posted team highs of 18 points and seven rebounds as Northwestern earned a 69-50 victory over Delaware State. The Wildcats finished with a commanding 37-22 rebounding advantage, including hauling in 13 offensive boards that led to 17 second-chance points. Delaware State got off to a hot start as it connected on five of its first six field goal attempts as the guests surged out to a 15-10 lead following two free throws by Tyshawn Bell with 12:35 remaining in the opening half. A lay-in by Alex Olah followed by a 3-pointer by Crawford got NU back to even before a break-away layup by Dave Sobolewski gave the hosts the lead. The surge ignited a 22-4 run by Northwestern. Crawford got hot late in the half, knocking down back-to-back triples after Mike Turner had hit one of his own from the top of the key. NU limited the Hornets to just two makes in 14 attempts after the hot start before a late 3-pointer by Tajh Tate. The 'Cats eventually took a 35-22 lead at the break. The advantage quickly grew to 20 just over three minutes into the second half, but behind 10 points by Tate, Delaware State went on an 18-6 run to trim their deficit to eight. However, Sobolewski answered with a 3-pointer and Turner scored on a put-back to start a 13-3 surge for the Wildcats over a three-minute span to put the game away. Sobolewski contributed 14 points and was one of four Northwestern players to record four assists in the contest. Reggie Hearn (14) and Olah (10) also scored in double figures for the 'Cats. NU shot 50 percent from the field (26-52) compared to 39.1 percent (18-46) for Delaware State.

Game 5

NU 55, TCU 31

Nov. 23, 2012 • South Padre Island, Texas

Northwestern allowed its lowest point total in 14 years as the Wildcats cruised to a 55-31 victory over TCU in the South Padre Island Invitational. The 31 points were the fewest allowed by the 'Cats since a 68-30 win over Oakland on Nov. 21, 1998. Jared Swopshire paced Northwestern with 15 points, while Drew Crawford and Reggie Hearn added 12 apiece. Northwestern's defense forced eight first-half turnovers by TCU, most of them in opening portions of the half, but the 'Cats struggled from the field and weren't able distance themselves from the Horned Frogs. An offensive drought by Northwestern allowed TCU to close to within 11-10 with 8:11 remaining in the opening stanza, but the Wildcats' defense eventually allowed them to make a run. NU forced eight straight missed field goal attempts by the Horned Frogs as well as four straight free throw tries over a span of six minutes and 46 seconds. The 'Cats scored 11 consecutive points over the stretch, capped by a three-point play and then a make from beyond the arch by Swopshire to make it 22-10. Northwestern would eventually take a 24-14 lead into the intermission, marking the third time in five games this season that the 'Cats have held an opponent to 14 first-half points. The Wildcats got to the charity stripe early and often at the beginning of the second half. Two makes by Crawford at the 15:15 mark made NU 8-for-8 in the period and gave the 'Cats a 34-21 advantage. A trey by Swopshire out of the corner with the shot clock about to expire extended the lead to 16 before two baskets by Hearn and a fast-break layup by Sobolewski made it 43-21 with 8:36 left and the rout was on. In all, Northwestern went on an 11-point run over a span of eight minutes and 25 seconds.

Game 6

NU 72, Illinois State 69 (OT)

Nov. 24, 2012 • South Padre Island, Texas

Tournament MVP Jared Swopshire posted 15 points and 10 rebounds and Drew Crawford added a team-high 20 points as Northwestern beat Illinois State 72-69 in overtime to win the South Padre Island Invitational. Crawford scored seven early points to get the Wildcats within 14-12, but the Redbirds hit consecutive treys to take their largest lead of the half at eight. The 'Cats pulled to within one on two occasions, but two from Tyler Brown at the charity stripe with 2.7 seconds left in the half gave Illinois State a 26-23 lead at the break. ISU scored six in a row to make it a nine-point game, but five straight points by Reggie Hearn closed the deficit back to four. The teams continued to battle back and forth and the score was knotted 43-43 when Crawford drilled a 3-pointer with 3:47 left, putting the 'Cats back in front. ISU closed to within one twice before a trey by Hearn increased NU's lead to 51-47 with 1:32 left. After Jackie Carmichael scored, Swopshire hit two from the line to make it a four-point game again. A three by Brown made it 53-52 'Cats, but Crawford hit a tough leaner with 24 seconds to go to put NU back up by three. However, Brown hit another 3-pointer with 9.7 seconds left to tie it and Dave Sobolewski's shot at the buzzer was off the mark, forcing overtime. Northwestern scored first in the extra session as Sobolewski buried a three. After two ISU free throws, Swopshire scored on a tip-in and NU got a stop on the other end. A long deuce by Sobolewski extended the lead to five with under two minutes left and the Wildcats rode 10-for-11 free throw shooting in the extra session to earn the win.

Illinois State 69 • 5-1

Game 7

Maryland 77, NU 57

Nov. 27, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern's four-game ACC/Big Ten Challenge winning streak was stopped at Welsh-Ryan Arena when Maryland pulled away in the second half for a 77-57 win over the Wildcats. The loss was NU's first in the annual event since falling to Virginia in 2007. Since then, the Wildcats had racked up wins over Florida State, NC State and Georgia Tech (twice). The defeat also halted a 21-game Northwestern winning streak during the month of November that had been the second-longest in the nation. Reggie Hearn led Northwestern with 19 points—the third-best scoring output of his career—while Dave Sobolewski (14) and Drew Crawford (10) also joined Hearn in double figures. NU struggled overall from the field, hitting on just 34 percent of its attempts (18-of-53) while Maryland shot a red-hot 52.7 percent (29-of-55). Maryland also held a 47-19 advantage on the boards. Dez Wells led the Terrapins with 23 points on 9-of-11 shooting. Maryland went on its first big run of the game midway through the first half, turning an 18-17 deficit into a 26-18 lead with a 9-0 run. The Wildcats immediately responded with a 7-0 run of their own, started by a Crawford 3-pointer and capped by an Alex Marcotullio backdoor layup off a pretty Alex Olah feed. The Terrapins went into the locker room with a 28-26 edge, which the Wildcats erased on their first possession of the second half via a Crawford layup. Maryland then exploded on a 13-1 run that resulted in a 47-34 lead for the ACC squad—an edge which Northwestern was unable to cut below double digits the rest of the way.

Game 8

UIC 50, NU 44

Dec. 1, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Turnovers and missed free throws proved costly for Northwestern as the Wildcats dropped a 50-44 decision to UIC. NU connected on just 10 of its 20 attempts from the free throw line in the contest, including the front end of one-and-one situations on multiple occasions, and committed 16 turnovers. Drew Crawford paced Northwestern with 18 points, while Josh Crittle had 13 to lead the Flames. It was a back-and-forth contest the entire way and the Wildcats trailed 40-37 following Gary Talton's basket with 5:25 to go. However, Crawford hit a tough hanging jumper in the lane and then followed it up with a 3-pointer, giving NU a 42-40 advantage with 4:18 left. The teams exchanged turnovers before Talton scored on a layup to tie it. Two missed free throws by Northwestern preceded Marc Brown scoring off a feed from Crittle to put the guests in front. Reggie Hearn tied it with two from the line with 2:09 remaining and the Wildcats forced a turnover but couldn't convert on a pair of shots at the rim that would have given them the lead with under 90 seconds remaining. An offensive rebound led to a put-back by Crittle that gave UIC the lead for good with 53 seconds to go. Northwestern had a chance to tie it, but another miss at the rim forced the 'Cats to foul and Talton made two from the line to make it 48-44. Northwestern was fouled on the other end, but missed on the front end of the bonus and Hayden Humes made two final free throws to seal the game for the Flames. The Wildcats limited UIC to 30.9 percent shooting (17-55) in the contest, but made just 34.9 percent (15-43) themselves.

Game 9

NU 74, Baylor 70

Dec. 4, 2012 • Waco, Texas

All five starters scored in double figures paced by Drew Crawford's 19 points as Northwestern surged out to a big second-half lead and held on late to defeat Baylor 74-70. Reggie Hearn contributed a double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds as the Wildcats held a 37-24 advantage on the glass. In a back-and-forth first half, Dave Sobolewski gave NU a 35-32 lead at the break thanks to a 3-pointer at the buzzer. The Wildcats held Baylor without a field goal until the 12:24 mark of the second stanza. Crawford's 3-pointer from the wing, followed by an Alex Olah jumper capped a 13-1 run to start the half as NU surged out to a 48-33 advantage. The lead was 12 when Crawford and Sobolewski drilled back-to-back triples, extending the advantage to 54-36. Baylor would pick up its defensive intensity and crept back to within 60-52 on Pierre Jackson's basket with 5:08 to go. Northwestern responded with much needed baskets by Hearn and Olah to extend the advantage back to 12. Missed free throws and the Bears' pressure combined to give Baylor life as the hosts closed to within three following two Jackson free throws with 23 seconds left. Sobolewski made one of two from the charity stripe on the other end to make it a four-point game and Jackson air-balled a 3-point try. Jared Swopshire hit one to increase the lead to five before Isaiah Austin hit a trey with 2.3 seconds left to make it 72-70, but Crawford clinched it with two makes from the line with 1.8 seconds remaining. Sobolewski had 13 points, while Swopshire had 12 and Olah had 10 points, six rebounds and six assists.

Game 10

Butler 74, NU 65

Dec. 8, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Dave Sobolewski scored 21 points, but Northwestern came up short against Butler, falling 74-65 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Neither team led by more than five points in a back-and-forth first half. Sobolewski had the hot hand for the Wildcats, posting 14 points as the Bulldogs had little answer for the sophomore point guard. The Wildcats' advantage was 22-20 before Butler went on a 9-2 run to go up 29-24. The Bulldogs eventually took a 34-31 lead at the break as the visitors made five of their 10 3-point field goal attempts in the opening half. Clarke, who re-entered the game despite the foul trouble, made three of the triples. Butler scored the first five points out of the break to extend its lead to eight. Meanwhile, Northwestern struggled from the field, making only one of its first 10 field goal attempts. However, defense kept the 'Cats close. A 3-pointer by Sobolewski cut the deficit to five with 11:42 left, but the Bulldogs scored nine of the game's next 12 points to give them their largest lead, 53-42, with 8:24 remaining. Tre Demps keyed a late-game run as his triple with a minute left got NU within 66-60. Butler had a five-second violation on the ensuing in-bounds play and the Wildcats got the ball back. However, 3-point tries by Demps and Jared Swopshire were off the mark and Butler was able to seal the game at the free throw line. Andrew Smith finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds for Butler. Demps posted 15 points off the bench for Northwestern while Hearn contributed 13. The Bulldogs shot 48 percent from the field in the contest to 32.7 percent for the Wildcats.

Game 11

NU 74, Texas State 68

Dec. 17, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Dave Sobolewski's 3-pointer with 1:45 remaining gave Northwestern the lead for good as the Wildcats ended the game on a 12-0 run to defeat Texas State 74-68 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Things didn't look good for NU when Corey Stern scored on a dunk with 3:31 remaining, giving the Bobcats a 68-62 lead. However, Stern was given a technical foul for hanging on the rim on the play. Jared Swopshire hit one of two ensuing free throws before Reggie Hearn made a pair from the charity stripe to get the Wildcats within three. After Mike Turner came up with a steal on the other end, Sobolewski was fouled and made two from the line to get Northwestern within 68-67. The Wildcats' switch to the 1-3-1 defense keyed the run as Texas State missed a jumper and Sobolewski drilled a triple from the wing that put the hosts in front to stay. Another turnover was followed by a foul of Alex Marcotullio and the senior made both of his free throws to extend the lead to three. The 'Cats were able to do enough from the foul line down the stretch to seal the win as the defense came up with seven consecutive stops to end the game. Tre Demps ignited a 14-4 run by hitting three 3-pointers that gave the 'Cats a 26-18 first-half edge. However, Texas State rallied back to take a 39-37 lead at the break. A free throw by Demps with 10:43 left put Northwestern in front 60-56, but Texas State went on a 10-2 run over the next seven-plus minutes to take a six-point lead on Stern's dunk. However, the technical foul turned the game in the Wildcats' favor. Sobolewski paced NU with 18 points.

Game 12

Stanford 70, NU 68

Dec. 21, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern rallied back from and 18-point first-half deficit to tie the game, but was edged by Stanford in the end, falling 70-68 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Stanford entered the contest shooting just 26.2 percent from 3-point range on the season, but hit six of its first seven shots from beyond the arch as a 22-4 run broke a 10-10 tie and gave the Cardinal a 32-14 lead with 7:04 remaining. However, the Wildcats responded with a huge 17-0 run of its own to close to within a point. In all, Northwestern held Stanford scoreless for seven minutes before a John Gage 3-pointer out of the corner with five seconds remaining gave the guests a 35-31 lead at the break. The Cardinal would extend Game 13 NU 63, Brown 42 Dec. 23, 2012 • Evanston, Ill.

Big runs to begin both halves and solid 3-point shooting led Northwestern to a solid 63-42 victory over Brown at Welsh-Ryan Arena in the Wildcats' final nonconference game of the regular season. Dave Sobolewski paced a balanced scoring attack with 14 points—all in the second half—to go along with eight assists. NU came out of the gates on fire, hitting five of its first six 3-point field goal attempts in storming out to a 15-0 lead four minutes and 20 seconds into the contest. Kale Abrahamson hit a pair of triples during the run while Alex Marcotullio and Jared Swopshire made one apiece before Alex Olah beat the shot clock by throwing one up and banking it in. After falling behind early, Brown did nicely to hold the Wildcats to only 13 more points over the remainder of the half as the Bears closed to within 28-18 at the break. The 'Cats quickly put the game out of reach as they began the second half by scoring 10 of the period's first 11 points. Brown was within 43-27 with 12:30 remaining, but Northwestern put the foot on the pedal as it rattled off 17 consecutive points to stretch the advantage to 33 points. Three-pointers by Sobolewski, Swopshire and Marcotullio followed by a four-point play by Sobolewski capped the run. Six different Wildcats scored at least eight points in the contest, paced by Sobolewski. Northwestern made 13 3-pointers in the contest, including knocking down 12 of its first 19 attempts from beyond the arch. The nation's leader in assist percentage, Northwestern did nothing to hurt that standing on Sunday as it assisted on 21 of its 23 field goals in the contest.

Game 14 #2/2 Michigan 94, NU 66 Jan. 3, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern was unable to overcome a hot start by No. 2 Michigan as the Wildcats dropped their Big Ten opener 94-66 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Jared Swopshire and Kale Abrahamson led four NU players in double figures with 11 points apiece. Alex Olah and Tre Demps each contributed 10 points. The Wildcats played the contest short-handed as they were without the services of leading-scorer Reggie Hearn, in addition to All-Big Ten performer Drew Crawford. The Wolverines, who improved to 14-0 on the season, scored the first 10 points of the game to race out to an early advantage they wouldn't relinquish. Sophomore point guard Trey Burke spearheaded the effort, scoring 13 points in the first five minutes of the contest. Michigan's advantage eventually grew to 20-4 before Abrahamson hit a 3-pointer and Alex Marcotullio scored on a layup following a steal. However, the Wildcats were unable to chip away at the deficit. Tim Hardaway Jr. connected on all four of his attempts from beyond the arch in the opening half as the Wolverines went 8-for-12 from 3-point range over the opening 20 minutes of play as they led 51-30 at the break. Back-to-back triples by Swopshire and Marcotullio early in the second half got Northwestern within 53-36, but Michigan responded with 10 straight points to put the game out of reach. The Wildcats, who entered the game as the nation's leader in assist percentage, assisted on 19 of their 24 field goals in the contest with Dave Sobolewski and Olah dishing out five apiece. Burke finished with a game-high 23 points for Michigan, while Hardaway added 21.

Game 15 #9/13 Minnesota 69, NU 51 Jan. 6, 2013 • Minneapolis, Minn.

Northwestern dictated the tempo through the opening 25 minutes of play, but a strong second-half surge by No. 9/13 Minnesota lifted the Gophers to a 69-51 win over the Wildcats at Williams Arena. Reggie Hearn paced NU with 11 points in his return to the lineup after missing the last two games due to injury. The 'Cats got off to a good start—particularly on the defensive end—as following a Minnesota basket to open the game, 3-pointers by Sobolewski and Kale Abrahamson gave NU the early lead. Northwestern continued to control the pace and Alex Marcotullio's 3-pointer out of the corner gave the Wildcats a 13-11 lead with 4:08 left in the opening stanza. Minnesota would score six consecutive points to take a four-point advantage before Dave Sobolewski hit one of two from the charity stripe with 2.0 seconds remaining to make it 17-14 Gophers at the break. Northwestern was within 19-18 early in the second period following a layup by Sobolewski, but Minnesota connected on five free throws and Trevor Mbakwe scored on a dunk to extend the Gophers' advantage to 26-18 with 14:21 to go. Two more free throws by Austin Hollins and a put-back by Rodney Williams made it an 11-0 run for the hosts, pushing Minnesota's lead to 30-18. Hearn finally ended the run with a three-point play to cut the deficit to nine, but Hollins got hot and nailed five treys in a span of just over three minutes as the Gophers pushed their lead to 45-25 just beyond the midway point of the period. The Wildcats would rally to trim the deficit to 12 with just under three minutes remaining, but they couldn't get any closer.

Game 16

NU 70, Penn State 54

Jan. 10, 2013 • University Park, Pa.

A 25-4 first-half run spanning over 11 minutes lifted Northwestern to a 70-54 victory over Penn State at Bryce Jordan Center. Dave Sobolewski led four Wildcats in double figures with 18 points. Jared Swopshire added 17 points while Reggie Hearn and Kale Abrahamson contributed 10. A 10-2 Penn State run gave the hosts a 12-8 lead eight minutes into the contest, but that's when NU took charge. Back-to-back baskets by Sobolewski preceded a 3-pointer from the right wing by Swopshire that gave the 'Cats a 15-12 advantage. After Tre Demps' basket beat the shot clock, Sobolewski made one from the free throw and then hit a trey from the top of the key to make it 21-12. Ross Travis finally ended the Wildcats' 13-point run with a jumper at the 5:45 mark. Penn State was within 23-16 with 4:29 to go in the period, but Reggie Hearn scored seven straight points followed by an Abrahamson triple that gave Northwestern a 33-16 advantage and capped a 25-4 surge that spanned 11 minutes and 14 seconds. NU took a 33-18 advantage into the break after holding PSU to 8-of-26 shooting (30.8 percent). Early second-half 3-pointers by Sobolewski and Abrahamson stretched Northwestern's lead to 41-20. The Nittany Lions cut into the deficit by going on a 9-1 run, but Tre Demps' triple from the right wing ignited a nine-point run by the Wildcats that pushed the lead back up to 56-33 with eight minutes left. Penn State was unable to get closer than 16 points the rest of the way. NU held the Nittany Lions to 31.6 percent shooting (18-57) in the contest while shooting 45.8 percent (22-48) itself.

Game 17

Iowa 70, NU 50

Jan. 13, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern was unable to overcome a cold shooting night from the field in dropping a 70-50 decision to Iowa at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Dave Sobolewski led the Wildcats with 14 points and five assists while Tre Demps contributed 10 points off the bench. Scoring proved tough for both teams over the first half. A 3-pointer by Iowa native Kale Abrahamson gave NU an early 5-2 lead, but the three-point advantage was the largest for either team through the first 14 minutes of play. The score was tied 11-11 with eight minutes left in the opening stanza, but Northwestern was held scoreless for nearly six minutes of action as the Hawkeyes scored eight consecutive points to surge in front. A tough layup by Sobolewski cut the deficit to six, but Iowa in all closed the first half on a 14-4 run to take a 25-15 lead at the break. Back-to-back steals and layups by Reggie Hearn and Sobolewski on the first two possessions of the second half trimmed the deficit to six, forcing Iowa to burn a timeout. However, the Hawkeyes answered the baskets with six straight points of their own to push the lead right back up to 12. Iowa, like Northwestern, was ice-cold from 3-point range to start the game, but Josh Oglesby connected for four triple in the second half to help the guests pull away. NU shot just 29.4 percent from the field in the contest (15-51), while the Hawkeyes used solid shooting in the second half to finish at 46 percent (29-63). The loss snapped Northwestern's five-game winning streak over Iowa that dated back to the 2009-10 season.

Game 18

NU 68, #23/22 Illinois 54

Jan. 17, 2013 • Champaign, Ill.

Reggie Hearn scored a team-high 20 points and Northwestern led wire to wire in rolling to a 68-54 victory over No. 23/22 Illinois at Assembly Hall. Hearn paced a balanced scoring attack as NU had five players in double figures. Jared Swopshire and Alex Marcotullio scored 12 apiece, while Dave Sobolewski and Tre Demps each had 10. The Wildcats got off to a great start, making their first three field goal attempts, including back-to-back 3-pointers by Hearn and Swopshire in surging out to a 10-3 lead. The hot shooting continued as triples by Sobolewski and Marcotullio made NU 4-for-4 from beyond the arch. Another trey by Hearn at the midway point of the half, a runner by Swopshire and a backdoor layup by Demps increased the advantage to 25-12. The advantage would grow to as many as 17, 34-17, in the opening half following Kale Abrahamson's backdoor bucket with three minutes left in the stanza. Northwestern eventually took a 36-21 advantage at the break. The hosts quickly trimmed the NU lead to 10 just under three minutes into the second half. However, 3-pointers by Swopshire and Marcotullio helped push the advantage back up to 45-30 at the under-12 media timeout. Two free throws by D.J. Richardson got Illinois back within 48-38 with 6:21 left. One from the line by Brandon Paul cut the Illini's deficit to nine with 3:53 remaining, but Demps made two from the charity stripe to make it 50-39. Following a Tracey Abrams basket, Swopshire converted a huge three-point play with three minutes left to push the lead back to 12. NU sealed the win at the line as it made 26 of its 31 attempts in the contest.

Game 19

#2/2 Indiana 67, NU 59

Jan. 20, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern staged a spirited second-half rally, but it was not enough as the Wildcats fell to No. 2 Indiana at Welsh-Ryan Arena, 67-59. Reggie Hearn poured in a game-high 22 points for the Wildcats. Northwestern struggled from the field to start the game. Nonetheless, the Wildcats were within striking distance at 17-9 with just under 11 minutes remaining in the first half following Alex Olah's layup. The Hoosiers rattled off nine straight points, though, as the visitors' lead grew to 26-9 with 4:33 to go. A layup by Tre Demps followed by a 3-pointer by Jared Swopshire cut the deficit to 12 before Indiana eventually took a 31-17 advantage at the break. Indiana's lead was comfortable at 45-29 with 11 minutes left when the Wildcats made their move. A triple by Dave Sobolewski and a steal and slam by Swopshire got NU within 11. The teams traded two free throws before Swopshire nailed a trey and Olah scored on a layup. Hearn made one of two from the charity stripe with 6:48 to go, capping a 13-2 Northwestern run that got the hosts within 47-42. Indiana would push its lead back up to 11, but the Wildcats made one final surge. Hearn hit three from the line with 3:24 left and then Swopshire came up with a steal on one end and hit a 3-pointer on the other, making it 58-53 with 2:31 remaining. Zeller made a pair of free throws before Swopshire scored on a layup to keep the deficit at five with two minutes left, but Jordan Hulls hit a jumper and Sobolewski couldn't connect on a 3-point try on the other end and Indiana made nine of its 10 free throw attempts down the stretch to hold on for the win.

Game 20

NU 55, #12/14 Minnesota 48

Jan. 23, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

An 18-4 second-half run led Northwestern to its second win over a ranked opponent in a seven-day span as the Wildcats took down No. 12/14 Minnesota 55-48 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Jared Swopshire led NU with 16 points and eight rebounds while Reggie Hearn added 13 and Tre Demps contributed 10 in his first start of the season. Swopshire got the Wildcats off to a good start as he scored eight early points, giving NU a 10-8 lead with 15:24 remaining. Following a Mike Turner dunk, Northwestern trailed by just one, 18-17, with seven minutes left in the opening stanza, but the Gophers scored eight of the next 10 points to extend their advantage to eight. However, the Wildcats held Minnesota scoreless over the final 4:50 of the period and Demps' jumper beat the first-half buzzer at the hosts closed to within 27-24 at the break. Trailing 37-32 with 13 minutes left, the Wildcats turned the game around with the switch to the 1-3-1 defense which gave Minnesota fits. Three straight steals resulted in a pair of three-point play opportunities for Reggie Hearn. He completed the opportunity on the second go-around, tying the game. After a Rodney Williams dunk, Alex Marcotullio gave NU its first lead since 12-11 when his 3-pointer made it 40-39 with 10:25 to go. Northwestern continued to get stops on the defensive end and Demps' rainbow triple out of the corner extended the advantage to four. Two free throws by Demps gave the 'Cats a 45-39 advantage with 6:27 left. Following a Joe Coleman jumper, Alex Olah scored on a turn-around basket and Swopshire hit a tough bucket before splitting two free throws to extend the lead to 50-41 with 4:34 remaining, capping the decisive 18-4 run.

Game 21

Nebraska 64, NU 49

Jan. 26, 2013 • Lincoln, Neb.

Dave Sobolewski scored 21 points but Nebraska was able to pull away from Northwestern in the second half as the Wildcats fell 62-46 at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Jared Swopshire grabbed a career-high 16 rebounds in the contest to go along with 11 points. The 16 rebounds were the most by an NU player since Evan Eschmeyer had 21 against Penn State on Jan. 20, 1999. It was a slow offensive start for both teams, but Sobolewski's 3-pointer with 11:30 to go in the opening half gave Northwestern a 10-5 lead. However, a 10-1 run by the Huskers over the next gave the hosts a 15-11 advantage. A switch to the 1-3-1 defense got the Wildcats a stop and Reggie Hearn recorded his first points of the game on a layup to end the field goal drought. Sobolewski knotted the game with his second trey, but back-to-back triples by Dylan Talley gave Nebraska its largest lead of the half, 23-17. A bucket by Alex Olah and Sobolewski's third 3-pointer of the stanza got the 'Cats within 24-22 at the break. Northwestern was within 35-31 following a triple by Alex Marcotullio with 13:10 remaining when Ray Gallegos got hot from beyond the arch. The junior hit three consecutive treys as the Huskers used an 11-3 run to push their lead to 46-34. The Wildcats were never able to get into an offensive rhythm down the stretch to make a run as Northwestern fell for just the second time away from Evanston this season. NU was limited to 32.1 percent shooting in the contest. Sobolewski made four triples, but the rest of the team shot just 2-for-21 from beyond the arch. Dylan Talley led the Huskers with 20 points, while Brandon Ubel added 14 points and 12 boards.

Game 22

#1/2 Michigan 68, NU 46

Jan. 30, 2013 • Ann Arbor, Mich.

A hot shooting start for top-ranked Michigan proved to be too much for Northwestern to overcome as the Wildcats fell 68-46 at Crisler Center. Alex Olah led NU with 10 points while Jared Swopshire contributed 8 points and 8 rebounds. The 'Cats got off to a good start offensively as Reggie Hearn's 3-pointer gave the visitors an early 7-5 lead. However, NU was unable to slow the Wolverines on the other end of the court. Michigan connected on 10 of its first 11 field goal attempts as an 18-4 run put the hosts up 23-11 with 11 minutes remaining in the opening half. Northwestern trimmed the deficit to seven just beyond the midway point of the stanza as Michigan native Alex Marcotullio came off the bench to nail a mid-range jumper before hitting a triple to make it 23-16. The Wildcats were within 26-18 and had opportunities to trim the deficit but couldn't convert. Consecutive treys by Tim Hardaway Jr. and Nik Stauskas ignited an 8-0 run that pushed Michigan's lead to 34-18. The Wolverines eventually took a 36-21 advantage into the intermission as they shot 60.9 percent from the field (14-23) and didn't commit a turnover. Olah scored Northwestern's first six points of the second half as the Wildcats closed to within 38-27. After the teams traded baskets, Tre Demps' jumper made it a 10-4 to start the half, prompting Michigan to burn a timeout as NU got within 40-31. The Wildcats had multiple chances to draw closer as they picked things up on the defensive end following the rough start to the contest. After the 10-for-11 start, Michigan was held to just seven field goals in its next 25 attempts. However, Northwestern was unable to convert enough on the offensive end to make a serious charge.

Game 23

NU 75, Purdue 60

Feb. 2, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

Reggie Hearn made each of his first nine field goal attempts and scored 21 of his career-high 26 points in the first half in leading Northwestern to a 75-60 win over Purdue at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Dave Sobolewski and Jared Swopshire contributed 13 points apiece and the Wildcats swatted a school-record 12 shots as a team. NU came out of the gates on fire with Hearn and Sobolewski each scoring five quick points the Wildcats opened up a 12-0 lead. NU made seven of its first eight 3-point attempts in the contest, including one by Swopshire that made it 21-7 with 12:30 remaining in the opening half. The advantage would grow to 15 at 27-12, but Purdue got within seven, 30-23. However, Hearn drilled a pair of triples, scored on a jumper as well as a lay-in as the 'Cats pushed the lead back up to 13. He didn't miss until a desperation try from beyond the arch with a minute left in the half and the shot clock winding down. Tre Demps' three, Northwestern's eighth of the half, with under a half-minute remaining gave the Wildcats a 43-29 lead at the break. NU built upon its lead in the second half, extending it to 56-35 with 12:45 left following Demps' third 3-pointer of the game. However, Purdue mounted a nine-point rally to close within 12 with 11 minutes remaining. Swopshire nailed a big triple following a timeout, though, and Purdue was unable to get closer than 13 the rest of the way. Northwestern ran its offense to perfection, assisting on 24 of its 26 made field goals while knocking down 11 3-pointers. After turning the ball over six times in the first half, NU did not commit a turnover after the break. Meanwhile, Purdue was limited to 33.3 percent shooting in the contest, including 26.2 percent in the second half.

#13/14 Ohio State 69, NU 59

Feb. 14, 2013 • Columbus, Ohio

A depleted Northwestern squad led No. 13/14 Ohio State throughout the majority of the contest, but a late 12-0 run by the Buckeyes allowed the hosts to pull out a 69-59 win at Value City Arena. Tre Demps led four NU players in double figures with 16 points. Kale Abrahamson added 13 points while Reggie Hearn and Dave Sobolewski chipped in with 12 and 10, respectively. After Ohio State scored the first four points of the game, Northwestern connected on four consecutive field goal attempts as a 10-0 run gave the 'Cats a 10-4 lead. When Sobolewski knocked down Northwestern's fourth 3-pointer of the half at the 7:25 mark, the advantage grew to 22-16. A 14-5 run by the Buckeyes then a three-point lead, but Demps banked in a triple to beat the first-half buzzer, making it 30-30 at the break. Kale Abrahamson hit three triples early in the second half and NU held a 48-43 lead with 11:30 left. Ohio State rallied back and tip-in by Sam Thompson gave the Buckeyes a 57-54 advantage, but Demps' 3-pointer with 3:28 to go tied the game. Thomas gave OSU the lead back with a bucket before Hearn's layup sat on the back of the rim for seemingly an eternity before falling off. Aaron Craft drove the lane to beat the shot clock with 1:50 left, making it 61-57 and Northwestern missed on the other end. Two free throws by Thomas and a pair of dunks by Thompson helped Ohio State go on the late 12-point run that proved to be the difference. NU connected on 11 3-pointers and Turner posted a career-high eight assists.

Game 26

Illinois 62, NU 41

Feb. 17, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern couldn't overcome a cold shooting night from the field as it fell to Illinois 62-41 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Reggie Hearn paced the Wildcats with 11 points, while Alex Marcotullio and Tre Demps added eight apiece. NU entered the contest in search of a season sweep of the Illini after posted a 68-54 victory in Champaign on Jan. 17. The Wildcats struggled from the field throughout the opening half play and dug themselves an early 7-0 deficit. A 3-pointer off the bench by Marcotullio and a layup by Hearn back within a pair, but the Illini countered with nine straight to make it 16-5. The switch to the 1-3-1 defense helped NU get stops and get back in the game. Northwestern held Illinois to only one field goal and three points over and eight-minute span as they got to within 19-15 after Alex Olah's free throw with just under three minutes left capped a 10-3 Wildcat run. However, it was the Illini that finished the half strong, scoring the final 10 points of the stanza to take a 29-15 lead at the break. NU managed just 5-for-23 shooting (21.7 percent) over the opening 20 minutes of play. Unfortunately for the Wildcats, the shooting woes carried over to the second half and Illinois' run quickly put the game out of reach. Northwestern managed just 25 percent shooting in the contest, including making just five of its 27 3-point field goal attempts. D.J. Richardson led the Illini with 18 points and eight rebounds while Tracy Abrams contributed 13 points.

Game 27

#19/17 Wisconsin 69, NU 41

Feb. 20, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern's slow start from the field helped No. 19/17 Wisconsin get off to a quick start and leave Welsh-Ryan Arena with a 69-41 Big Ten triumph. The Wildcats shot close to 40 percent from the field in the second half, but they could not overcome a 16-point halftime deficit. The Badgers got off to a spotless 9-0 start as the 'Cats failed to convert on their first six shot attempts of the game before senior Reggie Hearn buried a three-pointer to finally get his team on the scoreboard. Northwestern steadily chipped away at its deficit, coming to within six points a few possessions later when Alex Marcotullio notched his first triple of the contest. The Wildcats were within 18-11 following Mike Turner's triple from the top of the key with 6:04 left in the half. Unfortunately, they would come no closer the rest of the evening as the Wildcats were held without a field goal the remainder of the half, helping Wisconsin finished the stanza on a 10-1 run. Hearn poured in a game-high 13 points for Northwestern, while guards Dave Sobolewski and Tre Demps each tallied eight points for the Wildcats. Sobolewski also added a team-best five rebounds and five assists in the game. Ben Brust and Jared Berggren paced the Badgers in victory with 12 points and eight rebounds apiece. The two teams entered the contest ranked in the top 10 in the nation in fewest turnovers per game and Northwestern finished with just seven miscues in the game while Wisconsin had eight.

Game 28 Purdue 74, NU 43

Feb. 24, 2013 • West Lafayette, Ind.

Northwestern was unable to shake off another slow start as it fell behind early and couldn't recover in a 74-43 loss to Purdue at Mackey Arena. Tre Demps led the Wildcats with 9 points while Reggie Hearn added 8 points and 6 rebounds, while Terone Johnson 22 points to lead the Boilermakers. The start of the contest was a complete turnaround from the first meeting between the teams on Feb. 2 when NU opened the game on a 12-0 run. This time it was Purdue that got off to the hot start as it led 14-3 out of the gates. Johnson had the hot hand early on, scoring nine points over the opening eight minutes of play. As a team, the Boilermakers made eight of their first 12 field goal attempts while the Wildcats connected on only three of their first 19 as the hosts' lead eventually ballooned to 29-7 by the midway point of the opening half. Northwestern would finally get its offense going as Hearn capped an 8-1 run with two free throws trimmed seven points off the deficit and got the visitors within 37-22 with 2:40 remaining in the opening stanza. Johnson answered the surge with a 3-pointer, but Mike Turner hit from deep with six seconds left in the half to get NU within 40-25 at the break. Northwestern opened the second half by getting a pair of open looks from beyond the arch that would have made it a 12-point game, but they couldn't connect and Johnson connected from deep on the other end. The basket ignited an 18-6 run to open the period as the Boilermakers pushed their lead back out and the Wildcats were unable to recover.

Game 29

#16/15 Ohio State 63, NU 53

Feb. 28, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

Northwestern rallied from 12 points down to take the lead twice in the second half, but No. 16/15 Ohio State finished strong to defeat the Wildcats 63-53 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Tre Demps led the Wildcats with 14 points, while Dave Sobolewski added 13. NU was within 11-7 five minutes into the contest, but the Buckeyes extended their lead to 22-10 by the midway point of the half. However, the Northwestern clamped down the remainder of the stanza, allowing just seven more points. Sobolewski and Demps hit 3-pointers before Alex Olah knocked down a pair of free throws as the Wildcats trimmed the deficit to 24-18 with 4:46 left. Sobolewski's layup with 2.1 seconds remaining in the stanza got NU within 29-22 at the break. Four free throws by Smith Jr. to start the second half pushed Ohio State's lead back up to 11, but a 12-3 run helped the 'Cats close to within 36-34 with 15:32 left. OSU pushed its lead back up to six, but Abrahamson's 3-pointer gave Northwestern its first lead of the game, 41-40, at the midway point of the half. Ohio State quickly reclaimed the lead, but a traditional three-point play by Olah with 6:31 to go tied the game again, 46-46. Deshaun Thomas put the visitors back up by two with a bucket, preceding Hearn's trey that made it 49-48 Northwestern with 4:13 left. However, Smith Jr. answered right back with his sixth 3-pointer of the game and Aaron Craft scored his first points of the contest on a jumper with 3:07 to go, putting OSU in front 53-49 as the visitors finished the game on a 15-4 run.

Game 30

Penn State 66, NU 59

March 7, 2013 • Evanston, Ill.

Alex Marcotullio posted career bests of six 3-pointers and 22 points, but Northwestern came up short on Senior Night as it fell to Penn State 66-59 at Welsh-Ryan Arena. Penn State's defensive pressure right out of the gates gave the Wildcats fits as they committed five turnovers in the opening four minutes of play as the Nittany Lions raced out to a 12-0 lead. Trailing 15-3, Dave Sobolewski hit three from the free throw line and then scored on a coast-to-coast layup to start an 11-point run that got Northwestern within 15-14. PSU pushed its lead back up to seven, 26-19, but a lay-in by Kale Abrahamson off a dish from fellow freshman Alex Olah finished off a 9-0 run for Northwestern that gave the hosts their first lead of the game, 28-26, with 4:47 left in the opening half. The Nittany Lions would close the stanza by scoring eight of the final 10 points to take a 34-30 advantage at the intermission. Seven straight points by Penn State to start the second half increased its lead to 11 but Marcotullio drained a trio of 3-pointers as the Wildcats closed to within 47-45. When Marcotullio got free in the corner once again with 6:15 left, he buried his sixth 3-pointer, giving him his first career 20-point game and NU a 54-53 edge. Following a Penn State turnover, the Wildcats were unable to finish at the rim and Sasa Borovnjak scored on the other end, giving the Nittany Lions the lead back. Northwestern's offense struggled down the stretch and the visitors were able to take advantage. A basket by D.J. Newbill and a pair of free throws gave PSU a five-point lead with 3:05 left. NU twice closed to within four, but was unable to get any closer.

Game 31

#10/12 Michigan State 71, NU 61
March 10, 2013 • East Lansing, Mich.

Northwestern battled toe-to-toe with a highly ranked opponent again, but No. 10/12 Michigan State finished strong down the stretch to top the Wildcats 71-61 at Breslin Center. Kale Abrahamson led four Wildcats in double figures with a career-high 16 points. The Wildcats held an early 5-2 lead, but Michigan State went on an 11-0 run to go in front 13-5 with 12 minutes to go in the opening half. The Spartans stretched their advantage to 26-13 before Alex Marcotullio nailed a triple with just under four minutes remaining to make it 26-16. The Wildcats finished the half strong as Tre Demps' 3-pointer with three seconds left in the stanza got NU within 33-26 at the break. The Spartans scored the first four points of the second half before Dave Sobolewski hit a triple and Abrahamson scored on a lay-in to get Northwestern within 37-31. After a basket by the hosts, Marcotullio drilled a trey from out of the corner that got the 'Cats within five. NU would twice cut the deficit to three, but back-to-back 3-pointers by Travis Trice and Adeian Payne pushed the hosts' lead back up to nine with 11:15 left. However, Northwestern refused to go away. A trey by Marcotullio, a pair of layups by Demps and then two free throws by Reggie Hearn got the Wildcats back to even, 51-51, with 7:16 remaining. The score was knotted, 53-53, following a slam by Alex Olah, but a bucket by Derrick Nix and two free throws by Brandon Dawson gave Michigan State a four-point advantage. Keith Appling hit two from the charity stripe to make it 59-53 and then had a dunk that extended the MSU lead to eight in helping seal the win.

Game 32

Iowa 73, NU 59
March 14, 2013 • Chicago, Ill.

Northwestern dug itself an early deficit it couldn't overcome as it fell to Iowa 73-59 in the opening round of the 2013 Big Ten Tournament at United Center. Reggie Hearn posted a double-double for NU with a game-high 19 points and 10 rebounds in his final collegiate game. Alex Olah contributed 12 points and seven boards, while Tre Demps added 11 points. The Wildcats missed their first seven field goal attempts as Iowa jumped out to an 11-0 lead. Nikola Cerina finally got NU on the board at the 12:30 mark as he scored on a layup. The Hawkeyes' advantage grew to 15-2 before Hearn knocked down a 3-pointer and Olah made two free throws and then scored on a lay-in to get NU within 15-9. However, Iowa responded eight straight points as its advantage grew to 23-9 with just under eight minutes to go in the half. The deficit would grow to 18 and Iowa eventually led 36-22 at the break. Northwestern continued to hang around, though, closing to within 11, 43-32, with 13:27 left following a pair of free throws by Alex Marcotullio. A putback Hearn and then a steal and a breakaway layup by Marcotullio closed the 'Cats to within 47-39 with 9:45 remaining. NU inched ever-closer when Hearn drove the lane and scored, making it a seven-point game, 50-43, with 8:27 still to go. However, Iowa responded with back-to-back 3-pointers by Roy Devyn Marble and Eric May, pushing the Hawkeyes' lead back to 13. Marcotullio responded with a triple of his own and when Olah slammed one home and hit the ensuing free throw, the Wildcats closed back to within 58-48 with five minutes to go. Marble had the answer yet again, though, hitting a three out of the corner that extended Iowa's lead back to 12. Dave Sobolewski's 3-pointer with two minutes left got Northwestern within 64-56, but that would be as close as they would get.

JOE REIFF
CENTER • 1931 & 1933

Joe Reiff's All-America campaigns coincided with the Wildcats' two Big Ten championships. He led the Big Ten in scoring in both 1931 and 1933, sandwiching his titles around the 1932 champ, a Purdue player named John Wooden.

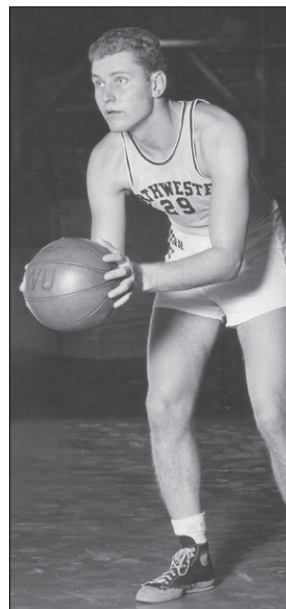

OTTO GRAHAM
FORWARD • 1944

Otto Graham was renowned for his football career, both at Northwestern and in the professional ranks. Lesser known, however, was his basketball prowess. Graham remains one of two NU athletes ever to earn All-America honors in two different sports.

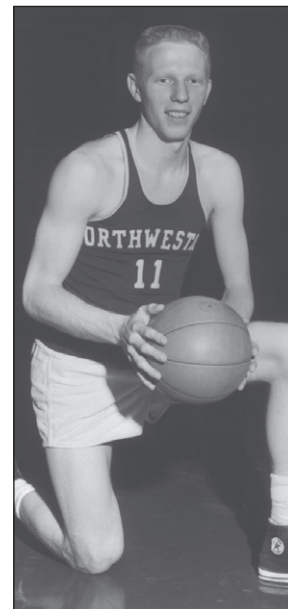

MAX MORRIS
FORWARD • 1946

Max Morris was the first-ever recipient of the Chicago Tribune's Big Ten Player of the Year honor, in 1946. He led the conference in scoring twice (15.8 ppg in 1945, 16.5 ppg in 1946), and joins Otto Graham as NU's only multi-sport All-Americans.

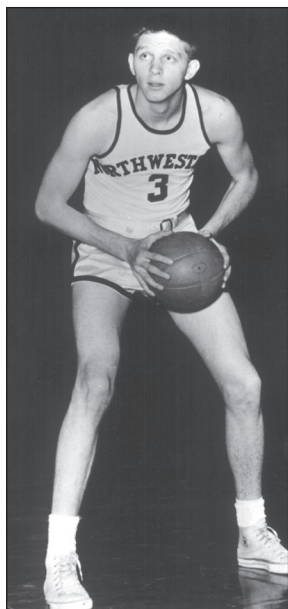

RAY RAGELIS
FORWARD • 1951

Ray Ragelis twice led Northwestern in scoring, including averaging 19.1 points per game as a senior. The first player in school history to tally 1,000 career points, Ragelis was selected by the Rochester Royals in the second round of the 1951 NBA Draft.

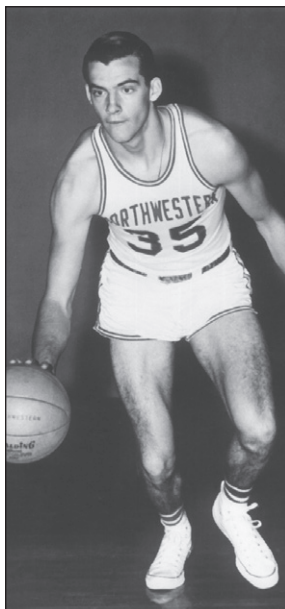

FRANK EHMANN
FORWARD • 1955

Frank Ehmann's scoring average of 23.9 points per game as a senior in 1957-58 is the second-best single-season mark in school history. He was a two-time team MVP and was inducted into Northwestern's Hall of Fame in 1987.

JOE RUKLICK
CENTER • 1958

Joe Ruklick led the 'Cats in both scoring and rebounding all three of his seasons on the varsity. His career scoring average of 19.9 points per game is tops in school history, while his average of 13.9 rebounds per game in 1958 is an NU season mark.

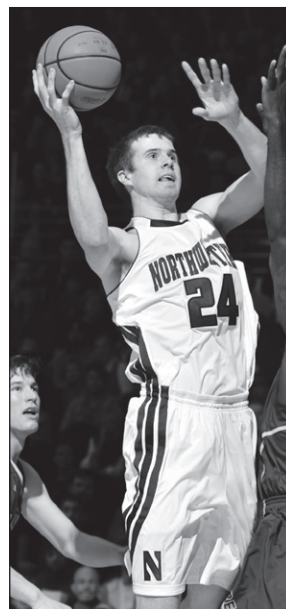

JIM BURNS
GUARD • 1967

Jim Burns enjoyed an outstanding senior season, leading the team with an average of 21.5 points per game. At the time his career ended, Burns was Northwestern's career scoring leader with 1,368 points in three seasons. He currently ranks 11th.

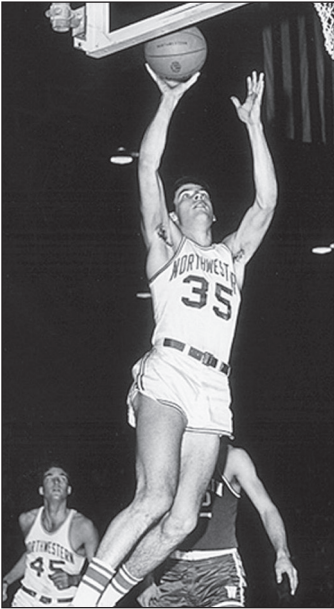

EVAN ESCHMEYER
CENTER • 1999

Evan Eschmeyer made the most of his senior campaign, leading the Wildcats in scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage as they advanced to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). He ranks third in school history with 1,805 career points.

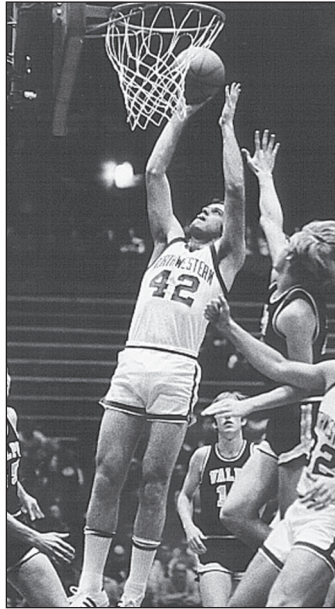

JOHN SHURNA
FORWARD • 2012

John Shurna graduated as Northwestern's all-time leader in scoring, blocked shots and games played. He was a three-time All-Big Ten selection, led the conference in scoring as a senior and guided the 'Cats to postseason play all four years of his career.

JIM BURNS
FIRST TEAM, 1967

Jim Burns enjoyed a distinguished career at NU, becoming the first Wildcat player to earn Academic All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors. He led NU in scoring all three years he was on varsity and is 11th all-time in scoring.

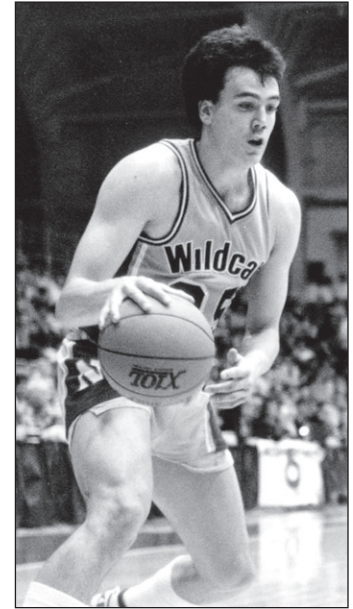

RICK SUND
THIRD TEAM, 1973

Rick Sund was named the team's MVP as a sophomore in 1971 and served as a team captain in 1973. He was twice named an Academic All-Big Ten selection. Sund also played split end on the Northwestern football team.

MIKE CAMPBELL
FIRST TEAM, 1980

Mike Campbell was a presence in the paint for the 'Cats during his career. He led the team in rebounding twice, in 1978 and 1980, and also topped the squad in blocked shots his junior and senior seasons. He is 11th on NU's all-time list with 60 blocked shots.

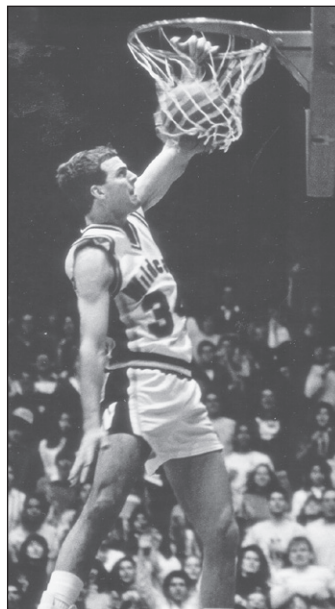

SHON MORRIS
FIRST TEAM, 1987 & 1988
SECOND TEAM, 1986

Shon Morris remains a fixture on many of the school's all-time lists. He is NU's only three-time Academic All-American, and as a senior he was also Playboy Magazine's Anson Mount Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

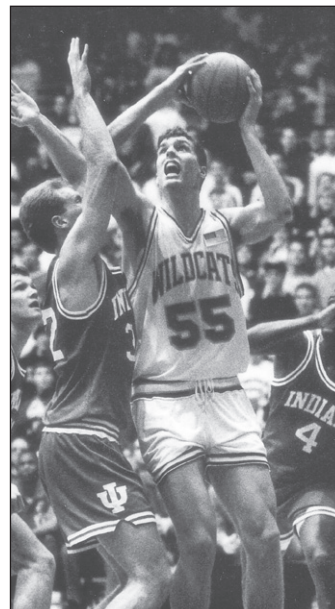

BRIAN SCHWABE
THIRD TEAM, 1989

Brian Schwabe earned a total of three Academic All-Big Ten selections during his career. He ranks fourth all-time at NU in career field goal percentage and scored over 1,000 points. He twice led the team in rebounding and field goal percentage.

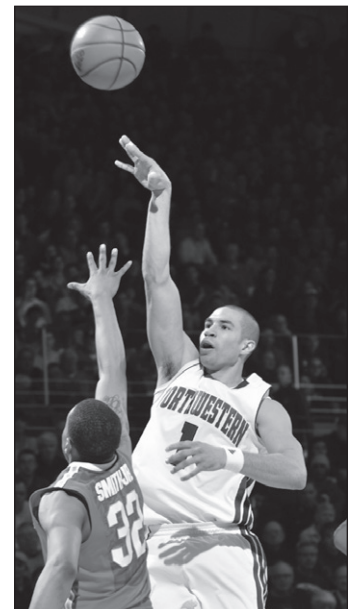

WALKER LAMBIOTTE
THIRD TEAM, 1990

Walker Lambiotte was twice named the Wildcats' team MVP, in 1989 and again in 1990. In 1989, he led the team in scoring, field goal percentage and steals.

KEVIN RANKIN
SECOND TEAM, 1994
THIRD TEAM, 1993

A three-time team MVP and Academic All-Big Ten selection, Kevin Rankin was also a third-team All-Big Ten pick in 1992 and again in 1994. He ranks seventh on NU's all-time scoring list and is second in rebounding.

DREW CRAWFORD
SECOND TEAM, 2012

Drew Crawford was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 2010 and was a third-team All-Big Ten selection as a junior in 2012. He earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition as both a sophomore and a junior.

BILLY MCKINNEY, the second-leading scorer in Northwestern history, drives to the basket against Indiana's Scott May during a game on January 18, 1975.

The listing of all-time men's basketball lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow and includes only those players which earned a varsity letter; student-managers and trainers are not listed. The information on each student-athlete was compiled from media guides, programs, yearbooks and academic records. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to Northwestern's athletic communications office.

Current players who have previously lettered are listed in bold italics.

Overall Record: 992-1,419-1 (108 seasons)

Big Ten Record: 478-1,022

Northwestern and Notre Dame played to a 20-20 tie on Dec. 31, 1935.

* Larry Glass coached the first 18 games of 1968-69 before resigning, going 10-8 (2-6 Big Ten). Larry Snyder took over and went 4-2 (all in Big Ten) the remainder of the season.

(F) Records reflect overturned results due to subsequent forfeitures by opposing schools for NCAA violations. See year-by-year results for details. Affected Home, Away and Neutral records are in bold italics.

(D) Home games in 1982-83 were played at DePaul's Alumni Hall due to renovation of McGaw Hall (Welsh-Ryan Arena).

CREDENTIALS

Season and single-game credential requests for Northwestern men's basketball must be requested online. Season requests for the 2013-14 season should be made by Wednesday, Nov. 6. Media members can call or email the athletic communications office (serranilla@northwestern.edu) for online instructions. Once a request is submitted, you will receive an automatic reply stating that your request has been received. You will then eventually receive notification whether your request has been approved or denied. Reporters may not use a credential to cover the game for another newspaper, TV station, radio or internet site. Failure to comply will result in both agency's credentials being revoked for the entire season.

Due to limited media seating, outlets (except television and radio stations originating live broadcasts of the game) are limited to two seats depending on circulation area and size on press row. Requests for a third seat are subject to availability. Credentials may be picked up at the athletic communications office in Anderson Hall on game day. They can also be picked up at Will Call which is located at the east ticket office in the main lobby of Welsh-Ryan Arena. Doors open 90 minutes prior to game time. Phone requests will not be accepted. Admission to the press area will be granted only upon presentation of valid credentials. Baseball hats are prohibited in the press area.

BLOGGING POLICY

Like other online media outlets, bloggers will be issued credentials if affiliated with an accredited media outlet or are an established and/or recognized entity. Blogging is allowed as long as individuals abide by our online reporting policies. Updates are allowed on a reasonable basis—no continuous live play-by-play reports, etc. Blogging is not allowed at practice sessions. One daily blog report is allowed following a practice session.

ROAD GAME CREDENTIALS

In most cases, requests for credentials to Northwestern road games should be made through the athletic communications department of the host school. Credential websites or SID contact information for such games can be found on page 138 of this publication.

PHOTOGRAPHY POLICIES

Credentials for either still photographers or TV crews will only be issued to persons on assignment from a publication or station. No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers. Camera persons may shoot only from designated areas on the baselines.

No photographers will be allowed along the sides of the playing court or in the seating areas of the arena. Northwestern University follows all NCAA and Big Ten guidelines regarding photography policies.

PARKING

Parking passes will be issued only to those outlets that request season credentials. Media members who need parking on a single-game basis should contact Nick Brilowski if you would like your name added to the parking list for that particular contest. Press parking is located in the West Lot, near the corner of Ashland and Central streets. The entrance to the parking area is on Ashland Street, immediately west and across the street from Ryan Field and Welsh-Ryan Arena.

PRO SCOUTING PASSES

Scouts of professional teams wishing to attend Northwestern home games should fax their ticket requests on team letterhead to Mark Wesoloski, Northwestern's director of ticket operations, at (847) 491-4659 or e-mail him at weso@northwestern.edu. Please include a daytime phone number. When available, seating is reserved for scouts in Section 207 of Welsh-Ryan Arena.

PRACTICE SESSIONS

Media members may attend the first 15 minutes of practice—however, this is subject to change on a daily basis. In order that the Northwestern Athletic Communications Department may be of better service, media members should call ahead to confirm practice time, player and coach interview availability, and media access.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEWS

Interviews with Northwestern players and coaches are available to the media upon request throughout the season. To arrange an interview, please contact the athletic communications office at (847) 491-7503. Please place your request at least 24 hours in advance. During fall quarter, interview availability is following the completion of practice. Interview availability is 30 minutes prior to the start of practice during winter quarter. All pre-practice interviews with players should be concluded well before the start of practice. As a Northwestern policy, players are not permitted to participate in live radio or television call-in shows. Player home telephone numbers will not be made available to media members, and they have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the athletic communications office.

NUSports.com is the official website of Northwestern Athletics. The latest basketball game notes, releases, statistics and information can be found here.

TELEPHONES

Media outlets requiring telephones should order their own lines through SBC at 800-785-7733. Northwestern will provide one telephone in Section 207 for collect or credit card calls only. This phone is available on a first-come, first-served basis, but may not be used as a personal line nor can you transmit from those lines during halftime. Media outlets requiring immediate access to a phone line are encouraged to order their own line.

PREGAME INFORMATION

The pregame media room in Welsh-Ryan Arena will be open approximately 90 minutes prior to tipoff. The room is accessible from the front lobby inside the southwest corner of Welsh-Ryan Arena. Game notes and flipcards will be made available. Soda, water and a light meal will be provided to working media only.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

Following a cooling off period, Coach Collins and the Northwestern players followed by the visiting coach will be available in the BMO Harris N Club located on the south side of Welsh-Ryan Arena, accessible from behind Section 207. Northwestern's locker room is closed to the media. Requests for Wildcat player interviews should be made prior to the end of the game. Requests for visiting players should be made to the visiting SID.

RELEASE AND STATISTICAL PDFs

The Northwestern men's basketball release, along with statistics and other up-to-date information, can be found at NUSports.com in Portable Document File (PDF) format.

Contact the athletic communications office if you wish to receive the PDF release via e-mail each week.

BIG TEN TELECONFERENCE

Every Monday during the Big Ten portion of the basketball season, the conference's head coaches will be made available via the Big Ten's weekly teleconference. Beginning at 9 a.m. CT, each head coach will be on the call for approximately 10 minutes to answer questions and preview the upcoming week. Northwestern head coach Chris Collins will be available at 9:30 a.m. CT. These calls will begin Jan. 3 and continue through the conference campaign leading up to the Big Ten Tournament in March. More information will on the teleconference will be available at the beginning of the basketball season. You can also contact Brett McWethy at the Big Ten Conference (847-696-1010 or bmcwethy@bigten.org) for more information.

NUSPORTS.COM

The official website of Northwestern Athletics is NUSports.com. Updated daily, the site includes NU's basketball releases and features many other basketball related information. Links to all of the other 18 Wildcat sports are provided and include schedules, history, school traditions and campus information.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Welsh-Ryan Arena bowl and media rooms are equipped with wireless internet. Sheets that contain the log-in and password can be found in the pregame media room.

720 WGN, winner of the 2001, 2002, 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2009 Illinois Radio Station of the Year Award from the Illinois Broadcasters Association, is the radio voice of Wildcat men's basketball. The 50,000-watt clear-channel station is heard in 38 states and in Canada. WGN, "The Voice of Chicago," is also home to the Chicago Cubs, Blackhawks as well as Northwestern football.

In January of 2013, Northwestern and WGN Radio announced a new agreement that will allow Wildcat fans to listen to football and men's basketball games on the station through the 2015-16 season.

"The Northwestern Athletics brand has experienced substantial growth over the past several years due in part to the massive reach and presence of WGN Radio," said Vice President for Athletics & Recreation Jim Phillips. "We've been extremely proud to call the station home for 17 years and to have a wonderful partner in telling the stories of our world-class student-athletes."

WGN sports director Dave Eanet handles play-by-play duties. Now entering his 17th season as the basketball "Voice of the Wildcats," Eanet has also been the voice of Northwestern football for the past 24 years. In 2001, 2004 and 2006, Eanet was honored with the Silver Dome Award from the Illinois Broadcasters Association for "best sports play-by-play" for Wildcat basketball, and he also received the 2001 March of Dimes A.I.R. Award for play-by-play of Wildcat football. The graduate of NU's Medill School of Journalism has been honored for sports reporting and play-by-play coverage from many organizations, including the Associated Press, United Press International, Illinois Broadcasters Association and the Chicago Headline Club.

Eanet also has handled pre- and postgame broadcasts for the Chicago Bears and Cubs, and served as the voice of Big Ten Women's Basketball. He also is frequently seen as sports anchor on WGN-TV's News at Nine. Eanet has been the voice of Wildcat basketball since 1997, and is heard every weekday on WGN's morning show with Steve Cochran.

DAVE EANET (pictured with Northwestern football head coach Pat Fitzgerald) is entering his 17th season as the Voice of the Wildcats. He also serves as the play-by-play voice for Northwestern Football and is also the Sports Director for WGN Radio.

DIRECTIONS TO WELSH-RYAN ARENA

From the north: Take I-94 (Edens Expressway) East. Exit on Skokie Blvd. and turn left at stop light onto Lake Ave. Go east on Lake to Green Bay Road. Turn right and proceed south to Central Street. Turn left and go east approximately one-half mile to Ryan Field (Welsh-Ryan is immediately north of the football stadium).

From Chicago: Take either Lake Shore Drive or I-90/94 (Kennedy Expressway). If you go the Lake Shore Drive route, follow LSD until it ends and merges with Sheridan Road. Take Sheridan north through Evanston (follow the signs as Sheridan winds through south Evanston). Turn left onto Central Street, at the north end of the main campus. Go west approximately one mile to Ryan Field.

If you take the expressway, stay on the Kennedy until I-90 and 94 split. Take I-94 West (Edens Expressway) toward Milwaukee. Exit at Old Orchard Road and turn right—at this point you will be proceeding east. After approximately one mile, turn left onto Gross Point Road, and then turn right at the next light which is Central Street. Proceed approximately two miles east to Ryan Field.

From O'Hare International Airport: Exit the airport and take I-294 North (toward Wisconsin). Take the first exit onto Dempster Street so that you are heading East, and proceed several miles until you cross over I-94. Soon afterward, turn left on Gross Point Road. Follow that to Central Street, then turn right and head east approximately two miles to Ryan Field.
