THE OPENING DRIVE

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

SETTING THE SCENE

Northwestern will wrap up a two-game road trip looking for its second win of the season when it takes on Nebraska at Memorial Stadium Saturday. The nationally-televised contest on FOX will kick off at 3 p.m. CT. The Wildcats have won each of the last two meetings versus the Cornhuskers and are seeking their third-straight win at Memorial Stadium.

WE'VE BEEN HERE BEFORE

Despite limiting No. 8 Wisconsin to just 10 points on the offensive side of the ball, the Wildcats suffered their third loss of the season last week, 24-15. The 'Cats are off to a 1-3 start for the second-straight season. Last year, NU won seven of its last eight regular season games to claim their first Big Ten West Division title and earn a trip to the Big Ten Championship game.

THE LAST TIME NORTHWESTERN VISITED NEBRASKA...

The Wildcats prevailed in overtime thanks to the game-winning touchdown by Clayton Thorson, 31-24. The win was the 'Cats' third straight in overtime, making them the first FBS program in history to win three-straight games in overtime.

GET READY FOR A NAIL BITER

Northwestern and Nebraska have split the eight meetings since the Cornhuskers joined the Big Ten in 2011 with six of the contests being decided by one score. The Wildcats claimed last year's meeting at Ryan Field on a game-winning walk-off field goal from Drew Luckenbaugh, 34-31.

SHAKE N' DRAKE

Redshirt first-year running back Drake Anderson had 16 carries for 68 yards and touchdown versus Wisconsin. Anderson scored a touchdown for the third-consecutive game, becoming the first 'Cat to do so since Clayton Thorson in 2018. More notes on Anderson's emergence in the Wildcats' offense can be found on page two.

STOP, POP & LOCK IT

Junior safety Travis Whillock recorded his second double-digit tackling performance of the season with 13 stops at Wisconsin. Whillock is one of just three players in the Big Ten with 13 tackles and a sack in a game this season.

1 Northwestern won its first Big Ten West Division title in 2018.

3 The Wildcats have won back-to-back-to-back bowl games for the first time in program history.

3 Redshirt first year running back Drake Anderson has scored a touchdown in three-straight games.

10 Junior linebacker Paddy Fisher is the nation's active leader in forced fumbles with 10.

97 Pat Fitzgerald is just three wins shy of 100 for his career.

GAME NOTES

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Redshirt first year Drake Anderson is third among Big Ten first year backs with 305 rushing yards and his three touchdowns are tied for second among the group. He has scored a touchdown in each of the last three games and is now just one shy of tying Treyvon Green (2011), Mike Trumpy (2010), Brett Basanez (2002), Damien Anderson (1998) and Sandy Schwab (1982) for the seventh most touchdowns by a first year in program history.

Anderson had just five yards in the first game of the season, but is averaging 100 yards and a touchdown per game over the last three.

SAFETY NET

Junior safety Travis Whillock leads the team with 37 tackles and is fifth in the Big Ten with 9.3 tackles per game. He is second among Power 5 defensive backs in tackles per game and ranks fourth in the country with a pair of fumble recoveries.

Whillock recorded his fourth career double-digit tackling performance with a season-high 13 stops at Wisconsin while also recording his first sack of the season and second of his career. The Katy, Texas, native is averaging 8.9 tackles per game over his last 10 contests dating back to last season.

PACE SETTER

Junior safety JR Pace recorded his first interception of the season and seventh of his career at Wisconsin. Pace's seven interceptions are tied with Michigan State's David Dowell for the most among active Big Ten players since the start of 2017. He is just two interceptions shy of tying Sherrick McManis (2006-09) and Willie Lindsey (1989-92) for ninth in program history.

CHARLIE AND THE FIELD GOAL FACTORY

Junior kicker Charlie Kuhbander converted a 29-yard field goal at Wisconsin, his fifth straight make since missing his first attempt of the season at Stanford. Kuhbander ranks third in program history in field goal percentage at 74.19 percent, trailing only Jeff Budzien (87.2 percent; 2010-13) and Amado Villarreal (75 percent; 2005-08).

He ranks fourth in the Big Ten this season with 1.25 field goals per game. The make versus Wisconsin was the 23rd of his career, tying him with Joel Howells (2003-06) for the 10th most in program history.

STEPPING IN AND STEPPING UP

Sophomore cornerback Cam Ruiz made his first career start last week and finished with a career-high seven tackles. The sophomore's previous career high came twice last season at Iowa and versus Illinois when he had five.

THE BEES LEES

Junior wide receiver Riley Lees matched his career high for the second-straight game with five catches at Wisconsin while also setting a new career high with 59 receiving yards. All five of Lees' receptions versus the Badgers came in the fourth quarter.

GAME NOTES

SMITH SETTLED IN

Appearing for the second-straight game, junior quarterback Aidan Smith completed a career-high eight passes for a career-high 99 yards and his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter at Wisconsin. Despite an interception on his first drive filling in for an injured Hunter Johnson, Smith responded by leading the 'Cats on a pair of scoring drives in the fourth quarter. Smith found sophomore wide receiver JJ Jefferson for his first career touchdown pass with a 15-yard strike for the 'Cats' final score of the game.

MR. STEAL YOUR BALL

Junior middle linebacker Paddy Fisher had seven tackles, an interception, a forced fumble and three pass breakups in the win over UNLV. Fisher extended his program record with his 10th career forced fumble and has already caused three turnovers through four games this season (2 FF, 1 INT). He is the only player in the Big Ten this season with a game of seven tackles, one interception, one forced fumble and three pass deflections and is just the second NU player since 2000 to post the stat line.

CLIMBING TOWARDS THE TOP

Senior defensive end Joe Gaziano continued his climb towards the all-time Northwestern sack record when he sacked Michigan State's Brian Lewerke for the fourth-straight season. Gaziano tied Ifeadi Odenigbo (2013-16) for second with 23.5 career sacks and is now just 4.5 behind Casey Dailey's program record of 28.

ALL GAZ, NO BRAKES

Gaziano recorded his second forced fumble of the season at Wisconsin and now holds the second-best mark in program history behind only teammate Paddy Fisher with nine in his career. Gaziano is second among active players nationally with the mark.

BREAK IT UP

Sophomore defensive back Greg Newsome II tied a NU single-game record with a career-high four pass breakups versus Michigan State. Newsome leads the Big Ten and ranks third in the country with 2.0 pass breakups per contest.

Already the second-longest tenured Big Ten head coach at the age of 44, Pat Fitzgerald's 13 seasons at the helm of Northwestern have been spent building upon the tradition he helped establish as a Hall-of-Fame linebacker for the Wildcats in the mid-1990's. Characterized by his motivational skills, enthusiasm and passion for all things Northwestern, Fitzgerald has shaped Chicago's Big Ten Team into one that consistently achieves excellence in all three phases of the student-athlete experience: academics, athletics and community outreach.

Fitzgerald has built the Wildcats' program into a consistent winner. The 2018 Wildcats claimed the program's first-ever Big Ten West Division title and berth in the Big Ten Championship game with a program-tying eight Big Ten wins. Fitzgerald was named the consensus Big Ten Head Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2018 Dodd Trophy.

Fitzgerald has led the Wildcats to nine bowl appearances in his 13 seasons and has guided the 'Cats to four of their five bowl wins in program history. Most recently, Chicago's Big Ten Team mounted a dramatic come-from-behind victory over No. 17 Utah in the 2018 Holiday Bowl by scoring a bowl record 28 points in the third quarter to claim their third-straight bowl win for the first time in program history.

Away from the gridiron, Fitzgerald's players have achieved at the highest levels in the classroom, last fall placing a record 39 players on the Academic All-Big Ten team en route to posting a program-record 3.14 GPA for the 2015-16 academic year. In 2012, Northwestern collected top national honors in the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the seventh time since 1998. Additionally, Fitzgerald's program ranked second among all FBS programs in the recently released multi-year Academic Progress Rating (APR), posting a score of 992 out of a possible 1,000 in the measure of player retention and eligibility.

NU also goes to great lengths to make a difference in the community. Fitzgerald, his family and his players partake in countless charitable events, impacting the NU and Evanston communities through their participation in Northwestern Dance Marathon, Special Olympics, Misericordia, the NU chapter of Uplifting Athletes, weekly school and children's hospital visits, and dozens of other organizations. Most recently, Fitzgerald was named the honorary coach of the 2017 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

As a player in 1995, Fitzgerald was the leader of a suffocating Wildcats defensive unit that led the nation in scoring defense and anchored NU's storybook run to the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl. He capped the year by winning both the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's top defensive player and also was the Big Ten, Chevrolet and Sports Illustrated-Defensive Player of the Year. Fitzgerald accomplished all of this despite suffering a broken leg in the penultimate regular-season game.

A graduate of Orland Park's (Ill.) Carl Sandburg High School and a 2003 inductee to the Northwestern Athletics Hall of Fame, Fitzgerald resides in Northfield with his wife, Stacy, and three sons, Jack, born in November 2004, Ryan, born in September 2006, and Brendan, born in February 2009.
