Martin Riessen

As Northwestern's top-ranked tennis player, Martin Riessen won the Big Ten singles and doubles titles for three years starting in 1962, making him NU's only three-time winner. He also reached the NCAA singles finals three years in a row and was successful as a professional tennis player. A two-sport athlete, Riessen also started as guard on the basketball team for three straight years.

Riessen played tennis professionally after graduating from Northwestern, and he was ranked No. 11 in singles in the ATP Rankings in September 1974, his career high. He also won seven major mixed titles and he won two men's doubles grand slams. Riessen is also a member of the United States Tennis Association/Midwest Hall of Fame.

Seymour Greenberg

Seymour Greenberg is one of the most decorated tennis players in Northwestern history. He became NU's first Big Ten singles champion in 1940 and he followed that up with another crown in 1941. Greenberg helped the Wildcats capture their second Big Ten team title in 1940 and he captained them to their third championship in 1942. He also excelled in doubles, teaming with Jerry Clifford in 1940 to capture the 1940 Big Ten doubles crown, also a first for NU. On the national level, Greenberg won the 1942 and 1943 Clay Court titles. He was ranked fifth in the U.S. in singles in 1943 and 1944.

Greenberg's three doubles titles still rank first all-time in Big Ten history. He has been inducted into numerous Halls of Fame, including the Chicago Jewish Sports Hall of Fame and the Chicago Tennis Hall of Fame.

HEAD COACH ARVID SWAN

Two-time ITA Midwest Region Coach of the Year Arvid Swan begins his 13th year at the helm of Northwestern University's men's tennis program for the 2019-20 season. He has compiled a 196-144 record over his first twelve seasons, including a program-record 26 wins in 2016 and five straight 20-win seasons from 2012-17. His tenure in Evanston has included seven NCAA Tournament appearances, including six consecutive trips from 2013-17.

Swan came to Northwestern after spending the 2006-07 season as the head men's tennis coach at DePaul University. His coaching efforts helped the program turn a corner, posting an 18-7 record to follow up their 8-14 mark the previous season.

Prior to taking the position at DePaul, Swan served as associate head coach for the Wildcats from 2003-06. During that period, Swan helped the program consistently improve as the Wildcats jumped from sixth in the Big Ten to back-to-back fourth-place conference finishes. He also helped lead the team to two top-40 national rankings, back-to-back appearances in the semifinals of the Big Ten Tournament, and a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2006.

In his playing days, Swan was world-ranked professionally in singles and doubles. While at Michigan, Swan was the recipient of the Scholar-Athlete award in 1995 and earned his way onto three Academic All-Big Ten teams from 1996-98. In 1996, Swan was elected to the All-Big Ten team as the Wolverines went on to win the Big Ten championship. Swan captained the squad until his graduation in 1998.

WILDCAT ALUMNI TODD MARTIN

Martin began his Northwestern career as the 1989 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, and the next season won the Big Ten singles title, was named Big Ten Player of the Year and accorded first-team All-America honors. At the time of induction he held NU records for career winning percentage (.898), for single season victories (51 in 1989-90) and winning percentage (.944 in 1989-90).

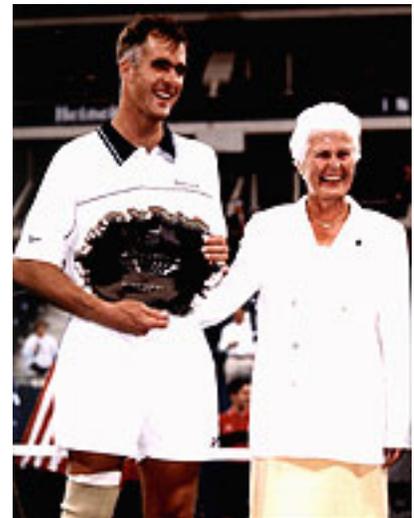

During the 1990s and early 2000s, Martin was one of the best and most respected players in international tennis. After leaving Northwestern in 1990 to turn pro, Martin jumped as high as No. 4 in the ATP Tour rankings, playing on a championship-winning U.S. Davis Cup team (1995), and reaching the finals of both the Australian Open and U.S. Open tournaments.

Overall, he won eight singles and five doubles titles, and represented the U.S. at the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

He announced his retirement at the 2004 U.S. Open.

*Bold Big Ten Team Champions

Grant Golden

Grant Golden was a three year letter winner for the Wildcats. In 1948, he took the conference title at No. 5 singles, also teaming with Marvin Beskin to win the No. 2 doubles championship. As a senior two years later, Golden won both championships again, claiming both the No. 1 conference singles and doubles crowns.
