WELSH-RYAN ARENA

Welsh-Ryan Arena underwent a complete $110 million renovation following the completion of the 2016-17 season. The renovated building re-opened on Nov. 2, 2018, when the Wildcats defeated McKendree, 83-44.

Highlights of the project include:

- New seating throughout the arena, with chair-back seats replacing existing wood bleachers
- Wider, more accessible concourses with improved lighting
- Improved accessibility for the mobility-impaired, with five new elevators replacing the existing one
- New and expanded restrooms as well as the addition of accessible family restrooms
- New concession areas with twice as many point-of-sale stations for increased efficiency, along with new food and drink offerings
- State-of-the-art lighting, audio and video capabilities in the arena
- Premium seating areas and expansion of the club area, which provides space for pre- and post-game events
- Expansion of the building lobby
- New locker rooms for men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball

McGaw Memorial Hall/WRA has been the home of the Wildcats since 1952, when it was built in part to accommodate a meeting of the World Council of Churches at the University. One of the best facilities of its size in the nation when it opened, McGaw Hall played host to the 1956 Final Four, which saw San Francisco win an 83-71 decision over Iowa in the championship game—a contest which drew a crowd of 10,653, still the building's basketball attendance record. McGaw Hall was one of just three different arenas to stage the event from 1953-59.

McGaw Hall was officially dedicated on Jan. 18, 1953, although the first game in it was played Dec. 6, 1952, with Northwestern taking on Western Michigan. The fieldhouse was donated to the University by Foster G. McGaw and friends in memory of his father, the Reverend Francis A. McGaw, a Presbyterian minister who died at his mission in Nairobi, Africa, in 1942.

After its early glory days, the structure to which the Wildcats returned in 1983-84 was not the same one they had left 12 months earlier. A $6.75 million renovation of the building had dramatically altered its interior, with the biggest improvement being the completion of Welsh-Ryan Arena. NU played its home games at Alumni Hall on DePaul University's campus during the 1982-83 season while the renovations were taking place.

As a part of the $20 million Campaign for Athletic Excellence, various facilities in McGaw Hall were updated and improved. New wood basketball courts were added to the back of McGaw Hall for extra practice and playing time for the men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball teams.

The arena is named in recognition of a leadership gift to the $21 million Athletic Facilities Campaign by the Patrick G. and Shirley Ryan family of Kenilworth, Ill. Ryan, the recently retired chairman of Northwestern's Board of Trustees, is retired president and chief executive officer of AON Corporation. The name-gift pledge to the Campaign was made by the Ryan family in honor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick G. Ryan Sr. and his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Welsh Sr.

Prior to their move to McGaw Hall, the Wildcats played their home games at Patten Gymnasium from 1910-40. One of the most important events held in the building during its final year was the championship game of the first NCAA tournament on March 27, 1939, when Oregon defeated Ohio State 46-33. Northwestern split its home games between Chicago Stadium and Evanston High School from 1940-52 before McGaw Hall opened for the 1952-53 season. The facility was constructed at a cost of $1.3 million.

The men's and women's basketball programs moved into brand-new locker rooms during the 2007-08 season as part of a $4 million project. The second phase of the efforts was completed in time for the 2008-09 campaign as the coaching staffs moved into their new offices on the second floor of the project.

Northwestern University President

MICHAEL SCHILL

Michael H. Schill begins his term as the president of Northwestern University in the fall of 2022.

As a first-generation college graduate, Schill is a champion of higher education and its power to transform lives. He holds an artium baccalaureus (AB) degree in public policy from Princeton University and a Juris Doctor (JD) degree from Yale Law School. A nationally recognized expert in property, real estate and housing law and policy, Schill was elected as a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2011.

Previously, Schill was the president of the University of Oregon and served as the institution's chief executive officer since 2015. He focused his presidency on four priorities to advance the university's mission: enhancing academic and research excellence, supporting student access and success, providing an outstanding campus experience, and improving inclusion and diversity.

He launched a series of initiatives in support of his priorities, such as the Oregon Commitment, an effort to support student success by improving four-year graduation rates and providing more access to higher education through programs like PathwayOregon, which provides free tuition, fees and specialized advising to Pell grant-eligible Oregonians. Under Schill's leadership, UO reached the goal of improving four-year graduation rates by 10 percentage points a year early in 2019.

Schill also spearheaded efforts to make campus more inclusive and encourage the exchange of ideas. Initiatives included a series of events focused on the freedom of expression, an African American Speakers series and the creation of a new Black Cultural Center. Schill also was part of a major initiative to hire and retain more faculty of color, to establish a center on racial disparities and to promote inclusion in the UO's classrooms.

Schill holds a tenured faculty appointment in the University of Oregon School of Law and previously served as the dean and Harry N. Wyatt Professor of Law at the University of Chicago Law School. Prior to joining the University of Chicago, Schill served as the dean of the University of California, Los Angeles School of Law. He also spent time on the faculty at New York University and University of Pennsylvania.

In 2004, Schill founded the Furman Center for Real Estate and Urban Policy at New York University. Under his and subsequent leadership, the Furman Center has become one of the nation's leading research centers on housing and the built environment.

While serving as the president of the University of Oregon, Schill acted as Chair of the PAC-12 CEO Group, is on the Board of Trustees of Ithaka, the nonprofit parent of JSTOR, and is a former member of the Board of Governors of Argonne National Laboratory.

Combe Family
Vice President for Athletics and Recreation

DR. DERRICK GRAGG

Dr. Derrick Gragg was named Combe Family Vice President for Athletics and Recreation by President Morty Schapiro in June of 2021, the 23rd person selected to lead the department for the Wildcats. A long-time athletic director, college sports administrator, and diversity and inclusion leader, Gragg joined the Northwestern family after serving as the NCAA's senior vice president for inclusion, education and community engagement.

"I am thrilled and humbled to join the Northwestern University family at this pivotal moment in college athletics," Gragg said. "My career has been shaped by an unwavering belief in the potential of student-athletes to excel in all areas. These young people need more support than ever in the midst of challenging, changing and exciting times. I look forward to joining an incredible roster of coaches and staff in Evanston on this collaborative mission to help our Wildcats achieve at the highest level as students, as athletes and as people."

His first year at the helm of NU Athletics was headlined by field hockey's national championship, Northwestern's first national title since lacrosse won the 2012 NCAA Tournament. Northwestern softball won the Big Ten in 2022 before advancing to the Women's College World Series with the Big Ten Coach of the Year Kate Drohan, Player of the Year Rachel Lewis and Pitcher of the Year Danielle Williams. Wrestler Ryan Deakin won the 157lb national title en route to a sixth place finish for NU at the NCAA Wrestling Championships while lacrosse advanced to the NCAA Final Four for the second straight season.

Throughout his career in college athletics, Gragg has prioritized representing the underrepresented and providing a voice and allyship to people of color, women and the LGBTQ community.

While serving as the NCAA's senior vice president for inclusion, education and community engagement, Gragg has worked to ensure diversity, equity and inclusion are reflected on all levels in college athletics. He had a dual focus on internal and external initiatives and programming.

A former football letter-winner at Vanderbilt, Gragg he has always valued the impact of academics on athletes. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State University, then his doctorate in higher education administration from the University of Arkansas. Gragg joined the Arkansas athletic department in 2000 as an associate director, and eventually was promoted to deputy director.

Gragg became Eastern Michigan University's athletic director in 2006, then was named to the same position at the University of Tulsa in 2013. Under Gragg's leadership, Tulsa athletics made the transition from Conference USA to the American Athletic Conference in 2014-15. In the first six years of Tulsa's membership, Hurricane teams won 19 Conference titles, the second-most in the league. During his tenure, Tulsa advanced to postseason competition 53 times and produced 28 All-Americans, eight CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 1,158 American Athletic Conference academic honor roll recipients.

Gragg also helped conceptualize the Tulsa Legacy Game, designed to pay tribute to the survivors and descendants of the 1921 Tulsa Massacre, which is widely recognized as one of the worst incidents of racial violence in U.S. history. The first Tulsa Legacy Game took place last year.

He administered the development and implementation of the athletic department's strategic plan, was instrumental in securing Tulsa's largest-ever planned gift for athletics, and facilitated the department's first all-sport apparel agreement with Adidas, tripling the amount of athletics apparel for studentathletes, coaches and staff. He also served as tournament director for NCAA DI Men's Basketball Tournament First and Second Round games in 2017 and 2019 at Tulsa's downtown BOK Center.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

"It was essential for us to find the right leader for the next chapter at Northwestern — someone who can build both academic and athletic excellence at a time of rapid change in the intercollegiate sports landscape, and also someone who can create the best possible environment for students, staff and coaches. After talking extensively with Derrick, it was clear that he was the ideal person for the job." - Morty Schapiro, Northwestern University president and professor

"Derrick stood out among candidates for having lived every level of collegiate athletics — from being a student-athlete to more than a decade as an athletics director, and then taking on a national leadership role with the NCAA," said Johnson, who served as search chair. "We look forward to welcoming him to Evanston and Chicago as the newest member of our Wildcat family." - Craig Johnson, Northwestern University senior vice president for business and finance

"Derrick Gragg is an extremely talented, professional and visionary leader who operates with passion and integrity. Derrick will lead the Northwestern University athletic department in a collaborative manner that will properly focus on the well-being of all Northwestern student-athletes. Derrick understands the critical components of what is required to embrace and empower studentathletes, coaches, administrators and the entire Northwestern community." - Kevin Warren, Big Ten Conference commissioner

Sullivan-Ubben Head Coach • Tenth Season

CHRIS COLLINS

Chris Collins enters his tenth season as the head coach at Northwestern in 2022-23 season. He was named the University's 24th head men's basketball coach on March 27, 2013.

Through nine seasons at NU, Collins is 133-150 and guided the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2016-17. Most recently in 2021-22, the team went 15-16. He guided the program to seven Big Ten wins, the program's most in a year since the 2016-17 season. Forward Pete Nance earned All-Big Ten Honorable Mention recognition, averaging 14.6 points and 6.5 rebounds per game. The Wildcats tallied a 64-62 road win at No. 10 Michigan State on Jan. 15, Collins' third triumph over an AP-Top 10 opponent as head coach. Northwestern defeated Nebraska 71-69 in the Big Ten Tournament, earning the team's first postseason win since 2016-17.

In 2020-21, the 'Cats opened Big Ten play 3-0 for the first time since the 1967-68 season and earned a No. 19 ranking from the AP. NU recorded a 79-65 win over No. 4 Michigan State on Dec. 20, it's first win over a top-five opponent since beating the Spartans in 1979. Later that week, the Wildcats knocked off No. 23 Ohio State, 71-70.

During his sixth campaign at the helm of the program, Collins saw program greats Vic Law and Derrek Pardon complete their college careers. Both were named All-Big Ten honorable mention and both finished with over 1,000-career points. Law finished his career in the top-10 at Northwestern for 3-pointers made (10th; 193), rebounds (9th; 710), and double-doubles (7th; 8). As a senior, Pardon averaged a career-high 13.9 points per game, a single-season high 244 rebounds and was the only Wildcat to start and play in all 31 games throughout 2018-19. Collins mentored Pardon to become Northwestern's all-time leader in career field goal percentage (60.2%). He ranks second all-time at NU in blocks (149), fifth in rebounds (785) and fourth in double-doubles (18).

In 2017-18, Collins saw his first Northwestern recruiting class wrap up their collegiate careers. Bryant McIntosh left NU with more than 1,600 points and 700 career assists, becoming one of only three players in Big Ten history to reach both milestones. His 700 career assists are a program record, while ranking seventh in league history. Scottie Lindsey finished his time in Evanston ranking eighth in school history in career three-point field goals and in the top 20 in scoring.

Collins guided the Wildcats to heights never before reached during the 2016-17 season. The unforgettable campaign saw Northwestern accumulate a school-record 24 wins while earning the program's first NCAA tournament berth and victory in school history.

NU captured the nation's attention with its outstanding start to the season. An 18-4 start, including a six-game winning streak in Big Ten Conference play — the program's first since 1933 — saw the team crack the top 25 of the Associated Press poll on Jan. 30, the team's first national ranking in seven years.

Northwestern went on to record 10 wins in league play, its most since the 1932-33 campaign. Five of the victories came on the road, including a 66-59 triumph at No. 7/5 Wisconsin on Feb. 12.

The 'Cats picked up a pair of wins in the Big Ten tournament in Washington D.C., including defeating 25th-ranked Maryland in its own backyard, to give NU its first appearance in the conference tournament semifinal round in school history.

NU was rewarded with an NCAA tournament berth on Selection Sunday and the Wildcats earned a 68-66 victory over Vanderbilt in an opening-round contest in Salt Lake City. Northwestern pushed second-ranked and eventual national runner-up Gonzaga to the limits in the second round before eventually suffering a narrow loss.

The 'Cats placed two individuals on the All-Big Ten teams for the first time since 2012 as Bryant McIntosh was a unanimous second-team selection while Scottie Lindsey was recognized as a third-team pick of the league's coaches. In addition, Vic Law was named to the conference's five-member All-Defensive Team.

Lindsey was one of the Big Ten's most improved players while McIntosh became Northwestern's all-time leader in assists in just his third season of play. McIntosh's average of 5.4 assists per game in conference play made him the first Wildcat in school history to lead the Big Ten in the category (since 1975).

Additionally, Derek Pardon led the Big Ten in field goal percentage in league play (.617) and Nathan Taphorn was the conference leader in 3-point field goal percentage in all games (.470).

Northwestern hung its hat on its defense as the team ranked second in the Big Ten in both opponents field goal percentage (.403) and scoring defense (65.5 ppg), while ranking third in blocked shots (4.9 pg).

Collins' contributions to the program were rewarded by being named one of four national finalists for the Naismith Men's Coach of the Year award.

Following the 2016-17 season, Collins agreed to a contract extension that runs through the 2024-25 campaign.

The 2015-16 season saw the Wildcats establish a then school regular-season record 20 wins, including eight in Big Ten play. Three of the Big Ten wins were by 20 or more points, marking the first time a Northwestern team posted three league wins by 20+ points since the 1943-44 season.

The Wildcats posted a 10-game winning streak—just the second double-figure winning streak all-time at NU—en route to a 13-1 start to the season, matching the school record for the top 14-game opening stretch in school history. The squad also notched a school-record 13-game home winning streak spanning the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons.

Northwestern ranked sixth in the nation with a 1.59 assist-to-turnover ratio paced by McIntosh who recorded a school single-season record 213 assists. The total blew away the previous record of 157 set by Tim Doyle in 2006-07. McIntosh earned honorable mention All-Big Ten distinction along with senior Tre Demps.

Collins' second season with the Wildcats saw the young team continue to improve throughout the season. Despite a stretch of heartbreaking losses, Northwestern showed the resilience to bounce back late in the year to post four straight Big Ten victories and five of six.

Despite being without the services of leading returning scorer JerShon Cobb for a good portion of the season, the 'Cats came together during their late-season surge. Three of the team's top six scorers were true freshmen, including McIntosh who set the school freshman record with 150 assists to go along with an average of 11.4 points per game en route to being named to the five-member Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

Demps and Alex Olah both earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition. Olah became the school's career leader in blocked shots in just three seasons and ranked third in the Big Ten with seven double-doubles.

In his first season at the helm, Collins led the Wildcats to an impressive string of road victories.

Collins won his debut as a head coach, notching a 72-55 victory over Eastern Illinois Nov. 9. He traversed the 'Cats through a grinding Big Ten schedule, including earning his first conference triumph at home against 23rd-ranked Illinois Jan. 12.

Northwestern's impressive string of road success began Jan. 18 at Indiana before the Wildcats earned a 65-56 win at 14th-ranked Wisconsin. The loss was just the fifth by an unranked Big Ten team in 73 games during Bo Ryan's tenure in Madison. The winning ways continued three days later when the 'Cats notched a one-point win at Minnesota, marking NU's first three-game road winning streak since 1960.

Even though second-leading scorer Cobb was lost to injury late in the season, the Wildcats finished the campaign strong, defeating Purdue on the road to wrap up the regular season before upsetting sixth-seeded Iowa in the opening round of the Big Ten tournament.

The Wildcats were greatly improved on the defensive end under Collins' guidance, holding four of their Big Ten opponents below 30 percent shooting in a game. NU allowed a mere 63.3 points per game in conference play to rank second in the league. Meanwhile, the team's .419 opponents field goal percentage ranked third in the Big Ten.

Collins came to Evanston after serving on the coaching staff at Duke since July 22, 2000. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2008. During Collins' 13 seasons on the Blue Devils' staff, Duke posted an overall record of 385-77 while recording eight ACC tournament championships, four ACC regular season titles, eight in-season tournament titles and national championships in 2001 and 2010.

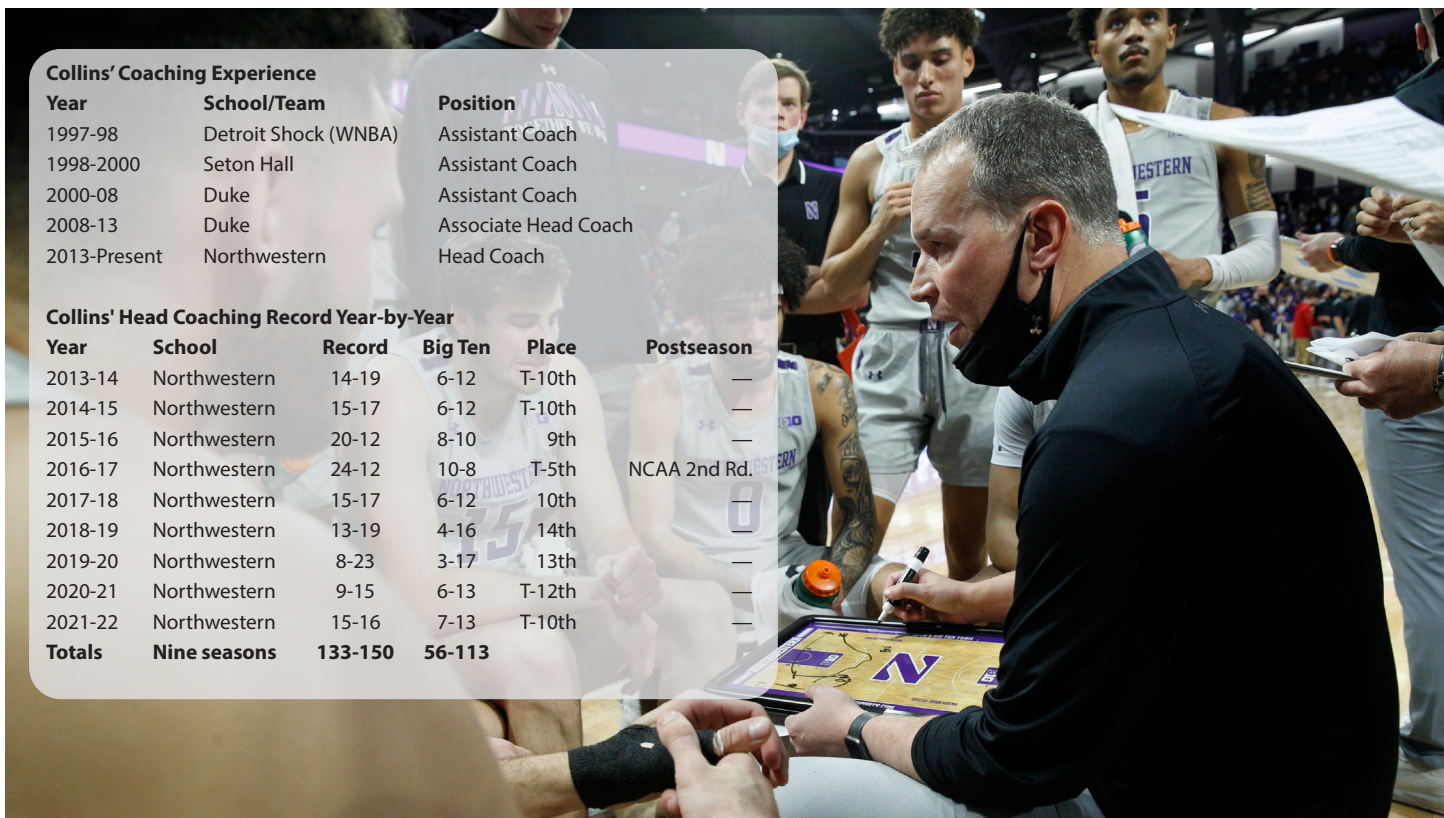

Collins worked primarily with backcourt players during his time at Duke and tutored All-Americans Jason Williams, Mike Dunleavy, Chris Duhon, J.J. Redick, Gerald Henderson, DeMarcus Nelson, Jon Scheyer, Nolan Smith and Austin Rivers, in addition to NBA draft picks Daniel Ewing, Kyrie Irving and Kyle Singler.

Collins also served as a court coach and scout for Mike Krzyzewski, assisting the USA Basketball Senior National Team staff with on-court duties as well as game preparation from 2006-12, including during the program's gold-medal performances at the 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championships and 2012 London Olympics.

In his first season as a coach at Duke, the Blue Devils won the 2001 national championship with an 82-72 victory over Arizona. Along the way, Williams earned unanimous first-team All-America and National Player of the Year honors by the NABC. Duhon, a freshman under Collins' tutelage in 2001, was named the ACC Rookie of the Year.

The following year, the Blue Devils posted a 31-4 record, won the ACC tournament for the fourth-consecutive season and were ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final Associated Press poll. Williams earned National Player of the Year honors for the second-consecutive year.

During the 2002-03 season, Duke posted a 26-7 record, a fifth-consecutive ACC tournament championship. One year later, Duke went 31-6 and returned to the Final Four for the second time in Collins' coaching career. Two of his backcourt players, Duhon and Redick, earned All-America and All-ACC recognition.

Collins helped the Blue Devils to a 26-7 overall slate that included the ACC tournament crown in 2004-05. Redick was named the National Player of the Year.

In the 2005-06 season, Collins watched his star pupil, Redick, rank second in the NCAA with a scoring average of 26.8 points per game, while setting the Duke and ACC career scoring records and the NCAA career three-point field goals record. He was a consensus National Player of the Year and a unanimous first-team All-American for the 32-4 Blue Devils.

In 2007-08, Collins helped Nelson elevate his game and garner several honors along the way. Nelson was tabbed the ACC Defensive Player of the Year and also earned NABC third-team All-America, first-team All-ACC and ACC All-Defensive team honors. In 2008-09, Collins guided Henderson to All-America and first-team All-ACC honors. Collins also coached Scheyer in his transition to point guard late in the year, which led to an ACC tournament title.

Collins helped lead Duke to its second national championship during his tenure in 2009-10 as the Blue Devils defeated Butler, 61-59, in the NCAA championship game. Collins coached the top-scoring trio in the NCAA as guards Jon Scheyer, Kyle Singler and Nolan Smith combined to score 53.3 points per game. Scheyer was named a second-team All-America, Singler was the NCAA Final Four Most Outstanding Player and Smith was the NCAA Tournament South Region MOP. All three players were also selected All-ACC and to ACC all-tournament teams while leading the Blue Devils to ACC tournament and ACC regular season championships.

The 2010-11 season marked the third-straight 30-win campaign for the Blue Devils. Collins coached a pair of senior all-stars for the Blue Devils, Singler and Smith. Singler earned first-team All-ACC honors, while Smith led the ACC in scoring at 20.6 points per game to claim ACC Player of the Year and first-team All-America honors.

In 2011-12, Collins was integral in the development of a backcourt that featured NABC third-team All-American Austin Rivers. Rivers averaged a team-high 15.5 points per game to become just the third Duke freshman to lead the team in scoring. He also was tabbed as the ACC Rookie of the Year and was just the seventh freshman in league history to earn first-team all-conference honors.

Before returning to his alma mater, Collins served as an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two years with Tommy Amaker. In 1999-2000, CHRIS COLLINS (right) was one of four finalists for the 2017 Naismith Coach of the Year award joining Kansas' Bill Self, Villanova's Jay Wright and eventual winner Mark Few of Gonzaga (not pictured).

Collins was part of a staff that guided the Pirates to a 22-10 record and the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament. Prior to Seton Hall, Collins spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant with the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Collins played professional basketball in Finland during the 1996-97 season, leading the league in scoring.

While at Duke, Collins was a team captain as a senior and four-year letterman from 1993-96. He ranks 11th among Duke's all-time leaders in three-point field goals (209) and 10th in three-point field goal attempts (539). Collins averaged 9.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.4 assists as a collegian. He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior.

Collins was a member of a Duke senior class that had 83 total victories, three NCAA tournament bids, one Final Four appearance, two ACC regular season championships, an ACC tournament title, and two in-season tournament championships (the 1992 Maui Classic and the 1995 Carrs Great Alaska Shootout).

As a senior in 1996, Collins had his most productive season, leading the Blue Devils in three-point field goals (79), three-point percentage (.441), free throws made (83) and attempted (115), assists (132) and steals (37). Collins also ranked second on the team by averaging 16.3 points per game. He was among the ACC leaders in scoring (10th), assists (fourth), field goal percentage (.467, seventh) and free throw percentage (.722, 10th).

Collins is the son of former NBA All-Star, Doug Collins, who is currently a senior advisor for the Chicago Bulls. A native of nearby Northbrook, Illinois, Collins is a 1996 graduate of Duke with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Collins and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ryan and Kate.

Assistant Coach • First Season

CHRIS LOWERY

A veteran college coach with more than 25 years of experience, Chris Lowery begins his first season at Northwestern as assistant coach in 2022-23. He comes to Evanston after spending 10 years as associate head coach at Kansas State.

Lowery played an instrumental role in one of the best stretches in K-State history, which includes 170 wins, two Big 12 regular-season championships (2013 and 2019) and five NCAA Tournament appearances (2013, 2014, 2017, 2018, 2019). The Wildcats' two conference titles are the second-most by a Big 12 school in that span with the 2012-13 championship the first-ever in the Big 12 era and the first conference title by the school in more than 36 seasons.

Lowery helped K-State post consecutive 25-win campaigns in 2017-18 and 2018-19 for the first time in school history, as the Wildcats collected a 25-12 overall record and advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in eight seasons in 2017-18 before posting a 25-9 mark and earning a second Big 12 regular-season title in 2018-19. The school was one of 24 programs nationally, including 15 in power conferences, with 25-win seasons in each of those two seasons.

Lowery arrived at K-State after an eight-year stint (2004-12) as the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Illinois, where he posted a 145-116 (.556) record with four postseason appearances, two Missouri Valley Championships and one State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title. His teams averaged 18.1 wins over his tenure, including three 20-win seasons, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament on three occasions (2005, 2006, 2007), including a 2007 trip to the Sweet 16. Lowery was twice named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year (2005, 2007).

Lowery coached two AP honorable mention All-Americans at SIU, including Darren Brooks in 2005 and Jamaal Tatum in 2007. In addition, his players earned numerous Missouri Valley honors, including two Players of the Year (Brooks and Tatum), four Defensive Players of the Year (Brooks, Randal Falker, Bryan Mullins twice), two Freshmen of the Year (Mullins and Kevin Dillard) and one Sixth Man Award (Tony Young). He coached 12 all-conference players, including five first-team selections, to go with 10 MVC All-Defensive Team honorees, five

All-Freshmen picks and four All-Newcomer and Most Improved Team members.

Lowery began his coaching career at Rend Lake College in Ina, Illinois, in 1995, where he helped the Warriors to a 20-win season. He followed with stints at Missouri Southern (1997-2000) and Southeast Missouri State (2000-01) before returning to his alma mater as an assistant helping the Salukis to a 52-15 (.776) record from 2001-03 with back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference titles and consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament. He went to Illinois in 2003-04, where he helped the Fighting Illini to a 26-7 overall record and a trip to the Sweet 16. Illinois also captured its first outright Big Ten regular season title in more than 52 years in 2003-04, as Lowery helped coach future NBA players Deron Williams, Dee Brown, Roger Powell and Luther Head.

After his one-year at Illinois, Lowery returned to his alma mater as the 12th head coach at Southern Illinois on April 9, 2004. In his first year, SIU posted a 27-8 record, including a 15-3 mark in MVC play, and Lowery became the youngest coach, at the age 32, to ever win Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Salukis won the MVC regular season crown and beat Saint Mary's in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2006-07, he helped SIU to its greatest season in school history, as the team won a school-record 29 games and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2006-07. The squad finished with a No. 11 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and earned its highest NCAA Tournament seed (No. 4).

Lowery was a standout player for legendary Saluki head coach Rich Herrin from 1990-94. Known as a scrappy, hustling player, he helped lead a basketball renaissance at SIU, guiding the Salukis to consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 1993 and 1994. He helped the school to an 86-37 mark during his playing career, including four postseason appearances and two Missouri Valley Conference titles. He scored 1,225 points and dished out 391 assists in his career. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from the university in 1995.

For his efforts as a player (1991-94), assistant coach (2001-03) and head coach (2004-12), Lowery was inducted into the Southern Illinois Athletics Hall of Fame on October 18, 2019. In those three capacities, he was part of 283 wins with a combined seven NCAA Tournaments and eight MVC Championships.

Lowery was a standout player at Harrison High School in Evansville, Indiana, and for those accomplishments, was named to the 2015 Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame Silver Anniversary Team.

Lowery also has international coaching experience with USA Basketball, serving as an assistant with the U-19 team which won the gold medal at the 2009 World Championships. He coached alongside TCU's Jamie Dixon and Purdue's Matt Painter for a squad that included future NBA players Gordon Heyward, Shelvin Mack, Klay Thompson and Kemba Walker.

A native of Evansville, Indiana, Lowery, 48, and his wife, Erika, have three children, Lexis, C.J., and Jazmyn. The couple's son, Kahari, passed away in November 2016.

Assistant Coach • Second Season

TALOR BATTLE

Talor Battle joined the Northwestern men's basketball program as an assistant coach in May of 2021, and enters his second season on staff in 2022-23.

In his first season at Northwestern, Battle helped the team record seven Big Ten wins, the program's most in a year since the 2016-17 season. The Wildcats tallied a 64-62 road win at No. 10 Michigan State on Jan. 15. Later in the season, Northwestern defeated Nebraska 71-69 in the Big Ten Tournament, earning the team's first postseason win since 2016-17. He coached his half-brother, starting guard Boo Buie, to career-high marks of 14.1 points and 4.3 assists per game.

Battle served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Penn State, in 2020-21, before joining Collins' staff. The Nittany Lions finished the year with an 11-14 record and a 7-12 Big Ten record, which included a win in the Big Ten Tournament. He played professionally overseas for seven years before joining the coaching ranks.

"We're excited to welcome Talor to the program," said Sullivan-Ubben Men's Basketball Head Coach Chris Collins upon Battle's hiring. "His track record as an elite player in this league makes him an incredible mentor for our players, and an obviously compelling recruiter. He has a great knowledge of the game and an undeniable passion for coaching that will be great additions to the staff."

"My wife Gretchen, our daughters and I are excited for the opportunity to join the Northwestern basketball program," Battle said. "With this role brings a new atmosphere, culture and family that I'm already proud to be a part of. I am fired up about the vision and direction Coach Collins has for this program. I look forward to learning from Coach Collins and accomplishing special things here in Evanston."

all-time leading scorer with 2,213 career points during his four-year career. He helped lead the Nittany Lions to the 2009 National Invitation Tournament championship, the program's first national title, and a program-record 27 wins that season. He earned All-Big Ten Tournament Team honors in 2011 as Penn State advanced to its first Big Ten Tournament championship game and first NCAA tournament appearance in a decade.

The Albany, N.Y., native is one of only two players to lead Penn State in scoring in four-straight seasons. He was the first Nittany Lion to twice earn All-Big Ten first team, first-team NABC All-District and first-team USBWA honors, and four-time team MVP accolades.

Battle finished his career in the Top-5 of Penn State's career lists for assists (4th; 517), 3-point field goals (3rd; 317), field goals (2nd; 722) and free throws (4th; 452), as well as setting the career record for starts (131) and Big Ten record for career minutes played (4,799). He still holds several positions on single-season Top-10 stat lists. After concluding his collegiate career, Battle played professionally overseas from 2011-18. His career included stops in Germany, Italy, Belgium, Israel, Hungary and Slovenia. In 2014 he won the Pro Basketball League Star of Coaches Award in Belgium, which is awarded to the league's best player as voted on by the coaches.

As a senior in high school, Battle led Bishop Maginn to the Class AA state title game and averaged 28.7 points per game. He ended his prep career as the fifth leading all-time scorer in New York Section II history. He was AAU teammates with all-american guard Jimmer Fredette.

Battle graduated from Penn State in 2011 with a degree in recreation, park, and tourism management.

He and his wife, Gretchen, are the parents of two daughters, Layna and Stella.

Assistant Coach • First Season

BRYANT MCINTOSH

One of the most accomplished players in school history Bryant McIntosh begins his first season as assistant coach in 2022-23. He previously spent three seasons in Evanston as assistant director of basketball operations (2019-22). Entering the 2022-23 season, McIntosh is the youngest assistant coach in the Power 5.

ally for a season in Belgium with the Leuven Bears.

Sullivan-Ubben Head Men's Basketball Coach Chris Collins announced the elevation of McIntosh from assistant director of basketball operations to on-court assistant coach on August 3, 2022.

"It's great to be able to add Bryant McIntosh as an assistant coach," said Collins. "Bryant has been an integral part of our staff the last few years and he is a rising star in coaching. We all know what Bryant means to Northwestern basketball as one of the all-time greats in our program, with his teams reaching a level of unprecedented success. His experience and knowledge will make him an amazing resource for our players in all areas."

As the assistant director of basketball operations McIntosh was responsible for coordinating film exchange with other universities, managing film operations for practices and games, assisting with team travel and assisting the coaching staff with on-campus recruiting events and tasks.

A four-year starter, McIntosh is one of three players in Big Ten history to record at least 1,600 points and 700 assists in a career. A second-team All-Big Ten pick as a junior, he holds the top two single-season assist marks in school history and his 700 career assists are a school record.

Overall Record: 1,125-1,569 (117 seasons)

Big Ten Record: 531-1,118

Northwestern and Notre Dame played to a 20-20 tie on Dec. 31, 1935.

* Larry Glass coached the first 18 games of 1968-69 before resigning, going 10-8 (2-6 Big Ten). Larry Snyder took over and went 4-2 (all in Big Ten) the remainder of the season.

(F) Records reflect overturned results due to subsequent forfeitures by opposing schools for NCAA violations. See year-by-year results for details.

(D) Home games in 1982-83 were played at DePaul's Alumni Hall due to renovation of McGaw Hall (Welsh-Ryan Arena).

(A) Home games in 2017-18 were played at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Ill., due to renovation to Welsh-Ryan Arena

*school record

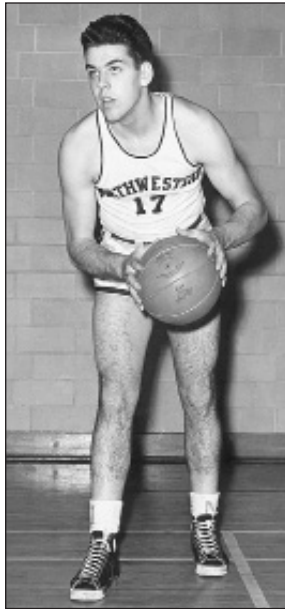

ALL-AMERICANS

JOE REIFF
CENTER • 1931 & 1933

Joe Reiff's All-America campaigns coincided with the Wildcats' two Big Ten championships. He led the Big Ten in scoring in both 1931 and 1933, sandwiching his titles around the 1932 champ, a Purdue player named John Wooden.

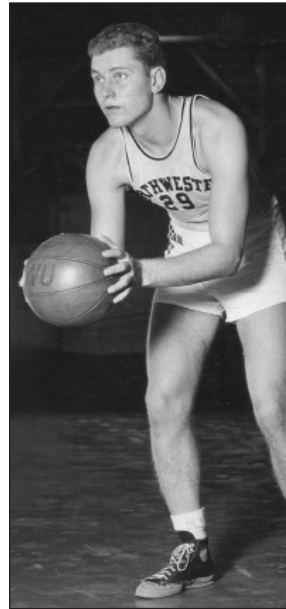

OTTO GRAHAM
FORWARD • 1944

Otto Graham was renowned for his football career, both at Northwestern and professionally. Lesser known, however, was his basketball prowess. Graham remains one of two NU athletes ever to earn All-America honors in two different sports.

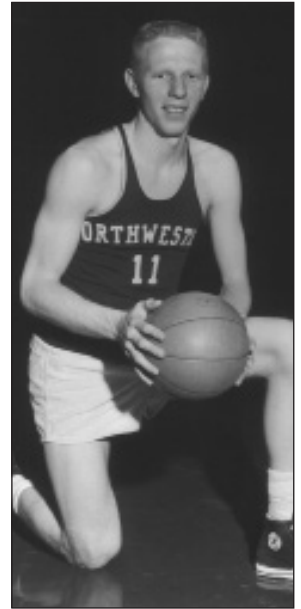

MAX MORRIS
FORWARD • 1946

Max Morris was the first-ever recipient of the Chicago Tribune's Big Ten Player of the Year honor, in 1946. He led the conference in scoring twice (15.8 ppg in 1945, 16.5 ppg in 1946), and joins Otto Graham as NU's only multi-sport All-Americans.

RAY RAGELIS
FORWARD • 1951

Ray Ragelis twice led NU in scoring, including averaging 19.1 points per game as a senior. The first player in school history to tally 1,000 career points, Ragelis was selected by the Rochester Royals in the 2nd round of the 1951 NBA Draft.

FRANK EHMANN
FORWARD • 1955

Frank Ehmann's scoring average of 23.9 points per game as a senior in 1954-55 is the second-best single-season mark in school history. He was a two-time team MVP and was inducted into Northwestern's Hall of Fame in 1987.

JOE RUKLICK
CENTER • 1958

Joe Ruklick led the 'Cats in both scoring and rebounding all three of his seasons on the varsity. His career scoring average of 19.9 points per game is tops in school history, while his average of 13.9 rebounds per game in 1958 is an NU season mark.

JIM BURNS
GUARD • 1967

Jim Burns enjoyed an outstanding senior season, leading the team with an average of 21.5 points per game. At the time his career ended, Burns was Northwestern's career scoring leader with 1,368 points in three seasons. He currently ranks 13th.

EVAN ESCHMEYER
CENTER • 1999

Evan Eschmeyer made the most of his senior campaign, leading the Wildcats in scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage as they advanced to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). He ranks fourth in school history with 1,805 career points.

JOHN SHURNA
FORWARD • 2012

John Shurna graduated as Northwestern's all-time leader in scoring, blocked shots and games played. He was a three-time All-Big Ten selection, led the conference in scoring as a senior and guided the 'Cats to postseason play all four years of his career.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

JIM BURNS
FIRST TEAM, 1967

Jim Burns enjoyed a distinguished career at NU, becoming the first Wildcat player to earn Academic All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors. He led NU in scoring all three years he was on varsity and is 13th all-time in scoring.

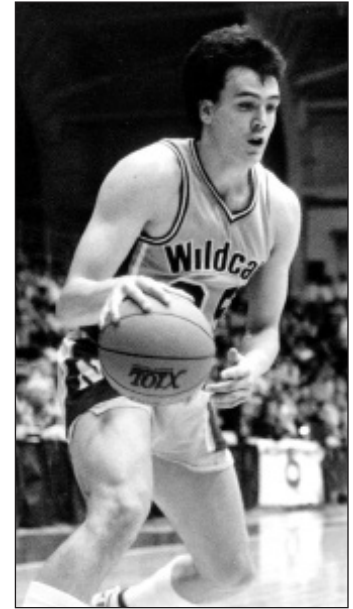

RICK SUND
THIRD TEAM, 1973

Rick Sund was named the team's MVP as a sophomore in 1971 and served as a team captain in 1973. He was twice named an Academic All-Big Ten selection. Sund also played split end on the Northwestern football team.

MIKE CAMPBELL
FIRST TEAM, 1980

Mike Campbell led the team in rebounding twice, in 1978 and 1980, and also topped the squad in blocked shots his junior and senior seasons. He is 20th on NU's all-time list with 576 career rebounds.

SHON MORRIS
FIRST TEAM, 1987 & 1988
SECOND TEAM, 1986

Shon Morris is NU's only three-time Academic All-American, and as a senior he was also Playboy Magazine's Anson Mount Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

BRIAN SCHWABE
THIRD TEAM, 1989

Brian Schwabe earned a total of three Academic All-Big Ten selections during his career. He ranks fourth all-time at NU in career field goal percentage and scored over 1,000 points. He twice led the team in rebounding and field goal percentage.

WALKER LAMBIOTTE
THIRD TEAM, 1990

Walker Lambiotte was twice named the Wildcats' team MVP, in 1989 and again in 1990. In 1989, he led the team in scoring, field goal percentage and steals.

KEVIN RANKIN
SECOND TEAM, 1994
THIRD TEAM, 1993

A three-time team MVP and Academic All-Big Ten selection, Kevin Rankin was also a third-team All-Big Ten pick in 1992 and again in 1994. He ranks eighth on NU's all-time scoring list and is second in rebounding.

DREW CRAWFORD
FIRST TEAM, 2014
SECOND TEAM, 2012

Drew Crawford was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 2010 and was a third-team All-Big Ten selection in 2012 and again in 2014. He is the second-leading scorer in school history and is first in games played.

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

The listing of all-time men's basketball lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow and includes only those players which earned a varsity letter; student-managers and trainers are not listed. The information on each student-athlete was compiled from media guides, programs, yearbooks and academic records. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to Northwestern's athletic communications office.

Current players who have previously lettered are listed in bold.
