Northwestern University Interim President

HENRY BIENEN

A nationally recognized leader in higher education, Henry S. Bienen led Northwestern to increased academic prominence, research prowess, financial strength and athletic success. During his tenure, Northwestern faculty and students received numerous academic awards, the endowment quintupled, applications for admission skyrocketed and the University's reputation grew both nationally and internationally.

Henry S. Bienen was one of the first three university presidents awarded the Carnegie Corporation Academic Leadership Award for innovative leadership in higher education. The honor carries a $500,000 award for the institution and recognizes leaders of institutions of higher education who have demonstrated an abiding commitment to liberal arts and who have initiated and supported curricular innovations, including development of interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary programs that aim to bridge the gulf between the theoretical and the practical. He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Prior to becoming Northwestern's president, Bienen was the James S. McDonnell Distinguished University Professor and dean of the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University (now called the School of Public and International Affairs). A political scientist with interests in political and economic development, comparative politics, civil-military relations and U.S. foreign policy, Bienen began his association with Princeton University in 1966 as an assistant professor. He was named associate professor of politics and international affairs at Princeton in 1969 and professor of politics and international affairs in 1972. He was appointed the William Stewart Tod Professor of Politics and International Affairs at Princeton in 1981 and the James S. McDonnell Distinguished University Professor in 1985.

Bienen has been a visiting professor at Makerere College in Kampala, Uganda (1963-65), at University College in Nairobi (1968-69), at Columbia University (1971-72) and at the University of Ibadan (1972-73). He was a fellow at the Center for Advanced Studies in Behavioral Sciences at Stanford University (1976-77), a Polsky Fellow at the Aspen Institute (1982-83) and a member of the Institute for Advanced Studies at Princeton (1984-85).

Bienen has been a consultant to the U.S. Department of State (1972-88), the National Security Council (1978-79), the Agency for International Development (1980-81), the Central Intelligence Agency (1982-88) and the World Bank (1981-89). He served as a member of the senior review panel of the CIA in the late 1980s.

He also has been a consultant to Hambrecht and Quist Investment Company, the Boeing Corporation and the Carnegie Corporation as well as to the Ford Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation and the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation.

Bienen was a member of the board of directors of the Council on Foreign Relations, serving on the executive committee and chairing the nominating and governance committee. He is a member of the board of directors of the Chicago Council on Global Affairs and has served on the Chicago Board of Education.

He also served as a member of the Committee on Roles of Academic Health Centers in the 21st Century at the National Academies' Institute of Medicine and on the board of the University Corporation for Advanced Internet Development (Internet 2) from 1998 to 2002.

He was chairman of the board of trustees of Ithaka Harbors, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to helping the academic community take advantage of information and networking technologies. Most recently, he served as president of the Poetry Foundation from 2015 to 2020.

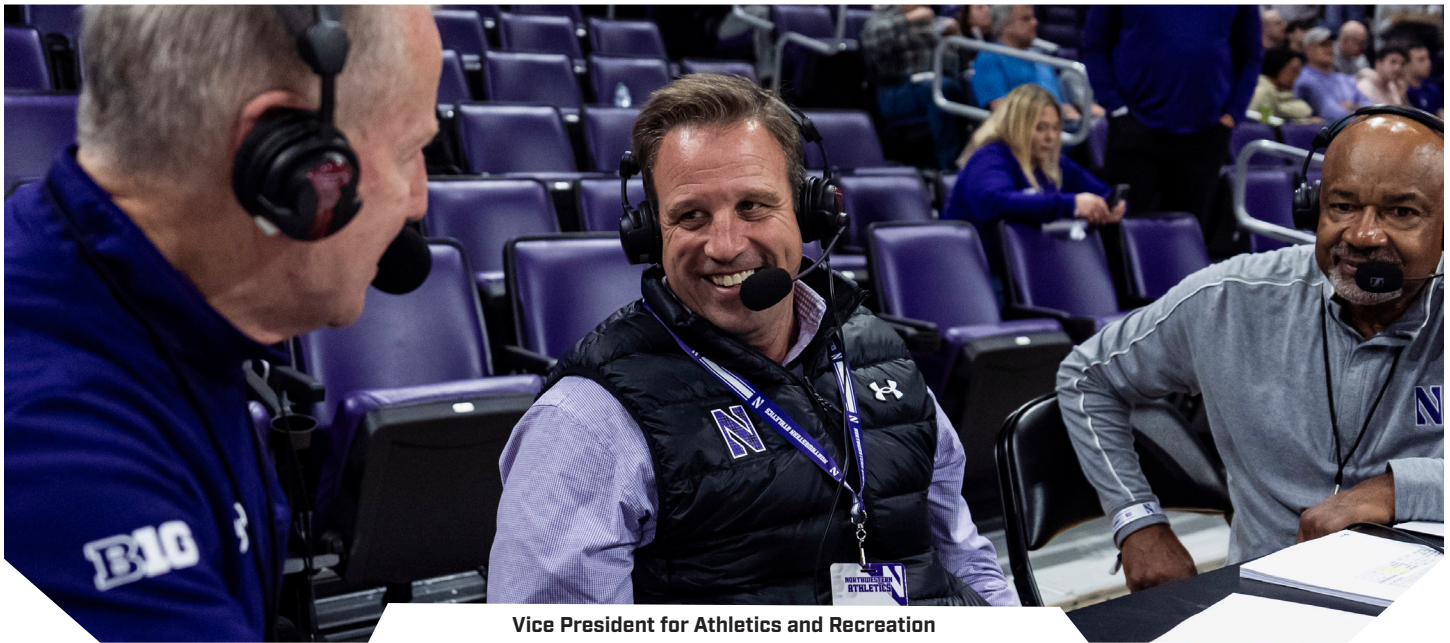

Other board and trustee memberships include: Rasmussen College Inc., where he formerly served as chair and remains on the board of directors, and the executive committee of Steppenwolf Theatre. Bienen is a past chair of the executive committee of the Association of American Universities and a member of the American Political Science Association. He also served on the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics.

He currently serves on the board of Ryan Specialty Group, where he chairs the Compensation and Governance Committee. He also works as a consultant for and advises the Vistria Group, a private equity group, and Academic Partnerships, an online project manager for regional public universities. He has served on the board of Bear Stearns, SPSS, Inc., and Onconova Therapeutics, Inc.

Bienen received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from Northwestern University in 2009. He received the University of Chicago Professional Achievement Alumni Award in 2000 and the 2008 Niagara Peace & Dialogue Award from the Niagara Foundation in 2008. Bienen received a bachelor's degree with honors from Cornell University in 1960 and a master's degree from the University of Chicago in 1961. He was awarded a PhD from Chicago in 1966.

In 2008, Northwestern's Board of Trustees honored Bienen and his wife, Leigh, a senior lecturer emerita at Northwestern Pritzker School of Law, by naming the University's School of Music the Henry and Leigh Bienen School of Music.

He and his wife have three daughters, five grandsons and one granddaughter.

Vice President for Athletics and Recreation

MARK JACKSON

Mark Jackson joined Northwestern University in 2024 as the Combe Family Vice President for Athletics and Recreation, bringing with him a decades-long track record of excellence in collegiate and professional sports leadership. In his role, Jackson oversees 21 varsity sports and more than 500 student-athletes, as well as recreational programs which support student wellness. He was appointed following a national search and began the role officially on September 1, 2024.

Northwestern thrived in Jackson's first academic year as Combe Family Vice President for Athletics and Recreation. Northwestern's field hockey and women's golf programs won NCAA National Championships, while field hockey and lacrosse swept Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships. Additionally, lacrosse made its third-consecutive appearance in the National Championship game, and softball made its seventh-consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. In addition, a University record 147 Wildcats earned Big Ten Distinguished Scholar recognition. Student-athletes from all programs received recognition for the second consecutive year.

He also supported the development of Northwestern Medicine Field at Martin Stadium, the temporary home of Northwestern's football, soccer, and lacrosse teams. It was announced in January that the facility will host the NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse National Championship in 2026, becoming the first venue outside the Eastern Time Zone to host the event.

Before he arrived in Evanston, Jackson served as Vice President and Director of Athletics at Villanova University from 2015 to 2024. During his tenure, Villanova experienced one of the most successful periods in its athletics history, including 14 NCAA tournament appearances by its varsity programs, two men's basketball national championships (2016, 2018), and 39 conference championships across multiple sports. In recognition of his leadership, Jackson received the Under Armour AD of the Year Award in 2020 from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). Before his time at Villanova, Jackson held administrative positions at USC, where he served as Senior Associate Director of Athletics and Chief Innovation Officer, and at Syracuse University, where he was Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director. In both roles, he oversaw capital projects, varsity program operations and strategic fundraising initiatives.

Jackson also brings professional experience from the National Football League, having worked with the New England Patriots as a coaching assistant from 1998 to 2000 and later with the Oakland Raiders as Director of Football Development from 2007 to 2008.

A native of Boston, Massachusetts, Jackson was a student-athlete at Colby College in Waterville, Maine, where he played defensive back for the Mules football team. He earned a bachelor's degree in government from Colby and a master's degree in public policy from Trinity College. He and his wife, Tricia, have four children: Grace, Hannah, Kevin and Sean.

Pete Carroll said, "Mark Jackson is a game changer for Northwestern. He will lead with strength and creativity, and he brings great background and proven leadership."

From Jay Wright, "Mark Jackson is a dynamic and visionary leader. He's authentic in his relationships and commands respect and trust from all of his coaches."

Bill Belichick added that "Mark combines a unique mix of success and experience both in professional and collegiate sports as well as a sharp understanding of the expectations of elite academic profiles."

Sullivan-Ubben Head Coach • 13th Season

CHRIS COLLINS

The 2022-23 Big Ten Coach of the Year, Sullivan-Ubben Head Men's Basketball Coach Chris Collins has guided Northwestern men's basketball to new heights over his 12 seasons, appearing in the 2017, 2023 and 2024 NCAA Tournaments, the only NCAA postseason appearances in program history. Collins has recorded 194 victories in Evanston, the second-most wins by a head coach in program history. He was named the University's 24th head coach on March 27, 2013, and is the fifth-longest tenured coach in the 18-team Big Ten Conference.

Collins guided Northwestern to its first back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in school history, reaching the Second Round in both 2023 and 2024.

Most recently in 2024-25, Northwestern posted its third consecutive winning season with a 17-16 record, despite playing a large portion of the season without two of its top three scorers due to injury. Nick Martinelli became the first Wildcat to lead the Big Ten in scoring since 2011-12 (John Shurna), averaging 20.5 points per game, the highest scoring average by a Wildcat since Evan Eschmeyer (21.7) in 1997-98. Martinelli was named All-Big Ten Second Team. Brooks Barnhizer, who was named All-Big Ten Honorable Mention and NABC All-District Second Team, posted averages of 17.1 points, 8.8 rebounds, 4.2 assists, 2.3 steals and 1.1 blocks per game in 17 games before missing the remainder of the season due to injury.

The 2023-24 team finished with a 22-12 overall record, tied for third in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 12-8 mark and won its NCAA Tournament First Round game over FAU 77-65 in overtime. Northwestern placed in the top three of the conference standings in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1958-59 and 1959-60. The Wildcats tied their program record for most Big Ten wins in a season and claimed 24 league victories over the last two seasons, the most over a two year stretch in school history.

Northwestern won two games over AP Top 10 opponents in a season for the first time in program history. The 'Cats took down No. 1 Purdue for the second straight season, earning a 92-88 overtime win on Dec. 1, and defeated No. 10 Illinois 96-91 in overtime on Jan. 24.

Boo Buie became the first player in school history to be named a unanimous All-Big Ten First Team selection and broke the school's career scoring record by finishing his career with 2,187 points. Brooks Barnhizer earned All-Big Ten Third Team recognition and All-Defensive team honors. Collins was named a 2024 Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year finalist.

In the 2022-23 season, Collins led the team to the school's second NCAA Tournament berth, a 22-12 overall record, and a second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 12-8 league ledger. For the first time since 1958-59, Northwestern finished second in the league standings, while also setting a school record for conference wins in a single-season. Collins was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year, the second time in Northwestern history a coach has earned the award. Additionally, he received national recognition as the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year and a Naismith Coach of the Year Semifinalist.

The regular season was highlighted by a school-record four wins over AP ranked opponents and the program's first victory against the nation's No. 1 team, on Feb. 12 against No. 1 Purdue, 64-58, inside Welsh-Ryan Arena. Playing away from home, the team went 7-4 in true road contests, winning the most road games in a season since 1958-59. The 'Cats captured their first win over a ranked Indiana team since 1988 by downing the No. 15 Hoosiers 84-83 at Assembly Hall on Jan. 8. Northwestern won back-to-back road games over ranked opponents for the first time in school history as it defeated No. 20 Michigan State 70-63 in East Lansing.

Northwestern earned a No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament, the highest in school history, and defeated Boise State 75-67 in the First Round in Sacramento, Calif. The 'Cats improved to 2-0 all-time in NCAA Tournament First Round games.

Under his coaching, Northwestern's senior guards of Chase Audige and Boo Buie combined to become one of the best backcourts in the country and in school history. Audige was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, a first at NU since 1994, and an All-Big Ten Second Team selection. Buie posted one of the best seasons by a point guard in program history and became the first Wildcat named All-Big Ten First Team since John Shurna in 2012. Buie was also a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award, which is awarded to the nation's best point guard. The duo became the first Northwestern teammates to earn first and second team All-Big Ten honors since 1963-64.

Collins led the Wildcats to accomplishments never before reached during the 2016-17 season. The unforgettable campaign saw Northwestern accumulate a school-record 24 wins while earning the program's first NCAA tournament berth and victory in school history.

NU captured the nation's attention with its outstanding start to the season. An 18-4 start, including a six-game winning streak in Big Ten Conference play — the program's first since 1933 — saw the team crack the top 25 of the Associated Press poll on Jan. 30, the team's first national ranking in seven years.

Northwestern went on to record 10 wins in league play, its most since the 1932-33 campaign. Five of the victories came on the road, including a 66-59 triumph at No. 7/5 Wisconsin on Feb. 12.

The 'Cats picked up a pair of wins in the Big Ten tournament in Washington D.C., including defeating 25th-ranked Maryland in its own back yard, to give NU its first appearance in the conference tournament semifinal round in school history.

NU was rewarded with an NCAA tournament berth on Selection Sunday and the Wildcats earned a 68-66 victory over Vanderbilt in an opening-round contest in Salt Lake City. Northwestern pushed second-ranked and eventual national runner-up Gonzaga to the limits in the second round before eventually suffering a narrow loss.

The 'Cats placed two individuals on the All-Big Ten teams for the first time since 2012 as Bryant McIntosh was a unanimous second-team selection while Scottie Lindsey was recognized as a third-team pick of the league's coaches. In addition, Vic Law was named to the conference's five-member All-Defensive Team.

Lindsey was one of the Big Ten's most improved players while McIntosh became Northwestern's all-time leader in assists in just his third season of play.

Collins' contributions to the program were rewarded by being named one of four national finalists for the Naismith Men's Coach of the Year award.

In 2020-21, the 'Cats opened Big Ten play 3-0 for the first time since the 1967-68 season and earned a No. 19 ranking from the AP. NU recorded a 79-65 win over No. 4 Michigan State on Dec. 20, it's first win over a top-five opponent since beating the Spartans in 1979. Later that week, the Wildcats knocked off No. 23 Ohio State, 71-70.

The 2015-16 campaign saw the Wildcats establish a then school regular-season record 20 wins, including eight in Big Ten play. Three of the Big Ten wins were by 20 or more points, marking the first time a Northwestern team posted three league wins by 20+ points since the 1943-44 season.

The Wildcats posted a 10-game winning streak—just the second double-figure winning streak all-time at NU—en route to a 13-1 start to the season, matching the school record for the top 14-game opening stretch in school history. The squad also notched a school-record 13-game home winning streak spanning the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons.

Northwestern ranked sixth in the nation with a 1.59 assist-to-turnover ratio paced by McIntosh who recorded a school single-season record 213 assists. The total blew away the previous record of 157 set by Tim Doyle in 2006-07. McIntosh earned honorable mention All-Big Ten distinction along with senior Tre Damps.

Collins' second season with the Wildcats saw the young team continue to improve throughout the season. Despite a stretch of heartbreaking losses, Northwestern showed the resilience to bounce back late in the year to post four straight Big Ten victories and five of six.

Despite being without the services of leading returning scorer JerShon Cobb for a good portion of the season, the 'Cats came together during their late-season surge. Three of the team's top six scorers were true freshmen, including McIntosh who set the school freshman record with 150 assists to go along with an average of 11.4 points per game en route to being named to the five-member Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

Demps and Alex Olah both earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition. Olah became the school's career leader in blocked shots in just three seasons and ranked third in the Big Ten with seven double-doubles.

Collins won his debut as a head coach, notching a 72-55 victory over Eastern Illinois Nov. 9. He traversed the 'Cats through a grinding Big Ten schedule, including earning his first conference triumph at home against 23rd-ranked Illinois Jan. 12.

Northwestern's impressive string of road success began Jan. 18 at Indiana before the Wildcats earned a 65-56 win at 14th-ranked Wisconsin. The loss was just the fifth by an unranked Big Ten team in 73 games during Bo Ryan's tenure in Madison. The winning ways continued three days later when the 'Cats notched a one-point win at Minnesota, marking NU's first three-game road winning streak since 1960.

Even though second-leading scorer Cobb was lost to injury late in the season, the Wildcats finished the campaign strong, defeating Purdue on the road to wrap up the regular season before upsetting sixth-seeded Iowa in the opening round of the Big Ten tournament.

The Wildcats were greatly improved on the defensive end under Collins' guidance, holding four of their Big Ten opponents below 30 percent shooting in a game. NU allowed a mere 63.3 points per game in conference play to rank second in the league. Meanwhile, the team's .419 opponents field goal percentage ranked third in the Big Ten.

Collins came to Evanston after serving on the coaching staff at Duke since July 22, 2000. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in the summer of 2008. During Collins' 13 seasons on the Blue Devils' staff, Duke posted an overall record of 385-77 while recording eight ACC tournament championships, four ACC regular season titles, eight in-season tournament titles and national championships in 2001 and 2010.

Collins worked primarily with backcourt players during his time at Duke and tutored All-Americans Jason Williams, Mike Dunleavy, Chris Duhon, J.J. Redick, Gerald Henderson, DeMarcus Nelson, Jon Scheyer, Nolan Smith and Austin Rivers, in addition to NBA draft picks Daniel Ewing, Kyrie Irving and Kyle Singler.

Collins also served as a court coach and scout for Mike Krzyzewski, assisting the USA Basketball Senior National Team staff with on-court duties as well as game preparation from 2006-12, including during the program's gold-medal performances at the 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championships and 2012 London Olympics.

CHRIS COLLINS was named the 2023 Big Ten Coach of the Year and the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year after leading the Wildcats to a second-place BIG finish, NU's best Big Ten finish since 1958-59, securing a school-record 12 Big Ten wins.

In his first season as a coach at Duke, the Blue Devils won the 2001 national championship with an 82-72 victory over Arizona. Along the way, Williams earned unanimous first-team All-America and National Player of the Year honors by the NABC. Duhon, a freshman under Collins' tutelage in 2001, was named the ACC Rookie of the Year.

The following year, the Blue Devils posted a 31-4 record, won the ACC tournament for the fourth-consecutive season and were ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final Associated Press poll. Williams earned National Player of the Year honors for the second-consecutive year.

During the 2002-03 season, Duke posted a 26-7 record, a fifth-consecutive ACC tournament championship. One year later, Duke went 31-6 and returned to the Final Four for the second time in Collins' coaching career. Two of his backcourt players, Duhon and Redick, earned All-America and All-ACC recognition.

Collins helped the Blue Devils to a 26-7 overall slate that included the ACC tournament crown in 2004-05. Redick was named the National Player of the Year.

In the 2005-06 season, Collins watched his star pupil, Redick, rank second in the NCAA with a scoring average of 26.8 points per game, while setting the Duke and ACC career scoring records and the NCAA career three-point field goals record. He was a consensus National Player of the Year and a unanimous first-team All-American for the 32-4 Blue Devils.

In 2007-08, Collins helped Nelson elevate his game and garner several honors along the way. Nelson was tabbed the ACC Defensive Player of the Year and also earned NABC third-team All-America, first-team All-ACC and ACC All-Defensive team honors. In 2008-09, Collins guided Henderson to All-America and first-team All-ACC honors. Collins also coached Scheyer in his transition to point guard late in the year, which led to an ACC tournament title.

Collins helped lead Duke to its second national championship during his tenure in 2009-10 as the Blue Devils defeated Butler, 61-59, in the NCAA championship game. Collins coached the top-scoring trio in the NCAA as guards Jon Scheyer, Kyle Singler and Nolan Smith combined to score 53.3 points per game. Scheyer was named a second-team All-America, Singler was the NCAA Final Four Most Outstanding Player and Smith was the NCAA Tournament South Region MOP. All three players were also selected All-ACC and to ACC all-tournament teams while leading the Blue Devils to ACC tournament and ACC regular season championships.

The 2010-11 season marked the third-straight 30-win campaign for the Blue Devils. Collins coached a pair of senior all-stars for the Blue Devils, Singler and Smith. Singler earned first-team All-ACC honors, while Smith led the ACC in scoring at 20.6 points per game to claim ACC Player of the Year and first-team All-America honors.

In 2011-12, Collins was integral in the development of a backcourt that featured NABC third-team All-American Austin Rivers. Rivers averaged a team-high 15.5 points per game to become just the third Duke freshman to lead the team in scoring. He also was tabbed as the ACC Rookie of the Year and was just the seventh freshman in league history to earn first-team all-conference honors.

Before returning to his alma mater, Collins served as an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two years with Tommy Amaker. In 1999-2000, Collins was part of a staff that guided the Pirates to a 22-10 record and the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament. Prior to Seton Hall, Collins spent the 1997-98 season as an assistant with the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Collins played professional basketball in Finland during the 1996-97 season, leading the league in scoring.

While at Duke, Collins was a team captain as a senior and four-year letterman from 1993-96. He ranks 11th among Duke's all-time leaders in three-point field goals (209) and 10th in three-point field goal attempts (539). Collins averaged 9.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.4 assists as a collegian. He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior.

Collins was a member of a Duke senior class that had 83 total victories, three NCAA Tournament bids, one Final Four appearance, two ACC regular season championships, an ACC tournament title, and two in-season tournament championships (the 1992 Maui Classic and the 1995 Carrs Great Alaska Shootout).

As a senior in 1996, Collins had his most productive season, leading the Blue Devils in three-point field goals (79), three-point percentage (.441), free throws made (83) and attempted (115), assists (132) and steals (37). Collins also ranked second on the team by averaging 16.3 points per game. He was among the ACC leaders in scoring (10th), assists (fourth), field goal percentage (.467, seventh) and free throw percentage (.722, 10th).

Collins is the son of former NBA All-Star, NBA Head Coach and Olympian, Doug Collins, who also spent many years as a television analyst for ESPN. A native of nearby Northbrook, Ill., Collins is a 1996 graduate of Duke with a bachelor's degree in sociology.

Collins and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ryan and Kate. Ryan is a Northwestern graduate who was a manager for the program from 2021-25.

Assistant Coach • Fourth Season

CHRIS LOWERY

A veteran college coach with more than 25 years of experience, Chris Lowery enters his fourth season at Northwestern as an assistant coach in 2025-26. Since Lowery arrived in Evanston, the 'Cats have reached two NCAA Tournaments (2023, 2024), recorded two NCAA Tournament victories and posted a winning record in each season.

During his first season on head coach Chris Collins' staff in 2022-23, he earned the inaugural Howard Moore Assistant Coach of the Year Award, which is voted on by Big Ten Conference head coaches.

Most recently in 2024-25 the Wildcats posted a KenPom Defensive Adjusted Efficiency (37) inside the Top 50 for the third straight season. Nick Martinelli became the first Wildcat to lead the Big Ten in scoring since 2011-12 (John Shurna), averaging 20.5 points per game, the highest scoring average by a Wildcat since Evan Eschmeyer (21.7) in 1997-98. Martinelli was named All-Big Ten Second Team. Brooks Barnhizer, who was named All-Big Ten Honorable Mention and NABC All-District Second Team, posted averages of 17.1 points, 8.8 rebounds, 4.2 assists, 2.3 steals and 1.1 blocks per game in 17 games before missing the remainder of the season due to injury.

The 2023-24 team finished with a 22-12 overall record, tied for third in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 12-8 mark and won its NCAA Tournament First Round game over FAU 77-65 in overtime. Northwestern placed in the top three of the conference standings in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1958-59 and 1959-60. The Wildcats tied their program record for most Big Ten wins in a season and claimed 24 league victories over the last two seasons, the most over a two year stretch in school history. Lowery helped coach Boo Buie to his second career All-Big Ten First Team selection.

In 2022-23, Under Lowery's guidance, Northwestern improved its scoring defense by 7.1 points per game from the previous season and ranked third in the Big Ten and 22nd nationally allowing 62.8 points per game. Wildcats' opponents shot just 41.4 percent from the field, the third-best mark in the conference. The team reached the school's second NCAA Tournament, posted a 22-12 overall record and recorded a second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 12-8 league ledger. For the first time since 1958-59, Northwestern finished second in the league standings, while also setting a school record for conference wins in a single-season.

Lowery oversaw the emergence of guard Chase Audige, who became just the second Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year in program history. Audige finished the season with a league-high 81 steals, the second-most in a single-season in school history, and was a Naismith Defensive Player of the Year finalist.

Prior to arriving in Evanston, Lowery was an assistant coach at Kansas State for 10 seasons and played an instrumental role in one of the best stretches in K-State history, which included 170 wins, two Big 12 regular-season championships (2013 and 2019) and five NCAA Tournament appearances (2013, 2014, 2017, 2018, 2019). The Wildcats' two conference titles are the second-most by a Big 12 school in that span with the 2012-13 championship the first-ever in the Big 12 era and the first conference title by the school in more than 36 seasons.

Lowery helped K-State post consecutive 25-win campaigns in 2017-18 and 2018-19 for the first time in school history, as the Wildcats collected a 25-12 overall record and advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in eight seasons in 2017-18 before posting a 25-9 mark and earning a second Big 12 regular-season title in 2018-19. The school was one of 24 programs nationally, including 15 in power conferences, with 25-win seasons in each of those two seasons.

During his time at K-State, Lowery tutored 14 players that were named to All-Big 12 teams. In addition, he has helped mentor the 2019 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, four Big 12 All-Defensive Team members as well as three players selected to the league's All-Newcomer Team.

Lowery arrived at K-State after an eight-year stint (2004-12) as the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Illinois, where he posted a 145-116 (.556) record with four postseason appearances, two Missouri Valley Championships and one State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title. His teams averaged 18.1 wins over his tenure, including three 20-win seasons, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament on three occasions (2005, 2006, 2007), including a 2007 trip to the Sweet 16. Lowery was twice named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year (2005, 2007).

Lowery coached two AP honorable mention All-Americans at SIU, including Darren Brooks in 2005 and Jamaal Tatum in 2007. In addition, his players earned numerous Missouri Valley honors, including two Players of the Year (Brooks and Tatum), four Defensive Players of the Year (Brooks, Randal Falker, Bryan Mullins twice), two Freshmen of the Year (Mullins and Kevin Dillard) and one Sixth Man Award (Tony Young). He coached 12 all-conference players, including five first-team selections, to go with 10 MVC All-Defensive Team honorees, five All-Freshmen picks and four All-Newcomer and Most Improved Team members.

Lowery began his coaching career at Rend Lake College in Ina, Illinois, in 1995, where he helped the Warriors to a 20-win season. He followed with stints at Missouri Southern (1997-2000) and Southeast Missouri State (2000-01) before returning to his alma mater as an assistant helping the Salukis to a 52-15 (.776) record from 2001-03 with back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference titles and consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament. He went to Illinois in 2003-04, where he helped the Fighting Illini to a 26-7 overall record and a trip to the Sweet 16. Illinois also captured its first outright Big Ten regular season title in more than 52 years in 2003-04, as Lowery helped coach future NBA players Deron Williams, Dee Brown, Roger Powell and Luther Head.

After his one-year at Illinois, Lowery returned to his alma mater as the 12th head coach at Southern Illinois on April 9, 2004. In his first year, SIU posted a 27-8 record, including a 15-3 mark in MVC play, and Lowery became the youngest coach, at the age 32, to ever win Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year honors. The Salukis won the MVC regular season crown and beat Saint Mary's in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2006-07, he helped SIU to its greatest season in school history, as the team won a school-record 29 games and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2006-07. The squad finished with a No. 11 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and earned its highest NCAA Tournament seed (No. 4).

Lowery was a standout player for legendary Saluki head coach Rich Herrin from 1990-94. Known as a scrappy, hustling player, he helped lead a basketball renaissance at SIU, guiding the Salukis to consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 1993 and 1994. He helped the school to an 86-37 mark during his playing career, including four postseason appearances and two Missouri Valley Conference titles. He scored 1,225 points and dished out 391 assists in his career. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from the university in 1995.

For his efforts as a player (1991-94), assistant coach (2001-03) and head coach (2004-12), Lowery was inducted into the Southern Illinois Athletics Hall of Fame on October 18, 2019. In those three capacities, he was part of 283 wins with a combined seven NCAA Tournaments and eight MVC Championships.

Lowery was a standout player at Harrison High School in Evansville, Indiana, and for those accomplishments, was named to the 2015 Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame Silver Anniversary Team.

Lowery also has international coaching experience with USA Basketball, serving as an assistant with the U-19 team which won the gold medal at the 2009 World Championships. He coached alongside TCU's Jamie Dixon and Purdue's Matt Painter for a squad that included future NBA players Gordon Heyward, Shelvin Mack, Klay Thompson and Kemba Walker.

A native of Evansville, Indiana, Lowery, and his wife, Erika, have three children, Lexis, C.J., and Jazmyn. The couple's son, Kahari, passed away in November 2016.

CHRIS LOWREY was named the inaugural recipient of the Howard Moore Assistant Coach of the Year in 2023 award after his first season on the staff.

Assistant Coach • Fourth Season

BRYANT MCINTOSH

One of the most accomplished players in school history and career assist leader at Northwestern, Bryant McIntosh enters his fourth season as an assistant coach in 2025-26.

He previously spent three seasons as assistant director of basketball operations (2019-22) following his playing career.

A four-year starter for the Wildcats (2015-18) who guided the team to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in school history, McIntosh is one of three players in Big Ten history to record at least 1,600 points and 700 assists in a career. A second-team All-Big Ten pick as a junior, he holds the top two single-season assist marks in school history and his 700 career assists are a school record.

McIntosh has been instrumental in the development of Nick Martinelli, with Martinelli becoming the first Wildcat to lead the Big Ten in scoring since 2011-12 (John Shurna), by averaging 20.5 points per game, the highest scoring average by a Wildcat since Evan Eschmeyer (21.7) in 1997-98.

The 2023-24 team finished with a 22-12 overall record, tied for third in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 12-8 mark and won its NCAA Tournament First Round game over FAU 77-65 in overtime. Northwestern placed in the top three of the conference standings in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1958-59 and 1959-60. The Wildcats tied their program record for most Big Ten wins in a season and claimed 24 league victories over the last two seasons, the most over a two year stretch in school history.

In his first season in an on-court coaching role McIntosh helped the Wildcats reach the school's second NCAA Tournament berth, a 22-12 overall record, and a second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 12-8 league ledger. For the first time since 1958-59, Northwestern finished second in the league standings, while also setting a school record for conference wins in a single-season. The Wildcats defeated Boise State 75-67 in the NCAA Tournament's First Round in Sacramento, Calif.

Northwestern's senior guards of Chase Audige and Boo Buie combined to form one of the best backcourts in the country and in school history. Audige was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, a first at NU since 1994, and an All-Big Ten Second Team selection. Buie, who is Battle's younger brother, posted one of the best seasons by a point guard in program history and became the first Wildcat named All-Big Ten First Team since John Shurna in 2012. Buie was also a finalist for the Bob Cousy Award, which is awarded to the nation's best point guard. The duo became the first Northwestern teammates to earn first and second team All-Big Ten honors since 1963-64.

The Greensburg, Indiana, native ranks seventh all-time at NU with 1,683 career points while also placing in the top 10 for games played, games started, field goals, minutes played and free throw percentage. He averaged 13.0 points per game and 5.4 assists per game throughout his career.

An Academic All-Big Ten honoree, McIntosh graduated from Northwestern in 2018 with a bachelor's degree in communication studies.

Assistant Coach • Second Season

SHANE SOUTHWELL

A former All-Big 12 player at Kansas State, Shane Southwell enters his second season at Northwestern as an assistant coach in 2025-26.

During his first season on Head Coach Chris Collins' staff, Southwell aided the Wildcats to their third consecutive winning season. Nick Martinelli became the first Wildcat to lead the Big Ten in scoring since 2011-12 (John Shurna), averaging 20.5 points per game, the highest scoring average by a Wildcat since Evan Eschmeyer (21.7) in 1997-98. Martinelli was named All-Big Ten Second Team. Brooks Barnhizer, who was named All-Big Ten Honorable Mention and NABC All-District Second Team, posted averages of 17.1 points, 8.8 rebounds, 4.2 assists, 2.3 steals and 1.1 blocks per game in 17 games before missing the remainder of the season due to injury.

Southwell came to Evanston after spending two years (2022-24) at Northern Illinois as associate head coach and previously had coaching stops at his alma mater, Kansas State (2020-22), where he was instrumental in recruiting all-american Markquis Nowell, and Robert Morris (2019-20). He also served on Weber's staff as video coordinator for the 2019 U19 World Cup, helping the USA win a gold medal with a 7-0 record.

In 2023-24, Southwell helped NIU to its best start since 2015-16 as the Huskies opened 5-1. The Huskies finished the season recording the fourth-most 3-point field goals in school history (227) while playing the toughest schedule in the Mid-American Conference. David Coit became just the fourth player in program history to reach 1,000 career points in just two seasons, en route to being named Third Team All-MAC and NABC All-District Second Team in 2023-24.

During his first season in DeKalb, Southwell helped the Huskies improve to 13 victories and an appearance in the MAC Tournament. NIU recorded its longest road winning streak since the 2002-03 season. The Huskies finished league play second in the MAC in field goal percentage, third in three-point percentage, third in field goal defense, third in three-point defense and third in assists.

As an assistant at Kansas State, Southwell mentored three All-Big 12 selections, including Nijel Pack, who was named the league's most improved player. He also spent two seasons as a graduate assistant in Manhattan from 2017-19, where the Wildcats made a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances, reaching the Elite Eight during the 2017-18 season while winning 25 games. The following season, the Wildcats were the regular season champions of the Big 12, again posting 25 victories, including a 14-4 league mark.

While at Robert Morris, he helped the Colonials win both the Northeast Conference regular season and tournament championships before the 2020 NCAA Tournament was canceled due to COVID-19.

As a player at Kansas State, the Harlem, N.Y. native played four seasons, earning four NCAA Tournament bids as well as the program's first Big 12 regular season crown in 2012-13. He played for current Northwestern assistant coach Chris Lowery in Manhattan and is one of just eight Wildcats to reach the NCAA Tournament in all four seasons as a player.

An Honorable Mention All-Big 12 selection, Southwell appeared in 126 career games at Kansas State, making 68 starts, and finished his career ranking eighth in program history with 271 assists. As a senior in 2013-14, he averaged career-highs of 9.9 points, 2.7 assists and 4.3 rebounds per game, and poured in a career-best 21 points against George Washington. He contributed to the team in many areas, ranking first in blocks, second in rebounds, assists and steals and third in minutes. Following his collegiate career, Southwell played three seasons professionally around the world in Mexico, Australia and Switzerland.

Southwell earned a bachelor's degree from Kansas State in communications studies in 2014 and a master's in college student personnel and intercollegiate athletics from Kansas State in 2019.

Special Assistant to the Head Coach • 13th Season

BRIAN JAMES

Brian James enters his 13th season on staff at Northwestern on head coach Chris Collins' staff and begins his fourth season as special assistant to the head coach in 2025-26.

James, who has been a part of three NCAA Tournament team in Evanston, is in charge of working with Northwestern's post players and out of bounds plays. He is credited for drawing up "The Play," Nathan Taphorn's length-of-the-court pass to Dererk Pardon that resulted in a buzzer-beating 67-65 win for Northwestern over Michigan in 2017 that all but clinched NU's first NCAA tournament berth in program history.

During his time in Evanston, James has worked with the top three shot blockers in school history in Alex Olah, Pardon and Matthew Nicholson. Northwestern has recorded its top four shot blocking seasons in program history during James' tenure.

Most recently in 2024-25, Nicholson recorded a career-best 45 blocks and became the first player in program history to register three seasons of 40+ rejections. The Wildcats posted their third straight winning season and Nick Martinelli became the first Wildcat to lead the Big Ten in scoring since 2011-12 (John Shurna), averaging 20.5 points per game, the highest scoring average by a Wildcat since Evan Eschmeyer (21.7) in 1997-98. Martinelli was named All-Big Ten Second Team. Brooks Barnhizer, who was named All-Big Ten Honorable Mention and NABC All-District Second Team, posted averages of 17.1 points, 8.8 rebounds, 4.2 assists, 2.3 steals and 1.1 blocks per game in 17 games before missing the remainder of the season due to injury.

James helped Northwestern to its first back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in school history, reaching the Second Round in 2024 by defeating FAU 77-65 in overtime. The 2023-24 team finished with a 22-12 overall record and tied for third in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 12-8 mark. Northwestern placed in the top three of the conference standings in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1958-59 and 1959-60. The Wildcats tied their program record for most Big Ten wins in a season and claimed 24 league victories over the last two seasons, the most over a two year stretch in school history.

In the 2022-23 season, James assisted the team to the school's second NCAA Tournament berth, a 22-12 overall record, and a second-place finish in the Big Ten Conference standings with a 12-8 league ledger. For the first time since 1958-59, Northwestern finished second in the league standings, while also setting a school record for conference wins in a single-season. The Wildcats reached the second round following a 75-67 victory over Boise State.

During the 2021-22 season, the Wildcats tallied a 64-62 road win at No. 10 Michigan State on Jan. 15. Northwestern defeated Nebraska 71-69 in the Big Ten Tournament, earning the team's first postseason win since 2016-17. He oversaw Pete Nance's career that saw him become the 38th player in program history to score 1,000 or more points

In 2020-21, the 'Cats opened Big Ten play 3-0 for the first time since the 1967-68 season and earned a No. 19 ranking from the AP. NU recorded a 79-65 win over No. 4 Michigan State on Dec. 20, it's first win over a top-five opponent since beating the Spartans in 1979. Later that week, the Wildcats knocked off No. 23 Ohio State, 71-70.

Under James, Alex Olah became Northwestern's all-time leader in blocked shots in only three seasons while finishing with 181 for his career. He also posted 1,161 career points and left NU with 663 rebounds to rank ninth in program history in the category.

With both Olah and fellow veteran big man Joey van Zegeren sidelined due to injury at the beginning of Big Ten play in 2015-16, James groomed freshman Dererk Pardon for a key role on the squad. In just his second career game and first Big Ten game, Pardon posted 28 points and 12 rebounds in a victory at Nebraska under James' tutelage.

James helped in the development of Pardon as one of the conference's best big men. Pardon led the Big Ten Conference in 2016-17 with a .617 field goal percentage in league play, becoming the first Northwestern player to do so since Evan Eschmeyer in 1998-99. In all games during the 2016-17 season, Pardon ranked second in the league in field goal percentage (.611), fourth in blocked shots (1.8 pg) and seventh in rebounding (8.0 pg). As a junior, Pardon set the single-season program record in field goal percentage (.619) and was named honorable mention All-Big Ten by the media.

James came to Northwestern after spending three seasons as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia 76ers alongside head coach Doug Collins, Chris Collins' father. He helped the Sixers reach the 2012 NBA Eastern Conference Semifinals.

The Taylorville, Illinois, native has 14 years of NBA coaching experience. Prior to joining the Sixers, James served as an assistant coach with the Milwaukee Bucks for three seasons from 2005-06 through 2007-08. In addition to the Bucks, James had held assistant coaching positions in the NBA with Washington (2001-03), Toronto (1998-2001) and Detroit (1995-98). His stints with the Wizards and Pistons also came as a member of Doug Collins' staff.

The Raptors reached the semifinal round of the Eastern Conference playoffs in 2001 and James helped coach the Eastern Conference squad at the 1997 NBA All-Star Game while on the coaching staff of the Pistons.

During his time in the NBA, James coached such notable players as Michael Jordan, Grant Hill, Vince Carter, Tracy McGrady, Michael Redd, Elton Brand and Andre Iguodala.

He also served as an NBA analyst for ESPN.com and spent two years as an advance scout for the Seattle Supersonics.

His 18 years of high school coaching experience in the state of Illinois were split between four different high schools. In addition to Glenbrook North, James also served head-coaching stints at Romeoville and Wilmington. He compiled a varsity career coaching record of 196-79 (.713) and helped his teams reach the state tournament four times. James served as Collins' coach during his high school career at Glenbrook North where he helped Collins gain McDonald's All-America status as well as the title of Illinois' Mr. Basketball.

A 1977 graduate of Illinois State University with a degree in physical education, James holds a master's degree in educational administration from Northeastern Illinois University.

He has three children: Christopher, Dayna and Brady.

Director of Operations • 13th Season

CHRIS LAUTEN

Chris Lauten enters his 13th season as the team's director of basketball operations in 2025-26.

His duties include assisting in all day-to-day operations of the Wildcat basketball program, including scheduling, team travel, serving as the team's academic liaison and directing the summer basketball camps.

Lauten came to Northwestern after working for the NBA Development League in New York, N.Y., since October of 2008. During his time with the NBA D-League, Lauten was responsible for scouting and signing players for the league's annual draft, for processing player personnel-related transactions, for providing NBA teams with information highlighting the D-League's top prospects and for managing the basketball operations behind the league's Showcase, All-Star and Summer League events among other responsibilities. He also served as an NBA Employee Volunteer from 2010-12, where he mentored New York-based middle school students.

Lauten is a 2008 graduate of Duke University with degrees in sociology and history. He was a five-year letterwinner as a student manager for the school's men's basketball program and served as the head senior manager for the Blue Devils for two seasons. Lauten assisted with the logistics behind team practices, meetings and scout sessions, compiled video and statistical reports and was involved with on-court drills and skill work. He also served as a youth basketball camp counselor during the summers.

He is a native of Orlando, Florida.

Basketball Video and Recruiting Operations Coordinator • Fourth Season

JOHN MARTINEZ

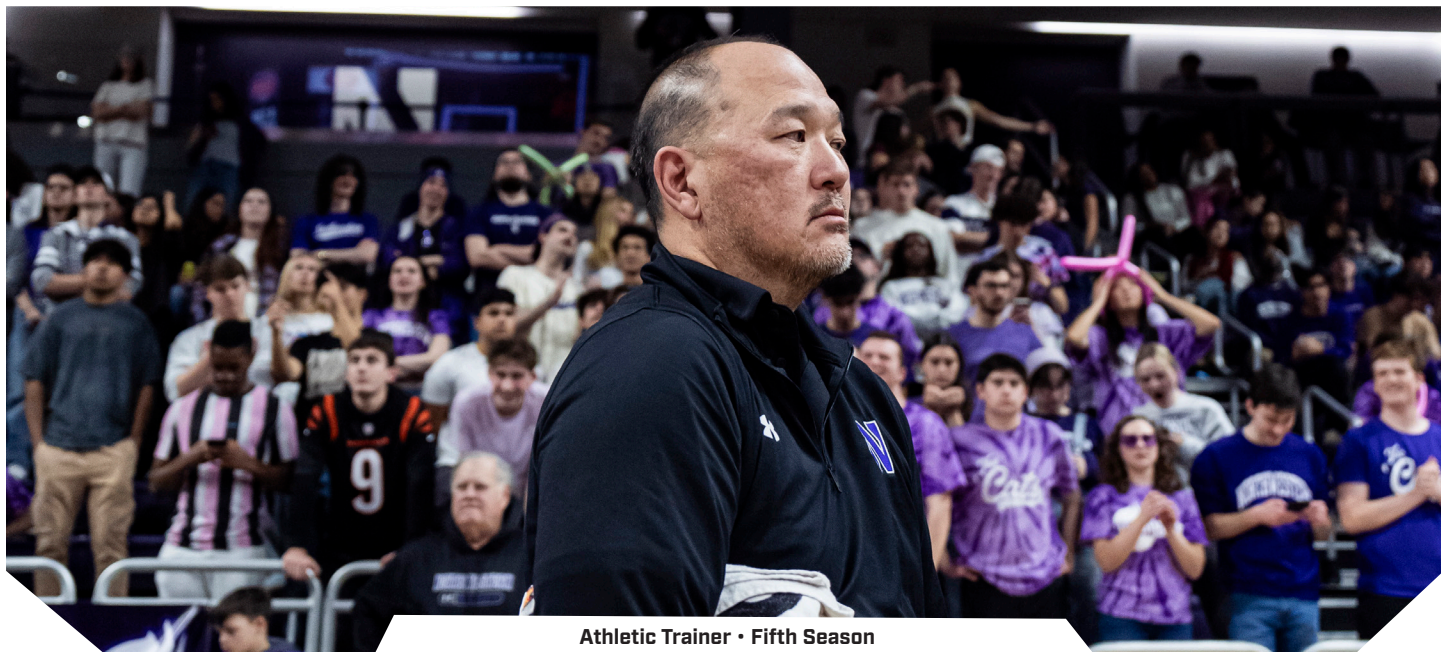

John Martinez joined the Northwestern Men's Basketball program in June of 2021, and will begin his fourth season as Basketball Video and Recruiting Operations Coordinator in 2025-26. Prior to his current role, Martinez was a Graduate Manager for the program during the 2021-22 season.

Martinez handles all video related aspects for the program and assists the Northwestern coaching staff by compiling scouting reports and providing statistical analysis. During the season he oversees the scout team. Martinez also heads Northwestern's on-campus recruiting efforts and helps the coaching staff with overseeing and managing the program's recruiting and NCAA transfer portal databases.

Martinez is also the supervisor for undergraduate and graduate student managers and former player relations.

Prior to his arrival in Evanston, Martinez spent four years as an undergraduate student manager at St. John's University in Queens, New York.

Martinez earned his bachelor's degree in Economics from St. John's in 2021 and a master's degree in Sports Administration from Northwestern in 2023. He is also a member of the Latino Association of Basketball Coaches, a platform for Latino(a) coaches to connect, develop and be part of the innovative process in the game of basketball.

Athletic Trainer • Fifth Season

JEFF TANAKA

Jeff Tanaka joined Northwestern in November 2021. He is responsible for overseeing the health care of the men's basketball team, supporting the athletic training staff and managing the sport medicine facilities at the stadium campus.

Tanaka is a graduate of Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, where he earned a degree in Physical Education. While earning a master's degree in Kinesiology at San Jose State University, Tanaka was a graduate assistant with the San Francisco 49ers (1995-1997).

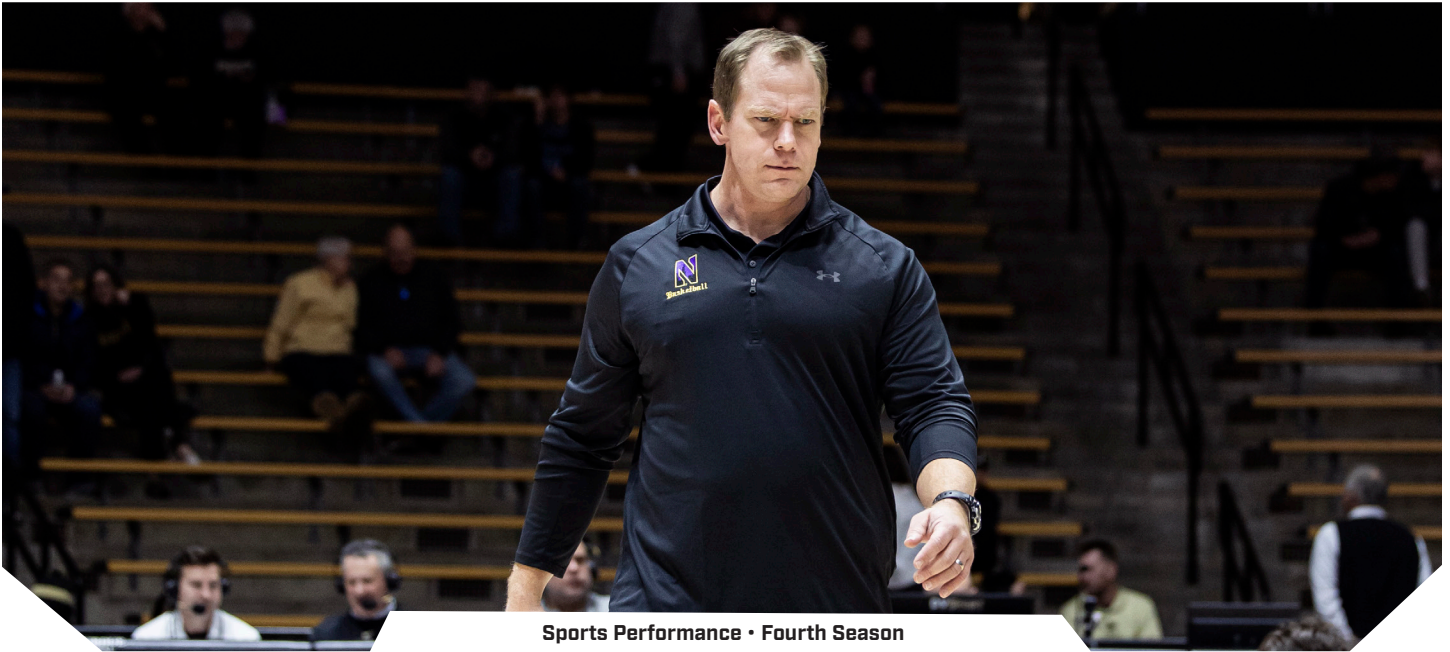

Tanaka spent extensive time working in professional sports, including the NBA and NFL. He worked 12 seasons (2008-20) on the athletic training staff of the Chicago Bulls, including six years as the Head Athletic Trainer. Tanaka served as an athletic trainer for two NBA All-Star Games (2009, 2020) and has traveled to Europe and Asia with the NBA Basketball Without Borders program.

Prior to joining Northwestern, Tanaka was the Head Athletic Trainer for the Chicago Fire FC of MLS for the 2021 season.

Before working for the Bulls, Tanaka spent nine seasons as an Assistant Athletic Trainer with the San Francisco 49ers (1999-08). While with the 49ers, the Tanaka was a member of the NFL Training Staff of the Year in 2001. He was also the assistant athletic trainer for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1997. He got his first experience in the professional setting as a training camp intern with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. He spent two seasons in the collegiate ranks (1997-1999) at Cal, where he was athletic trainer for men's basketball and the men's and women's swim teams.

Tanaka is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and served as Secretary for the National Basketball Athletic Trainers' Association (NBATA) Executive Committee 2015-2019. Tanaka is certified by the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) as a Corrective Exercise Specialist and also holds certifications in Active Release Technique, Blood Flow Restriction, Dry Needling, and Functional Range Conditioning. His areas of interest are soft tissue interventions, movement assessment, utilizing biometric data to help inform medical decision making, and mentoring sports medicine professionals and athletes.

Jeff and his wife, Valerie, reside in Chicago, with their daughter, Dylan and son, Casey.

Sports Performance • Fourth Season

BRENDON ZIEGLER

Brendon Ziegler joined Northwestern as an assistant director of sports performance in 2022 and works primarily with the men's basketball and fencing programs.

Ziegler previously spent 11 seasons overseeing the strength and conditioning programs with Cal State Bakersfield basketball, handling the implementation of season and off-season programs. Ziegler helped the Roadrunners achieve the program's first Big West Conference title and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2015-16. Ziegler helped CSU Bakersfield reach the NIT semifinals hosted at Madison Square Garden the following year in 2016-17.

Prior to his time at CSU Bakersfield, Ziegler spent five years as an assistant sports performance coordinator at Oregon State working with the men's basketball, football, softball and golf programs. He also has experience as a strength and conditioning coach at Hawai'i, Wisconsin and the Chicago Bulls.

Ziegler is also a championship-winning weightlifter and captured men's division titles in state competitions while at Oregon State. The Edgerton, Wisc. native graduated from Hamline University in St. Paul, Minn. with a degree in exercise science/biology in 2004, where he played defensive line for the football team.

Ziegler is married to former CSU Bakersfield head softball coach Crissy Buck-Ziegler. The couple has a son, Brock.

Performance Nutrition • Fourth Season

LINDSAY ESPOSITO

Lindsay Esposito joined Northwestern Athletics as the Assistant Director of Performance Nutrition in April of 2021 after serving the last four years as a sports dietitian at Purdue University. In her new role, her work is centered around helping student athletes use nutrition to fuel both athletic and academic success through individualized nutrition counseling, team education, meal planning, and assessment of food and supplement security.

Previously, Esposito served in roles with University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign Sports Nutrition in 2012-15, University of Houston in 2015, and Rutgers University in 2016. A Chicago suburb native, she earned her bachelor's degree in Food Science & Human Nutrition with a concentration in Dietetics in 2015 from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and a master's degree concentrated in Applied Exercise Science and Sports Nutrition at Concordia University Chicago in 2019.

Esposito is a Registered Dietitian (RD) and a Board Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics (CSSD) who is actively involved in the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA) and the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics. She also is a dietetic internship preceptor where she provides guidance, practical experience, and training to RDs to be.

In her free time, Esposito can be found spending time with family or outdoors hiking, running, or relaxing on a beach as weather permits.

Assistant Director of Basketball Operations • Second Season

MAURA WALSH

Maura Walsh began her position as Assistant Director of Basketball Operations in January 2025. She previously held the role of Operations Assistant with Northwestern's Men Basketball Program, beginning in January 2024.

In her role, she manages recruiting visits, arranges team and coach travel, oversees event logistics, communicates with donors and alumni of the program, and handles game-day needs such as ticketing and visitor coordination.

A native of Lemont, IL, Maura earned her undergraduate degree in Sport Management from Loras College in 2018, where she was recognized as both an All-Region Athlete and All-Region Scholar for her contributions to the Women's Soccer program. She went on to complete her master's degree also in Sport Management at Baylor University in 2020, further solidifying her expertise in the sports industry.

Outside of her professional work, Maura is dedicated to coaching soccer, working at both the club and high school level, to develop young athletes and foster a love for the game.

Overall Record: 1,111-1,603-1 (119 seasons)

Big Ten Record: 554-1,135

Northwestern and Notre Dame played to a 20-20 tie on Dec. 31, 1935.

* Larry Glass coached the first 18 games of 1968-69 before resigning, going 10-8 (2-6 Big Ten). Larry Snyder took over and went 4-2 (all in Big Ten) the remainder of the season.

(F) Records reflect overturned results due to subsequent forfeitures by opposing schools for NCAA violations. See year-by-year results for details.

(D) Home games in 1982-83 were played at DePaul's Alumni Hall due to renovation of McGaw Hall (Welsh-Ryan Arena).

(A) Home games in 2017-18 were played at Allstate Arena in Rosemont, Ill., due to renovation to Welsh-Ryan Arena

* Played at Rosemont Horizon; Rosemont, Ill.

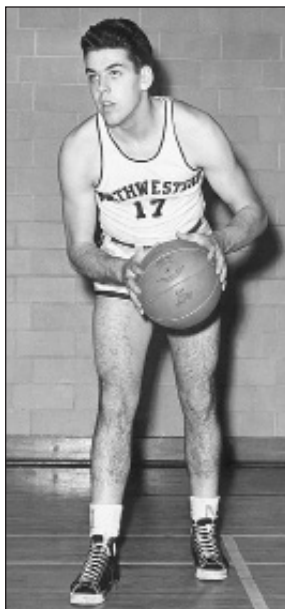

Billy McKinney became the first athlete in the 173-year history of Northwestern University to have his number retired on March 2, 2024.

JOE REIFF
CENTER • 1931 & 1933

Joe Reiff's All-America campaigns coincided with the Wildcats' two Big Ten championships. He led the Big Ten in scoring in both 1931 and 1933, sandwiching his titles around the 1932 champ, a Purdue player named John Wooden.

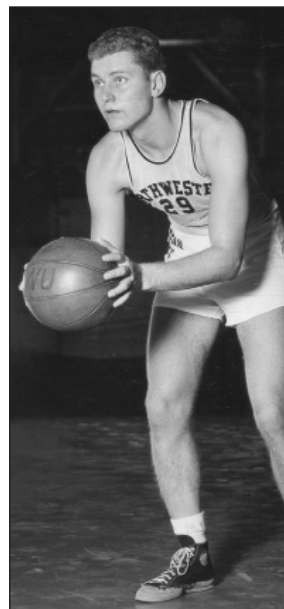

OTTO GRAHAM
FORWARD • 1944

Otto Graham was renowned for his football career, both at Northwestern and professionally. Lesser known, however, was his basketball prowess. Graham remains one of two NU athletes ever to earn All-America honors in two different sports.

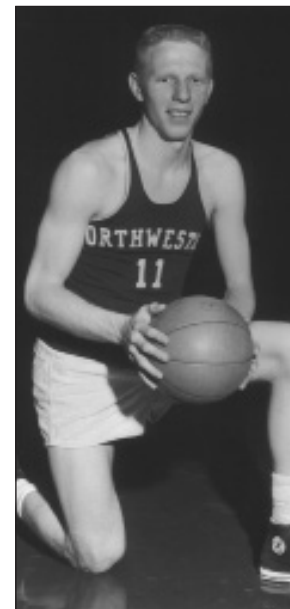

MAX MORRIS
FORWARD • 1946

Max Morris was the first-ever recipient of the Chicago Tribune's Big Ten Player of the Year honor, in 1946. He led the conference in scoring twice (15.8 ppg in 1945, 16.5 ppg in 1946), and joins Otto Graham as NU's only multi-sport All-Americans.

RAY RAGELIS
FORWARD • 1951

Ray Ragelis twice led NU in scoring, including averaging 19.1 points per game as a senior. The first player in school history to tally 1,000 career points, Ragelis was selected by the Rochester Royals in the 2nd round of the 1951 NBA Draft.

FRANK EHMANN
FORWARD • 1955

Frank Ehmann's scoring average of 23.9 points per game as a senior in 1954-55 is the second-best single-season mark in school history. He was a two-time team MVP and was inducted into Northwestern's Hall of Fame in 1987.

JOE RUKLICK
CENTER • 1958

Joe Ruklick led the 'Cats in both scoring and rebounding all three of his seasons on the varsity. His career scoring average of 19.9 points per game is tops in school history, while his average of 13.9 rebounds per game in 1958 is an NU season mark.

JIM BURNS
GUARD • 1967

Jim Burns enjoyed an outstanding senior season, leading the team with an average of 21.5 points per game. At the time his career ended, Burns was Northwestern's career scoring leader with 1,368 points in three seasons. He currently ranks 13th.

EVAN ESCHMEYER
CENTER • 1999

Evan Eschmeyer made the most of his senior campaign, leading the Wildcats in scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage as they advanced to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). He ranks fourth in school history with 1,805 career points.

JOHN SHURNA
FORWARD • 2012

John Shurna graduated as Northwestern's all-time leader in scoring, blocked shots and games played. He was a three-time All-Big Ten selection, led the conference in scoring as a senior and guided the 'Cats to postseason play all four years of his career.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

JIM BURNS
FIRST TEAM, 1967

Jim Burns enjoyed a distinguished career at NU, becoming the first Wildcat player to earn Academic All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors. He led NU in scoring all three years he was on varsity and is 13th all-time in scoring.

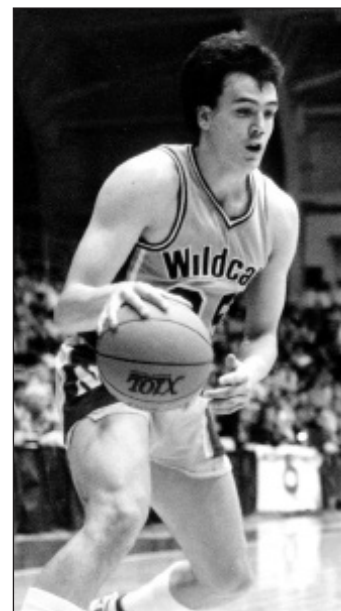

RICK SUND
THIRD TEAM, 1973

Rick Sund was named the team's MVP as a sophomore in 1971 and served as a team captain in 1973. He was twice named an Academic All-Big Ten selection. Sund also played split end on the Northwestern football team.

MIKE CAMPBELL
FIRST TEAM, 1980

Mike Campbell led the team in rebounding twice, in 1978 and 1980, and also topped the squad in blocked shots his junior and senior seasons. He is 20th on NU's all-time list with 576 career rebounds.

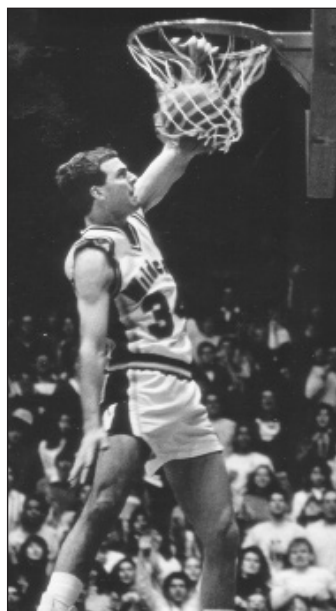

SHON MORRIS
FIRST TEAM, 1987 & 1988
SECOND TEAM, 1986

Shon Morris is NU's only three-time Academic All-American, and as a senior he was also Playboy Magazine's Anson Mount Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

BRIAN SCHWABE
THIRD TEAM, 1989

Brian Schwabe earned a total of three Academic All-Big Ten selections during his career. He ranks fourth all-time at NU in career field goal percentage and scored over 1,000 points. He twice led the team in rebounding and field goal percentage.

WALKER LAMBIOTTE
THIRD TEAM, 1990

Walker Lambiotte was twice named the Wildcats' team MVP, in 1989 and again in 1990. In 1989, he led the team in scoring, field goal percentage and steals.

KEVIN RANKIN
THIRD TEAM, 1993

A three-time team MVP and Academic All-Big Ten selection, Kevin Rankin was also a third-team All-Big Ten pick in 1992 and again in 1994. He ranks eighth on NU's all-time scoring list and is second in rebounding.

DREW CRAWFORD
SECOND TEAM, 2012

Drew Crawford was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 2010 and was a third-team All-Big Ten selection in 2012 and again in 2014. He is the second-leading scorer in school history and is first in games played.

FRANK EHMANN (right) and HAL GRANT were teammates in the early 1950s with each eclipsing the 1,000-point plateau, ranking 23rd and 24th, respectively on Northwestern's all-time scoring list.

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

The listing of all-time men's basketball lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow and includes only those players which earned a varsity letter; student-managers and trainers are not listed. The information on each student-athlete was compiled from media guides, programs, yearbooks and academic records. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to Northwestern's athletic communications office.

Current players who have previously lettered are listed in bold.
