PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Brook Bolles, QB
Central Missouri

Bolles led the Mules to their first MIAA Championship since 2003 as he led NCAA Division II in passing yards with 3,660 to go with 28 touchdowns, good for second in the country. Bolles was named MIAA Offensive Player of the Year and led the Mules to a 10-1 overall record and a birth in the NCAA Division II Playoffs, winning their first postseason game since 2010 over UIndy.

Austin Edwards, DL,
Ferris State

Edwards, the GLIAC Player of the Year and a Gene Upshaw Award Finalist, led the Bulldogs to their second straight undefeated regular season and a GLIAC Championship. Edwards was one of the top defensive linemen in the country with eight sacks on the year to go with 13.5 tackles for loss. Edwards has been instrumental in leading Ferris State back to the NCAA Regional Finals.
