BEARCATS AVOID BACK-TO-BACK LOSSES

Northwest avoided back-to-back losses with a convincing 59-7 victory at Northeastern State after coming off a 17-16 loss at Washburn.

Northwest last dropped two straight MIAA games on Oct. 28, 2017 at Pittsburg State and then lost the following week at home on Nov. 5, 2017, against Fort Hays State.

Prior to those losses to PSU and FHSU in 2017, Northwest had not lost consecutive MIAA games since a three-game skid in 2001 against Truman State, Central Missouri and Missouri Western.

MORE & MORE MOYA

Junior Jamar Moya enjoyed a breakout performance in Saturday's 59-7 win at Northeastern State.

Entering Saturday, Moya had rushed the ball 11 times for 55 yards and had caught three passes for 36 yards.

Against the RiverHawks, Moya simply took over. He carried the ball eight times for 169 yards (21.1 yards/rush) and two touchdowns. He also caught four passes for 22 yards and two more scores.

Moya tallied touchdown runs of 10 and 71 yards and receiving scores of 16 and five yards against the RiverHawks.

MOYA'S LONG RUN

Jamar Moya's 71-yard touchdown run was the longest rushing play by a Bearcat since James Franklin had a 74-yard run against Emporia State on Nov. 12, 2011.

COMEBACK 'CATS

Northwest produced its 11th come-from-behind victory, and the largest second-half comeback, in the head coach Rich Wright era in Saturday's win against Pittsburg State.

PSU led 16-0 with 10:39 to play in the third quarter before Northwest rallied to defeat the Gorillas, 20-19.

It is the second-largest deficit Northwest has overcome since Wright took over the program in 2017. Fort Hays State led Northwest 17-0 in the second quarter of a Nov. 9, 2019 matchup in Hays, Kan., before the Bearcats rallied for a 36-33 double-overtime triumph.

HALFTIME DEFICIT

The Bearcats won for only the second time when trailing at the half in the head coach Rich Wright coaching era when they responded from a 13-0 halftime deficit vs. Pittsburg State.

Northwest is 2-7 since 2017 when trailing at the break.

Before the Pitt State comeback, Northwest's last halftime deficit that resulted in a win came Oct. 5, 2019, when Northwest was down 17-12 at the break at Emporia State.

ROBERTS EARNS MIAA DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior defensive lineman Sam Roberts was named the MIAA's Defensive Athlete of the Week.

Roberts tallied seven tackles, two tackles-for-loss and a quarterback sack as he helped Northwest score a come-from-behind 20-19 win at home over Pittsburg State.

Following an opening drive touchdown by the Gorillas, Roberts and the Bearcat defense allowed only four field goals the rest of the game by PSU.

HOHENSEE GUIDES 2ND-HALF COMEBACK VS PITT STATE

Sophomore quarterback Mike Hohensee directed three second-half touchdown drives to lead a Northwest comeback that saw the Bearcats trailing 16-0 with 10:39 to play in the third quarter.

Hohensee hit Kaden Davis

for a 33-yard touchdown strike with 7:59 to play in the third. Following a PSU field goal, Hohensee drove the Bearcats for another touchdown that was capped off with a 23-yard scoring pass to Jadon Brady. The Hohensee to Brady connection trimmed the PSU lead to 19-14 with 0:53 left in the third.

Hohensee then led the game-winning drive that was comprised 79 yards in 10 plays and consumed 4:30 off the block in the fourth. Hohensee went 5-for-6 passing on the drive, including an 8-yard touchdown pass to Davis on 3rd-and-goal with 5:15 to play in the game.

Hohensee finished the game going 17-of-23 passing for 199 yards and three touchdowns. He also ran for 12 yards on two carries.

Hembrough caught a 36-yard pass from Mike Hohensee in the first quarter to tie the game at 7-7.

MILLER NOTCHES TWO SACKS

Sophomore defensive end Tyler Miller registered a pair of quarterback sacks and recovered a fumble against Missouri Western.

He was a part of a Bearcat defense that held the Griffons to eight yards rushing and 93 yards passing.

Miller posted three total tackles as the Bearcat defensive unit did not allow a point (MWSU defense scored on a fumble) for the second straight week.

PUNTING ON SHORT NOTICE

Freshman punter Dallas Williams dressed for his first collegiate game at Missouri Western and was thrust into game service immediately.

Williams punted four times for a 41.0 average. Two of his kicks were downed inside the 20, including a coffin-corner punt that went out at the one-yard line. He had a long punt of 44 yards.

TRULY DEFENSIVE GEM

The Bearcat defense produced a defensive gem against Central Oklahoma.

The Bearcats held the Bronchos to 122 total yards, including minus-28 on the ground.

UCO was limited to eight first downs and only 42 total plays.

PLENTY OF BEARCAT OFFENSIVE EFFICIENCY

Northwest converted on 14-of-18 third down opportunities against Central Oklahoma.

The 14 third-down conversions are the most by an NCAA Division II team in a single game this season.

TATUM JOINS 200-YARD CLUB

Senior wide receiver Alec Tatum produced the seventh 200-yard receiving game in program history. His 205 receiving yards ranks as the fourth-highest single-game total in Bearcat history.

Tatum caught 11 passes for 205 yards and two touchdowns in the 38-0 win over Central Oklahoma. Tatum nabbed a 44-yard Hail Mary at the close of the first half, and then latched on to a 28-yard score in the fourth quarter.

Tatum is one of 10 NCAA Division II players to have reached 200 yards receiving in a game this year.

TATUM TURNS IT UP TO 11

Senior wide receiver Alec Tatum's 11 receptions vs. Central Oklahoma tied him for the sixth-most catches by Bearcat in a single-game.

The last Bearcat to grab at least 11 receptions in a game was Shawn Bane Jr., when he caught 11 passes vs. Washburn (11/14/2015).

GREEN, KRAUSE HOOK UP FOR FIRST TOUCHDOWNS

Junior running back Davonte Green tallied his first collegiate touchdown on a 65-yard screen pass from red-shirt freshman quarterback Joseph Krause in the fourth quarter of Northwest's 38-0 win over UCO.

TATUM, BARNES EARN MIAA ATHLETE OF THE WEEK AWARD

Senior wide receiver Alec Tatum (Huntsville, Texas) and senior linebacker Jackson Barnes (Kansas City, Mo.) have been named the MIAA football offensive and defensive athletes of the week presented by Mammoth Turf for their vs. Central Oklahoma.

Tatum tallied 11 receptions for 205 yards and two touchdowns against the Bronchos. Tatum nabbed a 44-yard Hail Mary at the close of the first half, and then latched on to a 28-yard score in the fourth quarter. Tatum is one of 10 NCAA Division II players to have reached 200 yards receiving in a game this year.

Barnes led the Bearcat defense to a 38-0 shutout of Central Oklahoma. Barnes notched three tackles-for-loss and a sack as the Bearcats limited UCO to 122 yards of total offense (minus-28 rushing) and eight total first downs. The UCO offense was held to only 42 plays.

It marks the second consecutive week that Barnes has earned the MIAA's top defensive weekly honor.

WHAT A START FOR QB MIKE

Sophomore quarterback Mike Hohensee made his first career start in Northwest's 47-7 road win over Central Missouri.

Hohensee accounted for six touchdowns in the victory. Hohensee passed for four touchdowns and rushed for two against the Mules.

Hohensee went 14-of-18 passing for 260 yards. He also rushed for 30 yards.

He started the scoring Saturday with a 33-yard touchdown run down on Northwest's opening drive. He hit Kaden Davis for a 13-yard touchdown pass on his second drive.

On his third drive, he connected with Al McKeller on a 44-yard touchdown score to give Northwest a 21-0 lead.

On his fourth drive of the contest, Hohensee scored on a quarterback keeper on 3rd-and-goal to put Northwest up 27-0.

In the second half, he hooked on passing touchdowns to Davis again for 15 yards and Imoni Donadelle for a 17-yard scoring strike.

HOHENSEE OWNS TOP PASS EFFICIENCY IN THE NATION

Mike Hohensee produced this year's NCAA Division II best passer efficiency rating of 272.4 in his debut as a starter against Central Missouri.

SHUTOUTS UNDER WRIGHT

Northwest has recorded nine shutouts since head coach Rich Wright took over the program in 2017.

The Bearcats posted five shutouts in 2017 and added two more in 2018.

Northwest added a 79-0 blanking of Northeastern State in 2019.

The Bearcats blasted Central Oklahoma for their latest shutout,

38-0.

BARNES NAMED MIAA DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior linebacker Jackson Barnes has been named the MIAA's co-defensive athlete of the week presented by Mammoth Turf.

Barnes tallied a game-high 10 tackles, broke up four passes, registered two tackles-for-loss and intercepted a pass in Northwest's 47-7 road triumph over the Central Missouri Mules.

With Northwest holding a 14-0 lead, UCM struck for a 53-yard pass play to move the ball to the 22-yard line. However, the Bearcat defense responded with the first turnover of the game as Barnes intercepted a pass and returned it 15 yards to turn away the Mules drive. His interception led to a touchdown four plays later and Northwest did not look back en route to the 40-point win.

DAVIS ENJOYS UCM

Senior wide receiver Kaden Davis seems to enjoy playing the Central Missouri Mules.

Davis has tallied two 100-yard receiving games in his career and both have come against the Mules.

Davis posted four receptions for 103 yards and two touchdowns in Northwest's 47-7 win at UCM.

On Nov. 16 2019, Davis recorded four catches for 105 yards against the Mules.

PLUNKETT SCORES 1ST TD

Sophomore Peyton Plunkett scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 22-yard blocked punt return.

Northwest's Jake Fisher secured his first career blocked punt against Central Missouri. Plunkett then scooped up the ball and scampered 22 yards to give Northwest a 27-0 lead at UCM.

HEAVY WORKLOAD

Al McKeller's 28 carries against Fort Hays State were the most by a Northwest player since James Franklin rushed 28 times vs. Central Missouri on Oct. 8, 2011.

FIRST-TIME PASS RECEPTIONS

Northwest had three players make their first collegiate pass receptions against Fort Hays State. Davonte Green (2 rec., 15 yds.), Trevon Alexander (1 rec., 15 yds.) and Cole Hembrough (1 rec., 9 yds.) each caught their first college passes.

DYNAMITE DEFENSE

The Bearcat defense put on quite an impressive performance in the 15-7 win at Fort Hays State.

Northwest did not allow Fort Hays State to begin a play in the red zone. The closest FHSU got to the red zone was the 22-yard line.

FHSU's average starting field position for the game was its own 15-yard line. In the first quarter, FHSU's average starting position was its own 4-yard line. It improved to their own 31-yard line in the second quarter. FHSU's average starting position in the third quarter was its own 11-yard line. FHSU's fourth quarter average starting position was its own 22-yard line.

The Bearcats held the Tigers to eight rushing yards in the first half and 48 total rushing yards in the game.

BEARCATS OWNED TIME OF POSSESSION VS TIGERS

Northwest enjoyed a time possession lead vs. Fort Hays State to the rune of 39:06-20:54.

FHSU had only two drives that lasted more than two minutes.

Northwest forced a three-and-out or a turnover on seven of FHSU's drives.

ANDERSON WITH A PICK

Senior J'Ravien Anderson recorded his third career interception in the fourth quarter of Northwest's 15-7 win at Fort Hays State.

Anderson recorded his first interception in 2017 and added another in 2019.

NIMMERS CLINCHES THE WIN

Senior Isaiah Nimmers clinched the Bearcat victory with an interception in the endzone on the final play of Northwest's 15-7 win over Fort Hays State.

It was his second career interception having tallied a pick in an NCAA FCS Playoff game against Lamar University when he played at the University of Northern Iowa on Nov. 24, 2018.

HOHENSEE NAMED MIAA SPECIAL TEAMS ATHLETE OF WEEK

Sophomore Mike Hohensee was named the MIAA's Special Teams Athlete of the Week (Sept. 6).

Hohensee (St. Charles, Ill.) punted seven times for a 41.4 average in a 15-7 victory at Fort Hays State. Four of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line, including a pair at the one-yard line.

Hohensee recorded the longest punt of the 2021 season by any MIAA player when he unleashed a 73-yard punt in the third quarter.

3RD-LONGEST STRETCH BETWEEN BEARCAT VICTORIES

Northwest scored a 15-7 victory at Fort Hays State to begin the 2021 season. It marked the first victory for the Bearcats in 642 days - the third-longest stretch between victories in school history.

The longest stretch between wins is 743 days (Oct. 27, 1916 - Nov. 9, 1918). The second-longest stretch is 700 days (Oct. 16, 1993 - Sept. 16, 1995).

FOR OPENERS

Northwest is the winningest NCAA Div. II program of this decade from 2010-2019. Northwest is 119-19 for an .875 winning percentage since 2010. The Bearcats have been ranked No. 1 in the NCAA Div. II Top 25 poll 38 times since the start of the 2010 season.

BEARCATS PICKED TO WIN MIAA REGULAR SEASON TITLE, NO. 4 IN PRESEASON POLLS

Northwest has been tabbed as the top team by both the coaches and the media in the 2021 MIAA football preseason polls. Northwest was also pegged at No. 4 in the 2021 Pre-season American Football Coaches' Association Top 25 Poll and the D2FootballCom Top 25 Poll.

NEW TO THE STAFF

Head coach Rich Wright added

Todd Sturdy to the Bearcat coaching staff in the offseason.

Sturdy will serve as the offensive coordinator at Northwest and he brings a wealth of coaching experience with him to Maryville. Sturdy has coached football at the FBS, FCS and NAIA levels for 28 years. He has served as an offensive coordinator in 20 seasons. In 14 seasons as a head coach at the collegiate level, Sturdy has compiled a record of 96-51.

Wright also added Roberto Davis to coach the Bearcat running backs and Zach Martin to serve as the Northwest wide receivers coach.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

It's not easy to get on the Academic All-America list. The Bearcats do a pretty good job of filling it up though, placing 19 players on the list, including 18 since 2003. In 2016, Kyle Zimmerman (QB) took home the top honor – Academic All-American of the Year – something no Bearcat had ever done. Northwest had two student-athletes, Jackson Barnes and Zach Howard, named to the 2020-21 CoSIDA Academic All-America(R) NCAA Division II football team, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors Association (CoSIDA).

This marks the third time since 2018 that two Bearcats have earned Academic All-America honors after Marqus Andrews (first team in 2018, second team in 2019) and Ryan Spelhaug (first team in 2018 and 2019) each received recognition.

HUGHES FAMILY FIELDHOUSE

Located just northwest of College Park and Bearcat Stadium on the Northwest campus, the Carl & Cheryl Hughes Fieldhouse serves as a host site for a wide range of University and community activities. The project represents the single largest public-private partnership in Northwest's 114-year history – and one of the largest public-private partnerships ever in the region.

The Hughes Fieldhouse features:

- 137,250 square-foot recreation and multipurpose facility featuring recreation and exhibition space,
- indoor flooring system,
- 90-yard practice turf,
- 300-meter indoor track,
- spectator seating and
- tiered meeting rooms

The Hughes Fieldhouse is an estimated $20 million project with multiple financing sources, including commitments from the University, private support and community support. The facility is named for the Carl and Cheryl Hughes family, who committed a significant gift to the project through the Hughes Family Foundation.

HEAD COACH RICH WRIGHT

2014 & 2015 DII PROGRESS COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR • FIFTH SEASON

HEAD COACH

Richard Wright was named head coach at Northwest Missouri on Dec. 19, 2016. He arrived at Northwest in 2004 as the defensive line coach and coordinator of special teams. In 2011, Wright was named defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Wright led the Bearcats to the program's 30th MIAA title in 2019. Northwest secured its 24th trip to the NCAA Division II playoffs, which marked the 16th consecutive season the Bearcats have been selected to compete in the playoffs.

Northwest collected its 49th and 50th Division II playoff victories in 2019 with a 7-6 win over Harding and a 63-7 triumph over Lindenwood. Northwest is the first program in Division II history to record 50 playoff victories. The Bearcats finished the 2019 season ranked No. 7.

The 2019 Bearcats had five first-team all-MIAA selections in Spencer Phillips, Tanner Owen and Blake Bayer. Phillips was named the MIAA Defensive Player of the Year.

The 2018 Bearcats had five first-team all-MIAA selections in Austen Eskew, Zach Flott, Anthony Lane, Tanner Owen and Sam Roberts. Braden Wright was named the MIAA Freshman of the Year.

Northwest ranked No. 6 in the nation in scoring defense (14.6 ppg) and No. 7 in rushing defense (89.1 yards/game). Northwest had a streak of 19 straight games without giving up a rushing touchdown that stretched from the 2016 season into the 2018 campaign. All four starters on the defensive line earned all-MIAA honors - Austen Eskew (first team), Sam Roberts (first team), Mike Ehlke (honorable mention) and Spencer Phillips (honorable mention).

The Northwest defense continued to be dominating in 2017. The Bearcats ranked first in the nation in scoring defense (9.3 ppg), total defense (212.8 yards/game), blocked punts (7) and third down conversion defense (19.9 percent). Northwest limited the opposition to 62.0 yards per game on the ground. The Bearcat defense did not allow a rushing touchdown in 2017. In fact, Northwest was the only NCAA school to not allow a rushing touchdown all of last season - including FBS, FCS, Division II and Division III. The Northwest defense had three players named to the All-MIAA First Team in defensive lineman Austin Eskew, linebacker Ben Althoff and defensive back Marcus Jones.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

In 2016, Northwest's defense led the nation in total yards (240.9), rushing yards (67.7), scoring (12.0) and blocked kicks (13). Four Bearcats earned first-team All-MIAA honors and four earned All-America honors. On five occasions, the Northwest defense held opponents under 200 yards of total offense and 12 times held rushing attacks under 100 yards. The Bearcats' four playoff opponents averaged just 54.7 rushing yards, 170.5 passing yards, 225.5 total yards and 9.0 points per game.

The Bearcats' 2015 national championship featured one of the most well rounded defensive units in history. Northwest led the nation in six categories including total defense, scoring defense, team sacks, rushing defense, team passing efficiency defense and third-down conversion percentage defense. The team finished atop the MIAA in 15 defensive categories as well, leading to six first-team All-MIAA selections. Collin Bevins earned the third-consecutive MIAA Defensive Player of the Year award for the

The Bearcats led the nation in total defense and were ranked second in rushing defense, team pass efficiency defense and third down conversion defense. Northwest ranked third in first down defense, fourth in passing yards allowed and fifth in scoring defense. ## ASSISTANT COACH

Northwest tied for the most sacks in the nation in 2009 when 19 Bearcats combined for 48 sacks. Former player and current graduate assistant Kendall Wright enjoyed one of the most decorated seasons as a return specialist in 2008, earning All-America accolades.

Three former players have been on NFL rosters, Longacre, Dave Tollefson and Steve Williams. Each have spent time with the Kansas City Chiefs, Carolina Panthers and New England Patriots. Tollefson is a two-time Super Bowl Champion earning his first ring with the New York Giants in 2007 and again following the 2011 season.

Wright began coaching during the 1991 season at Cortland State before spending time at Dana College (Neb.) from 1993-94. Covering several facets of coaching, Wright has been an offensive coordinator, linebackers coach, wide receivers coach and special teams coordinator.
