Jackson buried 9-of-13 shots from the field, including 6-of-8 from three-point range.

His previous career high in scoring was 13 points against Washburn last season in the Central Region Tournament.

Jackson knocked in his first three 3-point shots of the game and scored 11 first-half points. After Flagler had cut a 23-point deficit down to nine points, Jackson reignited his scoring outburst and scored the final 16 points of the game for the Bearcats.

Jackson came into the contest having made a total of two 3-point shots in his collegiate career.

HEAD MEN'S BASKETBALL COACH: BEN MCCOLLUM

14th Season • 340-83 Overall; 201-59 MIAA

Northwest Missouri State head coach Ben McCollum has taken the Bearcats to an elite status in the realm of college basketball.

McCollum is the first five-time NABC Division II National Coach of the Year and a seven-time MIAA Coach of the Year.

Folks around basketball are talking about McCollum because of what has been built in Maryville, Mo.

"He really, really understands culture and what goes into winning from a people standpoint," Marquette head coach Shaka Smart said. "Then he's a great coach on both ends of the floor. And like the way that they play, you can tell he teaches guys and helps guys grow in how to play as opposed to little parts of the offense or parts of the defense. He teaches them to understand how to put it all together."

"I coach Division I basketball, and I promise you they were a top-100 team in the country (last season)," Lipscomb head coach Lennie Acuff said. "How they play, what they do, it's high-level basketball — their skill level, their feel, their player development, it's really done in an admirable way."

Over the past five seasons, McCollum has guided Northwest to a mark of 159-8 and three NCAA Division II national championships (2017, 2019, 2021). Over the past three seasons, Northwest has gone 97-3.

McCollum has guided the Bearcats to eight straight MIAA regular season titles and six MIAA tournament crowns. In 12 seasons at Northwest, McCollum has an overall record of 300-78.

Northwest captured the program's third NCAA Division II national championship in the 2020-21 season. McCollum guided the Bearcat to a 28-2 overall record. Northwest set an NCAA Elite Eight record by winning its three games by a total of 78 points - the most ever by a Division II national champion. McCollum was named the MIAA Coach of the Year for the seventh time after he helped guide the Bearcats to an MIAA record 21 league victories. Northwest was led by MIAA player of the year Trevor Hudgins, first-team all-MIAA pick Ryan Hawkins and MIAA defensive player of the year Diego Bernard. Hudgins earned NABC National Player of the Year accolades, while both Hudgins and Hawkins each tallied All-America status.

In 2019-20, the Bearcats posted a 31-1 record. The Bearcats also captured the MIAA regular season title and MIAA Tournament crown. The Bearcats were poised to host their fourth consecutive NCAA Division II Central Region Tournament before the NCAA decided to cancel the 2020 tournament because of COVID-19.

The 2019-20 team recorded the highest offensive efficiency (114.6) in the 16 years of Synergy's database, which tracks college basketball at all levels.
