WELCOME TO THE CCNIT MEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Dr. Ray

Barber

President

Oakland City
University

Welcome to Gibson County, Indiana, and the campus of Oakland City University for the 2019 Christian College National Invitational Tournament Championship. All of us here at Oakland City University are delighted to be the host institution for the 2019 Christian College National Invitational Tournament.

We congratulate each participating student/athlete and coach for the accomplishments and successes during the 2018-19 basketball season. Your endeavors have culminated in an invitation to compete in the CCNIT Men's Basketball Championship that involves eight outstanding Christian colleges and universities.

This week will provide every participant, from athletes and coaches to spectators in the stands, the opportunity to demonstrate their commitment to and community in Jesus Christ. May the Christian spirit of love, justice, and fair play direct all of our activities, not only in this tournament, but in each day of our lives.

I would like to offer a special word of thanks to all of those who have given so much of their time and effort to make this tournament possible. It is no small feat to bring together eight competing teams for a week of back-to-back, great basketball! We appreciate all that you have done.

Again, we welcome you to the campus of Oakland City University and trust you will have a great week of fellowship and basketball.

Yours In Christ,

Sports Information

Oakland City
University

The Tournament Media Director for the 2019 Christian College National Invitational Tournament Men's Basketball championship is Oakland City University Sports Information Director David Hose.

David will provide half time and post game statistics to each team for each game, as well as providing members of the media, including newspaper, radio, and television, with statistics, feature stories, and interview opportunities.

It is our desire and responsibility to make certain that each school's results are reported to the respective school's media outlets in a timely manner.

After each game, national, state, and local media will be contacted in an effort to ensure proper media coverage of the Christian College National Invitational Tournament.

Pre-Tournament statistics will be provided to the members of the media prior to the start of the tournament, and after the first day's competition has been completed, an updated version will be prepared and ready for media personnel prior to the start of action on day two.

A final updated version of the tournament's two-day statistics, including both team and individual statistics will be ready prior to the start of the final day of action.

Complete tournament coverage will be provided by Pete Swanson in the Princeton Daily Clarion, beginning Monday morning prior to the tournament through the tournament's completion.

Swanson, an award winning sports writer, will be in attendance at each of the 12 games of the tournament.

Special thanks to Chips Inc., in Ft. Branch, IN, for designing the CCNIT T-shirts.

Again, WELCOME to Gibson County and Southwestern Indiana. We know you are in for a GREAT WEEK!!

WELCOME TO THE CCNIT MEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Gibson County Chamber of Commerce would like to extend a warm welcome to the coaches, players, CCNIT Staff, team families, and fans at the 2019 Christian College National Invitational Men's Basketball Tournament. Our county is honored to have Oakland City University host the 2019 CCNIT Men's Basketball Championship. We are especially grateful to all teams for their participation in this year's exciting eight team tournament event.

The spirit of competition, teamwork, and sportsmanship is a great Indiana and Gibson County tradition, and it is through participation in a variety of events, including academically, athletically, and spiritually, that our student-athletes grow and achieve their full potential and model strong values and character. Coach Sandifar, tournament staff, and the tournament organizing committee have worked hard all year long to organize this National Tournament and are proud to host every team in attendance.

We hope you enjoy your stay in our community as much as we enjoy welcoming you here. We sincerely wish everyone the best of luck in this year's competition! Good Luck Teams!!!

Sincerely,

Patty Vanoven
Executive Director

The 2019 Christian College National Invitational Tournament Men's Basketball Championship Organizing Committee offers a hearty welcome to all CCNIT Tournament players, coaches, cheerleaders, fans, boosters and CCNIT personnel to Gibson County, Indiana!

We are glad you are here, and we hope each of you have a great week of basketball.

Our hard-working committee has worked diligently since last August to put together a week of activities, centered around the basketball tournament, that will provide fun and fellowship for every coach, team, and fan.

We met monthly from August through December of 2018, then every two weeks in January and the first two weeks of February, before meeting weekly the final three weeks of February and March, including March 2nd, as we put the pieces of the puzzle together for this GREAT week of fun and fellowship that includes side trips, community service projects, breakfasts, luncheons, dinners, pre-tournament banquet, and of course, BASKETBALL!!

Again, WELCOME to Gibson County and Southwestern Indiana. We know you're in for a GREAT WEEK!!

Sincerely,

The Tournament Organizing Committee:

CAMPBELLVILLE UNIVERSITY-HARRODSBURG

SEASON REVIEW

Coach Herve Kouna's Campbellville University-Harrodsburg campus is just in its second season as a varsity program in 2018-19, but the former Yale University basketball player has his Tigers in post-season play in the CCNIT with an 11-14 record.

The Tigers have three double-digit scorers, led in scoring by 6'1" sophomore Antoine Darby (14.7) and followed by 5'11" freshman Tyrese Duncan (12'3) and 6' freshman Tyron Duncan (10.1). Oliver Bishop, a 6'3" senior, has chipped in with another 7.5 counters a contest.

CU-Harrodsburg has put home 76.3 points a game on the offensive end of the hardwood, while on the defensive end of the playing floor, they have given up 85.2 markers a night.

The Tigers connected on 41.1 percent of their field goal attempts in 25 games, including 29.3 percent of their tries from behind the three-point line in 2018-19. At the charity stripe, they have tossed in 63.6 percent of their opportunities.

CAMPBELLVILLE UNIVERSITY-SOMERSET

SEASON REVIEW

Veteran Coach Al Gover's Tigers are a first-year program, but the Campbellville University-Somerset team is battle-tested.

After starting the season 0-13, Gover's team went 6-5 after January 22nd, to finish 6-18 on the 2018-19 hardwood campaign.

The Tigers are led in scoring by 6'1" freshman Titus Ransom (18.6), but a trio of others give him plenty of help, as 6'3" Keelan Kennedy (13.9), 6'3" Josiah Williams (11.9), and 5'8" Hunter Stevens (10.1) all freshmen, provided double-digit scoring for CU-S.

Freshman Alvin Thomas, a 6'1" guard and 6'7" sophomore Daniel Coldiron added 8.7 and 6.2 counters, respectively to the Tiger scoring attack, giving the Tigers a formidable offensive front.

As a team, the Tigers connected on 42.1 percent of their tries from the floor. At the free throw line, they hit 64.9 percent.

CU-S put home 82.5 points a game on the offensive end of the floor in 2018-19, while defensively, CU-S allowed 91.1 points a battle.

EAST-WEST UNIVERSITY

SEASON REVIEW

Veteran Coach Tommie Posley has his East-West University team in the CCNIT for the first time in 2019, but the Phantoms are no strangers to the Johnson Center, as the Chicago-based team played the “Mighty Oaks” twice in 2018-19.

Sherman Carter, a 6’1” senior, is the leading scorer (12.9) for EWU, while 6’7” senior Isaiah Grace (12.5) and Carl Moore (11.3), a 6’4” senior, both have averaged in double-digits during regular season action.

Grace is the top Phantom rebounder, pulling in 8.0 missed shots a night, while 6’6” sophomore Eli Gibson has grabbed 6.3 errant shot attempts a fray.

The Phantoms have tossed in 74.6 points a game on the offensive end of the playing floor, while on the defensive end, they have given up 93.8 markers an outing.

They have connected on 39.4 percent of their overall field goal tries, including 27.7 percent of their attempts from behind the three-point stripe. At the free throw line, they have made 64.7 percent of their opportunities.

JOHNSON UNIVERSITY-FLORIDA

SEASON REVIEW

Veteran Coach Craig Wilsman brings his Johnson University-Florida Team to Oakland City for the Christian College National Invitational Tournament for the second straight year in 2019, finishing fifth in the 2018 event.

The Suns scoring attack is led by 5'8" junior Anthony Young (15.2), but two more Suns are close behind, as 6'2" sophomore Phil LeGrier (12.4) and 6'2" junior Ray McLeod (10.5) both averaged double-digit scoring in 2018-19. Garriott Jones (9.7), a 6'2" sophomore is close behind, and 6'3" freshman Cedric Green has put home 7.3 counters a contest.

As a team, JU-F has tossed in 73.4 points a game on the offensive end of the playing floor, while on the defensive end of the court, the Suns have given up 87.6 counters a contest.

The Suns have connected on 41.1 percent of their field goal attempts, including 31.8 percent from beyond the three-point line. At the free throw line, they have put home 60.4 percent of their shots.

RHEMA COLLEGE

SEASON REVIEW

Coach Perry Shockley has his team back in the CCNIT for the seventh time in the eight seasons it has been held, second only to Oakland City University in overall appearances.

The Eagles bring in a trio of super scorers in 6'1" senior Kendrick Williams, 6' freshman Jermain Brown, and 6'4" sophomore Del Guerrero. Williams rams home a torrid 35.5 points a game, while Brown pours in another 20.4 markers a night, and Guerrero hammers in 19.8 more counters a contest each outing.

Brown is the top Eagle rebounder, dragging in 8.4 caroms a battle, while 6'3" freshman Ben Waters hauls in another 6.9 missed shots a fray and Williams grabs 6.8 errant shot attempts a game.

Rhema has scored 87.1 points a game on the offensive end of the floor, while on the defensive end of hardwood, the Eagles have given up 89.6 counters a contest.

The Eagles have hit on 46.4 percent of their field goal tries and 69.5 percent of their free throw attempts.

WILBERFORCE UNIVERSITY

SEASON REVIEW

Wilberforce University, led by Coach Kevin Waters, returns to the 2019 CCNIT as the defending champion, winning 87-80 over Oakland City University last March in the National Title Game.

The Bulldogs are a tough, hard-nosed basketball team that plays up-tempo and will keep pressure on the opposing team for the entire 40 minutes on the hardwood.

The Dogs bring in a pair of double-digit scorers in , 6'1" senior Tony Collins (12.1) and 6'7" junior Diamondt Thomas (11.1).

Thomas is the top rebounder for the Bulldogs, pulling in 7.6 errant shots per night. LuJaune Marshall, a 6'3" sophomore, has grabbed another 4.8 rebounds a contest for Wilberforce.

As a team, the Bulldogs have put home 56.1 points an outing on the offensive end of the playing floor, while defensively, they have given up 74.7 counters a contest.

They have connected on 41.0 percent of their overall field goal tries and put home 62.0 percent free throw opportunities.
