Nova Southeastern's MJ Iraldi Named 2024-25 Ron Lenz National Player of the Year

INDIANAPOLIS – Nova Southeastern University graduate guard MJ Iraldi is the 2024-25 Men's Basketball Ron Lenz National Player of the Year. He headlines the Division II Conference Commissioners Association (D2CCA) Men's Basketball All-America Teams as selected by the NCAA Division II Sports Information Directors Association (D2SIDA).

Iraldi was selected the D2CCA South Region Player of the Year after earning Sunshine State Conference Player of the Year honors. The National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) also named him to its All-America team earlier this week. Iraldi also is a candidate for the NABC National Player of the Year as well as the Bevo Francis Award and Trevor Hudgins Award.

The West Deptford, New Jersey, product entered the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship's Elite Eight with a Division II best 799 points scored, averaging 23.5 points per game (10th in Division II). Iraldi has scored 30 or more points eight times this season, including a 42-point outing against Embry-Riddle that is second-most in a single game this season.

Iraldi is one of five named D2CCA First Team All-American. Concordia-St. Paul senior guard Antwan Kimmons, Westmont senior guard Adrian McIntyre, Michigan Tech junior guard Marcus Tomashek, and Minot State junior forward Caleb Van De Griend also earned first-team recognition. Kimmons was the D2CCA Central Region Player of the Year and Van De Griend was a First Team All-Central Region selection.

Iraldi was one of two Sharks named to the D2CCA Men's Basketball All-America Teams, with junior guard Dallas Graziani earning third-team honors.

The Division II Conference Commissioners Association All-America and All-Region Basketball Teams are sponsored by the Division II Conference Commissioners Association (D2CCA). The teams are voted on by the members of D2SIDA, NCAA Division II Sports Information Directors Association.

The Division II Conference Commissioners Association encourages and promotes Division II athletics and high standards of sportsmanship as important elements of higher education. The CCA is a key communications link among the conferences as they discuss views, policies and regulations that impact Division II intercollegiate athletics and works closely with the NCAA as a communications channel to NCAA Division II member colleges and universities.
