DEFENSE SHINES IN SPRING GAME

The Ohio defensive unit tallied four interceptions, which propelled the defense to a 7-3 victory over the offense at the 2014 Green and White game. In addition to the four interceptions by the Bobcat secondary, the Ohio defensive unit also registered three sacks and three tackles for loss.

The first interception of the afternoon was courtesy of redshirt freshman Chad Moore (Grove City, Ohio), who picked off junior quarterback Derrius Vick (Lincoln, Neb.) on the first offensive series. He then raced 31 yards the other way for the game's only touchdown. Moore finished with a game-high five tackles.

Redshirt freshman Bradd Ellis also turned in a strong performance as he finished with four tackles and an interception.

Defensive linemen Tarell Basham, Watson Tautuiaki and Tony Porter all tallied sacks for the Bobcats.

Vick led the way offensively for the Bobcats as he totaled 176 yards of total offense. Vick went 17-of-27 for 144 yards through the air and rushed for a game-high 32 yards on the ground. He also was picked off twice.

WALTER FIELDHOUSE IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS

For the first time ever, the Ohio football team did not have to battle the elements during spring practice as the University opened the doors to Walter Fieldhouse. The 12.5 million dollar facility features a climate controlled setting, a 100-yard field and two video platforms to shoot practice.

OHIO ANNOUNCES 2014 SCHEDULE

Three regular season games on the ESPN Family of Networks, six home games and a visit to the University of Kentucky highlight the Ohio University football team's 2014 schedule.

OHIO FOOTBALL ANNOUNCES COACHING ADDITIONS

Ohio University football head coach Frank Solich welcomed two new assistants with a combined 40-plus years of coaching experience in Scott Ispording and Dave Johnson and the promotion of former Bobcat player Chris Rodgers to his staff prior to spring practice. Solich named Ispording Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks coach and Johnson as the team's Offensive Line coach. Solich elevated Rodgers to the role of Director of Football Operations. The three staff changes complete the vacancies left by former Bobcat staffers Gerry Gdowski, Keven Lightner and Jason Grooms, who departed for Vanderbilt. Gdowski, Lightner and Grooms joined former Bobcat coach and Solich assistant Derek Mason, who was tabbed as the Commodores' head coach on Jan. 18.

BASHAM NAMED TO THE FWAA FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICA TEAM

Ohio University football freshman defensive end Tarell Basham was named to the 13th annual Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Freshman All-America Team following the 2013 season. Basham was named to the team after he led the Bobcats with 7.5 sacks and 9.5 tackles for loss this past season. His 7.5 sacks are tied for fifth on the program's all-time single season sack list. He also recorded 32 tackles (16 solo) and tallied five quarterback hurries.

OHIO FOOTBALL WELCOMES 24 NEWCOMERS ON SIGNING DAY

Ohio Football head coach Frank Solich announced the addition of 24 newcomers as part of National Signing Day.

INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITIES

1. Phone Interviews – For out-of-town media that wish to request a phone interview with Coach Solich, please contact the Ohio Media Relations Office. Interviews will be scheduled based on Coach Solich's availability.
2. Post-Game Press Conference – Coach Solich will be available to members of the media following each game, both at home and on the road. Check with the Ohio Media Relations Office for specific details.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Interviews with requested assistant coaches will take place after practice on Wednesdays of game weeks. Please be advised that during weeks when games are not played on Saturday, the day of assistant coach interviews may change based on the team's schedule. Please contact the media relations office to confirm. Coaches should not be contacted at their residences or cell phones. All interview requests must go through the media relations office.

STUDENT-ATHLETES

Interviews with requested players will take place following practice on Wednesday and Thursday. Please contact the Ohio Media Relations Office to confirm practice times and request players. Please be advised that during weeks when games are not played on Saturday, interview days may change based on the team's schedule. Players should not be contacted for interviews at their residences, on their cell phones, via email, Facebook, Twitter and all other social networking entities. All interview requests must go through the media relations office. Please keep in mind there may be class conflicts on certain days. Requested players will be also available following each game. The Ohio locker room is closed to the media at all times. Phone interviews with out-of-town media can also be arranged.

COVERING PRACTICE

Practice is open to members of the media. However, still photographers and videographers will be allowed to shoot only during pre-practice individual drills, which usually last approximately 10 minutes at the beginning of practice.

Media members covering practices or scrimmages will not be permitted to report any scouting information (formations, personnel groupings, etc.) without first speaking with a member of the Ohio coaching staff or the media relations office. Failure to adhere to this guideline could result in the closing of all practices and scrimmages to the media.

E-MAIL SERVICE

Football releases and information can be obtained electronically by e-mailing Tom Symonds at symondst@ohio.edu. Please include all contact information for your media outlet. Please note this service is for media only.

OHIOBOBCATS.COM

The official web site of Ohio Athletics is OhioBobcats.com. It is one of the many means of information dissemination utilized by the athletics department. In addition to releases, specific team information (rosters, schedules, statistics, bios, etc.) for all 16 varsity sports is available. Statistics, a game recap, notes and quotes will be available on-line as soon as possible following each game.

The class includes 21 incoming freshmen and three juniors. The 2014 class features student-athletes from nine different positions. The class also includes student-athletes from eight different states and one from Canada, including 16 from Ohio. In the last four years, the Bobcats have recruited 43 players from the state of Ohio.

CARRIE EARNS NFL COMBINE INVITE

Former Ohio University cornerback Travis Carrie earned an invitation to the 2014 NFL Combine at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, Ind. Carrie was one of 10 student-athletes from the Mid-American Conference that represented the league during the NFL's annual college football draft showcase.

TETTLETON SIGNS WITH HAMILTON TIGER-CATS

Former Ohio University football quarterback Tyler Tettleton signed a free agent contract on Friday with the Canadian Football League's Hamilton Tiger-Cats. Tettleton earned the free agent contract after he authored one of the finest playing careers in school history. In three years as the Bobcats' starting quarterback, he helped guide Ohio to the 2011 Mid-American Conference East Division crown, a pair of bowl victories, including its first-ever bowl triumph in the 2011 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl and the program's first 10-win season since 1968. He also set 27 school records, became the first quarterback in school history to surpass 9,000 yards through the air and threw 67 touchdown passes during his career in Athens.

OHIO EARNS SIX SPOTS ON ALL-MAC TEAM

The Ohio University football team earned six all-league slots on the 2013 Mid-American Conference team. The Bobcats placed two players on the First Team, three on the Second Team and one on the Third Team. Sophomore Devin Bass and senior Travis Carrie highlighted the list of honorees for Ohio as both received First Team All-Conference honors for kickoff and punt return specialists, respectively. In addition, Bass received All-MAC Second Team honors as a cornerback, while Carrie picked up all-conference accolades for the second time in his career, earning Third Team honors as a cornerback. #### AMONG THE BEST IN THE MAC

Ohio's 62 wins since 2006 are the second most victories by any school in the Mid-American Conference during that period. Northern Illinois is the only school that has more wins in that stretch.

1. Northern Illinois - 68
2. Ohio - 62
3. Central Michigan - 56

A TURNAROUND FOR THE AGES

In the last 40 years, Ohio University football has been to just eight bowl games, however six of those bowl appearances have come during head coach Frank Solich's eight years in Athens.

FRANK SOLICH

HEAD COACH, 10TH SEASON

Nebraska '66

10th Season at Ohio (66-50, 44-28 MAC)

16th Season Overall (124-69)

-Led Ohio to back-to-back bowl wins and its first ever bowl win in 2011, winning the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

-Directed Ohio to 62 wins since the start of the 2006 season.

-Led Ohio to five straight bowl games.

-Coached 63 All-MAC Players.

-Have appeared on the ESPN Family of Networks 62 times since 2005.

-2006 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year.

-Served as the head coach of the Aina Team at the 2005 Hula Bowl.

-1999 and 2001 Big 12 Coach of the Year.

Head Coach Frank Solich has continued a storybook turnaround during his tenure at Ohio University. Now in his 10th season (16th overall), the Bobcats have been bowl-eligible in seven of the last nine years, having won 62 games since 2006 - the most among any team in the Mid-American Conference East Division - and have had student-athletes selected in the NFL Draft in five of the past six seasons.

This past season, Solich guided the Bobcats to their fifth-consecutive bowl appearance. In addition, Ohio picked up its third straight win in its Battle of the Bell rivalry over Marshall, which would go on to play in the 2013 Conference USA Championship game.

Under Solich's leadership in 2013, the Bobcats scored 336 points, which currently ranks eighth on Ohio's all-time Top 10 list. Defensively, Ohio held five of its opponents to fewer than 300 yards of total offense. The Bobcat defensive unit also tallied 34 sacks, which is currently tied for second all-time in a single season.

Following the year, Ohio earned six slots on the 2013 MAC All-Conference with Devin Bass (kick returner) and Travis Carrie (punt returner) both earning spots on the All-MAC First Team.

In 2012, Solich directed Ohio to its best start to a season since the 1968 campaign as the Bobcats opened the year 7-0. The Bobcats' 7-0 start included a thrilling 24-14 victory over Penn State in front of a nationally-televised audience.

After opening the year 7-0, Ohio earned a spot in all three major college football polls for the first time in school history - Associated Press, USA Today and the Bowl Championship Series standings.

Following the 2012 campaign, Ohio placed six individuals on the 2012 MAC All-Conference teams and earned a bid to the 2012 Advocare V100 Independence Bowl to punch its ticket to a fourth-consecutive bowl trip.

In the Independence Bowl, Ohio did not disappoint as it defeated Louisiana-Monroe 45-14 to pick up its second-straight bowl victory. The Bobcats also set or tied 11 bowl records in the win, including the mark for total yards as they finished with 556.

The 2012 season also saw the emergence of running back Beau Blankenship. In his first season as a starter, Blankenship set the single season rushing record of 1,604 yards under Solich's watch. He also rushed for 15 touchdowns as he averaged just over five yards per carry.

In his seven previous seasons as Ohio's head coach, Solich guided the Bobcats to an impressive 50-40 record. In 2011, Solich led the Bobcats to their first-ever bowl win as Ohio defeated Utah State 24-23 in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl to finish the year 10-4.

Ohio's win over the Aggies gave the Bobcats their first 10-win season since 1968. The Bobcats' 10 wins were also the most among division I-A teams from the state of Ohio. The Bobcats four losses came by a combined total of just 19 points (4.75 points per game).

Solich's 2011 Bobcat squad set 47 school records, won six of the team's last seven games and had a league-best 11 players on the MAC All-Conference teams. In addition, Solich picked up his 100th career victory following a convincing 30-3 victory over Gardner-Webb on Sept. 10.

Among the 11 players selected All-MAC, place kicker Matt Weller was named Special Teams Player of the Year, offensive lineman Joe Flading was named First Team and quarterback Tyler Tettleton became the first Ohio signal-caller to be named all-league since 1985. Under Solich's watchful eye, Tettleton re-wrote Ohio's single season record book as he set 12 records and became the first quarterback in school history to pass for 3,000 yards in one year, while in the process throwing a program-best 28 touchdowns.

The 2011 campaign also saw Ohio defeat arch-rival Miami for the sixth-consecutive season - the program's longest winning streak since it won six straight from 1937-1942. Since Solich took over in 2005, Ohio has only suffered two losses to Miami.

In 2010, the Bobcats went to the New Orleans Bowl, making the program's fifth bowl appearance and third in the past five seasons.

Following the season, seven student-athletes were named All-MAC and quarterback Boo

SPRING FOOTBALL NOTES

Jackson finished his career as Ohio's career leader in completion percentage (.604), pass efficiency (136.3), total offense per play (6.18), passing yards per attempt (7.7) and touchdown passes (38). He also finished the season with 26 total touchdowns, 48 in his career, which is fourth all-time. He also accumulated 18 passing touchdowns in 2010 (fourth all-time on the single-season list).

The 2009 season was equally successful as the senior class compiled 28 victories during its four years on campus. In addition, Ohio boasted a school-record 12 All-MAC selections with four capturing All-America honors en route to a second MAC East title in the squad's last four years. Solich was named the conference coach of the year by Phil Steele.

Following back-to-back seasons of bowl eligibility, the Bobcats followed it up with an offensive outburst that rewrote many of Ohio's all-time team and individual records in Frank Solich's fourth year at the helm. In 2008, the Bobcats' aerial attack set three school single-season passing records, including passing yards, passing yards per game and touchdown passes all of which stood until the conclusion of the 2011 season.

Overall, Ohio also totaled 4,337 yards of total offense, which at the time was the third-highest total in school history. Following the year, six players garnered All-MAC recognition, while in the classroom, five picked up Academic All-MAC awards.

Perhaps the best individual honor under Solich came with safety Mike Mitchell being drafted by the Oakland Raiders in the second round of the NFL Draft (47th overall), becoming the highest drafted Bobcat since 1948 and the highest under Solich.

With Solich as coach in 2007, Kalvin McRae became the first Ohio player in history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. Other players achieved success for the offense as well, with tight end Andrew Mooney setting the single-season Bobcat touchdown reception record and quarterback Brad Bower tying the career record for most yards per pass.

In 2006, Solich guided Ohio to its first MAC East Division championship, the program's first MAC title of any kind since 1968, earning the Bobcats a spot in the GMAC Bowl, which marked the Bobcats' first bowl game since that same 1968 season.

Following the year, Solich was rewarded with MAC Coach of the Year honors, marking the third time in eight seasons in which he had won his league's coach of the year award. Ohio's five-win improvement from 2005 (4-7) to 2006 (9-5) tied for the sixth-best turnaround in the nation.

In his first three seasons, Solich guided the Bobcats to 19 victories in his first three campaigns after the squad had won 11 games in the previous four seasons. Since his arrival, Solich has coached 63 All-MAC players.

His players have also gained national recognition. At the conclusion of the 2011 season, Joe Flading earned SI.com All-America honors. In 2009, LaVon Brazill and Noah Keller were named to various All-America teams, while Matt Weller and Gerald Moore were tabbed as Freshman All-Americans. In 2005, Dion Byrum became Ohio's first non-special teams All-American since 1968, and three rookies have been honored on The Sporting News Freshman All-America squads.

Ohio has also seen an increase of national television exposure since Solich's arrival in 2005 as the Bobcats have played on the ESPN Family of Networks 62 times. This past season, Ohio had all 12 of its games televised on the ESPN Family of Networks and for the first time in school history, the Bobcats had all of their home games televised. The program has also seen an increased level of exposure in the media as it was featured in Sports Illustrated, USA Today, The New York Times and Boston Globe.

Since Solich arrived in Athens, Bobcat players have been named to watch lists for such prestigious honors as the Maxwell Award, the Butkus Award, the Lombardi Trophy, the Lott Trophy, the Davey O'Brien Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, Manning Award, the Biletnikoff Award and the Nagurski Trophy. Byrum was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to the nation's top defensive back, in 2005.

Off the field, Solich is equally proud of his player's accomplishments in the classroom. In the past three seasons, the Bobcats have had 18 Academic All-MAC selections. He has also had two seasons where an Ohio player has been named a semifinalist for the Draddy Trophy, one of the most prestigious academic honors in college football. Academic success is nothing new for Solich's teams. While head coach at Nebraska, almost 90 percent of his student-athletes earned their degree. Seven times Huskers earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors and on four other occasions, second-team honors were bestowed.

Solich was named the Bobcats' head coach on Dec. 17, 2004. In short order he assembled a talented and tested coaching staff, coordinated recruiting efforts to assure a steady stream of outstanding student-athletes to the program, supervised a highly productive off-season weight program producing dozens of personal bests and concluded all-business spring drills introducing his players to tried and true offensive and defensive schemes.

Solich's arrival brought a renewed enthusiasm to the Bobcat football program. Ohio used that spark to begin a massive renovation of Peden Tower to better serve its student-athletes.

The momentum carried over into Solich's first season on the sidelines at Peden Stadium. Solich's first win at Ohio came against defending Big East champion Pittsburgh in his home debut. Dion Byrum's two interception returns for touchdown on national television in an overtime victory put the Bobcats on the national stage. The win was one of only two victories for MAC teams against BCS-conference opponents during that season.

Solich arrived in Athens after six seasons as the head coach at the University of Nebraska. Solich spent nearly 30 years as part of the Nebraska program as a player, assistant coach and head coach. A Big 12 Coach of the Year in 1999 and 2001, Solich produced nine-win seasons in five of his six years as head coach of the Huskers. In 1999, 2000 and 2001, he generated 12, 10 and 11 win seasons, respectively. He also generated six-consecutive bowl appearances including a 2001 run at the national championship against Miami in the Rose Bowl.

Under Solich's leadership, Nebraska spent 54 consecutive weeks in the Associated Press Top 10. In his first five seasons as Husker head coach, Solich won 49 games, more than both his storied predecessors, Bob Devaney and Dr. Tom Osborne, in their first five years at Nebraska.

Moving on from Nebraska following a 2003 season in which his Huskers went 10-3, Solich was nevertheless determined to stay as close as possible to the college game until just the right opportunity came along. In a unique professional development opportunity all too often ignored by colleagues, Solich chose to travel the college and professional ranks to update his knowledge of the game, broaden his perspectives on its nuances and challenges and ready himself for the next great challenge.

Stepping back from the sideline included wide-ranging visits to some of Division I-A's top programs as well and the schedule included much more than a courtesy call. His ambitious fact-finding odyssey included stops at Oklahoma, Texas, Wisconsin, Miami and Southern California.

Coming from his native Cleveland to Lincoln back in 1962, he was recruited to play fullback for the Cornhuskers as a part of Bob Devaney's first class of freshmen. During his time in the Husker program, Nebraska went 9-2, 10-1, 9-2 and 10-1. He earned All-Big Eight honors in 1965 and was the first Husker to rush for 200 yards in a game. His place in the Nebraska tradition was formalized with his induction into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

While his accomplishments as a player were impressive, his work as a gifted teacher and assistant coach perhaps had as much to do with his arrival in the shrine as anything. Nine of the 15 seasons he served as running backs coach, Nebraska led the nation in rushing. He recruited and coached 1983 Heisman winner Mike Rozier and produced at least one all-conference running back in thirteen of the fifteen years he mentored that position. As a head coach, Solich mentored Eric Crouch to the 2001 Heisman Trophy.
