The 1992 Buckeyes

1992 Buckeye Notebook

SOME NUMBERS TO PONDER — The Buckeyes were 8-4 last year, their third straight winning season under head coach John Cooper, and their 24th winning season in the past 25 years. Ohio State finished third in the Big Ten with a 5-3 record and played in the Hall of Fame Bowl on Jan. 1. The latter was the Buckeyes' 24th bowl appearance overall and the third straight under Cooper. It was also OSU's second New Year's Day bowl in the past three years. Ohio State enters the 1992 season with an all-time record of 641-261-51 since first fielding a football team in 1890 (102 years). In Big Ten play, the Buckeyes have posted a 343-134-22 mark since entering the league in 1913. OSU has won 25 Big Ten titles in that span, including a conference-best 15 outright crowns.

1991 HONOREES — Ohio State returns seven offensive and seven defensive regulars from last year. Included in that group are All-America linebacker Steve Tovar and all-Big Ten selections Alan Kline (offensive tackle) and Jason Simmons (outside linebacker). Tovar was named to a first-team spot on the Football Coaches' team. If he wins All-America acclaim again this year, he will join Chris Spielman (1986-87) and Tom Cousineau (1977-78), both inside linebackers, as Ohio State's most recent two-time All-Americans. Simmons had the unusual distinction of being named to the all-conference squad even though he did not start a game last season.

SCHOLARS, TOO — Returnees Pete Beckman, Jim Borchers, Joey Galloway, Len Hartman and Greg Smith are five of the eight Ohio State players who were named to the Big Ten's All-Academic team last year. Smith, who is majoring in zoology, will be a candidate for Academic All-America this year and will be nominated for a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholarship.

THE COACHING STAFF — There are several new faces on this year's coaching staff. On offense, Mike Stock (from the Cincinnati Bengals) has replaced Jerry Sullivan (to the San Diego Chargers) as wide receivers coach, Frank Falks (Arizona State) has taken over the running backs in place of Gene Huey (Indianapolis Colts) and Lee Owens (Massillon High School) has succeeded Elliot Uzelac (resigned last spring) as coach of the tackles and tight ends. On defense, Bill Conley will coach the inside linebackers, replacing Bob Palcic (Southern Cal), who worked with the special teams last year. In addition to coaching the guards and centers, Joe Hollis has been elevated to offensive coordinator this year.

INJURY UPDATE — Cornerback Bryan Cook hopes to be full-go when the Buckeyes open their season Sept. 5 against Louisville. Cook underwent major knee surgery on his left knee following the Minnesota game last year (Nov. 9) and missed the last three games of the season. Tight end Kevin Niekamp, a redshirt freshman, is also recovering from knee surgery. He hurt his right knee last August and missed the entire year. After sitting out the past two years with a severe groin aggravation, outside linebacker Preston Harrison hopes to get back into action this year. Harrison originally came up lame in August of 1990 and has been idle ever since.

SPRING NOTES — The Buckeyes emerged from spring practice injury-free. The most notable position change of the spring found Dan "Big Daddy" Wilkinson moving from offensive to defensive tackle. Wilkinson, 6-5 and 299, is expected to be a starter in the fall. Seniors Kirk Herbstreit and Steve Tovar have been elected by their teammates as captains of the 1992 squad. It's the first time since 1986, and just the second time since 1973, that the Buckeyes have had just two captains.

BIG "SHOE" TO FILL — Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, which swelled the Ohio Stadium capacity to 91,470 sellable seats, the Buckeyes set records last year for home attendance (654,500) and average home attendance (93,500). Additionally, the crowd of 95,357 on hand for the Iowa game established a new single-game mark in the Horseshoe. The smallest home crowd last year was 91,734 for Louisville. Prior to that game, the largest crowd ever in Ohio Stadium was 90,970, against Purdue in 1988. Last year's 12-game attendance total of 993,545 (82,795 avg.) is the second highest in OSU history, bettered only by a 1,010,755 figure in 1975.

Len Hartman is both a returning starter and a returning academic All-Big Ten performer.

THE SCHEDULE MAKER — Six of this year's opponents played in bowl games last year: Bowling Green (California Raisin Bowl), Syracuse (Hall of Fame Bowl), Illinois (John Hancock Bowl), Iowa (Thrifty Holiday Bowl), Indiana (Domino's Copper Bowl) and Michigan (Rose Bowl).

CLAMPING DOWN — Ohio State led the Big Ten in scoring defense last year, allowing an average of 14.8 points per game. That average ranked 17th nationally. The Buckeyes were second in rushing defense, fourth in passing defense and fifth in total defense in the league.

PAPER OR PLASTIC? — Led by Jason Simmons, the 1991 Buckeyes recorded a school record 34 sacks for a minus 232 yards. The latter figure also represents an OSU record. Nine of those sacks came against Washington State, a single-game Buckeye record. Simmons, a 6-5, 240-pound outside linebacker, had 10.5 sacks on the year.

1992 Ohio State Outlook

John Cooper likes what he sees when he peruses the Buckeyes' 1992 depth chart.

"I think we have the makings of a pretty good football team," says the fifth-year OSU coach. "We aren't as deep as I would like to be in a couple of spots, but we have good athletes, our overall depth and experience is good and the team attitude is excellent."

"Offensively, we have a veteran line and good skill people. I think we can be a more balanced offense than we were a year ago and I think we have the speed and versatility to make more big plays."

"Defensively, we have some outstanding football players returning. Last year's defense was the best since I have been here, but this year's has a chance to be better."

"If we can stay healthy and get a few breaks, this team can be very competitive."

The Buckeyes didn't fare particularly well in either area last year, losing several key players to injury and dropping three games by a total of 17 points. Still, Ohio State posted a very respectable 8-4 record and played in the Hall of Fame Bowl on Jan. 1.

Cooper and his staff, which features four new members, head into the 1992 season with 32 lettermen returning from last year's squad. The veterans include 14 starters (seven on each side of the ball) and kicker Tim Williams. On offense, all five interior linemen, the tight end and the split end return. The defensive holdovers consist of the entire secondary, two linebackers (one inside and one outside) and the middle guard.

"Our strength offensively will be the line and the running backs," assesses Cooper. "Our concerns are playing with a relatively inexperienced quarterback (senior Kirk Herbstreit) and a lack of depth up front and at fullback. Our incoming freshmen may have to help us on the line."

"The strength of the defense will be a proven secondary and players like (All-America linebacker) Steve Tovar, (All-Big Ten outside linebacker) Jason Simmons, (middle guard) Greg Smith and (strong safety) Roger Harper. Depth at inside linebacker and up front are our worries."

THE OFFENSE

In round numbers, the Buckeyes averaged 348 yards per game last year — a respectable 218 on the ground, but a worrisome 130 through the air. Newly appointed offensive coordinator Joe Hollis burned the midnight oil in the spring attempting to rectify that imbalance.

"No question about it, we spent a lot of time in the spring trying to get our passing game up to the level of our running game," says Hollis. "We aren't where we want to be yet, but we are better. If teams dare us to throw this year, we will. We are committed to taking what the defense gives us."

Hollis also envisions a less structured offense.

"We want to be less predictable on offense and make teams defend the entire field," he says. "We have a number of weapons and we intend to use them."

Herbstreit will be the Buckeyes' trigger man. He won the job in the spring by outdueling redshirt freshman Bob Hoying (the only other scholarship quarterback on the squad). Herbstreit's only career starts came against Washington State and Syracuse last year, but he is a good athlete who knows the OSU offense and what is expected of him. Additionally, he is a natural leader who the players seem to rally around. After three seasons as a backup, he is ready to assume command.

Flanker Joey Galloway and split end Brian Stablein will be Herbstreit's primary targets. Galloway is a game breaker with the speed and elusiveness to go all the way anytime he touches the ball. The coaches want him to do that a lot more this fall, hence a move from split end to flanker last spring. Stablein is a steady, glue-fingered, possession receiver with deceptive speed. He started at flanker last year and was the Buckeyes' second leading receiver with 26 catches.

Flankers Chris Sanders and Allen DeGraffenreid and split end Greg Beatty all figure, too, especially since the Buckeyes plan to use more multiple-receiver sets in 1992.

When the Buckeyes want to run the ball, they have plenty of firepower. Tailback Raymont Harris (6-2, 226) and fullback emerged from spring practice as the starters.

Jeff Cothran (6-2, 235)

In addition to raw power, both have sprinter's speed. Harris has been used mostly in a reserve role the past two years and has run for more than 800 yards in that time.

Cothran averaged 6.5 yards per carry last season playing behind Scottie

Graham. The running back arsenal also includes freshmen

Eddie George and Travis McGuire, as well as upperclassmen Robert Smith and Butler By'not'e.

George (Fork Union Military Academy) and McGuire (Massillon, O.) enrolled last spring and played well enough in April to merit a longer look in August. McGuire, however, underwent shoulder surgery in April and may not be ready to return in the fall.

Smith and By'not'e both skipped spring ball to run track and will have to work their way back up the pecking order in the fall. Each has impeccable credentials. Smith, who sat out last year, was the U.P.I. National Freshman of the Year in 1990, when he ran for a school frosh record 1,126 yards.

By'not'e started five games last season and was Ohio State's second leading rusher (behind Carlos Snow) with 648 yards on 152 carries.

One of the better offensive lines in some time at Ohio State includes two of the top tackles in the Big Ten in Alan Kline (6-7, 290) and Jason Winrow (6-6, 300). Kline was an all-league pick last year and Winrow was chosen by the OSU coaching staff as the Buckeyes' top offensive lineman. Both are tremendous athletes. The other returning starters include center Paul Long and guards Len Hartman and Dave Monnot. All three are good football players, and Hartman is in his third year as a regular.

"Paul Long may well be the best center in the Big Ten," says Cooper.

Quarterback Kirk Herbstreit.

1992 Buckeye Football

Key reserves include juniors Rod Smith, a part-time starter at guard the past two years, and Jack Thrush, who can play any of the interior spots.

At tight end, senior Joe Metzger enters the fall ahead of junior Cedric Saunders. Saunders started six games last year, but saw just limited duty in the spring while recovering from a shoulder injury. While he mended, Metzger took almost every spring snap and slipped into the starter's slot. He was easily the most pleasant surprise of the spring on offense. Depth at tight end had been a problem, but Metzger's emergence has helped solidify the position.

Offensive tackle Jason Winrow.

THE DEFENSE

Ohio State led the Big Ten in scoring defense last year, allowing an average of 14.8 points per game in 11 games. Overall, the Buckeyes gave up 187 points and permitted just two of their 12 opponents to score more than 20 points. The 187 points is down 33 points from the previous year and is the lowest total in the past four years.

Additionally, the Buckeyes were second in the league, and 16th nationally, in rushing defense at 113.6 yards per game. And while teams did throw for an average of 218 yards against OSU, the Buckeye "Sack Pack," led by Simmons and Smith, recorded a school record 34 sacks for a minus 232 yards. The OSU defense also held the opposition to a third down efficiency of just .315.

"We can be better this year," says defensive coordinator Bill Young. "We have more players and better depth than we have had at any time since I have been here, and we have a lot more speed. This team can run, and that means we can be a much more aggressive, attack-oriented defense."

"Up until now we have been so young in the secondary that we haven't really been able to go after people. But we have outstanding talent, experience and depth back there now and we are going to be able to play a lot more man-to-man coverage and utilize more blitz packages."

Young is happy with a spring experiment that saw redshirt freshman Dan Wilkinson (6-5 and 299) move from offensive to defensive tackle.

"Dan is an amazing guy," says Young. "For his size, he can really move. Based on what he showed us in the spring, he can be a real impact player."

Wilkinson, who replaces three-year starter Rich Frimel, won't be the only impact player on this defense. Tovar, Simmons, Smith and Harper all fit into that category.

"Our overall talent level is up," says Young. "I'm excited."

The Buckeyes' defensive front will consist of Wilkinson, Smith and Derrick Foster. Smith, who will be in his third season as a starter, is clearly the veteran of the group. A second-team all-Big Ten pick in 1991, he has 34 tackles for loss and 11 sacks the past two years. Foster, a fifth-year senior, has been a part-time starter the past three years. He and Randall Brown, who moved from outside linebacker to end in the spring, will attempt to fill the gap created by the loss of 6-6, 285-pound Alonzo Spellman, who opted to skip his final year in favor of the NFL.

"We will be O.K. there," insists Young. "Derrick has been through the Big Ten before and Randall gives us another player who can run."

Simmons and Mark Williams will start at outside linebacker. Simmons will play the rush side and Williams returns at the drop side, where he started seven games last year.

Even though he played behind John Kacherski last year, Simmons set school records for tackles for loss (18.5), sacks (10.5) and single-game sacks (4). The 6-5 junior won all-Big Ten honors in 1991 and is a definite All-America candidate this year.

Craig Powell (6-5, 227) and Preston Harrison (6-5, 245) will be key reserves. Powell, a redshirt freshman, will back up Williams. Harrison, who was redshirted in 1990 and then missed last year with a groin aggravation, will play behind Simmons. Both are outstanding athletes with extremely bright futures.

Tovar and Brent Johnson, both seniors, will be the inside linebackers. Tovar has led the Buckeyes in tackles each of the past two years, and is a complete football player who is always around the ball and is at his best in big games. In his third season as a starter, he was named to a first-team berth on the Kodak All-America team last year. He enters the season as a leading candidate for the Butkus Award as the nation's top college linebacker. Johnson is starting for the first time after spending most of his career bouncing back and forth between linebacker and cornerback.

"Those two give us excellent speed and mobility," notes Young. "We already know what a great football player Steve Tovar is, and Brent Johnson is going to make us a better football team."

Alex Rodriguez, a 6-1, 230-pound sophomore and one of the fiercest competitors on the squad, is the only other inside linebacker. He will have to back up both positions until one of the freshmen step forward.

The secondary is as deep as it is talented. Besides the 6-4, 224-pound Harper (a Thorpe Award nominee), the returning starters include free safety Chico Nelson and cornerbacks Foster Paulk and Bryan Cook. Just a step behind and ready to step in with no dropoff are corners Marlon Kerner and Tim Walton and safeties Walter Taylor and Tim Patillo.

"It's a group that is going to let us do some things we haven't been able to do in the past," promises Young.

THE KICKING GAME

Williams returns for his third year as the placekicker and his second season as the punter. The coaches would like to find someone to relieve him of one or the other responsibility, but until they do, he will do a more than adequate job at both spots.

Robert Smith and By'not'e will figure prominently on the kick return units and Smith will also return punts, along with Stablein.

More good athletes should translate, too, into strong coverage teams.

THE SCHEDULE

The Buckeyes play six home games, beginning with Louisville on Sept. 5 and ending with Michigan on Nov. 21 in what will surely be a record crowd in Ohio Stadium. Road games include a rematch with Hall of Fame Bowl foe Syracuse on Sept. 19 and a visit to Wisconsin on Oct. 3 for the Big Ten opener. The Buckeyes play back-to-back road games with Michigan State and Iowa on Oct. 24 and 31, respectively, and are at Indiana the week prior to Michigan.

PETE BECKMAN

6-5, 254
So., Defensive Tackle
Chesterland, O.
(West Geauga)

Played a total of 31 minutes in eight games last year as a reserve defensive end . . . moved to tackle in the spring and apparently locked up the No. 2 spot behind Dan Wilkinson with a strong showing . . . lone tackle last year came against Northwestern . . . improved dramatically between the beginning and end of spring ball . . . heady player, who is very intense . . . just needs experience.

1990: Redshirted at defensive tackle . . . moved to end in the spring.

High School: Played defensive tackle his sophomore and junior seasons, but switched to end as a senior . . . consensus all-Ohio as a senior . . . also a starter on the basketball team which advanced to the state championships at Ohio State his junior year.

Other: Major is economics (wants to go into financial consulting) . . . born 10-16-71.

MATT BONHAUS

6-5, 250
So., Defensive Tackle
Cincinnati, O.
(Elder)

Promising young player, who will provide quality depth at tackle behind Dan Wilkinson . . . redshirted as a freshman . . . played a total of 29 minutes in 10 games last year and had four tackles . . . coaches like his attitude and work ethic . . . has good technique and good mobility, but needs to add weight in order to be more physical . . . should get increased playing time in 1992.

1990: Redshirted.

High School: Division I Lineman of the Year as a senior . . . four-year starter . . . played both ways his first two years, but concentrated strictly on defense the last two years . . . helped Elder to a four-year record of 36-5-1, including a 10-1 mark his last year . . . 142 tackles as a senior.

Other: His older brother, Tom, plays football at Vanderbilt . . . major is industrial design . . . born 10-13-72.

JIM BORCHERS

6-2, 212
Jr., Long Snapper
Bellbrook, O.
(Alter)

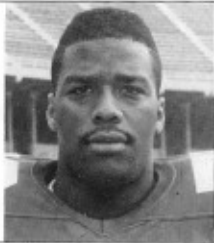

In his third season as the Buckeyes' long snapper . . . centers for punts and all placements . . . walked on in 1989 and was redshirted that year, but has been a key part of the OSU kicking game ever since.

High School: Played three years of football at Alter . . . his team was 9-4 and advanced to the state semi-finals in Ohio Stadium his junior year.

Other: Majoring in chemistry and wants to go into pediatrics . . . high school teammate of Buckeye tight end Joe Metzger . . . born 11-1-70.

RANDALL BROWN

6-3, 260
So., Defensive End
Detroit, Mich.
(Cooley)

Moved from defensive tackle to defensive end in the spring and played very well . . . still needs to refine his technique, but has good athletic ability and speed and should see a lot of playing time in the fall . . . his move solves what had been a serious depth problem behind Derrick Foster and gives the Buckeyes a potentially outstanding pass rusher . . . played a total of 24 minutes in eight games last year, almost all of that on the special teams, but will see more time this year, and in the future, if he continues to progress as expected . . . also a fine special teams player.

1990: Redshirted.

High School: All-Michigan as a senior . . . 458 career tackles . . . carried the ball 12 times as a senior fullback and scored on four of those runs.

Other: His brother, Kendall, plays football at Louisville, Ohio State's first opponent this year . . . major is communications . . . born 9-12-71.

BUTLER BYNOTE

5-11, 190
Jr., Tailback
St. Louis, Mo.
(Vashon)

The Buckeyes' fastest back and leading returning rusher . . . started five times last year and finished the season with 648 yards and five touchdowns, second to Carlos Snow (828 and nine) in both categories . . . good cut-back runner who squirts past defenders before they can get a clean shot at him . . . made his first collegiate start in the 1991 season opener against Arizona and responded by rushing for 189 yards and a touchdown on 26 carries . . . also had 90 yards against Washington State and 71 against Illinois . . . started four of the first six games and had 501 yards in that stretch . . . 101 of his 152 carries and four of his six touchdowns came in the first five games . . . lone start the second half of the season was at Minnesota, where he rushed for 70 yards and a TD on 17 carries . . . used as a backup to Snow the last six games and was a very effective change-of-pace back . . . 57-yard run against Arizona was his longest of the year . . . has proven to be surprisingly durable for his size . . . ran track in the spring and missed most of spring ball, but his experience and familiarity with the system should be enough to offset the missed time . . . can also return kicks and is a sure-handed receiver.

1990: Played in eight games and finished the year with 239 yards rushing as a backup for Robert Smith . . . top game was 57 yards against Northwestern . . . lone TD was a two-yard run vs. Purdue.

High School: Four-year starter and two-time all-state pick . . . St. Louis area player of the year as a senior, rushing for 1,231 yards and 13 touchdowns and averaging 37 yards per reception.

PAUL LONG

6-5, 282
Sr., Center
Highland Heights, O.
(Mayfield)

Will be in his second season as a starter . . . went into last year with virtually no playing experience, but started all 12 games and was a mainstay in the middle . . . an honorable mention all-Big Ten selection last season, and should be even better this year now that he has some seasoning . . . 317 minutes last year tied him for second on the team behind Alan Kline's 319 . . . not flashy, but very steady in everything that he does . . . a tough, durable football player . . . the lone OSU center with any experience, so he would be extremely difficult to replace in the event of an injury . . . was to have enrolled in the fall of 1987, but after injuring his shoulder in preseason drills did not enroll until Winter Quarter of 1988 . . . played defense during his first two seasons with the Buckeyes.

1990: Played seven minutes in four games as a backup to all-Big Ten center Dan Beatty.

1989: A reserve defensive lineman, he had two tackles in the six games he played in.

1988: Redshirted.

BRIAN STABLEIN

6-1, 186
Sr., Split End
Erie, Pa.
(McDowell)

OSU's leading returning receiver ... started at flanker last year, but switched places with Joey Galloway in the spring and will now start at split end ... had his best year in 1991, hauling in 26 receptions for a team-best 381 yards and earning honorable mention all-Big Ten honors ... sure-handed, heady receiver, who runs precise routes, does a fine job of separating from the defender and is deceptively fast ... caught at least one pass in every game last year, including a career-high five against Arizona ... 32-yard reception against Indiana was his longest catch of the year ... has made a number of "circus catches" to keep drives alive during his career ... also returned punts last year, averaging 8.4 yards per return ... a walk-on in 1988, he was converted to scholarship prior to the 1990 season.

1990: Played behind Bobby Olive and was OSU's third wide out ... 10 catches included a 36-yard TD reception against Northwestern.

1989: Reserve who caught passes in five games, including a diving catch at Minnesota that kept the go-ahead touchdown drive alive in the Buckeyes' 41-37 come-from-behind (31-7) win ... nine-yard TD reception against Auburn in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

1988: Made the squad as a walk-on but did not see any game action.

High School: Caught 45 passes for 600 yards and six touchdowns as a senior ... three-year starter with career figures of 95 catches, 1,100 yards and 10 TDs ... recruited by a number of smaller schools ... also earned three letters in track.

Other: His older brother, Chris, walked on with the Buckeyes after transferring from John Carroll and was eventually converted to scholarship as a quarterback before graduating in 1990 ... major is business ... born 4-14-70.

WALTER TAYLOR

6-0, 190
So., Free Safety
Dallas, Tex.
(Carter)

Talented young back who played in every game last year ... impressive athlete with great speed and even better instincts ... had an outstanding spring and will challenge incumbent Chico Nelson for playing time ... finished his rookie campaign with 11 tackles and three passes broken up ... also plays on the special teams and returns punts ... blocked a punt against Northwestern on the opening series of the game to set up Ohio State's first touchdown ... has the potential to be a very good football player and provides excellent depth and versatility in the secondary.

High School: Led Carter to a 27-2 mark his last two years, including a spotless 15-0 record and the state title his junior year ... tried his hand at a little bit of everything, playing quarterback, wide receiver and running back at one time or another ... also returned punts and kickoffs.

Other: Undecided on a major ... born 12-26-72.

JACK THRUSH

6-4, 276
Jr., Offensive Tackle
Cincinnati, O.
(Moeller)

Was moved to tackle in the spring, when Jason Winrow was experiencing back problems ... quickly adapted to his new position and will be the No. 3 tackle in the fall ... will back up Winrow, but could also step in for Kline on the left side if need be ... has also played center and guard at OSU, making him one of the Buckeyes' most versatile players ... a good football player who will provide quality depth ... played a total of 40 minutes last year behind Paul Long ... beaten out by Long last fall at center, but has continued to give 100 percent.

1990: Reserve center ... played 35 minutes in six games.

1989: Redshirted.

High School: All-Ohio as a senior ... Moeller was 31-8 during his career ... team captain as a senior.

Other: Major is economics ... born 9-12-70.

Dr. E. Gordon Gee, University President

Ohio State's 11th President

Born: Feb. 2, 1944

Education: University of Utah, 1968 - history
Columbia University, 1971 - law
Columbia University, 1972 - Ph.D. - education

Now in his third university presidency, E. Gordon Gee became chief executive officer of The Ohio State University on September 1, 1990.

As the 11th president of Ohio State, Dr. Gee leads one of the nation's most comprehensive research universities with more than 60,000 students, nearly 18,000 faculty and staff members and an annual budget of $1.2 billion. Ohio State's Columbus campus enrolls 54,000 students and is the nation's largest single campus. A land-grant university, Ohio State has 19 colleges, a graduate school and four regional campuses. It is also home to the Ohio Cooperative Extension Service and a statewide agricultural research center and technical institute based in Wooster.

An outspoken and tireless advocate for higher education, Dr. Gee has launched an ambitious effort to increase national public awareness of Ohio State's academic quality. In his first two years, he has toured Ohio's 88 counties, sharing his vision for Ohio State and building support for the university among alumni and friends.

At Ohio State, Dr. Gee has focused his energy on further enhancing the university's educational reputation. Under his leadership, Ohio State has strengthened its merit scholarship program and increased Honors Program enrollment. In autumn 1991, Ohio State ranked among the top 10 universities in the nation in the number of National Merit and National Achievement Scholars who enrolled. He also has initiated a comprehensive academic planning process to set priorities that will prepare Ohio State for the challenges of higher education in the 21st century.

Dr. Gee was born in Vernal, Utah, on February 2, 1944. He received a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Utah in 1968 and a law degree and doctorate in education from Columbia University in 1971 and 1972, respectively. At Columbia, he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar and Kellogg Fellow.

Dr. Gee returned to the University of Utah, serving as assistant law dean from 1973 to 1974. He served as judicial fellow and senior staff assistant in the chambers of the Chief Justice of the United States from 1974 to 1975. He was associate law dean and professor of law in the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University from 1975 to 1979.

One of this country's youngest college presidents, Dr. Gee assumed the leadership of West Virginia University in 1981 at the age of 37. He had been dean of the law school there from 1979 to 1981. Dr. Gee became president of the University of Colorado in 1985.

Dr. Gee has received many honors in the fields of law and education. He has written or co-written six books, including Information Literacy: Revolution in the Library, which won the American Library Association G.K. Hall Award in 1990 for the outstanding contribution to library literature.

Dr. Gee serves on numerous boards and commissions, including the Business-Higher Education Forum; the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education, and the Advisory Council of Presidents to the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges. He is chair of the Council on Governmental Relations and serves on the Executive Committee of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges.

Active in civic and community affairs, he serves on the Central Ohio United Negro College Fund Advisory Committee and is a member of the boards of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, the Central Ohio Council of the Boy Scouts of America, the United Way of Franklin County and the Columbus School for Girls. He is on the boards of Banc One Corp. and The Limited Inc.

Head Coach John Cooper

The Ohio State football program is under the capable direction of John Cooper. Now in his fifth year as the Buckeyes' head coach, Cooper, a former National Coach of the Year and current president of the American College Football Coaches Association, is one of college football's most respected mentors.

Cooper's four-year record at Ohio State is 27-18-2 and includes a Big Ten mark of 18-12-2. His first OSU team finished with a 4-6-1 record, but his last three have a combined slate of 23-12-1 and have fashioned a 16-7-1 ledger in conference play. Additionally, all three of the latter squads have played in bowl games — two on New Year's Day — and two of the three (1990 and '91) have gone into the final week of the regular season playing for the Big Ten championship and a berth in the Rose Bowl.

Cooper, 55, is the 21st head football coach in Ohio State history. He was named to his present position on Dec. 31, 1987, succeeding Earle Bruce.

Prior to Ohio State, Cooper spent three years as head coach at Arizona State (1985-87) and before that eight seasons (1977-84) as the head coach at Tulsa. He was 25-9-2 at ASU and 57-31 at Tulsa, giving him a 15-year career mark of 109-58-4. In 1986, on the heels of leading Arizona State to a 10-1-1 record, its first ever Pac-10 title and a berth in the Rose Bowl, Cooper was named National Coach of the Year.

Cooper is from Powell, Tenn., a small, rural community outside of Knoxville. After graduating from high school, he spent two years in the Army before enrolling at Iowa State on a football scholarship. He played running back and safety for the Cyclones and was team captain and most valuable player as a senior.

Cooper received his bachelor's degree from Iowa State in 1962 and embarked upon his coaching career the following fall as the Cyclones' freshman coach.

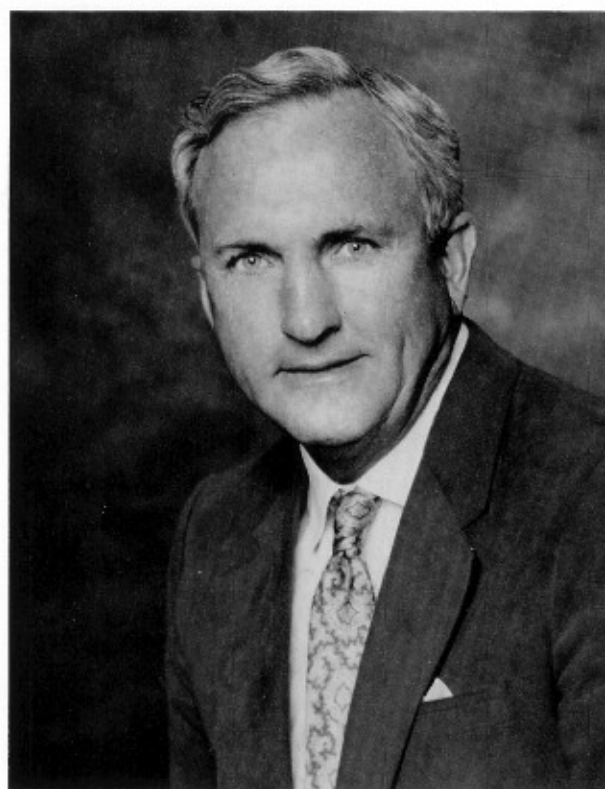

He left his alma mater in 1963 to join Tommy Prothro at Oregon State. He was there two years, including 1964 when the Beavers won the Pac-8 title and played in the 1965 Rose Bowl.

Cooper accompanied Prothro to UCLA in 1965 and was rewarded with a second straight trip to the Rose Bowl, when the Bruins dethroned Oregon State and played in the 1966 Pasadena classic.

Cooper's next stop was as an assistant to Pepper Rodgers at Kansas. Named defensive coordinator in 1967, he called defensive signals for the Jayhawks for five years, leaving after the 1971 season to join Fran Curci's staff at the University of Kentucky.

In 1977, Cooper was named head coach at Tulsa. He quickly injected a breath of fresh air into the school's sagging football fortunes. After a major overhaul and a 3-8 record his first year, Cooper's second edition of the Golden Hurricane posted a 9-2 record. It was the start of a golden era in which Tulsa put together a string of six straight winning seasons and won five consecutive Missouri Valley Conference championships between 1980 and 1984.

Following the last of those titles, Cooper, whose team had won 21 straight conference games at the end of the 1984 campaign, was named head coach at ASU, a school looking for its first football crown in the rugged Pac-10.

1963-64:	Assistant Coach at Oregon State (Beavers play in 1965 Rose Bowl)
1965-67:	Assistant at UCLA (Bruins play in 1966 Rose Bowl)
1967-71:	Assistant at Kansas (Jayhawks play in 1969 Orange Bowl)
1972-76:	Assistant at Kentucky
1977-84:	Head Coach at Tulsa (record 57-31)
1985-87:	Head Coach at Arizona State (record 25-9-2)
1988-Present:	Head Coach at Ohio State (record 27-18-2)
Career Record:	(15 years - 109-58-4)

Cooper came up just shy in 1985, missing out on the title on the final day of the regular season when his young squad fell to arch-rival Arizona. As a consolation prize, the Sun Devils played in the Holiday Bowl and finished with an 8-4 record.

Cooper had shown the Sun Devils how to win, and win they did in 1986, posting a brilliant 10-1-1 record that, in addition to the league championship, included a convincing win over Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

In 1987, the Sun Devils made school history with a third straight bowl trip. Their win over Air Force in the Freedom Bowl capped off a 7-4-1 season in what was supposed to have been a major rebuilding year.

The day after the Freedom Bowl, Cooper became Ohio State's head coach. Originally signed to a five-year contract, he was given a three-year contract extension at the end of the 1991 season.

Cooper believes that defense wins championships. Under his guidance the OSU defense has improved steadily and was one of the Big Ten's best last year, allowing 15.6 points a game. Offensively, his well-balanced teams have averaged 27 points a game over the past three seasons.

An outstanding recruiter, Cooper has made the talent-rich state of Ohio the center of his recruiting efforts, but at the same time has re-established ties in other parts of the country in an effort to lure the nation's top prep talent to the Ohio State campus. Several of his recruits have won postseason honors, including senior linebacker Steve Tovar, a first-team All-American last year.

Active in the Columbus community, Cooper's interests include Children's Hospital, Easter Seals and United Way.

John and his wife, Helen, have two children — John Jr. and Cindy, both of whom live in Columbus.

The Coaching Staff

Larry Coyer

Defensive Secondary

Marshall, 1965

Veteran coach Larry Coyer is in his second year as Ohio State's defensive backfield tutor.

Renowned for his teaching methods and ability to get the most out of his athletes, Coyer's coaching resume includes stints in the Big Eight, the Pac-10, the Big Ten and, most recently, the Southwest Conference, prior to coming to Ohio State. He also has coached in the USFL.

Coyer came to Ohio State in 1990, following a year at the University of Houston, where he served as defensive coordinator. He also has been defensive coordinator at Iowa, Oklahoma State, Iowa State and Memphis State in the collegiate ranks and with the Michigan Panthers of the USFL.

Coyer, 49, is a native of Huntington, W. Va., and a 1965 graduate of Marshall, where he was a standout football player and wrestler. After graduation, he spent three years as Marshall's secondary coach, leaving in 1968 to become head coach at Martins Ferry High School in Ohio. Between 1970 and '72, he was the defensive coordinator at Massillon High School, leaving in 1973 to become secondary coach at Bowling Green.

In 1974, Coyer was named defensive coordinator at Iowa. He remained there four years, leaving in 1978 to accept a similar position at Oklahoma State. In 1979, he moved to Iowa State as defensive coordinator.

Coyer left the collegiate ranks in 1983 to become defensive coordinator with the Michigan Panthers of the USFL. He remained there two years before joining the staff of the Memphis Showboats.

In 1986, Coyer returned to college football, accepting the position of defensive coordinator at Memphis State. In 1987, he was named linebackers coach at UCLA, a position he retained until moving to Houston for the 1990 season.

Larry and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Matthew and Justin.

Bill
Conley

Inside
Linebackers

Ohio State,
1972

Bill Conley is in his second year as a member of John Cooper's staff. After serving as recruiting coordinator during the 1991 season, he returns to the field this year as coach of the inside linebackers.

This will be Conley's second coaching stint with the Buckeyes. He coached the linebackers for Earle Bruce between 1984 and 1987.

Conley, a native of Columbus, is a 1972 graduate of Ohio State. He tried out for the football team as a walk-on and was eventually converted to a scholarship, earning two letters as a reserve offensive lineman.

Following graduation from OSU, Conley began coaching as an assistant at London High School. Elevated to head coach in 1974, he piloted London to a four-year record of 30-8-2.

In 1979, Conley was named head coach at Groveport High School. His three-year record there was 15-14-1.

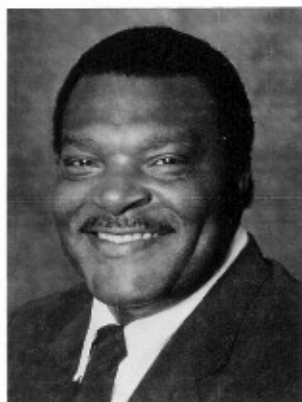

In 1982, Conley took over the head coaching position at Middletown High School. In two seasons with the Middies, his teams went 15-5.

In 1984, Conley left Middletown to become linebacker coach at Ohio State. During his four years on Bruce's staff, he produced several outstanding players, including Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson.

Conley returned to the high school ranks in 1988 and led Dublin High School to a three-year record of 18-12, giving him a career mark of 78-39-3 in 12 seasons.

Conley returned to OSU in April of 1991. His first class of recruits - the 1992 freshman class - was rated by virtually every recruiting service as one of the best in the nation.

Bill and wife, Debbie, have two sons, Bill and Craig.

Frank Falks

Running Backs

Parsons College,
1967

Frank Falks is in his first season with the Buckeyes. The 49-year-old Falks, now in his 25th year of collegiate coaching, will coach the running backs at OSU.

Prior to Ohio State, Falks spent five years as an assistant at Arizona State, one under John Cooper and the last four on Larry Marmie's staff. In addition to coaching the Sun Devils' running backs, Falks also served as assistant head coach during his last three years with Marmie.

Falks is a 1967 graduate of Parsons College. After a year as a graduate assistant there, he was named offensive coordinator in 1968. He remained in that role for two years before moving to Kansas State as offensive line coach in 1970.

Falks left Kansas State for the University of Arkansas in 1973. He was the Razorbacks' defensive ends coach until 1977, when he accepted the position of defensive coordinator at Wyoming. Falks coached three years at Wyoming, leaving in 1980 to become defensive coordinator at San Diego State.

In 1981 and '82, Falks coached the running backs at Oklahoma State, where his star pupil was Ernest Anderson, the nation's leading rusher and an All-American tailback. In 1983, Falks was named running backs coach at Southern Cal. He left USC in 1987 to join up with Cooper at Arizona State.

Falks and his wife, Carol, have a son, Michael, and a daughter, Raegan.

Joe Hollis

Offensive Coordinator

Auburn, 1969

Joe Hollis coaches the offensive guards and centers for the Buckeyes and also serves as John Cooper's offensive coordinator.

Hollis, 44, is in his second season with the Buckeyes. He joined the OSU staff prior to the 1990 season as coach of the guards and centers. Last spring, he was given the additional responsibility of coordinating the offense.

Hollis' offensive philosophy stresses balance between the running and passing games and emphasizes keeping the defense off guard.

"We don't want to be known as a wide-open offense, but we do want to be considered unpredictable," he says.

Prior to Ohio State, Hollis spent six years coaching the offensive line at the University of Georgia. His other coaching stops include Troy State and Auburn at the assistant level and Jacksonville State as a head coach. This is his 21st year in coaching.

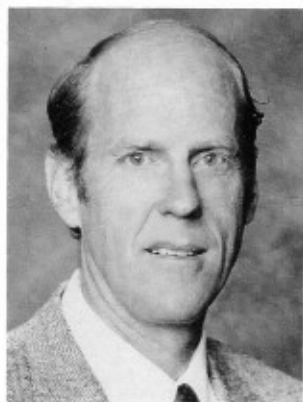

An Alabama native, Hollis is a 1969 graduate of Auburn. He began his career in 1972 as an assistant at Troy State. He remained there for six years, leaving in 1978 to return to Auburn as an offensive line coach.

In 1980, Hollis joined up with John Cooper at Tulsa. In 1983, in addition to coaching the offensive line, he also served as offensive coordinator for the Golden Hurricane. During his stay at Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane compiled a 33-11 record, including four league titles and a 20-1 mark in Missouri Valley Conference play.

In 1984, Hollis left Tulsa to become head coach at Jacksonville State. In his only year there, he compiled a 4-5-1 record.

In 1985, Hollis was named offensive line coach at Georgia. During his six seasons with the Bulldogs, Georgia appeared in five bowl games.

Joe and his wife, Carole, have two sons, Joseph and William.

Ron Hudson

Passing Game
Coordinator,
Quarterbacks

California,
1969

Ron Hudson is in his fifth year at Ohio State. He coaches the quarterbacks and also coordinates the Buckeyes' passing game.

Hudson joined the OSU staff in 1988 as coach of the running backs. In 1989, he took over the quarterbacks, and in 1990 he was given the additional responsibility of passing game coordinator.

In 1990, the Buckeyes threw for 2,317 yards and 20 touchdowns. OSU was second in passing efficiency and third in passing yardage in the Big Ten that year.

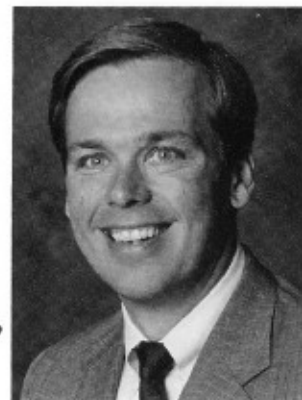

Hudson is a native of Lafayette, Calif. His extensive coaching background includes stops at Illinois, Oregon, UCLA and Notre Dame on the collegiate level, and with the Memphis Showboats on the professional circuit.

Hudson graduated from the University of California in 1969. After three years in the Marine Corps, he began his coaching career in 1972 at his alma mater. He remained there five years, working at various times with the defensive line and the secondary on defense and the wide receivers on offense.

In 1977, Hudson moved to the University of Oregon as quarterbacks coach. He remained there two years before becoming the running backs coach at UCLA in 1979. He was a member of the Bruins' staff for three years, leaving in 1982 to become the quarterbacks coach at Notre Dame. He spent four years in South Bend, doubling as offensive coordinator his last two years.

In 1986, Hudson coached the wide receivers and quarterbacks for the Memphis franchise of the USFL. In 1987, he became the running backs coach at Illinois. Following the '87 season, Hudson came to Ohio State.

The 45-year-old Hudson is single.

Lee Owens

Tackles & Tight Ends

Bluffton College,
1977

Lee Owens is the newest member of John Cooper's coaching staff. Following a meteoric rise to the top of the Ohio high school coaching ranks, the 35-year-old Owens was named last spring to coach the Buckeyes' tackles and tight ends.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Owens spent four years as head coach at Massillon High School. His record with the Tigers between 1988 and 1991 was 30-10 and included two trips to the state playoffs.

A native of Mansfield, Ohio, Owens graduated from Bluffton College in 1977.

After four years as an assistant at the high school level, Owens landed his first head coaching position at Ashland High School in 1981. He remained there for two years, compiling a combined record of 14-5-1 and earning a reputation as one of Ohio's top young coaches.

Owens was named head coach at Galion High School in 1983. In four seasons there, he posted a 33-11-1 record and won the Ohio Division II state title in 1985.

Following the 1986 season, Owens accepted the head coaching position at Division I Lancaster. He spent just one season at Lancaster, compiling a 7-3 record before being tabbed to take over the highly-regarded Massillon program.

In 11 seasons as a head coach, Owens has posted a career record of 89-32-2, including an impressive 9-4 mark in the state playoffs.

Lee and his wife, Dianne, have two sons, Ben and Andy, and two daughters, Leanne and Molly.

Fred
Pagac
Outside
Linebackers

Ohio State, 1975

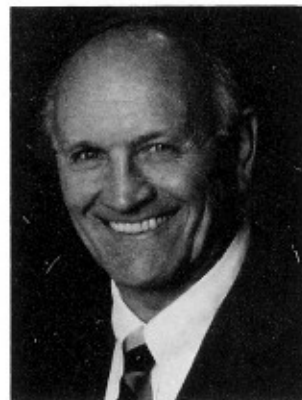

Outside linebacker coach Fred Pagac is the senior assistant on the Ohio State football staff in terms of longevity. Pagac, a former Buckeye player, joined the OSU staff in 1978 as a graduate assistant under his old coach, the late Woody Hayes. He was elevated to full-time status in 1982 by Earle Bruce and then retained by John Cooper following the 1987 season.

Pagac was a three-year starter at tight end for the Buckeyes between 1971 and 1973. He led Ohio State in receiving as a senior. During his career, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 25-6-2, including a 19-2-1 mark the last two years, won two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls.

After leaving Ohio State, Pagac played five years in the National Football League. In 1974, as a rookie with the Chicago Bears, he received the Brian Piccolo Award, which is presented annually by the Bears to the player who best exemplifies Piccolo's inspirational qualities. Pagac, who also played with Tampa Bay, received his degree from Ohio State in 1975, returning to school during the off-season to complete his course work.

In 1978, Pagac retired from the NFL and returned to his alma mater to begin his coaching career. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Pagac has helped develop several outstanding players, including current OSU junior Jason Simmons.

Fred and his wife, Bernie, both natives of Richeyville, Pa., have two children, Jennifer and Freddie.

Mike Stock
Wide
Receivers

Northwestern, 1961

Mike Stock is in his first season on the Ohio State staff. An assistant with the Cincinnati Bengals the past six years, Stock will coach the Buckeyes' wide receivers.

The 52-year-old Stock has an Ohio and Big Ten background. A native of Barberton, Ohio, he graduated from Northwestern in 1961. He played fullback for the Wildcats, earning all-Big Ten honors in 1959 and '60, and was a two-year co-captain for the Ara Parseghian-coached Wildcats.

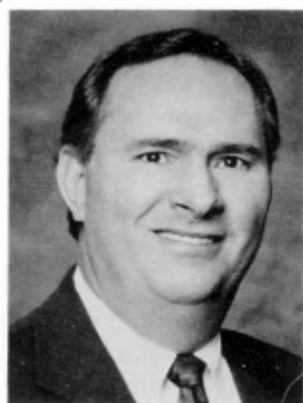

Stock began his coaching career as an assistant at Northwestern in 1961. He has coached, too, at Akron South High School in Ohio (1965), the University of Buffalo (1966-67), Navy (1968), Notre Dame (1969-75 and 1983-85) and Wisconsin (1975-77) as an assistant, and at Eastern Michigan (1978-82) as a head coach.

Stock was offensive coordinator at both Notre Dame, during his second tour there, and at Wisconsin.

Stock, who spent a year with the New Jersey Generals (1983), joined the Bengals' staff in 1986 as special teams coach. He remained in that role for three years before taking over as wide receivers' coach in 1988. In 1990, he coached the Bengals' tight ends.

Stock also has coached the wide receivers at Navy and Notre Dame.

Stock and his wife, Peggy, have two sons, Michael and Patrick, and a daughter, Cynthia.

Bill
Young

Coordinator

Oklahoma State,
1967

Bill Young is in his fifth year as the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator. The 45-year-old assistant coach accompanied John Cooper from Arizona State following the 1987 season.

Under Young's guidance, the OSU defense has improved each year. Last season, the Buckeyes led the Big Ten in scoring defense and were second in rushing defense. Additionally, OSU was second in third-down conversion percentage and third in quarterback sacks. In 12 games, OSU allowed 187 points, the lowest total in four years.

This is Young's 13th season with Cooper. Prior to Ohio State, they worked together for three years at Arizona State and before that for five seasons at Tulsa.

Young was born in Hereford, Texas, but grew up in Oklahoma City. He attended Oklahoma State and was a three-year starter for the Cowboys. After graduating from OSU in 1967, Young embarked upon his coaching career as an assistant high school coach in Oklahoma City. He jumped to the collegiate ranks in 1976, returning to his alma mater to coach the defensive line.

Young left Oklahoma State after the 1979 season to become the defensive line coach at Iowa State. He spent one year in that capacity, before linking up with Cooper for the first time at Tulsa.

Young coached the defensive line during his first two years at Tulsa. In 1983, he was named defensive coordinator. During his two years as coordinator, the Golden Hurricane won two conference championships and posted a 10-0 league record.

Following the 1984 campaign, Young accompanied Cooper to Arizona State. He spent three years as the Sun Devils' defensive line coach before moving to Ohio State as defensive coordinator.

Bill's wife, Lawana, is a special education teacher.

1992 RULE CHANGES

The major changes for 1992 are:

1. ADVANCEMENT OF FUMBLES:

The new rule allows defensive players to advance the ball after recovering any fumble, regardless of where it occurs on the field. Under the previous rule, defensive players could advance the ball only on fumbles that occurred beyond the line of scrimmage. Laterals and pitchouts that are not controlled by the receiving players are considered backward passes which still may not be advanced by the defense if recovered. The rule is now the same as the NFL.

2. ILLEGAL BLOCK IN BACK:

Any block or push above the waist in the back of an opponent, other than the ball carrier, will be penalized 10 yards. Such action previously was considered clipping and was penalized 15 yards. The rule is now the same as the NFL.

3. REPLACED PLAYERS:

Replaced players must leave the huddle immediately. This rule's intent is to prevent the 12th player from confusing the defense.

4. MAN-IN-MOTION:

The new rule prevents offensive players lined up at the line of scrimmage from being in motion when the ball is snapped. Players must establish themselves in the backfield before going in motion.

Dave Kennedy

Strength & Conditioning

Nebraska, 1985

Dave Kennedy is in his fourth season as Ohio State's head strength and conditioning coach. The 30-year-old Kennedy joined the Buckeye staff in June of 1989.

Prior to Ohio State, Kennedy spent seven years as the assistant strength coach at the University of Nebraska. His responsibilities there included developing and monitoring the strength and conditioning program for the Cornhuskers' football team. While he was at Nebraska, the football team was considered one of the strongest in the Big Eight.

At Ohio State, Kennedy works primarily with the football squad, but also oversees the conditioning program for all varsity sports. His year-round conditioning program has greatly increased the overall strength, speed and power of Ohio State's athletes.

Kennedy has designed an individual program for each member of the Ohio State football team. The computerized program focuses on day-to-day improvement and is designed to enhance the mental and physical development of each player.

Kennedy is from Omaha, Neb. He is an alumnus of the University of Nebraska, graduating in 1985 with a degree in exercise science.

Dave's wife, Julie, is also a Nebraska graduate.

Billy Hill

Head Trainer

Ohio State, 1973

Billy Hill is in his 17th season as head trainer for the Ohio State football team.

In addition to football, Hill also has extensive international experience in track. He was head trainer at the 1975 Pan Am Games in Mexico City and the 1983 World Track and Field Championships in Helsinki. He also worked the 1984 Olympics, serving as the head trainer for the United States' track team. Additionally, he has toured the U.S.S.R., Germany and Great Britain as the head trainer for various U.S. track teams.

Hill, 43, is from Memphis, Tenn. He served three years in the Army, including a tour of duty as a corpsman in Vietnam, before enrolling at Ohio State.

Hill first joined the Ohio State staff in 1971 as an assistant trainer. He graduated from OSU in 1973 and was appointed co-head trainer, with responsibility for football, in 1974.

Hill, one of the most experienced, respected and knowledgeable trainers in his profession, belongs to the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Ohio Trainers Association and the Minority Trainers Association. Locally, he is active in the Merry Makers Club of Columbus.

Billy and his wife, Rose, reside in Columbus. He has four children, daughters Dale, Enshane and Lesley, and a son, Brian, who recently graduated from the Air Force Academy.

James L. Jones, Director of Athletics

Born: June 23, 1936

Education: Kent State, 1958 - bachelor's Ball State, 1964 - master's

Wife: Linda

Children: Bill and Lynnae

Jim Jones is in his fifth year as Director of Athletics at The Ohio State University. In that relatively short period of time, the 56-year-old Jones has established himself as one of college athletics' most capable and respected leaders.

With 31 varsity sports and an annual operating budget of more than $23 million, Jones administers one of the nation's largest and most comprehensive athletic programs. In an era when many Division I schools have been forced to cut sports because of ever-increasing costs, Jones remains committed to the long-standing Ohio State philosophy of a broad-based program. To that end, he has initiated aggressive fund-raising and marketing programs to help offset the budget crunch, and is constantly searching for new ways to raise money in an effort to keep the Department of Athletics financially sound.

Jones also pilots one of the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletic programs. Each year Ohio State's teams claim numerous conference championships, compete in bowl games and NCAA tournaments and produce countless individual champions and All-Americans, giving the Buckeyes a program that is unparalleled in both quantity and quality.

Jones is active, too, on the conference and national levels. The immediate past chair of the Big Ten Directors, he currently serves on the conference Television and Promotions Committees. He is President of the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and First Vice President of the Division I Athletic Directors. He will be installed as the latter group's chair in June of 1993.

Additionally, Jones sits on two of the NCAA's most prestigious committees: the Special Events Committee and the Post Season Bowls Committee.

Jones has been a member of the Ohio State staff since 1965. He was named to his present position in November of 1987. Prior to his appointment, he spent seven years as an assistant director and 10 as associate director.

A native of Cuyahoga Falls, O., Jones received his B.S. from Kent State University in 1958 and his master's from Ball State in 1964.

After graduating from Kent State, he spent five years in northeastern Ohio, teaching and coaching at the junior high and high school levels.

In 1965, after receiving his master's, Jones came to Ohio State as an instructor in the Department of Physical Education. In 1967, he joined the football staff as the academic counselor for coach Woody Hayes. He was one of the first full-time academic counselors in college athletics.

Jones was on Hayes' staff for four years. During that time, the Buckeyes captured three Big Ten titles, played in two Rose Bowls and won the National Championship. The 1968 staff, of which he was a member, was named by The Sporting News as one of the top 25 football coaching staffs of all time.

Jones became Assistant Director of Athletics following the 1970 football season. In that position, he was responsible for administering the grant-in-aid program, as well as eligibility, compliance and team travel.

In 1977, Jones was elevated to Associate Director and given the responsibility of running the Department on a day-to-day basis. He also oversaw the operation of the Academic Counseling, Business and Sports Information Offices, and frequently represented Ohio State at various Big Ten and NCAA meetings.

At the time of his appointment as Director, Jones had a first-hand knowledge of all facets of the Ohio State Athletic Department.

Jones is extremely active in the Columbus community. He is past president of the Boys Club and the Upper Arlington Rotary. He currently serves on the boards of the Columbus Area Sports Corporation and the Columbus Association for the Performing Arts. An engaging speaker, he is a frequent guest at alumni functions around the country.

Jim and his wife, Linda, have two children, Bill and Lynnae.

The Athletic Department Staff

Bill
Myles

Associate
Athletic Director

Bill Myles was named Associate Director of Athletics on March 19, 1985. He is responsible for overseeing Ohio State's 18 men's sports, including budgets, schedules, travel, home game administration and evaluation of the coaches. He also is responsible for the recognition banquets of each of the men's sports and assists with football scheduling.

Prior to his present position, Myles served as an assistant football coach at Ohio State for eight years. He was hired by coach Woody Hayes in 1977 and retained when Earle Bruce took over in 1979. When he left the coaching ranks after the 1984 season, he had 22 years of coaching experience.

Myles, 55, is a native of Kansas City, Mo. He graduated from Drake in 1962 and received his master's from Central Missouri State in 1967.

As an undergraduate, Myles played center and linebacker on the Drake football team. Since graduation, he has received two of his alma mater's most prestigious honors — the Double D Award, which goes to an athlete who later distinguishes himself in his chosen profession; and the Distinguished Service Award, the highest honor given by the Drake National Alumni Association.

Myles began his coaching career in 1962 in Kansas City as a high school assistant. In 1965, he became a head coach, and during the next seven years his teams posted a combined record of 45-20-3. He was named Kansas City Area Man of the Year in 1970 and Greater Kansas City Coach of the Year in 1971.

In 1972, Myles went to the University of Nebraska as a line coach and in 1975 became linebacker coach. He coached numerous all-conference players for the Cornhuskers, including two-time All-America center Rik Bonness. After four years on Tom Osborne's staff, he joined the OSU staff as tackles and tight ends coach. He has coached in the Rose, Orange, Sugar, Cotton, Fiesta, Gator, Liberty, Holiday, Citrus and Bluebonnet Bowls. An outstanding recruiter, it was Myles who signed All-America Jim Lachey, now a perennial all-pro with the Washington Redskins.

Bill and his wife, Lorita, have a daughter, Debbie, and a son, Bill.

Phyllis
Bailey

Associate Athletic Director

Phyllis Bailey has been a member of The Ohio State University faculty since 1956. She has served as Associate Director of Athletics since July of 1977. Her duties are to supervise the women's athletic program.

Bailey has played a major role in the development of women's sports at Ohio State, starting in 1965-66, when athletic competition began, to the present time, when Ohio State supports 12 women's sports. A successful women's program was guaranteed in 1976, when an extensive grant-in-aid program was instituted.

Ohio State's women's teams have been very successful. Buckeye squads have won more Big Ten championships than any other conference school and consistently have competed well on a national level in a variety of sports.

Bailey is a graduate of Miami of Ohio. She taught physical education at Earlham College and at Wayne State University before coming to Ohio State in 1956. In 1959, she became Associate Director of Recreation, Intramurals and Intercollegiate Sports for Women. She joined the Athletic Department in 1975 as Assistant Director.

Bailey has served on numerous Big Ten and NCAA committees. She currently is a member of the prestigious NCAA Women's Basketball Committee.

Paul Krebs

Assistant
Athletic Director for Administration

Paul Krebs is in his seventh year as a member of the Athletic Department staff. He came to OSU in 1985 as Ticket Director and in 1987 was named assistant athletic director. Krebs now oversees the ticket office, golf course and ice rink and is involved in day-to-day operations of the athletic department.

Krebs also coordinates special events, such as the Genesis concert in Ohio Stadium last May. He is also involved with special projects and chairs several committees, including one that recently selected a new athletic department logo.

Krebs, 36, is in charge of game management for Ohio State's home football and basketball games, overseeing concessions, crowd control and timing on the day of the game.

Additionally, Krebs represents the Athletic Department in various other capacities. He is the department's liaison with the newly formed Ohio Glory of the World League of American Football and is Ohio State's representative on the Columbus chapter of the National Football Foundation.

As Ticket Director, Krebs enhanced the efficiency of that office by implementing a new computer ticket program shortly after his arrival in Columbus.

Krebs is a native of Canfield, Ohio. He graduated from Bowling Green in 1978 and received his master's from Ohio State in 1981. While working on the latter, he interned in the OSU Ticket Office.

In 1981, Krebs was named assistant ticket manager at the University of Oklahoma. In 1982, he became ticket manager, a position he held for three years before joining the Ohio State staff.

Paul and his wife Marjori, who teaches in nearby Worthington, have a daughter, Taylor.

Archie Griffin

Assistant
Athletic Director
for Fund Raising

One of the most talented and popular football players in Ohio State history, Archie Griffin joined the Athletic Department in 1985. He served two years as Special Assistant to the Director of Athletics before being promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 1987. His chief duties are in the area of athletic fund raising. Additionally, he represents the Director's office at various functions around the state and across the nation.

Griffin is college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner. He won college football's most coveted award in 1974 as a junior and then made history by winning it a second time in 1975. A three-time All-American, Griffin is the leading rusher in Ohio State and Big Ten history with an incredible 5,589 career yards. All four of his Ohio State teams won Big Ten championships and he has the rare distinction of starting in four Rose Bowls.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also is one of just two players ever to win back-to-back Silver Footballs as the Big Ten's MVP. He also was a two-time choice by U.P.I. as College Football Player of the Year.

A two-time team captain, Griffin still ranks fourth on the all-time NCAA rushing list with 5,177 yards (does not include bowl games). His 6.13 yards per carry average is an NCAA record and he also holds the NCAA record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (31).

Griffin graduated from Ohio State in 1976 with a degree in industrial relations. A first round draft choice, he played in the NFL for eight years, all with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Archie is married to the former Bonita Davis and has three sons, Anthony, Andre and Alex.

In August of 1990, Griffin became the second Ohio Stater to be inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame, joining his former coach, the late Woody Hayes.

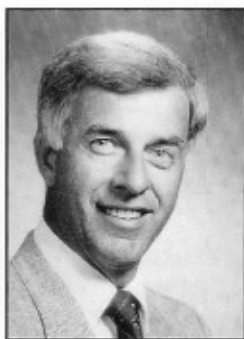

In December of 1990, he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

Academic Excellence at Ohio State

Academic All-Americans also are part of the Ohio State football tradition. In 1989, offensive tackle Joe Staysniak became the 20th Ohio State player to be named to the CoSIDA Academic All-American team.

Additionally, in 1985, Ohio State flanker Mike Lanese, a two-time Academic All-American (1984, '85) and a two-time Academic All-Big Ten pick, was one of 32 U.S. college seniors selected as a Rhodes Scholar.

Woody Hayes

For 28 years Woody Hayes was Ohio State football. Between 1951 and 1978 the legendary coach took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history.

While Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won three national titles (and narrowly missed out on six others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. On two different occasions the Buckeyes won a conference record 17 straight league games.

Under Woody, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972-73-74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first-team All-America berths. Additionally, he coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes current head coaches Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Earle Bruce, Lou Holtz and Joe Bugel. Others include Bo Schembechler and current Ohio State Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

Hayes' lifetime record of 238-72-10 places him fourth in all-time NCAA coaching victories. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. And during the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second in each of the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami for two.

Hayes was also a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the off-season. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes died in 1987, but his influence lives on through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. He holds a very special place in college football history.

Archie Griffin

Archie Griffin is college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner. And while those two coveted bronzed statues are undoubtedly Griffin's most prized pieces of hardware, the Columbus native and Eastmoor High School graduate has a trophy case filled with numerous other tributes to his splendid four years with the Buckeyes.

Griffin was the Buckeyes' starting tailback for four years, leading Ohio State to a 40-5-1 record and four Big Ten titles between 1972 and 1975. He started in four consecutive Rose Bowls, the only player ever to do so, and was a three-time first-team All-American.

At 5-9 and 180 pounds, Griffin was small by college football standards even then, but he played with the heart of a lion and no football accomplishment was beyond his reach.

In just the second game of his freshman year, Griffin ran for a school record 239 yards. It was the start of a brilliant career that would see him amass an OSU record 5,589 yards and 26 touchdowns.

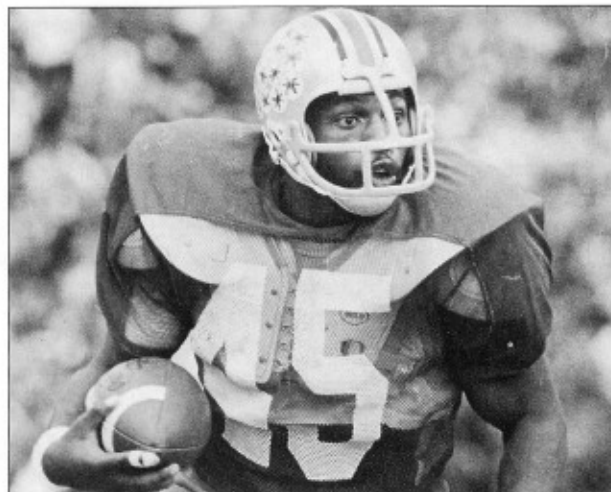

Excluding bowl games, Griffin rushed for 5,177 yards on 845 carries. The former figure ranks him fifth among all NCAA career ball carriers and his 6.13 yards per carry still stands as an NCAA record. And Griffin rarely played more than half a game, his coach, Woody Hayes, always opting to take his star out as soon as the Buckeyes were in control.

Between his sophomore and senior seasons, Griffin ran for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive games. That, too, is still an NCAA record.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also has a pair of Silver Footballs, an award presented annually by the Chicago Tribune to the Big Ten's MVP. He is one of just three players to win that award twice. Griffin also was a two-time pick as National Player of the Year by both United Press International and the Walter Camp Foundation. He won those honors as a junior and senior.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. It is the highest award the NCAA can bestow.

After an eight-year career with the Cincinnati Bengals, Griffin is now an assistant athletic director at Ohio State. To this day, he remains one of the most popular and visible players ever to play for the Buckeyes.

The Griffin File

1972: Set a then OSU single-game rushing record with 239 yards against North Carolina. Rushed for 867 yards during the year, then an OSU freshman record.

1973: Became the first OSU sophomore ever to rush for 1,000 yards (1,577) and was named to a first-team spot on the U.P.I. All-American team. Winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Big Ten Player of the Year.

1974: Rushed for a then school record 1,695 yards and was a unanimous All-America choice. Won the Heisman Trophy, a second straight Silver Football and was the U.P.I. and Walter Camp Player of the Year.

1975: Made college football history by winning his second Heisman. Again chosen by U.P.I. and Walter Camp as Player of the Year. Was also everyone's All-American.

- Ohio State's career rushing leader with 5,589 yards
- Member of the Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame
- Member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame
- Member of the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame

Ohio State's Heisman Heritage

The Heisman Trophy, presented annually since 1935 to the nation's premier college football player, is no stranger to Columbus. Over the years, four Ohio State players have won the coveted award, which is voted on by a nationwide panel of sports media.

Among the Ohio State winners is All-America tailback Archie Griffin, still the only two-time recipient of the bronze statue. He was fifth in the balloting as a sophomore in 1973, when teammates John Hicks and Randy Gradishar finished second and sixth, respectively, the first and only time one school has had three players in the top six.

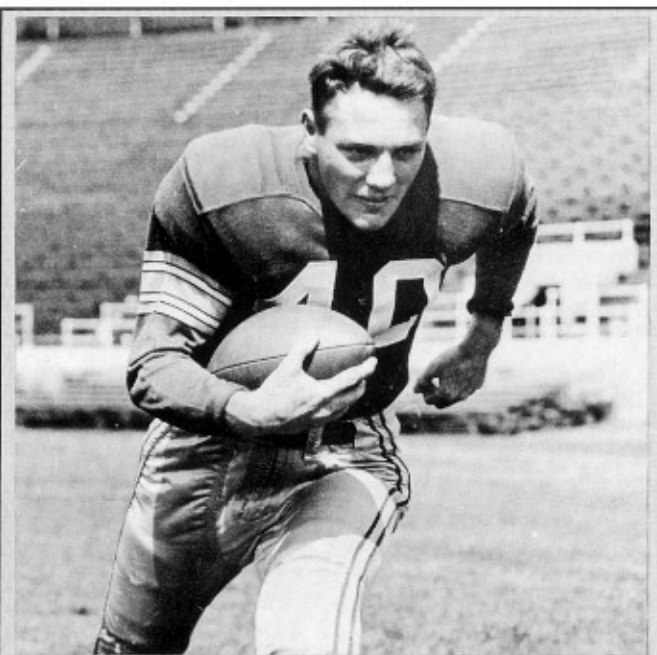

Les Horvath

Les Horvath was Ohio State's first Heisman winner. He won the award in 1944, when he accounted for 1,248 yards in total offense and led the Buckeyes to a 9-0 record and the national championship.

Vic Janowicz

Vic Janowicz, believed by many to be the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State, won the Heisman in 1950 as a junior. A true triple threat, he led the Buckeyes in rushing, passing and punting that year. He also kicked 23 field goals, including a 27-yarder in the "Snow Bowl."

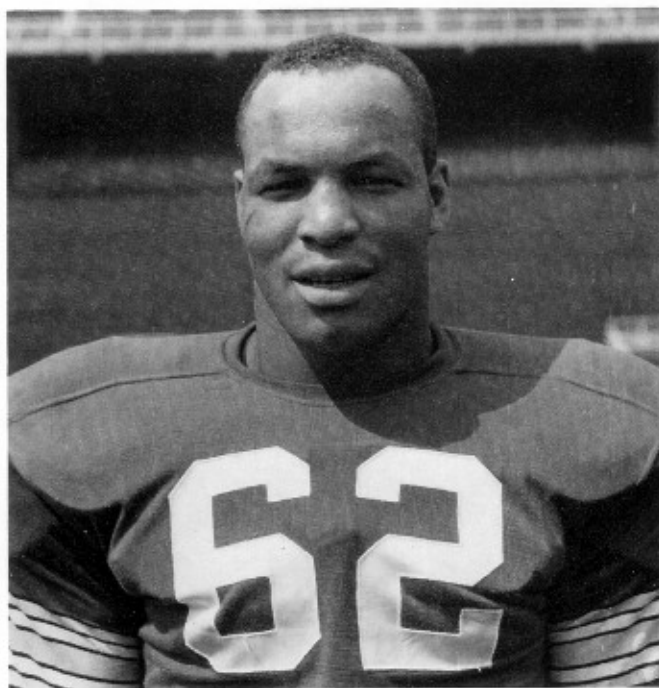

Howard "Hopalong" Cassady

Howard "Hopalong" Cassady capped off a brilliant four-year career by winning the 1955 Heisman Trophy. As a junior, Cassady accounted for 849 yards and won first-team All-America honors for the national champion Buckeyes. He had an even better year in 1955, accounting for 964 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Ohio State's Outland and Lombardi Winners

Jim Parker

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner, claiming the honor as a senior in 1956. Parker was a two-time first team All-America and is generally regarded as one of the finest offensive linemen ever to play college football.

Jim Stillwagon

Middle guard Jim Stillwagon won the Outland Trophy and the very first Lombardi Award in 1970, his senior year. A two-time All-America, Stillwagon was the heart of the Buckeyes' defense during the glory years of 1968, '69 and '70.

John Hicks

In 1973, John Hicks almost pulled off the biggest triple play in the history of college football. In addition to winning the Outland and Lombardi Awards that year, the talented offensive tackle finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting, coming within an eyelash of capturing all three of college football's top individual prizes.

Chris Spielman

Linebacker Chris Spielman is Ohio State's latest major award winner. He won the Lombardi Award in 1987. Spielman, a two-time All-America and the Buckeyes' all-time leader in solo tackles, was a finalist for the Lombardi as a junior in 1986.

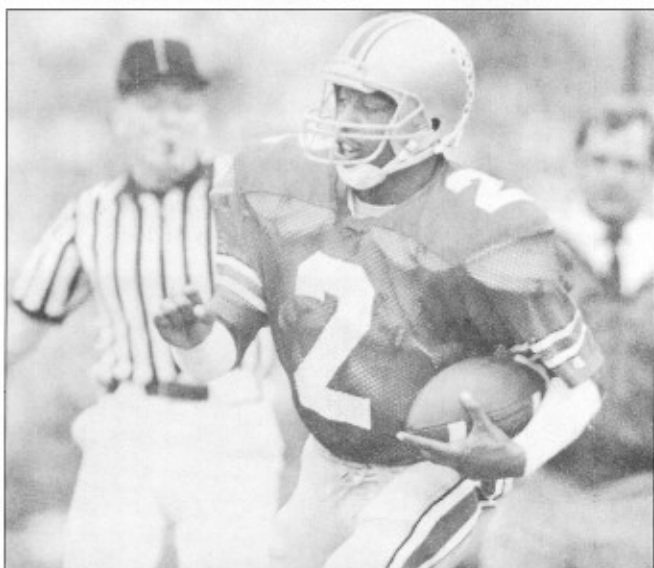

Ohio State's Parade of Stars

Keith Byars

Keith Byars holds the Ohio State single-season (1,764) and single-game (274) rushing records and ranks third on the OSU career rushing list with 3,200 yards. Byars also scored 46 rushing touchdowns, including five against Illinois in 1984 on the same afternoon that he set the school rushing record. He was the Big Ten's MVP and a first team All-America as a junior in 1984.

Cris Carter

Cris Carter is unquestionably the greatest wide receiver ever to play for the Buckeyes. In his three seasons as a starter, Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His reception and TD totals are school records and his yardage figure is the second highest total in OSU history. Carter, a first-team All-America in 1986, also holds the school's single-season record for catches (69), yards (1,127) and touchdowns (11).

John Frank

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar while at Ohio State. A tight end, Frank ranks third on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns. He was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983. In the classroom, John was a two-time Academic All-America and was a Rhodes Scholar nominee as a senior. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco, he returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June, 1992.

Randy Gradishar

Randy Gradishar was a two-time All-America for the Buckeyes and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter for Ohio State between 1971 and 1973 and was credited with 320 total tackles — 155 solos and 165 assists. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points all season long. After graduation, he was a consensus all-pro pick with the Denver Broncos. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame last spring.

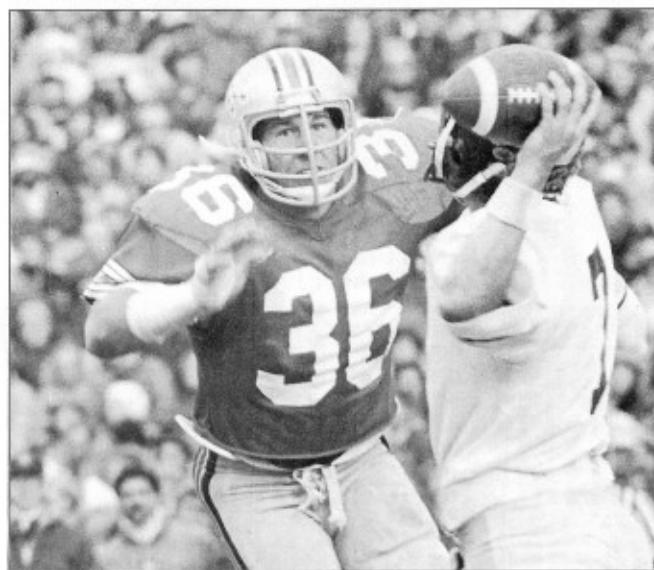

Pepper Johnson

Pepper Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982 and 1985, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. During the 1984 and '85 seasons, he teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. Johnson is currently a starting linebacker for the New York Giants and has become one of the most feared hitters in professional football.

Tom Cousineau

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-America for the Buckeyes in 1977 and '78. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stand as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, "Cous" was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an OSU record that has since been tied by Chris Spielman versus Michigan in 1986. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game, 16 against SMU in 1978. He is second on the all-time OSU tackle list with 569, three behind Marcus Marek.

1921 Rose Bowl

California	7	14	0	7	28

Cal finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first-ever Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924.

Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time that a Big 10 team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the very first game in 1902. It would be 26 years before the conferences would again butt heads on the West Coast (Illinois and UCLA in 1947).

Ohio State	0	0	14	3	17

The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-14 tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns had been called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

The lone bright spot for USC fans came when halfback Aramis Dandoy set a Rose Bowl record with an 86-yard punt return for the Trojans' only score.

Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from a yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-7 before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

1969 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	0	10	0	6	16
Ohio State	0	10	3	14	27

The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern Cal. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second period. Ohio State answered with a 69-yard drive, climaxed with a one-yard plunge by Jim Otis, and a 16-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final four yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

Kern was named the outstanding player of the game, rushing for 35 yards and passing for 101 and a pair of touchdowns. Jim Otis and Hayden combined for 191 yards, while Simpson closed out his career with 171 yards rushing and eight receptions for 85 yards.

Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over the favored and previously unbeaten Buckeyes.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground, and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and both Buckeye touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final period. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

An interception of Kern on the next OSU series set up a Plunkett to Randy Vataha 10-yard scoring toss that sealed the win.

Led by tailback Anthony Davis, Southern Cal broke a 7-7 halftime tie with three third quarter touchdowns to sideline the Buckeyes. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third period, Cunningham going in twice and Davis once from 20 yards. The final tally was set up by a 48-yard interception return by Charles Phillips to the OSU 32.

The third period overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State, which dominated USC in the first 20 minutes. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. The Buckeyes' Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half, to Davis' 86 on 12.

Ohio State appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third period and a five-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with :44 showing to play in the game.

Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground for the day.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third period before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the period for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining in the game by dashing 47 yards over right tackle for his only score of the day.

Greene was good on six of eight passing attempts for 129 yards and helped OSU to a 449-406 advantage in total offense. The USC passing attack, led by Pat Haden, netted 239 yards.

Southern Cal	3	0	0	15	18
Ohio State	0	7	0	10	17

Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final three himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Southern Cal outgained OSU 461-286 in total offense. Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin was held to 75 yards rushing.

UCLA	0	0	16	7	23
Ohio State	3	0	0	7	10

All-American quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big 10 MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, the Buckeyes held the UCLA offense to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth straight Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run to up the margin and close out the scoring.

A last ditch drive by the Buckeyes ended after an incompletion on fourth-and-17 at the Ohio State 46.

Colorado	10	0	0	0	10
Ohio State	7	10	3	7	27

After Colorado jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald jumped off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes would go on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from three yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth period, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing. Ron Springs led all rushers in the game with 98 yards for OSU. Skladany, who handled all the placement and punting chores, was good on two of four field goal tries, missing only from 56 and 53 yards.

Alabama	0	13	8	14	35
Ohio State	0	0	0	6	6

In a first-ever meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes of Ohio State and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a three-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

Clemson	0	10	7	0	17
Ohio State	0	9	0	6	15

Clemson won its 10th straight game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of four yards, in the drive.

OSU freshman quarterback Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from four yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point kick was blocked, but Ohio State had the lead, 9-7.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and Ohio State's hopes were dashed.

The Buckeyes did win the statistical battle, outgaining Clemson 355-331 in total offense. Schlichter outdueling Fuller, 205-123 in the air and 70-38 on the ground.

Southern Cal	3	7	0	7	17

Not even ranked in the pre-season polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record. But, thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top-ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the one for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

Navy	7	6	7	8	28
Ohio State	10	7	7	7	31

Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four straight bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third period.

Ohio State finally opened up a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

1982 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	0	10	0	7	17
Ohio State	3	14	17	13	47

There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh straight game and their second consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

OSU broke the game open with 17 points during a three-minute stretch beginning at the 8:57 mark of the third quarter.

While the OSU offense was rolling up 466 yards, the defense pretty much held the high scoring BYU offense in check, allowing 371 yards.

BYU quarterback Steve Young threw for 341 yards and two TDs, but he was intercepted once and sacked four times. Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

1985 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	10	7	3	0	20
Ohio State	3	3	3	8	17

Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

The Buckeyes found out early about the USC defense. On the third play of the game, tailback Keith Byars broke over right tackle, cut to the outside and raced 50 yards down the sideline to the USC five. Five plays later, OSU had to settle for the first of Rich Spangler's three field goals.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yarder, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the afternoon.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Chris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record for receiving yardage.

Brigham Young	0	7	0	0	7
Ohio State	0	3	7	0	10

Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with four interceptions.

All four of those intercepts came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

In addition to four interceptions, BYU also lost a pair of fumbles to the hard hitting OSU defense.

1987 Cotton Bowl

Texas A&M	3	3	0	6	12
Ohio State	0	7	14	7	28

Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Southwest Conference champion Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. The surprise defenses limited A&M to a single touchdown and a pair of field goals. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Defensively, the entire Buckeye team deserved special accolades. Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which Ohio State led 7-6.

Michael Kee made Ohio State's fifth interception a memorable one, when he ran it back 49 yards for a Buckeye touchdown that put the game out of reach.

Auburn	3	7	7	14	31

Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over Ohio State.

The Buckeyes took an early 14-3 lead and appeared to have things going their way. But the momentum changed abruptly just before the half when Slack teamed up with Greg Taylor on an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play. The TD drive covered 33 yards and took just three plays.

The War Eagles kept the pressure on after intermission, scoring on their first possession, Slack and Taylor again teaming up, this time from four yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous choice as MVP, ran five yards for the first and flipped a two-yard toss to Herbert Casey for the second.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half due to a pulled groin muscle.

The Buckeyes, playing in their first ever Hall of Fame Bowl, closed out the season at 8-4.

General Information

About The University

A leader in higher education, The Ohio State University offers a dynamic environment for people seeking opportunity, academic enrichment, diversity and challenge.

Ohio State offers a worldwide classroom and attracts support for world-class research.

The Columbus campus—with a combined student, faculty and staff population of about 68,000—is the largest in the nation.

More than 97 percent of the regular faculty hold doctoral or professional degrees, and more than 13,000 of the University's 60,000 students are enrolled in graduate and professional programs.

Ohio State's faculty includes a Nobel Prize winner, members of the National Academy of Sciences, Guggenheim and Fulbright Fellows, Rhodes Scholars and editors of prestigious journals.

The student body includes more than 3,000 honors students, several hundred National Merit and National Achievement Scholars, and recipients of many other awards for scholarship, leadership and talent.

Ohio State's selective admissions policy is strengthening the overall academic quality of the undergraduate student body.

Faculty and students also work and study at regional campuses in Lima, Mansfield, Marion and Newark and at the Agricultural Technical Institute in Wooster. Specialized areas for research and study include the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center in Wooster with branches in a dozen counties, the Barnebey Center for Environmental Studies in Fairfield County, and Stone Laboratory on Lake Erie's Gibraltar Island.

Founded as the Ohio Agricultural and Mechanical College in 1870, the University has 19 colleges and a graduate school.

Students may choose from more than 11,000 courses and select from more than 200 undergraduate majors. A newly revised curriculum features courses in writing, data analysis, social diversity, and contemporary issues of broad and worldwide significance.

Ohio State also offers more than 100 master's and nearly 100 doctoral degree programs.

The many specialized programs include theater, polar studies, medieval and renaissance studies, human resources, women's studies, computer-aided design and Black studies.

Students can enrich their education by using the 17th largest research library in North America; by experiencing film, the fine arts and music; and by participating in some of the more than 500 student organizations and about 120 club, intramural and intercollegiate sports programs.

At quarterly commencement exercises, college deans personally hand each graduate his or her diploma. Ohio State awards more than 10,000 degrees annually. More than 400,000 have been awarded since the first commencement in 1878.

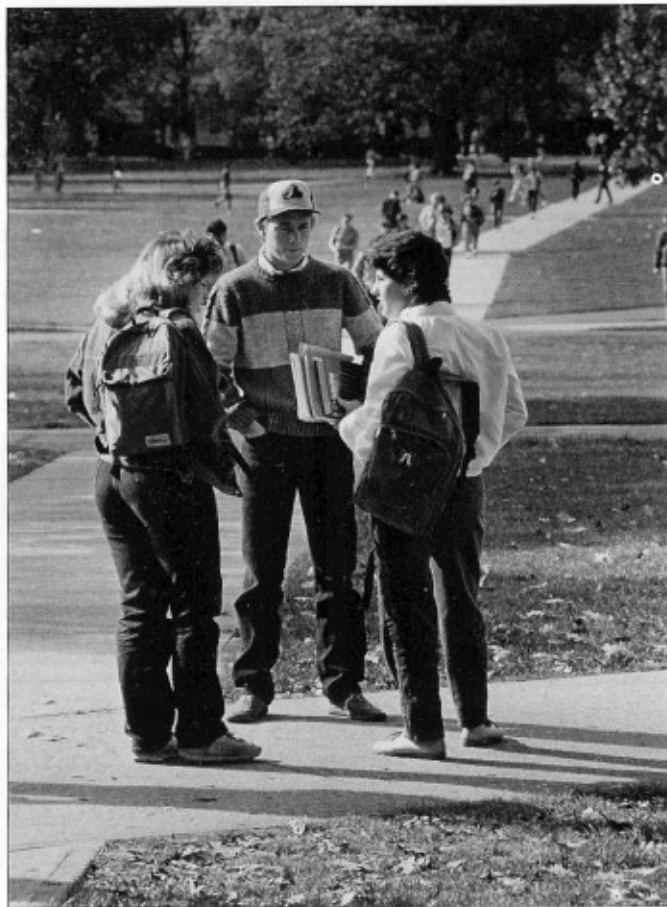

Ohio State has increased its externally funded research support to more than $145 million a year. Among the many research facilities are the Ohio Supercomputer Center, the ElectroScience Laboratory, the Center for Human Resource Research and the Biomedical Engineering Center.

The knowledge and methods discovered and refined in the classrooms and laboratories are carried to the community in many ways through the work of alumni, faculty, staff and students.

The University's annual budget tops $1.1 billion. About 31 percent comes from state appropriations and about 16 percent from student tuition and fees.

Ohio State students can choose from over 11,000 different courses.

A Look At The Ohio State University

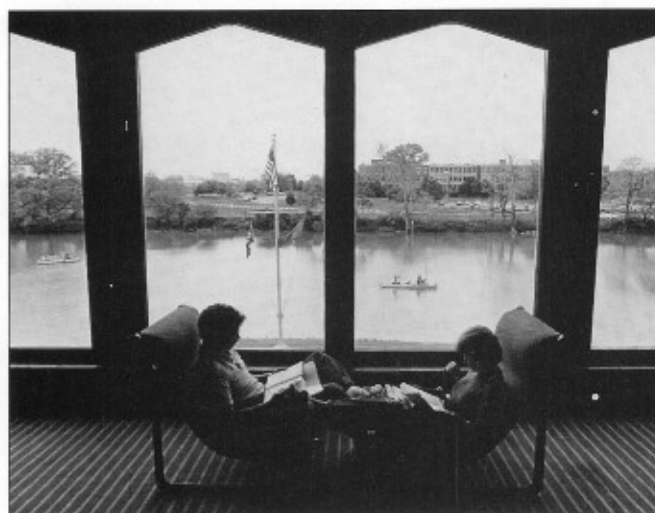

Orton Hall and the Oval are campus landmarks.

The OSU library is one of the nation's largest.

Ohio State University

- Offers 11,000 courses
- Has 200 majors in 19 different colleges.
- Graduates more of its athletes than any other public Big Ten school according to a recent study by a prominent midwestern newspaper.
- Offers freshmen the option of enrolling in university college and not declaring a major until their sophomore year.
- Has three full-time academic counselors who monitor each athlete's progress and also assist with course selection and career planning.
- Offers a nightly study table complete with tutors.

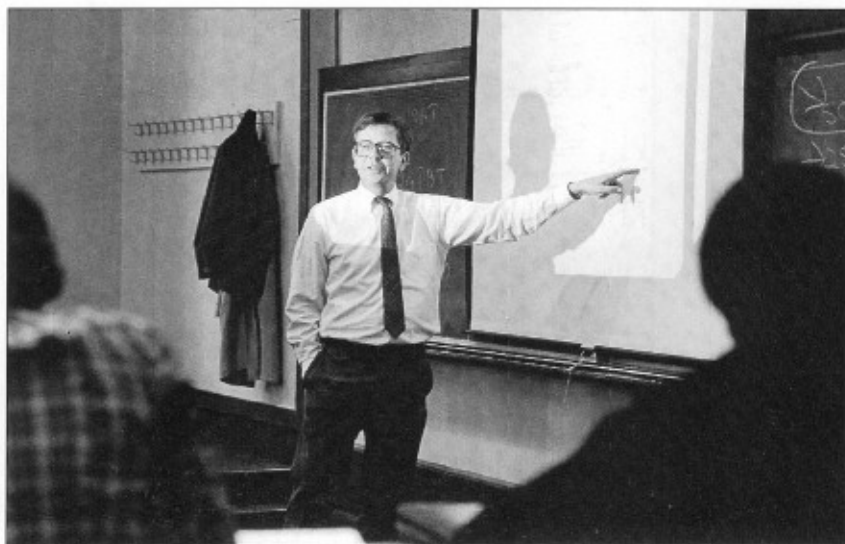

Students study in Drake Union, while others enjoy more leisurely activity on the Olentangy River.

Students study at the Browning Amphitheatre near Mirror Lake.

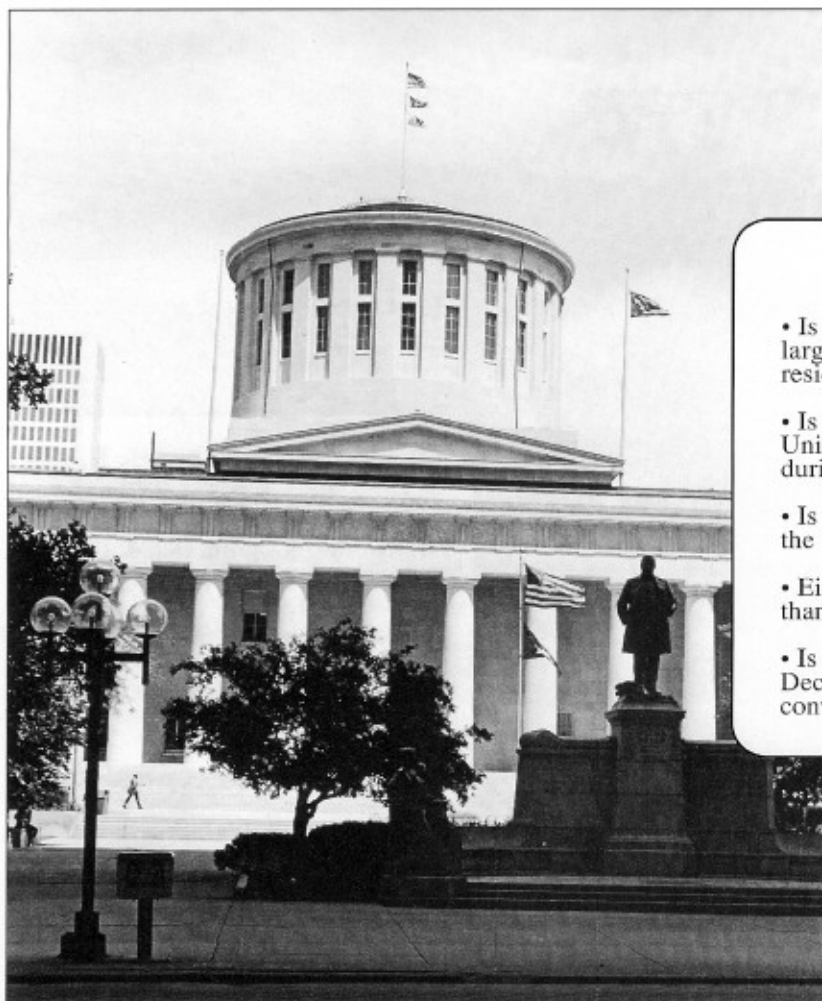

More than 97 percent of the OSU faculty hold doctoral or professional degrees.

The dining halls offer a comfortable, relaxed atmosphere.

A Look At Columbus

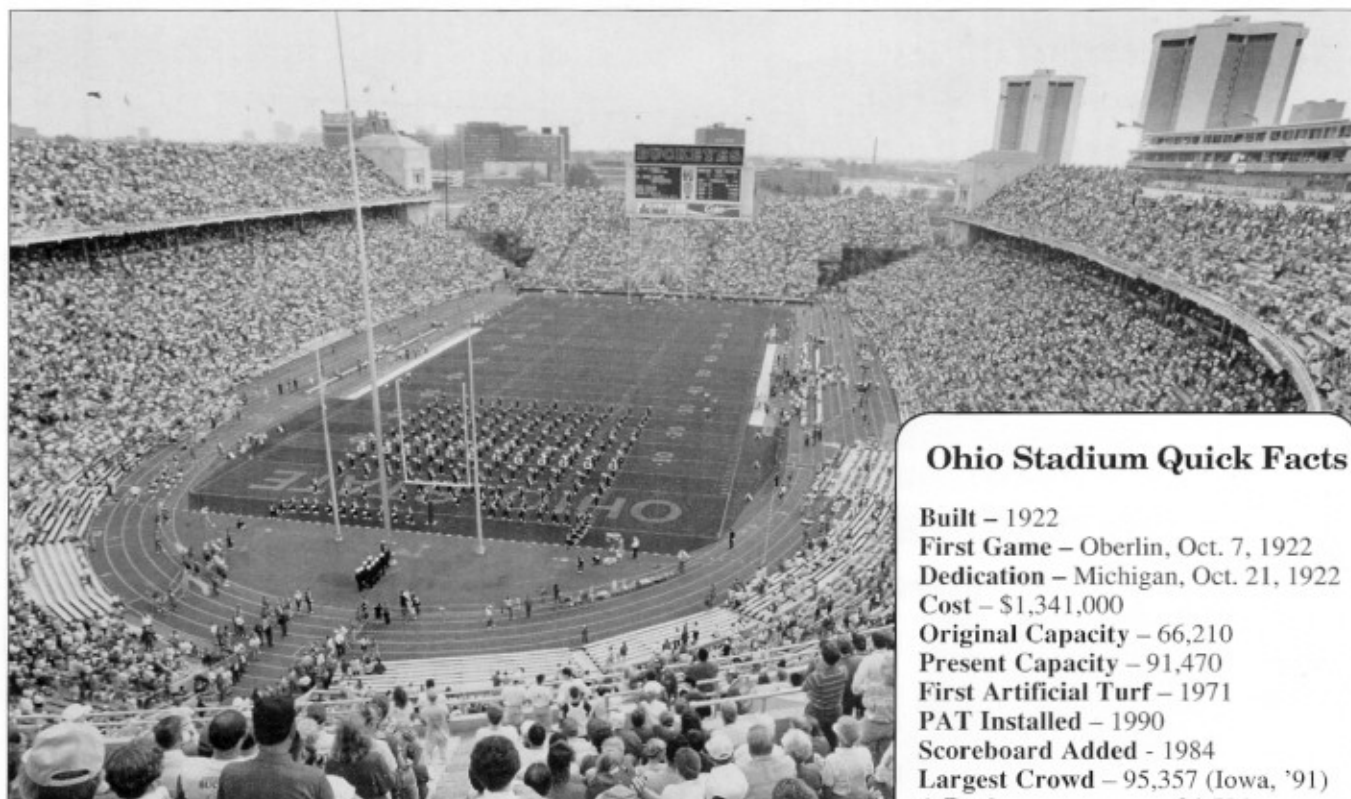

Columbus Quick Facts

- Is the capital of Ohio and is the nation's 20th largest metropolitan area with 1.2 million residents.
- Is the only city in the northeast quadrant of the United States to have a population increase during each of the last 10 years.
- Is a two-hour drive from other major cities in the state.
- Eighty percent of the nation's population is less than 90 minutes away by air.
- Is an Ohio State city; from August to December, Buckeye football is the main topic of conversation.

Ohio Stadium

Ohio Stadium — Home of the Buckeyes

Stately Ohio Stadium is now in its 70th year as the home of the Buckeyes. Dedicated in 1922, the horseshoe-shaped structure is one of college football's most recognizable landmarks.

Over the years, more than 28 million spectators have filed through the Ohio Stadium archways to see the Buckeyes play. Last year, Ohio State drew a record 654,500 for seven home games and also set school records for per-game average (93,500) and largest single-game crowd (95,357 vs. Iowa). The Buckeyes head into the 1992 campaign with a streak of 57 sellouts in the last 58 games in the "Shoe."

Built at a cost of slightly more than $1 million and funded largely through private donations, the stadium had an original seating capacity of 66,210. Skeptics doubted that it would ever be filled, but those fears were dispelled on Oct. 21, 1922, when an overflow crowd of 71,385 attended the dedication game against Michigan.

Inevitably, expansion followed. With the addition of field and box seats, and later the south stands, the capacity of Ohio Stadium now stands at 91,470, making the giant horseshoe the fourth largest facility in college football. The latest addition was approximately 5,000 seats in the south stands, added prior to the 1991 season.

Various surfaces have been used to cover the Ohio Stadium floor. Between 1922 and 1970 it was natural grass. In 1971, thanks to the generosity of former OSU player Lou Fischer, Astro Turf was installed. In 1979, a second artificial carpet, this time Super Turf, was put down. Prior to the 1990 season, Prescription Athletic Turf was installed.

In 1984, a state-of-the-art scoreboard was installed in the south end of the stadium. The cost of the new board, which conforms to the architecture of the stadium, was $2.6 million, or nearly double the original cost of the stadium.

In addition to Ohio State football, Ohio Stadium has also served as host for Ohio High School state football playoffs and the Ohio Glory. It is also used for concerts, most recently Pink Floyd and Genesis.

Upkeep for the stadium is nearly $250,000 a year, but that is a small price to pay for one of the Grand Old Dames of college football.

The Woody Hayes Athletic Center

Dedicated in November of 1987 in memory of the late Woody Hayes, Ohio State's legendary football coach of nearly three decades, the Woody Hayes Athletic Center is one of the finest, most complete indoor facilities of its kind in college athletics.

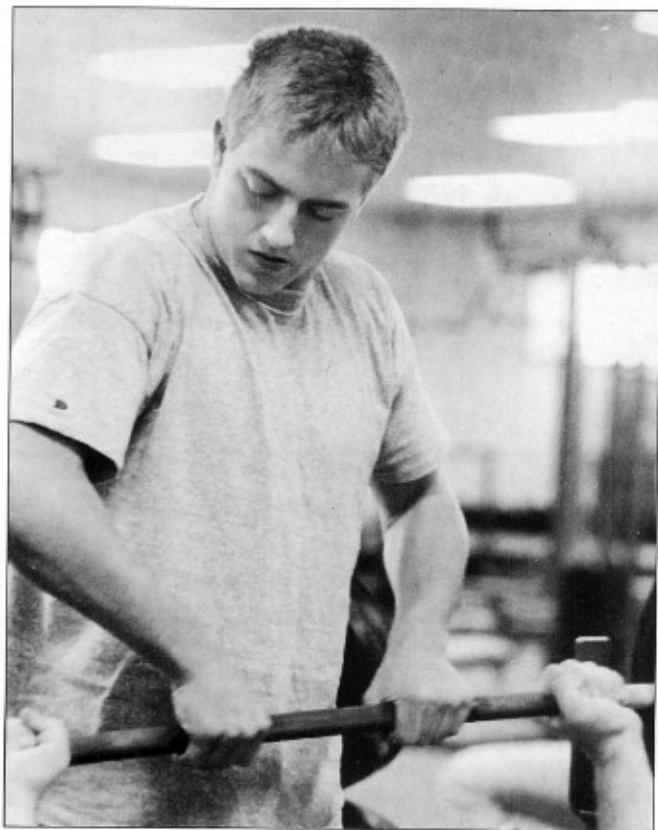

In addition to an indoor field that is 400 feet long, 220 feet wide and 65 feet high, the $10.6 million complex features an 8,000-square foot weight room that has the very latest in free weights and Nautilus equipment, a spacious training room, eight individual classrooms for specialized instruction, an auditorium for team meetings, a lounge area suitable for studying and a locker room with 131 open-bay lockers.

The size of the total building is 167,000 square feet. Its walls are adorned with Ohio State history, including pictures of all past championship squads, head coaches, All-Americans and Academic All-Americans. The trophies on display at the new building include many of the past bowl trophies, as well as a number of individual awards.

The Woody Hayes Athletic Center is home away from home for the Ohio State players during the football season. Since it has been built, representatives from other schools have regularly visited the Ohio State campus in order to gather information for similar buildings of their own, but the Hayes Center remains the finest building of its kind in the country.

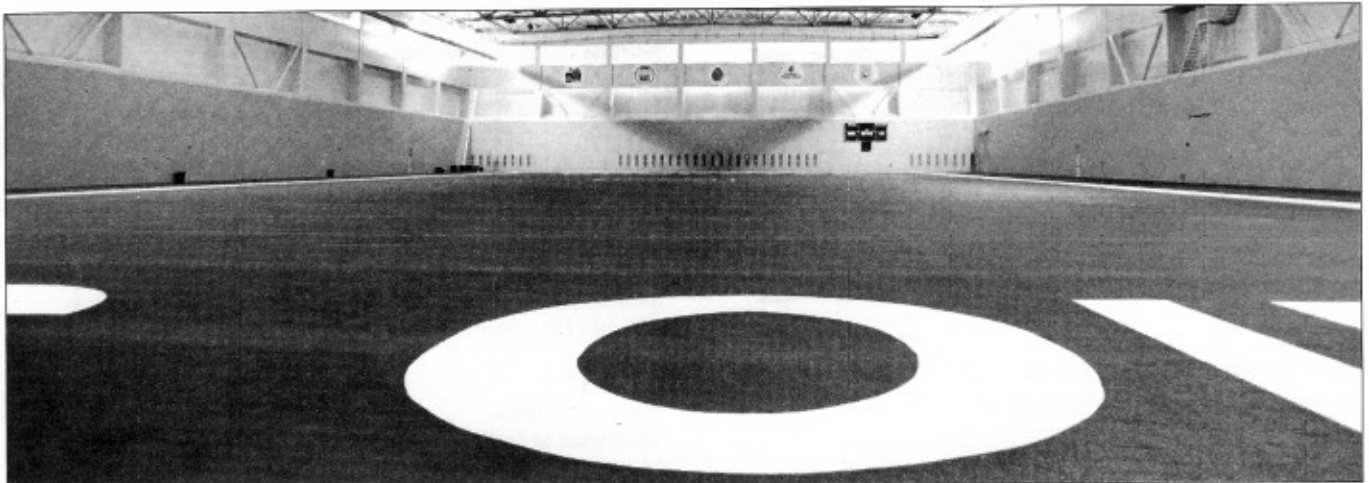

The Wall of Champions features past OSU Big Ten and National Champions.

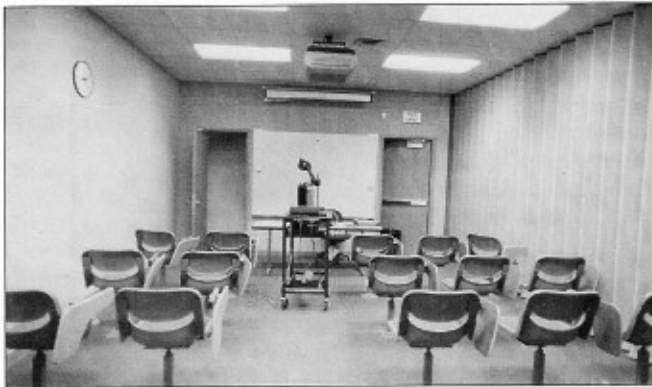

Quarterback Kirk Herbstreit works out in the weight room at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center.

There are 12 taping stations, six treatment tables and five hydrotherapy stations in the training room.

The indoor practice field is covered with All-Pro Turf and has a 30-foot safety area on each side. As an added safety feature, there are no pillars or posts inside the building.

Each of the eight individual meeting rooms has a complete audio-visual system and is designed to allow the players a comfortable and practical atmosphere in which to learn.

The auditorium is used for team meetings and for viewing films.

The 8,000-square foot weight room contains state of the art equipment and is large enough that the entire team can lift at one time.

Method for Determining Big Ten Participant in Rose Bowl Game

1. Designation of Representative Team

The Conference representative shall be determined by the following procedures:

- The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games (tie game counts $\frac{1}{2}$ win and $\frac{1}{2}$ loss).
- An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the Conference representative.
- If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between these two teams shall represent the Conference.
- If there is still a tie, or if the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played.
- If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.
- If there are more than two teams tied for the championship, the same selection procedure shall be followed with the following exceptions:

- If three teams are tied, and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.
 - If three teams are tied, and if two of the three teams defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated, and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
 - If three teams are tied, and there is a tie game between two of the three teams, or if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played.
 - If three teams are tied, and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
 - If three teams are tied, and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
- G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:
- If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the representative.
 - If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
 - If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated, and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
 - If there is a tie game between two of the four teams, or if two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played.
 - If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
 - If all four teams share the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
