Media Information

Members of the Media

This guide has been prepared to assist you in your coverage of Ohio State football. Every attempt has been made to ensure its accurateness. We hope it will be of help to you during the upcoming season. If you need additional copies of this publication, please contact the Sports Information Office.

During the season, you will receive weekly updates concerning the football team from the Sports Information Office. These mailers will provide you with current stats, records, depth and other pertinent information that should aid you in your coverage of Ohio State football. If for some reason you do not receive this information, or if you prefer to have it faxed rather than mailed, please notify D. C. Koehl (614-292-6861) in the Sports Information Office.

Credentials

Requests for credentials should be made in writing, on company letterhead, to Steve Snapp, Sports Information Director (124 St. John Arena, 410 Woody Hayes Dr., Columbus, Ohio, 43210). Season credentials will be mailed out two weeks prior to the first game. Individual game passes will be mailed approximately 10 days before the requested game.

Those requests received too late to mail will be held at the Press Box elevator, located near Gate 19 on the west side of Ohio Stadium, and will be available three hours before kickoff.

Please remember that all credentials are non-transferrable, and that working media only are permitted in the Press Box. We ask your cooperation in these two areas. Violators of this policy will be asked to leave the stadium.

Interviews

All player interviews and photo requests must be cleared through the Sports Information Office. The schedule that we have set up is the most convenient for the players in terms of class time and meetings. We ask your cooperation in not attempting to contact any players directly.

Once classes begin, players generally are available Monday through Wednesday, before (1 p.m. to 2 p.m.) and after practice (approximately 5:30 p.m.), at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center. Interviews are not permitted on Thursday or Friday except in special circumstances.

Players are, of course, available after all games.

Cooper Interviews

Ohio State Coach John Cooper is available throughout the week, before and after practice, at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center. Feature-length interviews should be arranged through his secretary, Julie Bonfini, by calling (614) 292-7620.

Coach Cooper also meets with the media each Monday at noon for a weekly luncheon to review the previous week's game and preview the upcoming opponent. Please check with the Sports Information Office for the location of the Monday luncheons. The first luncheon will be held Aug. 30. There will be no luncheon on Sept. 20.

Practices

Practices are held at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center and are open to members of the media. Photographers normally are restricted to shooting the first 30 minutes of practice. All members of the media are required to stay off the practice fields.

Press Box Phones

There are five telephone lines available in the Ohio Stadium Press Box for use on a first-come, first-served basis. Writers desiring their own line should contact the University Phone Service at (614) 292-8648.

Radio Reports

In accordance with Big Ten policy, live radio reports are not permitted while the game is in progress. Violators of this policy will have their credentials revoked. Sixty-second reports are permitted between quarters.

Photographers

Those persons with sideline photography passes are reminded that credentials must be displayed on the arm at all times. Additionally, as mandated by the NCAA, photographers must stay behind the 12-foot restraining line and out of the bench area. Still photographers are asked to kneel when shooting.

Network Coverage

The Big Ten and Pac-10 conferences recently extended their exclusive agreement with ABC-TV through the year 2000 and the 2001 Rose Bowl. Under that agreement, ABC is required to provide a minimum of 16 exposures each season for both conferences. Each exposure must reach 50 percent of the nation. ABC's Saturday afternoon games usually kick off at 3:36 (ET). ABC selects the majority of its games 12 days in advance of the playing date, but the network has a six-day option on four dates.

The Big Ten also has a supplemental agreement with ESPN. Under that agreement, the cable network must televise between 10 and 12 games each year. Normal kickoff for ESPN games is 12:30 p.m. (ET).

Sports Information Office

Send all requests for credentials to Steve Snapp, 124 St. John Arena, 410 Woody Hayes Dr., Columbus, OH 43210. Important phone numbers: Sports Information - (614) 292-6861; Sports Information Fax - (614) 292-8547; Press Box (614) 292-1812.

Veteran Buckeye Squad Poised for 1993 Season

A dozen returning starters, evenly divided between offense and defense, will form the nucleus of the 1993 Ohio State football team. In addition to those 12 holdovers, sixth-year Buckeye coach John Cooper, whose 1992 squad posted an 8-3-1 record and closed out the season with a 5-1-1 run, also welcomes back veteran place kicker Tim Williams.

Gone from last year's squad are quarterback Kirk Herbstreit, leading rusher Robert Smith, leading receiver Brian Stablein, leading tackler and All-America linebacker Steve Tovar and safety Roger Harper. But the list of returnees features an array of marquee players, including fullback Jeff Cothran, tackles Alan Kline and Korey Stringer, defensive end Jason Simmons, defensive tackle Dan Wilkinson, linebacker Craig Powell and defensive backs Chico Nelson and Tim Walton.

"I really like the seniors on this squad," says Cooper, referring to the likes of Cothran, Kline, Simmons, Nelson and Walton. "I think they are going to give us outstanding leadership. Based on what I saw in the spring, this is a team committed to winning."

As it was last year, the strength of this year's team should again be its defense. In Wilkinson, a first-team all-Big Ten choice in 1992 as a freshman, and Simmons, an all-league pick in 1991, the Buckeyes boast two of the top defensive linemen in college football. The speedy Powell is a budding young standout, while Nelson and Walton are the mainstays of a solid secondary.

On offense, all eyes will be on the quarterback spot, where sophomore Bobby Hoying will take over for Herbstreit. Hoying, who has waited patiently for his turn in the spotlight, will operate behind an offensive line that is big, strong, experienced and talented. Additionally, the OSU running back corps is battle tested, and the wide receivers, although admittedly young, may be the best group the Buckeyes have had in several years.

Defensive tackle Dan Wilkinson won first-team all-Big Ten honors last year, when he recorded a team best 6.5 quarterback sacks.

"We have a nice blend of veterans and newcomers," evaluates Cooper. "We finished last year on a strong note and we want to build on that finish. I am looking forward to the season."

OFFENSE

Usual Formation — "I" and split backs are the norm.

Strengths — An offensive line that returns four regulars, and a quality group of running backs.

Concerns — Even though Hoying is highly regarded, the 6-4 signal caller will be starting for the first time and faces a difficult early season schedule. Depth on the offensive line is also a worry.

Goals — Offensive coordinator Joe Hollis would like to be able to run the ball more consistently and is looking for more big plays from the passing game.

Most Notable Position Change — Jason Winrow goes from tackle to guard.

The Line — In Kline and Stringer, OSU has a pair of all-star tackles. Kline (6-6, 275) was hampered by a sprained ankle last year, but was an all-Big Ten choice in 1991 as a sophomore. Stringer (6-6, 310) started six games last season at right tackle and was selected as the Big Ten Freshman of the Year. His potential is unlimited.

Dave Monnot (6-4, 277) and Jason Winrow (6-6, 325) are expected to be the starting guards. Monnot is in his third season as a regular on the right side. He has been a steady, and often times overlooked, performer throughout his career. Winrow has started 22 games at tackle the past two years, but moves inside now in an effort to fill the gap created by the departure of three-year regular Lenny Hartman. Winrow adjusted quickly to his new position in the spring and there are great expectations for him in the fall. He might be a better guard than he was a tackle.

Jack Thrush and Rod Smith, both seniors, are the candidates at center. Thrush (6-5, 270) was the Buckeyes' utility lineman last year, playing all five interior positions at one time or another. He is chomping at the bit for an opportunity to start this year. Smith (6-3, 310) has been a back-up guard throughout his career with the Buckeyes, but was an All-America center in high school. Judging by his intensity in the spring, he, too, is dedicated to ending his collegiate career on a positive note.

Senior Cedric Saunders and sophomore D.J. Jones give the Buckeyes two outstanding tight ends. Saunders (6-3, 241) started all 12 games last year and was OSU's second leading receiver with 28 catches for 342 yards. He's a fine receiver with the speed to get downfield. Jones (6-4, 250) is coming off an excellent spring and is too good to keep off the field. A two-tight end set will solve the problem, so expect to see a lot of that formation in the fall.

Redshirt freshman Juan Porter (6-4, 296) and sophomore C.J. Kelly (6-4, defenders and is also a fine blocker. He carried the ball 98 times for 410 yards and three touchdowns last year. Those numbers should all go up this year.

William Houston, a 6-1, 260-pound senior who has always performed well when called upon, and redshirt freshman Matt Calhoun will back up Cothran.

Seniors Raymont Harris and Butler By'not'e and sophomore Eddie George will share the workload at tailback. Harris (6-2, 220) and George (6-3, 227) are punishing runners, who are especially effective between the tackles. By'not'e has the speed to turn the corner and is a clever and dangerous open-field runner.

Harris, who started three games last year, is the Buckeyes' leading returning rusher. He finished the 1992 campaign with 463 yards and five touchdowns on 106 carries. By'not'e averaged 4.9 yards per carry last season, while George averaged 4.8 per try.

A pair of redshirt freshmen, Travis McGuire and Lou Willard, were impressive in the spring and give the Buckeyes quality depth at a position where coaches never seem to be able to stockpile enough talent.

Quarterback — After redshirting as a freshman and understudying

Herbstreit last year, Hoying appears ready to step in and assume control of the offense. A heady signal caller with a strong arm, he can throw the ball deep and has demonstrated the ability to see the entire field and pick out the open receiver. He is also athletic enough to scramble out of trouble if need be. In short, he is the kind of quarterback who makes plays. That talent won him a starting spot.

Tailback Raymont Harris is Ohio State's leading returning rusher. He gained 463 yards and scored five touchdowns in 1992.

288) will provide depth at guard, while Winrow could jump back to tackle in case of an emergency. Some of the incoming freshmen might be needed for additional depth.

Running Backs — Cothran is a lock at fullback and a definite possibility for all-Big Ten recognition. The 6-2, 231-pound senior can run over or away from Tight end Cedric Saunders is Ohio State's leading returning receiver, grabbing 28 receptions last year.

Senior transfer Bret Powers, a starter at Arizona State two years ago, will back up Hoying. He, too, is an excellent field general who, in addition to a fine passing touch, has maturity and experience on his side.

Wide Receivers — Chris Sanders and Joey Galloway will start at flanker and split end, respectively. Sanders returns after a solid sophomore year in which he caught 22 passes and averaged 16.4 yards per catch. He started six times last year, all after Galloway went down with a season-ending knee injury against Bowling Green. Galloway is the big-play receiver that OSU was missing last year. He can break a game wide open with his combination of speed and elusiveness, and will figure prominently in OSU's attack this year. But he has to stay healthy, and that has been a problem for him during his career.

A trio of very talented redshirt freshmen give the Buckeyes superb depth. Speedster Terry Glenn, who was especially impressive in the spring, will back up Sanders, while Buster Tillman will play behind Galloway. Eric Starks will swing between the two positions.

DEFENSE

Usual Formation — "4-3" with all positions flip-flopping to the strength of the offensive formation.

Strengths — Excellent speed across the board, good athletic ability and a stronger and bigger defensive front. Even with Tovar gone, the linebackers are very good, and if Preston Harrison can stay healthy, the defensive ends should be outstanding.

Concerns — Finding a replacement for Greg Smith at nose guard is a priority. So, too, is depth at both safety spots.

Goals — Leading the Big Ten in scoring defense for the third straight year, increasing the number of fumble recoveries and giving up fewer third-down conversions are high on defensive coordinator Bill Young's wish list for 1993.

Most Notable Position Change — Chico Nelson moves from free to strong safety.

The Defensive Front — Three of the four positions are set, with only middle guard still up in the air. Regardless of who claims the latter spot, this talented group is big, agile and fast.

In the 6-5, 300-pound Wilkinson, the Buckeyes have one of the best young tackles in the game. After an outstanding freshman year in which he had 10.5 tackles for loss and a team-high 6.5 quarterback sacks, "Big Daddy" is a good bet to become the Buckeyes' next All-America defensive lineman. Pete Beckman is a solid backup.

Simmons is in his third year as a starter at end. The 6-5 senior is coming off another outstanding season in which he had a team-best 14 tackles for loss, including five sacks. He already ranks as OSU's all-time leader in tackles for loss with 44.5 and needs just four sacks to take over the lead in that department.

Randall Brown will be the other end. The 6-3, 250-pound junior played in all 12 games last year and started at Indiana. He made the most of his time on the field, collecting 6.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks. He also tallied two passes broken up, a fumble caused and a fumble recovery. Those kinds of numbers add up to playing time.

Preston Harrison, sidelined the past two years with a severe pelvic inflammation, appears to be healthy now and will back up

Simmons, while redshirt freshman Jayson Gwinn will play behind Brown. Both are tremendous athletes. It is hard to imagine a team with four better defensive ends.

That leaves nose guard, where redshirt freshmen Luke Fickell (6-4, 255) and LeShun Daniels (6-2, 267) and junior Matt Bonhaus (6-5, 270) are the candidates.

Fickell showed promise last year at tackle, but then was redshirted after being injured. Both he and Daniels, who is the most athletic of the trio, are good, young prospects. Bonhaus has experience on his side. He played in all 12 games last year, dividing his time between tackle and nose guard, and started against Minnesota. He is a good football player.

Linebacker — Powell and Mark Williams return at the two outside positions, while redshirt freshman Matt Christopher apparently will succeed Tovar in the middle. Lorenzo Styles will back up Williams and is ticketed for a lot of playing time. Tommy Stokes and Ryan Miller, both redshirt freshmen, are a pair of promising young reserves. Stokes will back up Christopher and Miller will play behind Powell. Alex Rodriguez, who was Tovar's backup last year, also returns. But he played baseball in the spring and missed valuable practice time. He will have to earn his way back into the picture.

Powell wasted little time making a favorable impression last year as a redshirt freshman. Thrust into the starting lineup after Brent Johnson was injured in the Bowling Green game, the 6-4, 227-pound speedster improved with each outing and finished the season with 47 tackles. He is the fastest of the OSU backers.

Chico Nelson moves from free to strong safety in 1993.

The rugged Williams, another player who can run, is in his third year as a starter. The 6-4, 227-pound senior had 66 tackles last year and led the team in fumbles caused with three. He enters the 1993 season with 19 career starts to his credit.

Christopher figured to play last year, but broke his right leg on Sept. 8 and sat out the rest of the year. But the coaches saw enough to be impressed in the fall, and Christopher did nothing to change their minds in the spring. He doesn't have Tovar's speed, but like Tovar, he reads very well and gets to the ball.

Overall, it is a good group of linebackers, with exceptional speed.

Backfield — Nelson, the Buckeyes' leading returning tackler with 68 stops, and Walton, a bone-jarring hitter even though he is only 5-11 and 180, are excellent football players. Both will be playing new positions this year, but neither is expected to have trouble making the transition.

Nelson (three interceptions last year) will move from free to strong safety, while Walton (three picks and 54 tackles) slides over from open to boundary corner. Those switches pave the way for Walter Taylor at free safety and Marlon Kerner at the open corner. Both of the latter are juniors, who were top reserves in 1992. Taylor (28 tackles in 1992) is a superb athlete with a nose for the ball, while Kerner (25 stops, two thefts) is probably the Buckeyes' best cover man.

Junior Tito Paul and redshirt freshman Ty Howard will be the back up cornerbacks. Paul, who had 13 tackles in 10 games last year, will play the boundary side, while Howard, an exciting young athlete, will play behind Kerner.

Depth at safety is a question mark, however, and the OSU coaching staff will take a long look at the incoming freshmen in the fall.

Kicking — Tim Williams returns for his fourth year as the regular placekicker. He will handle kickoffs, PATs and field goals. Williams has led OSU in scoring in each of the past three years and holds numerous school records for PATs and field goals. He could own almost all the OSU kicking records by the end of the 1993 season.

Williams could also be the punter. He did both jobs in 1991, but was strictly a placekicker last year. But with Joel Kessel (35.5 yards per kick last season) gone, and no other established punter in camp, Williams might have to do double duty. Freshman Matt Malfatt, a fine all-around kicker in high school, will have a chance to demonstrate his punting prowess in the fall.

THE SCHEDULE

The Buckeyes open the season Sept. 4 against Rice and play defending Pac-10 champion Washington the following week in a prime time (8 p.m.), nationally televised game. The latter will be just the second night game ever played in Ohio Stadium.

OSU's first road trip is Sept. 18 at Pittsburgh. The Buckeyes then have a week off before opening the Big Ten campaign, Oct. 2, against Northwestern.

Road games include trips to Illinois and Michigan, while home tilts include an Oct. 30 game with Penn State, the Nittany Lions' first visit to Columbus as a member of the Big Ten Conference.

Purdue comes back on the OSU schedule this year after a two-year absence. Iowa and Minnesota are off the schedule.

Ohio State Player Profiles

Pete Beckman—76

Defensive Tackle, 6-4, 250, Jr.
Chesterland, O. (West Geauga)
10-16-71

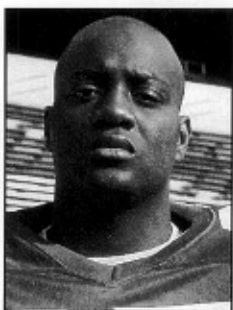

Bio — Solid reserve, who is coming off a good spring . . . will back up Dan Wilkinson . . . played in 11 games last year (did not play against Minnesota) and started the season opener with Louisville in place of Wilkinson . . . moved to nose guard after the Louisville game and played behind Greg Smith the rest of the way . . . had four tackles on the year, including a 10-yard tackle for loss against Louisville . . . moved back to tackle last spring in an effort to shore up the depth at that position . . . dedicated practice player, who has worked hard at getting better . . . intense competitor.

Other — Redshirted in 1990 as a freshman . . . appeared in eight games in 1991 as a reserve defensive end . . . consensus all-state as a high school senior . . . also a starter on the basketball team, which advanced to the state championship in OSU's St. John Arena his junior year . . . majoring in economics.

Jim Bell—95

Defensive End, 6-5, 241, Fr.
Liberty, O. (Youngstown Ursuline)
11-20-73

Bio — Was to have enrolled last fall, but a preseason knee injury, incurred while playing basketball, delayed his enrollment until Winter Quarter of 1993 . . . has recovered from reconstructive surgery on the knee (his right), but probably will be redshirted this year . . . big, strong athlete who can run . . . should be an excellent defensive end, but could also play linebacker.

Other — Two-way threat at Ursuline, where he played both tight end and linebacker and excelled at both positions . . . picked as an Honorable Mention All-America by Street & Smith's . . . also played basketball and was a hurdler on the track team . . . plans to major in either business or political science and hopes to go into law after that . . . his mother is a detective in Youngstown.

Matt Bonhaus—70

Nose Guard, 6-5, 270, Jr.
Cincinnati, O. (Elder)
10-13-72

Bio — Appears to be the leader in a three-way race to fill the vacancy created by the graduation of three-year starter and all-Big Ten performer Greg Smith . . . the most experienced of the candidates, with 21 games and a start under his belt . . . divided his time between tackle and nose guard last year and appeared in all 12 games . . . totaled just 45 minutes of playing time, with six minutes at Indiana his longest stint on the field . . . started the Minnesota game (his first career start) at tackle, when Dan Wilkinson was out with a shoulder sprain . . . four tackles on the year . . . played his best football during the second half of the season, and continued to show improvement in the spring . . . has added 20 pounds since last year and is much more physical.

Career — Redshirted as a freshman in 1990 . . . appeared briefly in 10 games in 1991, collecting four tackles.

Other — Won Division I Lineman of the Year honors and led Elder to a 10-1 record as a senior . . . an older brother, Tom, played football at Vanderbilt . . . major is economics.

Jim Borchers—50

Long Snapper, 6-2, 212, Gr.
Bellbrook, O. (Alter)
11-1-70

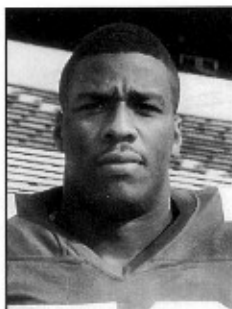

Bio — In his fourth season as the Buckeyes' long snapper . . . centers for punts and all placements . . . walked on in 1989 and was redshirted that year, but has been a key part of the OSU kicking game ever since.

Career — Has been a very steady performer, rarely making a bad snap . . . Buckeye punters have had just two punts blocked in 162 attempts the past three seasons (none due to bad snaps), and have put a string together of 150 straight punts without a block . . . OSU kickers have converted 104 of their 106 extra points kicks the past three seasons (just one was the result of a low snap on a rainy field) . . . additionally, he has never had a bad snap in three years on field goal attempts.

Other — Played three years of football at Alter High . . . his team was 9-4 and advanced to the state semi-finals in Ohio Stadium his junior year . . . graduated last spring . . . an honor student who is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten Team selection and four-time OSU Scholar-Athlete . . . high school teammate of former Buckeye tight end Joe Metzger.

Randall Brown—56

Defensive End, 6-3, 250, Jr.
Detroit, Mich. (Cooley)
9-12-71

Bio — Gets his first opportunity to start this year . . . moves in at the end position occupied by Derrick Foster last season . . . big, strong, fast athlete with excellent pass rushing skills . . . should be a perfect complement to Jason Simmons, giving OSU two very quick ends . . . played behind Foster last year and appeared in all 12 games . . . lone start of the year came at Indiana, his first career start . . . had 23 tackles, including a very impressive 6.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 quarterback sacks in fairly limited playing time . . . had a career-high five tackles against Northwestern, three of which were for losses . . . also had a fumble caused against Iowa and a fumble recovery against Georgia in the Florida Citrus Bowl . . . played well in the spring and should have an outstanding season in 1993.

Career — Redshirted in 1990 . . . appeared in eight games in 1991, but for a total of just 24 minutes, and most of that was with the special teams . . . moved from tackle to end in the spring of 1992.

Other — Has a twin brother, Kendall, who plays for Louisville . . . one of just four players from the state of Michigan on the OSU roster . . . major is communications.

Butler By'not'e—33

Tailback, 5-11, 190, Sr.
St. Louis, Mo. (Vashon)
9-29-72

Bio — One of several talented tailbacks who will battle for playing time again this year . . . has outstanding speed (the fastest among OSU tailbacks), giving the Buckeyes a home run threat . . . worked hard on becoming an effective inside runner during spring practice, and the coaching staff was pleased with his improvement . . . an open-field threat who will also be used as a receiver out of the backfield . . . also a dangerous return man . . . was a key backup at tailback last season along with Raymont Harris . . . appeared in all 12 games and started against Bowling Green . . . top game was 89 yards against Northwestern . . . ended the season with 283 yards on 58 carries . . . scored his lone touchdown of the season at Michigan State, when he turned an inside play outside and cut down the left sidelines 15 yards untouched . . . had a 39-yard rush against Northwestern and a 36 yarder vs. Louisville . . . caught six passes for 62 yards and led the team with a 27.3 average on seven kickoff returns, which included a 43-yard return at Iowa.

Career — Started five times in 1991, and was second on the team with 648 yards and five TDs . . . rushed for a career-best 189 yards in the season opener against Arizona . . . gained 249 yards in eight games as a freshman, with a high of 57 yards against Northwestern and his lone score coming against Purdue.

Other — Has performed well in track the past two years, helping OSU win Big Ten outdoor titles in 1992 and '93 and the indoor crown in 1993 . . . outdoor team has also placed sixth and second in the last two NCAA Outdoor Championships . . . has been a two-time outdoor All-American as a member of the 4x100-meter team . . . has also scored in the Big Ten meet in the sprints (was runner-up in the indoor 55 in 1992) . . . four-year high school starter and two-time all-state pick . . . St. Louis area player of the year as a senior, rushing for 1,231 yards and 13 touchdowns and averaging 37 yards per reception . . . major is business.

Bio — A reserve flanker who played in just one game last season . . . saw one minute of action at Indiana and did not have a reception . . . coaching staff likes his speed and hands . . . had a solid spring, and caught two passes for 31 yards in the Scarlet and Gray spring game.

Career — Was redshirted in 1991.

Other — Played quarterback in high school and was a second team Division III all-state selection as a senior . . . led his team to a 9-1 record and league title in 1990 . . . accounted for 2,786 total yards, threw 15 touchdown passes and rushed for 13 scores as a senior . . . passed for 175 yards and four TDs and rushed for 108 more and another score in a double-overtime win over Chardon . . . high school coach was Mike Currence . . . undecided on a major.

Mike Dully—64

Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 280, Jr.
Hamilton, O. (Hamilton)
9-8-71

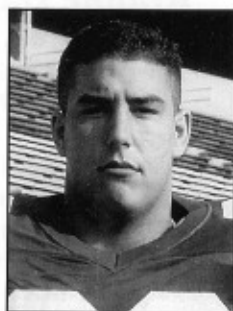

Bio — Veteran lineman who performed well during spring drills and will serve as Alan Kline's replacement at left tackle . . . big, strong, aggressive player who plays with a lot of emotion . . . appeared in seven games for a total of just 17 minutes last season . . . good run blocker because of his strength . . . has the potential to be a good football player and hopes to give the Buckeyes some much-needed depth at tackle.

Career — Has played in 17 games during his career, including 10 in 1992 for 28 minutes . . . was redshirted in 1990.

Other — Four-sport prep standout, winning a total of nine letters in football, basketball, baseball and track . . . team captain of the football squad as a senior, when he played both offensive and defensive tackle . . . major is sports and leisure studies.

Luke Fickell—99

Nose Guard, 6-4, 255, Fr.
Westerville, O. (DeSales)
8-18-73

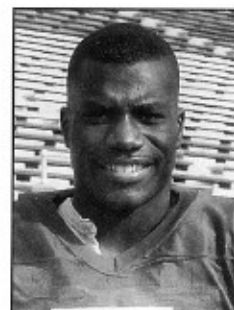

Bio — Another of the contenders for the vacant nose guard spot . . . will see a lot of action, either as a starter or key reserve . . . tough, intelligent player with a good work ethic . . . moved from tackle to nose guard in the spring and appears to be well suited for the latter because of his excellent leverage, balance and agility . . . played six minutes and had three tackles in the season opener with Louisville last year, but suffered a knee injury the following Monday and missed the rest of the season after undergoing surgery . . . coaches would like to see him add 10 pounds for additional strength . . . coming off a good spring.

Other — Division III Lineman of the Year as a senior . . . one of the top defensive ends in the country his senior year . . . also a standout high school wrestler, winning three straight state titles between his sophomore and senior years and going undefeated during those three seasons . . . a two-time junior national freestyle champion . . . did not wrestle as a freshman at Ohio State, but is considering trying out as a sophomore . . . an honor student who is studying medicine . . . wants to go into sports medicine.

Joey Galloway—7

Split End, 5-10, 180, Jr.
Bellaire, O. (Bellaire)

Bio — Expected to start at split end for the Buckeyes . . . though a fourth-year junior, is still relatively young in terms of game experience but has the talent to be a standout . . . started the first two games last season before torn knee ligaments ended his season, was a backup in 11 games in 1991 and was redshirted in 1990 . . . caught two passes for 20 yards in the opener against Louisville last season and one for four yards against Bowling Green before suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee in the second quarter during a kickoff return . . . rehabilitation is going well, and he is expected to be full-go in the fall . . . did not go through the contact drills during spring practice . . . when healthy, is a key ingredient in the OSU offense because of his excellent speed, good hands and big play potential.

Career — Scored his only touchdown of the year against Louisville last season on a 50-yard flanker reverse . . . moved from split end to flanker last season, but will move back to the former position this year . . . was redshirted in 1990 and caught 14 passes for 255 yards as a redshirt freshman in 1991 . . . sprained an ankle in the first half of the season opener with Arizona that year and missed the Louisville game the following week . . . had his first collegiate reception against Wisconsin, grabbing two passes for 57 yards . . . only TD reception that season was a 44-yarder at Illinois . . . caught six passes for 88 yards in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Syracuse . . . averaged a team-best 18.2 yards per catch . . . can handle kickoff and punt returns.

Other — A three-sport prep standout in football, basketball and baseball . . . all-state as a senior when he averaged 19 yards per reception on 32 catches . . . considered the top receiver in the Midwest coming out of high school . . . also returned punts and kickoffs, averaging 15.2 and 26.9 yards per return, respectively, as a senior . . . major is business.

Terry Glenn—83

Flanker, 5-11, 180, Fr.
Columbus, O. (Brookhaven)
7-23-74

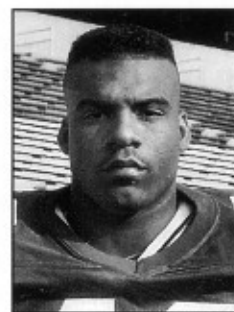

Bio — Speedy flanker who will see action this fall . . . joined the team as a walk-on last season and was redshirted . . . played with the scout team . . . impressed the coaching staff with his ability and was awarded a scholarship in the spring . . . has very good speed and hands and can make the tough catch over the middle . . . also has the strength to be a fine blocker . . . caught a pair of passes for 16 yards in the spring game.

Other — Played high school ball with current Buckeyes Marlon Kerner and Jayson and Anthony Gwinn at Brookhaven . . . high school coach was Gregg Miller . . . team was 11-2 his last year and advanced to the state playoffs his junior and senior campaigns . . . earned second team all-district honors as a kick return specialist . . . caught 14 passes for 416 yards and four TDs as a senior captain . . . also a three-year letterwinner in basketball . . . undecided on a major.

Jayson Gwinn—49

Defensive End, 6-3, 258, Fr.
Columbus, O. (Brookhaven)
11-25-73

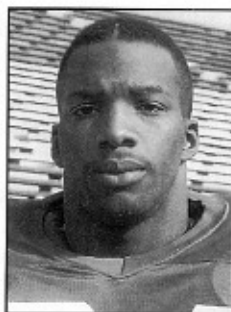

Bio — Good young football player whose only shortcoming is a lack of experience . . . will play behind Randall Brown and should see considerable playing time . . . has the size, speed and strength to be an excellent end . . . should be particularly effective as a pass rusher . . . came to Ohio State as a linebacker and was redshirted last fall . . . moved to end in the spring and seemed to have little difficulty adjusting to a down position.

Other — A Division I first-team all-Ohio pick as a senior . . . chosen by the Columbus Dispatch as Lineman of the Year, along with current teammate Luke Fickell . . . helped Brookhaven to an 11-2 record and a second straight appearance in the state playoffs his senior year . . . 163 tackles as a senior and 360 during his career, the latter figure the second highest total in Brookhaven annals . . . undecided on a major, but is leaning in the direction of either communications or criminology . . . hobbies include listening to music and playing cards.

Raymont Harris—34

Tailback, 6-2, 220, Sr./5
Lorain, O. (Admiral King)
12-23-70

Bio — Will battle for the starting tailback position again this fall along with classmate Butler By'not'e and a number of underclassmen . . . came out of spring ball No. 1 at tailback last year, but a sprained ankle in early fall drills kept him out of the opener . . . the injury continued to nag him during most of the season, and it flared up again early in spring practice . . . came back to perform well late in the spring . . . he and By'not'e ended last season sharing the backup role to Robert Smith at tailback . . . appeared in 10 games and started against Syracuse, Illinois and Northwestern . . . finished second on the squad with 463 rushing yards and scored five TDs . . . ran for a season-high 94 yards against Bowling Green and scored a career-best three touchdowns vs. Northwestern . . . if he can stay healthy, he will definitely see plenty of playing time this fall, whether he starts or not . . . is difficult to bring down because of his strength, low running style and knack for breaking tackles . . . probably the best Buckeye runner from tackle to tackle.

Career — Has five career starts . . . rushed for 323 yards as a sophomore with two TDs (both against Wisconsin), and was second on the team with 519 yards his freshman season, with eight touchdowns and a pair of starts (Texas Tech and Boston College) . . . also caught a 10-yard TD pass against Northwestern as a frosh . . . was redshirted in 1989 . . . was used at tailback and fullback his first two seasons before playing chiefly at the former spot in 1992 . . . had lone 100-yard rushing day when he gained 118 yards vs. Illinois in 1990.

Other — Injured throughout much of his high school career, but piled up 1,419 yards in the seven games he started as a senior . . . ran for 332 yards and five touchdowns against Lorain as a senior . . . averaged 200 yards per game and 6.5 yards per carry in the games he did start . . . likes to be known as an "ultra" back because of his versatility . . . major is communications . . . nickname is the "Quiet Storm."

Head Coach John Cooper

Former National Coach of the Year, John Cooper, is in his sixth year as the head football coach at The Ohio State University. The immediate past president of the American College Football Coaches Association, the 56-year-old Cooper is one of college football's most respected mentors.

This is Cooper's 17th year as a head coach at the collegiate level. His career record of 117-61-5 includes a 35-21-3 mark at Ohio State. Additionally, he has fashioned a 23-14-3 Big Ten record with the Buckeyes and has taken them to four straight bowl games, the last two of which have been on New Year's Day.

Cooper has steadily built Ohio State into a Big Ten contender. After a 4-6-1 record his first year, his last four teams have a combined record of 31-15-2 and are 21-9-2 in conference play. Last year's squad finished second in the Big Ten and played in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The Buckeyes closed out the regular season with five wins and a tie on the way to an 8-3-1 record, the best mark by an Ohio State team since 1986.

Cooper grew up in Powell, Tennessee, a small, rural community near Knoxville. After graduating from high school, he spent two years in the Army and then enrolled at Iowa State. An outstanding high school athlete, Cooper resumed his athletic career at Iowa State, playing four years of football for the Cyclones. He was team captain and MVP as a senior.

Cooper graduated from Iowa State in the spring of 1962. He embarked upon his coaching career the following fall as the Cyclones' freshman coach.

In 1963, Cooper left his alma mater to become an assistant coach at Oregon State under Tommy Prothro. In 1964, the Beavers won the Pac-8 title and played in the Rose Bowl.

Following the 1964 season, Cooper accompanied Prothro to UCLA. In his first year there, the Bruins won the Pac-8 championship and again played in the Rose Bowl.

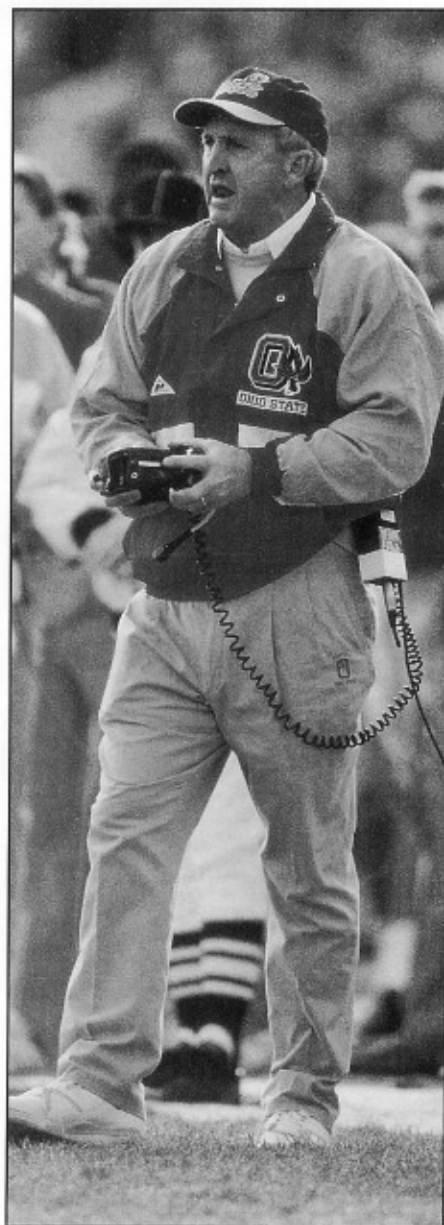

Cooper left UCLA following the 1967 campaign to become defensive coordinator for Pepper Rodgers at Kansas. He spent five years on the Jayhawks staff, none more memorable than 1969, when Kansas won the Big Eight title and played in the Orange Bowl.

Cooper's last stop as an assistant coach was at the University of Kentucky. He joined Fran Curci's staff in 1972, a move designed to get him and his family back to the Midwest.

In 1977, Cooper, widely recognized as one of the top assistant coaches in the game, left Kentucky to become head coach at Tulsa.

Cooper quickly breathed new life into the Tulsa program. After a 3-8 record his first year, the rookie head coach led the Golden Hurricane to six straight winning seasons, including five consecutive Missouri Valley Conference championships between 1980 and 1984.

Cooper led Ohio State to an 8-3-1 record last year, the best mark by the Buckeyes since 1986. Under Cooper, the Buckeyes have appeared in three New Year's Day games.

At the end of the 1984 season, Cooper's record at Tulsa was an impressive 57-31 and included a 33-6 mark in league play. The Golden Hurricane had won 21 straight and 31 of its last 34 conference games. His eight-year stay at Tulsa was a golden era for the Golden Hurricane.

Having accomplished all that he could at Tulsa and eager for a new challenge, Cooper accepted an offer to become head coach at Arizona State University in 1985.

As he had done at Tulsa, he quickly established himself at ASU, leading his first Sun Devil team to an 8-4 record and a berth in the Holiday Bowl. A loss to arch-rival Arizona on the last day of the regular season cost ASU its first-ever Pac-10 football championship.

The Sun Devils won that elusive title in 1986, posting a brilliant 10-1-1 record and defeating Michigan in the Rose Bowl. Following the season, Cooper was named Pac-10 and National Coach of the Year.

Despite heavy graduation losses in 1986, Arizona State went to a school-record third straight bowl game in 1987. A win over Air Force in the Freedom Bowl put the wraps on a 7-4-1 season and gave Cooper a three-year record of 25-9-2 with the Sun Devils.

With a resume that included a combined record of 82-40-2, six league championships and three bowl appearances, Cooper was on everyone's "short list" of coaching candidates. On Dec. 31, 1987, the day after the Freedom Bowl, he became the twenty-first head football coach in Ohio State history. Originally signed to a five-year contract, he has since been given an extension that runs through the 1995 season.

Since coming to Ohio State, Cooper has made the talent-rich state of Ohio his recruiting base. At the same time, he has re-established ties in other parts of the country in order to keep the Buckeyes competitive nationally.

Now in his 31st year of college coaching, Cooper has coached in several all-star games, including the Japan and Hula Bowls and the East-West Shrine game.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Cooper is extremely active in the Columbus community and is involved with several charities, including Big Brothers/Big Sisters, United Way, the Alzheimer's Foundation, the Arthur James Cancer Hospital and Children's Hospital.

John and his wife, Helen, have two children, John Jr. and Cindy, both of whom live in Columbus.

Coach Cooper Talks Football

This is your 31st year of college coaching. What are the biggest changes you have witnessed in college football?

Cooper — "There are several. The game has changed. You can do a lot more things today than you could back when I started because the athletes are so much bigger, faster and stronger. Because of the skill level of the athlete, you can do things today that you simply couldn't do back in 1962.

"I think another big change is the year-round conditioning programs. There are so many good athletes today, that a football player has to condition almost 12 months a year or he will be behind the other players when fall practice opens."

How have you had to change as a coach over the years?

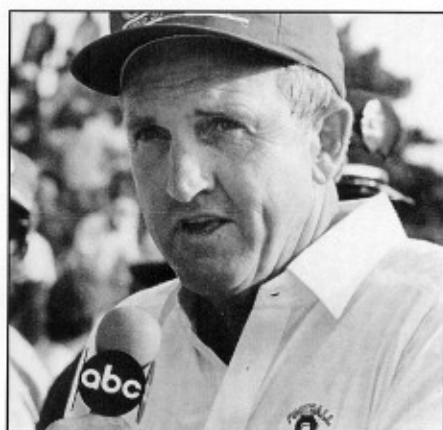

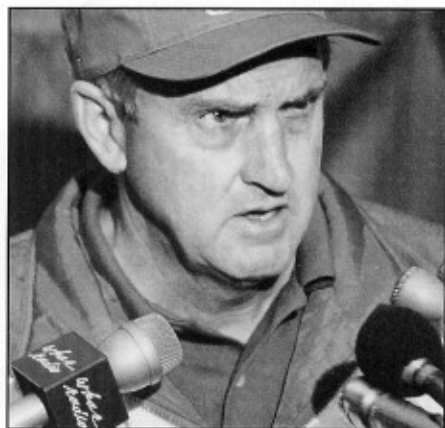

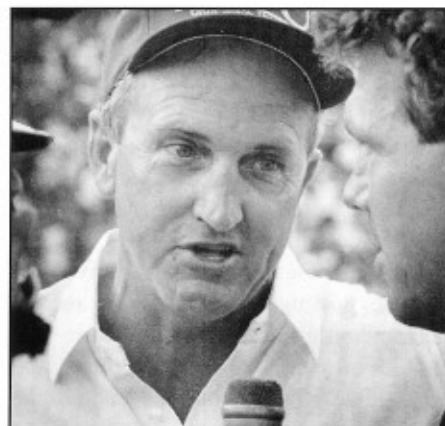

Cooper — "I think kids are still kids and you have to be sensitive to their needs. As a coach, I have always tried to be close to my players and listen to what they are saying. That was true 30 years ago; it's true today. One of the things you have to remember in dealing with people is that each player has a different set of problems, different needs, so you have to treat each player as an individual. Today's players are more inquisitive, too. You used to be able to tell players something and they would do it without question. Now, they want to know why."

Each year the rules committee makes changes in the game. What are the most significant changes this year?

Cooper — "Well, moving in the hash marks is going to mean a more wide open game. It used to be very difficult to run the ball back into the boundary when the ball was on the hash mark. Now you will see a better use of the entire field. In my mind, moving the hash marks in really favors an option-type of attack and I think teams with option quarterbacks have a little bit of an advantage."

These are very difficult time financially for college athletics. What impact does that have on college football?

Cooper — "I hope it doesn't have any impact, but realistically I know it probably will. When I got into coaching, I did so because I loved the game and I wanted to help young people. College football does that. It offers young people, who perhaps could not otherwise afford it, an opportunity to get a college education. Now, all they keep talking about is cutting back on the number of scholarships. That really bothers me. It seems like we are going in the wrong direction. We should be working to find ways to keep players out for college football, not looking for ways to force them to quit."

In addition to cutting scholarships, there is pending legislation that would reduce the number of assistant coaches. What are your thoughts on that?

Cooper—“I am 100 percent opposed to any such legislation! You are talking about putting people, who in many cases have dedicated their lives to college football, out of a job. How can anyone be for that? And by eliminating graduate assistants, you discourage people from getting into the profession.”

The 1968 Ohio State football team is the last Big Ten team to win a consensus national championship. Why has the Big Ten had so much difficulty in winning a national title?

Cooper—

“Teams that win the national championship usually keep their key players healthy and go unbeaten. To do those two things requires a lot of skill and a little luck. And then you have to come out on top in the polls and that takes a little luck, too. I think that the Big Ten has hurt itself over the years by implementing some restrictive recruiting measures that have given other conferences somewhat of an advantage. You can't do that and be competitive nationally. And the balance of the league has probably hurt in terms of a national championship. There are a lot of upsets during the course of the Big Ten season. But it goes in cycles and I think you will see a Big Ten team win a national championship in the next few years. We play good football in this league. It is only a matter of time.”

You mentioned the polls. Would you rather see a playoff game, or games, to determine the national champion?

Cooper—“I guess I am in the minority, but I do favor a national championship game. I think it would be good for college football. Look at the Final Four and what it has done for college basketball. A national championship game in football would generate tremendous fan and media interest.

“Plus, with the kind of money that is being talked about and the financial problems in college athletics, I don't see how we can afford not to have a playoff.

“You could use that money to help support other sports, it could go to charity, you could endow scholarships. The possibilities are endless.

“But let me say this, I don't want to do anything that will upset the present bowl structure. The bowls have been good to us and I don't think we should turn our backs on them now.”

What would be your method for determining a national champion?

Cooper —“My thought would be to take the two highest ranked teams after the bowl games and have a one-game playoff. You could also take the top four teams and have a two-game playoff. I wouldn't go any deeper than that. Either way, it would generate a lot of excitement. I know some people won't like this method, but you aren't going to please everyone.”

You mentioned the Big Ten being a competitive league. Things aren't going to get any easier this year now that Penn State is in the league. What are your thoughts on Penn State joining the league?

Cooper — "It certainly means another challenge for us. Penn State is a quality team and Joe Paterno is a future hall of fame coach. When you play in a league as competitive as this one, the thing you have to remember is to play each game one at a time."

What are your thoughts about adding a 12th team to the league?

Cooper — "I think in the future you will see the Big Ten expand, maybe beyond 12 teams. If that happens, we will go to divisional play, the way the SEC did last year. My personal preference is to add another school and then go to divisions. If we did that, I would like to see us play six or seven league games and then have the opportunity to play some quality non-conference opponents."

"Most importantly, Ohio will always be our base. This state produces great football players year-in and year-out and our job is to keep them here, wearing the Scarlet and Gray. We want to dominate this state, and with all that we have to offer, both academically and athletically, we should."

Recruiting is the lifeblood of a football program. What is your recruiting philosophy?

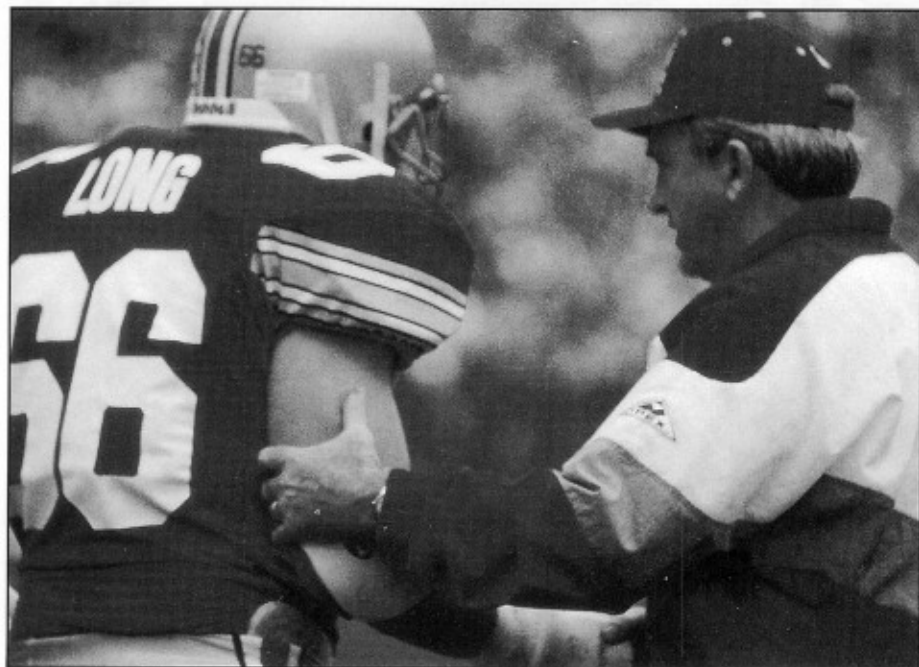

Cooper — "Most importantly, Ohio will always be our base. This state produces great football players year-in and year-out and our job is to keep them here, wearing the Scarlet and Gray. We want to dominate this state, and with all that we have to offer, both academically and athletically, we should. We also want to expand our recruiting base, be competitive nationally. To do that, we have to hit the other hotbeds of college football, like Florida, Southern California, the East Coast, Texas and western Pennsylvania. That may seem like a tall order, but I think we have a great product to sell."

"When we talk about Ohio State to a young man, we stress academics as well as athletics. We had 17 seniors last year and 16 of them have graduated. We are very proud of that. We also had two first-team Academic All-Americans last year. No one else can make that statement."

"Put those numbers together with six national championships, 25 Big Ten titles, 108 All-Americans and five Heisman Trophy winners and you see why we have such great tradition."

Last year's team finished with an 8-3-1 record and closed out the season by going 5-1-1. Do you feel like the Buckeyes are headed in the right direction?

COOPER — "I think this will be the best football team since I have coached here. We are at the point now where we have to quit talking and start doing it on the field. We have to get to the next level, which means winning the Big Ten championship and going to the Rose Bowl. And it means winning the Rose Bowl and projecting ourselves into the picture for the national championship."

Joe Hollis Offensive Coordinator

Joe Hollis is in his second season as Ohio State's offensive coordinator and his third season as a member of John Cooper's coaching staff. Originally hired to coach the offensive guards and centers, Hollis was promoted to offensive coordinator in the spring of 1992.

Hollis, 45, came to OSU from the University of Georgia, where he spent six years. He also has coached at Troy State, Auburn, Tulsa and Jacksonville State.

A native of Alabama, Hollis is a 1969 graduate of Auburn. He began his coaching career in 1972 as an assistant at Troy State. He remained there for six years, leaving in 1978 to become offensive line coach at Auburn.

In 1980, Hollis was lured away from his alma mater by John Cooper at Tulsa. As offensive coordinator, Hollis helped Tulsa to four Missouri Valley Conference titles and a glistening 20-1 league record between 1980 and 1983.

Hollis left Tulsa in 1984 to become head coach at Jacksonville State. He was there just one year before moving to Georgia in 1985 as offensive line coach. During his six years on the Georgia staff, the Bulldogs played in five bowl games.

Hollis joined the Ohio State staff prior to the 1991 season. In 1992, his first year as offensive coordinator, a well-balanced Buckeye attack averaged 22 points and 350 yards a game.

Joe and his wife, Carole, have two sons, Joseph and William.

Bill Young Defensive Coordinator

This is Bill Young's sixth year as defensive coordinator at Ohio State. Young, 46, came to OSU from Arizona State following the 1987 season.

Under Young, Ohio State has led the Big Ten in scoring defense each of the past two years. Last year's squad, which ranked fourth nationally, allowed an average of 13.2 points a game. The 158 points allowed last season also represent the lowest point total by an Ohio State defense since 1979.

Young is in his 14th season as a member of John Cooper's staff. In addition to spending three years with Cooper at Arizona State, the two spent five seasons together at Tulsa.

Born in Hereford, Texas, Young grew up in Oklahoma City. He attended Oklahoma State and played three years of football for the Cowboys.

Young graduated from Oklahoma State in 1967 and began his coaching career the following fall as a high school assistant in Oklahoma City. In 1976, Young jumped to the collegiate ranks, returning to his alma mater to coach the defensive line. He left OSU after the 1979 season for a similar position at Iowa State.

Young moved to Tulsa in 1981. He spent two years as defensive line coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1983. During his two years in that role, Tulsa won two Missouri Valley Conference titles.

In 1985, Young accompanied Cooper to ASU as defensive line coach. He remained in that capacity until coming to Ohio State.

Bill's wife, Lawanna, is a special education teacher.

Larry Coker Defensive Backs

Larry Coker joined the Ohio State coaching staff last March, replacing Larry Coyer as defensive backfield coach.

Coker, 44, comes to Ohio State from the University of Oklahoma, where for the past three years he served as the Sooners' offensive coordinator.

A native of Okemah, Oklahoma, Coker is a 1970 graduate of Northeast Oklahoma State University. He was a three-year starter at defensive back at N.O.S.U. and won all conference honors as a senior. He also was named the school's top student-athlete as a senior.

After graduation, Coker spent nine years as a high school coach in Oklahoma — seven in the town of Fairfax and two at Claremore High School in suburban Tulsa.

Coker moved to the collegiate ranks in 1979, accepting an offer from John Cooper to coach the running backs and quarterbacks at Tulsa. He was named offensive coordinator the following year, a position he held until 1982, when he left Tulsa to become offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State.

Coker spent seven years with the Cowboys, leaving after the 1989 campaign to become offensive coordinator at the University of Oklahoma, a position he held until being reunited with Cooper last spring.

Coker and his wife, Dianna, have a daughter, Lara, who lives in Norman.

Bill Conley Defensive Ends

Bill Conley is in his third year as a member of John Cooper's staff. Named recruiting coordinator in 1991, he held that position for one year before taking over the defensive ends in 1992.

This is Conley's second tour of duty with the Buckeyes. He coached OSU's linebackers between 1984 and 1987 as a member of Earle Bruce's staff.

Conley, 42, is a native of Columbus and a 1972 graduate of Ohio State. He played football for the Buckeyes, walking on and earning two letters as a reserve offensive lineman.

After graduation, Conley spent 10 years as a high school coach, all in Ohio, and compiled a combined record of 60-27-3 during stops at London, Groveport and Middletown.

Following the 1983 season, his second year at Middletown, Conley returned to Ohio State. During his four years as coach of the linebackers, he helped develop several outstanding players, including Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson.

Conley left OSU after the 1987 season to become head coach at Dublin (O.) High School. But when an opening occurred on Cooper's staff, Conley returned to his alma mater as recruiting coordinator and landed one of the top classes in the country in 1991.

Eager to return to coaching, however, he took over the OSU defensive ends in the spring of 1992.

Bill and his wife, Debbie, have two sons, Bill and Craig.

Frank Falks Running Backs

Frank Falks is in his second year as coach of the Ohio State running backs. He came to OSU from Arizona State, where, in addition to coaching the running backs, he also served as assistant head coach.

A 1967 graduate of Parsons College, Falks, 50, began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1968 as offensive coordinator. He left Parsons prior to the 1970 season to become offensive line coach at Kansas State.

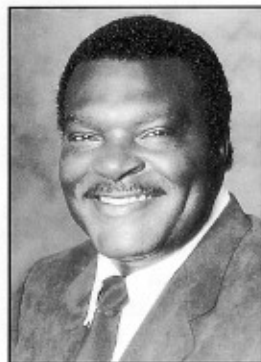

In 1973, Falks moved to Arkansas as coach of the Razorbacks' defensive ends. He left Arkansas at the end of the 1977 season to become defensive coordinator at Wyoming. After three years with the Cowboys, Falks was named defensive coordinator at San Diego State.

Falks moved to Oklahoma State in 1981. During his two years there, he coached Ernest Anderson, the nation's leading rusher in 1982.

In 1983, Falks was named running backs coach at Southern Cal. Falks remained at USC through the 1986 season. During his last two years there, he was assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator.

In 1987, Falks was named running backs coach at Arizona State under John Cooper. In 1989, he was appointed assistant head coach.

Falks and his wife, Carol, have two children, Michael and Raegan, both of whom are students at Ohio State.

Ron Hudson Passing Game Coordinator

Ron Hudson coaches the Ohio State quarterbacks and also coordinates the Buckeyes' passing game. He is in his sixth year at OSU.

Hudson joined the Ohio State staff in 1988. He coached the running backs his first year, but switched to quarterbacks in 1989. He became passing game coordinator in 1990.

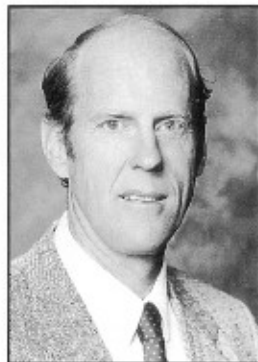

Hudson, 46, has an extensive coaching background that includes stops at California, Oregon, UCLA, Notre Dame and Illinois on the collegiate level and the Memphis Showboats on the professional level.

A native of Lafayette, California, Hudson graduated from Cal-Berkeley in 1969 and then spent three years in the Marine Corps. He began his coaching career in 1972 at his alma mater. While with the Golden Bears, he coached the defensive line, the secondary and the wide receivers.

After five years at Cal, Hudson moved to Oregon in 1977 as quarterbacks coach. In 1979, he went to UCLA to coach the running backs for long-time friend Terry Donahue.

Hudson spent three years at UCLA, leaving in 1982 to become quarterback coach at Notre Dame. He spent four years on the Irish staff, the last two as offensive coordinator.

Hudson coached in the USFL in 1986, but returned to the college ranks in 1987 as running backs coach at Illinois. He was there just one year before joining the Ohio State staff.

Lee Owens Offensive Line

Lee Owens is in his second season at Ohio State. He coaches the Buckeyes' tackles and tight ends. The 36-year-old Owens joined the OSU staff in the spring of 1992.

Before coming to Ohio State, Owens was one of the most successful high school coaches in Ohio, posting a combined record of 89-32-3 in 11 seasons as a prep mentor. Owens' high school mark includes a 35-10 record in four years at Massillon Washington High School, where he took the Tigers to three state playoffs between 1988 and 1991.

Owens is from Mansfield, Ohio. He graduated from Bluffton College in 1977 and began his coaching career as a high school assistant coach at Waynesfield Goshen.

Owens' first head coaching position came in 1981 at Ashland Crestview. In two years there, he posted a 14-5-1 record and quickly became recognized as one of the state's up-and-coming young coaches.

Following the 1982 season, Owens was named head coach at Galion High School. He remained there four years, leading Galion to a combined record of 33-11-1 and the 1985 Division II state championship.

In 1986, Owens moved to Lancaster High School. He spent just one season there before being tabbed to take over the prestigious Massillon program.

Lee and his wife, Dianne, have four children, sons Ben and Andy and daughters Leanne and Molly.

Fred Pagac Linebackers

Fred Pagac has been a member of the Ohio State coaching staff since 1978. He is the senior assistant on the staff in terms of longevity.

Pagac, a starting tight end for the Buckeyes in the early 1970s, returned to his alma mater in 1978 as a graduate assistant under Woody Hayes, his former coach. In 1982, Pagac was elevated to full-time status by Earle Bruce. He was one of three Bruce assistants retained by John Cooper in 1988.

Pagac, 41, is from Richeyville, Pennsylvania. He enrolled at Ohio State in 1970 and was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes during the 1971, '72 and '73 seasons, leading OSU in receiving as a senior. During his career, the Buckeyes posted a 25-6-2 record, won 19 of 22 Big Ten games, claimed two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls.

Following his collegiate career, Pagac spent five years in the NFL. In 1974, as a rookie with the Chicago Bears, he received the Brian Piccolo Award.

Pagac, who also played for Tampa Bay, received his degree from Ohio State in 1975, returning to school in the off-season to complete his course work.

Pagac left professional football in 1978 and returned to Ohio State to begin his coaching career.

Fred and his wife, Bernie, have two children, Jennifer and Freddie.

Mike Stock Wide Receivers

Mike Stock is in his second season at Ohio State. He joined the OSU staff in 1992 as coach of the wide receivers.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Stock spent five years with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Stock, 53, has an extensive coaching background that includes strong Ohio and Big Ten ties.

A native of Barberton, Ohio, Stock graduated from Northwestern in 1961. He played fullback and safety for the Wildcats of Ara Parseghian, earning all-Big Ten honors in 1959 and '60 and serving as co-captain those two years.

Stock returned to Ohio in 1965 to begin his coaching career as an assistant at Akron South High School. He jumped to the collegiate ranks the following year as an assistant at the University of Buffalo.

In 1968, Stock moved to Navy, where he coached the wide receivers. He left Navy after one year for a similar position at Notre Dame. In 1975, Stock was named offensive coordinator at Wisconsin. He left the Badgers in 1978 to become head coach at Eastern Michigan. In 1984, Stock returned to Notre Dame as offensive coordinator.

Stock left the collegiate ranks in 1986 to join the staff of the Cincinnati Bengals. He coached the special teams for three years, including 1988 when the Cincinnati special teams scored all the Bengals' points in the Super Bowl, and he also coached the wide receivers in 1990 and the tight ends in 1991.

Mike and his wife, Peggy, have three children, Michael, Patrick and Cynthia.

Larry Petroff Recruiting Coordinator

Larry Petroff is in his first season as Ohio State's recruiting coordinator. He came to OSU last March, replacing J. D. Graham.

Petroff, 42, had been the recruiting coordinator at Pittsburgh the past three years.

Petroff has an extensive Ohio and Big Ten background. A native of North Olmsted, Ohio, he has been recruiting coordinator at Illinois, Purdue and Northwestern in the Big Ten.

A 1973 graduate of Ashland College, Petroff spent eight years as a high school coach, all in Ohio, after graduation. He was offensive coordinator at Maple Heights from 1976 to 1978, defensive coordinator at Black River High School between 1979 and '81, and an assistant at Cleveland Heights in 1982.

Between 1983 and 1985, Petroff coached the defensive line and served as strength coach at Case Western Reserve.

In 1987, Petroff was appointed as recruiting coordinator at Illinois. He left Illinois following the 1988 campaign for a similar position at Northwestern. He was at Northwestern for less than a year before being lured away by Purdue. He left the Boilermakers in the spring of 1990 for Pittsburgh. During his three years at Pitt, Petroff has become recognized as one of the top recruiters in college football.

Larry and his wife, Evie, have seven children, Loran 20, Alison 16, Scott 13, Bradley 6, Alex and Jason 4, and Katie, 1.

Dave Kennedy Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dave Kennedy is in his fifth year as Ohio State's head strength and conditioning coach.

Kennedy oversees all OSU varsity sports, with special emphasis on football.

Kennedy, 32, joined the Ohio State staff in June of 1989. Prior to coming to OSU, he spent seven years as assistant strength coach at the University of Nebraska, a school widely recognized for its strength and conditioning program. His responsibilities there included developing and monitoring the conditioning program for the Cornhuskers' football team.

Since coming to Ohio State, Kennedy has designed an individual program for each member of the Ohio State football team. The computerized plan focuses on day-to-day improvement and is designed to enhance the mental and physical development of each player. He also has instituted a year-round conditioning schedule that has significantly increased the overall strength, speed and power of Ohio State's football players.

Kennedy is from Omaha. He graduated from Nebraska in 1985, earning his degree in exercise science.

Dave's wife, Julie, is also a Nebraska graduate.

Billy Hill Head Trainer

Billy Hill is in his 18th year as head trainer for the Ohio State football team. Hill, one of the most respected and knowledgeable members of his profession, currently serves as President of the Ohio Athletic Trainers Association.

In addition to football, Hill also has extensive international experience in track. He was head trainer for the United States' track teams at the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles, the 1975 Pan Am Games in Mexico City and the 1983 World Track and Field Championships in Helsinki. Additionally, he has toured the U.S.S.R., Germany and Great Britain as the head trainer for various U.S. track contingents.

Hill, 44, is from Memphis, Tennessee. He served three years in the Army, including a tour of duty in Vietnam as a corpsman, before enrolling at Ohio State.

Hill joined the Ohio State staff in 1971 as an assistant trainer. He graduated from Ohio State in 1973 and was appointed co-head trainer, with responsibility for football, in 1974.

Billy and his wife, Rose, reside in Columbus. He has four children, Dale, Enshane, Lesley, and a son, Brian, who is a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Dr. E. Gordon Gee

Now in his third university presidency, E. Gordon Gee became chief executive officer of The Ohio State University on September 1, 1990.

As the 11th president of Ohio State, Dr. Gee leads one of the nation's most comprehensive research universities with some 58,500 students, nearly 17,000 faculty and staff members and an annual budget of $1.3 billion. Ohio State's Columbus campus enrolls 52,000 students and is the nation's largest single campus. A land-grant university, Ohio State has 19 colleges, a graduate school and four regional campuses. It is also home to the Ohio State University Extension and a statewide agricultural research center and technical institute based in Wooster.

An outspoken and tireless advocate for higher education, Dr. Gee has launched an ambitious effort to increase national public awareness of Ohio State's academic quality. In his first three years, he has toured Ohio's 88 counties, sharing his vision for Ohio

State and building support for the university among alumni and friends.

Working with faculty, staff and students, Dr. Gee has focused his energy on furthering the university's educational reputation. He initiated a comprehensive academic planning process which continues to set priorities that will prepare Ohio State for the challenges of higher education in the 21st century.

Dr. Gee was born in Vernal, Utah, on February 2, 1944. He received a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Utah in 1968 and a law degree and doctorate in education from Columbia University in 1971 and 1972, respectively. At Columbia, he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar and Kellogg Fellow.

Dr. Gee returned to the University of Utah, serving as assistant law dean from 1973 to 1974. He served as judicial fellow and senior staff assistant in the chambers of the Chief Justice of the United States from 1974 to 1975. He was associate law dean and professor of law in the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University from 1975 to 1979.

One of this country's youngest college presidents, Dr. Gee assumed the leadership of West Virginia University in 1981 at the age of 37. He had been dean of the law school there from 1979 to 1981. Dr. Gee became president of the University of Colorado in 1985.

Dr. Gee has received many honors in the fields of law and education. He has written or co-written six books, including Information Literacy: Revolution in the Library, which won the American Library Association G.K. Hall Award in 1990 for the outstanding contribution to library literature.

Under Dr. Gee's leadership, Ohio State has strengthened its merit scholarship program and increased Honors Program enrollment. In autumn 1992, Ohio State ranked 13th in the nation and first in the Big Ten in the number of National Merit and National Achievement Scholars who enrolled.

Dr. Gee serves on numerous boards and commissions, including the Business-Higher Education Forum; the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education, and the Advisory Council of Presidents to the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges. He is co-chair of the Council on Governmental Relations and serves on the Executive Committee of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges.

Active in civic and community affairs, he serves on the Central Ohio United Negro College Fund Advisory Committee and is a member of the boards of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, the United Way of Franklin County and the Columbus School for Girls. He is also on the boards of Banc One Corp. and The Limited Inc.

He and his daughter Rebekah, who is a freshman at Columbia University, reside in the Columbus suburb of Bexley.

James L. Jones

James L. Jones

As Director of Athletics at The Ohio State University, Jim Jones oversees one of the nation's largest and most successful collegiate athletic programs.

Each year more than 700 athletes compete in the 32 varsity sports offered at Ohio State, and each year those athletes claim individual honors and team championships that simply add to OSU's already rich athletic lore.

In an era when many schools have been forced to drop sports because of ever increasing operating costs, Jones is committed to a broad-based program that affords as many student-athletes as possible the opportunity to participate in varsity competition. The 32 varsity sports at Ohio State include women's soccer, which will compete for the first time in the fall of 1993 as one of 14 women's sports offered at OSU.

The cost of such a program is enormous, more than $26 million annually. To help keep the department on sound financial ground, Jones, shortly after becoming Director in 1987, initiated a series of aggressive marketing and fund-raising programs designed to supplement traditional incomes such as ticket monies, radio and television contracts and post-season appearances by the football and basketball teams. Those programs have played a major role in keeping the department in the black financially.

Jones, one of college athletics most respected administrators, currently serves as president of the Division IA Athletic Directors. He is the immediate past president of the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

Jones has served, too, on a number of prestigious national committees, including the NCAA's Special Events and Post-Season Bowls committees. At the conference level, he currently serves on the Big Ten Promotions and PR committee, as well as the Rose Bowl Management committee.

Jones is a native of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. He received his B.S. from Kent State in 1958 and a master's from Ball State in 1964.

After graduating from Kent State, he spent five years in northeastern Ohio as a high school teacher and coach. Upon receiving his master's from Ball State, he was a physical education teacher for one year at that school before coming to Ohio State in a similar capacity in 1965.

In 1967, Jones became one of college athletics first full-time academic counselors when he was hired by Woody Hayes as the Buckeyes' "Brain Coach."

Jones was on Hayes' staff for four years. During that time, the Buckeyes captured three Big Ten titles, played in two Rose Bowls and won the national championship. The 1968 staff was named by The Sporting News as one of the top 25 college football staffs of all time.

Jones joined the administrative ranks in 1970 as assistant director of athletics to Ed Weaver. In that capacity, he was responsible for eligibility, compliance, team travel and the grant-in-aid program.

During Jones' relatively short tenure as Director of Athletics, the Buckeyes have captured Big Ten championships in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's golf, men's gymnastics, men's outdoor and indoor track, softball and men's tennis.

In 1977, Jones was elevated to the position of associate athletics director and given the the responsibility of running the department on a day-to-day basis. He also oversaw the Sports Information, Academic Counseling and Business offices. Additionally, Jones frequently represented OSU at various Big Ten and NCAA meetings and conferences.

In November of 1987, with 20 years of experience at one of the nation's most respected athletic programs as his calling card, Jones became Ohio State's sixth Director of Athletics.

Jones is extremely active in the Columbus community. The past president of both the Columbus Boys Club and the Upper Arlington Rotary, he currently serves on the boards of the Columbus Area Sports Corp. and the Columbus Association for the Performing Arts. An engaging speaker, he is a frequent guest at athletic functions across the country.

Jim and his wife, Linda, have two children, Bill and Lynnae.

Bill Myles

Associate Athletic Director

Bill Myles is in his 17th year at Ohio State. An assistant football coach for eight years, working for both the late Woody Hayes and Earle Bruce, he left coaching in 1985 to enter athletic administration.

In his current role, Myles oversees Ohio State's 18 men's sports. His responsibilities include team budgets, schedules, travel, administration of home events and evaluation of the coaches.

Myles, 56, is a native of Kansas City, Missouri. He graduated from Drake in 1962, and has a master's from Central Missouri State, awarded in 1967.

Following graduation, Myles spent 10 years as a high school coach in Kansas City. During seven years as a head coach, his teams posted a combined record of 45-20-3. Myles was honored as Kansas City Man of the Year in 1970 and Coach of the Year in 1971.

In 1972, Myles jumped to the collegiate ranks as an assistant coach at Nebraska. He remained there until moving to Ohio State in 1977. As a coach for the Buckeyes, he was regarded as one of the top offensive line coaches in college football. During his career, Myles has coached in the Rose, Orange, Sugar, Cotton, Liberty, Holiday, Citrus, Gator and Fiesta bowls.

Myles has received several honors during his career, including the Double D Award and the Distinguished Service Award, Drake University's two most prestigious awards for alumni.

Bill and his wife, Lorita, have two children, Debbie and Bill.

Phyllis Bailey

Associate Athletic Director

Phyllis Bailey has been a member of the Ohio State faculty since 1956 and has served as associate director of athletics since 1977. Few people have had a greater impact on the national growth of women's athletics and few names are more synonymous with women's intercollegiate sports.

At Ohio State, Bailey oversees a women's program that features 14 varsity sports, and is one of the most respected in the nation. Under Bailey's guidance, Ohio State's women's teams have won more Big Ten titles than any other conference school and have been consistently competitive on the national level. Last year, the women's basketball team became the first Big Ten team to advance to the Final Four and play in the championship game.

Bailey is a graduate of Miami (O.). She taught physical education at Earlham College and at Wayne State University before coming to Ohio State as a member of the Physical Education Department.

In 1959, Bailey was named Associate Director of Recreation and Intramurals. While in that role, she also served as Ohio State's first women's basketball coach, amassing a four-year record of 28-10 between 1966 and 1969.

Women's sports were moved from Physical Education to the Department of Athletics in 1975. When that happened, Bailey was named assistant director of athletics. She became associate director two years later.

Over the years, Bailey has served on numerous NCAA committees. She presently is a member of the Women's Basketball Committee.

Paul Krebs

Assistant Athletic Director

Paul Krebs is in his eighth year at Ohio State. He joined the OSU staff in 1985 as ticket director and was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Administration in 1987.

In his present capacity, Krebs is in charge of the day-to-day operation of the Athletic Department. Additionally, he oversees the OSU Ticket Office, the Ice Rink and the University Golf Courses. He is in charge, too, of game management for football and men's and women's basketball, overseeing crowd control and timing on the day of the game.

Krebs also chairs several committees within the Athletic Department and coordinates many outside activities such as concerts in Ohio Stadium and other civic endeavors.

The 37-year-old Krebs is from Canfield, Ohio. He graduated from Bowling Green in 1978 and received his master's from Ohio State in 1981. While working on the latter in Sports Administration, he interned in the OSU Ticket Office.

In 1981, Krebs was named assistant ticket director at Oklahoma. He spent three years in that capacity before becoming the Sooners' ticket manager in 1983.

In 1985, Krebs was named ticket director at Ohio State. Shortly after taking over his new position, he implemented a new computer program that greatly enhanced the efficiency of the ticket office.

Paul and his wife, Marjori, a teacher in nearby Worthington, have two children, a daughter, Taylor, who is four, and a son, Jacob, born last March.

Archie Griffin

Assistant Athletic Director

Archie Griffin has been a member of the Ohio State Athletic Department since 1985, when he was appointed as special assistant to the director of athletics. In 1987, Griffin was named assistant athletic director in charge of fund raising. In that role, he oversees the marketing and development departments.

Additionally, Griffin, college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner, and one of the most well-known figures in college athletics, represents the athletic director at various functions around the state and across the nation.

Griffin, from Columbus Eastmoor, was Ohio State's starting tailback between 1972 and 1975. After a spectacular debut in which he rushed for 239 yards in just the second game of his freshman year, he went on to rush for 5,589 yards, still an Ohio State and Big Ten record.

A three-time All-America and two-time pick by U.P.I. as college player of the year, Griffin helped the Buckeyes to four Big Ten championships and is the only Big Ten player ever to start four Rose Bowls. He won the Heisman Trophy in 1974 and again in 1975.

Griffin, 39, graduated from Ohio State in 1976, receiving his degree in industrial relations a quarter early. A first round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals, he played in the NFL for eight years.

Ohio State's ambassador of good will, Griffin is a member of the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame, the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame and the OSU Sports Hall of Fame.

Archie is married to the former Bonita Davis, and has three sons, Anthony, Andre and Adam.

Larry Romanoff

Assistant Athletic Director

Larry Romanoff joined the Ohio State staff in 1976 as an assistant athletic counselor. He was named head counselor in 1977 and was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Academics in July of 1991.

Romanoff, 41, oversees a staff of four full-time counselors, who provide Ohio State athletes with a complete academic support system, including scheduling, career guidance and tutoring. He also supervises morning, afternoon and evening study tables, which provide OSU athletes a controlled environment and structured atmosphere in which to learn.

Under Romanoff's tutelage, Ohio State student-athletes have won numerous national honors, including eight National Football Foundation scholarships since 1975, a Rhodes scholarship in 1985 and two first-team Academic All-Americans in 1992.

Romanoff is a native of Toledo. He received two undergraduate degrees from Ohio State, one in arts and science and the other in education. While a student at OSU, Romanoff was a student manager for the football team. He was head manager as a junior and again as a senior for Coach Woody Hayes.

Following graduation from Ohio State in 1974, Romanoff attended Ohio University and received his master's in Athletic Administration in 1975. While working on the latter, he served as an intern in the OSU ticket office.

Larry and his wife, Debbie, a preschool teacher in Columbus, have three children, Jennifer, Michael and Steven.

The Ohio State Radio Network

All Ohio State football games are broadcast by WBNS Radio, the flagship station for the Buckeyes' 49-station, state-wide network. Terry Smith is the play-by-play announcer and former Buckeye tailback Jeff Logan serves as color analyst. Former OSU quarterback Kirk Herbstreit is the network's sideline reporter.

1993 Football Rule Changes/Simplified

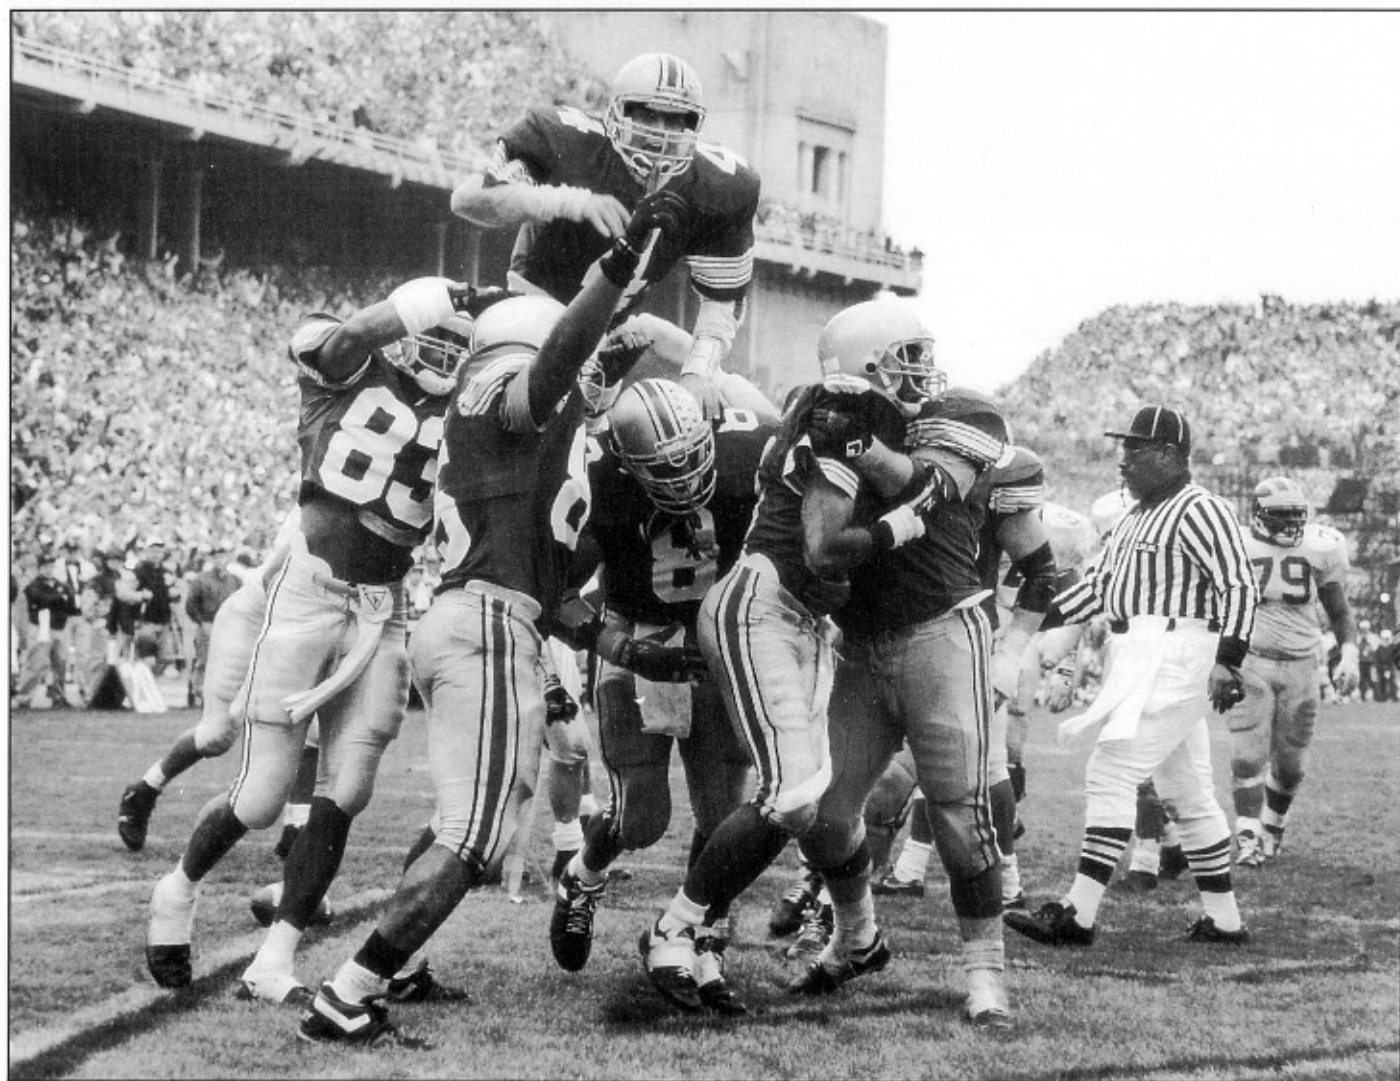

1. In bound lines are now 60 feet from the side lines. (Previously 53'4)
2. Rubber of composition footballs are illegal.
3. Face masks are now mandatory.
4. Gloves with adhesive or sticky substances are prohibited — effective 1994.
5. Fax machines and photographs for coaching purposes are illegal.
6. The chop block now includes the thigh. (Previously was knee or below.)
7. A laceration or wound where oozing or bleeding occurs, requires the participant to go to team area and receive medical treatment.
8. When both teams refuse to enter the field first, the home team must be the first to enter.
9. Penalties for dead ball fouls which occur after a series ends and before the ready for play, shall be enforced before the line to gain is established. (Rarely will there be first and 25 situations.)
10. On free kicks, at least four (4) Team A players must be on each side of the kicker.
11. On 4th down, before a change of team possession, a Team A fumble caught in advance of the fumble by a Team A player other than the fumbler, the ball is returned to the spot of the fumble.
12. "Fumblerooski" plays are now illegal.
13. Offensive pass interference is a 15 yard penalty. (No longer loss of down and 15 yard penalty.)
14. For defensive pass interference on a try from the 3 yard line, penalize half the distance to the goal. (From the 3 to the 1 1/2.)
15. Any delayed, prolonged, excessive or premeditated act by which a player attempts to focus attention upon himself is unsportsmanlike conduct.
16. Only 15 yard penalties (major fouls) by opponents of the scoring team may be penalized on the try or succeeding kickoff. (Previously all defensive fouls were assessed after a score.)

Determining Big Ten Participant in Rose Bowl Game

1. Designation of Representative Team

The Conference representative shall be determined by the following procedures:

A. The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games (tie game counts $\frac{1}{2}$ win and $\frac{1}{2}$ loss).

B. An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the Conference representative.

C. If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between these two teams shall represent the Conference.

D. If there is still a tie, or if the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played.

E. If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.

F. If there are more than two teams tied for the championship, the same selection procedure shall be followed with the following exceptions:

1. If three teams are tied, and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.

2. If three teams are tied, and if two of the three teams defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated, and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

3. If three teams are tied, and there is a tie game between two of the three teams, or if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played.

4. If three teams are tied, and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

5. If three teams are tied, and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:

1. If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the representative.

2. If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

3. If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated, and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

4. If there is a tie game between two of the four teams, or if two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played.

5. If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

6. If all four teams share the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

Academic Excellence

Ohio State football players also excel in the classroom. Last year, five Buckeyes were named to the Big Ten's All-Academic team, with two of those, Greg Smith and Len Hartman, also being named to a first-team berth on the CoSida Academic All-America team. Ohio State, which was the only school to place two players on last year's first team, now has 27 Academic All-Americans, including three-time pick Dave Foley and Randy Gradishar, a member of the Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

Ohio State's National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholarship Winners

Each year, the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame awards a scholarship to the top 13 seniors in college football. The scholarship, which is an $18,000 grant for graduate work, is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics.

Over the years, a Big Ten record 14 Ohio State players have received the NFFHF scholarship, including Greg Smith last year.

Other OSU recipients include John Frank in 1983 and Mike Lanese in 1985. Frank, after playing on two Super Bowl championship teams in San Francisco, has completed medical school at Ohio State and is doing his residency in Chicago. Lanese, who was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in 1985, currently is a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy.

1921 Rose Bowl

California	7	14	0	7	28

Cal finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first-ever Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924. Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time that a Big 10 team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the very first game in 1902. It would be 26 years before the conferences would again butt heads on the West Coast (Illinois and UCLA in 1947).

Buckeye Bowl Bits

- Ohio State has played in 25 bowl games, including 12 Rose Bowls.
- The Buckeyes have played in 10 different bowl games.
- Ohio State is the only Big Ten team to play in four straight Rose Bowls
- The Buckeyes are the only Big Ten team to play in the Rose, Orange, Cotton and Sugar bowls.
- Ohio State is the only Big Ten team to play in every New Year's Day Game.
- The Buckeyes were the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton, Sugar, Fiesta and Florida Citrus bowls.
- Ohio State is the only Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl.

The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-14 tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns had been called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

The lone bright spot for USC fans came when halfback Aramis Dandoy set a Rose Bowl record with an 86-yard punt return for the Trojans' only score.

Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from a yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-7 before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern Cal. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second period. Ohio State answered with a 69-yard drive, climaxed with a one-yard plunge by Jim Otis, and a 16-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final four yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

Kern was named the outstanding player of the game, rushing for 35 yards and passing for 101 and a pair of touchdowns. Jim Otis and Hayden combined for 191 yards, while Simpson closed out his career with 171 yards rushing and eight receptions for 85 yards.

Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over the favored and previously unbeaten Buckeyes.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground, and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and both Buckeye touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final period. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

An interception of Kern on the next OSU series set up a Plunkett to Randy Vataha 10-yard scoring toss that sealed the win.

Led by tailback Anthony Davis, Southern Cal broke a 7-7 halftime tie with three third quarter touchdowns to sideline the Buckeyes. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third period, Cunningham going in twice and Davis once from 20 yards. The final tally was set up by a 48-yard interception return by Charles Phillips to the OSU 32.

The third period overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State, which dominated USC in the first 20 minutes. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. The Buckeyes' Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half, to Davis' 86 on 12.

Ohio State appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third period and a five-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with :44 showing to play in the game.

1974 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	3	11	7	0	21
Ohio State	7	7	13	15	42

Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground for the day.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third period before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the period for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining in the game by dashing 47 yards over right tackle for his only score of the day.

Greene was good on six of eight passing attempts for 129 yards and helped OSU to a 449-406 advantage in total offense. The USC passing attack, led by Pat Haden, netted 239 yards.

Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final three himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Southern Cal outgained OSU 461-286 in total offense. Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin was held to 75 yards rushing.

UCLA	0	0	16	7	23
Ohio State	3	0	0	7	10

All-American quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big 10 MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, the Buckeyes held the UCLA offense to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth straight Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run to up the margin and close out the scoring.

A last ditch drive by the Buckeyes ended after an incompletion on fourth-and-17 at the Ohio State 46.

Colorado	10	0	0	0	10
Ohio State	7	10	3	7	27

After Colorado jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald jumped off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes would go on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from three yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth period, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing. Ron Springs led all rushers in the game with 98 yards for OSU. Skladany, who handled all the placement and punting chores, was good on two of four field goal tries, missing only from 56 and 53 yards.

In a first-ever meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes of Ohio State and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a three-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

Ohio State	0	9	0	6	15

Clemson won its 10th straight game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of four yards, in the drive.

OSU freshman quarterback Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from four yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point kick was blocked, but Ohio State had the lead, 9-7.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and Ohio State's hopes were dashed.

The Buckeyes did win the statistical battle, outgaining Clemson 355-331 in total offense. Schlichter outdueled Fuller,

Not even ranked in the pre-season polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record. But, thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top-ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the one for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four straight bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third period.

There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh straight game and their second consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

OSU broke the game open with 17 points during a three-minute stretch beginning at the 8:57 mark of the third quarter.

While the OSU offense was rolling up 466 yards, the defense pretty much held the high scoring BYU offense in check, allowing 371 yards.

BYU quarterback Steve Young threw for 341 yards and two TDs, but he was intercepted once and sacked four times. Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Split end Thad Jemison scored the game winner, hauling in a 39-yard pass from Mike Tomczak with 39 seconds left on the clock.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

Southern Cal	10	7	3	0	20
Ohio State	3	3	3	8	17

Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

The Buckeyes found out early about the USC defense. On the third play of the game, tailback Keith Byars broke over right tackle, cut to the outside and raced 50 yards down the sideline to the USC five. Five plays later, OSU had to settle for the first of Rich Spangler's three field goals.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yarder, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the afternoon.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record for receiving yardage.

Ohio State	0	3	7	0	10

Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparked.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with four interceptions.

All four of those interceptions came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

In addition to four interceptions, BYU also lost a pair of fumbles to the hard hitting OSU defense.

Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Southwest Conference champion Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. The surprise defenses limited A&M to a single touchdown and a pair of field goals. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Defensively, the entire Buckeye team deserved special accolades. Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which Ohio State led 7-6.

Michael Kee made Ohio State's fifth interception a memorable one, when he ran it back 49 yards for a Buckeye touchdown that put the game out of reach.

Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over Ohio State.

The Buckeyes took an early 14-3 lead and appeared to have things going their way. But the momentum changed abruptly just before the half when Slack teamed up with Greg Taylor on an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play. The TD drive covered 33 yards and took just three plays.

The War Eagles kept the pressure on after intermission, scoring on their first possession, Slack and Taylor again teaming up, this time from four yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous choice as MVP, ran five yards for the first and flipped a two-yard toss to Herbert Casey for the second.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half due to a pulled groin muscle.

The Buckeyes, playing in their first ever Hall of Fame Bowl, closed out the season at 8-4.

The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Tampa. Ohio State entered the game with an 8-3 record, while Big East foe Syracuse sported a 9-2 mark for the New Year's Day showdown.

Syracuse's vaunted speed and the arm of Marvin Graves turned out to be the difference in the ball game.

Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the Orangemen's first possession and later running three yards to paydirt as the period expired.

The Buckeyes battled back to tie the score at 17-17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The latter came with 8:03 to play in the game.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb that buried the Buckeyes.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

1993 Florida Citrus Bowl

Georgia	7	0	7	7	21
Ohio State	0	7	7	0	14

Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time ever in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The Buckeyes, 8-2-1 during the regular season, posted a 5-2-1 record in Big Ten play and closed out the regular season with five straight wins and a tie.

Georgia's overall record of 9-2 included a 6-2 mark in the Southeastern Conference. The Bulldogs won eight of their last nine games.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14-14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays and scored the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

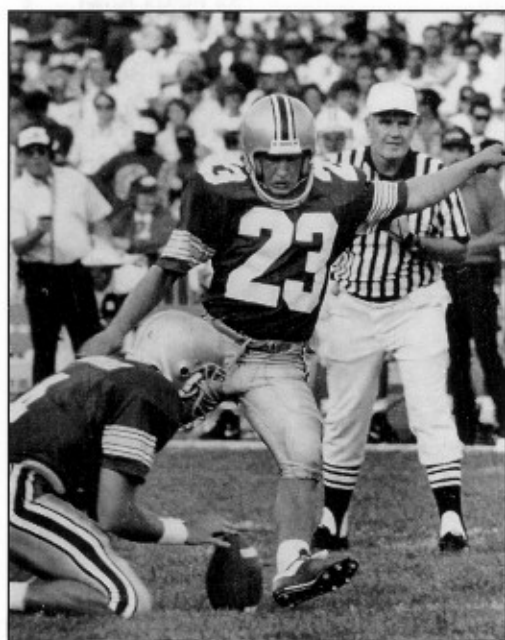

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

Tim Williams successfully converted both extra point tries in last year's Citrus Bowl, giving him 47 straight PATs.

Mark Williams returns for his third year as a starting outside linebacker.

Craig Powell is in his second year as a starter at the spot opposite Williams.

Reflections on a Championship Season

His red hair has lost some of its hue and he underwent his fifth back surgery and a hip replacement this past summer, but when Rex Kern talks about the 1968 football season, he is still that daring red-headed sophomore who quarterbacked Ohio State to the national championship and a special spot in the hearts of Buckeye fans everywhere.

"I can remember the first team meeting, the first practice, the first game, like it was yesterday," says Kern, who had back surgery for the first time on June 19, 1968, just a little more than three months before the Buckeyes opened their storybook season with a 35-14 win over Southern Methodist on Sept. 28. "There was great anticipation, great excitement. We thought we could be pretty good, but we had never been tested, so we didn't know for sure."

Using the win over SMU as a springboard, the sophomore-dominated Buckeyes went on to post a 10-0 record, including a 27-16 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl that erased any doubts about who was No. 1. Along the way, Ohio State pulled off a shocking upset of then top-ranked Purdue, 13-0, and downed Michigan, 50-14, in a game that to this day remains a sorepoint with Wolverine fans because of the final score.

It was an amazing collection of talent. The offense averaged 32 points and 440 yards per game. Big numbers in those days. The defense allowed 15 points and 292 yards per contest. The team was fun to watch. The offense could score in a variety of ways from anywhere on the field. The defense was physical and relentless. And there was that incredible enthusiasm and confidence. They believed themselves to be invincible. Indeed, as it turned out, they were.

Kern, unquestionably, was the catalyst on offense, but he was by no means the only weapon. Big Jim Otis (actually he was only 209 pounds) had a nose for the goal line like few other Ohio State fullbacks before or since. Leo Hayden and John Brockington were powerful runners with breakaway speed, and Larry Zelina could run and catch. Additionally, tight end Jan White and split end Bruce Jankowski were excellent receivers, and the offensive line was anchored by a pair of first-team All-America tackles in Dave Foley and the late Rufus Mayes.

Foley and Mayes were seniors. Otis was a junior. The rest were just sophomores!

There was an equal abundance of talent on defense. Jim Stillwagon, who would go on to win the Outland Trophy and the very first Lombardi Award, was the nose guard. Dave Whitfield and Mark Debevec both of whom would win all-Big Ten honors, were the ends, and peppery Doug Adams packed a wallop at linebacker. And the secondary of Ted Provost, Jack Tatum, Tim Anderson and Mike Sensibaugh was an all-star collection of talent that made other defensive coordinators drool with envy. All but Whitfield, Stier and Provost were sophomores.

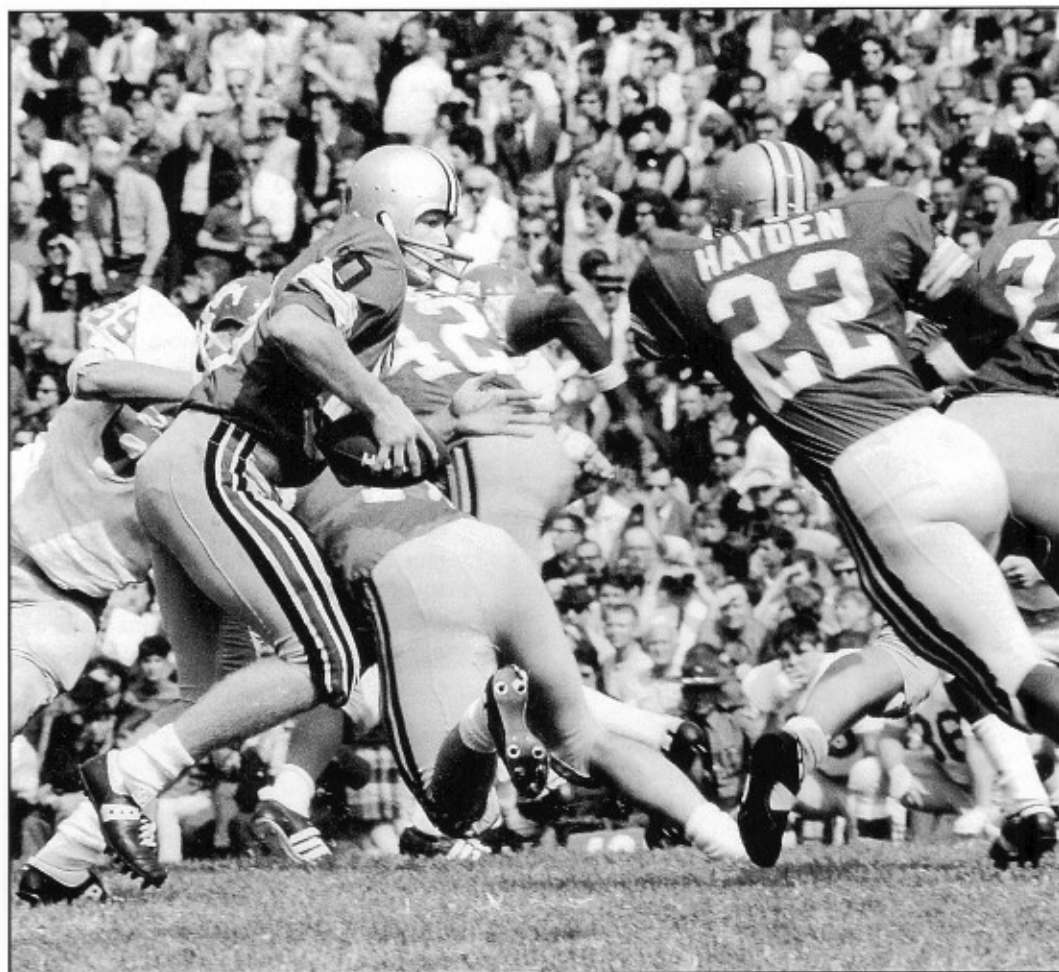

Incredibly, 11 members of that squad — Kern, Otis,

Foley, Mayes, Brockington, White, Stillwagon, Provost, Tatum, Anderson and Sensibaugh — would all go on to earn All-America recognition. Tatum, additionally, was the national defensive player of the year as a senior. But in the early fall of 1968, most of those players were still wet behind the ears, waiting to show what they could do.

"We were excited about playing with the varsity," recalls Kern, the Lancaster, Ohio native who now makes his home in California. "We wanted to show the upperclassmen that we belonged."

As far as Foley was concerned, there was never any question about the latter.

"Some of our toughest games my junior year were against our freshmen," he says. "We knew what they could do. They were tremendously talented. We (the upperclassmen) were glad to have them on the varsity because they made us better. We had endured a couple of tough years in 1966 and '67."

The win over SMU was a good start. Even though quarterback Chuck Hixson completed 37 of 69 passes for 417 yards and two touchdowns (all NCAA records at the time), he was intercepted five times by the Buckeye defense. OSU, behind two touchdowns by running back Dave Brungard, led 26-7 at the half. It was never close after that.

Kern's numbers were modest. He completed eight of 14 passes for 139 yards and two scores. He also ran 18 times for a net of 45 yards. One of those runs is forever etched in the minds of the fans in attendance that day.

Ahead 20-7 late in the first half, an OSU drive bogged down on the SMU 41-yard line. On fourth-and-10, Buckeye boss Woody Hayes sent in Sensibaugh, who also doubled as OSU's punter. To the amazement of everyone, especially the coach, Kern brazenly waved him off.

While the stadium buzzed, Kern called a pass play, a delay over the middle to Otis. But the Buckeye fullback, the only receiver on that particular play, was covered. Then, to make matters worse, a charging SMU cornerback hit Kern in the backfield. The impact of the blow lifted the OSU quarterback off his feet. He did a 360, but somehow came down on his feet. Before the stunned SMU defense could recover, Ramblin' Rex streaked up the sideline for 16 yards and the all important first down. Three plays later, with 35 seconds left in the first half, he and Brungard hooked up on an 18-yard scoring pass. The game was over.

"Coach Hayes took me aside before the season and told me there would be times when I would have to go with my heart," remembers Kern. "I did on that play. Fortunately, it worked."

Stillwagon also remembers his first game as a Buckeye.

"It was raining when we got on the team bus that morning and I was worried about the footing because we knew SMU was going to throw a lot," he says. "One of the upperclassmen told me not to worry, because Coach Hayes would take care of the weather. I kind of laughed, but when we were driving up high street I looked out the window and there was a beam of sunlight shining down on the stadium. By game time, the field was dry and it was hot. I don't know exactly how hot, but I lost 11 pounds that day. But from then on, I never doubted what coach Hayes could do."

But while the SMU game provided the litmus test for the Buckeyes, it was the Purdue game, in week three of the season, that put OSU in the national spotlight.

The Boilers, who were unbeaten and a consensus No. 1 in both polls, were led by quarterback Mike Phipps and all-purpose running back Leroy Keyes, both All-America candidates. Even though the game was in Columbus, the Boilers, who had humiliated Ohio State, 41-6, the year before, were heavy favorites.

But no one could point for a game like Hayes, and Woody had spent much of his summer looking at Purdue film. The Boilers would be in for a battle.

It was a classic showdown between two good football teams. Neither team scored in the first half, each waiting for the other to make a mistake.

That mistake came early in the third quarter. Phipps faded to pass, looking for Keyes. Provost read the play perfectly, cut in front of the intended receiver, intercepted the throw and raced 35 yards into the endzone for a touchdown. The extra point was no good, but the jubilant Ohio Stadium crowd hardly noticed. Ohio State 6, Purdue 0.

Jim Stillwagon was the Buckeyes' middle guard.

Still in the third quarter, Phipps, who completed 10 of 28 passes that sunny October afternoon, was intercepted again, this time by Stillwagon at the Purdue 28. Three plays later, senior Bill Long, filling in for Kern who had been injured two plays earlier, scored from 14 yards out on a busted pass play. This time Ohio Stadium fans went bonkers. The TD was especially gratifying for Long, who had been the starter in 1967.

"The Purdue game turned it around," says George Chaump, now the head coach at Navy, but at the time a Hayes assistant. "After that game, no one was going to stop those kids."

Chaump recalls a friendly wager between two other OSU assistants prior to the Purdue game.

When defensive backfield coach Lou Holtz predicted a shutout on the Thursday before the game, offensive line coach Hugh Hindman told Holtz he had a brand new $100.00 bill coming if he could back up his claim. Holtz insisted that they shake. After the game, when Hindman presented Holtz with the money, Holtz had him autograph it. The bill hangs in Holtz' home to this day, one of his most prized memories of his only year on the Ohio State staff.

After the Purdue game, Ohio State climbed steadily in the polls, reaching No. 2, behind USC, the week of the Michigan game. A win over the Wolverines would give the Buckeyes the Big Ten title and send them to the Rose Bowl for the first time since the 1957 season.

"For me, there will never be another experience in my life like walking out for the coin toss against Michigan my senior year," says Foley, one of the 1968 co-captains. "Everything was one the line, the conference championship, the Rose Bowl and the chance to be national champions. When the captains walked out, the noise was unbelievable. You couldn't describe the noise in your helmet. I looked over at Dirk Worden (the other co-captain) and he had tears in his eyes. So did I."

The Buckeyes, behind 142 yards (on 34 carries) and four touchdowns by Otis, 96 yards by Kern and 92 by Zelina, methodically disposed of the Wolverines. The score was tied at 14-all midway through the second quarter before the Buckeyes scored the last 36 points of the game, including 23 points in the fourth quarter.

OSU's final two points came on a two-point conversion that Michigan fans perceived as pouring salt in the wound. Not so says Chaump. "There was a penalty on the play and we always went for two when that happened," he recalls. "Coach Hayes was signaling for the kicking team but no one heard him."

That set the stage for the showdown with USC in the Rose Bowl, where the Buckeyes overcame a 10-0 deficit and went on to claim a unanimous national championship, the last by a Big Ten school.

In that game, the Buckeyes held Trojan All-America and Heisman Trophy winner, O.J. Simpson, in check most of the day, except for an 80-yard TD run that gave USC its 10-0 lead.

Doug Adams was a starting linebacker on Ohio State's 1968 National Championship team. In honor of that team, the 1993 Buckeyes will wear the same style of game jersey that the 1968 team wore.

"I can still remember Stillwagon hitting O.J. at the line of scrimmage and I thought he was down," says Bill Mallory, the Buckeyes' defensive line coach that year. "The next thing I knew, he was gone." O.J. finished the day with 171 yards on 28 carries, a modest day for him.

Mallory remembers the '68 team with great fondness.

"They had a tremendous attitude. They came to play every practice and every game, and they were dedicated to being as good as they could be," he recalls. "As a coach, you couldn't ask any more."

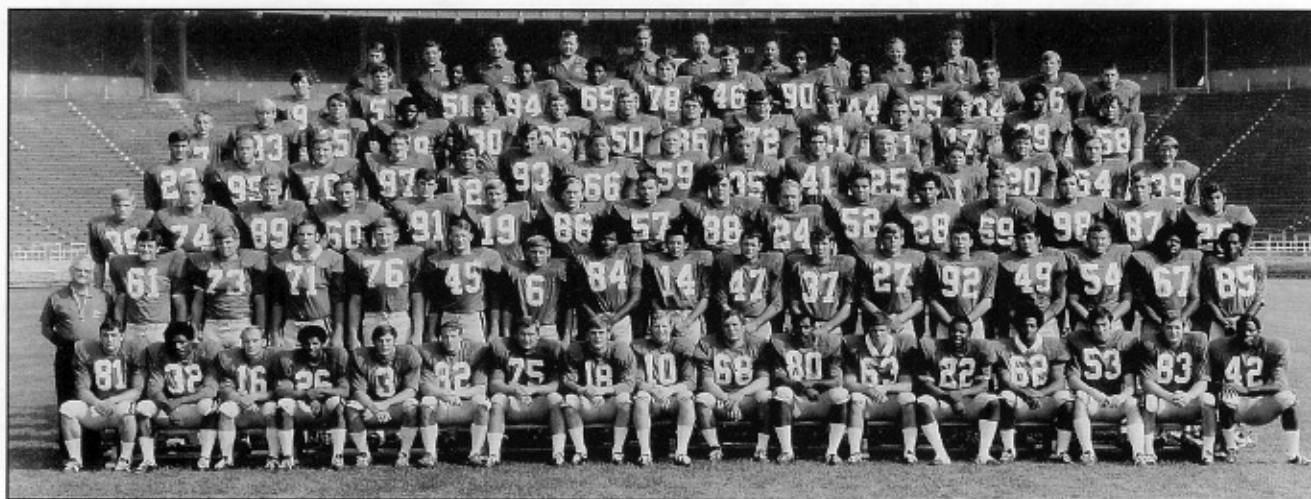

"Every game that year was like Homecoming," says Stillwagon. "The momentum just kept building from week to week. We believed we could accomplish anything. When we won the Rose Bowl, it was like finding gold."

Says Chaump, "We split an end for the first time that year in Ohio Stadium. I think the fans thought it was an illegal formation. But with the talent we had, we could do a lot of things that hadn't been done before. Coach Hayes recognized that and took advantage of what we could do. It was a team, a season, I will never forget."

Coach Woody Hayes

For 28 years Woody Hayes was Ohio State football. Between 1951 and 1978 the legendary coach took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history.

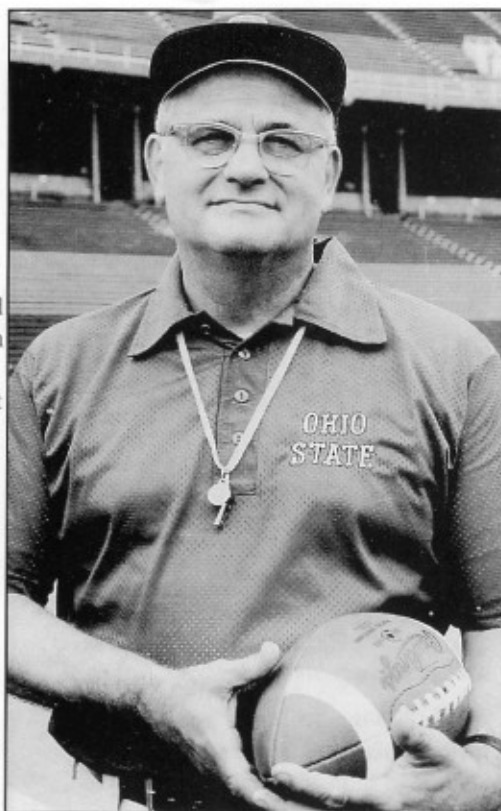

While Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (and narrowly missed out on four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. On two different occasions the Buckeyes won a conference record 17 straight league games.

Under Woody, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972-73-74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first-team All-America berths. Additionally, he coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes current head coaches Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Earle Bruce, Lou Holtz and Joe Bugel. Others include Bo Schembechler and current Ohio State Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

Woody Hayes
Head Coach
1951-1978

Hayes' lifetime record of 238-72-10 places him fifth in all-time NCAA Division I-A coaching victories. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. And during the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second in each of the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami for two.

Hayes was also a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the off-season. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes died on March 17, 1987, but his influence lives on through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. He holds a very special place in college football history.

Archie Griffin

Archie Griffin is college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner. And while those two coveted bronzed statues are undoubtedly Griffin's most prized pieces of hardware, the Columbus native and Eastmoor High School graduate has a trophy case filled with numerous other tributes to his splendid four years with the Buckeyes.

Griffin was the Buckeyes' starting tailback for four years, leading Ohio State to a 40-5-1 record and four Big Ten titles between 1972 and 1975. He started in four consecutive Rose Bowls, the only player ever to do so, and was a three-time first-team All-American.

At 5-9 and 180 pounds, Griffin was small by college football standards even then, but he played with the heart of a lion and no football accomplishment was beyond his reach.

In just the second game of his freshman year, Griffin ran for a school record 239 yards. It was the start of a brilliant career that would see him amass an OSU record 5,589 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Excluding bowl games, Griffin rushed for 5,177 yards on 845 carries. The former figure ranks him fifth among all NCAA career ball carriers and his 6.13 yards per carry still stands as an NCAA record. And Griffin rarely played more than half a game, his coach, Woody Hayes, always opting to take his star out as soon as the Buckeyes were in control.

Between his sophomore and senior seasons, Griffin ran for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive games. That, too, is still an NCAA record.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also has a pair of Silver Footballs, an award presented annually by the Chicago Tribune to the Big Ten's MVP. He is one of just three players to win that award twice. Griffin also was a two-time pick as National Player of the Year by both United Press International and the Walter Camp Foundation. He won those honors as a junior and senior.

Archie Griffin, college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. It is the highest award the NCAA can bestow.

After an eight-year career with the Cincinnati Bengals, Griffin is now an assistant athletic director at Ohio State. To this day, he remains one of the most popular and visible players ever to play for the Buckeyes.

Archie accepts his first Heisman at the Downtown Athletic Club in New York.

The Griffin File

1972: Set a then OSU single-game rushing record with 239 yards against North Carolina. Rushed for 867 yards during the year, then an OSU freshman record.

1973: Became the first OSU sophomore ever to rush for 1,000 yards (1,577) and was named to a first-team spot on the U.P.I. All-American team. Winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Big Ten Player of the Year.

1974: Rushed for a then school record 1,695 yards and was a unanimous All-America choice. Won the Heisman Trophy, a second straight Silver Football and was the U.P.I. and Walter Camp Player of the Year.

1975: Made college football history by winning his second Heisman. Again chosen by U.P.I. and Walter Camp as Player of the Year. Was also everyone's All-American.

- NCAA record for the most average yards per carry-6.13
- Fifth in NCAA rushing annals with 5,177 yards (based on regular season games only)
- The only player to ever lead OSU in rushing for four straight years
- The only player to start four Rose Bowl games
- Ohio State's career rushing leader with 5,589 yards
- Member of the Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame
- Member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame
- Member of the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame

OSU's Heisman Heritage

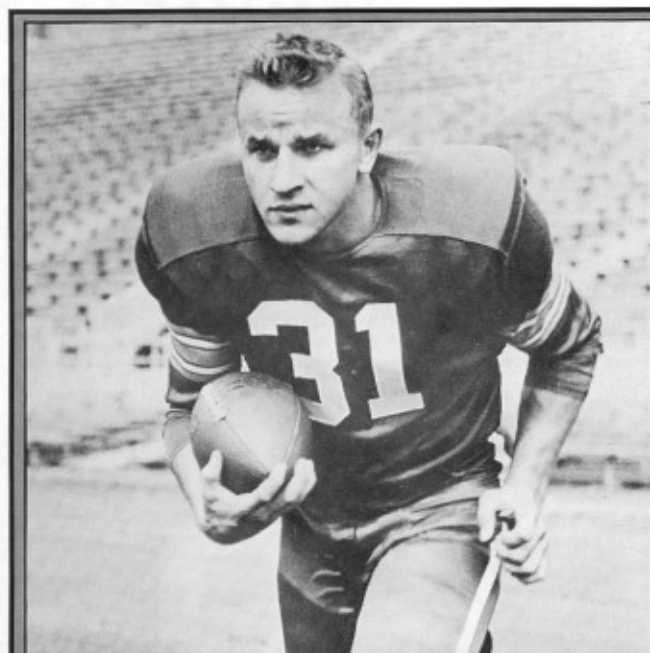

The Heisman Trophy, presented annually since 1935 to the nation's premier college football player, is no stranger to Columbus. Over the years, four Ohio State players have won the coveted award, which is voted on by a nationwide panel of sports media.

Among the Ohio State winners is All-America tailback Archie Griffin, still the only two-time recipient of the bronze statue. He was fifth in the balloting as a sophomore in 1973, when teammates John Hicks and Randy Gradishar finished second and sixth, respectively, the first and only time one school has had three players in the top six.

Les Horvath

Les Horvath was Ohio State's first Heisman winner. He won the award in 1944, when he accounted for 1,248 yards in total offense and led the Buckeyes to a 9-0 record.

Vic Janowicz

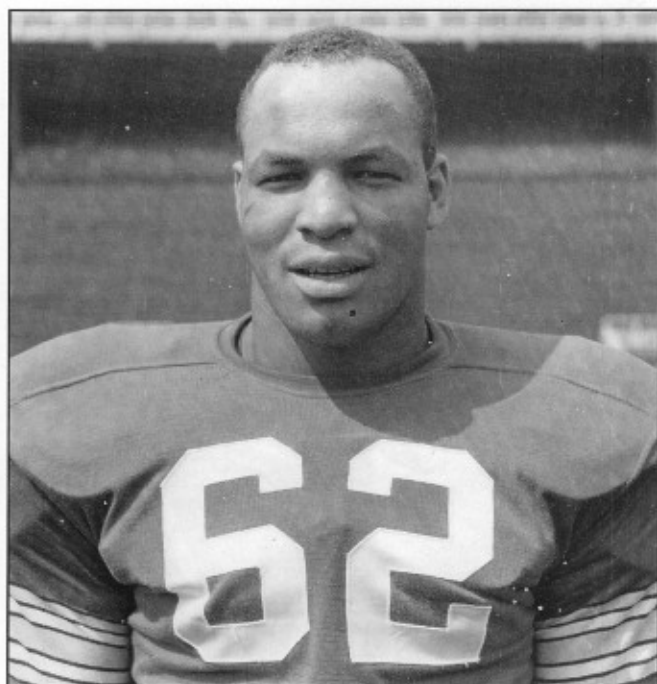

Vic Janowicz, believed by many to be the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State, won the Heisman in 1950 as a junior. A true triple threat, he led the Buckeyes in rushing, passing and punting that year. He also kicked 23 field goals, including a 27-yarder in the "Snow Bowl."

Howard "Hopalong" Cassady

Howard "Hopalong" Cassady capped off a brilliant four-year career by winning the 1955 Heisman Trophy. As a junior, Cassady accounted for 849 yards and won first-team All-America honors for the national champion Buckeyes. He had an even better year in 1955, accounting for 964 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Outland & Lombardi Award Winners

Jim Parker

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner, claiming the honor as a senior in 1956. Parker was a two-time All-America and is generally regarded as one of the finest offensive linemen ever to play college football.

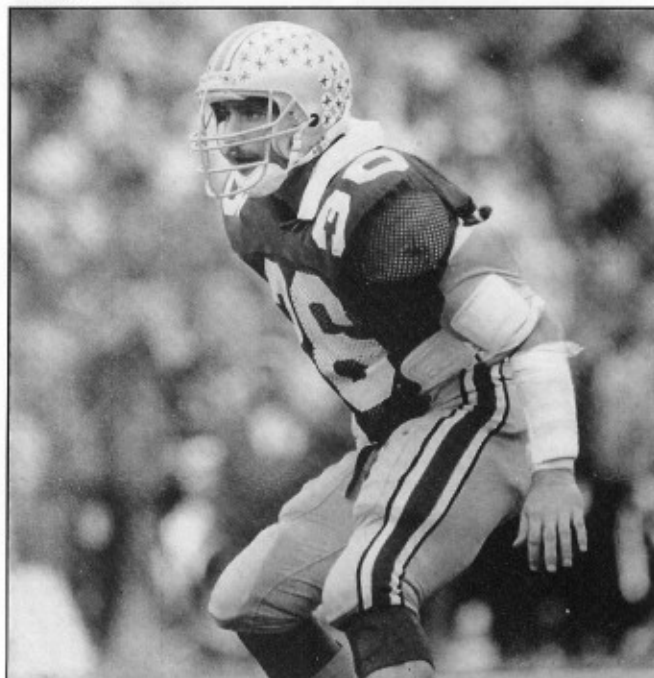

Jim Stillwagon

Middle guard Jim Stillwagon won the Outland Trophy and the very first Lombardi Award in 1970, his senior year. A two-time All-America, Stillwagon was the heart of the Buckeyes' defense during the glory years of 1968, '69 and '70.

John Hicks

In 1973, John Hicks almost pulled off the biggest triple play in the history of college football. In addition to winning the Outland and Lombardi Awards that year, the talented offensive tackle finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting, coming within an eyelash of capturing all three of college football's top individual prizes.

Chris Spielman

Linebacker Chris Spielman is Ohio State's latest major award winner. He won the Lombardi Award in 1987. Spielman, a two-time All-America and the Buckeyes' all-time leader in solo tackles, was a finalist for the Lombardi as a junior in 1986.

Distinguished Football Alumni

After their football careers are over, many former Ohio State players return to Columbus to launch their professional careers.

Greg Lashutka

Mayor of Columbus

"The Ohio State University provided me lessons on the playing field and in the classroom which prepared me well for life's challenges. As a young man, I was fortunate to have played for Woody Hayes who taught me much about football, but more about being a man. I appreciate the many contributions The Ohio State University has made in my life and that of other young people."

Jeff Logan

President, Logan Insurance Co.

"Very few athletes get the opportunity to play on 'Sunday' and most of those return to Columbus when their temporary careers are completed. The respect that the business and professional community in Columbus has for their Buckeyes is unparalleled. You need only to look at the number of athletes from Ohio State who have launched successful careers in Columbus to know that being a Buckeye expands well beyond your years of eligibility."

Steve Luke

President, USAthletes, Inc.

"When I graduated from Massillon Washington High School in 1971, I had the opportunity to go to several major universities to play football. One of the reasons I chose Ohio State University was because of the tremendous amount of support and opportunity that I saw early on. The Ohio State University is really unique in the fact that the whole state of Ohio as well as the city of Columbus really appreciate the efforts that we put toward winning. As a result of that appreciation, it gave me the incentive and opportunity to help my clients. Woody Hayes always said you win with people. The people of Ohio are winners."

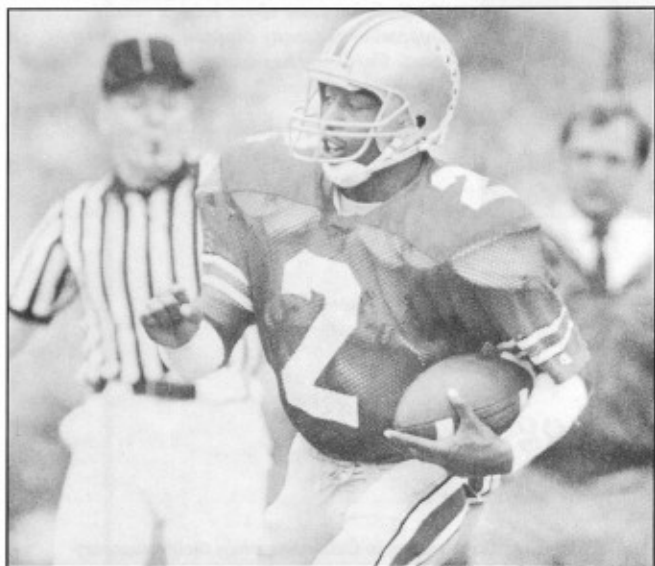

Parade of Stars

Keith Byars
(TB, 1982-85)

Keith Byars holds the Ohio State single-season (1,764) and single-game (274) rushing records and ranks third on the OSU career rushing list with 3,200 yards. Byars also scored 46 rushing touchdowns, including five against Illinois in 1984 on the same afternoon that he set the school rushing record. He was the Big Ten's MVP and a first team All-America as a junior in 1984.

Cris Carter
(WR, 1984-86)

Cris Carter is unquestionably the greatest wide receiver ever to play for the Buckeyes. In his three seasons as a starter, Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His reception and TD totals are school records and his yardage figure is the second highest total in OSU history. Carter, a first-team All-America in 1986, also holds the school's single-season record for catches (69), yards (1,127) and touchdowns (11).

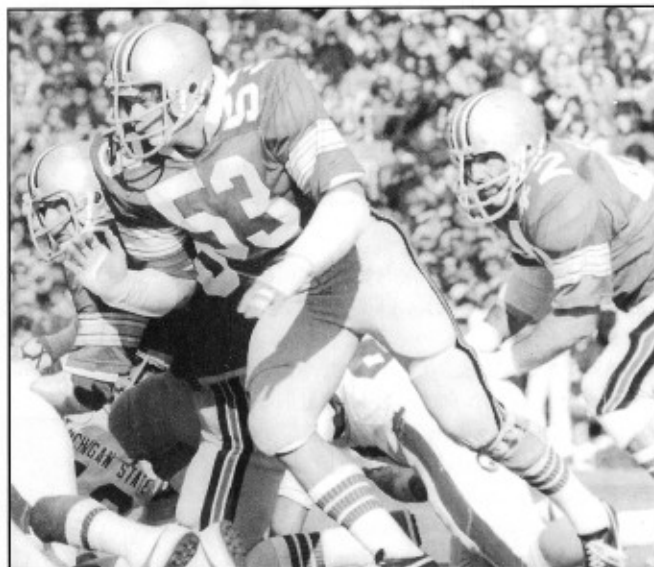

John Frank
(TE, 1980-83)

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar while at Ohio State. A tight end, Frank ranks third on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns. He was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983. In the classroom, John was a two-time Academic All-America and was a Rhodes Scholar nominee as a senior. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco, he returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June, 1992.

Randy Gradishar (LB, 1971-73)

Randy Gradishar was a two-time All-America for the Buckeyes and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter for Ohio State between 1971 and 1973 and was credited with 320 total tackles — 155 solos and 165 assists. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points all season long. After graduation, he was a consensus all-pro pick with the Denver Broncos. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992.

Pepper Johnson (LB, 1982-85)

Pepper Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982 and 1985, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. During the 1984 and '85 seasons, he teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. Johnson is currently a starting linebacker for the New York Giants and has become one of the most feared hitters in professional football.

Tom Cousineau (LB, 1975-78)

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-America for the Buckeyes in 1977 and '78. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stand as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, "Cous" was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an OSU record that has since been tied by Chris Spielman versus Michigan in 1986. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game, 16 against SMU in 1978. He is second on the all-time OSU tackle list with 569, three behind Marcus Marek.

Ohio State's Athletic Tradition

When it comes to athletic tradition, Ohio State clearly belongs at the head of the class.

All-Americans, NCAA individual champions, Olympic Gold Medal winners, and Big Ten and NCAA team championships are part of the Buckeyes' rich athletic lore.

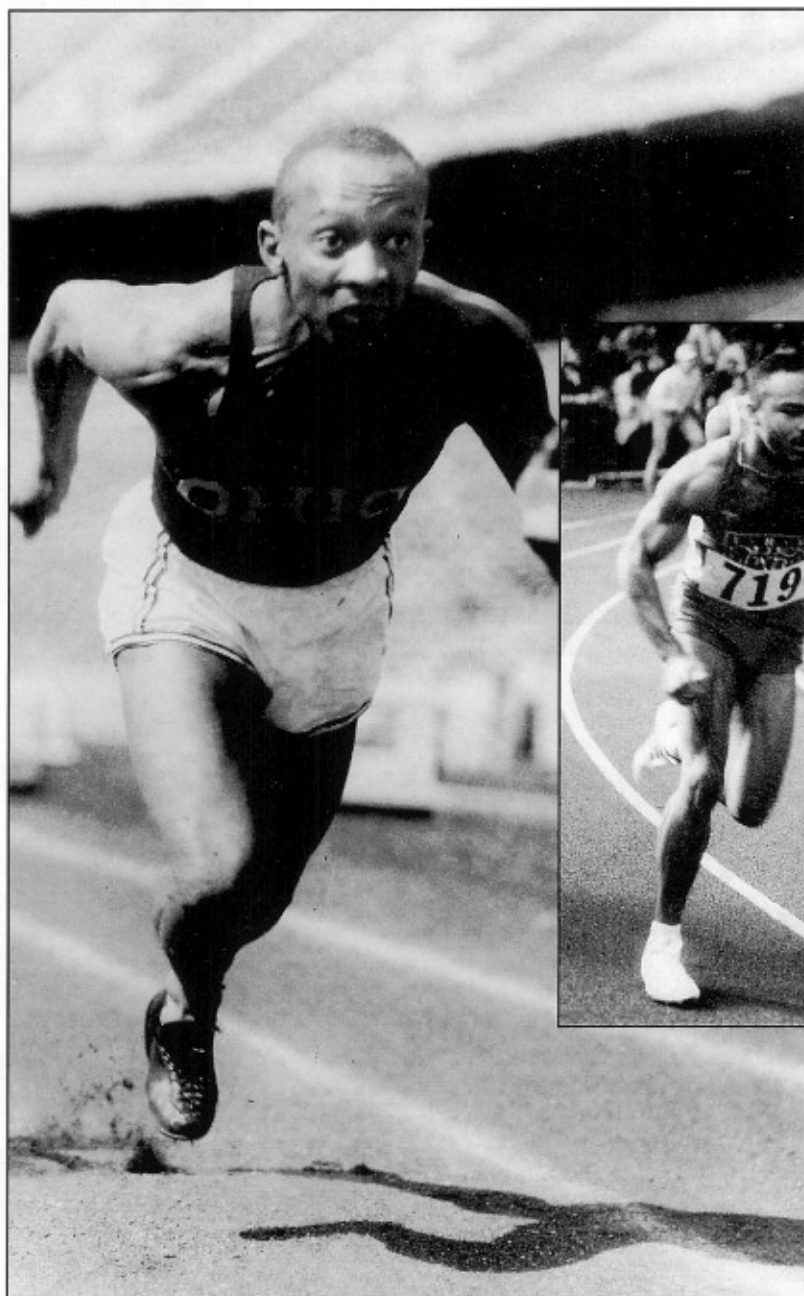

Over the years, individuals like Woody Hayes, Archie Griffin, Jesse Owens, Jack Nicklaus, Fred Taylor, John Havlicek, Jerry Lucas, Stephanie Hightower, Tracey Hall and Meg Mallon have been among the nation's most recognized names in their respective sports. And while that elite group of coaches and athletes, and others, have reaped untold individual honors, OSU teams have claimed national championships in football, basketball, men's swimming, baseball, men's track, men's golf, men's gymnastics, men's fencing and synchronized swimming.

Ohio State was the first school to win national titles in football, basketball, baseball and track. The Buckeyes are the only team to win national championships in those four sports and golf. OSU's 11 national championships in swimming is the most by any school. All told, the Buckeyes have won 23 NCAA championships.

Of course, the most visible aspect of the Ohio State program is the football team, which has won 25 Big Ten titles, including an unprecedented 15 outright championships, and six national championships. The Buckeyes have won more national crowns than any other Big Ten football school and are the last conference team to be crowned as unanimous national champs, winning that honor in 1968.

Individually, the football program has produced 108 first-team All-Americans, five Heisman trophy winners, three Outland Trophy and three Lombardi Award winners.

Archie Griffin carved his niche in history by becoming the first, and only, two-time winner of the Heisman; while Jim Stillwagon became the first person to win the Outland and Lombardi awards in the same year.

But the Ohio State program is more than just football. The men's basketball program has long been recognized nationally for its success, and in 1992 OSU's Jim Jackson was named National Player of the Year by United Press International. Last year, the women's basketball team became the first Big Ten team ever to advance to the Women's Final Four and play in the championship game. At season's end, freshman sensation Katie Smith was named to the Kodak All-America team, just the fourth freshman ever to be so honored.

Additionally, the Buckeyes claimed individual national championships in wrestling, men's track and synchronized swimming last year, won the national team title in synchronized swimming and sent 15 teams to various NCAA tournaments, with seven of those teams finishing in the top five nationally.

Each year more than 800 young men and women are afforded the opportunity to compete in college athletics in 32 different varsity sports. And each year, an already strong tradition simply grows stronger.

Academics at Ohio State

Athletes at Ohio State benefit from one of the finest academic support systems in the country.

Ohio State's Academic Counselors-Sitting: Larry Romanoff. Standing L-R: John Macko, Kate Riffe and Roxanne Price.

Under the direction of Assistant Athletics Director Larry Romanoff, a staff that features four full-time athletic counselors assists Ohio State students in all areas of academia, including study habits, time management, course selection and career guidance. Part of the former includes a daily study table, supervised by a counselor, which provides students a controlled environment in which to study and learn.

Each year, thanks in large part to the assistance of the counseling staff, Ohio State athletes distinguish themselves in the classroom.

In 1992, five Ohio State football players were named to the Big Ten's All-Academic team, a select squad that is comprised of starters, or key reserves, with a grade point average of 3.2 or better. Two of those honorees, offensive guard Lenny Hartman and nose guard Greg Smith, also were named to first-team berths on the CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-America football team, which requires a 3.2 accum. Ohio State, which now has a Big Ten best 26 Football Academic All-Americans, was the only school to have two first-team selections in 1992.

Smith enjoyed a tremendous year in 1992, also winning a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship for post-graduate work. A zoology major, Smith graduated at the end of winter quarter and has since been accepted into Ohio State's very prestigious medical school.

But the OSU athletic program includes a long list of distinguished scholars.

One of those is former flanker Mike Lanese, chosen as a Rhodes scholar in 1985. Another, tight end John Frank, was a Rhodes candidate, but chose instead to play professional football. He won two Super Bowl rings with the San Francisco Forty Niners and then returned to Ohio State to complete medical school. Currently, he is completing his residency at a hospital in Chicago.

Both Frank and Lanese were prior recipients of the National Football Foundation scholarship that Smith received last year. In all, Ohio State has had 14 athletes receive that honor, awarded annually to the top senior scholars in college football. No other Big Ten school has had as many.

But it is not just the top scholars who do well at Ohio State. Romanoff and his staff work with each and every athlete to design a program that will help that athlete receive a degree in a timely fashion.

There is no better example of that than last year's senior football class, which graduated 16 of its 17 members.

Academics are a high priority at Ohio State, and OSU's record of success is second to none.

About The University

A leader in higher education, The Ohio State University offers a dynamic environment for people seeking opportunity, academic enrichment, diversity and challenge.

Ohio State offers a worldwide classroom and attracts support for world-class research.

The Columbus campus—with a combined student, faculty and staff population of about 68,000—is the largest in the nation.

More than 97 percent of the regular faculty hold doctoral or professional degrees, and more than 13,600 of the University's 58,500 students are enrolled in graduate and professional programs.

Ohio State's faculty includes a Nobel Prize winner, members of the National Academy of Sciences, Guggenheim and Fulbright Fellows, Rhodes Scholars and editors of prestigious journals.

The student body includes more than 3,000 honors students, several hundred National Merit and National Achievement Scholars, and recipients of many other awards for scholarship, leadership and talent.

Ohio State's selective admissions policy is strengthening the overall academic quality of the undergraduate student body.

Faculty and students also work and study at regional campuses in Lima, Mansfield, Marion and Newark and at the Agricultural Technical Institute in Wooster. Specialized areas for research and study include the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center in Wooster with branches in a dozen counties and Stone Laboratory on Lake Erie's Gibraltar Island.

Founded as the Ohio Agricultural and Mechanical College in 1870, the University has 19 colleges and a graduate school.

Students may choose from more than 11,000 courses and select from nearly 200 undergraduate majors. A newly revised curriculum features courses in writing, data analysis, social diversity, and contemporary issues of broad and worldwide significance.

Ohio State also offers more than 100 master's and nearly 100 doctoral degree programs.

The many specialized programs include theater, polar studies, medieval and renaissance studies, human resources, women's studies, computer-aided design and Black studies.

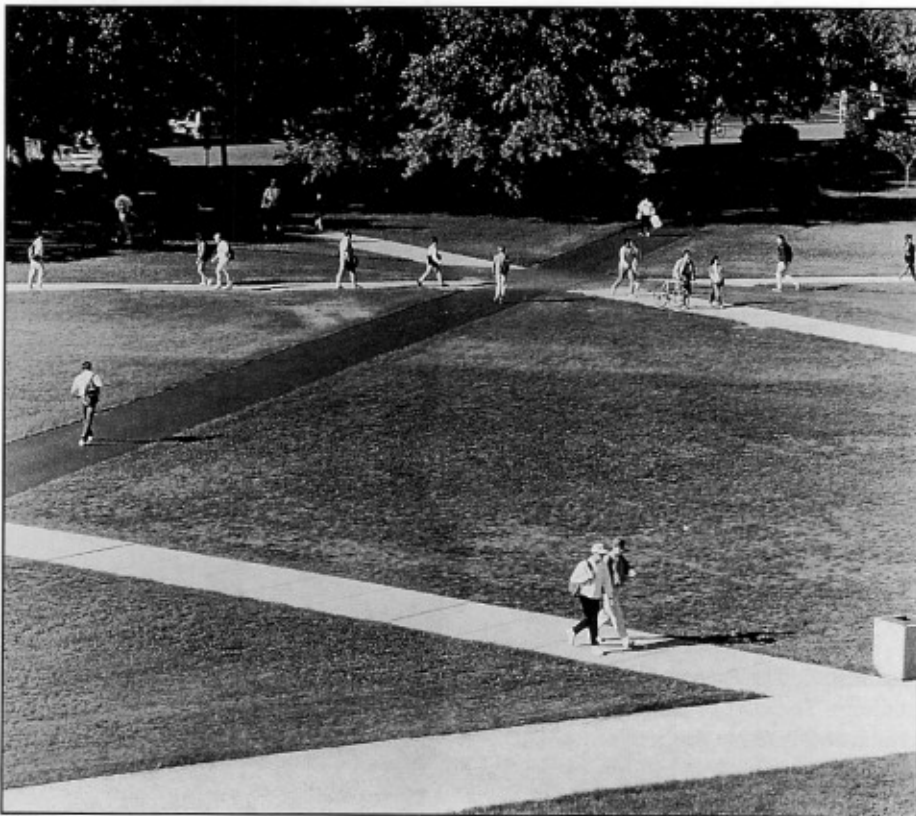

Students can enrich their education by using the 17th largest research library in North America; by experiencing film, the fine arts and music; and by participating in some of the more than 500 student organizations and about 120 club, intramural and intercollegiate sports programs.

At quarterly commencement exercises, college deans personally hand each graduate his or her diploma. Ohio State awards more than 10,000 degrees annually. More than 420,000 have been awarded since the first commencement in 1878.

Ohio State has increased its externally funded research support to more than $165 million a year. Among the many research facilities are the Ohio Supercomputer Center, the ElectroScience Laboratory, the Center for Human Resource Research and the Biomedical Engineering Center.

The knowledge and methods discovered and refined in the classrooms and laboratories are carried to the community in many ways through the work of alumni, faculty, staff and students.

The Oval

Ohio Stadium

Home of the Buckeyes

Stately Ohio Stadium is now in its 71st year as the home of the Buckeyes. Dedicated in 1922, the horseshoe-shaped structure is one of college football's most recognizable landmarks.

Over the years, more than 29 million spectators have filed through the Ohio Stadium archways to see the Buckeyes play. Last year, Ohio State drew 555,900, setting an OSU single season record for six home games. The previous year, Ohio State set a single season record for seven home games (654,500) and a single game mark (95,357 vs. Iowa).

Built at a cost of slightly more than $1 million and funded largely through private donations, the stadium had an original seating capacity of 66,210. Skeptics doubted that it would ever be filled, but those fears were dispelled on Oct. 21, 1922, when an overflow crowd of 71,385 attended the dedication game against Michigan.

Inevitably, expansion followed. With the addition of field and box seats, and later the south stands, the capacity of Ohio Stadium now stands at 91,470, making the giant horseshoe the fourth largest facility in college football. The latest addition was approximately 5,000 seats in the south stands, added prior to the 1991 season.

Various surfaces have been used to cover the Ohio Stadium floor. Between 1922 and 1970 it was natural grass. In 1971, thanks to the generosity of former OSU player Lou Fischer, Astro Turf was installed. In 1979, a second artificial carpet, this time Super Turf, was put down. Prior to the 1990 season, Prescription Athletic Turf was installed.

In 1984, a state-of-the-art scoreboard was installed in the south end of the stadium. The cost of the new board, which conforms to the architecture of the stadium, was $2.6 million, or nearly double the original cost of the stadium.

In addition to Ohio State football, Ohio Stadium has also served as host for Ohio High School state football playoffs and the Ohio Glory. It is also used for concerts, most recently Pink Floyd and Genesis.

Upkeep for the stadium is nearly $250,000 a year, but that is a small price to pay for one of the Grand Old Dames of college football.

Woody Hayes Athletic Center

The six-year-old Woody Hayes Athletic Center is one of the finest, most complete indoor football facilities of its kind in college athletics.

The indoor football field is 400 feet long, 220 feet wide and 65 feet high. It is covered with All-Pro Turf and has a 30-foot safety area on each side of the field. As an added safety feature, there are no pillars or posts inside the building.

The $10.6 million complex also features an 8,000-square-foot weight room that has the very latest in free weights and Nautilus equipment and is large enough to allow the entire team to lift at one time; a spacious training room, which has 12 taping stations, six treatment tables and five hydrotherapy stations; eight individual classrooms, which have complete audio-visual systems and are designed to give players a comfortable and practical atmosphere in which to learn; an auditorium for team meetings and for viewing films; a lounge area suitable for studying, and a locker room with 131 open-bay lockers. The total size of the building is 167,000 square feet.

The walls of the northern corridor and atrium are adorned with Ohio State history, including pictures of all past championship squads, head coaches, All-Americans and Academic All-Americans. The trophies on display at the building include many of the past bowl trophies and a number of individual honors, including the Heisman Trophies won by Les Horvath (1944), Vic Janowicz (1950), Howard "Hopalong" Cassady (1955) and Archie Griffin, the only two-time winner (1974 and '75).

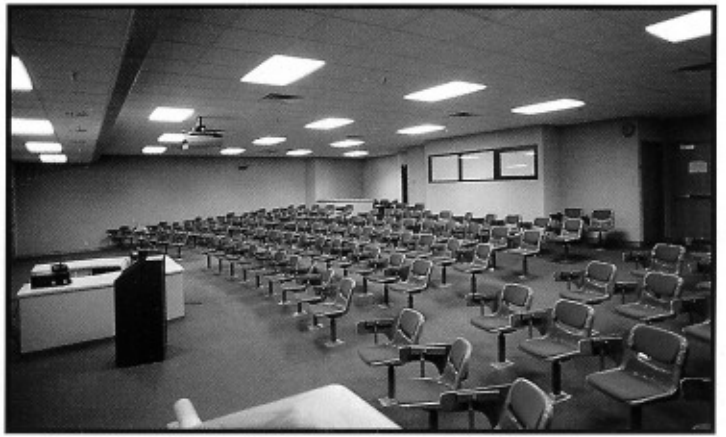

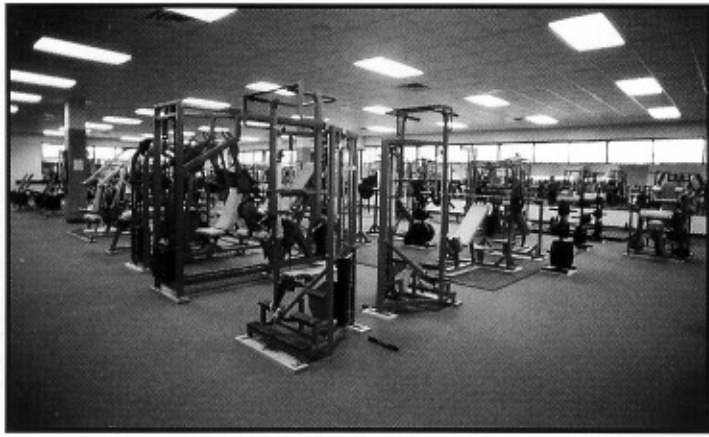

The Buckeyes work out indoors in the fall and spring during inclement weather.

The facility was dedicated in November of 1987 in memory of the late Woody Hayes, Ohio State's legendary football coach. Hayes coached the Buckeyes from 1951-78 and compiled a 205-61-10 record (.761 percentage), winning five national championships and 13 Big Ten titles and producing 56 first team All-Americans, three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees. Under Hayes, Ohio State played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls; four of his teams notched unbeaten records, with five others suffering just one loss, and the Buckeyes won a conference record 17 straight league games on two different occasions.

The Wall of Champions on the northern corridor features past OSU Big Ten and national championship teams.
