2011 Baseball

26-27 Overall

13-11 Big Ten Conference

The 128th season of Ohio State baseball and first under the direction of head coach Greg Beals was one of ups and downs that resulted in a fourth-place finish in the Big Ten and a berth in the Big Ten Conference tournament.

After a 7-10 start to the season through a rain-soaked, non-conference slate, the Buckeyes began to turn it on once they got back to Columbus. Ohio State went 13-11 in Big Ten play and 13-8 at home at Bill Davis Stadium.

After sweeping rival Michigan for the first time in Bill Davis Stadium history to move to 9-6 in Big Ten play, the Buckeyes dropped the next two series before travelling to Minnesota for a three-game set at Target Field with a spot in the Big Ten Tournament on the line. Due to a scheduling conflict, the series was changed from a typical three-day set to a doubleheader Thursday and single game Friday. In the first game, the Buckeyes came back to tie the game at 2-2 in the sixth but fell, 3-2, on an RBI single in the bottom of the ninth.

However, with their backs to the wall, the Buckeyes won game two, 5-1, behind a strong pitching performance from Brett McKinney and Theron Minium, Jared Strayer and Josh Dezse out of the bullpen. Then, after sitting through a Friday rainout and a Saturday rain delay, the Buckeyes played one of their best games of the season in a 3-0 must-win victory over Minnesota in game three. Greg Greve tossed a career-high eight shutout innings en route to the Buckeyes' first series win at Minnesota since 1949.

The two teams squared off four days later in the first game of the Big Ten Tournament, a 5-3 Ohio State victory, before the Buckeyes dropped a heartbreaking 5-4 decision to eventual Big Ten champion and No. 1 seed Illinois and bowed out of the Big Ten tournament the following day after a loss to the Golden Gophers.

After the strong first campaign under Beals, the awards for the Buckeyes began to roll in. Dezse earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors and senior Friday night starter Drew Rucinski garnered second team All-Big Ten laurels. Dezse, Greve and Tim Wetzel were named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team while Minium was the Buckeyes' sportsmanship award honoree.

Dezse, a four-time Big Ten Freshman of the Week and two-time Big Ten Player of the Week, became the 14th Ohio State Freshman All-American when Louisville Slugger and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association recognized him after batting .332 with 42 RBI and a team-high six saves.

One of the top arms in the Big Ten, Rucinski went 5-3 with a 2.95 ERA and a team-high 53 strikeouts in 82.1 innings pitched.

The baseball Buckeyes also did their job in the classroom, with 17 OSU Scholar-Athletes and 10 Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The Ohio State men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament "Sweet 16" in 2011 after claiming the outright 2010-11 Big Ten regular-season conference title (16-2 record) and capturing the postseason conference tournament championship. Overall, the Buckeyes put together a 34-3 campaign under Thad Matta, who finished his seventh season in Columbus. Matta's Buckeyes have reached at least 20 victories in each of his seasons as Ohio State's head coach. He has four conference titles to his credit and has reached postseason play in all six campaigns in which the Buckeyes were eligible. Five of his teams have competed for an NCAA title, three reaching the "Sweet 16" and one (2007) advancing to the title game. Freshman Jared Sullinger, a 2011 First Team All-American, led the way in 2010-11. He averaged 17.2 points, 10.2 rebounds and scored on 54 percent of his field goal attempts. He was a national player of the year candidate while earning national freshman of the year honors. Seniors Jon Diebler, David Lighty and Dallas Lauderdale all completed stellar careers with Diebler setting the Big Ten and Ohio State record with 374 career made 3-pointers, Lighty setting the Ohio State record with 129 career victories and Lauderdale finishing as one of Ohio State's all-time leading shot blockers. Diebler was selected with the 51st pick of the 2011 NBA Draft by the Portland Trail Blazers. All three earned their degrees as well.

NOTING THE 2010-11 SEASON

- The Buckeyes advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the second time in three years, falling to No. 1 seed Tennessee in the Dayton Regional, 85-75.
- Ohio State won a record-tying third consecutive Big Ten tournament championship
- Ohio State is 14-3 in its last 17 postseason games (9-0 at the Big Ten tournament and 5-3 in NCAA play)
- Jim Foster is now 34-25 all-time in the NCAA tournament in his career
- Jantel Lavender became the first men's or women's player to win Big Ten player of the year four consecutive years and also earned WBCA All-America honors for the third year in a row
- Junior Samantha Prahalis was named second (media) and third team (coaches) all-Big Ten
- Sophomore Taylor Hill was named to Big Ten all-defensive team
- Ashley Adams named to Big Ten all-freshman team
- Lavender was chosen 5th overall by the Los Angeles Sparks in April's WNBA Draft
- Lavender (2,818 points) became Ohio State's all-time leading scorer Feb. 13 at Minnesota, breaking Katie Smith's previous mark of 2,578 points
- Lavender set an NCAA record by scoring in double figures in 136 consecutive games -- every game of her career
- Prahalis led the Big Ten and ranked third in the nation with 6.9 assists per game
- Prahalis became Ohio State's all-time assists leader (707) with 11 in the win over No. 23 Penn State Feb. 17. She broke the old record of 643 held by Jamie Lewis. Prahalis did it in 93 career games, compared to Lewis' 643 in 117 games
- Prahalis is the fifth player in Big Ten history to record at least 700 assists and is the only Buckeye to record at least 1,000 points and 700 assists
- Ohio State recorded its ninth straight 20-win season under head coach Jim Foster, marking the 25th of Foster's career and 12th consecutive overall
- Ohio State has 193 wins over the last seven seasons, tied for the 9th most among NCAA Division I teams in that span.

- Ohio State is just one of nine Division I schools to win at least 20 games in each of the last nine seasons
- After going 8-8 combined in the months of December and January, the Buckeyes finished strong, going 6-1 in February and 5-1 in March and winning 11 of its last 12 overall
- Ohio State went 20-3 when scoring 70+ points and 14-0 when scoring at least 80. They were 4-7 when scoring less than 70
- Ohio State is 140-13 at home overall under Jim Foster and 113-9 since the start of 2004-05
- Ohio State shot a season-high 59.5 percent from the field in the NCAA win over Georgia Tech, including 63.6 in the second half
- Ohio State went 8-3 against ranked teams and 13-4 against teams that made the NCAA tournament
- OSU went 15-3 when Prahalis recorded 7 or more assists
- Adams tied an Ohio State NCAA tournament record with five blocked shots in the first round win over Georgia Tech
- Ohio State boasted the fourth-toughest schedule in the country according to RealtimeRPI.com
- Ohio State ranked second in the Big Ten with 74.1 points per game this year and first with 72.4 in Big Ten play
- Prahalis totaled 25 assists in three NCAA tournament games against UCF, Georgia Tech and Tennessee
- Prahalis recorded her first career triple-double with 13 points, 10 assists and 10 rebounds against Northwestern
- Brittany Johnson became the 29th player in school history to record 1,000 points in the win over UCF March 19
- Johnson hit five second-half 3FGs in the win at Purdue, including the game winner with 0.7 seconds remaining, and hit seven in the Big Ten tournament quarterfinal win over Iowa. She finished her career fourth on Ohio State's all-time list with 216 makes

The women's cross country team turned in another solid season under head coach Karen Dennis and distance coach Chris Neal.

The Buckeyes finished fourth at the NCAA Great Lakes regionals, with two top 10 finishers in freshman Meredith Wagner and senior Ellen Birmingham -- each of whom advanced to the NCAA championships.

At the Big Ten championships, Birmingham led the Buckeyes to a sixth-place finish while earning second team all-Big Ten honors.

As a team, Ohio State scored 162 points on the 6k course to bring home the squad's highest finish at the conference meet since 1988.

FENCING

The Ohio State fencing squad continued its dominance in 2011 as the team extended its streak of Top 5 finishes at the NCAA championships to 10 seasons with a fifth-place finish under the direction of 13th-year head coach Vladimir Nazlymov. Four Buckeyes were named All-Americans in the process, including freshman Katarzyna Dabrowa, sophomore Marco Canevari and juniors Margarita Tschomakova and Igor Tolkachev.

The Scarlet and Gray opened the season with a flawless 6-0 performance against varsity competition at the OSU Duals before traveling to New York for a pair of competitions. Ohio State finished with a 9-3 record at the New York University Invitational Jan. 22, including a 5-1 mark from the women, before battling to a 3-7 finish the following day against some of the top-ranked teams in the nation at the St. John's Invitational. The team closed out the regular season with a combined 12-0 performance at the Northwestern Duals Feb. 5-6. The Buckeye women notched a pair of 14-13 wins against Princeton and Temple and an 18-9 victory over the hosting Wildcats at the event.

Following a title-winning performance from the OSU men's epee squad of Tolkachev, Canevari and Kristian Boyadzhiev at the 2011 U.S. Collegiate Squad Championships Feb. 27, four Buckeyes earned gold medals in individual competition at the Midwest Fencing Conference Championships, including a sweep of men's events. Zain Shaito, Daniel Tafoya and Rhys Douglas proved to be the best in men's foil, epee and sabre, while Tschomakova earned first place in women's sabre. However, the hosting Notre Dame Fighting Irish again submitted an impressive performance in team competition, besting the Buckeyes by 100 points or fewer for the second consecutive year.

Ohio State then qualified the maximum 12 fencers for the 2011 NCAA Championships, highlighted by first-place finishes in regional qualifying by Canevari and Dabrowa. Serving as hosts for the competition, the Buckeyes turned in a brilliant performance in men's epee, which picked up 30 points for the team. Canevari tied for third with 16 wins while Tolkachev notched another 14 in a fifth-place performance. Shaito and Samuel Hardwicke-Brown earned 17 points combined in men's foil competition, while Rhys Douglas and Michael Douville added 18 in men's sabre.

In the women's competition, Dabrowa and classmate Caroline Piasecka totaled 30 points, second to only Notre Dame's 31 in women's epee. Dabrowa punched her ticket to the event's final four with 19 wins in pool play, but couldn't knock off eventual champion Courtney Hurley of Notre Dame in the semifinal bout. Tschomakova missed the final four of women's sabre by a single win after posting 16 victories in pool play. The junior combined with Alison Miller to claim 26 victories for the Buckeyes in sabre. Four-time NCAA participant Oksana Dmytruk capped her collegiate career with 13 victories in women's foil, one short of teammate Allison Henvick's mark of 14 wins.

FIELD HOCKEY

The 2010 Ohio State field hockey team accomplished feats no other Buckeye team had done before in its 40th season as a varsity sport. Highlighted by its first NCAA Final Four appearance in program history, the Buckeyes broke multiple single-season records, including most wins (18), points (213), goals (71) and assists (71) to go along with a Big Ten regular season co-championship.

With a 3-0 win at Iowa, the Buckeyes clinched a share of its third Big Ten title in program history – all under the direction of 15th-year head coach Anne Wilkinson. In its sixth appearance in the tournament, the team's road to the NCAA semifinals was filled with all sorts of excitement, including two overtime victories over Albany and No. 4-seed Syracuse. Despite falling to eventual national champion Maryland, 3-1, the trip itself was both a major accomplishment for the team and the program.

The Buckeyes, 18-5 overall, recorded 213 points (9.26 per game) offensively, the most by an OSU squad, on a program-high 71 goals and 71 assists. First Team All-American Aisling Coyle led the Buckeyes with 55 points on 24 goals, including seven game-winners, and seven assists. Third Team NFHCA All-American Queralto was second in scoring with 47 points (10g, 27a), including an OSU single-season record 27 assists while seniors Jena Cacciatore (13 g, 2a) and Aisling McKeon (4g, 20a) were tied for third with 28 points – both career highs.

On the opposite of the field, the Ohio State defense recorded a league-high seven shutouts, which all were credited to junior goalkeeper Ally Tunitis. The Buckeye backfield recorded a total of conference-high 10 defensive saves, with junior Jenn Sciuilli leading the way with eight, and limited opponents to just 8.1 shots and 1.26 goals per game. The team goals-against average of 1.22 is the second-lowest average for a Buckeye team.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

Ohio State earned an at-large bid into the national tournament after winning the Big Ten regular-season title with Michigan with a matching 5-1 mark in conference play.

In the program's fifth trip to the NCAA tournament under head coach Anne Wilkinson, the 2010 campaign marked the second time in program history the Buckeyes have made back-to-back appearances in the tournament after first doing so in 2005 and 2006. The Scarlet and Gray traveled to State College, Pa., for the first and second rounds of the tournament.

In the first match-up vs. Albany, the team rallied from a 1-0 deficit in the final two minutes of regulation against the Great Danes to eventually win in overtime, 2-1. Big Ten Freshman of the Year Paula Pastor-Pitarque scored both goals during the comeback, sending the game into overtime before posting the game-winner – her first clinching goal as a Buckeye.

In the second-round matchup vs. Syracuse, junior co-captain Aisling Coyle punched the Buckeyes' ticket to the NCAA Final Four after converting a penalty stroke at 76:08 with a quick shot to the back right corner of the cage. It was her second goal of the afternoon after scoring the game-tying goal with 12 minutes left in the second half.

The NCAA Final Four took place in College Park, Md., where the Buckeyes faced No. 1 seed Maryland on its home turf under the lights. Ohio State opened the scoring with a goal in the first five minutes of the game when Jena Cacciatore knocked in an unassisted goal, but the Terrapins rallied with three goals in front of the large crowd of 1,526 fans to advance to the national championship game. Coyle and Pastor-Pitarque were named to the 2010 NCAA All-Tournament Team, becoming the first OSU members to be named to the list.

THE ALL-AMERICANS

Junior co-captain Aisling Coyle earned NFCHA First Team All-American honors, while sophomore Berta Queralto clinched her second-consecutive NFCHA Third Team All-American laurel.

As the seventh Buckeye in program history to be named a first team honoree, Coyle anchored an Ohio State backfield that limited opponents to 1.26 goals, 4.1 penalty corners and 8.1 shots per game. Coyle had a big season offensively as well. She led the team with a career high 24 goals and 55 points through 23 games. She more than doubled her career goal total after entering her junior campaign with 11.

With the award Coyle became the sixth first-team and 20th overall Buckeye All-American under 15th-year head coach Anne Wilkinson. Overall, Ohio State has had at least one All-American each year since 1999 – a span of 12-consecutive seasons.

Queralto became the first Buckeye to garner back-to-back third team All American awards since Saskia Mueller accomplished the feat in 2004 and 2005, respectively. Her offensive talents was seen in every game as she tallied 47 points in 2010, becoming the second player in Buckeye history to have at least 46 points in back-to-back seasons after Britta Eickhoff recorded 67 points and 49 points during the 1996 and 1997 campaigns, respectively. The native of Barcelona, Spain, broke the OSU single-season assists record by seven with 27 helpers in 2010.

The pair also earned spots on the womensfieldhockey.com All-American list, with Coyle taking first team honors while Queralto took second team. Buckeye back Jenn Sciuilli was awarded third team honors.

BIG TEN RECAP

The Buckeyes were named Big Ten regular season co-champions with Michigan after defeating Iowa, 3-0, Oct. 30 in Iowa City. Ohio State and the Wolverines finished the year tied at the top of the standings with 5-1 records. Ohio State previously won the conference regular season championship two times (co-2001 and 2006). All three titles have come under the direction of head coach Anne Wilkinson.

With the No. 1 seed in the tournament held in Evanston, Ill., Ohio State advanced to the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament for the third time in program history after defeating Michigan State, 2-0, Nov. 5 in the semifinal game. However, Ohio State fell, 2-1, to No. 2-seed Michigan in the championship final Nov. 7. Aisling Coyle and Paula Pastor-Pitarque were named to the 2010 Big Ten All-Tournament Team.

BIG TEN FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

For the second year consecutive year an Ohio State student-athlete garnered the Big Ten Freshman of the Year award. Freshman Paula Pastor-Pitarque followed teammate and countrywoman Berta Queralto with the honor. Pastor-Pitarque, a native of Barcelona, Spain, was an important component for the Buckeye attack throughout the season earning the rookie of the week honor two times (Oct. 4 and Oct. 25).

A second team All-Big Ten selection, Pastor-Pitarque guided Buckeyes to the NCAA semifinal after coming through in the clutch during the first and second rounds in State College, Pa. In the two overtime wins against Albany and Syracuse, the Buckeye rookie notched five points on two goals and an assist. Her play throughout the tournament also helped land her a spot on the NCAA All-Tournament Team, along with teammate Aisling Coyle.

BIG TEN DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

With the recognition as the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year midfielder Aisling Coyle became the first Buckeye in program history to win the top defensive award. Though receiving much attention for her offensive success in 2010, Coyle has been a mainstay in the Buckeye backfield. She led a consistent Buckeye defense that limited opponents to an average of 1.26 goals, 8.1 shots and seven shut outs this season.

DOMINATING THE WEST

Ohio State had six members recognized as All-West Region selections this season. Junior Aisling Coyle and sophomore Berta Queralto were selected as first team honorees while seniors Jena Cacciatore and Aisling McKeon made the second team. Also earning awards within the region was head coach Anne Wilkinson, who was named the West Region Coach of the Year and Coyle picked up Player of the Year honors.

The selection serves as the second consecutive year both Coyle and Queralto have been received a First Team nod, and also marks Coyle's third year as an All-Region member. It is the first All-Region honor for the senior pair of Cacciatore and McKeon who both recorded career highs in points with 28 each.

ALL-BIG TEN

Aisling Coyle and Berta Queralto were selected first team All-Big Ten honorees, while Aisling McKeon and Jenn Sciuilli and Paula-Pastor Pitarque were named to the second team. Senior back Bri Doak was Ohio State's Sportsmanship Award honoree.

Coyle has earned first team honors in back-to-back seasons with the Scarlet and Gray after claiming second team All-Big Ten honors in 2008 as a redshirt freshman. Queralto also received first team honors in back-to-back seasons, tallying more than 40 points in both 2009 and 2010 for the Buckeyes.

After picking up three Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors over the course of the season, Sciuilli received her first All-Big Ten selection of her career. McKeon also picked up her first conference honor with the selection after recording career highs in both assists (20) and points (28). Pastor-Pitarque led all Buckeye rookies with 26 points (9g, 8a), fifth most overall.

A senior co-captain, Doak became the Buckeyes' all-time games played and games started record holder with 82 contests in her career.

TEN SELECTED TO NATIONAL ACADEMIC SQUAD

Ten members of the Ohio State field hockey team were named to the 2010 Gladiator by SGI/ NFHCA Division I NFHCA National Academic Squad, the National Field Hockey Coaches Association.

The award was presented to freshmen Arielle Cowie, Susan Dappen, Kaitie Kirchner, Nora Murer, Nina Passen, Paula Pastor-Pitarque and Maria Swartz, while sophomores Danica Deckard, Laura Napolitano and Berta Queralto were honored.

As a team, the Buckeyes were also selected by the NFHCA as one of 57 teams in the nation to carry a team grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher in 2010. This is the fifth-consecutive season the Buckeyes have been on the list compiled annually by the NFHCA.

ACADEMIC ALL-BIG TEN

A total of seven Buckeyes were named Academic All-Big Ten honorees this fall. To be eligible for an Academic All-Big Ten selection, a student-athlete must be a letterwinner in at least their second academic year and carry a GPA of 3.0 or better.

Senior Bri Doak earned her third Academic All-Big Ten honor while fellow senior Aisling McKeon, picked up her second. Also recording their second honor was Jenn Sciuilli and Ally Tunitis. Sophomores Danica Deckard, Laura Napolitano and Berta Queralto all were first time recipients.

FOOTBALL

NOTE: The 2010 Ohio State football season was vacated in July by The Ohio State University

Predicted in the preseason as a strong contender for a championship run, the 2010 Buckeyes opened the campaign with a No. 2 national ranking and the Big Ten favorite moniker. Coming off an exciting Rose Bowl victory over Oregon and returning 15 starters (nine on offense, six on defense), Ohio State began the season with a rare Thursday night game at Ohio Stadium, hosting Marshall.

Quarterback Terrelle Pryor threw for 247 yards and three touchdowns while Brandon Saine led a balanced rushing attack with 103 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the convincing 45-7 OSU victory. Dane Sanzenbacher and DeVier Posey combined to haul in seven catches for 154 yards and three touchdowns, while the Buckeyes defense held Marshall to 199 yards of total offense.

The next week featured a rematch of the 2002 national championship game, with the Buckeyes knocking off No. 12 Miami 36-24 at Ohio Stadium. Pryor threw for 233 yards and rushed for 113 more while scoring a pair of touchdowns (one passing, one rushing) and kicker Devin Barclay tied an Ohio State record with five made field goals in the win. Chimdi Chekwa picked off a pair of Hurricane passes and Cameron Heyward had an 80-yard interception return on Miami's first drive of the second half that led to a Pryor touchdown run, giving the Buckeyes a commanding 33-17 lead they did not relinquish.

Pryor completed 22-29 passes for 235 yards as Ohio State defeated Ohio 43-7 at Ohio Stadium; the junior connected on a school-record 16-consecutive passes at one point in the first half. The Buckeye defense limited the Bobcats to 158 yards of total offense and just seven first downs, forcing five Ohio turnovers.

In a fourth consecutive home game, facing Eastern Michigan, Sanzenbacher tied an OSU record with four receiving touchdowns as the Buckeyes scored the most points since 1950 in a 73-20 win. The senior co-captain caught nine passes for 108 yards and Pryor completed 20-26 passes for 224 yards and the four TDs to Sanzenbacher. Pryor also ran for 104 yards and caught a touchdown pass from high school teammate Jordan Hall. Jaamal Berry, Dan Herron and Kenny Guiton each had a touchdown on the ground and Hall added a receiving touchdown.

Beginning Big Ten play on the road, Ohio State improved to 5-0 with a 24-13 win at blustery Illinois. The Buckeyes trailed twice in the first half but responded with touchdown passes from Pryor to Saine and Sanzenbacher to recapture the lead while holding the Illini to 251 yards of total offense. After an Illinois 30-yard field goal cut the Ohio State lead to 17-13 with 4:36 remaining in the game, the Buckeyes answered with a six-play, 53-yard drive capped by a six-yard Herron touchdown run to seal the victory.

In the conference home opener, Pryor threw for a career-high 334 yards as Ohio State rolled past Indiana 38-10. Devon Torrence and Brian Rolle picked off Indiana passes as the Buckeye defense held the Hoosiers, who came into the game with the nation's fourth-best passing attack at almost 350 yards per game, to just 41 yards through the air.

After claiming the No. 1 spot in the polls, Ohio State traveled to Wisconsin and suffered its first loss of the season, 31-18. After the Badgers took a 21-3 advantage into the half, Ohio State responded with a pair of Herron touchdown runs to cut the lead to 21-18 with 11:38 remaining in the game. But Wisconsin had the answer with a TD run and a late field goal to hand the Buckeyes their first loss. Herron carried the ball 19 times for 91 yards and Sanzenbacher caught six passes for 94 yards.

Ohio State bounced back from the loss to shut out Purdue 49-0 at Ohio Stadium. The Buckeyes put up 415 offensive yards while limiting the Boilermakers to 44 yards en route to building a 42-0 halftime lead. Pryor completed 16-22 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns, while Herron had two touchdown rushes.

On Ohio State's trip to Minnesota's new stadium, Pryor threw for 222 yards and two scores and Herron rushed for 114 yards and a touchdown in just a half of play as the Buckeyes prevailed 52-10. Posey had six catches for 115 yards and a touchdown and John Simon had a 30-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown. The Buckeyes gained 507 yards of total offense and forced three Gopher TOs while limiting Minnesota to just 232 yards.

After an open date, the tough November schedule began at home, as No. 9 Ohio State came back from an 11-point halftime deficit to score 35 unanswered points in the second half en route to a 38-14 win over Penn State. Herron rushed for a career-high 190 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries; Torrence and Travis Howard each had second-half interception returns for TDs.

The next week, No. 9 Ohio State rallied to edge No. 20 Iowa 20-17 in a titanic tussle at Kinnick Stadium. Facing a 17-13 deficit and a fourth-and-10 with just over four minutes remaining, Pryor scrambled for 14 yards and a first down to keep the drive alive. The QB then found Sanzenbacher for 24 yards to set up Herron's game-winning touchdown run with 1:47 left. Pryor threw for 195 yards and a touchdown and ran for another 78, while Herron gained 69 yards on the ground. A Heyward 11-yard sack of Iowa QB Ricky Stanzi on third down set up the game-winning drive. With a share of a sixth consecutive Big Ten title on the line, No. 8 Ohio State clinched its portion of the championship recording a seventh-consecutive win over Michigan, 37-7. Pryor threw for 220 yards and two touchdowns and Sanzenbacher and Posey combined for eight receptions for 153 and two touchdowns. Herron ran for a game-high 175 yards and a touchdown, while Jordan Hall had an 85-yard kickoff return to give the Buckeyes a 17-7 lead midway through the second quarter. The Buckeyes forced three Michigan turnovers, including fumble recoveries by Ross Homan and Orhian Johnson and a Howard interception.

Earning a Sugar Bowl berth against Arkansas (OSU's sixth consecutive BCS game), No. 6 Ohio State took a 28-10 lead into halftime and held off a furious comeback to top No. 8 Arkansas 31-26. Sugar Bowl MVP Pryor recorded 336 yards of total offense and threw for two touchdowns. Herron rushed for 87 yards and a score and Posey and Sanzenbacher each had a touchdown reception. After Ohio State had a punt blocked deep in its own territory with a five-point lead and just over a minute remaining in the game, Solomon Thomas dropped back into coverage and picked off a Ryan Mallett pass to seal the victory; Dexter Larimore, Heyward and Simon each recorded sacks for the Buckeye defense.

Sanzenbacher was voted team MVP and most inspirational player for the 12-1 Buckeyes, who finished ranked fifth in the final polls. Eleven Ohio State players – Mike Adams, Barclay, Justin Boren, Mike Brewster, Chekwa, Herron, Heyward, Hines, Ross Homan, Rolle, Sanzenbacher – earned all-Big Ten recognition and Pryor was a finalist for the Big Ten Silver Football. Chekwa and Brewster also received first team All-America accolades. The 2010 seniors finished with 44 career wins, tying the record as the winningest Buckeye class ever.

ALL-BIG TEN

Ten student-athletes from the six-time defending Big Ten champion Ohio State Buckeyes, including seven seniors, were named 2010 first-team all-Big Ten Conference. First-team all-Big Ten Buckeyes as selected by both the coaches and the media are defensive lineman Cameron Heyward, receiver Dane Sanzenbacher, linebacker Brian Rolle, cornerback Chimdi Chekwa and offensive tackle tackle Mike Adams. Those Buckeyes named first-team all-Big Ten by the coaches include running back Dan “Boom” Herron, linebacker Ross Homan and safety Jermale Hines. Additional first-team media choices were offensive guard Justin Boren and center Mike Brewster.

The first-team honors, which boost Ohio State’s total to 361 all-time first-team honorees, are the first for all of the Buckeyes except for Boren, who was also chosen last season by the media. The 10 accolades ties five other Ohio State teams for third on the school’s all-time lists of most all-Big Ten selections. The 1969 team and the 1975 team each had 11 first-teamers.

Kicker Devin Barclay was a second-team selection by the conference media. Buckeyes picking up honorable mention honors on both the coaches and the media ballots were quarterback Terrelle Pryor, receiver DeVier Posey and defensive lineman John Simon. Senior offensive guard Bryant Browning was chosen as Ohio State’s Sportsmanship Award honoree.

NOTES

- Ohio State has played in nine BCS bowls, most of any school nationally
- Ohio State is the first team in Big Ten history to win at least 10 games in six consecutive seasons
- Ohio State led the Big Ten in every defensive category in 2010
- OSU finished No. 5 in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls for the second straight season
- OSU is the only team ranked in the Top 10 of both the final polls and also the APR rankings
- Ohio State has won 44 of its last 49 Big Ten games
- Ohio State has won at least 12 games in three different seasons under Tressel, going 14-0 in 2002 and 12-1 in both 2006 and 2010

DID YOU KNOW?

Since joining the Big Ten in 1913, Ohio State is 463-191-28 all-time in Big Ten games. The Buckeyes’ all-time conference win percentage of 69.9% is the best of any Big Ten school.

THE POSTSEASON

With its 31-26 Allstate Sugar Bowl win over Arkansas, Ohio State has a 20-22 record in bowl games, dating back to the 1921 Rose Bowl, where the Buckeyes were defeated 28-0 by California. The Buckeyes have appeared in 11 different bowl games during their storied history.

The Buckeyes are 6-3 in nine BCS game appearances (the most BCS bids of any school nationally). Ohio State holds a 16-19 record in bowl games played on New Year’s Day or later. Under Jim Tressel, Ohio State is 6-4 in bowl games.

Ohio State earned a share of the 2010 Big Ten championship, marking the sixth season in a row that the Buckeyes have earned a Big Ten title, and the 35th Big Ten football title overall for Ohio State. The previous record for most consecutive Big Ten titles by Ohio State is six, from 1972-77.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Twenty-four seniors finished their careers tied for the winningest senior class in Ohio State history, with 44 victories. They are: Devin Barclay, Justin Boren, Bryant Browning, Chimdi Chekwa, Ricky Crawford, Aaron Gant, Cameron Heyward, Jermale Hines, Ross Homan, Garrett Hummel, Josh Kerr, Dexter Larimore, Chris Malone, Don Matheney, Jake McQuaide, Andrew Miller, Brian Rolle, Brandon Saine, Dane Sanzenbacher, Grant Schwartz, Scott Sika, Connor Smith, Devon Torrence and Taurian Washington.

These seniors held a record of 44-8 (84.6%) overall. There have been 13 Ohio State senior classes that have won 40 or more games, including the 2010 Buckeyes.

MEN'S GOLF

Under the direction of second-year head coach Donnie Darr, the Ohio State men's golf team carded one of its best seasons in the last 10 years as the Buckeyes concluded the season at the 2011 NCAA Championships. The Scarlet and Gray posted a 121-50-0 tournament record while capturing two tournament titles during the regular season.

Leading the squad was a trio of seniors in Bo Hoag, Brad Smith and Michael Cress. Hoag and Smith were the only two Buckeyes to play in all 13 events and the pair finished tied for first on the team with a 72.63 stroke average. Cress had the third-best stroke average of 73.46 in 10 events. Smith recorded a team-best eight rounds in the 60s with Hoag tallying a team-high 12 rounds under par.

Ohio State opened the 2010-11 slate with a first-place finish at the Marshall Invitational (Sept. 13-14) and was led by sophomore Jamie Sindelar, who finished tied for second with an 11-under 202. The Buckeyes took seventh at the Olympia Fields/Fighting Illini Invitational (Sept. 17-19) before grabbing runner-up honors at the Windon Memorial (Sept. 26-27). Hoag had an impressive performance in the tournament as he fired a season-low, 18-hole score of 64 in the final round to finish second with a 4-under 209. The Buckeyes concluded the fall with a pair of eighth-place finishes at the Jack Nicklaus Invitational (Oct. 11-12) and the Isleworth Collegiate Invitational (Oct. 24-26).

The spring portion of the schedule got off on the right foot as Ohio State finished third at the Big Ten Match Play Championship (Feb. 11-12). Following a tough Puerto Rico Classic (Feb. 20-22), the Buckeyes bounced back to capture their second tournament title of the season, winning the FAU Spring Break Championship (March 25-27). Highlighting the tournament win was the play of Smith, who earned his first-career tournament win with an 8-under 208. After playing only two rounds at the rain-soaked Illini Spring Classic (April 16-17), Ohio State hosted its annual Robert Kepler Intercollegiate and finished third overall (April 23-24).

The Buckeyes headed to the Big Ten Championships April 29-May 1 and came away with a fourth-place finish in West Lafayette, Ind. The squad was then sent to the NCAA West Regional tournament in San Diego to compete for a spot at the NCAA Championships. After a rough first round, Ohio State fired a 9-under on day two and finished the tournament in fourth to advance. Cress put together the best performance of his career as he finished tied for fourth with a 5-under 211. The Buckeyes kept the momentum going into the NCAA Championships and carded a sixth-place finish after stroke play to move on to the match play portion. There, the Scarlet and Gray fell in the opening round to host Oklahoma State by a score of 1-3-1.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Competing in 13 events including the NCAA championships, the Ohio State women's golf team concluded the 2010-11 season with an overall mark of 120-83. Carding six Top 5 finishes, the Scarlet and Gray finished the year in the No. 30 slot of the Golfweek/Sagarin ratings.

The Buckeyes opened the fall slate with a second-place finish at the Branch Law Firm/Dick McGuire Invitational Sept. 17-18 in Albuquerque, N.M. Leading the charge was sophomore co-captain Rachel Rohanna who tallied a career-low 7-under 212 en route to a runner-up finish. From there, the Buckeyes would maintain their momentum with back-to-back third-place finishes at the William K. Warren Irish Invitational (Oct. 2-3) and Lady Northern Invitational (Oct. 11-12) before concluding fall play in ninth at the Landfall Tradition (Oct. 22-24).

Teeing off against current and former LPGA professionals, that Buckeyes had the opportunity to dust off the cobwebs with an alumni match-up in West Palm Beach, Fla., before hosting their own 16th-Annual Northrop Grumman Regional Challenge Feb. 14-16 in Palos Verdes, Calif. Concluding the competitive tournament in ninth, the Buckeyes continued to improve at the Central District Invitational (Feb. 21-22) and SunTrust Gator Women's Golf Invitational (March 6-7) with seventh and third-place finishes, respectively.

Spending time in the south, the squad was eighth at the Bryan National Collegiate (March 25-27) in Greensboro, N.C., before facing a quick turnaround and heading to Athens, Ga., for the Liz Murphey Collegiate Classic where the Buckeyes were 16th. Led by Rohanna and junior Vicky Villanueva who tied for 13th, the pair led the Buckeyes to a fourth-place finish at their own Lady Buckeye Spring Invitational April 16-17 to wrap the regular-season schedule.

In the postseason, Ohio State carded a fifth-place finish at the Big Ten Championships led by a trio of Buckeyes who tied for 11th. For their performance, Rohanna and Villanueva earned Second Team All-Big Ten accolades, while senior co-captain In Hong Lim received the 2011 Sportsmanship Award. Making their 17th-consecutive regional appearance, the Buckeyes earned a slot on the NCAA Championship lineup when they finished sixth in the 24-team field led by Rohanna who was an All-Regional Team selection after tying for eighth. At nationals, Ohio State capped its season with a 21st-place finish amongst the nation's best.

For her efforts throughout the season, Villanueva was selected as the Ohio State Player of the Year and the Most Improved Player. The Chacabuco, Argentina, native also posted the squad's lowest stroke-average with a 75.68 through 38 rounds. Rohanna and sophomore Amy Meier were recipients of the Go Bucks Award, while Meier, Villanueva, Rohanna, Lim, Nara Shin and Susana Benavides were Ohio State scholar-athletes.

MEN'S GYMNASTICS

After opening the season ranked sixth in the preseason coaches' poll, Ohio State, under the guidance of interim co-head coaches Doug Stibel and Blaine Wilson, stayed in the Top 10 in the 2011 GymInfo national poll for the majority of the season, while finishing in the Top 3 at the Big Ten Championships.

Strong leadership from the upperclassmen as well as rising talent from the underclassmen helped the Buckeyes conclude the 2011 campaign with its highest mark in their final competition of the season at the NCAA Qualifier in Columbus. Ohio State had a strong showing at the 2011 Big Ten Championships in Champaign, Ill., with a third-place finish before hosting the 2011 NCAA Championships at St. John Arena.

In 2011, senior co-captain Brandon Wynn highlighted the Buckeyes' season with his second-consecutive NCAA title on rings – becoming just the second OSU student-athlete in program history to accomplish such feat. Wynn, a six-time All-American, completed his Buckeye career winning 22-consecutive rings events – a stretch that began in September of 2009. The native of Voorhees, N.J., claimed the 26th national championship in program history and the fourth crown on the rings event.

THE ALL-AMERICANS

Highlighted by senior co-captain Brandon Wynn's national title on rings, Ohio State had a tremendous night at the 2011 NCAA Individual Championships April 16 in St. John Arena. The hosts of the NCAA championships saw all four qualifiers in Wynn, junior Ty Echard, Kris Done and Jeff Treleaven earn All-America honors. In all, the seven All-America honors tied the second-best single-season performance in program history and the most laurels since the 2005 campaign.

Wynn, who won his second career championship with a 16.100 - .600 points better than the rest of the field, joined former Buckeye and U.S. Olympian Blaine Wilson as the only two OSU gymnasts to win back-to-back NCAA rings titles. The 2011 Nissen-Emery Finalist also excelled on high bar and parallel bars, finishing eight on both events with a 14.450 and 14.250, respectively. Wynn became the first Buckeye to collect six career All-America honors since former Buckeye DJ Bucher (2005-08). During the all-around championships April 14, Wynn notched an 89.350 to tie for fifth overall in the elite competition.

After staring down the pommel, Echard delivered a clean routine the judges awarded a 15.250. His score was good for third at the championships, making him a two-time All-American. Echard concluded his junior season with 10 Top 3 finishes on the event.

Done earned his first career All-America honor, scoring a 15.000 on high bar for fifth place overall. The talented freshman joined Treleaven as the first Buckeye rookies to earn All-America status since Steven Spencer in 2009. Done is the 13th Buckeye in program history to be named an All-American on high bar.

Treleaven, a native of Glen Ellyn, Ill., also earned his first career All-American honor, notching a 16.100 score on vault for third place. The Buckeye freshman wrapped up his first season in the Scarlet and Gray with eight Top 3 finishes on the event and is the 18th All-America honor on vault in program history.

THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

Ranked seventh in the nation, Ohio State was selected to the 2011 NCAA Men's Gymnastics National Qualifier in Columbus. Although the Scarlet and Gray fell short to qualify for its third-consecutive NCAA championships, the team scored a season-high 353.750 for fourth place overall behind Stanford (366.100), California (361.800) and Michigan (360.650). Stanford claimed the 100th NCAA title in school history with a 363.450 followed by Oklahoma (361.600) and Illinois (360.150) in the team championship finals April 15.

NABBING THE BIG TEN HARDWARE

Ohio State gymnasts like collecting the hardware and did so as the team combined for five individual Big Ten medals April 3 at Huff Hall in Champaign, Ill.

For the second-consecutive season, Brandon Wynn continued to show his dominance on the rings event as the senior co-captain earned his second career Big Ten title, recording a meet-high 16.100 to become the first Buckeye in program history to win the rings conference title in back-to-back seasons.

Joining Wynn on the podium was junior Mike Behles, who claimed his first-career Big Ten title on vault, sharing the crown with Zach Chase of Minnesota with a 16.250. Behles is the first Buckeye to earn the conference title on vault since former Buckeye Daren Lynch shared the title during the 2000 campaign.

Freshman Kris Done, a native of Auckland, New Zealand, represented the Scarlet and Gray on vault, parallel bars and high bar. Highlighting his evening competition was on high bar where the Buckeye rookie claimed his second Big Ten medal of the championships with a second-place mark of 14.800. Lancaster, Ohio, native, junior Ty Echard received the second Big Ten medal of his career, taking second on pommel horse for the second-consecutive season. The Buckeye junior claimed a 15.450. He holds the Ohio State program record with a score of 15.700 set in 2010 vs. Michigan. Freshman Jeff Treleaven also had a night to remember as he claimed his first career Big Ten medal, taking second on floor exercise with a 14.950 score - .050 points off his season-high set in a tri-meet at UIC March 6. The Buckeye rookie then claimed his second Big Ten medal of the evening, tying for third on vault with a 16.200 score.

For Ohio State, Wynn earned his third-career first team All-Big Ten honor, while Behles was named a first team honoree for the first time in his career. Also claiming first team laurels Done, who placed second overall in the all-around competition Friday night in the team championships. Echard and Treleaven were named to the second team All-Big Ten list, while Done was the Buckeyes' Sportsmanship honoree.

2011 NISSEN-EMERY FINALIST

Brandon Wynn was named a 2011 Nissen-Emery Award Finalist by the College Gymnastics Association in 2011 - a prestigious award given to the nation's top senior male gymnast.

Wynn, a two-time Big Ten and NCAA champion, continued his dominance for the Buckeyes on the event, winning nine titles in 2011, including a program record 16.300 at NCAA Qualifier April 14 in Columbus. The native of Voorhees, N.J., and product of Will-Moor School of Gymnastics did not lost on the event since September 2009, winning the rings event 22-consecutive times (25 overall).

Wynn had a summer to remember in 2010 after claiming the rings national title at the VISA Championships in Hartford, Conn. He won the event with a two-day total of 32.250, becoming the first Buckeye to take the rings title since two-time Olympian Raj Bhavsar won the event at the 2004 championships. In the all-around competition, Wynn finished third overall - the highest mark by an active NCAA student-athlete - with a combined total of 178.700, including a career-high 90.000 (program record) in the all-around during the finals.

With his performance, Wynn was named to his second U.S. national team and his first U.S. World Team, earning one of six spots to represent his country at the 2010 World Championships last fall in Rotterdam, Netherlands. The two-time first team CGA Academic All-America Scholar Athlete, Wynn finished 10th overall on rings in the elite world competition - the highest place by a U.S. member.

WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

The young but talented Ohio State women's gymnastics team completed its 2011 campaign with a third-place finish at the 2011 NCAA regional championships in Ann Arbor, Mich., with a 195.350. Under the direction of seventh-year head coach Carey Fagan, the Buckeyes posted a 4-3-1 record, 2-1-1 in the Big Ten.

The Buckeyes' team scores continued to improve as the season went on with Ohio State moving to as high as 13th in the national rankings and finishing 16th in the country.

Senior co-captain Rebecca Best qualified for the NCAA Championships with a career-high 9.900 to take the beam title at the Ann Arbor regional. The trip to the NCAA Championships was the third for Best. A three-time All-Big Ten selection, Best traveled as an alternate as a freshman before collecting second team All-America honors on floor in 2009 to become the sixth Buckeye to earn All-America honors.

In addition to Best's accomplishments, Sarah Miller was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year after earning six Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors during the season and Fagan was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

Miller had an outstanding first season, holding the highest score on vault (9.900), beam (9.950) and floor (9.925) for the Buckeyes. She became the third Big Ten Freshman of the Year in Ohio State history after Taylor Jones earned the honor in 2009 and Susan Eckman won it in 1996. Fagan, also the 2007 Big Ten Coach of the Year, has been at the helm of Ohio State women's gymnastics since the 2005 season. Since then, Fagan has produced two All-Americans, led the Buckeyes to five-consecutive appearances at the NCAA regional championships and was named Central Region Coach of the Year in 2009.

Four Buckeyes earned Big Ten awards as sophomore Colleen Dean and Miller were named first team All-Big Ten, Melanie Shaffer earned second team accolades and junior co-captain Nicole Krauter was the Buckeyes' sportsmanship award honoree.

As a team, the Buckeyes were dominant inside St. John Arena, posting a 4-0-1 record in Columbus with dual meet wins over No. 23 Minnesota, West Virginia, Michigan State and Kentucky while posting a rare tie against Illinois.

The Buckeyes did not just make great strides in the gym, but also in the classroom. Thirteen Ohio State gymnasts were named OSU Scholar-Athletes and, as a team, the Buckeyes had the highest and most-improved grade-point average of any women's team at Ohio State. In addition, six Buckeyes garnered Academic All-Big Ten laurels.

With the young talent returning to the squad after gaining valuable experience in 2011, the future of the Ohio State women's gymnastics program looks to be bright.

NOTING THE 2010-11 BUCKEYES

- The campaign was the first for the Buckeyes with Mark Osiecki at the helm.
- Seniors John Albert, Peter Boyd and Sergio Somma all skated in 159 games for the Scarlet and Gray, tying for sixth in program history. All three did not miss a single game in their four-year careers.
- Seniors John Albert and Peter Boyd both hit the 100-point mark in the first half of the season and were joined by classmate Sergio Somma in February. They are the first Buckeyes to join the Century Club since 2008. Albert ended his career with 124 points (33g, 91a) to rank 36th all-time for the Scarlet and Gray. Boyd is 43rd with 113 points (39g, 74a), with Somma tied for 48th with 104, including 54 goals.

• Albert, Boyd and Somma all skated in 159 games for the Scarlet and Gray, tying for sixth in program history. All three did not miss a single game in their four-year careers.

• Albert and Somma ended the year sharing the team lead with 34 points each. Somma had a team-best 20 goals (just the fifth 20-goal season for a Buckeye since 2001), including 10 on the power play (the most for a Buckeye since 2005 and just the fifth Buckeye with double-digit power-play goals since 1993).

• Junior goalie Cal Heeter was among the nation's leaders in minutes played throughout the year after starting every game for the squad. He played 2191:54 between the pipes, ranking fifth in the Buckeye record book. He had 1,009 saves on the year, the sixth-highest total for a Buckeye goalie and in the Top 4 in the NCAA when OSU's season ended. His season goals-against average of 2.30 was the sixth-lowest for a Buckeye in a single season, with his .923 save percentage the second-best in Buckeye history.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

- Ohio State concluded the season with an overall mark of 14-19-3 and went 8-17-3 in WCHA play. The Buckeyes had a 7-10-1 record at the OSU Ice Rink and posted a 7-9-2 mark on the road.
- Ohio State concluded the 2010-11 season with a pair of losses to third-seeded Minnesota in the first round of the WCHA playoffs in a best-of-three series.
- The Buckeyes dropped a 4-2 loss to the Gophers in the first game of the best-of-three series and followed with a 3-2 loss in game two. Laura McIntosh led the Buckeyes with two goals in the series, both coming in the first game. The first goal came at 13:33 in the second period to cut the team's 2-0 deficit in half. McIntosh scored again unassisted just 33 seconds later at 14:06 to tie the game.
- Ohio State finished sixth in the WCHA regular season standings with 30 points.
- Junior Natalie Spooner was named to the All-WCHA Second Team for Ohio State. Her team-leading 26 goals ranked fifth overall in the conference. She finished the season with eight multiple-goal performances.
- The Scarlet and Gray averaged 2.71 goals per game while allowing an average of 3.18. The Buckeye special teams operated at 16.6 percent on the power play (25-of-151) and 78.9 percent on the penalty kill (105-of-133).
- Leading the Buckeyes in points and assists this season was McIntosh with 47 and 33, respectively. Spooner scored a team-high 26 goals, including 10 on the power play, and had 39 points. Patrolling the OSU net was freshman Lisa Steffes, who was 14-19-3 with a 3.11 GAA and a .906 save percentage.
- McIntosh finished ninth in the WCHA with 47 total points, while Spooner was tied for 12th with 39 points.
- Spoooner finished third overall in the conference with 0.90 goals per game and that average ranked sixth in the NCAA.
- McIntosh's 1.00 assists per game average finished tied for sixth in the NCAA.
- Spoooner became just the second Buckeye in program history to have at least 20 goals in three-consecutive seasons. She is now second on the all-time career goals list with 69 to her credit in three seasons at Ohio State.
- Steffes recorded 77 saves in the series vs. the Beavers (Feb. 18-19) to cap the 1,000-saves mark to conclude the regular season. Steffes, who holds the single-season program record for saves with 1,085 stoppers, was the only goalie in the nation to have at least 1,000 saves in 2011.
- Spoooner finished the regular season with the fifth-most goals in WCHA-only games with 17.
- Spoooner's 10 power play goals ranked second in the WCHA and fourth in the NCAA, while her 1.34 points per game ranked 20th in the NCAA.
- Twelve Buckeyes were placed on the WCHA All-Academic team: seniors Teal Bishop, Jenna Kilpatrick and Sandy Nelson; juniors Natalie Spooner, Barbara Bilko, Brittany Carlson, Melissa Feste and Kelly Wild; sophomores Amanda Boskovich, Liz Rizzo, Paige Semenza and Minttu Tuominen.
- Following the season, head coach Jackie Barto retired April 19 from coaching after 12 seasons with the Buckeyes and 17 seasons overall as a coach. Barto was hired at Ohio State in 1999 to start the women's hockey program and finished her Ohio State career with a 179-219-42 record. Overall, Barto was 248-272-52 as a head coach.
- Barto coached more than 500 games in her career and ranked eighth in career victories among NCAA Division coaches (following the 2010-11 season). She coached four Olympians, four All-Americans and seven All-WCHA First Team honorees. Her teams excelled in the classroom as well as they totaled 82 WCHA All-Academic Team honors, 21 WCHA Scholar-Athlete honors and 138 OSU Scholar-Athlete honors.
- Ohio State hired Nate Handrahan in May to as the program's second head coach in the 12-year history. Handrahan joined the Buckeyes after serving five years as head coach of the Robert Morris women's hockey program.
- Three current Buckeyes competed at the 2011 IIHF World Women's Championships held in Switzerland in April. Spooner earned silver with Team Canada, while Tuominen took the bronze with Team Finland. Annie Svedin also competed, skating for fifth-place finishing Team Sweden.

NOTING THE 2011 BUCKEYES

- The win over then-No. 3-ranked North Carolina Feb. 19 in Ohio Stadium was the first win over a Top 3 opponent in program history.
- Ohio State hosted the fourth-annual Showdown in the Shoe prior to the Ohio State football spring game. A crowd of 12,317 (one of the Top 5 on-campus crowds this season) was on hand by halftime of the lacrosse game. The game was televised live by Big Ten Network.
- Matt Kawamoto was named the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year and an honorable mention USILA All-American. It was Ohio State's 14th All-America honor since 2000 and the 41st in program history. Kawamoto is the first defenseman to be named an All-American since Greg Bice in 2003 and '04.
- Paul Beery was honored as Ohio State's nominee for the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.
- The Buckeyes won the unofficial "Big Ten Championship" with a three-overtime victory at Penn State. Logan Schuss had the game-winning goal in the contest.
- Ohio State earned a spot in the inaugural ECAC Tournament, hosted by Denver.
- Sophomore Logan Schuss led the Buckeyes in scoring for the second-consecutive year his second 50-point campaign. He extended his point streak to 30 games (each outing of his collegiate career) and has 108 points in just two years.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE

The 2011 Ohio State women's lacrosse team wrapped up the season with a 10-6 overall record and 2-3 mark in the Atlantic Lacrosse Conference, reaching double-digit victories for the sixth time in program history and multiple ALC wins for the fifth time in nine conference campaigns. Led by first-year head coach Alexis Venechanos, the Buckeyes advanced to the semifinals of the ALC Tournament after defeating Vanderbilt in the quarterfinals for their first conference tourney victory.

Brittney Zerhusen and Alayna Markwordt paced the OSU attack all spring, combining to score 41 percent of the team's goals and tallying 31 percent of all points on the year. They each earned IWLCA Second Team All-America honors, which was just third time Ohio State has had multiple selections, joining the 2002 and 2003 NCAA Tournament participant teams. Zerhusen concluded her career in fourth-place all-time in career scoring with 193 points and career goals with 132. She was second on the team in scoring on the season, tallying 47 goals and 27 assists and posting at least one point in 16 of 17 contests. led Ohio State in goals (52), assists (27) and points (79) and finished the year in the NCAA Top 10 in total and per game points and in the Top 20 in both categories of goals and assists. A native of Woodbine, Md., she holds the No. 2 position in all-time scoring at Ohio State with 224 career points as just a junior and also is third in the record books in goals (140) and assists (84). Markwordt has tallied at least one goal or assist in 48-consecutive games, dating back to March 1, 2009, and the fourth game of her freshman season.

PISTOL

Record: Open 17-1, Women 1-5

Head Coach: Jim Sweeney

The pistol team finished second in the open aggregate events at the NRA Collegiate Pistol Championships at Ft. Benning, Ga. The Buckeyes finished second in open air pistol with a 2,191 score behind the United States Military Academy's 2,224. That margin gave Army the open aggregate championship with a 6,357 score. OSU finished second with a 6,330 and The Citadel was third at 6,267. This is Ohio State's highest finish since being second in 2008. The women's squad finished fourth in their events.

Ohio State head coach Jim Sweeney was honored at the event by being named the Outstanding Coach of the Year and received the Outstanding Service Award for his efforts of encouraging newly founded collegiate teams and providing opportunities for community shooters.

ROWING

In a dramatic finish, the rowing team captured the 2011 Big Ten Championship at Eagle Creek Park thanks to Top 3 finishes by all six boats, including gold-medal performances by the Second Varsity Eight and Second Varsity Four. The Buckeyes went on to finish 10th with 44 points at the NCAA championships on Lake Natoma in Gold River, Calif.

Individually, head coach Andy Teitelbaum was named both Big Ten and Central Region Coach of the Year, while Ulrike Denker and Claudia Schiwvy were Big Ten and Central Region First Team selections. Carolin Helmholz and Claire-Louise Bode were conference and regional second-team honorees.

MEN'S SOCCER

The Buckeyes ended the 2010 season ranked No. 17 by the NSCAA after finishing the campaign with an 11-6-3 overall record and a trip to the third round of the NCAA Tournament. The senior class of Matt Gold, Sam Scales and Konrad Warzycha ended its run as one of the most successful classes in Ohio State history, starting their careers with a trip to the national championship game as freshmen and going on to capture Big Ten tournament titles in two of the last three years and the first outright regular-season title in 2009. The trio of midfielders earned a combined 49 wins, which is tied for second for the most wins of any four-year class. Some of the highlights from there year were:

SEPT. 25 – Senior Sam Scales scored the game-winner and sophomore Matt Lampson tallied 11 saves to lead the No. 23-ranked Buckeyes to a 1-0 win over eventual College Cup participant Michigan in Ann Arbor. Lampson's 11 saves were not only a career high, but the most tallied by a Buckeye goalkeeper in a single match in at least the last decade.

SEPT. 29 – David Tiemstra forced overtime by scoring a goal with two seconds remaining in regulation as the No. 19-ranked Buckeyes foiled top-ranked Akron's NCAA record streak and battled to a 2-2 tie in front of a Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium record crowd of 7,255. Austin McAnena struck first, however, officially ruining the Zips shutout streak of 1,140 minutes. They had not allowed a goal since Nov. 15, 2009, a streak of 11 games, tying the NCAA record previously set by Furman (2002) and Virginia (2009).

NOVEMBER 7 – Austin McAnena scored the game-winning goal in the 27th minute to propel Ohio State to a 1-0 win over Indiana at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium in the regular-season finale for both squads. With the win, the Buckeyes finished the regular season with an undefeated record of 7-0-1 on the Jesse field, marking the first clean slate at home since 1974. The victory also was just the seventh time in Indiana program history its team has lost to an opponent in three-consecutive meetings after the Buckeyes also swept the Hoosiers twice in Bloomington a year ago.

NOVEMBER 15 – The Buckeyes earned the No. 16 seed in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, marking the fourth-consecutive appearance in the postseason, three of which were as a seeded team, and the eighth overall for the Ohio State men's soccer program, all under John Blum's reign.

NOVEMBER 21 – Freshman Omar Vallejo could not have picked a better time to score his first collegiate goal, netting the game-winner in the 72nd minute to lead 16th-seeded Ohio State to a 2-1 win over Providence in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Konrad Warzycha also scored in the match, converting on a penalty kick in the 58th minute, as Ohio State moved to 11-5-3 on the season and the Friars had their 10-game unbeaten streak snapped to conclude their 2010 campaign with a 13-6-3 record. The Buckeyes also remained unbeaten at JOMIS this season, improving to 8-0-1 on their home grass.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Record: 17-5-2, 7-2-1 Big Ten
Big Ten Co-Champions
NCAA College Cup Semifinalist

The 2010 Ohio State women's soccer team reached heights and accomplished feats no other Buckeye team had seen before.

With a 1-0 win over Michigan State, the Buckeyes clinched a share of the first Big Ten title in program history and advanced to the first College Cup before falling, 1-0, in a national semifinal to eventual national champion Notre Dame. Ohio State finished the season with a 17-5-2 record, tallying the second-most wins in school history and ranked fourth in the final NSCAA rankings, another program-best.

The Buckeyes, in their sixth NCAA tournament all under the direction of 14th-year head coach Lori Walker, defeated St. Francis (Pa.), 1-0, in overtime on Danielle's Scoliere's first career goal in the first round of the tournament before advancing on PK's, 4-2, against Dayton in the second round. A trip to Charlottesville, Va., awaited and the Buckeyes knocked off the No. 8 Cavaliers, 3-2, after taking a 3-0 lead in the 58th minute and holding off a furious Virginia rally. Ohio State then took down Georgetown, 2-0, in the NCAA quarterfinals at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium for a trip to the program's first College Cup.

Senior defender Cassie Dickerson earned first team NSCAA All-America honors and junior forward Paige Maxwell was named to the third team. Dickerson and Maxwell garnered Big Ten Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year, respectively, while Walker was named Big Ten Coach of the Year. Maxwell, Dickerson and Tiffany Cameron were named first team All-Big Ten while Danica Wu, Megan Fuller and Rachel Middleman made the All-Freshman team. Senior defender Lauren Beachy was Ohio State's Big Ten sportsmanship award honoree. Goalkeeper Katie Baumgardner was named to the College Cup All-Tournament team after making a career-high 10 saves, many of the spectacular variety, in the College Cup loss to Notre Dame.

Senior Courtney Jenkins was honored with the 2010 Elite 88 Award at the NCAA College Cup banquet. The award is given to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's 88 championships. In addition, 19 Buckeyes were named Academic All-Big Ten.

The 2010 senior class of Genna Brand, Lauren Steuer, Jenkins, Beachy and Dickerson finished their careers as the winningest class in program history with 51 while reaching three NCAA tournaments, a feat only the seniors of 2004 accomplished.

However, Fuller, Wu, Middleman and Kristen Niederhaus all gained valuable experience in their rookie campaigns and a strong sophomore class led by Cameron and Lauren Granberg shows that the future of the Ohio State program is as bright as ever.

MEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING

10-1 Overall; 3-1 Big Ten Conference

3rd at Big Ten Championships

11th at NCAA Championships

Ohio State swimming and diving returned to the pool after winning the 2010 Big Ten Championship and made a valient effort in repeating that title.

After capping a 10-1 duel meet record the Buckeyes traveled to Minneapolis, Minn. to defend thier Big Ten title. The Scarlet and Gray finished 3rd at the event and would produce one Big Ten Champion, junior Andrew Elliott in the 200 backstroke with a school record time of 1:41.69. 12 swimmers would qualify for NCAA championships to be held the next month in the same pool.

Those 12 athletes would finish in 11th place at NCAA championships as all 12 would earn at least one All-America award. The 12 young men would combine to finish with 25 All-America awards by the end of the three day competition.

McCorkle also hosted a championship of its own in the AT&T NCAA Short Course National Championships. Some of the best swimmers in the world came to Columbus, Ohio to compete from Dec. 2-4. Ohio State would fare well at the championships, winning the overall team title. The 400 medley relay team took first place overall in the event. The team of Andrew Elliott, Elliott Keefer, Quincy Lee and Tim Phillips raced to a first-place time of 3:10.07. Also earning accolades was Justin Farra, who finished second in the individual points race with 54, picked up a Big Ten swimmer of the week award without winning a single event. The event featured future and former olympians and an array of great competition.

Great Group of Seniors

Ohio State graduated 10 seniors in the 2010-2011 season and they were full of honors and awards that helped Ohio State to it's first Big Ten Championship in 54 years in 2010. Since thier freshman year the seniors have compiled a duel meet record of 38-5. The seniors are:

- Justin Farra, a political science major from Clarksville, Ohio;
- Michael Hulme, an international studies major from Bozeman, Mont.;
- Bobby Jenrow, a biology major from Redford, Mich.;
- Elliott Keefer, a history and international studies major from Loveland, Ohio;
- Jayson King, a consumer and family financial services major from Overland Park, Kan.;
- Quincy Lee, a civil engineering major from Portland, Ore.;
- Sean Moore, a business major from Englewood, Colo.;
- Tom O'Neill, a finance major from Malverne, N.Y.;
- Ben Savonen, a team tri-captain and an engineering major from Carleton, Mich.;
- Phil Seleskie, a hospitality management major from Hastings, Minn.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING

OHIO STATE WOMEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING

The women's swimming and diving team capped its best season in nearly 20 years and some incredible momentum that they can carry into the future. Third year head coach Bill Dorenkott is turning the Ohio State women's swimming program into a Big Ten power. After compiling a 7-1 dual meet record the Buckeyes had their best finish at Big Ten Championships in 17 years.

They finished third behind strong swims from sophomore Megan Detro, a 2011 Big Ten Champion in the 100 freestyle and Sam Cheverton, the veteran senior who took home a Big Ten title in the 200 freestyle. Cheverton was the first Big Ten Champion in six years for the Buckeyes. All together Ohio State had 11 Big Ten finalists including:

- Bianca Alvarez - 3-meter;
- Kelly Ann Baird - 8th/1650 free (timed final);
- Kristen Asman - 4th/10-meter;
- Katie Bell - 8th/10-meter;
- Samantha Cheverton - 4th/500 free; 1st/200 free; 7th/200 back;
- Emily Creran - 8th/400 IM; 5th/200 back;
- Megan Detro - 3rd/50 free; 5th/200 free; 1st/100 free;
- Shannon Draves - 8th/100 fly; 4th/200 fly;
- Darcy Fishback - 7th/100 fly;
- Kelsey Moran - 4th/100 back;
- Angela Severn - 3rd/200 IM;

Ohio State finished 17th at the national championships, their best team finish in 16 years. Highlighting the NCAA championships were six different Buckeyes earning All - American honors; the 400 freestyle relay team of Samantha Cheverton, Megan Detro, Anita Beck and Alex Norris earned honorable mention All-America honors for the second time during this championships by finishing 14th in 3:17.50.

Along with the relay divers Katie Bell and Bianca Alvarez picked up All - American honors. Alvarez won her fifth and sixth All - American honors on the one and three meter boards respectively.

SYNCHRONIZED SWIMMING

Year after year, the synchronized swimming team never seems to disappoint. Their impressive resumé grew to a total of 27 U.S. Collegiate Synchronized Swimming Championships this season. These student-athletes truly are THE best and they keep getting better.

Behind those 27 championship teams have been two phenomenal coaches. Mary Jo Ruggieri was at the helm of the Ohio State program for 19 seasons from 1977-1995. Current head coach Linda Lichter-Witter picked up the reins in 1996 and immediately began winning championships right where Ruggieri left off. This season they narrowly defeated Stanford at the Town of Tonawanda Aquatic and Fitness Center in Buffalo, N.Y.

MEN'S TENNIS

Since becoming head coach of the Ohio State men's tennis team in 1999, Ty Tucker has quietly turned the Buckeye program into a Big Ten Conference dynasty by consistently leading his squads against some of the best in the nation. Riding the momentum from the previous five seasons, the 2010-11 Buckeyes won its sixth-consecutive league regular season and tournament titles and made its second NCAA semifinals appearance in the 100th year of the program's existence.

During the NCAA tournament, the fourth-ranked Buckeyes defeated Baylor, 4-2, in their sixth quarterfinal trip before falling to top-ranked Virginia in the semifinals at the Taube Tennis Center in Stanford, Calif.

Ohio State (34-3, 13-0) once again finished the season with numerous accomplishments. As a team, the 34 wins are the fourth most in team history (36 – 2009; 35 – 2008 and 2010), while individually, several Buckeyes picked up Big Ten and national accolades.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Facing a consistently tough schedule in 2010-11, the Ohio State women's tennis team proved its perseverance while facing 14 ranked opponents, including nine in the Top 35, on the way to a 15-11 record and a berth in the semifinals at the Big Ten tournament. The campaign was the fifth-consecutive with at least 15 victories for the program, the longest streak of such for the Buckeyes. Ohio State began the season ranked 33rd nationally, peaked at No. 31 in the first half of the season and finally settled at No. 57 in the final ITA poll.

The Buckeyes opened dual season 5-2, including a 7-0 shutout of 65th-ranked William & Mary, before competing in the Blue Gray National Tennis Classic in Montgomery, Ala., in the first year of women's competition in the event. The Scarlet and Gray notched a 4-0 win against 64th-ranked Auburn before falling to No. 9 Virginia and No. 22 Oklahoma in a showcase of the top teams in the country.

The season was one of the best for the Buckeyes in conference play as the Scarlet and Gray netters stormed to a 7-3 Big Ten record, tying Purdue for third in the league. The Buckeyes' success was due in large part to a 5-1 home ledger against Big Ten teams, with the only loss coming against then-18th-ranked Northwestern. In the Big Ten tournament, Ohio State rallied from a 3-1 deficit against Wisconsin in the quarterfinals to advance with a 4-3 victory. The Buckeyes couldn't upset host-school Michigan in the semifinals, finishing the season with a 4-0 loss to the Wolverines.

For the second year in a row, a member of the 2009 recruiting class led the team in singles victories as sophomore Fidan Manashirova set the pace with 27, followed by classmates Kara Cecil and Gabby Steele (21 each). The three have combined for 117 singles wins the past two seasons. Manashirova was a difference maker in Big Ten matches, notching an 8-2 singles record and a 7-2 doubles mark.

Junior Kelsey Haviland proved to be an asset for the team after senior Paloma Escobedo dropped from the lineup with a leg injury mid-season. She moved into the No. 1 singles position and upset Iowa's Sonja Molnar (114th), Michigan State's Amy Barton (121st) and Minnesota's Natalia Pintosava (74th), each in straight sets. Haviland's efforts culminated in a spot on the Second Team All-Big Ten list.

Seniors Escobedo and Cami Hubbs finished their Buckeye careers etched in the program's history book, as both reached the Top 15 in singles and doubles victories. Hubbs earned 77 singles wins, placing seventh all-time, and 82 doubles victories, tying for ninth with Christina Keesey. Escobedo tied with Kristin Peterson for 14th in singles with 66 wins while sharing the 12th spot with Erica Fisk in doubles with 79 victories.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL

Overall Record: 26-6, MIVA 11-1

NCAA Champions!

Men's volleyball team won both the MIVA regular season and tournament championship in 2011 and won the school's first NCAA Championship with wins over Penn State in the semifinals and UC Santa Barbara in the championship match. OSU finished the season with a 26-6 overall record and was 11-1 in the Midwestern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association. The Buckeyes won 17 consecutive matches during the season and was perfect at home with a 14-0 mark. On the conference level, the Buckeyes had the Player of the Year in Steven Kehoe, the Coach of the Year in Pete Hanson and the Most Outstanding Player of the conference tournament in Kehoe. Additional conference honors included Kehoe, John Klanac, Kevin Heine and Shawn Sangrey named first team all-conference. Kehoe, Sangrey, Klanac and Jason Tobkin were also honored as members of the MIVA All-Tournament Championship team. Kehoe was named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Championship and with Klanac and Sangrey was named to the NCAA All-Tournament Team. Kehoe was named a First-Team American Volleyball Coaches Association All-American.
