Ohio State Football

Tradition

The legendary Woody Hayes led Ohio State to the Big Ten's last undisputed national championship (1968) and directed the Buckeyes to 13 Big Ten titles and 11 bowl appearances. Between 1972 and 1977, OSU won an unprecedented six consecutive Big Ten crowns and made Big Ten history by becoming the first conference team to play in four consecutive Rose Bowls (1972-75). Under his leadership, Ohio State won 205 games between 1951 and 1978, including 152 conference games. Additionally, Hayes, who led the Buckeyes to five national championships, coached 56 first-team All-Americans, produced three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy winners and two Lombardi Award winners. His list of assistants include Bo Schembechler, Lou Holtz, Bill Mallory, Glen Mason and Earle Bruce just to name a few. Few people better exemplify the word "Tradition" at Ohio State.

People

"From as early as I can remember, I dreamed of one day playing football for the Buckeyes and following in the footsteps of my father. When that day became a reality and I committed to Ohio State, it was one of my proudest moments of my life. The years I spent at Ohio State were some of the most rewarding years of my life. I was challenged both academically and athletically and I learned the true meaning of hard work, teamwork and perseverance. When my career was over, I walked away with relationships that would last a lifetime and memories that I will treasure for as long as I live. I am proud to be a Buckeye and thankful for the opportunities this great university has provided me," Kirk Herbstreit.

Now a college football analyst and studio host for ESPN Gameday, Kirk Herbstreit is one of those "PEOPLE" who make Ohio State special.

Excellence

As a high school senior, Archie Griffin was thought by many to be too small to play college football. But Archie knew better, and after the second game of his freshman year at Ohio State, so did everyone else. On that day, the 5-9, 180-pound tailback came off the bench to rush for 239 yards against North Carolina, at the time setting an Ohio State single-game rushing record. He just got better after that, going on to rush for 5,589 yards and setting an NCAA record by rushing for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive games. Griffin, who still ranks as Ohio State's all-time leading ground gainer, was showered with accolades during his career. Most notably, he is college football's only two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy. Additionally, he was a two-time pick as college player of the year and twice won the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Big Ten's most valuable player. Griffin also excelled in the classroom, earning his degree a quarter early before going on to play eight years in the NFL. At the end of his senior year, Griffin was honored by the NCAA as one of the "Top Five" student-athletes in the country. Griffin, who is now an associate athletics director for the Buckeyes is a wonderful example of the "Excellence" that is Ohio State. No wonder, then, that his No. 45 was the first jersey number ever retired at The Ohio State University.

THE SCHEDULE

Ohio State will play 13 games during the regular season this year, including eight home games. That is the most home games for the Buckeyes since 1910, when Howard Jones' team played nine en route to a 6-1-3 record. The Buckeyes played 11 home games in 1905 and finished the season with an 8-2-2 mark.

The Buckeyes will play eight games in Ohio Stadium this season. A record total of 621,192 fans attended the six home games in 2001.

400 BIG TEN WINS

The 26-20 victory at Michigan last year was Ohio State's 400th Big Ten win, giving the Buckeyes an all-time league mark of 400-155-24 since beginning conference play in 1913.

ALL-TIME RECORD

The Buckeyes are in their 113th season of intercollegiate football and boast an all-time won-lost record of 732-292-53.

HOMECOMING

The 2002 Homecoming Game will be against San Jose State Oct. 12. Other key dates include Alumni Band Day Sept. 7 and Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame Day Sept. 14.

FICKELL JOINS STAFF

Former Ohio State defensive lineman Luke Fickell is the newest member of the Ohio State football staff. He returned to his alma mater this past April as coach of the special teams, replacing Ken Conatser. Fickell was a four-year starter for the Buckeyes from 1993-96.

ANOTHER MAJOR AWARD

In addition to capturing consensus All-America honors last fall, senior center LeCharles Bentley was named winner of the second annual Dave Rimington Award, which goes to the best center in college football. The Rimington, now on display in the atrium of the Woody Hayes Athletics Center, is the 30th major award won by an Ohio State player.

BRUCE SELECTED TO HALL OF FAME

Former Ohio State head coach Earle Bruce was elected this past May to the College Football Hall of Fame. Bruce will be officially inducted this December in New York. Prior to that, he will be recognized at one of Ohio State's home games. During his nine years at Ohio State, Bruce compiled an overall record of 81-26-1 and took the Buckeyes to eight bowl games. He also spent six years as an Ohio State assistant.

Earle Bruce

ATTENDANCE MARKS FALL

With the completion of the Ohio Stadium renovation project last fall, the Buckeyes set single-game and single-season attendance marks in 2001. A total of 621,192 fans attended Ohio State's six home games, an average of 103,532 per game. The single-game record of 104,407 was set against Illinois.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

In order to qualify for a credential, an applicant must represent the recognized news organization that is requesting credentials. Please direct all credential requests to Steve Snapp, Assistant Athletics Director for Athletics Communications. Requests should be made in writing and on company letterhead and can be faxed to (614) 688-5520 or e-mailed to Snapp.1@osu.edu. Confirmation of your request will be made upon receipt. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Ohio State football. Every effort will be made to fill each request. Credentials are for adult use only and are non-transferrable.

ROAD REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests for Ohio State's road games to the host school's sports information director.

MORE ON CREDENTIALS

Season credentials will be mailed in mid-August, while single-game passes will be mailed approximately 10 days before the game. For those members of the media covering a team that is visiting Columbus, credentials will be sent to the opposing school's sports information director for distribution at that school's weekly media luncheon. All requests made the week of the game will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Athletics Communications Office in room 124, St. John Arena. Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at the Ohio Stadium Will Call window Saturday, beginning three hours before kickoff.

OHIO STADIUM PRESS BOX

The Ohio State Press Box is on the west side of Ohio Stadium. The Press Box elevator is located between Gates 21 and 23. Television photographers shooting from the photo deck should exit the elevator at the "CD" level. Writers and other members of the electronic media, including radio play-by-play crews, should exit at the "PB" level. The Press Box opens three hours before kickoff and remains open as long as necessary following the game.

PHONE LINES

Those members of the media wishing to order their own phone line can do so by calling University Phone Services at (614) 292-8648.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Those persons receiving photo credentials will receive a letter of authorization that must be exchanged at the base of the Press Box elevator for the actual credential. Photo credentials are to be properly displayed at all times and are good for Press Box access both before the game and at halftime, but not during the game. Photographers are required to stay behind the 12-foot restraining line that surrounds the field. Additionally, photographers are not permitted in the team bench areas (that includes the area immediately behind the benches).

RADIO REPORTS

Non-originating stations are restricted to 60-second reports between quarters and at the half. Live reports while the game is in progress are not permitted. This policy also applies to Ohio State's away games. Violators of this policy will have their credentials revoked.

TRESSEL AVAILABILITY

During the season, Coach Jim Tressel will hold a weekly press luncheon each Tuesday at the Buckeye Hall of Fame Cafe, located at 1421 Olentangy River Rd. in Columbus. Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m., followed by remarks from Tressel, interviews with the coach and whenever possible, Ohio State players. The media luncheons will begin Aug. 20 and run through Nov. 19. Transcripts of the press conference will be available on the athletics web site (ohiostatebuckeyes.com) following the luncheon. During the season, Tressel also will meet with the media on Thursdays following the conclusion of practice and meetings. All additional requests for interviews with Tressel should be directed to Steve Snapp.

BIG TEN TELECONFERENCE

In addition to his media luncheon, Coach Tressel is available on the Big Ten Conference's weekly teleconference at noon Tuesdays. Contact Sue Lister of the Big Ten Conference for access to the teleconference.

INTERVIEW POLICY

All Ohio State player interviews must be arranged through the Ohio State Athletics Communications Office. Generally speaking, Ohio State players will be available following practices and meetings on either Sunday or Monday (depending on the off-day) as well as Tuesday, then not available again until after the game on Saturday. Players will return calls to out-of-town media Tuesday nights. We ask for the cooperation of the media in not phoning the players at home or interviewing them at times other than those designated.

PRACTICES

The Ohio State football team practices at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center on Olentangy River Road. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday practices are open to the media, and photographers may shoot the first hour of practice. Practices on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday are closed.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The Ohio State locker room is closed. Coach Tressel will meet with the media as soon as possible after the game in the designated interview area. Following the completion of his remarks, requested Ohio State players will be available in the interview area. The head coaches' postgame interviews take place simultaneously in Ohio Stadium, but typed quotes from both sessions are included in the postgame media packets distributed in the Press Box.

WEEKLY RELEASE

Ohio State's weekly release and stat package, which includes notes and depth charts, is available each Monday on the Ohio State web site (ohiostatebuckeyes.com). Releases are not mailed.

RADIO CALL-IN SHOW

Throughout the season, Coach Tressel's weekly radio call-in show can be heard each Thursday live at noon and replayed at 7 p.m. on WBNS Radio (1460 AM The Fan) in Columbus and on the 79-station WBNS statewide network. Paul Keels, the radio voice of the Buckeyes, and Kirk Herbstreit are the hosts.

WEEKLY TV SHOWS

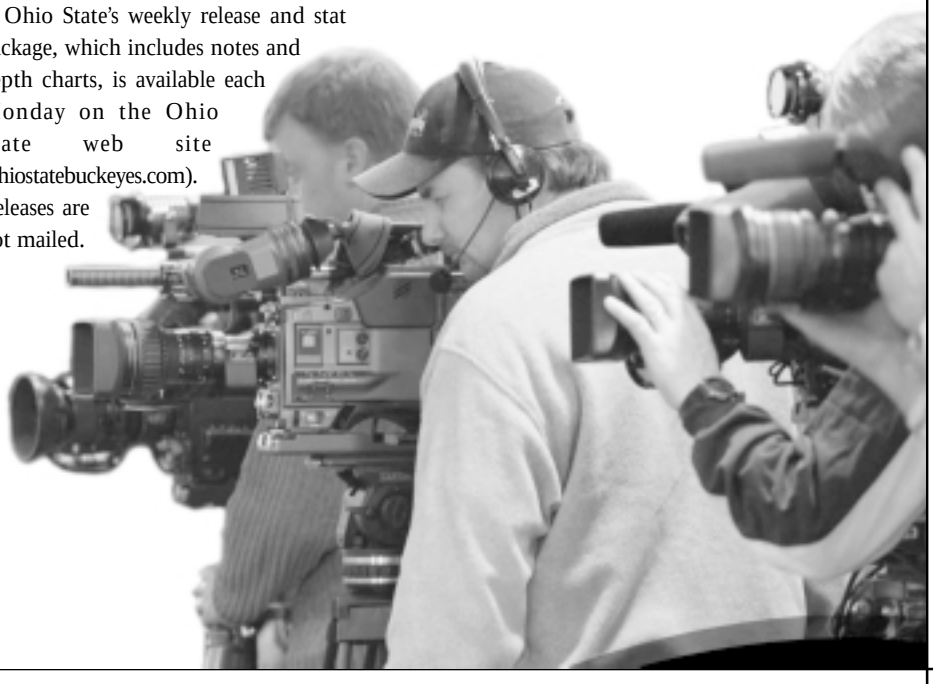

Buckeye Replay (30 minutes of game highlights) and Buckeye Football Weekly (with Coach Tressel) are televised each Sunday morning during the football season. WBNS-TV is the outlet in Columbus, with Buckeye Replay kicking off at 11 a.m., followed by Buckeye Football Weekly 30 minutes later. The shows can be seen, too, in Lima (WLIO), Wheeling and Steubenville (WTOV), Youngstown (WYTV), Fox Sports Net (statewide) and around the state on the Ohio News Network (ONN). Jeff Hogan is the host.

OHIOSTATEBUCKEYES.COM

This is the official web site of the Ohio State Athletics Department. Ohio State football releases as well as a wide variety of athletics department information can be found on the web, including links to all 36 varsity sports.

PHOTO REQUESTS

All still photography requests of Ohio State players and coaches must be faxed or e-mailed to Diana Sabau. She can be reached at (614) 688-0664 or electronically at sabau.2@osu.edu.

OSU ON THE ROAD

The Ohio State team and travel party will depart Columbus early Friday evening for each of this year's five away games. The Buckeyes will bus to Cincinnati and fly to the four Big Ten sites via Miami Air. In each case, the team will return home immediately after the game. Generally speaking, the team will hold meetings and conduct a walk-through at home on Friday and will not practice at the away site. Below is a list of hotels where the team will be staying.

CAMERAS

Movie cameras and video recording equipment are prohibited in the stadium. Regular cameras are permitted, provided there is no flash photography and you do not bother those seated near you.

CONCESSIONS

Concession stands are located in the concourse areas of A, B, C, D, and the south stadium. Vendors also sell various items throughout, including hot dogs, Bahama Mamas, Garlic Knockwurst, ice cream, Dippin Dots, frozen lemonade, kosher hot dogs, popcorn, nachos, soft pretzels, candy, soft drinks in souvenir cups, coffee and hot chocolate during colder games. Pizza is sold at stands near sections 4A, 21A and 22A. Hamburgers, Bahama Mamas, Garlic Knockwurst and hot dogs are sold at Coke Trailers outside the stadium prior to kickoff.

CONTAINERS

No containers of any sort (including non-disposable thermos containers) are permitted in the stadium. Cans, bottled goods, coolers and ice chests also are not permitted.

ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT

Small radios and small hand-held televisions are permitted provided they do not bother those seated near you.

EMERGENCY PHONE CALLS

Fans expecting emergency phone calls should register at the Ameritech Guest Services Center located at gates 16A and 19A. Fans will receive a pager free of charge and, if paged, can return to the Guest Services Center and use a phone free of charge. To reach the Guest Services Center, call 329-0900.

FIRST AID

First Aid stations are located near sections 16A, 17A, 9B, 12B, 23C, 24C and in the south stadium at 32A. If an emergency arises, contact the nearest usher or University Police Officer for assistance.

HANDICAPPED ACCOMMODATIONS

Arrangements for handicapped seating should be made in advance of the game by calling the Athletic Ticket Office at (614) 292-2624. Disability accessible restrooms are located throughout the stadium.

LOST AND FOUND

A lost and found window is maintained at the north end of the stadium (in the rotunda) until 30 minutes after the game. Found items should be turned in to an usher or the lost and found window. A permanent lost and found is maintained in the Ohio Stadium Facility Operations office (614) 292-2646.

OPEN FIRES

Open fires are not permitted on the football parking lots. Grills, either propane or charcoal, must be used.

OPENING OF GATES

Gates to Ohio Stadium open two hours before kickoff.

PARKING

There is no overnight parking on any University lot before or after any game. Parking lots open at 7 a.m. the day of the game, no matter when kickoff is scheduled.

PROGRAMS

Official game programs are sold in concourse A within the stadium and outside the stadium at several stands and tents.

PROHIBITED BEHAVIOR

Patrons throwing objects of any kind or demonstrating unruly behavior are subject to ejection from the stadium.

OFFICIAL TEAM SHOP

Official Team Shops are located throughout the stadium near sections 11A, 12A, 23A, 24A, 18C and in the South Stadium. Locations are also available north of the stadium in the Jesse Owens Plaza and south of St. John Arena.

RE-ENTRY

There are no pass-out checks, so re-entry is not permitted.

RECREATIONAL VEHICLES

RV's with parking permits will park on the west side of Bill Davis stadium. There is no overnight parking either before or after a game. RV owners are encouraged to use the camping area at Griggs Dam, located two miles north of Lane Avenue off of State Rt. 33 (Riverside Drive), to park overnight.

RESTROOMS

Restrooms are located in the concourse areas of A, B, C and D decks and in the south stadium. Disability accessible and family restrooms are located throughout the stadium in these areas.

SIGNS, NOISE MAKERS

Signs, banners and noise makers are not permitted in the stadium.

SMOKING

Smoking, is not permitted anywhere in the stadium. This includes restrooms and any concourse and corridor areas.

TELEPHONES

Umbrellas may not be opened in any spectator seating areas of the stadium. Umbrellas may be brought into the Stadium for use prior to or following games.

The number of Ohio Stadium amenities has drastically increased do to the renovation project completed in the fall of 2001.

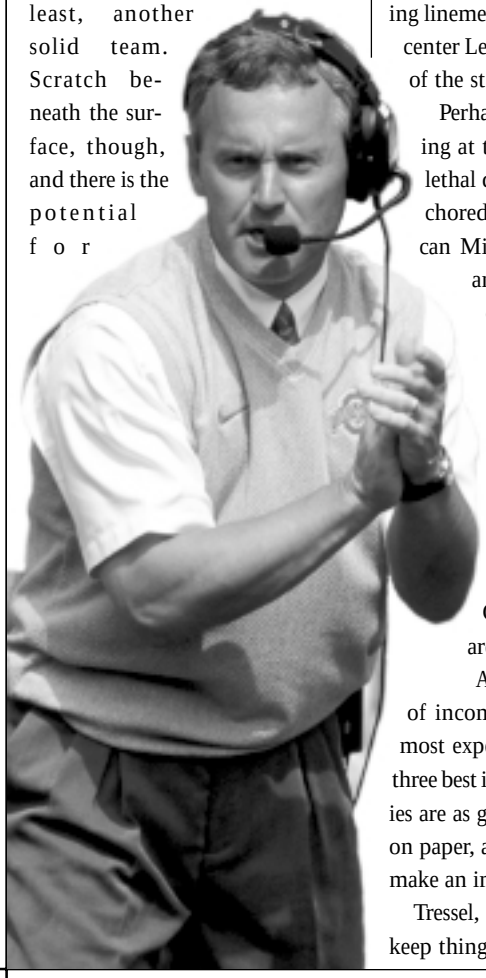

OHIO STADIUM SEATING DIAGRAM

More Than Meets the Eye

Coach Jim Tressel embarks upon his second year at Ohio State with 12 returning starters – seven on defense and five on offense. Additionally, both kickers are back from a 7-5 team, which finished third in the Big Ten with a 5-3 mark last year. In all, there are 43 holdover lettermen.

On the surface, this is, at the very least, another solid team. Scratch beneath the surface, though, and there is the potential for much more. In fact, some publications have anointed the Buckeyes as the team to beat in the 2002 Big Ten title chase.

A brave prediction considering the Buckeyes must replace their entire starting backfield on offense and come up with two new cornerbacks on defense. Also gone are three starting linemen, including All-America center LeCharles Bentley, and two of the starting linebackers.

Perhaps the pundits are looking at the Buckeyes' potentially lethal defense, a unit that is anchored by two-time All-American Mike Doss at strong safety and boasts one of the best defensive fronts in all of college football.

Or maybe they checked the offensive two-deep and noticed the abundance of quality and quantity at the wide receiver and running back positions. Certainly those two areas are stockpiled.

And then there is the class of incoming recruits, ranked by most experts as one of the two or three best in the country. If the rookies are as good in reality as they are on paper, at least some of them will make an immediate impact.

Tressel, for one, knows he has to keep things in perspective.

"We made some progress last year and we worked hard in the winter and spring," he said. "But we still have a long way to go. Our goal is to win the Big Ten title. But to get there, it is going to take lots of hard work and dedication, and probably a little luck in terms of staying healthy and getting a few breaks along the way."

Defense should be the Buckeyes' strong suit, especially early-on while the offense fits all the pieces in to place.

The heart of the defense will be up front, where ends Will Smith, Darrion Scott and Simon Fraser will team with tackles Tim Anderson, Kenny Peterson and David Thompson to give the Buckeyes six outstanding players that can rotate in and out of the lineup with absolutely no drop off in terms of talent. From top to bottom, it is as deep a group as has ever been assembled at Ohio State, and the freshman class has four heralded players to add to the mix.

The linebacker corps features Matt Wilhelm in the middle and Cie Grant and Robert Reynolds on the outside. Wilhelm will be in his third year as a starter and Reynolds has been a key reserve the past two years. Grant started at cornerback last year, but is much at home in his current position. All three can run and all three can hit. Veteran Fred Pagac is a solid reserve and this is another position where the incoming freshmen are expected to have an impact.

Doss and Donnie Nickey give the Buckeyes two of the best safeties in the country. Doss, who led the team in tackles last year, is in his third year as a starter, while Nickey is in his fourth, the last three at free safety. Junior Will Allen is the third safety and a quality player in his own right.

Two talented athletes, Maurice Hall (left) and Lydell Ross, are Ohio State's top returning tailbacks.

Based on spring practice, the all-important cornerback positions will be held down by sophomore Dustin Fox and junior Richard McNutt. Both started the bowl game last year. Fox, a converted safety, is one of the top athletes on the team and simply too talented to keep out of the lineup. McNutt hopes to stay healthy this year after being slowed throughout his career by a chronic ankle injury. Speedy and ever improving Harlen Jacobs, transfer Chris Conwell (from Youngstown State) and Bobby Britton are the backups.

On the other side of the line of scrimmage, the offense has some significant holes to fill, including the quarterback, fullback and tailback spots.

There are three scholarship quarterbacks on the roster -- juniors Craig Krenzel and Scott McMullen and incoming freshman Justin Zwick.

Krenzel, who started the Michigan and South Carolina games last year, is easily the most experienced of the group. He has the edge heading into fall camp. He's a heady player with a good arm. In the win over Michigan, the 6-4 Krenzel demonstrated the ability to run the offense and keep the team out of negative plays. But the gun slingin' McMullen will keep the pressure on, and Zwick was regarded as one of the prized catches in the country last year. As if to whet the fans appetite, Tressel has said "the best player will play."

Middle linebacker Matt Wilhelm will be in his third year as a starter.

The fullback duties, handled so capably the past three seasons by durable Jamar Martin, will fall to third-year sophomore Branden Joe. A tailback in high school, the 6-0, 245-pound Joe understudied Martin last year and made significant strides throughout the season, especially in terms of understanding his role. Redshirt freshman Brandon Schnittker, the third member of the Schnittker family to play at Ohio State, is a capable backup whose only shortcoming at present is a lack of experience.

There are four quality tailbacks in the hunt to replace 1,000-yard rusher and team MVP Jonathan Wells.

Sophomore Lydell Ross is the veteran of the group. He rushed for 419 yards and six touchdowns last year as the backup to Wells and put his name in the records book by becoming the youngest player (17 at the time) in Big Ten history to rush for 100 yards in a game (124 at Indiana).

But while Ross sat out much of spring ball with a pulled hamstring, another true sophomore, Maurice Hall, threw his hat into the ring. As a result of that showing in the spring, he and Ross are bracketed at the No. 1 tailback spot heading into fall camp. Both have power, moves and another gear.

Breathing down their necks, however, are redshirt freshman JaJa Riley and true frosh Maurice Clarett, the USA Today Offensive Player of the Year last year. The 6-0, 230-pound Clarett, who may be the most physical of the foursome, enrolled at Ohio State at the start of 2002 Winter Quarter and took part in spring practice. The versatile Riley, who surprised the coaches last year by asking to be held out of competition, and Clarett are bracketed at the No. 2 tailback spot.

There is talent galore, too, at wide receiver, where split end Michael Jenkins and flanker Chris Vance return as starters. Jenkins was the Buckeyes' leading receiver in 2001 with 49 catches for 899 yards. The glue-fingered Vance collared 34 passes, including a team-best four touchdown grabs.

Sophomores Chris Gamble and Bam Childress, along with Drew Carter and Angelo Chattams give the Buckeyes six dependable receivers. The sky is the limit for the talented Gamble, and Childress is one of those players with a penchant for making big plays.

Andy Groom finished fourth nationally in 2001 with an average of 45.0 yards per punt.

Craig Krenzel (above) and Scott McMullen (below) will battle for the starting quarterback position along with recruit Justin Zwick.

Up front, the Buckeyes return guards Adrien Clarke and Bryce Bishop and tackle Shane Olivea. Clarke and Olivea are both capable of all-league honors and Bishop was one of the most pleasant surprises of the spring in Tressel's eyes.

Olivea will switch from right to left tackle this year, clearing the way for big Ivan Douglas (6-8, 305) to step in on the right side. Douglas, a starter early in the 2000 season, sat out last year with a blood clot in his lung, but has since been cleared to return to action and is anxious to get back into the thick of things.

Alex Stepanovich will take over at center. A backup guard and center the past two years, Stepanovich had an exceptional spring and has the coaches excited with his untapped potential. Stepanovich has added 20 pounds since last year and now weighs in at a strong and agile 310 pounds. Even though he is relatively inexperienced, the coaches believe he can be as good as there is in the Big Ten.

Those five, all juniors, will be the hub of the Buckeyes' interior line. With only four other returning offensive linemen on scholarship, the lack of quality depth is a real concern. Hopefully, guard Adam Olds and tackle Ryan Cook, both redshirt freshmen, are ready to get their feet wet. And don't be surprised to see a couple of the incoming freshmen, most notably tackle candidates Doug Datish and Derek Morris, burning the midnight oil in order to get ready.

Ben Hartsock will be the starter at tight end. He has been a key reserve and part-time starter the past two years and is a fine all-around player. Redshirt freshman Ryan Hamby is an emerging talent with speed and hands. The coaches also liked what they saw of converted linebacker Redgie Arden in the spring.

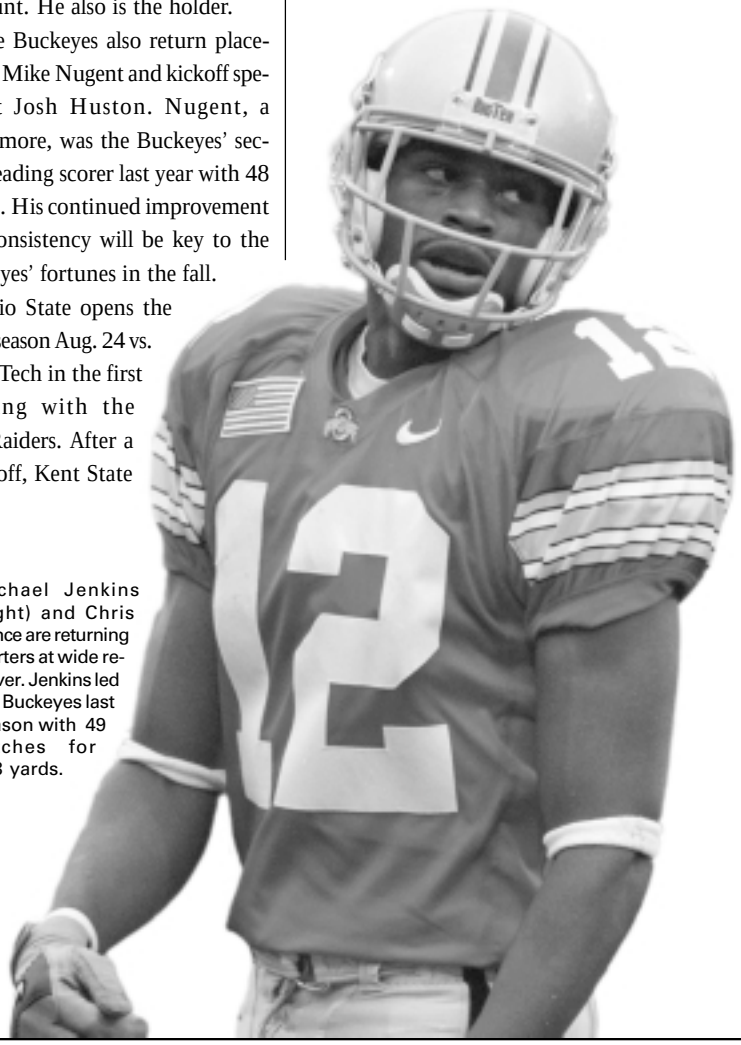

Mike Doss and the Buckeyes have their eyes fixed on a Big Ten Championship.

In the kicking department, Andy Groom returns to handle the punting duties. Groom, a former walk-on, is coming off a superb junior year in which he finished fourth nationally with an average of 45.0 yards per punt. He also is the holder.

The Buckeyes also return placekicker Mike Nugent and kickoff specialist Josh Huston. Nugent, a sophomore, was the Buckeyes' second-leading scorer last year with 48 points. His continued improvement and consistency will be key to the Buckeyes' fortunes in the fall.

Ohio State opens the 2002 season Aug. 24 vs. Texas Tech in the first meeting with the Red Raiders. After a week off, Kent State comes to town for the start of the 12-game regular season, a season that concludes Nov. 23 when Michigan comes to town.

Only time will tell what happens after that.

Michael Jenkins (right) and Chris Vance are returning starters at wide receiver. Jenkins led the Buckeyes last season with 49 catches for 988 yards.

SE 12 MICHAEL JENKINS (6-5, 200, Jr.)*
In his second year as a starter … led team in receptions last year with 49 for 988 yards … averaged 20.2 yards per catch … has just scratched the surface.
7 Chris Gamble (6-2, 180, So.)*
Lettered last year as a true freshman … has a chance to be very special … five catches as a rookie, but has big-play potential.

LT 71 SHANE OLIVEA (6-5, 310, Jr.)*
A starter on the right side last year … broke his left ankle in the Michigan game and missed the bowl game and spring practice … powerful and can be exceptional.
50 Mike Stafford (6-3, 280, Sr.)
Can play guard or center … was converted to scholarship at the start of last year … lone appearance last year was the Purdue game.

LG 63 ADRIEN CLARKE (6-5, 325, Jr.)*
OSU's most experienced lineman … has 20 starts (12 at left tackle and 8 at left guard) … missed spring ball with a broken wrist … amazing agility for his size.
64 Adam Olds (6-5, 275, Fr.)
Redshirted last year … one of two offensive linemen in freshman class last year … local product who needs to step up this year.

C 76 Alex Stepanovich (6-4, 310, Jr.)*
Will take over for All-America LeCharles Bentley … coming off a great spring … bigger and stronger … coaches think he can be one of the best in the Big Ten.
69 Andree Tyree (6-3, 280, Fr.)
Redshirt freshman … recruited as a defensive lineman, but moved to the offensive line last fall and settled in at center in the spring.

RG 78 BRYCE BISHOP (6-3, 312, Jr.)
Started and played surprisingly well last year after two years away from the game … continued to improve in the spring … former USA Today All-American.
70 Scott Kuhnhein (6-4, 285, Sr.)*
Can play any of the interior positions … lone appearance last year was against Purdue … appeared in five games in 2000.

RT 53 Ivan Douglas (6-8, 305, Jr.)
Returns to action this year after missing all of last season with a blood clot in his lung … started the first two games of 2000 at left tackle … had a productive spring.
79 Ryan Cook (6-7, 305, Fr.)
Impressive early last year but wound up being redshirted as a true freshman … needs to be ready this year, especially with Douglas' medical history.

Returning starters in Caps.

TE 88 Ben Hartsock (6-4, 264, Jr.)*
Started four times last year and has played in all 24 games the past two years … fine all-around player … seven catches last year … scholar-athlete.
80 Ryan Hamby (6-5, 240, Fr.)
Redshirt freshman with outstanding speed and size . . . gives the passing game an added dimension … has made some outstanding catches in practice.

FL 4 CHRIS VANCE (6-2, 180, Sr.)
In his second season as a starter … second leading receiver last year with 34 for 605 yards … team-high four TD grabs … can make the spectacular look routine.
3 Bam Childress (5-9, 180, So.)*
Exciting young player with a penchant for making big plays … switched from cornerback to offense last year … had one catch … chomping at the bit!

QB 16 Craig Krenzel (6-4, 215, Jr.)*
Two starts, three appearances last year … guided team to 26-20 win at Michigan in his first start … smart player with good arm … has stayed cool under fire.
15 Scott McMullen (6-3, 215, Jr.) **
Appeared in five games last year and started against Illinois … has quick release and a strong arm … two career TD passes is tops on the team.

FB 38 Branden Joe (6-0, 245, So.)
Converted tailback … made steady strides last year and was No. 2 on the depth chart at year's end …physical player … has turned it up a notch.
43 Brandon Schnittker (6-1, 250, Fr.)
Redshirted last year … has a nice combination of size, power and speed … the third member of the Schnittker family to play at OSU … will be a good one.

TB 30 Lydell Ross (6-0, 210, So.)
Second leading ground gainer in 2001 with 419 yards on 120 carries … best day was 124 yds. at Indiana … can scoot … slowed in spring by hamstring injury.
28 Maurice Hall (5-10, 190, So.)*
Averaged 21.8 yards per kick return and 8.0 yards from scrimmage last year … can turn on a dime and has an extra gear … runs with power ... switching jersey number (20 to 28).

P-K 85 MIKE NUGENT (5-10, 170, So.)
Finished the 2001 campaign as the No. 1 kicker … hit 7-of-14 field goal tries and 27-of-29 PATs as a frosh … live leg … consistent in the spring.
23 JOSH HUSTON (6-1, 195, So.)*
Handles the kickoff duties and was a very effective weapon last year … career long 44 yard FG vs. Wisconsin.

2002 OHIO STATE DEFENSIVE TWO-DEEP

RE 56 DARRION SCOTT (6-3, 271, Jr.)*
Started nine games last year (49 tackles/7 TFL/2 sacks) … has size and speed and is very physical … can play inside … sat out spring after shoulder surgery.
75 Simon Fraser (6-6, 250, So.)*
Will be the third defensive end … played significant minutes last year as a true freshman … driven player who pushed himself hard in the offseason to get stronger.

DT 54 TIM ANDERSON (6-4, 289, Jr.)*
Anchors the defensive front … started all 12 games last year … 38 tackles include nine TFL (second on the team) … hard-nosed … should win postseason honors.
94 Marcus Green (6-3, 300, Fr.)
Redshirted last year … highly recruited in high school … made progress in the spring … plays low.

DT 97 Kenny Peterson (6-4, 265, Sr.)*
Moves from end to tackle this year … started two games last year and played in all 12 … 31 career games … career-best 24 tackles last season … physical.
95 David Thompson (6-5, 290, Sr.)*
Goal line and short-yardage specialist … played in every game last year and had 12 tackles … also had 2 TFL … good athlete and valuable reserve.

LE 93 WILL SMITH (6-4, 250, Jr.)*
Started 10 times last year … 47 tackles and nine tackles-for-loss … a man among boys in spring practice … 24 career games … strong postseason honors candidate.
74 Bryce Culver (6-4, 217, So.)
Walk-on … emerged from spring practice as the primary backup on the left side … lacks size, but has good quickness.

WLB 6 CIE GRANT (6-1, 220, Sr.)**
Returns to linebacker this year after a year at cornerback … started 10 games last year and had 54 tackles and 3 INTs … physical player who can run.
91 Jason Bond (6-3, 240, Jr.) **
Walk-on who has lettered the past two years … six tackles last year … good special teams player … fumble recovery against Akron in 2001 opener.

MLB 35 MATT WILHELM (6-5, 245, Sr.)**
Has played in 34 games with 21 starts … 129 tackles the past two years … missed two games last fall with an ankle sprain and sat out spring ball after surgery.
46 Fred Pagac Jr. (6-1, 225, Jr.)
Has played in 16 games the past three years … started the Wisconsin and San Diego games last year when Wilhelm was hurt … 23 career tackles, 12 last year ... great spring.

SLB 44 Robert Reynolds (6-3, 234, Jr.)*
In his first year as a starter, but has been a frequently used reserve the past two years … smart and can run … started vs. Purdue last year … backup long snapper ... can be good.
36 Pat O'Neill (6-3, 230, Jr.)
Credited with five tackles last year, all solo … has played in 24 games the past two years … good special teams player.

CB 37 Dustin Fox (6-0, 190, So.)
Played in all 12 games last year and led the freshmen in playing time … started vs. Northwestern and South Carolina … converted from safety … 28 tackles in rookie season.
20 Chris Conwell (5-10, 190, Sr.)
Eligible for the first time this year after transferring from Youngstown State … two-year starter at YSU … has excellent quickness and provides experience.

CB 11 Richard McNutt (5-11, 178, Jr.)*
Gets his first chance to start on a regular basis … did start against Illinois and South Carolina last year … chronic ankle condition limits his practice time.
13 Harlen Jacobs (6-1, 197, So.)*
Lacks experience but is one of the Buckeyes' fastest defenders … 12 minutes last year in 12 games.

FS 25 DONNIE NICKEY (6-3, 203, Sr.)**
In his fourth year as a starter … the Buckeyes' most experienced player with 35 games and 34 starts … 191 career tackles … makes the calls in the secondary.
26 Will Allen (6-2, 190, Jr.)
Established himself as the third safety with a solid showing in the spring … good ball sense … will hit you … 14 tackles last year … special teams standout.

SS 2 MICHAEL DOSS (5-11, 204, Sr.)*
The No. 1 SS in college football … two-time All-American … hitter! … decided to play his final year in order to get his degree … 87 tackles in 2001.
41 Thomas Matthews (6-2, 210, So.)
Recruited as a linebacker, but moved to safety last year … played briefly in six games … had his lone tackle of the year in the bowl game … promising player.

P 18 ANDY GROOM (6-1, 185, Sr.)*
Averaged 45 yards per kick and finished fourth nationally and second in the Big Ten in 2001 … long kick of 67 … Guy Award candidate … also holds.
21 B.J. Sander (6-3, 212, Jr.)*
Left-footed kicker … was the starter in 2000 and averaged 41.9 yards on 37 attempts … just four punts last year for an average of 29.8.

WBNS RADIO 1460 THE FAN

All Ohio State football games are broadcast by the Ohio State Buckeyes Radio Sports Network with WBNS Radio serving as the flagship station for the 79-station, statewide network. Paul Keels is the play-by-play announcer. Former Buckeye All-America tackle Jim Lachey serves as color analyst and ex-OSU quarterback Jim Karsatos provides expert commentary from the sideline.

"The Buckeye Roundtable Show" can be heard each Monday throughout the season from 7-9 p.m. on the Ohio State network. Joining Keels, Lachey and Karsatos is yet another former Buckeye, quarterback Kirk Herbstreit, a member of ESPN's College GameDay telecast. The show will originate from different affiliate sites around the state from week-to-week.

The "The Coach's Call-In Show" airs every Thursday during the season on the Ohio State Buckeyes Radio Network. Keels, Herbstreit and Lachey serve as co-hosts.

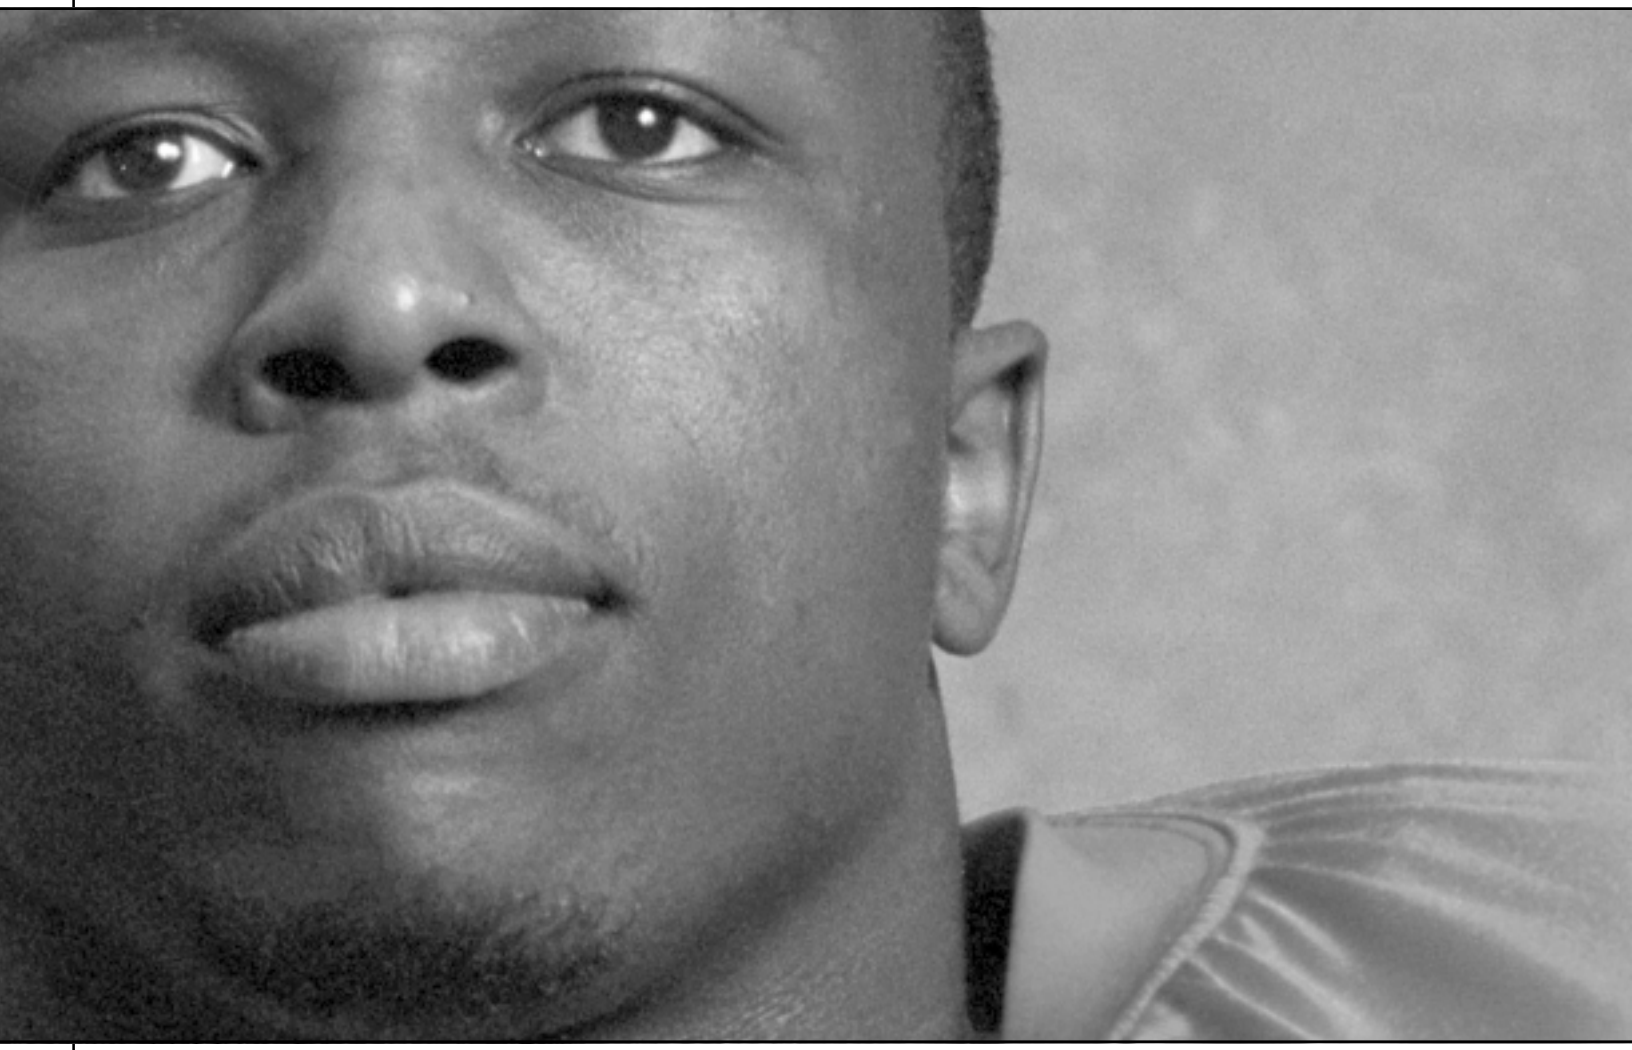

WBNS 1460 The Fan serves as the flagship station for the 79-station, statewide, Ohio State Sports Radio Network.

26 Will Allen

Free Safety
Dayton, Ohio
Wayne High School
6-2, 190, Jr./Jr.
Arts & Sciences

Backs up three-year incumbent Donnie Nickey at free safety but can play either of the safety positions … also the Buckeyes' nickel back … enhanced his status with a terrific showing in spring practice … intelligent player and a fine technician … reads well and gets to the ball in a hurry … has played in all 24 games the past two years, but the majority of that time has come with the special teams … 20 of his 21 career tackles have been solo stops … is a good young football player … 2001 RECAP: Totaled 50 minutes of playing time and was credited with 14 tackles, including 13 solos … picked off his first-career interception at Indiana and returned it 32 yards … also recorded his first-career sack against Northwestern … 2000 RECAP: Played in all 12 games, mostly with the special teams … credited with seven tackles, all solos, as a true freshman … recorded his first collegiate tackle against Fresno State in the season opener … two tackles against Miami was his top effort … HIGH SCHOOL: Helped lead Huber Heights Wayne to the Division I state runner-up spot as a senior … was a classmate of current OSU receiver John Hollins … PERSONAL: Son of Keith and Monica Allen … enjoys spending time with his friends and reading the Bible … born June 17, 1982.

54 Tim Anderson

Defensive Tackle
Clyde, Ohio
Clyde High School
6-4, 289, Sr./Jr.
History

Will be in his second year as a starter at defensive tackle … tough, physical football player who anchors the inside … made dramatic improvement last year and was one of the most pleasant surprises … should be in the running for all-league honors this year … coming off a tremendous spring … doesn't say much, but is certainly a leader on the field … good technician who goes all-out on every snap … 2001 RECAP: Stepped in for Ryan Pickett, who left early for the NFL, at tackle and had an outstanding first year as a starter … started all 12 games and was one of the most pleasant surprises of the season … finished the season with 38 tackles, including 30 solo stops … tied for second on the team in tackles-for-loss with nine … also had three sacks … just seemed to get better and better … named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week following the Minnesota game, where he had seven tackles, two sacks and two forced fumbles … picked off his first career interception at Michigan, setting up Ohio State's third touchdown of the first half … also had eight tackles at Michigan … 2000 RECAP: Appeared briefly in seven games for a total of 18 minutes … totaled six tackles, including two sacks … three of his tackles and one of his sacks came at Iowa, his top performance of the year … recorded his other sack against Michigan State … 1999 RECAP: Redshirted … HIGH SCHOOL: Won first-team All-Ohio honors and was a USA Today Honorable Mention All-America selection … undefeated and state heavyweight wrestling champion as a senior … PERSONAL: Parents are Jim and Sandy Anderson … an older brother, Bob, played football at Baldwin Wallace and another brother, Jim, played at Wooster College … enjoys country music … born Nov. 22, 1980.

83 Redgie Arden

Tight End
Ironton, Ohio
Ironton High School
6-4, 240, So./Fr.

Redshirt freshman who was recruited as a linebacker, but was moved to tight end midway through spring practice … made a favorable impression on the coaching staff and is expected stay on the offensive side of the ball in the fall … has all the physical attributes to be a good tight end, including size, speed and hands … lacks experience at this level but did play tight end in high school, so the position is not completely foreign to him … a fine athlete, who is willing to play where ever he can best help the team … physical player … 2000 RECAP: Redshirted … HIGH SCHOOL: A First-Team SuperPrep All-American ... Division IV Associated Press co-Defensive Player of the Year … three-time first-team All-Ohio at linebacker …107 tackles, eight sacks and three interceptions as a senior ... first player to verbally commit to OSU in the 2001 class … also played basketball and was a member of the track and field team … PERSONAL: Born Oct. 21, 1981 … son of Phillip and Sally Arden … one sister, Amber … enjoys hunting, fishing and weightlifting.

Moves back to linebacker this year after a season as a starting cornerback … has size and speed and is being counted on to help fill the void created by the departure of Joe Cooper and Courtland Bullard … physical player who is much more at home at linebacker, but who offered to help out at corner in 2001 when the Buckeyes were looking for a starter … his speed at linebacker will allow the Buckeyes to stay in their "base" defense a little longer and not go to the nickel package quite as quickly … that speed should also make him effective on the blitz … consistently put up good numbers in the spring … 2001 RECAP: One of the more intriguing stories of the year … emerged from spring practice as a solid backup at linebacker, but surprised the coaching staff in the fall by asking to move to cornerback, a position he had never played … given the opportunity, he worked his way into the two-deep and started 10 of the 12 games … finished the year as the Buckeyes fourth-leading tackler with 56 stops … also had five passes broken up and a three interceptions (Penn State, Purdue and South Carolina) … had a career-high nine tackles against Northwestern and eight at Penn State … scooped up a fumble at UCLA and returned it 32 yards … suffered a mild concussion at Minnesota, but was back in the lineup the following week … 2000 RECAP: Was shifted from safety to linebacker in the spring of 2000 … did not play in the first two games, but did see action in the last 10 … had 13 tackles … four stops at Iowa was his top effort … also excelled with the special teams … 1999 RECAP: Played in all 12 games, mainly with the special teams, and had six tackles … 1998 RECAP: Redshirted … HIGH SCHOOL: Won all-state honors as a senior … ran for 2,357 yards and scored 25 touchdowns during his career … also had 171 career tackles … a four-year letterman in track … PERSONAL: Parents are Jeanette and Willie Grant … born Nov. 27, 1979.

Dillard High School
Engineering

Will backup All-American Michael Doss at strong safety and will play on the special teams … good athlete with size and speed working in his favor … recruited as a linebacker but was moved to safety last year … still learning the position, but has found a home in the defensive backfield and should benefit greatly from playing behind Doss … has a bright future with the Buckeyes is he continues to develop … 2001 RECAP: Backup safety and member of the special teams … saw limited action in four games but did not have any statistics … worked his way up to the No. 2 spot on the depth chart at the end of spring ball … 2000 RECAP: Impressed the coaches with his speed and agility, but wound up being redshirted … HIGH SCHOOL: Had five games with at least 15 tackles during a spectacular senior year … also had more than 100 tackles as a junior … PERSONAL: His parents are Geraldine and Thomas Matthews … born Sept. 7, 1981.

15 Scott McMullen

Quarterback
Granville, Ohio
Granville High School
6-3, 215, Sr./Jr.
Turf and Grass Science

Currently listed as No. 2 on the depth chart at quarterback, but still in the hunt for playing time and possibly a starting spot, depending on his performance in the fall … entered spring ball slightly behind Craig Krenzel in the battle to replace Steve Bellisari … was essentially in the same place at the end of the 15 spring practices … has the stronger arm of the two upperclassmen, possesses a quick release and doesn't rattle easily … like Krenzel, can be an effective runner … has played in a total of eight games (5 last year and 3 in 2000) for a total of 38 minutes … made his first career start last year against Illinois … 2001 RECAP: Last-minute starter against Illinois after Steve Bellisari was ruled out the day before the game … completed four-of-13 passes against the Illini, but did throw a 10-yard touchdown pass that tied the score at 7-all … had played in four games for a total of 15 minutes prior to Illinois … 2000 RECAP: Alternated between No. 2 and No. 3 on the depth chart … played in three games for a total of nine minutes … longest stint was five minutes at Iowa … threw his first touchdown pass in the season opener against Fresno State, hooking up with Ricky Bryant on a beautifully thrown 44-yard scoring strike … 1999 RECAP: Redshirted … HIGH SCHOOL: First-Team All-Ohio as a senior … set just about every conceivable Granville passing record during his career … also a standout basketball player … PERSONAL: Parents are Ron and Judy McMullen … born Nov. 18, 1980.

Jim Tressel

Last year was literally and figuratively just the beginning for Jim Tressel as the head football coach at The Ohio State University. Named to his present position Jan. 18, 2001, Tressel led his first Buckeye squad to a 7-5 record that included a dramatic road win over archrival Michigan in the regular-season finale. It was Ohio State's first victory in Ann Arbor since 1987 and, as such, a tremendously important achievement for the football program.

But what the Buckeyes accomplished in 2001 is only part of the story. Equally important was the way it was accomplished.

Under Tressel's leadership, the Buckeyes played with a renewed passion and pride that demonstrated an understanding and appreciation of Ohio State's rich football tradition. In addition to giving great effort every game, they conducted themselves with class and dignity on the field. Their ability to rally from a 28-0 deficit in the Outback Bowl and tie the score at 28 is a testimony to the discipline instilled by Tressel.

Off the field, Tressel's players also have taken an active role in the community and are frequent visitors at charity functions, elementary schools and local hospitals.

"We want our fans to be proud of us in the classroom, in the community and on the football field," Tressel said on the day he was hired.

Tressel's impact on the Buckeyes should come as no surprise. As the head coach at Youngstown State for 15 years before coming to Ohio State, he was one of the most respected Division 1-AA coaches in America.

And those years at Youngstown were ripe with success, his Penguin teams winning four national championships and qualifying for the Division 1-AA playoffs a remarkable 10 times. During his stay at Youngstown State, he amassed an overall record of 135-57-2 and he was a four-time pick as National Coach of the Year.

As he heads into this, his 17th season as a head coach, the 49-year-old Tressel owns a lifetime coaching record of 142-62-2.

Tressel's Ohio State roots run deep.

His father, the late Lee Tressel, played, albeit briefly, at Ohio State before his promising collegiate career was cut short by World War II. As a youth, Jim grew up shagging balls for Cleveland Browns' great Lou "The Toe" Groza, who, of course, also attended Ohio State. Both the elder Tressel, who would go on to become a coaching legend at Baldwin Wallace College in northeastern Ohio, and Groza, a family friend and neighbor, were lifelong Ohio State fans, a feeling not lost on the younger Tressel.

That bond grew even stronger in 1983 when Jim, in the infancy of his own coaching career, was named quarterbacks and receivers coach at Ohio State. During a memorable three-year stay in Columbus, the Buckeyes won 27 games, captured the 1984 Big Ten Championship and played in the Fiesta, Rose and Citrus bowls.

Following the 1985 season, Tressel, at age 33, left Ohio State to become head coach at Youngstown State. In addition to capturing four national titles, the Penguins also appeared in two other championship games.

Additionally, five of Tressel's teams won 12 or more games in a season, including his 1994 championship squad, which fashioned a 14-0-1 record. His 1991, '92, '93 and '94 teams all played in the national championship tilt, becoming just the second Division 1-AA school to make four-consecutive appearances in the title game.

Tressel was selected as National Coach of the Year in 1991, '93, '94 and '97. When he left Youngstown State, he was the second-most successful coach in school history, trailing only Dwight "Deke" Beede, who amassed 147 wins in a 32-year span.

But Tressel's won-lost record, as extraordinary as it is, was only part of the reason for his appeal during the Ohio State search process.

Equally impressive was the showing of the Youngstown State team in the classroom, where during his last two years a total of 67 players achieved a grade point average of 3.00 or better during the fall semester.

Tressel also was deeply involved in the Youngstown community, taking an active leadership role in a number of key civic issues and working extensively with Ronald McDonald's Children's Charities and the Salvation Army. His genuine concern for the people of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley area made him a community icon.

"What impressed me most in the interview process was Jim Tressel the person," Director of Athletics Andy Geiger said when Tressel was formally introduced as Ohio State's new coach. "As impeccable as his coaching record is, it is the other things that he does that make him the ideal person for this job."

COACHING FAMILY: His father, Lee Tressel, compiled a career record of 155-52-6 at Baldwin Wallace and won the 1978 Division III National Championship. An older brother, Dick Tressel, coached at Hamline University in Minnesota between 1978 and 2000 and compiled a record of 124-102-2 in 23 seasons. That gives the Tressel family an all-time record of 421-216-10, for a winning percentage of .663. Lee and Jim are the only father-and-son combination ever to win national championships.

THE MAN: Away from football, Tressel enjoys reading, spending time with his family and being involved in the community.

Thus, Jim Tressel became the 22nd head football coach in Ohio State history.

"Our goal will be to uphold and build upon the great tradition that is Ohio State, and to develop each of our student-athletes to their fullest potential both on and off the field," Tressel said. "We will stress academics, athletics and community responsibility. The two greatest days in our student-athletes lives should be the day they walk across the stage to receive their diploma and the day they slip a championship ring on their finger."

After accepting the Ohio State job, Tressel immediately hit the recruiting trail, literally going coast-to-coast in an effort to tie up any loose ends that might have resulted from the Buckeyes not having a head coach for 17 days. The result was a consensus Top 20 class.

Next, Tressel tackled the task of putting his staff together, ultimately deciding to bring in six new assistants and retain three members of the previous staff. Eight of his nine assistants are from Ohio and the ninth has coached in the Buckeye State. It is a diverse group that brings NFL, Big Ten, Big East, ACC, Big 12, SEC, Pac-10 and Conference USA experience to Ohio State.

This past year that staff landed one of the top recruiting classes in the nation, a group that is being heralded as one of the finest ever assembled at Ohio State.

Tressel was born in Mentor, Ohio, where his father reeled off 34-consecutive wins as a high school coach before becoming the head coach at Massillon High School. But he spent most of his childhood in Berea, more often than not accompanying his father to football practices and games at Baldwin Wallace.

Tressel graduated from Berea High School in 1971. He played for his father at Baldwin Wallace, earning four letters at quarterback and winning all-conference honors as a senior in 1974. He graduated cum laude in 1975 with a degree in education.

Following in his father's footsteps, Jim embarked upon his coaching career in the fall of 1975 as a graduate assistant at Akron. He remained at Akron through the 1978 season, serving in a full-time capacity his last three years as coach of the quarterbacks, receivers and running backs. While at Akron, he earned his master's degree.

Tressel spent the 1979 and '80 seasons as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Miami of Ohio. He left the "Cradle of Coaches" in 1981 to become the quarterbacks coach at Syracuse, where he remained for two years before returning to his home state in 1983 as a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State staff.

In Tressel's first year at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a 9-3 record and defeated Pittsburgh in the Fiesta Bowl. OSU scored the winning touchdown on a 39-yard pass from quarterback Mike Tomczak to split end Thad Jemison with 39 seconds left in the game. Not a bad way for the Buckeyes' new quarterbacks and receivers coach to begin his stay in Columbus.

In 1984 and '85, Tressel was given the added responsibility of coaching the Buckeyes' running backs. The '84 team won the Big Ten and played in the Rose Bowl, and Tressel protégé, junior tailback Keith Byars, finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting. In 1985, the Buckeyes defeated BYU in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

Tressel's departure for Youngstown State at the end of the 1985 campaign came as no surprise. Widely regarded as one of the up-and-coming young assistant coaches in college football, he had paid his dues and was ready for the next step.

Still, the transition to head coach was not easy. Tressel's first team lost its first four games and finished with a 2-9 record. His first win as a college coach came against Tennessee Tech, Oct. 11, in Youngstown. The score was 30-6.

But from that humble beginning, Tressel built a powerhouse.

In 1987, the second-year coach guided the Penguins to an 8-4 record and their first appearance in the Division I-AA playoffs. YSU won the Ohio Valley Conference title that year and Tressel was named OVC Coach of the Year.

In 1989, the Penguins began an incredible run of six-consecutive playoff appearances, winning three national championships and playing in four-consecutive title games between 1991 and 1994.

Tressel's first national crown came in 1991, when the Penguins defeated Marshall, 25-17, in the championship game. As a result of that victory, Jim and his dad (who died in 1981) became the only father-and-son combination in college football to win national championships (Lee Tressel won the 1978 Division III crown at Baldwin Wallace).

The Penguins lost a rematch with Marshall the following year, but won the rubber game with the Thundering Herd in 1993 for their second I-AA title in three years. They then made it three-out-of four in 1994 with a 28-14 win over Boise State.

Tressel's fourth national title came in 1997, when the Penguins defeated McNeese State, 10-9, in the championship game. Youngstown State also played for the title in 1999, but lost to Georgia Southern in the finals.

During the decade of the 1990s, Youngstown State had a combined record of 103-27-2, the most wins by any Division I-AA team and the fourth most of any I-A or I-AA program in the country.

In 2000, Tressel kicked off the millennium on a successful note by guiding his team to a 9-3 record and its 10th appearance in the playoffs. As it turned out, that was his last season at Youngstown State. But because of the positive impact he had on the school and the community, his many fans in Youngstown continue to follow his career at Ohio State.

Tressel's list of accolades includes being selected as the Chevrolet National Coach of the Year in 1993, '94 and '97; the American Football Coaches Association National Coach of the Year in 1991 and '94; and the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year in 1994. He also was the AFCA's Regional Coach of the Year in 1987 and '93 and a six-time pick as Ohio Coach of the Year.

In a career filled with highlights, Tressel recorded his 100th career victory against Indiana State in 1997. He is the third member of his family to reach that plateau, joining his father and his older brother, Dick (currently the OSU associate director of football operations), who coached at Hamline University in Minnesota. As a family, Lee, Jim and Dick have won over 400 games.

Jim is actively involved with the American Football Coaches Association, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Outstanding Young Men of America. He and his wife, Ellen, who is a graduate of Youngstown State, live in nearby Upper Arlington. They are the parents of four children: Zak (7/28/79), Carlee (11/23/82), Eric (9/18/83) and Whitney (8/1/85).

"The two greatest days in our student-athletes lives should be the day they walk across the stage to receive their diploma and the day they slip a championship ring on their finger."

Jim Bollman

Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line

Jim Bollman begins his second season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Bollman is the Buckeyes' offensive coordinator and also coaches the offensive line. In his first year at Ohio State, he played a major role in the development of All-America center LeCharles Bentely, who completed his career following the 2001 season as the winner of the Dave Rimington Award, given to the best center in the country.

A native of Ashtabula, Ohio, Bollman came to Ohio State from the Chicago Bears, where he spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as coach of the tight ends. He also spent the 1998 season in the NFL as tight ends coach for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Bollman played his college football at Ohio University. He won four letters as an offensive lineman for the Bobcats and was team captain as a senior in 1976. He graduated from Ohio University in 1977 with a degree in education.

Bollman launched his coaching career in June of 1977 as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio). In January of 1978, he was named offensive line coach, a position he held until 1982, when he accompanied head coach Tom Reed to North Carolina State.

During his three years at N.C. State, Bollman was the assistant head coach. He also coached the offensive line in 1983 and '84 and the inside linebackers in 1985.

In 1986, Bollman began a productive five-year association with Jim Tressel at Youngstown State. Bollman was defensive coordinator his first three years and offensive coordinator his last two. During his stay at YSU, the Penquins qualified for the Division I-AA Playoffs three times.

Following the 1990 season, Bollman was named offensive line coach at the University of Virginia. He remained there four years, helping the Cavaliers to three bowl appearances.

In December of 1994, Bollman joined Nick Saban's staff at Michigan State. He spent three seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach. In 1997, the Spartans allowed a Big Ten-low 16 sacks.

Jim and his wife Terri, a native of Dayton, have two daughters: Courtney (8/29/81) and Stephanie (4/18/84).

Recruiting Coordinator/Tight Ends

Bill Conley begins his 16th season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. In addition to coaching the Buckeyes' tight ends, Conley also serves as recruiting coordinator.

Conley is widely regarded as one of the premier recruiting coordinators in college football. Ohio State's 1996 class was ranked No. 1 in the country by several recruiting services and the 2002 class rated No. 2. Following the 1999 season, The Sporting News selected him as one of the top five recruiters in the country.

Conley, a native of Paintsville, Ky., and a 1972 graduate of Ohio State, has worked for three head coaches at Ohio State – Earle Bruce, John Cooper and now Jim Tressel.

This is actually Conley's second tour of duty with Ohio State. He coached the Buckeyes' linebackers between 1984 and 1987, then spent three years away from his alma mater before returning in 1991 as recruiting coordinator. During his first stint, he helped develop a number of outstanding players, including All-Americans Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson.

Conley played three years of football for the Buckeyes, walking on as a sophomore and later receiving a scholarship from head coach Woody Hayes. He won two letters at offensive guard.

Following graduation, Conley embarked upon a highly-successful high school career, posting a combined 12-year record of 78-39-3 during stops at London, Groveport and Middletown high schools in Ohio.

Conley joined Bruce's staff at the end of the 1983 season. During his four years with the Buckeyes, OSU won two Big Ten championships and played in three bowl games, including the Rose and Cotton bowls.

Conley coached at nearby Dublin Coffman High School from 1988 to 1990, but returned to Ohio State in 1991 as recruiting coordinator.

In 1992, Conley took on the added responsibility of coaching the Buckeyes' defensive ends. One of his protégé, Mike Vrabel, was a member of the 2002 Super Bowl champion New England Patriots.

In 1997, he switched to the offensive side of the ball as coach of the tight ends.

Bill has two sons, Billy (10/4/75) and Craig (3/22/82).

The Conley Family (l-r) - Bill, Craig and Billy

Quarterbacks and Receivers

Joe Daniels begins his second season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' quarterbacks and receivers.

Daniels is a native of Bethel Park, Pa. Prior to coming to Ohio State, he spent four years at the University of Cincinnati. He was the Bearcats' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in 2000.

Daniels graduated from Slippery Rock in 1964 with a degree in physical education. He played running back in college and was a four-year letterwinner at Slippery Rock.

Daniels launched his coaching career in 1964 as a high school coach in Johnstown, Pa. He became a graduate assistant at East Stroudsburg State in 1966 and landed his first full-time position as an assistant at the University of New Hampshire in 1967.

In 1968, Daniels took over as quarterbacks and receivers coach at Boston College. He remained there for 10 years before leaving in 1978 to become quarterbacks coach at West Virginia. He coached with Mountaineers for two years (1978-79), leaving in 1980 to become offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh.

Following the 1982 season, Daniels jumped to the professional ranks as receivers coach for the Cleveland Browns. He spent three seasons with the Browns (1983-85) before accepting a similar position with the Buffalo Bills.

After two seasons in Buffalo (1986-87) and a year out of coaching (1988), Daniels returned to the college ranks as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Akron.

At the conclusion of the 1989 campaign, Daniels returned to professional football as quarterbacks coach with the New York Jets. He spent two seasons with the Jets (1990-91) before entering private business in 1992.

Daniels resumed his coaching career in 1997 as running backs coach at Cincinnati. He then coached the Bearcats wide receivers for two years (1998-99) before being elevated to offensive coordinator and assistant head coach prior to the 2000 campaign.

During his career, Daniels has tutored a number of outstanding players, including Dan Marino, Ken O'Brien, Andre Reed and Ozzie Newsome.

Joe and his wife, Kathy, have two children, a son Matthew (12/16/85) and a daughter Kaitlin (6/17/87).

Defensive Coordinator

Mark Dantonio begins his second season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Dantonio is the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator. In his first year at Ohio State, the Buckeyes ranked first in the Big Ten in passing defense and second in scoring defense.

Prior to joining the Ohio State staff, Dantonio, a native of Zanesville, Ohio, spent six seasons at Michigan State, where he coached the Spartans' defensive backs. Following the 1999 season, he was promoted to associate head coach.

This is Dantonio's second stop at Ohio State. During the 1983 and '84 seasons, he was a graduate assistant on Earle Bruce's staff. He also has coached at Ohio University, Purdue, Butler (Kan.) Junior College, Akron, Youngstown State and Kansas.

An All-Ohio pick at Zanesville, Dantonio played his college football at the University of South Carolina, earning three letters as a defensive back (1976-78). He graduated from South Carolina in 1979 with a degree in education.

Dantonio embarked upon his coaching career in the fall of 1979 as an assistant high school coach at Westside High School in Anderson, S.C.

In 1980, he served as a graduate assistant at Ohio University, where he received his master's degree. He also was a graduate assistant at Purdue in 1981.

Dantonio moved to Butler Junior College in 1982 as defensive coordinator. He then spent the next two seasons at Ohio State, traveling with the Buckeyes to the Fiesta and Rose bowls in 1983 and '84, respectively.

In 1985, Dantonio coached the defensive secondary at Akron. He joined Jim Tressel's staff at Youngstown State in 1986 and remained there through the 1990 campaign. During his stay at YSU, the Penguins made three trips to the Division I-AA playoffs. In 1990, when Dantonio was defensive coordinator, Youngstown State posted a perfect 11-0 record during the regular season.

Dantonio began a four-year stint at Kansas in 1991, serving as the Jayhawks' defensive backfield coach. He left Kansas for Michigan State following the 1994 season. During his years at Michigan State, the Spartans' secondary was regarded as one of the best in the nation.

Mark and his wife, Becky, who is a graduate of Ohio State, have two daughters: Kristen (9/10/92) and Lauren (11/2/94).

Special Teams Coordinator

Luke Fickell is the newest member of the Ohio State football coaching staff. The 27-year-old Fickell, who joined Jim Tressel's staff this past April, will serve as the Buckeyes' special teams coordinator. He also will assist defensive line coach Jim Heacock in the tutoring of the Buckeyes' front four.

Fickell took over the duties vacated by Ken Conatser, who resigned following the 2001 season to accept a coaching position at the University of Kansas.

Luke Fickell started 50-consecutive games for the Buckeyes

Fickell comes to Ohio State from the University of Akron where he spent the past two years as defensive line coach for Lee Owens.

Fickell is certainly no stranger to Ohio State football fans. He played for the Buckeyes between 1992 and 1996, redshirting the first year and then starting the next four seasons at nose guard. He started 50-consecutive games between 1993 and 1996.

Fickell's last start was certainly his most memorable. After tearing the pectoral muscle in his chest four days before the Buckeyes were to take on undefeated Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl, Fickell started and played the entire game, in the process helping the Buckeyes capture a thrilling 20-17 win over the second-ranked Sun Devils.

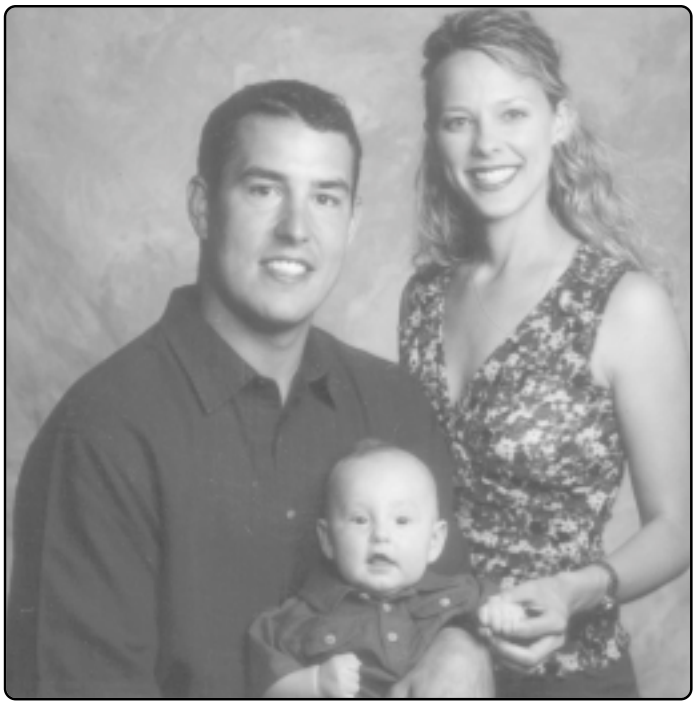

Fickell, a native of Westerville and a graduate of DeSales High School in Columbus, concluded his Ohio State career with 212 total tackles, including 26 tackles-for-losses and six sacks.

Following his graduation in 1997, Fickell spent a year on the injured reserve list with the New Orleans Saints in the NFL. He returned to Ohio State in 1999 and was a graduate assistant on John Cooper's defensive staff for one season.

He joined the Akron staff following the 1999 season.

Luke and his wife, Amy, have an infant son, Landon (3/2/02).

The Fickell Family (l-r) - Luke, Landon and Amy

Defensive Line

Jim Heacock is in his seventh season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' defensive line and has coached four first-round draft choices since coming to Ohio State.

A native of Alliance, Ohio, Heacock graduated from Muskingum College in 1970, winning three letters as a defensive back for the Muskies.

Following his graduation, Heacock was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He also played briefly with the Cincinnati Bengals before embarking upon his coaching career in 1972 as a graduate assistant at Bowling Green under Don Nehlen.

Heacock's first full-time coaching opportunity came in 1973, when he returned to Muskingum to coach the defensive secondary. After two years in that role, he was promoted to defensive coordinator.

Heacock left Muskingum in 1978 to become defensive coordinator at Bowling Green. He spent five years there, the last three as assistant head coach. The 1982 Falcons won the Mid-America Conference title and played in the California Bowl.

Following the 1982 season, Heacock became defensive line coach at the University of Washington. During his five years at the Pac-10 school (1983-87), the Huskies played in five bowl games and were renowned for their stellar defensive line play.

In 1988, Heacock was named head coach at Illinois State University. Playing an ambitious schedule that included a number of Division I teams, he, nonetheless, built the Redbirds into a winner, posting a combined record of 16-14-2 during his last three years.

Heacock joined John Cooper's staff at Ohio State in 1996. He coached the defensive tackles the first four years and also coached the defensive ends in 2000.With the defensive line leading the way, the Buckeyes recorded a school-record tying 47 sacks in 2000.

When Jim Tressel took over as Ohio State's head coach in January 2001, Heacock was retained from Cooper's staff.

Heacock is from a football family. His brother, Jon, was named to succeed Tressel as head coach at Youngstown State, while another brother, Jeff, is head coach and athletics director at Muskingum.

Born June 23, 1948, Jim and his wife, Sherry, have two daughters Stephanie (9/10/81) and Shannon (4/11/83).

Mark Snyder

Linebackers

Mark Snyder is in his second season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Snyder coaches the Buckeyes' linebackers.

A native of Ironton, Ohio, Snyder came to Ohio State from the University of Minnesota, where he spent four years as the Gophers' defensive ends coach. Prior to Minnesota, Snyder also coached at Marshall, Central Florida and Youngstown State.

Snyder was an all-state selection at Ironton High School. He played his college football at Marshall, capturing All-America defensive back honors as a senior when the Thundering Herd finished as runners-up at the 1987 Division I-AA National Championships.

Snyder graduated from Marshall in the spring of 1988 and began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater the following fall.

He moved to Central Florida the next year and spent two years there, the first as a graduate assistant and the second as a part-time coach working with the linebackers.

In 1991, Snyder returned to the Buckeye State as coach of the outside linebackers on Jim Tressel's Youngstown State staff. In 1994, he was given the added responsibility of special teams coordinator and inside linebacker coach. Tressel promoted him to defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1996.

After six successful years at Youngstown State, during which the Penguins won three Division 1-AA national championships and played in four-consecutive title games, Snyder left Youngstown State for Minnesota at the conclusion of the 1996 campaign.

During Snyder's stay at Minnesota, the Gopher defense twice set school records for single-season sacks and averaged 40.7 sacks during a three-year span. While at Minnesota, Snyder helped develop Lamanzer Williams, who led the nation in sacks in 1997 and Karon Riley, the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year in 2000.

Mark and his wife Beth, who is also a native of Ironton and a graduate of the University of Kentucky, have three daughters: Chelsea (6/8/92), Lindsay (10/14/93) and Shaylee (1/22/01).

Tim Spencer

Running Backs

Tim Spencer is in his ninth season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Spencer coaches the OSU running backs.

Spencer is from St. Clairsville, Ohio. One of the most sought-after running backs in the country as a high school senior, he enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1979 and went on to be a three-year starter and two-time All-Big Ten pick.

The Buckeyes' starting fullback as a sophomore, he moved to tailback his final two years and led the team in rushing in both of those seasons. He closed out his career with 3,553 yards rushing and still ranks third on OSU's all-time rushing list trailing only Heisman Trophy winners Archie Griffin (5,589) and Eddie George (3,768).

Spencer was the Buckeyes' co-captain and MVP as a senior. He also was MVP of the 1982 Holiday Bowl, rushing for 167 yards and two touchdowns in the Buckeyes' 47-17 dismantling of Brigham Young. During his four years at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 38-10 and played in four bowl games, including the 1980 Rose Bowl.

Following his senior year, Spencer was the second player taken in the USFL draft. He played a year each with Chicago, Arizona and Memphis before signing with the San Diego Chargers, where he was a four-year starter at fullback.

Spencer retired from professional football in 1990 and returned to Ohio State to finish his degree requirements. He received the latter in 1993 and was named to John Cooper's staff prior to the 1994 season.

During his stay at Ohio State, he has helped develop several outstanding runners, including George (a runner much in Spencer's own stead) and 1,000-yard rushers Pepe Pearson, Michael Wiley and Jonathan Wells.

Tim and his wife Gilda, who practices law in Columbus, have two sons: Cole (7/18/86) and Evan (5/26/93).

Defensive Backs

Mel Tucker is beginning his second season as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Tucker coaches the Buckeyes' defensive backs.

Tucker came to Ohio State from LSU, where he coached the defensive backs for Nick Saban. In his only season on the LSU staff, the Tigers posted an 8-4 record.

Prior to LSU, Tucker was defensive backs coach at Miami (Ohio) in 1998. He began his coaching career in 1997 as a graduate assistant under Saban at Michigan State. His responsibilities at MSU included assisting with the defensive secondary and working with the scout teams.

After two years of learning the ropes at Michigan State, Tucker accepted a full-time position with Terry Hoeppner at Miami. The Redhawks posted a 7-4-1 record in 1999, including a 28-3 upset of Northwestern in the season opener.

Tucker is from Cleveland, where he earned all-state honors at Cleveland Heights High School. He was a two-time member of the Cleveland Plain Dealer's all-scholastic team and also was a standout basketball player.

Tucker played his college football at Wisconsin. He earned four letters at defensive back for the Badgers before receiving his degree in business management in 1995. He redshirted in 1993, in what would have been his senior season, after suffering a broken leg in fall camp. But he returned to action in 1994 and helped the Badgers to an 8-3-1 record and a bowl berth.

Following graduation, Tucker enjoyed a brief stay with the Hamilton Tiger Cats in the Canadian Football League.

Since leaving the playing field and turning to coaching, Tucker has enjoyed a meteoric rise to the top of his profession.

Mel and his wife Jo-Ellyn were married in June of 1999. They have an infant son, Joseph (2/18/02).

John Hill

PROGRAM ASSISTANT

John Hill is in his fifth year as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State. Hill, 30, works directly with recruiting coordinator Bill Conley in all aspects of the recruiting process, coordinating on-campus visits and tours, and also oversees the walk-on program. Additionally, he helps coordinate the Buckeyes' summer football camps. A native of Huber Heights, Ohio and a graduate of Wayne High School, Hill spent four years as a student assistant coach at OSU, serving in that capacity from 1994 through 1997. In 1998, Hill graduated from OSU with a bachelor's degree in secondary education. He joined the Ohio State staff as a graduate assistant in 1998, spending his first two years in an administrative capacity. In 2000, he assisted with the Ohio State offense, but returns to an administrative role this year. Hill was awarded his master's degree from Ohio State in June of 2000.

Sorie Kanu

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Sorie Kanu is in his first year as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio State. He works with the Buckeye defense, assisting fulltime coach Mark Snyder with the linebacking corps.

Kanu is a native of Alexandria, Va. and a graduate of T.C. Williams High School, the school that was the subject of the recent movie "Remember the Titans."

Kanu played his college football at Michigan State and was a four-year starter at defensive back for the Spartans from 1995 to 1998. He was selected as team captain and MVP as a senior in 1998.

Following his collegiate career, he enjoyed brief stays with the Detroit Lions and the Hamilton Tigercats of the professional ranks before launching his coaching career as a student assistant at MSU in 2000. He served in that capacity for two years, at the same time working in private business for a firm in Southfield, Mich.

Kanu and his daughter, Mia, reside in nearby Hilliard, Ohio.

Mark Staten

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Mark Staten is in his first year on the Ohio State football coaching staff. His responsibilities include assisting offensive coordinator Jim Bollman with the offensive line.

Staten, a native of Dowagiac, Mich., played his college football at Miami of Ohio. He as a four-year starter at defensive tackle for the Redskins (1988-92) and won All-Mid-American Conference honors as a senior. He then played professionally for two years (Cincinnati and New England), before suffering a career ending knee injury at the start of the 1995 season. He was on the regular-season roster for the Patriots at the end of 1993 and beginning of 1994 as a reserve offensive lineman and long snapper.

After a brief stint in high school coaching, Staten returned to his alma mater in 2000 as a student assistant coach for the Redhawks. He remained there for two years, working with the defensive line his first year and the offensive line in 2001 as a graduate assistant.

Staten and his wife, Dana, who is a kindergarten teacher, live in Pataskala, Ohio.

NOTE: The list contains full-time assistant football coaches based upon available research material.

ERNIE GODFREY

Ohio State has had several outstanding assistant coaches down through the years. But perhaps none has had more of an impact than the legendary Ernie Godfrey, who spent 33 years on the Ohio State staff, assisting seven different head coaches. Ernie joined the Ohio State ranks in 1929 as an assistant for Sam Willaman. He would go on to work for Francis Schmidt, Paul Brown, Carroll Widdoes, Paul Bixler, Wes Fesler and Woody Hayes before retiring in 1961. After retirement, at the urging of Hayes, he spent 11 years working with the Buckeyes' kickers. An Ohio State graduate, he lettered in football in 1914 with the Buckeyes. Godfrey, who was on the coaching staff of five national championship teams and six Rose Bowl squads, is a member of the National Football Fourndation and Hall of Fame. The Columbus chapter of that organization is named after him.

Bob Tucker

Director of Football Operations

Bob Tucker is in his second year as director of football operations at Ohio State. He accompanied head coach Jim Tressel to Columbus from Youngstown State.

This is Tucker's second stint with the Buckeyes. He was a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State staff from 1979 through 1984, serving first as outside linebackers coach (1979-81) and later as defensive coordinator (1982-84).

Tucker is a native of Sandusky, Ohio. He graduated from the College of Wooster in 1965 with a degree in health and physical education, and received a master's from Penn State, also in health and physical education, in 1967.

Tucker began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Penn State, spending the 1965 and '66 seasons on Joe Paterno's staff while doing graduate work.

After two successful seasons (1967-68) as an assistant at Massillon High School, Tucker jumped to the collegiate ranks in 1969 as linebackers coach at Wichita State. In 1972, his final season at Wichita, he was defensive coordinator for the Shockers who finished eighth nationally in total defense.

In 1973, Tucker joined Bruce's staff at Iowa State. He spent six years as coach of the defensive ends, helping the Cyclones to back-to-back bowl appearances in 1977 and '78.

Tucker accompanied Bruce to Ohio State in 1979. While at Ohio State, the Buckeyes won three Big Ten championships and played in six bowl games, including two Rose Bowls (1979, '84).

Tucker left Ohio State after the 1984 campaign to become head coach at his alma mater, The College of Wooster. He spent 12 seasons in Wooster before joining Tressel's staff at Youngstown State in 1997. Tucker was defensive coordinator his first three years at Youngstown. He coached the Penguins' linebackers and coordinated the special teams during the 2000 campaign.

The Penguins won the national championship in 1997.

Bob and his wife, Lynn, have three children: Diana (5/2/73), Michelle (9/22/75) and Scott (7/11/79).

The Tucker Family (l-r) - Lynn, Bob, Michelle, Diana and Scott.

Associate Director of Football Operations

Dick Tressel begins his second season as associate director of football operations. In his current role, he assists Bob Tucker in the day-to-day operations of the football program. He also monitors the academic progress of the student-athletes, coordinates community outreach and service programs and serves as a liaison between the football office and other support services at OSU.

Tressel spent 23 years at Hamline University in Minnesota, where he was both head football coach and director of athletics. Tressel compiled an overall record of 124-102-2 with the Pipers. He was the NCAA Division III National Coach of the Year in 1984, leading Hamline to the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference championship.

In 1970, Tressel earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Baldwin-Wallace College. In 1976, he was awarded a master's degree in physical education from Florida State University. He received a doctorate degree from the University of Minnesota in 1996.

Tressel and his wife, Connie, have three sons, Mike (9/28/73), Ben (7/12/75) and Luke (3/15/79). Ben and Luke played football for their father at Hamline. Mike played at Cornell College in Iowa and now is a video intern with the Buckeyes. Luke is a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Minnesota.

Allan Johnson

Director of Football Strength and Conditioning

Allan Johnson is in his second year as Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Ohio State football team. Johnson, 45, joined the Buckeye staff in 2001.

Johnson comes to Ohio State from West Virginia University where, in two separate stints, he spent a total of 13 years as strength and conditioning coach. At WVU, he oversaw the in-season and off-season conditioning programs for all 21 of the Mountaineers' varsity sports.

Johnson also spent four seasons with the Baltimore Orioles and was one of the first full-time strength and conditioning coaches in major league baseball.

One of the most respected and well-known names in his profession, Johnson was one of 10 strength and conditioning coaches nationwide to receive the title of Master Strength & Conditioning Coach in 2001. The award is presented on the basis of professionalism, experience, knowledge and expertise and is the highest honor a strength and conditioning coach can receive from his peers.

Johnson is a native of Parkersburg, W.Va. He graduated from Glenville State College in West Virginia in 1979 with a degree in exercise science. He was an all-conference pick in both football (offensive guard) and track (discus).

Johnson spent the next two years as an assistant high school coach (football and basketball) at Federal Hocking in southeastern Ohio before going to West Virginia University to work on his master's degree.

He was a graduate assistant strength coach at WVU in 1982 and '83. Shortly after receiving his master's in sports management in 1983, he became the Mountaineers head strength and conditioning coach.

Johnson left West Virginia following the 1988 season to join the staff of the Baltimore Orioles. He remained with the Orioles through the 1992 season, returning to West Virginia in November of that year.

Johnson was selected as the Big East Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 1997, '98 and 2000. He was Region II Strength Coach of the Year in 1988.

In 1986, Johnson was selected to serve on the National Strength and Conditioning Association's Special Olympics Advisory Board.

While at West Virginia, Johnson participated in 11 bowl games, including two national championship showdowns (1989 Fiesta Bowl and the 1993 Sugar Bowl). Johnson has had several articles published in various fitness magazines, including The American Fitness Quarterly and The National Strength and Conditioning Association Journal.

He and his wife, Jan, have one son, Adam (15).

Danny Swain

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Danny Swain is in his 33rd year at Ohio State and his 24th year with the department of athletics. He was named head equipment manager in 1991, succeeding longtime equipment boss John Bozick. Swain, who works primarily with football, oversees a staff of six full-time and seven student assistants. He is responsible for selecting and purchasing apparel for all 35 men's and women's varsity sports. He also works closely with the various coaching staffs to ensure the latest and best in protective equipment for Ohio State's student-athletes. Prior to joining the athletics department staff, Swain spent 10 years with the department of intramurals. Swain is a native of Columbus and a graduate of Marion Franklin High School. He and his wife, Cathy, have two sons, Chuck and Matt.

Mike Cochran

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Mike Cochran is in his second year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for football at Ohio State.

Cochran came to Ohio State from Youngstown State, where for six years, he was the director of the Penguins' strength and conditioning program. He oversaw all 18 varsity sports at Youngstown State, including the football program.

Cochran is from Girard, Ohio. He attended Youngstown State and played football for the Penguins, serving as team captain as a senior in 1989. He played both fullback and linebacker and finished his career with 214 total tackles.

Cochran received his undergraduate degree in exercise science from Youngstown State in 1992. He then spent three seasons as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, working with the defense from 1993 to 1995.

In 1995, Cochran was named assistant strength and conditioning coach at YSU. He was named head strength coach in 1996.

Cochran was named to the Youngstown State Hall of Fame in 2000.

Bernardo Amerson

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Bernardo Amerson is in his first season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Ohio State football program. He was formerly the head strength and conditioning coach for the men's basketball team at West Virginia University.

Amerson, a native of Hattiesburg, Miss, has a master's degree (2001) in special education-early intervention from West Virginia and a bachelor of science degree (1999) in sports behavior from WVU.

Amerson, a former linebacker, was a member of the Mountaineers from 1993-96, earning a scholarship and three letters his final three seasons after walking on in 1992. He twice earned recognition as the best-conditioned athlete on the WVU football team (1994-95) and participated on three bowl teams as a Mountaineer.

Amerson, born Jan. 11, 1974, spent one season with the CFL'S Calgary Stanpeders before returning to West Virginia in 1998 to work as a student assistant in the Mountaineer strength program.

As a coach, he has trained more than 30 student-athletes who were drafted or signed as free agents by the NFL, NBA and MLB.

He is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

John Lombardo

Head Team Physician

John Lombardo is in his 12th year as a member of the Ohio State sports medicine staff and his ninth year as head team physician for the department of athletics.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Lombardo received his bachelors' degree in pre-med studies and physical education from the University of Dayton. He graduated from Ohio State's College of Medicine in 1977 and completed his residency in family medicine in 1980 at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Dayton.

From 1981 to 1990 Lombardo served as medical director of sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic. During that time, he served as team physician for the Cleveland Cavaliers and as a medical consultant for the Cleveland Browns, the Cleveland Ballet, Cleveland State University athletics and Chagrin Falls High School.

During that same time period, Lombardo had extensive involvement in several international competitions, including serving as head team physician for the USA delegations at the World University Games in Yugoslavia in 1987 and the Winter Olympic Games in Calgary in 1988.

Lombardo returned to Ohio State in 1990 as Chairman of the Department of Family Medicine, Director of the Sports Medicine Center and team physician for the Athletic Department. He was named head team physician in 1993, succeeding Dr. Robert J. Murphy.

In addition to his other responsibilities, Lombardo serves as an advisor for anabolic/androgenic steroids and related substances to the National Football League. He also is past president of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

Born April 7, 1949, Lombardo and his wife Karen have a daughter, Erin and two sons, Brian and Mark.

Chris Kaeding

Chief Orthopaedic Consultant

Chris Kaeding is in his 11th year as a member of the Ohio State Sports Medicine Staff. As the chief orthopaedic consultant for the department of athletics, he oversees a staff of three orthopaedic surgeons and has primary responsibility for football, women's basketball and all field sports.

Kaeding, one of the most respected orthopaedic surgeons in the country, is a native of Decatur, Ill., and 1981 graduate of Northwestern University. He received his Medical Doctorate from Northwestern in 1983 and completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery, also at Northwestern, in 1988.

Following his residency, Kaeding spent a year as a fellow at the Cleveland Clinic, working with the Cleveland Browns, Cavaliers and Indians during that time.

He joined the Ohio State staff in January of 1991.

Chris and his wife, Christine, have two children, a daughter, Emily, and a son, John.

The Kaeding Family (l-r) - Emily, Christine, Chris and John

Team Physician

Ray Pongonis is in his sixth year as a team physician at Ohio State. His primary responsibilities with the Buckeyes are the sports of football and baseball, but he works with athletes in all 35 sports in the areas of muscular-skeletal medicine and manipulative therapy.

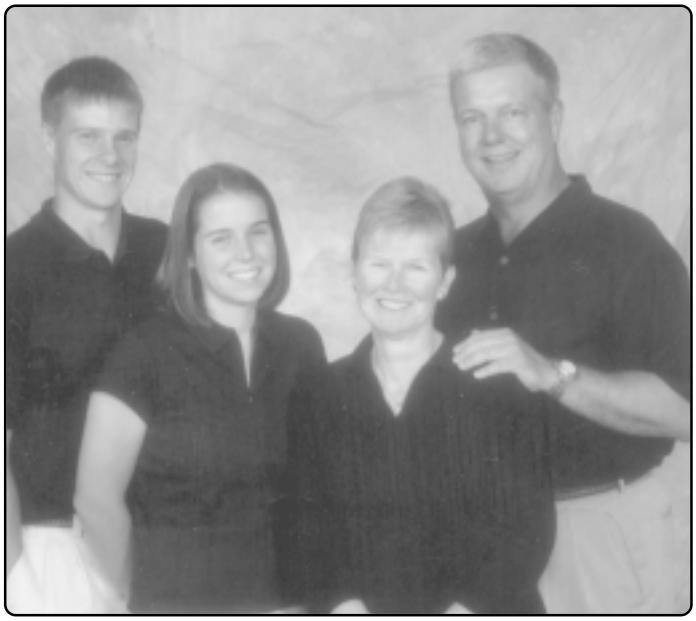

Pongonis is a native of Columbus and was an all-state selection in football and baseball at Watterson High School. He received his bachelor of science degree from Ohio State in 1975. He then attended Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine, receiving his D.O. degree in 1980. While at C.C.O.M., Pongonis did his fellowship training in muscular skeletal medicine and manipulative therapy. He completed that training in 1980.

In 1981, Pongonis returned to Columbus to intern at Doctors Hospital. Following a one-year internship, he began a private practice in nearby Dublin. He joined the Ohio State staff in 1995.

Pongonis and his wife, Marilyn, have two children, Pogie and Katie.

Director of Athletic Training

Bill Davis is in his 18th season as a member of the Ohio State University medical and training staff. A member of the Ohio State staff since 1984, he was appointed director of athletic training in 1995. In this position, he oversees all aspects of the athletic training program and is responsible for all 36 varsity sports at OSU.

Davis administers the preventative care and rehabilitation of injuries for Ohio State's student-athletes and works closely with the entire OSU medical staff, particularly head team physician John Lombardo

Davis is from Carrollton, Ohio. He graduated from Ohio State in 1979 with a degree in health education. As an undergraduate, he spent four years on the training staff, working with a wide variety of sports.

Following his graduation from Ohio State, Davis was a graduate assistant trainer for two years at Oklahoma State University. He received his master's degree in education administration from Oklahoma State in 1981 and immediately went to work for the Cowboys as an assistant trainer, working primarily with the football program.

In 1984, Davis returned to Ohio State as assistant football trainer. In 1992, he was named co-head trainer and took over the administrative duties of the training program. In June of 1995, he was named to his present position and now oversees a comprehensive training staff that includes 11 full-time trainers, one insurance coordinator, five graduate assistants and a large number of student trainers.

Davis is a member of the National Association of Athletic Trainers and the Ohio Association of Athletic Trainers.

Davis and his wife Tammy have two daughters, Kelly and Melanie.

Doug Calland

Athletic Trainer for Footbll

A member of the Ohio State staff since 1995, Doug Calland serves as the head athletic trainer for football, overseeing all aspects of the athletic training program for the football team and supervising the Woody Hayes Athletic Center Training Room.

Calland's responsibilities include working closely with head athletic trainer Bill Davis, as well as with head team physician John Lombardo. Calland also oversees a graduate assistant and 12 student trainers.

Calland is from Columbus and is a graduate of Whetstone High School. In 1981, he graduated from Ohio State with a bachelor's degree in physical education. As an undergraduate, he spent four years on the training staff working with a variety of sports, including football.

Prior to his graduation from OSU, Calland served as the head trainer for the Pittsburgh Pirates Rookie League team in Bradenton, Fla.

Following his graduation from Ohio State, Calland was a graduate assistant trainer for two years at Oklahoma State University. While there he worked with the wrestling program and assisted with football. He earned his master's degree in educational administration from Oklahoma State in 1983.

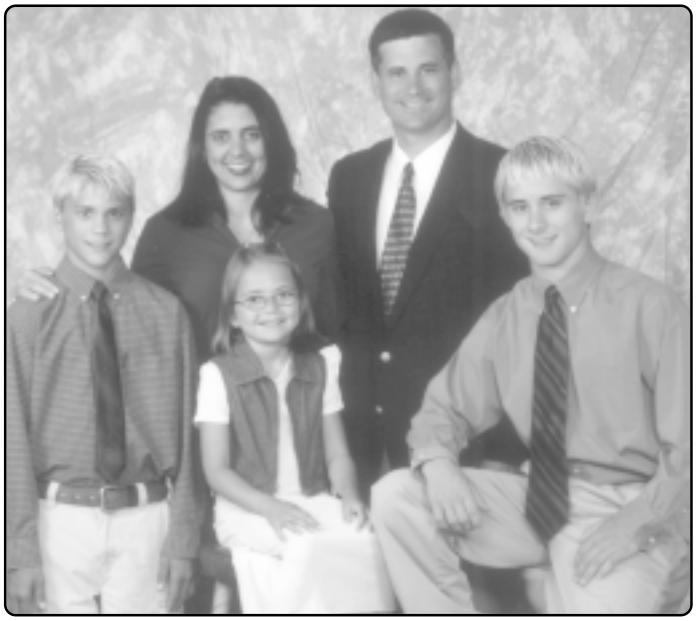

Immediately after graduation, Calland went to work at the University of Washington as an assistant trainer, working primarily with football and men's basketball. In 1994, he was promoted to assistant head trainer.While he was at Washington, the Huskies played in three Rose Bowls and captured the 1991 national championship. He also was the executive director of the Washington State Athletic Trainers Association.

Calland returned to Ohio State in 1995 to accept his present position.

Calland is a member National Athletic Trainers Association and the Ohio Athletic Trainers Association.

Calland and his wife, Natalie have two sons, Brandon and Ryan, and a daughter, Alyssa.

Quarterback Kilff Kingsbury has thrown for nearly 7,000 yards and 46 touchdowns in his last two seasons.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The meeting this year between Ohio State and Texas Tech will mark only the second time the two schools have met on the gridiron. The only other meeting was in 1990 when the Buckeyes prevailed in Columbus to open the season, 17-10. Buckeye tailback Robert Smith ran for 86 yards and one score on 17 carries and quarterback Greg Frey threw for 149 yards in the victory. The two teams were tied, 10-10, going into the final stanza before Ohio State's Jeff Graham returned a punt 50 yards for the winning touchdown in the early minutes of the fourth quarter. The Buckeyes own an impressive 24-3-1 record all-time against current Big 12 opponents.

The Red Raiders are led by third-year head coach Mike Leach. During his first two seasons, Leach, 14-11 overall, has directed Texas Tech to the Galleryfurniture.com Bowl in 2000 and the Alamo Bowl in 2001. The Red Raider attack is led by senior quarterback, All-American and Heisman Trophy candidate, Kliff Kingsbury. Kingsbury threw for more than 3,400 yards and 21 touchdowns in 2000 and bettered that mark in 2001, throwing for more than 3,500 yards with 25 touchdowns. Kingsbury has broken more than 30 Texas Tech offensive and passing records during his career.

Robert Smith ran for 86 yards and one touchdown on 17 carries in the first meeting between Ohio State and Texas Tech.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The meeting between Ohio State and Kent State will mark the first time the two in-state schools have met on the gridiron. Kent State is coming off a 6-5 season. The Golden Flashes started the 2001 season 1-4 before winning five of their last six games to finish 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference and 3-3 in the MAC East. Kent State is the sixth different opponent from the MAC to face the Buckeyes. Ohio State is 16-1 against current MAC opponents all-time. The only loss came at the hands of Akron in 1894.

Kent State head coach Dean Pees is no stranger to Big Ten foes. Prior to his arrival at Kent State, Pees served as the defensive coordinator at Michigan State for three seasons. During his time in East Lansing, the Spartans posted a 19-13-1 regular-season record and played in the 1995 Independence Bowl, the 1996 Sun Bowl and the 1997 Aloha Bowl. The Spartan defense was ranked among the best in the nation each of his last two seasons, including a 13th-place position his final season there.

Ohio State has played a Mid-American Conference school the past five seasons: 1997-Bowling Green, 1998-Toledo, 1999-Ohio, 2000-Miami(Ohio), 2001-Akron.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The Buckeyes and Cougars will be meeting for the eighth time in the series history. OSU has won every meeting with Washington State. The series dates back to the 1952 season when OSU won the first meeting, 35-7 in Columbus. The schools met for a second time in 1973, a 27-3 Buckeye victory, again in Columbus. The Buckeyes continued their dominance in the series the following year when the scene shifted to Pullman. It marked the only time in the series the game was played in Pullman, a 42-7 Buckeye triumph in 1974. Since then, the Buckeyes have won the last four meetings in Columbus, including the most recent meeting during the 1991 campaign, 33-19. In that game the Buckeyes tallied 321 yards on the ground and were led by tailbacks Carlos Snow and Butler By'not'e who rushed for 97 and 90 yards, respectivley. The OSU ground game proved too much for the Cougars who were led by quarterback Drew Bledsoe. He threw for 287 yards in the contest.

The Cougars are coached by Mike Price who is in his 14th year in Pullman. Washington State is coming off a solid 2001 campaign. The Cougars finished 6-2 in the Pac-10, good for second and 10-2 overall, including a 33-27 win over Purdue in the Sun Bowl. The Cougars return seven starters on offense, led by quarterback Jason Gesser who threw for over 3,000 yards and 26 touchdowns in 2001.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Ohio State and Cincinnati met for the first time in 1893 in Columbus, a game the Buckeyes won 38-0. Since then the in-state rivals have met only 11 times over the past 108 years. The two schools met 10 times from 1893-1919 and once more in 1931. The two schools waited 68 years before meeting on the gridiron again. The last time the Buckeyes and Bearcats met was during the 1999 season, a 34-20 Buckeye victory that gave then head coach John Cooper his 100th win at Ohio State. In that game, the Bearcats jumped out to an early 17-3 lead before the Buckeyes regrouped and scored 31 unanswered points for the victory. Tailback Michael Wiley ran for 95 yards and one score and receiver Ken-Yon Rambo caught three passes for 164 yards, including a 59-yard touchdown strike from quarterback Steve Bellisari in the second quarter.

The Buckeyes own a commanding lead in the series, 10-2. Ohio State is 6-0 in games played in Columbus and 4-2 in Cincinnati. The only two victories for the Bearcats came in 1896-97, both of which were played in Cincinnati. OSU is currently riding a seven-game winning streak against the Bearcats. The meeting this year will be played at Paul Brown Stadium in Cincinnati, home to the Cincinnati Bengals. It will mark the second of four games over an eight-year span. The two schools will meet in 2004 and 2006 in Columbus.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The Buckeyes continued their dominance of the Hoosiers in 2001, claiming a 27-14 victory in Bloomington. Lydell Ross ran for 124 yards and two touchdowns, and Steve Bellisari was 15-for-21 for 181 yards in the win. New head coach Gerry DiNardo is in his first season at Indiana. DiNardo is 0-2 against Ohio State in his career, with his two losses coming in 1985 and '86 while the head coach at Colorado. In 77 previous meetings between Indiana and Ohio State, the Buckeyes have played in Columbus 53 times with a record of 39-10-4. Indiana is 2-21-1 against the Buckeyes in Bloomington. Indiana had the majority of its success against Ohio State early in the series history. The Hoosiers started 5-0-1 in the first six meetings from 1901-1913. Ohio State then rattled off the next four wins to set the tone for the series. Since winning games in 1905 and 1913, Indiana did not win back-to-back series games until the 1987-88 seasons. Those two Hoosier victories followed a 30-0-1 winning streak enjoyed by the Buckeyes. Since 1950, Ohio State is 41-3-2, which includes victories in the last nine meetings. Indiana tied the Buckeyes 27-all in 1990 and last defeated Ohio State 41-7 in Bloomington during the 1988 season. Indiana has faced Ohio State 34 times while the Buckeyes were ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. Ranked Buckeye teams are 31-3 vs. the Hoosiers. Indiana has been ranked three times in games vs. Ohio State but the Buckeyes are unbeaten in those battles (2-0-1). The No. 3 Buckeyes defeated the No. 15 Hoosiers 21-7 Nov. 4, 1944 in Columbus. That was the highest an IU team has been rated against Ohio State. The No. 5 Buckeyes won 23-17 vs. No. 19 Indiana in Columbus Nov. 13, 1993. The last Indiana team outside the Top 25 to beat a ranked Ohio State squad was the 1987 Hoosiers, who claimed a 31-10 victory over the No. 9 Buckeyes Oct. 10, 1987 in Columbus.

In 1996, Andy Katzenmoyer forced a fumble that was returned by Matt Finkes for a touchdown.

ABOUT THE SERIES

In 2001, the Buckeyes used a punishing ground game to roll over the No. 14 Wildcats en route to a convincing 38-20 victory in Columbus. In 67 previous meetings, Ohio State has won 53 times in the all-time series against Northwestern. The Wildcats own 13 victories and have tied the Buckeyes once. Ohio State is 29-8-0 in Columbus. The Buckeyes have a commanding 23-5-1 advantage in Evanston, site of the game this season, and are 1-0 in neutral site contests. Ohio State has won the last 17 meetings in Evanston and 14 of the last 15 games played in Columbus, including the last 10. Northwestern has not won in Evanston since the 1958 season, when the Wildcats downed the Buckeyes, 21-0. The last Northwestern win was in 1971 in Columbus, a 14-10 Wildcat victory. The Buckeyes have won the last 22 contests. The series began with five-consecutive OSU victories from 1913-1917. Northwestern won for the first time in 1927 (19-13) in Columbus. The Wildcats won for the first time in Evanston, 19-2, in 1930, the second of three-consecutive wins for Northwestern. The Wildcats have not put back-to-back victories together since the 1962-63 seasons. The Buckeyes have been ranked in 33 of the 67 games against the Wildcats. Ohio State is 29-4 when ranked vs. the Wildcats, including a 6-0 record as the No. 1 team. Ohio State was the No. 1 squad in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll when the teams met in 1998, a 35-10 Buckeye win Oct. 24 in Evanston. Northwestern has been among the nationally ranked 10 times vs. the Buckeyes. The Wildcats have won five of those contests. Northwestern last defeated OSU as a ranked team Oct. 20, 1962 in Columbus. The No. 8 Wildcats downed the No. 6 Buckeyes, 18-14. The last time an unranked Northwestern squad defeated a ranked Buckeye team was in 1971 when the Wildcats prevailed 14-10 over the No. 16 Buckeyes at Ohio Stadium.

Jonathan Wells ran for a 71-yard touchdown on the second play last season against the Wildcats.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The game with the Spartans will be the first meeting between the two schools. San Jose State is only the fourth Buckeye opponent from the Western Athletic Conference in Ohio State's history. The Buckeyes are 11-1-1 all-time against teams currently in the WAC. OSU is 2-0 against Rice and Fresno State and 7-1-1 against Southern Methodist. The last time the Buckeyes faced an opponent from the WAC was in 2000, a 43-10 win over Fresno State in Columbus.

Fitz Hill is in his second season at the helm in San Jose. The Spartans produced a 3-9 overall record and finished 3-5 in the WAC in 2001. The Spartan offense proved to be explosive, becoming the first SJSU squad in 53 seasons to score more than 60 points in two different games during the same season. They are led by senior quarterback Marcus Arroyo. Arroyo has thrown for more than 4,600 yards and 28 touchdowns in his career.

Woody Hayes' first game at Ohio State was against current WAC member, Southern Methodist, in 1951.

Ohio State last faced an opponent from the WAC in 2000, besting Fresno State 43-10.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Ohio State and Wisconsin will meet for the 70th time in the series history this year when the two schools square off in Madison. Ohio State is looking for its 50th win over the Badgers. The Buckeyes lead 49-15-5 all-time, with a 26-6-2 mark in Columbus and a 23-9-3 edge in Madison. The Badgers were 5-7overall and 3-5 (T 8th) in the Big Ten in 2001. It marked only the second time in nine years the Badgers did not make a bowl game. Ohio State defeated Wisconsin 21-consecutive times from 1960 to 1980. The Buckeyes, winners in four of the last six meetings with Wisconsin, led 17-0 late in the second quarter before Wisconsin scored 20 unanswered points in Columbus last year. Wisconsin won the first three games of the series from 1913-1915 but has since won back-to-back games just twice, the last time during the 1984 and 1985 seasons. The Badgers are 9-30-3 against Ohio State when the Buckeyes carry an Associated Press ranking into the contest. When both teams are among the nation's Top 25, the Buckeyes have a 7-2-2 record. Ohio State is up 11-2-2 in all games when Wisconsin is ranked. From 1960-80, Ohio State won 15-consecutive games when going to battle with an AP ranking vs. the Badgers. Unranked Wisconsin broke the streak with a 24-21 win Oct. 10, 1981 in Madison over the No. 18 Buckeyes.

Dimitrious Stanley notched the fourth-highest receiving total in the Ohio State records book with 199 yards against the Badgers in 1996.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The 2002 game between Ohio State and Penn State will mark the 10th-consecutive year the two schools have met. The Nittany Lions pulled off a come-from-behind victory over the Buckeyes last season in University Park, 29-27, giving Joe Paterno career-win No. 324, in the process allowing him to surpass Bear Bryant as major college football's career victory leader. The Buckeyes let a 27-9 third quarter lead slip away as Penn State scored 20-unanswered points to preserve the victory. The Buckeyes are 5-4 against the Nittany Lions since Penn State joined the league in 1993. Before joining the Big Ten, Penn State had the upper hand with a 6-2 record over the Buckeyes. In three of the last six years, each team has come into the game unbeaten and ranked in the Top 10 nationally. Over the last nine years, both Ohio State and Penn State have come into the game unbeaten and ranked in the Top 10 five times. The home team has gone 8-1 in this series since 1993. The Buckeyes picked up the only road win in 1995 with a dramatic 28-25 win. Both teams have been among the Top 10 when they have met six times. The last such meeting went Ohio State's way when the No. 1 Buckeyes won 28-9 over the No. 7 Nittany Lions in Columbus in 1998. Both teams have been ranked in eight of the nine meetings since 1993. Ohio State holds the edge 5-3 when both teams are ranked. Both teams own a win as the No. 1-ranked team. No. 1 Penn State won 63-14 over No. 21 Ohio State in 1994. The No. 1 Buckeyes evened the score over the No. 7 Lions in 1998.

Quarterback Asad Abdul-Khaliq compiled 163 total yards and one score against the Buckeyes last season.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The Buckeyes avenged an upset loss to Minnesota in 2000 by defeating the Gophers, 31-28, in Minneapolis last year. Jonathan Wells ran for 152 yards and two scores and Steve Bellisari threw for two scores to compliment his 271 total yards. In 2000, Minnesota broke a 16-game losing streak to the Buckeyes with a 29-17 win in Columbus. It was Minnesota's first win at Ohio State since 1949 when the Golden Gophers shut out the Buckeyes, 27-0. Ohio State holds a commanding lead in the overall series since it began in 1921. Overall, Ohio State leads 36-7 with an 18-4 record in Minneapolis and an 18-3 mark at Ohio Stadium. The Buckeyes won the first game in the series, 27-0, in 1921 but lost the next two by scores of 9-0 in 1922 and 19-7 in 1931. The back-to-back wins for Minnesota are the only consecutive Golden Gopher victories in series history. Ohio State won 28 of 29 meetings from 1969-99. The only loss during that stretch was a 35-31 setback in Minneapolis in 1981. Minnesota rarely has had the opportunity to face an unranked Ohio State team in the all-time series. In 42 meetings, Ohio State has been ranked 31 times in games against the Golden Gophers. The Buckeyes have won 27 of those 31 contests. Minnesota has been among the Associated Press Top 25 five times in series history with Ohio State. The Buckeyes are 3-2 in those games, including a 20-17 win Oct. 23, 1999 in Minneapolis. The No. 22 Buckeyes utilized a late field goal to outlast the No. 24 Golden Gophers. Minnesota was unranked last season in a 29-17 win over the No. 5 Buckeyes in Columbus. The Buckeyes are 4-0 against Minnesota as the nation's No. 1 team. The Gophers' highest ranking in a game vs. Ohio State came in both 1945 and 1949 when UM was rated No. 5. The No. 12 Buckeyes won the 1945 contest 20-7 but lost as the No. 11 team in 1949, 27-0.

David Boston caught 10 passes for 191 yards and two scores during the 45-15 win over Minnesota in Columbus in 1998.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The Buckeyes recorded a 35-9 victory over Purdue last year and have now won 11 of the last 13 meetings with the Boilermakers. Ohio State has won 33 of 46 meetings with the Boilermakers overall, including a 23-5-2 mark in Columbus. Purdue is 5-10-0 in its home stadium and 1-0 in the only neutral-site meeting with Ohio State, a 30-7 win in Cleveland during the 1943 season. Purdue has not won in Columbus since 1988 when the Boilermakers prevailed, 31-26. Ranked Buckeye teams have gone up against Purdue 25 times in the series history. Ohio State is 18-6-1 in those games, including wins in seven of the last eight games. Purdue last defeated a ranked OSU squad two years ago in West Lafayette. The No. 16 Boilermakers held off a late charge by the No. 12 Buckeyes to win, 31-27. The last win for an unranked Purdue team over a ranked Ohio State squad came in 1984. The No. 2 Buckeyes were upset 28-23 at Purdue. Ohio State holds a slight edge (3-2-1) in games played when both teams own Associated Press Top 25 rankings. Purdue has been ranked 10 times when facing the Buckeyes. The Boilermakers are 4-5-1 in those battles.

ABOUT THE SERIES

Ohio State and Illinois will meet for the 91st time in the series history this year in Champaign. The Buckeyes lead the series, which dates back to the 1902 season, 30-12 in Champaign and 57-29-4 overall. The first game played between the two schools resulted in a scoreless tie. The Buckeyes did not score in any of the first three games against Illinois and managed just a 3-all tie in 1915. Ohio State won its first game in the series, 7-6, during the 1916 season. The Buckeyes have been victorious in five of the last seven meetings after Illinois enjoyed a stretch of six wins in seven games from 1988-1994. Illinois had its longest series winning streak (five games) during that stretch. Ohio State won 15-consecutive games from 1968-1982. Illinois has gone up against a ranked Ohio State squad in each of the last 11 meetings in the series and in a total of 44 games in 90 meetings. The Buckeyes are 5-2 in the last seven years vs. the Illini. Illinois has been ranked twice vs. Ohio State since 1991. The No. 20 Illini toppled the No. 11 Buckeyes 10-7 in Champaign in 1991 and were ranked No. 12 last year in their 34-22 win. In all, ranked Illini teams are 9-4-1 vs. the Buckeyes. Illinois owns a 6-3 record in games in which both teams are ranked. The last Illinois win as an unranked team against Ohio State came in 1992. Illinois won in Ohio Stadium 18-16 over the No. 21 Buckeyes. Ohio State is 5-1 as the No. 1-ranked team in the series vs. Illinois. The No. 8 Illini knocked off the No. 1 Buckeyes 14-7 Nov. 18, 1950 in Champaign.

Joe Germaine threw for 307 yards and three touchdowns at Illinois in 1998.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The Buckeyes raced out to a stunning 23-0 lead en route to a 26-20 victory, preventing the Wolverines from a BCS bowl berth and a Big Ten championship. The Ohio State-Michigan rivalry is unquestionably one of the most storied in college football history. The two national powers have met for 84-consecutive seasons – the 10th longest current streak in NCAA Division IA history – and 98 times overall since 1897. From 1972 to 1981 the Ohio State-Michigan game determined the Big Ten champion and the conference's Rose Bowl representative. Although Michigan holds a 20-game lead in wins over Ohio State, over the last 50 games the series is even at 24-24-2. The Ohio State vs. Michigan game was moved to the final Saturday of the Big Ten season in 1935. The Ohio Stadium dedication game in 1922 was against Michigan and the Michigan Stadium dedication game in 1927 was against Ohio State. Ohio State has snapped Michigan's Big Ten winning streaks of 16-consecutive games (1998), 15 (1972) and 11 (in 1970). Michigan has snapped Ohio State Big Ten winning streaks of 17, 16 and 15 games in 1976, 1969 and 1980, respectively. Both Ohio State and Michigan have been unranked in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll just once since 1968. The only time neither team has entered the most recognized college football rivalry unranked in the last 32 years was Nov. 21, 1987 at Michigan when the Buckeyes downed the Wolverines, 23-20. Ohio State was unranked in that 33-year stretch five times while the Wolverines were out of the Top 25 twice. In series history, ranked Buckeye teams are 18-23-4 vs. Michigan. The Wolverines are 27-17-4 when carrying a national ranking against Ohio State. The two teams have met 36 times with both teams ranked. Michigan owns a 19-13-4 record in those contests. Ohio State is 1-1-1 when rated No. 1 nationally while the Wolverines are 3-0 in the series as the No. 1 team.

CHRIS SPIELMAN

"No game meant more to me. I pride myself on being ready to play every game, but when it came to playing Michigan, I was ready on Monday. When you grow up in Ohio, it is kind of in your blood. It's a game that means so much. When you lose, it is devastating and stays with you all year. When you win, there is no feeling like it. You are on air until you play them again. Winning that game my senior year was the best win I ever experienced at Ohio State."

ARCHIE GRIFFIN

The Buckeyes' three-time All-American and two-time Heisman Trophy winner never lost to Michigan, his teams going 3-0-1 against the Wolverines and, as a result, playing in an unprecedented four consecutive Rose Bowls. "As I look back on my college career, the thing I am most proud of is our record against Michigan during my four years," said Griffin.

The Coach Keeps His Promise

Jim Tressel is a man of his word. He proved that Nov. 24 by leading his first Ohio State football team to a 26-20 road win over Michigan, the Buckeyes first triumph in Ann Arbor since 1987.

By doing so, Tressel fulfilled a vow he made on the day he was hired. After being introduced to the media Jan. 18, 2001 as Ohio State's new head football coach, Tressel attended the Ohio State-Michigan basketball game that night in Value City Arena.

Recognized immediately by the Ohio State crowd, he received a spontaneous standing ovation following a television interview. That ovation turned into a thunderous roar at halftime when the new Buckeye mentor stood at center court and promised Ohio State fans would be "proud of their team in the classroom, in the community and most especially, in 310 days in Ann Arbor, Mich., on the football field."

Tressel might as well have said "Remember the Alamo or Remember the Maine." His words became a rallying cry for Ohio State fans everywhere. Starved for a victory over their rivals from that state up north, they began flying their Block "O" flags with new enthusiasm and counting down the days until the showdown in Ann Arbor.

As the game drew closer, Tressel's comments were played over and over by every television and radio station in Ohio and Michigan, and rehashed by every sports writer and columnist who had an interest in the game.

In a futile effort to downplay the constant reference to his remarks, Tressel noted he had not promised a victory, only that the fans would be proud of the team in terms of its effort and the way the Buckeyes conducted themselves during the course of the game.

But the Ohio State faithful would have none of that. They took his words as a guarantee for the first time in seven tries, the trip home from Ann Arbor, that long drive down route 23, would be a pleasant one. And it was! But before rehashing that game, arguably the greatest rivalry in college football, let's take a look at the first 10 games of Jim Tressel's rookie season.

The Buckeyes opened the season by hosting the University of Akron. In the first meeting between the two schools since 1895, Ohio State jumped out to a 21-0 lead and wound up winning with relative ease, 28-14. A record throng of 102,602 was on hand to see the first game in the newly refurbished Ohio Stadium, which had undergone a three-year, $190 facelift that made the Horseshoe the fourth largest on-campus facility in the country.

There was excitement in the air – about the team, about the coach and about the Stadium. But three days later, on Sept. 11, that excitement turned to horror when the World Trade Center's Twin Towers in New York City and the Pentagon were attacked by terrorists.

Coach Tressel addresses the crowd at the Ohio State-Michigan basketball game.

Football quickly became just a game.

Scheduled to host San Diego State Sept. 15, Ohio State took a leadership role nationally by rescheduling the game. The decision came after Director of Athletics Andy Geiger conferred with Tressel.

"This is not the time to play a football game," Geiger said. "We need to step back and give people time to deal with this terrible tragedy."

Echoed Tressel, "I just don't think our players are interested in playing football right now. I'm not sure when the right time is to play, but I know it is not this week. We are going to have a difficult time even practicing for a while."

Instead of a game in Ohio Stadium the following Saturday, the Buckeyes, in conjunction with WBNS-TV held a giant "Show You Care" rally in support of the United States and patriotism, raising more than $600,000 for the families of those people whose lives were turned upside down Sept. 11. Athletes from virtually all of Ohio State's 36 varsity sports attended the rally.

As the world tried to return to some degree of normalcy, the Buckeyes boarded a charter flight and headed cross-country for a nationally-televised game with UCLA Sept. 22.

As it turned out, the young Buckeyes were no match for the No. 12 Bruins. But while UCLA prevailed, 13-6, there were some encouraging signs, especially by the defense, which forced seven turnovers.

Ohio State opened its Big Ten season the following week at Indiana. The Buckeyes won, 27-14, as freshman running back Lydell Ross rushed for 124 yards and two touchdowns. Still just 17 years old, the 6-0, 210-pound Ross became the youngest player in Big Ten history to rush for 100 yards.

The win over the Hoosiers set the stage for a highly-anticipated showdown with 14th-ranked Northwestern the following week in Columbus. In the first Big Ten night game played in Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes jumped out to a 21-7 lead at the half and extended that margin to 38-7 at the end of three quarters en route to a 38-20 victory in front of another capacity crowd. Tailback Jonathan Wells set the table early, bolting 71 yards to pay dirt on OSU's second play from scrimmage.

Riding high at 2-0 in the Big Ten, the Buckeyes got a stiff dose of reality the following week, losing a tough 20-17 Homecoming decision to visiting Wisconsin. To really rub salt in the wound, the Buckeyes had a seemingly comfortable 17-0 lead with under a minute to play in the first half. The Badgers kicked the winning field goal with 2:10 to play. Their final drive down the field followed a missed Ohio State field goal attempt.

The Buckeyes played their rescheduled game with San Diego State the following week. In the first meeting with the Aztecs, the Buckeyes rallied from a 12-6 halftime deficit for a 27-12 win. Halftime ceremonies included the induction of former football standouts Pepper Johnson and Steve Tovar into the Ohio State Hall of Fame.

Back on the road the following week, Ohio State lost a 29-27 decision to Penn State. The Nittany Lions rallied from a 27-9 deficit to present Coach Joe Paterno with win No. 324, making him the winningest coach in college football history.

A road win at Minnesota (31-28) and a home victory over Purdue (35-9) followed, improving the Buckeyes' overall record to 6-3 and their Big Ten mark to 4-2. Next up, however, was 8-1 Illinois, sitting atop the conference standings with a 5-1 mark.

With starting quarterback Steve Bellisari ruled out on Friday for disciplinary reasons, sophomore Scott McMullen made his first collegiate start. With McMullen and Craig Krenzel taking turns at the controls, the Buckeyes led 22-21 with one second left in the third quarter. But the Illini were not to be denied, scoring twice in the fourth stanza and leaving town with a 34-22 victory that knocked the Buckeyes out of title contention. The loss spoiled brilliant efforts by tailback Jonathan Wells and split end Michael Jenkins. Wells rushed for a career-high 192 yards and Jenkins caught 10 passes for 155 yards. Among those looking on was former Ohio State All-American and Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George, who had his No. 27 retired at halftime.

Now, at long last for Buckeye fans, it was Michigan Week, and for the six days leading up to the game in Ann Arbor, nothing else mattered in Columbus.

Bellisari, a three-year starter and No. 8 in career total offense at Ohio State, would also miss the regular-season finale. The starter against Wolverines would be Krenzel, a Detroit native and Bellisari's best friend.

True to his promise, Tressel had his team ready to play, and Buckeye fans were indeed proud of their team's performance. With Wells running wild in the first half Ohio State jumped out to a stunning 23-0 lead. Wells scored all three touchdowns — on runs of 1,46 and 11 yards, respectively — and had 123 yards in the first half. And even though the Wolverines cut the deficit to 26-20 late in the fourth quarter, the Buckeyes were able to hold on for the six-point victory, in the process eliminating Michigan from a share of the title and a BCS berth. Wells, who saw only limited action in the second half because of leg cramps finished with 129 yards on 25 carries, while the heretofore little utilized Krenzel, in his first start, completed 11 of 18 passes for 118 yards and kept the Buckeyes out of trouble.

With a 7-4 record, Tressel's first Ohio State team was bowl bound. After everything had shaken down, the Buckeyes accepted a bid to return to the Outback Bowl for a rematch with South Carolina on New Year's Day.

The Gamecocks jumped out to a 28-0 lead at the start of the second half and seemed to be in complete control. But the Buckeyes, behind the hot hand of Bellisari who had been reinstated for the game but did not start, rallied for a 28-all tie late in the fourth quarter. After the teams traded interceptions, South Carolina won the game with a 42-yard field goal that barely cleared the cross bar as time ran out.

And so, the curtain came down on the 2001 season, a season that began with a new coach, was interrupted by a cowardly act of terrorism that put sports in perspective and concluded with a win over Michigan in the regular-season finale.

Yes, there were distractions, terrible ones, but above all there was hope. Isn't that always the case with college athletics?

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The Buckeyes opened the 2001 campaign with a 28-14 win over Akron in front of a then-Ohio Stadium record crowd of 102,602. The game marked the debut of new Ohio State head coach Jim Tressel and the unveiling of refurbished Ohio Stadium.

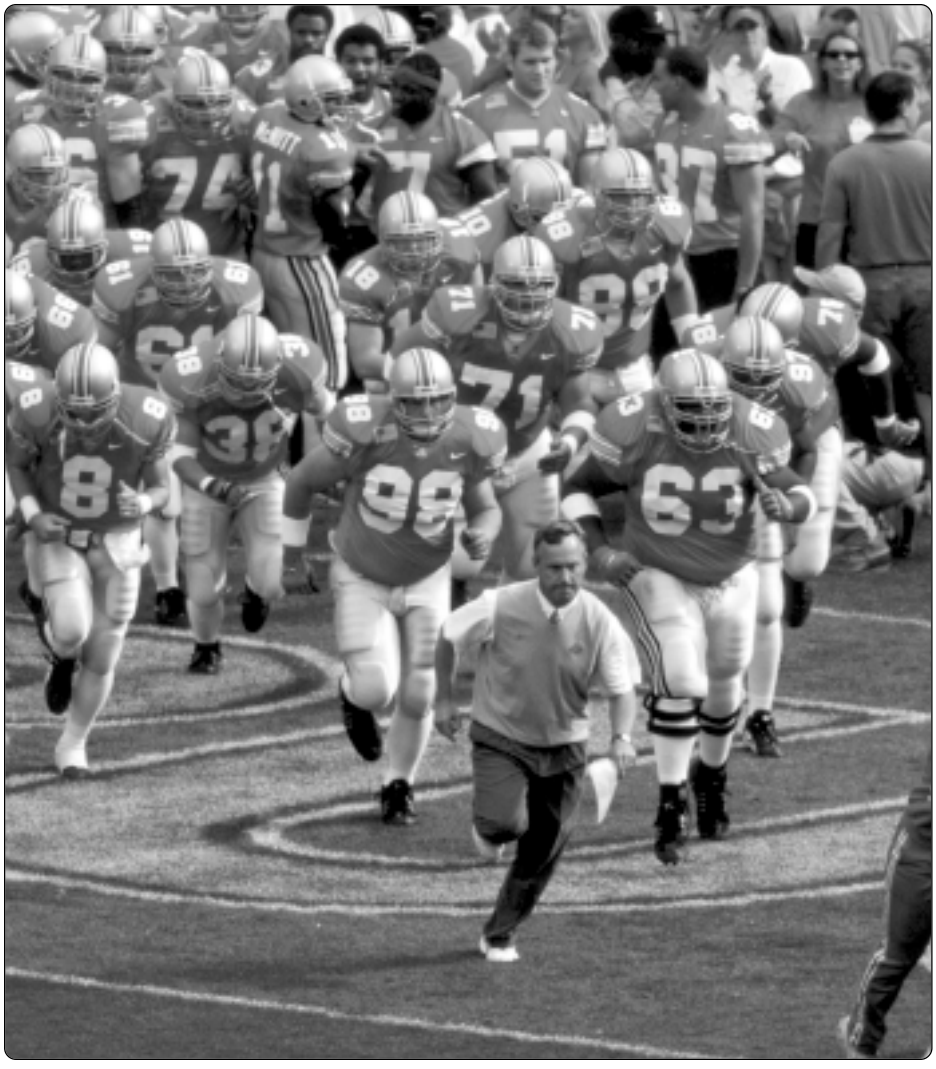

The Buckeyes rolled up 525 yards in total offense and ran 85 plays (20 more than Akron) on a hot, humid day.

Quarterbacks Steve Bellisari and Scott McMullen threw for 289 yards, spreading the ball around to seven different receivers. Bellisari had a pair of touchdown passes and sophomore split end Michael Jenkins had six receptions for 106 yards in his first career start.

Senior tailback Jonathan Wells ran for 119 yards and two touchdowns on 24 carries. The Buckeyes netted 236 yards rushing.

Meanwhile, the Ohio State defense limited the Zips to 248 yards (114 rushing and 134 passing) and one touchdown. Senior linebacker Joe Cooper had a team-high 10 tackles.

The Buckeyes led 14-0 at the end of the first quarter and were ahead 21-0 before Akron got on the board with just over two minutes to play in the first half. The two teams traded long touchdowns in the second half, the Buckeyes scoring on a 61-yard pass in the third quarter, and the Zips on an 87-yard interception return in the fourth.

PASADENA, Calif. – In a titanic defensive struggle, the Ohio State defense forced seven fumbles, recovering four of those, and held the Bruins' offense to 323 total yards, including just 105 yards in the second half. After converting four third-down plays on their first drive, which led to their only touchdown of the day, the Bruins converted just two of 11 the rest of the afternoon.

Linebacker Matt Wilhelm led Ohio State with 10 total tackles, including eight solos and two tackles-for-loss. He also forced a fumble. Strong safety Mike Doss had seven tackles, recovered a fumble and blocked a UCLA punt that Ohio State recovered for a touchdown. Defensive end Tim Cheatwood was credited with five tackles, including a tackle-for-loss, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. It was a superb defensive effort by the Buckeyes against a veteran and talented offensive team.

UCLA tailback and Heisman Trophy hopeful DeShaun Foster, who had been averaging 149 yards a game, could manage just 66 on 29 carries against the Buckeyes.

Punter Andy Groom had his best day as a Buckeye, averaging 46.8 yards per punt on six kicks. Offensively, the Buckeyes managed just 166 yards against a solid UCLA defense. In spite of a missed PAT and two missed field goals, Ohio State was a touchdown away from winning the game. Jonathan Wells led the Buckeyes in rushing with 47 yards.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Behind the running of true freshman Lydell Ross, the passing of Steve Bellisari, and a third-consecutive impressive defensive showing, Ohio State opened its Big Ten season with a 27-14 road win over Indiana. Ross, a 6-0, 210-pound tailback, slashed and dashed his way through the Hoosiers for 124 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries. Senior tailback Jonathan Wells added 69 yards and a third rushing TD as the Buckeyes netted 194 yards on the ground.

With the OSU running game in high gear, Bellisari enjoyed the best percentage day of his career, completing 15 of 21 passes for 194 yards. Nine different players caught passes for the Buckeyes, including split end Michael Jenkins and fullback Jamar Martin who led the way with three each. The Buckeyes scored all five times they were in the red zone and when they did bog down, junior punter Andy Groom gave them great field position by averaging 42.3 yards per kick on three punts.

The Ohio State defense, meanwhile, limited the Hoosiers to 337 yards and held ever-dangerous quarterback Antwaan Randle El to 67 yards rushing and 181 yards passing. The Buckeyes won the turnover battle, 2-0, recovering a fumble and picking off an interception. Linebackers Matt Wilhelm and Joe Cooper led a balanced defensive effort with nine and eight tackles, respectively.

Ohio State's special teams also came up big with All-American Michael Doss blocking a punt for the second-consecutive week.

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The Buckeyes ran their Big Ten record to 2-0 and chalked up their first win of the season over a ranked opponent, downing visiting Northwestern by a final score of 38-20.

Senior tailback Jonathan Wells got the Buckeyes off on the right foot, bolting 71 yards off left tackle on the second play from scrimmage to stake OSU to a 7-0 lead. Wells would go on to score two more touchdowns and rush for 179 yards on 22 carries.

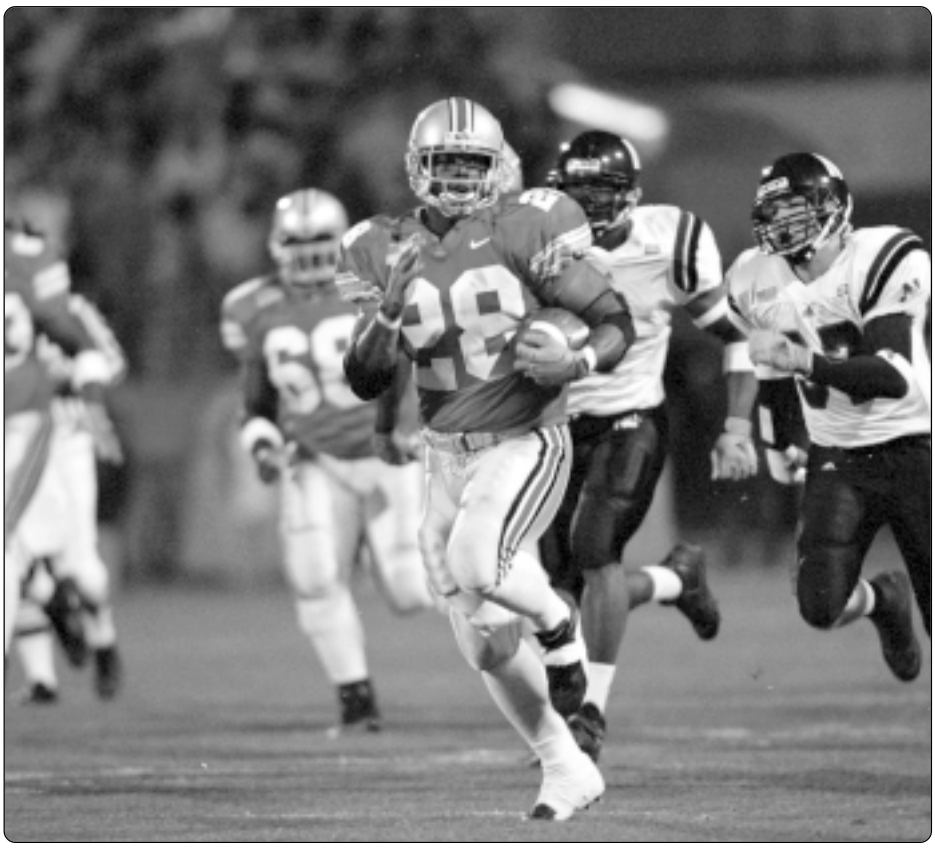

The 14th-ranked Wildcats tied the game at 7-all on their first possession, but the Buckeyes took a 14-7 lead when Will Smith forced a fumble that junior All-American Mike Doss, scooped up and returned 30 yards for a score. OSU led 21-7 at the half on Wells' 1-yard run.

The Buckeyes put the game out of reach by scoring on their first three possessions of the second half and taking control 38-7. Northwestern, which entered the game averaging 490 yards a game, finished with just 306 yards (216 of that coming on the Wildcats last three possessions).

The fast-striking Wildcats, who had been averaging nearly 90 plays a game, managed a season-low 79 against an aggressive, well-prepared Ohio State defense, which forced two turnovers and recorded 10 tackles-for-loss and five sacks. The Wildcats dangerous duo of quarterback Zak Kustok and running back Damien Anderson was held to a combined total of 221 yards.

Wells got plenty of support in the running department from sophomore Sammy Maldonado and freshman Lydell Ross. Maldonado banged his way through and around the Wildcat defense for 60 yards on 13 carries. Ross added 33 yards on 11 attempts, including a dazzling 9-yard touchdown run at the start of the third quarter that gave OSU a 28-7 bulge.

Ohio State finished with a season-high 287-yards rushing on 53 attempts. The 38 points also was a season high for the Buckeyes who downed the Wildcats for the 22nd-consecutive time.

COLUMBUS, Ohio. – The Buckeyes jumped out to a 17-0 lead, but couldn't hold on, dropping a 20-17 decision to the visiting Badgers. Ohio State played nearly flawless football the first 30 minutes, scoring on its first three possessions. But Wisconsin got on the board with 46 seconds to play in the first half following a bad punt snap that gave the Badgers the ball at the Ohio State 23. From there, it took Wisconsin just one play to score and snatch away the momentum its hosts.

The Badgers scored a touchdown and two field goals after halftime for the win. With the score tied at 17, the Buckeyes missed a 48-yard field goal try with 5:04 to play. On its next possession, Wisconsin converted from 33 yards out for the game winner.

The Buckeyes had a 189 to 112 edge in total offense at the half, but wound up on the short end of a 329 to 253 deficit in the yardage department.

Quarterback Steve Bellisari and freshman tailback Lydell Ross each rushed for touchdowns. Jonathan Wells rushed for a team-high 66 yards and Chris Vance had four receptions, including two spectacular grabs. Safety Mike Doss and linebacker Courtland Bullard each had six tackles.

Wisconsin running back Anthony Davis finished with 103 yards on 26 carries, 23 of those yards coming on the momentum shifting TD run just before the half. The victory by the Badgers marked the third-consecutive win in the series by the visiting team.

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Ohio State rallied from its 12-6 halftime deficit by forcing five turnovers in a span of 12:44. Linebacker Joe Cooper started things off with an interception on the Aztecs second possession of the third quarter. That opened the floodgates for the Buckeyes who then came up with a fumble recovery and three more interceptions on the Aztecs next four possessions.

With the defense providing the momentum, the offense responded with three touchdowns, including a dazzling 51-yard gallop by freshman tailback Lydell Ross that capped off the scoring. It was the second TD of the day for Ross, who scored on a 2-yard run in the first quarter.

Quarterback Steve Bellisari and starting tailback Jonathan Wells accounted for the other two second-half touchdowns, Bellisari darting into the corner of the end zone from 4-yards out when his receivers were covered, and Wells bulling his way in from the 1. Bellisari completed 15-of-28 passes for 198 yards, while Wells and Ross each finished with 60 yards rushing. Flanker Chris Vance was on the receiving end of five Bellisari passes and tight end Darnell Sanders had a season-high four.

Strong safety Mike Doss led the defense with 12 tackles including a tackle-for-loss. Defensive end Darrion Scott was next in line with seven stops, followed by Cooper and Donnie Nickey with six each. Linebacker Robert Reynolds had a sack, forced a fumble and picked off his first interception of the year. Cornerback Derek Ross had two interceptions and blocked a PAT attempt.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. — Ohio State led 13-9 at the half and scored two quick touchdowns early in the third quarter to take a 27-9 lead. But Penn State scored 20-unanswered points to forge ahead 29-27 with 14:47 to play. Ohio State's bid for the go-ahead field goal was blocked with 2:55 to play and the Nittany Lions were able to run out the clock and present Coach Joe Paterno with his record setting 324th career win.

The game was filled with big plays, including passes of 66 and 68 yards from Steve Bellisari to Michael Jenkins and a 65-yard touchdown run by Jonathan Wells.

Additionally, freshman Maurice Hall returned seven kicks for 167 yards. Defensively, the Buckeyes recorded a season-high 18 tackles-for-loss and had three interceptions. Two of the latter were by cornerback Derek Ross.

All-America safety Mike Doss had a game-high 13 tackles and linebacker Joe Cooper was credited with three tackles-for-loss. The 18 tackles-for-loss were one shy of the school record of 19 set against Penn State in 1999.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. – Quarterback Steve Bellisari threw for 203 yards and a pair of touchdowns and tailback Jonathan Wells rushed for 152 yards and two scores as the Buckeyes downed Minnesota 31-28. With the offensive line playing its best overall game of the year (no sacks allowed and gaping holes for the running backs), the Buckeyes amassed 468 yards in total offense, including 265 on the ground.

The Buckeyes led 14-13 at the half, then fell behind 20-14 before scoring 17-unanswered points, the last three of which came on a 35-yard field goal by freshman kicker Mike Nugent. After Minnesota cut the deficit to 31-28, Ohio State recovered an on-side kick and ran out the clock behind the ball-control running of Wells. Flanker Chris Vance had his best game as a Buckeye, hauling in five receptions for 101 yards. In addition to 203 yards passing, Bellisari rushed for 66 yards.

Linebacker Joe Cooper led the Ohio State defense with eight tackles, one more than defensive linemen Tim Anderson, Darrion Scott and Will Smith.

Anderson, who forced two fumbles and had a pair of sacks, was named Big Ten Co-Defensive Player of the Week. All-America safety Mike Doss added an interception.

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Before an Ohio Stadium record crowd of 104,189, Ohio State routed the visiting Boilermakers by a final count of 35-9.

The Buckeyes never trailed against the Boilers, jumping out to 12-0 lead on a 36-yard Mike Nugent field goal, a safety and then a 15-yard run by tailback Jonathan Wells.

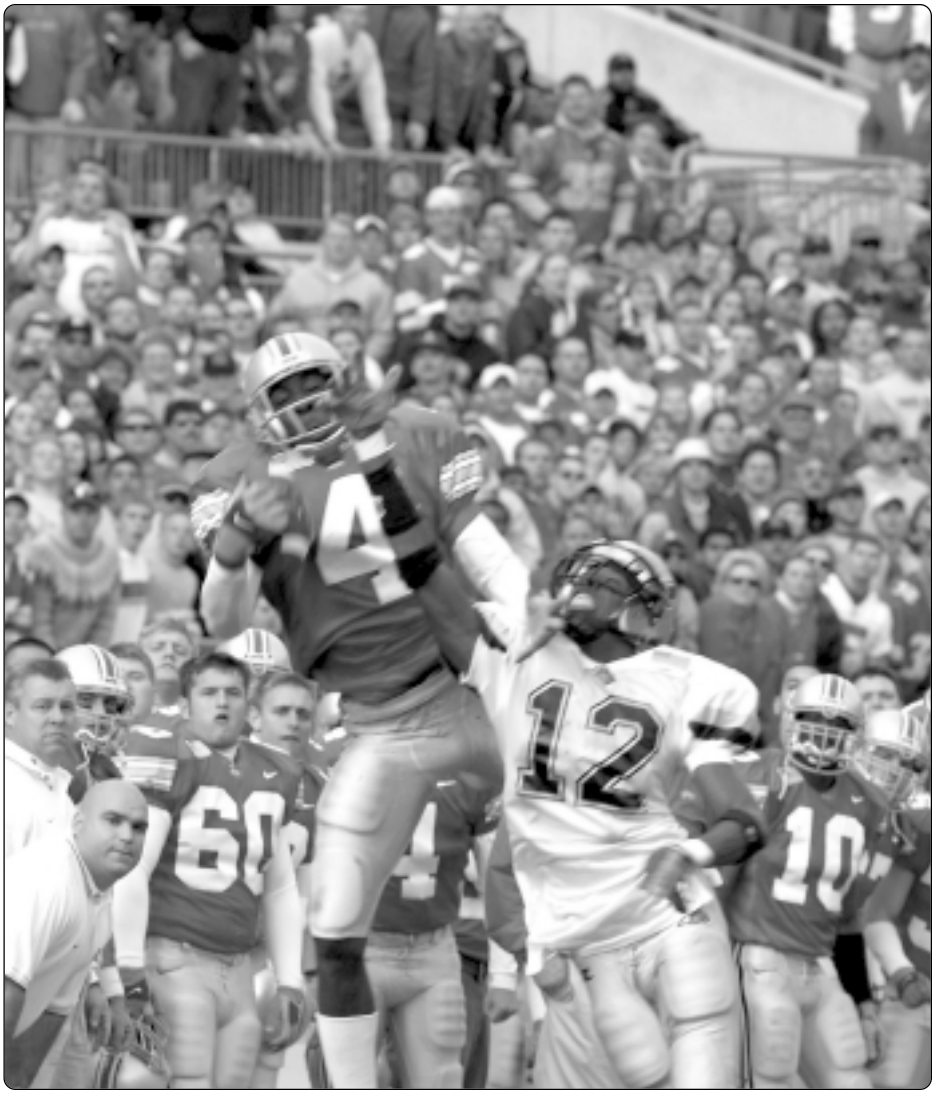

Purdue closed to within six at the half, at 12-6, but the Buckeyes scored 23-unanswered points (including a second safety) after intermission to salt the game away.

Wells finished with 101 yards on 21 carries for his third-consecutive 100-yard game. Quarterback Steve Bellisari turned in his second-consecutive impressive performance, completing 14-of-20 passes for 263 yards and three touchdowns, in the process tying his career high for TD passes.

Flanker Chris Vance was a one-man highlight show, catching seven passes for 138 yards and one touchdown.

Defensive end Kenny Peterson led a balanced effort with five tackles, including two tackles-for-loss.

Ohio State also had three interceptions, including the seventh of the year by cornerback Derek Ross. The Buckeyes rolled up 429 yards in total offense and held Purdue to just 211, a season low by an opponent.

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Illinois snapped the Buckeyes' two-game winning streak, in the process knocking OSU out of Big Ten title contention.

The visiting Illini jumped off to a 7-0 start on a blocked punt, but Ohio State came back to take a 10-7 lead at the end of the first period. Illinois scored a pair of touchdowns just before the half to take a 21-10 lead, but the Buckeyes, behind the running of senior tailback Jonathan Wells, battled back to build a 22-21 lead with one second left in the third quarter. Illinois, however, scored a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns to put the game away.

Wells turned in his best overall performance as a Buckeye, running for a personal-best 192 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries. Quarterbacks Scott McMullen (who made his first career start) and Craig Krenzel (who made his first appearance of the year) combined to throw for 206 yards and a pair of touchdowns as replacements for starter Steve Bellisari.

Split end Michael Jenkins was on the receiving end of 10 of those tosses, good for 155 yards, including a 17-yard touchdown.

Linebacker Joe Cooper had a game-high seven solos and 10 tackles.

Ohio State, Nugent 39. Michigan, Epstein 27.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. – The Buckeyes jumped out to a stunning 23-0 lead in the first half behind the running of tailback Jonathan Wells, who shredded the Michigan defense for 122 yards and three touchdowns on 23 carries. Wells scored on runs of 1, 46 and 11 yards to put OSU on top 21-0 with 4:34 to play. His first and third touchdowns followed interceptions by the OSU defense and his 46-yard run came on fourth-and-one. A Michigan safety with 35 seconds left in the half sent Ohio State into the locker room with what turned out to be an insurmountable lead.

With Wells out in the second half with leg cramps and starting tackle Shane Olivea shelved with a broken ankle, the Buckeyes led 26-20 with 2:26 to play. But OSU's Chris Vance recovered an on-side kick and Ohio State recorded its first victory in Ann Arbor since 1987, in the process locking up undisputed possession of third place in the final Big Ten standings. The loss cost the Wolverines a share of the Big Ten title and a BCS berth.

The Buckeye defense recorded three sacks (two by end Will Smith) and forced five turnovers, including a pair of interceptions by safety Mike Doss.

TAMPA, Fla. – With the score tied and virtually no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver kicked a 42-yard field goal as the clock expired to propel No. 14 South Carolina to 31-28 victory over No. 22 Ohio State in the Outback Bowl. The kick, which barely made it over the crossbar, spoiled a valiant comeback effort by the Buckeyes who had rallied from a 28-0 third-quarter deficit. Quarterback Steve Bellisari engineered the Ohio State comeback, completing 21 of 35 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns. But, with the Buckeyes trying frantically to pull out the win in regulation, he was intercepted by Sheldon Brown, whose return to Ohio State's 29 with 23 seconds left set up Weaver's first ever game-winning kick. Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina. But none of that mattered when Bellisari finally got the Buckeyes going. He ran for a 2-yard score to close the third-quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half. After the two teams exchanged fumbles, senior Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21 with 5:02 to go. Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play and Bellisari was magnificent. He went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch. Cie Grant gave the Buckeyes a chance for victory at the end, intercepting Petty with 1:12 left. Riding the hot arm of Bellisari, the Buckeyes tried to move down the field to set up the go-ahead score, but Brown's pick and runback set the stage for Weaver's dramatic game clincher.

Ohio Stadium

Undeniably one of the most recognizable landmarks in all of athletics, Ohio Stadium is now in its 81st year as the home of Ohio State football.

Built in 1922, "The Horseshoe" has just undergone an extensive three-year renovation, preservation and expansion project that will ensure its longevity for years to come.

With 101,568 seats now closely surrounding the playing field, this grand old structure, standing tall along the banks of the Olentangy River, is at the same time both intimate and intimidating.

Designed by architect Howard Dwight Smith in the summer of 1918, the double-deck horseshoe-shaped Ohio Stadium was added to the National Register of Historic Places by the National Park Service on March 22, 1974.

Unique in design with its double-decked horseshoe look, Ohio Stadium is listed in the National Registry of Historic Buildings. And for the more than 34 million fans who have passed through its gates, there is nothing like a Saturday afternoon in Columbus with all the pageantry and fanfare that surrounds every Ohio State game. That is why, year-in and year-out, the Buckeyes rank among the national attendance leaders.

As a result of the recent renovation, there are a number of changes, including all new bench seats in "A" and "B" decks. The three rows of Hospitality Suites and the Press Box on the west side are new, as are the 19 rows of seats in "C" deck. Additionally, the concourses have been widened in both "B" and "C" decks, and the numbers of restrooms and concession stands on all levels have increased dramatically.

Earlier changes were equally striking, beginning with the lowering of the actual field 14'6" at the completion of the 1999 season. By the following fall, a new scoreboard and a permanent South Stands were in place. So, too, was the completely new "AA" deck.

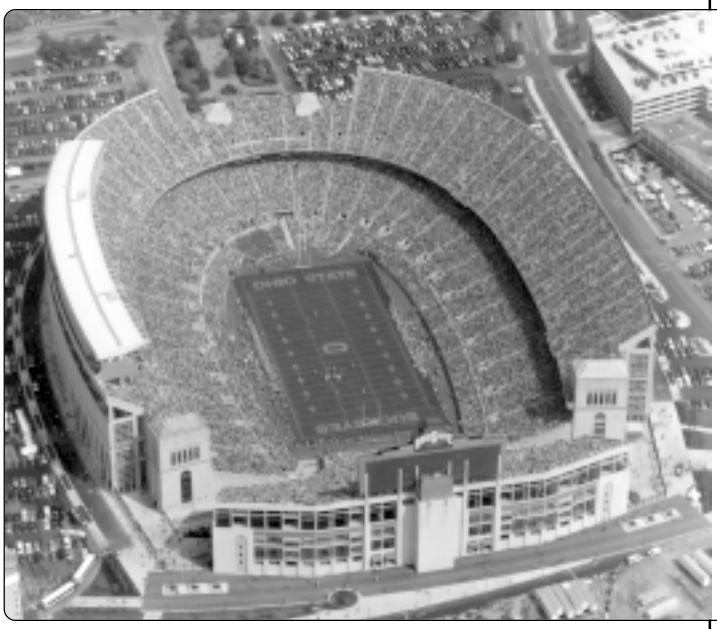

It was truly an amazing 12 months of dedication by the more than 750 construction workers involved in the project. Their tireless work and pride helped make Phase II (the second year) a reality.

The total cost of the renovation project is approximately $194 million. Nearly 80 percent of that figure will be covered by the sale of the 81 Hospitality Suites and the 2,500 Club Seats on the west side of the stadium. Naming Rights gifts and revenue generated from increased ticket sales and concession income will cover the remaining 20 percent. No tax dollars or state or university money was used.

With an original capacity of 66,210, skeptics doubted the $1.3 million structure would ever be filled. But they were quickly quieted when an overflow crowd of 71,385 showed up for the dedication game against Michigan Oct. 7, 1922.

From that impressive beginning, Ohio State has gone on to lead the nation in attendance 20 times. Last year, the Buckeyes averaged a school record 103,532 fans in six home games, including a record 104,407 in the game against Illinois.

Of course, all of those records could change this year. Ohio Stadium – 81 years old and looking better all the time!

The 2,625 club seats on the West side of the stadium are a key to financing the massive project.

Prior to 1984, the OSU scoreboards were located in the southeast (shown here) and southwest corners of the stadium. There also was a third scoreboard at the north end of the Horseshoe.

The wrought iron entrance gates feature a block O pattern.

Ohio Stadium

The rotunda entrance, one of the preserved areas of the stadium, was modeled after the classical architecture of the Pantheon in Rome. It features three stained glass windows, installed prior to the 2001 season.

The Ohio Stadium dedication game against Michigan in 1922 drew an stadium record crowd of 75,000 fans.

Prior to Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes played their games at Ohio Field.

The History of Ohio State Football

To quote authors Marv Homan and Paul Hornung, who co-wrote "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football:"
"Ohio State University has experienced an overwhelmingly eventful, colorful, often controversial, ever-intriguing and, above all, enormously successful football history." Much of the information in this section, which peeks at various seasons of Ohio State football between 1900 and 1999, was supplied with permission from "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football."

Football becomes a varsity sport and Alexander Lilley is the first head coach.

The Buckeyes notch a 9-0-1 record, their first unbeaten season.

1901

Football crowds and support grow at an alarming rate. Columbus newspapers begin devoting more space to football and most importantly, for the first time after 12 seasons of football, the sport turned a modest profit for the ever-struggling university athletic association.

In 1890, Alexander S. Lilley was named Ohio State's first head football coach.

Coaching hero John Eckstorm shocks the university community, announcing his resignation as head football coach. Perry Hale, a star player at Yale, takes the reigns.

1904

E.R. Sweetland became the school's first year-round football coach. Expectations were high for the 1904 team, driving the athletic association to purchase 1,500 additional bleacher seats to be installed on the east side of University Field. Unfortunately, the team and the expected crowds fell way short of all expectations. Ohio State won just six times in 11 tries. Ticket prices ranged from 25 cents to a dollar for "deluxe" games with Michigan and the Carlisle Indians.

1906

Chillicothe native and former Michigan player Al Herrnstein takes over as head coach. Herrnstein, who coached at Purdue in 1905, was instrumental in proving a non-eastern coach could be successful in college football.

1910

The construction of new bleachers increases the capacity of Ohio Field to 10,000. Football season tickets are sold for $2.50. Howard Jones, an All-American from Yale, is named head coach.

1911

On the recommendation of Howard Jones, the athletic board hires Harry Vaughn, also from Yale, as head football coach. Vaughn shows little interest in coaching and resigns after leading Ohio State to a 5-3-2 season.

1912

The athletic board, growing tired of the constant turnover, decides to try a new approach and make the head football coach also serve as the director of athletics. Weary of choosing eastern coaches, the board hired John Richards, a former Wisconsin coach, to assume both roles. The strategy backfires, as Richards goes 6-3 and resigns after one season. With five minutes remaining in the Penn State game and OSU trailing 37-0, Richards took the Buckeyes off the field because of alleged rough play and PSU was awarded a 1-0 win. Ohio State joins the Western Conference, which later became the Big Ten, but could not compete in the conference in football until 1913.

Only after Carl Rothgeb of Colorado College declined to accept the position, John W. Wilce, a former three sport star at Wisconsin, was named head football coach at Ohio State. Wilce went on to a storied 16-year career at OSU, leading the school to three Big Ten championships. The Buckeyes made their football debut in the Western Conference, creating a wave of electric enthusiasm throughout Columbus. Ohio Field's capacity had been increased to 14,000 in anticipation of joining the conference. Ohio State collected its first league win Nov. 13 with a 58-0 trouncing of Northwestern.

Some things never change. Fans packed the stands at Ohio Field to catch a glimpse of the Buckeyes.

1914

Ohio State produced its first All-American, end Boyd Cherry, and went 5-2. Interest in football at the school continued to skyrocket.

1915

Varsity manager William A. Dougherty wrote the fight song "Across the Field." The song was dedicated to Coach John Wilce and was first performed at the Illinois game (Oct. 16, 1915).

1916

Ohio State went a perfect 7-0 and captured its first Western Conference title – sort of. For a reason still unknown, the conference did not officially recognize football championships in those days. Highlights of the championship season included a school record 128-0 win over Oberlin, the first win over Wisconsin (14-13), and a season-ending 23-3 victory over Northwestern that decided the conference championship. Chic Harley earned the first of what would become three All-America awards. He was OSU's first three-time All-American and one of only six in school history.

A powerful Ohio State team finished 8-0-1, capturing its second-consecutive Western Conference championship. Strangely enough, two postseason games were played that year. Ohio State tied Auburn, 0-0, in a game played in Montgomery, Ala., to benefit the Ohio National Guard training in the South. Another game not originally on the schedule was played the next weekend, as Ohio State rolled over Camp Sherman, a team from Chillicothe. Chic Harley earned All-America honors for the second-consecutive season, and more importantly, became the talk of the Midwest. Fans turned out in record numbers to see Harley, one of the most versatile players in the country, pass, punt, rush, return punts, drop-kick extra points, and play stellar defense. The legendary Walter Camp, who selected the only official college All-America team in those days, made a personal visit to Columbus to watch Harley play.

Ohio State outscored its opponents 176-12 and went 6-1. OSU recorded its first win over Michigan, 13-3. The admittance of Ohio State to the Western Conference and the dramatic success of the football team under Coach Wilce magnified the inadequacy of Ohio Field.

Ohio State defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 3-0, at Ohio Field in 1911.

A landmark year for Ohio State football. Professor Thomas E. French, a member of the athletic board, and Director of Athletics Lynn Wilbur St. John decided it was time to take advantage of the soaring interest in Ohio State football. An extensive stadium campaign was launched in the fall, with hopes of building a new football facility. The campaign opened Oct. 18, 1920, with a goal of reaching $600,000, a figure considered unrealistic by many. By Nov. 26, 1920, over $923,000 had been pledged. With the campaign in full force, coach Wilce's team kept interest levels high by finishing the regular season 7-0 and capturing the school's third Western Conference title. The undefeated season drove Ohio State football into the national spotlight and caught the eye of the Tournament of Roses Association in Pasadena, Calif. At the conclusion of the regular season, Ohio State received an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl against California Jan. 1, 1921. After heated discussions between members of the athletic board and St. John, the football team was granted permission to play in the game.

The fact Ohio State went 5-2 and collected its third-consecutive win over Michigan was dwarfed by the construction occurring just a few blocks from Ohio Field in 1921. On Aug. 3, Ohio Governor Harry Davis joined a crowd of over 2,500 to officially break ground on the new stadium. The massive project was scheduled to take only 14 months and originally was to be completed at a cost of $1,341,017. After speculation the new stadium would seat about 35,000, it was officially announced it would actually seat over 60,000, a figure that drew harsh criticism from many. Upon completion, the final cost of the stadium exceeded $1,500,000. More than $1,000,000 of that cost had been pledged by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans.

Those that cited concerns of Ohio Stadium being too large looked on in awe as the stadium was dedicated prior to the Michigan game Oct. 21. Temporary stands were erected in the south end of the stadium, and a crowd of 72,500 was estimated. The dedication game against the Wolverines was actually the third game played in Ohio Stadium. Ohio State christened its new home with a 5-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan in front of 25,000 people. OSU won the first two games in Ohio Stadium, but finished the season with a disappointing 3-4 mark.

L.W. St. John announces all stadium debt has been paid, a remarkable achievement considering the facility had been standing for only eight short years. Coach Wilce announces his resignation, to take effect in June, 1929, citing the desire to enter the private practice of medicine. After capturing three Western Conference championships and producing 14 All-Americans, Wilce left football and did postgraduate research at Harvard and Columbia before becoming the Director of the Ohio State University Student Health Services in 1934.

Sam Willaman, an assistant on Wilce's staff and a 1913 Ohio State graduate, was named the 13th head coach in the history of Ohio State football. He led the team to a 4-3-1 finish in his first season.

1930

Wes Fesler becomes only the second three-time All-American in Ohio State history, captaining the Buckeyes and leading them to a 5-2-1 record. He also is the first recorded winner of the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Fesler, one of the school's top all-time all-around athletes, earned nine total varsity letters – three each in football, basketball and baseball.

Lynn Wilbur St. John

Fueled by an incredible defense, Ohio State finished 7-1, dropping only a 14-0 decision to Michigan. The Buckeyes allowed only 26 points the entire season, while scoring 161.

1934

Francis Schmidt is named the head football coach at Ohio State, ushering in not only a new era but also a new style of football. With an offensive scheme dubbed "razzle-dazzle" by the press and featuring double and triple reverses, laterals, and passes, Schmidt's inaugural team scored 267 points – the second most in OSU history at that point. Schmidt's off-the-field antics were just as colorful as his on-field plays, making him an instant hit with the community. After accepting the coaching position, he was asked how he expected to cope with the OSU nemesis from Ann Arbor. Dressed in his inevitable bow tie, his matter-of-fact answer developed into a cliché: "They put their pants on one leg at a time same as everybody else." Schmidt's comment leads to the formation of the "Gold Pants Club," which awarded miniature gold football pants to all players who had a hand in a victory over the Wolverines. The tradition of an annual Captain's Breakfast, where all former grid captains are invited to a breakfast and welcome the current team captains, also began.

1935

Ohio State collected its second-consecutive 7-1 season under Schmidt, claiming the school's first Big Ten title in 14 years. The Buckeyes capped the year with a 38-0 season-ending win over Michigan. That season finale launched the now famous season-ending rivalry. Since then, Ohio State has ended its regular-season schedule with a battle against the Wolverines every year but one. Also in 1935, Ohio State and Notre Dame play what was hailed as the "greatest college game ever played," for many years after. The Buckeyes held a 13-0 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Notre Dame scored three times in the final stanza – twice in the last two minutes – for an 18-13 win.

1936

The Ohio State Marching Band performed "Script Ohio" for the first time at the Pittsburgh game (Oct. 10, 1936). OSU dropped its Big Ten opener to Northwestern, 14-13, but steamrolled through its remaining conference schedule with four shutouts in four games.

1941

After a dominant high school coaching career in Massillon, Ohio, Paul Brown was named Ohio State's 15th head coach. An incredibly organized, meticulous man, Brown led Ohio State to a 6-1-1 mark in his debut season. He also earned OSU's first West Coast win, a 33-0 trouncing at Southern California in only Brown's second collegiate game. The season ended with a 20-all tie at Michigan.

1942

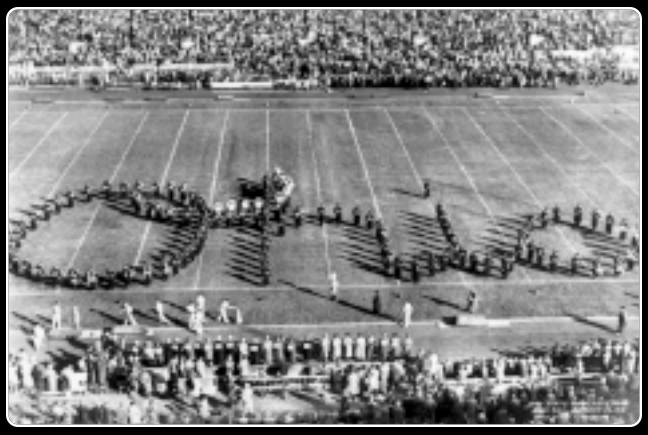

Though World War II loomed over the nation, Ohio State football fans reveled in one of the most glorious seasons ever. The Buckeyes captured the school's first national championship as well as a Big Ten title, finishing the year 9-1 and ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. Led by a star-studded backfield that included Les Horvath, Paul Sarringhaus, and Gene Fekete, OSU rolled to 337 points, a record that stood until 1969. The only loss of the season, a 17-7 decision at Wisconsin, even had an asterisk. Several key players and coaches caught a debilitating virus from a drinking fountain on the train from Chicago to Madison.

With a game apparently ending in a 26-all tie, Ohio State and Illinois left the field. But the teams were called back 20 minutes later when it was discovered the Illini were called for a penalty on the Buckeyes' final play. With little of the crowd remaining, John Stungis kicked a 27-yard field goal – the first of his career – for a 29-26 OSU win. Brown, a Lieutenent Junior-Grade, left Ohio State for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in April of 1944.

1944

Carroll Widdoes, an assistant of Paul Brown's at Massillon and Ohio State, was named acting head coach. In his first season, the Buckeyes finish 9-0 and claim the Big Ten championship, but finish No. 2 in the Associated Press behind Army. OSU fans

The first Script Ohio was performed Oct. 10, 1936 at the Pittsburgh game.

The History of Ohio State Football

One of the most memorable games in college football history was the Ohio State-Michigan Snow Bowl of 1950.

claim an unofficial "civilian national championship." Les Horvath became the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. Ohio State received an invitation to the Rose Bowl, but faculty representatives from around the Big Ten disallow the trip.

In one of the program's more unique coaching moves, offensive coordinator Paul Bixler and head coach Carroll Widdoes switched roles prior to the season. Warren Amling earns All-America honors at tackle, just a year after being named an All-America guard. Following the season, Bixler turns in his resignation.

1947

In the same meeting Bixler announces his intentions to resign, L. W. St. John proposes to the athletic board that Wes Fesler be the next head coach at Ohio State. The board concurs, and Fesler, a three-time All-American at Ohio State in the 1930s, becomes the program's fifth head coach in eight years. In one of the stranger games during the 1900s, Ohio State was afforded three plays after time had expired because of Northwestern penalties and came away with a 7-6 victory in Ohio Stadium.

1949

Ohio State captures a share of the Big Ten championship and collects its first Rose Bowl win, beating California, 17-14.

1950

Vic Janowicz puts on arguably the greatest individual display in college football history against Iowa. He sent two kickoffs out of the endzone for touchbacks, recovered two fumbles on defense, scored on an 11-yard touchdown run, returned a punt 61 yards for a touchdown, threw a 12-yard scoring strike, and kicked three extra points – all in the first five minutes of the game. The famous "Snow Bowl" game with Michigan was played in late November. Somehow, between the swirling winds and zero visibility, Janowicz boots a 38-yard field goal in what would later be called one of the "Greatest Feats in American Sports" by a panel of sportswriters. To no one's surprise, Janowicz wins the Heisman Trophy. On Dec. 9, Fesler submits a lengthy resignation statement.

1951

After a highly-scrutinized selection process, Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes begins his 28-year tenure as head coach. A tireless worker, meticulous planner, and a Lieutenent Commander in the Navy, Hayes led his initial Buckeye team, which struggled to adjust to his T-formation style, to a 4-3-2 finish. Many thought Hayes' days at Ohio State were numbered. They were wrong.

1954

Ohio State claims its second national championship with a perfect 10-0 season, beating Southern Cal, 20-7, in a rainy, mud-soaked Rose Bowl game. The rift between West Coast writers and Hayes is born when the OSU coach criticizes the Tournament of Roses Association for not covering the field before the game and allowing the bands to perform at halftime.

Ohio State uses a 17-0 blanking of Michigan to claim its second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Howard "Hopalong" Cassady becomes Ohio State's third Heisman Trophy winner. During the season, Hayes voices his displeasure over the fact several other football conferences had started awarding scholarships to student-athletes, but the Big Ten had failed to follow suit. After a series of meetings and heated debates, the conference adopts a complicated grant-in-aid program based on financial need, marking the first form of athletics scholarship available at Ohio State.

1956

Ohio State sets a Big Ten record with 17-consecutive victories, breaking Michigan's previous mark of 15. Offensive guard Jim Parker became the first OSU player to win the Outland Trophy.

1957

After dropping the season opener, the Buckeyes win nine-consecutive games to capture the school's third national championship – the second under Hayes. OSU knocked off Oregon 10-7 in the Rose Bowl for its third-consecutive win in Pasadena.

1961

Ohio State finishes 8-0-1, defeats Michigan, 50-20, wins the Big Ten and is named national champions by the Football Writers. A bitter dispute among the school's faculty council erupted when a Rose Bowl invitation arrived. By a narrow margin, the council voted not to accept the invitation and skip the bowl game. A livid Hayes claimed for years the decision hampered his recruiting efforts.

1963

Ohio State defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor, 14-10, marking the fourth-consecutive Buckeye win over the Wolverines. The game was delayed a week as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy. The attendance of 36,424 was the smallest at Michigan Stadium in 20 years.

1966

Billy Ray Anders, a true walk-on

The History of Ohio State Football

that did not play high school football, set an OSU record with 55 receptions. The record would stand until Cris Carter's arrival in 1985.

1968

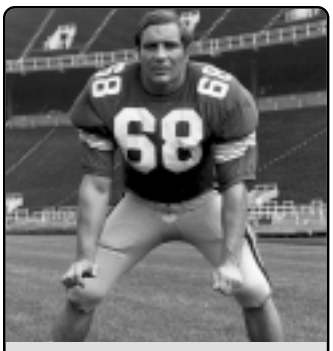

Arguably the finest Ohio State team in history uses a dominating 50-14 win over Michigan and a 27-16 come-from-behind victory over Southern California in the Rose Bowl to earn the school's fifth national championship. Before the final polls crowning the Buckeyes champions are released, Coach Hayes departs for Vietnam for a volunteer trip to talk football with U.S. servicemen. Later, the Sporting News called this team one of the 10 greatest college football teams of all-time.

1969

A squad Coach Hayes called "the best team we ever put together, probably the best team that ever played college football," rolled easily to a 9-0 record, but a season-ending loss to Michigan ended OSU's 22-game unbeaten streak and bid for a second-consecutive national title.

1970

Jim Stillwagon wins both the Outland and the first Lombardi Award. Ohio State rolls to nine-consecutive wins – including a 20-9 triumph over Michigan that has been called one of the most emotional games in Ohio Stadium history – before falling to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State still was awarded a national championship by the National Football Foundation. A senior class featuring six All-Americans and nine all-Big Ten selections leaves OSU with a three-year mark of 27-2.

Jim Stillwagon won the first Lombardi Award in 1970.

Freshmen are cleared to play for the first time, signaling the start of the Archie Griffin era. Against the better judgment of Coach Hayes but after strong urging from backfield coach Rudy Hubbard, Griffin comes off the bench against North Carolina and rushes for a then-Ohio State record 239 yards in only his second collegiate appearance. OSU uses two goal-line stands – one in each half – to beat Michigan, 14-11, and claim a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

1973

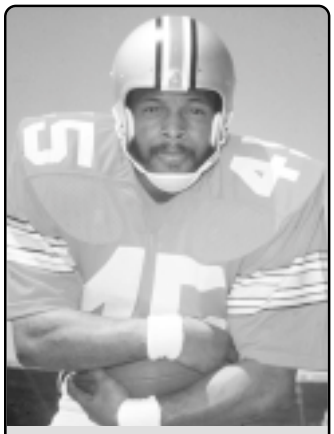

Ohio State goes unbeaten, finishing 10-0-1 including a 42-21 trouncing of USC in the Rose Bowl. OSU becomes the first school to own three of the Top 5 vote-getters in the Heisman Trophy balloting. With five Big Ten titles, two national championships, and four Rose Bowl trips all in a six-year span, Ohio State football popularity hits an all-time high. Columbus becomes known as the "Capital of College Football."

1974

On June 5, Coach Hayes suffers a heart attack, but pledges to return by OSU's opener Sept. 14. The fiery coach, who by this point had become larger-than-life in Columbus, did return and led OSU to its third-consecutive Big Ten championship and yet another Rose Bowl. Archie Griffin won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the fifth non-senior to win the award.

1975

Hayes gives West Coast reporters a now famous quote about Archie Griffin: "He's a better young man than he is a football player, and he's the best football player I've ever seen." Griffin becomes the first two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy, leading the Buckeyes to their conference-record fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl. He also becomes the NCAA's all-time leading rusher in a midseason game against Purdue.

Archie Griffin became the first two-time Hesiman Trophy winner in 1975

Just one year after the Big Ten changes the rule to allow more than just the conference champion to attend a bowl game, the Buckeyes notch a share of the Big Ten championship and beat Colorado, 27-10, in the Orange Bowl.

1979

Former Ohio State player and assistant coach Earle Bruce is named head coach. The Buckeyes finish the regular season 11-0 and come within a point of a national championship, falling 17-16 to Southern California in the Rose Bowl. Bruce is named the Big Ten and national coach of the year in his first season.

1980

Ohio State and Illinois combined for 1,057 yards and 91 points in a 49-42 OSU win.

1981

The Buckeyes capture their second Big Ten championship in three years under Bruce and top Navy in the Liberty Bowl. Art Schlichter completed 31 of 52 passes for 458 yards – all OSU records – against the Florida State Seminoles.

1984

After a five-year absence, Ohio State returns to the Rose Bowl with an undisputed Big Ten championship. Chris Spielman makes his debut a memorable one in the season opener against Oregon State, making 10 tackles in the second half after coming off the bench. Keith Byars rushes for a then school-record 274 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 45-38 win over Illinois. Byars' memorable day also included a 67-yard touchdown run where he lost one shoe 35 yards from the goal line.

1985

The first night game in Ohio Stadium history – thanks to portable light standards – ends in a 10-7 Ohio State win over Pittsburgh. Flanker Mike Lanese becomes the first OSU football player to win a Rhodes Scholarship. A preseason foot injury to Heisman Trophy favorite Keith Byars dampens Ohio State's hopes for a championship season.

1987

The History of Ohio State Football

Linebacker Chris Spielman wins the Lombardi Award and the season ends with a thrilling 23-20 win at Michigan. College football fans everywhere mourn the death of Woody Hayes. President Richard Nixon, joined by a crowd of over 10,000, speaks at Hayes' memorial service.

1988

John Cooper, then head coach at Arizona State, was named the school's 21st head football coach after an intense search conducted by new Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

1989

Ohio State celebrates its 100th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes overcome a 31-0 deficit to win 41-37 at Minnesota, equaling the largest comeback in NCAA history. OSU competes in the Hall of Fame Bowl, its 10th different postseason bowl appearance.

1990

Natural grass returns to Ohio Stadium. Robert Smith gains 1,126 yards to break Archie Griffin's OSU freshman rushing record.

Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, home total (654,500), average home (90,500) and single game (95,357 vs. Iowa) attendance records fall.

1993

OSU records its best record since 1979 by going 10-1-1, capturing a share of the Big Ten title and winning the Holiday Bowl.

1994

The Buckeyes defeat Michigan 22-6, ending a six-game winless streak against the Wolverines.

1995

Ohio State dominated college football's individual awards. Eddie George becomes OSU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner. Orlando Pace becomes the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award, and Terry Glenn wins the Biletnikoff Award. The Buckeyes tie a school record with 11 wins and play in the Citrus Bowl. OSU sets a school record that still stands with 475 points scored. A then Ohio Stadium record crowd of 95,537 is on hand for Ohio State's 45-26 win over Notre Dame.

1996

The Buckeyes win their 27th Big Ten title and defeat Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, winding up No. 2 in both national polls. Orlando Pace repeats as the Lombardi Award winner and wins the Outland Trophy. It marks the fourth-consecutive season Ohio State has finished among the nation's Top 10 in one of the major polls.

1998

Ohio State notched its fourth-consecutive 10-win season. The Buckeyes spend 10 weeks as the No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll and cap the season with a 24-14 win over Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl. Joe

In 1996, Ohio State won its 27th Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl.

Germaine wins the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and the Buckeyes go a perfect 5-0 against teams ranked in the Top 25. Antoine Winfield wins the Thorpe Award.

Athletics Director Andy Geiger announces the retirement of Archie Griffin's No. 45 at the Sept. 30 Iowa game. It is the first number retired in any sport in Ohio State history.

2000

The jersey numbers of former Heisman Trophy winners Vic Janowicz (31) and Howard "Hopalong" Cassady (40) are retired at home games against Penn State and Michigan, respectively. The Buckeyes fall to South Carolina in the Outback Bowl on Jan. 1, the first meeting between the two teams. Following the season, former OSU assistant coach Jim Tressel is named to replace John Cooper as head coach of the Buckeyes.

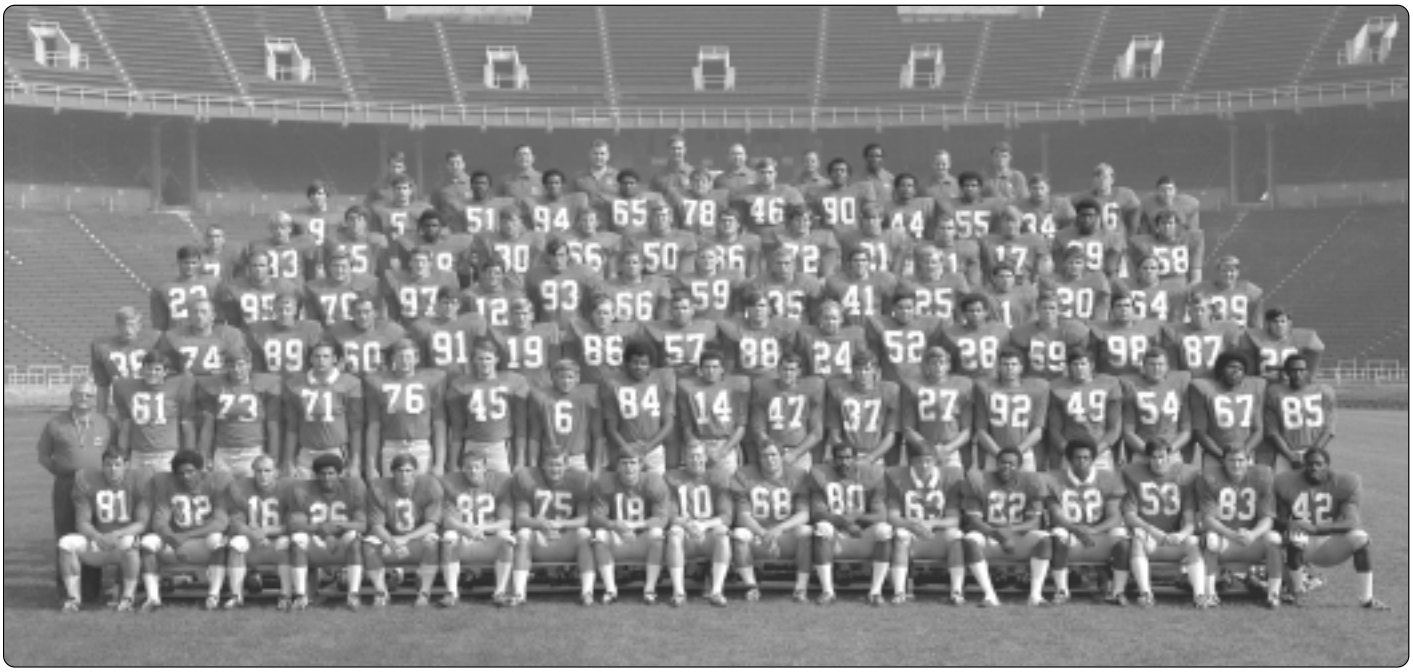

2001

Jim Tressel becomes the Buckeyes' 22nd head football coach. The jerseys of Les Horvath and Eddie George, Ohio State's first and most recent Heisman Trophy winners, respectively, are retired. The Buckeyes defeat Michigan in Ann Arbor, their first win there since 1987.

Jim Tressel became Ohio State's 22nd head football coach in 2001.

Led by All-Americans John Brockington, Jim Stillwagon, Jack Tatum and Mike Sensibaugh, the Ohio State Buckeyes claimed the Big Ten title and their most recent national championship, the National Football Foundation crown, with a 9-1 record.

The national championship was Woody Hayes' fifth with the Buckeyes and the Big Ten championship was the third in a string of nine championships in 10 years. Some say the senior class of 1970 may have been the school's greatest ever. In three years, the team won 27 of 29 games, three Big Ten championships and a pair of national championships.

OSU rolled through the regular season 9-0 with a 7-0 Big Ten mark, but stumbled in a 27-17 loss to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Still, the NFF selected the Buckeyes No. 1, while UPI had OSU No. 2 and the Associated Press had the Buckeyes No. 5.

Brockington led the OSU offense with 1,142 yards rushing and 17 touchdowns. Quarterback Rex Kern passed for 470 yards and three touchdowns and also rushed for 597 yards and seven touchdowns. Jan White was the team leader with 17 catches for 171 yards.

Tatum, Stillwagon and Sensibaugh led a defense that allowed only 263.2 yards per game and forced 32 turnovers. Stan White led the team with 106 tackles.

Ohio State opened the season with a 56-13 romp over the Texas A&M Aggies in front of 85,657 fans in Columbus. OSU totaled 513 yards of offense to only 321 for the Aggies. Seven different players found paydirt for the Scarlet and Gray.

In week two, the Buckeyes dropped their second non-conference opponent with a 34-10 win over the visiting Duke Blue Devils. Ohio State once again dominated the statistics with 481 yards to 249 for the Blue Devils. Leo Hayden rushed for 165 yards while Brockington and Kern added 117 and 113 each.

The Hayes-led Buckeyes rolled through the Big Ten schedule. OSU opened with a 29-0 win over Michigan State in East Lansing followed by a 28-8 win over the Minnesota Golden Gophers. In the Minnesota game, Brockington rushed for 187 yards and two touchdowns.

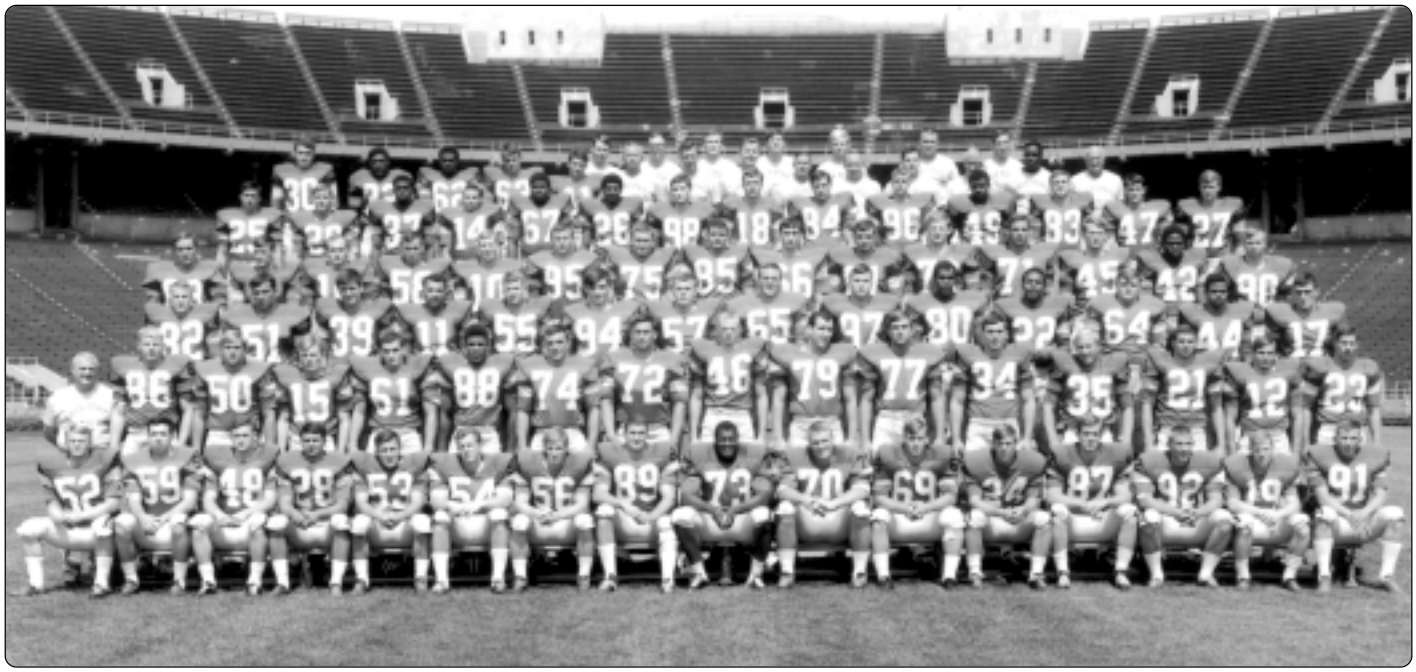

One week later, the Buckeyes' offense rolled up the big numbers in a 48-29 win at Illinois. Brockington scored three times in the game and Ohio State totaled 475 yards of total offense.

Ohio State continued with wins over Northwestern, Wisconsin and Purdue. In the Northwestern game, Brockington rushed for 161 yards and a touchdown, while Kern rushed for a pair of scores. Brockington added three more scores a week later against the Badgers and he scored the Buckeyes' only touchdown in the Purdue game.

In an emotional Michigan game, Ohio State, much to the delight of a delerious Ohio Stadium crowd, avenged their only loss of 1969, downing the Wolverines 20-9. OSU limited the Wolverines to 155 yards and 10 first downs.

In the Rose Bowl, Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett led Stanford to 14 fourth-quarter points to clinch a victory. Plunkett was 20-of-30 for 265 yards and a touchdown. It was the only blemish on an otherwise perfect season.

1968 National Champions

Led by an amazing class of sophomores that included quarterback Rex Kern, defensive back Jack Tatum and defensive lineman Jim Stillwagon, Ohio State rolled to a 10-0 record and the 1968 National Championship when it defeated Southern California in the Rose Bowl, 27-16.

The team compiled numbers that boggle the mind and beat teams it wasn't supposed to beat. The Woody Hayes-led squad averaged 32 points and 440 yards per game, impressive numbers for that time, and the defense was stingy, allowing 15 points and 292 yards.

Eleven players from the team earned All-America honors during their careers and six were drafted in the first round of the NFL draft in either 1969 or 1971.

Jim Otis led the Buckeyes' rushing attack with 985 yards and 17 touchdowns, while Kern was the passing leader with 972 yards and seven touchdowns. Sensibaugh led the defense with five interceptions and Mark Stier recorded 87 tackles.

The unknown and young Buckeyes opened the season at home with a 35-14 victory over Southern Methodist. Despite an NCAA record performance from SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson, the Buckeye defense forced six turnovers and allowed only 50 yards on the ground.

OSU then rolled past Oregon 21-6 before playing perhaps the most important game of the season. With a 2-0 record, but still a questionable reputation, the Buckeyes hosted the No. 1- ranked Purdue Boilermakers. It was this game that probably made the biggest difference in the season.

The Ohio State defense throttled a Purdue offense led by All-America candidates Mike Phipps and Leroy Keyes, allowing only 186 yards and no points. The defense also scored the Buckeyes' first touchdown as Ted Provost picked off a Phipps pass and cruised 35 yards into the end zone. Quarterback Bill Long added a 14-yard run in the third quarter giving the Buckeyes a 13-0 victory and a piece of the national limelight.

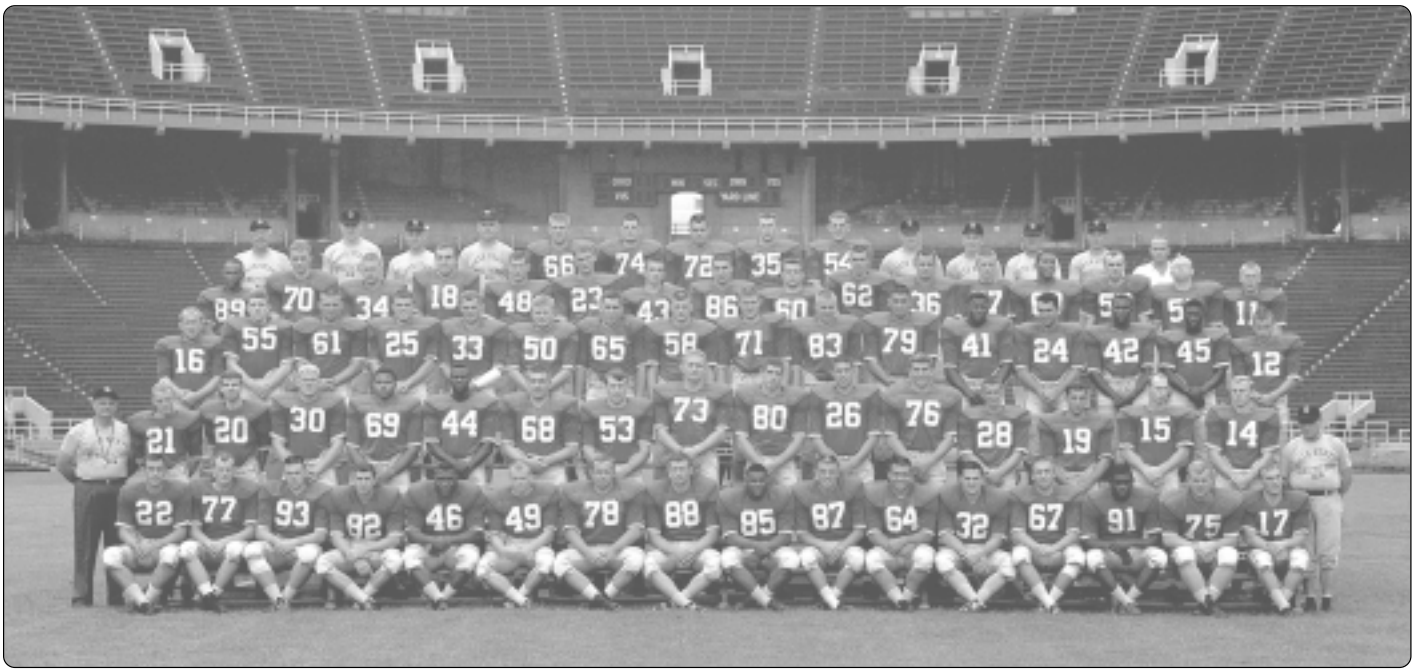

From that point on, the momentum snowballed. The next week Hayes' squad drilled Northwestern 45-21 in Columbus on the strength of 565 yards of total offense. On Oct. 26 it was the Fighting Illini that took it on the chin when Kern and Otis combined for 129 yards and four touchdowns on the ground as OSU jumped out to a 24-0 halftime lead.

The Buckeyes defeated Michigan State, Wisconsin and Iowa before hosting the Michigan Wolverines Nov. 23 in Ohio Stadium. In a game that clinched the Big Ten championship and a Rose Bowl berth, the Buckeyes scored 29 second-half points for a 50-14 win. Otis had 143 yards on the ground and four touchdowns and Kern added 96 yards and two scores as OSU tallied 421 yards and seven TDs on the ground.

The win over Michigan set up a showdown between No. 1 OSU and No. 2 Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

In one of the great games of all time in Pasadena, OSU overcame a 10-0 deficit and rolled to a 27-16 win. Though he scored on an 80-yard run, Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson was held to 91 yards on 27 carries the rest of the way.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS – FOOTBALL WRITERS; WON 8, LOST 0, TIED 1

Led by an explosive offense that averaged nearly 30 points per Big Ten game, the Buckeyes won their 10th undisputed Big Ten championship and were awarded the Football Writers' Association national championship.

The Buckeyes scored 40 or more points two times and passed the 30-point plateau one other time. Just as they had in 1957 with an 18-14 win in Columbus, Texas Christian's Horned Frogs denied the Buckeyes a perfect season with a 7-all tie, but it was the only time all season an opponent was within one touchdown of the mighty Scarlet and Gray.

The offense was led by three outstanding running backs (Matt Snell, Bob Ferguson and Paul Warfield). Ferguson led the Big Ten in rushing with 671 yards in conference games, while Warfield was fourth with 307 in Big Ten contests. Ferguson finished his career ranked second on the OSU all-time rushing list with 2,162 yards and was runner up to Ernie Davis for the Heisman Trophy that year.

Still, the Buckeyes did not play in the Rose Bowl when the OSU Faculty Council voted to reject the bid. The Buckeyes ended the season ranked No. 2 in both the UPI and AP polls, one slot behind Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide.

After the TCU tie, the Buckeyes defeated the eventual Pac-8 Champions, UCLA, 13-3 in Columbus. OSU scored all 13 points in the fourth quarter on rushing touchdowns by Snell and Warfield. While the offense took its time getting warmed up, the defense was smoking, holding the high-powered Bruin offense to 166 yards and a field goal.

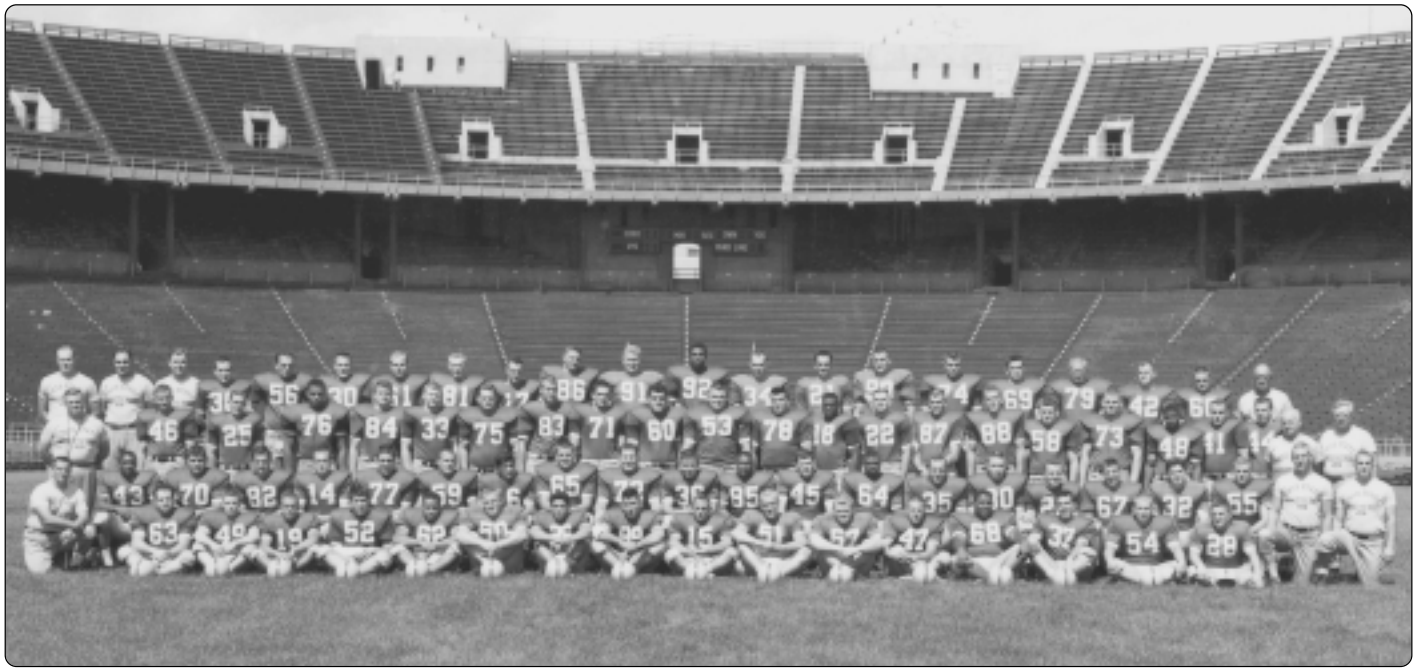

One week later, the Buckeyes destroyed Illinois 44-0, outgaining the Illini 424-180 and forcing four turnovers. Eight Buckeyes rushed for 10 or more yards in the game, including quarterback John Mummey (63) and Warfield (62). Ferguson totaled only 45 yards on the ground, but had four scores.

The Buckeyes beat Northwestern and Wisconsin before hosting a homecoming thriller against the Iowa Hawkeyes. Holding a slim 12-7 lead at the end of the third period, the Buckeyes scored on each of their first three possessions in the final stanza to tally a 29-13 win and keep their undefeated season intact. Ferguson rushed for 144 yards and a score and Joe Sparma passed for 88 yards and two scores, both to Charles Bryant, who caught four passes for 94 yards.

Hayes' squad posted wins over Indiana and Oregon for wins six and seven before traveling to Ann Arbor for the annual battle with arch-rival Michigan.

OSU led 21-12 entering the fourth quarter. The Buckeye offense then exploded for 29 points and a 50-20 win. Ferguson rushed for 152 yards and four touchdowns and Warfield added 122 yards and a score as OSU totaled 512 yards of offense in chalking up all-time win No. 400.

1957 National Champions

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS – UPI AND FOOTBALL WRITERS; WON 9, LOST 1

After being stunned in the season opener by Texas Christian (18-14), Ohio State rolled to a 9-1 record and the UPI and Football Writers' national championships.

This edition of the Buckeyes had everything, including an offense ranked 11th nationally and a defense that allowed only 9.2 points per game. Don Clark led the rushing attack with 655 yards and eight touchdowns, but seven players had at least 195 yards rushing and nine Buckeyes scored touchdowns. Ohio State was particularly tough late in the game as it allowed only six points in the fourth quarter all season.

Clark, Aurealius Thomas and Leo Brown earned All-Big Ten recognition and Thomas was an All-American for Woody Hayes' second national championship team. Jim Parker was drafted in the first round by the Baltimore Colts after the season.

Following the loss to the Horned Frogs, the Buckeyes went on the road to battle the Washington Huskies and came away with a 35-7 victory. A week later, the Buckeyes opened the Big Ten season with a 21-7 win over Illinois and followed that win with a 56-0 pasting of the Indiana Hoosiers.

OSU faced a stern test the next week at Wisconsin, but came out on top, 16-13. Don Sutherin's third-quarter field goal provided the margin of victory.

After relatively easier wins over Northwestern and Purdue, the Buckeyes had their hands full in week eight against Iowa. Trailing 13-10 in the fourth quarter, OSU put together a patented Hayes march that culminated with a 5-yard touchdown plunge by Bob White and a 17-13 triumph.

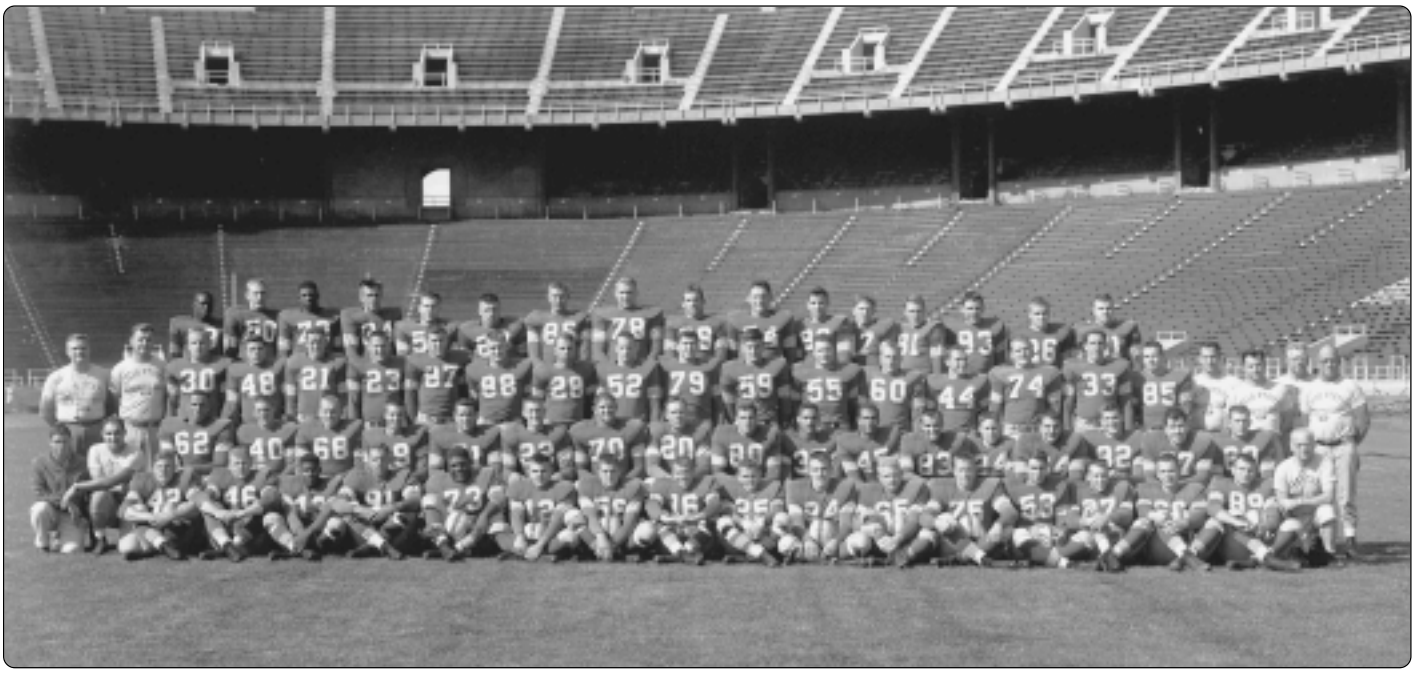

The next week OSU headed north to Ann Arbor to battle Michigan. The Buckeyes trailed 14-10 entering the second half, but took control after intermission and downed the Wolverines 31-14 to earn a trip to the Rose Bowl.

After the win over the vaunted Wolverines, the Buckeyes met Pac-8 Champion Oregon in the Rose Bowl. The Buckeyes scored first, when Frank Kremblas scored on a 1-yard dive over the center, but the Ducks tied the score with a 5-yard run in the second quarter. The game remained tied through the third quarter and into the fourth, but the quarter that was so kind to the Buckeyes all season was good once again.

On a drive that started with more than five minutes remaining in the third period, the Buckeyes drove 56 yards in 14 plays to take a 10-7 lead on a 34-yard field goal by the surefooted Sutherin.

From then on, it was the defense as the Ducks were unable to get an offensive attack going and the Buckeyes grabbed their third national championship.

1954 National Champions

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS – ASSOCIATED PRESS; WON 10, LOST 0

It didn't take Woody Hayes long to put his mark on the Ohio State Buckeyes. In his fourth season at the OSU helm, Hayes pushed his team to the limit and came away with the ultimate prize, his first national championship.

It would be the first of five for Hayes, who won 205 games at OSU. His 1954 team was the first in Ohio State history to win 10 games and had one of the Buckeyes' best players in Howard "Hopalong" Cassady.

Cassady, who won the Heisman trophy the next season, accounted for 849 yards and earned first-team All-America honors in 1954. He led the team with 609 rushing yards and 12 receptions. End Dean Dugger also earned All-America honors and four other players earned All-Big Ten recognition, as the Buckeyes ran roughshod over their opponents that season, outscoring the opposition 249-75.

The defense was led by Jim Parker, who became an All-America guard the next two years, won the Outland Trophy as a senior and was a first round NFL draft pick of the Baltimore Colts. On the year, Ohio State held its foes to 7.5 points and 110 rushing yards per game, recovered 17 fumbles and had 18 interceptions and did not give up more than two touchdowns in a game.

OSU opened the season with a 28-0 victory over Indiana in Columbus. Quarterback Will Leggett rushed for 45 yards and passed for another 64 to lead the way.

The Buckeyes defeated western powerhouse Cal 21-13 the next week in Columbus as Cassady rushed for 104 yards and had touchdown runs of 29 and 26 yards. He also led the squad with four catches for 50 yards.

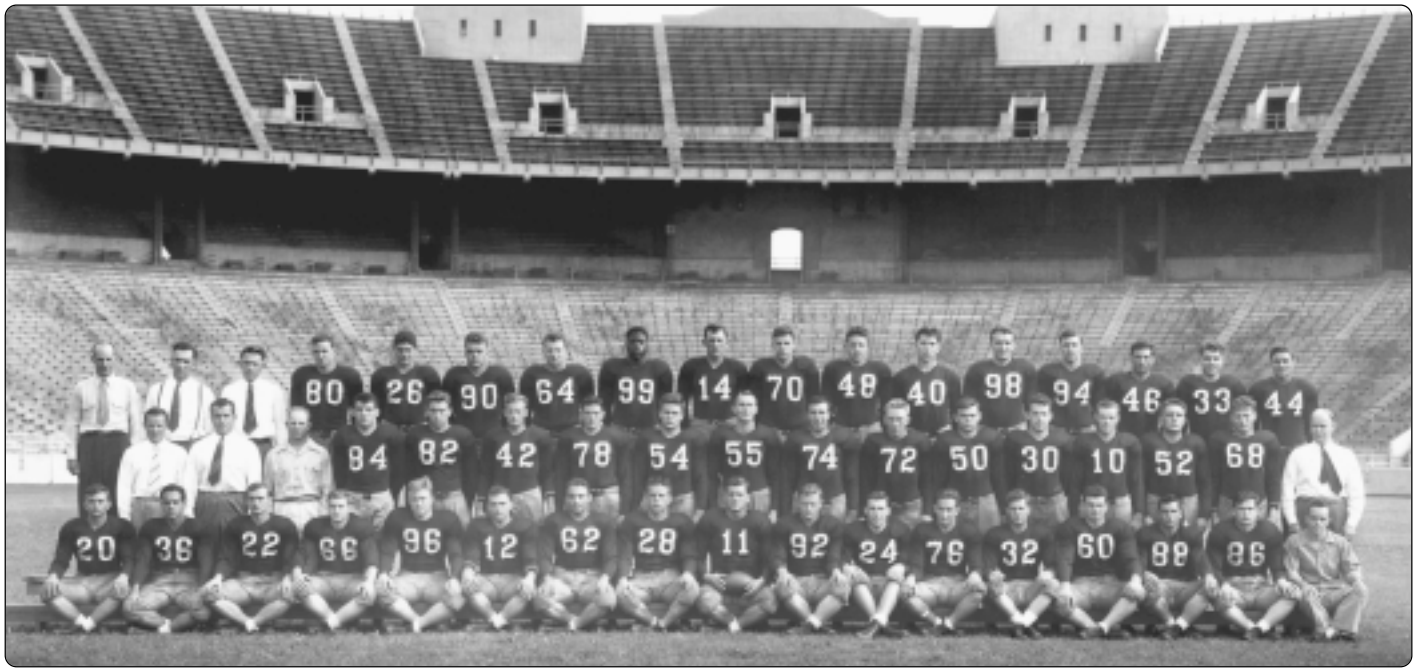

OSU drilled Illinois 40-7 the next week and then beat Iowa, Wisconsin and Northwestern in its next three outings. Robert Watkins had a pair of big games in that span, rushing for 112 and 105 against Illinois and Iowa, respectively.

Wins over the Pitt Panthers, 26-0, and the Purdue Boilermakers, 28-6, preceeded the annual Michigan finale.

The Buckeyes and the Wolverines battled to a 7-all tie through the first three quarters and neither team could gain an edge. But, led by the running of Cassady and the passing of Leggett, Ohio State scored 14 fourth-quarter points for a 21-7 victory. Cassady ended the day with 94 rushing yards while Leggett had 42 and 58 yards passing. Leggett accounted for the first two Buckeye scores with passes to Frederick Kriss and Richard Brubaker, and Cassady iced the game with a 1-yard dive late in the game. Ohio State was 9-0 and headed to Pasadena.

The Rose Bowl was a titanic battle between the Scarlet and Gray and the Southern California Trojans. The Buckeyes played flawless football with 22 first downs, 370 yards and no fumbles lost, and they rolled to a 20-7 victory over the Trojans who had seven fumbles and just six first downs.

It was an amazing squad that grabbed the national title with an overwhelming offense and a smothering defense.

Coached by hall of famer Paul Brown, the offense averaged 33.7 points while piling up 281.2 rushing yards per game and 5.2 yards per carry. The defense, on the other hand, allowed only 114 points and held its opponents to seven or fewer points four times in the 10-game season.

End Robert Shaw, tackle Chuck Csuri and guard Lindell Houston earned All-America honors, and seven players earned All-Big Ten accolades. It was truly a team of stars. Fullbacks Gene Fekete and Paul Sarringhaus were among the conference leaders in rushing with 916 and 672 yards, respectively. Fekete led the Big Ten in scoring with 92 points, while Sarringhaus was second with 72. On defense, George James and Tom Lynn each ranked among the Top 10 in the Big Ten with five interceptions.

The amazingly talented team rolled through the regular season with only a single blemish (a 17-7 loss to Wisconsin) and finished the season ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

OSU opened the 1942 season with a 59-0 pasting of Fort Knox. Fekete and Dick Palmer scored two touchdowns each as the Buckeyes rolled up 440 yards rushing to minus-14 for the service squad. The Buckeyes had 19 first downs to only one for Fort Knox. OSU poured it on in the second half with 20 points in both the third and fourth quarters.

Ohio State battled Big Ten rival Indiana the next week, grabbing a 32-21 win in front of the home crowd. Fekete rushed for 132 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Buckeyes back from a 21-19 third-period deficit to victory.

OSU rolled to easy wins over USC, Purdue and Northwestern before making the trip to Madison for the battle with the Badgers. In that game, Wisconsin All-Americans Elroy Hirsch, Marlin Harder and Dave Schreiner dominated the Buckeyes, with Hirsch and Harder combining for 212 yards and 11 points. OSU narrowly avoided a shutout with a fourth-quarter touchdown run by Sarringhaus.

The Buckeyes rebounded from the loss with a 59-19 dismantling of the Pittsburgh Panthers. A week later, they pounded Illinois to set up a showdown with the Michigan Wolverines. The Wolverines, who had beaten Notre Dame a week earlier, were heavy favorites, but the Buckeyes dazzled the Maize and Blue with three passing touchdowns and prevailed 21-7. The win gave them the Big Ten title.

One week later, the Buckeyes clinched the national championship with a 41-12 win over the Iowa Seahawks.

Woody Hayes

Between 1951 and 1978, while Woody Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (and narrowly missed out on four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. Twice the Buckeyes won a conference record 17-consecutive league games.

Under Hayes, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four-consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972-73-74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first-team All-America honors. Additionally, he coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six-consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Lou Holtz, Bo Schembechler, Earle Bruce and Joe Bugel, just to name a few.

Hayes recorded a lifetime record of 238-72-10. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. And during the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second in each of the other seven years.

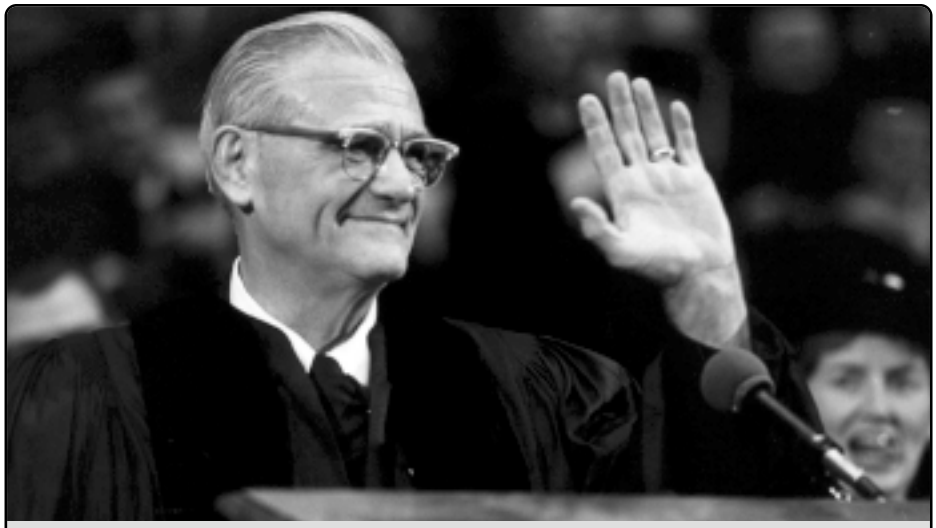

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, Ohio, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami (Ohio) for two.

Hayes was a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the offseason. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

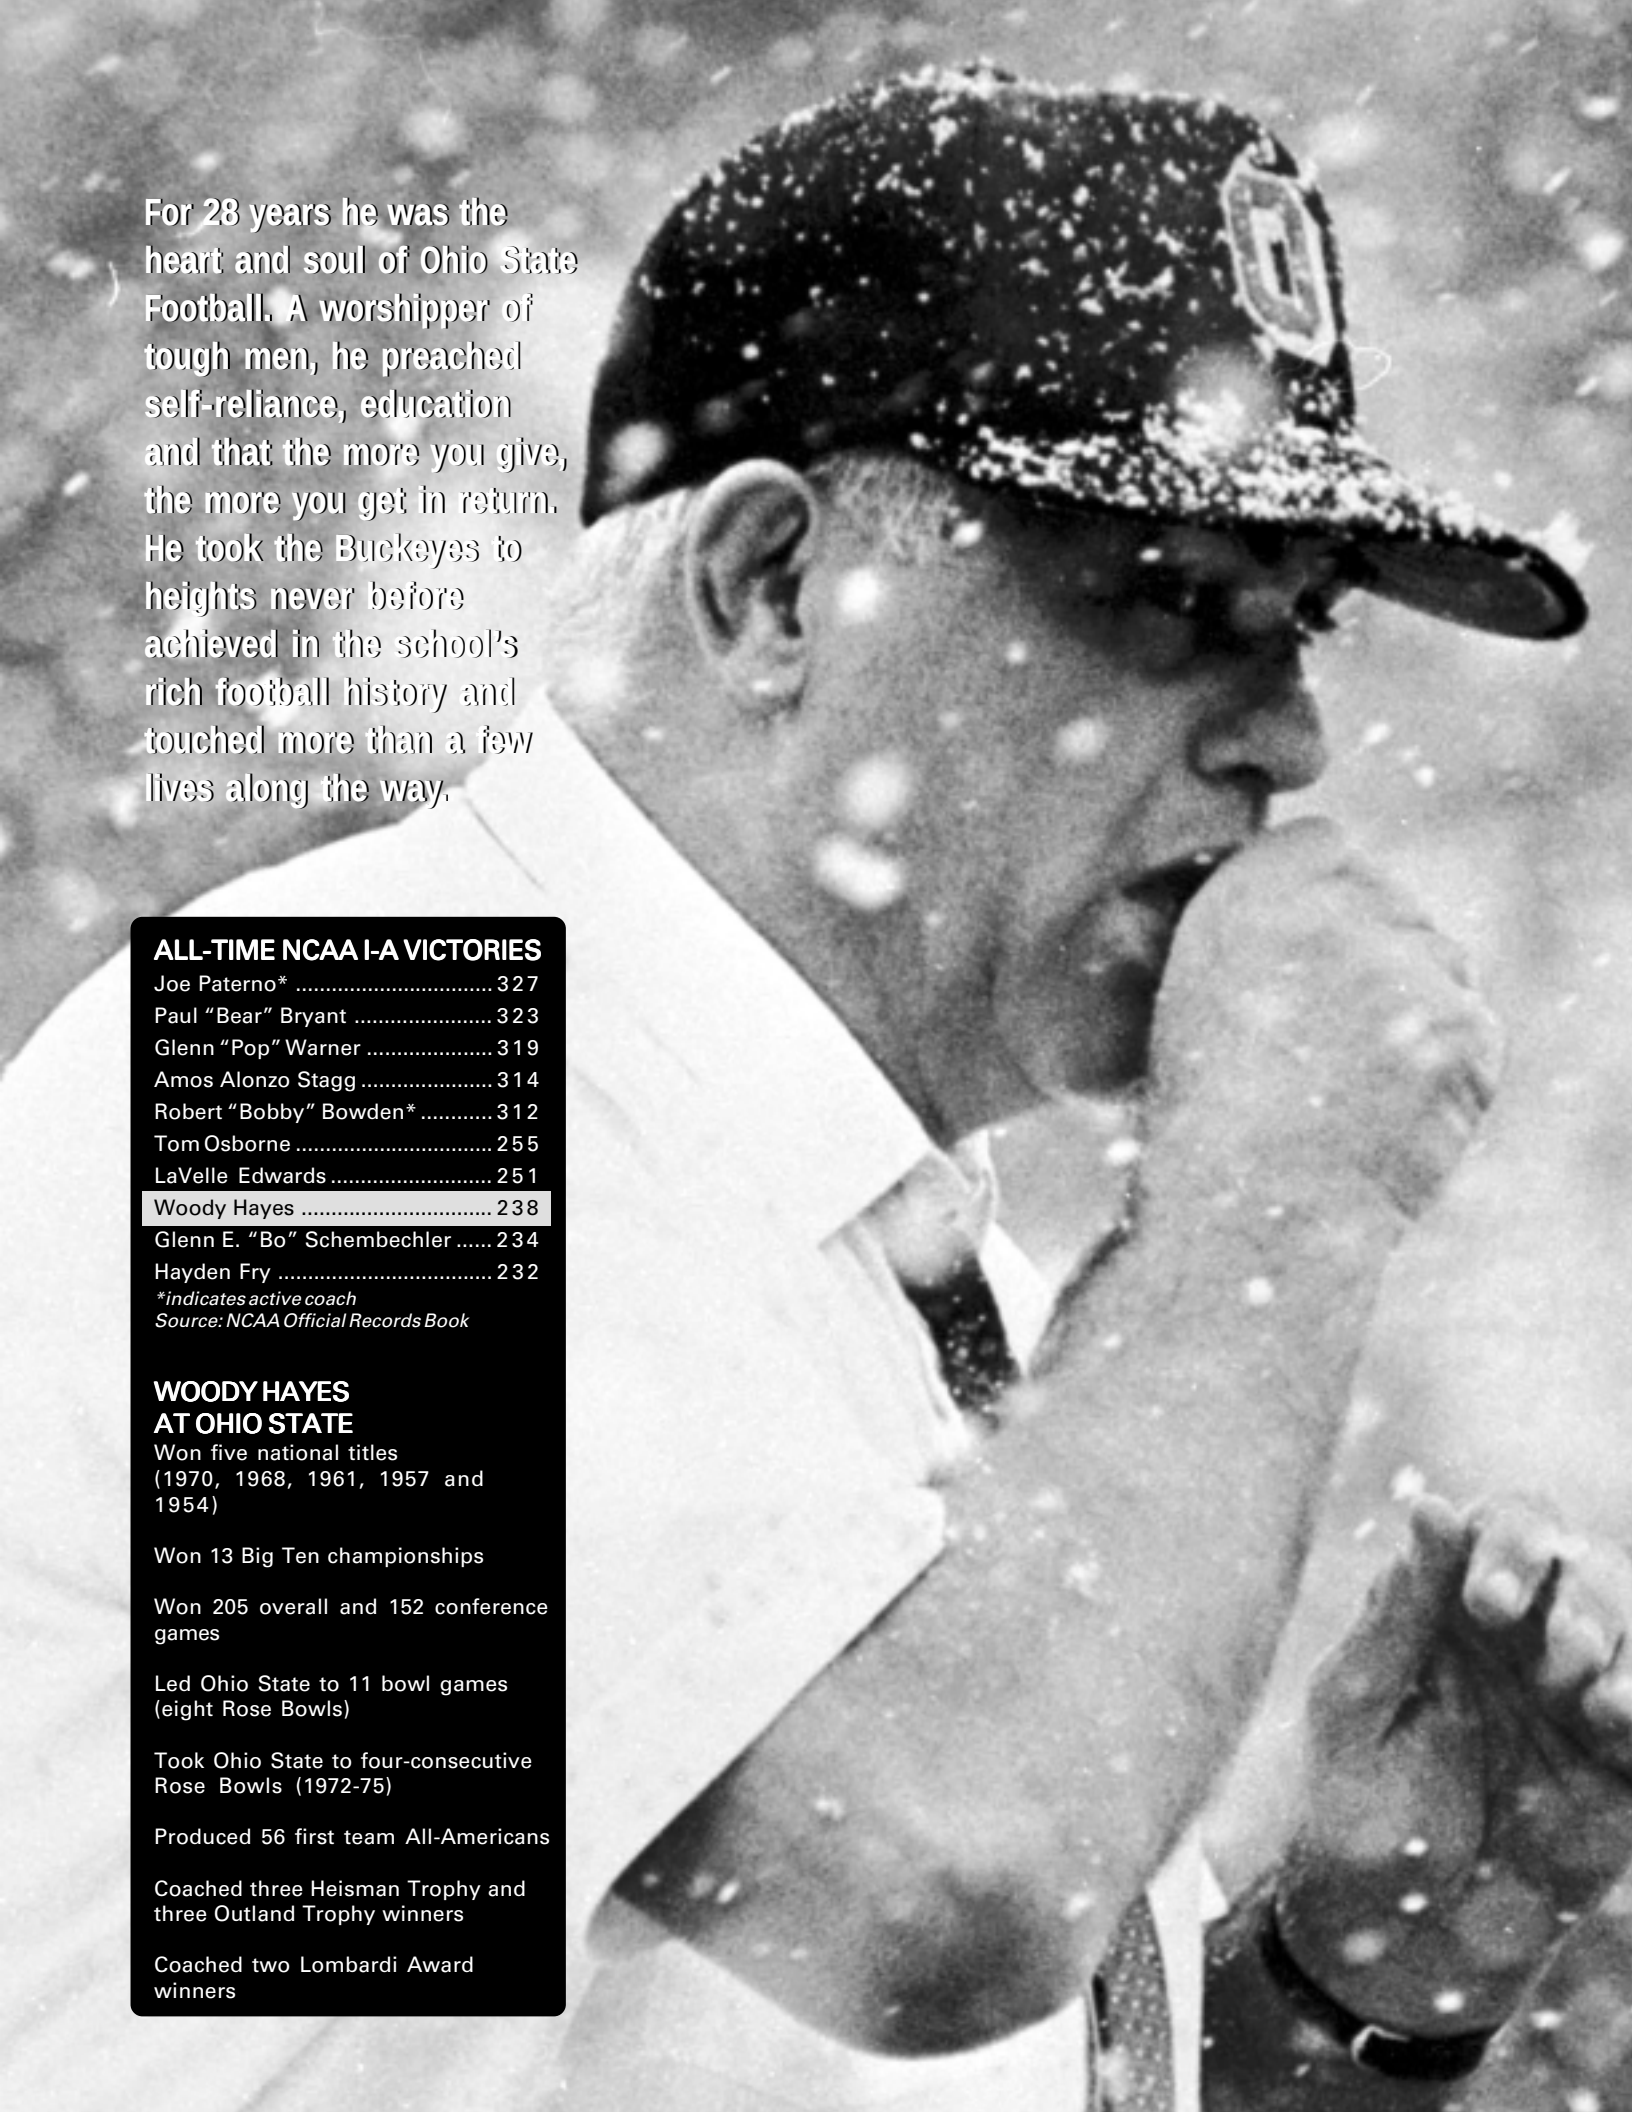

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes was born Feb. 14, 1913, in Clifton, Ohio. He died March 12, 1987, but his influence lives through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. Woody Hayes holds a special place in college football history.

Hayes gave a stirring Winter Quarter commencement address in 1986.

For 28 years he was the heart and soul of Ohio State Football. A worshipper of tough men, he preached self-reliance, education and that the more you give, the more you get in return. He took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history and touched more than a few lives along the way.

Won five national titles (1970, 1968, 1961, 1957 and 1954)

Won 13 Big Ten championships

Won 205 overall and 152 conference games

Led Ohio State to 11 bowl games (eight Rose Bowls)

Took Ohio State to four-consecutive Rose Bowls (1972-75)

Produced 56 first team All-Americans

Coached three Heisman Trophy and three Outland Trophy winners

Coached two Lombardi Award winners

Archie Griffin

1974, 1975 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

In 1974, Ohio State tailback Archie Griffin became just the fifth junior ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1975, Griffin became the first player ever to win a second Heisman. Twenty-five years later he is still the only player to have two of the coveted bronze statues, which go annually to the nation's top college football player.

But even though more than two decades have passed, honors continue to befall Griffin, now an associate director of athletics at his alma mater.

Most recently, Griffin was selected to the National High School Hall of Fame. He was inducted into that organization in the fall of 1996. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Rose Bowl halls of fame and, of course, belongs to the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Griffin was the Buckeyes' starting tailback for four years, leading Ohio State to a 40-5-1 record and four Big Ten titles between 1972 and 1975. He started in four-consecutive Rose Bowls, the only player ever to do so, and was a three-time first-team All-American.

At 5 feet 9 inches and 180 pounds, Griffin was small by college football standards even then, but he played with the heart of a lion and no football accomplishment was beyond his reach.

In just the second game of his freshman year, Griffin ran for a school record 239 yards. It was the start of a brilliant career that would see him amass an OSU record 5,589 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Excluding bowl games, Griffin rushed for 5,177 yards on 845 carries. The former figure ranks him fifth among all NCAA career ball carriers and Griffin rarely played more than half a game, his coach, Woody Hayes, always opting to take his star out as soon as the Buckeyes were in control.

Between his sophomore and senior seasons, Griffin ran for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive regular-season games. That, too, is still an NCAA record, as is his 33 career 100-yard games.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also has a pair of Silver Footballs. The latter award is presented annually by the Chicago Tribune to the Big Ten's MVP. He is one of just three players to win that award twice. Griffin also was a two-time pick as National Player of the Year by both United Press International and the Walter Camp Foundation. He won those honors as a junior and senior.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. It is the highest award the NCAA can bestow.

After graduation, Griffin was a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals. He played eight years of professional football, before returning to Columbus and joining the staff at Ohio State.

His jersey number "45" was retired Sept. 30, 1999.

HONORS AND AWARDS

1972: Set a then OSU single-game rushing record with 239 yards against North Carolina. Rushed for 867 yards during the year, then a freshman record.

1973: Became the first OSU sophomore to rush for 1,000 yards (1,577) and was named to a first-team spot on the UPI All-America team. Winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Big Ten Player of the Year.

1974: Rushed for a then-school record 1,695 yards and was a unanimous All-America choice. Won the Heisman Trophy, a second-consecutive Silver Football and was the UPI and Walter Camp player of the year.

1975: Made college football history by winning his second Heisman Trophy. Again chosen by UPI and Walter Camp as Player of the Year. A consensus All-America selection.

"He's a better young man than he is a football player and he's the best football player I've ever seen."

– Woody Hayes

Eddie George

1995 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

At the start of the 1995 season, Eddie George was, at best, a longshot contender for the Heisman Trophy. By season's end, he was a runaway choice, easily outdistancing runnerup Tommy Frazier of Nebraska and third-place finisher Troy Davis of Iowa State for college football's most coveted award.

In becoming Ohio State's sixth Heisman recipient, George etched his name into the OSU record book by rushing for a school-record 1,927 yards and 24 touchdowns. Included in that yardage total were three 200-yard games, one of which was an Ohio State record 314 yards against Illinois Nov. 11, 1995.

The 6-3, 227-pound George ended the 1995 campaign leading the country in scoring with an average of 12.1 points per game. He also finished fourth in all-purpose running (185.4) and fifth in rushing (152.1).

A native of Philadelphia, George carried the ball 328 times in 1995, an average of 5.9 yards per try. He also set a school record for receptions by a running back with 47 catches.

George burst onto the national scene by rushing for 219 yards against Washington, the first of 12-consecutive 100-yard games for the big tailback. When he stunned Notre Dame with 207 yards, the national press started talking "Heisman." His record-setting performance against Illinois was the icing on the cake.

George's other honors in 1995 included the Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Big Ten MVP. He also was a team co-captain.

George, who attended Abington High School and then Fork Union Military Academy, played only sparingly his first two years at Ohio State. Given the chance to start, he rushed for 1,442 yards as a junior and completed his career as the second leading rusher in Ohio State history with 3,668 yards.

Selected by the Houston Oilers in the first round of the NFL Draft, he was the 1996 NFL Rookie of the Year.

In June of 2001, he earned a bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from Ohio State.

Howard Cassady

1955 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

It didn't take Ohio State fans long to realize why Howard "Hopalong" Cassady was something special. In his first collegiate game, the season opener against Indiana in 1952, the 150-pound freshman came off the bench to score three touchdowns and lead the Buckeyes to a 33-13 victory. From then on, "Hop" was a regular in the OSU lineup, playing in 36 of a possible 37 games and leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 29-8 during the next four years.

In 1954, Cassady won unanimous All-America honors, rushing for 701 yards and six touchdowns and averaging 5.7 yards per carry. He also caught 13 passes for 148 yards in helping the Buckeyes to a perfect 10-0 record and the first of five national championships for Coach Woody Hayes. The 1954 season concluded with a convincing 20-7 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl.

Cassady again won All-America acclaim in 1955, when he rushed for 958 yards and 15 touchdowns. At the end of the year, Cassady's list of accolades included the Heisman Trophy and recognition by the Associated Press as the 1955 Athlete of the Year.

Cassady, who also was an outstanding defensive back, finished his collegiate career with 2,466 rushing yards. That total still ranks 10th on the all-time OSU rushing list.

Cassady, who prepped at Columbus Central and as a boy would sneak into Ohio Stadium to see the Buckeyes play, also played baseball at OSU, starting at shortstop for three years.

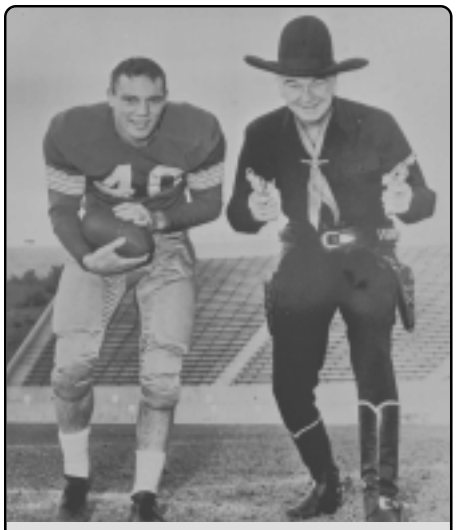

After graduation, Cassady was a first round pick of the Detroit Lions. He played defensive back with Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia before retiring.

"Hop" lives in Tampa, presently, but spends his summers in Columbus as a coach for the Columbus Clippers, the Yankees' AAA farm club.

His jersey number "40" was retired Nov. 18, 2000.

Vic Janowicz

1950 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

How good was Vic Janowicz? Good enough to win the 1950 Heisman Trophy as a junior on a team that posted a modest 6-3 record. And good enough that to this day most historians consider him the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State.

Rich, but deserved, praise for Janowicz, who, in addition to being a triple threat on offense, also played safety on defense.

In the words of his former coach, Wesley Fesler: "Vic excelled in every phase of the game. He not only was a great runner, passer and blocker, he also did all of our kicking, including punting, field goals, quick kicks, kickoffs and extra points. He was one of the finest, most versatile athletes I have ever seen."

Janowicz enjoyed his finest year in 1950, accounting for 16 touchdowns and 875 yards in total offense. He also led the Buckeyes in scoring with 65 points. In an 83-21 win over Iowa, he ran for two touchdowns, passed for four more and set a Big Ten record with 10 extra points. He completed five of six passes for 128 yards against the Hawkeyes.

Perhaps even more remarkable was a 27-yard field goal against Michigan in the now famous 1950 Snow Bowl. That kick, into a driving snow storm with the goal post barely visible, is one of the greatest individual accomplishments in Ohio State sports history.

Janowicz, who was a consensus All-American in 1950, also set two more records in the Snow Bowl, punting 21 times for 685 yards.

After graduation, Janowicz played two years of professional baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates, even though he had been away from the game nearly six years. He returned to football in 1954, signing with the Washington Redskins and winning the starting job at halfback as a rookie. In 1955, Janowicz barely missed out on the NFL scoring title, losing the crown on the last day of the season. His pro career was cut short the following fall, when he was involved in a near fatal car accident that left him unconcious for 30 days.

A member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Hall of Fame, Janowicz died in February of 1996. His jersey number was retired Sept. 23, 2000.

Les Horvath

1944 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

In 1944, Les Horvath made Ohio State history by becoming the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. With Horvath at the controls, the Buckeyes posted a perfect 9-0 record and won the Big Ten championship.

Horvath enjoyed a brilliant senior campaign in 1944. In addition to leading the Big Ten in rushing (669 yards) and total offense (953 yards), the Parma, Ohio native also accounted for 1,248 all-purpose yards.

Horvath, who played both quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense, was the Big Ten's MVP in 1944. Shortly after being accorded that honor, he became the first of six Buckeye Heisman recipients.

Ironically, Horvath almost didn't play in 1944. After helping lead the 1942 Buckeyes to a 9-1 record and the school's first national championship, Horvath entered dental school at Ohio State and did not play in 1943. But when Coach Carroll Widdoes went to him prior to the 1944 season, the 23-year-old Horvath, who had an extra year because of wartime rules, agreed to return to the gridiron.

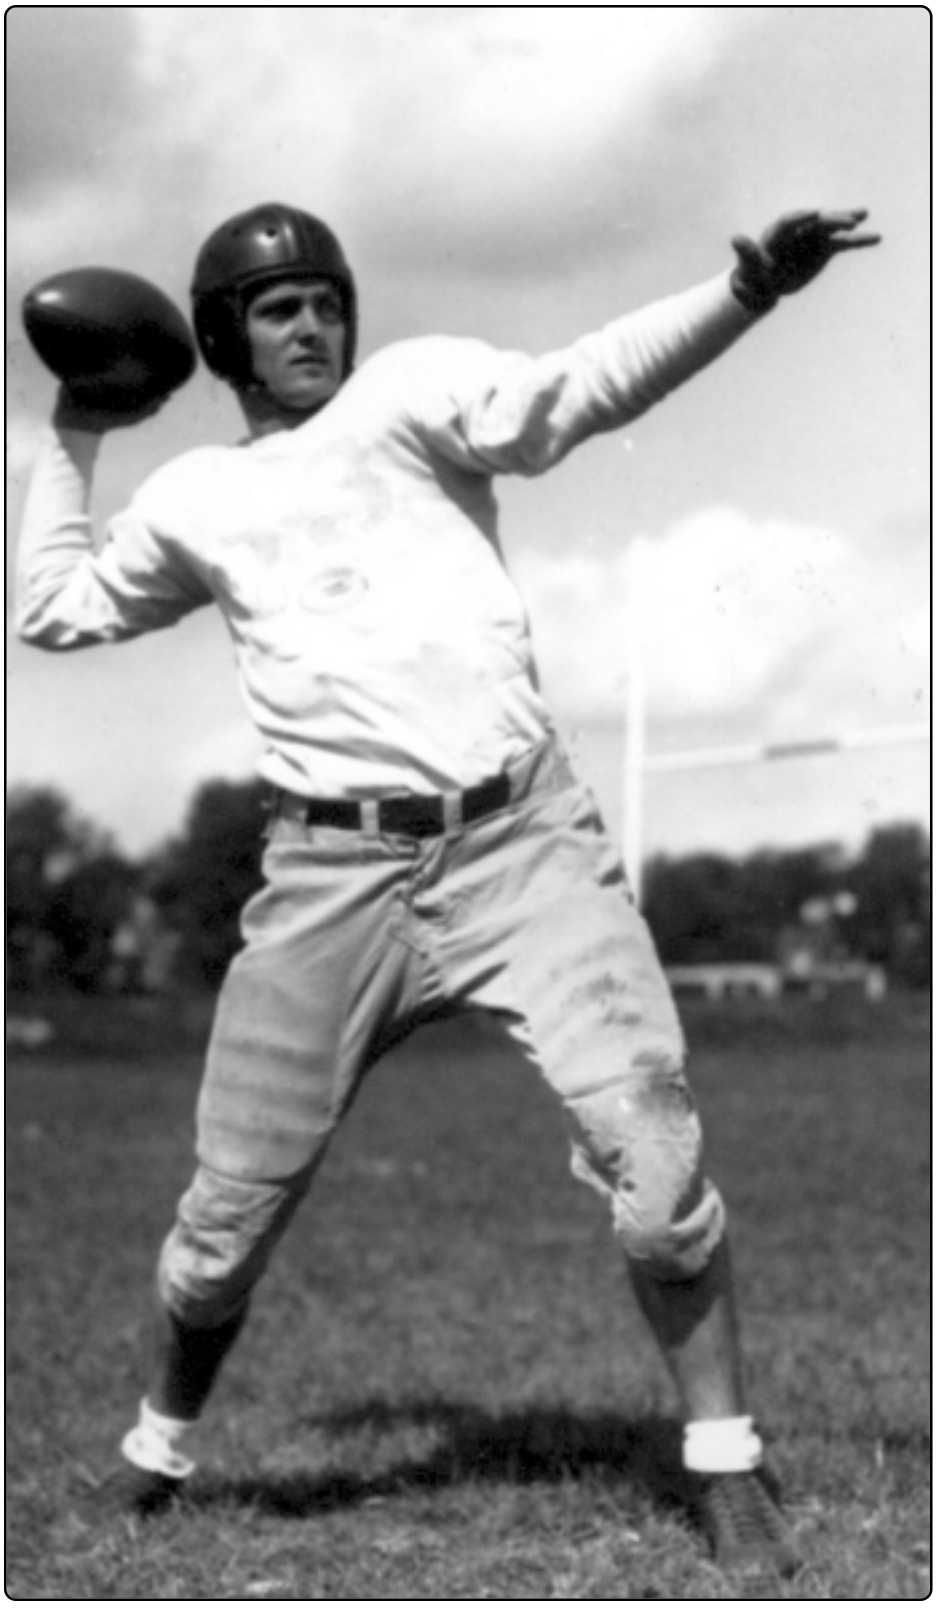

"At first I wasn't sure I wanted to play," said Horvath on one of his last visits to Columbus. "Dental school was quite taxing. But Coach Widdoes said I wouldn't have to practice all the time and agreed to fly me to the games, both of which gave me more time to study."

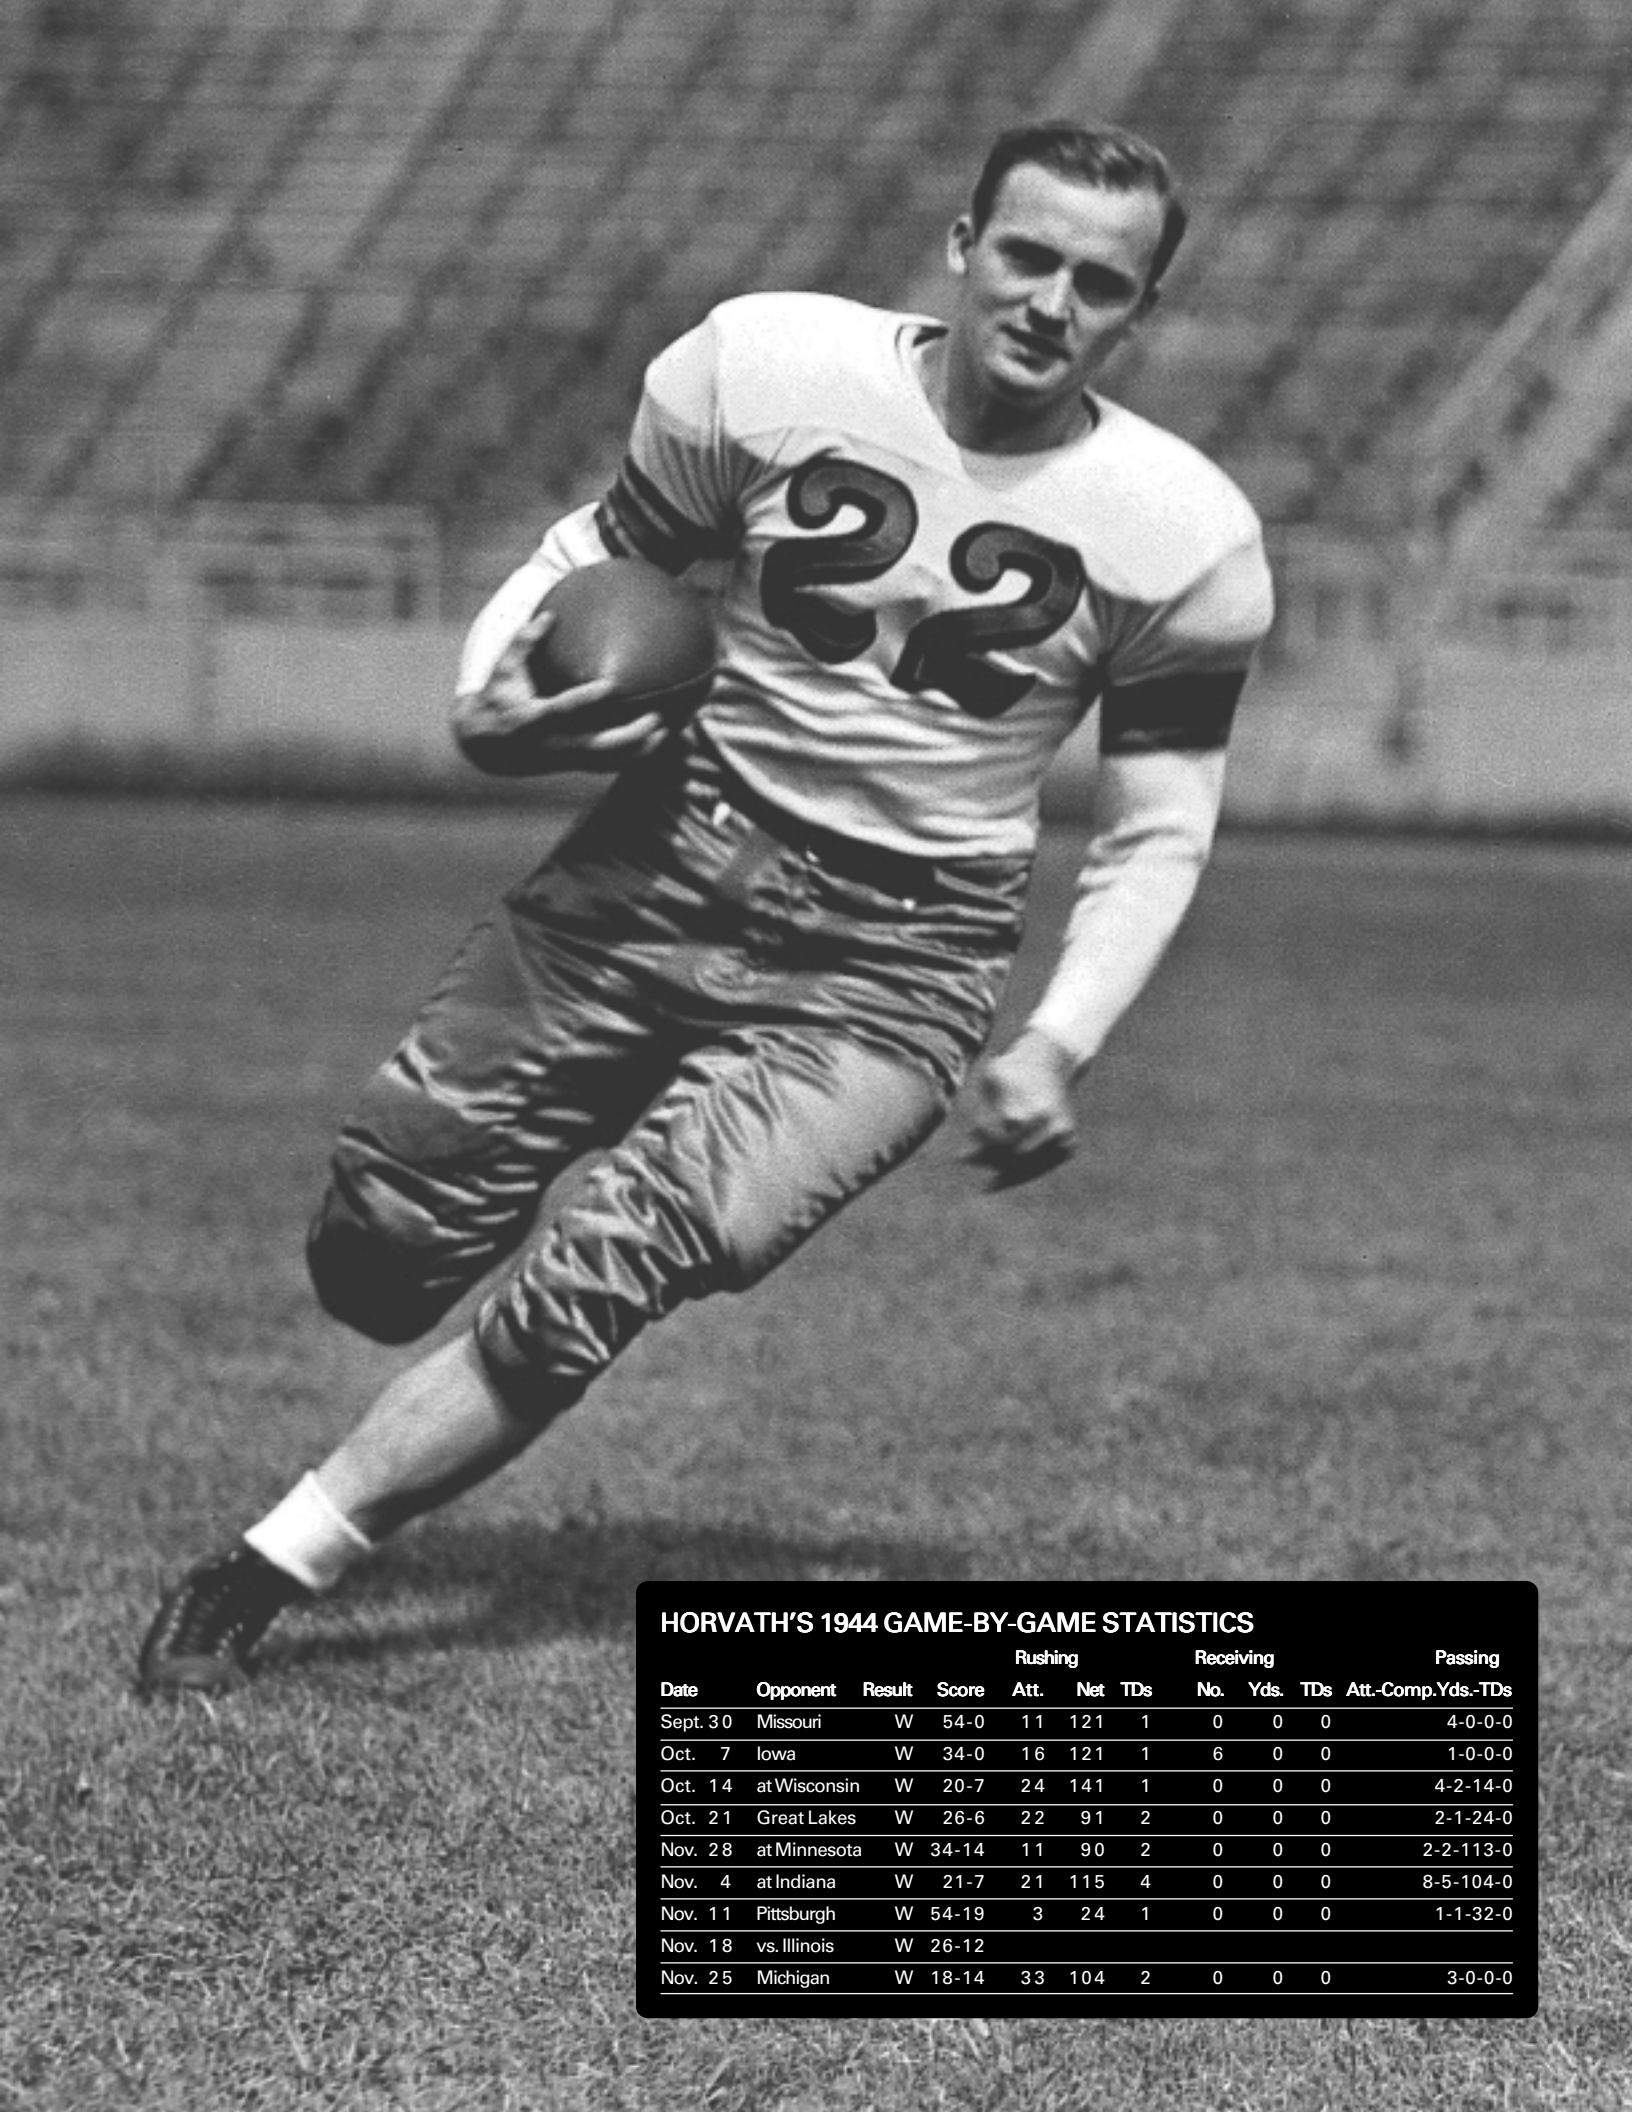

Horvath is the only Heisman winner who did not play the previous season. The layoff obviously did not bother him. He set a Big Ten rushing record in his final year.

Horvath, who finished his Ohio State career with 2,055 yards of total offense, went on to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns. Following his professional career, he returned to Los Angeles and practiced dentistry.

Horvath, who died in November of 1995, belonged to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

As Ohio State's first Heisman winner, he will always hold a special place in the hearts of Buckeye fans.

Orlando Pace

1995, 1996 LOMBARDI AWARD AND 1996 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Orlando Pace broke into the starting lineup the first day of preseason camp his freshman year and started every game the next three years before passing up his senior season to enter the NFL draft. During his stay at Ohio State, the 6-6, 330-pound left tackle became recognized as one of the most dominant offensive linemen ever to play the game.

Playing one of the most challenging positions in football, Pace did not allow a sack in either of his last two years. In 1995, he made college football history by becoming the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award. As a junior, he again made history by becoming the first two-time winner of that trophy. He also won the Outland Trophy and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a junior. The latter was the highest finish by a lineman since a second-place finish by Ohio State's John Hicks in 1973.

Other honors for Pace included consensus All-Big Ten and All-America honors in both 1995 and '96. He was the Football News Offensive Player of the Year and the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. He also received the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten.

Pace was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1994 and the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1995 and '96. He also was a finalist for the Maxwell Award in 1996. A native of Sandusky, Ohio, Pace was selected by his teammates as Ohio State's MVP in 1996.

Pace made the "Pancake Block" famous his junior year, finishing the season with 80 of those blocks (knocking his defender to the ground and on his back). He also literally redefined the role of an offensive lineman with his amazing downfield blocking.

Taken by St. Louis as first overall pick in the 1997 NFL draft, Pace was a member of the Rams' 1999 Super Bowl championship team.

1996 HEISMAN TROPHY VOTING

Pl.	Name	Pos.	School
1.	Danny Wuerffel	QB	Florida
2.	Troy Davis	TB	Iowa State
3.	Jake Plummer	QB	Arizona State
4.	Orlando Pace	OT	Ohio State

NOTEWORTHY

Drafted in 1997 by St. Louis, Orlando Pace became the first offensive lineman chosen No. 1 in the NFL Draft in 30 years (last was Ron Yary in 1968). He was the Rams second-highest pick since Eric Dickerson was chosen second overall in 1983.

John Hicks

1973 LOMBARDI AWARD AND OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

John Hicks came within an eyelash of pulling off one of the biggest triple plays in college football history in 1973. That year Hicks, a 6-3, 258-pound offensive tackle, won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as the nation's best interior lineman and also finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting.

How close did Hicks come to becoming the first interior lineman ever to win the Heisman? Well, while he finished second that year, teammates Archie Griffin and Randy Gradishar were fifth and sixth, respectively, in the balloting. By combining Ohio State's total votes, Hicks would have had enough votes to move ahead of winner John Cappelletti.

Hicks enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1969. Freshmen were not eligible that year, but it didn't take the Ohio State coaching staff long to figure out the Cleveland native was destined for greatness.

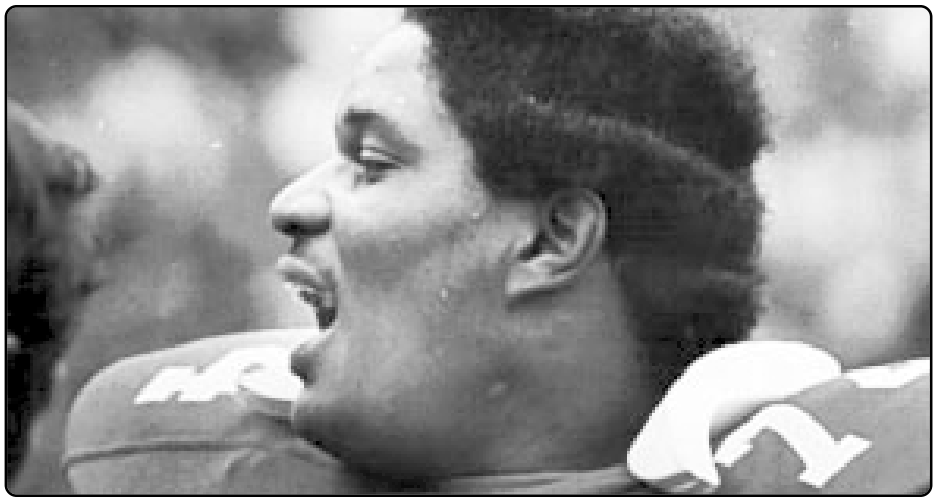

Hicks became a starter at right tackle as a sophomore in 1970, helping the Buckeyes to the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl. A loss to Stanford in Pasadena cost the No.-1 ranked and previously unbeaten Buckeyes the national championship.

Hicks missed the entire 1971 season because of a preseason knee injury. Not coincidentally, the Buckeyes struggled to a 6-4 record that year.

But he returned in 1972 and was a starter the next two years, winning consensus All-America honors both of those seasons and helping the Buckeyes to two more Big Ten titles and back-to-back appearances in the Rose Bowl. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State posted a combined record of 28-3-1. Hicks is the first player ever to start in three Rose Bowl games.

A fiery, emotional leader and a fan favorite, Hicks was a first-round draft choice of the New York Giants following the 1973 campaign. His promising career was cut short by injury, however, and he returned to Columbus to enter private business.

Hicks was selected in April 2001 to the College Football Hall of Fame.

1973 HEISMAN TROPHY VOTING

Pl.	Name	Pos.	School
1.	John Cappelletti	RB	Penn State
2.	John Hicks	OT	Ohio State
3.	Roosevelt Leaks	RB	Texas
4.	David Jaynes	QB	Kansas

NOTEWORTHY

Hicks was such a force that he finished second in Heisman Trophy balloting above three skill position players. One of them happened to be his teammate, Archie Griffin, who finished fifth. A third Buckeye, LB Randy Gradishar, rounded out the list of vote-getters that year, finishing sixth.

Jim Stillwagon

1970 LOMBARDI AWARD AND OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Jim Stillwagon made college football history in 1970 by becoming the first player to win the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award in the same year.

Stillwagon, a three-year starter at middle guard for the Buckeyes between 1968 and 1970, was a unanimous All-American as a junior and senior.

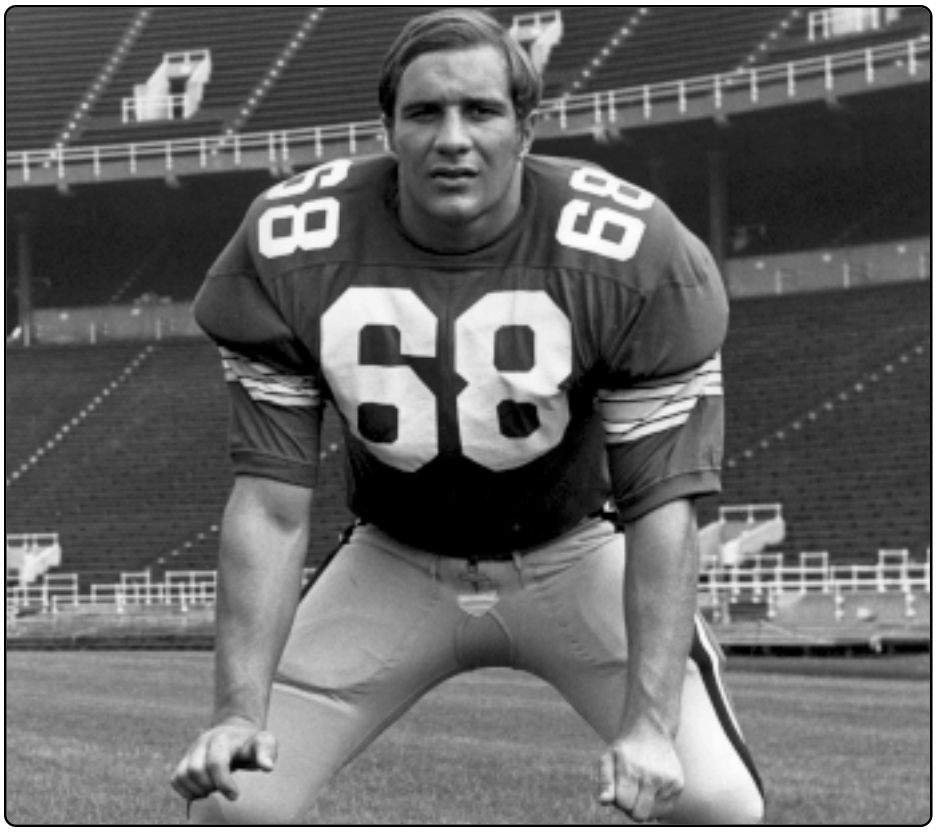

During "Wagon's" three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes compiled a 27-2 record, won three Big Ten championships, played in two Rose Bowls and won a pair of national championships.

With Stillwagon clogging the middle, the Ohio State defense simply shut down opposing offenses. In 1969, the Buckeyes gave up just 93 total points. In 1970, only two opponents scored more than 13 points and five were held to under 10 points.

Tough, strong, aggressive, intelligent, relentless. All are adjectives that can be used to describe Stillwagon. He was quite simply the best defensive lineman in college football in 1970. No one was surprised when he walked off with the Outland and Lombardi awards. The surprise would have come if someone else had been chosen.

After graduation, Stillwagon was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He chose instead to play in the Canadian Football League and was one of the premier defensive linemen in that league before retiring.

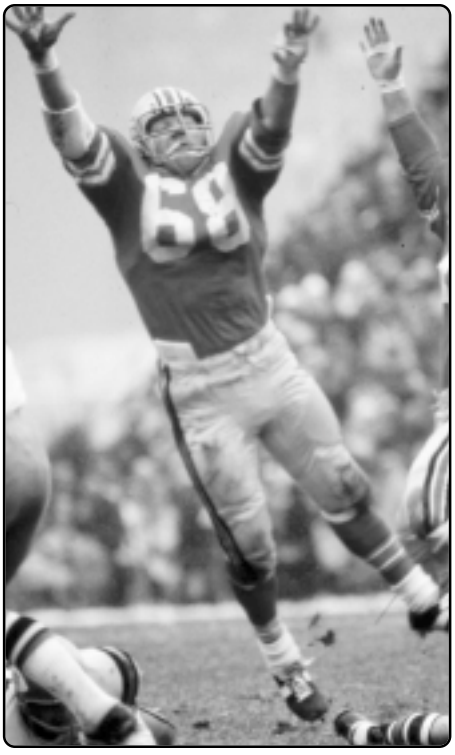

Stillwagon, a member of the College Football and Ohio State halls of fame, is president of Stillwagon Enterprises in Columbus.

NOTEWORTHY

Jim Stillwagon was a fixture at middle guard for the Buckeyes during the 1968, '69 and '70 seasons. In addition to winning the Outland Trophy in 1970, he won the first Lombardi Award, also in 1970.

Chris Spielman

1987 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

Chris Spielman is in the Ohio State records book for a number of reasons. He led the Buckeyes in total tackles in 1986 and 1987 and he is Ohio State's all-time leader in solo tackles. He also holds the OSU record for most total tackles in a game. A three-time All-Big Ten choice and a two-time All-American, Spielman concluded his brilliant career in 1987 by winning the Lombardi Award.

But it was not so much what he did as the way he did it. Intense and competitive almost beyond description, Spielman played every down of every game as if the national championship were on the line. Few players have ever been as focused when they stepped onto the playing field.

Spielman was a three-year starter and would have been a four-year regular were it not for two sprained ankles that greatly limited his playing time as a freshman. Still, he collected 546 career tackles, a total that places him third on the all-time OSU list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569).

Spielman's tackle total includes a school-record 283 solo stops. The Massillon, Ohio, native had his best year in 1986 as a junior, recording 205 total stops, including an OSU record 105 solos. His best game that year was a school record-tying 29 total tackles against Michigan.

Spielman's Ohio State teams won two Big Ten titles. He played in the Rose and Cotton bowls and was defensive MVP in the latter as a senior.

Upon leaving Ohio State, Spielman became recognized as one of the NFL's top players after finishing his 12-year career in 1999 with the Cleveland Browns.

Those people who claim "You can't measure heart," never saw Spielman play.

NOTEWORTHY

Chris Spielman set standards on how to be a football player and a human. When asked why he would take a year off from professional football to be with his wife who was battling breast cancer, he said, "What kind of a man would I be if I didn't? If I did not do what I did for my family, I would not be a man. I would be a fraud."

Jim Parker

1956 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. He also is the player by which his former coach, the late Woody Hayes, measured all other offensive linemen.

"Jim Parker was the greatest offensive lineman I ever coached. I'm not sure there has ever been a better offensive guard," said Hayes upon Parker's induction into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. "He was everything an offensive lineman should be."

Indeed, Parker could do it all. A tremendous athlete, the 6-2, 200-pounder could pull and run block with the best of them. And on the relatively few occasions when the Buckeyes decided to throw the ball, getting around the agile, quick-footed Parker was next to impossible.

Parker was a three-year starter and two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. He won the Outland Trophy as a senior in 1956. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 23 of 28 games, captured the 1954 National Championship and won back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1954 and '55.

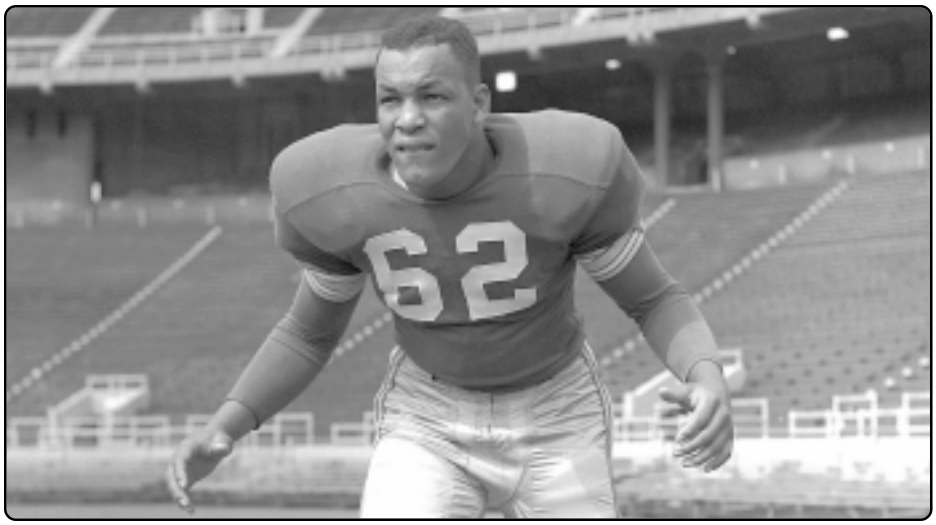

Parker, who was born in Macon, Ga., but played his last two years of high school football in Toledo, Ohio, was the Buckeyes' MVP in 1956.

A first round pick of the Baltimore Colts the following spring, he went on to enjoy a distinguished career in the NFL as a perennial all-pro pick.

In addition to being a charter member of the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame, Parker also is a member of the College Football and the Professional Football halls of fame.

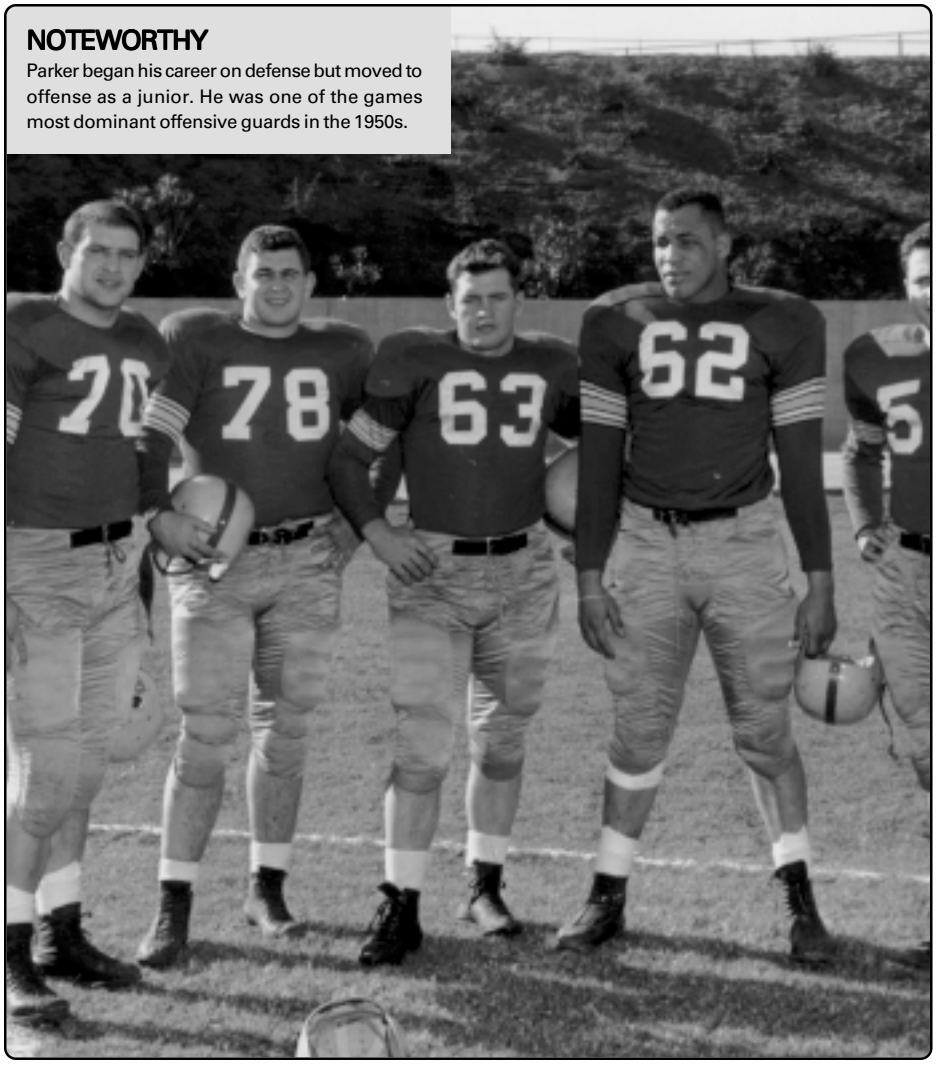

His play set a standard of excellence for all future Ohio State linemen.

NOTEWORTHY

Parker began his career on defense but moved to offense as a junior. He was one of the games most dominant offensive guards in the 1950s.

1997 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

Andy Katzenmoyer started the first game of his freshman year in 1996 and was a regular for 37-consecutive games. He opted for an NFL career at the end of his junior season. He won a plethora of awards, including the Butkus Award and consensus All-America honors as a sophomore in 1997, the 1996 Football News and Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He was a three-time All-Big Ten selection and a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award.

Katzenmoyer amassed three-year statistical totals of 197 solo tackles, 256 total tackles, 50 tackles-for-loss, 192 yards in losses, 18 quarterback sacks and six interceptions. He was twice named the team's Randy Gradishar Award winner as best linebacker (1997-98). He scored twice on interceptions, vs. Minnesota as a freshman and vs. Arizona as a sophomore, tying a school-record for interception return TDs. He also tied the school record with five tackles-for-loss in a game (vs. Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl).

As a junior in 1998, Katzenmoyer was a finalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Defensive Player of the Year Award (in addition to the Lombardi Award) and he anchored the nation's top-ranked defense against the run and second-ranked unit in total defense.

He was a consensus All-American as a sophomore in 1997 and became only the second sophomore to win the Butkus Award as the nation's outstanding linebacker. He was a Lombardi Award finalist, ranking second on the team with 97 tackles, including 13 tackles-for-loss. He clinched the Arizona win with a 20-yard interception return touchdown. He had 11 tackles against both Arizona and Iowa. In 1996 he became the first freshman to start every game at linebacker for the Buckeyes and finished second on the team with 85 tackles and paced the team with 23 tackles-for-loss and sacks (12), both school records for a linebacker.

Antoine Winfield

1998 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Antoine Winfield, a team captain as a senior, is one of the all-time great cornerbacks in Ohio State history. A two-time All-American, he was a consensus choice as a senior in 1998, Winfield's career was peppered with firsts. He was the first Buckeye to win the coveted Thorpe Award as the nation's outstanding defensive back; the first non-linebacker (and only the fifth player total) to record at least 200 solo tackles; the first defensive back in Ohio State history to be voted team MVP (following the 1997 season); and the first cornerback in recorded history to lead the team in tackles when he did so in 1997.

A two-time All-Big Ten Conference selection, he closed his career with 278 tackles, including 224 solo stops, 22 tackles-for-loss, 29 pass break-ups and three interceptions. He played in four bowl games, including the 1996 Citrus Bowl when he came in as a true freshman and recorded seven tackles. He played in 50 games during his career and he started 29 times.

As a senior in 1998, he was one of five finalists for the Football News' Defensive Player of the Year Award. He was named first-team All-America by the Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, the Football Writers and the Football News. He was named the Buckeyes' Bill Willis Defensive Player of the Year award winner. He totalled 75 tackles, third-best on the team, including nine solo tackles in a win over Michigan to close the season.

As a junior in 1997, Antoine was voted by his teammates as the team MVP after a season in which he totalled 100 tackles, 12 pass break-ups and two interceptions. He had 82 solo tackles, the fifth-highest solo tackle total in school history, and made the Football Writers and Football News All-America teams. He led the team in tackles five times, including a magnificent 10-tackle performance against Michigan and a career-high, 13-tackle effort against Missouri.

Terry Glenn

1995 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

Anyone who saw Terry Glenn play in 1995 would never know that he has a fear of flying. Glenn repeatedly rose to new heights during the 1995 campaign, gracefully soaring through the air to gather in one clutch reception after another in a record-breaking year that resulted in the 5-11, 185-pound flanker becoming the school's first ever recipient of the Fred Biletnikoff Award.

Glenn finished the season with 64 receptions for 1,411 yards and 17 touchdowns. His reception total is third-best in school history (it was five behind Cris Carter's 69 in 1986 and has since been topped by David Boston's 85 in 1998). His touchdown total is still a school record but his yardage record has since been topped by Boston's 1,435 yards in 1998.

Glenn, who had just 15-career receptions for 266 yards and no TDs entering the 1995 campaign, led the nation in yards per catch, was fourth nationally in yards per game and eighth nationally in scoring in 1995, his final year as a Buckeye.

In addition to winning the Biletnikoff Award, Glenn, a native of Columbus and a product of Brookhaven High School, joined Carter as just the second wide receiver in Ohio State history to win first-team All-America honors.

Glenn caught nine passes for 253 yards and four touchdowns at Pittsburgh, shattering the school records for single-game receiving yardage and tying the mark for TD catches. The Pitt game was one of seven 100-yard games for Glenn, which is yet another OSU record. He also had nine receptions, all of the acrobatic and clutch variety, in the Buckeyes' 28-25 win at Penn State.

A big-play athlete, Glenn had eight catches of 45 or more yards, including a memorable 82-yard catch-and-run TD grab against Notre Dame. He had touchdown receptions in nine of the 12 games he played in, and his numbers might have been even better had he not played the last three games of the season with a badly bruised shoulder.

At the end of the season, Glenn opted to leave school early and was taken in the first round of the NFL draft by the New England Patriots. He set an NFL record for catches (90) by a rookie, helping the Patriots to the Super Bowl in a sensational first year.

LeCharles Bentley

2001 RIMINGTON AWARD WINNER

LeCharles Bentley is the latest in a long line of outstanding offensive linemen who have played at Ohio State. He proved that during the 2001 season by winning consensus All-Big Ten and All-America honors. The icing on the cake came at the end of the season when Bentley, chosen as the Big Ten's Offensive Lineman of the Year, was named winner of the second annual Dave Rimington Award as the best center in college football.

Bentley, a native of Cleveland, enjoyed a stellar senior year, capping off a brilliant career by starting all 11 regular-season games and grading out to a winning performance in each game. Time and again, it was the 6-2, 300-pound Bentley who was called upon to provide the key block that either kept a drive alive or led to an Ohio State touchdown. He graded out to 90 percent or better in nine of the 11 games he played in and was chosen as offensive lineman of the week five times. At the end of the season, the coaching staff selected him as the offensive player of the year.

Bentley was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. He started the final seven games of the 1999 season (six at guard and one at tackle) before moving to center as a junior in 2000. He started all 12 games as a junior, playing through a painful lower back condition, and won second-team All-Big Ten honors.

Healthy in 2001, he played brilliantly all year long and led the team in playing time during the regular season before missing the Outback Bowl because of a shoulder injury suffered in the win over Michigan. Prior to the Outback Bowl, he had played in 47-consecutive games for the Buckeyes.

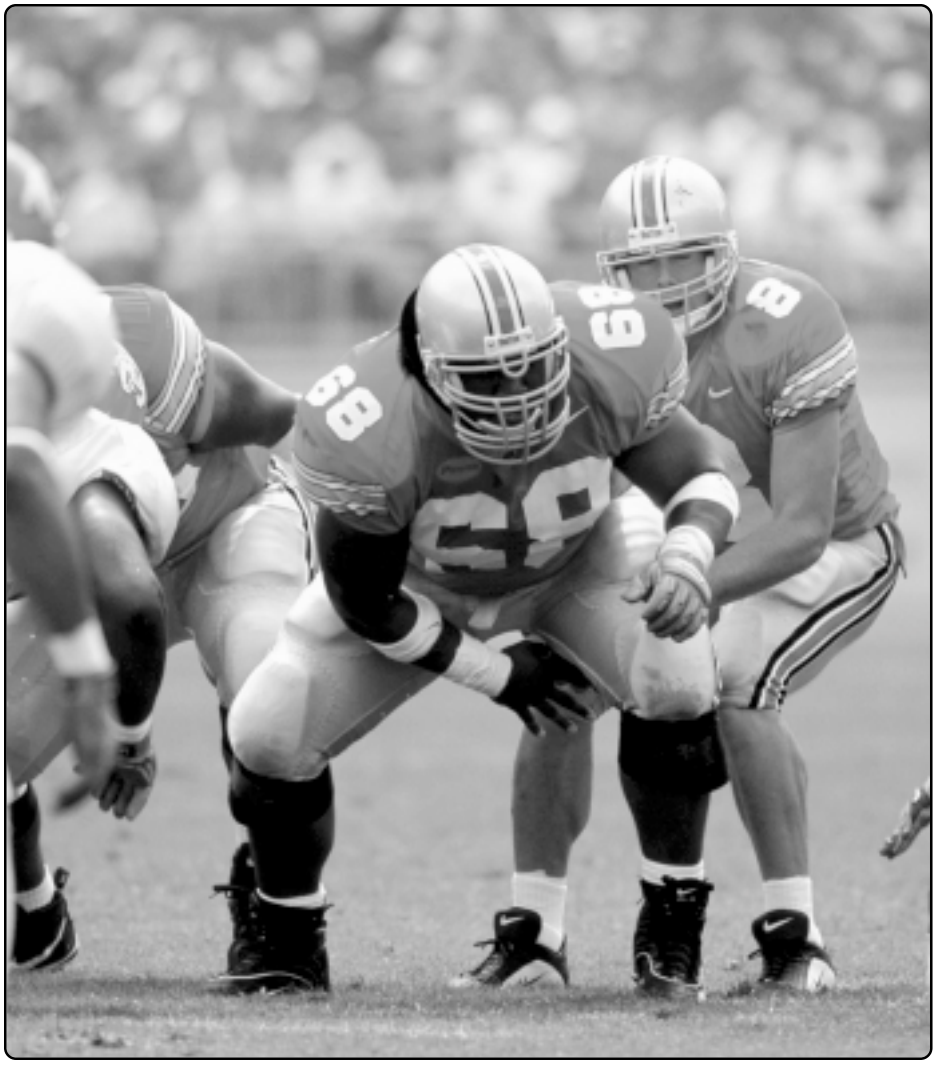

At the end of his senior year, he won first-team All-America honors on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, and Associated Press teams. His selection as the Rimington Award was a mere formality.

As a senior, Bentley faced the challenge of playing for a new coaching staff. He quickly won that group's confidence and admiration with his tough, smart and physical style of play.

"LeCharles Bentley is one of the finest centers I have ever been around," said 2001 offensive coordinator Jim Bollman. "He has a lot of natural talent, but more than that he works hard every day to get better at the little things. That is a trait that will serve him well throughout the rest of his life. I am proud to have had the opportunity to coach him."

Bentley is the 20th Ohio State player to win a major award.

HEISMAN MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Heisman Memorial Trophy originally was presented in 1935 as the DAC Trophy by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York City. It was awarded to the best college player east of the Mississippi River; but, in 1936, that rule was changed to include players from across the country. Also in that year, the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy to honor former outstanding college coach and DAC Director of Athletics John W. Heisman. Heisman died Oct. 3, 1936. The award has since been given annually to the outstanding college football player in the United States.

DAVE RIMINGTON AWARD

Dave Rimington, a former Cincinnati Bengal and All-America football player at Nebraska (1979-82), was tired of seeing more college football awards pop up each year without his position, center, being represented. He came up with a solution: the Dave Rimington Trophy, presented for the first time in 2000. Nebraska's Dominic Raiola, the first winner of the Rimington Trophy, posed for the trophy's design at the request of Rimington.

David Boston

SPLIT END 1996-98

In three seasons, David Boston set or tied 12 Ohio State receiving records, including most receptions (191), yards (2,855) and touchdowns (34) in a career and most receptions (85) and yards (1,435) in a season (1998). His 13 school records also includes most 100-yard receiving games in a career (13) and season (8 in 1998). In 1998, he earned first team All-America honors. But what may separate him from other receivers in school history is the way he shined in big games. With 19 seconds left to play in the 1997 Rose Bowl, he caught the game-winning touchdown in one of the most thrilling games in OSU history. In the 1998 Michigan game, he torched the Wolverines with 10-receptions for 231-yards and two touchdowns. He capped off his career by being named MVP of the 1999 Sugar Bowl.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	Rec.	Yds.	Avg.	TDs
1996	12	33	450	13.6	7

1998	12	85	1,435	16.9	14
Total	37	191	2,855	14.9	35

NOTEWORTHY

Boston scored the first time he touched the ball as a collegian, racing 58 yards after catching a pass from Stanley Jackson.

Keith Byars

TAILBACK 1982-85

Keith Byars earned first team All-America honors, was the Big Ten MVP and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy (to Boston College's Doug Flutie) in 1984, when he rushed for a then-school record 1,764 yards and 22 touchdowns. That season, he led the nation in rushing, scoring (144 points) and all-purpose running (2,441). Included in those totals were 274 yards and five TDs against Illinois in one of the most brilliant individual performances in OSU annals. The Fighting Illini led 24-0, but Byars' fourth TD was a spectacular 67-yard run in which he completely reversed his field and lost a shoe at the Illinois 35, but still outran the Illini secondary. His fifth touchdown of the day was the game winner. Byars, who missed most of his senior year with a foot injury, is still fourth on the all-time rushing list with 3,200 yards.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	R	Yds.	Avg.	Rec.-Yds	TDs
1982	9	4	17	4.3	1-20	0
1983	12	222	1,199	5.4	23-359	22
1984	12	336	1,764	5.3	42-479	24

Total	37	619	3,200	5.2	73-902	50

NOTEWORTHY

Byars acquired a $1-million insurance policy before his senior year to protect himself in case of injury before the NFL draft. It turned out to be a wise move since he broke his right foot during fall camp, missing most of the 1985 season.

Cris Carter

SPLIT END 1984-86

In his three seasons as a starter, Cris Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His hands were exceptional, his route running was precise, his ability to stay in-bounds was uncanny and he possessed the ability to outjump his defenders. He made the diving, leaping, acrobatic catch look routine. In 1985, he set a Rose Bowl record with nine receptions for 172 yards. In 1996, Carter put together one of the great seasons in OSU annals. He was named first team All-America with 69 receptions for 1,127 yards, both numbers rank third in school history. He left OSU with the career reception and touchdown records (since broken by David Boston) and his yardage figure is the third highest total in OSU history. He is without question one of the greatest receivers in OSU and Big Ten history.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	Rec.	Yds.	Avg.	TDs
1984	12	41	648	15.8	8
1985	12	58	950	16.4	8

Total	37	164	2,725	16.6	27

NOTEWORTHY

Carter stopped practices with his spectacular catches, often drawing an applause from his teammates. Carter also was named the National Football League's Man of the Year for the 1999 season.

Buckeye Greats

Tom Cousineau

LINEBACKER 1975-78

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. In 1977, he was named the top defensive player in the Orange Bowl. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stands as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, Cousineau was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an Ohio State record that has since been tied by Chris Spielman. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game, 16 against SMU in 1978. Six of the Top 10 single game tackle performances in school history are held by Cousineau. He ranks second on both the all-time OSU tackle list with 569 (three behind Marcus Marek) and on the career solo tackles list with 259. Cousineau became OSUs first No.1 overall pick in the NFL Draft when he was selected in 1979 by the Buffalo Bills.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	Solo	Asst.	Total	TFL-Yds.	Sacks
1975	12	26	44	70	2-2	n/a
1976	12	102	82	184	4-8	n/a

Total	47	259	310	569	19-72

NOTEWORTHY

Tom Cousineau is the only Ohio State player to record 100 or more solo tackles on two separate occasions.

Wesley Fesler

END 1928-30

Wes Fesler was Ohio State's second three-time All-American, winning first-team recogniton at end in 1928, '29 and '30. Fesler, who also played fullback for the Buckeyes, was team captain as a senior. He also was the Ohio State and the Big Ten MVP in 1930.

Fesler, a superb all-around athlete, earned nine letters, three each in football, basketball and baseball. In basketball, he won All-Big Ten honors in 1931. In baseball, he spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

After graduating, Fesler served one year as an assistant on the OSU staff and then was head football coach at Princeton and Penn. In 1947, he returned to his alma mater as head coach and spent four years, compiling a 21-13-3 record and winning the 1949 Big Ten Championship and the 1950 Rose Bowl.

NOTEWORTHY

Fesler was labeled as one of the greatest athletes in the history of Ohio State by Paul Hornung, sports editor of the Columbus Dispatch for 25 years.

As a coach, there was a bit of confusion that led to Fesler's 17-14, last-minute 1950 Rose Bowl win over California. Ohio State drove inside the 15-yard line in the final minute of the game. Fesler sent in the field goal unit, but in the tense moment, quarterback Pandel Savic sent them back to the sideline which resulted in a 5-yard delay of game penalty. Place-kicker Jimmy Hague made the winning field goal, giving Fesler a Rose Bowl coaching win. "He chided me pretty good," Savic said, "but I said 'Wes, it did give us a better angle."

John Frank

TIGHT END 1980-83

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar. All-Big Ten as a junior and senior, Frank ranks fourth on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns. The receptions and yardage totals are the most in school history by a tight end. He was a three-year starter, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983, still a record total for tight ends. He was voted the team MVP as a senior. In the classroom, Frank was a two-time Academic All-American and was a Rhodes Scholar nominee as a senior. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco 49ers, Frank returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June of 1992.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	Rec.	Yds.	Avg.	TDs
1980	11	5	65	13.0	0
1981	12	45	449	9.9	3
1982	12	26	326	12.5	2
1983	12	45	641	14.2	4
Total	47	121	1,481	12.2	9

NOTEWORTHY

John Frank holds the Ohio State record for receptions by a tight end with 45 (1981 & '83). But it was his fight and determination after his catches that made him so popular with Buckeye fans.

Buckeye Greats

Joe Germaine

QUARTERBACK 1996-98

Joe Germaine proved in two seasons as a backup that he was a fine quarterback. But it was his senior year as the starter and team co-captain, when he set 11 school records while throwing for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns, that separated him from other OSU quarterbacks. He was the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award winner as the Big Ten MVP that year and he led OSU to the No. 1 national ranking for a school-record tying 10-consecutive weeks. He also was named by the conference coaches as the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year. No Ohio State fan will ever forget his heroics in the 1997 Rose Bowl as he calmly directed the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays in the final 1:40 for the winning touchdown (a 5-yard touchdown pass to David Boston with 19 seconds left). Germaine threw for 6,370 yards and 56 touchdowns in three seasons.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	Att.	Comp.	Yards	TDs	Int.
1996	12	147	80	1,193	15	4
1997	13	210	129	1,847	16	9
1998	12	384	230	3,330	25	7
Total	37	741	439	6,370	56	20

NOTEWORTHY

After alternating with Stanley Jackson for two years, Joe Germaine led the Buckeyes to an 11-1 record as a senior in 1998. His 56 career TD passes are just one shy of Bobby Hoying's school record 57.

Randy Gradishar

LINEBACKER 1971-73

Randy Gradishar was referred to by Woody Hayes as "the best linebacker I ever coached at Ohio State." He was a two-time All-American and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter between 1971 and 1973 and recorded 320 total tackles. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points. After graduation, he played 10 years with the Denver Broncos. During his career, he was a seven-time Pro Bowler, the second most by any Bronco at the end of his career, and he also is the all-time leader in tackles for Denver with 1,958. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992. In December of 1998, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	Solo	Ast.	Total	TFL-Yds.	Sacks
1971	10	35	31	84	6-16	n/a
1972	11	42	60	102	4-26	n/a
1973	11	60	74	134	6-13	n/a

NOTEWORTHY

Randy Gradishar played in two Rose Bowls and was the cornerstone of the 1973 Ohio State defense which allowed 64 points all year. Gradishar, who grew up in Champion, Ohio, proved to be just that at Ohio State.

Chic Harley

RUNNING BACK 1916-17, 1919

Charles "Chic" Harley was Ohio State's first three-time All-American. Harley won All-America honors as a running back in 1916 and '17. He spent 1918 in the military but then returned to OSU in 1919 and picked up where he had left off, again winning All-America acclaim. In addition to running the football, he also punted, kicked extra points (he used the drop kick) and played defense. Fans turned out in record numbers to watch Harley play. Harley led the Buckeyes to their first Big Ten title in 1916, a repeat championship in 1917 and a second-place finish in 1919. In 1919, he was named team captain. During his three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 21-1-1. The Buckeyes played at old Ohio Field during the Harley era. But largely because of his play, Ohio Stadium was built in 1922 and has been known as the "House that Harley built."

NOTEWORTHY

Harley lost only one game as a Buckeye...his last, 9-7, to Illinois. He stayed up all night before the game walking the campus to try and ease the pressure. He scored every point but took the loss personally, crying in the dressing room. The team couldn't get him out until near midnight.

There was only one game in Harley's career that he did not start. Jack Farcasin started the 1919 Purdue game instead. Harley started the second half and on the first play from scrimmage he ran 37-yards for a touchdown. Ohio State was offside, but called the same play and Harley took the ball 42-yards for the score. The final tally was 19-0 with Harley scoring every touchdown and the extra-point. Coach John Wilce never explained the switch.

Buckeye Greats

Bobby Hoying

QUARTERBACK 1992-95

Bobby Hoying was a three-year starter for OSU, leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 30-7-1. As a senior, Hoying earned first team All-Big Ten honors, was named team captain and rewrote the OSU records book by throwing for 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns. He also set school records for completion percentage (.580) and passing efficiency (163.4) that year. Additionally, his 57 career TD passes is a school record, as are the 16 games in which he passed for 200 or more yards. Hoying led the Big Ten in total offense as a senior and wound up second nationally in passing efficiency. His 7,232 passing yards (most of which came his last two years) rank second in OSU annals. Hoying also was an exceptional student. In 1995, he won the National Football Foundations's Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior student-athlete in college football.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	Att.	Comp.	Yards	TDs	Int.
1992	6	14	8	58	1	1
1993	12	202	109	1,570	8	8
1994	13	301	170	2,335	19	14
1995	13	341	211	3,269	29	12
Total	44	858	498	7,232	57	35

NOTEWORTHY

Heading into his junior season, Hoying's backup was the same person who was his understudy in high school...his brother, Tom. It marked the first time at Ohio State that brothers were 1-2 at the quarterback position. The two also were college roommates.

Rex Kern

QUARTERBACK 1968-70

With Rex Kern at the helm, Ohio State rolled to a 27-2 record, won the 1968 National Championship, captured two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. To win the national championship, Kern led OSU to a 27-16 win over Southern California in the Rose Bowl. He was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Additionally, the Buckeyes narrowly missed out on the 1969 and '70 wire service national championships, losing the final game of the year in both of those years after being ranked No. 1 going into their respective season finales. In 1969, he was named an All-American. In 1970, he was elected team captain. Kern's statistics, as impressive as they were, tell just half the story. The fiery redhead was an emotional leader who displayed a penchant for making big plays when most needed. He was a winner in every sense of the word.

CAREER STATISTICS

Year	GP	Att.	Comp.	Yards	TDs	Int.
1968	10	131	75	972	7	6
1969	9	135	68	1,002	9	10
1970	10	98	45	470	3	8
Total	29	364	188	2,444	19	24

NOTEWORTHY

In 1968, against SMU, it was fourth-and-10 at midfield. Woody Hayes ordered a punt. Kern waved away the punt team and scampered 16-yards for the first down. "I changed a lot of the plays Woody sent in after that," Kern said. "But had I not made it that first time, I probably never would have played again."

Pepper Johnson

LINEBACKER 1982-85

Thomas "Pepper" Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982 and 1985, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. In the 1984 and '85 seasons, Johnson led the squad in tackles and teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. A born leader, Johnson was elected team captain and voted defensive MVP in both his junior and senior seasons. He also was named All-Big Ten in both of those years. He was a member of two Super Bowl championship teams with the New York Giants. Johnson was named to the Pro Bowl twice in his career and built a reputation as one of the most feared hitters in professional football.

NOTEWORTHY

The nickname "Pepper" was given to him by an aunt who watched him sprinkle pepper on his cereal, and then eat it. He was 2 at the time. When he repeated the procedure, he had a new name.

Buckeye Greats

Pete Johnson

FULLBACK 1973-76

Pete Johnson was the Buckeyes' starting fullback for three years, leading the way for tailback Archie Griffin in 1974 and 1975 and for Ron Springs and Jeff Logan in 1976. But the 6-1, 247-pound Johnson was much more than a just a blocking back. He also was proficient at lugging the pigskin, rushing for 2,308 yards and a school-record 58 touchdowns during his career. To say "Big Pete" had a nose for the goal line would be an understatement. He led the nation in scoring as a junior, tallying a school and Big Ten record 26 touchdowns. He also rushed for 1,059 yards and converted 34 of 44 third-down tries. Johnson set a school record that year with five TDs against North Carolina. In 1976, playing almost the entire season with two sprained ankles, Johnson still rushed for 724 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 156 points in 1975 and 348 career points are still school records.

NOTEWORTHY

Johnson's real name is, Willie James Hammock. He was called Pete because he loved Peter Pan ice cream and his father's last name was Johnson. When he used Pete Johnson at the time of enrollment, the registrar's office couldn't find his application.

Jim Lachey

OFFENSIVE GUARD 1981-84

Jim Lachey entered his senior season with just four career starts. But in his final year, Lachey established himself as one of the top linemen in all of college football and was named to a first team All-America berth. Blessed with unusual speed and strength for a man his size, Lachey played guard for the Buckeyes, but could easily have played tackle. Lachey played a key role in the Ohio State offense in 1984, paving the way for junior running back Keith Byars. Byars led the nation in rushing (1,764 yards), scoring (24 touchdowns) and in all-purpose running (2,441 yards) that year. In 1995, the San Diego Chargers selected Lachey, a St. Henry, Ohio, native, with the 12th pick in the first round. In 1991, he started at left tackle for the Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins. In his 11-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three-times and established himself as one of the game's top linemen.

NOTEWORTHY

Lachey grew up in the tiny Western Ohio town of St. Henry, also the home of Buckeye quarterback Bobby Hoying and Hoying's grandfather, Cincinnati Reds slugger Wally Post.

As a freshman, the athletic Lachey won the 800-meter run during fall camp, out-distancing the rest of the squad including the supposedly faster "skilled players."

Tom Skladany

KICKER 1973-76

OSU's most recent three-time All-American, Tom Skladany, was a punter and kicker between 1973 and 1976 and he was the first kicking specialist ever to receive a football scholarship at Ohio State. He proved his worth immediately, landing the job as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter as a freshman. He also kicked off as a freshman and sophomore. As a junior and senior, he added PATs and field goals to his list of responsibilities. Skladany averaged 45.6 yards per punt as a sophomore and was named to the Football Writers All-America Team. He was a consensus All-America choice the next two years, again leading the country in 1975 with a 46.7 average. As a senior, he averaged 42.3 yards per kick and finished his career with a 42.7 average on 160 punts. That's good for second on the all-time list, as is his yardage figure of 6,838. Skladany was co-captain of the 1976 squad, the only specialist ever chosen as a captain.

CAREER STATISTICS

NOTEWORTHY

Once in high school, Skladany kicked a 43-yard FG, threw a 20-yard TD pass, ran for 75 yards, had a 54-yard punt that was downed inside the 3-yard line and lost three footballs on kicks that went over a fence situated 30-yards past the goalpost.

Buckeye Greats

Shawn Springs

CORNERBACK 1994-96

In 1996, Shawn Springs was one of the top cornerbacks in college football and the dominant defensive player in the Big Ten - despite not recording an interception. Most teams simply chose not to test him. The 1996 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (selected by the conference head coaches) was named to the first-team Walter Camp, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Football News All-America teams. He finished the year with 39 tackles and a team-high 15 passes broken up. In his final game as a Buckeye, he held Arizona State receiver Keith Poole to just one catch for 10 yards in the Rose Bowl. He finished that game with five tackles and four passes broken up. Springs finished his career as a two-time All-Big Ten selection. The Seattle Seahawks selected him with the third overall selection in the 1997 NFL Draft. He already has been selected to the Pro Bowl.

NOTEWORTHY

Springs verbally committed to Michigan. Then he visited Penn State where Suzanne Paterno baked him a batch of cookies and he almost stayed in Happy Valley (Paterno also was hot after Springs' father, Ron, in 1974). But after a lot of thought, he opted to attend Ohio State like his father before him.

Jack Tatum

DEFENSIVE BACK 1968-70

Jack Tatum was one of the dominant defensive players and most intimidating forces in college football during his career at Ohio State. A three-year starter, a two-time All-American and the National Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, he was known for his tenacity and fierce style of play. The 6-1, 208-pound Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back, but moved to defense in the spring of his freshman year. He was a mainstay of the defense for the next three years as OSU rolled up a 27-2 record and won the 1968 National Championship, two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The Oakland Raiders selected him in the first round of the 1971 NFL Draft. In his nine-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three-times and was a member of the 1976 Super Bowl Championship team.

NOTEWORTHY

Jack Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back. After watching him in practice, Coach Woody Hayes moved him to monsterback on defense. The move turned out to be brilliant. Tatum was honored in 1970 as the National Defensive Player of the Year.

Steve Tovar

LINEBACKER 1989-92

Steve Tovar is another in the great line of Ohio State linebackers. A two-time All-America selection in 1991 and 1992, he has the distinction of being the first of 21 players recruited by John Cooper to earn All-America status at Ohio State. Tovar led Ohio State in tackles for three-consecutive seasons between 1990-92, one of only two Buckeyes ever to accomplish that feat (Marcus Marek, 1980-82, is the other). In his senior year, Tovar was elected team co-captain and earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors (selected by the conference coaches) after recording 128 tackles. A three-time All-Big Ten selection, Tovar ranks fourth in school history with 414 total tackles and 239 solo tackles. The Elyria, Ohio native was a third round selection by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1993 NFL Draft.

NOTEWORTHY

Tovar is one of just two Ohio State defenders to lead the team in tackles three years in a row (1990-92). The other player to do so was Marcus Marek (1980-82).

Buckeye Greats

Mike Vrabel

DEFENSIVE END 1993-96

Mike Vrabel, a two-time All-America selection, made his mark as one of the most tenacious and feared pass rushers in Ohio State history. He owns every OSU season and career sack record. In 1996, he set a single-season school record with 13 sacks for minus 101 yards. His 36 career sacks for minus 245 yards also are Buckeye standards. Vrabel also finished his career as OSU's all-time career leader in tackles-for-loss with 66. In his junior and senior years, Vrabel was named the Big Ten Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year. He also was a three-time first team All-Big Ten selection. Vrabel helped lead the 1996 Buckeyes to national rankings of No. 2 against the pass, No. 3 in scoring defense and No. 7 in total defense. The Akron, Ohio, native was a third round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1997 NFL Draft.

NOTEWORTHY

Vrabel was so skilled that after his first 10 days as a freshman, he slid into the No. 2 spot at right DE, causing roster and depth chart realignment. NG LeShun Daniels was moved to OG and DE Preston Harrison was switched to LB.

Dan Wilkinson

DEFENSIVE TACKLE 1991-93

Dan Wilkinson played just two years of football for Ohio State, but in those two seasons he established himself as one of the best defensive linemen ever to wear the Scarlet and Gray. Redshirted as a true freshman in 1991, the 6-5, 300-pound Wilkinson, known as "Big Daddy," started as a sophomore in 1992 and won All-Big Ten honors. Blessed with an incredible combination of size, strength and speed, he finished his rookie year with 46 tackles, including 10.5 tackles-for-loss and 6.5 sacks. As a junior in 1993, Wilkinson was the dominant defensive linemen in college football, winding up the year with 44 tackles and 13 tackles-for-loss. No one could block him one-on-one. At season's end, he again won All-Big Ten laurels and was a consensus All-America pick. The Cincinnati Bengals made him the first selection in the NFL draft in April of 1994.

NOTEWORTHY

Dan Wilkinson is the second of three Ohio State players to be the first player taken in the NFL draft. Wilkinson, who played just two years for the Buckeyes, was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in April of 1994.

Bill Willis

LINEMAN 1942-44

Considered one of the all-time great athletes ever to play for Ohio State, Bill Willis, has the unique distinction of belonging to the Ohio High School, the College and the Professional Football halls of fame. He also is a member of The Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame. Willis was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes between 1942 and 1944, playing both offense and defense. A willowy 6-2 and 215 pounds, he was a devastating blocker on offense and a punishing, relentless tackler on defense. Willis earned All-America honors in 1943 and 1944, becoming Ohio State's first African-American All-American. He went on to a distinguished career with the Cleveland Browns following college. A native of Columbus, he is generally considered the first African-American starter in professional football. After his pro career ended, he returned home and served as director of the Ohio Youth Commission.

NOTEWORTHY

Bill Willis, a member of the Ohio State, College and Professional Football Halls of Fame, was the first African-American starter in the National Football League.

Each year, the National Football Foundation awards a scholarship to the Top 13 seniors in college football. The $18,000 grant for graduate work is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics. Over the years, Ohio State has produced 18 recipients, including Bobby Hoying in 1995. At its annual awards banquet, the Foundation also presents the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award to the top senior in the group. The 1995 winner of that prestigious award, based on athletics, academics and community involvement, was Hoying (above).

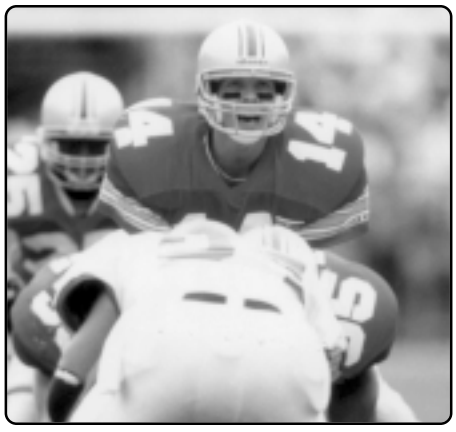

MIKE LANESE

Mike Lanese always will occupy a special place in the hearts and minds of Ohio State fans everywhere. His clutch grab against Michigan in 1984 has become known as "The Catch" and is one of the most memorable receptions in Ohio State history. But Lanese's legacy also includes some memorable accomplishments in the classroom, where after twice being named to the Academic All-America team, he was named as Rhodes Scholar in 1985. The former OSU flanker is the last Big Ten football player to be so honored. After completing his studies at Oxford, Lanese served in the U.S. Navy. He currently owns his own business.

BOBBY HOYING

Ohio State quarterback Bobby Hoying was one of the National Football Foundation's 13 scholarship recipients in 1995. Additionally, at the awards banquet in New York, Hoying was named winner of the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior scholar-athlete in college football. Hoying is the only Big Ten player ever to receive the award, which is based on athletics, academics and community involvement. Former Ohio State President Gordon Gee called the Draddy Award "The Heisman of Academics."

Bowl History

1921 Rose Bowl

California	28
Ohio State	0

PASADENA, Calif. – California finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924. Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time a Big Ten team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the first game in 1902.

1950 Rose Bowl

California	14
Ohio State	17

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-all tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns were called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Ohio State	20

PASADENA, Calif. – Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

Oregon	7

PASADENA, Calif. – Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from 1 yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-all before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio State 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

1969 Rose Bowl

Southern California	16
Ohio State	27

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern California. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Ohio State answered with a 1-yard run by Jim Otis and a 26-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final 4 yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern, the game's MVP, hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

1971 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	17
Stanford	27

PASADENA, Calif. – Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over favored and previously unbeaten OSU in the 1971 Rose Bowl.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and two touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final quarter. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

Bowl History

1973 Rose Bowl

Ohio State 17
Southern California 42

PASADENA, Calif. – Led by tailback Anthony Davis, USC broke a 7-all tie at halftime with three third quarter scores. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third quarter, Cunningham twice and Davis once from 20 yards.

The third quarter overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half.

OSU appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third and a 5-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with 44 seconds to play.

1974 Rose Bowl

Southern California 21
Ohio State 42

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the quarter for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining by dashing 47 yards over right tackle.

1975 Rose Bowl

Ohio State 17
Southern California 18

PASADENA, Calif. – Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final 3 yards himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Bowl History

1976 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	10
UCLA	23

PASADENA, Calif. – All-America quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big Ten MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Trophy Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, OSU held UCLA to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run and close out the scoring.

1977 Orange Bowl

Colorado	10
Ohio State	27

MIAMI, Fla. – After Colorado jumped to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald came off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes went on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from 3 yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing.

1978 Sugar Bowl

Ohio State	6
Alabama	35

NEW ORLEANS, La. – In the first meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a 3-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

1978 Gator Bowl

Ohio State	15
Clemson	17

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – The Clemson Tigers won their 10th consecutive game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of 4 yards, in the drive.

Freshman Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from 4 yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point was blocked, but OSU had a 9-7 lead.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and OSU's hopes were dashed.

1980 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	16
Southern California	17

PASADENA, Calif. – Unranked in the preseason polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record, but thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top-ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the 1 for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

USC outgained OSU, 519-412, in total offense.

1980 Fiesta Bowl

Ohio State	19
Penn State	31

TEMPE, Ariz. – A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

Bowl History

1981 Liberty Bowl

Navy	28
Ohio State	31

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four-consecutive bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third quarter.

Ohio State finally opened a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

1982 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	17
Ohio State	47

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh-consecutive game and their second-consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

1984 Fiesta Bowl

Pittsburgh	23
Ohio State	28

TEMPE, Ariz. – Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

Bowl History

1985 Rose Bowl

Ohio State	17
Southern California	20

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. OSU's Rich Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yard field goal, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the day.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record.

1986 Citrus Bowl

Brigham Young	7
Ohio State	10

ORLANDO, Fla. – Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with an interception, four in all.

All four of those interceptions came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

1987 Cotton Bowl

Texas A&M	12
Ohio State	28

DALLAS, Texas – Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which OSU led 7-6.

Bowl History

1990 Hall of Fame Bowl

Ohio State	14
Auburn	31

TAMPA, Fla. – Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over OSU.

Ohio State took an early 14-3 but the momentum changed just before the half when Slack hit Greg Taylor with an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play.

Auburn scored on its first possession after the half as Slack and Taylor teamed up again from 4 yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous MVP choice, ran 5 yards for the first and also flipped a 2-yard toss to Herbert Casey.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half because of a pulled groin muscle.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – The Buckeyes jumped to a 5-0 lead on a safety and field goal, but the Falcons scored touchdowns in the second and third quarters to build a 13-5 lead. After OSU cut the margin to 13-11 early in the fourth quarter on Robert Smith's brilliant 29-yard run, Air Force sealed the win with a field goal and TD on an interception return. The Buckeyes gained just 214 total yards, including 80 on the ground. The Air Force wishbone attack gained 254 rushing yards.

1992 Hall of Fame Bowl

Ohio State	17
Syracuse	24

TAMPA, Fla. – The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Marvin Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the first Syracuse possession and later running 3 yards to paydirt as the quarter expired.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The score came with 8:03 to play.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb to bury Ohio State.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

1993 Florida Citrus Bowl

Ohio State	14
Georgia	21

ORLANDO, Fla. – Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays, scoring the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

1993 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	21
Ohio State	28

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – In the early going, the 9-1-1 Buckeyes appeared to be too much for the 6-5 Cougars, jumping off to a 21-7 lead with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. But BYU, healthy for the first time all year, roared back with two TDs and the teams were tied at intermission.

Ohio State regained the lead with 4:11 to play in the third when tailback Raymont Harris scored his third TD of the evening.

Using their vaunted passing game, the Cougars drove deep into OSU teritory three times in the fourth quarter with each drive ending on incompletions.

While BYU did most of its damage through the air, the Buckeyes relied on the brilliant running of Harris, who set a Holiday Bowl record with 235 yards on 39 carries. Harris, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, was named Player of the Game, while linebacker Lorenzo Styles, who had eight tackles, including four for losses, was the defensive MVP.

ORLANDO, Fla. – A 50-yard scoring pass from Jay Barker to Sherman Williams with 42 seconds left broke a 17-all tie and lifted Alabama to a seven-point victory over Ohio State in the CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl. Although the Crimson Tide dominated statistically, the game went back and forth all day. Alabama had a 521-276 lead in total yards and a 28-15 advantage in first downs, but OSU helped itslef with three fumble recoveries, a blocked punt, a blocked field goal attempt and 12 tackles-for-loss.

Ohio State	14
Tennessee	20

ORLANDO, Fla. – The first meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season.

Playing in a driving rainstorm, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 2-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by Central McClellion. Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT momentum heading into the break. The Vols took a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 14 on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth. But Tennessee marched 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall. Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play that ended the scoring.

1997 Rose Bowl

Arizona State	17
Ohio State	20

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes snapped a four-game losing streak in the grandaddy of all bowl games with a dramatic, come-from-behind win over Arizona State.

The win propelled the fourth-ranked Buckeyes to an 11-1 record and the No. 2 spot in both major polls. ASU also finished at 11-1 and fell from second to fourth in the polls.

Reserve quarterback Joe Germaine came off the bench to lead the Buckeyes to the victory and was named as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

OSU took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a 9-yard pass from Stanley Jackson to David Boston. Arizona State scored early in the second period on a 25-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ricky Boyer and the two teams were deadlocked at halftime.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 10-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 37-yard field goal by Robert Nycz. But the Buckeyes recaptured the lead moments later when Germaine and senior flanker Dimitrious Stanley hooked up on a 72-yard score that went into the records book as the longest TD pass in OSU bowl annals.

Plummer, on a third-and-11, somehow snaked his way into the end zone to give ASU a 17-14 lead with 1:40 to play. Earlier, Plummer had kept the drive alive with a 29-yard completion on fourth down.

Germaine's responded by calmly marching the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays, hitting Boston from 5 yards out with the game winner. When the official raised his hands to signal touchdown, there were 19 seconds left on the Rose Bowl clock. Moments later, the Buckeyes were Rose Bowl champs.

Texas A&M	14
Ohio State	24

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Ohio State capped off an 11-1 season with a convincing win over Texas A&M.

The Buckeyes took control early, jumping to a 21-7 first-quarter lead. The Aggies scored on their first possession, driving 59 yards with Dante Hall going in from 9 yards out.

Joe Germaine then engineered an eight-play, 71-yard scoring drive. Following a defensive stop, the Buckeyes marched down the field again, using six plays to go 71 yards with Joe Montgomery's 10-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Another defensive stop followed by a huge special teams play gave OSU a 21-7 advantage with just 1:59 to go in the first quarter. After Derek Ross streaked in to literally "take" the football off A&M punter Shane Leckler's foot, Kevin Griffin picked up the loose ball and went untouched into the end zone.

2001 Outback Bowl

South Carolina	24
Ohio State	7

TAMPA, Fla. – In the first meeting between South Carolina and Ohio State, the Gamecocks upset the favored Buckeyes 24-7. The win gave South Carolina Coach Lou Holtz his first victory over the Buckeyes in five tries (0-2 at Minnesota and 0-2 at Notre Dame).

Ryan Brewer, a native of Troy, Ohio, accounted for 214 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns.

Both offenses struggled early and South Carolina led 3-0 at the half. The Buckeyes had a chance to tie it as time expired, but Dan Stultz' 47-yard field goal attempt was wide to the right.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Brewer scored from 7 yards out for the Gamecocks and offensive guard Mike Gurr recovered a Jonathan Wells fumble in the end zone for the Buckeyes.

But it was all South Carolina in the fourth quarter as Brewer (the game's MVP) scored first on a nifty 28-yard screen pass and later on a 2-yard run.

2002 Outback Bowl

South Carolina	31

TAMPA, Fla. – With the score tied and virtually no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver kicked a 42-yard field goal as the clock expired to propel No. 14 South Carolina to 31-28 victory over No. 22 Ohio State. The kick, which barely made it over the crossbar, spoiled a valiant comeback effort by the Buckeyes who had rallied from a 28-0 third quarter deficit.

Quarterback Steve Bellisari engineered the Ohio State comeback, completing 21 of 35 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns.

Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina. But none of that mattered when Bellisari finally got the Buckeyes going. He ran for a 2-yard score to close the third quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half. Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21 with 5:02 to go. Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play. He went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch. Cie Grant gave the Buckeyes a chance for victory at the end, intercepting Petty with 1:12 left.

The Rose Bowl

The Rose Bowl enters its fourth season as part of college football's Bowl Championship Series. (BCS). Because of its membership in the BCS, the Rose Bowl may not feature the champion of the Big Ten and/or the Pac-10 Conferences in a given year. If either of these two conference champions are ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final regular season BCS rankings, then the team will participate in the designated national championship game. Along with the Rose Bowl, the Orange, Sugar and Fiesta Bowls make up the rotation for BCS national title games. The Rose Bowl took its turn at hosting the BCS national championship title game on January 3, 2002.

"The Rose Bowl tradition remains central to the Big Ten and college football culture," Big Ten Commissioner James E. Delany said. "The Big Ten is proud of its relationship with the Rose Bowl and the Tournament of Roses Association, and pleased that we worked together with the other conferences to develop a playoff system that is good for the Big Ten, good for college football and good for the bowls."

Like most long-standing traditions, the Rose Bowl has come full circle.

•Since the pact was initiated in 1946, the Big Ten and Pac-10 have nearly established parity in the Rose Bowl win-loss columns. The Big Ten holds a narrow 29-27 record.

•There have been five different Big Ten teams in the Rose Bowl in the last five games.

ROSE BOWL HISTORY

The Pacific Coast (now the Pacific-10) and Western Conferences (Big Ten), along with the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association, agreed on November 19, 1946, to an exclusive Rose Bowl game contract.

Both conference commissioners commented that they "expect this five-year contract to be a forerunner of a long-time agreement. This present agreement is just a starter." The passing of time has shown us they were right on both accounts. It remains the oldest college football agreement between two of the nation's top conferences.

Though the contact was often referred to as a "shotgun marriage," officials had been in negotiation with the Tournament for eight years. The contact was effective immediately, voted on by faculty representatives from the two conferences. Both sides agreed that watch conference could designate its own representative, regardless of season records.

Illinois (7-2) and UCLA (10-0) were selected to play in the inaugural game under the pact.

Prior to 1947, the Rose Bowl game drew five sellout crowd. Every game since then has been a sellout.

The 1963 game was the first No. 1 against No. 2 showdown, matching undefeated USC (10-0) with the 8-1 Wisconsin Badgers.

The '70s were for the big Ten like the '50s were for the PCC (then the Pac-8) when playing in Pasadena. The Conference emerged victorious once, when Ohio State beat USC 41-21 in 1974. It was the second of three straight USC-Ohio State match-ups.

The Pac-10 continued to prosper in the '80s, taking home the Rose Bowl trophy seven times to the Big Ten's three.

The '90s were characterized by continued parity as the Pac-10 won three Rose Bowls and the Big Ten claimed seven.

The record for most appearances goes to USC (19) in the Pac-10 and Michigan (16) in the Big Ten.

In its 85 years, the Rose Bowl had maintained its tradition-rich standard of excellence, living up to the nickname "Granddaddy of all Bowl Games."

METHOD OF DETERMINING THE ROSE BOWL PARTICIPANT

In the event the Big Ten Conference regular season football champion is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS regular season ranking, then that team will play in the designated BCS national title game. If the Big Ten regular season champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2, then the following methods will be used to determine the Conference's Rose Bowl participant.

A. The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games.
B. An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the Conference representative.
C. If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between those teams shall represent the Conference.
D. If the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
E. If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.
F. If more than two teams tie for the championship, the same selection procedures shall be followed with these exceptions:
    1. If three teams are tied and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.
    2. If three teams are tied and if two of the three teams both defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
    3. If three teams are tied and if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
    4. If three teams are tied and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
    5. If three teams are tied and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:
    1. If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the Conference representative.
    2. If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
    3. If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
    4. If two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
    5. If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
    6. If all four teams have the same winning percentage for all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie-breaking procedure.

Few schools can boast the overall history of success the Ohio State Buckeyes have enjoyed over the years. The varsity program is respected as one of the most comprehensive in all of college athletics and now is 36 sports strong - 17 for men, 16 for women and three coed. The department operates on a budget in excess of $79 million. Each year, Ohio State teams claim numerous Big Ten championships, compete in NCAA tournaments and vie for national titles while producing countless individual conference and national champions, All-America performers and scholar-athletes.

Ohio State's Department of Athletics is under the direction of Andy Geiger. Just the seventh athletics director in Ohio State history, Geiger has developed a vision that will keep the Buckeyes among the nation's elite in the 21st century.

Some of the greatest names in athletics have worn the Scarlet and Gray, most notably four-time Olympic gold medallist Jesse Owens, golf great Jack Nicklaus, two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin and two-time NCAA men's basketball Player of the Year Jerry Lucas.

Other famous Buckeyes include the late Woody Hayes, who coached the football team to a sparkling 205-61-10 record from 1951-78; Stephanie Hightower, the former world and American record holder in the hurdles; John Havlicek, who helped lead Ohio State to the 1960 NCAA basketball title before a Hall of Fame career in the NBA with the Boston Celtics;

Athletics Director Andy Geiger is one of the most respected and visionary leaders in intercollegiate athletics today.

Jim Jackson, the 1992 National Player of the Year for men's basketball; Tracey Hall, one of the Big Ten's only two-time All-America basketball honorees; Eddie George, the 1995 Heisman Trophy winner; Orlando Pace, the first player to repeat as Lombardi Award winner and the No. 1 pick in the 1997 NFL Draft; and Katie Smith, OSU's first women's basketball representative in the Olympic games and the Big Ten's all-time scoring leader.

Ohio State's Jesse Owens set four world records at the 1935 Big Ten meet and won four gold medals at the 1936 Olympics in Berlin.

Ohio State is recognized across the country as a leader in collegiate athletics. More than 1,000 student-athletes participated on 36 OSU athletics teams in 2001-02.

Geiger believes the whole of athletics success starts with success of the individual parts. Those individual parts worked, competed and prospered well enough to put Ohio State among the 2001-02 national leaders in the prestigious Director's Cup, given annually to the nation's most successful athletics program.

Annually among the Top 20 in the standings, Ohio State strives to contend for the award each year.

Teams, individual student-athletes, coaches, staff and administrators regularly claim championships, academic and athletics awards, recognition and praise for their tireless efforts as Ohio State Department of Athletics family members.

With rich tradition as a foundation and with the completion of Bill Davis Baseball Stadium, the Jerome Schottenstein Center, the Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, the Younkin Success Center and the Ohio Stadium renovation, the Buckeyes' outlook for the future appears even brighter than their glorious past.

Katie Smith is the Big Ten's all-time leading scorer for women. With 21 major championships to his credit, Jack Nicklaus arguably is the greatest golfer to play the game. Both athletes wore Scarlet and Gray.

Among its many treasures, Ohio State offers a magnificent environment for learning at one of the largest universities in the country.

Welcome Home

The Oval, the heart of the Ohio State campus, is beautifully landscaped and surrounded by stately buildings. On any given day, thousands of students crisscross its paths. Ohio State's Columbus campus spans 1,715 acres.

For many central Ohioans, not to mention for people all over the world, The Ohio State University holds a special place in their hearts and their minds. It is a place where they experienced the excitement of new ideas, faced new challenges, met life-long friends, and enriched themselves in knowledge that has served them well.

With more than 300,000 living alumni worldwide, Ohio State is Columbus' most valuable educational and cultural asset, attaining an international distinction in education, scholarship, and public service. Its extensive range of quality academic programs attracts students and faculty from the world over.

Recognized as a leading research and comprehensive teaching university, Ohio State partners with public and private organizations that are improving health, education, business and industry, and the quality of life throughout the state. Ohio State touches every corner of the state through its 19 academic colleges and seven schools in Columbus; regional campuses in Lima, Mansfield, Marion, Newark; the Agricultural Technical Institute; Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center in Wooster; statewide Ohio State extension offices; and its 130-year commitment to public service.

IN ITS OWN CLASS

Ohio State offers a superior environment for learning. The top-ranked public university in Ohio, Ohio State also consistently ranks among the top national public universities for undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. Ohio State is a student-centered research university that provides a well-rounded experience both inside and outside the classroom. Few universities can match the range of academic offerings at Ohio State, which includes more than 170 undergraduate majors, 200 graduate fields of study, and more than 90 professional programs. Ohio State faculty members are internationally known for their academic credentials, real-world experience, and leading-edge research and are confronting timely and important societal problems, including preventing and treating disease and assessing global climate changes.

The student-to-faculty ratio is 13:1, similar to that found at smaller schools. In fact, 89 percent of first-year classes have fewer than 50 students, and only five percent have more than 100. Staff in hundreds of campus offices provide one-on-one instruction for students, including Student Affairs, Minority Affairs, Disability Services, and the Center for the Study and Teaching of Writing. Outside of the classroom, the residence halls

Ohio State is home to the nation's largest medical teaching facility and the Midwest's only freestanding cancer hospital, The James (above).

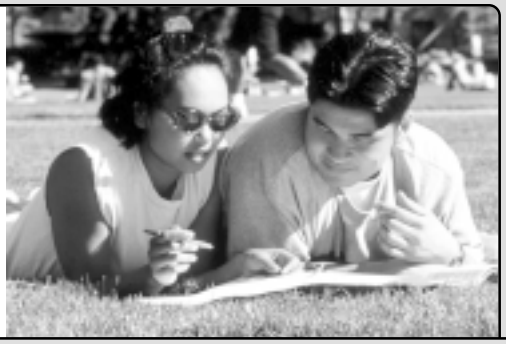

NOTABLE OSU FACTS

isn't just about going to practice and class.

At Ohio State, education extends beyond the classroom and the practice field. Many students enhance their academic and career experiences through our numerous co-op, internship, and more than 100 study abroad opportunities. Many other students get involved in innovative research projects that have a lasting and direct impact on the community. What are you into? Chances are, one of Ohio State's 500 student organizations is right up your alley.

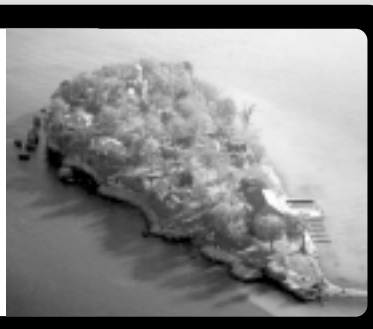

provide academic programs and assistance, including tutoring, study sessions, computer labs, and quiet time.

A DYNAMIC RESEARCH ENVIRONMENT

As a premier research university, Ohio State provides opportunities for students to work with some of the world's leading experts and scholars. More than 1,500 undergraduates work on research projects funded by agencies such as the National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Health, the U.S. Department of Education, and the National Endowment for the Humanities. The university's location in Ohio's capital city and its ties to government, business, and industry provide career, research, and internship opportunities for students. Ohio State's Science and Technology Campus is home to the Ohio MicroMD Laboratory, a world-class bioMEMs facility, and laboratory space for Honda America R&D and fosters collaboration between the university and the business community.

Ohio State has six regional campuses including the Stone Laboratory on Gibraltar Island at Put-in-Bay, home to the Ohio Sea Grant program. One of 29 under the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, the program provides information on critical environmental and resource issues.

Student research happens inside and outside the classroom, on and off campus, and covers the spectrum: from de-musseling Lake Erie and unraveling string theory to building an air-friendly SUV and teaching children to read. Ohio State provides countless opportunities for students to participate in the community by working on research projects with real-world implications. Students also can hone real-world skills such as networking, public speaking, and grant writing through on-campus leadership initiatives including the John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy and the Mount Leadership Society.

LIVING-LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS

Students can also extend their research and learning—and make lasting friendships— through 25 living-learning communities, including nursing, engineering, Spanish, first-year communities, and Honors communities. These residential programs bring together students with similar career interests and majors, as well as preferred lifestyle and cultural preferences. In addition, first-year students can take part in Ohio State's Scholars Programs, which enable students to attend selected classes together and live in specially designated residence halls. Academically selective, the Scholars Programs offer living-learning environments in health sciences, biology, international affairs, leadership, tomorrow's teachers, arts, communications, and humanities.

EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT CLASS

One of the best indicators of a university's quality is the caliber of its incoming class. The quality of Ohio State's most recently enrolled freshman class is the best in terms of academic profile. Nearly 70 percent of the Class of 2002 comes from the top 25 percent of their high school class, and 34 percent comes from the elite 10 percent. In 2001, Ohio State ranked in the top 20 in the nation with more than 110 National Merit/National Achievement/National Hispanic Scholars in its admitted class.

OHIO STATE-OF-THE-ART FACILITIES

Ohio State provides resources that are not available at many other universities. The Ohio State University Libraries house the largest collection in Ohio and one of the largest academic library collections in North America, with more than five million print volumes and access to more than 600 million volumes through Ohio LINK and World Cat. Ohio State is home to the nation's largest medical teaching facility and the Midwest's only free-standing cancer hospital.

Along with the many historic and traditional buildings on campus,

Ohio State provides resources that are not available at many other universities. The libraries house the largest collection in Ohio and one of the Top 20 academic library collections in North America.

One of the most impressive new developments is the Fisher College of Business' six-building mini-campus, which features satellite uplink capabilities, nearly 3,000 computer ports and an investment laboratory.

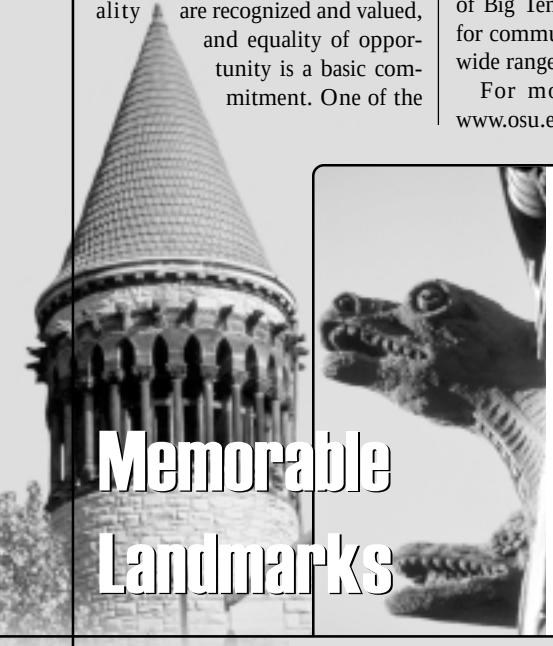

there are hundreds of new facilities, as well as many others scheduled for completion in the next few years, including the Life Sciences Research Building, the World Media and Culture Center, and the Knowlton School of Architecture. One of the most impressive new developments is the Fisher College of Business' six-building mini-campus, which features satellite uplink capabilities, nearly 3,000 computer ports, an investment laboratory, and a recently completed luxury hotel, The Blackwell at Fisher College.

DIVERSITY AND OPPORTUNITY

Ohio State prides itself on diversity—from the range of academic opportunities and student organizations to the vibrant makeup of the student body. There is no such thing as a typical Ohio State student. Students come to Ohio State from all over the nation and from more than 100 countries around the world. At Ohio State, diversity and individuality are recognized and valued, and equality of opportunity is a basic commitment. One of the university's missions for the 21st century is to continue to celebrate and build upon the strength of its diversity—from the intellectual enrichment and cultural understanding gained from such diversity to a community outreach philosophy built on a sense of shared destiny and civic responsibility.

Not only does Ohio State promote a university environment that celebrates individual difference, but no other single campus can match the opportunities and resources available here. Undergraduate students can choose from more than 170 major areas of study and nearly 10,500 available courses. Ohio State offers countless opportunities for exposure to a high-profile guest list with campus visits from well-known political leaders, lecturers, and top-name entertainers in the arts, music, and dance. The university offers hundreds of student activities and organizations, the largest intramural and recreational sports department in the country, the excitement of Big Ten athletics, opportunities for community involvement, and a wide range of cultural events.

Memorable Landmarks

Orton Hall's bell tower is home to the campus chimes, 12 bells in E-flat totalling 25,000 pounds. First heard on June 15, 1915, they ring every 15 minutes. Up around the bell tower you can see small gargoyles. Gargoyles are grotesque animal figures that in medieval times projected from a roof to throw rainwater clear of a building. Orton's are merely for decoration and unique in that, while most gargoyles are mythical beasts, these are patterned after prehistoric animals.

HOW FIRM THY FRIENDSHIP

The Ohio State Alumni Association has been "getting things done for Ohio State" since 1911. More than 121,000 dues-paying members turn their nostalgia into tangible action on behalf of the university by serving as ambassadors, recruiting outstanding students, giving advice and providing financial support for students and the university.

Alumni have a global presence through 50 societies and 200 clubs throughout the world and strive to stay connected no matter how many miles separate them, showing how firm alumni friendship is for Ohio State.

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COUNSELORS

John Macko

Darin Meeker

Francine St. Clair

Under the direction of Dr. Kate Riffee, a staff of five academic counselors, academic resource coordinators, life skills coordinators and graduate assistants assist more than 1,000 student-athletes in all areas of academic support, from career counseling and planning to honors placement, early registration and course selection. Students are provided tutors, access to computers, study tables and instruction in studying and time management to help reach academic goals. Additionally, an academic counselor is assigned specifically to each team to ensure every student-athlete receives individualized attention.

366 SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

After the 2001-02 season, a record 366 student-athletes were honored as Ohio State Scholar-Athletes for their success in maintaining cumulative grade point averages of 3.0 or better. Each year, the outstanding students are recognized at the Ohio State Scholar-Athlete Awards Banquet.

Last year, the department presented The Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor to Kevin Stephan (men's lacrosse) and Allison Blanton (field hockey and lacrosse).

In addition to the Big Ten Conference Medal of Honor, outstanding student-athletes in the graduating class are eligible to apply for a number of postgraduate scholarships. Among the scholarships given are the Corwin A. Fergus Memorial Award, the Leann Grimes-Davidge Award, the John T. Sr. and Hulda E. Edwards Award and the Irving and Melvin Schottenstein Award.

Graduation day at The Ohio State University is one of the most gratifying moments a student-athlete can experience. Notables such as Bill Cosby and President George W. Bush have given the commencement address at OSU.

AWARDS ABOUND

In addition, Ohio State student-athletes have the opportunity to receive Academic All-Big Ten honors. In the past six years, the Buckeyes rank second in the conference with 1,074 honorees, one of just two schools in the Big Ten to record more than 1,000 selections (Penn State is the other).

BIG TEN CONFERENCE MEDAL OF HONOR

The winners of the 2002 Big Ten Medal of Honor were field hockey player Allison Blanton and men's lacrosse team member Kevin Stephan.

Each member institution in the conference gives the award annually to the male and female athletes in the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in both academics and athletics.

The Big Ten Conference office established the award in 1914 and an additional award for the top female was instituted in 1982. This honor includes a $5,000 postgraduate scholarship for the recipients who would like to pursue a graduate or professional program at Ohio State.

Allison Blanton

Kevin Stephan

Cornerback Ahmed Plummer received a National Football Foundation scholarship in 1999.

I will give my all

FOR OHIO STATE EVERY DAY.

Outstanding OSU student-athletes also receive Verizon Academic All-America and All-District honors each year. During the 2001-02 school year, 12 Buckeyes earned academic all-district honors. The Buckeye honorees included: Wendy Allen (softball), Erin Baker (volleyball), Raj Bhavsar (gymnastics), Allison Blanton (field hockey), Vince Ng (tennis), Terry Pettorini (baseball), Monica Rincon (tennis), Stacy Roth (softball), Lauren Shenk (basketball), Suzie Stiling (volleyball), Katie Virtue (volleyball) and Sarah West (softball). Ng went on to earn All-America honors.

The District IV team is made up of student-athletes from Division I schools in Alabama, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Tennessee. To be nominated, student-athletes must be a starter or important reserve and carry a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 or higher. Team members are selected by a vote of members of the College Sports Information Directors of America within the district.

C.H.A.M.P.S.

Ohio State student-athletes are encouraged to become involved in more than just athletics. One of the most innovative and noteworthy initiatives fueling this effort is the C.H.A.M.P.S. (Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success) Life Skills Program which affords students the opportunity to grow and develop in the areas of academic and athletic excellence, community service, health and wellness and personal and career development.

The Ohio State C.H.A.M.P.S. program is a leader at the national and conference levels. OSU SASSO has been recognized by the Division I-A athletics director's association as a "Program of Excellence" for implementing innovative and comprehensive support services for student-athletes. An advisory board member with this association, Ohio State also serves as a support and advisory school to other NCAA Life Skills programs. SASSO was recognized by The National Consortium for Academics and Sport with its "Degree Completion Award."

Students have a chance to take a leadership role with the Student Athlete Advisory Board (SAAB). The organization meets monthly, providing team representation to the department of athletics and input on department policy and programming.

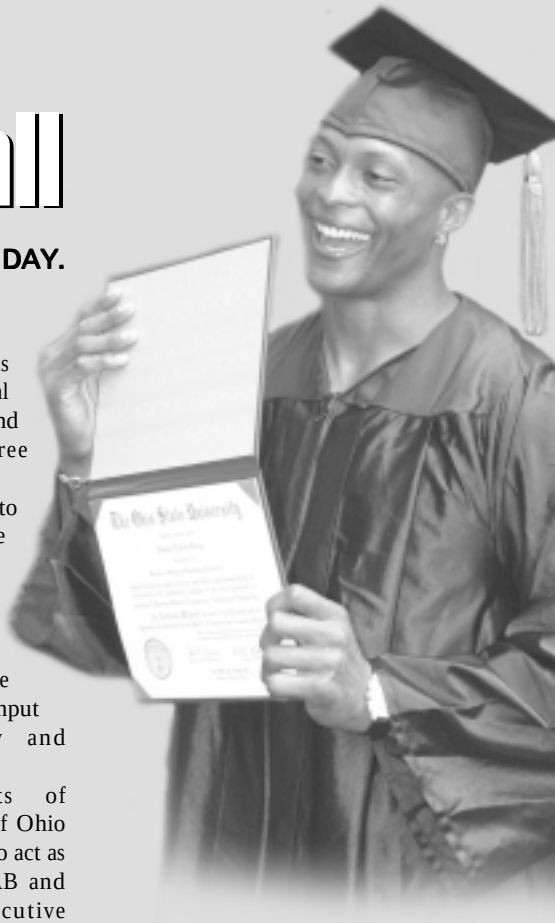

Membership consists of representatives from each of Ohio State's 36 varsity sports, who act as liaisons between the SAAB and their team. The Executive Committee consists of a board of officers, the chairpersons of four commissions and athletics department advisors.

The major goals of SAAB are to promote effective communication between the department of athletics administration and the student-athlete population and to provide the student-athletes with an opportunity to have input into the educational/personal development programs which serve their needs. SAAB promotes academic achievement, health promotion, social responsibility and general awareness of departmental issues.

Ohio State is serious about the role it plays in the lives of its student-athletes and for that reason has systematically designed programs to meet their needs. Upon graduation, students will receive more than just a handshake and diploma. Backed by one of the largest alumni associations in the nation, their OSU degree will be their ticket to career opportunities around the world.

WBNS 10TV sports reporter and former Buckeye Ryan Miller congratulates Joe Cooper after graduating last spring.

The Athletics Department Outreach Program is designed to help former grant-in-aid student-athletes, like Eddie George (above), obtain a degree after they have exhausted all of their eligibility.

The Younkin Success Center

The state-of-the-art Younkin Success Center, located on Neil Avenue near the center of campus, provides students and student-athletes alike with the tools for success. It houses career services, counseling and consultation services, the Student-Athlete Support Services Office and the faculty and teaching assistant development office. Services in the building include tutoring, career planning tailored to the needs of each student, counseling services, an 80-station computer lab and time management and test-taking assistance.

This collaboration of learning support programs helps ensure that all students, regardless of their background, interest and talents, find personal and academic success.

The Younkin Success Center was dedicated in spring 2000. A "one-stop learning mall," it is one of the most unique learning facilities in America.

Doss has no regrets about staying in school

■ The Ohio State safety could have been cashing in with his peers at the NFL draft.

By Tim May
Dispatch Sports Reporter

The lure of cold, hard cash and the security it can bring has immense appeal.

This weekend, college football players are cashing in by way of the NFL draft. Ohio State safety Mike Doss could have been one of those at the pay window. Maybe he didn't have quite the appeal of Oklahoma's Roy Williams, but as safety prospects go, Doss already was regarded among the elite after his junior season.

"Everybody knows that," said defensive end Kenny Peterson, who has been Doss' teammate at Canton McKinley High School and Ohio State.

To back away from the NFL for another year took guts and deep soul searching, "because everybody tends to get anxious," Peterson said. "Patience is the hardest thing. You tend to be anxious and want to get things in a hurry. But my mom always said

TOUGH NUT

MIKE DOSS OHIO STATE '55

In the middle of the practice field stood this homemade wooden tunnel, one player at one end and Mike Doss at the other. The coach would blow his whistle and watch as the two players met somewhere inside. First one to push the other kid out the tunnel won. Doss never lost. He was only 8 but already leaving welts in the Canton (Ohio) Midget League. He's still knocking jersey numbers off people as the latest in Ohio State's conga line of star DBs. "I've said it before, and I'll say it again," says the junior. "Football is the woman I'd try to marry."

In his first-ever scrimmage at OSU, Doss caught WR Darik Warnke flush on the chin with his shoulder pads. Warnke, knocked cold, subsequently gave up football. And last season Doss took Illinois QB Kurt Kittner out of the game. Just for fun, the 5'11", 203-pounder likes to pop Buckeyes fullback Jamar Martin, who weighs in at about 260. "He needs to have contact on the field," says DB coach Mel Tucker. Like a lion needs red meat.

Two of Doss' favorite books are the Bible and They Still Call Me Assassin, the second autobiography of Jack Tatum, the former Buckeyes safety known for his vicious hits. He can quote a verse of Second Corinthians as easily as he can quote you a line from his favorite movie, Gladiator. "Maximus did everything he could to avenge his family," says Doss. "We're here at Ohio State University, and I'll do anything to protect my family."

To protect their families, more and more teams scheme away from Doss' half of the field. Makes sense. Considering that Doss led OSU in tackles last season, that he's a gimme for most All-America lists and that he never takes a play off. It doesn't take an O coordinating genius to figure out which way to run and throw.

Just the other day after practice, Doss hopped on the treadmill for a long session. Why? "Champions practice to be champions," he says. "Plays are going the opposite way, so I'm chasing a lot more. Got to be able to get there." If you're a running back or wide receiver looking to strut your open-field stuff, that's a scary thought. After all, this is a guy who hits so hard he once knocked out himself and another player. "Snot bubbles started coming out both our noses on that one," says Doss.

And now he's working up he can get to you faster?

Doss does it all; he leads OSU in six defensive categories.

The Best Damn Band in the Land

The "Pride of the Buckeyes," Ohio State's 225-member all-brass marching band, is one of the finest and most storied units in the country. Its roots date back to 1879 when it was formed as a military band.

SKULL SESSION

In 1932 Eugene J. Weigel enhanced the band's performance by having members completely memorize music before the game each week. By doing this bandsmen could concentrate more on the marching maneuvers without sacrificing the music. Weigel then scheduled a final rehearsal of the music before game time so the band could play and think through the show one last time - one last "Skull Session." In the old Rehearsal Hall there was room for a few hundred parents and fans to sit and listen. Eventually, watching this rehearsal became so popular tickets were issued to bandsmen to make sure their parents had seats. After St. John Arena was built in 1957, Jack Evans requested its use for the last rehearsal before game time. Athletics Director Richard Larkins was happy to oblige, as he was eager to show off the new facility. The skull session was changed to a concert/pep rally atmosphere by Dr. Paul Droste which continues today. Skull session starts one and a half hours before kickoff of every home football game. It is a popular concert/pep rally, with over 10,000 fans in attendance. Seats for skull session are in high demand and it is not unusual for dedicated fans to arrive up to two hours before the band.

RAMP ENTRANCE

The Ramp Entrance dates back to 1928, when it was introduced by band members Bill Knepper and Elvin Donaldson. The entire sequence survives today virtually unchanged and is one of the single most defining elements of The Ohio State University Marching Band.

Following their performance at Skull Session, the band forms outside St. John Arena and marches across Woody Hayes Drive in ranks of 12 to drum cadence. The band enters Ohio Stadium and assembles on the ramp which leads to the field.

The percussion section leader stands at the base of the ramp, setting the tempo of 180 beats per minute. At the appointed time, he screams to his section "Drums on the side!" The percussionists then take the field, chanting "O-H-I-O, OHIO, O-H-I-O, OHIO..." Band members take their spots on the ramp as the percussionists leave and the Stadium comes to life as the drums hit their mark. The drums roar to life as the first trumpets emerge, executing a precise arm swing and carrying their instruments at their side, maintaining perfect two step spacing.

THE BACK BEND

Once the ranks fill up, a whistle sounds and the entire band turns and the introduction to "Buckeye Battle Cry" is played.

The drum major struts through the middle of the band and comes to the front of the ranks to execute a back bend. As the major's plume touches the grass, a cheer fills the stadium and the band breaks into two choruses of the fight song while storming toward the South Stands. The drum major reaches the end zone, performs a goal post toss and the band finishes the downfield march, executes an about-face maneuver and stands motionless awaiting the raising of the flag and the performance of the national anthem.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

HOW TO DOT THE "i"

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with the sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot, and the sousaphone player assumes the post of honor, doffs his hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.

HISTORY OF THE "i"-DOT

At its first performance, the Script Ohio's "i" was dotted by a trumpet player, John Brungart (1933-36). The march from the top of the "o" to the top of the "i" was just another movement to complete a formation but over 60 years later, the honor of dotting the "i" is known throughout the world.

In the fall of 1937, Glen R. Johnson, a sousaphone player, was ordered to switch places with the trumpet player in the formation.

The familiar kick, turn and bow by the sousaphone player at the top of the "i" was an innovation introduced by Johnson at a game in 1938. "(The turn) was an impulse reaction when drum major Myron McKelvey arrived three or four measures too soon at the top of the "i"," Johnson explained, "so I did a big kick, a turn and a deep bow to use up the music." The crowd roared when this happened, and it became part of the show thereafter.

WHO DOTS THE "i"

To be eligible to dot the "i", a sousaphone player must at least be a fourth-year member. Fifth-year members also are eligible to dot the "i", but only after all fourth-year members have been chosen. At postseason performances (usually double scripts), fourth and fifth-year members compete for the open dots in what is called a "dot-off", in which eligible members perform their routine for the entire sousaphone section. Members watch two rounds of competition and vote for the best two candidates.

HONORARY "i"-DOTTERS

Woody Hayes and Bob Hope are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i." This is considered the greatest honor the band can bestow to any non-band person and is an extremely special (and rare) event.

Hang on Sloopy

In 1965, teen idols The McCoys recorded what later would become the State of Ohio's rock song and Ohio State's game day anthem.

"My Girl Sloopy" was penned by Bert Berns and Wes Farrell. The R&B tune by the Vibrations was reworked into a rock song entitled "Hang On Sloopy" which rose to the top of the charts in July of 1965.

Members of the McCoys were lead guitarist Rick Derringer, his brother, drummer Randy Zehringer (Rick changed his last name in '65), keyboardist Ronnie Brandon and bassist Randy Hobbs.

Original name of the group was The McCoys, named after their theme song, a Ventures instrumental called "The McCoy." The band then became, in order, the Rick Z Combo, Rick and The Raiders, The Real McCoys and then finally, back to The McCoys.

The Zehringer brothers fooled around with music in their hometown of Galena, Ohio before moving to Fort Recovery, Ind., in 1960.

Rick and The Raiders took a step toward fame near the end of July 1965 when they opened for The Strangegloves in Dayton, Ohio.

An obscure R&B tune, "My Girl Sloopy" was reworked and suggested to The Strangegloves as their next single. The Dave Clark Five planned to release their own version of the song upon their return to England so the American release was pushed into overdrive.

The Strangegloves hit "I Want Candy" was still riding the charts and it was too soon for a follow-up single. Enter the teen-age McCoys.

The young back-up band was offered a record deal on the spot they added their vocals and a ripping guitar solo to the "Hang On Sloopy" track in Manhattan which then was rushed to release and hit the top of the charts.

"Sloopy" was the stage name of Dorothy Sloop, a musician who was originally from Steubenville, Ohio, and played nightclubs in New Orleans. She died in 1998 in Pass Christian, Miss.

The OSU marching band first performed the tune at the Ohio State-Illinois game Oct. 9, 1965, House Concurent Resolution No. 16 made "Sloopy" the State Rock Song in 1985.

Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on
Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on

Sloopy lives in a very bad part of town
And everybody, yeah, tries to put my sloopy down
Sloopy I don't care what your daddy do
Cause' you know sloopy girl, I'm in love with you
And so I sing out

Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on
Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on

Sloopy wears a red dress, yeah, as old as the hills*
But when sloopy wears that red dress, yeah, you know it gives me the chills
Sloopy when I see you walkin', walkin' down the street
I say don't worry sloopy girl, you belong to me
And so I sing out

Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on
Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on

Sloopy let your hair down girl, let it hang down on me
Sloopy let your hair down girl, let it hang down on me

Come on sloopy, come on come on
Well come on sloopy, come on come on
Well come on sloopy, come on come on
Well come on sloopy, come on come on

You know it feels so good come on come on
You know it feels so good
come on come on

Well, shake it shake it shake it sloopy
Come on come on
Well, shake it shake it shake it, yeah
Come on come on

Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on
Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on
Hang on sloopy, sloopy hang on

What is a Buckeye?

A small, shiny, dark brown nut with a light tan patch that comes from the official state tree of Ohio, the buckeye tree.

According to folklore, the Buckeye resembles the eye of a deer and carrying one brings good luck. "Buckeyes" has been the official Ohio State nickname since 1950, but it had been in common use for many years before.

The first recorded use of the term Buckeye to refer to a resident of the area was in 1788, some 15 years before Ohio became a state. Col. Ebenezer Sproat, a 6'4" man of large girth and swashbuckling mannerisms, led the legal delegation at the first court session of the Northwest Territory in Marietta. The Indians in attendance greeted him with shouts of "Hetuck, Hetuck" (the Indian word for buckeye), it is said because they were impressed by his stature and manner. He proudly carried the Buckeye nickname for the rest of his life and it gradually spread to his companions and to other local settlers. By the 1830s, writers were commonly referring to locals as "Buckeyes."

Buckeye Leaves

The tradition of placing Buckeye Leaves on the Ohio State helmets started in 1968 when Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. The new look included names on the back of the jerseys and a wide "Buckeye stripe" on the sleeves of the jersey believed to be the first of its kind in the sport of football.

Victory Bell

Located in the southeast tower of Ohio Stadium, the Victory Bell is rung after every Ohio State victory. It was a gift of the classes of 1943, 1944 and 1945. Resting 150-feet up in the southeast tower, members of Alpha Phi Omega ring the bell after victories, a tradition that began after OSU beat California Oct. 2, 1954. On a calm day, it is said the bell can be heard five miles away. The bell weighs 2,420 pounds and cost $2,535 to install.

Scarlet and Gray

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878, Scarlet and Gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination...and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

Brutus Buckeye

One of the more visible symbols of Ohio State athletics is Brutus Buckeye, the school's mascot. Brutus first appeared in 1965.

Gold Pants

A gold charm replica of a pair of football pants is given to players and coaches following wins over Michigan. The tradition started in 1934 when first-year coach Francis Schmidt told those wondering how OSU would fare with its nemesis from Ann Arbor: "They put their pants on one leg at a time just like everybody else." Schmidt's Buckeyes then went and defeated Michigan four-consecutive times, all by shutout.

Buckeye Grove

Since 1934, a Buckeye tree has been planted in honor of each of Ohio State's All-American. Trees are usually planted in a pregame ceremony at the spring game. With the renovation of Ohio Stadium in 2001, the Buckeye Grove is now loated at the southwest corner of the stadium.

Senior Tackle

A last practice of the year tradition since 1913 where the seniors hit the blocking sled one final time. For many years it was held following the last practice prior to the season finale with Michigan. But depending upon the Buckeyes' bowl obligation, it has sometimes been moved to the last home practice before the team departs for its bowl obligation.

Tunnel of Pride

The brainchild of ex-OSU quarterback Rex Kern and current Director of Athletics Andy Geiger, the Tunnel of Pride actually started in 1995, when Notre Dame visited Ohio Stadium for the first meeting between the two teams in nearly 50 years. In an effort to generate even more emotion, excitement and enthusiasm than already existed, Kern and Geiger reached out to former Buckeye football players who were attending the game and asked them to form a tunnel for the team to run through as it came onto the field. Thus a tradition was born, which is now continued every other year when Michigan visits Ohio Stadium.

Captain's Breakfast

Started in 1934, this annual event is held on homecoming weekend. All past captains are invited back for a breakfast and to welcome in the new captains.

The IlliBuck Trophy

The winner of the Ohio State – Illinois game has received the Illibuck trophy since the tradition began in 1925. Illibuck was a live turtle, but has been a wooden replica since 1927. Also representative of the rivalry is the peace pipe. Members of two junior honorary societies, Bucket and Dipper of Ohio State and Sachem of Illinois, annually meet at halftime of the Fighting Illini-Buckeye game to smoke the peace pipe and present the "Illibuck" trophy to the winning school from the previous year.

Fanatics

Ohio State fans have long supported the football team averaging more than 73,000 for home games since Ohio Stadium opened in 1922. For the 1999 football season, the Ohio State ticket office received 152,350 ticket requests. Ohio State averaged 93,000 fans in the 1990s.

The Michigan Game

The annual Ohio State-Michigan football game was No. 1 on a list of the 10 Greatest Rivalries In Sports compiled by the editorial staff at ESPN.com in 1999. There simply is no greater rivalry in college athletics.

Homecoming

First recognized in 1912, Homecoming began as "Ohio State Day." It was initiated by Professor (and later OSU President) George W. Rightmire. Homecoming was designed to bring the alumni back to the university and celebrate.

The celebration has been noted, among other things, for the decorating of Greek chapter facilities and university dormitories.

The parade is another tradition Buckeyes' hold high. The parade did not become a time-honored tradition until it joined the schedule permanently in 1965.

In 1926, student supporters wishing to pull a practical joke on the university, convinced the community that Maudine Ormsby was to be honored as queen. She was so popular on campus, she won the vote. Maudine, pictured at the right, actually turned out to be a cow, the only cow ever elected as homecoming queen.

The Lucky Horseshoe

The lucky horseshoe was presented during the rededication ceremony prior to the Sept. 8, 2001 Akron game. The token was passed from Jim Langhurst (captain of the 1940 Ohio State football team) to the 2001 team captains (Steve Bellisari, Mike Collins, Joe Cooper and Jamar Martin) as a symbol of good luck in the newly renovated stadium. It is displayed in the Ohio Stadium locker room, affixed to a plaque which bears the following Chic Harley (1916-17, '19) quote: "We're heart and soul for this stadium, the fellows who know what it is to go in there and fight with all that's in us for Ohio State and her glory."

School Songs

Ohio State proudly boasts of an alma mater (Carmen Ohio), two fight songs (Across the Field and Buckeye Battle Cry) and a state rock song (Hang on Sloopy).

ABOUT CARMEN OHIO

Fred Cornell, a four-letter athlete, member of the OSU Glee Club and a Columbus native, composed the words to "Carmen Ohio," Ohio State's alma mater.

In 1902 on a train coming back from a horrible 86-0 football defeat in Ann Arbor, Cornell began to write phrases on the back of an envelope.

Inspired both by the loss and hearing the Wolverine crowd sing "The Yellow and Blue," Cornell proceeded to pen the hymn that was first published in The Lantern on Oct. 10, 1906 and appeared in the Michigan game program 10 days later.

The word "Carmen" means "song or poem" in Latin and Spanish and hence the title of the alma mater means song of Ohio or Ohio's Song.

The tune of "Carmen Ohio" is taken from an ancient song entitled, "Spanish Chant".

BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team
That's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
Whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
Our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight the team across the field,
Show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

CARMEN OHIO

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold.
The seasons pass,
the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship O-hi-o.

Retired Jersey Numbers

Five Ohio State football players – Archie Griffin, Vic Janowicz and Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, Les Horvath and Eddie George – have had their numbers officially retired by the Department of Athletics.

Griffin, college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner (1974 and '75), was the first. In a surprise ceremony, his No. 45 was retired on Oct. 30, 1999 at halftime of the Iowa-Ohio State game.

Janowicz and Cassady were honored during the 2000 season. Janowicz, the 1950 Heisman Trophy recipient, had his No. 31 retired posthumously at halftime of the Sept. 23 Penn State game. Cassady, who led the Buckeyes to the 1954 national championship and then won the Heisman the following year, had his No. 40 retired at halftime of the Nov. 18 Michigan game.

Horvath and George were honored during the 2001 season. Horvath's No. 22 was be retired at the Oct. 6 Northwestern game and George's No 27 at halftime of the Nov. 10 Purdue game.

In order to have his number retired, an athlete must have graduated, or in the event of leaving early to pursue a professional career, have been in good academic standing at the time of his departure. He also must have received one of the following awards: The Heisman Trophy, the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Award, the Associated Press Player of the Year Award, the Football Writers Player of the Year Award, or the American Football Coaches Player of the Year Award.

Additionally, the Director of Athletics may recommend to the school's Athletics Council that a student-athlete, who did not win player of the year honors, but who, nonetheless, distinguished himself on the football field, have his number retired. No student-athlete is eligible for this honor until at least five years after the graduation of his academic class.

Variety: Ohio State football players will be given great variety in the workouts and will be motivated to achieve personal and team success.

Motivation is a key component of the Ohio State strength and conditioning program. The coaching staff takes great pride in motivating the football team to reach its upper limits.

The Ohio State goals are:
Develop the Total Athlete with emphasis in developing: speed, strength, explosion, flexibility and conditioning.

Develop an attitude of success through hard work in the strength and conditioning program.

Develop a great mental toughness through strength and conditioning program that transfers over to an attitude of playing 60-minutes of physical football.

Ohio State ended an extensive phase of growth in the fall of 2001 when the three-year renovation of historic Ohio Stadium, home of Buckeye football, was completed.

The near $200-million project culminated the vision Andy Geiger (director of athletics at Ohio State) set out to complete upon his arrival in Columbus in the spring of 1994. During his tenure, the Younkin Academic Success Center, the Jerome Schottenstein Center (men's and women's basketball and men's ice hockey), Bill Davis Baseball Stadium and the Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium (men's and women's track, soccer and lacrosse) opened to serve Buckeye student-athletes and the OSU community.

Ohio State, already a national leader with its state-of-the-art athletics facilities, distanced itself even more with well over $300 million in facility upgrades, which are being paid for without the help of student fees or general university funds.

Though new practice and competition areas highlight the OSU athletics landscape, several other nationally-recognized facilities complete an outstanding compilation of athletics structures for the 36 sports and roughly 1,000 student-athletes competing on the Ohio State campus.

The men's and women's track teams practice and compete during the winter in French Field House. The 200-meter track features a Chevron 440 surface, the best running surface available.

St. John Arena, named after former Director of Athletics L.W. St. John, first opened its doors in 1956 and affords spectators one of the finest experiences in college athletics. The arena includes locker rooms, team meeting areas and a four-color scoreboard. The 13,276-seat structure is the home of the men's and women's volleyball teams, the wrestling team and the men's and women's gymnastics teams.

OHIO STATE S STUDENT-ATHLETES TRAIN AND COMPETE IN SOME OF THE MOST MODERN VENUES IN THE NATION.

A facility housing new locker rooms, practice areas and office space for wrestling, men's and women's gymnastics and fencing is expected to be completed in the fall of 2002. Located near the Ohio State campus. the Steelwood Facility became a necessity when Larkins Hall, an on-campus recreational facility housing several Buckeye teams, was approved for renovation.

The Larkins Hall project, a joint venture with the university and the athletics department, will add a modern Olympic-style training and competition facility for the Ohio State swimming and diving teams. The project is scheduled for completion in 2005.

Dedicated in November 1987 in memory of the late Ohio State football coach, the Woody Hayes Athletic Center is one of the finest, most extensive indoor practice facilities of its kind. The indoor field accommodates field hockey and football practices during inclement weather in the fall, baseball and softball practices throughout the winter and lacrosse practices during the spring.

Home tennis matches are played at the Stickney Tennis Center, located adjacent to the Woody Hayes Athletic Center. The facility features 12 courts with a special laykold finish and scarlet and gray trim. The courts are built in pairs to accommodate spectators and were resurfaced in the spring of 2002, just prior to the 2002 Big Ten Men's Tennis Tournament.

The softball team plays at Buckeye Field, recognized as one of the finest playing surfaces in the Big Ten. The squad capitalized on its home field in 2002 with a 20-2 record and over the last two seasons the Buckeyes have an incredible 81 percent home winning percentage (42-10).

Ohio State operates two of the country's finest 18-hole golf courses, The Scarlet and The Gray. The 7,100-yard Scarlet Course is rated among the finest collegiate layouts in the nation and is home to the men's and women's teams. It has been the site of an NCAA-record 10 men's and three women's national championships. The 2002 NCAA Men's Golf Championships were contested on The OSU Scarlet Course.

The Ohio Stadium renovation was completed last year.

ENDOWMENT HIGHLIGHT
In addition to supporting Ohio State's James Cancer Hospital and the Ross Heart Hospital among other programs, Sam and Shelia Davis made a generous gift to our athletics scholarship endowment program in October of 2000. In perpetuity, earnings from the principal gift are used to help finance the educational expenses of two Buckeye student-athletes. We thank the Davis Family for their continued support of Ohio State University Athletics.

Recipients of the Samuel B. & Shelia S. Davis Athletic Scholarships are Bobby Britton and Shane Olivea, juniors on the Ohio State Football Team.

FIRST CLASS PHYSICIANS

Dr. John Lombardo, the head team physician for the Ohio State Department of Athletics, currently serves as an advisor to the National Football League and was the head team physician for the 1988 Calgary Winter Olympics. Lombardo oversees a staff of the finest specialized interns, surgeons, dentists and counselors who monitor the overall well-being of each student-athlete on a year-round basis.

Ohio State's trainers have worked in nearly every major conference and on the high school, professional and Olympic levels.

VETERAN TRAINERS

The director of athletics training, Bill Davis, and veteran trainers Angie Beisner, Doug Calland, Chalisa Fonza, Todd Miller, Vince O'Brien, Janine Oman and Bob Sweeney comprise one of the most highly-respected staffs in all of college athletics. The entire staff works extremely hard in the areas of performance enhancement and injury prevention and has resources, such as the OSU Medical and Sportsmedicine Centers, to accomplish this. This group of trainers has worked in every major conference and on the high school, professional and Olympic levels.

Ohio State's student athletics training curriculum program is housed in the School of Allied Medical Professions and is considered one of the best in the country. Buckeye student-athletes benefit from having these dedicated students assisting the staff. A student trainer is assigned to each team, allowing someone from the training staff to be present at every practice and game, home or away.

Additionally, this staff offers one of the most comprehensive high school athletics training workshops each summer.

SPEED, POWER, STRENGTH

Ohio State student-athletes benefit from a comprehensive and individualized strength and conditioning program designed to ensure the highest possible level of physical readiness.

Anthony Glass, director of athletics strength and conditioning, and assistant directors Kathy Crowe, Kim Dally-Badgeley, Scott Ray and Erick Schork, provide instruction specific to the individual, both in and out of season, and in collaboration with the Ohio State training and medical staffs.

Bill Davis heads Ohio State's athletic training program, which is regarded as one of the finest in the country.

Anthony Glass trains student-athletes to obtain the highest level of achievement in the weight room.

Glass and his staff challenge the Buckeye contingency even further in the weight room in the areas of leadership, work ethic, attitude and ability with an annual Buckeye Power Club Award. Athletes from each varsity team that exemplify the highest levels of achievement are honored at the end of each school year with the award and in turn become eligible for National Strength and Conditioning All-America honors.

AVAILABLE RESOURCES

The entire medical staff is on 24-hour call should the need arise for urgent treatment. In the event testing or hospitalization is required, the Ohio State University Medical Center is one of the nation's most modern and comprehensive facilities.

In all our woods there is not a tree so hard to kill
as a Buckeye.
The deepest girdling does not deaden it and even after it is cut down and worked up into the side of a cabin it will send out young branches, denoting to all the world that Buckeyes are not easily conquered.

– Daniel Drake, 1833

THE IMPACT OF THE OHIO STATE BUCKEYES IS FELT COMMUNITY WIDE

Ohio State student-athletes are fortunate to live in a city that embraces both their competitiveness and their community involvement.

The community's support of Ohio State teams on the various fields of play is reciprocated in the Buckeyes' involvement in service programs throughout Columbus and its surrounding communities.

Ohio State student-athletes participate in a variety of outside events, including the Columbus Komen Race for the Cure to eradicate breast cancer, The Ohio Wheelchair Games, Special Olympics and Toys for Tots. In addition, they interact with community children, visiting hospitals and schools, and participate in the Ohio Reads program.

This involvement brings to the forefront the importance of taking stock in the community and the lasting ties that are created through common interests and goals.

The Community Relay takes place at the Jesse Owens Memorial Classic in May.

Brian Brown and Monica Rincon were First Team All-Big Ten selections. Brown led men's basketball to a share of the Big Ten championship and the conference tournament title and Rincon qualified for the NCAA singles tennis championship.

A Banner Year

OHIO STATE HAD 19 TEAMS ADVANCE TO NCAA COMPETITION.

The 2001-02 athletics campaign was a banner year for Ohio State's teams, student-athletes and coaches. National championships were claimed in synchronized swimming and pistol. Nineteen teams advanced to NCAA championship competition and 28 individuals earned First Team All-America honors. OSU also had five Big Ten Coaches of the Year and one national coach of the year.

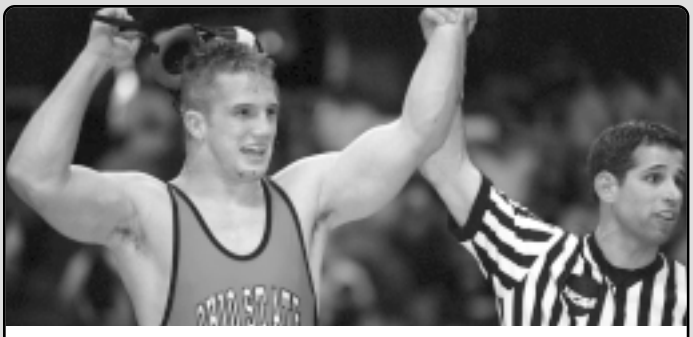

The baseball team captured the 2002 Big Ten Tournament title in Minneapolis to earn the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Regional. Three Buckeyes received First Team All-Big Ten honors: juniors Nick Swisher, Nate Smith and Scott Lewis, the 2002 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and a member of the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America Team.

Capping off the most successful season in the history of the program, the Buckeye softball team rewrote the record books in 2002, setting 21 team and 15 individual records en route to a 55-14 overall record and an at-large berth in the NCAA tournament, their first appearance since 1990. Senior outfielder Anna Smith became the first Buckeye to garner First Team All-America honors while Stacy Roth, Wendy Allen and Smith all earned First Team All-Big Ten honors. Allen also was named Big Ten Player of the Year and Linda Kalafatis was named Big Ten Coach of the Year.

The rowing team ended the season with a fifth-place finish at the NCAA championships. The first varsity 8 finished the season with a 21-5 record to go along with its Big Ten title. Head coach Andy Teitelbaum was named Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association Central Region Coach of the Year.

The rowing team claimed the Big Ten Conference Championship.

Tommy Rowlands was crowned 2002 NCAA heavyweight champion.

The women's lacrosse team posted 11 wins to establish the program record for single-season victories en route to receiving its first bid to the NCAA championship. Senior Megan Mirick and junior Shannon Wilson were named 2002 Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association/U.S. Lacrosse All-Americans, while Mirick was named the American Lacrosse Conference Player of the Year.

Women's golf finished eighth at the 2002 NCAA Championships. Junior captain Mollie Fankhauser, the Big Ten medalist, was named a Second Team All-American by the National Golf Coaches Association. Head coach Therese Hession was named 2002 Big Ten Coach of the Year after the Buckeyes took home the Big Ten championship.

The men's and women's tennis teams both received at-large berths into their respective NCAA team championship. For the men, All-Big Ten selections Phil Metz and Jeremy Wurtzman were selected to play in the 2002 NCAA Singles Championship. Women's tennis senior Monica Rincon, an All-Big Ten selection, qualified into the NCAA singles championship as well.

Pieter Olree, a senior outside hitter for the men's volleyball team and the MIVA Player of the Year, was selected a Second Team All-American by the American Volleyball Coaches Association.

Four All-Americans were honored in both indoor and outdoor Track and Field. Sophomore Dan Taylor, juniors Tami Smith and Krista Keir and senior

The synchronized swimming team continued its national dominance, claiming a third-consecutive (22nd overall) national championship. The rifle team won the Western Intercollegiate Rifle Championship.

Field Hockey won the Big Ten regular season chamionship and the conference tournament.

Men's volleyball's Pieter Olree was named MIVA Player of the Year and Second Team All-American.

Anna Smith was named First Team All-America as the softball team set 21 team marks during a 55-14 year.

Emma Laaksonen earned Second Team All-America honors for the women's hockey team.

Katy Craig all finished among the Top 8 Americans in their respective events at the NCAA outdoor championships to receive All-America honors. During the indoor season, Craig, Smith, Alexis McCall and Dalanda Jackson earned All-America accolades.

The men's basketball team won a share of the 2002 Big Ten regular-season title and then claimed the 2002 Big Ten Tournament Championship. Senior Brian Brown was named First Team All-Big Ten. Under head coach Jim O'Brien, the Buckeyes recorded their fourth-consecutive 20-win season and set an Ohio State record by qualifying for a fourth-consecutive NCAA tournament.

Tommy Rowlands was crowned the 2002 NCAA Champion in the heavyweight division at the NCAA wrestling championships. Head coach Russ Hellickson was named Big Ten Co-Coach of the Year and National Wrestling Coaches Association National Coach of the Year for his efforts. The Buckeyes finished sixth overall at the NCAA championships and All-America status went to Rowlands, Nick Preston and Robert Sessley.

In women's hockey, sophomore offensive defenseman Emma Laaksonen claimed Second Team All-America honors, becoming the first women's hockey Buckeye to earn All-America accolades. Laaksonen and Jeni Creary were among the Top 10 candidates for the 2002 Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award, which annually recognizes the accomplishments of the most outstanding player in women's collegiate hockey.

Diving coach Vince Panzano and diver Heath Knowling were named Big Ten Coach and Diver of the Year, respectively. In addition to diver of the year, Knowling was a First Team All-Big Ten selection and was named Diver of the (Big Ten) Championships. He advanced to the NCAA championships.

The men's gymnastics team came up short of defending its NCAA title, finishing second at the NCAA championships. Raj Bhavsar won the Big Ten and NCAA all-around titles and was named Big Ten Gymnast of the Year. Head coach Miles Avery was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second-consecutive year. All-America selections included Bhavsar, Jamey Houle, Kerry Adderly, Dick Huntwork and Randy Monahan.

The synchronized swimming team won its third-consecutive national championship and its 22nd overall. Mary Hofer, Victoria Bowen, Beth Kreimer, Suzanna Hyatt and Kristin Price were named All-Americans for 2002. Carolina and Isabela Moraes won the national duet title and combined with Hofer for the trio championship. Isabela won her third solo title.

The fencing team placed fourth at the NCAA championships. OSU had 10 NCAA qualifiers and six All-Americans. First Team All-America accolades went to Jason Rogers, Louise Bond-Williams and Hanna Thompson.

The pistol team closed out the season by winning the Women's Sport Pistol National Championship and finishing second in the Women's Two-Gun Aggregate Championship. Individually, Jennifer Trickett and Jessica Marshall were named National Rifle Association Intercollegiate All-Americans.

Stacey Gordon was the named AVCA National Freshman of the year.

The rifle team won the Western Intercollegiate Rifle Conference, winning both smallbore and air rifle. Abhijeet Konduskar was a Second Team All-American in smallbore and air rifle.

After defeating Michigan to close out the regular season, the football Buckeyes earned a second-consecutive trip to the Outback Bowl. Senior LeCharles Bentley won consensus All-America honors and received the Rimington Award as the best collegiate center. Michael Doss also earned All-America honors.

The field hockey team captured the first Big Ten regular-season and conference tournament championships in the 30-year history of the program and Ohio State made the NCAA tournament for only the second time in the history of the program. The National Field Hockey Coaches Association named midfielder Marije van Nouhuys a First Team All-American, while forward Vanessa Immordino was named to the second team.

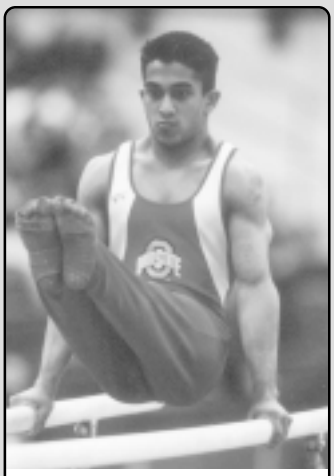

The men's soccer team received its first at-large bid to the NCAA tournament in 2001.

In women's soccer, Lori Walker was named 2001 Big Ten Co-Coach of the Year and Lisa Grubb was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

The women's volleyball team advanced to the NCAA Regional Semifinals. Outside hitter Stacey Gordon was honored as the American Volleyball Coaches Association National Freshman of the Year. Gordon also was honored as a Second Team AVCA All-American.

Mollie Fankhauser was the Big Ten medalist and the women's golf team won the Big Ten championship.

Raj Bhavsar won the Big Ten and NCAA all-around titles and was named Big Ten Gymnast of the Year.

A replica of the Santa Maria, Christopher Columbus's 15th century ship, is moored downtown on the Scioto River two blocks from the statehouse.

NOTED AS AMERICA'S PREMIER INLAND CITY OF EXCELLENCE, COLUMBUS, OHIO HAS MANY SERVICES TO OFFER.

Columbus, the largest city in Ohio, is the 15th largest city in the country. The state capital, Columbus continues to enjoy widespread development. Recent growth includes two state-of-the-art multi-purpose arenas, OSU's Jerome Schottenstein Center and Nationwide Arena, and the relocation of Ohio's Center of Science & Industry to its new home on the Scioto Riverfront.

The heart of the city features visual and performing arts and numerous festivals including Red, White & Boom, the Columbus Arts Festival, the Jazz & Rib Fest and Cruisin' on the Riverfront. The arts festival was named first in the nation for its crafts and fifth in the country in fine arts by Sunshine Artist magazine.

A flood of new entertainment acts and shopping districts, a unique partnership between professional and collegiate sports teams and a major expansion of its convention center make Columbus one of the fastest growing cities in the Midwest. Recently, Nation's Restaurant News named Columbus one of the Top 50 cities across the country that "sizzle."

The area also features a number of unique neighborhoods. German Village, just south of downtown, is the largest privately-restored historical district in the United States. Brick streets are lined with shops and restaurants and are home to the city's annual Oktoberfest celebration.

Columbus Mayor Michael B. Coleman

Just north of downtown, the Short North features scores of art galleries, restaurants and boutiques. On the first Saturday of each month, the galleries stay open late for the popular Gallery Hop. The Brewery District, south of downtown, and the Arena District, north of the city's center, continue to grow in popularity. New additions in the Arena District include Promowest Pavilion, an intimate indoor and outdoor concert venue, and the Arena Grand Theatre, a state-of-the-art motion picture theatre that offers moviegoers a whole new experience.

Shopping opportunities abound in and around Columbus. The city was ranked seventh in the nation by the National Research Bureau for the amount of retail space per person, ranking ahead of New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Miami and Boston. Those rankings do not include the newest shopping areas - Easton Town Center and Polaris Fashion Place.

Easton Town Center on the northeast side features hundreds of shops, restaurants and nightclubs, including the AMC Experience, the Cheesecake Factory and Steven Spielberg's GameWorks. Polaris Fashion Place on the North Side includes 50 retailers new to the area, including Lord and Taylor, Saks Fifth Avenue and Kaufmann's. Columbus City Center downtown and the Mall at Tuttle Crossing on the northwest side also feature hundreds of shops and restaurants.

Columbus also features a stable economy with low unemployment and headquarters of major businesses, including Nationwide Insurance, Wendy's and The Limited. The Greater Columbus area also is home to no fewer than 15 colleges and universities, including OSU, Columbus State Community College, Ohio Dominican College and Capital and Franklin universities.

A TRUE SPORTS TOWN

BIG TEN CONFERENCE MISSION STATEMENT

The Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 world-class universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place within the mission.

Founded in 1896, the Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics in student-athletes' lives and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness. Big Ten universities provide in excess of $63 million in athletic scholarship aid to more than 7,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships (12 for men and 13 for women.) In total, Big Ten Conference institutions sponsor more than 250 athletic programs.

BIG TEN 9-11 SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Following the national tragedy on September 11, 2001, the Big Ten Conference, through its intercollegiate athletic department revenues, pledged a $1 million scholarship contribution to assist the families of those affected by the terrorist attacks. The Big Ten made a presentation to Lumina Foundation for Education and the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of America™ (CSFA) to provide undergraduate and graduate degree scholarships at Big Ten Conference member institutions. The Conference's donation is called the "Big Ten 9-11 Scholarship Fund." The $1 million contribution will be drawn from Conference reserves, which are generated as a result of football and men's basketball participation in NCAA, bowl and regular season television opportunities.

Jim Delany is commisioner of the nation's oldest athletic conference.

BIG TEN UNIVERSITIES…

- are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.
- have more than 70 Nobel laureates as faculty, students or researchers.
- enroll students of whom over 41 percent have graduated in the top 10 percent of their high school class; while 74 percent graduated in the top quarter of their class.
- have more than 3,500,000 living alumni and over 320,000 undergraduate students attending Big Ten universities.
- typically receive more than 8,000 employers each year who conduct recruitment visits on Big Ten campuses.
- house on their campuses eight of the nation's 20 largest academic libraries. All of the Conference libraries are interconnected through an online library system (Virtual Electronic Library).

ATHLETIC PROGRAMS IN THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE…

- provide an avenue for more than 140,000 young men and women to pursue higher education while competing in sports.
- have, since 1992, created in excess of 1,100 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 25 new women's teams.
- had more than 7,500 student-athletes playing on over 260 teams in 2001-02. Those student-athletes received in excess of $63 million in direct financial aid.
- graduate at a rate of 10 percent higher than all Division I student-athletes.
- annually recognized more than 1,300 student-athletes who achieved a "B" grade point average or better on the Academic All-Conference teams over the past six years, including a record total of 1,745 student-athletes during the 2001-02 school year.
- have won more than 185 team titles and 1,250 individual titles. In 1999–00, the Conference celebrated six NCAA team titles (men's soccer, women's volleyball, wrestling, men's basketball, fencing, men's gymnastics), the most for the Big Ten in the last 10 years.
- are some of the most competitive in the country. The Big Ten has placed four schools among the top 20 in the final Sears Directors' Cup standings, which annually recognizes the nation's top athletic programs, in six of the Cup's eight years of existence. That total includes a Conference-record five schools in the top 20 at the conclusion of 1999-2000.
- were all ranked among the top 29 in the country, including a No. 1 honor for Penn State, in a first-of-its-kind analysis by The Sporting News (September 1999) of all 112 Division I-A athletic programs (that play football and men's basketball).
- showcased more than 250 events that are televised nationally, regionally and locally last year, representing over 550 hours of programming.
- are among the national attendance leaders in football, men's and women's basketball, women's volleyball and wrestling. During the 2001–02 season, more than 7.5 million fans attended Big Ten home contests in those sports.

Edward H. Jennings previously served as the university s 10th president from 1981-90.

Edward H. Jennings Interim President

Edward H. Jennings is Interim President of The Ohio State University. He previously served the university as its 10th president from 1981 to 1990 and as professor of finance in the Fisher College of Business until his retirement on April 1. His appointment as Interim President began on July 1, 2002.

Jennings' research and publications agenda has focused on issues of rate regulation of public utilities and investment strategies for university endowments.

He is a member of several corporate boards and is active with four small start-up commercial enterprises. He has also been engaged in university evaluation assignments for USAID in Uganda; for UNESCO in Palestine (Gaza and the West Bank) and The Republic of Yemen; and general assignments for MUCIA in Vietnam, the Philippines, and Southeast Asia. Each assignment involved an evaluation of the country's existing system of higher education with recommendations regarding how the system could be improved and expanded. Jennings is a member of the board of Bethlehem University in the West Bank. His primary voluntary activity is as Chairman of the Board of Mt. Carmel Health, a large regional health center in central Ohio.

Jennings served as president of the University of Wyoming from 1979 to 1981 and as vice president of finance and university services at the University of Iowa from 1976 to 1979, where he served on the finance faculty for 10 years. In addition, Jennings has held visiting appointments at the University of Dar Es Salaam in Tanzania and the University of Hawaii. He is the co-author of the textbook Fundamentals of Investments, now in its fourth printing, and the author of several articles that have been published in academic journals and professional reviews of bonds, common stock, inflation, and other investment and financial topics.

Jennings received his Ph.D. in finance from the University of Michigan, an M.B.A. from Case Western Reserve University, and a B.S. in industrial management from the University of North Carolina.

He and his wife Barbara reside in Columbus.

James F. Patterson, chairman of the board, has been a trustee since 1994. He is a fifth-generation family farmer who owns Patterson Fruit Farm in Chesterland. A 1964 graduate of the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences, he was a Geauga County commissioner from 1969 to 1982 and president of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation from 1985 to 1989.

He is a past president of the Ohio Fruit Growers Society, former chair of the Farm Credit Bank of Louisville's board of trustees, and a former member of the Cleveland Foundation Lake-Geauga advisory committee.

Mr. Patterson is a member of both the Nationwide Insurance Enterprise and the Nationwide Financial Services boards of directors. He serves on both the Geauga Regional Hospital board of trustees and the University Hospital Health System of Cleveland board of trustees.

He has served as chair of the OSU Alumni Advisory Committee and on the councils of the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center and OSU Extension support councils.

He and his wife, Nancy, are members of Trinity United Methodist Church in Chesterland and have three grown children, Susan, David, and Bill.

Zuheir Sofia, vice chairman of the board, has been a trustee since 1995. He is chairman of Sofia & Company, Inc., a private investment banking company that provides financial and investment services to a broad spectrum of businesses. He is also president of The Stanbery Group, LLC, a registered investment advisor and co-managing partner with A. Michael Lipper of L&S Partners I, LLC, which is a private fund investing in the securities of financial services, as well as diversified equity mutual funds. Previously, Mr. Sofia was president, chief operating officer, director, and treasurer of Huntington Bancshares. He joined The Huntington in 1971 and became president and director in 1984.

Mr. Sofia earned a Master of Arts degree in Economics from Washington University and a Bachelor of Science degree in economics and business administration from Western Kentucky University. He is also a graduate of The Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University. At Ohio State, Mr. Sofia is chairman of the board of The Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute and is chairman of the Fiscal Affairs Committee. He also serves on the boards of University Hospitals and The Ohio State University Foundation.

Mr. Sofia's many professional and civic affiliations include serving as a director of Lancaster Colony Corporation and Frontstep, Inc. He is a member of the Ohio Banking Commission. He is founder, past president, and chairman of the honorary trustees of the Columbus Council on World Affairs. He is past chairman of the Columbus Chapter of Young Presidents' Organization, a member of the Columbus Presidents' Organization, The Chief Executive Organization, and World Presidents' Organization. He also is past chairman of the board of the Columbus School for Girls and honorary trustee for life, and past chairman of the board of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Sofia and his wife, Susan, have three children, Sarah, Zachary, and Joseph.

Tami Longaberger was appointed to the board of trustees in 1996 by Governor George Voinovich. She is president and CEO of The Longaberger Company, a family-owned national direct-selling company founded by Tami's father, Dave Longaberger, in 1973. The company is recognized as one of the 500 largest privately held companies in the U.S. by Forbes Magazine and is the premier maker of hand-crafted baskets in the United States. The Longaberger Company also was recognized as the 18th largest woman-owned company in the U.S. by Working Woman Magazine.

Tami joined the company in January 1984, the same year she received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree from The Ohio State University. In 1994, she assumed the role of president. She has steered the company through unprecedented sales growth, product diversification and new technologies. In 1998, she also assumed the responsibilities of chief executive officer.

The Longaberger Company has always been committed to its employees, the local community and to its nearly 70,000 independent sales associates nationwide. As part of this commitment, in 1995 the company established a relationship with the American Cancer Society. Since that time, Longaberger sales associates have distributed educational information about breast cancer prevention to nearly 13 million women and helped raise more than $7 million for breast cancer research and education through the sale of the Horizon of Hope Basket.

Tami is actively involved in the community at many levels. She has received numerous appointments and awards including: member of the board of directors of The John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy; past chairman of the board of the Direct Selling Association, of which she was only the third female to chair and the youngest leader in the Association's 83-year history; member of the Ohio Business Roundtable; member of the Battelle for Kids Board, which is encouraging educational reform (K-12) in the State of Ohio; inducted into the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame in 1995; honored at the 1999 Zanesville, Ohio, area Martin Luther King Jr. Prayer Breakfast as one of five women who have positively influenced her local area; appointed to the Ohio Building Authority by former Governor and current U.S. Senator George Voinovich in 1995; and was presented the Business Award for entrepreneurship by The Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women. In addition, in 1999 The Longaberger Company was recognized by Newman's Own, Inc. and George Magazine as one of the Top 10 Most Generous Companies in America.

Tami resides in Muskingum County with her family. She is a "soccer mom" who also enjoys an active life, bird watching, her pets, and reading.

Daniel M. Slane of Columbus was appointed to the board in 1997. He is founder and co-owner of The Slane Co., which develops, owns and operates 88 shopping centers and commercial developments in 12 states. The company also owns and operates electrical power generating stations in Europe, with headquarters in Birmingham, England.

Andy Geiger

Andy Geiger oversees a program that has 36 varsity sports and more than 1,000 student-athletes.

Andy Geiger, one of college athletics most dynamic and respected leaders, is now in his ninth year at Ohio State. In his role as Director of Athletics, he oversees a program that has 36 varsity sports, more than 1,000 athletes and an annual operating budget of more than $79 million.

Upon accepting his current position, Geiger vowed to take Ohio State's already storied program to even greater heights. One of his first priorities was to oversee the development of a departmental mission statement that would guide Ohio State well into the future. He also moved quickly to bolster a number of important areas within the department including student-athlete support services, compliance and marketing.

But at the heart of Geiger's endeavors has been an ambitious campaign to update Ohio State's aging facilities.

The first facet of that drive became a reality in the spring of 1997 when the 4,300-seat Bill Davis Baseball Stadium opened its gates. The 19,100-seat Jerome Schottenstein Center, a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose facility, now in its fifth year, houses men's and women's basketball and men's ice hockey, as well as various other entertainment events. The Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, which is home to soccer, lacrosse and track and field, was completed in 2001, as was the three-year, $200 million renovation of storied Ohio Stadium, which seats over 101,000 and truly is one of the most magnificent facilities anywhere in the country. Additionally, a new student-athlete support services facility, the Younkin Success Center, opened its doors in the spring of 2000.

Because of Geiger's commitment, Ohio State student-athletes and fans enjoy some of the finest facilities in college athletics.

Under Geiger, Ohio State also has added three varsity sports - women's rowing, lacrosse and ice hockey - at a time when most schools are dropping sports because of budget constraints.

A "hands-on" administrator, Geiger attends as many practices and games as his busy schedule will permit. He enjoys spending time with the student-athletes and coaches of all the sports and is a favorite of the student-athletes because of his genuine concern for their well being, both in the classroom and on the athletic field.

Geiger has hired several outstanding coaches since coming to Ohio State, including football mentor Jim Tressel, basketball coaches Jim O'Brien and Jim Foster, hockey coaches John Markell and Jackie Barto and field hockey coach Anne Wilkinson.

Geiger came to Ohio State from the University of Maryland, where he spent three years as the director of athletics. He also has served in that same capacity at Brown University, the University of Pennsylvania, and Stanford University.

A native of Syracuse, N.Y., Geiger graduated from Syracuse University in 1961 and was a member of the crew team as an undergraduate. He also was a member of the U.S. squad that captured a gold medal in the 1959 Pan Am Games. Geiger calls those years some of the most meaningful of his life.

Geiger began his career in intercollegiate athletics in 1961 as the freshman rowing coach at Dartmouth College. He ventured into administration in 1964, returning to his alma mater as assistant athletics director. He left Syracuse in 1970 to become assistant commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

In 1971, at age 32, Geiger become athletics director at Brown University. He held that position until 1975, when he moved to the University of Pennsylvania in a similar capacity.

Geiger's next move was to Stanford. He began an extremely successful tenure there in 1979. During his 11-year stay at the Pac-10 school, the Cardinal won a total of 27 national championships and Stanford was considered one of the elite programs in intercollegiate athletics.

In 1990, Geiger left Stanford to take over a Maryland program that was on NCAA probation. When he left the Terrapins a little more than three years later, the athletics department once again was on solid ground.

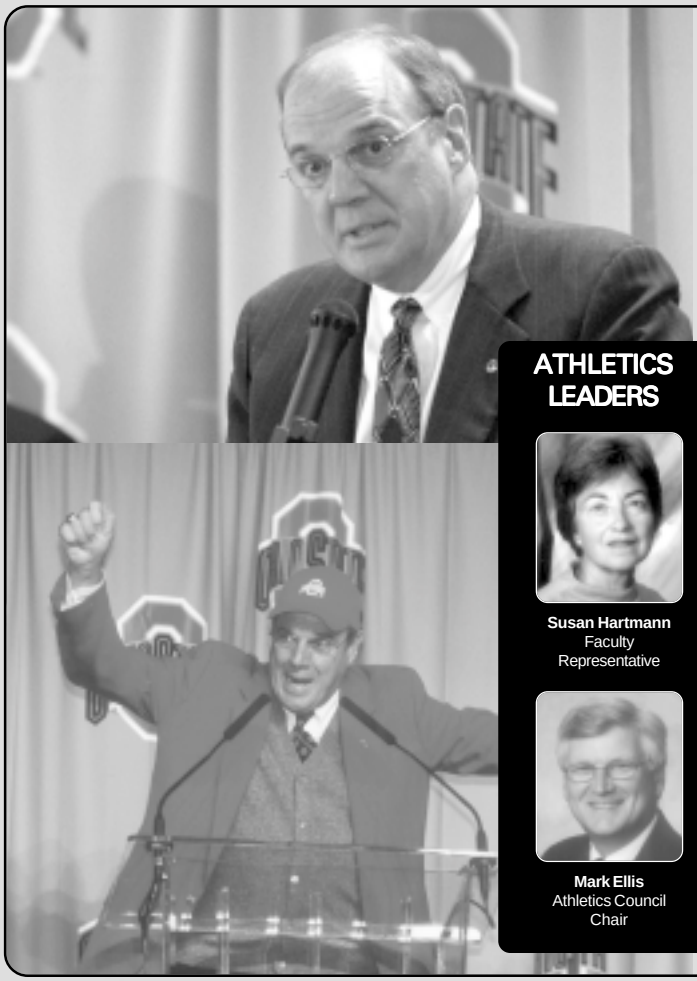

Geiger was named Ohio State's seventh director of athletics April 29, 1994. He officially took over on May 16, 1994.

Geiger, who was born March 23, 1939, and his wife, Eleanor, have two sons: Phillip and Gregory. During their stay in Maryland, Eleanor, who also is a Syracuse graduate, worked as a research assistant in mathematics education and specialized in the development of a new curriculum for middle school mathematics. Since arriving in Columbus, she has become involved in several community projects, including serving on the Board of Trustees of Opera Columbus.

Geiger's hobbies include golf and all music, especially jazz. He is a member of the Columbus Jazz-Arts Board and also hosts a two-hour weekly radio show called "Classic Jazz Masters." He also serves on the Board of Trustees of Easter Seals, COTA and the YMCA.

ARCHIE GRIFFIN

Archie Griffin is in his 18th year as a member of the Ohio State athletics department staff. As associate director of athletics, he oversees a combination of 13 men's and women's varsity sports, including football.

Griffin, 47, is one of the legendary names in Ohio State's rich football lore. A three-time All-American between 1973 and 1975, he made college football history by becoming the first-and-only two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy, receiving the coveted bronze statue in 1974 as a junior and again in 1975 as a senior. During his brilliant career, the diminutive tailback rushed for an Ohio State record 5,589 yards and helped the Buckeyes capture four Big Ten titles and post an overall record of 40-5-1. He is the only Big Ten player ever to start in four Rose Bowls.

Griffin received a degree in industrial relations from Ohio State in 1976. He graduated a quarter early and was chosen as one of the NCAA's Top-Five student-athletes as a senior.

Following graduation, Griffin was a first-round pick of the Cincinnati Bengals. After an eight-year stint in the NFL, he returned to the university in 1984 to work in the Office of Personnel Services. He moved to athletics in 1985 as Special Assistant to the Director. In 1987, he was named assistant director and took over the department's fund raising, marketing and promotional efforts.

Ohio State's ambassador of good will, Griffin is a member of the Ohio State, Rose Bowl, Walter Camp, National Football Foundation and National High School halls of fame.

Griffin is married to the former Bonita Davis and has three sons, Anthony, Andre and Adam.

PETE HAGAN

Pete Hagan is now in his seventh year as assistant athletics director for finance at Ohio State.

This is Hagan's second stint with the Buckeyes. He was assistant business manager of athletics for seven years between 1982 and 1989, leaving to become assistant athletics director at the University of Minnesota. Hagan spent six years in the latter capacity, returning to Columbus in November of 1995 to accept his present position.

Hagan currently helps plan and oversee the Athletic Department's $74 million operating budget. His responsibilities include reviewing and monitoring all accounts, preparing monthly analysis and financial reports, approving requisitions for purchases, supervising payroll, departmental travel and grant-in-aid disbursement. In 1999, he also was given additional duties including oversight of the Ohio State Golf Course and Ice Rink.

Hagan is from Toronto, Ohio. He graduated from Ohio State in 1978 with a degree in accounting. After graduation, he started working for his alma mater as a staff auditor in internal auditing. In 1982, he joined the athletics department.

Hagan is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the College Athletic Business Managers Association.

He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Sarah and Emily.

SUSAN HENDERSON

Susan Henderson is in her eighth year with the department of athletics and her 25th year at Ohio State. In April of 2000, she was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Finance and Administration.

Henderson is the department's chief financial officer. Her duties include the planning and implementation of all aspects of its $74 million operating budget.

She also oversees Human Resources and is responsible for the department's computer systems, the cheerleading squad and the marching bands. Additionally, she coordinates and monitors other special projects such as Title IX, the Equity and Athletics Disclosure Act and the Equal Pay Act.

During her first four years in athletics, Henderson served as the department's first ever Director of Human Resources.

Prior to joining the Department of Athletics, Henderson spent 18 months as the acting director of the OSU Student Unions.

Henderson is a 1978 graduate of The Ohio State Unviersity, receiving a bachelor's degree in fine arts.

Her outside activities include serving as treasurer of the Inner City Games Columbus.

TOM HOF

Tom Hof is beginning his eighth year with the Department of Athletics. He was promoted to associate athletics director for development, marketing and club services in the spring of 2000. His responsibilities include all athletics department fund-raising activities, including directing the new Olympic Sports Campaign, a $45 million effort to provide new facilities, scholarship endowments, and other support for the department's Olympic sports programs. In addition, Hof and his staff are responsible for the continued funding of the annual athletic grant-in-aid program through the Buckeye Club, the One on One Endowed Scholarship program, and all capital fund-raising projects. His office raised over $25 million last year for the Department of Athletics.

Hof also is responsible for the marketing and promotional efforts of the Department including all scoreboard packages, corporate partnerships and sponsorships, individual sports day of game promotions, and the Buckeye Kids Club. He also oversees the Club Services Office responsible for the hospitality suite program in Ohio Stadium and the Jerome Schottenstein Center, and the ongoing preferred seating customer services in all sports venues.

After receiving his undergraduate and master's degrees from Bowling Green State University in 1980 and 1981, respectively, Hof began his career at the University of Kansas as Athletics Ticket Manager.

Hof moved to development in 1983 as the Vice President for Annual Giving at the Illinois State University Foundation.

In 1986, Hof moved to the University of Cincinnati's College of Law as Director of Development and Alumni Affairs. In that position, he implemented the college's first alumni and development program.

In 1991, Hof came to Ohio State as Director of Development in the College of Law. He served in that capacity until joining athletics in 1994.

Hof is a member of the National Association of Athletic Development Directors and the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education.

A native of Bowling Green, Ohio, Tom and his wife Gretchen have three sons, Sam, Andy and Brett.

DENNY HOOBLER

Dennis Hoobler has been a member of the Department of Athletics since April of 1985. He served as the department's first marketing director. In 1991, he became Director of the Buckeye Club, the annual fund raising department of the Athletic Department. In 1998 he was elevated to Director of Athletic Development. He was named Assistant Athletic Director in May of 2001.

Hoobler played an integral role in the recent success of the Athletic Department's portion of the University's Affirm Thy Friendship Campaign, which concluded in 2000. Over $90 million was raised in support of athletic projects, which included Bill Davis Baseball Stadium, The Jerome Schottenstein Center, The Jesse Owens Track Stadium, The Younkin Success, the renovation of Ohio Stadium and the One on One Endowed Scholarship program. Besides his major fund raising duties, he also oversees the operation of the Buckeye Club, the department's courtesy car program and is involved with other special projects such as the Buckeye Pro Am Golf Outing and coordinating special events for the athletic department through out the country.

Hoobler is a native of Dellroy, Ohio and a graduate of Carrollton High School. He received his undergraduate degree in Business Administration from Ohio State and went on to earn a master's in Sports Administration while working at an intern in the Department of Athletics. In 1983 he earned a Masters in Business Administration degree at Ohio State.

He began his athletic career in 1979 by serving as Associate Athletic Director at Furman University. In 1982 he returned to Ohio State as Director of Alumni Club activities for the Ohio State University Alumni Association. He remained there until joining the Athletic Department in 1985.

Denny and his wife, Nancy, have two children, Angie, a 1999 Ohio State graduate, and Andrew, a student at Ohio State.

HEATHER LYKE CATALANO

Heather Lyke Catalano joined The Ohio State University Department of Athletics in June of 1998 as the associate athletics director for compliance services.

Lyke Catalano's responsibilities include compliance education of staff, coaches and student-athletes, certification and eligibility. She also administers the athletic grant -in-aid program and is the departmental contact with the financial aid office and registrar's office. She is Ohio State's liaison to the Big Ten Conference and the NCAA national office.

Prior to Ohio State, she played a dual role for the University of Cincinnati for two years, serving as the assistant athletics director for compliance as well as the senior woman administrator.

Prior to her UC appointment, Lyke Catalano spent a year as an intern in the NCAA enforcement and eligibility division.

In 1995, Lyke Catalano attended the University of Akron School of Law where she earned a Juris Doctorate and was admitted to the Ohio Bar in 1995. She served as a law clerk in the prosecutors offices in Summit and Stark counties while working on her law degree.

A 1992 Michigan graduate, Lyke Catalano was an academic all-Big Ten honoree as a member of its softball team. She was team captain in 1991 and 1992. She is the school's all-time stolen base leader and earned four letters as a scholarship recipient playing for the Michigan softball team.

Lyke Catalano is a member of the American Bar Association, Sports Lawyer's Division as well as the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators and National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators.

She and her husband, David Catalano were married in 1998. The couple has one child, a daughter, Elle.

BILL MYLES

Bill Myles is beginning his 26th year at Ohio State. In his current capacity, he serves as associate director of athletics and oversees a total of eight men's and women's sports.

Myles came to Ohio State in 1977 as an assistant football coach under the late Woody Hayes. He also spent six years on Earle Bruce's staff and was widely regarded as one of the top offensive line coaches in college football.

Myles left coaching in 1985 to become associate athletics director. From 1985 until 1993, he was responsible for all of the men's sports programs. Between 1998 and 2001, he served as Director of Football Operations on John Cooper's staff.

During his coaching career, Myles coached in 13 bowl games, including the Rose, Sugar, Cotton, Orange and Fiesta bowls.

Myles is a native of Kansas City, Mo. and a 1962 graduate of Drake University. He is the recipient of Drake's prestigious "Double D" and Distinguished Service awards, two of the highest honors presented by his alma mater.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Myles coached at Nebraska. He also spent 10 very successful years as a high school coach, compiling a combined record of 45-20-3.

Bill and his wife, Lorita, have two children: Billy and Debbie.

DON PATKO

Don Patko is in his first year as Assistant Athletics Director for facilities. In that capacity, he oversees the daily operation of Ohio Stadium, Bill Davis Stadium, the Woody Hayes Athletics Center, the Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium and Buckeye Field. He is responsible for all aspects of building and ground maintenance for those venues.

Patko, a native of Dayton, Ohio, is a 1992 graduate of The Ohio State University with a B.S. in education. He played soccer at Ohio State, earning three letters as a defensive player for the Buckeyes.

After graduation, Patko worked briefly with the Marriott Corporation, supervising concession sales, organizing catering events and scheduling upcoming events.

In April of 1992, he joined the staff of the Ohio Glory as director of merchandising and novelty booth sales.

Patko returned to his alma mater in April of 1993 as manager of Ohio Stadium. In that role, he assisted in the day-to-day operation of the stadium, including budget issues and general maintenance. He also supervised outside contractors.

Patko was extensively involved in the renovation of Ohio Stadium and the building of the Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, overseeing a myriad of duties associated with those two projects.

Patko was promoted to Superintendent of Facilities in September of 1999 a position he held until being named to his present position in March of 2002, when he succeeded long-time stadium superintendent Mike Dolan.

DR. KATE RIFFEE

Dr. Kate Riffee has been affiliated with the department of athletics since 1980, serving as an athletic counselor, life skills coordinator, and, since 1994, assistant athletics director for student-athlete support services. She was promoted to associate athletics director in 2002. A native of Springville, N.Y., Riffee received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Ithaca College in 1980. gree in sports management from OSU in 1981, and a Ph.D. from Ohio State's counselor education program in 1990.

Riffee directs Ohio State's CHAMPS Program, which services 35 varsity sports. She serves on several OSU committees and task forces, including the Student Affairs Leadership Team, University Career Services Committee, the university's "Get Real Ohio State" Alcohol Coalition, and the Committee on Academic Excellence for Women. Nationally, Riffee is equally involved, serving on the NCAA's Life Skills Advisory Committee, as well as the Division I-A Athletics Director Association's CHAMPS Life Skills Advisory Team.

Riffee and Ohio State's CHAMPS Program have received national recognition. In June of 1997, Riffee was honored with the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics prestigious "Lan Hewlett Award," presented for outstanding academic advising. In December of 1997, Ohio State's CHAMPS Program earned an inaugural Division I-A Athletic Directors Association "Program of Excellence" award, recognizing Ohio State's commitment to the development of each student-athlete in the areas of academics, athletics, personal, career, and community service. She is also a recent inductee into her High School Hall of Fame.

Riffee and her husband, Mike, a middle school teacher and coach, have two children, daughter Megan and son Patrick.

RICHELLE SIMONSON

Richelle Simonson was promoted to associate athletics director in March of 2000. She had been an assistant athletics director for Ticketing and Event Management.

Simonson's duties are multi-faceted. She manages athletics event management, ticketing for athletic and all special events held at Ohio State, merchandising, and the Marriott concessions contract. Additionally, Simonson coordinates all Big Ten and NCAA Championships hosted by The Ohio State University.

She joined the OSU staff in 1991 as Ticket Director. Under her guidance, the ticketing system has received multiple technological enhancements. She has successfully integrated the concert and special event ticketing for the Jerome Schottenstein Center into the culture of Athletic Event Ticketing. In an effort to keep OSU at the forefront of technology in the ticketing industry, OSU began selling tickets via the internet in the spring of 1999. This program has been expanded to provide greater access to hockey, women's basketball, football, and various other events. In March 2000, Ohio State became the first intercollegiate program to go online for football season ticket renewals (over $1 million was generated in the first month of internet sales). In addition to overseeing all of ticket operations, Simonson is responsible for game management, including crowd control and game day timing of football and mens and women's basketball. Athletics merchandising and concessions contracts also are in her administrative areas.

Simonson is from southern Minnesota. She graduated with a bachelor's in Business Administration from Minnesota State University in 1988 and received her master's from Ohio State in 1990. In 1990, Simonson was named assistant ticket director at the University of Michigan. Simonson spent one year in Michigan before returning to the Buckeyes in 1991.

STEVE SNAPP

Steve Snapp is in his 29th year as a member of the Ohio State Department of Athletics.

As assistant athletics director for communications, Snapp is responsible for all aspects of public relations for athletics and serves as the departmental spokesperson on matters of public interest.

Additionally, Snapp oversees the Athletics Communications Office and the Publications and Video Departments, including scoreboard operations. Other areas of responsibility include radio and television contracts, community relations and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. He also serves as departmental liaison with the Men's Varsity "O" Association and coordinates all press functions, including operation of the football press box on game days. He is the chair of the department's public affairs task force.

Snapp graduated from Ohio State in June of 1973 with a B.A. in journalism and joined the Department of Athletics a little less than a month later as assistant sports information director. He was promoted to associate sports information director in 1978, a position he held until 1988, when he succeeded Marv Homan as sports information director.

In 1998, Snapp was named director of external programs. He resumed his duties as director of athletics communication in March of 2000 and was named assistant athletics director the following fall.

Several of Snapp's publications have won national awards. His historical feature on the 1968 Ohio State football team, which appeared in the 1994 football media guide, was judged "Best In The Nation" by a panel of his peers. He was awarded an Honorary Varsity "O" in 2001.

Snapp, a native of Sidney, Ohio, is a Marine Corps and Vietnam veteran. He and his wife, Elaine, have six children – Gregg, Julie, Jeff, Evann, Austin and Ashley.

MIECHELLE WILLIS

Miechelle Willis is in her eighth year at The Ohio State University. Named associate athletics director Sept. 8, 1994, she oversees 14 varsity sports, including men's and women's basketball. She also serves as Ohio State's senior woman administrator to the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference.

Prior to joining the staff at Ohio State, Willis spent seven years at Temple University in Philadelphia. At Temple, she was the primary administrator for 11 women's varsity sports and was responsible for compliance, drug and alcohol education and student-athlete services.

Her professional experience also includes stints at Montclair State College (1978-87) as the women's track and cross country coach and she also served as a member of the 69AES United States Air Force Reserves as an aeromedical evacuation technician (1983-89).

As a student-athlete, Willis was a standout pentathlete at Grambling State University, where she graduated cum laude in 1976 with a degree in health and physical education. Willis earned her master's degree in sports administration from her alma mater in 1978 and had been pursuing her doctorate at Temple prior to her departure.

Willis serves on numerous national, conference and campus committees, including the University Recreational Sports and Comprehensive Compliance committees, the University Recreational Sports Committee, and the Big Ten Conference Committee on Academics, Compliance and Eligibility. In addition, she lends her expertise to the NCAA Division I Basketball Issues Committee Subcommittee on Women's Issues. She just completed a four year term on the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and the Certified Events Subcommittee of that cabinet.

As a member institution of the Big Ten and the NCAA, The Ohio State University, and all other member schools, are subject to certain rules and guidelines set forth by those governing bodies. In an effort to better educate and inform prospective student-athletes and recuits in the area of recruiting, the Athletic Compliance Office at Ohio State has provided the following information:

1. You become a "prospective student-athlete" when you start classes for the ninth grade or if the college provides you (or your relatives or friends) any financial aid or other benefits that the college does not provide to prospective students generally.

2. You become a "recruited prospective student-athlete" at a particular college if any coach or booster solicits you or your family for the purpose of securing your enrollment and participation in intercollegiate athletics. Activities by coaches or boosters that cause you to become a recruited prospective student athlete are; (1) providing you with an official visit; (2) arranging an in-person, off-campus encounter with you or your parent(s) or legal guardian; or (3) initiating or arranging a telephone contact with you, your family or guardian for the purpose of recruitment on more than one occasion. NOTE: In Division I a representative of athletic interests (booster or alumni) may not solicit your enrollment in any manner (e.g., no phone calls, letters or in-person contacts).

3. You (or your family) may not receive any benefit, inducement or arrangement such as cash, clothing, cars, improper expenses, transportation, gifts or loans to encourage you to sign a National Letter of intent or to attend an NCAA school.

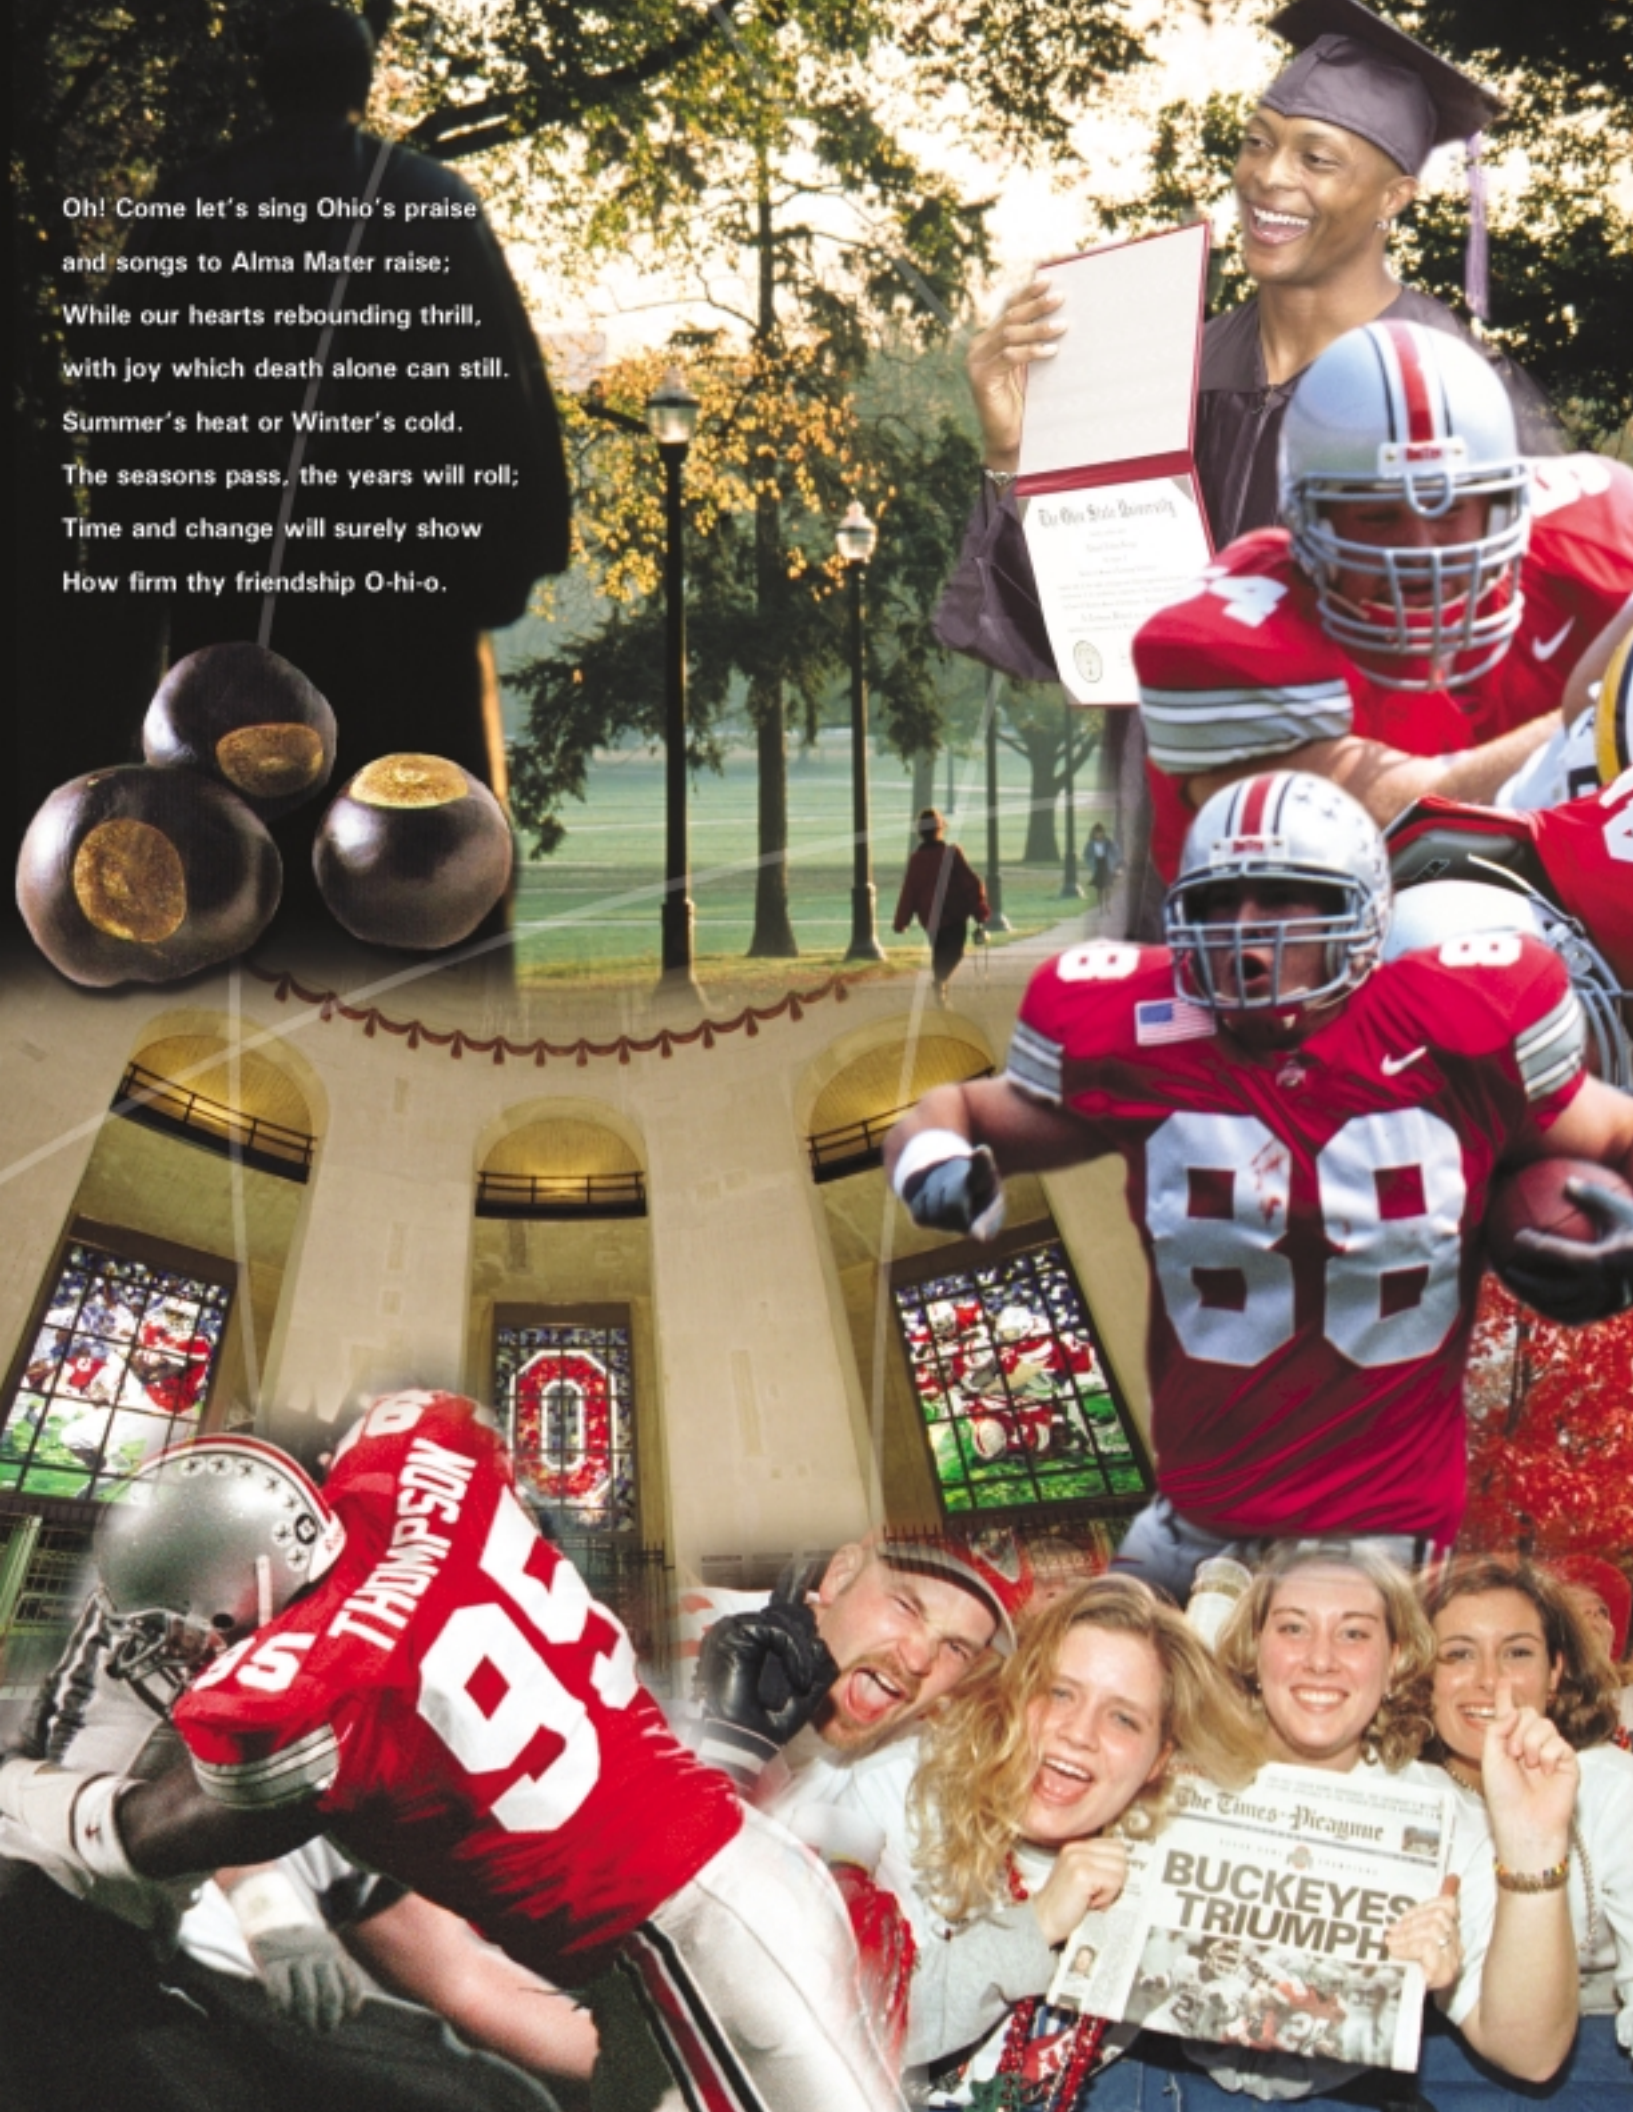

4. Letters from coaches and faculty members (but not boosters) are not permitted until September 1st at the beginning of your junior year in high school. A Division I university may provide you with the following printed materials; (1) general correspondence, including letters, US Postal Service postcards and institutional note cards; (2) game programs which may not include posters and can be provided only during official or unofficial visits to the university's campus; (3) NCAA educational information; (4) One athletic publication (media guide or recruiting brochure) which may include only one color of printing inside the covers; (5) official academic, admissions and student services publications published or videotapes produced by the institution and available to all students; (6) pre-enrollment information subsequent to signing a National Letter of Intent with the university; (7) questionnaires which may be provided prior to your junior year; and (8) summer camp brochures which may be provided prior to your junior year.

5. Phone calls from faculty members and coaches (but not boosters) are not permitted until on or after July 1st after completion of your junior year. After July 1st following your junior year, a college coach or faculty member is limited to one telephone call per week to you (or your parents or legal guardians) except that unlimited calls to you (or your parents or legal guardians) may be made under the following circumstances: (1) during the five days immediately before your official visit by the university you will be visiting; (2) on the day of a coach's off-campus contact with you (3) during the time beginning with the initial National Letter of Intent signing date in your sport through the two days after the signing date. Coaches also may accept collect calls, and universities are permitted to utilize a toll-free (1-800) number to receive telephone calls from you or your parents or legal guardians on or after July 1st after completion of your junior year.

6. A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent(s) or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange or greeting. NOTE: At the Division I level, athletic representatives (boosters) may not contact you for the purpose of recruiting. A college coach may contact you in-person off the college campus only on or after July 1st after completion of your junior year in high school.

7. An evaluation is any off-campus activity designed to assess your academic qualifications or athletic ability (including any visit to your high school during which no contact occurs) or watching you practice or compete at any site. In all sports, the coaches are limited to seven recruiting opportunities (contacts and evaluations) during the academic year, and not more than three of the seven opportunities may be in-person, off-campus contacts.

8. It is not permissible for an athletic representative to provide transportation to or from campus or free admission to an athletic event on or off campus to you, your parents or your friends. Please contact the athletic compliance office to discuss any travel situations in which you or your family are not providing your own transportation to insure that it is permissible.

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise
and songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
with joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold.
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship O-hi-o.
