NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

1945 NCAA CHAMPIONS

The Ohio State team, led by legendary coach Robert Kepler, finished the 1945 season with a stellar 18-1 record. The team captured its second Big Ten Championship, aided by John Lorms and Howard Baker who shared the Big Ten Individual title.

The 1945 NCAA Championship was played on home soil for the Buckeyes at The Ohio State University Golf Club, Scarlet course. Ohio State dominated the field en route to its first national title, winning by 19 strokes over second-place Northwestern and Michigan, with a team score of 602.

The Scarlet and Gray also earned their first individual title as Dr. John Lorms, a recently graduated dental student from Ohio State's College of Dentistry, defeated the field to win the NCAA Championship. Alongside Lorms; Howard Saunders, Robert Kampfer, Daniel Rocker, Curtis Kerns, and Richard Barr made up the championship team.

1979 NCAA CHAMPIONS

The Buckeyes completed the 1979 campaign with a flourish, taking home eight tournament and five individual victories under the direction of head coach Jim Brown.

Ohio State won five of its final six regular season tournaments heading into the Big Ten Championships in Champaign, Illinois. The team captured its fourth consecutive Big Ten title by an eight-stroke margin behind John Cook and Rick Borg who tied for the top individual spot.

The Bermuda Run Country Club in Winston-Salem, North Carolina played host to Ohio State and 14 other schools for the 1979 NCAA Championship. The tournament went down to the wire with the Buckeyes edging Oklahoma State by two shots to claim its second NCAA Championship.

Joey Sindelar was the high finisher for the team, finishing in a tie for fifth after shooting a 72-hole score of 297. John Cook finished tied for 13th (300), Rocky Miller and Rick Borg shared 28th (303), and Mark Balen rounded out the squad tied for 48th (307).

NCAA INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONS

JOHN LORMS
1945 NCAA CHAMPION

Dr. John Lorms, a recently graduated dental student from Ohio State's College of Dentistry, captured the 1945 NCAA Championship, defeating Michigan's John Jenswold 3 and 2 in the championship match on the Ohio State University Golf Club, Scarlet course. Dr. Lorms, led Ohio State to its first team and individual NCAA Championships, after taking the Big Ten Championships individual crown his last time out.

Dr. Lorms was the son of the highly regarded Charley Lorms, the club pro at Columbus Country Club for more than 25 years at that point, and made many proud by winning the NCAA Championship on home soil.

TOM NIEPORTE
1951 NCAA CHAMPION

Tom Nieporte, a Cincinnati native, made history at the 1951 NCAA Championships, competing against teammate Don Johnson in the first one school finals match in the 45 year history of the NCAA. Nieporte edged his teammate on their home track, The Ohio State University Golf Club Scarlet course, to claim the second NCAA Championship in school history.

Nieporte and the Buckeyes captured their third Big Ten Championships earlier in 1951 in Evanston, Illinois. Ohio State battled North Texas in the NCAA Championships, eventually falling by just one stroke as Nieporte won the individual title.

RICK JONES
1956 NCAA CHAMPION

Rick Jones was as highly touted as an amateur could be going into college as he was the Ohio High School Champion from 1950-52 and qualified for the 1953 U.S. Open. In 1956, Jones became the third Buckeye to win the NCAA Championship in school history after defeating Rex Baxter Jr. from Houston at the Ohio State University Golf Club, Scarlet course.

Jones' victory came hot on the heels of a 6th place finish at the Big Ten Championships where the Buckeyes placed third. The third NCAA individual victory, coupled with the 1945 team title vaulted coach Robert Kepler and Ohio State into even higher esteem.

JACK NICKLAUS

Jack Nicklaus went into the 1961 NCAA Championships as the favorite, being widely recognized as better than all but a few of the top professionals at the time.

Nicklaus arrived at the Purdue University golf course and quickly set to work, receiving medalist honors after completing the 36-hole qualifying with a three-under par 140. He then ran through his subsequent matches until the semifinals where he downed Michigan State's Gene Hunt 2 and 1 in a tough contest. Nicklaus then went on to face teammate Mike Podolski, only the second time teammates had met in the final, and soundly defeated him 5 and 3 to win the NCAA Championship to give Ohio State its fourth individual champion.

CLARK BURROUGHS
1985 NCAA CHAMPION

Clark Burroughs turned in an outstanding 1985 senior campaign, winning eight tournaments that earned him First-Team All-American honors, his fourth career All-America honors.

Burroughs shot an impressive four-under 280 to lead Ohio State to its 15th Big Ten Championship and claim the individual crown for himself. He carried that momentum into the NCAA Championships hosted at the Grenelefe Resort, East course where he carded a three-under 285 to tie for the top spot. He steeled himself and downed Sam Randolph of Southern California on the first hole of the playoff to win the NCAA Championship, the fifth for the Buckeyes.

* event shortened to two rounds | ! - event played at Columbus CC

Ohio State has hosted the Robert Kepler Intercollegiate every year but four since the 1969 season. The event was not held in 2020 and 2013, it was cancelled because of weather in 2005 and was not held in 1997 because the Scarlet Course played host to the Big Ten Championship that spring.

The tournament is played on the challenging par 71, 7,455-yard Scarlet Course at The OSU Golf Club, voted the top collegiate golf course in November 2009 by GolfChannel.com.

In 2007, the Robert Kepler Intercollegiate returned to the Scarlet Course after breaking from it the year before while the course was being redesigned under the tutelage of golf legend Jack Nicklaus.

The tournament is named for the late Robert Kepler, who served as Ohio State's golf coach from 1938 until 1965.

Under Kepler, Ohio State built a golfing tradition which was enhanced by an NCAA team championship in 1945 and four NCAA individual championships. One of the later winners was Jack Nicklaus, now universally recognized as the greatest golfer the game has ever known.

Since its inception, the Kepler has been won by only a dozen schools – Colorado, Eastern Michigan, Georgia Tech, Indiana, Illinois, Kent State, Louisville, Miami (Ohio), Northwestern, Ohio State, UNLV and Xavier.

The Buckeyes have hoisted the tournament championship trophy 25 times in the 51-year history of The Robert Kepler Intercollegiate, including six-consecutive victories from 1974-79 and nine-consecutive from 1981-1989. In-state rival Kent State ranks second with five team victories while fellow Big Ten schools, Illinois, Indiana and Northwestern, are tied for third-place with four team crowns each.

Ohio State has also taken individual medalist honors 23 times, with Maxwell Moldovan winning most recently in 2022.
