THE BIGGEST JUMP

There is an old adage in sports that many players make their greatest strides from their first year to their second year. What happens when most of a team's starters on both sides of the ball fit into that description? Mike Gundy and Oklahoma State will find out in 2015.

When Oklahoma State fielded the least experienced team in the nation last year, the growing pains were inevitable. But the way the Cowboys finished the season with wins over Oklahoma and Washington - and more importantly, how they did it - has created substantial buzz around the program going into 2015. Coach Mike Gundy welcomes back 11 offensive starters and eight defensive starters and his roster includes 19 returning lettermen on offense and 22 on defense. Entering the fall, only one position group (running back) comes with question marks.

A glance at the roster reveals that the dominant trait of the 2015 Cowboys very well may be depth. In Mason Rudolph and J.W. Walsh, quarterback is in good hands. OSU returns nine of its 10 leading receivers from a year ago and returns four of the five offensive linemen who were most responsible for a remarkable late-season improvement from that group. On defense, the Cowboys are in very good shape on the defensive line (especially at defensive end), return two starters at linebacker, four players with significant starting experience at cornerback plus both starting safeties.

While overall depth appears to be a strong suit, nowhere is this more evident than at wide receiver and defensive end. At receiver, Brandon Sheperd finished 2014 playing like a bona fide star and James Washington is one of the most electric young playmakers in the Big 12. They're joined by a productive slot receiver in David Glidden and a host of other potential playmakers in Marcell Ateman, Jhajuan Seales, Chris Lacy and Austin Hays. At defensive end, Emmanuel Ogbah is back after earning Big 12 defensive lineman of the year honors a year ago, as is his rock-solid running mate, Jimmy Bean. Those two are supported by Trace Clark and a slew of up-and-comers who all appear ready to make a difference sooner rather than later in their respective careers.

Gundy welcomed four new coaches into the fold during the offseason, bringing in Greg Adkins from the Buffalo Bills to coach offensive line, Marcus Arroyo from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to coach running backs, former FCS National Assistant Coach of the Year Jason McEndoo from Montana State to coach tight ends and Dan Hammerschmidt from Houston to coach safeties. Tim Duffie moved from coaching safeties the past two years to now coaching cornerbacks.

The schedule shakes out such that the Cowboys welcome Baylor, TCU, Oklahoma, Kansas State and Kansas to Boone Pickens Stadium and go on the road to face Texas, Texas Tech, West Virginia and Iowa State.

OFFENSE

OFFENSIVE LINE

Perhaps the most reliable constant of the Mike Gundy era at Oklahoma State has been solid play from the offensive line. However, for the first time since 2006, that wasn't the case last season as the group struggled for the majority of the year before eventually finding its footing in the last three games. A closer look at that improvement:

Yards Per Play (Weeks 5-10):	4.4	Rushing Touchdowns (Weeks 5-10):	4
Yards Per Play (Weeks 11-13):	6.1	Rushing Touchdowns (Weeks 11-13):	5
Points Per Play (Weeks 5-10):	0.25	First Downs Per Game (Weeks 5-10):	16.5
Points Per Play (Weeks 11-13):	0.47	First Downs Per Game (Weeks 11-13):	19
Points Per Game (Weeks 5-10):	17.3	Total Offense Per Game (Weeks 5-10):	303.5
Points Per Game (Weeks 11-13):	32.0	Total Offense Per Game (Weeks 11-13):	418.3
Yards Per Pass Attempt (Weeks 5-10):	5.9
Yards Per Pass Attempt (Weeks 11-13):	10.1

So what does that mean for 2015, when well-respected first-year offensive line coach Greg Adkins inherits a group that includes four of the five starters from the final two games of last year? That remains to be seen, but there is reason for optimism that the group that turned things around for the Cowboy front essentially remains intact and has been bolstered by some notable additions.

Defining one clear standout among the group may be a challenge, but tackle Zachary Crabtree is a good place to start. Only a sophomore filling out a 6-foot-7, 305-pound frame that is ideal for his position, Crabtree was an opening day starter at right tackle a year ago and went on to start the next four games as well before sustaining an injury against Iowa State that kept him out of the starting lineup for the next five games. He returned to the starting lineup for the final three contests. In the eight games that Crabtree started, Oklahoma State averaged 36.5 points and 438.0 yards of total offense per game. In the five games that he did not, the Cowboys averaged 13.4 points per game and 284.2 yards of total offense per game.

The injury sustained by Crabtree last season opened the door for Michael Wilson to step into the starting lineup at right tackle and by the time the season ended, Wilson had started at four of the five positions on the offensive line, with the lone exception being center. Wilson settled in as the starter at left tackle for the final two games of last season, but is now a logical candidate to be utilized at left guard with the arrival of junior Victor Salako.

Salako transferred to Oklahoma State from UAB last December after the school elected to disband its football program, and at 6-foot-6 and 330 pounds with two years of experience as a full-time starter at the FBS level, he is a strong candidate to earn a spot in the starting rotation for the Cowboys.

Now a junior, Paul Lewis started 12 games at center last year, but as the season progressed, he found himself sharing first-team reps, both in practice and in the games, with freshman walk-on Brad Lundblade. In fact, Lundblade actually earned a starting nod at Baylor in week 11. Both are back and both are candidates for heavy playing time again this year.

One of the most intriguing prospects on the Cowboy offensive line is sophomore Jesse Robinson. At 6-foot-6 and 310 pounds, he is remarkably athletic and agile on his feet. Robinson redshirted in 2013 and was a second-teamer for the first 10 games of last season until an injury to Daniel Koenig thrust him into the first-team group at Baylor. He started from that point on and as was noted above, the Cowboy offense took off in those final three games with Robinson part of the group's resurgence. If he continues in his development, he could become a viable option for some time.

While nobody from the group of Brandon Pertile (6-foot-5, 310 pounds), Lemaefe Galea'i (6-foot-5, 325 pounds) or Matthew Mucha (6-foot-6, 285 pounds) saw the field for Oklahoma State last year, all three are candidates for playing time this year. Pertile transferred to OSU from Mesa CC, where he was regarded as one of the better guards in the junior college ranks last season, while Galea'i and Mucha both redshirted with the Cowboys. Both Galea'i and Mucha logged a good number of second-team reps on the practice field during the fall and and were realistic candidates to see live game action if the situation dictated it necessary to pull their redshirts.

THE BOTTOM LINE

The offensive line lost a pair of starters from last year in Daniel Koenig and Chris Grisbhy, but has what it needs to be better up front. Given that the central figures involved in the late-season resurgence by last year's group are back, there is tangible, statistical reason for optimism. Don't underestimate the potential impact that first-year coach Greg Adkins may have on this group as well. Adkins has more than enough high-level experience to make a significant difference.

COACHING MOVES

Mike Gundy welcomes four new position coaches and two analysts into the program. A short look at each:

Greg Adkins
Offensive Line Coach

► Came to OSU from the Buffalo Bills, where he coached tight ends for two years. Previous college coaching stops include Georgia (offensive line and tight ends), Tennessee (offensive line, tight ends and recruiting coordinator) and Syracuse (offensive line and recruiting coordinator)

Marcus Arroyo
Running Backs Coach

► Came to OSU from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he coached quarterbacks and served as the play caller last season. Was the offensive coordinator at Southern Miss for former OSU assistant Todd Monken in 2013 before moving on to the NFL. Coached quarterbacks at California, Wyoming and San Jose State.

Dan Hammerschmidt
Safeties Coach

► 29-year coaching veteran who has experience coaching on both sides of the ball. Was an offensive assistant for the Houston Texans from 2012-13 and coached running backs at the University of Houston last season. Other full-time coaching stops came at Duke, Colorado State, Rice, Wyoming and VMI.

Jason McEndoo
Tight Ends Coach

► Came to OSU just three seasons removed from being named FCS National Assistant Coach of the Year while at Montana State, where he spent 12 seasons.

Bill Clay
Defensive Analyst

► Has spent nearly a half-century coaching football. During his distinguished career, he held the defensive coordinator title at Southern Mississippi, SMU, Temple, Mississippi State, UTEP, UAB and Oklahoma State. Additionally, he served as an assistant at Virginia, Virginia Tech, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Louisiana Tech, Texas A&M, Samford and Blinn College.

Darrell Wyatt
Offensive Analyst

► Has served as offensive coordinator at Kansas and Southern Mississippi and co-offensive coordinator at Kansas and Texas during his 25-year coaching career. In addition to his coordinator stops, Wyatt has been an assistant at Sam Houston State, Wyoming, Baylor, Kansas, Oklahoma State, Oklahoma, the Minnesota Vikings and Arizona.

QUARTERBACK

If improved play from the big men up front wasn't the primary key in Oklahoma State's offensive improvement in the final three games of 2014, then the insertion of Mason Rudolph at quarterback was. Head coach Mike Gundy was forced to pull Rudolph's redshirt leading up to the Cowboys' week-11 battle with Baylor in Waco and from that point on, Oklahoma State's offense started to look like what observers have come to expect during the Gundy era. Rudolph played Baylor's celebrated senior quarterback Bryce Petty to a standstill, then quarterbacked the Cowboys to a Bedlam win over Oklahoma in Norman when nothing short of an upset victory over the Sooners would get the Pokes into a bowl game. Then he went on to lead OSU to victory over Washington in the Cactus Bowl.

His 154.01 efficiency rating was by far the best among Oklahoma State quarterbacks last season, and according to ESPN, he turned in an 85.1 QBR in leading the Cowboys to victory over the Huskies in the bowl game. Perhaps even more remarkable is the fact that he did that damage against a Washington defense that finished the season ranked second in the nation in quarterback sacks and featured three first-round draft picks and four players drafted in the first two rounds. Baylor (17th nationally in quarterback sacks) was also one of the better teams in the country at harassing opposing quarterbacks.

So what does that mean for 2015? It means that for the first time since Brandon Weeden was under center for the Cowboys, Mike Gundy has a clear-cut starter at quarterback going into the fall.

But that doesn't mean Rudolph is the only weapon in Gundy's quarterback arsenal, because senior J.W. Walsh also returns after missing most of last season to injury.

At the risk of perhaps oversimplifying things, Walsh's injury had a devastating impact on the Cowboys' offense last year. The areas where Walsh is at his best - running, extending plays and improvising - were a perfect mask to the areas where Oklahoma State's offensive line had its worst struggles. There was no clearer evidence of that than in the season-opener against Florida State. The reigning national champion-Seminoles returned nearly every significant playmaker on defense from their 2013 title team that finished the previous season as the nation's top team in scoring defense and pass defense. Yet the Noles' vaunted pass rush was slowed down dramatically and kept at bay out of respect for Walsh's ability to make plays with his feet. When Walsh was lost for the season in week two, the offensive line began to be exposed for its inability to protect a pure pocket passer in Daxx Garman or generate a straight-ahead running game, thus sending the Cowboy offense on its road to struggles.

All that said, Walsh is back for his senior year and there is perhaps no player on the roster more respected than he in the locker room. With career stats that include a .622 completion percentage, 3,130 passing yards, 23 passing touchdowns, 5.5 yards per rush and 12 rushing touchdowns, Walsh is no charity case or locker room figurehead - he is a proven weapon that is not to be dismissed when discussing the Cowboy offense.

Among those joining Rudolph and Walsh at quarterback are redshirt freshman walk-on Taylor Cornelius and true freshman John Kolar. A native of Norman, Okla., Kolar enrolled in January and partcipated in spring practice.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Quarterback figures to be an area of strength for Oklahoma State in 2015. Mason Rudolph created significant buzz with his work to cap the 2014 season and has earned the right to be tabbed as the starter. Should something happen there, however, the Pokes are in the capable hands of a proven playmaker in senior J.W. Walsh.

RUNNING BACK

Perhaps no position group at Oklahoma State offers more question marks than running back, where junior Rennie Childs is the only player who has carried any kind of workload at tailback, but even still, this is the first time in his career that he has been positioned higher than third on the depth chart. In 2013, he was behind Jeremy Smith and Desmond Roland and last year, he was behind Roland and Tyreek Hill, so this is his first real look at being a featured back.

In a reserve role, Childs has averaged 4.1 yards per carry and has scored four rushing touchdowns in his career. For what it's worth, he carried 11 times for 83 yards and a touchdown in the 2015 spring game.

Though he did not participate in spring practice, junior college transfer Chris Carson is a viable starting candidate. A native of Lilburn, Ga., who originally committed to play at Georgia before switching to Oklahoma State, Carson was ranked as the No. 4 junior college running back in the nation by 247sports.com and has been praised as a complete back who can carry the ball effectively and block well and has good speed, power, change of direction and pass-catching ability.

Based on his work during spring ball, junior college transfer Todd Mays is also well-positioned to see meaningful reps during the fall. Mays played quarterback, receiver and running back at East Mississippi CC and starred for a team that posted two consecutive 12-0 seasons and back-to-back NJCAA football national championships.

Others to watch include redshirt freshman Sione Palelei, who showed flashes on the practice field during fall camp last year before sustaining an injury that ended his season; junior Raymond Taylor, who saw limited action a year ago; and true freshman Jeff Carr, whose speed, elusiveness and change of direction make him a potential big-play threat.

While questions abound at tailback, at fullback, the Cowboys are in the capable hands of senior Jeremy Seaton, who to this point of his career has split action between fullback and tight end. Though he has never rushed the ball as a Cowboy, Seaton has become an effective weapon in the passing game, logging 13 receptions for 162 yards in 2014.

THE BOTTOM LINE

The story is yet to be written for Oklahoma State's running backs. Rennie Childs is the closest thing to a known commodity. Junior college transfers Chris Carson and Todd Mays will have a say in what happens here, but keep an eye on true freshman Jeff Carr, as well.

WIDE RECEIVER

If running back is the position group with the most question marks, then wide receiver may be the one with the least. Oklahoma State returns a strong pack of wideouts, some of whom have already proven themselves as playmakers on Saturdays. Wide receiver would appear to be one of OSU's greatest positions of strength entering 2015.

Back for the Cowboys are nine of the team's top 10 receivers from a year ago, highlighted by seniors David Glidden and Brandon Sheperd and sophomore James Washington.

Glidden led the team with 42 receptions a year ago and was OSU's most reliable target throughout the season. A quick twitch-style of player who has a fluent understanding of the offense, Glidden was recognized as the team's offensive MVP in 2014.

Sheperd led the team with 737 receiving yards last season, but while that season total may not look remarkable, it should be noted that when the Cowboys were at their best at the end of the season, Sheperd was the receiver doing the most damage. In OSU's Bedlam win at Oklahoma, Sheperd made seven receptions for 156 yards and had two touchdowns, including a critical 43-yard score in which he fought off double-coverage to make a catch, shoved one Sooner to the ground and spun off a second to march into the end zone with 4:51 left to breathe life into the Cowboys, who went on to win the game. He followed that up with a five-catch, 98-yard performance in the Cactus Bowl win over Washington in which he connected with Rudolph for another long score. Put simply, Sheperd looked every bit the part of a star receiver in OSU's last two games and rides a significant amount positive momentum into 2015.

Though still on the front end of his career, James Washington provided ample reason for optimism as a true freshman in 2014 with 28 catches for 456 yards and a team-best six touchdown receptions. His six touchdown grabs ranked him fourth nationally among true freshmen. He did the bulk of his damage in the vertical passing game and is a good complement to Sheperd in that both have already proven their ability to make big plays on the outside. Washington turned in the most productive receiving day for a Cowboy freshman since Dez Bryant when he made four catches for 114 yards and a touchdown against a Baylor squad that entered the game ranked 14th nationally in total defense. Highlighted by a 68-yard touchdown reception, Washington's 114 receiving yards against the Bears that night were the third-most ever for an OSU freshman, trailing only Bryant's 155 yards vs. Kansas and 117 yards vs. Indiana in 2007. He joined Bryant, Marcellus Rivers and Hart Lee Dykes as the only freshmen in OSU history to post a 100-yard receiving day. Long story short - Washington can play and will likely be an important part of the Cowboy passing attack in 2015.

While Glidden, Sheperd and Washington have already earned the right to be called dangerous playmakers, OSU has a stable of other receivers who could reasonably be expected to join them in 2015, starting with juniors Marcell Ateman, Jhajuan Seales and Austin Hays.

At 6-foot-4 and 210 pounds with the ability to jump, Ateman has some of the raw tools needed to be a serious problem for opposing defenses on the perimeter and in the red zone, but he hasn't yet had the kind of impact that he is capable of. Now an upperclassman, Ateman is developing in his understanding of how defenses work and some of the tricks of the trade to help himself get open. With continued development in those two areas, it's not a stretch to think he can significantly improve upon his totals of 20 catches and 268 yards from last year. That said, one area where he has demonstrated the ability to be a difference-maker in games is his ability to block down the field.

Seales went into last year as the team's leading returning receiver and shouldered some of the load of expectations that came with that. But in retrospect, perhaps it was premature to heap that kind of weight on him. Seales' productivity was okay in 2014 (18 catches for 278 yards and three touchdowns), but similar to Ateman, it isn't a reach to think that he could do much more in 2015. As a freshman in 2013, Seales hauled in 39 receptions for 571 yards and three touchdowns, so he has already shown the ability to make plays. A strong offseason could thrust Seales into more of a leadership role this fall.

Injuries made it so Hays never really got a fair chance to show what he can do in 2014. He played in 10 games and finished with nine receptions for 57 yards, but those numbers don't do justice to the kind of impact that he can have when healthy. Consider that as a true freshman in 2012, Hays made 29 receptions for 394 yards and two touchdowns. He lost almost all of 2013 to injury and was a shadow of himself in 2014. If he can stay healthy, Hays can make a significant difference for the Cowboy receiving corps, not just on the stat sheet, but also because of his ability to block and because of the fact that he can factor prominently into the depth of the position group with his ability to play all of the receiver positions within the framework of OSU's offense.

A player who did not receive much attention last season but who should not be dismissed heading into 2015 is Chris Lacy. Lacy is remarkably smart and has some of the tools needed to be an impact player. Others who will get some practice reps and have a reasonable chance to warrant some playing time in games include redshirt freshman Keenen Brown, junior C.J. Curry, redshirt freshman Cole Neph, senior Kameron Doolittle and freshman Jalen McClesky.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Oklahoma State has plenty of good options at wide receiver and does not want for much in this area. The Cowboys have proven playmakers on the outside and in the slot. As the offensive line and quarterback play improved late last year, the talent of the receivers - most notably Brandon Sheperd - came to the fore. It's reasonable to expect increased production from this group in 2015.

TIGHT END

Over the span of the past couple recruiting cycles, Mike Gundy has quietly stockpiled the Oklahoma State roster with players who can make a difference at the tight end position. OSU's offense, previously known for outside threats such as All-Americans and Biletnikoff Award-winners like Dez Bryant and Justin Blackmon, began to show its flexibility in 2014 by regularly incorporating Blake Jarwin and Jeremy Seaton as regular contributors from the tight end position. Those two return in 2015 and are bolstered by the addition of tight end-turned-offensive-lineman-back-to-tight-end Zac Veatch and redshirt freshman Jordan Frazier.

Based purely on their contributions last season, the most likely scenario at this position is that Jarwin and Seaton get the bulk of the reps, with Veatch used primarily as a blocker.

At 6-foot-5, 242 pounds and very athletic with good hands and light feet, Jarwin may just be scratching the surface of what he is capable of. He made five receptions for 107 yards with a touchdown last season. His 21.4 yards-per-reception figure stands out as reason to believe that he is capable of being a damaging figure to opposing defenses.

As for Seaton, his role in the passing game took off as last year progressed. Of his 13 receptions in 2014, nine came in the final four weeks of the season. Seaton has split time between tight end and fullback and is a candidate to do it again in 2015.

Veatch at tight end is intriguing. He played tight end in high school, but was converted to offensive line as a freshman in 2013, where he eventually ascended into the starting lineup for 10 games in 2014. He was moved back to tight end for the final two games of last season, where he remains going into 2015. What makes him interesting is the fact that he is a natural tight end, but now has the added mentality and tactics of an offensive lineman. He is much different stylistically than Jarwin or Seaton, but could be a good complement, given his diverse skill set.

Entering into the mix this year is Jordan Frazier, who redshirted as a true freshman in 2014 but is a candidate to see some action this year and into the future.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Tight end is a position where Mike Gundy's philosophy has morphed to suit his personnel over the years. Brandon Pettigrew was an All-American for the Cowboys in this very spot in 2007 and 2008 and went on to be a first-round pick in the NFL Draft. When he left, OSU all but abandoned the tight end spot and went to an Air Raid-inspired system. It has now come back to OSU using tight ends as a regular part of the offense and with proven playmakers Blake Jarwin and Jeremy Seaton back in 2015 and joined by Zac Veatch and Jordan Frazier, there are some options to choose from.

DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

There is bad news and there is good news on the Oklahoma State defensive line going into 2015. The bad news is that James Castleman and Ofa Hautau are gone. How valuable were those two? Castleman started 37 games in his four-year career and Hautau was honored as the team's overall MVP in 2014.

The good news is that the Cowboy front is as deep as it has ever been during the Mike Gundy era.

Junior defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah, the 2014 Big 12 defensive lineman of the year and a 2014 first-team All-Big 12 honoree by both the coaches and by the media who cover the league, is the headliner of this group. While Hautau was recognized as the team's overall MVP last season, Ogbah was singled out as the team's defensive MVP - and for good reason. Ogbah ranked third in the Big 12 and 24th nationally in tackles for loss per game (1.3) and second in the Big 12 and 15th nationally in sacks per game (0.85). He recorded 5.5 tackles for loss in the Cowboys' win at Kansas, which set an OSU single-game record and was the most tackles for loss for any player in the country in a single game in 2014. Ogbah introduced himself to a national audience when he enjoyed a breakthrough performance with six tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss and two pass-breakups against top-ranked Florida State. At one point of the season, Ogbah produced a stretch where he recorded at least one sack in six consecutive games.

At the other defensive end spot is senior Jimmy Bean, who has started every game the past two seasons. Bean's nine career quarterback hurries rank as the seventh-most in school history. Additionally, he has registered 78 tackles, 15.5 tackles for loss and eight sacks during his career. He has done well in big games, highlighted by his performance against Missouri in the 2014 Cotton Bowl in which he recorded seven tackles, three tackles for loss and a sack. The bottom line is this - Oklahoma State's defensive ends have a proven track record of making plays and are a formidable tandem.

If there is a question mark in this group, it's this - can defensive line coach Joe Bob Clements get production from whomever it is that starts on the inside of the defensive front, because regardless of who that person is, he will be a first-time starter.

Based on their careers to this point, sophomores Vili Leveni and Vincent Taylor have the inside track, but don't discount junior college transfer Motekiai Maile, who enrolled early and participated in spring practice after transferring from Tyler Junior College. Leveni and Taylor got most of the second-team reps last year and were solid in their role, with Leveni recording 16 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, a sack and a quarterback hurry and Taylor adding 13 tackles and one tackle for loss. Maile was a first-team all-conference performer last season who chose to attend Oklahoma State over offers from TCU, Mississippi State and Arizona State.

Though the OSU defensive line features a bona fide standout in Ogbah and a rock-solid running mate in Bean, it may be the depth of this group that is its best attribute - especially at defensive end. Senior Trace Clark is a very solid backup who would be a starter most any other season. He has 32 tackles and 3.5 tackles for loss during his career. A quartet of redshirt freshmen defensive ends - Jordan Brailford, Trey Carter, Jarrell Owens and Cole Walterscheid - are also players to watch as their careers develop.

Junior Eric Davis and sophomore Ben Hughes are candidates to see extended reps at defensive tackle, and at least one of them figures to be in the regular playing time rotation.

New in the fray in 2015 are true freshmen Louis Brown and Darrion Daniels, both of whom were ranked as four-star recruits, and Taaj Bakari.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Oklahoma State has proven playmakers and promising up-and-comers on its defensive line, especially at defensive end. Emmanuel Ogbah is as good as there is in the Big 12 and is worthy of being included in preseason All-America discussions. Should OSU get production from the interior of its defensive front, the sky may be the limit for this collective unit.

LINEBACKER

Defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Glenn Spencer has reason to be optimistic about his linebacking corps going into 2015. Senior and three-year letterman Ryan Simmons - who Spencer referred to as the heart and soul of last year's defense - is back at middle linebacker and brings 26 career starts with him. Simmons started every game the last two years. No returning Cowboy has more career tackles than Simmons, who has made 189 career stops. Included in that total are 25.5 tackles for loss, which also leads the team. He made 96 tackles and had 12.0 for loss last season, but while he was productive on the stat sheet, it was his ability to lead and quickly adapt to a completely different defensive scheme than he was used to that drew the most praise from Spencer. In 2013, Simmons was part of an aggressive, attacking-style OSU defense, but after that bunch sustained losses to graduation and the NFL Draft and was forced to compete with inexperienced players in 2014, the coaches asked him to play in more of a Tampa 2 set in which he often times dropped way back into coverage. In both scenarios - attacking and dropping back - Simmons proved his ability to make plays and just like in 2014, he is once again expected to be a rock of the defense in 2015.

Junior Seth Jacobs, also a starter from last year, returns as well after earning defensive MVP honors as part of OSU's Cactus Bowl win over Washington. From his weakside linebacker spot, Jacobs finished 2014 third on the team with 92 tackles and added 6.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, five pass breakups, two quarterback hurries and two forced fumbles. At the end of last season, Jacobs was honored by the OSU coaching staff as the defensive recipient of the team's Barry Sanders Award, presented to the player with the most contribution with the least recognition.

While Simmons and Jacobs are well-positioned to be starters in 2015, the third starting spot is more fluid. That said, Spencer will be choosing from a strong pool of candidates. Perhaps a better question than who will be the third starter is what does Spencer want to do with that position. If he wants a faster, more agile player there (which has typically been his preference), then junior college transfer Jordan Burton (6-foot-3, 215 pounds and a very strong performer during spring ball) or sophomore Kirk Tucker (6-foot-2, 195 pounds) would be candidates. Burton ranked among the top 10 players nationally in the junior college ranks with 10.8 tackles per game last season at Kilgore JC and Tucker was a special teams standout who played meaningful reps at linebacker late in the season. Sophomore Gyasi Akem (6-foot-1, 215 pounds) may also get a look. If Spencer wants to go with a bigger, more powerful frame at that third linebacker spot, then Justin Phillips (six-foot, 220 pounds) would be a candidate, along with veteran Kris Catlin. Similar to Tucker, Phillips was a standout on special teams who broke into the defensive playing time rotation late in the season last year.

Other names to know in terms of potential for meaningful playing time include senior Devante Averette, sophomore Chad Whitener and redshirt freshman Josh Mabin. Averette was pegged to start last season before an injury derailed that opportunity. He did play in two games in 2014, but welcomes this year's opportunity to show what he can do when at full speed. Whitener is an interesting prospect in that he is a power-five transfer from California who sat out last season per NCAA transfer regulations. The Mansfield, Texas, native played some as a true freshman for the Golden Bears and even recovered a fumble in a Pac-12 game against Oregon State. Mabin was enjoying a very impressive fall camp last year before he was lost for the season to injury. Should he return to that same form, he would appear to be a candidate to be a multi-year playmaker for OSU.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Ryan Simmons and Seth Jacobs are the leaders of this group. Simmons is a two-year starter and three-year letterwinner. It's unclear what to expect beyond those two, but this much is certain: whoever gets the third starting spot will have earned it, because there are several good, fairly evenly-matched candidates in the pool. Regardless of who starts and who doesn't, linebacker appears to be a position group that is deep enough to where Glenn Spencer can roll different players on and off the field and feel good about what he has out there.

CORNERBACK

With four players who have logged extensive playing time returning in his position group, first-year cornerbacks coach Tim Duffie (formerly OSU's safeties coach the past two seasons) knows exactly what he's working with.

A three-year letterman who has started 25 games in his career, senior Kevin Peterson is part of the core leadership group not only of the defense, but of the team as a whole. He has recorded 103 tackles, intercepted four passes and broken up 17 passes in his career. A starter opposite 2013 NFL first-round draft pick Justin Gilbert as a sophomore in 2013, Peterson had high expectations going into last season. While he had his moments - most notably holding West Virginia All-America receiver Kevin White to three catches for 27 yards - the 2014 season did not live up to the lofty standard that Peterson set for himself. A strong offseason could position Peterson among the best cornerbacks in the Big 12 going into 2015.

STATE OF THE PROGRAM

Bold - Enrolled early and competed in spring practice.

After Peterson is where the depth of OSU's cornerback position shows up. Regardless of who runs with the first team, Duffie will have a returning starter at his fingertips to use in nickel sets. Junior Ashton Lampkin was the opening day starter in 2014 and held that position until being lost for the season to injury in week four. Sophomore Ramon Richards, a converted high school quarterback who was originally ticketed to redshirt in order to learn a new position, was then thrown into the mix - probably much earlier than his development would have dictated, yet he rewarded the coaches by growing into a viable performer by year's end. He finished his freshman year with 42 tackles, three interceptions (one of which he returned for a touchdown at Kansas State) and four pass breakups. What Richards experienced early on was difficult at the time, but it accelerated his development and will likely be invaluable to him as his career progresses. Additionally, OSU welcomes senior Michael Hunter, who started the final 24 games of his career at Indiana before graduating and arriving in Stillwater this summer. With 91 career tackles, two interceptions and 14 passes defended in his career, Hunter is a well-established Power Five-level performer who could very well land a spot in the Cowboys' starting lineup.

Beyond that group, the cornerback position also includes senior Miketavius Jones and sophomore Darius Curry as viable options for playing time.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Oklahoma State has four perfectly good options to start at cornerback in Kevin Peterson, Ashton Lampkin, Ramon Richards and Michael Hunter. All have already logged a significant amount of starts and bring a wealth of experience at a position group that is deep with candidates for meaningful playing time.

SAFETY

There were all kinds of question marks at safety going into the 2014 season, but at least one of those question marks was replaced with an exclamation point considering how well Jordan Sterns, now a junior, played in his first year as a starter. Sterns led the team with 103 tackles, and in doing so, became the first Oklahoma State underclassman in 18 years to reach the 100-tackle mark. That total ranked eighth in the Big 12 and second among the conference's underclassmen. Against West Virginia, he recorded 20 tackles, a half-tackle for loss and a pass breakup. His 20 tackles that day were the most for a Cowboy since 2001 and made him only the sixth OSU player to register 20 tackles in a game since 1984. Only eight players in the nation recorded 20 or more tackles in a game during the 2014 season - Sterns was the only underclassman to do it. What does that all mean? It means Jordan Sterns is an impact player and he's not afraid to throw himself into the mix and make plays.

While Sterns is a safe bet to start at free safety, Sophomores Jerel Morrow and Tre Flowers are both in the mix at strong safety. A converted cornerback, Morrow made the switch to safety during the spring and proved himself to be a strong candidate for a starting nod. A starter in six games last year, Flowers registered 56 tackles, two tackles for loss and three pass breakups and he did it in somewhat similar fashion to Richards in that he may have been put into the mix before he was fully ready.

Sophomore Dylan Harding is a candidate for playing time as well. To this point of his career, Harding has made his most notable contributions on special teams. Young players to watch include redshirt freshman Tre Roberts and true freshmen Kenneth McGruder, Bryce Balous and Za'Carrius Green.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Jordan Sterns provided reason for excitement with his performance as a sophomore. He led the team in tackles and was a consistent difference-maker in the secondary. Tre Flowers saw significant action as well filling in as a starter when Larry Stephens was lost to injury. Flowers and Jerel Morrow enter fall with the upper hand to start alongside Sterns, though Deric Robertson is not to be dismissed when considering candidates for a starting role.

SPECIALISTS

Junior Ben Grogan headlines Oklahoma State's group of specialists, but he is not the only returning starter in this area. Sophomore Kaleb Smith, who handled snaps on placements, is back, as is senior Josh Elias, who snaps on punts. The only specialist not returning from a year ago is punter/kickoff man Kip Smith.

Grogan was perhaps the most improved player on the OSU roster from 2013 to 2014 and he was recognized as one of 20 national semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award presented to the nation's top kicker. Though he started the season by missing three of his first five field goal attempts, he made 20 of his last 23, highlighted by a game-winning 21-yarder in overtime to lift OSU to victory over Oklahoma in Norman. His 22 field goals made in 2014 is the third-best single-season mark in school history.

Candidates to replace Smith include redshirt freshman Zach Sinor and walk-on Matt Hockett, neither of whom have seen game action to this point of their careers. Sinor was generally regarded as the top punter coming out of the state of Texas after his senior year at Medina Valley HS. Hockett was an all-state selection by The Oklahoman and the coaches at Norman HS.

THE BOTTOM LINE

With Ben Grogan, Josh Elias and Kaleb Smith in place, the Cowboys are set at kicker and snapper. Areas to be solidified include punter, kickoff specialist and holder.

Lunch is served at noon with requested players and coordinators available at 12:30. Head coach Mike Gundy speaks at 1 p.m. Contact the athletics communications office for more details. OSU does not normally host a luncheon during open weeks of the season.

Gundy's portion of the news conference is available live at www.okstate.com and is archived as well. It is also available on the OSU FTP site on Monday afternoons.

MEDIA LUNCHEON PARKING & ENTRY

Parking for OSU's Monday media luncheon is across the street from the stadium in the St. John Catholic Church parking lot. Members of the media should enter the stadium through the loading dock area located at the southeast corner of the stadium.

Members of the media who visit the OSU campus regularly for media functions should obtain on-campus vendor parking permits by stopping by Parking Services, located on the northeast corner of the intersection of Monroe Street and Hall of Fame Avenue.

PLAYER INTERVIEW AVAILABILITY

All interviews with Oklahoma State student-athletes should be coordinated through the athletics communications office. During the season, OSU players are available Mondays at the weekly media luncheon. Telephone interviews may be arranged by contacting Sean Maguire in the athletics communications office (sean.maguire@okstate.edu). All interview requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance. OSU's first-year players (true freshmen and transfers) are not available for interviews.

APPLYING FOR SEASON MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Season credentials for Oklahoma State must be requested through OSU's official website. To begin the process, visit www.okstate.com/media. Only media covering the Cowboys on a consistent basis and on assignment will be considered for season credentials. A lost season credential will, unfortunately, result in credentials being issued on a game-by-game basis as available.

The deadline for requesting season credentials is Thursday, August 13. No season credentials will be awarded after that date.

APPLYING FOR SINGLE-GAME MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for individual games should be requested one week in advance in order to ensure enough time to mail out the credential and parking pass. Those requests should also be made at www.okstate.com/media. Credentials will only be granted to media on assignment and to those who cover the Cowboys or their opponent on a regular basis.

Approved passes will be mailed out up until the week of the game. Credentials and parking passes that are applied for the week of the game will not be mailed out, rather, they will be held at the media will call window at Boone Pickens Stadium for pickup on game day.

CREDENTIAL TYPES

--- MEDIA ---

This credential is for writers. It includes press box access and a press box seat, as well as access to postgame interview rooms. It does not allow sideline access until postgame. The media pass is also good for visiting radio network/television crew members who do not require sideline access.

--- PHOTO ---

This credential includes sideline access, interview room access, as well as access to the press box and the field level photo work room. Photo credential holders will not have a reserved seat in the press box. For sideline access, photographers must pick up a game-day vest in the press box with ID required. Vests must be returned in the field level photo work room, which can be accessed through the tunnel in the southwest corner of the stadium.

MEDIA PARKING ON GAMEDAY

Media parking for OSU home games is located in the parking structure just north of the Monroe and Hall of Fame intersection. The structure is just northwest of Boone Pickens Stadium and the street address is 509 North Monroe, Stillwater, OK, 74078.

From Sixth Street (Highway 51), the primary east-west passage through Stillwater, turn north on Monroe Street and proceed through the OSU campus through Hall of Fame Avenue to the garage.

From Hall of Fame Avenue, which loops around the north side of campus, turn north on Monroe. From highway 412, the toll road from Tulsa, take the first Stillwater exit from the turnpike. At the turnpike gate, go straight through the toll booth to Washington Street and take a right at the intersection of Washington and McElroy, followed by the first left.

A shuttle will be available to transport media to the press entrance at the stadium beginning three hours prior to kickoff and it will continue to operate until the press box is closed.

UPLINK TRUCK PARKING

Media outlets looking to park an uplink truck should notify Gavin Lang no later than Monday the week of the game. Uplink trucks will park on the concrete walkway between the Sherman E. Smith Indoor Training Center and the turf field immediately to the south of it. Uplink trucks that have made arrangements will be parked in that area on a first-come, first-served basis.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL PICK-UP ON GAMEDAY

The will call window for media credentials is located on the south side of Boone Pickens Stadium next to Gate 1 (adjacent to the media entrance). The window will open three hours prior to kickoff and will remain open until kickoff. Media arriving after kickoff should call the Boone Pickens Stadium press box at 405-744-5757 for assistance.

WHERE TO ENTER THE STADIUM ON GAMEDAY

New for 2015, working members of the media should enter Boone Pickens Stadium from Gate 1 located on the south side of the stadium. Once you enter from Gate 1, elevators to the press and broadcast levels are located to your right.

MEDIA SERVICES AND POLICIES

HOW TO GET TO THE PRESS BOX

The press box is located on the southeast corner of the stadium and opens four hours prior to kickoff on gamedays. The media meal is served two hours prior to kick.

After entering the stadium from Gate 1, turn right and make another right to the elevators. Take the elevators up to the suite level. The press box is the first door on the right.

Mike Gundy's postgame news conference will be available in the press box through the in-house television network for those on tight deadlines. Quotes will also be provided from the visiting players and coaches, key OSU players and coordinators.

VISITING RADIO

The visiting radio booth is located on the roof (upper concourse) of Boone Pickens Stadium on the south side of the field. Only the official radio network of the visiting school will have access to the booth. OSU radio rights holder Learfield Communications provides three co-op lines in the visitors' booth and a dry pair in the visitors' locker room. Contact the athletics communications office for more information.

FIELD ACCESS

To access the field at Boone Pickens Stadium, use the ramp located in the east end zone (Gallagher-Iba Arena side) of the stadium. Media credentials do not permit field access until postgame.

SIDELINE POLICIES

Photographers are the only members of the media permitted on the sidelines during games, but photographers and videographers are also welcome to shoot from the broadcast level (southside roof) of Boone Pickens Stadium.

Because of the tight sidelines at OSU, shooting areas for each game are designated on a field map that is distributed with vests. The designated areas allow space for working media as well as OSU and visiting spirit groups to co-exist. The OSU athletics communications office will have a photo marshal on the field to assist the media in their game-day efforts.

The bench areas of both sidelines are off-limits to media. While passing through from one end of the field to the other, members of the media should walk behind the bench areas.

Members of the media should not approach Cowboy players or coaches until the designated time for interview availability after the game.

GAMEDAY INTERVIEW AREAS

The visiting team locker room and interview room are located in the Athletics Center, in the east end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium. To access the interview area, enter the Heritage Hall museum off of the east plaza of the stadium (east end zone). Oklahoma State will provide an escort for visiting media and athletics communications directors.

Interviews with Cowboy coaches and players take place in the west end zone theater room, just up the northwest tunnel. OSU will provide an escort to that location as well. Members of the media should not approach OSU players or coaches for comments on the field. The OSU locker room is closed.

PRACTICE AVAILABILITY

Oklahoma State's football practices are primarily closed to the public and media with limited exceptions (media will be notified in advance of those dates). The first portion of the workouts (generally the first 15-20 minutes) is at times open to photographers. Again, media will be notified in advance of those opportunities.

Members of the media planning to shoot practice should contact the OSU athletics communications office in advance to confirm arrangements and practice times.

PRACTICE LOCATION

The Cowboys practice in the Sherman Smith Training Center, which is just across Hall of Fame Avenue from Boone Pickens Stadium. The facility has four fields – two outdoor grass fields, an outdoor turf field and an indoor turf field.

Learfield recently brought on SIDEARM Sports, a leading company in digital platform development and ANC, one of the leading providers of video displays, digital signage and other technology systems for sports venues. The company has also developed a licensing division, Learfield Licensing Partners, to provide schools with a suite of licensing services, including trademark and brand management. The company also has joint ventures in the professional ticketing and concessions businesses with IMG Learfield Ticketing Solutions and the Learfield Levy partnership, respectively. Additionally, the company provides exclusive sports programming to more than 1,000 radio stations throughout the country.

Texas-based Learfield Sports is the operating unit of Learfield Communications, Inc. (Learfield), which was founded in 1972. Learfield's original name, Missouri Network, Inc., was a product of Clyde Lear and Derry Brownfield that eventually grew from a small farm network heard over six Missouri radio stations into a diverse media enterprise with more than 350 employees and corporate headquarters in Jefferson City, Mo.

As a valuable extension to the company, Learfield Sports launched in 1975 with the radio rights to the University of Missouri. Today, with over 200 full-time people, Learfield Sports' agreements with university athletic departments are broad in scope and include management of a wide variety of sponsorship, media and marketing inventory, leveraged through strategic long-term relationships with these partner schools. Kip Racy is in his seventh year in Stillwater as General Manager of Cowboy Sports Properties.

On April 24, 2015, the NCAA Committee on Infractions placed the Oklahoma State University football program on probation for a one-year period that will end on April 23, 2016. Being on probation means that if the football program violates other NCAA legislation within the one-year period, the probation could be extended and additional sanctions applied. It does NOT mean that the football program loses scholarships or that the football program is banned from television appearances or postseason play. The violations that resulted in this probation are as follows:
• Oklahoma State University violated NCAA legislation when it failed to comply with its drug testing policy and procedures after five football student-athletes who had tested positive for NCAA banned substances between the 2007-08 and 2012-13 academic years. As a result, these five student-athletes competed in a total of seven games when they should have been withheld from competition.
• Between the 2009-10 and 2012-13 academic years, Oklahoma State University violated NCAA recruiting legislation by permitting its football program to select, organize, and direct the Orange Pride student group and engage in impermissible hosting activities for prospective football student-athletes and their families on official and unofficial visits to campus. In order to comply with NCAA legislation, this student group should have been selected and managed by the Office of Admissions rather than the football program and/or the athletics department. During this period Orange Pride members engaged in impermissible hosting activities during official and unofficial visits to campus by prospective football student-athletes and their families when they accompanied prospects to on-campus and off-campus meals, participated in campus tour activities and interacted with prospects in the team dining area. They also accompanied football staff members and spoke with prospective student-athletes and their families in a non-administrative capacity during these visits to the institution's campus. The NCAA Committee on Infractions accepted Oklahoma State's self-imposed sanctions of restricting various recruiting activities for a two-year period and a fine of $3,500, while adding an additional fine of $5,000 and requiring the athletics department to cease any and all use of the Orange Pride student group. The football program is prohibited from organizing any other student group to assist in recruiting for a period of four years.
Oklahoma State University is fully committed to compliance with NCAA rules and maintains a comprehensive rules compliance program to assist our prospects, student-athletes, coaches, administrators and supporters in understanding and abiding by these rules. Should you have any additional questions please do not hesitate to contact the Office of Athletics Compliance at 405-744-7862.

Coaches & Staff

The 2015 season is one of change on Mike Gundy's coaching staff, as he welcomes in four new coaches - Greg Adkins, Marcus Arroyo, Dan Hammerschmidt and Jason McEndoo - and adds Bill Clay and Darrell Wyatt as analysts.

OKLAHOMA STATE
COWBOYS

MIKE GUNDY

HEAD COACH | 11TH YEAR
OKLAHOMA STATE, 1990

► 2011 winner of the Paul "Bear" Bryant College Coach of the Year Award selected by the Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association and the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America after leading Oklahoma State to a 12-1 record, its first Big 12 championship and BCS bowl game appearance in 2011. In guiding the Cowboys to the Big 12 title, OSU became the first school other than Oklahoma or Texas to win the conference since 2003.

► Finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award and the Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year Award in both 2010 and 2011.

► 2010 Big 12 Coach of the Year after leading Oklahoma State to an 11-2 overall record and a share of the Big 12 South title.

► Has coached four major national award winners since 2008, as punter Matt Fodge won the Ray Guy Award in 2008, kicker Dan Bailey won the Lou Groza Award in 2010 and receiver Justin Blackmon won the Biletnikoff Award in 2010 and 2011.

► Since 2008, Gundy has coached three finalists for the Biletnikoff Award given to the nation's top wide receiver, plus finalists for the Rimington Award given to the nation's top center, the Thorpe Award given to the nation's top defensive back, the Mackey Award given to the nation's top tight end, the Outland Trophy given to the nation's top interior lineman, the Doak Walker Award given to the nation's top running back, the Ray Guy Award given to the nation's top punter and the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's top kicker.

► Has coached 16 All-Americans in the last seven seasons, including a pair of unanimous All-Americans: offensive lineman Russell Okung in 2009 and receiver Justin Blackmon in 2010 and 2011.

► In Brandon Weeden, Kendall Hunter and Blackmon, Gundy coached the first trio of teammates in NCAA history to post 4,000 yards passing, 1,500 yards rushing and 1,500 yards receiving in the same season.

Evidence of Oklahoma State's rise on both the Big 12 and national levels during Mike Gundy's tenure as head coach is everywhere. Consider the following:

► Oklahoma State has been ranked in the top 15 of the Associated Press poll in six of the last seven seasons and has posted 10-win seasons three of the last five years. Only once has OSU finished lower than third in the Big 12 since 2009.

► The Cowboys have won 37 games in the last four years and 48 games in the last five.

► Gundy has led the Cowboys to a 41-19 record against Big 12 opposition since 2008, a mark that is good for second-best in the conference during that span.

► The Cowboys rank 10th nationally with 66 wins since the beginning of the 2008 season.

► OSU has scored four victories over teams ranked in the Associated Press top 10 since 2008.

► OSU's current streak of nine straight bowl games is the best in the history of the program.

► From 2011-14, Oklahoma State has taken care of its home turf, compiling a 21-4 record in Boone Pickens Stadium.

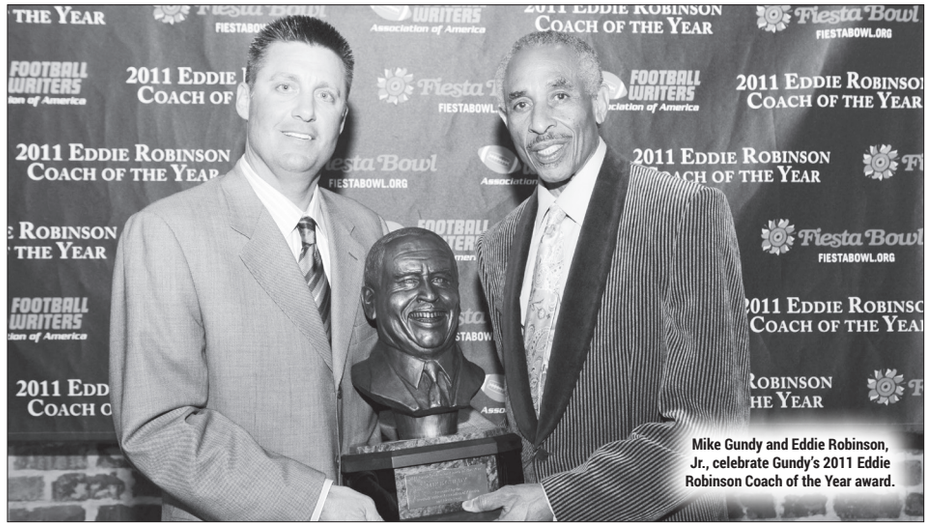

► OSU set the top five single-season attendance records in school history in the last six seasons, including a record average of 59,126 in 2013.

Following the 2010 football season, Mike Gundy was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year after the Cowboys completed the first 11-win season in school history. In 2011, he was the National Coach of the Year after leading the Cowboys to a 12-1 record and a Big 12 championship.

► Eighteen Gundy-era Cowboys have been drafted into the NFL, with six of those 18 chosen in the first round.

► While still in the early stages of his head coaching career, Gundy's coaching tree has already blossomed. Former Gundy coordinators include Illinois head coach Tim Beckman, North Carolina head coach Larry Fedora, West Virginia head coach Dana Holgorsen and Southern Miss head coach Todd Monken. Other notable former Gundy assistants include TCU offensive coordinator Doug Meacham and Texas A&M offensive coordinator Jake Spavital.

► Eye-popping point totals have become the norm, with the Cowboys scoring 50 or more points 27 times, 60 or more points eight times and 70 or more points twice under Gundy.

In 2005, when Mike Gundy was elevated to head coach, he could have been described as a sentimental selection at his alma mater. He was a decorated Oklahoma high school athlete, one of the most successful quarterbacks in OSU history, and he had served on the staff of the three previous OSU head coaches. His ties to the school ran deep for him and his family. Most importantly, he was considered a Cowboy by Cowboys.

Fast forward to 2015, and with that sentimental choice now the winningest coach in OSU football history, it appears the Cowboy football program has entered into a new era.

OSU has three seasons with at least 10 wins since 2010, an outright Big 12 title (2011) and a share of the old Big 12 South title (2010). In 2011, Oklahoma State made its first Bowl Championship Series appearance – which resulted in a win over fourth-ranked Stanford. The school finished the 2010 and 2011 seasons ranked among the top 10, including a school-best third in 2011. The 2012 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl champs were just .0086 of a point from an appearance in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game.

The run to the Big 12 title in 2011 earned Gundy the Eddie Robinson Award as the national coach of the year as selected by the Football Writers Association of America after he was a finalist for the same honor in 2010. He was also tabbed as the Paul "Bear" Bryant College Coach of the Year, was voted national coach of the year by American Football Monthly and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual national coach of the year award. The national accolades came just one year after Gundy was named Big 12 coach of the year in 2010 for leading OSU to a share of the Big 12 South title.

The 2010 and 2011 seasons represented the first 11-win and 12-win seasons in Cowboy history, and OSU has capped each of its last nine seasons with bowl trips. It is a consistency that has never been in place in Stillwater.

OSU was 12-15 after Gundy's first 27 games. Since then, the Cowboys have gone 72-29. Gundy has coached 16 first-team All-Americans and four individual national award winners during his head coaching career. And during his tenure, OSU has been firmly established as one of the most entertaining offensive teams in America. Five times in the last eight years has Oklahoma State been among the nation's top 10 in total offense.

The Cowboys averaged a school-record 48.7 points per game in 2011. In fact, only three in the last seven years has OSU averaged less than 40 points per game. During that same time frame, OSU has churned out elite offensive talent. Offensive lineman Russell Okung, quarterback Brandon Weeden, receivers Dez Bryant and Justin Blackmon and tight end Brandon Pettigrew were all taken in the first round of recent NFL Drafts.

Records have been falling at the box office as well. The 2013 Cowboys were supported like no other in school history as new school marks were set for season tickets (50,223) and average attendance (59,126). Six of the eight single-game attendance highs came in 2013, including a sellout crowd of 60,218 that watched the Cowboys topple No. 3 Baylor.

Gundy's squad set a Big 12 record with nine first-team All-Big 12 selections in 2010 and matched that record in 2011.

Under Gundy, Oklahoma State won at least seven games in nine straight seasons (2006-14) for the first time ever and won at least nine games in four straight seasons for the first time from 2008-11. In 2010 and 2011, Oklahoma State reached 11 wins in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. OSU reached another milestone in 2011 with wins over five ranked teams.

Oklahoma State has reached the Associated Press top 15 in six of the last seven seasons and climbed to an all-time high of second in 2011 before finishing third. After missing out on the AP top 10 in 2012, the Cowboys climbed as high as No. 6 in 2013.

Under Gundy, OSU has not only set a school record for first-team all-league selections, but also for first-team academic all-conference selections.

Gundy and Oklahoma State agreed on a new contract in January of 2012. The agreement keeps the former Cowboy quarterback in charge of OSU's football fortunes through at least 2019. And it is documentation of the progress that Oklahoma State has made since the 1990 OSU grad became the school's head coach.

His record of 84-44 hardly describes the renaissance of Cowboy football. Under Gundy's guidance, OSU's Big 12 record has improved from 1-7 in 2005 to regular stature among the league's top teams.

Gundy was hired as the school's 22nd head football coach on Jan. 3, 2005. He had been serving as OSU's offensive coordinator under Les Miles. It was the culmination of a legendary career for one of Oklahoma's all-time great high school athletes.

The first year was tough. Oklahoma State was 4-7 with one conference win and a sixth-place finish in the Big 12 South. Gundy, however, never wavered. He faced early and difficult decisions in his head coaching career. Those challenges included the dismissal of several players, some who figured to be headliners going into the 2005 campaign. He also had to deal with the shocking death of Vernon Grant, an inspirational team leader and multi-year starter. Gundy handled the early adversity with a steady hand beyond his years. The young Cowboys spent year one in transition with a new head coach, a new offensive coordinator and a new defensive coordinator.

In 2006, OSU's second year under Gundy, the record improved to 7-6, with a win in the Independence Bowl over Alabama. OSU fielded one of the country's most exciting offensive squads, displayed some talented underclassmen on defense and proved capable of bumping helmets with the elite of the Big 12. And that win total, as impressive as it was, could have been even more pronounced as four Cowboy losses were decided on the final play of the game. The season included a win over Big 12 North champ Nebraska and a last-play loss to South champ Oklahoma.

The 34-31 win over Alabama in the PetroSun Independence Bowl was OSU's fourth bowl appearance in five seasons, but marked just the second postseason win for OSU since Barry Sanders terrorized opposing defenses in 1988. Scoring was up by more than two touchdowns per game as the 2006 edition of Cowboy football became one of the most prolific offensive teams in school history, averaging more than 35 points per game. Oklahoma State joined undefeated Boise State as the only two teams in the country to average more than 200 yards per game rushing and passing.

2005-present	Oklahoma State	Head Coach

Mike Gundy and his sons visit with two-time Pro Bowl receiver Dez Bryant, whom Gundy coached at Oklahoma State.

OSU's 2006 roster also produced some of the Big 12's brightest stars, including the offensive newcomer of the year in first-team All-Big 12 receiver Adarius Bowman, and defensive freshman of the year in safety Andre Sexton. Bowman and offensive lineman Corey Hilliard were consensus first-team All-Big 12 selections. Bowman was Gundy's second straight offensive newcomer of the year (Mike Hamilton in 2005).

The Cowboys finished Gundy's second year seventh nationally and tops in the Big 12 in rushing, seventh nationally in scoring and No. 16 in total offense. The conference rushing title was a first for the Pokes. OSU followed up that ground attack with more team rushing titles in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

In 2007, despite facing the NCAA's toughest schedule, the Cowboys won their second straight bowl game (Insight) and the climb up the Big 12 ladder continued with OSU finishing third in the South. Oklahoma State entered the final week of the regular season playing for a share of the Big 12 South championship. The bowl titles marked the first time since 1987 and 1988 (Gundy's playing days) that the Cowboys had registered bowl wins in consecutive seasons. The Cowboys' 45-14 win at Nebraska was OSU's first in Lincoln since the Kennedy Administration.

The Cowboy offense followed up its 2006 success with something unprecedented in 2007 when it finished the season with 3,161 rushing yards and 3,161 passing yards. OSU finished seventh nationally in total offense (486.3 yards per game). The season culminated with a 49-33 win over Indiana in the Insight Bowl and sophomore quarterback Zac Robinson set a new OSU single-season record in total offense (since broken by Brandon Weeden).

The 2008 season made headlines. That version of the Cowboys became one of the most decorated in school history. Two sophomores, receiver Dez Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter, were first-team All-Americans. Quarterback Zac Robinson was a finalist for the Manning Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award. Tight end Brandon Pettigrew was a finalist for the Mackey Award and punter Matt Fodge was the winner of the Ray Guy Award. Junior Perrish Cox was voted a first-team All-America kick returner.

Also in 2008, the Cowboys ascended into the top 10 for the first time in 20 years, climbed to sixth in the BCS rankings and picked up a road win against a member of the AP top five (Missouri). That season culminated with OSU's first appearance in the Holiday Bowl since 1988.

In 2009, OSU was ranked in the top 25 all season, reaching as high as fifth in the AP poll during its 9-4 run. Along the way, OSU set a new record for season ticket sales and played in front of the largest home crowds in school history (all of those attendance marks have since been broken). OSU entered the final week of the regular season very much in contention for its first BCS bowl berth and the Cowboys' 6-2 Big 12 record propelled OSU to No. 2 in the Big 12 bowl pecking order and an appearance in the Cotton Bowl. It was a satisfying achievement considering the onslaught of injuries the Cowboys battled throughout the year.

The 2010 season represented a breakthrough as OSU finished 11-2 and closed a season in the top 10 for the first time since 1984. Brandon Weeden became Oklahoma State's first All-Big 12 quarterback, Justin Blackmon brought home the Biletnikoff Award and Dan Bailey won the Lou Groza Award. The Cowboys generated 520 yards of offense per game and unveiled a new-look passing attack that ranked second nationally (346 yards per game) and helped OSU score 44.2 points per contest. All-America accolades rolled in for running back Kendall Hunter, Blackmon, punter Quinn Sharp and kicker Dan Bailey.

The share of the Big 12 South title was a first for OSU as the Cowboys won 10 games in the regular season for the first time ever and for the fourth time overall. The 2010 squad also became the first OSU team to go undefeated on the road since 1945. All of those achievements were reached by a team selected to finish fifth in the six-team Big 12 South in the preseason.

But 2010 simply set the stage for 2011. One year after no expectations greeted the Cowboys, 2011 featured unprecedented demands of OSU. The Cowboys were ranked No. 9 in the AP poll (tying the all-time preseason high set in 2009) to start the season and the squad proved up to the task. The Cowboys raced to a 10-0 start and reached No. 2 in the AP balloting and in the BCS standings before finishing third in both.

OSU clinched its first outright conference title with a lopsided win over Oklahoma and followed up that showing with a Fiesta Bowl victory over No. 4 Stanford to put the wraps on a 12-1 season. Blackmon repeated as the Biletnikoff Award winner and five Cowboys (Blackmon, kicker Quinn Sharp, offensive linemen Levy Adcock and Grant Garner, and safety Markelle Martin) earned All-America honors. OSU won at Texas for the second straight season, knocked off five ranked opponents, beat four teams that won 10 games and beat seven teams in the final BCS rankings' top 30.

The Cowboys passed for 387 yards per game (second nationally), and scored 48.7 points per game (also second nationally). OSU led the nation in turnovers forced (44) and turnover margin (plus-1.62 per game).

Despite a rash of injuries at crucial positions, the 2012 Cowboys maintained their theme of explosive offense by finishing the regular season leading the Big 12 and ranking third nationally with 45.7 points per game and also ranking in the top 11 nationally in total offense (fourth), passing offense (seventh), fewest sacks allowed per game (ninth), first downs per game (11th) and red zone scoring percentage (third).

Making the 2012 numbers even more impressive was the fact that OSU was relegated to constant instability at quarterback due to injury. True freshman Wes Lunt started four games, redshirt freshman J.W. Walsh started three and junior Clint Chelf started four in the first significant action of his career. All three finished the season with more than 1,000 passing yards - a first in Big 12 history. Each had at least one game with at least 330 passing yards and each claimed at least one victory over a Big 12 opponent as a starter.

In 2013, Gundy led the Cowboys to a second-place finish in the Big 12 and an appearance in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. That team went 10-3 to produce the third 10-win season in a four-year span. The Pokes were 10-1 through 11 games and played for an outright share of the Big 12 Conference title on the last day of the regular season. The Cowboys joined Mike Gundy finished his playing career as the Big Eight Conference's all-time leader in passing and total offense.

Florida State, Alabama and Oregon as the only four teams to rank in the top 20 nationally in both scoring offense and scoring defense. The Cowboys of 2013 led the Big 12 in scoring defense, turnovers gained, pass efficiency defense, third-down defense and red zone defense, and Gundy's decision to make changes at quarterback, running back and left tackle midway through the season went on to spark the offense, evidenced by the fact that OSU averaged 42.0 points per game in its final seven games of the year. OSU went 4-0 in November, highlighted by a 38-13 pounding of No. 23 Texas in Austin and a 49-17 wipeout of No. 3 Baylor in Stillwater.

Mike Gundy first arrived on the Oklahoma State campus in 1986 after a heavily-decorated prep career. He became a four-year starter at OSU (1986-89), and led the Cowboys to a pair of bowl wins, the 1987 Sun Bowl over West Virginia and the 1988 Holiday Bowl over Wyoming. During those two seasons, OSU accumulated a 20-4 record.

Gundy ended his career as the Big Eight Conference's all-time leader in passing and total offense. More than 20 years after his playing career, his name is still featured throughout the OSU record books. Most of his personal marks stood until Gundy assumed head coaching duties. He began his college career by throwing 138 passes before tossing his first career interception. That streak remained an NCAA record until 2008.

After graduation, Gundy joined the Oklahoma State football staff. He coached the receivers in 1990, the quarterbacks from 1991-1993 and in 1995, and served as offensive coordinator during the 1994 season in the final year for Gundy's college coach, Pat Jones. Gundy has coached in Stillwater under each of the three previous Cowboy head coaches (Jones, Bob Simmons and Les Miles).

He spent one season at Baylor (1996) as quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator before heading to the ACC, where he coached at Maryland (1997-2000). He returned to Stillwater in 2001 as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator, and he also coached OSU quarterbacks.

Gundy is just the third Oklahoma State graduate to assume the head coaching duties in Stillwater. Jim Lookabaugh (1939-49) and Floyd Gass (1969-71) were the others.

Gundy and his wife, Kristen (also an OSU graduate), have three children, Gavin, Gunnar and Gage.

GREG ADKINS

OFFENSIVE LINE
FIRST YEAR AT OSU | 25TH YEAR OVERALL
MARSHALL, 1990

► Greg Adkins spent the last two seasons in the National Football League coaching tight ends for the Buffalo Bills.

► Prior to joining the staff at Oklahoma State, he had 24 years of coaching experience, with eight of those coming in the Southeastern Conference.

► He got his start at Marshall coaching the defensive line, tight ends and offensive line from 1991-95 before moving on to Georgia in 1996 to coach the Bulldogs' defensive line.

► One season later, he switched to the offensive side of the ball, where he mentored UGA's offensive line and tight ends from 1997-2000. A two-year stint coaching offensive line and serving as recruiting coordinator at Troy from 2001-02 was followed by a six-year run at Tennessee, where he coached tight ends and offensive line and served as the Volunteers' recruiting coordinator.

► He moved on to Syracuse in 2009 to coach offensive line and serve as recruiting coordinator before moving with head coach Doug Marrone from Syracuse to the Buffalo Bills.

► Among the numerous notable players he either coached or recruited are Champ Bailey and Boss Bailey at Georgia, DeMarcus Ware at Troy and Erik Ainge at Tennessee.

► Coached three Syracuse offensive linemen to NFL opportunities (Ryan Bartholomew, Andrew Tiller and Michael Hay), plus a fourth offensive lineman – Justin Pugh – to a college career in which he earned All-Big East accolades three times.

► He helped coach Syracuse to victory in the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl. It was the first bowl trip for the Orange in six years and marked SU's first bowl win in nine seasons.

► Adkins helped coach Tennessee to prominent bowl games to cap the 2003, 2004, 2006 and 2007 seasons. In 2007, his offensive line paved the way for a Volunteer offense that produced a 3,000-yard passer (Erik Ainge), a 1,000-yard rusher (Arian Foster) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Lucas Taylor).

► In 2007, Tennessee's offensive line led the nation by allowing only four sacks. Those four sacks came on 534 pass attempts (one sack per 133.5 pass attempts – a mark that also led the nation).

► His offensive line at Georgia led the way for players such as Hines Ward and Robert Edwards. In 1997, the Bulldogs went 10-2 and finished the season ranked No. 10 in the Associated Press poll. UGA won no fewer than eight games in each of his final four seasons in Athens.

► Adkins enjoyed outstanding success during his time at Marshall, helping coach his alma mater to the 1992 national championship and four trips to the national title game in a five-year span from 1991-95. With Adkins as defensive line coach, the Thundering Herd led the Southern Conference in rush defense in 1992. He moved to the offensive side of the ball in 1993 and Marshall went on to lead the league in scoring offense from 1993-95.

► A 1990 graduate of Marshall University with a degree in sports management and marketing, Adkins was a four-year letterman for the Thundering Herd and served as team captain his senior year. During his 10 years at Marshall, both as a player and as a coach, he was part of 97 victories.

PERSONAL

► Adkins and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Nicholas and Nathan, and a daughter, Natalie.

MARCUS ARROYO

RUNNING BACKS
FIRST YEAR AT OSU | 13TH YEAR OVERALL
SAN JOSE STATE, 2003

► A 12-year coaching veteran, Marcus Arroyo joined the Oklahoma State staff in February of 2015 after serving as interim offensive coordinator and playcaller for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

► Arroyo originally went to Tampa Bay to coach quarterbacks, but after a health procedure sidelined Bucs offensive coordinator Jeff Tedford, Arroyo took on the playcalling duties.

► Under Arroyo's watch, receivers Mike Evans and Vincent Jackson both eclipsed the 1,000-yard plateau in 2014-15, marking the first time in Buccaneers history that two receivers surpassed 1,000 yards in the same season. Evans set franchise rookie records with 68 receptions, 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns and was one of five finalists for NFL Rookie of the Year accolades. He was second among all rookies in receiving yards and was fourth in receptions.

► Arroyo came to Tampa Bay following one season (2013) as the offensive coordinator and outside receivers coach at Southern Mississippi, where his primary duties included creating the offensive game plans and play calling. Operating in Arroyo's offense, true freshman quarterback Nick Mullens earned a spot on the Conference USA all-freshman team.

► Prior to joining the Southern Mississippi coaching staff, Arroyo spent two years (2011-2012) at the University of California as the passing game coordinator and playcaller.

► Under Arroyo's guidance, Cal quarterback Zach Maynard worked himself into the No. 10 spot on the career list at the school in both passing yards (5,204) and total offense (5,350) in only two seasons. His 128.36 career passer efficiency rating is eighth on the school's all-time list.

► Cal had a much improved offense in 2011 during Arroyo's first-year of working with the team's quarterbacks, especially in the passing game where the Golden Bears jumped from No. 94 in the country in 2010 (175.08 ypg) to No. 46 in the country in 2011 (246.62 ypg).

► Cal also rose from No. 90 nationally (334.00 ypg) to No. 44 nationally (401.46 ypg) in total offense in his first season. In addition, Cal moved up 20 spots to No. 53 nationally in scoring, improving from 25.8 points per game the previous season to 28.3.

► Before coaching at California, Arroyo served for two seasons at Wyoming as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2009 and 2010 campaigns. He helped develop 2009 true freshman quarterback Austyn Carta-Samuels into the Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year and the Offensive MVP of the 2009 New Mexico Bowl. Carta-Samuels completed 59.7 percent of his passes in two campaigns under Arroyo's guidance.

► Arroyo made a significant impact in his first season at Wyoming in 2009 when he installed a new spread offense that helped the Cowboys score 30 or more points five times, winning all five of those games. Arroyo's offense displayed an ability to come from behind in his first season, recording five fourth-quarter comebacks. His offensive unit also did an outstanding job of protecting the ball. Wyoming ranked No. 7 in the nation in fewest turnovers lost (14) and was No. 15 nationally in both fewest fumbles lost (7) and fewest interceptions thrown (7).

► When Wyoming captured the 2009 New Mexico Bowl title, it marked the second time in four seasons that Arroyo was part of a New Mexico Bowl winning team. His other victory in the game came in 2006 while he was coaching at San Jose State.

► Prior to his stint at Wyoming, Arroyo was the co-offensive coordinator for two seasons and quarterbacks coach for three campaigns at his alma mater, San Jose State. He was the quarterbacks coach and play-caller for the Spartans in 2006, before being promoted to co-offensive coordinator for his final two seasons in 2007 and 2008 under head coach Dick Tomey. In 2006, he directed SJSU to five fourth-quarter comeback victories.

► From 2006-07, Arroyo tutored the Spartans' all-time leading passer and total offense leader Adam Tafralis, who set school records for career passing yards (7,548) and total offense (8,111). Tafralis went on to sign a free agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts in the spring of 2008. He also played three seasons (2008-10) with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League, and spent time on the rosters of both the United Football League's Sacramento Mountain Lions (2011) and the CFL's Toronto Argonauts (2012) before his retirement from football.

► Arroyo also spent one season at San Jose State in 2005 as a graduate assistant coach on the offensive side of the ball before being elevated to a full-time assistant in 2006.

JOE BOB CLEMENTS

DEFENSIVE LINE
THIRD YEAR AT OSU | 17TH YEAR OVERALL
KANSAS STATE, 1999

► Defensive line coach Joe Bob Clements joined the Oklahoma State coaching staff in January of 2013 immediately after helping lead his alma mater, Kansas State, to the Big 12 title in 2012 as the Wildcats' defensive run game coordinator and defensive ends coach.

► His impact was felt immediately at OSU, as the Cowboy defensive linemen combined for 19.5 sacks during his first year in Stillwater, up from 12.5 the year prior to his arrival. Defensive tackle Calvin Barnett was a first-team All-Big 12 selection by the Associated Press and the Big 12 coaches.

► The development continued in 2014, with Clements' defensive linemen combining to record 23.5 of OSU's 33 sacks and 50.5 of the Cowboys' 97 tackles for loss.

► In 2014, defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah became the first Oklahoma State player ever named Big 12 defensive lineman of the year and became just the fifth OSU defensive lineman - the second in Clements' two years - to earn first-team All-Big 12 honors.

► Oklahoma State saw significant improvement in the scoring column in Clements' first year, limiting opponents to 21.6 points per game, down from 28.2 points per game the year prior to his arrival. Thanks in no small part to the defensive line, OSU allowed only 11 rushing touchdowns during the 2013 regular season, a mark that ranked 11th nationally.

► OSU's 95 tackles for loss in Clements' first year set the fourth-highest single-season total in school history and the Cowboys' 29 quarterback hurries ranked sixth. OSU improved on those numbers with 97 tackles for loss (third in school history) and 34 sacks (seventh in school history) in 2014.

► The Cowboys finished 2013 ranked in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense (19th), turnovers gained (fifth), passes intercepted (third), red zone defense (seventh), pass efficiency defense (sixth), tackles for loss (16th) and third-down conversion percentage defense (seventh) just one year after ranking in the top 25 nationally in only one of those categories (tackles for loss - 25th in 2012).

► The Cowboys forced 33 turnovers in Clements' first year, with defensive linemen responsible for six fumbles forced, four fumbles recovered and two blocked kicks.

► During Clements' 16 combined years as a player, staffer and full-time assistant coach at K-State, the Wildcats won two Big 12 championships, four Big 12 North championships, won nine or more games in a season 11 times and won 10 or more games in a season nine times.

► In 2012, K-State led the Big 12 in scoring defense, ranked second in the conference in rushing defense, turnovers gained and sacks and was third in both total defense and pass efficiency defense. One of Clements' defensive ends, Meshak Williams, was honored as Big 12 defensive lineman of the year after leading the league in sacks and another, Adam Davis, was a second-team all-Big 12 honoree who led the league with four fumbles forced.

► From 2004-05, Clements served as K-State's recruiting coordinator. The two recruiting classes he spearheaded produced future NFL players Zac Diles, Yamon Figurs, Tearrius George, Justin McKinney and Reggie Walker.

► Clements spent seven seasons as a full-time member of the K-State coaching staff, plus two seasons at San Diego State and one season at Kansas prior to joining the staff at Oklahoma State.

► At San Diego State from 2006-07, Clements' time was highlighted by the performance of first-team all-Mountain West Conference defensive lineman Antwan Applewhite. In Applewhite, Clements coached the first Aztec defensive lineman to earn first-team all-Mountain West Conference honors in seven years.

► At Kansas in 2008, Clements helped coach the Jayhawks to an eight-win season and a win over division champion and archrival Missouri. The 2008 Jayhawks picked up a convincing 42-21 win over Minnesota in the Insight Bowl.

► Clements broke into coaching as a student assistant at K-State in 1999, was elevated to a graduate assistant post with the Wildcats in 2001 and earned his first full-time coaching position when Bill Snyder promoted him to K-State defensive ends coach in 2003.

► Clements played defensive end at K-State from 1994-98. He was a member of five bowl teams with the Wildcats, highlighted by trips to the Cotton and Fiesta Bowls.

► Clements graduated from Kansas State in 1999 with a bachelors degree in mass communications, then added a master's degree in counseling (student development) from K-State in 2009.

PERSONAL

► Clements and his wife, Pelusa, have four children, Orianna, Chance, Emma and Kaden.

► Oklahoma State has become one of the Big 12's elite teams with Spencer on the staff, as the Cowboys have amassed a 66-25 record since he came to Stillwater prior to the 2008 season. OSU won a share of the Big 12 South title in 2010 and won the Big 12 outright in 2011. The Cowboys appeared in - and won - their first-ever BCS bowl game in 2011 with a victory over Stanford in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

In Spencer's first year as defensive coordinator, the Cowboys limited opponents to 21.6 points per game, down from 28.2 points per game the year before he took over.

► In 2013, he led one of the most impressive defensive turnarounds in the nation. The Cowboys finished 2013 ranked in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense (19th), turnovers gained (fifth), passes intercepted (third), red zone defense (seventh), pass efficiency defense (sixth), tackles for loss (16th) and third-down conversion percentage defense (seventh) just one year after ranking in the top 25 nationally in only one of those categories (tackles for loss - 25th in 2012).

CALIFORNIA (PA.), 1999

► In his first year at OSU, the Cowboys ranked 14th nationally by averaging 39.1 points per game. OSU scored 40 or more points six times and 50 or more points four times.

► In addition to racking up big point totals during Yurcich's first year, the Cowboys led the Big 12 and ranked seventh nationally by losing only five fumbles.

► Yurcich's first year resulted in OSU recording the sixth-best season in school history for scoring offense, the fourth-best season in school history for passing offense and the sixth-best season in school history for rushing touchdowns.

► Balance was a strong suit for the OSU offense during Yurcich's first year as offensive coordinator, as 14 different players scored an offensive touchdown during the 2013 regular season. The Cowboys finished the regular season with 503 rushing attempts and 484 passing attempts.

► Oklahoma State was one of only three teams in the nation to record a game with 500 passing yards and a game with 300 rushing yards during the 2013 season - and both of OSU's came on the road. The Pokes hit UTSA for 518 passing yards and battered Iowa State with 348 rushing yards.

► Yurcich was at the reins for an Oklahoma State first when the Cowboys beat Iowa State, 58-27, and No. 15 Texas Tech, 52-34, in consecutive weeks to mark the first time in the history of the program that OSU scored 50 points or more in back-to-back road games.

► With Yurcich serving as his position coach, OSU quarterback Clint Chelf ranked eighth nationally with an adjusted QBR of 83.9. Chelf was a two-time selection as Big 12 Player of the Week and was a second-team All-Big 12 honoree selected by the Associated Press and the Big 12 coaches.

► Quarterback J.W. Walsh set a single-game school record for completion percentage (min. 20 attempts) when he connected on 88.9 percent of his passes (24-of-27) against UTSA under Yurcich's guidance.

► Other offensive players to earn All-Big 12 honors under Yurcich's watch were offensive lineman Parker Graham (first team by the Associated Press and by the coaches), fullback Kye Staley (second team by the coaches) and receiver Josh Stewart (second team by the coaches).

► Oklahoma State scored 35 rushing touchdowns during the 2013 regular season, a mark that ranked the Cowboys second in the Big 12 and 15th nationally.

► Despite not starting until the seventh game of the 2013 season, Desmond Roland led all Big 12 running backs and was 31st nationally with 13 rushing touchdowns.

► In 2014, Yurcich oversaw an offense that produced Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year Tyreek Hill and ranked in the top 10 nationally in red zone offense and fewest fumbles lost.

► Yurcich helped re-write the record books at Shippensburg. His first team set school records for points, touchdowns, total plays, first downs and total offense. His second team led the NCAA (Division II) in total offense (529.2 yards per game), and was second nationally in scoring (46.9 points per game) and passing offense (387.7 yards per game) during an 11-2 season.

► With Yurcich serving as his position coach, Shippensburg quarterback Zach Zulli won the 2012 Harlon Hill Award as the top player in Division II. Zulli set NCAA Division II records by accounting for 336 points and 56 touchdowns and tied the national record with 54 touchdown passes. Zulli ranked fourth in Division II in passing yards per game (365.2), third in total offense (382.4) and fifth in passing efficiency with a rating of 165.3

► Shippensburg scored 40 or more points 16 times in 24 games with Yurcich calling the plays from 2011-12.

► Before coaching at Shippensburg, Yurcich spent time at Edinboro University from 2006-2010, where he served as offensive coordinator and coached quarterbacks and receivers. During his tenure at Edinboro, Yurcich coached All-America quarterback Trevor Harris, a four-time all-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference West selection who signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars.

► Edinboro had back-to-back nine win seasons in 2008 and 2009. The Fighting Scots advanced to the 2009 NCAA Division II football playoffs where Harris set a Division II playoff record with 630 passing yards against West Liberty.

► Edinboro averaged at least 30 points per game from 2007-09 and consistently ranked among Division II's top offenses with Yurcich calling plays.

► Yurcich is a 1999 graduate of California University in Pennsylvania. He spent three seasons as the school's starting quarterback and was a two-year captain. He began his playing career at Mount Union College. He earned a degree in psychology at California and a master's degree in education from St. Francis, where he picked up a school counseling license.

Strong, big-armed quarterback who showed remarkable composure when called upon to start at quarterback in road contests against No. 6 Baylor and No. 18 Oklahoma and in the Cactus Bowl against Washington in the first three games of his college career.

2014 (Freshman): Was ticketed for a redshirt until an injury to Daxx Garman thrust him into the starting lineup in week 11 at No. 6 Baylor and he responded by turning in the most passing yards ever for an Oklahoma State player in his first game (281) ... Etched his name into OSU Bedlam lore by quarterbacking the Cowboys to the second-largest fourth-quarter come-from-behind victory in school history as part of their 38-35 overtime win over the No. 18 Sooners in Norman ... Rudolph's 273 passing yards against OU were the second-most ever for an OSU quarterback in a Bedlam Series game and his two touchdown passes that day tied for third-most ever for a Cowboy against the Sooners ... In the four games prior to Rudolph's insertion into the lineup, OSU averaged 10.0 points and 286.5 yards of total offense per game, but with Rudolph at quarterback, the Cowboys averaged 32.0 points and 418.3 yards of total offense per game in the final three contests, all of which were away from home against quality opponents ... Still, he completed 13-of-25 passes for 281 yards and two touchdowns against the Bears for the best debut for a Cowboy signal caller in school history ... On his 13 completions, Rudolph passed for more yards (281) than Baylor's Heisman Trophy candidate Bryce Petty did on 18 completions (262) ... In the Cactus Bowl against Washington, he had his best outing of the year with 299 passing yards (the most ever for a Cowboy freshman in a bowl game) and two touchdowns.

2014 SEASON REVIEW STORY

SEASON STORYLINES

► Oklahoma State was the youngest team in the nation in 2014. The Cowboys' opening day depth chart included 32 freshmen and sophomores (most in the nation) and OSU returned only 54.3 percent of its lettermen from 2013 (the lowest percentage in the nation). All told, 22 freshmen played for Oklahoma State. Of those 22 freshmen, 11 were true freshmen. Eight freshmen started for the Cowboys.

► For the second time in three seasons, injuries forced Oklahoma State coach Mike Gundy to play three different starting quarterbacks. Opening day starter J.W. Walsh was lost for the season in the first quarter of the second game of the year and his backup, Daxx Garman, was lost after getting injured in week 10. Those two injuries left Gundy with the decision to either pull the redshirt off promising true freshman Mason Rudolph or start a walk-on true freshman in OSU's week 11 game at No. 6 Baylor in Waco.

► Offensive line play was an issue for Oklahoma State for most of the season, as the makeshift group included a converted tight end in Zac Veatch having to start 11 games at guard and a true freshman walk-on in Brad Lundblade having to play significant reps at center for the final seven games of the season. The opening day starter at left tackle, Zachary Crabtree, watched injured from the sidelines as the Cowboys endured a five-game losing streak. Senior Chris Grisbhy started every game, but he played the entire season with a fracture in his left wrist and played the second half of the season with a dislocated finger on his right hand. With both hands injured, he was robbed of his ability to get any kind of punch in the trenches, yet he still played on.

► Foreshadowing the kind of grit and toughness that would come into play later in the season, Oklahoma State fought reigning national champion Florida State and its returning Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Jameis Winston to a near-standstill on a neutral field in week one, then won five straight games after that to soar to as high as No. 15 in the Associated Press poll. The Cowboys then lost five in a row and it wasn't until they beat Oklahoma in Norman in breath-taking fashion on the last day of the regular season that the Pokes clinched bowl eligibility. The Cowboys then handled Washington in the Cactus Bowl to finish 2014 with remarkably positive momentum.

There is a prominently-placed sign near the north entrance to Oklahoma State's Gallagher-Iba Arena that quotes Ed Gallagher: "If you don't make any sacrifices, you won't give a care whether you win or not."

Those words shed some light on the level of dedication that it takes to be part of a successful team.

Those words shed some light on the adversity, criticism, injuries and other setbacks that coaches and athletes deal with.

Those words shed some light on why the 2014 Cowboy football season will go down as being memorable for the right reasons despite the fact that the team had a modest 7-6 record.

How is that possible? Oklahoma State - a team that has become accustomed to either winning the Big 12 or being one of the last teams standing in the conference title race over the span of the last seven years - is trending upward at 7-6?

You bet it is.

In the midst of counting wins and losses, it should not be disregarded that Oklahoma State was one of the least-experienced teams in the country and dealt with the adversity of season-ending injuries to starters at perhaps the three most critical positions on the field - quarterback, left tackle and cornerback.

The Cowboys stood at 5-1 and were ranked as high as No. 15 in the Associated Press poll after a pair of non-conference victories plus Big 12 wins over Texas Tech, Kansas and Iowa State, yet several times during the winning streak, coach Mike Gundy referred to the Cowboys as being just average. He saw something - the team wasn't ready yet.

Oklahoma State then lost five consecutive games, with three of those losses coming to teams that were ranked in the top 11 of the final AP poll and a fourth at the hands of a team that was ranked at the time of the game. Interestingly, several times during that losing streak, Gundy referred to the Cowboys as a team that was getting better. He saw something - the team was developing and steadily improving, it just wasn't winning games.

"There were times during games this year where we just didn't play well - the other team was better than us and we got beat, but then there were times when we played well even though the other team was better than us. We have to look at that as coaches," Gundy said. "We lost to a team that was No. 1 in the country (Florida State), we lost to a team that was ranked sixth (Baylor) and we lost to a team that was ranked 12th (TCU). We played some pretty good football teams during the year."

2014 SEASON REVIEW STORY

SIGNATURE MOMENTS OF 2014

ALLOW ME TO INTRODUCE MYSELF

Facing No. 1-ranked Florida State and reigning Heisman winner Jameis Winston in week one, previously unheralded DE Emmanuel Ogbah posted 2 sacks, 2 TFLs, 2 PBUs and six tackles to introduce his presence on the national scene.

PULL THE REDSHIRT

QB injuries forced coach Mike Gundy to insert true freshman Mason Rudolph into the fold at Baylor in week 11 and that's when the entire vibe of OSU's season changed for the better.

"THIS! IS! BEDLAM!!!"

Tyreek Hill's 92-yard punt return TD with just 45 seconds left tied the game and set up overtime, where the Cowboys toppled favored Oklahoma to leave the crowd in Norman stunned silent.

THE BIG GUY STEALS THE SHOW

After playing zero offensive snaps in his career, 300-pound defensive tackle James Castleman rushed for a touchdown and made a key 48-yard reception to lift OSU to a victory in the Cactus Bowl.

The validation of Gundy's vision of an improving team came when Oklahoma State went into Norman and defeated No. 18 Oklahoma despite starting a true freshman quarterback playing behind a starting offensive line that included two freshmen and two sophomores.

"It helped everybody," Gundy said of his team's Bedlam victory. "It lifted their spirits. These guys on this team, especially the veteran players, they've won a lot of football games. When they went through a tough stretch, they stayed strong, kept fighting and continued to practice hard. I said this after the game, but in the two weeks leading up to the game, our guys practiced as well as they were practicing in September. We were just fortunate that we were able to hold it together as a staff and continue to get them to work hard. It paid off for them."

2014 BIG 12 STANDINGS

Team	Big 12	All	Pct.
TCU	8 - 1	12 - 1	.923
Baylor	8 - 1	11 - 2	.846
Kansas State	7 - 2	9 - 4	.692
Oklahoma	5 - 4	8 - 5	.615
West Virginia	5 - 4	7 - 6	.538
Texas	5 - 4	6 - 7	.462
Oklahoma State	4 - 5	7 - 6	.538
Texas Tech	2 - 7	4 - 8	.333
Kansas	1 - 8	3 - 9	.250
Iowa State	0 - 9	2 - 10	.167

The win not only put the Cowboys into the postseason, but also gave the players and staff confidence and a morale boost.

"When we had that losing streak, the team still practiced hard," receiver David Glidden said. "It's a young team, so mistakes were going to happen, but the guys were still going out there fighting. I think that's eventually what happened in the Bedlam game, and we never gave up. It really showed after the weeks of practice we'd been having."

A relaxed and energized OSU group rolled into its Cactus Bowl matchup with a Washington team that boasted three All-Americans on its defense and raced out to a 24-0 lead before crossing the finish line with a 30-22 win over the Huskies.

Cornerback Kevin Peterson added some insight on how the Cowboys worked through the adversity that came with a five-game losing streak.

"(We) just stayed really close," Peterson said. "Even if we (lost), we believed the scoreboard doesn't show what the game really means. In the public world, everything is kind of about wins and losses, and even if we had a rough year this year by that measure, we stayed close. We stay focused and we stay together."

The togetherness Peterson talked about plus the brand of toughness that Gundy instills in his team year in and year out are at the very core of how OSU navigated through a season of adversity yet still has a positive trend moving forward.

Offense Bullets

► Receiver David Glidden was a rock of stability for the Cowboys and was tabbed as the team's offensive MVP. He finished the season with a team-best 42 receptions for 598 yards and two touchdowns.

► When Oklahoma State was at its best in the final two games of the year, perhaps no Cowboy was more explosive than receiver Brandon Sheperd, who caught seven passes for 156 yards and two touchdowns in OSU's win over Oklahoma, then came back to make five catches for 98 yards and a score in the bowl game against Washington. Sheperd finished the season with 39 catches for a team-best 737 yards and five touchdowns.

► Despite facing the three most vaunted pass rush teams on OSU's schedule (Baylor, Oklahoma and Washington) in the first three games of his career, freshman quarterback Mason Rudolph thrived, completing 49-of-86 passes for 853 yards and six touchdowns in those three games.

► True freshman James Washington led the Cowboys with six touchdown receptions and staked a legitimate claim to being one of the best up-and-coming receivers in the Big 12.

Defense Bullets

► Emmanuel Ogbah went from virtual unknown in the preseason to a first-team All-Big 12 performer and the Big 12 defensive lineman of the year.

► Unheralded by the media and outsiders, defensive tackle Ofa Hautau was voted as OSU's MVP by the coaches.

► Linebacker Ryan Simmons was the heart and soul of the defense with his leadership and ability to adjust to a defensive scheme that morphed as the year went on.

► Freshman safety Jordan Sterns emerged as a nasty, hard-hitting presence in the OSU secondary who commanded respect from opposing coaches.

► Ticketed for redshirt during the earlygoing, true freshman Ramon Richards was forced into the lineup after cornerback Ashton Lampkin was lost for the season in week four. A converted high school quarterback, Richards took some time to adjust and was targeted by opposing teams early on, but came around as the season progressed and blossomed into an effective cornerback by season's end.

ARLINGTON - The Cowboys were 20-point underdogs to the No. 1-ranked reigning national champions and overcame an early 17-0 deficit to battle the Seminoles well into the fourth quarter, but shaky play on special teams and a first-half pick-six were significant factors that thwarted OSU's hopes of pulling the upset.

STILLWATER - After spotting UTSA a first-quarter field goal to open the scoring, Oklahoma State scored 27 unanswered points to set the tone for its 43-13 win.

With quarterback J.W. Walsh out, Daxx Garman stepped in for his first start and helped the Cowboys pile up 477 yards of offense.

OSU's defense owned the line of scrimmage and used its superior speed to limit UTSA to only three-of-17 on third down (17.6 pct.) The Cowboys held the Roadrunners to only 73 yards on 25 rushing attempts (2.1 yards per carry).

OKLAHOMA STATE 15/15	9
TCU 12/12	42

Captains: Desmond Roland, Chris Grisbhy, Ryan Simmons, Jerel Morrow

FORT WORTH - TCU's offense hit Oklahoma State with a flurry of long scoring plays early to create all the separation it needed in its 42-9 win over the Cowboys in Amon G. Carter Stadium.

The Horned Frogs' three first-quarter touchdown drives spanned 30 seconds, 12 seconds and 34 seconds, respectively. Still, the Cowboys hung around behind three field goals from Ben Grogan to bring the score to 21-9 late in the second quarter. TCU responded when B.J. Catalon rushed for a 35-yard touchdown on a fourth-and-one play with 1:53 left in the half to give the Frogs a 28-9 lead.

TCU dominated time of possession in the second half (22:48 to 7:12) and limited OSU to 51 yards of total offense after halftime to seal its win.

WEST VIRGINIA 22/25	34
OKLAHOMA STATE RV/RV	10

Captains: David Glidden, Seth Jacobs, Kevin Peterson, Elliott Jeffcoat

STILLWATER - Oklahoma State allowed West Virginia to score touchdowns on each of its first two possessions and that is all the advantage the Mountaineers needed in their 34-10 win over the Cowboys in Boone Pickens Stadium.

The Pokes trailed, 14-10, at the half and were very much in the game, but WVU minimized OSU's comeback chances by piling up a 12:09-to-2:51 advantage in time of possession in the third quarter. The Mountaineers ran 25 offensive plays in the third quarter to OSU's seven. Still, trailing only 17-10 going into the fourth quarter, the Cowboys remained in position to make a move, but could not muster any kind of threat.

MANHATTAN - Oklahoma State marched downfield and scored a touchdown on its opening drive of the game, but could not sustain that level of play in its 48-14 loss at No. 11 Kansas State.

Playing without starting running back Desmond Roland, who did not travel with the team due to a death in the family, the Cowboys turned to Tyreek Hill at running back and the junior speedster responded by turning in OSU's first 100-yard rushing performance of the season. Hill finished with 102 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

STILLWATER - Oklahoma State's defense played well enough to keep Texas within striking range, but the Cowboys were unable to generate many scoring opportunities and lost a 28-7 decision to the Longhorns in Boone Pickens Stadium.

Texas scored on each of its first three drives to seize control of the game and the Longhorns' defense held the Cowboys in check throughout the day as OSU totaled 192 yards of offense and just nine first downs. Texas controlled the trenches, limiting the Cowboys to 1.5 yards per rush and amassing seven quarterback sacks.

It wasn't until the 9:02 mark of the fourth quarter that the Pokes got on the board when quarterback Daxx Garman connected on an eight-yard scoring pass to James Washington.

WACO - Debuting true freshman quarterback Mason Rudolph playing most of the game behind an offensive line consisting of three freshmen and a sophomore, Oklahoma State lost a 49-28 decision in a driving rain storm to No. 6 Baylor in Waco.

Baylor jumped the Cowboys immediately and held a 14-0 lead less than three minutes into the game after a pair of long touchdown passes. OSU responded by dropping safeties back, which set the stage for the Bears to be able to rush for 317 yards and five touchdowns in the contest.

NORMAN - A 92-yard punt return by Tyreek Hill with 45 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter tied the game and set the stage for Oklahoma State to pull off a 38-35 overtime win at No. 18 Oklahoma.

The Cowboys trailed, 35-21, with five minutes left in the game, but pulled off the second-largest fourth quarter comeback in school history thanks to a 43-yard touchdown pass from true freshman Mason Rudolph to Brandon Sheperd, followed by a pair of defensive three-and-outs and then Hill's spectacular punt return score that deadlocked the score through the end of regulation.

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) - Oklahoma State went through its most difficult season under coach Mike Gundy, losing five straight games before squeaking into a bowl game.

Once the Cowboys got to the Cactus Bowl, they rode a freshman quarterback and an offensively gifted defensive tackle to a spirit-lifting victory.

Mason Rudolph threw for 299 yards and two touchdowns, and 300-pound tackle James Castleman showed off his versatility with two big offensive plays lead Oklahoma State to a 30-22 victory over Washington in the Cactus Bowl Friday night.

"Our offense was resilient," Gundy said. "I thought we blocked well, our running back ran hard, we made big catches and we turned James Castleman into a wide receiver."

Oklahoma State (7-6) needed a late rally over rival Oklahoma in the season finale to become bowl eligible and played the Cactus Bowl without its most dynamic offensive player.

The Cowboys closed out the season with a flourish behind Rudolph, with some help from Castleman.

A freshman making his third start, Rudolph kept his composure against Washington's vaunted front seven, overcoming three turnovers to hit 17 of 26 passes.

Desmond Roland kept the Huskies off balance by tearing off big runs up the middle, finishing with 123 yards on 32 carries.

Then there was Castleman.

Though he had never played offense before, the beefy defensive tackle lined up in the shotgun to score on a 1-yard run in the first half, helping Oklahoma State build a 17-point halftime lead.

Washington rallied to within a touchdown in the second half, but Castleman wreaked havoc again, catching a pass out of the backfield and rumbling down the sideline for a 48-yard catch that all but killed the Huskies' hopes.

"Honestly, I'm like, `Why hasn't somebody hit me yet?'" Castleman said of his reception. "Next thing, I look up to the screen, I see someone coming and I try jabbing inside trying to get him to miss. Once he hit me, the check engine light came on."

Washington (8-6) stumbled out of the gate on both sides of the ball in the first half in the first half before finding a rhythm on offense in the second.

The hole proved to be too deep, ending coach Chris Petersen's first season with a loss.

John Ross scored on a 96-yard kickoff return and Cyler Miles threw for 268 yards and a touchdown, but had an interception on Washington's last-ditch drive.

"If we would have come out ready, it would have been a different outcome," said Huskies receiver Jaydon Mickens, who scored two touchdowns.

The Cowboys pulled off a last-minute comeback to earn a spot in the Cactus Bowl, scoring two touchdowns in the final 8 minutes to knock off Oklahoma in overtime.

They had no trouble against Washington's ferocious front seven on their opening drive, confidently converting a midfield fourth-and-1 to set up Castleman's 1-yard dive off left tackle.

Rudolph turned it over on the next two drives, losing a fumble when he was sacked, then on a one-handed interception by Budda Baker.

The freshman kept his poise, though. He caught a pass from receiver Brandon Sheperd on a trick play to set up a 28-yard touchdown pass to James Washington, who one-upped Baker with a one-handed catch in the end zone.

The Sheperd-Rudolph connection worked again just before the half, this time in reverse: Rudolph on the throw, Sheperd on the catch for a 47-yard touchdown that put the Cowboys up 24-0.

Washington had just as much trouble on offense, finishing with 113 total yards in the half.

"The first half was, obviously, on offense, still in practice mode," Petersen said.

The Huskies finally showed signs of life on their opening drive of the third quarter, cutting into Oklahoma State's lead on Mickens' 31-yard reverse.

Washington got a bad break when a punt hit one of its players and Oklahoma State recovered, but held the Cowboys to Ben Grogan's 27-yard field goal. Ross took the ensuing kickoff up the middle, made a couple of jukes and raced off to a 96-yard touchdown that cut the Cowboys' lead to 27-14.

Miles followed with a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mickens, trimming the lead to 30-2 with 3 1-2 minutes left.

The Cowboys then turned to Castleman again and he played the receiver role well, killing off precious seconds that helped the Cowboys finish a difficult season on a positive note.

"This was a great finish for this team," Gundy said.

They can thank their freshman quarterback and new - and big - offensive weapon.

COWBOYS IN THE HALL OF FAME

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION
COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame features five men from Oklahoma State University.

Coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1966, following a career that included five seasons in Stillwater. During his years in the orange and black, OSU claimed four conference championships and carved out a 3-0-2 record against state rival Oklahoma. Waldorf would end his career at the University of California with multiple Rose Bowl appearances.

The first OSU player to be inducted into the college hall was Bob Fenimore. Known as the "Blond Bomber", Fenimore led Oklahoma State, known as Oklahoma A&M during his playing days, to new heights. His accomplishments included an undefeated season and a final AP ranking of No. 5. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1972. Fenimore was also recently inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame.

In 2003, the most decorated player in OSU history, running back Barry Sanders, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. Sanders, whose 1988 season remains the greatest in NCAA history, rewrote school, conference and NCAA record books in his three-year career at OSU. ESPN recently selected Sanders as the second-best player in college football history.

Thurman Thomas, the all-time leading rusher in Cowboy history and one of OSU's all-time fan favorites, was inducted into the hall in 2008. A two-time Big Eight Conference player of the year, Thomas is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Thomas led Oklahoma State in rushing for four straight seasons and ended his career with 50 touchdowns and 5,001 rushing yards.

Coach Jimmy Johnson was inducted in 2012. He served as OSU's head coach from 1979-83 and his time at OSU began with a bang when he helped lead an undermanned Cowboy squad to a 7-4 record in his first year. He was named Big Eight coach of the year for his efforts. During his time in Stillwater, OSU fielded some of the better defenses in school history, with players like Ricky Young, Leslie O'Neal and Gary Lewis leading the way.

FROM STILLWATER TO CANTON

As teammates at Oklahoma State, Barry Sanders and Thurman Thomas combined to form perhaps the best backfield duo in NCAA history. And just to prove their point, the two Cowboys took their act to the National Football League, and their road together didn't stop until they were both inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Sanders was immortalized in 2004 with his induction. Thomas joined his former teammate in Canton in 2007.

Sanders and Thomas are two of the NFL's all-time leading rushers and are considered among the greatest running backs ever to play the game.

MARK MOORE

SAFETY | NACOGDOCHES, TX

1984 Walter Camp All-America
1985 Associated Press All-America
1985 Sporting News All-America
1986 Associated Press All-America

Mark Moore was one of the most feared defensive players, not only in the Big Eight Conference, but around the nation. The hard-hitting safety roamed the defensive secondary looking for opponents to knock down and he picked off 16 passes to rank second all-time at Oklahoma State.

A member of the OSU Athletics Hall of Fame, Moore registered 311 tackles during his four-year career, including 91 in 1985 and 96 in 1986. He intercepted seven passes during his All-America junior season, one shy of the school record of eight for a season and the fifth-best total in the nation that year. He was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press in 1985 and 1986 and earned All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation in 1984.

During his All-America seasons, OSU allowed just 135 yards per game passing in 1985 and 121 in 1986, the lowest two averages since 1978. Moore was a fourth-round pick by the Seattle Seahawks in 1987.

2010 (PUNTER), 2011 & 2012 (KICKER)

QUINN SHARP

KICKER/PUNTER | MANSFIELD, TX

2010 FWAA All-America punter
2011 FWAA All-America kicker
2012 AFCA All-America kicker

Quinn Sharp is one of only two players ever to be a first-team All-America punter and a first-team All-America kicker by the Football Writers Association of America, as the organization tabbed him as its All-America punter in 2010 and its All-America kicker in 2011. The American Football Coaches Association honored him as a kicker in 2012.

A two-time honoree as the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year (2011 and 2012), Sharp led the nation in touchbacks on kickoffs each of his four seasons at OSU, set an NCAA single-season record for points scored by a kicker with 156 in 2012 and led all players active in 2012 with a 45.9 career yards-per-punt average.

Owner of perhaps the most powerful boot in the nation throughout his career, Sharp served as OSU's kickoff man and punter during his freshman and sophomore years, then added placekicking chores after the graduation of 2010 Lou Groza Award winner Dan Bailey following the 2010 season.

As a sophomore in 2010, Sharp matched an NCAA record by averaging 60.4 yards per punt in a game against Nebraska (five punts for 302 yards).

TWO-TIME ALL-AMERICANS

1944, 1945

BOB FENIMORE

RUNNING BACK | WOODWARD, OK

1944 Consensus All-America (AP, FWAA, Sporting News)
1945 Unanimous All-America

If Bob Fenimore seemed like he was all over the field, it's because he was. Fenimore excelled on the offensive side of the ball, the defensive side of the ball, and on special teams. His exceptional talent and play earned the "Blond Bomber" consensus All-America honors in 1944 and 1945. He was the first player from the university awarded All-America honors.

In 2007, he was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame. He also holds membership in the OSU Hall of Fame as well as the College Football Hall of Fame.

The leader of OSU teams that went 8-1 with a Cotton Bowl victory in 1944 and a perfect 9-0 with a Sugar Bowl win in 1945 and a ranking of fifth in the final Associated Press poll, Fenimore's play was legendary.

From his halfback position, he established himself as one of the nation's finest players. The numbers speak for themselves. In 1944, he led the nation in total offense (1,758 yards), was third in rushing (899), eighth in passing (997), ninth in scoring (77), and 13th in punting (37.3).

In OSU's undefeated 1945 season, he was the national leader in both total offense (1,641), and rushing (1,119), while ranking seventh in punting (39.0), and 13th in scoring (72). His 18 interceptions during his OSU career remain a school record, and his 4,627 career yards of total offense were not eclipsed until Mike Gundy came along more than 40 years later.

Fenimore was a first round draft choice of the Chicago Bears in 1947.

1976, 1977

TERRY MILLER

RUNNING BACK | COLORADO SPRINGS, CO

1976 Associated Press All-America
1976 FWAA All-America
1977 Unanimous All-America

Only three players in Big Eight history rushed for 4,000 yards during their careers and Terry Miller is one of them. Mike Rozier of Nebraska (4,780) and Thurman Thomas of Oklahoma State (5,001) were the only others.

Miller gained 4,754 yards while establishing himself as one of the nation's best in the 1970s. He is the only player in school history to record three 1,000-yard rushing seasons. As a sophomore in 1975, he gained 1,026 yards and then, during All-America seasons in 1976 and 1977, he led the Big Eight with 1,887 as a junior and 1,680 as a senior. Those numbers ranked fifth in the nation in 1976 and third in 1977.

Miller was tabbed as the Big Eight offensive player of the year in both 1976 and 1977. He finished runner-up to Earl Campbell in the 1977 Heisman Trophy balloting.

Miller's 49 career touchdowns at OSU trail only Barry Sanders and Thurman Thomas. Miller was a first-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 1978. His jersey number 43 is one of three no longer in use at Oklahoma State. He was a Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and Associated Press All-American in 1976 and 1977 and a Walter Camp All-American and AFCA All American in 1977.

1984, 1985

LESLIE O'NEAL

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN | LITTLE ROCK, AR

1984 Associated Press All-America
1984 Sporting News All-America
1985 Unanimous All-America

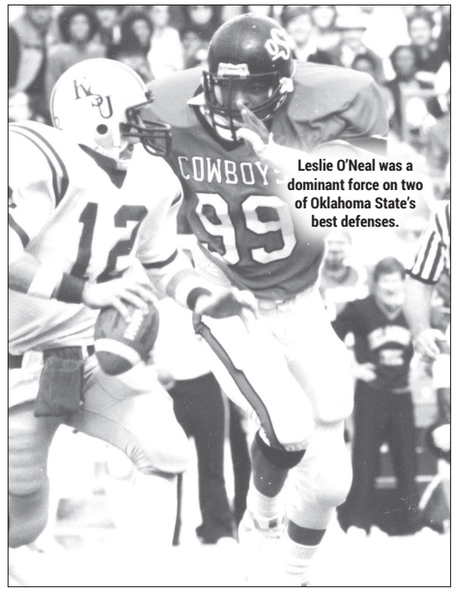

Oklahoma State's defenses in 1984 and 1985 may have been the best in school history, and they were anchored by two-time All-American lineman Leslie O'Neal.

O'Neal was a dominant force on teams which allowed just a total of 34 touchdowns over two seasons, the lowest totals ever at OSU. He was named Big Eight defensive player of the year in 1984 and earned All-Big Eight honors in each of his last three seasons as a Cowboy.

O'Neal set a school record that stands to this day by registering 16.0 sacks for 118 yards lost in 1984. He also remains the OSU career leader with 34.0 sacks.

He was a first-round draft choice of the San Diego Chargers in 1986. O'Neal retired following the 1999 season. During his career, the defensive end was selected to the Pro Bowl six times, while recording 136.0 career sacks.

During his career, the Cowboys played in the Bluebonnet Bowl and consecutive Gator Bowls. He was a unanimous All-American in 1985, earning a spot on each of the five recognized teams (American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Walter Camp).

Leslie O'Neal was a dominant force on two of Oklahoma State's best defenses.

1985, 1987

THURMAN THOMAS

RUNNING BACK | MISSOURI CITY, TX

1985 United Press International All-America
1987 Associated Press All-America
1987 Sporting News All-America

The all-time leading rusher in Oklahoma State football history, Thomas ran for 5,001 yards and scored 50 touchdowns over his four-year career. He was Oklahoma State's leading rusher in each of his four seasons and was the Big Eight leader in both 1985 and 1987. He was voted the Big Eight Conference's offensive player of the year after both seasons.

In 1985, he rushed for 1,650 yards, good for fourth in America. In 1987, his 1,767 yards were the third-most nationally. His 22 career 100-yard rushing games are second in OSU history only to Terry Miller's 26.

A knee injury prevented Thomas from being a first-round draft choice, but Buffalo stole him in the second round in 1988. He was that team's most effective weapon in four straight Super Bowl seasons, and he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player after the 1991 season.

He is a 2007 inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining his OSU teammate, Barry Sanders. His No. 34 jersey is one of three no longer in use at Oklahoma State.

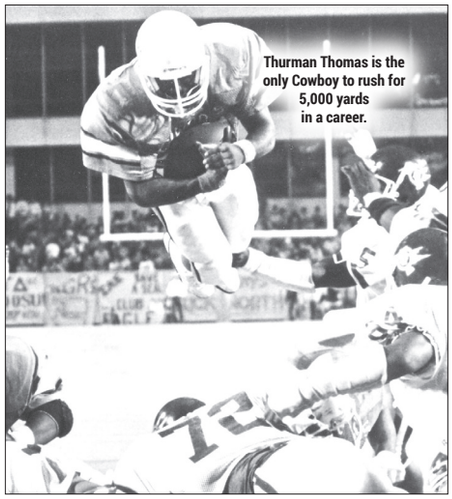

Thomas was a 2008 inductee in the National College Football Hall of Fame.

BARRY SANDERS

RUNNING BACK | WICHITA, KS

1987 Sporting News All-America (kick returner)
1988 Unanimous All-America (running back)

While playing behind starting tailback Thurman Thomas in 1987, Barry Sanders had to make his mark somewhere on the field during his sophomore season. He did that returning kickoffs and punts and in fact, his exploits earned him All-America honors as a return man.

With the departure of Thomas to the NFL, Sanders became the go-to guy in 1988 and he responded with a season that may not be matched for years, if ever. He established 34 NCAA records, while posting the best rushing season in college football history.

His domination of college football that year earned him the Heisman Trophy and unanimous All-America honors. He helped make the Oklahoma State offense one of the most productive in college football history.

Among his most outrageous statistics in 1988:
* 237.5 rushing yards per game
* 7.6 yards per carry
* 44 touchdowns scored (3.7 per game)
* Four games with at least 300 yards rushing
* 937 rushing yards and 13 touchdowns in one three-game span against Kansas, Iowa State and Texas Tech.

Sanders was a first-round draft choice by the Detroit Lions in 1989. The No. 21 jersey Sanders wore as a Cowboy is one of just three numbers not in use at Oklahoma State. He is also a member of both the Pro Football and College Football Halls of Fame.

Dan Bailey joined the OSU football program as a walk-on in 2007 and left the school in 2010 as a first-team All-American, the winner of the Lou Groza Award (presented to the nation's top kicker), the Big 12 special teams player of the year and as the school's all-time leading scorer.

In 2010, Bailey set a then-NCAA record for points scored by a kicker in a single season with 149. He converted on 27 of 31 field goal attempts and 68 of 70 extra points.

He kicked a walk-off game winner against Texas A&M and his 370 points were not only the best in OSU history (breaking the 22-year-old record held by Barry Sanders), but it was also the fifth-best total in Big 12 history at the time.

He set an OSU record with 182 straight converted extra points and his 27 field goals as a senior were also a school record. He was the nation's second-leading scorer as a senior with 11.46 points per game.

He was named a first-team All-American by Scout.com and a second-teamer by Associated Press.

2011

LEVY ADCOCK

OFFENSIVE LINE | CLAREMORE, OK

2011 Consensus All-America (AFCA, AP, FWAA, Walter Camp)

Levy Adcock was a consensus All-American in 2011, earning first-team honors from the American Football Coaches Association and the Football Writers Association of America, second-team honors from Walter Camp and third-team honors from the Associated Press.

Standing 6-foot-6, weighing 322 pounds and exceptionally athletic for his size, Adcock was the most well-known member of an OSU offensive line that paved the way for two of the best offensive units in school history in 2010 and 2011.

In two seasons starting on the offensive line and registering well over 1,000 snaps of game action, Adcock allowed only 1.5 sacks despite the fact that the Cowboys ranked among the national leaders in pass attempts during his time on the line.

2011

GRANT GARNER

OFFENSIVE LINE | MESQUITE, TX

2011 Associated Press All-America

The 2011 Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year, Grant Garner was a first-team All-American by SI.com and was a third-team All-American by the Associated Press during that same season.

The leader of the Cowboy offensive line from his center position, Garner was generally thought of as one of the key cogs on one of the nation's most feared offenses in both 2010 and 2011.

He was a finalist for the 2011 Rimington Award, which is given to the nation's most outstanding center, and he did it with steady leadership and a tremendous knowledge of the game.

Garner consistently graded out as OSU's top offensive lineman during a 2011 season that saw him pave the way for quarterback Brandon Weeden and receiver Justin Blackmon to both emerge as viable Heisman candidates and running back Joseph Randle to rank among the national leaders in touchdowns scored.

2011

MARKELLE MARTIN

SAFETY | WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS

2011 AFCA All-America

Feared throughout his career as one of the most punishing hitters in the Big 12, Markelle Martin was a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association after serving as the ringleader of the Cowboy defense in 2011.

A three-year starter for the Cowboys, Martin never ranked among the nation's statistical leaders in any individual category, but stats aren't what built his reputation. Martin was known for devastating opposing players when they wandered into his territory.

With Martin serving as a starting safety, the Cowboys won a share of the Big 12 South title in 2010 before winning the conference crown outright in 2011. The intimidation factor that Martin possessed helped OSU to lead the nation in turnovers forced from 2010-11. The Cowboys ranked seventh in the nation in pass efficiency defense and were 12th nationally in red zone defense during Martin's All-America season.

JUSTIN GILBERT

CORNERBACK | HUNTSVILLE, TEXAS

2013 Consensus All-America (FWAA, Walter Camp, AP)

One of the fastest players ever to suit up for Oklahoma State, Justin Gilbert was a key figure in one of the most successful eras in Cowboy football history. Gilbert was a finalist for the Thorpe Award presented to the nation's top defensive back in 2013 and finished his career with six kickoff returns for touchdowns - a mark that ranked just one shy of the NCAA record.

Gilbert came to OSU as a heavily-recruited prospect out of high school and made an immediate impact by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns as a true freshman in 2010. His breakthrough year came in 2011, when he cracked into the starting lineup, intercepted five passes, returned two more kickoffs for touchdowns and was the Defensive MVP of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Gilbert became one of the most respected defensive players in the Big 12 during his senior year of 2013, intercepting seven passes and returning two of them for touchdowns. He earned first-team all-conference honors by both the coaches and the Associated Press to go with first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America and the Walter Camp Football Foundation and second-team All-America honors by the Associated Press.

DALLAS – The first bowl appearance for Oklahoma A&M turned into a pleasant experience for the orange and black faithful as the Aggies used a season-ending 28-6 win over Oklahoma as a springboard to a dominating bowl performance.

Oklahoma A&M sophomore tailback whiz Bob Fenimore, the nation's total offense leader, lived up to All-America billings as the Cowboys bounced the local team from TCU, 34-0, in the third-largest margin of victory in Cotton Bowl history. Fenimore scored on runs of one and seven yards and completed 6-of-13 passes for 136 yards. Fullback Jim Spavital powered his way for 120 yards, including a 52-yard scoring bolt.

Meanwhile, the Poke defense smothered TCU, not allowing the Horned Frogs past midfield until the second half. Coach Jim Lookabaugh's muscular single-wing offense harvested 494 yards of total offense, while TCU could manage only 105. In the fourth period, A&M's reserves took over with Joe Thomas and Mack Creager adding touchdowns on short plunges.

The Aggies finished the year with an 8-1 record. It was their best win total since the 1932 squad won nine games.

Fenimore, Neill Armstrong (who would later coach the Chicago Bears) and tackle Ralph Foster were all Aggies who were named as the game's outstanding players. Fenimore was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in the spring of 2007.

1946 SUGAR BOWL

JANUARY 1, 1946 | NEW ORLEANS, LA.

OKLAHOMA A&M	33

NEW ORLEANS -- A capacity crowd of 75,000 gathered to watch the battle of All-Americans, Oklahoma A&M's Bob "Blond Bomber" Fenimore and St. Mary's "Squirmin'" Herman Wedemeyer.

Wedemeyer's 46-yard touchdown pass to Dennis O'Conner opened the scoring, but Fenimore matched it with a 29-yard scoring toss to Cecil Hankins as the first quarter ended. Fenimore's short plunge gave A&M the lead for keeps, but just before the half, Wedemeyer lateralled to Fred DeSalvo, who weaved his way through Aggie defenders 44 yards for a touchdown. The conversion missed, and A&M led at halftime.

While the Cowboy passing game was off, the ground game produced another Fenimore TD plunge in the third period, and Jim Reynolds opened the fourth stanza by leaping a yard for a score. Reynolds winged a 20-yard TD pass to Joe Thomas in the final minutes to end the wild scoring derby.

In his battle with Wedemeyer, Fenimore got the best of the total offense struggle, netting 206 yards in 36 plays while Wedemeyer had 184 yards in 25 plays. Fenimore also punted four times for an average of 53.2 yards.

WILLIAM & MARY	20
OKLAHOMA A&M	0

MEMPHIS -- Only 15,069 fans braved chilling weather in Crump Stadium as the William and Mary Indians made the most of Oklahoma A&M's mistakes for a 20-0 win in the second and final Delta Bowl.

The Indians never got outside their own 36-yard-line in the first half, but quarterback Tommy Korshcowski passed 12 yards to Lou Hoitsma in the third period for a touchdown. A Cowboy fumble set the stage for Korshcowski's 22-yard scoring aerial to Jack Bruce in the fourth period.

With A&M driving, Indian tackle Lou Creekmur picked off a deflected Bob Carey pass and rumbled 70 yards for the game's last tally. Jack Cloud was the only Indian rusher of the day, gaining 78 yards in 14 tries while Kenny Roof had 63 in seven cracks for the Aggies.

1958 BLUEGRASS BOWL

DECEMBER 13, 1958 | LOUISVILLE, KY.

OKLAHOMA STATE	15
FLORIDA STATE	6

LOUISVILLE - Playing on a baseball diamond and in tennis shoes, Oklahoma State's ground game, behind Duane Wood and Forrest Campbell, staked the Pokes to a 15-point lead, and a rock-ribbed defense surrendered only a late TD pass from Joe Majors to Carl Meyer.

Wood scored both OSU touchdowns on rushes of one and 17 yards. But Campbell, who netted 130 yards on 26 carries, was chosen outstanding player of the game. Dick Soergel engineered the OSU offense while Vandiver Childs, Jim Howard, Sonny Keys, John Calvin and Fred Latham manned a mauling Cowpoke defense.

The game was televised over ABC-TV with Harry Wismer handling the play-by-play duties and Howard Cosell providing color commentary. Only 7,000 frigid fans turned out for the first and last edition of the Bluegrass Bowl.

1974 FIESTA BOWL

DECEMBER 28, 1974 | TEMPE, ARIZ.

OKLAHOMA STATE	16
BRIGHAM YOUNG	6

TEMPE -- A slow-starting offense aided by a spunky defense lifted OSU to a 16-6 verdict over Brigham Young, champs of the WAC.

State didn't get a first down in the opening quarter as the Cougars posted a pair of field goals. Midway in the second period Charlie Weatherbie pitched to Kenny Walker, who scored from 12 yards out. OSU made three deep drives in the third period but settled for a single field goal, a 42-yarder by Abby Daigle.

After subduing a fourth-quarter Cougar drive at the OSU 28, the Pokes wedged their way past midfield in a time-consuming drive. Leonard Thompson then lofted the halfback pass to split end Gerald Bain for 40 yards and the clinching score.

State's Phillip Dokes decked Cougar quarterback Gary Shiede late in the first period with a jarring tackle which dampened BYU hopes but understudy Mark Giles almost bailed the Cougars out of trouble with his fourth-quarter efforts. Dokes picked up the outstanding defensive player trophy and Walker was chosen top offensive player as OSU dominated play in the second half.

DECEMBER 19, 1976 | ORLANDO, FLA.

BRIGHAM YOUNG	21
OKLAHOMA STATE	49

ORLANDO -- Billed as a showdown between Brigham Young pass-happy quarterback Gifford Nielsen and Oklahoma State running back Terry Miller, the Cowboy defense and Miller were the standouts in a 49-21 triumph for Oklahoma State.

Defensive tackle Chris Dawson intercepted a Nielsen pass in the first quarter and returned it 36 yards for a TD. And while Nielsen completed 23-of-34 passes for 209 yards and a TD, he was intercepted three more times by defensive backs Milton Kirven, Gary Irons and Jerry Cramer.

Meanwhile, Miller ran wild for 173 yards and had scoring jaunts of 78, 6, 3 and 1 yards. The Cowboys rolled up 402 yards total offense, including 375 on the ground, to rout BYU. Cowboy running back Robert Turner supported Miller's running with 80 yards on 22 attempts and a TD, and All-America tackle Phillip Dokes led a parade of OSU defenders that kept constant pressure on Nielsen.

1981 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

DECEMBER 12, 1981 | SHREVEPORT, LA.

TEXAS A&M	33
OKLAHOMA STATE	16

SHREVEPORT -- Oklahoma State's nationally-ranked defense did its job for a while, but Texas A&M opened up late in the first half to score two quick touchdowns and went on to hand the Cowboys just their second bowl loss, 33-16, in the Independence Bowl.

OSU's opportunistic offense turned an Aggie fumble into a 7-0 lead only minutes into the game. Defensive back Pete DiClementi recovered a fumble for the Pokes on A&M's 25, and running back Ernest Anderson got the score several plays later on a one-yard plunge.

The Aggies responded with the first of four David Hardy field goals to cut the margin to 7-3, but all-Big Eight kicker Larry Roach put OSU back up by seven, 10-3, with a 43-yarder of his own. Midway through the second period, Hardy closed the margin to 10-6, and moments later the Aggies scored two lightning quick cross-country aerial touchdowns to move to a 20-10 halftime lead.

Two Hardy field goals upped that lead to 26-10 before the Cowboys drove 66 yards for Vince Orange's five-yard TD burst. OSU was crippled by injuries to several running backs during the contest, and A&M showed its versatility with 223 rushing yards and 225 passing yards before a record 47,300. Linebacker Mike Green led OSU's defense and was voted outstanding defensive player.

1983 BLUEBONNET BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1983 | HOUSTON, TEXAS

BAYLOR	14
OKLAHOMA STATE	24

HOUSTON -- Quarterback Rusty Hilger and tailback Ernest Anderson sparked Oklahoma State past Baylor, 24-14, as a near-sellout crowd of 50,090 in the Astrodome watched the 25th Bluebonnet Bowl.

Anderson carried the ball 27 times for 143 yards and a touchdown while Hilger completed 12-of-17 for 137 yards and a pair of touchdowns to ignite the Oklahoma State win. Hilger, who was later named MVP, left the game late in the first half with a slight concussion. He didn't return but Anderson's nifty running and another strong performance by the Cowboy defense kept Baylor at bay.

OSU held the Bears to just 134 yards on the ground and the Cowboy secondary picked off two passes to help seal the win. Touchdown passes from Hilger to Malcolm Lewis and Jamie Harris and a one-yard scoring run by Anderson gave OSU a 21-0 advantage before Baylor got on the scoreboard late in the first half.

The Pokes added a Larry Roach field goal in the first half while Baylor found the endzone an additional time in the second to complete the scoring.

1984 GATOR BOWL

DECEMBER 28, 1984 | JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

OKLAHOMA STATE	21
SOUTH CAROLINA	14

JACKSONVILLE -- After South Carolina overcame a 13-point Oklahoma State lead, the Cowboys stormed 88 yards to score the decisive touchdown on a bruising, 25-yard Rusty Hilger-to-tight end Barry Hanna pass play with just over a minute left in the game to hand OSU a 21-14 victory before a record crowd of 82,138 in the 40th Annual Gator Bowl.

Hanna, who scored his only touchdown of the season on that play, banged off two tacklers and carried a few more into the end zone with him as he tip-toed down the sideline for the game-saving score.

Earlier in the game, the Cowpokes bulled their way to a 13-0 lead. Freshman tailback Thurman Thomas, the game's MVP when he rushed for 155 yards and a touchdown and passed for a TD, leaped over from one yard out at the end of O-State's first possession. Then, early in the second quarter when it appeared the Gamecocks had stalled the Cowpokes at the Carolina six-yard line, Thomas took a Hilger pitch, ran right and suddenly stopped and threw back left to a wide open Hilger for the score. The conversion attempt was wide and it was a play to haunt the Pokes until Hanna's heroics.

Carolina regained the lead quickly in the third quarter on aerial bombs of 24 and 57 yards, but the rest of the time the stubborn Cowboy defense kept the Gamecock attack in a fog. OSU's final drive was endangered only once, that on a fourth-and-sixth situation at midfield, but Hilger hit the reliable Hanna for 13 yards to the Carolina 36. Hilger mixed up the defense beautifully by sending Thomas up the middle on a draw play for 11 yards and then came heart-stopping magic on the TD pass to Hanna.

1985 GATOR BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 1985 | JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

OKLAHOMA STATE	23
FLORIDA STATE	34

JACKSONVILLE -- The 17th-ranked Florida State Seminoles sprinted out to an early 13-point margin before No. 18 Oklahoma State got untracked, and despite a third-quarter surge, the Seminole aerial attack was too much as the Cowboys dropped a 34-23 decision in front of a bi-partisan crowd of 79,417 in the 41st annual Gator Bowl.

In what was touted as an explosive FSU offense versus a stingy OSU defense, FSU coach Bobby Bowden decided to go with a freshman quarterback and a third-string senior tailback just two weeks prior to the game. The decision proved effective as the Seminoles exploded for 569 total yards, 231 on the ground and 338 through the air.

FSU stunned the Pokes with a 45-yard pass on the first play of the game and threw for 214 yards in the opening half. The Seminoles took a 27-3 lead into the middle of the third quarter but OSU put a pair of quick touchdowns on the board to cut the deficit to 27-17.

Following a blocked punt by OSU freshman Milton Cockrell a come-back seemed possible. However, the Cowboys could not mount a drive and were forced to punt.

Florida State MVP quarterback Chip Ferguson then went to work again and nine plays later finalized the scoring on a one-yard keeper. OSU, losing for only the third time in ten postseason appearances, totaled 369 yards, but saw sophomore sensation Thurman Thomas limited to just 97 yards on 26 carries.

1987 SUN BOWL

DECEMBER 25, 1987 | EL PASO, TEXAS

WEST VIRGINIA	33
OKLAHOMA STATE	35

EL PASO -- In one of the most entertaining postseason games of the year, Oklahoma State rallied to defeat West Virginia 35-33 in the snow of the 1987 John Hancock Sun Bowl.

The heroes for Oklahoma State were many but the list was topped by tailback Thurman Thomas who rushed for 157 yards on 33 carries and scored four touchdowns. It was a fitting way for the Cowboy All-American to end his collegiate career. He was named MVP of the bowl and played in front of a national television audience on CBS.

It wasn't easy for OSU, however. The Cowboys scored first on a five-yard run by Thomas, set up by a long Mike Gundy-to-Hart Lee Dykes pass play. West Virginia tied it 7-7 later in the first quarter, but OSU came back to take the lead 14-7 on a nine-yard run by Thomas.

The OSU lead was short-lived. West Virginia scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the second quarter that went unanswered by Oklahoma State and the Mountaineers led 24-14 at the half.

The Cowboys took the lead with 1:43 left in the third quarter on a six-yard pass from Gundy to J.R. Dillard and the successful PAT made it 28-27. The Cowboys took a 35-27 lead in the fourth quarter on a four-yard run by Thomas. O-State had to hold one more time, however, as West Virginia drove for a touchdown with just 1:13 left. OSU defender Shawn Mackey's goal line tackle on the two-point conversion try stopped West Virginia from tying the game in the final minute.

1988 HOLIDAY BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 1988 | SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

OKLAHOMA STATE	62
WYOMING	14

SAN DIEGO -- Touted as one of the great offensive showdowns of the '88 season, Oklahoma State and Wyoming found themselves in a 7-7 deadlock at the conclusion of the first quarter of the Sea World Holiday Bowl.

But one set of Cowboys, the group from Stillwater, forged a 17-7 lead at halftime and broke the contest wide open in the third quarter on their way to a 62-14 romp. OSU's high-powered offense was as explosive as ever, as the trio of Heisman winner Barry Sanders, All-American Hart Lee Dykes and Mike Gundy joined forces for the last time in front of a crowd of 60,718 at Jack Murphy Stadium.

Sanders rushed for 222 yards on 29 carries with five touchdowns – all Holiday Bowl records. Dykes broke the Holiday Bowl record for reception yardage, as he caught 10 passes for 163 yards, including a 25-yard strike from Gundy in the fourth quarter. Gundy completed 20-of-24 passes for 315 yards and two touchdowns and caught a 17-yard pass from Sanders to set up another score.

Not only bowl records fell, though. Gundy's 315 yards through the air set a school record, and the Cowboys' 698 yards in total offense was the third-highest output in OSU history. OSU's defense proved to be the biggest surprise of the contest, however, as they allowed Wyoming only 33 yards rushing and 204 yards in total offense. Sim Drain, named the Defensive Player of the Game, had four tackles and two sacks and led the OSU defense to its lowest yardage allowance since 1986.

1997 ALAMO BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 1997 | SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

PURDUE	33
OKLAHOMA STATE	20

SAN ANTONIO -- Oklahoma State earned its first postseason appearance since 1988 and a berth opposite Purdue in the Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

The Big 12 vs. Big 10 showdown was tight through three quarters before Purdue sprinted past the Cowboys by a 33-20 margin. More than 55,000 were in the Alamo Dome, including 30,000-plus Orange-clad Cowboys fans.

Oklahoma State drew first blood when Tim Sydnes connected on a 34-yard field goal with 5:31 left in the first quarter. The lead was short-lived, however, as Purdue scored on an 18-yard pass from Billy Dicken with 1:19 left in the initial quarter. Another Sydnes field goal brought OSU to within one, 7-6 before Purdue ended the first-half scoring with a field goal of its own and a 10-6 halftime advantage.

The second half opened with the teams trading touchdowns. Purdue scored first at the 12:02 mark on a one-yard run by Dicken. OSU answered with a 21-yard run by Jamaal Fobbs and trailed by a 16-13 margin with nine minutes left in the third. Purdue put the game away with two straight touchdowns and a 37-yard field goal. The Boilermakers led 33-13 when R.W. McQuarters scored on a 17-yard pass from Tony Lindsay with 55 seconds to play to account for the final margin.

2002 HOUSTON BOWL

DECEMBER 27, 2002 | HOUSTON, TEXAS

SOUTHERN MISS	23
OKLAHOMA STATE	33

HOUSTON — Rashaun Woods put on another memorable show for Oklahoma State, catching nine passes for 164 yards and a touchdown in a 33-23 victory over Southern Mississippi in the Houston Bowl.

Woods earned Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Game honors, helping the Cowboys complete a memorable season that included victories over Nebraska, Texas A&M and Oklahoma.

Tatum Bell ran for 160 yards on 13 carries, including a 22-yard score with 8:07 to play that gave Oklahoma State the lead for good. Luke Phillips kicked two of his four field goals in the decisive fourth quarter for the Cowboys (8-5).

Trailing 20-13 at the half, Southern Miss (7-6) took its only lead of the game on a 2-yard touchdown run by James Walley and a 30-yard field goal by Curt Jones, his third of the game, in the third quarter. The Cowboys pulled even on the first play of the fourth quarter on Phillips' 28-yard field goal.

Josh Fields threw for 310 yards, and his 33-yard pass to Billy Bajema set up Bell's go-ahead touchdown, which put Oklahoma State back in front 30-23. Following a punt by Southern Mississippi to the Oklahoma State 2, Bell broke off a career-long 88-yard gain to the Golden Eagles 10. Phillips kicked a 24-yarder with 5:15 to play. He also connected from 46 and 52 yards.

Woods highlighted Oklahoma State's first half with a 51-yard touchdown catch from Fields with 1:38 left in the second quarter. Woods was double-covered on the play, but Southern Mississippi defenders Greg Brooks and Antoine Cash collided, allowing Woods to sprint untouched into the end zone.

2004 COTTON BOWL

JANUARY 2, 2004 | DALLAS, TEXAS

OKLAHOMA STATE	28
MISSISSIPPI	31

DALLAS -- Eli Manning threw for 259 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score to lead No. 16 Mississippi to a 31-28 victory over No. 21 Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl on Friday.

Manning's 1-yard keeper in the fourth quarter capped a 97-yard drive, and completed a run of 24 straight points by Ole Miss (10-3), which finished with its first 10-win season since 1971. That was just enough to overcome the Cowboys (9-4).

Rashaun Woods caught a 17-yard TD pass to get Oklahoma State to 31-28 with 4:38 left, just four minutes after Vernand Morency's second touchdown run.

Woods set Cotton Bowl records with 11 catches for 223 yards. On the 72-yard drive that ended with Morency's second TD, he caught two passes for 63 yards, both on plays when cornerback Travis Johnson was called for pass interference and still couldn't prevent the catches.

Oklahoma State's Josh Fields set a Cotton Bowl record with 307 yards on 21-of-33 passing. The junior's touchdown gave him 55 in his career, breaking the school record set by offensive coordinator Mike Gundy (1986-89).

The appearance at the Cotton Bowl was the first for the Cowboys since Jan. 1, 1945 and it marked OSU's first January bowl game since Jan. 1, 1946 when the Cowboys won the Sugar Bowl.

2004 ALAMO BOWL

DECEMBER 29, 2004 | SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

OHIO STATE	33
OKLAHOMA STATE	7

SAN ANTONIO — Justin Zwick, replacing the suspended Troy Smith, threw for 189 yards and a touchdown, and Ted Ginn Jr. and Lydell Ross each scored, leading No. 24 Ohio State to a 33-7 win over Oklahoma State in the 12th annual Alamo Bowl.

Zwick, who lost the starting job to Smith after hurting his shoulder in the sixth game, completed 17 of 27 passes despite a mild hamstring pull.

Ross rushed for 99 yards on 12 carries, and Mike Nugent kicked four field goals for the Buckeyes (8-4) to become the school's career scoring leader.

The Buckeyes took advantage of two early turnovers, and never let the Cowboys (7-5) get anything going offensively.

Oklahoma State quarterback Donovan Woods completed 15 of 34 passes for 137 yards and rushed for another 80 yards. Vernand Morency, one of the nation's top rushers this season, was limited to 24 yards on eight carries.

On the first series, Woods underthrew receiver Chijuan Mack and the pass was picked off by Ohio State linebacker Bobby Carpenter. Three plays later, Zwick hit a diving Anthony Gonzalez with a 23-yard touchdown pass.

After a 37-yard field goal by Nugent, the Cowboys were driving when Woods lost his grip on the ball near midfield while trying to run up the middle. Defensive lineman Joel Penton recovered and Nugent capped the drive with a 35-yard field goal to give Ohio State a 13-0 lead with nearly six minutes remaining in the first quarter.

2006 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

DECEMBER 28, 2006 | SHREVEPORT, LA.

OKLAHOMA STATE	34
ALABAMA	31

SHREVEPORT, La. — Oklahoma State's dominating performance was jeopardized by a couple of late mistakes, but OSU still rallied past Alabama for its first bowl win since the 2002 season.

Jason Ricks kicked a 27-yard field goal with 8.9 seconds remaining to give Oklahoma State a 34-31 victory over the Crimson Tide. Dantrell Savage ran for 112 yards and a touchdown and made the key play on the winning drive as he took a screen pass from Bobby Reid for 26 yards on third-and-9 to the Alabama 15 to put Ricks in prime position.

Alabama tried to ice Ricks with three timeouts, but the sophomore sent the kick through the uprights.

OSU - ranked 16th nationally in total offense - outgained Alabama, 419-276. The Cowboys rushed for 207 yards compared to 108 yards for the Tide. The Cowboys scooped up an Alabama fumble on the Tide's 38-yard line to set up the opening score. Savage ran the final yard to cap a 38-yard drive and make it 7-0 Oklahoma State.

Alabama tied it on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Matt Caddell with 3:32 remaining in the first quarter, but OSU went ahead 14-7 on Toston's 4-yard run. The Cowboys stretched their lead to 17-7 on a 28-yard field goal by Ricks. Alabama cut the margin to 17-14 on a 1-yard run by fullback Tim Castille but was unable to stop the Cowboys final drive of the half. Oklahoma State took it 64 yards, capped by a 7-yard run by Toston for a 24-14 lead at the half.

In the third quarter Jamie Christensen kicked a 24 yard field goal to pull Alabama three points closer before Reid hit Adarius Bowman for a 10-yard score to give Oklahoma State a 14 point lead at 31-17. Keith Toston became the first Cowboy true freshman to run for two touchdowns in a bowl game.

DECEMBER 31, 2007 | TEMPE, AZ

INDIANA	33
OKLAHOMA STATE	49

TEMPE -- In a season of full of offensive superlatives, even Oklahoma State fans had to be impressed by the juggernaut the Cowboys put on the field in the Insight Bowl.

OSU scored touchdowns on its first five offensive possessions and generated 322 yards of offense in the first half on its way to a 49-33 victory over Indiana in the Cowboys' second bowl win in two seasons.

Zac Robinson, offensive MVP, ran for 70 yards and passed for 302 in one of the top total offense outputs in Oklahoma State history. Freshman Dez Bryant had 117 receiving yards and two touchdowns in the win.

The Cowboys gouged the Hoosiers with five scoring drives, all less than four minutes in length, to take complete control of the game in the first half.

2008 HOLIDAY BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 2008 | SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

OKLAHOMA STATE	31
OREGON	42

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Oklahoma State quarterback Zac Robinson passed for a Cowboy bowl-record 329 yards despite playing most of the second half with a separated throwing shoulder and receiver Dez Bryant set a new Holiday Bowl record with 13 receptions for 167 yards and a touchdown despite badly injuring his left ankle in the second quarter, but it was not enough to push the Cowboys to victory over No. 15 Oregon, who won the 2008 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl, 42-31.

Behind Robinson and Bryant, the Cowboys raced out to a 17-7 lead after the first quarter, but the game changed when Bryant went down with his injury in the second. Neither team was able to muster any points in the second quarter, but a 91-yard kick return by Oregon's Walter Thurmond to open the second half led to a 1-yard touchdown run by Duck quarterback Jeremiah Masoli. Oregon took the lead later in the quarter after Masoli struck with a 41-yard touchdown run.

Playing with a debilitating shoulder injury for most of the third quarter and the entire fourth quarter, Robinson was gutsy in bringing the Cowboys back for two more touchdown drives, but the Oregon defense made the stops it needed down the stretch to seal the Duck victory.

Oregon was clearly the more physical team on both sides of the ball, with running back Jeremiah Johnson (119 rushing yards) and Masoli (106 rushing yards) both going crossing the century mark in the game.

Playing after having his knee scoped after the regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma, Cowboy running back Kendall Hunter was clearly not himself with 13 carries for only 37 yards. He did punch in a pair of touchdowns from three yards and four yards, respectively.

2010 COTTON BOWL

JANUARY 2, 2010 | ARLINGTON, TEXAS

OKLAHOMA STATE	7
OLE MISS	21

ARLINGTON, Texas - In a game dominated by defense from the start, Mississippi was a 21-7 winner over Oklahoma State in the 2010 Cotton Bowl Classic. It was the first Cotton Bowl game played at the brand-new Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

Oklahoma State's defense recorded a goal-line stand and forced five turnovers (four interceptions and one fumble recovery), but it was not enough to overcome OSU's seven turnovers.

Senior linebacker Andre Sexton earned the game's defensive most valuable player honor by bagging 10 tackles, one tackle for loss and two interceptions. Seniors Lucien Antoine and Terrance Anderson also added interceptions and defensive end Jermiah Price recovered a fumble.

While the defense played well enough to win on most days, the OSU offense had trouble solving Ole Miss's defense. The Cowboys went three-and-out on each of their first five drives and finished the game with only nine first downs.

OSU's lone score came on a one-yard pass from running back Keith Toston to tight end Wilson Youman in the third quarter that tied the game at 7-7.

It was all Rebels from that point, however, as the Rebels scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns and forced Cowboy turnovers on each of OSU's six possessions in the final stanza to derail the Cowboys' comeback hopes.

2010 ALAMO BOWL

DECEMBER 29, 2010 | SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

OKLAHOMA STATE	36
ARIZONA	10

SAN ANTONIO - Oklahoma State capped its magical 2010 season with a 36-10 win over Arizona at the Alamo Bowl. With the victory over the Wildcats, OSU put the finishing touches on the first 11-win season in school history.

Cowboy receiver Justin Blackmon earned Alamo Bowl Offensive MVP honors after making nine catches for 117 yards and two touchdowns and safety Markelle Martin was the Defensive MVP of the game with a 62-yard interception for a score to go with four tackles and two pass breakups.

While the Oklahoma State offense - ranked No. 1 in the nation in total offense - got all the headlines and attention going into the game, it was the Cowboy defense that carried the day. OSU held the potent Arizona attack 20 points and 75 yards below its season averages. Additionally, the Cowboys forced four Wildcat turnovers and limited Arizona to 90 yards rushing.

In addition to Martin's Defensive MVP performance, OSU linebacker Orie Lemon finished with 14 tackles in helping lead a Cowboy defense that held Arizona to 10 points in the contest - the fewest points OSU had allowed in a bowl game since BYU mustered only six points against the Cowboys in the 1974 Fiesta Bowl.

The Pokes jumped on the Wildcats early and held a 23-7 lead at the 12:33 mark of the second quarter. Arizona never threatened Oklahoma State as the Cowboys tacked on another touchdown and two more field goals in the second half.

2012 FIESTA BOWL

JANUARY 2, 2012 | GLENDALE, ARIZ.

STANFORD	38
OKLAHOMA STATE	41

GLENDALE, Ariz. - In a thrilling end to the 2011 season, No. 3 Oklahoma State was a 41-38 overtime winner over No. 4 Stanford in the Fiesta Bowl.

The Cowboys never led in the game until the deciding 22-yard field goal from Quinn Sharp split the uprights in overtime, but they continually answered scoring drives from the potent Cardinal offense headlined by a two-time Heisman runner-up in quarterback Andrew Luck to stay within striking range.

Receiver Justin Blackmon earned offensive MVP honors after making nine catches for 186 yards and a Fiesta Bowl-record three touchdown receptions. Perhaps his most important catch of the game was not a touchdown, but rather a 21-yard catch on fourth and three late in the game that set up the game-tying touchdown run by Joseph Randle that sent the game into overtime.

The Pokes held Stanford off the scoreboard on its final possession of regulation when Cardinal kicker Jordan Williamson hooked a 35-yard field goal attempt wide left with no time on the clock. Williamson missed from 43 yards out in overtime to set up OSU's winning drive.

Cowboy quarterback Brandon Weeden connected with one-time walk-on Colton Chelf for a 24-yard reception on the second play of OSU's overtime possession and when the officials signaled a touchdown, the Cowboy bench erupted with a mass of bodies spilling onto the field. The call was eventually reversed, sending everyone back to the sideline. Weeden then took a knee in the middle of the field to set up Sharp's game winner.

2013 HEART OF DALLAS BOWL

JANUARY 1, 2013 | DALLAS, TEXAS

PURDUE	14
OKLAHOMA STATE	58

DALLAS, Texas - Oklahoma State secured its third consecutive post-season victory when it steamrolled to a 58-14 win over Purdue in the Heart of Dallas Bowl played at Cotton Bowl Stadium.

The most popular storyline entering the game was the question of if the Cowboys, who tied for third in the Big 12, would be motivated to face a Purdue squad that needed wins in each of its final three regular-season games just to secure bowl eligibility. OSU answered that question emphatically by jumping out to a 45-0 lead before finally surrendering a Boilermaker touchdown late in the third quarter.

Another primary question entering the contest was if the Cowboy offense could operate smoothly without coordinator and playcaller Todd Monken, who left the team to take the head coaching position at Southern Miss after the regular season ended. With head coach Mike Gundy stepping in to call plays, OSU answered the doubters by registering the most lopsided margin of victory in any game during the 2012 bowl season.

The Cowboy offense had little trouble putting points on the board, thanks largely to the OSU defense snatching a season-high five turnovers in the contest and regularly setting the offense up with favorable field position.

2014 COTTON BOWL

JAN. 3, 2014 | ARLINGTON, TX

OKLAHOMA STATE	31
MISSOURI	41

ARLINGTON, Texas - Trailing by three points with one minute left in the game, Oklahoma State drove to the Missouri 23 and was in position to either tie or take the lead, but a sack by Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year Michael Sam generated a fumble that was recovered by Shane Ray and returned 73 yards for a touchdown to cap the Tigers' 41-31 win over Oklahoma State in the 2014 AT&T Cotton Bowl.

For the most part, both teams' respective defenses controlled the game, with Missouri holding a 17-14 lead after three quarters. The offenses got uncorked in a wild fourth quarter, however, with the two teams combining for 41 points, two ties and four lead changes in the final stanza alone.

OSU quarterback Clint Chelf set an AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic record with 377 passing yards, and with 151 passing yards and 60 rushing yards coming in the fourth quarter, Chelf appeared poised to lead the Cowboys to victory on that final drive, but Sam's sack changed everything.

OSU's most recognizable players were at the forefront in the game, with consensus All-America cornerback Justin Gilbert recording an interception, receiver Tracy Moore making seven catches for 100 yards (including a diving, fully-extended grab late in the game that may have been the best catch of his career), and Josh Stewart adding eight catches for 80 yards and a touchdown. Safety Daytawion Lowe broke up a career-high three passes and defensive tackle Calvin Barnett had two tackles for loss and a sack.

Though the game marked the 52nd all-time meeting between the two longtime Big Eight and Big 12 rivals, it was the first in a bowl game following Missouri's move to the SEC in 2012.

2015 CACTUS BOWL

JANUARY 2, 2015 | TEMPE, ARIZ.

WASHINGTON	22
OKLAHOMA STATE	30

TEMPE, Ariz. - James Castleman stole the show in providing the signature moments in Oklahoma State's 30-22 win over Washington in the 2015 TicketCity Cactus Bowl by scoring a rushing touchdown and hauling in a critical 48-yard reception late in the fourth quarter to essentially seal the victory.

The 300-pound defensive tackle was inserted into the offensive game plan for the first time in his career and rewarded the coaches by punching in the game's first score when quarterback Mason Rudolph motioned out as a receiver, leaving the big man as the lone player in the OSU backfield. He took the shotgun snap and bullied his way straight ahead into the end zone. Later in the game, with just 3:11 left and OSU holding on to a 30-22 lead and facing an important third-and-two from its own 35 yard line, Castleman leaked out of the backfield, caught a short pass from Rudolph and rumbled 48 yards down the sideline to deal a key blow to Washington's chances.

The Cowboys established themselves as the aggressor early on, racing to a 24-0 lead at halftime, thanks largely to a passing attack that amassed 220 yards in the first two quarters. Rudolph connected on long touchdown passes to James Washington and Brandon Sheperd.

Washington got back in it during the second half and held significant momentum at the time of Castleman's long reception. The Huskies got the ball back with 43 seconds remaining in the game with a chance to potentially tie the game, but an interception by cornerback Kevin Peterson at the OSU 36 yard line sealed the Cowboy victory.

University

With more than 350 undergraduate and graduate degrees and options, as well as professional degree programs in medicine and veterinary medicine, OSU provides unmatched diversity of academic offerings.

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

Oklahoma's only university with a statewide presence, Oklahoma State University is a five-campus, public educational system that improves the lives of people in Oklahoma, the nation, and the world by adhering to its land-grant mission of high-quality teaching, research and outreach.

OSU research, scholarship, and creative activities promote human and economic development through the expansion of knowledge and its application.

Established as a result of the Morrill Act, the Stillwater campus is the home of the OSU System. OSU was founded on Dec. 25, 1890, as Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College. On July 1, 1957, Oklahoma A&M College became Oklahoma State University.

The OSU System has an enrollment of more than 36,000 students across all its campuses. Named Oklahoma's inaugural Truman Honor Institution for its production of Truman Scholars, OSU today boasts students from all 50 states and around 120 nations. There are more than 250,000 OSU alumni throughout the world.

When it comes to outreach, OSU reaches across the state of Oklahoma. It has five campuses: Stillwater, which includes the Center for Veterinary Health Sciences; OSU-Tulsa; OSU-Oklahoma City; OSU Institute of Technology in Okmulgee; and the OSU Center for Health Sciences in Tulsa, which includes the OSU Medical Center. OSU also boasts 16 agricultural experiment stations statewide, extension offices serving all the state's 77 counties and a research facility in Ponca City.

With more than 350 undergraduate and graduate degrees and options, as well as professional degree programs in medicine and veterinary medicine, OSU provides unmatched diversity of academic offerings.

OSU conducts innovative research and technology transfer that enhance Oklahoma's economic vitality and its quality of life. The focus has expanded greatly since 1890, but the third cornerstone of the university's land-grant mission remains as crucial for the future of Oklahoma as it was at statehood. Interdisciplinary collaborations with academic institutions, government agencies, private business, and industry ensure that contributions of faculty and student researchers to the development of new knowledge and its dissemination are pertinent and lasting.

Areas of emphasis include: alternative energies and conservation; animal-based agriculture and biotechnology; environmental protection; food production and safety; health and medicine; manufacturing and advanced materials; national defense and homeland security; sensors and sensor technologies; aerospace and unmanned aerial systems; and transportation and infrastructure

Although OSU is a large, comprehensive university, its size does not minimize the personal attention given to each student. OSU encourages all students when they first enroll to identify the college in which they wish to major. Because the average number of students majoring in any one department is less than 150, the student can count on personal attention in a friendly environment.

OSU offers students many distinct advantages. It has nearly four million volumes in the library; modern research laboratories and equipment; excellent physical education, recreation and student union facilities; nationally-recognized residence hall programs; outstanding cultural and sporting events; nearly 500 student organizations; and nearly 40 nationally affiliated fraternities and sororities that provide a stimulating educational and social environment.

UNIVERSITY HISTORY

The story of Oklahoma State University began on Christmas Eve, 1890, at the McKennon Opera House in Oklahoma's territorial capital of Guthrie when Territorial Governor George W. Steele signed legislation establishing an Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College (OAMC) in Payne County.

OAMC's first students assembled for class on Dec. 14, 1891, even though there were no buildings, no books, and no curriculum. The college's first students attended classes in the Stillwater Congregational Church. The original campus consisted of 200 acres of prairie that were donated by four local homesteaders. The college's first six graduates received their diplomas in 1896.

Visitors to the OSU campus often marvel at its beauty and consistency of architecture. Much of the credit goes to legendary president, Henry G. Bennett, who served from 1928-1951. Dr. Bennett's 25-year campus master plan envisioned some of the university's most famous and beautiful structures, including the Edmon Low Library and the OSU Student Union.

A new campus master plan is guiding unprecedented construction that is making OSU more competitive in academics and athletics. Since the fall of 2008, OSU has opened the Multimodal Transportation Terminal, the North Classroom Building, the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium, a refurbished Old Central, the Donald W. Reynolds Architecture Building, an upgraded Murray Hall, the Henry Bellmon Research Center and a renovated Student Union, considered the most comprehensive union in the country. Most recently, the university has opened University Commons residential life facility, Bert Cooper Engineering Structures Lab, a new information technology building, library annex, Greenwood Tennis Facility and a new outdoor track. Construction is under way on a new business building, an addition to the College of Human Sciences building and other projects. Hall of Fame Avenue on the north, University Avenue on the south, and Monroe Street through the campus core have been significantly upgraded, and the university is making numerous upgrades to its campus landscape.

OSU grew quite rapidly following World War II. The post-war years were marked by a huge enrollment surge. The mid-1940s also were a golden era for athletics at Oklahoma A&M. In a 90-day period in early 1945, A&M teams won the Cotton Bowl, the NCAA championship in wrestling, and the NCAA championship in basketball. The next year, the wrestling and basketball teams repeated as national champions, and the football team won the Sugar Bowl.

By the 1950s, the college had grown substantially. In 1957, Oklahoma A&M became The Oklahoma State University for Agriculture and Applied Science.

During the next three decades, OSU would build academic programs to match its new status. Enrollment more than doubled from 10,385 in 1957 to more than 23,000 in the 1980s. OSU became a statewide university system, adding branches in Okmulgee in 1946 and Oklahoma City in 1961. OSU merged with the Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1988, and OSU-Tulsa was born in 1999.

Today, OSU has more than 36,000 students across five campuses and a presence in every Oklahoma county through its extension offices and experiment stations. From six graduates in 1896, to more than 5,000 annually today, the small college on the prairie has grown and prospered far beyond the dreams of its founders. OSU teaching, research and graduates are making a bigger impact on the lives of people around the world than ever before. It's a great time to be a Cowboy!

BURNS HARGIS
UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
EIGHTH YEAR

Burns Hargis was named the 18th President of Oklahoma State University and the OSU System in December 2007 and took office March 10, 2008.

Hargis oversees one of the nation's most comprehensive land-grant university systems with more than 36,000 students, 7,400 employees, and campuses located in Stillwater, Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Okmulgee.

He has guided OSU to record enrollment and record fund-raising, reaching the $1 billion Branding Success campaign goal in April 2013, nearly two years ahead of schedule. The campaign focused on student scholarships, faculty and other vital resources and programs. He also is overseeing a construction boom that is transforming the OSU campus to be more competitive in academics and athletics.

Hargis has a bold vision of creating a modern land-grant university that cuts across disciplines to better prepare students for success.

Hargis, who holds degrees in accounting from Oklahoma State University and in law from the University of Oklahoma, is the second OSU graduate to lead the university as president. Oliver S. Willham, who served as president from 1952 to 1966, graduated from then Oklahoma A&M in 1923.

He is past chairman of the Big 12 Conference Board of Directors and represents the conference as a member of the Board of Managers of the College Football Playoff.

Before being named OSU President, Hargis had a long and distinguished legal and business career, with active civic and philanthropic leadership across many fronts. He also is familiar to many Oklahomans through the political perspective and wit he provided on the award-winning television program "Flashpoint".

Prior to coming to OSU, he was Vice Chairman of Bank of Oklahoma, N.A. Before joining Bank of Oklahoma in 1997, Hargis practiced law in Oklahoma City for 28 years, most recently with the firm of McAfee & Taft. He is a former president of the Oklahoma County Bar Association, former president of the Oklahoma Bar Foundation, and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

Hargis served as vice-chairman of the Oklahoma State Election Board, the Oklahoma Constitutional Revision Commission, and served as Chairman of the Oklahoma Commission for Human Services. Hargis was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Oklahoma in 1990.

A firm believer in the power of imagination and collaboration, Hargis was the first chair of the Oklahoma Creativity Project. He has served and chaired many boards, including the Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges of Oklahoma State University.

Hargis received the state's highest honor when he was inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame in 2009. Hargis and his wife, Ann, have two married children and three grandchildren.

Fans and alumni of Oklahoma State University have long been blessed with one of the nation's most well-rounded athletic departments. From bowl games in the fall and Final Fours in March, to the College World Series in June, the cheering - and winning - never stops in Stillwater.

MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY/TRACK AND FIELD

Oklahoma State has won three NCAA cross country team championships since 2009 and finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships every year since 2009. The Cowboys have won seven straight Big 12 team titles.

OSU won the 2014 Big 12 Indoor Track and Field team championship and had a program-best third-place finish at the 2014 Big 12 Outdoor Championships. Chad Noelle won the 2015 NCAA Outdoor 1,500 meter championship - OSU's second in that event since 2009.

51

NCAA TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS

MOST IN THE BIG 12 AND FOURTH-MOST NATIONALLY

WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY/TRACK AND FIELD

The Cowgirls have placed in the top four at the Big 12 Cross Country Championships in each of the past four seasons. For context, OSU had only three top-three finishes at the Big 12 meet from 1990-2010.

The Cowgirls took 15th at the 2014 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships for the second-highest finish in the history of the program.

FOOTBALL

Under coach Mike Gundy, the Cowboys have become one of the most powerful teams in the country. Notable products of Cowboy football include 1988 Heisman Trophy winner Barry Sanders, five-time NFL Pro Bowler Thurman Thomas and current NFL Pro Bowlers Russell Okung and Dez Bryant.

SOCCER

The Cowgirls have earned berths in eight of the last nine NCAA Championships and advanced to the Elite Eight in 2010 and 2011. From 2008-11, OSU celebrated four consecutive Big 12 championships. The Cowgirls have totaled five league titles in the last 12 seasons.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

With two national championships, six appearances in the Final Four, 11 appearances in the Elite Eight and 14 trips to the Sweet 16, OSU basketball is a consistent power. The Cowboys have won 20 games or more in 19 of the last 25 seasons. Notable OSU products include Hall of Famers Henry Iba and Bob Kurland, plus coach Eddie Sutton, Tony Allen of the Memphis Grizzlies, John Starks of the New York Knicks and Desmond Mason of the Oklahoma City Thunder.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

OSU has six NCAA Tournament appearances in the last nine seasons and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2008 and 2014. The Cowgirls have won 89 games over the past four years.

EQUESTRIAN

Winners of three of the past four Big 12 team titles, the Cowgirls have four national championships to their credit (2000, 2003, 2004 and 2006). OSU added Western titles in 2005 and 2013.

WRESTLING

The winningest program in all of North American sports - NCAA or professional - Cowboy wrestling boasts 34 NCAA team championships and 139 NCAA individual crowns. The Cowboys have won five of the last six Big 12 team titles.

BASEBALL

One of the sport's most revered programs, OSU has made 19 trips to the College World Series and boasts 31 conference championships, including the 2014 Big 12 title. In Robin Ventura and Pete Incaviglia, the Cowboys claim two of the best college baseball players of all time. Both Ventura (Chicago White Sox) and John Farrell (Boston Red Sox) are current Major League Baseball managers.

MEN'S GOLF

Owners of 10 NCAA team titles and claiming eight NCAA individual champions and 54 conference titles (including five of the last nine Big 12 crowns), Oklahoma State is among college golfing's great programs. Included on OSU golf's list of alumni are current PGA performers Rickie Fowler, Hunter Mahan, Charles Howell III, Bo Van Pelt, Peter Uihlein, Scott Verplank, Morgan Hoffmann and Kevin Tway.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Six of the past eight Big 12 Golfers of the Year have come from Oklahoma State. Of the 19 Big 12 Championships contested since the league's inception, the Cowgirls have won eight - twice as many as any other school.

SOFTBALL

OSU has made seven trips to the Women's College World Series, the most recent of which came in 2011. Cowgirls Melanie Roche, Michele Smith and Lauren Bay all represented their countries in the Olympics. In 2015, Shelby Davis became the first Cowgirl to be selected in the National Pro Fastpitch College Draft, going eighth overall to the PA Rebellion.

MEN'S TENNIS

The Cowboys have piled up 18 conference championships through the years and have competed in the NCAA Championships in nine of the last 13 seasons.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The Cowgirls advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2015, finished that season ranked No. 12 in the ITA rankings, and are well-positioned to become a consistent player on the national scene given the completion of the sparkling new 50,000-square foot Michael and Anne Greenwood Tennis Center in 2014.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE HOLDER

MIKE HOLDER

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR
10TH YEAR | OKLAHOMA STATE, 1970

Recognized as a 2013 finalist for National Athletic Director of the Year in the Sports Business Awards by SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily, Mike Holder is a central figure in Oklahoma State's current athletic resurgence. He was named Vice President for Athletic Programs and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Oklahoma State University on Sept. 16, 2005.

In his 32 years of leading his alma mater's golf program, Holder's name became synonymous with success not only on the golf course, but in fundraising, facility development and the academic performance of his student-athletes. In fact, a case could be made that Holder took Oklahoma State's already strong golf program and transformed it into America's best.

Those same leadership skills have served him well in his time guiding OSU's athletic department. His plan and vision for the betterment of Cowboy and Cowgirl athletics have taken shape, most notably with the completion of Boone Pickens Stadium. The stadium, now a horseshoe with more than 60,000 seats, features 123 suites.

Also during Holder's tenure, OSU opened the 92,000 square foot Sherman E. Smith Training Center to serve several Cowboy and Cowgirl teams, the sparkling 50,000-square foot Michael and Anne Greewood Tennis Center - which features six indoor courts and 12 outdoor courts - and a brand new track and field complex.

Under Holder's direction, OSU Athletics has continued to move forward while maintaining its traditional strengths. The Cowboy football team has appeared in nine straight bowl games for the first time in school history. OSU has won five more national team championships under Holder's watch, raising the school's championship count to 51 – the fourth best total in the country and tops in the Big 12 Conference. In 2011, OSU claimed its first outright conference football championship of the modern era.

Holder's tenure has also featured landmark fundraising by the athletic department, including the $165 million gift from T. Boone Pickens that pushed OSU's facility drive into high gear. The legendary OSU alum also helped complete the west end zone project with another $63 million gift in 2008. At Holder's urging, OSU Athletics has placed an emphasis on scholarship endowments. The "Leave A Legacy" endowment drive has seen Oklahoma State climb from dead last in the Big 12 to the top with gifts and commitments of approximately $61 million. As recently as 2009, OSU's endowment stood at just $2.1 million.

Perhaps Holder's adept fundraising stems from his "fund-giving". He and his wife, Robbie, illustrated their commitment to Oklahoma State when they donated $500,000 for the first fully endowed scholarship for Cowboy football. The scholarship is named for former OSU player, the late Vernon Grant. The Holders' lifetime giving to OSU surpasses $2.5 million, including $1 million for an entrepreneurship super chair at OSU in the Spears School of Business.

"Robbie and I made the gift to the college of business because of (OSU donors) Malone and Amy Mitchell," Holder said at the announcement. "Having two degrees in business was the icing on the cake. I would like to see the new program nationally recognized and make a difference in the lives of young people."

Malone and Amy Mitchell had made a $57.2 million gift to OSU, split evenly between athletics and academics, on the day the Holders announced their $1 million gift.

Things are on the upswing at the turnstiles as well. Oklahoma State set new school records for football season ticket sales in 2008, 2009, 2011, 2012 and 2013, surpassing the 50,000 mark for the first time in 2013 with a final tally of 50,223 season tickets sold that season.

During his tenure as the men's golf coach, Holder's successes included not only his team's results on the course, but his players' performances in the classroom and beyond. His vision and fundraising abilities resulted in the creation of Karsten Creek, a magnificent golf course in Stillwater, selected as the Best New Public Course in 1994 by Golf Digest magazine. That publication listed Karsten Creek as the nation's 12th "greatest public course" in 2011.

In 2000, Holder's Cowboy golf team claimed the national championship, marking the eighth time his squad carried home the NCAA trophy. And while high national finishes are the norm at Oklahoma State, the accomplishments of his teams never stopped at the 18th hole.

Holder took over his OSU coaching post on July 1, 1973, and during his tenure, his teams set student-athlete standards that were unequaled. While he coached 112 All-America selections, including 38 first-team choices, and has numerous former players competing on the PGA Tour, overseas and on mini-tours, Holder saw to it that his players also excelled in the classroom. During his tenure, OSU produced three Ben Hogan Award winners, which was based on academic and athletic excellence nationwide. Kevin Wentworth earned the honor in 1990, Trip Kuehne claimed the prestigious award in 1995 and Hunter Mahan was named the 2003 recipient. Kuehne was OSU's outstanding male graduate in 1995 as well.

Holder is one of five coaches in NCAA history, regardless of sport, to win a national championship in four different decades. Three times Holder coached the Cowboys to the national team title the same year an OSU individual also claimed medalist honors (1978, 1987 and 2000). Along the way, he claimed 25 conference championships. His 21 Big Eight championships were the second most by a head coach in any sport, trailing only Kansas basketball coach Phog Allen.

As a student-athlete, Holder was the 1970 Big Eight medalist and led OSU to the conference team title. He was a third-team All-American as a junior and a senior and an honorable mention All-American as a sophomore.

Holder, a graduate of Ardmore High School, earned his degree in marketing from Oklahoma State in 1970 and completed work on his MBA at OSU in 1973. His wife, Robbie, graduated as salutatorian from Jasper High School in 1966, and attended the University of Houston where they met at the All-American Intercollegiate golf tournament in 1968.

MR. T. BOONE PICKENS

T. Boone Pickens is arguably OSU's (and the state's) most visible personality. His various endeavors and colorful demeanor have been chronicled on the covers of most American business publications and by some of the most-watched television programs in the country.

During the span of his long career, T. Boone Pickens has created thousands of jobs and made billions of dollars— for others as well as himself — and he isn't timid about spreading it around. "I like making money. I like giving it away…. not as much as I like making it, but it's a close second," he has often said.

The breadth of his philanthropy — which approaches $1 billion during his career — includes health and medical research, treatment and services; entrepreneurship; kids at risk; education and athletics, with a particular focus on his alma mater, Oklahoma State University; corporate health and fitness; and conservation and wildlife management. While many donations involve tens of millions of dollars and attract headlines, there are hundreds more ranging from hundreds of thousands to several hundred. Each is important in its own way.

The establishment of the T. Boone Pickens Foundation has ensured his continued ranking as one of the top U.S. philanthropists. The Pickens Foundation is improving lives through grants supporting educational programs, medical research, athletics and corporate wellness, at-risk youths, the entrepreneurial process and conservation and wildlife initiatives.

In 2007, Pickens brought his innovative entrepreneurial approach to the philanthropic sector, announcing the Foundation's largest gifts yet — $50 million each for two University of Texas health care institutions: UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas and The University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston. Under unique agreements, the gifts create special funds at the institutions, requiring that they grow to $1 billion ($500 million each) within 25 years from earnings on the original principal and/or from new outside donations solicited by the institutions. When the $500 million marks are reached, the institutions will be able to distribute the funds as they deem fit.

In many ways, Pickens is a record-setting philanthropist. His $165 million gift to his alma mater, Oklahoma State University, in 2005 is the single largest gift for athletics in NCAA history, and the $7 million donation to the American Red Cross in 2005 is the largest individual contribution in the 150-year history of that organization. His unprecedented giving to athletics has triggered a renaissance in Oklahoma State University's football program and was a key factor in its first Big 12 championship in 2011 and its first BCS Bowl win in the Fiesta Bowl matchup with Stanford in 2012.

On May 21, 2008, Pickens gave $100 million for the endowment of major faculty chairs and professorships at Oklahoma State University. The OSU School of Geology already bears his name from previous gifts to OSU.

Over the years, Pickens has donated over $500 million to Oklahoma State, split virtually equally between athletics and academics.

In 2010, OSU launched its campus-wide "Branding Success" campaign and T. Boone Pickens again led the charge with yet another $100 million gift to his alma mater.

Recently, Pickens has become a national and indeed a world leader on the energy front with the launching of the Pickens Plan, which is a unique private sector initiative formed to address the economic and national security threats posed by America's ever-increasing reliance on OPEC oil.

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 celebrates its 20th year in 2015-16 as it continues to promote the strength and success of one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of fourth-year commissioner Bob Bowlsby.

TCU and West Virginia joined the league on July 1, 2012 and became the Big 12's first additions since inception, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech.

With 10 members, the Big 12 remains as the only major conference in the nation to determine its champions in all sports directly on the field of play with a full round-robin schedule. The Conference's hard work ethic and strong values have translated to enormous success in its first 19 years. Since it began competition in 1996-97, the league can boast of 54 NCAA team titles and 587 individual national championships.

Additionally, the Big 12 has been at the forefront in college athletics reform, specifically with student-athlete welfare issues to include cost of attendance and strengthening its policy for concussion diagnosis and management. In 2014-15, the Big 12 introduced and hosted three "State of Collegiate Athletics" forums to examine the issues facing college athletics. Two were conducted in Washington, D.C and one in New York City. Panelists included respected authorities from intercollegiate athletics, university leadership and sports journalism. The third forum featured a special session comprised of student-athletes.

The 2014 fall sport season saw Texas become the 13th league volleyball squad to advance to the national semifinals – its 10th appearance all-time. A total of five Big 12 volleyball teams moved on to the postseason and also finished in the NCAA RPI top 30. Big 12 soccer teams represented in the NCAA postseason field with six selections, marking the highest total for the league since 2008. In cross country competition, three teams placed in the top 10 at the NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Cross Country Championships, including a runner-up finish by the Iowa State women. Seventy percent of the league advanced to bowl games with two teams playing in the College Football Playoff News Year's Bowls. The Conference has had seven or more bowl teams in 15 of the last 17 years.

The 2015 winter and spring seasons saw Texas swimming & diving claim its fifth national championship while Oklahoma men's tennis and Baylor women's golf finished as NCAA runners-up. TCU made the Big 12's 19th appearance in the baseball College World Series. The Conference won NCAA individual titles in 22 events across the sports of men's swimming & diving, wrestling, men's tennis and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field.

The Big 12 lays claim to five Heisman Trophy winners since 1996 and has had a finalist in 12 of its 19 seasons. Twenty-two athletes have earned major individual awards in football in the past six campaigns. Overall, more than 4,600 student-athletes have earned All-America recognition.

Through its first 19 years, the Big 12 has claimed a team national championship in 17 of the sports it sponsors. The Conference finished the BCS era ranked tied for second with seven appearances in the National Championship Game. League squads combined to lead the nation in women's basketball attendance 15 consecutive years (2014-15 not yet available), and the Big 12 is the only conference to surpass the one-million mark in season attendance – doing so six times. In men's basketball, the league has had seven teams earn NCAA bids three times in the past six years and every coach has guided a team to the NCAA Tournament, including a nation's-best six coaches that have led teams to the Final Four. During the last 11 years a total of 33 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including 18 consecutive seasons.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community, the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Gabe Ikard (Oklahoma) was presented the NCAA Today's Top 10 Award in January 2015. It recognizes former student-athletes for their successes on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. Since 1996, the Big 12 has a total of 11 honorees for this prestigious award. In the last four seasons, five student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 89 Award with women's cross country's Kelly Williams (West Virginia) picking up the latest honor in the fall of 2014. The honor showcases individuals who have reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level, while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers.

In its short history, the Big 12 has had over 600 Academic All-America recipients, averaging more than 30 each season. Big 12 student-athletes have shown commitment to their studies by earning numerous individual academic recognitions. Eleven times in the past 10 years a league athlete has garnered the top academic honor for their respective sport, including Frances Silva (West Virginia) for soccer and Gabe Ikard (Oklahoma) for football in 2013.

The Big 12 can take pride in other stories that combine on and off the field success. In the fall of 2013, former Texas Tech track and field student-athlete Ifeatu Okafor was named the Big 12's first NCAA Woman of the Year. Patience Knight (Texas Tech) was the recipient of the Honda Inspiration Award in 2008 while Imani McGee-Stafford (Texas) was honored in 2015. It is given to an outstanding female college athlete who overcomes adversity to excel in her sport. Oklahoma State women's basketball was the inaugural recipient of the "Together We R" Team Award in 2012, recognizing programs that have strived to succeed in the face of adversity. Following a devastating tornado south of Oklahoma City just before the Big 12 Baseball Championship in 2013, several league baseball teams along with other student-athletes, coaches and former Conference players contributed help in a variety of ways. Plus, the Conference contributed $200,000 to the relief efforts. In the fall of 2014, Oklahoma football student-athlete Sterling Shepard and head coach Bob Stoops were honored with the Disney Sports Spirit Award while Kansas football student-athlete JaCorey Shepherd received the Lee Roy Selmon Community Spirit Award.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons. At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

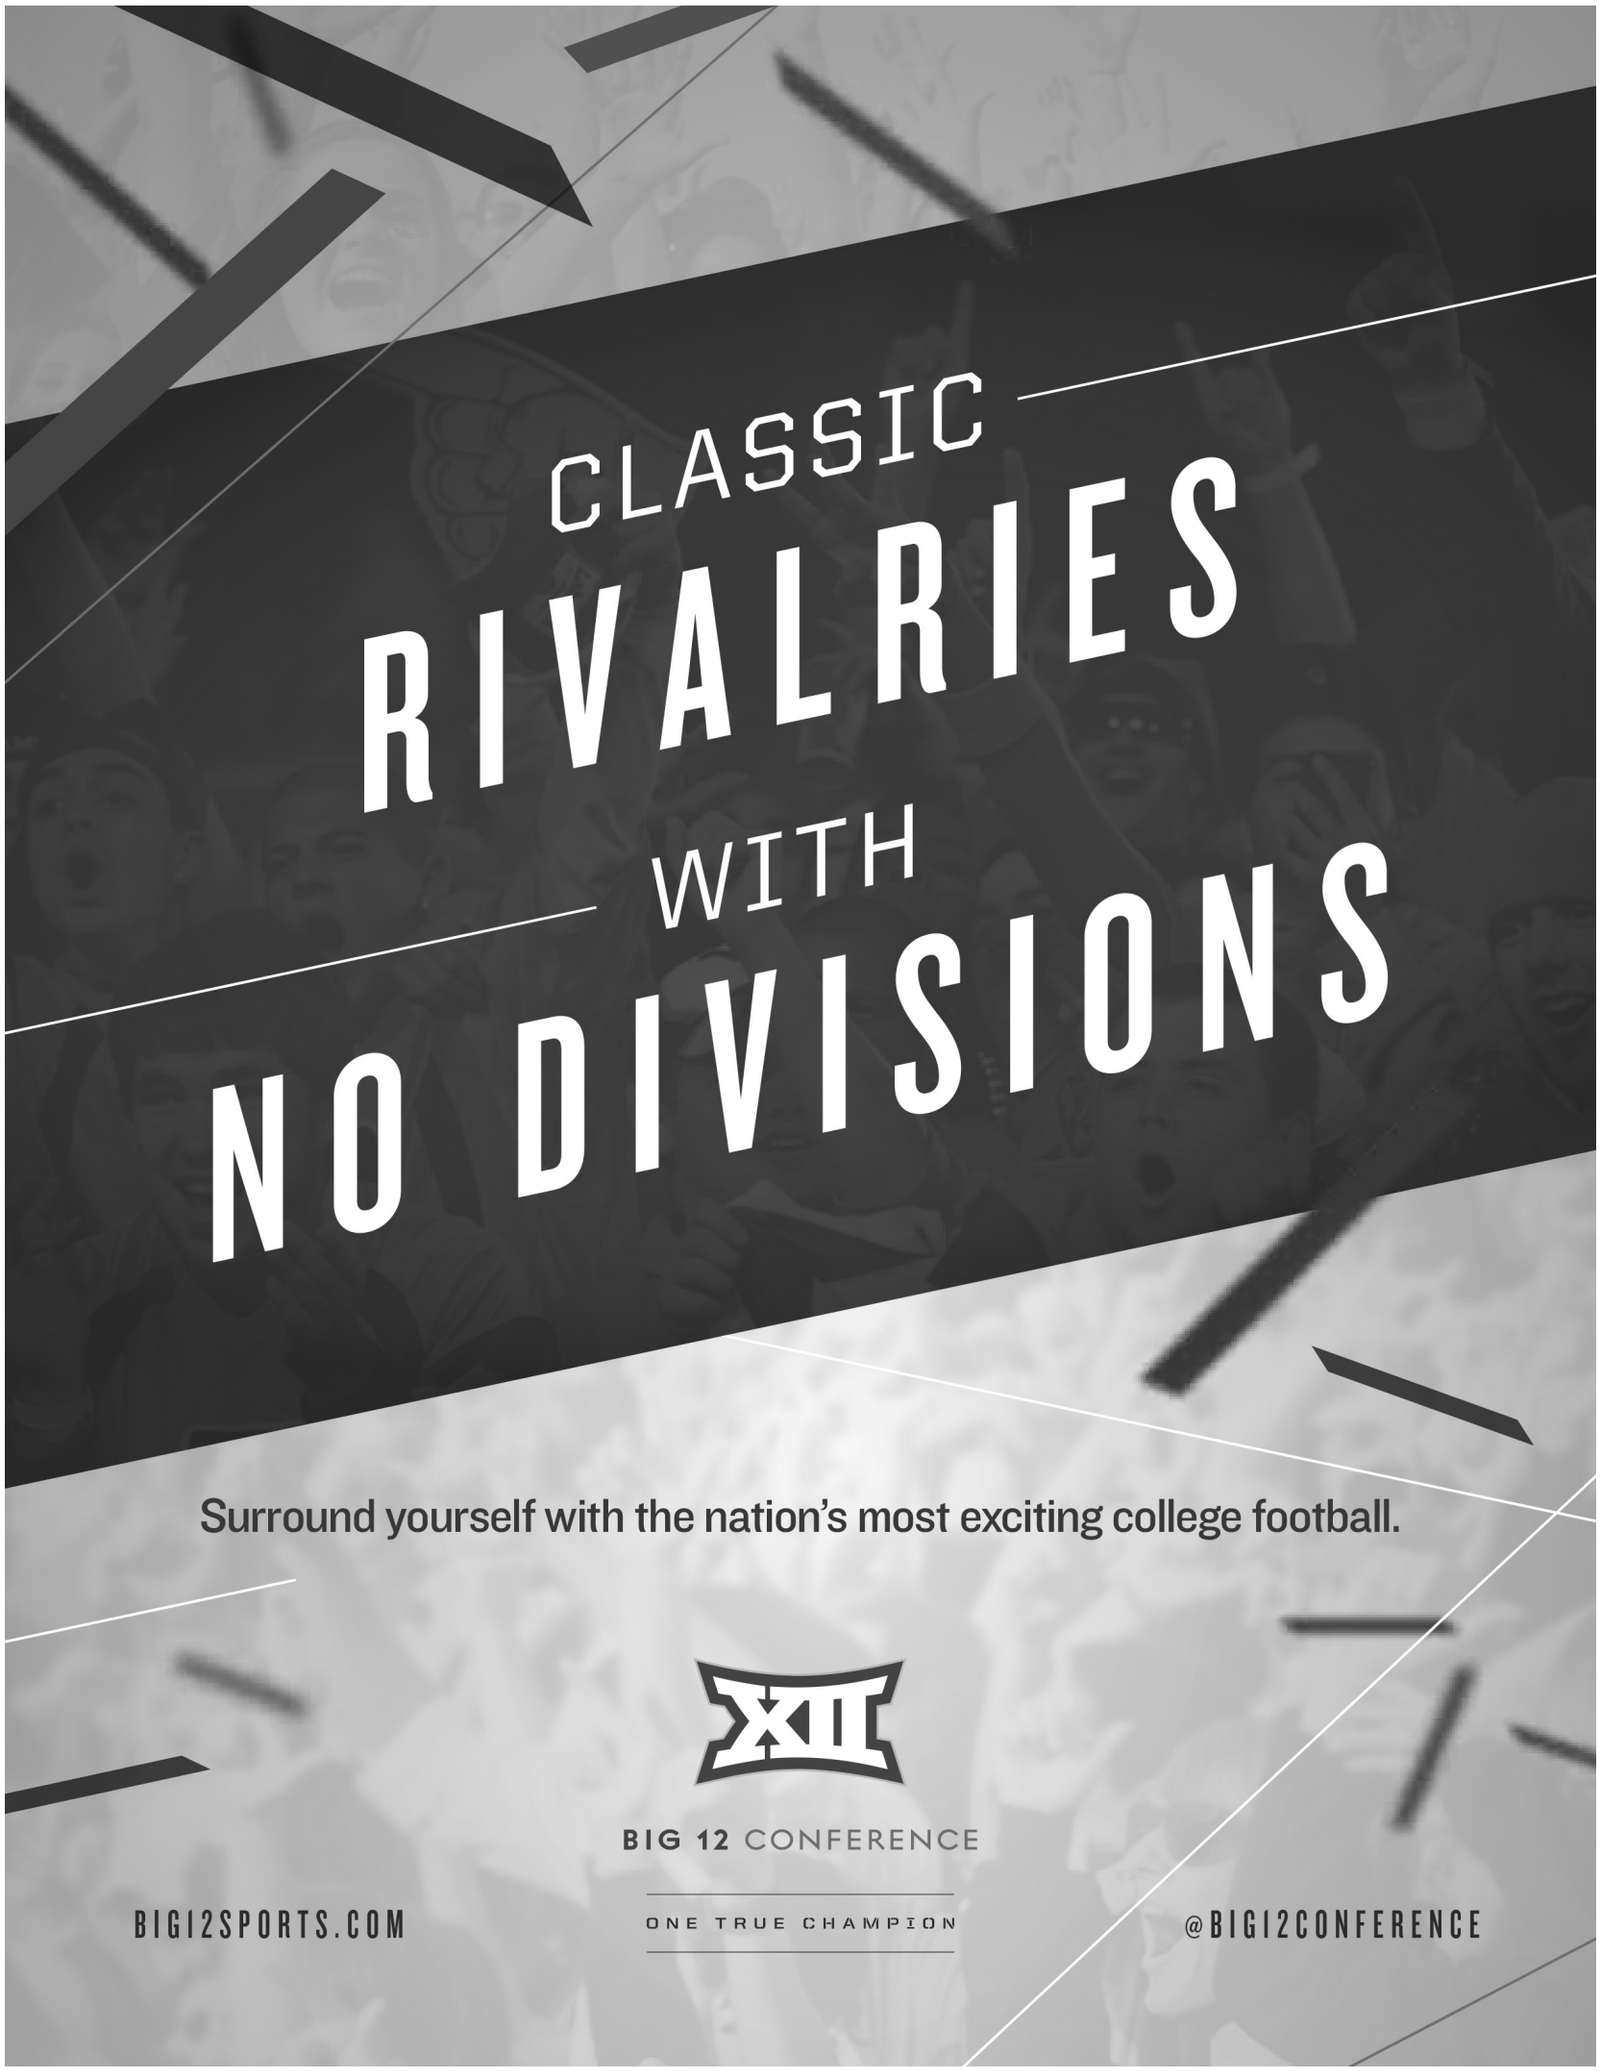

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships. A total of 361 scholars have received over $2.5 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 19 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.

Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses five states and nearly 38 million people. Nearly 5,000 student-athletes from across the United States and around the World compete annually in the sports sponsored by the Conference.

The Conference conducts postseason championships for 20 of its 23 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition.

In its first 19 years, the Big 12 has distributed approximately $2.3 billion to its member institutions, including a record $253 million in 2014-15. The Conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

OKLAHOMA STATE SPIRIT

OSU PROUD

Alumni of Oklahoma State University are as loyal to their alma mater as any group in America. Just look around the Stillwater campus. OSU's director of athletics, head football coach, head wrestling coach and head baseball coach are all graduates of Oklahoma State.

Many factors contribute to the "college experience" – not the least of which is gaining a feeling of belonging and a sense of loyalty to the school, its faculty and staff, the community that embraces the university, and the athletic teams that compete to garner conference and national honors.

Wearing school colors and displaying emblems of the university are life-long symbols of allegiance. Oklahoma State's famed Homecoming is a yearly celebration that brings much activity and excitement.

THE COWBOY TRAIL

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

PISTOL PETE

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

FRANK EATON - BEFORE PISTOL PETE

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

BULLET

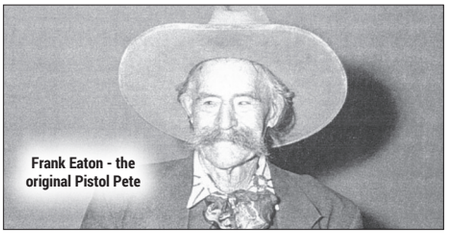

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits next to the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in Stillwater.

Bullet speeds onto the field after each score.

AMERICA'S GREATEST HOMECOMING CELEBRATION

Friday night's "Walkaround" attracts thousands to campus for Homecoming.

Ask any Oklahoma State University graduate what OSU's greatest tradition is, and you'll hear one word - Homecoming.

The OSU Alumni Association has presented Homecoming at OSU since 1920 growing it from a small-town carnival to a nine-day, award-winning celebration. It is widely known as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" with its signature event, Walkaround, which regularly draws more than 80,000 spectators to view elaborate Greek house decorations, parade floats and residence halls bathed in orange.

OSU's Homecoming is entirely run by students - more than 250 on committees within the Alumni Association and thousands more in Greek, residential and campus life. Cowboys love our Homecoming tradition and are actively contributing to an endowment to secure its future existence and growth on our campus.

Homecoming is a driving force in the Stillwater community. In 2013, the Harvest Carnival event contributed 18,500 pounds of canned food donations to the local Harvest II food drive. Homecoming also highlights other OSU sports at Homecoming & Hoops where fans can preview the upcoming season's squads for Cowboy and Cowgirl basketball in addition to enjoying a pep rally for Saturday's football game.

From the Edmon Low Library's orange fountain to Hester Street painted for coaches and players to view during "The Walk," OSU and its alumni are proud to claim "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration." Homecoming 2015: 'Stillwater, Still Loyal, Still True' is October 16-24 and will conclude with the Kansas vs. OSU football game.

STILLWATER, OKLAHOMA

Located in north central Oklahoma, and easy drives from Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Kansas City and Dallas, Stillwater provides college-town atmosphere with big-city access.

Stillwater is a rapidly growing city of 47,000 and is near the geographic center of the country. The U.S. Census Bureau recently named Stillwater as the fastest growing city in the state of Oklahoma. Often called Oklahoma's premier education community, Stillwater is the home of some of the region's finest education and training institutions, including Oklahoma State University, Meridian Technology Center, Northern Oklahoma College/OSU Gateway, and one of the nation's top rated public school systems.

With such a strong commitment to education, it's easy to see why Stillwater's educational attainment is among the highest in the nation, with 48 percent of its residents holding bachelor's degrees or higher. The city is the micropolitan anchor for the state's technology triangle that includes Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

The "college town" atmosphere lends itself to a variety of recreational opportunities. Year-round arts and cultural events appeal to many different audiences and feature music, dance, theater, festivals, lectures, and concerts. A youthful community demands the best in fitness centers, spas, parks and recreational opportunities.

And for the outdoor enthusiast, nearby lakes provide a quiet respite at the city's edge, sparkling in 234 days of annual sunshine.

After a day of work or play, residents and visitors often relax in one of the many restaurants or night spots that offer everything from barbecue to fine dining, and blues to bluegrass. Stillwater's retail districts feature a unique shopping experience where you'll find museums, galleries, and shops with personality. OSU athletic events attract more than 600,000 fans to Stillwater annually.

OSU has been called the "University of Golf," and the five-star Karsten Creek, home of the 10-time national champion Cowboy golf team and perennial top-10 women's program, ranks with such well-known courses as Pebble Beach. It's one of several public and private courses that prompted Golf Digest to call the Stillwater area among the "Top 10 Places in America to retire and play golf."

Stillwater is one of America's safest cities, with a crime rate far below the U.S. average and Oklahoma State University has been considered the safest campus in the Big 12 Conference since the league's inception.

Security also comes in the form of great health care services, centered around Stillwater Medical Center's state of the art facilities. And with a cost of living that averages more than 10 percent below the U.S. average, the dollar buys more.

Whether you're here for a short time or a lifetime, you'll want to stake your claim in one of America's great university cities… Stillwater, Oklahoma!

AMERICA'S FRIENDLIEST COLLEGE TOWN

The Program

Oklahoma State has established itself as a consistent power in the Big 12 Conference in recent years. How did it happen? Groundbreaking donations never before seen in college athletics, the right people in positions of leadership, completely overhauled facilities and the efforts of players and coaches are at the core.

BOONE PICKENS STADIUM

The relocation of the Cowboy football operations to the West End Zone in the summer of 2009 punctuated one of the largest building projects in recent NCAA history. And the result is the new home of Cowboy football.

Boone Pickens Stadium is now a state-of-the-art facility that not only provides Oklahoma State football with a unique game-day environment and a roaring home-field advantage, but also with unrivaled facilities for daily operations located in incredibly convenient proximities.

"The easy comparison is to the way things used to be at Stillwater. Anyone who remembers the aging stadium that was can't help but be overwhelmed by the changes. But the better comparison is to Oklahoma State's peers in Top 25 football programs. Put simply: There's not a better facility anywhere. Plenty of new facilities have been built, and many are filled with bells, whistles and the latest gizmos and gadgetry. Very few are designed as well as Boone Pickens Stadium's facility. From top to bottom – literally, from the coaches' offices to the locker room and other player areas -- it is fabulous but very functional. Those terms don't always go together; in Stilllwater, they mesh seamlessly."

- George Schroeder, USA Today

Boone Pickens Stadium officially opened a new south side in 2004, a new north side in 2006 and in 2009 put the wraps on the west end zone project. And while the new digs put OSU on the cutting edge of collegiate facilities, the Cowboys still enjoy the home-field advantage that suffocates opponents with the tightest sidelines in all of football.

The result is that every fan in attendance is close to the action and very much a part of the OSU gameday experience in the coziest 60,000-seat stadium in America.

The west end zone houses a new multilevel football operations center that includes sparkling football offices, meeting rooms, speed, strength and conditioning center, locker rooms, equipment room, athletic medicine center, media facilities, and hall of fame areas, along with a new training table. Atop the facility, Boone Pickens Stadium is ringed by 123 suites and 3,500 club seats.

"Oklahoma State. The fans, the atmosphere, it's crazy. You can't find another like that in college football."

BOONE PICKENS STADIUM HISTORY

Oklahoma State's football home is now far removed from the humble athletic grounds that served as the home of Oklahoma A&M football when the team was first formed in 1901.

In 1896, Dr. Lowery Layman Lewis first arrived in Stillwater as professor of veterinary medicine. Lewis became dean of veterinary medicine and later dean of the School of Science and Literature. While he was not officially linked to sports at A&M, the enthusiastic and beloved Dean Lewis took the initiative in organizing early track and football teams, encouraging students to sample different events and to participate for their school.

Dean Lewis helped locate the football field, placing it in a north-south position north of Morrill Hall. The patron saint of early-day athletics had been an integral part of the campus for fourteen years when in 1910 the Athletic Association heartily endorsed the suggestion to honor Dean Lewis by naming the athletic grounds Lewis Field. The new name was made official during the 1913-1914 academic year.

In the fall of 1919, the new Oklahoma A&M Armory and Gymnasium, now known the Donald W. Reynolds School of Architecture, was completed at a cost of $102,000. At the same time, Lewis Field was moved to its permanent site on the northeast edge of the campus. Shortly after the move, the field was repositioned north-south to east-west to "avoid the prevailing strong winds."

The first addition to the stadium came in 1924 with the steel and concrete portion of the south stadium. During the 1929-30 seasons, 8,000 permanent seats were built on the north side to bring the capacity to 13,000.

In 1947, the south stadium was increased from 20 to 53 rows and capacity climbed to over 30,000. The first permanent press box was added in 1948. Prior to the 1950 season, 10,600 more seats were added to the north stands, increasing capacity to 39,000.

The next expansion didn't come until 1971 when the cinder track around the field was removed. The field was lowered 12 feet and 20 rows of permanent seating were added to both sides.

The first artificial surface was installed in 1971 at a cost of $2.5 million. The stadium's press box was torn down and reconstructed in 1980 and the lighting system was installed prior to the 1985 season.

Boone Pickens Stadium was rededicated in 2009 with Pickens on hand to cut the ribbon.

A second artificial surface was installed prior to the 2000 season and remained in place until the summer of 2005.

The wheels were set in motion to bring the stadium to its current form when OSU graduate Boone Pickens made the single-largest gift in school history in 2003. His $70 million donation ($20 million of which was earmarked for stadium expansion) spurred the "Next Level Campaign", which generated more than $100 million in gifts and pledges and involved more than 2,500 individuals, making it the single-most successful campaign in OSU history.

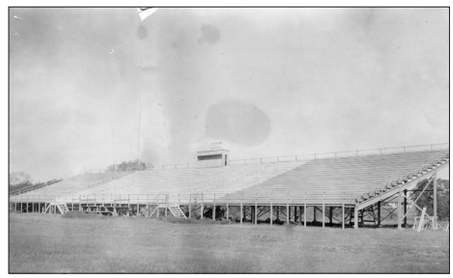

The stadium was renamed Boone Pickens Stadium during a halftime ceremony as part of the Cowboys' 2003 season opener against Wyoming.

In the wake of Pickens' gift, major renovations to the south side of the stadium that included suites and club seating were completed in 2004. That scene was essentially mirrored on the north side in 2006. After Pickens gave an additional $165 million in 2006 - the largest donation in the history of college athletics - approximately 20,000 new seats were added to the west side of the stadium and it was completely bowled in for the 2008 season.

Boone Pickens Stadium was officially re-dedicated on Sept. 5, 2009.

In the east end zone is the Athletics Center, home of historic Gallagher-Iba Arena. Atop the athletic center are the only suites in college athletics that can be utilized for football and basketball.

A new playing surface was added during the summer of 2014 to bring Boone Pickens Stadium to its current state.

SHERMAN E. SMITH TRAINING CENTER

OPENED - 2013 | AREA - 94,000 SQUARE FEET | INVESTMENT - $19 MILLION

Located across Hall of Fame Avenue from Boone Pickens Stadium is yet another sparkling athletic facility in the Sherman E. Smith Training Center.

The Smith Center is a multipurpose training complex that features three outdoor practice fields and one indoor field. The indoor facility is a multipurpose venue that can be used by a number of sports, including football, baseball, softball and soccer. The Smith Center, Gallagher-Iba Arena and Boone Pickens Stadium compose one of the finest athletic footprints in the country.

The indoor training facility spans almost 94,000 feet and is large enough to host a soccer field. Its football configuration allows for 15 yards of clearance on both sidelines. The unique facility features six fabric roll-up doors (three on the east and west sides).

The indoor clearance of the facility is 65 feet above the playing surface. There are three indoor filming platforms and more platforms on the outside of the building for practices on the grass fields.

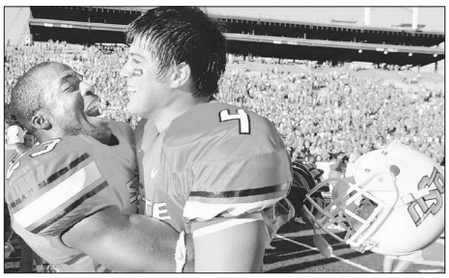

The new facility is named after long-time OSU donor Sherman E. Smith, who passed away on June 6, 2011.

Oklahoma State has emerged as a consistent power in the Big 12 Conference.

How did this Cowboy transformation happen? Groundbreaking donations never before seen in college athletics, the right people in positions of leadership, completely overhauled facilities and the efforts of players and coaches are at the core.
