Tournament History

2014 Recap

The tournament's second year was all about Mississippi State as the Bulldogs finished with a tournament-record 818 (-22), 18 strokes ahead of second-place Arkansas (836;-4). Texas A&M (-2), Kent State (+2) and UCF (+3) completed the top five spots, respectively. Mississippi State's Ally McDonald dominated the individual field, firing a 197 (-13) to set the Classic's individual tournament record.

2013 Recap

The first Schooner Fall Classic came down to an in-state rivalry, as Oklahoma State and Oklahoma took the top two spots in the tournament. The Cowgirls edged the Sooners for the championship with a three-round 868 (+28). OU finished six strokes behind at 874 (+34), while Arizona State (+36), LSU (+36) and Kentucky (+39) rounded out the top five of the event. LSU's Madelene Sagstrom fired a 206 (-4) in the Classic to capture the individual title.
