Orange You Glad We're Here

The Cowgirls advanced to the NCAA Championship for the 21st time in program history, and earned an 11th place finish. OSU posted rounds of 284-295-297-292 -- 1168, which is the second-best NCAA Championship score in program history.

Not Bad For A Sophomore

Powered by a final-round 66, OSU sophomore Kenzie Neisen ran away from the field to win her second straight Big 12 individual title - this time by six strokes. Neisen joined fellow Cowgirl Annie Thurman-Young (2004 and 2005) as the only back-to-back Big 12 individual champions in league history. Neisen's 6-under 66 on Sunday tied for the lowest round in Big 12 Championship history, and her 9-under 207 final score broke the previous record by a stroke.

Big 12 Champions ... Again

Oklahoma State rewrote the record books and won the 2016 Big 12 Conference championship at the Dominion Country Club in San Antonio, Texas. OSU was 11 strokes better than second-place Texas. The Cowgirls closed out at 8-under 856, which broke the record for the lowest 54-hole score in Big 12 Championship history by five strokes. The Cowgirls shot 282 on Sunday, which tied for the second-best round ever at a Big 12 Championship. The victory gave the Cowgirls 23 conference titles in program history. The nine Big 12 championships are more than twice as many as any other school, and more than all other current Big 12 programs combined.

Bird's The Word

• With 563 birdies on the year, Oklahoma State produced more birdies than any other team in the country this season according to Golfstat. In fact, OSU topped second-place Washington by 33 birdies. No player had more birdies nationwide than Linnea Johnasson, who posted 132 on the year to lead the country. Kenzie Neisen ranked seventh with 118 birdies, and Chih-Min Chen was 18th with 109.

Four Straight Ws

• The 2015-16 Cowgirls tied the school record with four straight victories during the regular season. OSU had won the Dr. Donnis Thompson Invite in Hawaii, the SMU/DAC Invite in Dallas, Bedlam Cup in Stillwater (13.5-2.5 match-play win over Oklahoma) and the Big 12 Championship in San Antonio, Texas. The last time OSU won four straight events was in 1988-89.
