THE BASICS

The Oklahoma State football team opens its 116th season when it hosts Tulsa at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 31 in Boone Pickens Stadium.

This marks the second consecutive year the Cowboys have opened their season at home, and the 60th time overall they have opened the season in Stillwater. OSU's overall record in season opening games at home is 48-7-4 and its overall record in season opening games is 69-41-5.

ON THE AIR

The game will be televised by FS1 with Joe Davis, Brady Quinn and Bruce Feldman on the call. The contest will also be carried live on the Cowboy Radio Network, with Dave Hunziker handling play-by-play, John Holcomb providing analysis and Robert Allen reporting from the sideline. Fans outside of the Cowboy Radio Network can listen to the OSU broadcast free of charge through TuneIn Radio or the TuneIn Radio app.

IN THE RANKINGS

Oklahoma State opens the season in the top 10 of the Associated Press Poll for the third time in the last nine years. The Cowboys enter 2017 at No. 10, just one spot behind their all-time preseason high of No. 9 in 2009 and 2011. Including this season, OSU has now reached the top 15 of the A.P. Poll at some point in nine of the past 10 seasons and the top 10 of the A.P. Poll in eight of the last 10 seasons. The season opener against Tulsa marks the 84th time in the Cowboys' last 115 games that OSU has been ranked by the A.P. entering a game.

The Cowboys are also ranked No. 11 in the preseason Amway Coaches Poll, matching their rank to close the 2016 season in that poll.

Although the first College Football Playoff rankings of 2017 aren't released until October 31, it is worth noting that the Cowboys are one of only seven teams to be ranked in every set of CFP rankings since the beginning of 2015, joining Alabama, Clemson, Florida State, Michigan, Ohio State and Utah.

THE BANK OF OKLAHOMA TURNPIKE CLASSIC

Oklahoma State and Tulsa have met on the gridiron 71 times in a series that dates back to 1914. The only school that Oklahoma State has faced more often than TU is Oklahoma.

Now the historic series that features two teams only 70 miles from each other has a title sponsor and a name. Effective for the 2017 season, the football series between Tulsa and Oklahoma State will be named the Bank of Oklahoma Turnpike Classic.

The Cowboys have won five straight games in the series, the most recent of which was a 59-33 win in 2011. OSU leads the all-time series 39-27-5 and the series in Stillwater 24-6-3. OSU coach Mike Gundy holds a 2-0 record against the Golden Hurricane and this marks Tulsa Coach Philip Montgomery's first game versus OSU.

OKLAHOMA STATE FROM A DISTANCE

There is reason for optimism surrounding the Oklahoma State football program going into the 2017 season. The Cowboys have won 10 games in five of the last seven seasons, and there's no reason to think they can't do that and more in 2017.

In Mason Rudolph, Justice Hill and James Washington, Oklahoma State has the best quarterback-running back-wide receiver trio in the Big 12 and perhaps the nation heading into 2017. How good are they? In 2016, Oklahoma State was one of only two schools in the nation with a 4,000-yard passer (Rudolph), a 1,000-yard rusher (Hill) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Washington). The only other team who could make that claim last year was national champion Clemson.

Defensively, the Cowboys return five starters and have a host of defensive linemen who have not been starters to this point, but who have positioned themselves to be successful when called upon this year.

TULSA FROM A DISTANCE

Tulsa's third-year coach Philip Montgomery installed an up-tempo offense that last year saw the Golden Hurricane become the first school in NCAA FBS/D1 history with a 3,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard rushers and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

The Golden Hurricane returns a total of 48 lettermen from that team, including seven starters on offense and six defensive starters. Entering 2017, the offense will need to replace several players that were key in Tulsa's success last year.

Team and Player Notes

WIN INDICATORS

There are many things that go into whether a team wins a game, but a long-term look at the trends during Mike Gundy's tenure at Oklahoma State shows that winning the turnover battle and winning the run game are two of the easiest ways to predict an OSU victory.

Since 2005, when the Cowboys win the turnover battle, they are 61-8 (88.4 pct.) They are 28-2 (93.3 pct.) in games when they commit zero turnovers. OSU is 76-20 under Gundy when outrushing the opponent (79.2 pct.) and is 32-5 when holding the opponent under 100 yards on the ground (86.5 pct.).

History also shows that OSU is tough to beat when it takes a lead into halftime, as the Cowboys are 81-7 when leading at intermission under Gundy (92.0 pct.).

WEEK ONE TALKING POINTS - OFFENSE

► Oklahoma State has earned a reputation for explosive offensive numbers, and the 2017 edition of the offense could be one of its best ever. The main reasons for that optimism are found in Heisman candidate at quarterback in Mason Rudolph and a wide receiver who is widely considered the nation's best at highest best position - James Washington. The duo has started games together since they were both true freshmen, and are now heading into their senior season with a proven chemistry between them.

► With Rudolph, Washington and NCAA freshman rushing champion Justice Hill thrown in the mix at running back, Oklahoma State is the only team in the country that returns a 4,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver from last season.

► In addition to those headliners, the Cowboys also have what has been called the best wide receiver corps in the nation by several media outlets. Behind the Biletnikoff-favorite Washington, OSU also returns the 2016 Big 12 receptions leader in Jalen McCleskey, a 6-4, 220-pound target in senior Marcell Ateman, playmaking senior Chris Lacy and adds speedy LSU transfer Tyron Johnson, who was a five-star recruit out of high school. Also, Dillon Stoner returns after having a promising freshman season cut short to injury in 2016 and true freshman Tylan Wallace is a candidate to see playing time based on his work in preseason camp.

RUDOLPH ENTERS 2017 AS A HEISMAN TROPHY CANDIDATE

Since having his redshirt pulled in week 11 of the 2014 season, Mason Rudolph has quarterbacked Oklahoma State to a 22-6 record as a starter and has led the Cowboys to eight victories in games in which they trailed during the second half.

Rudolph surpassed 300 yards passing in six games last season and 300 yards passing in a half on two occasions this year. For perspective, that feat had only been accomplished twice in Oklahoma State history prior to last season. Against Pitt, he finished with a school-record 540 passing yards and his 20.77 yards per completion in the game also set a single-game school record (min. 20 completions). He was the only quarterback in the country last season to throw for more than 4,000 yards with fewer than five interceptions.

Now entering 2017, Rudolph ranks in the top six among active FBS players in career passing yards (third), career passing yards per game (third), career passing yards per attempt (second), career pass efficiency (third) and career touchdown-to-interception ratio (sixth). He also led all FBS quarterbacks returning in 2017 in both interception avoidance and touchdown-to-interception ratio in 2016.

Rudolph has been tabbed as the No. 1 senior quarterback in the country by Mel Kiper and as the No. 19 player in college football by Athlon Sports. This preseason has also seen Rudolph named to preseason watch lists for the Maxwell Award, the Wuerffel Trophy, the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award, the Manning Award and the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

He's also been picked to win the most famous of them all: the Heisman Trophy.

RUDOLPH CHASING OSU WINS RECORD

Rudolph enters the 2017 season holding no fewer than 11 school records at Oklahoma State and in position to set OSU career records for pass attempts, pass completions, passing yards and passing touchdowns. He is also well positioned to add his name to another place in the Cowboy record book: OSU's all-time winningest quarterback. Entering his senior year, he is 22-6 as a starter and needs only seven wins to set the record for wins as a starting quarterback. A look at where he stands on the list:

Rank	Name	Years as a Starter	Record
1.	Mike Gundy	1986-1989	28-14
2.	Brandon Weeden	2010-2011	23-3
3.	Zac Robinson	2007-2009	23-13
4.	Mason Rudolph	2014-2016	22-6

ACTIVE CAREER LEADERS - PASSING YARDS

Entering his final season of college football, Rudolph has cemented himself among the nation's best passers. A look at how his career yardage numbers compares to the other national leaders:

Rank	Player, School	CL	GM	Att	Com	YDS
1.	Luke Falk, Washington St.	Sr.	31	1,521	1,047	10,893
2.	Matt Linehan, Idaho	Sr.	35	1,184	726	8,716

10.	J.T. Barrett, Ohio St.	Sr.	36	840	529	6,381

THROWING DARTS

One of the most impressive parts of Rudolph's 2016 season was his ability to avoid interceptions. Despite attempting 448 passes, he was only picked off four times. He was the only quarterback in the country who surpassed 4,000 passing yards with less than five interceptions.

Rudolph's interception numbers are even more impressive considering a large percentage of his passes were downfield, not short and easy throws. Among players returning in 2017, Rudolph ranked third nationally in completions of at least 30 yards in 2016 and he was the only quarterback in the country with four completions of at least 80 yards. More than half of his completions went for at least 10 yards and nearly 13 percent gained at least 30 yards.

Here's how he ranked last year among players returning in 2017 in terms of 30-plus yard completions:

Rk	Player, School	G	10+	20+	30+	40+	50+	60+	70+	80+	90+
1.	Mike White, Western Kentucky	14	155	68	44	24	12	7	5	2	0

7.	Jake Browning, Washington	14	137	44	28	13	7	5	2	0	0

THE BEST WIDE RECEIVER IN THE COUNTRY

James Washington's 26 career receiving touchdowns mark the highest total among all active FBS players heading into 2017. He leads all active receivers from Power Five conferences with 2,923 career receiving yards and 19.2 career yards per reception heading into 2017. He is the consensus pick as the nation's top returning receiver and the preseason favorite to win the Biletnikoff Award. Additionally, the Stamford, Texas, native has also been added to the Earl Campbell Award, the Walter Camp Award and the Maxwell Award watch lists heading into 2017.

WASHINGTON IN THE OSU RECORD BOOKS, TOO

Washington is one of only three Cowboys ever with 10 or more receiving touchdowns in multiple seasons, joining two-time Biletnikoff Award winner Justin Blackmon and Rashaun Woods. He is also one of five OSU players in history with multiple 1,000-yard seasons, joining Blackmon, Woods, Hart Lee Dykes and Adarius Bowman. He ranks fourth on OSU's career receiving yards list with 2,923.

MORE TO GO AROUND

Although Washington is OSU's most well-known wide receiver, he's far from the only weapon. He leads a group that has been tabbed by multiple national outlets as the best in the country.

Jalen McCleskey is the Big 12's returning receptions leader from last season and Marcell Ateman is a tall, formidable option outside who is back after missing last season due to injury. Playmaker Chris Lacy is also outside, as well as speedy LSU transfer Tyrone Johnson, a former five star recruit.

The receivers coming back this year accounted for 64.8 percent of the Cowboys' receptions, 67.4 percent of the Cowboys' receiving yards and 69.0 percent of the Cowboys' receiving touchdowns in 2016, and four of them have multiple 100-yard receiving games in their careers (Washington, McCleskey, Ateman, and Lacy).

COWBOYS IN CLOSE GAMES

Mike Gundy hit a career milestone when he reached the 100-win mark for his career earlier this season. Success in close games has been part of his career success. ## HIS NAME IS JUSTICE

Justice Hill returns as the leading man for Oklahoma State at the running back position. A year ago he was crowned the NCAA freshman rushing champion after gaining 1,142 yards on the ground, a total that surpassed the OSU freshman rushing record set by Mike Hamilton in 2005 (961 yards) and the OSU true freshman season mark set by Thurman Thomas in 1984 (843 yards). He recorded six 100-yard rushing performances in 2016, which were the most by a freshman in school history.

Hill was named to the Freshman All-America First Team by both USA Today and the Football Writers Association of America. He was also selected as the 2016 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year by the Associated Press, making him the ninth player in OSU history to earn the conference award.

WEEK ONE TALKING POINTS - DEFENSE

- ▶ One of Oklahoma State's biggest successes last season was winning the field position battle. More specifically, giving their opponents a long way to go when they get the ball. The Cowboys led the nation in opponent starting field position in 2016, as OSU opponents started on average at their own 23.6-yard line.
- ▶ Forcing turnovers has long been one of the biggest points of emphasis for Cowboy defensive coordinator Glenn Spencer. Last season, the Cowboys averaged +0.85 turnovers per game to rank No. 10 nationally in turnover margin. OSU has ranked in the top 10 nationally in that category in three of the past four seasons and led the nation in turnover margin in 2011. There no doubt the emphasis will be the same in 2017.
- ▶ OSU wrapped up the 2016 season ranked 13th nationally in red zone defense, only allowing opponents to score on 75 percent of their red zone opportunities. Success in that area could have a big impact on the Cowboys' win-loss record.
- ▶ In nine of OSU's 10 wins last year, the Cowboy defense held its opponent to less than 50 percent on third down conversions, including twice when they were held to less than 25 percent. The Cowboys held opponents to a 39.0 percent conversion rate on the year to rank fourth in the Big 12, and success in that area had a strong correlation with OSU's win-loss record.

NOTING THE DEFENSIVE LEADERS

Safety Tre Flowers, linebacker Chad Whitener and safety Ramon Richards are three of Oklahoma State's leaders on defense this season. The trio has 101 combined appearances for OSU over the past three years and in 2017, they'll serve once again as part of the spine of the Cowboy defense.

- ▶ Flowers is the most experienced player on the Oklahoma State defense. Through his junior season, the Converse, Texas native has racked up 31 starts and leads all Cowboys with 200 career tackles. He is coming off an impressive junior campaign that saw him earn his first career All-Big 12 honors, as he was named to the second team by the league's coaches. Flowers also led the team last year with seven pass breakups. He recorded 61 total tackles as a junior in 2016, marking the third straight season that he recorded at least 55 tackles.
- ▶ Chad Whitener has been a stalwart of the OSU defense since first stepping on the field for the Cowboys in 2015. Whitener played in every game as a sophomore in 2015, including starting the final eight games of the season. Whitener received the 2016 Leslie O'Neal Award, which honors OSU's Most Outstanding Defensive Player, at the team's annual awards banquet last year. He was also named an All-Big 12 performer and selected to the Academic All-Big 12 team for the second consecutive year.
- ▶ Ramon Richards is switching roles on defense this year, as he moves from playing primarily as a cornerback to becoming predominantly a safety that will be able to step in as needed at cornerback. The San Antonio native has racked up eight interceptions during his first three years in Stillwater, and several of those have come at crucial moments for the Cowboys. In 2016, he sealed OSU's 45-38 win over Pittsburgh with an interception in OSU territory with less than 30 seconds remaining in the game. His interception of Central Michigan's Cooper Rush in the final minutes of the contest would have clinched the game for the Cowboys if not for a controversial finish to the game. Richards' knack for making the big plays at crucial moments first arose during his sophomore campaign in 2015 when he sealed Oklahoma State's win over Texas Tech with a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown in the final seconds of the contest.

As three of the squad's most experienced defensive players this season, Flowers, Richards and Whitener will be leaned upon as leaders of the OSU defense in 2017.

BLOCK PARTY

One of the biggest strengths of the Cowboy defense over the last several years has been its ability to block kicks and make game-changing plays. Last year, Oklahoma State led the Big 12 and ranked fourth nationally with six blocked kicks on the year. OSU has blocked 19 kicks since the start of the 2013.

The biggest factor in that ranking was defensive tackle Vincent Taylor, who led the nation and matched an OSU single season record with four blocked kicks. One of OSU's tasks will be finding someone to play the role of Taylor, now with the Miami Dolphins. Early candidates are Darrion Daniels and DeQuinton Osborne.

NOTING THE SPECIALISTS

In junior Zach Sinor, Oklahoma State has a legitimate Ray Guy Award candidate who led all FBS punters in 2016 with 62.5 percent of his punts being downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line, a figure that was nearly 10 percent better than any other punter in the country, as the second-place finisher (Utah's Mitch Wishnowsky) came in at 53.1 percent. Despite punting only 56 times on the season, Sinor's 35 punts downed inside the 20 led the nation. Due largely to his ability to target punt with hang time, OSU ranked second nationally by allowing only 15 punt return yards all season (0.94 yards per punt return). Sinor's performance was perhaps the most significant reason why the Cowboys ranked No. 1 nationally in opponents' starting field position, starting on average at their own 23.8-yard line. The Cowboys held their opponents to either zero yards or negative yards on punt returns seven times in 13 games in 2016.

As far as placekickers go, sophomore Matt Ammendola looks to take the reins from OSU's departed all-time leading scorer, Ben Grogan. Ammendola handled all of the kickoff duties in 2016 and pounded home a 53-yard field goal in his lone attempt of the season. Matt Hockett could also see time on the field goal unit.

BALANCE ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BALL

Oklahoma State was the only team in the Big 12 last year who ranked among the top three in the league in both scoring offense and scoring defense. Its 38.6 points scored per game average and its 26.5 points allowed per game average each ranked third in the conference.
