The Basics

The Oklahoma State football team (5-3 overall; 2-3 Big 12) returns to Stillwater to host TCU (4-3 overall; 2-2 Big 12) on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at Boone Pickens Stadium.

Get Your Tickets

Season tickets and single-game tickets are available at okstate.com/tickets or by calling the OSU ticket office at 877-ALL-4-OSU. Fans interested in tickets can also text the OSU ticket office at 877-255-4678. With season ticket prices starting at $300 and three home games remaining, it is still a better deal to purchase a season ticket than to buy each game individually. Purchasing a season ticket is also the only way to attend the Bedlam game. Single-game tickets for this Saturday start at $75.

On the Air

The game will be televised by ESPN with Mark Jones, Dusty Dvoracek and Olivia Dekker on the call. The contest will also be carried live on the Cowboy Radio Network, with Dave Hunziker handling play-by-play, John Holcomb providing analysis and Robert Allen reporting from the sideline. Fans outside of the Cowboy Radio Network can listen to the OSU broadcast for free through TuneIn Radio or the TuneIn Radio app.

In the Rankings

Oklahoma State is not ranked this week, but is receiving votes in both the AP and the coaches polls. Entering 2019, OSU had reached the top 15 of the AP poll at some point in 10 of the past 11 seasons. OSU had also seen a top 10 ranking in the AP poll at some point in eight of the past 11 seasons. TCU is not ranked in either poll.

The Series

Saturday's game marks the 30th meeting between Oklahoma State and TCU, with the series dating back to 1915. The 2019 season also marks the eighth consecutive year the teams have met. OSU owns a 15-12-2 all-time series advantage, including a 9-4 advantage in games played in Stillwater. OSU has won five of the past eight in the series, including four of the past five played in Stillwater. A win Saturday would end a two-game win streak for the Horned Frogs.

Coach Mike Gundy is 4-3 in his career against TCU, while TCU coach Gary Patterson is 3-4 in his career against OSU.

Oklahoma State from a Distance

Oklahoma State is 5-3 overall and 2-3 in Big 12 play, and just finished a stretch of facing four ranked opponents in its past five games.

The story of the season so far has been the emergence of Heisman Trophy candidate Chuba Hubbard, who leads the nation in nearly every statistical rushing category, including rushing yards, rushing yards per game, all-purpose yards, yards after contact (via Pro Football Focus), yards per carry (min. 155) and more. His average of 172.6 rushing yards per game is 33.8 more than second-place J.K. Dobbins of Ohio State. For perspective, the spread between first place and second place is equal to the difference between second-place Dobbins and 19th-place Joshua Kelley of UCLA. Hubbard's rushing yards and rushing yards per carry through eight games are better than three of the past four running backs to win the Heisman.

OSU wide receiver Tylan Wallace is also making a case to repeat as a first team All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist, if not more. Wallace leads all Power Five conference players with 903 receiving yards this season, and he ranks No. 1 in the FBS in 60-plus, 70-plus and 90-plus yard catches.

Defensively, the Cowboys are coming off one of their most impressive performances of the season, as they forced a three-and-out and three interceptions, including the game-deciding pick-six, on Iowa State's final four possessions last week to seal a seven-point win in Ames. OSU has held its past four opponents to a combined 11-of-51 (21.6%) on third down. That ranks No. 2 in the FBS over the past five weeks. Linebackers Amen Ogbongbemiga and Malcolm Rodriguez have been the individual standouts, as both rank among the top seven tacklers in the Big 12.

On special teams, Matt Ammendola ranks third among all active players in the FBS with 321 career points scored. At 12-for-12 on the year, he's one of four kickers in the country who have attempted 12 or more field goals and converted at a 100 percent rate this season.

Team and Player Notes

Win Indicators

There are many things that factor into whether a team wins a game, but a long-term look at the trends during Mike Gundy's tenure at Oklahoma State shows that winning the turnover battle and winning the run game are two of the easiest ways to predict an OSU victory.

Since 2005, when the Cowboys win the turnover battle, they are 68-9 (88.3 pct.). They are 35-2 (94.6 pct.) in games when they commit zero turnovers. OSU is 96-24 under Gundy when outrushing the opponent (80.0 pct.) and is 40-5 when holding the opponent under 100 yards on the ground (88.9 pct.).

History also shows that OSU is tough to beat when it takes a lead into halftime, as the Cowboys are 98-9 when leading at intermission under Gundy (91.6 pct.).

Gundy-coached teams are undefeated when holding opponents to fewer than 20 points, holding a perfect 58-0 record. OSU has won 66 consecutive games when holding its opponent to fewer than 20 points, dating to Sept. 13, 2003 – the longest active streak in the nation.

Beating Ranked Teams

Oklahoma State has six wins over ranked opponents since the beginning of last season, a mark that ties for third in the FBS. A look at the nation's most successful teams against ranked opponents in that time span:

| School                | Top 25 Wins |

| Ohio State            | 9           |

Game 9 Talking Points - Offense

- Chuba Hubbard's performance this season has put him in the Heisman Trophy conversation. He leads the nation in nearly every statistical rushing category, including rushing yards, rushing yards per game, all-purpose yards, yards after contact (via Pro Football Focus), yards per carry (min. 155) and rushing plays of at least 20, 30, 40, 50, 70 and 80 yards. Hubbard's 172.6 rushing yards per game is 33.8 more than second-place J.K. Dobbins of Ohio State. Hubbard's rushing yards and yards per carry through eight games are better than three of the past four running backs to win the Heisman.
- Tylan Wallace is making another run at the Biletnikoff Award and All-America status. Wallace leads all Power Five conference players with 903 receiving yards this season, and he ranks No. 1 in the FBS in 60-plus, 70-plus and 90-plus yard catches. He is the only player in the FBS with more than 2,000 total receiving yards since the beginning of last season.
- Spencer Sanders has 1,731 passing yards through eight games and already holds the Oklahoma State freshman record for passing yards in a season. Sanders' 279.9 total offense average ranks No. 1 among FBS freshmen this year and he ranks No. 9 among all FBS quarterbacks with 500 rushing yards, recording two 100-yard rushing games.
- The offensive line is anchored by a combined 75 career starts from Johnny Wilson and Marcus Keyes. After keeping the same five starters for the first four games, injuries forced the OSU O-line to feature a different starting lineup in four of the past five games. The leadership from Keyes and Wilson inside has helped steady the unit.
- Oklahoma State offensive coordinator Sean Gleeson is in his debut season on the FBS level after spending the previous two seasons as a successful offensive coordinator at Princeton. Charlie Dickey, a 32-year coaching veteran who previously served as the offensive line coach under Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 2009-18, is also in his debut season with OSU. He coaches the offensive line.

Home Run Hitters

No team in America has ripped off more offensive gains of 50 yards or longer than Oklahoma State. The Cowboys have 15 such plays. A closer look:

Game Notes

Big Offense

Oklahoma State is in its customary position as one of the most explosive offenses in the nation. The Cowboys are second in the Big 12 and ninth in the FBS in total offense (505.1 yards per game) and lead the nation with 15 offensive plays of 50 yards or longer.

Numbers like those have become the norm for OSU under Mike Gundy, as the Cowboys have finished the season ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring six times and have finished the season ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense seven times during Gundy's tenure as head coach.

Ground and Pound

Oklahoma State enters this week's game leading the Big 12 and ranking fifth in the FBS by averaging 263.5 rushing yards per game. The Cowboys' eight-game total of 2,108 yards ranks as the second-highest eight-game total for OSU since 2000.

The Nation's Best ... And It's not Even Close

Chuba Hubbard leads the FBS with 172.6 rushing yards per game. The difference between him and second-place J.K. Dobbins of Ohio State is 33.8 yards per game. For perspective on how wide of a margin that is, the difference between first place and second place is equal to the difference between second-place Dobbins and 19th-place Joshua Kelley of UCLA.

Through Eight Games: Hubbard vs. Cowboy Greats

Oklahoma State has a rich tradition of All-America running backs, headlined by Hall-of-Famers Barry Sanders and Thurman Thomas. However, it should also be noted that Cowboys Ernest Anderson (1982) and Gerald Hudson (1990) both led the nation in rushing and Terry Miller was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1977. A look at how Hubbard stacks up against the first-team All-America running backs of Oklahoma State's past through eight games:

Fantastic Freshman

Two of his teammates rank among the elite skill position players in the country, but freshman quarterback Spencer Sanders is establishing himself as a playmaker to be reckoned with as well. Sanders ranks 21st nationally and leads all FBS freshmen in total offense by averaging 279.9 yards per game. A look at the freshman leader board:

Record Breaker

Spencer Sanders has 1,731 passing yards through eight games and already holds the Oklahoma State freshman record for passing yards in a season. If he keeps on his current pace, he'll finish the regular season with 2,609 passing yards, and that's not counting what he could get in a potential bowl game. A look at his place among Oklahoma State's top freshman signal-callers of the past:

Sanders' Place among Freshman Quarterbacks

A look at where Spencer Sanders ranks among freshman quarterbacks around the nation:

Total Offense: First, 279.9 yards per game
Rushing Offense: Third, 62.5 yards per game

Game 9 Talking Points - Defense

- The OSU defense is coming off one of its most impressive performances of the season, as the Cowboys forced a three-and-out and three interceptions, including the game-deciding pick-six, on Iowa State's final four possessions last week to seal a seven-point win in Ames.
- In the last five weeks, Oklahoma State has been in elite company on third-down defense. After holding Kansas State to 1-for-13 on third downs, OSU followed it up by holding Texas Tech to 2-for-13, Baylor to 3-for-9 and Iowa State to 5-for-16. The 21.6% rate is No. 2 in the FBS during that time span.
- Linebackers Amen Ogbongbemiga and Malcolm Rodriguez have been the foundation of the OSU defense this year, as both rank among the top seven players in the Big 12 in tackles. Ogbongbemiga leads the team with 9.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.
- The OSU defense ranks among the top three in the Big 12 when it comes to defensive touchdowns, fumbles recovered and fourth down percentage defense.
- The OSU defense is made up mostly of first-year starters, as seven different Cowboy defenders have made their first career start this season.
- The OSU D-line is entirely first-year starters in Tyler Lacy, Cameron Murray, Israel Antwine and Trace Ford. Samuela Tuihalamaka, Brock Martin and Brendon Evers have also been first time starters for OSU in 2019.
- Several freshmen contribute on the defensive line, including Lacy, Tuihalamaka, Ford and Jayden Jernigan. OSU's freshmen D-linemen have accounted for 53 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, six pass break ups, a forced fumble and 10 quarterback hurries.
- Defensive coordinator Jim Knowles is in his second season as the leader of the Cowboy defense.
- For the first time in the Mike Gundy era (since 2005), OSU features a pair of cornerbacks in their third year as starters. A.J. Green, a true senior, and Rodarius Williams, a redshirt junior, both came in the same recruiting class and have been everyday starters since the beginning of the 2017 season.

Non-offensive touchdowns have been a regular part of the Oklahoma State attack in recent years, as the Cowboys have been among the leaders in non-offensive scores since the start of the 2010 season. A closer look:

Kicking With Precision

Kicker Matt Ammendola ranks third among all active players in the FBS with 321 career points scored. He has been particularly outstanding this season. At 12-for-12 on the year, he's one of only seven kickers in the country who has attempted 10 or more field goals and converted at a 100 percent rate this season.

Aussie Rules

Freshman punter Tom Hutton has demonstrated the ability to pin opponents deep inside their own territory and to punt the ball in such a way as to limit return yards. Of his 37 punts this season, 17 have been downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line and 21 have been fair caught. Hutton is one of the central reasons why Oklahoma State leads the Big 12 and ranks third in the FBS by allowing only 0.29 yards per punt return. The Cowboys have yielded a grand total of two punt return yards this season.

Cowboy Grads

Academics has always been a point of emphasis for OSU coach Mike Gundy. The 2019 Cowboy roster includes seven players who have already earned their degrees:
