The Basics

The Oklahoma State football team (8-3 overall; 5-3 Big 12) hosts Oklahoma (10-1 overall; 7-1 Big 12) Saturday in a primetime matchup at 7 p.m. inside Boone Pickens Stadium. It marks the regular season finale for the Cowboys, who are in search of a fifth straight win.

Get Your Tickets

The only way to attend the Bedlam game is with a season ticket, which is available at okstate.com/tickets or by calling the OSU ticket office at 877-ALL-4-OSU. Fans interested in tickets can also text the OSU ticket office at 877-255-4678.

On the Air

The game will be televised by FOX with Joe Davis, Brock Huard and Bruce Feldman on the call. The contest will also be carried live on the Cowboy Radio Network, with Dave Hunziker handling play-by-play, John Holcomb providing analysis and Robert Allen reporting from the sideline. Fans outside of the Cowboy Radio Network can listen to the OSU broadcast for free through TuneIn Radio or the TuneIn Radio app.

In the Rankings

Oklahoma State is No. 21 in the AP poll and No. 21 in the coaches poll this week. Entering 2019, OSU had reached the top 15 of the AP poll at some point in 10 of the past 11 seasons. OSU had also seen a top 10 AP ranking at some point in eight of the past 11 seasons. A win Saturday would likely extend that streak.

OSU was voted 21 in last week's College Football Playoff rankings, marking its highest CFP ranking of the season. The Cowboys have appeared in the CFP rankings four of the past five seasons.

Oklahoma was voted No. 7 in the AP and coaches polls this week. They were No. 9 in last week's CFP rankings.

The Bedlam Series

Saturday's game is part of the all-sports Bedlam Series between Oklahoma State and Oklahoma. The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head-to-head competition. In sports where there is no head-to-head matchup, the Big 12 Championship final standings are used.

Oklahoma State has won the overall Bedlam Series in five of the past six years and holds a 4-0 lead so far this season. A look at this year's results to date:

Oklahoma State from a Distance

Oklahoma State is 8-3 this season, marking the 10th time in the past 12 years the Cowboys have won at least eight games. OSU has won each of its past four games to mark its longest win streak this year.

The story of the season so far has been the emergence of Heisman Trophy candidate Chuba Hubbard, who leads the nation in nearly every statistical rushing category, including rushing yards, rushing yards per game, all-purpose yards, yards after contact (via Pro Football Focus) and more. His average of 166.5 rushing yards per game is 13.3 more than second-place Jonathan Taylor of Wisconsin. Hubbard's rushing yards through 11 games are better than six of the 12 running backs to win the Heisman Trophy since 1980.

Defensively, the Cowboys have put together their best performances over the past four games, forcing 10 turnovers and holding opponents to an average of 20 points per game. Safety Kolby Harvell-Peel has made his case for All-America honors, ranking No. 3 in the FBS in passes defended and No. 5 in the FBS with five interceptions this season. On top of that, he set an OSU single-game record with six pass breakups at Iowa State, which also ties for the highest single-game total of any player in the FBS.

Consistently Strong

Oklahoma State has hit the eight-win mark for the 10th time in the last 12 seasons (since 2008). Included in that 12-year run are a Big 12 championship in 2011 and four trips to New Year's Six bowl games.

Oklahoma State is 58-30 in Big 12 Conference games since 2010, a mark that ranks second in the league during that time span, trailing only Oklahoma. The Cowboys have a seven-game lead over third-place Baylor.

Win Indicators

There are many things that factor into whether a team wins a game, but a long-term look at the trends during Mike Gundy's tenure at Oklahoma State shows that winning the turnover battle and winning the run game are two of the easiest ways to predict an OSU victory.

Since 2005, when the Cowboys win the turnover battle they are 70-9 (88.6 pct.). They are 37-2 (94.9 pct.) in games when they commit zero turnovers. OSU is 99-24 under Gundy when outrushing the opponent (80.5 pct.) and is 42-5 when holding the opponent under 100 yards on the ground (89.4 pct.).

History also shows that OSU is tough to beat when it takes a lead into halftime, as the Cowboys are 99-9 when leading at intermission under Gundy (91.7 pct.).

Gundy-coached teams are undefeated when holding opponents to fewer than 20 points, holding a perfect 60-0 record. OSU has won 68 consecutive games when holding its opponent to fewer than 20 points, dating to Sept. 13, 2003 – the longest active streak in the nation.

Going Bowling

For the 14th consecutive season, Oklahoma State will go to a bowl, as the Cowboys enter Saturday's game with eight victories on the year. A look at the nation's longest active bowl streaks entering the 2019 season.

Offensive Consistency

Despite having a first-year offensive coordinator, a new offensive line coach and a first-time starter at quarterback, Oklahoma State still ranks in the top 15 nationally in both total offense and rushing offense and is among the top 25 nationally in scoring offense.

Part of the Cowboys' offensive success this year comes from its balance, as OSU has 2,707 rushing yards and 2,525 passing yards through 11 games.

Ground and Pound

Oklahoma State enters this week's game ranked second in the Big 12 and 15th in the FBS by averaging 246.1 rushing yards per game. With two games still left on the schedule, the Cowboys' 11-game rushing total is already the most in a season for OSU since 2012.

Big 12 Bowl Tie-ins

As teams jockey for position heading into the closing stretch of the season, a look at the Big 12 bowl tie-ins. If the Big 12 champion is not selected to compete in the College Football Playoff, then that team will play in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The CFP can choose additional Big 12 schools to fill other New Year's Six bowl games as well.

Once the CFP has filled its bowl slots, Big 12 bowl partners will make selections from the remaining bowl eligible teams. Following is the order of selection. A bowl may pick from any available team when it reaches its spot in the selection order.

Valero Alamo – Dec. 31 in San Antonio (vs. Pac-12)

Camping World – Dec. 28 in Orlando (vs. ACC)

Academy Sports + Outdoors Texas – Dec. 27 in Houston (vs. SEC)

AutoZone Liberty – Dec. 31 in Memphis (vs. SEC)

Cheez-It – Dec. 27 in Phoenix (vs. Pac-12)

SERVPRO First Responder – Dec. 30 in Dallas (vs. AAC)

Home Run Hitters

When Oklahoma State's offense hits, it hits hard. The Cowboys lead the FBS with 19 offensive plays of 50 yards or longer, 12 plays of 60 yards or longer, seven plays of 70 yards or longer, three plays of 80 yards or longer and two plays of 90 yards or longer.

Defense Rising

Oklahoma State has won its last four games and the defense has been at the heart of the success. Consider the following:

- Oklahoma State has held three of its last four opponents under 100 yards rushing.
- The Cowboys have limited their last two opponents to a combined total of 65 rushing yards. Only Washington and Utah have surrendered less rushing yards in that same span. OSU's last two opponents have combined to average only 1.4 yards per carry.
- Oklahoma State has 16 sacks in the last five games after posting just eight sacks through the first six games of the year.
- Oklahoma State has 19 quarterback hurries in the last four games.
- The Cowboy defense has nine interceptions and has forced 10 turnovers the past four games. On top of the nine interceptions, OSU has broken up an additional 26 pass attempts in that same time frame.
- No player has been more involved than safety Kolby Harvell-Peel, who has soared into first-team All-Big 12 and possible All-America contention. He has four interceptions, one fumble recovery and 10 passes broken up in the past four games.

Game 12 Talking Points - Offense

- Chuba Hubbard is the most productive player in the nation this year and is performing at a level consistent with Heisman Trophy-winning running backs of the past. Much more on that in a moment.
- Tylan Wallace was making another run at the Biletnikoff Award and All-America status before suffering an injury in practice prior to the TCU game. Wallace was an integral part of the offense as he was leading all Power Five conference players in receiving yards when he was injured.
- Quarterback Spencer Sanders was sidelined with an injury after the TCU game, which led to graduate transfer and redshirt senior Dru Brown making his first start at OSU and his first start in nearly two years since his last one at Hawai'i. Brown made the most of the chance, passing for nearly 200 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions on 22-of-29 passing (75.9 pct.)
- Junior receiver Dillon Stoner stepped into Wallace's role and has responded with more than 300 receiving yards and four touchdowns in the past three games. Stoner had previously started on the inside, but moved outside when needed. Sophomore receiver Braydon Johnson is also becoming a threat, as he has four catches this season of 47 yards or longer.
- The offensive line has had its original starting lineup each of the past two games after shuffling through injuries each of the previous five games. Senior Marcus Keyes in the only player who has started every game at the same position this season, providing a consistent force inside from the left guard position. His 48 career starts are 11 more than anyone else on the Cowboy roster.
- Oklahoma State offensive coordinator Sean Gleeson is in his debut season on the FBS level after spending the previous two seasons as a successful offensive coordinator at Princeton. Charlie Dickey, a 32-year coaching veteran who previously served as the offensive line coach under Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 2009-18, is also in his debut season with OSU. He coaches the offensive line.

Chuba Hubbard's Heisman Trophy Candidacy

By now, the college football world is well aware of Chuba Hubbard and his candidacy for the Heisman Trophy and Doak Walker Award. Hubbard is the nation's leading rusher. More on that in a moment, but first a look at Hubbard's larger impact.

Noting Hubbard's impact on the team

- Chuba Hubbard leads the FBS by averaging 176.0 yards per game against FBS teams with winning records. That average is a little more than 28 yards per game better than second-place Jonathan Taylor from Wisconsin.
- Chuba Hubbard leads the nation in rushing yards per game in victories (min. 3 victories) and in rushing yards per game in defeats. What does that mean? It means that he produces for his team no matter what.
- With starting quarterback Spencer Sanders and All-America receiver Tylan Wallace both injured and out of action against West Virginia and the Mountaineers able to focus all of their energy on Hubbard, he still rushed for 106 yards and added a career-high 88 receiving yards to lead the Cowboys to victory.
- Hubbard's 296 rushing yards in Oklahoma State's win over Kansas State represents the largest single-game output for any player in the country this year.
- In a close game against a TCU squad that entered the contest ranked 15th in the FBS by allowing only 103.7 rushing yards per game, Hubbard rushed for 223 yards on 20 carries (11.1 yards per carry). He rushed for 192 yards in the second half alone and scored the game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Hubbard became the first player to rush for more than 200 yards against TCU in Gary Patterson's 19 years as head coach.

Noting the historical impact of Hubbard's 2019 season

- With two games remaining on the schedule, Hubbard is on pace to finish with 2,165 rushing yards, which would rank 10th in FBS history and second in Big 12 Conference history. Since 2000, only three Power Five conference players have rushed for more than 2,100 yards in a season and done so averaging more than Hubbard's current mark of 166.5 yards per game.

Noting Hubbard's impact on the Oklahoma State record book

A disclaimer may be warranted here. As noted earlier, Chuba Hubbard is on pace to finish with the 10th-best rushing season in FBS history. The bad news is he plays for Oklahoma State, where Barry Sanders' 1988 season pretty much makes it impossible for any running back to set a single-season school record. Sanders' 1988 season was judged by ESPN as being the greatest season of all time and Sanders was recently selected as the greatest college player ever by USA Today.

That said, here's a look at Hubbard's 2019 season in relation to the school record book. All of the numbers used reflect Hubbard's 11-game totals:

Rushing yards – 1,832

- With two games still remaining on the schedule, this already stands as the fourth-best mark in school history. Last week, Hubbard passed Hall-of-Famer Thurman Thomas's total from his All-America season in 1987. Hubbard needs 46 yards to pass Ernest Anderson's nation-leading total from 1982 and he needs 56 yards to pass Terry Miller for second on the OSU single-season list. Miller was runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1977.

Rushing yards per game – 166.5

- Only Sanders (an FBS-record 237.5 yards per game in 1988) and Anderson (170.6 yards per game in 1982) had higher per-game averages and both led the nation in rushing in those respective seasons.

Rushing touchdowns – 20

- Hubbard needs two rushing touchdowns to pass the 21 touchdowns scored by College and Pro Football Hall-of-Famer Thurman Thomas during his All-America season of 1987. That would put Hubbard fourth on the single-season OSU list.

Yards per carry – 6.43

- This mark ranks seventh in school history (min. 100 carries), but it should be noted that if the minimum number of carries was increased to 200 carries (Hubbard has 285), then it would rank third.

Noting Hubbard's place among this year's college football stars

- Hubbard leads the FBS with 166.5 rushing yards per game, which is 13.3 yards per game more than second-place Jonathan Taylor from Wisconsin.
- Hubbard leads the FBS with four 200-yard rushing games.
- Hubbard has the nation's longest active streak with nine consecutive games with more than 100 rushing yards.
- Hubbard is the premier big-play threat in college football. He leads the FBS in rushes of 20 yards or longer, 30 yards or longer, 40 yards or longer, 50 yards or longer, 60 yards or longer, 70 yards or longer, 80 yards or longer and 90 yards or longer.

Game Notes

Comparing Hubbard to Past Heisman Winners

Through 11 games, Chuba Hubbard has 1,832 rushing yards. That total is greater than the 11-game totals of six of the 12 running backs to win the Heisman Trophy since 1980. A closer look:

Through 11 Games: Hubbard vs. Cowboy Greats

Oklahoma State has a rich tradition of All-America running backs, headlined by Hall-of-Famers Barry Sanders and Thurman Thomas. However, it should also be noted that Cowboys Ernest Anderson (1982) and Gerald Hudson (1990) both led the nation in rushing and Terry Miller was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1977. A look at how Hubbard stacks up against the first-team All-America running backs of Oklahoma State's past through 11 games:

Canada's Cowboy

Chuba Hubbard became the all-time NCAA leader in single-season rushing yards by a Canadian last week, as his 1,832 rushing yards surpassed the previous mark of 1,818 set by Michigan's Tim Biakabutuka in 1996.

Hubbard's season earned him video shout outs from fellow Canadians Wayne Gretzky and Howie Mandel, and captured the attention of football fans across North America in Canada and the United States alike.

The attention has spawned the hashtag #CanadasCowboy to promote Hubbard for the Heisman Trophy.

Game 12 Talking Points - Defense

- Kolby Harvell-Peel's stock is soaring. The sophomore from College Station, Texas, is making a run at first-team all-Big 12 and possibly even All-America honors. More on that in a moment.
- The OSU defense as a whole is coming off four of its most impressive performances of the season, forcing a combined 10 turnovers in the past four games.
- In the last nine weeks, Oklahoma State has performed well on third-down defense. The Cowboys have held opponents to just 29 conversions on 99 attempts for a percentage of 29.3% - a mark that ranks No. 11 in the FBS during that time frame.
- Linebackers Amen Ogbongbemiga and Malcolm Rodriguez have been the foundation of the OSU defense this year, as both rank among the top six players in the Big 12 in tackles. Ogbongbemiga leads the team with 14.0 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.
- The OSU defense ranks among the top three in the Big 12 when it comes to rushing defense, defensive touchdowns, fourth down percentage defense, turnovers gained and passes intercepted.
- The OSU defense is made up mostly of first-year starters, as eight different Cowboy defenders made their first career start this season.
- The OSU D-line is entirely first-year starters in Tyler Lacy, Cameron Murray, Israel Antwine and Trace Ford. Samuela Tuihalamaka, Brock Martin and Brendon Evers have also been first-time starters for OSU in 2019.
- Several freshmen contribute on the defensive line, including Lacy, Tuihalamaka, Ford and Jayden Jernigan. OSU's freshmen D-linemen have accounted for 71 tackles, 9.0 tackles for loss, 6.0 sacks, seven pass break ups, a forced fumble, an interception and 15 quarterback hurries.
- Defensive coordinator Jim Knowles is in his second season as the leader of the Cowboy defense.
- For the first time in the Mike Gundy era (since 2005), OSU features a pair of cornerbacks in their third year as starters. A.J. Green, a true senior, and Rodarius Williams, a redshirt junior, both came in the same recruiting class and have been everyday starters since the beginning of the 2017 season.

Harvell-Peel is Having an All-America Season

Safety Kolby Harvell-Peel is having an outstanding season worthy of All-America honors, as he leads all Power Five players in passes defended this season. He's already set an OSU single game record with six pass break ups at Iowa State and has forced five turnovers in the past three games alone. He has earned Big 12 defensive player of the week honors three times and his 13 pass break ups already rank as the ninth-best season total in school history. He needs just one more interception this season to earn a spot on that top-10 list as well.

Here's a look at how he compares to the best Power Five players when it comes to passes defended in 2019:

Talking Defense

Oklahoma State's defense has been outstanding against the run lately, holding its last two opponents to a combined total of 65 rushing yards on 46 attempts (1.4 yards per carry). A look at the top run defenses in the FBS the last two weeks, sorted by fewest rushing yards allowed:

| Rk | Team                  | Rush Att. | Rush Yds. | Avg.       |

More on the Defense

In the last two weeks, Oklahoma State's defense limited both Kansas and West Virginia to 13 points scored, marking the first time since 2013 that OSU has held consecutive Big 12 opponents under 14 points.

OSU has held each of its last four opponents under their respective season scoring averages. A closer look:

| Team          | Season Avg. | vs. OSU | Difference |
|---------------|-------------|---------|------------|
| Iowa State    | 35.6        | 27      | -8.6       |
| TCU           | 31.5        | 27      | -4.5       |
| Kansas        | 25.1        | 13      | -12.1      |
| West Virginia | 20.6        | 13      | -7.6       |

Under 28 for Four Straight

Over the past four games, the OSU defense has accomplished something it hasn't ever done before: hold four straight Big 12 opponents under 28 points in a single season. It also marks the first time since the last two conference games of 2003 and the first two of 2004 that OSU has accomplished the feat over any stretch.

The last time the Cowboys held four straight conference opponents to fewer than 28 points in one season? A five-game stretch during the 1985 season, back when OSU was a member of the Big Eight.

Twice as Nice

Oklahoma State linebackers Malcolm Rodriguez and Amen Ogbongbemiga lead the team in tackles and both rank among the top six in the Big 12, making OSU the only team in the league with two of the top six tacklers.

A look at the top 10 tacklers in the Big 12 to this point of the season:

Aussie Rules

Freshman punter Tom Hutton has demonstrated the ability to pin opponents deep inside their own territory and to punt the ball in such a way as to limit return yards. Of his 52 punts this season, 21 have been downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line and 26 have been fair caught. Hutton is one of the central reasons why Oklahoma State leads the Big 12 and ranks fifth in the FBS by allowing only 1.5 yards per punt return. The Cowboys have yielded a total of 15 yards on 10 punt returns this season.

Cowboy Grads

Academics has always been a point of emphasis for OSU coach Mike Gundy. The 2019 Cowboy roster includes seven players who have already earned their degrees:

Matt Ammendola – Health Education & Promotion/Exercise & Health
 Dru Brown – Communications (From Hawai'i in 2018)
 Kevin Henry – Education
 Marcus Keyes – Education
 Jordan McCray – Interdisciplinary Studies (From South Alabama in 2019)
 Philip Redwine-Bryant – Psychology
 Kemah Siverand – University Studies/Business (From Texas A&M in 2018)
 Johnny Wilson – Management & Marketing
 Landon Wolf – Sociology
