In the Rankings

Oklahoma State was included in every week of this year's CFP Rankings, closing out the season at No. 25. The Cowboys were also included in the last AP rankings before the bowl season, also coming in at No. 25, and received enough votes in the coaches poll to sit just one spot out of the top 25. OSU has reached the top 15 of the AP poll at some point in 10 of the past 12 seasons, and has also seen a top 10 AP ranking at some point in eight of the past 12 seasons. The Cowboys have appeared in the CFP rankings in four of the past five seasons.

Texas A&M is not ranked, but is receiving votes in the AP poll.

The Series

The Texas Bowl will mark the 28th meeting between Oklahoma State and Texas A&M, with the series dating back to 1913. It is the first time the teams have met since 2011, when OSU defeated TAMU, 30-29, during the Aggies' final season in the Big 12 Conference.

The Aggies own a 17-10 all-time advantage in the series, but the Cowboys have won each of the past four matchups. TAMU also holds a 3-1 advantage in neutral site meetings, with the most recent occurring in the 1981 Independence Bowl. OSU's four-match win streak against the TAMU marks its longest in the history of the series.

Coach Mike Gundy is 4-3 in his career against Texas A&M, while Texas A&M coach Jimbo Fisher is 1-0 in his career against the Cowboys, as he coached No. 1 Florida State to a narrow 37-31 win over OSU to open the 2014 season.

Oklahoma State from a Distance

Oklahoma State is 8-4 overall and tied for third in the Big 12 standings with a 5-4 conference record. 2019 marks the 14th consecutive bowl game and winning season for the OSU football program. It also marks the 10th time in the past 12 years the Cowboys have won at least eight games.

The Cowboys got to 8-4 by winning four of their final five regular season games. The stretch is more impressive when considering the OSU offense was without All-America wide receiver Tylan Wallace for three of the wins and without starting quarterback Spencer Sanders for one.

The story of the season was the emergence of star running back Chuba Hubbard, who went from relative unknown entering the season to an All-American and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year. Hubbard enters the bowl season leading the nation in nearly every statistical rushing category, including rushing yards, rushing yards per game, all-purpose yards, all-purpose yards per game, yards after contact (via Pro Football Focus) and more. His average of 161.3 yards per game is 14.5 yards per game better than second-place Jonathan Taylor of Wisconsin. Hubbard also leads the nation in rushes of at least 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80 and 90 yards.

With the loss of Wallace and Sanders, wide receiver Dillon Stoner and quarterback Dru Brown have emerged. Stoner has been OSU's leading receiver in the final half of the season, and Brown completed 44-of-61 pass attempts for 403 yards with two touchdowns in his two games as a starter.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Cowboys have done their best work in the second half of the season. In fact, the 2019 OSU defense became the first in school history to hold four straight Big 12 opponents under 28 points in one season. OSU also created 10 turnovers during that stretch.

A first-team All-Big 12 honoree, safety Kolby Harvell-Peel was the breakout star on defense in 2019, as he ended the regular season ranked No. 1 among all Power Five players with 18 passes defended this year. He is the only Power Five player who ranks among the top 30 nationally in both interceptions and fumble recoveries. He set a school record at Iowa State with six pass breakups and generated three turnovers against TCU.

Both second-team All-Big 12 honorees, linebackers Malcolm Rodriguez and Amen Ogbongbemiga have been the heart of the defense. They are the team's leading tacklers and have accounted for 22.6% of the team's tackles in 2019. They both rank among the Big 12's top five tacklers this season.

On special teams, OSU kicker Matt Ammendola is putting the finishing touches on a great career. The senior out of Pennsylvania ranks third on OSU's career list for made field goals with 60, and is fourth on OSU's career list for points scored with 356. He needs just five points in the bowl game to pass Barry Sanders for third place.

Texas A&M from a Distance

Texas A&M finished the 2019 regular season at 7-5 overall, with a 4-4 record in the SEC. Don't be deceived by the record, however, as the Aggies faced a schedule that would take most any team under.

TAMU became the first team in college football history to face three AP No. 1 teams in the same season, as it fell to No. 1 Clemson on Sept. 7, No. 1 Alabama on Oct. 12 and No. 1 LSU on Nov. 30. In fact, all five of the Aggies' losses came against highly-ranked teams, as their two other losses were to No. 8 Auburn and No. 4 Georgia. The Aggies' record against teams outside of the AP top eight was 7-0.

On offense, Texas A&M is led by quarterback Kellen Mond, who has passed for 2,802 yards and 19 touchdowns against nine interceptions. His favorite target is Jhamon Ausbon (862 yards and four touchdowns), but Quartney Davis and Jalen Wydermyer are also prominent receivers as each have more than 30 catches and 400 yards this season.

Mond also plays a key role as TAMU's second-leading rusher with 384 yards and seven rushing touchdowns this season. Mond and Johnny Manziel are the only Aggies in program history to pass for 7,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in their careers. Running back Isaiah Spiller leads the team on the ground with 155 carries for 869 yards and nine touchdowns. The offensive attack has helped TAMU to rank No. 14 in the nation with an average time of possession of 33:01.

Defensively, TAMU is ranked in the top 30 of the FBS in both rushing defense (129.1 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (117.5). TAMU's leading tacklers are linebackers Buddy Johnson and Anthony Hines III, while defensive lineman Justin Madubuike, a highly-regarded NFL prospect, has been one of the unit's most disruptive players with 11.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks this season.

The most notable Aggie special teams player is punter Braden Mann, who was the 2018 Ray Guy Award winner and a unanimous All-American. TAMU has also excelled on the other side of the punting game, ranking No. 18 in the FBS with an average of 13.08 yards per return.

An Oklahoma State Win Would...

- Mark the ninth time in the past 12 seasons it has won at least nine games.
- Give OSU a 20-10 all-time record in bowl games, ranking among the top two bowl winning percentages among teams with at least 20 appearances.
- Mark the fourth straight season it has won a bowl game, its fifth bowl win in the past six seasons and its eighth bowl win in the past 10 seasons. Four straight bowl wins would mark the longest streak in school history. Only six college football teams enter the 2019 bowl season with a chance to win bowls in four straight years: Oklahoma State, Alabama, Appalachian State, Louisiana Tech, Wake Forest and Wisconsin.
- Give it 14 straight wins in non-conference games, marking the second-longest streak in OSU history and only trailing the 15-game streak from 1983-85.
- Improve it to 36-5 in its past 41 non-conference games.
- Mark its fourth straight neutral-site win, tied for the second longest streak in school history.
- Mark its fifth straight win over Texas A&M, extending its longest win streak in the series.
- Make it 11-17 all-time against Texas A&M and 2-3 vs. Texas A&M in neutral site games.
- Improve it to 34-14 in its past 48 games and 48-20 in its past 68 games.
- Make it 69-13 in its past 82 games vs. unranked opponents, dating back to 2010.
- Give it wins in 28 of its past 33 games when playing as an AP ranked team vs. an unranked team.
- Improve Mike Gundy's record vs. members of the SEC to 12-8, with a 4-3 record in neutral site games.
- Improve Mike Gundy's record in non-conference games to 53-11.
- Improve OSU to 9-9-0 all-time in neutral site games against current members of the SEC.

Notable Streaks and Trends Entering the Game

- OSU is 21-7 in its past 27 games decided by fewer than 10 points.
- OSU has scored on its opening drive in 14 of its past 21 games.
- OSU is 25-2 in its last 27 games when leading at halftime, dating back to Sept. 17, 2016.
- OSU has outrushed its opponent in 28 of its past 39 games and in 30 of its past 42 games.
- OSU has had at least one 100-yard receiver in 19 of its past 30 games.
- OSU has had a 100-yard rusher in 28 of its past 39 games.
- OSU has forced a turnover in 44 of its past 52 games and in 53 of its past 62 games, dating to 2015.

Game Notes

- Dating back to 2005, OSU is 38-2 when not committing a turnover.
- Dating back to 2008, OSU is 61-6 when winning the turnover battle.
- OSU has won three straight overtime games.
- Chuba Hubbard has rushed for at least 100 yards in each of the past 10 games, which marks the longest active streak in the FBS and the third-longest streak in school history.
- Chuba Hubbard has rushed for at least 100 yards in 14 of his past 16 games. He has a rushing touchdown in every game but one this season.
- Dillon Stoner has at least one catch in 36 of his past 37 games.
- Matt Ammendola has made 23 of his past 27 field goal attempts.
- OSU has scored on a play of at least 50 yards in six of its past eight games.
- OSU has won 68 consecutive games when holding its opponent to fewer than 20 points, dating back to Sept. 13, 2003 – the longest active streak in the nation.

Team and Player Notes

Consistently Strong

Oklahoma State is one of only 10 programs to post a winning season every year from 2010-19. The Cowboys have hit the eight-win mark for the 10th time in the last 12 seasons (since 2008). Included in that 12-year run are a Big 12 championship in 2011 and four trips to New Year's Six bowl games.

Oklahoma State is 58-31 in Big 12 Conference games since 2010, a mark that ranks second in the league during that time span, trailing only Oklahoma.

Win Indicators

There are many things that factor into whether a team wins a game, but a long-term look at the trends during Mike Gundy's tenure at Oklahoma State shows that winning the turnover battle and winning the run game are two of the easiest ways to predict an OSU victory.

Since 2005, when the Cowboys win the turnover battle they are 70-9 (88.6 pct.). They are 37-2 (94.9 pct.) in games when they commit zero turnovers. OSU is 99-24 under Gundy when outrushing the opponent (80.5 pct.) and is 42-5 when holding the opponent under 100 yards on the ground (89.4 pct.).

History also shows that OSU is tough to beat when it takes a lead into halftime, as the Cowboys are 99-9 when leading at intermission under Gundy (91.7 pct.).

Gundy-coached teams are undefeated when holding opponents to fewer than 20 points, holding a perfect 60-0 record. OSU has won 68 consecutive games when holding its opponent to fewer than 20 points, dating to Sept. 13, 2003 – the longest active streak in the nation.

Offensive Consistency

Despite having a first-year offensive coordinator, a new offensive line coach and a first-time starter at quarterback, Oklahoma State still ranks in the top 20 nationally in both total offense and rushing offense and is among the top 35 nationally in scoring offense.

Part of the Cowboys' offensive success this year comes from its balance, as OSU has 2,835 rushing yards and 2,732 passing yards through the regular season.

Ground and Pound

Oklahoma State enters this week's game ranked second in the Big 12 and 16th in the FBS by averaging 236.3 rushing yards per game. With one game still left on the schedule, the Cowboys' 12-game rushing total is already the most in a season for OSU since 2008.

Defense Rising

Oklahoma State has won four of its past five games and the defense has been at the heart of the success. Consider the following:

- Oklahoma State has held three of its past five opponents under 100 yards rushing.
- Oklahoma State has 19 sacks in the past six games after posting just eight sacks through the first six games of the year.
- Oklahoma State has 21 quarterback hurries in the past five games.
- The Cowboy defense has nine interceptions and has forced 10 turnovers the past five games. On top of the nine interceptions, OSU has broken up an additional 27 pass attempts in that same time frame.
- No player has been more involved than safety Kolby Harvell-Peel, who soared into first-team All-Big 12 honors and All-America contention. He has four interceptions, one fumble recovery and 10 passes broken up in the past five games.

Texas Bowl Talking Points - Offense

- Chuba Hubbard is the most productive player in the nation this year and has performed at a level consistent with Heisman Trophy-winning running backs of the past.
- Tylan Wallace was making another run at the Biletnikoff Award and All-America status before suffering an injury in practice prior to the TCU game. Wallace was an integral part of the offense as he was leading all Power Five conference players in receiving yards when he was injured.
- Quarterback Spencer Sanders was sidelined with an injury after the TCU game, which led to graduate transfer Dru Brown making his first start at OSU and his first start in nearly two years since his last one at Hawai'i. Brown made the most of the chance at West Virginia, passing for nearly 200 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions on 22-of-29 passing (75.9 pct.).
- Junior receiver Dillon Stoner stepped into Wallace's role and has responded with more than 360 receiving yards and four touchdowns in the past four games. Stoner had previously started on the inside, but moved outside when needed. Sophomore receiver Braydon Johnson is also becoming a threat, as he has four catches this season of 47 yards or longer.
- The offensive line has shuffled around through injuries throughout this season. Senior Marcus Keyes in the only player who has started every game at the same position this year, providing a consistent force inside from the left guard position. His 49 career starts are 11 more than anyone else on the Cowboy roster.
- Oklahoma State offensive coordinator Sean Gleeson is in his debut season on the FBS level after spending the previous two seasons as a successful offensive coordinator at Princeton. Charlie Dickey, a 32-year coaching veteran who previously served as the offensive line coach under Bill Snyder at Kansas State from 2009-18, is also in his debut season with OSU. He coaches the offensive line.

Elite Streak

Chuba Hubbard has rushed for more than 100 yards in each of his last 10 games. This is the longest active streak in the nation. A closer look:

Game Notes

Chuba Hubbard's Historic Season

Chuba Hubbard is putting the finishing touches on a historic season as the nation's leading rusher heading into the bowl season. Here's a look at Hubbard's larger impact.

Noting Hubbard's impact on the team

- Chuba Hubbard leads the FBS by averaging 161.6 yards per game against FBS teams with winning records. That average is a little more than 14 yards per game better than second-place J.K. Dobbins from Ohio State.
- With starting quarterback Spencer Sanders and All-America receiver Tylan Wallace both injured and out of action against West Virginia and the Mountaineers able to focus all of their energy on Hubbard, he still rushed for 106 yards and added a career-high 88 receiving yards to lead the Cowboys to victory.
- Hubbard's 296 rushing yards in Oklahoma State's win over Kansas State represents the largest single-game output for any Power Five player in the country this year.
- In a close game against a TCU squad that entered the contest ranked 15th in the FBS by allowing only 103.7 rushing yards per game, Hubbard rushed for 223 yards on 20 carries (11.1 yards per carry). He rushed for 192 yards in the second half alone and scored the game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Hubbard became the first player to rush for more than 200 yards against TCU in Gary Patterson's 19 years as head coach.

Noting the historical impact of Hubbard's 2019 season

- With one game remaining on the schedule, Hubbard is on pace to finish with 2,097 rushing yards, which would rank 18th in FBS history and third in Big 12 Conference history. Since 2000, only seven Power Five conference players have rushed for more than 2,100 yards in a season and done so averaging more than Hubbard's current mark of 161.3 yards per game.

Noting Hubbard's impact on the Oklahoma State record book

A disclaimer may be warranted here. As noted earlier, Chuba Hubbard is on pace to finish with the 18th-best rushing season in FBS history. The bad news is he plays for Oklahoma State, where Barry Sanders' 1988 season pretty much makes it impossible for any running back to set a single-season school record. Sanders' 1988 season was judged by ESPN as being the greatest season of all time and Sanders was recently selected as the greatest college player ever by USA Today.

That said, here's a look at Hubbard's 2019 season in relation to the school record book. All of the numbers used reflect Hubbard's 12-game totals:

Rushing yards – 1,936

- With one game still remaining on the schedule, this already stands as the second-best mark in school history. Last week, Hubbard passed Terry Miller's total from his All-America season in 1976. Hubbard needs 64 yards to become the second Cowboy to ever rush for 2,000 yards in a single season.

Rushing yards per game – 161.3

- Only Sanders (an FBS-record 237.5 yards per game in 1988) and Ernest Anderson (170.6 yards per game in 1982) had higher per-game averages and both led the nation in rushing in those respective seasons.

Rushing touchdowns – 21

- Hubbard needs one rushing touchdown to pass the 21 touchdowns scored by College and Pro Football Hall-of-Famer Thurman Thomas during his All-America season of 1987. That would put Hubbard fourth on the single-season OSU list.

Yards per carry – 6.27

- This mark ranks eighth in school history (min. 100 carries), but it should be noted that if the minimum number of carries was increased to 200 carries (Hubbard has 285), then it would rank third.

Noting Hubbard's place among this year's college football stars

- Hubbard leads the FBS with 161.3 rushing yards per game, which is 14.5 yards per game more than second-place Jonathan Taylor from Wisconsin.
- Hubbard leads the FBS with four 200-yard rushing games.
- Hubbard has the nation's longest active streak with 10 consecutive games with more than 100 rushing yards.
- Hubbard is the premier big-play threat in college football. He leads the FBS in rushes of 20 yards or longer, 30 yards or longer, 40 yards or longer, 50 yards or longer, 60 yards or longer, 70 yards or longer, 80 yards or longer and 90 yards or longer.

Canada's Cowboy

Chuba Hubbard is the all-time NCAA leader in single-season rushing yards by a Canadian, as his 1,936 rushing yards surpassed the previous mark of 1,818 set by Michigan's Tim Biakabutuka in 1996.

Hubbard's season earned him video shout outs from fellow Canadians Wayne Gretzky and Howie Mandel, and captured the attention of football fans across North America in Canada and the United States alike. The attention spawned the hashtag #CanadasCowboy to promote Hubbard for the Heisman Trophy.

A Long Road

Oklahoma State quarterback Dru Brown is a graduate transfer from Hawai'i who has started each of OSU's past two games. His start against West Virginia was his first in nearly two years since leaving UH, and he guided OSU to a 20-13 road win.

Brown's journey was a long one. He began his career at the College of San Mateo in California after receiving no offers to play FBS football. Brown made the most of his chance and earned a spot at Hawai'i following his junior college season.

Brown did not initially win the starting job at Hawai'i, but his play after taking over an early game led him to become the starter for the majority of the following two seasons as he passed for more than 5,200 yards and 37 touchdowns in two years.

Then Brown made the leap of faith to transfer to Oklahoma State to earn a job as a Power Five starter. Senior incumbent Taylor Cornelius won the job in 2018, however, and Brown took a redshirt after only playing one snap in the Liberty Bowl. With one season of eligibility remaining in 2019, Brown elected to stay in Stillwater and compete with the Texas High School Player of the Year, Spencer Sanders for the job. Sanders started the first 10 games of year, but Brown has started the last two games for the Cowboys as all his hard work has paid off.

Texas Bowl Talking Points - Defense

- Kolby Harvell-Peel's stock is soaring. The sophomore from College Station, Texas, stormed to first-team All-Big 12 honors with a fantastic second half of the season.
- The OSU defense as a whole is playing well and has forced 10 turnovers in the past five games.
- Linebackers Amen Ogbongbemiga and Malcolm Rodriguez have been the foundation of the OSU defense this year, as both rank among the top five players in the Big 12 in tackles. Ogbongbemiga leads the team with 14.5 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks.
- The OSU defense ranks among the top three in the Big 12 when it comes to defensive touchdowns and fourth down percentage defense.
- The OSU defense is made up mostly of first-year starters, as eight different Cowboy defenders made their first career start this season.
- The OSU D-line is entirely first-year starters in Tyler Lacy, Cameron Murray, Israel Antwine and Trace Ford. Samuela Tuihalamaka, Brock Martin and Brendon Evers have also been first-time starters for OSU in 2019.
- Several freshmen contribute on the defensive line, including Lacy, Tuihalamaka, Ford and Jayden Jernigan. OSU's freshmen D-linemen have accounted for 78 tackles, 10.0 tackles for loss, 7.0 sacks, seven pass break ups, a forced fumble, an interception and 16 quarterback hurries.
- Defensive coordinator Jim Knowles is in his second season as the leader of the Cowboy defense.
- For the first time in the Mike Gundy era (since 2005), OSU features a pair of cornerbacks in their third year as starters. A.J. Green, a true senior, and Rodarius Williams, a redshirt junior, both came in the same recruiting class and have been everyday starters since the beginning of the 2017 season.

Harvell-Peel's Incredible Season

Safety Kolby Harvell-Peel earned first-team All-Big 12 honors after leading all Power Five players in passes defended during the regular season. He's already set an OSU single game record with six pass break ups at Iowa State and has forced five turnovers in the past four games alone. He has earned Big 12 defensive player of the week honors three times and his 13 pass break ups rank as the ninth-best season total in school history. He needs just one more interception this season to earn a spot on that top-10 list as well.

Here's a look at how he compares to the best Power Five players when it comes to passes defended during the 2019 regular season:

Power Five Leaders in Passes Defended During the Regular Season

Rk	Player	Year	Games	Passes Defended
1.	Kolby Harvell-Peel, Oklahoma State	So.	12	18
	Derek Stingley Jr., LSU	Fr.	12	18
3.	Elijah Molden, Washington	Jr.	12	16

More on the Defense

Oklahoma State's defense limited both Kansas and West Virginia to 13 points scored, marking the first time since 2013 that OSU has held consecutive Big 12 opponents under 14 points.

OSU has held each of its past five opponents under their respective season scoring averages. A closer look:

Team	Season Avg.	vs. OSU	Difference
Iowa State	35.6	27	-8.6
TCU	31.5	27	-4.5
Kansas	25.1	13	-12.1
West Virginia	20.6	13	-7.6
Oklahoma	45.3	34	-11.3

Under 28 for Four Straight

Over the four games in October and November, the OSU defense accomplished something it hadn't ever done before: hold four straight Big 12 opponents under 28 points in a single season. It also marked the first time since the last two conference games of 2003 and the first two of 2004 that OSU has accomplished the feat over any stretch.

The last time the Cowboys held four straight conference opponents to fewer than 28 points in one season? A five-game stretch during the 1985 season, back when OSU was a member of the Big Eight.

Aussie Rules

Freshman punter Tom Hutton has demonstrated the ability to pin opponents deep inside their own territory and to punt the ball in such a way as to limit return yards. Of his 53 punts this season, 21 have been downed inside the opponents' 20-yard line and 26 have been fair caught. Hutton is one of the central reasons why Oklahoma State leads the Big 12 and ranks fourth in the FBS by allowing only 1.5 yards per punt return. The Cowboys have yielded a total of 15 yards on 10 punt returns this season.

Coaching Staff

Mike Gundy

Head Coach | 15th year
Oklahoma State, 1990

- 2011 winner of the Paul "Bear" Bryant College Coach of the Year Award selected by the Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association and the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award presented by the Football Writers Association of America after leading Oklahoma State to a 12-1 record, its first Big 12 championship and BCS bowl game appearance in 2011. In guiding the Cowboys to the Big 12 title, OSU became the first school other than Oklahoma or Texas to win the conference since 2003.
- Finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award and the Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year Award in both 2010 and 2011.
- 2010 Big 12 Coach of the Year after leading Oklahoma State to an 11-2 overall record and a share of the Big 12 South title.
- 2015 AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year after leading the Cowboys to as high as No. 4 in the Associated Press poll despite being unranked to start the season.
- Has coached six major national award winners since 2008, as punter Matt Fodge won the Ray Guy Award in 2008, kicker Dan Bailey won the Lou Groza Award in 2010, receiver Justin Blackmon won the Biletnikoff Award in 2010 and 2011, quarterback Mason Rudolph won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award in 2017 and receiver James Washington won the Biletnikoff Award in 2017.
- Since 2008, Gundy has coached five finalists for the Biletnikoff Award given to the nation's top receiver, two finalists for the Doak Walker Award given to the nation's top running back, plus finalists for the Davey O'Brien Award given to the nation's top quarterback, the Mackey Award given to the nation's top tight end, the Rimington Award given to the nation's top center, the Outland Trophy given to the nation's top interior lineman, the Jim Thorpe Award given to the nation's top defensive back, the Ted Hendricks Award given to the nation's top defensive end, the Ray Guy Award given to the nation's top punter and the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's top kicker.
- Has coached 23 All-Americans since 2008, including four unanimous All-Americans: offensive lineman Russell Okung in 2009, receiver Justin Blackmon in 2010 and 2011 and receiver James Washington in 2017.

Evidence of Oklahoma State's rise on both the Big 12 and national levels during Mike Gundy's tenure as head coach is everywhere. Consider the following:

- Since 2010, Oklahoma State has six seasons with at least 10 wins, an outright Big 12 title (2011) and a share of the Big 12 South title (2010). The Cowboys reached the top 10 of the Associated Press poll in 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017.
- Gundy has coached the Cowboys to four New Year's Six bowl games since 2010. The Pokes appeared in the 2010 Cotton Bowl, the 2012 Fiesta Bowl, the 2014 Cotton Bowl and the 2016 Sugar Bowl.
- Oklahoma State is one of only 10 teams to post a winning season every year from 2010-19, joining Alabama, Boise State, LSU, Oklahoma, Penn State, San Diego State, Texas A&M, Washington and Wisconsin.
- Entering the 2019 season, Oklahoma State had been ranked in the top 15 of the Associated Press poll in 10 of the past 11 seasons and had posted 10-win seasons six of the past nine years.
- The Cowboys have averaged 9.3 wins per year since 2010 and rank 12th nationally with 93 wins this decade.
- Gundy has led the Cowboys to a 58-30 record against Big 12 opposition since 2010, a mark that is good for second-best in the conference this decade. His 77 career wins in Big 12 games ranks fourth in the history of the conference, trailing only Bob Stoops, Mack Brown and Bill Snyder on the all-time chart.
- OSU has scored eight victories over teams ranked in the Associated Press top 10 since 2008.
- Since 2010, the Cowboys have averaged 40.1 points and 495.1 yards of total offense per game. Oklahoma State has ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring offense six times during Gundy's tenure as head coach and has ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense seven times. The Cowboys led the nation in turnover margin in 2011 and have ranked in the top 10 nationally in that category in four times since the start of the 2011 season.
- OSU's current streak of 14 straight bowl games is the best in the history of the program.
- Gundy is one of only eight active coaches with more than 100 wins at his current school.
- 27 Gundy-era Cowboys have been drafted into the NFL, with six chosen in the first round.
- Just since 2017, Gundy has coached the leading passer in the FBS (Mason Rudolph in 2017), the leading receiver in the FBS (James Washington in 2017) and the leading rusher in the FBS (Chuba Hubbard in 2019).
- Gundy's coaching tree has blossomed. Former Gundy assistants include Houston head coach Dana Holgorsen, UNLV head coach Marcus Arroyo, Texas State head coach Jake Spavital, Cleveland Browns offensive coordinator Todd Monken and former North Carolina head coach Larry Fedora. Other notable former Gundy assistants include UMass head coach Walt Bell, Virginia Tech offensive coordinator Brad Cornelson, Georgia Tech defensive coordinator Andrew Thacker, Ohio State pass game coordinator Mike Yurcich, Florida Atlantic cornerbacks coach Jason Jones, TCU co-offensive coordinator Curtis Luper, Cincinnati Bengals running backs coach Jemal Singleton and Louisville wide receivers coach Gunter Brewer, among several others.
- OSU has also excelled in the classroom during Mike Gundy's tenure as head coach. In 2018, Oklahoma State was one of only five FBS programs to earn the AFCA's Academic Achievement Award. Cowboy football posted a perfect score of 1,000 on the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) that same year. Also in 2018, the Cowboys led the Big 12 and set a program record with 26 overall Academic All-Big 12 selections. In the APR data released in 2019, OSU ranked second in the Big 12 with a multi-year APR rate of 982, a mark that ranks as the best for OSU since the NCAA began its tracking.

Coaching Staff

Mike Gundy is a true Cowboy.

He has spent more than half of his life either quarterbacking or coaching at Oklahoma State and is the head coach presiding over the era of greatest sustained success in the history of the program.

What he has done at Oklahoma State is remarkable. When he took over as head coach in 2005, the OSU football program had an all-time record of 473-492-47 (49.1 pct.). With Gundy at the helm, OSU is 129-63-0 (67.2 pct.). Oklahoma State had 16 bowl appearances in its 104-year history prior to Gundy, but with him as head coach, the Cowboys have now made 14 bowl appearances in 15 years.

He didn't take over a program known for consistent success, but Oklahoma State has indeed become a powerful program under his watch. How did it happen?

There are a number of key factors in the Cowboys' rise to prominence, but one of the most notable is that Gundy identified and executed a blueprint for success at Oklahoma State that starts with the culture and people and extends into success on the field.

The Cowboy Culture

What's interesting about Gundy's "Cowboy Culture" is that Gundy readily admits that in his early years as coach, he didn't have a name for it and wasn't strategically plotting a path that led to it. He just consistently made decisions based on what he thought was the right thing to do and empowered others to do the same.

Most Wins at Current School (As of 12/8/2019) (Active coaches only)

1.	172	Gary Patterson, TCU	19th year
2.	161	Kirk Ferentz, Iowa	21st year
3.	156	Nick Saban, Alabama	13th year
4.	131	Kyle Whittingham, Utah	15th year
5.	129	Mike Gundy, Oklahoma State	15th year
	129	Dabo Swinney, Clemson	12th year
7.	113	Mark Dantonio, Michigan State	13th year
8.	112	Frank Solich, Ohio	15th year
9.	99	Pat Fitzgerald, Northwestern	14th year

It wasn't until 2017 that the words "Cowboy Culture" began popping up around the football facility in Boone Pickens Stadium.

The signs that now hang on the walls there highlight concepts that Gundy places a high value on, such as controlling the things that you can control and being respectful to others. They celebrate foundational traits such as effort, focus, toughness and leadership. They remind passers-by to never show fear, frustration or fatigue.

While the Cowboy Culture reveals itself in on-field success, it also shows up off the field, most notably in the area of academics.

Take into consideration that through the spring of 2019, 318 Gundy-era players have graduated from Oklahoma State and that the Cowboy football program posted a perfect score of 1,000 on the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) in 2018. Additionally, OSU football's multi-year APR rate of 982 that was announced in 2019 represented the highest it has achieved since the APR was implemented in 2003.

The Cowboys led the Big 12 and set a program record with 20 first-team Academic All-Big 12 selections in 2017, then followed that up with a conference-best and school-record 26 overall Academic All-Big 12 honorees in 2018 and 20 honorees again in 2019. The Cowboys' 112 overall Academic All-Big 12 honorees the last five years ranks OSU second in the league during that time span, behind only Kansas State.

In 2017, three Cowboys – running back Justice Hill, center Brad Lundblade and fullback Britton Abbott – earned spots on the CoSIDA Academic All-America team and both Abbott and Hill repeated in 2018. During Gundy's time as head coach at Oklahoma State, his players have received CoSIDA Academic All-America honors eight times and CoSIDA Academic All-District honors 10 times.

In addition to the academic recognition from CoSIDA, Lundblade was one of 10 finalists for the 2017 National Football Foundation Campbell Trophy, which is also known as the Academic Heisman. He was also one of only three student-athletes who represented the Big 12 Conference on the NCAA Autonomy Governance Committee in 2017.

It's hard to instill a culture that produces that kind of fruit in a short period of time, so Gundy's longevity and staying power have both factored into OSU's success.

Gundy is the third-longest tenured coach at his active school in the FBS, trailing only Kirk Ferentz at Iowa and Gary Patterson at TCU. His 77 career wins in Big 12 Conference games ranks fourth in the history of the league, trailing only Bob Stoops, Mack Brown and Bill Snyder.

On the Field

Of course, college football is a tough business in which longevity and staying power are hard to come by for coaches who don't win games, but Gundy is indeed a winner. He coached the Cowboys to the 2011 Big 12 championship and has posted six 10-win seasons. Gundy has coached Oklahoma State to four bowl games now referred to as the New Year's Six since 2010 (2010 Cotton Bowl, 2012 Fiesta Bowl, 2014 Cotton Bowl and 2016 Sugar Bowl) and has led the Cowboys to bowl games and winning records in 14 consecutive seasons – both school records.

Included among his career coaching accolades are 2011 National Coach of the Year, 2010 Big 12 Coach of the Year and 2015 AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year.

Signature traits of Gundy's best Cowboy teams have varied slightly over the years, but in general terms, the recurring themes include elite-level offense, an appetite for turnovers on defense and outstanding work in the kicking game.

From an offensive perspective, since 2010, the Cowboys have averaged 40.1 points and 495.1 yards of total offense per game. Oklahoma State has ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring offense six times during Gundy's tenure as head coach and have ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense seven times.

The offensive talent that Gundy has coached at Oklahoma State during his tenure is remarkable. Receiver Justin Blackmon is one of only two players ever to win the Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top receiver twice, as he accomplished the feat in 2010 and again in 2011. James Washington joined Blackmon in the Biletnikoff Award fraternity by winning the award in 2017 to make Oklahoma State the only school with three Biletnikoff Awards to its credit. Blackmon was an NFL first-round draft pick, as were tight end Brandon Pettigrew, offensive lineman Russell Okung, receiver Dez Bryant and quarterback Brandon Weeden. Running back Kendall Hunter was a two-time consensus All-American. Quarterback Mason Rudolph won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and was an All-American in 2017. Running back Chuba Hubbard earned All-America status in 2019. Running back Chris Carson is a standout for the Seattle Seahawks and receiver Tyreek Hill is one of the NFL's most dangerous weapons for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Just since 2017, Gundy has coached the leading passer in the FBS (Mason Rudolph in 2017), the leading receiver in the FBS (James Washington in 2017) and the leading rusher in the FBS (Chuba Hubbard in 2019).

Defensively, forcing turnovers has been the Cowboys' signature trait of the Gundy era. Oklahoma State is fifth in the FBS with 254 turnovers forced since 2010. OSU ranked in the top 10 in the nation in turnovers forced in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2013 and 2015.

Some of the most notable defensive players of the Gundy era at OSU include cornerback Justin Gilbert, who was an All-American in 2013 and also a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award before being selected with the eighth pick of the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft, and defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah, who was a 2015 All-American and the 2015 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year before being chosen 32nd overall in the 2016 NFL Draft.

Dynamic special teams have also factored into Gundy's success. In fact, he spends much of his game-planning on special teams and is at his most vocal on the practice field during special teams periods. Matt Fodge won the Ray Guy Award presented to the nation's top punter in 2008 and Dan Bailey won the Lou Groza Award presented to the nation's top kicker in 2010. Quinn Sharp was an All-America punter in 2010 and an All-America kicker in 2011 and 2012. Return men have also thrived as part of Oklahoma State's special teams, with Perrish Cox earning All-America honors in 2008, the same year that Dez Bryant was honored as the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year. Tyreek Hill was a first-team All-Big 12 return man in 2014 who has played in the Pro Bowl since moving on to the NFL ranks and Zach Sinor led the nation in punts downed inside the 20 in 2016.

Playing Days

Mike Gundy first arrived on the Oklahoma State campus in 1986 after a heavily-decorated prep career. He was a four-year starter at OSU from 1986-89 and led the Cowboys to a pair of bowl wins - the 1987 Sun Bowl over West Virginia and the 1988 Holiday Bowl over Wyoming. During those two seasons, OSU accumulated a 20-4 record.

Gundy ended his career as the Big Eight Conference's all-time leader in passing and total offense. More than 20 years after his playing career, his name is still featured throughout the OSU record books. Most of his personal marks stood until Gundy assumed head coaching duties. He began his college career by throwing 138 passes before tossing his first career interception. That streak remained an NCAA record until 2008.

Coaching Career

After graduation, Gundy immediately joined the Oklahoma State football staff at the age of 23. He coached the receivers in 1990, the quarterbacks from 1991-1993 and in 1995, and served as offensive coordinator during the 1994 season in the final year for Gundy's college coach, Pat Jones. Gundy coached in Stillwater under each of the three previous Cowboy head coaches (Jones, Bob Simmons and Les Miles).

He spent one season at Baylor (1996) as quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator before heading to the ACC, where he coached at Maryland from 1997-2000. He returned to Stillwater in 2001 as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator, and he also coached OSU quarterbacks.

Gundy is just the third Oklahoma State graduate to assume the head coaching duties in Stillwater. Jim Lookabaugh (1939-49) and Floyd Gass (1969-71) were the others.

Personal

Gundy and his wife, Kristen (also an OSU graduate), have three children, Gavin, Gunnar and Gage.

Coaching Staff

Joe Bob Clements

Defensive Line

*Seventh Year at OSU | 21st Year Overall
Kansas State, 1999*

- Defensive line coach Joe Bob Clements joined the Oklahoma State coaching staff in January of 2013 immediately after helping lead his alma mater, Kansas State, to the Big 12 title in 2012. Four of Clements' seven years in Stillwater have resulted in 10-win seasons for OSU.
- OSU has produced a first-team All-Big 12 defensive lineman in six of Clements' seven seasons in Stillwater - DT Calvin Barnett in 2013, DE Emmanuel Ogbah in 2014 and 2015, DT Vincent Taylor in 2016, DT DeQuinton Osborne in 2017 and DE Jordan Brailford in 2018.
- Returned zero total starts on the defensive line in 2019 and led the the unit to a regular season total of 26 tackles for loss and 14.5 sacks.
- The Cowboys of 2018 led the Big 12 and ranked 10th nationally with 3.00 sacks per game and ranked second in the Big 12 and 20th nationally with 7.4 tackles for loss per game.
- Oklahoma State has had two players lead the Big 12 in sacks and Clements coached both of them - Emmanuel Ogbah, who averaged 1.00 per game in 2015 and Jordan Brailford, who had 0.69 per game in 2018.
- Five of Clements' seven seasons in Stillwater have produced a team tackles for loss total that ranks among the top 10 single-season marks in school history.
- In Clements' seven seasons in Stillwater, the OSU defensive line has averaged more than 25 sacks per season. In the three years prior to Clements' arrival, Cowboy defensive linemen averaged 19.5 sacks per season.
- Clements' 2017 defensive line finished with more tackles for loss than any other defensive line unit during the Mike Gundy era at Oklahoma State (2005-present), as the 2017 defensive linemen combined for 53.5 tackles for loss. The previous record was 52, set in 2016. Additionally, the Cowboy defensive line amassed 189 yards from sacks and 277 yards from tackles for loss in 2017, both of which rank as the most for an OSU d-line during the Gundy era.

Defensive tackle Vincent Taylor finished 2016 as the FBS leader with four blocked kicks and his 12.5 tackles for loss and 7.0 sacks were the most for any interior defensive lineman in the Big 12. He earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from both the coaches and the media.

Clements' top pupil in 2015 was first-team All-America defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah, who was a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award presented to the nation's top defensive end and earned Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honors from both the coaches and the Associated Press.

In 2014, defensive end Emmanuel Ogbah became the first Oklahoma State player ever named Big 12 defensive lineman of the year and became just the fifth OSU defensive lineman - the second in Clements' first two years at OSU - to earn first-team All-Big 12 honors.

During Clements' 16 combined years as a player, staffer and full-time assistant coach at K-State, the Wildcats won two Big 12 championships, four Big 12 North championships, won nine or more games in a season 11 times and won 10 or more games in a season nine times.

In 2012, K-State led the Big 12 in scoring defense, ranked second in the conference in rushing defense, turnovers gained and sacks and was third in both total defense and pass efficiency defense. One of Clements' defensive ends, Meshak Williams, was honored as Big 12 defensive lineman of the year after leading the league in sacks and another, Adam Davis, was a second-team all-Big 12 honoree who led the league with four fumbles forced.

From 2004-05, Clements served as K-State's recruiting coordinator. The two recruiting classes he spearheaded produced future NFL players Zac Diles, Yamon Figurs, Tearrius George, Justin McKinney and Reggie Walker.

Clements spent seven seasons as a full-time member of the K-State coaching staff, plus two seasons at San Diego State and one season at Kansas prior to joining the staff at OSU.

At San Diego State from 2006-07, Clements' time was highlighted by the performance of first-team all-Mountain West Conference defensive lineman Antwan Applewhite. In Applewhite, Clements coached the first Aztec defensive lineman to earn first-team all-Mountain West Conference honors in seven years.

At Kansas in 2008, Clements helped coach the Jayhawks to an eight-win season and a win over division champion and archrival Missouri. The 2008 Jayhawks picked up a convincing 42-21 win over Minnesota in the Insight Bowl.

Clements broke into coaching as a student assistant at K-State in 1999, was elevated to a graduate assistant post with the Wildcats in 2001 and earned his first full-time coaching position when Bill Snyder promoted him to K-State defensive ends coach in 2003.

Clements played defensive end at K-State from 1994-98. He was a member of five bowl teams with the Wildcats, highlighted by trips to the Cotton and Fiesta Bowls.

Clements graduated from Kansas State in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications, then added a master's degree in counseling (student development) from K-State in 2009.

Personal

- Clements and his wife, Pelusa, have four children, Orianna, Chance, Emma and Kaden.

Coaching Staff

Charlie Dickey

Offensive Line

*First Year at OSU | 32nd Year Overall
Arizona, 1987*

- A 31-year coaching veteran, Charlie Dickey joined the Oklahoma State coaching staff in February of 2019 after coaching 10 years under Bill Snyder at Kansas State. Dickey was an original member of Snyder's staff upon his return in 2009 and was promoted to run game coordinator prior to the 2016 season.
- In his first season in Stillwater, his offensive line led the way for the nation's leading rusher in Doak Walker finalist Chuba Hubbard, while the team averaged 236.3 rushing yards per game to rank as the highest total since 2008.
- With Dickey serving as the leader of the offensive line, K-State's offensive identity throughout his time in Manhattan centered around physical play up front. During his 10 years with the Wildcats, K-State offensive linemen picked up three All-America honors and 23 All-Big 12 honors, including 11 first-team accolades.
- Dickey was part of a K-State coaching staff that led the Wildcats to the 2012 Big 12 title. His offensive line paved the way for quarterback Collin Klein to be a Heisman Trophy finalist that season. Dickey's line helped K-State finish fourth in the Big 12 in rushing offense and second in the league in fewest sacks allowed. Four of Dickey's five regular starters in 2012 earned all-conference honors.
- In each of Dickey's final three seasons in Manhattan, K-State ranked in the top four in the Big 12 in rushing offense, despite playing far fewer snaps than other teams in the league who utilized up-tempo schemes.
- Under Dickey, K-State's B.J. Finney was an All-American in 2014 and Dalton Risner was a two-time All-American in 2017 and 2018.
- During the 2018 NFL season, Dickey saw three of his former K-State pupils on active rosters - B.J. Finney with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Cornelius Lucas with the Los Angeles Rams and Cody Whitehair with the Chicago Bears. Additionally, Tavon Rooks was a draft pick of the New Orleans Saints in 2014.
- Dickey came to K-State after capping his fourth year at Utah with an undefeated 13-0 campaign and a win over No. 4 Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. Dickey was instrumental in Utah's success on offense when he took charge of the offensive line in 2005 and his position was regarded as a Ute stronghold from that day on. In 2006, the Utes were the last team in the country to allow a sack - going six games before anyone got to the quarterback.
- In 2008, offensive tackle Zane Beadles and guard Robert Conley were first-team All-Mountain West Conference selections under Dickey and protected and paved the way for quarterback Brian Johnson, the 2008 MWC Offensive Player of the Year and Sugar Bowl Most Outstanding Player.
- During his time at Utah, Dickey coached four first team all-conference players in center Jesse Boone (2005), tackles Tavo Tupola (2006) and Beadles (2008) and guard Conley (2008). In 2007, both Beadles and Conley won second-team honors for the Utes.
- Dickey coached in the Pac-10 for 13 years before heading to Utah, spending 12 years at his alma mater, Arizona, and one season at Washington. At Arizona, he coached the offensive line from 1992-2002 and the tight ends in 2003. In 2004, Dickey went to Washington as the Huskies' offensive line coach.
- While at Arizona, Dickey developed first team all-conference linemen Warner Smith (1994) and Yusuf Scott (1998). Scott won the 1998 Morris Trophy, which is presented to the league's outstanding offensive lineman.
- Dickey began his coaching career after playing one season for the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1987 NFL strike. In 1988, he worked at Arizona as a graduate assistant coach before tutoring the offensive line at Scottsdale Community College in 1989 and at Northern Arizona from 1990-91.
- In his playing days, Dickey started at offensive guard at Arizona from 1983-84 - compiling a streak of 1,230 consecutive offensive plays, including all 840 offensive plays of the 1983 season. He was named a second-team All-Pac-10 performer in 1984 and was Arizona's Offensive Most Valuable Player. Before going to Arizona, he completed an all-conference community-college career at Scottsdale Community College.

Personal

- A native of Scottsdale, Ariz., Dickey and his wife Lisa have five children, daughters Jazmin Wagner, Tasha and Shyanne, son Charles Jr., and son-in-law Alan Wagner.

- The Dickeys also have three grandchildren, Alanya, Alan Wagner Jr., Benaiah and KayLisa.
- Their daughter, Chanel, passed away at the age of three. Tasha played basketball at K-State during the 2011-12 season.

- Tim Duffie joined the Oklahoma State staff in March of 2013 and coaches the Cowboy cornerbacks. He coached the OSU safeties in 2013 and 2014. Four of Duffie's seven years on staff have resulted in 10-win seasons for the Cowboys.
- Helped lead a defensive unit that ranked among the top 25 in the FBS in passes intercepted in 2019.
- Duffie coached A.J. Green to second-team All-Big 12 honors in 2018. Green and fellow starting cornerback Rodarius Williams combined to break up 19 passes in 2018 - a mark that represented half of the team's overall total.
- Thanks in part to the downfield coverage provided by Duffie's cornerbacks, Oklahoma State led the Big 12 and ranked 10th in the FBS with 3.00 sacks per game in 2018.
- Starting a freshman and a sophomore at cornerback in 2017, OSU led the Big 12 and ranked 15th nationally in passes intercepted. In fact, cornerback A.J. Green provided one of the signature moments of the season when he picked off a pass in the end zone in the waning seconds to seal the Cowboys' win at No. 24 Iowa State. Green tied for second in the Big 12 with four interceptions on the season. All four of his picks came in conference games.
- Duffie's cornerbacks played a role in OSU leading the Big 12 in turnovers gained in 2016.
- In 2015, Duffie coached first-team All-Big 12 cornerback Kevin Peterson, who was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to the nation's top defensive back.
- Duffie's troops helped Oklahoma State rank in the top 10 nationally in turnovers gained in both 2013 and 2015.
- In his first season in Stillwater, the Cowboys showed significant improvement by holding opponents to 21.6 points per game, down from 28.2 points per game the year prior to his arrival.
- The Cowboys finished 2013 ranked in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense (19th), turnovers gained (fifth), passes intercepted (third), red zone defense (seventh), pass efficiency defense (sixth), tackles for loss (16th) and third-down conversion percentage defense (seventh) just one year after ranking in the top 25 nationally in only one of those categories (tackles for loss - 25th in 2012).
- The 2013 Cowboys ranked third in school history in yards per pass attempt defense and third in pass efficiency defense. OSU's 21 interceptions in Duffie's first year were the sixth-highest total in school history and its 60 pass breakups ranked seventh.
- Duffie coached Daytawion Lowe to second-team All-Big 12 honors 2013.
- In 2014, one of Duffie's pupils, sophomore safety Jordan Sterns, became the first Oklahoma State underclassman to record 100 tackles in a season in 18 years. Under Duffie's coaching, Sterns earned All-Big 12 honors in both 2015 and 2016.
- Duffie came to Stillwater after spending the 2012 season coaching the secondary at Wake Forest. In his lone season at Wake, the Demon Deacons led the Atlantic Coast Conference and ranked 25th nationally in turnover margin.
- Prior to his time at Wake Forest, Duffie spent 2008-11 at Colorado State. He was cornerbacks coach from 2008-10 and then coached the entire Rams secondary in 2011. He served as CSU's primary recruiter for the state of Texas.
- While in Fort Collins, Duffie was heavily involved in recruiting much of CSU's top talent, including Crockett Gillmore, an all-conference performer in his first season as a tight end in 2011, Weston Richburg, a 2010 freshman All-American, and Austin Gray, a 12-game starter at safety as a freshman in 2011. In his first year at the reins of the Rams full secondary in 2011, Duffie was instrumental in helping CSU finish the regular season ranked 14th in the nation by allowing only 179.6 passing yards per game.
- Duffie broke into coaching at UTEP, where he served as a graduate assistant coaching linebackers in 2000 and then safeties in 2001. He was elevated to his first full-time position coaching the Miners safeties from 2002-03 then served as UTEP's linebackers coach from 2004-06 and back to safeties in 2007.
- During his time at UTEP, he coached nine all-conference athletes, the 2004 Western Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year in Robert Rodriguez and a second-round NFL draft choice in Thomas Howard. Howard went on to become an everyday starter for the Oakland Raiders and Cincinnati Bengals.
- As a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner playing for coach Spike Dykes at Texas Tech, Duffie had 202 tackles, six tackles for loss, one sack, three passes broken up and two interceptions from 1996-99. As a senior, he started all 11 games and racked up a single-game career-high 18 tackles at Missouri. A second-team all-state selection at Jefferson High School in his hometown of Jefferson, Texas, Duffie earned Cypress Valley Player of the Year honors and was an all-district performer on three occasions. In addition to football, he lettered in basketball, baseball and track.
- Duffie earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Texas Tech in 1999 and a master's in education administration from UTEP in 2002.

Personal

- Duffie and his wife, Autumn, have two sons together, Memphis and Manhattan. He also has a son, Timias.

Washington finished his career with 39 receiving touchdowns, a mark that ranks fifth in Big 12 history.
- Dunn coached Justin Blackmon to the 2011 Biletnikoff Award as America's top wide receiver in addition to coaching him to unanimous All-America recognition. Under Dunn's watch, Blackmon set the OSU single-season record for receptions in 2011 and was the fifth overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft.
- Dunn recruited and coached 2018 All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist Tylan Wallace. A first-team All-Big 12 honoree, Wallace led the FBS with 63 receptions of 10 yards or longer and ranked second in the FBS with 25 receptions of 20 yards or longer. Wallace also earned 2019 second-team All-Big 12 honors, despite missing the final four games of the regular season.
- In Dunn's nine seasons at Oklahoma State, the Cowboys have ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring offense three times, ranked in the top 10 nationally in passing offense six times and ranked in the top 10 nationally in yards per pass attempt four times.
- In 2017, the Cowboys became the first offense in Big 12 history with a 4,000-yard passer (Mason Rudolph), two 1,000-yard receivers (James Washington and Marcell Ateman) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Justice Hill).
- Seven of Dunn's nine seasons at OSU rank among the top 10 in school history for scoring offense, total offense, passing offense and passing touchdowns. He has coached seven 1,000-yard receivers in his nine years at OSU.
- With Dunn on staff at OSU, both Justin Blackmon (122 receptions in 2011) and Josh Stewart (101 receptions in 2012) had seasons with more than 100 catches.
- In 2017, Dunn coached what many considered to be the best group of receivers in the nation. Four different Cowboys had at least 500 receiving yards and five receiving touchdowns that season, both of which were firsts in school history.
- Dunn came to Oklahoma State after coaching receivers at Southern Miss in 2010. During his year at Southern Miss, the Golden Eagles went 8-5 and played in the Beef O'Brady's Bowl. The Golden Eagles ranked 18th nationally in total offense and were 15th nationally in scoring offense.
- With the Seahawks in 2009, Dunn oversaw running backs Julius Jones and Justin Forsett as they combined for 291 carries for 1,282 yards and 76 receptions for 582 yards.
- A 1992 University of Idaho graduate, Dunn was a standout receiver at Idaho from 1987-91. He was a three-time All-American who ended his career with school records in receptions (268), yards (3,847) and was second in touchdowns (25). At the end of his career, his catch total and receiving yards ranked second all-time in the Football Championship Subdivision, trailing only Jerry Rice.
- Dunn led the nation in both receptions per game (8.0 avg.) and receiving yards per game (105.8 avg.) as a junior in 1990. He ranked No. 3 nationally with 85 catches as a senior. The Vandals claimed three Big Sky Conference titles during his playing career and went 24-12.
- A native of San Diego, Calif., he went on to play professionally with British Columbia (1992) and Edmonton (1993) of the CFL, and Houston (1992) of the NFL before launching his coaching career.
- Dunn has worked on both sides of the ball during stops at Arizona (2004-06), TCU (2003), Washington State (1998-2002), New Mexico (1996-97) and Idaho (1993 and 1995). In addition, he served minority internships with both the NFL's Seattle Seahawks (2003) and Denver Broncos (1997).
- He also worked during the 2007 season on the Baylor staff, where he held the title of special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach, and was elevated to assistant head coach early in his tenure.
- Before his stop at Baylor, Dunn was the running backs coach at Arizona where he mentored three future NFL backs.
- During his five-year tenure on Mike Price's Washington State staff, he served as running backs coach. In addition, he was the special teams coordinator his final three seasons. In 2001, he was also elevated to assistant head coach. In his time in Pullman, the Cougars went to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in school history (2001 Sun Bowl and 2003 Rose Bowl) and started a three-year run of 10-victory campaigns.

Williams College, 2007*

- Sean Gleeson was hired as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in January of 2019.
- In Gleeson's first year at the FBS level, his offense produced a Heisman Trophy candidate running back and the nation's leading rusher in Chuba Hubbard and a second-team All-Big 12 receiver in Tylan Wallace, all while being led by a freshman quarterback in Spencer Sanders.
- The OSU offense wrapped up the 2019 regular season ranked among the top 25 nationally in total offense, rushing offense, completion percentage and red zone offense.
- Gleeson came to OSU from Princeton, where he engineered one of the most explosive offenses in the Football Championship Subdivision and helped the Tigers to an undefeated 2018 season. In Gleeson's six years on staff, Princeton won three Ivy League championships.
- In addition to posting a perfect record in 2018, Princeton led the FCS in scoring offense by averaging 47.0 points per game and ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense (second with 536.8 yards per game), rushing offense (sixth with 295.5 yards per game), third-down conversion percentage (second with a mark of 53.4 percent) and pass efficiency (seventh with a mark of 161.26). The Tigers' 470 points scored in 2018 set an Ivy League record.

- Coached directly by Gleeson, Tiger quarterback John Lovett excelled as a dual-threat performer in 2018. Lovett led the Ivy League by averaging 303.0 yards of total offense per game – passing for 203.7 yards per game and rushing for 99.3 yards per contest. He ranked second in the league in both of those categories. Lovett threw 18 touchdown passes against just three interceptions and completed 66.1 percent of his passes.
- Lovett won 2018 Ivy League Offensive Player of the Year honors over his teammate, Jesper Horsted. It marked the first time in Ivy League history that two teammates were finalists for Offensive Player of the Year award.
- In his first year as offensive coordinator, quarterback Chad Kanoff earned Ivy League Offensive Player of the Year honors, but did it in a different way than Lovett. Kanoff was a pro-style passer who set the Ivy League single-season record with 3,474 passing yards.
- During Gleeson's time as offensive coordinator, 18 members of the 2017 and 2018 Princeton offenses earned All-Ivy League honors, including first-team honors for Kanoff in 2017, Lovett in 2018, Horsted (twice), and OL Mitchell Sweigart. Horsted ended his career with several single-season and career receiving records, while Sweigart became Princeton's first lineman to earn multiple first-team All-Ivy honors since 2000-01.

- The 2018 Princeton recruiting class was ranked No. 1 in the FCS by 247Sports and included four-star quarterback Brevin White, who turned down an offer from Alabama to be coached by Gleeson at Princeton.
- Gleeson joined the Princeton staff in 2013 in the role of running backs coach. He held that position before being elevated to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2017.
- In his first year on staff, the Tigers won the Ivy League and ranked second nationally in scoring offense with 43.7 points per game.
- In Gleeson's six years at Princeton, the Tigers' offense averaged 36.9 points per game, which marked the program's highest output over a six-year stretch in program history.
- Gleeson played quarterback at Williams College, where he graduated in 2007 with a degree in English.
- While at Williams, Gleeson was the highest-rated passer in the New England Small College Athletic Conference in 2005 (minimum 100 attempts), with a rating of 163.6. His team finished 8-0 in 2006. He received the Farley Award that year, which is presented to the member of the football team who demonstrates superior qualities of dedication, loyalty and sacrifice for the betterment of the team.
- His first job after graduation came at Delbarton School in New Jersey, where he served as a teacher and coached football, baseball and bowling. His first job in college football came as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fairleigh Dickinson from 2011-12, before he moved on to Princeton.

*Fifth Year at OSU / 34th Year Overall
Colorado State, 1985*

- A 33-year coaching veteran who came to OSU after coaching running backs at the University of Houston in 2014, Dan Hammerschmidt played safety at Colorado State from 1982-85 before breaking into the coaching ranks as a student assistant with the Rams in 1986.
- In four of Hammerschmidt's five seasons in Stillwater, he has produced a first-team All-Big 12 safety. Jordan Sterns earned the honor in both 2015 and 2016. In 2017, Tre Flowers was a first-team All-Big 12 selection by the coaches and a third-team All-American by the AFCA. Sophomore Kolby Harvell-Peel earned the All-Big 12 distinction in 2019.
- Harvell-Peel wrapped up the 2019 regular season ranked No. 5 in the FBS in passes defended and No. 6 in total interceptions. Harvell-Peel and Tre Sterling both ranked among the top 20 tacklers in the league.
- In the 2019 regular season, OSU's safeties were responsible for 237 tackles, 14.5 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks, seven interceptions, 27 pass break ups, four quarterback hurries, two fumble recoveries and three forced fumbles.
- Hammerschmidt's safeties played a big role in helping the 2019 OSU defense become the first in school history to hold four straight Big 12 opponents under 28 points in one season.
- Despite fielding the youngest and least-experienced position group on the 2018 roster, OSU safeties produced 36% of OSU's total tackles. Of the top five Cowboy tacklers in 2018, three were safeties. (Jarrick Bernard and Kolby Harvell-Peel were true freshmen.)
- In 2017, OSU led the Big 12 and ranked 15th nationally in passes intercepted. Ramon Richards provided one of the signature moments of the season when he picked off a pass in the end zone to seal OSU's overtime win at Texas.
- In Hammerschmidt's first three years on staff, OSU excelled at takeaways. The Cowboys finished second in the league with 28 turnovers gained in 2015 and tied for first in 2016 with 25 turnovers gained. In 2017, OSU led the league with 17 interceptions.
- Hammerschmidt served as a graduate assistant at TCU in 1987 before earning his first full-time appointment at Duke, where he coached outside linebackers, special teams and the secondary from 1988-94. He helped the Blue Devils to a pair of bowl appearances in 1989 and 1994.
- He coached the secondary at Virginia Military Institute in 1995 before returning to his alma mater, where he coached the Colorado State receivers from 1996-2000. He moved into the role of co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and served in that capacity from 2001-07.
- With Hammerschmidt on staff, CSU appeared in seven bowl games and quarterback Bradlee Van Pelt earned Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year accolades in 2002 and 2003. Eight of Hammerschmidt's pupils at CSU earned all-conference recognition.
- He coached wide receivers at Rice in 2008, and his one year with the Owls resulted in Jarrett Dillard becoming the first Owl to earn All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America since 1958. Buoyed by the 20 touchdown receptions he made with Hammerschmidt as his position coach, Dillard finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leader with 59 career touchdown receptions.
- From there, Hammerschmidt served as assistant head coach and mentored the receivers and tight ends at Wyoming in 2009, then returned to Fort Collins, where he was passing game coordinator and receivers coach at Colorado State from 2010-11.
- Hammerschmidt was an offensive assistant with the Houston Texans from 2012-13. With Hammerschmidt on staff, the Texans set a franchise record with 26.0 points per game in 2012 as seven offensive players earned Pro Bowl invites. Arian Foster led the NFL with 17 touchdowns and ranked second in the AFC with 1,424 yards rushing, while receiver Andre Johnson had 1,598 yards receiving and four touchdowns. Quarterback Matt Schaub earned Pro Bowl honors as did three offensive linemen: left tackle Duane Brown, left guard Wade Smith and center Chris Myers.
- Hammerschmidt returned to the college ranks in 2014 as running backs coach at the University of Houston. During his one season, the Cougars ranked second in American Athletic Conference in rushing offense with 183.8 yards per game and running back Kenneth Farrow led the league with 20 rushing touchdowns, ranked second with 1,037 rushing yards and was among the top 40 players in the nation by averaging 5.58 yards per carry.

Coaching Staff

Jim Knowles

*Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers
Second Year at OSU | 32nd Year Overall
Cornell, 1987*

- With more than 30 years of college coaching experience, Jim Knowles joined the Oklahoma State coaching staff as defensive coordinator in January of 2018.
- Knowles came to Stillwater after an eight-year run at Duke, where he was an integral part in leading the Blue Devils to five bowl appearances in his last six years – a feat that had never previously been achieved at Duke. He was elevated to the role of assistant head coach immediately following the 2017 season.
- Knowles led the way for the 2019 OSU defense to become the first in school history to hold four straight Big 12 opponents to fewer than 28 points in the same season. The Cowboys wrapped up the regular season ranked among the top 25 in the FBS in interceptions and fourth down percentage defense.
- Individual standouts from 2019 included safety Kolby Harvell-Peel, who ranked No. 5 nationally in passes defended, and linebackers Malcolm Rodriguez and Amen Ogbongbemiga, who both ranked among the top five tacklers in the Big 12.
- In his first year at OSU in 2018, the Cowboys beat four ranked teams, highlighted by a pair of top-10 wins over No. 6 Texas and No. 7 West Virginia. OSU led the Big 12 and ranked 10th in the FBS in sacks per game and ranked second in the Big 12 and 20th nationally in tackles for loss per game. The Cowboys were ninth nationally in red zone defense and were third in the Big 12 in third-down defense.
- Two players from Knowles' inaugural defense at Oklahoma State - defensive end Jordan Brailford and cornerback A.J. Green - earned All-Big 12 honors, with Brailford securing first-team recognition and Green getting a spot on the second team.
- In his final season in Durham, the Blue Devils ranked in the top 25 nationally in total defense, passing defense, pass efficiency defense, scoring defense, third-down defense, fourth-down defense and fewest first downs allowed. Additionally, Duke was in the top 25 nationally in fewest penalties committed per game.
- In 2013, Knowles' defense helped Duke to a 10-win season and an appearance in the ACC Championship Game, both of which were firsts in school history.
- From 2004-09, Knowles served as head coach at Cornell, where he compiled a 26-34 record in his six seasons at the helm of his alma mater.
- A 1987 graduate of Cornell, Knowles spent nine years (1988-96) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, helping the Big Red to Ivy League championships in 1988 and 1990.
- In his first stint at Cornell, he coached defensive line (1988), running backs (1989-94) and linebackers (1995-96) while coordinating the staff's recruiting efforts (1995-96).
- Knowles' first stint in major-conference football came in 2003, when he served as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator under David Cutcliffe at Ole Miss, where he helped the Rebels to a 10-3 record, a share of the SEC Western Division title and a 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl.
- Knowles helped the Ole Miss defense rank 14th in the nation in rushing defense while the Rebels held eight opponents — including eventual national champion LSU — to 21 or fewer points.
- Following his lone season in Oxford, Knowles returned to Cornell as head coach.
- In his first season as head coach of the Big Red, Knowles turned a 1-9 squad that lost seven games by at least two touchdowns into a 4-6 unit that went 4-3 in conference play and lost all six contests by 10 points or less.
- Cornell's 2004 squad became the first team in Ivy League history to go from zero conference wins to a winning league slate in just one season. Under Knowles, Cornell posted three consecutive seasons (2005-06-07) at .500 or better for the first time since 1990-91-92 and, in 2007, enjoyed a stretch of scoring 30 or more points in four straight games for the first time since 1921 while home attendance nearly doubled from the 2006 campaign.
- Knowles returned to the major college ranks immediately after the 2009 season, when he reunited with Cutcliffe at Duke to serve as defensive coordinator.
- In 2017, Duke's defense was one of the best in the ACC, ranking among the league's leaders in both scoring defense (third) and total defense (fourth). The Blue Devils allowed just 20.23 points per game, marking the program's lowest total since 1977, and surrendered more than 24 points just twice. Duke was one of just four defenses in the ACC to have four players register 9.0 tackles for loss or more each.

- In 2013, Duke's defense included three first team All-ACC picks in linebacker Kelby Brown, Jeremy Cash and cornerback Ross Cockrell, marking Duke's highest total of defensive first team selections since 1974. With 133 tackles on the year, linebacker Helton led the ACC in total stops while Cash finished second with 121. Brown was tops in the league in tackles per game (10.4) in conference play.
- The Blue Devils recorded 26 takeaways in 2013 — the fourth-highest total in the ACC — and their average points allowed in the fourth quarter (4.64) ranked second in the conference, trailing only national champion Florida State. In addition, Duke won all four of its road ACC games by allowing an average of 19.5 points per contest in victories over North Carolina, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

Personal

- A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Knowles was a three-year letterman and All-Ivy League selection as a defensive end at Cornell before graduating in 1987 with a bachelor's degree from the School of Industrial and Labor Relations. He and his wife, Nancy, have three children — Halle, Luke and Jack.

Jason McEndoo

Cowboy Backs

*Fifth Year at OSU | 20th Year Overall
Washington State, 1998*

- The 2011 American Football Coaches Association FCS Assistant Coach of the Year, Jason McEndoo spent 12 seasons as an assistant coach at Montana State prior to coming to Oklahoma State in February of 2015.
- At Oklahoma State, McEndoo coaches the Cowboy Backs - a flexible tight end/fullback hybrid position that is utilized in a number of ways within the construct of the offense.
- Oklahoma State has won 10 games in three of McEndoo's five seasons in Stillwater.
- Academic success has been a hallmark of McEndoo's Cowboy Backs, as he's coached 17 Academic All-Big 12 selections in his five seasons in Stillwater. In 2017, McEndoo coached Britton Abbott to a spot on the CoSIDA Academic All-America team.
- The 2019 Cowboy Backs helped pave the way for running back Chuba Hubbard to lead the nation in rushing yards and for the Cowboy offense to rank among the top 20 nationally in total offense and rushing offense.
- The 2019 unit also combined for 23 catches and two touchdowns in the regular season, led by Jelani Woods who finished with more than 100 yards receiving.
- In 2018, McEndoo's Cowboy Backs factored into the OSU offense ranking in the top 15 nationally in scoring offense, total offense, passing offense and first downs. Additionally, the Cowboys ranked second in the Big 12 in rushing offense (190.3 yards per game), rushing touchdowns (30) and rushing yards per carry (4.8). The rushing yards per game and rushing yards per attempt numbers are the best for an OSU team since 2012. OSU had four games with 200 or more yards rushing and led the Big 12 with 28 rushing touchdowns that were scored from within the red zone.
- The Cowboy Backs helped pave the way for one of the best team rushing performances of the Mike Gundy era (2005-present), when they assisted in a 431-yard rushing day for the Pokes in the 2018 season opener against Missouri State.
- Thanks in part to work done by McEndoo's Cowboy Backs, Oklahoma State has increased its yearly rushing total in each of the past five seasons. In 2015, the Cowboys averaged 3.58 yards per rush and 126.85 yards per game. That improved to 4.53 yards per rush and 171.00 yards per game in 2016 and then to 4.63 yards per rush and 179.77 yards per game in 2017. OSU averaged 4.78 yards per rush and 190.31 yards per game in 2018, then in 2019 averaged 5.3 yards per rush and 236.2 yards per game.
- Oklahoma State had two games of 200 yards rushing in 2015 but had five such games in 2016 and 2017. OSU had four games with 200 rushing yards in 2018 and eight games with 200 yards rushing in the 2019 regular season.
- In addition to their work in the run game, McEndoo's Cowboy Backs combined to catch four touchdown passes in 2018.
- In 2017, McEndoo's Cowboy backs helped Oklahoma State become the first offense in Big 12 history with a 4,000-yard passer (Mason Rudolph), two 1,000-yard receivers (James Washington and Marcell Ateman) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Justice Hill).
- The Cowboys of 2017 led the nation in passing offense, ranked second nationally in total offense and first downs, ranked third nationally in pass efficiency and ranked fourth nationally in scoring offense.
- In addition to their blocking work, the Cowboy Backs combined to catch 30 passes for 449 yards and three touchdowns in 2016.
- Coached directly by McEndoo, Blake Jarwin earned first-team All-Big 12 honors for the first time in his career in 2015 and then was a second-team All-Big 12 honoree in 2016 before moving on to the NFL.
- McEndoo helped coach Montana State to five Big Sky Conference championships during his time in Bozeman.
- In 2014, Montana State ranked seventh among all FCS schools with 244.4 rushing yards per game, was ninth in the FCS with 488.6 yards of total offense per game and was 11th in the FCS with 38.2 points per game.
- McEndoo coached seven Bobcat All-Americans and 11 first team All-Big Sky selections, including Jeff Bolton, an All-America center who earned the 2005 Rimington Award as Division I-AA's top player at that position.
- He also coached 2010 consensus All-American Mike Person (a seventh round choice by San Francisco in the 2011 NFL Draft), and 2012 first-team All-Big Sky and honorable mention All-America choice Shaun Sampson.
- In 2011, two Bobcat O-linemen - Conrad Burbank and Alex Terrien - earned All-America honors.
- MSU's offensive front led the Big Sky in fewest sacks allowed in 2006 and 2008, and the Bobcats led the league in rushing yards in 2008.
- Under McEndoo's guidance, the offensive line was a leadership hub in the Bobcat program. At least one offensive lineman served as a team captain in 10 of McEndoo's 12 seasons.
- A native of Aberdeen, Wash., McEndoo was an offensive lineman at Washington State and earned All-Pac 10 honors in 1997. He graduated from Wazzu in 1998, then spent three seasons in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks and New Orleans Saints. He finished out a master's degree from Whitworth in 2003.
- He coached high school football in Washington from 2000-02 before arriving at MSU in 2003.

Personal

- McEndoo and his wife, Ruth, have a son, Luke, and three daughters - Elizabeth, Aubrie and Ainslie.

Greg Richmond

Defensive Line

*Fourth Year at OSU | 11th Year Overall
Oklahoma State, 2003*

- Oklahoma State product Greg Richmond returned to his alma mater as a full-time coach in February of 2018.
- Coaching a 2019 unit that returned zero total starts on the defensive line, he helped lead the unit to a regular season total of 26 tackles for loss and 14.5 sacks.
- True freshman Trace Ford led the team with seven quarterback hurries in the 2019 regular season, which ties for the fourth-best total in school history.
- In his first year as a coach with the Cowboys in 2018, he teamed with Joe Bob Clements to coach the defensive line and the group performed well, leading the Big 12 and ranking 10th nationally in sacks and ranking second in the conference and 20th nationally in tackles for loss.
- Defensive end Jordan Brailford earned first-team All-Big 12 honors in 2018 after leading the league in sacks per game and ranking fifth in the conference in tackles for loss. Brailford finished 2018 with 16.0 tackles for loss, a mark that ranks third in a single-season for an Oklahoma State defensive lineman in the Mike Gundy era (2005-present).
- The Cowboys of 2018 had 39 sacks as a team, a mark that ranks sixth in school history. Of those 39 sacks, 26.5 came from defensive linemen. That total of 26.5 sacks ties for the second-most from a defensive line group at Oklahoma State since Mike Gundy took over as head coach in 2005.
- In addition to their work on the field, a trio of Oklahoma State defensive linemen earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors in 2018 with Richmond serving as their position coach.
- A standout at Oklahoma State during his playing days, Richmond was a four-year Cowboy letterman from 2000-03. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2003, Richmond remains on OSU's single-season and career top-10 lists for quarterback sacks to this day.

- After graduation, Richmond signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he stayed until 2007.
- Immediately after his NFL career wrapped up, he returned to Stillwater to serve as an assistant director of strength and conditioning from 2007-08. Since then, he has held positions coaching defensive line at both the high school and college level.
- From 2015-17, he coached the defensive line at Football Championship Subdivision Fairmont State University in West Virginia, where he helped the Fighting Falcons to a three-year record of 24-9 and back-to-back eight-win seasons for the first time in more than 50 years.
- In 2017, Fairmont State led the Mountain East Conference and ranked No. 12 nationally by allowing only 15.6 points per game. The Falcons also led the league in total defense, defensive touchdowns, passes intercepted, pass efficiency defense and turnovers gained.
- Just prior to that 2017 campaign, he served as a minority coaching intern with the New York Giants, where he assisted with the defensive line.
- In 2016, Fairmont State went 10-2 and hosted a playoff game for the first time in school history.
- As a unit, Richmond's defensive line ranked second in the league and 22nd in the country in sacks during the 2016 season – averaging over three sacks per game (3.08). The FSU defense also locked down on opposing rushing attacks, as the Falcons allowed just 95.5 yards per game on the ground and gave up just 15.1 points per game during the regular season.
- Richmond's top pupil at Fairmont State was defensive end Quincy Redmon, who put together one of the most decorated seasons for a defensive lineman at FSU during the 2016 season. Redmon earned honorable mention All-America honors and was named the Mountain East Conference Defensive Player of the Year after racking up 52 tackles, 12 sacks, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles as a junior. For his efforts, Redmon was also a finalist for the Cliff Harris Award (honoring the top defensive player in small college football). Redmon became the first All-American defensive lineman at Fairmont State since David Hill in 2008.
- Richmond returned to Northeastern State to coach the defensive line and assist with strength & conditioning during the spring of 2015 before he moved on to Fairmont State for the 2015 season.

- In 2014, Richmond was the defensive line coach at Tahlequah High School after spending the 2012 and 2013 seasons working in the private sector away from football.
- In July 2010, Richmond coached the defensive line at his alma mater, OKC Douglass High School, before being hired as the defensive line coach at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, in August of 2010.
- Highlighting his three seasons at Northeastern State were a Lone Star North Conference Championship in 2010 and an appearance in the Mineral Water Bowl in 2011.
- During the summer of 2011, Richmond worked for the Minnesota Vikings as a minority coaching intern, assisting with the defensive line.

Personal

- Richmond graduated from Oklahoma State in December of 2003 with a degree in hotel and restaurant administration before getting his master's in educational leadership from Langston University in 2012.
- He and his wife Jennifer have a son, Jaylen.

John Wozniak

Running Backs

*Third Year at OSU | 21st Year Overall
Knox College, 1999*

- A member of two national championship staffs during his career, John Wozniak joined the Oklahoma State football staff as running backs coach in February of 2017.
- Formerly an offensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma State under Les Miles in 2004, Wozniak won his first national title while serving in an offensive quality control role under Miles at LSU in 2007, then claimed his second as a special teams analyst under Nick Saban at Alabama in 2012.
- In 2019, Wozniak coached All-American Chuba Hubbard as he finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in the FBS in rushing yards, rushing yards per game, all-purpose yards, all-purpose yards per game, yards after contact (via Pro Football Focus) and many more categories.
- Hubbard's 2019 season also ranks as the No. 2 rushing total in OSU history, trailing only Barry Sanders' historic 1988 Heisman season. He set the NCAA record for most single-season rushing yards by a Canadian player.
- Hubbard was named an All-American, the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, a finalist for Doak Walker Award, a finalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and received several other honors as well.
- In 2018, Wozniak's running backs factored into the OSU offense ranking second in the Big 12 in rushing offense (190.3 yards per game), rushing touchdowns (30) and rushing yards per carry (4.8). The rushing yards per game and rushing yards per attempt numbers are the best for an OSU team since 2012. OSU had four games with 200 or more yards rushing and led the Big 12 with 28 rushing touchdowns that were scored from within the red zone.
- In 2018, Wozniak coached Justice Hill to his second consecutive first-team All-Big 12 honor. From the end of the 2017 season through the middle of the 2018 season, Hill scored at least one rushing touchdown in 12 straight games, the longest such streak for a running back in Big 12 history.
- In 2017, Wozniak coached Justice Hill to first-team All-Big 12 honors after Hill rushed 268 times for 1,467 yards and 15 touchdowns. Hill was one of 10 national semifinalists for the Doak Walker Award.
- In 2017, the Cowboys became the first offense in Big 12 history with a 4,000-yard passer (Mason Rudolph), two 1,000-yard receivers (James Washington and Marcell Ateman) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Justice Hill).
- Wozniak came to Oklahoma State from Southern Miss, where he spent the previous four seasons coaching wide receivers and special teams. When Todd Monken was hired as head coach of the Golden Eagles in 2013, he brought Wozniak along as part of his first staff and Wozniak was retained at USM after Monken left for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2016.
- Wozniak helped build the Southern Miss passing attack into one of the most potent in Conference USA. The year before his arrival in Hattiesburg, the Golden Eagles were 0-12 and ranked 108th nationally in passing offense. By the time Wozniak finished, USM went to back-to-back bowl games in his last two seasons and had the Golden Eagles passing offense ranked 12th in the nation in 2015 and 16th in the nation in 2016. Southern Miss ranked in the top 25 nationally in total offense in both of those seasons as well (12th in 2015 and 21st in 2016).
- Under Wozniak's guidance, Mike Thomas ranked in the top 10 nationally in receiving yards, receiving yards per game and receiving touchdowns in 2015 and Allenzae Stagers ranked in the top 25 nationally in both receiving yards and yards per catch in 2016.
- As a recruiter, Wozniak helped Southern Miss sign Gatorade Player of the Year honorees from the state of Alabama in both 2013 (quarterback Nick Mullens) and 2017 (receiver Jaylond Adams). Mullens went on to break many of Brett Favre's records at USM.
- A decorated quarterback and receiver during his playing days at Knox College, Wozniak graduated in 1999 with degrees in physics and secondary education, then was immediately hired on as the tight ends and punters coach. The next year - just one year removed from graduation - he was promoted to offensive coordinator, a role in which he served for four years before he moved to Stillwater to join Les Miles' Oklahoma State staff in 2004.
- He followed Miles to Baton Rouge as a graduate assistant in 2005 before accepting a full-time position as tight ends and special teams coach at Georgia Southern in 2006. During his one season there, the Eagles led the Southern Conference and ranked 14th nationally in kickoff returns.
- Miles brought Wozniak back to LSU in an offensive quality control position in 2007, and Wozniak's contributions helped LSU rank 11th nationally in rushing offense and scoring offense en route to the national championship.
- A return to full-time coaching followed for Wozniak, who coached tight ends and special teams at Montana State in 2008. Under Wozniak's coaching, tight end Brandon Bostick led the team in touchdowns and was third in receptions despite playing in just seven games. Punter Erik Fisher ranked 15th nationally by averaging 41.8 yards per kick, and kicker Jason Cunningham was 13-of-19 on field goal attempts. All three players earned all-conference honors that year. Additionally, the Bobcats blocked five punts during the season.
- One-year stops at Memphis (special teams coordinator in 2009), West Georgia (offensive coordinator in 2010) and UAB (running backs coach in 2011) led Wozniak to Tuscaloosa, where he helped Alabama to a national championship as a special teams analyst in 2012.

Personal

- Wozniak is married to the former Jessica Swaye ... The couple has a daughter, Audrey.

- With wins in four of its final five games to close out the season, the Cowboys secured a top-three finish in the Big 12 standings for the eighth time in the past 10 seasons.
- Offensively, OSU ranked in the top 20 in the FBS in total offense, rushing offense and red zone offense and were led by All-American Chuba Hubbard, who led the FBS in rushing yards, rushing yards per game, yards after contact (via Pro Football Focus), all-purpose yards, all-purpose yards per game and rushes of at least 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80 and 90 yards.
- Defensively, the Cowboys became the first team in school history to hold Big 12 opponents to fewer than 28 points in four straight games in one season. Safety Kolby Harvell-Peel was a first-team All-Big 12 performer who led the league and ranked No. 5 in the FBS in passes defended.
- On special teams, the Cowboys ranked fourth in the nation with 1.5 yards allowed per punt return and third in the league in average yards per punt return. Matt Ammendola made 20 of 24 field goal attempts to move into third-place on OSU's career record list for made field goals.

The Cowboys opened the year with a cross country road trip to Oregon State to face the Beavers for the first time in school history, while starting a freshman quarterback in Spencer Sanders. It proved to be a preview for OSU's explosiveness the rest of the year, as Sanders finished 19-for-24 passing (79.2%) for 203 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions and added 109 rushing yards on 13 carries (8.4 yards per carry). Chuba Hubbard finished with 221 rushing yards and Tylan Wallace added 92 yards receiving as the Cowboys cruised to a 52-36 win.

OSU then knocked off McNeese, 56-14, and closed out the non-conference schedule with a 40-21 road win at Tulsa, in which Hubbard put up another 200-yard performance with 256 against the Golden Hurricane.

Sitting at 3-0, the Cowboys faced their first true test of the season when they traveled to Austin to face No. 12 Texas, but fell one score shy of the upset in a 36-30 defeat. Oklahoma State returned to Stillwater the next week to face an unbeaten and ranked Kansas State team that was fresh off the heels of a road win at Mississippi State. The Cowboys responded with a 26-13 win that included a season-best 296 rushing yards from Hubbard. The Cowboy defense also held KSU to just 1-for-13 on third down attempts and allowed the Wildcats just eight total first downs to mark the fewest for an FBS opponent in the Mike Gundy era.

The Cowboys surged to No. 21 in the AP poll after the win, but fell out of the polls following consecutive losses to Texas Tech and Baylor.

Sitting unranked at 4-3 with a trip to No. 23 Iowa State in Ames up next, Oklahoma State received plenty of doubt from outside the program about its ability to extend its school-record streak to 14-straight bowl games. With a fantastic defensive performance and more explosive plays, however, the Pokes took down the Cyclones, 34-27. The game included three Cowboy touchdowns of 50 yards or longer in the first half alone, as well a school-record performance from safety Kolby Harvell-Peel with six pass break ups. OSU's defense produced three interceptions on ISU's final four drives to seal the game.

Adversity struck in a major way following the ISU win as OSU receiver Tylan Wallace - a finalist for the 2018 Biletnikoff Award - was lost for the season due to a practice injury leading up to the TCU game. At the time of his injury, Wallace was a midseason All-American, leading all Power Five players in receiving yards, leading the nation in 60-plus yard catches and was responsible for 47% of OSU's total receiving yards.

The OSU defense continued its trend over the next three games, though, as it became the first defensive unit in school history to hold four consecutive Big 12 opponents under 28 points in one season. The Cowboy defense helped lead the way as OSU won each of those games, and receiver Dillon Stoner stepped in to Wallace's spot as the team's go-to target.

The second win in the streak was a 34-27 victory over TCU in Stillwater. Harvell-Peel made the biggest impact on the defensive side as he forced three TCU turnovers with two interceptions and a fumble recovery. Hubbard continued his outstanding season with perhaps his best performance of the year, as his 223 rushing yards on just 20 carries marked the first time a player had ever rushed for more than 200 yards against a Gary Patterson-coached defense.

A 31-13 win over Kansas followed, and while it was an easy win for the Cowboys, it did bring further adversity to the team - this time by way of an injury to starting quarterback Spencer Sanders.

With Sanders sidelined for the remainder of the regular season, graduate transfer Dru Brown made his first start in two years the following week at West Virginia. Brown made the most of his opportunity, completing 22 of 29 passes (75.9%) for 196 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions. Hubbard added 192 scrimmage yards and the Cowboy defense held West Virginia scoreless in the fourth quarter to earn a 20-13 win over the Mountaineers.

The regular season finale pitted the Cowboys against a top-10 Oklahoma team that entered the game with one loss. OSU kept it within one score through most of the third quarter, but fell short to end the regular season with eight wins.

Remarkably, 2019 marks the 10th time in the past 12 seasons OSU has won at least eight games and extends the school record streak of winning seasons to 14 years.

He is wearing jersey number 32 and a captain's 'C' patch, running with the football in his right hand. He is being pursued by a player from the Colorado Buffaloes in a black and gold uniform. The background is a blurred stadium crowd.

DALLAS – The first bowl appearance for Oklahoma A&M turned into a pleasant experience for the orange and black faithful as the Aggies used a season-ending 28-6 win over Oklahoma as a springboard to a dominating bowl performance.

Oklahoma A&M sophomore tailback whiz Bob Fenimore, the nation's total offense leader, lived up to All-America billings as the Cowboys bounced the local team from TCU, 34-0, in the third-largest margin of victory in Cotton Bowl history. Fenimore scored on runs of one and seven yards and completed 6-of-13 passes for 136 yards. Fullback Jim Spavital powered his way for 120 yards, including a 52-yard scoring bolt.

Meanwhile, the Poke defense smothered TCU, not allowing the Horned Frogs past midfield until the second half. Coach Jim Lookabaugh's muscular single-wing offense harvested 494 yards of total offense, while TCU could manage only 105. In the fourth period, A&M's reserves took over with Joe Thomas and Mack Creager adding touchdowns on short plunges.

The Aggies finished the year with an 8-1 record. It was their best win total since the 1932 squad won nine games.

Fenimore, Neill Armstrong (who would later coach the Chicago Bears) and tackle Ralph Foster were all Aggies who were named as the game's outstanding players. Fenimore was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in the spring of 2007.

NEW ORLEANS – A capacity crowd of 75,000 gathered to watch the battle of All-Americans, Oklahoma A&M's Bob "Blond Bomber" Fenimore and St. Mary's "Squirmin'" Herman Wedemeyer.

Wedemeyer's 46-yard touchdown pass to Dennis O'Conner opened the scoring, but Fenimore matched it with a 29-yard scoring toss to Cecil Hankins as the first quarter ended. Fenimore's short plunge gave A&M the lead for keeps, but just before the half, Wedemeyer lateralled to Fred DeSalvo, who weaved his way through Aggie defenders 44 yards for a touchdown. The conversion missed, and A&M led at halftime.

While the Cowboy passing game was off, the ground game produced another Fenimore TD plunge in the third period, and Jim Reynolds opened the fourth stanza by leaping a yard for a score. Reynolds winged a 20-yard TD pass to Joe Thomas in the final minutes to end the wild scoring derby.

In his battle with Wedemeyer, Fenimore got the best of the total offense struggle, netting 206 yards in 36 plays while Wedemeyer had 184 yards in 25 plays. Fenimore also punted four times for an average of 53.2 yards.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Only 15,069 fans braved chilling weather in Crump Stadium as the William and Mary Indians made the most of Oklahoma A&M's mistakes for a 20-0 win in the second and final Delta Bowl.

The Indians never got outside their own 36-yard-line in the first half, but quarterback Tommy Korshcowski passed 12 yards to Lou Hoitsma in the third period for a touchdown. A Cowboy fumble set the stage for Korshcowski's 22-yard scoring aerial to Jack Bruce in the fourth period.

With A&M driving, Indian tackle Lou Creekmur picked off a deflected Bob Carey pass and rumbled 70 yards for the game's last tally. Jack Cloud was the only Indian rusher of the day, gaining 78 yards in 14 tries while Kenny Roof had 63 in seven cracks for the Aggies.

1958 Bluegrass Bowl December 13, 1958 | Louisville, Ky.

Oklahoma State	15
Florida State	6

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - Playing on a baseball diamond and in tennis shoes, Oklahoma State's ground game, behind Duane Wood and Forrest Campbell, staked the Pokes to a 15-point lead, and a rock-ribbed defense surrendered only a late TD pass from Joe Majors to Carl Meyer.

Wood scored both OSU touchdowns on rushes of one and 17 yards. But Campbell, who netted 130 yards on 26 carries, was chosen outstanding player of the game. Dick Soergel engineered the OSU offense while Vandiver Childs, Jim Howard, Sonny Keys, John Calvin and Fred Latham manned a mauling Cowpoke defense.

The game was televised over ABC-TV with Harry Wismer handling the play-by-play duties and Howard Cosell providing color commentary. Only 7,000 frigid fans turned out for the first and last edition of the Bluegrass Bowl.

1974 Fiesta Bowl December 28, 1974 | Tempe, Ariz.

Oklahoma State	16
Brigham Young	6

TEMPE, Ariz. - A slow-starting offense aided by a spunky defense lifted OSU to a 16-6 verdict over Brigham Young, champs of the WAC.

State didn't get a first down in the opening quarter as the Cougars posted a pair of field goals. Midway in the second period Charlie Weatherbie pitched to Kenny Walker, who scored from 12 yards out. OSU made three deep drives in the third period but settled for a single field goal, a 42-yarder by Abby Daigle.

After subduing a fourth-quarter Cougar drive at the OSU 28, the Pokes wedged their way past midfield in a time-consuming drive. Leonard Thompson then lofted the halfback pass to split end Gerald Bain for 40 yards and the clinching score.

State's Phillip Dokes decked Cougar quarterback Gary Shiede late in the first period with a jarring tackle which dampened BYU hopes but understudy Mark Giles almost bailed the Cougars out of trouble with his fourth-quarter efforts. Dokes picked up the outstanding defensive player trophy and Walker was chosen top offensive player as OSU dominated play in the second half.

Brigham Young	21
Oklahoma State	49

ORLANDO, Fla. - Billed as a showdown between Brigham Young pass-happy quarterback Gifford Nielsen and Oklahoma State running back Terry Miller, the Cowboy defense and Miller were the stand-outs in a 49-21 triumph for Oklahoma State.

Nielsen was intercepted four times, with defensive lineman Chris Dawson returning one 36 yards for a TD.

Meanwhile, Miller ran wild for 173 yards and had scoring jaunts of 78, 6, 3 and 1 yards. The Cowboys rolled up 402 yards total offense, including 375 on the ground, to rout BYU. Cowboy running back Robert Turner supported Miller's running with 80 yards on 22 attempts and a TD, and All-America tackle Phillip Dokes led a parade of OSU defenders that kept constant pressure on Nielsen.

SHREVEPORT, La. - Oklahoma State's nationally-ranked defense did its job for a while, but Texas A&M opened up late in the first half to score two quick touchdowns and went on to hand the Cowboys just their second bowl loss, 33-16, in the Independence Bowl.

OSU's opportunistic offense turned an Aggie fumble into a 7-0 lead only minutes into the game. Defensive back Pete DiClementi recovered a fumble for the Pokes on A&M's 25, and running back Ernest Anderson got the score several plays later on a one-yard plunge.

The Aggies responded with the first of four David Hardy field goals to cut the margin to 7-3, but all-Big Eight kicker Larry Roach put OSU back up by seven, 10-3, with a 43-yarder of his own. Midway through the second period, Hardy closed the margin to 10-6, and moments later the Aggies scored two lightning quick cross-country aerial touchdowns to move to a 20-10 halftime lead.

Two Hardy field goals upped that lead to 26-10 before the Cowboys drove 66 yards for Vince Orange's five-yard TD burst. OSU was crippled by injuries to several running backs during the contest, and A&M showed its versatility with 223 rushing yards and 225 passing yards before a record 47,300. Linebacker Mike Green led OSU's defense and was voted outstanding defensive player.

HOUSTON - Quarterback Rusty Hilger and tailback Ernest Anderson sparked Oklahoma State past Baylor, 24-14, as a near-sellout crowd of 50,090 in the Astrodome watched the 25th Bluebonnet Bowl.

Anderson carried the ball 27 times for 143 yards and a touchdown while Hilger completed 12-of-17 for 137 yards and a pair of touchdowns to ignite the Oklahoma State win. Hilger, who was later named MVP, left the game late in the first half with a slight concussion. He didn't return but Anderson's nifty running and another strong performance by the Cowboy defense kept Baylor at bay.

OSU held the Bears to just 134 yards on the ground and the Cowboy secondary picked off two passes to help seal the win. Touchdown passes from Hilger to Malcolm Lewis and Jamie Harris and a one-yard scoring run by Anderson gave OSU a 21-0 advantage before Baylor got on the scoreboard late in the first half.

The Pokes added a Larry Roach field goal in the first half while Baylor found the endzone an additional time in the second to complete the scoring.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - After South Carolina overcame a 13-point Oklahoma State lead, the Cowboys stormed 88 yards to score the decisive touchdown on a bruising, 25-yard Rusty Hilger-to-tight end Barry Hanna pass play with just over a minute left in the game to hand OSU a 21-14 victory before a record crowd of 82,138 in the 40th Annual Gator Bowl.

Hanna, who scored his only touchdown of the season on that play, banged off two tacklers and carried a few more into the end zone with him as he tip-toed down the sideline for the game-saving score.

Earlier in the game, the Cowpokes bullied their way to a 13-0 lead. Freshman tailback Thurman Thomas, the game's MVP when he rushed for 155 yards and a touchdown and passed for a TD, leaped over from one yard out at the end of O-State's first possession. Then, early in the second quarter when it appeared the Gamecocks had stalled the Cowpokes at the Carolina six-yard line,

Bowl Recaps

Thomas took a Hilger pitch, ran right and suddenly stopped and threw back left to a wide open Hilger for the score. The conversion attempt was wide and it was a play to haunt the Pokes until Hanna's heroics.

Carolina regained the lead quickly in the third quarter on aerial bombs of 24 and 57 yards, but the rest of the time the stubborn Cowboy defense kept the Gamecock attack in a fog. OSU's final drive was endangered only once, that on a fourth-and-sixth situation at midfield, but Hilger hit the reliable Hanna for 13 yards to the Carolina 36. Hilger mixed up the defense beautifully by sending Thomas up the middle on a draw play for 11 yards and then came heart-stopping magic on the TD pass to Hanna.

Oklahoma State	23
Florida State	34

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The 17th-ranked Florida State Seminoles sprinted out to an early 13-point margin before No. 18 Oklahoma State got untracked, and despite a third-quarter surge, the Seminole aerial attack was too much as the Cowboys dropped a 34-23 decision in front of a bi-partisan crowd of 79,417 in the 41st annual Gator Bowl.

In what was touted as an explosive FSU offense versus a stingy OSU defense, FSU coach Bobby Bowden decided to go with a freshman quarterback and a third-string senior tailback just two weeks prior to the game. The decision proved effective as the Seminoles exploded for 569 total yards, 231 on the ground and 338 through the air.

FSU stunned the Pokes with a 45-yard pass on the first play of the game and threw for 214 yards in the opening half. The Seminoles took a 27-3 lead into the middle of the third quarter but OSU put a pair of quick touchdowns on the board to cut the deficit to 27-17.

Following a blocked punt by OSU freshman Milton Cockrell a comeback seemed possible. However, the Cowboys could not mount a drive and were forced to punt.

Florida State MVP quarterback Chip Ferguson then went to work again and nine plays later finalized the scoring on a one-yard keeper. OSU, losing for only the third time in ten postseason appearances, totaled 369 yards, but saw sophomore sensation Thurman Thomas limited to just 97 yards on 26 carries.

1987 Sun Bowl December 25, 1987 | El Paso, Texas

Oklahoma State	35
West Virginia	33

EL PASO, Texas - In one of the most entertaining postseason games of the year, Oklahoma State rallied to defeat West Virginia 35-33 in the snow of the 1987 John Hancock Sun Bowl.

The heroes for Oklahoma State were many but the list was topped by tailback Thurman Thomas who rushed for 157 yards on 33 carries and scored four touchdowns. It was a fitting way for the Cowboy All-American to end his collegiate career. He was named MVP of the bowl and played in front of a national television audience on CBS.

It wasn't easy for OSU, however. The Cowboys scored first on a five-yard run by Thomas, set up by a long Mike Gundy-to-Hart Lee Dykes pass play. West Virginia tied it 7-7 later in the first quarter, but OSU came back to take the lead 14-7 on a nine-yard run by Thomas.

The OSU lead was short-lived. West Virginia scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the second quarter that went unanswered by Oklahoma State and the Mountaineers led 24-14 at the half.

Bowl Recaps

The Cowboys took the lead with 1:43 left in the third quarter on a six-yard pass from Gundy to J.R. Dillard and the successful PAT made it 28-27. The Cowboys took a 35-27 lead in the fourth quarter on a four-yard run by Thomas. O-State had to hold one more time, however, as West Virginia drove for a touchdown with just 1:13 left. OSU defender Shawn Mackey's goal line tackle on the two-point conversion try stopped West Virginia from tying the game in the final minute.

1988 Holiday Bowl December 30, 1988 | San Diego

Wyoming

SAN DIEGO - Touted as one of the great offensive showdowns of the '88 season, Oklahoma State and Wyoming found themselves in a 7-7 deadlock at the conclusion of the first quarter of the Sea World Holiday Bowl.

But one set of Cowboys, the group from Stillwater, forged a 17-7 lead at halftime and broke the contest wide open in the third quarter on their way to a 62-14 romp. OSU's high-powered offense was as explosive as ever, as the trio of Heisman winner Barry Sanders, All-American Hart Lee Dykes and Mike Gundy joined forces for the last time in front of a crowd of 60,718 at Jack Murphy Stadium.

Sanders rushed for 222 yards on 29 carries with five touchdowns - all Holiday Bowl records. Dykes broke the Holiday Bowl record for reception yardage, as he caught 10 passes for 163 yards, including a 25-yard strike from Gundy in the fourth quarter. Gundy completed 20-of-24 passes for 315 yards and two touchdowns and caught a 17-yard pass from Sanders to set up another score.

Not only bowl records fell, though. Gundy's 315 yards through the air set a school record, and the Cowboys' 698 yards in total offense was the third-highest output in OSU history. OSU's defense proved to be the biggest surprise of the contest, however, as they allowed Wyoming only 33 yards rushing and 204 yards in total offense. Sim Drain, named the Defensive Player of the Game, had four tackles and two sacks and led the OSU defense to its lowest yardage allowance since 1986.

SAN ANTONIO - Oklahoma State earned its first postseason appearance since 1988 and a berth opposite Purdue in the Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

It was tight through three quarters before Purdue sprinted past the Cowboys by a 33-20 margin. More than 55,000 were in the Alamo Dome, including 30,000-plus Orange-clad Cowboys fans.

Oklahoma State drew first blood when Tim Sydnies connected on a 34-yard field goal with 5:31 left in the first quarter. The lead was short-lived, however, as Purdue scored on an 18-yard pass from Billy Dicken with 1:19 left in the initial quarter. Another Sydnies field goal brought OSU to within one, 7-6 before Purdue ended the first-half scoring with a field goal of its own and a 10-6 halftime advantage.

Bowl Recaps

The second half opened with the teams trading touchdowns. Purdue scored first at the 12:02 mark on a one-yard run by Dicken. OSU answered with a 21-yard run by Jamaal Fobbs and trailed by a 16-13 margin with nine minutes left in the third. Purdue put the game away with two straight touchdowns and a 37-yard field goal. The Boiler-makers led 33-13 when R.W. McQuarters scored on a 17-yard pass from Tony Lindsay with 55 seconds to play to account for the final margin.

DALLAS - Eli Manning threw for 259 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score to lead No. 16 Mississippi to a 31-28 victory over No. 21 Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl on Friday.

Manning's 1-yard keeper in the fourth quarter capped a 97-yard drive, and completed a run of 24 straight points by Ole Miss (10-3), which finished with its first 10-win season since 1971. That was just enough to overcome the Cowboys (9-4).

Rashaun Woods caught a 17-yard TD pass to get Oklahoma State to 31-28 with 4:38 left, just four minutes after Vernand Morency's second touchdown run.

Woods set Cotton Bowl records with 11 catches for 223 yards. On the 72-yard drive that ended with Morency's second TD, he caught two passes for 63 yards, both on plays when cornerback Travis Johnson was called for pass interference and still couldn't prevent the catches.

Oklahoma State's Josh Fields set a Cotton Bowl record with 307 yards on 21-of-33 passing. The junior's touchdown gave him 55 in his career, breaking the school record set by offensive coordinator Mike Gundy (1986-89).

The appearance at the Cotton Bowl was the first for the Cowboys since Jan. 1, 1945 and it marked OSU's first January bowl game since Jan. 1, 1946 when the Cowboys won the Sugar Bowl.

SAN ANTONIO - Justin Zwick, replacing the suspended Troy Smith, threw for 189 yards and a touchdown, and Ted Ginn Jr. and Lydell Ross each scored, leading No. 24 Ohio State to a 33-7 win over Oklahoma State in the 12th annual Alamo Bowl.

Zwick, who lost the starting job to Smith after hurting his shoulder in the sixth game, completed 17 of 27 passes despite a mild hamstring pull.

Ross rushed for 99 yards on 12 carries, and Mike Nugent kicked four field goals for the Buckeyes (8-4) to become the school's career scoring leader.

The Buckeyes took advantage of two early turnovers, and never let the Cowboys (7-5) get anything going offensively.

Oklahoma State quarterback Donovan Woods completed 15 of 34 passes for 137 yards and rushed for another 80 yards. Vernand Morency, one of the nation's top rushers this season, was limited to 24 yards on eight carries.

On the first series, Woods underthrew receiver Chijuan Mack and the pass was picked off by Ohio State linebacker Bobby Carpenter. Three plays later, Zwick hit a diving Anthony Gonzalez with a 23-yard touchdown pass.

After a 37-yard field goal by Nugent, the Cowboys were driving when Woods lost his grip on the ball near midfield while trying to run up the middle. Defensive lineman Joel Penton recovered and Nugent capped the drive with a 35-yard field goal to give Ohio State a 13-0 lead with nearly six minutes remaining in the first quarter.

SHREVEPORT, La. - Oklahoma State's dominating performance was jeopardized by a couple of late mistakes, but OSU still rallied past Alabama for its first bowl win since the 2002 season.

Jason Ricks kicked a 27-yard field goal with 8.9 seconds remaining to give Oklahoma State a 34-31 victory over the Crimson Tide. Dantrell Savage ran for 112 yards and a touchdown and made the key play on the winning drive as he took a screen pass from Bobby Reid for 26 yards on third-and-9 to the Alabama 15 to put Ricks in prime position.

Alabama tried to ice Ricks with three timeouts, but the sophomore sent the kick through the uprights.

OSU - ranked 16th nationally in total offense - outgained Alabama, 419-276. The Cowboys rushed for 207 yards compared to 108 yards for the Tide. The Cowboys scooped up an Alabama fumble on the Tide's 38-yard line to set up the opening score. Savage ran the final yard to cap a 38-yard drive and make it 7-0 Oklahoma State.

Alabama tied it on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Matt Caddell with 3:32 remaining in the first quarter, but OSU went ahead 14-7 on Toston's 4-yard run. The Cowboys stretched their lead to 17-7 on a 28-yard field goal by Ricks. Alabama cut the margin to 17-14 on a 1-yard run by fullback Tim Castille but was unable to stop the Cowboys final drive of the half. Oklahoma State took it 64 yards, capped by a 7-yard run by Toston for a 24-14 lead at the half.

In the third quarter Jamie Christensen kicked a 24 yard field goal to pull Alabama three points closer before Reid hit Adarius Bowman for a 10-yard score to give Oklahoma State a 14 point lead at 31-17. Keith Toston became the first Cowboy true freshman to run for two touchdowns in a bowl game.

OSU scored touchdowns on its first five offensive possessions and generated 322 yards of offense in the first half on its way to a 49-33 victory over Indiana in the Cowboys' second bowl win in two seasons.

Zac Robinson, offensive MVP, ran for 70 yards and passed for 302 in one of the top total offense outputs in Oklahoma State history. Freshman Dez Bryant had 117 receiving yards and two touchdowns in the win.

The Cowboys gouged the Hoosiers with five scoring drives, all less than four minutes in length, to take complete control of the game in the first half.

2008 Holiday Bowl December 30, 2008 | San Diego

Oklahoma State
Oregon

SAN DIEGO - Oklahoma State quarterback Zac Robinson passed for a Cowboy bowl-record 329 yards despite playing most of the second half with a separated throwing shoulder and receiver Dez Bryant set a new Holiday Bowl record with 13 receptions for 167 yards and a touchdown despite badly injuring his left ankle in the second quarter, but it was not enough to push the Cowboys to victory over No. 15 Oregon, who won the 2008 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl, 42-31.

Behind Robinson and Bryant, the Cowboys raced out to a 17-7 lead after the first quarter, but the game changed when Bryant went down with his injury in the second. Neither team was able to muster any points in the second quarter, but a 91-yard kick return by Oregon's Walter Thurmond to open the second half led to a 1-yard touchdown run by Duck quarterback Jeremiah Masoli. Oregon took the lead later in the quarter after Masoli struck with a 41-yard touchdown run.

Playing with a debilitating shoulder injury for most of the third quarter and the entire fourth quarter, Robinson was gutsy in bringing the Cowboys back for two more touchdown drives, but the Oregon defense made the stops it needed down the stretch to seal the Duck victory.

Bowl Recaps

Oregon was clearly the more physical team on both sides of the ball, with running back Jeremiah Johnson (119 rushing yards) and Masoli (106 rushing yards) both crossing the century mark in the game.

Playing after having his knee scoped after the regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma, Cowboy running back Kendall Hunter was clearly not himself with 13 carries for only 37 yards. He did punch in a pair of touchdowns from three yards and four yards, respectively.

2010 Cotton Bowl

ARLINGTON, Texas - In a game dominated by defense from the start, Mississippi was a 21-7 winner over Oklahoma State in the 2010 Cotton Bowl Classic. It was the first Cotton Bowl game played at the brand-new Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

Oklahoma State's defense recorded a goal-line stand and forced five turnovers (four interceptions and one fumble recovery), but it was not enough to overcome OSU's seven turnovers.

Senior linebacker Andre Sexton earned the game's defensive most valuable player honor by bagging 10 tackles, one tackle for loss and two interceptions. Seniors Lucien Antoine and Terrance Anderson also added interceptions and defensive end Jeremiah Price recovered a fumble.

While the defense played well enough to win on most days, the OSU offense had trouble solving Ole Miss's defense. The Cowboys went three-and-out on each of their first five drives and finished the game with only nine first downs.

OSU's lone score came on a one-yard pass from running back Keith Toston to tight end Wilson Youman in the third quarter that tied the game at 7-7.

It was all Rebels from that point, however, as the Rebels scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns and forced Cowboy turnovers on each of OSU's six possessions in the final stanza to derail the Cowboys' comeback hopes.

SAN ANTONIO - Oklahoma State capped its magical 2010 season with a 36-10 win over Arizona at the Alamo Bowl. With the victory over the Wildcats, OSU put the finishing touches on the first 11-win season in school history.

Cowboy receiver Justin Blackmon earned Alamo Bowl Offensive MVP honors after making nine catches for 117 yards and two touchdowns and safety Markelle Martin was the Defensive MVP of the game with a 62-yard interception for a score to go with four tackles and two pass breakups.

While the Oklahoma State offense - ranked No. 1 in the nation in total offense - got all the headlines and attention going into the game, it was the Cowboy defense that carried the day. OSU held the potent Arizona attack 20 points and 75 yards below its season averages. Additionally, the Cowboys forced four Wildcat turnovers and limited Arizona to 90 yards rushing.

In addition to Martin's Defensive MVP performance, OSU linebacker Orie Lemon finished with 14 tackles in helping lead a Cowboy defense that held Arizona to 10 points in the contest - the fewest points OSU had allowed in a bowl game since BYU mustered only six points against the Cowboys in the 1974 Fiesta Bowl.

Bowl Recaps

The Pokes jumped on the Wildcats early and held a 23-7 lead at the 12:33 mark of the second quarter. Arizona never threatened Oklahoma State as the Cowboys tacked on another touchdown and two more field goals in the second half.

2012 Fiesta Bowl January 2, 2012 | Glendale, Ariz.

GLENDAL, Ariz. - In a thrilling end to the 2011 season, No. 3 Oklahoma State was a 41-38 overtime winner over No. 4 Stanford in the Fiesta Bowl.

The Cowboys never led in the game until the deciding 22-yard field goal from Quinn Sharp split the up-rights in overtime, but they continually answered scoring drives from the potent Cardinal offense headlined by a two-time Heisman runner-up in quarterback Andrew Luck to stay within striking range.

Receiver Justin Blackmon earned offensive MVP honors after making nine catches for 186 yards and a Fiesta Bowl-record three touchdown receptions. Perhaps his most important catch of the game was not a touchdown, but rather a 21-yard catch on fourth and three late in the game that set up the game-tying touchdown run by Joseph Randle that sent the game into overtime.

The Pokes held Stanford off the scoreboard on its final possession of regulation when Cardinal kicker Jordan Williamson hooked a 35-yard field goal at attempt wide left with no time on the clock. Williamson missed from 43 yards out in overtime to set up OSU's winning drive.

Cowboy quarterback Brandon Weeden connected with one-time walk-on Colton Chelf for a 24-yard reception on the second play of OSU's overtime possession and when the officials signaled a touchdown, the Cowboy bench erupted with a mass of bodies spilling onto the field. The call was eventually reversed, sending everyone back to the sideline. Weeden then took a knee in the middle of the field to set up Sharp's game winner.

Bowl Recaps

2013 Heart of Dallas Bowl January 1, 2013 | Dallas

Purdue
Oklahoma State

14

DALLAS - Oklahoma State secured its third consecutive postseason victory when it steamrolled to a 58-14 win over Purdue in the Heart of Dallas Bowl played at Cotton Bowl Stadium.

The most popular storyline entering the game was the question of if the Cowboys, who tied for third in the Big 12, would be motivated to face a Purdue squad that needed wins in each of its final three regular-season games just to secure bowl eligibility. OSU answered that question emphatically by jumping out to a 45-0 lead before finally surrendering a Boilermaker touchdown late in the third quarter.

Another primary question entering the contest was if the Cowboy offense could operate smoothly without coordinator and playcaller Todd Monken, who left the team to take the head coaching position at Southern Miss after the regular season ended. With head coach Mike Gundy stepping in to call plays, OSU answered the doubters by registering the most lopsided margin of victory in any game during the 2012 bowl season.

The Cowboy offense had little trouble putting points on the board, thanks largely to the OSU defense snatching a season-high five turnovers in the contest and regularly setting the offense up with favorable field position.

ARLINGTON, Texas - Trailing by three points with one minute left in the game, Oklahoma State drove to the Missouri 23 and was in position to either tie or take the lead, but a sack by Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year Michael Sam generated a fumble that was recovered by Shane Ray and returned 73 yards for a touchdown to cap the Tigers' 41-31 win over Oklahoma State in the 2014 AT&T Cotton Bowl.

For the most part, both teams' respective defenses controlled the game, with Missouri holding a 17-14 lead after three quarters. The offenses got uncorked in a wild fourth quarter, however, with the two teams combining for 41 points, two ties and four lead changes in the final stanza alone.

OSU quarterback Clint Chelf set an AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic record with 377 passing yards, and with 151 passing yards and 60 rushing yards coming in the fourth quarter, Chelf appeared poised to lead the Cowboys to victory on that final drive, but Sam's sack changed everything.

OSU's most recognizable players were at the forefront in the game, with consensus All-America cornerback Justin Gilbert recording an interception, receiver Tracy Moore making seven catches for 100 yards (including a diving, fully-extended grab late in the game that may have been the best catch of his career), and Josh Stewart adding eight catches for 80 yards and a touchdown. Safety Daytawion Lowe broke up a career-high three passes and defensive tackle Calvin Barnett had two tackles for loss and a sack.

Though the game marked the 52nd all-time meeting between the two longtime Big Eight and Big 12 rivals, it was the first in a bowl game following Missouri's move to the SEC in 2012.

The Cowboys established themselves as the aggressor early on, racing to a 24-0 lead at halftime, thanks largely to a passing attack that amassed 220 yards in the first two quarters. Rudolph connected on long touchdown passes to James Washington and Brandon Sheperd.

Washington got back in it during the second half and held significant momentum at the time of Castleman's long reception. The Huskies got the ball back with 43 seconds remaining in the game with a chance to potentially tie the game, but an interception by cornerback Kevin Peterson at the OSU 36 yard line sealed the Cowboy victory.

NEW ORLEANS - Oklahoma State had chances to assert itself as the aggressor early on, but the opportunities got away and Ole Miss then took charge en route to claiming a 48-20 win over the Big 12 runner-up Cowboys in the Mercedes Benz Superdome.

Playing in front of a very partisan Ole Miss crowd, OSU forced a turnover on the opening possession of the game and started its second drive in Ole Miss territory, but was only able to muster three points from those two opening possessions. From that point on, the Rebels rattled off 27 unanswered points - 24 of which came in the second quarter - and put the game out of reach.

The Ole Miss defense controlled the trenches, racking up 12 tackles for loss and limiting Oklahoma State to 63 rushing yards, 74 of which came from quarterback J.W. Walsh. OSU's running backs had a combined 14 carries for 15 yards in the game and the Rebels recorded three sacks.

The stars of the game were Ole Miss quarterback Chad Kelly, who completed 21-of-33 passes for 302 yards and four touchdowns, and receiver Laquon Treadwell, who caught three touchdown passes from Kelly. That said, the Rebels used a balanced passing attack that included three receivers who racked up at least 70 yards through the air.

SAN ANTONIO - This one was never in doubt. It didn't matter that Colorado was the champion of the Pac-12 South division. It didn't matter that the Buffaloes were the higher-ranked team in the College Football Playoff standings (the Buffs were No. 10 and Oklahoma State was No. 12). It didn't matter that Colorado was favored to win by the Las Vegas oddsmakers. The Cowboys owned the trenches on both sides of the ball and were the more physical team by a landslide.

How dominant was Oklahoma State? The Cowboys held a 30-0 lead with under six minutes remaining in the fourth quarter before Colorado scored its first points of the game.

Going in, the game was billed as one of the best matchups of the 2016 bowl season. It was the only game outside of the New Year's Six bowls that matched a pair of top-15 opponents. The highlighted matchup was Oklahoma State's explosive pass offense against a Colorado pass defense that entered the game ranked third in the FBS in pass efficiency defense and 13th in the nation by allowing only 182.5 passing yards per game. It was strength vs. strength.

What actually happened was much different than the pundits expected. Three of CU's four starters in the secondary earned All-Pac-12 honors, so the Buffs were comfortable in trying to single-cover

OSU's standout receiver James Washington. That was proven to be a mistake, as Washington hauled in nine receptions for 171 yards in not even three full quarters of play (he had to leave early due to a hand injury suffered in the game). Quarterback Mason Rudolph carved the vaunted Buffaloes secondary up, completing 22-of-32 passes for 314 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

The Cowboy defense was equally dominant, pitching a shutout for more than 53 minutes and holding the Buffs to 62 rushing yards on 29 attempts (2.1 yards per carry.).

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) - Mason Rudolph threw for 351 yards and a pair of touchdowns on his way to winning game MVP honors, James Washington had a long touchdown grab and became Oklahoma State's career receiving yards leader, and the 17th-ranked Cowboys beat No. 22 Virginia Tech 30-21 in the Camping World Bowl.

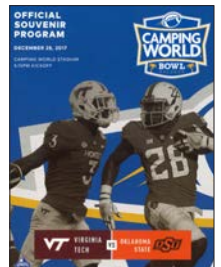

Washington caught five passes for 126 yards, giving him 4,472 for his career and passing Rashaun Woods for the school mark. Justice Hill ran for 120 yards and another score for the Cowboys (10-3).

Josh Jackson ran for two scores and threw for another for the Hokies (9-4), including a rush that got Virginia Tech within 27-21 with 5:40 remaining. Deshaun McCleese ran for 124 yards, a Virginia Tech season-best, but the Hokies were hurt by two turnovers in Oklahoma State territory.

Hill came through with perhaps the play of the night. Facing a third-and-11 with 3:30 left, Hill took a handoff, went left, waited for a lane to open -- and broke loose for a 31-yard gain down to the Hokies' 18. Matt Ammendola's 38-yard field goal with 2:34 left put the Cowboys up by nine, essentially sealing the outcome.

Virginia Tech actually outgained the high-octane Cowboys, 518 yards to 492.

A pair of big missed Hokie opportunities helped Oklahoma State take a 13-7 lead at the break. An 18-play, 10-minute drive that got to the Oklahoma

But the pass was overthrown, the Hokies never led again, and Rudolph and Washington got the winning ending they sought.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Taylor Cornelius tied a Liberty Bowl record with four touchdown passes and Kolby Peel made a critical fourth-down stop with 1:01 left as Oklahoma State edged No. 23 Missouri 38-33 in the 2018 Liberty Bowl.

Missouri faced fourth-and-1 when quarterback Drew Lock attempted a keeper around the right end. Peel made an ankle tackle that stopped Lock short of the first-down marker.

That allowed Oklahoma State to hang on to win a game it had led 35-19 heading into the fourth quarter. The Cowboys snapped Missouri's four-game winning streak.

Cornelius, a fifth-year senior and former walk-on, went 26 of 44 with four touchdown passes and two interceptions by Cam Hilton that sparked Missouri's comeback try. Both interceptions led to Missouri touchdowns.

Missouri's Larry Rountree III ran for 204 yards, including a 55-yard touchdown. Missouri's Johnathon Johnson had nine catches for 185 yards, including an 86-yard score. Lock was 23 of 38 for 373 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Chuba Hubbard rushed for 145 yards and a touchdown for Oklahoma State. Tyron Johnson had seven catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns.

Missouri wasted two chances to take the lead in the fourth quarter. Oklahoma State was clinging to a 35-33 lead when Mike Scott blocked Tucker McCann's 42-yard field goal attempt with 9:22 left.

The blocked field goal came after a foiled fake-punt attempt by OSU gave Missouri the ball at the Cowboys' 32-yard line.

The Cowboys won while playing at far less than full strength. Oklahoma State's offense was missing leading rusher Justice Hill and guard Larry Williams, who sat out the bowl game to prepare for the NFL draft. Its defense was short-handed after losing cornerbacks Rodarius Williams and Kemah Siverand to targeting penalties — Williams in the first quarter and Siverand early in the fourth period — and safety Malcolm Rodriguez to a second-quarter injury.
