COVERING THE COWBOYS

MEDIA INFORMATION AND POLICIES

The Oklahoma State athletic communications office welcomes you to another season of Cowboy wrestling. The communications staff is here to assist members of the media in their coverage of Oklahoma State athletics. Please take a moment to become familiar with the following media policies.

CREDENTIALS

Members of the media should contact Jake LeForce in the Oklahoma State media relations office to request credentials to OSU wrestling duals (jake.leforce@okstate.edu or 405-830-9924). Credentials can be picked up at the southeast pass gate of Gallagher-Iba Arena on match days. Credential pickup will be available one hour prior to the start of each dual and will close five minutes before the duals begins.

INTERVIEWS

Media interview requests for Oklahoma State head coach John Smith, assistant coaches and wrestlers should be directed to Jake LeForce in the OSU media relations office. Coaches and wrestlers are typically available for interviews before practice starts on Wednesday (usually around 2 p.m. CT), but other arrangements can be made.

MEDIA PARKING

Members of the media attending duals at Gallagher-Iba Arena should park in the lot just south of Boone Pickens Stadium. The entrance to the lot is off Knoblock Street. No parking pass is necessary for entry into the lot.

VISITING RADIO, PHONE LINES

Phone lines will be provided to the primary radio broadcast crews for both the Cowboys and the visiting team. Additional lines are available to the media on a first-come, first-serve basis.

PHOTOS AND VIDEO

Photographers may shoot from the east and west sides of the mat, but are prohibited from shooting in front of either team's bench. Photographers and videographers must stay seated while shooting to avoid obstructing fans' views.

COWBOYS ON THE AIR

Rex Holt is in his 40th year broadcasting Oklahoma State Cowboy Wrestling. OSU wrestling can be heard on its primary home of 93.7 KSPI-FM radio in Stillwater. Occasional events are aired on 105.5 KGFY-FM should programming conflicts arise. Any time the Cowboys are on the air, the live broadcast can also be accessed live on the official website of OSU athletics, www.okstate.com.

REVAMPED COWBOY LINEUP LOOKING TO RECAPTURE CHAMPIONSHIP PEDIGREE

The Oklahoma State wrestling team enters the 2023-24 season looking to re-establish itself among the nation's elite following a tough finish at last year's NCAA Championships. With new faces scattered across the roster, OSU possesses the pieces to quickly surpass its No. 12 placement in Intermat's preseason dual meet rankings.

The Cowboys put together a solid 14-3 regular season that saw them ranked as high as sixth in the country before injuries plagued the starting lineup late in the year. Oklahoma State placed second at the Big 12 Championships and crowned two individual champions before sending a full lineup to the NCAAs for the first time since 2017. Daton Fix became the 15th four-time All-American in program history while Dustin Plott earned his second straight sixth-place finish as the Cowboys tied for 18th at NCAA Championships at the BOK Center in Tulsa.

In 2023-24, Oklahoma State's schedule features 16 total duals, nine inside Gallagher-Iba Arena and an overseas trip to Italy for a matchup with a challenging ACC opponent. Of the Cowboys 16 duals, a whopping 14 of their opponents were ranked in Intermat's preseason dual meet rankings, with eight of those ranked matchups being held in Stillwater.

The Pokes are set for half a dozen duals prior to the turn of the calendar year., highlighted by the first round of Bedlam in Norman, a return trip to Minnesota and a unique battle with sixth-ranked NC State at Naval Air Station Sigonella in Sicily, Italy. Four ranked opponents will visit Gallagher-Iba Arena in a two-week span, including a chance to avenge last season's loss to No. 10 Iowa State. The Cowboys will hit the road for one final road test at No. 3 Missouri, the highest-ranked opponent on OSU's schedule, before returning home for a pair of rivalry duals to end the season. Oklahoma State will look for its 27th-straight home victory against the Sooners on senior night ahead of a regular season finale with No. 8 Iowa. Postseason action once again begins with the Big 12 Championships at the BOK Center in Tulsa, where the Pokes will aim to regain their spot atop the conference. Two weeks later, OSU will conclude its season with the NCAA Championships at the T-Mobile Center in Kansas City, Mo.

Returning All-Americans Daton Fix and Dustin Plott headline the Oklahoma State lineup, but a number of newcomers and returning starters have the capability to make some major noise this season.

Leading the lower weights, Fix will target the individual title that has narrowly escaped in his four previous trips to the NCAA Championships. In addition to his title chase, Fix also enters his final season in an orange singlet with a chance to become the first five-time All-American in program history. Fix has compiled an impressive career record of 102-6, including a 30-2 mark in last year's campaign that ended with a fourth-place national finish, and enters the season as the consensus No. 2 wrestler at 133 pounds behind reigning individual champion Vito Arujau of Cornell.

Surrounding Fix, Oklahoma State possesses perhaps its deepest team in the past few years as a handful of newcomers and returners fight for coveted spots in the lineup. After starting last season at 133 pounds and moving down a class mid-season to fill a need, Reece Witcraft looks to capitalize on his first full season at 125 pounds. Witcraft went 20-12 on the season before taking third at the Big 12 Championships without a seed and appeared at NCAAs for the second time in his career. To maintain his spot in the lineup, Witcraft must beat out Troy Spratley, who posted an 8-2 record while redshirting at Minnesota last year. Spratley was a co-champion at the Bison Open as the No. 7 seed and made his dual debut in Minnesota's home opener against Binghampton, picking up a 4-3 decision over 2021 national qualifier Micah Roes.

A new face will likely take the reins at 141 pounds as transfers Sammy Alvarez and Tagen Jamison look to grasp the starting role. Alvarez spent the past four seasons at Rutgers, where he had a 50-14 career record and was named a NWCA Second Team All-American in 2020. As a senior, he was ranked as high as No. 8 in the nation with a 13-2 record before transferring to OSU in January. Meanwhile, Jamison also arrives in Stillwater from Minnesota, but was unable to compete last year due to an injury sustained in the preseason, forcing him to redshirt. In high school, Jamison was a four-time state finalist with individual wins at the UIL Texas state championship as a sophomore and senior.

At 149 pounds, Jordan Williams will look to make a splash after going 8-7 throughout his redshirt freshman season. In Williams, the Cowboys possess a three-time Fargo national champion and the 12th-ranked overall recruit by FloWrestling in the Class of 2022. In a nod to the team's competitive depth, Williams is joined at the weight class by Carter Young, who posted a 27-23 record while starting at 141 pounds over the past two seasons. Young has qualified for the NCAA Championships in back-to-back seasons, but head coach John Smith has said the junior may benefit from a year of training while redshirting.

Returners Jalin Harper, Daniel Manibog and Teague Travis will compete for the starting job at 157 pounds after the departure of Kaden Gfeller. This season marks Harper's sixth season in Stillwater, who owns a 39-19 career record with eight dual starts. Another veteran, Manibog has wrestled to a 32-17 record throughout his career while appearing in a pair of duals. Although he's never appeared in a dual, Travis impressed last season at 149 pounds with a 17-2 record in open tournaments and collected first-place finishes at the Viking Open and Roger Denker Open.

Northern Illinois transfer Izzak Olejnik leads the 165-pounders following an impressive four-year run with the Huskies. With a 92-26 career record, Olejnik qualified to the NCAA Championships in each the past four seasons and earned All-America honors with an eighth-place finish in 2023. He was named the MAC Freshman of the Year in 2020 and was a two-time MAC individual champion. Behind Olejnik is experienced veteran Joey Sanchez and freshman Jaxen Wright.

Dustin Plott had been a star in the Cowboy lineup at 174 pounds, but bumped up to 184 pounds in the offseason. After winning an individual Big 12 title and placing sixth at NCAAs in each of the past two seasons, Plott has higher goals for his senior year and looks to capture his first individual national championship. In October, Plott gained valuable world-level experience while competing for the United States at the U23 World Championships in Tirana, Albania.

With Plott moving weights, standout true freshman Brayden Thompson hopes to cement his spot at 174 pounds. According to FloWrestling, Thompson was the No. 3 pound-for-pound wrestler and top 182-pounder in the class of 2023 at the time of his signing. He put together a career record of 152-11 in high school and was a member of the U20 USA World Team in 2023. AJ Heeg, Dax Hughes, Benjamin Mower and Blake Skidgel all join Thompson at the weight class.

Luke Surber looks to take the next step at 197 pounds after qualifying for the NCAA Championships in back-to-back seasons. In 2023, Surber went 23-10 with a dozen ranked victories, including a key upset over top-ranked Rocky Elam of Missouri. Surber enters his senior season as the No. 10 197-pounder in FloWrestling's preseason rankings.

Returning starter Konner Doucet and decorated true freshman Christian Carroll will compete for the heavyweight spot in perhaps the most intriguing starting battle on the team. Doucet, a 2023 NCAA qualifier, went 18-12 in his first season as a starter, while Carroll entered Stillwater as the No. 1 pound-for-pound wrestler in the class of 2023 and recently competed at the U20 World Championships in August.

OKLAHOMA STATE
WRESTLING

JOHN SMITH

HEAD COACH | 33RD YEAR
OKLAHOMA STATE, 1988

John Smith is a name synonymous with wrestling success.

The Oklahoma State head coach won six consecutive world championships as a competitor from 1987-92, including gold medals at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul and at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. Additionally, he owns five national championships as head coach of the Cowboys.

Now in his 33rd year, Smith accepted the head coaching position at Oklahoma State in 1992 and the numbers and accomplishments since that time speak for themselves. He has led his alma mater to five NCAA team titles in 1994, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006, and he has coached 33 NCAA individual champions and five Olympians. Under his watch, the Cowboys have brought 21 team conference tournament championships, two Big 12 regular season titles and 131 individual conference titles back to Stillwater. He has seen his student-athletes earn All-America recognition 152 times, an average of 4.7 All-America honorees per year. Smith also has coached two Hodge Trophy recipients in Alex Dieringer and Steve Mocco.

He was recognized as the National Wrestling Coaches Association coach of the year in 1994 and 2003 and is a 15-time selection as his conference's coach of the year (1994 and 1996 in the Big Eight and 1997, 1998, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011, 2013 2014, 2015 and 2016 in the Big 12).

Smith is OSU's all-time winningest coach with a dual record of 476-72-6. His 476 dual wins is the most among active coaches and third overall at the Division I level, only behind Harold Nichols (492) and Dale Thomas (616).

In his most recent season, the 2022-23 campaign saw Daton Fix and Dustin Plott win Big 12 individual title and make it to the podium at NCAA's for the second straight season. Fix became the 10th wrestler to win four individual conference championships and just the 15th four-time All-American in program history, while surpassing 100 career wins during the NCAA tournament. After starting the season ranked No. 11, the Cowboys went 14-3 in the regular season, which included upsets over No. 6 Michigan and No. 8 Missouri. The Pokes would go on to place second at the Big 12 Championships and 18th at the NCAA Championships in Tulsa.

Prior to 2022, Oklahoma State had finished in the top three in four of the five NCAA Championships dating back to 2016. Third-place finishes in 2019 and 2021 came after undefeated dual seasons and Big 12 tournament titles that were a part of the nine consecutive championships from 2013 to 2021. In both seasons, the Cowboys had a pair of finalists, with Fix taking second place at 133 pounds in both instances, while Derek White took runner-up at heavyweight in 2019 and AJ Ferrari won the 197-pound bracket as a true freshman in 2021. The Cowboys also went 13-3 during the shortened 2020 season, crowning three individual conference champions and had eight named All-Americans by the NWCA after the NCAA Championships were cancelled due to COVID-19.

Another highlight came in 2017 as Smith guided the Pokes to a 14-1 regular season record before running away with the conference title by claiming eight individual conference champions to mark the most in his tenure. Eight Cowboys would also earn All-America honors that season, led by Dean Heil who won his second NCAA championship at 141 pounds.

From 2013 to 2017, OSU collected two NCAA runner-up finishes (2013, 2016), two third-place finishes (2014, 2017) and a seventh-place finish (2015). During that time, Oklahoma State had 36 individual conference champions, eight individual national champions and 30 All-Americans. Smith coached Alex Dieringer to NCAA titles in 2014, '15 and '16, which included him being named the Dan Hodge Trophy winner in 2016. He also saw his nephew, Chris Perry, win back-to-back NCAA titles at 174 pounds in 2013 and 2014.

Outside of 2007 and 2009, the Cowboys won more than 82% of their duals each season between 2007 and 2012. During that time, Jordan Oliver captured three national titles and had a runner-up finish as he became the 13th four-time All-American at OSU. Smith led the team to Big 12 tournament titles in 2010 and 2011, while claiming the regular season Big 12 dual match championship with a 17-1 record in the 2012 campaign.

As consistent as the program has been under his leadership, the highlight of Smith's tenure came when he led OSU to four consecutive NCAA team championships from 2003 through 2006.

The 2003 squad compiled a perfect 17-0 dual meet record, won the Big 12 team title, crowned six individual Big 12 champions and featured a pair of NCAA individual champions in Johnny Thompson and Jake Rosholt.

The NCAA champion Chris Pendleton-led squad sported a 17-2 dual meet record, won the Big 12 team title and crowned four individual Big 12 champions in 2004.

Under Smith's watch, Oklahoma State compiled a 21-0 dual meet record in 2005. That team capped the season with one of the most dominant showings in the history of the NCAA Championships when an NCAA-record five Cowboys were crowned NCAA champions. Zack Esposito won at 149 with Johny Hendricks

2012 - Jordan Oliver finished second at 133, Chris Perry finished third at 174 and Cayle Byers finished third at 197 to earn All-America honors at the NCAA Championships. Led the Cowboys to the Big 12 regular season team title with a 6-0 dual mark. Coached the U.S. Senior Freestyle team at the Olympics and mentored former Cowboy Coleman Scott to the bronze taking the 165 championship. Pendleton repeated as an NCAA champion at 174, Jake Rosholt claimed the title at 197 and Steve Mocco won the heavyweight championship. OSU wrestlers compiled a 38-9 record at the NCAA Championships that year and the Cowboys set school records for points, margin of victory and national champions. Oklahoma State scored 153 team points to top second-place Michigan by 70 points.

Smith and the Cowboys went 16-2 in dual meets en route to claiming their fourth consecutive NCAA team title in 2006, under the leadership of Hendricks and Rosholt, who both claimed their second consecutive NCAA individual championships.

Smith won his first of five NCAA team championships in 1994 when the Cowboys compiled a 13-1 dual meet record, won the Big 8 team championship, crowned four individual Big 8 champions and three NCAA individual champions in Alan Fried, Mark Branch and Smith's younger brother and first-ever four-time NCAA champion, Pat Smith.

For all of the championships and success he continues to enjoy as a coach, it is his career as a wrestler that is the stuff of legend. Smith truly was the best wrestler in the world.

In brief, Smith compiled a 105-5 record as a high school wrestler at Del City High School in Del City, Okla., before beginning his collegiate career at Oklahoma State, where he put together a 152-8-2 record that included a pair of NCAA individual championships in 1987 and 1988. He was a three-time All-America selection in 1985, 1987 and 1988. On the international stage, Smith rolled to a 100-5 career record that included six world championships (1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991 and 1992), two Olympic gold medals (1988 and 1992), two Pan American Games gold medals (1987 and 1991) and two Goodwill Games gold medals (1986 and 1990).

To this day, Smith holds Oklahoma State school records for career victories (152), single-season victories (47 in 1988), career bonus-point wins (113), single-season bonus-point wins (39 in both 1987 and 1988) and single-season bonus point win percentage (90.7 in 1987). A three-time Big Eight Conference individual champion in 1985, 1987 and 1988, Smith wrestled primarily at 134 during his collegiate career, where he strung together a 124-4 overall record. He also competed at 126, compiling a 27-4-2 overall mark, and won his lone career match at 142.

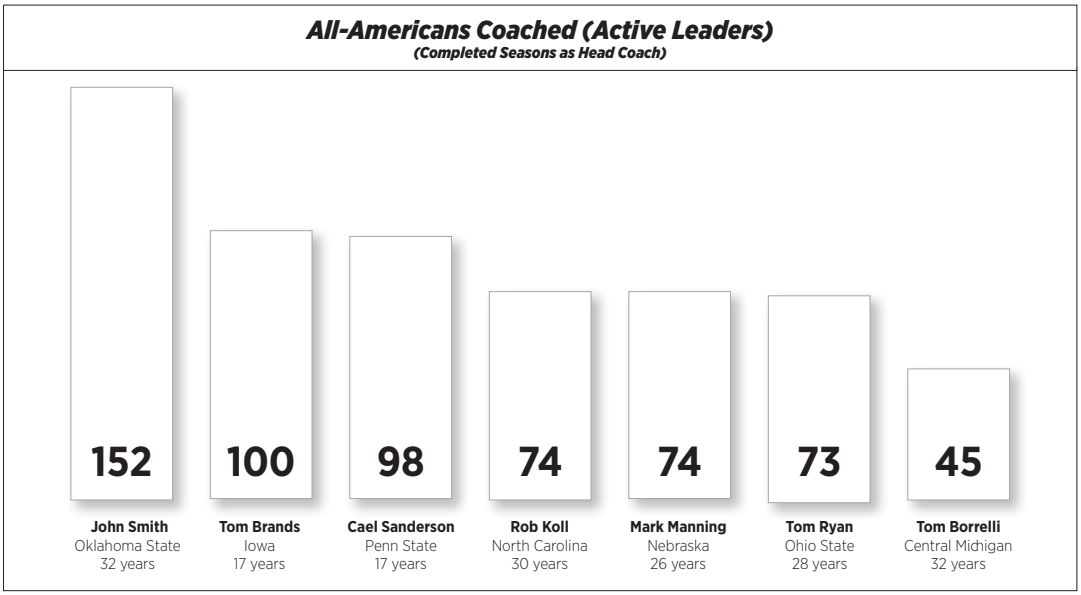
After Smith's junior year at Oklahoma State, he won the first of his six world championships in Clermont-Ferrand, France. Smith was the only collegiate wrestler to win a world championship while still in college until 2017 when Kyle Snyder (Ohio State) claimed a title in Paris. Following his graduation in 1988, Smith qualified for the U.S. Olympic freestyle team and came away from the Seoul Olympics with the first of two Olympic gold medals and the second of six consecutive world titles.

Three more world championships ensued in 1989, 1990 and 1991 before Smith claimed the second of his Olympic gold medals at the 1992 Barcelona games to cement his legacy as one of the greatest wrestlers of all time.

His list of awards and honors received befits someone who earned the distinction of being the best wrestler on the planet. Smith was honored as the first wrestler to ever claim the James E. Sullivan Award as America's outstanding amateur athlete when he won the award in 1990. He was the first American ever chosen as the Master of Technique and Wrestler of the Year by the International Wrestling Federation (FILA) when he received the honor in 1990. In 1992, he was presented with the Amateur Athletic Foundation's World Trophy, becoming the first North American wrestler to earn the honor. A 2003 inductee into the FILA International Wrestling Hall of Fame, a distinguished member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame and a 1997 inductee into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame, Smith was recognized as one of the 100 Greatest Olympians of All Time at the 1996 Atlanta Games. That same year, Smith was inducted into the OSU Athletic Hall of Honor.

Smith was the 1991 selection as FILA's Outstanding Wrestler of the Year after earning Man of the Year honors from Amateur Wrestling News in 1988, Athlete of the Year recognition from USA Wrestling in 1989 and Sportsman of the Year honors from the U.S. Olympic Committee in 1990.

All-Americans Coached (Active Leaders)
(Completed Seasons as Head Coach)



In 2004, the U.S. Olympic Committee presented Smith with the Titan Award, and the next year, he joined his brother Pat as one of 15 wrestlers named to the NCAA's 75th Anniversary Team.

The Smith family legacy is strong at Oklahoma State, as John's older brother Lee Roy was a three-time All-American in 1977, 1979 and 1980 and claimed the 1980 national championship. John was a three-time All-American in 1985, 1987 and 1988 with a pair of national titles in 1987 and 1988, while his younger brother Pat was a four-time All-American with four national championships in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1994. John's son, Joe, completed his career as a Cowboy in 2020 as a three-time All-American, while Sam joined the Cowboys as a freshman this season.

Smith also successfully established a wrestling club that allows wrestlers from across the country to prepare and train for international competition. The Gator Wrestling Club sent three former Oklahoma State wrestlers to compete in the 2004 Olympic Games. Jamill Kelly won the silver medal at the 2004 Athens Olympics, with Daniel Cormier finishing fourth and Eric Guerrero also representing the USA in Athens.

He has remained involved in American freestyle wrestling during his coaching career, leading the USA Olympic Wrestling Team to a second-place finish at the 2000 Olympics and a fifth-place finish in 2012, which included guiding Coleman Scott to a bronze medal. He has also coached the U.S. at the Senior World Championships four times and was named the 2017 USA Wrestling Women's Co-Coach of the Year. For the last two Olympic games, Smith has drawn praise from the wrestling world for his work as an analyst with NBC for wrestling.

Smith has also built a coaching tree as impressive as anyone in the country. His former wrestlers include Wyoming head coach Mark Branch, NC State head coach Pat Popolizio, Oregon State head coach Chris Pendleton, Army head coach Kevin Ward, North Dakota State head coach Obe Blanc, Little Rock head coach Neil Erisman, Appalachian State head coach John Mark Bentley, Morgan State head coach Kenny Monday and countless others at all levels of the sport.

In 1995, Smith married the former Toni Donaldson. The couple has three sons – Joseph, Samuel and Levi and two daughters – Isabelle and Cecilia.

2016 - Coached two Cowboys to NCAA titles, including a third championship for Alex Dieringer, and four other All-Americans. Saw his squad finish with a 13-3 record and Big 12 Championship with seven champions. Alex Dieringer was named Dan Hodge Trophy winner and became a part of the 2016 US National team.

2017 - Guided Dean Heil to his second NCAA title and a perfect 32-0 season. With a program high eight All-Americans, the Cowboys finished third at the NCAA Championships to cap off a season in which the Pokes went 14-1 in dual action.

2018 - After going 13-2 in dual meets, coached four Big 12 Conference champions en route to the team's sixth-consecutive conference title. Four Cowboys finished on the podium at the NCAA Championships in Cleveland, Ohio.

2019 - Guided the Cowboys to 15-0 in dual meets, completing a perfect season for the 46th time in program history and Smith's seventh as head coach. It marked the first undefeated team for OSU since 2005. Coached the Pokes to a third-place finish at NCAAs with five All-Americans and their seventh-consecutive conference crown.

2020 - Led the Cowboys to their eighth straight Big 12 title after a 13-3 dual season. Saw three Cowboys win Big 12 Championships and nine earn an NCAA Championship seed. Became the first wrestler inducted into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame on Nov. 12, 2020.

2021 - Guided the Pokes to a 10-0 dual season and their ninth-straight Big 12 tournament title with three individual champs. Added another NCAA champ with AJ Ferrari at 197 pounds, while five other Cowboys earned All-America honors. Coached OSU to its fourth top-three finish in the last five NCAA tournaments.

2022 - Daton Fix finished second at 133 pounds, while Dustin Plott finished sixth at 174 pounds at the NCAA Championships. OSU went 13-4 in duals and produced three individual Big 12 champs.

2023 - Daton Fix and Dustin Plott repeated as Big 12 champions and All-Americans. Fix became a four-time Big 12 champ and four-time All-American. Led the Pokes to a 14-3 regular season record.

Coleman Scott is beginning his first season as the associate head coach at Oklahoma State, joining the staff 15 years after his graduation from OSU in 2008.

Scott originally began his coaching career in Stillwater, where he served as a volunteer assistant during the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons. During his two years on staff, Scott helped coach the Cowboys to four individual national titles, including two-straight by fellow staff member Chris Perry and the first of three career championships from Alex Dieringer. A dozen Cowboys earned All-American selections during Scott's two seasons, including seven in 2013, which was tied for the most in a single season since 1990 at the time. Oklahoma State also captured the Big 12 title in both seasons and crowned 14 individual conference champions.

Following his two years as a volunteer at Oklahoma State, Scott was hired by North Carolina as a full-time assistant coach following the 2014 season. The Cowboy spent just one year on staff before being promoted in August of 2015 and becoming the program's sixth ever head coach.

During Scott's eight years as head coach, he guided the Tar Heels to a 75-49 overall dual record, good for the second-best winning percentage in program history at .605, which included a 23-17 mark in the ACC. He coached 16 Tar Heel All-Americans, as well as nine individual conference champions.

North Carolina landed top-20 finishes in each of Scott's final five seasons for the most successful five-year run at North Carolina since 1986-90. UNC posted multiple All-America wrestlers in every season throughout that stretch, with a Tar Heel reaching the national finals in each of the final three years.

In his final year on staff, Scott helped North Carolina secure its seventh individual national champion, as Austin O'Connor completed a perfect 23-0 season at 157 pounds. With the victory, O'Connor became just the second multiple-time NCAA individual champion in UNC history and first to garner All-America honors five times. With two other Tar Heels also reaching the podium at the national championships, North Carolina completed its best team finish since 1995 with a 12th-place, 42-point outing.

Scott was a tremendous wrestler for the Cowboys from 2005-08, compiling a record of 120-24 during his time in the orange singlet. He earned a spot as one of only 15 four-time All-Americans in program history and was a 2008 NCAA individual champion at 133 pounds.

The Cowboys captured the NCAA team title in each of Scott's first two years on the team, and he played a vital role in OSU's success. As a true freshman, Scott earned All-America honors with an eighth-place finish at 125 pounds and improved on the mark with a fifth-place result the following year. Scott was one of just 17 Cowboys to become an All-American in their true freshman season.

Scott bumped up weight classes to 133 pounds as a junior and was a national finalist before finally completing the job as a senior to win his first national title.

Oklahoma State also won the Big 12 Championship in Scott's freshman and sophomore seasons. As a true freshman, he brought home the 125-pound conference title and was named the tournament's Outstanding Wrestler. Scott would go on to win his second Big 12 title as a junior in his first season at 133 pounds.

Scott originally arrived in Stillwater as one of the top recruits in the nation after winning both the Dave Schultz High School Excellence Award and Junior Wade Schalles Award as a senior at Waynesburg Central High School in Pennsylvania. He was the first Cowboy signee to ever receive the prestigious Dave Schultz award, and just three other Cowboys have earned the award since.

He also garnered an extensive amount of experience as an international wrestler, highlighted by winning a bronze medal at the 2012 Olympics in London, the 16th Olympic medal won by a Cowboy. Scott was also a four-time member of the United States Freestyle World Team.

He and his wife Jessica have three children: daughter Leighton and sons Stetson and Cash.

Chris Perry is in his seventh season in the role of assistant coach after stepping into the position in the summer of 2017. He served two seasons as a volunteer assistant and two seasons as a club coach for the Pokes prior to the promotion.

During his time in the coaching ranks at Oklahoma State, Perry helped guide Daton Fix to a bronze-medal finish at the 2018 Junior Worlds and a Senior World Team Spot, oversaw a pair of national championships from 141-pounder Dean Heil in 2016 and 2017, Alex Dieringer's third NCAA Championship in 2016 at 165 pounds and AJ Ferrari's national title as a true freshman at 197 pounds in 2021. Most recently, he has been an integral part of Dustin Plott's back-to-back Big 12 championships and sixth-place finishes at NCAA's in 2022 and 2023.

In 2017, Perry helped coach Heil to his second NCAA title, while seeing eight Cowboys bring home All-America honors to tie a school record and finish third at the NCAA Championships. The 2017 season also saw eight Cowboys earn Big 12 individual titles en route to a team title.

In his first season on staff, he saw Alex Dieringer earn his third NCAA individual title, Dean Heil win his first national championship and four more Cowboys earn All-America status. He played a key role in coaching seven Pokes to Big 12 titles and a team conference championship.

In 2013 and 2014, Perry, a native of Stillwater, Okla., won back-to-back NCAA titles at 174 pounds under the direction of John Smith.

Perry produced a dominant 122-11 career record with 59 bonus-point wins. He was a four-time Big 12 champion, the 2014 Big 12 Championship's Outstanding Wrestler and a three-time All-American.

Perry graduated with a degree in education in 2014.

Tyler Caldwell enters his seventh year on staff at Oklahoma State, first as an assistant coach, after spending the previous six seasons as the program's recruiting coordinator.

While serving as recruiting coordinator, the Cowboys consistently signed classes ranked in the top five nationally, including the top-ranked class of 2023 that was highlighted by No. 1 pound-for-pound wrestler Christian Carroll in his final season in the role.

Caldwell also played a major role in the Cowboys signing the top class in 2020, consisting of the No. 1 overall recruit and No. 2 pound-for-pound wrestler in the nation.

The Pokes have crowned one national champion who was part of Caldwell's signing classes. Most recently, he helped coach Dustin Plott to back-to-back Big 12 individual titles and sixth-place finishes at the NCAA Championships, while also having a hand in Daton Fix's four consecutive All-American seasons.

As a collegiate wrestler, Caldwell transferred to Stillwater ahead of the 2012-13 campaign after competing at the University of Oklahoma as a freshman and sophomore. Earning All-America honors in all four years of his career, Caldwell was a two-time NCAA finalist and finished his career with a 126-29 record, including a mark of 63-9 at OSU.

In his first season at Oklahoma State, he put together a 35-5 overall record that resulted in a Big 12 title and third-place finish at NCAA's. In 2014, Caldwell made it to the NCAA finals before losing to Penn State's David Taylor. His senior season consisted of a 28-4 record and his second consecutive individual conference championship.

Following his graduation from Oklahoma State in 2014, Caldwell served as a volunteer assistant at West Virginia during the 2015-16 season.

Caldwell has also found success on the international stage, winning a University World Title in 2014. He also placed fourth at the U.S. Open and finished in the top six at the World Team Trials.

A Wichita, Kan. native, Caldwell has been a part of the Cowboy wrestling program for nearly a decade.

Gary Wayne Harding is entering his first season as the recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State, quickly making his way up the Cowboy coaching staff after spending the 2022-23 season as a volunteer assistant coach.

In his first year on staff for the Cowboys, Harding helped aid Daton Fix to become the program's 15th four-time All-American when he finished fourth at the NCAA Championships. In addition, Dustin Plott also captured his second of back-to-back Big 12 individual titles and placed sixth at NCAA's for the second consecutive year.

Since the implementation of the recruiting coordinator position, the Cowboys have consistently signed top-five ranked classes, including the No. 1 recruiting class in the nation in both 2020 and 2023. Oklahoma State's 2023 class was highlighted by No. 1 pound-for-pound wrestler Christian Carroll, as well as the top 182-pounder Brayden Thompson.

Prior to his return to Stillwater, Harding served as an assistant coach at North Carolina for three seasons, working alongside current Cowboy coach Coleman Scott. While at UNC, Harding helped the program to its best NCAA Championship finish in 26 years with a 16th-place outing in 2021. He also coached five All-Americans and, four ACC individual champions and the 2021 NCAA champion at 149 pounds, Austin O'Connor.

Harding wrestled at Oklahoma State from 2015-18, compiling a record of 57-33 along with over two dozen bonus point victories. He qualified for the NCAA Championships in both his freshman and sophomore seasons, picking up a pair of wins at the tournament in 2015.

Harding also earned the distinction of being a part of four Big 12 championship teams, as the Cowboys brought home the conference title every season of his OSU career. As a freshman, Harding placed third at the conference meet after picking up a 4-0 decision over West Virginia's Cory Stainbrook.

Following his four seasons at Oklahoma State, Harding transferred to North Carolina as a senior and was an NCAA qualifier for the third time in five years.

A graduate of Collinsville High School, Harding strung together a 166-14 career record and was a four-time 5A Oklahoma state champion. He was named the Tulsa World All-Metro Wrestler of the Year for 2014 and was a member of the 2014 Junior Dual team for Oklahoma.

COWBOYS SHOW PROMISE THROUGHOUT SEASON DESPITE NCAAS FINISH

Oklahoma State head coach John Smith preached development was the most important result of the 2022-23 season for the Cowboy wrestling team.

With a lineup that had multiple weight changes and a pair of new faces added to it, the Cowboys put together a 14-3 regular season that saw them ranked as high as sixth in the country. In a postseason where the team did not leave the state of Oklahoma, the Cowboys placed second at the Big 12 Championships while crowning two individual champions and was 18th at the NCAA Championships at the BOK Center in Tulsa.

The Pokes wrestled to a 4-1 record during the fall semester, collecting a ranked win over No. 14 Lehigh to open the season and suffering its lone loss at home to No. 13 Minnesota. The Cowboys also claimed their 16th consecutive win over their in-state rival in thrilling fashion in Norman on December 11. Oklahoma State rallied from a 12-4 deficit by winning three of the next four bouts after intermission to tie the match at 15 heading into the final bout of the dual. At 197 pounds, Luke Surber took the mat to face former OSU wrestler, Keegan Moore, and stuck him on his back for a fall 34 seconds into the first period to give the Cowboys the win.

OSU opened the 2023 calendar year with its third Southern Scuffle title in program history before returning to dual competition. The Cowboys would run off five victories during the month of January, including a hard-fought win on the road over No. 15 Northern Iowa.

Beginning with the UNI dual, OSU battled through the toughest portion of its schedule with a 4-1 record against five teams ranked in the top-16 and three top-10 teams. Back-to-back wins over No. 6 Michigan at Bout at the Ballpark in Arlington, Texas, and No. 8 Missouri propelled the Cowboys through the stretch. The lone setback came at No. 4 Iowa State in which backups wrestled at 125, 184 and heavyweight.

OSU would finish the season with a victory over No. 16 South Dakota State on the road and home wins over Stanford and Oklahoma before concluding the regular season slate with a loss to No. 2 Iowa.

Heading into the Big 12 Championships, Daton Fix was the only Cowboy to receive the top seed at his weight, with returning Big 12 champions Dustin Plott and Kaden Gfeller being the second seed at 174 pounds and 157 pounds, respectively.

In a three-team race for the conference title, the Cowboys finished second with 134 points, behind only Missouri with 148 points. Fix and Plott repeated as conference champions, while Gfeller finished runner-up to top-seeded Jared Franek of North Dakota State. It marked the fourth individual Big 12 title for Fix as he became just the 10th wrestler in program history to win four conference titles. Plott's second Big 12 title came in similar fashion to his first as a late takedown in the third period led to a 5-3 decision over top-seeded Peyton Mocco in a rematch of the 2022 Big 12 championship match and the Southern Scuffle finals. Despite finishing second, OSU's two individual titles tied Northern Colorado for the most of any team.

Three Cowboys also took third place at the Big 12 tournament, including Reece Witcraft at 125 pounds, Travis Wittlake at 184 pounds and Surber at 197 pounds. Witcraft entered the tournament unseeded after taking over the starting role on February 3 after true freshman Zach Blankenship took the reins from three-year starter Trevor Mastrogiovanni in late January.

Nine Cowboys earned automatic berths to the NCAA Championships at the conference tournament, while Wyatt Sheets received an at-large bid at 165 pounds to mark the first time OSU sent a full lineup to the NCAA Championships since 2017. Fix and Plott would repeat as All-Americans, marking the fourth podium finish for Fix and the second for Plott, while the Cowboys recorded their lowest team finish at the NCAA Championships in a tie for 18th.

As the fifth seed, Plott advanced to the quarterfinals, but fell to the No. 4 seed from Cornell, Chris Foca. He then bounced back with two wins in the fourth session, including a sudden-victory win over Demetrius Romero in the bloodround and an 8-4 win over No. 6 Ethan Smith to advance to the consolation semifinals. He dropped his match to No. 3 Mekhi Lewis and fell to No. 11 Nelson Brands in overtime of the fifth-place match as the junior from Tuttle placed sixth at 174 pounds for the second year in a row.

Chasing his first individual national title after three runner-up finishes, Fix made it to the semifinals before dropping an 11-3 major decision to eventual champion Vito Arujau of Cornell. During his run in the championship bracket, Fix would surpass 100 career wins and become the 45th wrestler in program history to reach the century mark. He would go on to finish in fourth place as the 15th four-time All-American in OSU's storied history.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 11	25
LEHIGH NO. 14	6

LEWISBURG, Penn – The Oklahoma State wrestling team won both matches in its season-opening doubleheader at No. 14 Lehigh and Bucknell on Saturday.

The No. 11 Cowboys began the day with a tough road test against the Mountain Hawks taking the dual, 25-6, before driving two hours to Lewisburg, Pennsylvania where they defeated Bucknell, 30-6.

"I think anytime you're coming into a dual meet and you know it's pretty even, you know it's going to take a great effort on the road to win," Smith said after the win over Lehigh. "You have to win those close matches, that's how you win dual meets. For us, we did a good job in third periods, which is big."

Two Cowboys made their dual debuts against Lehigh both picking up decisions in their bouts. Victor Voinovich fell behind 8-0 early in the first period after getting thrown to his back by Manzona Bryant IV. Voinovich responded with an escape before crawling back into the match with multiple takedowns over the remainder of the first and second period. Late in the third period, trailing 13-11, Voinovich hit Bryant with an inside trip to send the match to sudden victory before adding another takedown to win the match. Konner Doucet used a third period ride to earn the riding time point and clinch his match against No. 26 Nathan Taylor.

Including Doucet and Voinovich, the Cowboys rattled off wins in five straight matches after the dual began with No. 8 Michael Beard defeating No. 28 Luke Surber, 10-7, at 197 pounds. Kaden Gfeller took the mat against No. 9 Josh Humphreys and nearly pinned the Lehigh star, but a late reversal and riding time point won the match for Humphreys. The Cowboys closed the dual with wins at 165, 174 and 184 pounds as All-Americans Wyatt Sheets, Dustin Plott and Travis Wittlake all won by decision.

In the second match of the day, Trevor Mastrogiovanni put OSU up early against Bucknell, pinning Grayson McLellan in 1:17. The Cowboys ended up taking eight of the 10 bouts, only dropping decisions at 141 pounds and 157 pounds to the two ranked wrestlers in Bucknell's lineup.

Daton Fix, Voinovich, Sheets, Plott, Wittlake and Doucet all improved to 2-0 on the season with wins against Bucknell. Surber picked up his first win at 197 pounds with a 13-5 major decision over Mason McCready.

WYOMING	3
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 10	34

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team jumped out to an early lead and rode the momentum to a dominating 34-3 win over Wyoming in its home opener in Gallagher-Iba Arena on Friday night.

The Cowboys took an early 9-0 lead behind a hard-fought 2-0 decision from Trevor Mastrogiovanni over Wyoming freshman Jore Volk, who won a U20 world championship in freestyle this summer. Following Mastrogiovanni, Daton Fix collected his 75th career win in style with a first-period fall over Aidan Noonan to extend the OSU lead to 9-0.

The only win of the night for Wyoming came in a close match at 141 pounds where Job Greenwood fought off a late shot from Carter Young to clinch a 4-3 decision.

From there, the rout was on for No. 10 Oklahoma State as it won the final seven matches to close out the dual. Wyatt Sheets won the lone ranked matchup of the night, defeating No. 21 Cole Moody, 6-2. After a scoreless first period, Moody took a 2-0 lead in the second period behind two stall calls against Sheets and an escape, but Sheets responded with a late takedown to send the match to the third period tied at two. The 16th-ranked Cowboy used an escape, takedown and ride out in the final period to secure his third victory of the season and 75th win of his career.

Luke Surber and Dustin Plott each picked up bonus-point wins in their matches. At 174 pounds, Plott recorded a pair of takedowns in both of the first two period before putting up seven points in the third period on his way to a 16-6 major decision over Brett McIntosh. Surber just needed one takedown and a turn to end his match as he collected his first fall of the season in 1:38 over Tyce Raddon.

Victor Voinovich, Travis Wittlake and Konner Doucet all moved to 3-0 on the season with comfortable decisions over their Cowboy counterparts, while Kaden Gfeller earned his first victory of the season with a 6-3 win over Logan Ours behind a second period that included a reversal and near fall from Gfeller.

"I thought from a team standpoint, it kinds of reminds me of seeing guys getting their season started and finding a rhythm of how you want to wrestle, it takes some matches," head coach John Smith said. "It just seemed like we struggled a little bit with some sort of rhythm, and give credit to Wyoming, (Mark) Branch had his team ready to fight and they did fight."

MINNESOTA NO. 13	18
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 9	12

STILLWATER – Two Oklahoma State wrestlers earned the highest-ranked wins of their careers, but a late rally fell short as No. 9 Oklahoma State's dropped its first dual of the season to No. 13 Minnesota, 18-12, on Sunday in Gallagher-Iba Arena.

With the dual starting at 165 pounds, OSU trailed 15-3 after six bouts, but charged back in the lower weight matches behind two upsets over Golden Gophers ranked in the top 10 by Carter Young and Kaden Gfeller.

At 141 pounds, Young took the mat to face No. 3 Jake Bergeland. In a scoreless first period, Young set the tone for the match getting deep on multiple shots. He opened up the score in the third period beginning with an escape from the down position and a takedown on his way to a 5-1 decision over Bergeland. Two matches later, Kaden Gfeller knocked off No. 2 Brayton Lee with a 2-0 decision marking the second top-10 win for OSU on the day.

Daton Fix and Dustin Plott each improved to 4-0 on the season with comfortable decisions over Golden Gophers.

"It's just a process, right," head coach John Smith said. "We've talked about development as we go through and the experiences that we've had. Even in this dual meet, it's like I said, I got a lot to work with. They exposed us a little bit. This is by far the best team we've wrestled and it's a good team. It gives us something. If we wrestled them in two weeks, hopefully I'd see a different level of performance. I'm not going to say we'd win, I just think we recognized a little bit real quickly that to win tough, hard matches, you've got to wrestle tough and hard."

The early deficit for the Cowboys came from a run of four consecutive losses from 184 pounds to 125 pounds as Travis Wittlake, Konner Doucet and Trevor Mastrogiovanni all suffered their first defeats of the season, while Luke Surber fell to 2-2 on the year at 197 pounds.

Wyatt Sheets battled in the opening bout of the match, but dropped a close 5-4 decision to No. 27 Andrew Sparks, while the Golden Gophers clinched the dual with a 3-1 decision at 149 pounds where No. 17 Michael Blockhus topped No. 18 Victor Voinovich.

NORMAN, Okla. - With the match tied at 15 a piece heading into the final bout of the dual, Luke Surber pinned No. 28 Keegan Moore 34 seconds into the first period to give the Oklahoma State wrestling team its 16th straight win over the Sooners, 21-15.

"I knew I was going to have to win to win the dual," Surber said. "I went out and got in on my shot and went for the cradle and he rolled onto his back. I had him pinned like five times probably."

Oklahoma jumped out to a 12-4 lead after the first five matches, with the lone Cowboy victory coming in a 14-5 major decision from No. 2 Daton Fix over No. 30 Wyatt Henson.

Following intermission, Kaden Gfeller got Oklahoma State back on track with a 7-1 decision over No. 29 Jacob Butler. Gfeller used a reversal in which he caught Butler on his back for a four-point near fall to separate the score in the second period on his way to a comfortable win.

Following a close Sooner victory at 165 pounds, the upper weights for the Pokes came up big winning the final three matches to close the score on the Sooners and set Surber for his heroics. Beginning at 174 pounds, Dustin Plott was dominant in a 21-6 technical fall over No. 19 Darrien Roberts.

Travis Wittlake followed Plott with a takedown in sudden victory to clinch a 6-4 decision over No. 29 Greyden Penner to tie the match at 15 heading into the final bout.

"In those first five matches at some weights it looked like a bit of a repeat from Minnesota losing those tight matches," head coach John Smith said. "We knew what we needed to do. We needed to win four out of the five after the showing we had in those first five weights. That's what we did. We went out and won four out of five to win the dual."

The early deficit for the Cowboys came from close losses, including two in overtime. Konner Doucet and Victor Voinovich each dropped their bouts to higher-ranked Sooners in overtime, while Trevor Mastrogiovanni and Carter Young dropped matches by two points each.

CORVALLIS, Ore. - The Oklahoma State wrestling team moved to 5-1 on the season as it pulled together four consecutive wins to close out the dual and defeat Oregon State, 20-12, inside Gill Coliseum on Sunday.

"We looked maybe a little lethargic in some of those early matches, just not ready to go punch someone," head coach John Smith said. "Losing at 165, 174, 184 and 197, that wasn't ideal, but I was pleased with Konner Doucet. I was pleased with Trevor Mastrogiovanni and I was pleased that Daton Fix hammered out the team victory by extending the score to a major decision to put us up by five going into the last match. Carter Young with the win was a nice separation to close it out."

Trailing 12-7 heading into the final four bouts, Doucet turned the momentum in favor of the Cowboys with a 3-2 decision over J.J. Dixon. Doucet's victory ended a run of victories by the Beavers spanning from 165 pounds to 197 pounds/.

When the lineup turned over to 125 pounds, Mastrogiovanni scored the only takedown of the match in a 3-2 decision over No. 12 Brandon Kaylor to put OSU up in the team score for good. Fix followed up with a 12-4 major decision over No. 18 Jason Shaner as the second-ranked Cowboy moved to 11-0 on the season. Young sealed the dual with a 6-2 decision over No. 23 Cleveland Belton.

With the dual starting at 149 pounds, the Pokes got on the board first behind a 10-2 major decision courtesy of Victor Voinovich. It was the second-bonus point win of the season for Voinovich after earning a major decision at the Southern Scuffle as well. At 157 pounds, Kaden Gfeller moved to 9-3 on the season with a 10-9 decision over Isaiah Crosby.

After the Cowboys went up 7-0, the Beavers responded by winning decisions at 165, 174, 184 and 197, which included No. 4 Dustin Plott suffering his first loss to No. 29 Aaron Olmos at 174 pounds.

The Cowboys won seven of 10 matches, highlighted by Luke Surber's 21-6 technical fall over Javen Jovero at 197 pounds.

OSU and Columbia split the first six matches of the dual with decisions from Daton Fix, Victor Voinovich and Kaden Gfeller, yet the Pokes found themselves trailing 12-9 due to a fall at 141 pounds. Similar to the Oregon State dual, the upper weights came through to win the final four matches and secure the dual victory.

Dustin Plott and Travis Wittlake grinded out decisions at 174 and 184 pounds to give Oklahoma State the lead, which were followed up by Surber's tech fall that put the team score out of reach. Konner Doucet closed out the dual with a 1-0 win over Dan Conley.

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team improved to 7-1 on the season Friday evening, taking down Northern Colorado, 24-10, in their return to Gallagher Iba Arena.

The Cowboys won seven of 10 matches, led by Travis Wittlake and Luke Surber, who collected back-to-back 17-5 major decisions over Branson Britten and Xavier Vasquez, respectively.

"I just think with some of these guys, they're learning to perform in their match," head coach John Smith said. "It's almost like we still need more matches for several of these guys. Two this week. Two next week. Hitting better competition. Regardless of outcomes, I think we got a chance to see maybe us grow during this moment. I think that's going to give us a good look at what we need to work on and do."

OSU jumped out to a 3-0 lead following a 7-2 win for Victor Voinovich at 149. In a pivotal second match, Kaden Gfeller and Vinny Zerban were tied up 5-5 following the third period. Thirteen seconds into sudden victory, Gfeller took down Zerban for a 7-5 victory.

The Bears clawed up a victory in the third match of the evening as Wyatt Sheets fell to Baylor Fernandes in a decision loss. OSU regained the momentum quickly, winning four-consecutive bouts with Dustin Plott, Travis Wittlake and Luke Surber posting major-decision margins for the Pokes and Konner Doucet besting Xavier Doolin, 2-0 at heavyweight.

"We talk about it a lot during the week," Plott said. "We're all pretty close in training and do a lot of extra work together. Something we talk about a lot is if things in dual meets aren't going a certain way it is our responsibilities as teammates to turn it around… I knew it was my turn to turn the momentum and get the team going a little bit."

Northern Colorado made a surge late into the dual, with Stevo Poulin spoiling true freshman Zach Blankenship's Gallagher-Iba Arena debut, at 125 pounds and No. 1 ranked Andrew Alirez defeating Carter Young 12-4 at 141.

In the ninth match of the evening, No. 2 Daton Fix ousted Jace Koelzer 11-4, putting the closing remarks on a Cowboy victory.

WEST VIRGINIA NO. 23	7
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 12	28

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team capped off a weekend sweep in Gallagher-Iba Arena with a 28-7 victory over No. 23 West Virginia as it improved to 8-1 overall and 4-0 in conference matches.

The Cowboys won eight of 10 matches, that included bonus point wins from Daton Fix, Travis Wittlake and Luke Surber.

"We did a nice job picking up that first takedown in the first period," head coach John Smith said. "I think everyone scored a takedown in the first period except for Blankenship and Wyatt. So, that's what you're looking for when eight of your ten pick up that first takedown… With [Travis Wittlake and Luke Surber] both of them picking up major decisions and scoring points. Doing a good job of riding and getting off bottom. Just overall, a good effort up there."

Fix put the Cowboys up 6-4 early into the dual when he pinned Davin Rhoads in the third period. The fall is the third of the season for the second-ranked Cowboy who moved to 14-0 on the season.

Wittlake and Surber finished their weekends with a pair of major decisions after both collecting 17-5 victories against Northern Colorado on Friday. Wittlake took down No. 30 Anthony Carman seven times on his way to a 16-7 victory, which gave him a total of 14 takedowns in his last two outings. The next Cowboy on the mat, Surber scored a takedown in each of the first two periods, then exploded in the third scoring four takedowns on his way to a 14-5 major decision.

Following Fix's fall at 133 pounds, OSU won decisions in the next four bouts to jump out to a 15-4 lead. Carter Young was strong in the top position as he rode Jordan Titus to a 5-1 decision, while Victor Voinovich collected his 11th win of the season and Kaden Gfeller defeated No. 28 Alex Hornfeck, 5-3.

The Mountaineers would take their second victory of the day at 165 pounds where No. 12 Peyton Hall defeated No. 22 Wyatt Sheets in a close match. No. 8 Killian Cardinale defeated Zach Blankenship 14-4 to start the dual.

The Cowboys would win the final four bouts for the third consecutive dual as Dustin Plott and Konner Doucet claimed decisions over around the major decisions from Wittlake and Surber. Plott fell behind West Virginia's Scott Joll early in the first, but a pair of reversals and a takedown kept him in the match. Two more takedowns in the third period secured a 14-11 decision for Plott in a high-scoring affair. Doucet closed out the match for the Cowboys with a 3-1 win over No. 26 Michael Wolfgram with a first period takedown and third period escape.

CEDAR FALLS, Iowa – A third-period fall from Wyatt Sheets over No. 10 Austin Yant proved to be the difference in the Oklahoma State wrestling team's 19-17 victory over No. 15 Northern Iowa on Saturday night.

Coming out of intermission the Cowboys trailed Northern Iowa, 10-7, after the Panthers won three of the first five bouts. Tied at one in the third, Sheets countered a shot and stuck Yant on his back to swing the momentum to OSU's side and hand Yant his first loss of the season.

No. 6 Dustin Plott defeated No. 13 Lance Runyon, 7-3, and No. 18 Luke Surber claimed a decision of his own over true freshman Wyatt Voelker as OSU was able to hold on to the win and extend its win streak to six.

Carter Young was also able to collect a bonus-point win over a top-10 opponent with a 15-7 major decision over No. 8 Cael Happel at 141 pounds. Young jumped out to an early 12-1 lead in the first period with a pair of takedowns three turns. He would score three escapes from there over the next two periods to clinch the major. The win was Young's second over a top-10 wrestler this year and moved him to 3-0 in his career against Happel.

After Zach Blankenship gave up a major decision to Kyle Gollhoffer to open the dual, No. 2 Daton Fix responded with an 8-1 win over No. 11 Kyle Biscoglia to set up Young's upset.

Victor Voinovich and Kaden Gfeller each dropped close decisions to Panthers before intermission, while Gavin Stika fell by major decision to No. 2 Parker Keckeisen with Travis Wittlake out and Konner Doucet lost 3-2 on riding time to No. 13 Tyrell Gordon at heavyweight.

AMES, Iowa – The Oklahoma State wrestling team moved to 9-2 on the season after an 18-11 loss at No. 4 Iowa State that came down to the final bout on Sunday in Hilton Coliseum.

The Cowboys and Cyclones were tied at 11 going into the 197-pound match after trading decisions through the first eight bouts. No. 18 Luke Surber stood toe to toe with No. 5 Yonger Bastida at 197 pounds for two periods, but after Bastida chose down and escaped to start the third, an injury timeout allowed him to retake bottom position and separate the score to put the Cyclones ahead.

At heavyweight, redshirt freshman Kyle Haas made his dual debut against No. 10 Sam Schuyler. Haas entered the match 10-3 on the season with eight falls, but was unable to get anything going against Schuyler as he dropped a 10-1 major decision, which clinched the dual for Iowa State.

The Cyclones struck first at 125 pounds with a 10-4 decision from Caleb Fuessley over Zach Blankenship. The Cowboys responded with back-to-back wins from Daton Fix and Carter Young to take the lead. Fix improved to 16-0 this season with a decision over Zach Redding, while Young knocked off No. 19 Casey Swiderski, 3-0, to cap off a stellar weekend.

At 149 pounds, No. 18 Victor Voinovich fell to No. 6 Paniro Johnson, 3-1, with a second-period near fall being the difference in the match. Kaden Gfeller immediately returned the lead to OSU with a 3-1 decision over No. 27 Jason Kraisser behind a third-period reversal and riding time point.

Iowa State would win two of the next three bouts to tie up the dual, but the Cowboys were able to hold No. 2 David Carr and No. 4 Marcus Coleman to decisions in their matches. No. 6 Dustin Plott improved to 15-1 this season with a 13-7 decision over No. 23 Julien Broderson.

MICHIGAN NO. 6	15
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 11	24

ARLINGTON, Texas - Three bonus-point wins led the way in No. 11 Oklahoma State's 24-15 victory over No. 6 Michigan at Bout at the Ballpark in Arlington, Texas, which moved the Cowboys to 10-2 overall.

"I think for the most part takedowns made the difference," head coach John Smith said. "It wasn't like we had perfect matches, we had some that we had to grind out when maybe we thought we would be getting bonus points. In the end, the difference was we were the aggressors and we were the ones who were outscoring early in matches and in matches we needed to win."

Wyatt Sheets and Dustin Plott put the Cowboys up before intermission with a major decision and technical fall in consecutive matches. Sheets was dominant in the top position turning Joaquin Consuelos four times en route to an 18-0 technical fall. Plott took down No. 28 Max Maylor five times in a 12-4 decision, which gave Plott his ninth win over a ranked opponent this season. Oklahoma State finished with 15 takedowns to Michigan's two, with the Wolverines' first takedown not coming until the eighth bout of the night.

After Michigan won three of the next four bouts, including a fall at 125 pounds that brought the team score to 18-15, Daton Fix closed out Bout at the Ballpark in style with a statement win pinning No. 12 Dylan Ragusin in the first period. Fix scored first as he took Ragusin down with an inside trip then stuck him on his back at the 2:25 mark to clinch the upset for Oklahoma State.

"The way my team wrestled all night motivated me," Fix said. "We were the aggressors with the 16 to two takedown ratio, that's big time, especially against a top-six team."

Carter Young and Victor Voinovich claimed decisions at 141 and 149 pounds over Michigan backups in the first two bouts of the dual. The Wolverines won their first match at 157 pounds when No. 10 Will Lewan defeated No. 14 Kaden Gfeller in the first tiebreaker period with three seconds of riding time being the difference.

Konner Doucet and Travis Wittlake dropped decisions to top-10 opponents at heavyweight and 184 pounds, respectively. Doucet traded takedowns with Mason Parris in the first period but a third-period ride out gave the top-ranked Wolverine a 5-3 victory, while Wittlake dropped a 2-0 decision to No. 9 Matt Finesilver.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 11	17

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated its second top-10 opponent in a row with a 17-16 win over No. 8 Missouri Sunday that came to the third tiebreaker criteria of total match points scored.

With both teams winning five matches, four by decision and a major decision by Missouri's Keegan O'Toole and OSU's Daton Fix, the match was decided based on the third criteria of match points, which Oklahoma State outscored Missouri, 45-43.

Oklahoma State entered the dual as the underdog in seven of the 10 individual bouts, but were able to pull off three upsets against the higher-ranked Tigers, including Luke Surber's win over No. 1 Rocky Elam, 5-4. Surber opened the scoring with a takedown in the first and after a quick escape and take down for Elam, Surber reversed the Tiger with second left in the period to take a 4-3 lead. Both wrestlers scored an escape in the following two periods leading to a 5-4 decision for Surber, marking the first win over a top-ranked wrestler for a Cowboy since the 2021 NCAA Championships.

Carter Young and Kaden Gfeller also defeated Tigers ranked in the top 10. Young opened the dual with a 4-2 win over No. 7 Allan Hart behind a takedown in the second, a third-period escape and over two minutes of riding time. After Victor Voinovich lost by decision to No. 7 Brock Mauller, Gfeller earned his second top-10 win of the season with a third-period reversal and ride out en route to a 4-3 win over No. 8 Jarrett Jacques.

The match would go back and forth from there as Missouri took a 10-6 lead with a major decision from top-ranked O'Toole at 165 pounds and a decision from No. 10 Peyton Mocco at 174. Travis Wittlake brought the Pokes within one with a 6-4 decision over No. 26 Colton Hawks before Surber put OSU ahead again. The Tigers would take decisions at heavyweight and 125 to regain a 16-12 lead before the final match.

Going into the 133-pound bout, Missouri led the total points tiebreaker by nine over Oklahoma State, meaning Daton Fix would need at least a major decision and to win by 10 points to clinch the dual for the Pokes. Fix built a 6-1 lead in the first period and continued to pour it on racking up five takedowns on his way to a 14-3 major decision over No. 26 Connor Brown.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 7	19
SOUTH DAKOTA STATE NO. 16	12

Brookings, S.D. – The Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated No. 16 South Dakota State, 19-12, on Friday for its third ranked win a row.

With the victory, the Cowboys moved to 12-2 on the season and have won nine of their last 10 duals.

Oklahoma State won six of 10 matches, highlighted by ranked wins from four different wrestlers.

In a dual featuring seven ranked matchups, Reece Witcraft set the tone for the Cowboys in the first bout of the night, upsetting No. 25 Tanner Morgan to put OSU out front early. Witcraft opened up a 6-0 lead with a takedown and near fall points in the first period, riding the advantage to an eventual 9-5 decision.

No. 2 Daton Fix built the Cowboys' lead up to 7-0 following an 11-1 major decision over Derrick Cardinal in the following match. Fix again utilized first period near fall points en route to his third consecutive bonus point victory.

After No. 15 Carter Young dropped a tight match to No. 10 Clay Carlson, the Cowboys took the momentum right back with wins at 141 and 149 pounds heading into intermission. No. 21 Victor Voinovich recorded a takedown in the first period and was able to hold onto his lead through the rest of the match, edging Alek Martin, 3-1. In a top-20 matchup, No. 10 Kaden Gfeller defeated No. 19 Cael Swanson with ease thanks to a takedown and turn in the first period. He would go on to pick up am 8-1 decision to give Oklahoma State a 13-3 lead at the break.
In an important match out of intermission, No. 25 Wyatt Sheets took down No. 15 Tanner Cook, 8-6, for his fourth ranked win of the season. Sheets entered the third period trailing, 6-5, but was able to get an escape and takedown to escape the bout with a win.

At the 174-pound bout, No. 13 Cade DeVos got the Jackrabbits back on the board with a 9-5 decision over No. 9 Dustin Plott to cut into the Cowboy lead.

No. 10 Travis Wittlake bounced back in the next match with a victory over No. 18 Cade King, as he dominated from the top position, riding King out for the whole second period before getting a reverse in the third to take the match, 3-0. Wittlake's decision made the team score 19-6, sealing the OSU dual victory with two bouts remaining.

STANFORD	9
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 7	25

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team defeated Stanford, 25-9, inside Gallagher-Iba Arena on Sunday to improve to 13-2 on the season.

The Cowboys won seven of 10 bouts, which included bonus-point wins from Travis Wittlake and Luke Surber. No. 7 Oklahoma State has now won four straight and 10 of its last 11 duals heading into the final week of its regular season schedule.

Daton Fix and Carter Young began the dual with victories to build up a 6-0 Cowboy lead. Fix notched his 20th win of the season with a 6-1 decision over No. 28 Jason Miranda, while Young took down Jason Miranda twice in the first period en route to a 6-3 decision.

After Victor Voinovich suffered a close loss to No. 11 Jaden Abas at 149 pounds, No. 10 Kaden Gfeller put the Pokes back on track. In his second to last match in Gallagher-Iba Arena, the senior put together a strong second and third period to claim a 9-5 decision over No. 26 Charlie Darracott, avenging a loss to him at the Southern Scuffle.

Wyatt Sheets nearly pulled off a major upset at 165 pounds, but dropped a 4-2 bout in sudden victory to No. 3 Shane Griffith. Sheets reversed Griffith to start the second period, but the former national champion was able to tie up the score with two escapes in regulation. In sudden victory, Griffith countered a shot by grabbing a hold of Sheets' shoe and eventually securing a takedown of the edge of the mat 52 seconds into the overtime period.

The Cowboys' upperweights would clinch the OSU victory beginning with an 11-5 decision from No. 9 Dustin Plott. The junior had dropped his previous two matches heading into Sunday, but was able to rally behind three takedowns to down No. 27 Tyler Eischens.

At 184 pounds, Wittlake racked up eight takedowns on his way to a 19-9 major decision over Brook Byers. Luke Surber followed up with a second-period pin of No. 25 Nick Stemmet. After buiding a 6-2 lead in the first period, Surber ran a chicken wing into an arm bar and stuck Stemmet at the 3:35 mark in the match.

Konner Doucet would claim a 7-2 decision over Peter Ming to snap a run of four consecutive losses, all of which to were higher ranked opponents. Stanford's Nico Provo would take the final bout of the afternoon with a 5-2 decision over Reece Witcraft at 125 pounds.

OKLAHOMA	6
OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 6	26

STILLWATER – The Oklahoma State wrestling team took down Oklahoma for the 17th consecutive time on senior night in Gallagher-Iba Arena, 26-6.

The win moved the all-time series record to 149-27-10 in favor of the Cowboys. Oklahoma State has defeated the Sooners in Gallagher-Iba Arena every season since 1999 and closed out the 2022-23 campaign with a 6-1 home record.

Four Cowboy seniors were honored before the match, including Kaden Gfeller, Wyatt Sheets, Jalin Harper and Gavin Stika. In addition, Ricky Stewart, a two-time national champion and four time All-American for OSU, was presented with the 2023 Gallagher Award.

After the Sooners' claimed a decision at 125 pounds to open the dual, Daton Fix put the Cowboys on top with a 15-6 major decision over No. 28 Wyatt Henson and they never looked back. Carter Young and Victor Voinovich followed up with decisions of their own, avenging losses from the first Bedlam dual in Norman. Young's 5-3 decision over No. 7 Mosha Schwartz is his fourth win over a top-10 opponent this season.

Six months after returning to the program for his final season of eligibility, Gfeller went out on top in his final home match with a 14-3 major decision over Jacob Butler. After the first period ended at 3-3, the Cowboy senior outscored Butler 11-0 in the final two periods, including a late takedown and four-point near fall in the third period that clinched the major decision.

Following Gfeller's major decision, Wyatt Sheets' late comeback attempt came up short against No. 22 Gerrit Nijenhuis. Dustin Plott put the Cowboys back on track with a 7-2 decision over No. 22 Tate Picklo as OSU would take the final four matches to seal the victory.

Travis Wittlake used a reversal and takedown en route to a 7-4 decision over former Cowboy Keegan Moore at 184 pounds, while Luke Surber defeated his former teammate at Tuttle High School, Carson Berryhill, 4-1. Konner Doucet closed out the dual and OSU's season in Gallagher-Iba Arena with a 2-1 win in overtime over No. 15 Josh Heindselman. After riding out Heindselman in the first 30-second period of the tiebreakers, Doucet selected a neutral start and avoided being taken down to win on riding time.

OKLAHOMA STATE NO. 6	7
IOWA NO. 2	28

IOWA CITY, Iowa – The Oklahoma State wrestling team fell to No. 2 Iowa, 28-7, on Sunday in the team's final dual of the regular season.

The Hawkeyes took control of the dual early behind a series of tight wins, building a 15-0 lead heading into intermission.

In the opening bout of the afternoon, No. 23 Wyatt Sheets held a lead over No. 7 Patrick Kennedy after two periods, but Kennedy would go on to pick up a 7-4 decision following a pair of takedowns in the final 54 seconds.

Three more closely-ranked matches ensued at 174, 184 and 197 pounds, with the Hawkeyes taking all three by a combined margin of victory of four.

At heavyweight, No. 3 Tony Cassioppi sent Iowa into the break with a 15-0 advantage after a 4-0 decision over No. 22 Konner Doucet.

Following intermission, No. 1 Spencer Lee pinned No. 28 Reece Witcraft in 51 seconds, extending the Iowa lead to 21-0.

No. 2 Daton Fix got the Cowboys on the board at 133 pounds, defeating No. 16 Brody Teske with an 11-3 major decision. Fix held a slight 4-3 edge early in the third period, but built on his lead with a takedown, four-point near fall and riding time point in the closing minutes.

The Hawkeyes went on to take two more matches at 141 and 149 pounds, as No. 2 Real Woods defeated No. 15 Carter Young, 11-0, and No. 6 Max Murin narrowly beat No. 20 Victor Voinovich by a score of 4-3.

No. 9 Kaden Gfeller closed the dual with a 3-2 decision over No. 13 Cole Siebrecht, in which he escaped in the first tiebreaker and got a ride out in the second to ice the match.

TULSA, Okla. – Oklahoma State wrestlers Daton Fix and Dustin Plott won individual conference titles Sunday night as the Cowboys wrapped up the 2023 Big 12 Wrestling Championships at second place in the team standings.

OSU's two individual championships tied for most in the tournament, and the Cowboys' 134 team points trailed only Missouri's final tally of 148.

The final session began with the 174-pound title match featuring the second-seeded Plott against top-seeded Peyton Mocco of Missouri in a rematch of the 2022 Big 12 final. Mocco struck first with a takedown in the opening period to take a 2-1 lead, but Plott answered with an escape in the second and then forced a stalling point to tie it at 3-3 in the third. With just under 15 seconds remaining, Plott finally completed a shot and scored the winning takedown to win the championship, 5-3. It marked the second consecutive Big 12 title for the junior from Tuttle.

Top-seeded Fix was the next Cowboy on the mat, as he wrestled No. 3 seed Zach Redding of Iowa State for the crown at 133-pounds. Fix jumped out to a 4-1 lead in the opening period and then rode out Redding the second period to build a riding time advantage of more than three minutes. In the final period, Fix used an escape and another pair of takedowns to finish out a 10-2 major decision.

It marked his fourth bonus point win of the tournament in as many bouts, improved his overall record to 26-0 and made him the 10th wrestler in Oklahoma State history to win four conference titles. His 24.5 total team points scored at the 2023 Big 12 Championships led all wrestlers in the tournament.

Gfeller was the final Cowboy to wrestle in the finals, facing top-seeded Jared Franek of North Dakota State in the 157-pound championship. The Cowboy senior made a run at Franek in the third period that came down to the final seconds, but was unable to finish off his upset bid in a 5-3 decision. It marked Gfeller's third overall and second consecutive appearance in the Big 12 finals.

With the addition of the individual titles, Oklahoma State now has 120 Big 12 champions and 295 conference champions in its wrestling history.

After their performance this weekend, the Cowboys clinched nine automatic berths to the 2023 NCAA Wrestling Championships, including every weight except 165 pounds. With an at-large bid at the weight, OSU can still have all 10 wrestlers compete at the event, scheduled for March 16-18 back at the BOK Center in Tulsa.

TULSA, Okla. – Oklahoma State's two All-Americans for the 2022-23 season earned their placements on Saturday morning as Daton Fix took fourth place at 133 pounds and Dustin Plott finished sixth at 174 pounds.

Both Cowboys began their mornings in the consolation semifinals with a chance to advance to the third-place match. Fix defeated Minnesota's eighth-seeded Aaron Nagao, 6-4, while Plott fell to third-seeded Mekhi Lewis, 8-2.

Fix moved on to the third-place match where he met No. 4 seed Michael McGee of Arizona State. After a scoreless first period, McGee got on the board with an escape in the second period. McGee rode Fix enough in the third period to earn a riding time point, which proved to be the difference in the match, after a late reversal attempt from Fix was denied after a challenge by Oklahoma State. The 2-1 loss for Fix ended his season with a record of 30-2, which included his fourth Big 12 championship and fourth All-America finish, while also surpassing 100 career wins.

In the fifth-place match at 174 pounds, Plott and Iowa's Nelson Brands went to sudden victory tied at 2 in their second meeting of the season. Brands scored a takedown in the first overtime period to take the match 4-2. Plott finished his junior season with a 25-7 record, his second Big 12 championship and his second consecutive sixth-place finish.

Oklahoma State currently sits in 18th place with 28.5 points after the Cowboys' wrapped up their tournament in the morning session and are without a finalist for the first time since 2018.

"I have to analyze everything by a season," head coach John Smith said. "I recognize my student-athletes wrestled hard and worked hard this season. It wasn't a lack of effort or wanting. I thought we wrestled a little tight. It seemed like we got here and guys wrestled tight when you have no room to wrestle tight. It's not good when you're ranked 15th and 20th, you have to have performances. I want to recognize these guys for working hard and really giving the effort to put ourselves in a position to have a lot better tournament than we had."

History

COWBOY WRESTLING TRADITION

Oklahoma State is the gold standard in the college wrestling world.

On the national level, the Cowboys have won 34 NCAA team titles, crowned 143 NCAA individual champions and earned 485 All-America honors.

No other program comes close to those astounding numbers.

It's a similar story on the conference level, with OSU winning 55 league titles as a team and Cowboy wrestlers combining to win 295 conference individual championships.

Furthermore, every four years, Oklahoma State is represented on the Olympic stage. Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have fought their way to Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with nine athletes winning a gold medal a total of 11 times.

From the individual perspective, any list of greatest wrestlers in NCAA history must include Oklahoma State's Yojiro Uetake, who was a perfect 57-0 with three NCAA titles and Pat Smith, who was the first four-time NCAA champion in history.

Pat's older brother, John Smith was a two-time NCAA champion for the Cowboys and went on to win a staggering six world-level gold medals from 1987-92, while his OSU teammate, Kenny Monday won four world-level medals, including gold in 1988 and 1989.

All told, 29 members of the Cowboy wrestling program are Distinguished Members of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame and an additional 14 combined to earn Outstanding Wrestler distinction at the NCAA Championships a total of 15 times (Uetake took home the honor twice in 1965 and 1966).

The elite level of coaching and instruction that takes place in the Cowboy wrestling room can be credited for the program's perennial success dating back to its inaugural seasons.

Ed Gallagher is credited as the Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling. He launched Oklahoma State into a dominant position in the sport when he led the Cowboys to 11 NCAA titles from 1928-1940. His impact on the sport is still felt today.

Art Griffith and his eight NCAA titles succeeded Gallagher. Myron Roderick then guided the Cowboys to seven crowns. Tommy Chesbro and Joe Seay combined to win three NCAA titles before John Smith took over and rattled off five NCAA titles... and counting.

Dating back to the inception of the NCAA Wrestling Championships in 1928, every Oklahoma State head coach has led the Cowboys to at least one NCAA title and Gallagher, Griffith, Roderick, Seay and John Smith have served as coaches for Team USA at either the Olympics or World Championships.

In 1917, Gallagher delivered the first dual match win in OSU wrestling history and in 2011, John Smith led the Cowboys to their 1,000th dual match triumph. In between those landmark wins, OSU won more than 89 percent of its duals all-time to further its stranglehold as the gold standard in college wrestling.

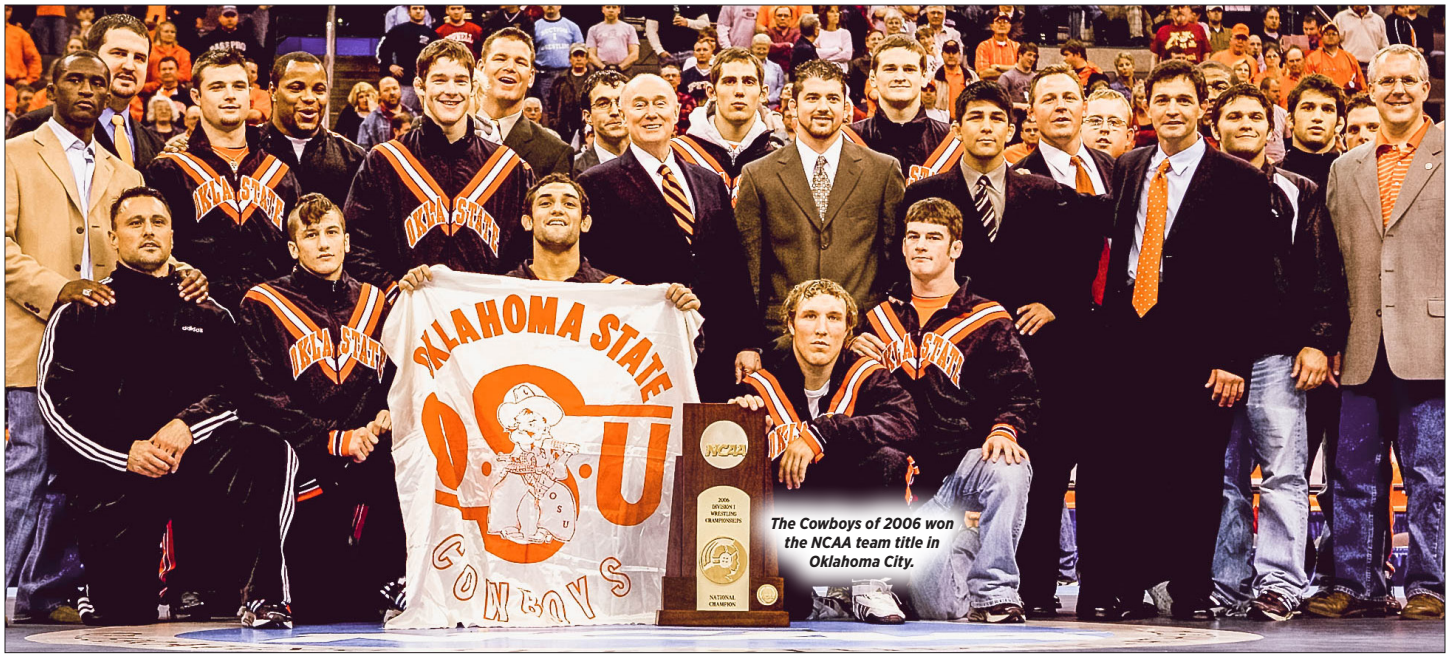
NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM STATS



The Cowboys of 2006 won the NCAA team title in Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma State has finished first as a team 34 times at the NCAA Wrestling Championships, including a tie in 1933. The NCAA did not keep team points in 1928 and 1930-33; therefore, the team championships are considered "unofficial" by the governing body during those years. The Cowboys have finished second 12 times and third 15 times. At least one individual champion has been from Oklahoma State in 71 of the 92 NCAA tournaments. NCAA OUTSTANDING WRESTLERS

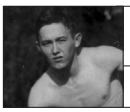
ALAN KELLY

1933 // 145 pounds

Alan Kelley capped a perfect 10-0 1933 season by storming to wins over Franklin&Marshall's Cassell in the first round of the NCAA Championships and Lehigh's B. Bishop in the second round. In the championship match, Kelley pinned Southwestern Oklahoma's F. Stout at the 12:12 mark to claim the 1933 NCAA Championship and earn Outstanding Wrestler honors. The next season, Kelley went 10-0 yet again and won his scond NCAA Championship. Of his 10 wins in 1934, seven came by fall.



ROSS FLOOD

1935 // 126 pounds

Ross Flood compiled a 31-1 overall record in three years at Oklahoma State, capped by a perfect 11-0 mark in 1935 that was highlighted by a win by fall over Southwestern Oklahoma's Gott in the NCAA Championship match. Flood pinned his opponent in three of his four matches at the 1935 NCAA Championships en route to earning Outstanding Wrestler recognition. Flood won the final 27 matches of his career, with 17 of those victories coming by fall. He went on to win the silver medal at the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

STANLEY HENSON

1937 // 145 pounds

Stanley Henson was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1937 NCAA Championships. He pinned his first opponent, Doolittle of Lafayette at the 3:17 mark, then came back to pick up another win by fall in the second round when he pinned Iowa State's Linn at 6:45. A semifinal win over Chicago University's Finwall preceded Henson's NCAA Championship-winning match over Illinois' McIlvoy. Henson compiled a 31-1 record during his three years at Oklahoma State that included wins in each of his final 29 bouts.

JOE MCDANIEL

Joe McDaniel capped a perfect 1938 season by earning Outstanding Wrestler accolades at the NCAA Championships that year. McDaniel won each of his three matches at NCAAs that year, pinning Penn State's King at the 2:50 mark in his first match before winning by decision over Minnesota's Hanson in the semifinal and Indiana's Duffy in the championship match. McDaniel started his OSU career by losing two of his first three bouts. He didn't lose again after that, rattling off 27 consecutive wins to finish out his career.

AL WHITEHURST

1941 // 136 pounds

Al Whitehurst was tabbed as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1941 NCAA Championships after picking up four wins, two of which came by fall. Whitehurst claimed a 6-2 win over Michigan State's Maxwell in the championship match to cap a 1941 season in which he put together a perfect 10-0 record. Whitehurst finished his two-year OSU career with a 19-1 overall record, with his lone setback a 1-0 overtime defeat in his first season.

DAVID ARNDT

1942 // 145 pounds

David Arndt never lost a match during his three-year career at Oklahoma State, stringing together a 23-0 career mark. A three-time NCAA champion, he was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler after storming through the 1942 NCAA Championships. Arndt picked up a healthy 13-3 win over Nebraska's Stout in his first match at NCAAs before replicating that score with a 13-3 wipeout of Rutgers' Paterno in his second match. Arndt pinned Cornell's Ellison at the 7:36 mark of the semifinal match before romping to an 18-5 win over Michigan's Johnson in the championship match.

CHARLES HETRICK

1949 // 128 pounds

Charles Hetrick earned Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1949 NCAA Championships. Hetrick finished his perfect 12-0 campaign that year by picking up a 6-2 win over Virginia Military's Perry in the first round. He pinned Colorado's Karbatsch at the 5:40 mark in the second round before claiming a 4-2 win over Northern Iowa's Bush in the semifinal. The championship match resulted in a 4-1 Hetrick win over Cornell's Thomsen.

YOJIRO UETAKE

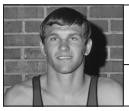
1965 and 1966 // 133 pounds

Just one year after winning the gold medal for his native Japan in the 1964 Tokyo Olympics, Yojiro Uetake took the mat for Oklahoma State and rolled to Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1965 NCAA Championships. Uetake won each of his five matches at NCAAs that year, highlighted by a 6-1 win over Lehigh's Peritore in the championship match. His closest match at the 1965 NCAAs was a 5-3 semifinal win over Michigan State's Behm. He became the first Cowboy ever to be named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Championships twice when he secured that recognition in 1966 after steamrolling to five one-sided victories. Uetake pinned Lehigh's Peritore at the 4:31 mark of the championship match to cap a dominating run through the NCAA Championships in which he won his bouts by scores of 12-4, 11-2, 18-3 and 11-2. Uetake finished his collegiate career with a 57-0 record before going on to claim his second Olympic gold medal at the 1968 Mexico City Olympics.

DWAYNE KELLER

1968 // 123 pounds

Dwayne Keller was honored as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1968 NCAA Championships after picking up a series of hard-fought victories in each of his final three matches. Keller started his run with a 12-5 victory over UCLA's Vallance, then pinned Army's Patton. A pair of one-point wins over Indiana State's Parker (5-4) and SUNY-Cortland's DeSario (3-2) ensued, putting Keller into the championship match, where he claimed a 4-2 win over Portland State's Sanders. Keller won two NCAA championships during his freshman and junior seasons at OSU and lost in the championship bout his senior year. He compiled a 64-1 record during his time at Oklahoma State.



DARRELL KELLER

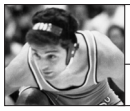
1971 // 142 pounds

Darrell Keller claimed Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 1971 NCAA Championships after claiming the second of his two national titles. Keller stomped his first two opponents to the tune of a 6-0 win over Stanford's Thomas and an 8-0 win over Western Michigan's Bacon. Keller's semifinal match against Navy's Keaser was a classic, with Keller claiming an overtime win to set up a 16-12 victory over Washington's Owings in the championship match.

MIKE SHEETS

1983 // 167 pounds

Mike Sheets went a perfect 29-0 in 1983 and was honored as the Outstading Wrestler of the NCAA Championships that year after dominating the competition. Sheets started his run by romping to a 29-2 win over St. Lawrence's Todd Northrup in the first round before crushing Portland State's Kevin Benson, 14-0 in the second round. Sheets beat Illinois State's Mike Jones, 6-0 in the quarterfinal before handing Nebraska's Ray Oliver a 5-1 defeat in the semis. A convincing 14-0 win over Navy's John Reich put a cap on Sheets' impressive performance.



JOHN SMITH

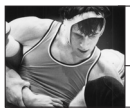
Just one year after winning the first of his U.S. Freestyle National Championships and claiming gold at the Goodwill Games in Moscow and well on his way toward establishing himself as the best wrestler in the world, John Smith was recognized as the Outstanding Wrestler at the 1987 NCAA Championships. Smith crushed the opposition at NCAAs that year, pinning Drexel's Tim Rothka at the 6:30 mark in his first-round match before rolling to a 23-8 technical fall win over Michigan State's Dan Matauch in the second round. Smith made it two technical fall victories in a row when he handed Lehigh's Jim Frick a 22-7 beating in the third round. A 20-9 semifinal win over Ohio's Rob Johnson set up a rematch with Nebraska's Gil Sanchez for the national title. Sanchez handed Smith his only loss of the year in Smith's first match of the regular season. Smith avenged that loss with an 18-4 pounding of Sanchez for the crown.



CHRIS BARNES

Chris Barnes secured NCAA Outstanding Wrestler honors in 1990 after storming through the competition. Barnes pinned Duke's Keith Girvan at the 6:31 mark in the first round before picking up technical fall wins over North Carolina's Ben Oberly (19-4) and Rider's John Hangey (22-7) in the second and third rounds, respectively. William & Mary's Rob Larmore suffered a 14-8 defeat at the hands of Barnes in the semifinals before Barnes put a cap on his run to the NCAA crown with a 10-2 major decision victory over Minnesota's Marty Morgan in the championship match.

PAT SMITH

The only four-time national champion in Oklahoma State's illustrious histoy, Pat Smith earned Outstanding Wrestler honors his senior year at the 1994 NCAA Championships. Smith won by technical fall in each of his first two matches at NCAAs that year, claiming a 23-8 win over Kent State's Jim Andrassy in the first round before disposing of Nebraska's Jason Kraft by a 26-10 spread in the second round. Smith beat Oregon State's Dan Alar by a 14-3 major decision before moving on to the semifinals, where he beat Boston University's Earl Walker, 6-2. Smith was crowned with his fourth NCAA championship when he beat Michigan's Sean Bormet, 5-3 in the championship match.

* OSU won the team title and later vacated it. OSU did not compete in 1993 due to NCAA sanctions.

Daton Fix became OSU's 10th four-time conference champion at the Big 12 Championships at 133 pounds in 2023.

COWBOY WRESTLING OLYMPIANS

Since 1924, 32 Oklahoma State wrestlers have fought their way to Olympic team membership a total of 41 times, with nine athletes winning a gold medal a total of 11 times. That includes OSU three-time NCAA champion Yojiro Uetake, who took the gold medal twice for his home country of Japan and John Smith, who won two gold medals for the United States.

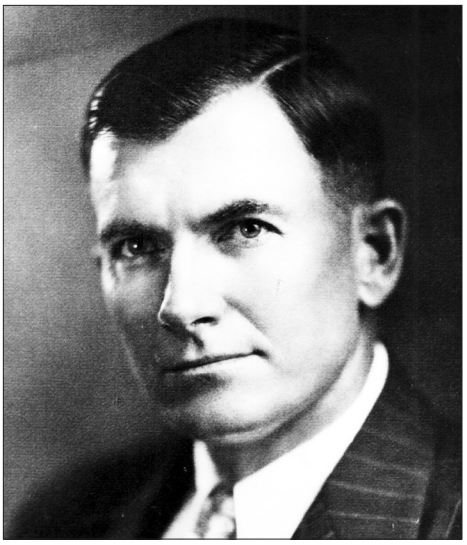
WRESTLING LEGEND ED GALLAGHER



By Mark Palmer (July 31, 2008)

Re-printed with permission

Thirty-four NCAA team titles. 143 individual NCAA champs. Nearly 500 NCAA All-Americans.

By any measure, Oklahoma State has built a wrestling legacy unmatched by any other college wrestling program over many decades. And the man who laid the strong foundation for that legacy is Ed Gallagher, Cowboys wrestling coach from 1916 through 1940.

As head coach, Gallagher's Cowboys racked up a 136-5-4 overall record for an incredible .952 winning percentage. During his 24 seasons at the reins, Gallagher's teams had nineteen undefeated seasons, winning eleven NCAA team titles. Gallagher coached 22 wrestlers to earn 37 individual national championships; seventeen of his Cowboys wrestled in Olympic competition, with three winning gold medals. Because of these accomplishments, Ed Gallagher's name adorns the arena at Oklahoma State... and he was named one of three "Best Wrestling Coaches" in an online poll of wrestling fans for the NCAA 75th Anniversary Team honors in 2005. (The other two coaches: Iowa State's Harold Nichols, and University of Iowa's Dan Gable.)

The Versatile Athlete Who Never Wrestled

Born September 5, 1887 in Perth, Kansas, Edward Clark Gallagher was a natural athlete, running track and playing football in high school. As a student at Oklahoma State -- then called Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College -- Gallagher set 100-yard dash and hurdle records that stood for thirty years. In 1908, he ran 99 yards for a touchdown against Kansas State, which still stands as an Oklahoma State record for longest run from scrimmage.

After graduating from Oklahoma State in 1909 with an engineering degree, Ed Gallagher stayed in Stillwater as the school's track coach. In 1913, he was lured away to Baker College in Baldwin City, Kansas, where he coached all sports ... however, two years later, he was back at Oklahoma State, serving as athletic director.

During the 1914-1915 school year, Oklahoma State launched its wrestling program, with A.M. Colville as coach. That first season, the Cowboys wrestled only one dual meet – held in conjunction with a gymnastics event -- and were trounced by the University of Texas. The following year, Ed Gallagher took the helm of the wrestling program ... despite never having wrestled in an organized program in high school or college.

Ed Gallagher's lack of mat experience may seem stunning these days, considering today's top college wrestling coaches have resumes loaded with high school state and national wrestling titles, NCAA championships and even international mat honors. Yet, when Gallagher was in school, organized wrestling programs were rare, outside those at YMCAs and men's clubs, or at eastern colleges ... so opportunities to compete on the mat were very limited for someone from the Great Plains such as Gallagher.

The lack of on-the-mat experience ultimately didn't hurt Ed Gallagher and his Oklahoma State wrestlers. Admittedly, Gallagher's first season as head coach (1915-16) was a losing one; the Cowboys again had just one dual meet, again losing to Texas, this time by an even more lopsided 22.5-2.5 score. However, in his second year, Gallagher's matmen wrestled three duals, winning two (against Emporia State and Texas), and tying with Arkansas.

That winning momentum was sidelined after the 1916-17 season; because of World War I, there was no wrestling team at Oklahoma State, as most of the male students were serving in the military or reserves. However, when the program resumed in the 1919-20 school year, the Gallagher dynasty began its long, successful run as the dominant college wrestling program throughout the 1920s and 30s.

Engineering Success on the Mat

As an engineer, Ed Gallagher employed a systematic approach to the sport of wrestling ... starting with how he selected young men to wrestle for Oklahoma State. He looked at their families, picking sons of "upstanding" parents ... and favoring "only boys who cannot go out in society." In other words, those who might be considered economically disadvantaged, and would view wrestling as a springboard for success in life beyond the mat.

Gallagher also expected his wrestlers to live clean -- no smoking, no drinking, and, perhaps most startling nowadays, no dating. "The best woman in the world can do you no good," claimed the Cowboy coach. (No, Gallagher was not a confirmed bachelor; he married right out of college, and together, Ed and the former Mary Austella Taylor had a total of six children -- three boys, and three girls.) Along with clean living off the mat, Gallagher stressed clean behavior on the mat. He wanted his men to wrestle tough, with determination ... but with character, and good sportsmanship.

In selecting wrestlers for his program, Gallagher also favored a specific type of physique. He sought "lean plainsmen" -- tall, slim, strong men, rather than compact, muscular types who were typical in college wrestling even 80-90 years ago. Ideally, these long, lean wrestlers must have quick reactions, according to the coach's criteria.

Ed Gallagher's engineering background also guided his primary focus -- the study of leverage, and how it applied to wrestling. Using a human skeleton and rubber bands, he spent hours figuring out holds and counters -- one report saying he spent at least two hours a day in his office on this task. The Cowboy coach developed, by his own count, 400-500 holds and variations; he expected each of his men to know at least 200 of those.

Perhaps most surprising, Ed Gallagher was open about sharing his scientific approach to wrestling. His teams often put on wrestling demonstrations before or after a dual meet in an opponent's gym. In 1939, he and his Cowboys were featured in a three-page "how-to-wrestle" feature for the popular photo-magazine, "Life." In addition, he wrote two very popular instructional books, titled simply "Amateur Wrestling" and "Wrestling."

Break it Down

Here's a specific example of how the engineer in Ed Gallagher guided his instruction of his wrestlers: He told them to think of an opponent on all fours as a table. To succeed, his wrestlers need to "break" at least one leg of the table. If the opponent's arms were weak, that was the point of attack; if the arms were strong, go for the legs.

Another way to "break" an opponent, according to Gallagher: Make more than one attempt or counter. Continue a string of attacks until you have opponent under control. In other words, never give up.

Not all of Ed Gallagher's ideas came from his own engineering mind. According to the book about the history of the Oklahoma State wrestling program, "Cowboys Ride Again!" Gallagher picked up a tip from 1920s professional wrestling champ Ed "Strangler" Lewis: If possible, "take two deep breaths and immediately pitch back viciously. To do this correctly, break out of the predicament first, and, step back and draw the breaths. Now, he (the opponent) will see this and either follow suit or at least temporarily relax, and you can catch him somewhat relaxed."

Eat to Win

Coach Gallagher made a science of studying the diet of his wrestlers. He generally allowed his wrestlers to eat what they wanted, as long as it what was what they typically consumed, in reasonable quantities. However, he discouraged his wrestlers from consuming cold drinks.

He focused on glycogen, the form in which sugar is used in the body, turning one-third of that into carbon dioxide, and the remaining two-thirds to water and lactic acid -- the cause of oxygen debt, leading to hard breathing during exertion in workouts and during a wrestling match.

After weigh-ins, instead of chowing down with a big meal as most wrestlers did in the 1920s and 30s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually contented themselves with hot tea, sweetened with brown sugar, honey or Karo syrup. He wanted his men to be "properly sugared" especially when trying to make weight.

Your Great-Grandfather's Cowboys

College wrestling of the Ed Gallagher era differs significantly in a number of ways from the sport we know today. For starters, the Cowboys wrestled just 5-8 dual meets in a typical season in the 1920s and 30s. Each regulation match lasted ten minutes. There was no point scoring system; matches were won by a pin (back then, shoulders had to be on the mat for a full three seconds), or by "time advantage" -- essentially, whoever had the most riding time. In 1938 -- towards the end of Gallagher's coaching career -- this system was replaced, with the referee making the decision as to who won. The referee decision system didn't last; in 1941, the beginnings of today's point system made their appearance in college wrestling.

Perhaps the most startling difference for today's fans: For home meets, the Oklahoma State wrestlers competed in a roped-off ring, like those for boxing or professional wrestling. The actual wrestling area was the same as on-the-floor mats in other college events. In reviewing "NCAA Wrestling Guides" of the era -- the annual rules-and-results publication for high school and college wrestling -- there are diagrams governing ring size, number of ropes, what the ropes should be made of, and how they should be secured... but nothing about rules governing how the ring could be used. The only hint: In "Cowboys Ride Again!" there's a description of a match in which an angry Oklahoma State wrestler threw an opponent over the top rope, which apparently was against the rules... but the Cowboy wasn't disqualified, and the match resumed.

The Cowboys weren't alone in wrestling in roped-off rings. According to college yearbook photos, teams at Indiana University, University of Iowa, Iowa State Teachers College (now University of Northern Iowa), and Northwestern University also had rings for home meets 70-80 years ago. (The NCAA banned wrestling rings in the early 1940s.)

The gear Ed Gallagher's men wore to wrestle was radically different, too. No one-piece black-and-orange, synthetic-fabric singlets for the Cowboys back then. During the more than two decades Gallagher coached at Oklahoma State, his wrestlers wore a variety of uniforms. Through much of the 1920s, his wrestlers wore full-length wool tights. There was a time where the Cowboys wore tights with what was called a black Tom -- also known as an outside supporter -- on top of the tights. Towards the late 1930s, Gallagher's wrestlers usually wore wool trunks, much like we associate with pro wrestling, with no tights.

Despite these variations in what the Cowboys wore below the waist, throughout the 1920s and 30s they usually wrestled bare-chested at home meets and at events at colleges in the Midwest and Southwest. However, when wrestling in the east, Gallagher's wrestlers would often be required to put on sleeveless shirts, at the request of the school hosting the event. (An NCAA rule change in the mid 1960s prohibited shirtless wrestling.) Going all the way to the top ... headgear was not required as it is now, and a very rare sight in the Gallagher era.

When not wrestling, the Oklahoma State wrestlers often traveled in gear appropriate to their team name. Outfitted in Stetson hats, colorful flannel shirts, and cowboy boots, team members made an incredible impression wherever they traveled. Adding to the Cowboy mystique, some team members performed rope tricks in opponents' gyms before some dual meets.

The Cowboy Way of Winning

No matter what they wore -- or whether they wrestled in a ring or mats on the floor -- Ed Gallagher's Oklahoma State Cowboys dominated the college wrestling scene for more than two decades. In the years after World War I, the Cowboys never had a losing season. In fact, in the eleven-year period from the 1919-20 through the 1930-31 seasons, the Cowboys never lost a dual meet. That's 69 consecutive wins!

Among the Cowboys' opponents during the Roaring Twenties: University of Oklahoma, University of Kansas, Kansas State, Texas, Iowa State, Cornell College of Iowa ... as well as farther-flung teams such as West Virginia, the U.S. Naval Academy, and the Philadelphia Athletic Club. Who broke the eleven-year, 70-match winning streak? Cross-state rivals Oklahoma. The Sooners beat the Cowboys by one point in the last dual meet of the 1931-32 season. During the rest of the decade, the Cowboys had only one other loss (at Southwestern Oklahoma State in the 1936-37 season) ... and three ties. Most victories were by a substantial margin.

In 1928, the NCAA launched a national wrestling championship to conclude the dual-meet season. At the very first NCAAs -- held at the Armory at Iowa State -- Oklahoma State claimed four individual titles out of a total of seven weight classes.

That was no fluke; in the thirteen years of NCAA competition, the men coached by Ed Gallagher ruled the national championships each year. The leanest year for Cowboys was 1936, when just one wrestler -- Harley "Doc" Strong -- won a title. However, in a typical year, at least three Cowboys brought home an individual championship.

During the Gallagher era, 22 individual wrestlers won a total of 37 NCAA titles. Among the Cowboys who won three championships (back when freshmen were not eligible for NCAA/varsity competition): Earl McCready (the very first three-time college champ), Jack VanBebber, Conrad Caldwell, Rex Peery, Ross Flood, Joe McDaniel, and Stanley Henson.

Ed Gallagher's men did incredibly well on the ultimate international stage, too. From 1924 through 1936, Oklahoma State had fifteen wrestlers qualify for the U.S. Olympic wrestling teams ... along with Earl McCready wrestling for his native Canada at the 1928 Olympics, and Canadian big man George Chiga competing for his home team at the 1936 Olympics. Of these Cowboy Olympians, four earned medals in freestyle competition. At the 1932 Olympics in Los Angeles, Bobby Pearce won gold at 123 pounds, while Jack VanBebber claimed gold at 158.5. In the 1936 Berlin Olympics, Ross Flood brought home a silver medal at 123 pounds, and Frank Lewis won gold at 158.5.

Coach Gallagher's Toughest Battle

For years, Ed Gallagher dealt with the challenges of Parkinson's, the same disease afflicting legendary boxing champ Muhammad Ali and actor Michael J. Fox today. In 1936, Oklahoma State and the entire Stillwater community put on a fundraising event at the school's Lewis Field football stadium so that coach Gallagher could travel with his wrestlers to the Berlin Olympics ... then take a side trip to Vienna to be tested by physicians there, at the request of his son Clarence, a doctor.

To help lighten his load, in 1938, Ed Gallagher retired as director of physical education at Oklahoma State, but continued on as wrestling coach.

It was about this time that construction began on a new, $500,000 arena on the Oklahoma State campus that would serve as home for the Cowboy basketball and wrestling programs. Completed in 1939, what was originally called the 4-H Club and Student Activity Building was state-of-the-art for the time, featuring an air-cooling system ... and over 5,000 theater-type seats, as well as collapsible bleachers for wrestling events, bringing total seating capacity to nearly 9,000 fans.

February 3, 1939 was declared "Gallagher Day" in Stillwater, in honor of the beloved wrestling coach. It was that day that the new arena -- nicknamed "the Madison Square Garden of the Midwest" -- was officially dedicated. That night, the facility hosted its first event, a dual meet with Indiana University, one of the top programs of the era. The Cowboys defeated the Hoosiers 18-9.

At the end of the 1939-40 season, outdoorsman and hunter Ed Gallagher went to the Rocky Mountains for an extended vacation. While in Colorado, he collapsed and died on August 28, 1940 ... just a week shy of his 54th birthday.

His funeral was held at the new arena that had been named in his honor (and is still home to the wrestling Cowboys, now called Gallagher-Iba Arena, having been substantially upgraded and expanded in 2001.) Thousands came for the funeral for the man referred to in obituaries as "the Dean of Collegiate Wrestling" and "the Knute Rockne of the Mats" (referring to the legendary Notre Dame football coach killed in a plane crash a few years' earlier).

Reading the text of the 1939 "Gallagher Day" souvenir program and the 1940 Redskin yearbook -- the last featuring Ed Gallagher as coach -- has added poignancy now. Even though he had been battling Parkinson's for years, there was optimism in the words in these publications produced in the last year of his life. In the "Gallagher Day" program, long-time friend and sportswriter Randle Perdue began his profile of the coach with this positive paragraph:

"The big news about Ed Gallagher is that he is improving in health! In recent weeks he has found a new medicine, the result of long search by his son, Dr. Clarence Gallagher, and evidently it is effective. Ed has gained nearly twenty pounds in weight. He is more cheerful, more hopeful. He is optimistic about the future. In fact, he has made a date to go quail hunting next fall. It will be his first time in about five years. When Ed gets back to quail hunting, he will be the Ed Gallagher of old."

In the 1940 Redskin yearbook, the last line of text in the description of the Cowboys' 1939-40 season closes with "With two intercollegiate champions and several intercollegiate runners-up returning, Coach Gallagher should have little trouble turning out another national championship for Oklahoma A. and M. College in 1940-1941." (Art Griffith became the Oklahoma State head wrestling coach upon Gallagher's passing in 1940. The Cowboys were 6-0 for the 1940-41 season, winning four individual titles and the team title at the 1941 NCAAs.)

The Gallagher Legacy

In tallying up the accomplishments of the Ed Gallagher era, the stats are impressive: 19 undefeated seasons out of 23 ... only two losses in the last nine seasons ... six AAU (Amateur Athletic Union) team titles ... ten outright NCAA team titles (tied for first for an eleventh)... 73 NCAA and AAU individual champs ... and three Olympic gold medalists.

Ed Gallagher's legacy goes far beyond those stats. He coached a number of wrestlers who went on to become high school and college wrestling coaches themselves. Among the Cowboys turned coaches: Cliff Keen at the University of Michigan ... Paul Keen at Oklahoma ... Buell Patterson, who coached at Kent State, Nebraska and Illinois... Rex Peery at Pittsburgh ... Fendley Collins at Michigan State ... Joe McDaniel at Syracuse and Wyoming ... and Orion Stuteville at Northwestern.

Buell Patterson weighed in with his thoughts on coach Gallagher: "A reason that the men who have worked under Ed like him so well is that if he lost a match, they never received a bawling out. And believe me, it is a lot of satisfaction to give all one has for a man and know that what one gives will be satisfactory with him, even if one makes mistakes."

Another one of his coaching protégés, Carl "Dutch" Voyles (who coached at Duke and William & Mary), said of his mentor: "No one ever said an unkind word about him. That must have been because Ed was so full of kindness himself ... there are all too few men like Gallagher in this world of ours."

In his article about Ed Gallagher for the 1939 "Gallagher Day" program, Randle Perdue said of the man he had known since 1911:

"Applicable adjectives, on which Ed's friends all agree as describing him, include honest, fair, clean, square, quiet, unassuming, uncomplaining, canny, crafty, foxy, firm, shrewd, fearless, modest, sincere, stubborn, determined, and uncompromising – altogether friendly and possessing a fine sense of humor..."

"Gallagher has never been cocky, or disagreeably boastful. He has taken his victories graciously. He has never complained about a referee's decision -- at least not publicly."

The legacy of Ed Gallagher lives on in so many ways, beyond having his name on an arena ... or the annual award that bears his name, given to an Oklahoma State wrestling alumnus. (Among the past honorees: Bobby Douglas, Doug Blubaugh, John Smith, Pat Smith, and Kenny Monday.) His analytical, engineering-based approach to amateur wrestling revolutionized the sport. The success of his Cowboys helped launch high school wrestling programs throughout the state of Oklahoma, making the Sooner State a leading hotbed for wrestling to this day. What's more, the foundation of success laid by Ed Gallagher and his wrestlers has been built upon over the decades to the point where today, the Oklahoma State Cowboys still claim the most individual and team titles in NCAA wrestling.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

ED GALLAGHER

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1916-40

He was a pioneer, not only of wrestling techniques but also of wrestling tradition. From Oklahoma State University, where his coaching achievements were unparalleled, Ed Gallagher's influence spread across the nation. Long after his death in 1940, the torch was carried onward by Gallagher's pupils, who became great coaches in their own right .

As a collegian, Gallagher excelled in football and track. He was clocked once in 9.8 seconds while winning the 100-yard dash in the Southwest Conference meet, and his 99-yard run in the Kansas State football game that same year, 1908, still stands as the OSU school record.

He earned his degree in electrical engineering, but chose a career of coaching football and track and teaching physical education. He remained at his alma mater several years, then went to Baker University in Kansas. In 1916, he returned to Oklahoma State as director of athletics.

Gallagher introduced scientific wrestling to gym glasses and put his first varsity team on the mat that year. He applied his engineering knowledge of leverage and stress to the development of more than 400 wrestling holds. He was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods.

In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams. His wrestlers won 138 dual meets, tied four and lost only five. During the 10 years prior to 1932 his teams scored 69 consecutive victories.

When the NCAA tournament was inaugurated in 1928, halfway through his coaching career, Gallagher's wrestlers won four of the seven individual titles, earning recognition as the first championship team. Competing in 13 national meets, Gallagher's teams reigned supreme 10 times and shared an 11th title. Along the way, they won 37 individual NCAA titles, 32 National AAU crowns, and three Olympic gold medals.

As one of the great coaches in the history of the sport, Edward Clark Gallagher is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

ART GRIFFITH

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Head Coach, 1941-56

He always felt a coach should lead his wrestlers to championships, and Art Griffith lived up to that ideal. In 30 years of coaching, he took his teams to 77 tournaments and never left the scene without at least one gold medal.

Griffith's coaching career spanned two great dynasties, first for 15 years at Central High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and then for 13 seasons at Oklahoma State University. His records were fabulous.

His high school teams won 94 of 100 matches, 50 of them in a row, and 10 Oklahoma scholastic championships. A dozen times, his Braves were undefeated, and they won the only two national high school tournaments conducted.

Succeeding Edward C. Gallagher, he took the reins at Oklahoma State in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships in 13 attempts. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated. His wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles.

When he became the Cowboy coach, they already had won 27 consecutive dual meets. Under his leadership, that streak was extended to a record 76 before a loss in 1951. He was U.S. Olympic coach in 1948.

Griffith developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

Another lasting contribution was Griffith's development of the point scoring system for wrestling bouts, which in early days were determined only by falls or time advantage. Griffith served in many roles throughout his career, but the effect of his coaching greatness was most evident in 1941. Of the 16 National Collegiate finalists that year, all but two had been coached by Griffith either in high school or college.

For his legendary exploits as a wrestling coach, Art Griffith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

MYRON RODERICK

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1954-56/Head Coach, 1957-69

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 42 of 44 matches and three National Collegiate championships, one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion.

But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. And there was no interlude between his two careers. From national champion in 1956 to the new torch-bearer of the great Oklahoma State coaching tradition in 1957 was an abrupt but highly successful transition.

In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was, at 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions. His Cowboys won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 84 consecutive duals without a loss.

His wrestlers won 20 individual NCAA titles and four gold medals in the Olympic Games. He also coached his teams to two National AAU championships, was the United States coach in the 1963 World Games and was assistant coach in the 1964 Olympics.

Roderick departed from tradition in one respect. He carried his personal intensity into a search for quality wrestlers and, more than any other man, introduced recruiting on a major scale into the sport of wrestling.

As the first executive director of the U. S. Wrestling Federation, he established the foundation of USA Wrestling, the sport's national governing body. He saw the need for a National Wrestling Hall of Fame and worked not only to bring the dream to life, but also to ensure its future.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and coach, and his lifelong leadership in the sport, Myron Willis Roderick is a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JACK VAN BEBBER

Class of 1976 (Inaugural Class)
Wrestler, 1929-31

He vanquished the nation's finest wrestlers seven times, but when Jack VanBebber set out to conquer the world, he had to hitch-hike. At the 1932 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, while awaiting his final bout for the gold medal, VanBebber suddenly learned that the time schedule had been altered and he was due on the mat within the hour, six miles away. No transportation was provided, or available, so he set out afoot. After two miles, a passing motorist gave him a ride to the arena.

Once at the scene, however, his opponent proved no more effective than his earlier victims. And "Blackjack" VanBebber became champion of the world with a decision over Eino Leino of Finland, a four-time Olympian who already owned gold, silver and bronze medals.

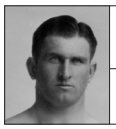
VanBebber was undefeated as a collegiate wrestler for Oklahoma State University in 1929, '30 and '31, winning three NCAA championships at 155 and 165 pounds. He captured National AAU titles his junior and senior years, then moved to Los Angeles in 1932 and won another.

The only defeat of his wrestling career came in an early round of the Olympic trials, but he rallied to win the trials and successfully defended his 158.5-pound assignment during final challenge bouts in Los Angeles. For more than 50 years he was the only American-born wrestler to win three NCAA titles and an Olympic gold medal.

VanBebber served four years in the infantry during World War II, three of them in the Pacific theater. He then joined the Phillips Petroleum Company for 39 years until his retirement, and taught wrestling to sons of company employees and to Boy Scouts.

In 1950, a national poll of U. S. coaches, officials and sports editors selected him as one of the country's top 10 amateur athletes in the first half of the 20th Century.

In recognition of his outstanding achievements as a competitor, Jack Francis VanBebber is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



EARL MCCREADY

Class of 1977
Wrestler, 1928-30

His nickname was "Moose" -maybe because of his home town in Saskatchewan, Canada, but more likely because of Earl McCready's stature as the first great heavyweight wrestler of the collegiate events.

International recruiting was unheard-of in the mid-1920s, but in 1926 Fendley Collins and two teammates from Oklahoma State drove to Vancouver and won the Canadian national freestyle tournament. They liked the looks of the strapping 220-pound youngster named McCready and talked him into following them back to their campus.

Under the guidance of Coach Edward C. Gallagher, he won every match for three years, all but three of them by falls. He was the anchor man, the cleanup hitter, for three undefeated championship teams. "We never worried if the match was close," one of his teammates recalls. "We knew Moose would get them, and he always did."

McCready wrestled in the first three NCAA tournaments in 1928-29-30, and won the championship each year, thus becoming the first three-time champion in collegiate history. It was 20 years before another heavyweight could match that. In the 1928 finals, he won by a fall in 19 seconds, still a record for an NCAA meet held under collegiate rules.

He also won four national freestyle championships, one in the United States and three in Canada, and represented Canada in the 1928 Olympic Games, carrying his country's banner in the opening ceremonies. He won a gold medal in the 1930 British Empire Games.

As a collegiate athlete, McCready was a three-year football letterman at guard, winning all-star honors in 1929.

He wrestled professionally for 28 years, including a match in the famed Royal Albert Hall in London. He was the first wrestler to demonstrate the sport on British television.

As a wrestler of great achievement, one who set the pattern for those who followed, Earl Gray McCready is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

ROSS FLOOD

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1933-35

One of his ancestors, Daniel Boone, was a fair-to-middlin' sharpshooter, and when Ross Flood went hunting for wrestling championships his aim was just as good.

At Blackwell, Ross and his brother John became the first twins to win Oklahoma high school championships. Then Ross pursued his wrestling career at Oklahoma State University under Coach Edward C. Gallagher.

Undefeated in 30 matches at 126 pounds, he won three National Collegiate championships in 1933, '34 and '35, each time leading the Cowboys to NCAA team honors. As a senior he was voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament.

His achievements continued to mount when he won National AAU championships in 1935 and '36 and another outstanding wrestler trophy. He then earned a place on the U. S. Olympic team and captured the silver medal at 123 pounds in the Berlin Games.

In the 1937 Pan American Exposition at Dallas, he won the gold medal at the expense of three other national champions, despite severe rib injuries which brought an end to his competitive career.

For six years he was a successful high school coach in Stillwater, then entered the Navy to spend five years as a physical instructor, including wartime service in the Pacific theater. He returned to coaching in 1946 to revive the wrestling program at Southwestern Oklahoma State, then purchased a livestock auction in Stillwater, which he operated for three decades.

Billy Sheridan, the famed Lehigh coach, often declared that Ross Flood provided the best example he had ever seen of wrestling skills and techniques.

In recognition of his tremendous achievements as a wrestling champion, Aaron Ross Flood is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

STANLEY HENSON

Class of 1978
Wrestler, 1937-39

In the never-ending debate over who has been America's greatest wrestler, the name of Stanley Henson always receives plenty of support. His record as a competitor speaks for itself.

Henson's career was blessed by the leadership of two Hall of Fame coaches. At Tulsa Central High School, under Art Griffith, he wrestled two years, won two state championships and the outstanding wrestler award as a senior.

Then he joined the Oklahoma State University team of Edward C. Gallagher. Defeated only once in three seasons, Henson won three NCAA championships and each time led the Cowboys to the team title.

In 1937, he became the first sophomore to be voted outstanding wrestler of the national tournament. He continued to excel the next two years, but the nation's coaches were not yet ready to present their cherished award to any man a second time. He also won the Pan American Exposition in 1937 and scored a 1938 double with the National AAU freestyle title. As his junior year drew to a close with two championships, Henson already was thinking more of medical school than of wrestling.

During a European tour in the fall of 1938, he suffered a severe shoulder injury which hampered him during his senior year but couldn't prevent a third NCAA title, this one at 155 pounds after two at 145.

After five years as a physical instructor and wrestling assistant at the Naval Academy, Henson was able to concentrate fully on the study of medicine, completing his degree in 1950 at the University of Maryland.

A highly respected surgeon, he was one of the first to combine his athletic and medical interests in the rapidly growing field of sports medicine, where he became a nationally known lecturer and consultant.

As a dominant figure in the sport of wrestling and a continuing example of the qualities of self-discipline, sportsmanship and integrity, Dr. Stanley Willard Henson Jr. is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DOUG BLUBAUGH

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1955-57

In the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Doug Blubaugh battled the world champion from Iran for the Olympic gold medal. Emamali Habibi had never known defeat.

Three times the Persian attacked, each time throwing the young American into danger. Then a swift counterattack from Blubaugh hurled his opponent to his back ... suddenly the struggle was ended.

Thus did an Oklahoma farm boy reach the apex of a brilliant athletic career, earning the 1960 Olympic gold medal at 160.5 pounds, and with it recognition as the outstanding wrestler in the world.

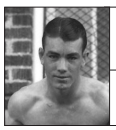
Doug Blubaugh was no stranger to the role of champion. He won NCAA honors for Oklahoma State in 1957 and National AAU Freestyle titles in 1957, when he was named outstanding wrestler, and 1959.

A year before his Olympic conquest, he won a gold medal in the 1959 Pan American Games at Chicago, matching the 1955 achievement of his brother, Jack. They were the first brothers to capture Pan Am titles.

Blubaugh is remembered, too, for his epic struggles with a former college teammate, Phil Kinyon. Over four years of Freestyle competition, they met 13 times. The first 12 bouts ended in draws, 11 scoreless. Five of these were in the 1960 Olympic trials, before Blubaugh crashed through for the takedown and victory that sent him on to Olympic glory.

From a competitive career totaling more than 400 victories against just 17 defeats, Blubaugh turned to coaching and won added respect for his teaching skills and his honesty and dedication. After seven years as an assistant at Michigan State, during which he was Freestyle coach of U. S. teams in the 1971 Pan American Games and World Championships, he spent a decade as head coach at Indiana University.

As a champion athlete of awesome achievement, and as a living example to young men of the highest standards of character and integrity, Douglas Morlan Blubaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



FRANK LEWIS

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1933-35

As a tall, skinny college freshman, Frank Lewis was "a little tired" after six years of wrestling and planned to give full attention to his studies at Oklahoma State University.

But he needed a physical education credit and a wrestling class would provide an easy grade. Members of the class were required to compete in the all-college intramurals and when he failed to win the championship his pride was stung. He decided to concentrate on wrestling again.

Frank Lewis concentrated so well that he became a national champion and the gold medalist in the 1936 Olympic Games at Berlin.

A state high school champ and four-time medalist from 100 to 155 pounds, he possessed the raw talent from which coach Edward C. Gallagher could mold a winner. But because of his rapid growth, the youngster didn't have the stamina to wrestle the longer college matches. And because of a minor heart condition, his coach had to devise a special training routine to build stamina without putting a strain on his health.

Despite these difficulties, he established a collegiate record of 45-5, winning the NCAA title in 1935 after placing second the year before. Both years he contributed vital points to the Cowboys' team trophies.

In 1935, he won the National AAU crown and became the first contestant to be officially recognized as outstanding wrestler of a National AAU tournament, receiving a gold watch for this honor. A year later, he swept undefeated through the series of Olympic trials, then defended his position against his alternate on the boat to Europe.

In the Games, he scored a fall the first day, another the second day. He wrestled three times the third day, but stamina no longer was a problem and two more falls offset a narrow loss to Tur Andersson of Sweden as Frank Lewis became the only American to win a championship.

As a wrestler of ultimate achievement and a lifelong example of perseverance and dedication to goals, Frank Wiatt Lewis is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

JOE MCDANIEL

Class of 1979
Wrestler, 1937-39

He was destined to be an Olympic champion, but the Games of the XII Olympiad were engulfed in the holocaust of World War II. So Joe McDaniel had to settle merely for recognition as the outstanding wrestler of the world.

Three times he was a National Collegiate winner for Oklahoma State University, each year leading the Cowboys of Coach Edward C. Gallagher to the team trophy. As a 118-pound junior, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the 1938 tournament, an honor won a year earlier by his roommate, Stanley Henson. Three times he reigned as National AAU champion, twice as a collegian when the Cowboys also won team honors, and again in 1941, two years after graduation.

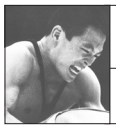
McDaniel's only serious exposure to international competition came at the close of his junior year, in a 1938 European tour climaxed by a tournament at Stockholm, Sweden, among the leading wrestling nations of the world. He was undefeated in 12 bouts and scored an overwhelming victory over Odon Zombori of Hungary, winner of the Olympic gold two years earlier.

Despite a three-year hitch in the Air Corps and seven years as field representative for a major steel firm, McDaniel never has been far from the sport of wrestling.

After a year of high school coaching and another at Maryland, he returned from the war to coach 11 years at Syracuse University, leading the Orange to a fourth place national finish. In 1963, he moved to Wyoming, coaching two years in high school and eight at the University.

His career turned full circle in 1973, when he returned to his home town of Sulphur, Oklahoma, to serve as high school coach. In 30 years of coaching at all levels, his record was 257 victories against 105 defeats.

In recognition of his great achievements as a wrestler and his long years of service to the sport, Joe Clark McDaniel is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



YOJIRO UETAKE

Class of 1980
Wrestler, 1964-66

After winning the national high school championship of Japan, he came to the United States to complete his education. By the time Yojiro Uetake returned to his native land, he had given a whole generation of American wrestlers an education in winning technique.

He won all 58 of his collegiate matches for Oklahoma State University and three Big Eight Conference titles. Three times a NCAA champion, he was voted outstanding wrestler of the NCAA tournament as a junior and again as a senior.

After his sophomore year of competition in 1964, "Yo-Jo" returned home to Japan to win the Olympic gold medal in Tokyo. Four years later, in Mexico City, he repeated this achievement and became the first Japanese wrestler ever to win two championships in the Olympic Games.

He was the complete wrestler, blending speed, strength and unparalleled skills to dominate all areas of the sport-takedowns, control, escapes and falls. Seldom did any opponent score offensive points against him.

"I don't know how good he was," said his collegiate coach, Myron Roderick. "because I never saw him challenged."

Such was the range of his ability that every match became a small "clinic" in itself, attracting coaches and rival contestants from all parts of the arena to learn from his masterful techniques.

While preparing for his second Olympic crown, he spent two years as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State, then returned home to become Japan's national freestyle coach. He guided his country's wrestlers into the 1972 Olympics at Munich and the 1976 Games at Montreal.

Upon his marriage, he took the surname of his wife's family, Obata. As an athlete of awesome skills and ultimate achievement, Yojiro Uetake Obata is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DAVID "BUDDY" ARNDT

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1941-46

Is it possible for a champion to walk away from the mat for three full years and return to compete at the same high level? Buddy Arndt did just that and became the only wrestler to win National Collegiate championships on both sides of World War II.

His only coach in wrestling, Hall of Famer Art Griffith, was a man who hated to lose. With that leadership in both high school and college, and his own exceptional ability, Arndt never met defeat. He won every match in three years at Tulsa Central High School and two state championships, missing one state meet because of illness. As a sophomore at Oklahoma State, he captured his first NCAA title at 145 pounds and won all six bouts in the National AAU tournament, only to settle for second place under the international scoring rules.

But as a junior, in 1942, Arndt was clearly the nation's best wrestler, sweeping National Collegiate and AAU honors and earning the outstanding wrestler trophy in both tournaments. Both seasons he competed a full class above his normal weight to make room in the Aggie lineup for another national champion.

But athletics then were overshadowed by the war and Arndt spent the next three years as a P-38 fighter pilot, flying more than 100 combat missions over Italy with the 15th Air Corps. He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with four clusters and also collected six Bronze Battle Stars for action in major battles.

He returned to college after the war, this time competing at his natural weight of 136 pounds, won his third NCAA championship and, for the third time, led the Aggies to the team trophy.

As a man who excelled in the battles of sport, and in the far greater struggles of real life, David B. Arndt is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

CONRAD CALDWELL

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1929-31

He won the National Collegiate championship in only the fifth bout he ever wrestled. But that NCAA title was just the beginning of Conrad Caldwell's spectacular career.

He did not compete in wrestling at Commerce, Oklahoma, High School and indeed had never seen the sport until he enrolled at Oklahoma State, where Hall of Fame coach Edward C. Gallagher recruited him from a gym class and promised to turn him into a national champion.

His pre-tournament experience consisted of two matches as a substitute heavyweight. Then in three bouts as a 165-pounder in the 1929 NCAA meet, he fulfilled Coach Gallagher's prophecy. He repeated, at 175 pounds, in 1930 and '31 to become only the third wrestler to win three collegiate crowns.

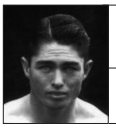
Caldwell was a standout amid an awesome array of Aggie talent that included teammates Earl McCready, Jack VanBebber, Bobby Pearce and LeRoy McGuirk. One night in 1931, Caldwell applied the finishing touches to a dual meet victory over Kansas State that required only 19 minutes, 33 seconds of wrestling by the entire team.

In 1932, he moved to California and competed five years for the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The only defeat of his career came in the first round of the 1932 Olympic trials. He came back to win the trials at 191 pounds, only to see another wrestler chosen in his place for the Games.

Through 1936, Caldwell was unbeaten from 174 pounds through heavyweight-and on one occasion, all three weights at one time. In a 1933 dual meet with UCLA, he weighed in at 174 but found his teammates at 191 and heavyweight were absent. He pinned the UCLA 174 pounder, won a decision at 191 and after a 10-minute struggle pinned the heavyweight, an all-Coast football tackle.

In recognition of his achievements as one of wrestling's pioneer champions, Conrad C. Caldwell is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME



BOBBY PEARCE

Class of 1981
Wrestler, 1930-32

He took up wrestling as a youngster to strengthen himself physically in a constant struggle with allergies. But despite his frail physique, Bobby Pearce won championships at all levels.

The coach at Cushing, Oklahoma, High School, Matt Berg, allowed him to join the squad despite some misgivings. Pearce rewarded him with three undefeated seasons and three state championships. As a high school senior, he reached the semifinals of the 1928 Olympic trials.

Then he joined the awesome array of talent at Oklahoma State, helping extend the winning streak of coach Edward C. Gallagher's Aggies to 70 consecutive matches. Over-all, during his collegiate days, he won 60 bouts, lost four and tied one.

A fast and aggressive wrestler, Pearce liked to go for the quick fall, and once flattened his opponent in just 11 seconds.

Pearce was National AAU champion in 1930 and '31, won the NCAA title in 1931 and was runner-up in 1932. Although he was upset in the collegiate finals as a senior, he responded with the ultimate triumph, winning the gold medal in the 1932 Olympic Games at Los Angeles, first ever for an Oklahoma wrestler.

Although only a 126-pounder, he competed professionally for five years and at the same time turned his hand to coaching. He guided Cushing to the state high school championship in 1933 and coached a YMCA team for two years before embarking on a professional career in refinery engineering.

He returned to coaching briefly 20 years later at Mesa College in Colorado, leading that team to two undefeated seasons and a conference championship.

As a champion of great achievement and success over physical difficulties, Robert Edward Pearce is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

SHELBY WILSON

Class of 1982
Wrestler, 1957-59

To become a champion, an athlete must set a goal. Shelby Wilson not only set a goal, but he pursued it through disappointments and distractions until he scaled the ultimate championship heights.

As a high school wrestler in Ponca City, Oklahoma, he won three conference championships and suffered only three defeats -all in the state meet, two of them in the finals. At Oklahoma State, after an injury cut short one season, he captured two Big Eight titles and twice charged to the national finals-only to suffer disheartening defeats both times.

Even his journey to the 1960 Olympics was difficult. After an upset loss in the trials, he started the final challenge in the middle of the freestyle ladder. First, he threw the Greco champion to assure a trip to Rome. He then captured the Freestyle ticket by fighting off the challengers below him, and turning the tables on the top-ranked wrestler.

And in the shadowed ruins of Rome's ancient Basilica, Shelby Wilson earned the Olympic gold medal. The road was long, with many detours, but he had attained his goal.

"Without a goal, an athlete isn't really going to struggle to achieve," he said. "Whether or not he wins a victory, the struggle, the discipline, the battle with adversity give him the championship qualities he needs for success in life."

Shelby Wilson had a hobby of "repairing anything that's broken." Growing up on a farm, he learned the value of keeping the land and the equipment in condition. During 13 years of high school and college coaching, and then as the founder and director of the Stronghold Youth Foundation, he transferred those values to human needs. An ordained minister with a love of people, he worked on their behalf with the same dedication that he once devoted to pursuit of a wrestling goal.

As an athlete of ultimate achievement and as a humanitarian of exceptional stature, Shelby Autrie Wilson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

GUY LOOKABAUGH

Class of 1983
Wrestler, 1919-21

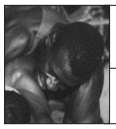
As the first superstar of Oklahoma State University athletics, Guy Lookabaugh helped establish a wrestling dynasty that spanned half a century. He earned headlines in football, but in wrestling was recognized as one of the greatest athletes of his time. Lookabaugh enrolled in 1917 and immediately became a football hero. He enlisted in the Army, but returned after the war to become known as the first "Super Aggie."

In 1920, coach Ed Gallagher's wrestlers made a bid for national recognition, facing a mighty Nebraska team undefeated for five years. With his team trailing, Lookabaugh took the mat at 158 pounds and battled his way through a 27-minute overtime match for a difficult decision. In the final bout, the Aggies had victory within reach, but had no one to send against Nebraska's unbeaten 175-pound star. Coach Gallagher again called upon Lookabaugh, who responded with a "regulation" 21-minute decision to give the Oklahomans their first major wrestling triumph.

Lookabaugh, nicknamed "Ducky," never lost a college match. His career preceded the NCAA tournaments, but in 1921 he won championships of three conferences-the Missouri Valley (Big Eight), Western (Big Ten) and Southwest. His flamboyant style was evident in his first big Freestyle tournament. Facing Eino Leino, a Finn who would win four Olympic medals, Lookabaugh threw him out of the ring and pinned him on the floor. The referee ruled it an illegal fall.

Lookabaugh turned to coaching in 1922-23, but returned to school to train for the 1924 Olympics. He reached the finals at Paris, only to lose an unpopular split decision. He coached three years at Kansas and helped Dr. R.G. Clapp formulate rules for the first NCAA tournament in 1928. He coached at Northeastern Oklahoma and Grinnell of Iowa until 1940.

In recognition of his monumental athletic achievements and his influence on the lives of young people for more than half a century, Guy Howard Lookabaugh is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



BOBBY DOUGLAS

Class of 1987
Wrestler, 1965

The Making of a Champion is the title of his book, and it also is the pattern of Bobby Douglas' life. From a small town in eastern Ohio, and a small college in West Virginia, he rose to become a dominant athlete of the 1960s, earning national and international acclaim.

He won two state high school titles, and was All-State in football and baseball. He emerged on the national scene as 1962 NAIA champion for West Liberty State. A year later, he reached the NCAA finals, and his 13-8 duel with the defending champion from a larger school was a classic. Transferring to Oklahoma State, he won the Big Eight, but was knocked out of the 1965 nationals by injury, closing his collegiate career at 72-2.

It was in the international styles where Douglas earned worldwide renown, for his knowledge of the sport and his technical skills ... which he later would share with another generation as coach, author and clinician. He won three national Freestyle titles and represented the United States on two Olympic teams, placing fourth in 1964, and six World teams, winning a silver, a bronze and a fourth place. He was captain of the '68 Olympic team and his career record was 303 victories, 17 defeats.

He became head wrestling coach at Santa Barbara in 1973. A year later, he moved to Arizona State, which he led to the only NCAA team trophy won by a western school. Douglas also launched the Sunkist Kids club on a long series of national Freestyle championships. He moved on to Iowa State and maintained its great tradition. He was an assistant coach for 10 World and Olympic Teams, was World Cup coach in 1987 and Olympic coach in 1992.

He was the first black American to wrestle in the Olympics, the first to captain our Olympic team, and the first to coach wrestling at a major university. He showed, by example, that others could reach such goals.

As a wrestler of notable achievement, and as an outstanding teacher and leader, Bobby Eddie Douglas is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

TOMMY CHESBRO

Class of 1995
Wrestler, 1959-60/Head Coach 1970-84

When he returned to Oklahoma State University as only its fourth head wrestling coach, Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed by not one, but three Hall of Famers.

But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors.

From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats, a 90 per cent winning record. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach.

Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 20 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

In 1992, while serving as the university's director of athletic facilities, Chesbro scored a memorable "post-career" coaching victory. Interim coaches Smith and Monday were away, training for the Olympic Games, so Chesbro led the Cowboys into a match against arch rival Oklahoma. Their 43-0 victory was largest margin in the 72-year history of wrestling's storied Bedlam Series.

Chesbro was a state high school champion wrestler and a starter on Oklahoma State's 1959 NCAA championship team. In eight years as a high school coach, he had a record of 51-23-8, bringing his victory total to 278. His teams won one state title and twice were runners-up.

For his success in carrying on the rich tradition of a great collegiate wrestling program, Tommy Edward Chesbro is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

DICK HUTTON

Class of 1995
Wrestler, 1947-50

He was an imposing physical specimen striding across the Oklahoma prairie, and Dick Hutton reigned over the nation's collegiate heavyweights like few men before or since.

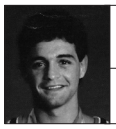
He was the cornerstone upon which coach Art Griffith rebuilt the Oklahoma State program when wrestling resumed after World War II. Hutton suffered only one loss and one draw in four years of varsity competition. That one defeat, a controversial referee's decision in the 1949 NCAA finals against light-heavyweight champion Verne Gagne, kept Hutton from becoming the sport's first four-time collegiate king.

He won titles in 1947, '48 and '50, and was a member of two national championship teams. His four appearances in the national finals-three of them successful--established a record that was unmatched for 28 years and unbroken until 44 years later.Hutton placed sixth in the 1948 Olympic Games after being slowed by an injury in his second bout.

After five years in the U. S. Army, he competed 10 years in professional wrestling, winning the heavyweight belt from Lou Thesz in 1957 and holding it for two years. Contrary to the usual professional image, he became known for his honest, gimmick-free wrestling.

In later years, Hutton owned and operated a thoroughbred and quarterhorse racing and breeding ranch in Texas.

In recognition of his dominance of collegiate wrestling throughout a fabulous career, Richard Heron Avis Hutton is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



JOHN SMITH

Class of 1997
Wrestler, 1984-88/Head Coach 1991-present

Over a six-year span, which started while he was still a student at Oklahoma State, John Smith was the best wrestler in the world. He now ranks alongside other Distinguished Members whose names emerge in any discussion of "the greatest American wrestler ever."

Although that distinction is arguable, Smith's career record is not. Partly because of opportunity, but primarily because of skill, it is beyond comparison. From 1986 through 1992, Smith won:

:: Two Olympic gold medals. He was the first American to do so in 80 years, and both of his golds came against the world's best.
:: Four World titles. No other American has won more than three.
:: Six consecutive world-class championships. No other American has won more than two in a row.
:: Two gold medals in the Pan American Games, in two attempts.
:: Two gold medals in the Goodwill Games, in two attempts.
:: Five national Freestyle championships, in five attempts.
:: Two NCAA crowns and 90 consecutive collegiate victories.
:: He became the first wrestler to be voted the James E. Sullivan Award as America's outstanding athlete, the first American to be chosen Master of Technique and Wrestler of the Year by the International Wrestling Federation (FILA), and the first wrestler ever nominated for the World Trophy, which he received in 1992.

Smith's international record was 100-5, and his domestic freestyle record was 77-3. Combined with his collegiate totals of 154-7-2 and his high school marks of 105-5, he competed 458 times for his school, club, or country and won 436 times, for a success rate above 95 per cent.

Smith retired from competition after the Olympics in Barcelona and two years later coached Oklahoma State to the NCAA team title.

One of the greatest athletes of the Twentieth Century, John William Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

JOE SEAY

Class of 1998
Head Coach, 1985-91

After leading his teams at Cal State-Bakersfield and Oklahoma State to a total of nine NCAA championships, Joe Seay then coached the USA to milestone victories in the Goodwill Games, World Championships and Olympic Games.

A 1964 graduate of Kansas State, Seay wrestled there three years and later won three national Greco-Roman crowns while placing second twice in Freestyle.

But it was as a coach at all levels that he earned lasting renown.

Starting with eight years at Bakersfield South High in California, he compiled a record of 177-12-2 and was national high school Coach of the Year. Moving across town to Cal State, he coached a dozen years and won seven Division II national championships with a record of 189-56-2. At Oklahoma State, from 1985 to '92, he went 114-8-2 with back-to-back Division I crowns in 1989 and '90.

His folkstyle record adds up to 480 victories and an .859 winning percentage. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles in both divisions, and he was named national Coach of the Year five times.

When his collegiate coaching career ended in 1992, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships.

He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. And at the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count.

As a coach who has left an indelible mark on all levels of the sport, Joe Van Seay is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

KENNY MONDAY

Wrestler, 1981-84

No matter what the calendar said, when he stepped onto a mat it was always "MON-day night!" Poise, patience and mental toughness propelled Kenny Monday to Olympic gold in 1988, silver in 1992 and sixth in 1996. He made winning a habit and wrestling a pleasure to watch.

At Booker T. Washington, Kenny's coach characterized his passage from "scrawny to awesome," as Monday chalked up an almost unblemished record of 140-0-1. He amassed four state high school championships at four different weights, tucking in a 1977 Junior Nationals title along the way. In seven trips to the Junior Olympics, he won five times.

At Oklahoma State University, the 150-pounder became a teammate of the only wrestler to tie him in high school duals, a fierce competitor named Mike Sheets. At OSU, Kenny ran up a career record of 121-12-2. Twice a runner-up, Monday captured an NCAA title in 1984. He ranked second on OSU's all-time list for falls. In 1986, he won the National Wrestling Hall of Fame Classic and took both the Sunkist International Open and the World Cup the following year.

International victories came at the 1988 Tblisi Tournament, the 1989 World Championships, the 1991 Pan American Games and the President's Cup in Turkey, the 1992 Roger Coulon in France and the 1996 Dan Kolov Tournament in Bulgaria. At the grueling Tblisi in Soviet Georgia, he was honored with the prized animal-skin cloak as the Outstanding Wrestler. One American coach summed up the Tblisi as "probably five times as tough" as the Olympics. O.W. honors also went to Kenny in 1989 and 1990 at the Grand Masters Tournament.

Four times Kenny posted wins at the U.S. National Championships and also captured the 1989 U.S. Olympic Festival crown. His 1988 Olympic Games success brought Monday the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year award, as well as the Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year in 1989.

For his dual achievements as a stellar wrestler at every level and for his encouragement of youth wrestling, Kenny Monday is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

KENDALL CROSS

Class of 2002
Wrestler, 1987-90

It has been said on several occasions that Kendall Cross was destined to become an Olympic Champion. But to realize that prediction would take one of the most wide-open, exciting styles of competition ever seen in American wrestling -- the Kendall Cross style.

After completing his high school career in Mustang, Oklahoma, by winning a state championship, Kendall went on to Oklahoma State University where he became a three-time All-American and the 1989 NCAA champion. His first success at the international level came in 1988 when he became the Espoir World Cup Champion, setting the stage for his pursuit of the Olympic gold.

In 1992, he was the only freestyle wrestler on the American Olympic Team who was not ranked number one at his weight at the beginning of the year. He finished sixth at the 1992 Barcelona Olympic Games.

The road to the Olympic gold would be no easier in 1996. His championship series with Terry Brands at the Olympic Trials in Spokane, Washington, treated American fans to one of the most spectacular displays of wrestling ever seen in this country. His victory at the trials sent him on to the Atlanta Olympic Games where his dominating effort provided one of the most inspiring gold medal performances in memory.

In 1997, he was named the USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, while in 1992 and 1995 he was declared the Outstanding Freestyle Wrestler at the U. S. Nationals where he became a three time national champion.

Cross continues to be a role model for young wrestlers and an impressive representative of our sport. He has developed the Kendall Cross Gold Medal Wrestling Club in the Boston area, designed to aid in the development of young, aspiring wrestlers.
For his achievements as an athlete and for his continued representation of the sport of wrestling to the youth of America, Kendall Cross is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

J ROBINSON

Class of 2005
Wrestler, 1966-68

J Robinson's competitive spirit and "give it your all" attitude immerged during his days as a prep wrestler in California. A two-time SDIF Champion (1963 & 1964); he was named Most Outstanding Wrestler in 1964. His flair for international competition and being on the "cutting edge of the sport" began when be became a member of the inaugural California International Team. Competing in Japan, the pioneer team paved the way for young wrestlers of the future.

In the next years, Robinson made his mark in not just one style of wrestling, but three. He honed his collegiate style skills under the instruction of the legendary coach, Myron Roderick at Oklahoma State University. Shifting his focus to the International arena, he was a member of two World teams, finishing fourth in 1970 and fifth in 1971. He competed as a member of the 1972 Greco-Roman Olympic Team. During this time, he won four National titles; two in Freestyle and two in Greco-Roman.

With his three style background, he began his coaching career at the University of Iowa. As an assistant coach, Robinson helped propel the team to an amazing nine national championships in 12 years. In 1984, as interim coach, he led the Hawkeyes to another NCAA title and a Big Ten Championship. In 1986 he was named Head Coach of the University of Minnesota. With one goal in mind, they won back to back NCAA Championships (2001 & 2002). His teams also captured four Big Ten Championships and three NWCA National Duals titles. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2001, and was named Big Ten Coach of the Year five times.

While sharing his skills on the collegiate level, he also continued to share his expertise with athletes in freestyle competitions. He was selected as the head coach for the Pan American Games in 1983 and served as an assistant coach for the Olympics in 1976, 1980, 1984, and 1988.

In recognition of his dynamic contributions to the sport of wrestling, J Robinson is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

PAT SMITH

Class of 2006
Wrestler, 1990-94

Pat Smith made wrestling history when he became the first wrestler to win four NCAA Division I national championships. Competing for Oklahoma State University, he captured titles in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1994, all at 158 pounds, and spurred the Cowboys to team titles in 1990 and 1994.

The year he won his record fourth national crown, he was named the NCAA's Outstanding Wrestler. He also became only the third OSU wrestler to win four Big Eight Conference championships.

Smith ended his college wrestling career with a mark of 121-5-2 and set the school record for consecutive matches without a loss with 98 straight victories.

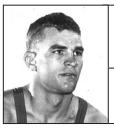
Smith was named the 1994 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year and was one of just 15 athletes named to the NCAA 75th Anniversary Wrestling Team. He was inducted into the Oklahoma State Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

His successful freestyle wrestling career included a bronze medal in the 1997 World Cup, a second-place finish to three-time Olympian Kenny Monday at the 1996 Trials; gold medal performances at two U.S. Olympic Festivals; and six All-American finishes at the U.S. National Open Freestyle Championships. He also won USA Wrestling national titles on the Espoir and Junior levels.

As an Oklahoma State University assistant wrestling coach for 11 years, he personally coached six Cowboys to individual or multiple NCAA titles and helped OSU to win the Division I team title for four consecutive years from 2003-2006.

Smith won three state titles for Del City High School and was twice named Outstanding Wrestler of the tournament. He is a member of one of the nation's top wrestling families -- brothers Lee Roy, John and Mark were also state high school champions and earned All-America honors for OSU.

For inspiring others and accomplishing what no competitor before had ever done, Patrick M. Smith is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



FRED FOZZARD

Class of 2012
Wrestler, 1966-68

The United States had been shut out of gold medals at the World Championships and the Olympic Games for eight consecutive years after the 1960 Olympics, but two Oregonians were about to make wrestling history in 1969. Fred Fozzard and fellow Distinguished Member Rick Sanders laid the groundwork for future generations of American wrestlers.

No American wrestler had ever won a World title when Sanders and Fozzard struck gold at the 1969 freestyle World Championships in Mar Del Plata, Argentina. Fozzard's path to the 180.5 pound gold medal, however, seemed unlikely. At age two he contracted polio which shrunk his right arm and left him with no grip and no working thumb. Fozzard developed a unique wrestling style to overcome this disability, which eventually led to numerous championship victories.

Fozzard followed his victory in 1969 with a solid fifth-place finish at the 1970 World Championships. Prior to his arrival on the international scene, Fozzard was an integral part of Oklahoma State's wrestling dynasty. As a sophomore, Fozzard placed second at the 1966 NCAA tournament at 177 lbs., helping the Cowboys to the team title. Fozzard returned as a junior and won the 1967 NCAA tournament as the top seed, which included two pins and a dominant 10-3 win in the finals.

As a senior, the Cowboy standout from Oregon entered the 1968 NCAA tournament undefeated and as the top seed, but he suffered a loss to the eventual champion in the semifinals. Showing his resiliency through adversity, Fozzard stormed back with two pins in the consolation round to place third. His bonus point wins ultimately gave Oklahoma State the team championship in 1968. Fozzard's final collegiate record was 55-4-3.

Fozzard continued his career as an assistant coach for his alma mater from 1968 through 1972. He was the head wrestling coach at Kansas State from 1973 through 1975 and an assistant coach at Portland State from 1975 to 1977. He was also heavily involved in the Southern Oregon program, a highly successful team that competes in the NAIA.For his historic achievements that led the way for future American wrestlers, Fred Fozzard is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

ERIC GUERRERO

Class of 2014
Wrestler, 1996-99

In a college wrestling program known for producing champions, Eric Guerrero will be remembered as one of the best.

Hailing from San Jose, Calif., Guerrero won three state wrestling championships and compiled an impressive 226-4 high school record. He won a national high school championship, a Junior National championship in 1995, and a Cadet World championship in 1993. The California prep standout chose to take his talents to wrestling's most storied program, Oklahoma State University.

Guerrero was nothing short of spectacular during his four seasons with the Cowboys. As a true freshman, he placed fifth at the 1996 NCAA Wrestling Championships. The following season, as a 19-year-old sophomore, Guerrero won the 126-pound weight class, and he would repeat the victory in 1998. Despite moving up to 133 pounds in 1999, he became Oklahoma State's 14th three-time NCAA champion. Guerrero also won a Big 12 title in 1999 and was a two-time academic All-American. His career college record was 117-13.

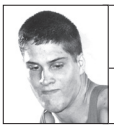
IN THE WRESTLING HALL OF FAME

After college, Guerrero continued to compete internationally in freestyle, where he showed no signs of slowing down. Shortly after his final college match, he represented the United States at the 1999 World Championships. Guerrero won four U.S. Open titles, made three more World teams (2001–2003), and won a World Cup title in 2003.

Then in 2004, Guerrero represented the United States at 132 pounds in freestyle wrestling during the Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

After retiring from competition, Guerrero turned his focus to coaching at his alma mater, Oklahoma State. He served as strength and conditioning coach (2001-2004) and as assistant coach (2004-2012). In 2012, Guerrero was named the associate head wrestling coach. During his coaching career, he led nine wrestlers to 14 individual NCAA championships, and four-straight NCAA team championships (2003-2006).

In recognition of competitive and coaching success at one of college wrestling's leading programs, Eric Guerrero is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.



BILL HARLOW

Class of 2016
Wrestler, 1963-66

Thought to be the best wrestler ever to come from Tennessee and one of the greatest big men to wrestle at Oklahoma State University, William B. Harlow was a state champion, a three-time NCAA finalist and a three-time national freestyle champion.

When he arrived at Oklahoma State, however, he felt as though he had a lot of catching up to do technically and spent his years in Stillwater as a "human sponge" absorbing everything he could learn. With Distinguished Members Yojiro Uetake, Bobby Douglas, and Gene Davis as teammates during his collegiate career, learning opportunities were scattered throughout the wrestling room. He quickly gained a reputation as a slick and smooth wrestler, using technique rarely seen in a man of his size.

Harlow finished second in his first trip to the NCAA finals as a sophomore in 1964. As a junior, he won the Big Eight Conference title, but again finished as runner-up in the national tournament. Finally, as a senior, he moved up to 191 pounds and compiled a 21-0-1 record and won both the Big Eight and NCAA championships. With Uetake and Davis, he led OSU to the national team title, the second of his tenure as a Cowboy. Overall, he finished his collegiate career with a record of 54-5-2.

Harlow began his wrestling career as an eighth grader, competing for the high school team at St. Andrews School in Sewanee, Tenn. Over five years, he lost only one match and, as a senior in 1962, won the national prep championship, the state championship and his fifth Mid-South championship, earning Outstanding Wrestler honors at all three tournaments.

After leaving Oklahoma State, he concentrated on freestyle, winning three national titles, including being named Outstanding Wrestler in 1974. He represented the USA at the 1970 World Championships in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada and won a silver medal, falling in the 90 kg. finals to Soviet Gennady Strakhov.

As he continued to train and compete, he began a high school coaching career that would last for almost 50 years, beginning in Illinois. He returned to Oklahoma, coaching at Broken Arrow High School for 16 years while teaching and working as an administrator. He was principal and wrestling coach for three years at Kellyville, Okla., High School before serving eight years in Alaska as an administrator and wrestling coach. He returned to Oklahoma to teach and coach at Sapulpa High School until his retirement in 2013.

Harlow received the Lifetime Service to Wrestling award from the Oklahoma Chapter of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2005. In 2010, he was presented The Gallagher Award, given annually to an OSU wrestling alumnus who exemplifies the spirit and leadership eminent in the tradition of champions.

In recognition of his achievements as both a wrestler and a coach, William B. Harlow is honored as a Distinguished Member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

RANDY COUTURE

Class of 2018
Wrestler, 1989-92

Former Oklahoma State wrestler Randy Couture was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as the organization's Outstanding American for 2018.

"Randy Couture's selection as Outstanding American by the National Wrestling Hall of Fame is the first time an Oklahoma State wrestler has received that honor," head coach John Smith said. "I'm very proud of Randy and it's been fun watching him excel at everything he's done. He's a great wrestler, but you can see through his accomplishments in many different fields why he was chosen to receive this recognition."

The Hall of Outstanding Americans demonstrates wrestling's pride in those who have used the disciplines of the sport to launch notable careers in other walks of life, such as science and technology, business and industry, government and the military, and the arts and humanities. New classes are inducted annually.

"Randy Couture epitomizes our Outstanding American award, which recognizes those who used wrestling to launch notable careers after concluding their wrestling careers," said Lee Roy Smith, Executive Director of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame. "Randy served in the military and then was an All-American at Oklahoma State. He competed internationally in Greco-Roman and then was one of the original mixed martial arts champions. He then stepped onto another stage, literally, as an actor and continues to evolve as an entrepreneur."

A Lynnwood, Wash., product, Couture wrestled at Oklahoma State from 1989 to 1992 and racked up a 113-42 overall record. He was a three-time All-American, including a pair of second-place finishes, and helped the Cowboys to the team title in 1990. Couture was a National Wrestling Coaches Association First-Team Academic All-American in 1991 and 1992, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in foreign language and literature.

Couture was a four-time World Team member in Greco-Roman and placed ninth in 1997. He was a six-time UFC world champion and was the only competitor to hold titles in both the heavyweight and light heavyweight divisions. Couture became the fourth fighter inducted into the UFC Hall of Fame in 2006, and was inducted into the Oklahoma State College of Arts & Sciences Hall of Fame in 2016.

Couture has his own chain of gyms, Xtreme Couture MMA, and a clothing line, Xtreme Couture MMA Clothing. He also founded and runs the Xtreme Couture GI Foundation, which raises awareness and financially supports wounded veterans. Couture teamed with Jay Glazer of Fox Sports and Green Beret and NFL player Nate Boyer to create Merging Vets and Players (MVP), which is a program designed to address challenges that many combat veterans and professional athletes face when transitioning their service/professional life towards a new mission in their civilian life. He and Glazer also created MMAthletics, which trains professional athletes from various sports in the ways of mixed martial arts and how that training can be applied to their respective sports.

JIMMY JACKSON

Class of 2023
Wrestler, 1975-78

Jimmy Jackson was a three-time NCAA and Big Eight Conference champion for Oklahoma State University. He passed away in 2008 at the age of 51, suffering from diabetes and congestive heart failure. Jimmy and Lee Kemp, a Distinguished Member inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1990, became the first African-American wrestlers to win three NCAA championships, both in 1978.

Listed at 6-foot-6 and 350 pounds, Jimmy had a career record of 88-9-2 with 44 falls, including a perfect 29-0 with 11 falls as a senior. He defeated Greg Gibson of Oregon, a Distinguished Member inducted in 2007, in the 1976 NCAA tournament finals, 5-3. Gibson went on the become the only American to win world medals in three styles of wrestling: Freestyle, Greco-Roman and Sambo.

He also defeated Jeff Blatnick, a Distinguished Member inducted in 1999, in the second round of the 1978 NCAA tournament, 11-4, and registered a pin in 1:12 in the finals. Blatnick won an Olympic gold medal in Greco-Roman in 1984. Also competing in the unlimited division at the 1978 tournament was fifth-place finisher John Bowlsby, brother of Bob Bowlsby, this year's Outstanding American honoree.

Jimmy helped Oklahoma State go 61-5 in duals during his career and was inducted into the Oklahoma State University Athletics Hall of Honor in 2007. Jackson competed in the 1976 Olympics as a 19-year-old college sophomore, winning his opening match by technical fall over Harry Geris of Canada, also an Oklahoma State wrestler, before losing to gold medalist Soslan Andiyev of the Soviet Union and silver medalist József Balla of Hungary.

Jackson defeated Greg Wojciechowski to qualify for the 1976 team and was an alternate to Wojciechowski for the 1980 team that did not compete because of the United States boycott. Jackson was a three-time World Cup champion and won a gold medal at the Pan American Championships in 1987. He was the 1974 Michigan Class A state champion for Ottawa Hills High School in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

For his stellar collegiate and international wrestling careers, Jimmy Jackson is posthumously inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame as a 2023 Distinguished Member.

GALLAGHER AWARD

Beginning in 1986, the Gallagher Award has been given out to 33 individuals who have exemplified the spirit and leadership eminent in the tradition of champions.

The award is the highest honor an OSU alumnus can earn from the Cowboy wrestling program for their dedication to the sport of wrestling after the end of their college career.

The list of recipients includes some of the sport's and program's legends, including Kenny Monday, Pat Smith, Bobby Douglas, Myron Roderick and John Smith.

2023's Gallagher Award winner, Ricky Stewart, is the latest addition to the exclusive group that is accountable for 34 individual national championships, 69 All-American honors, 13 Olympic appearances with six gold medalists and 13 members of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

A three-time state champion and all-state football player at Duncan High School, Stewart chose to wrestle for the Cowboys under head coach Tommy Chesbro. After redshirting in 1978, he stepped into the lineup at 158 pounds and became one of the most successful wrestlers in Oklahoma State history.

His accolades include being one of OSU's 15 four-time All-Americans, which included back-to-back individual titles in 1980 and 1981. In the 1981 championship match, Stewart pinned former teammate turned Sooner, Dave Schultz, with a fireman's carry to claim his second NCAA title. Stewart completed his collegiate career with a 118-7 record and his 43 career falls and 75 bonus-point wins can be found in the top-10 of Oklahoma State's career records.

Following the 1982 season, Stewart moved into a full-time coaching role at Oklahoma State for two seasons. He also spent time at Clemson, Notre Dame and Oregon, while also returning to Oklahoma for a year to serve as the Duncan High School Athletic Director.

In December 2020, Stewart was faced with a challenge much larger than any wrestling match he competed in. He was burned on 74 percent of his body from his jawline down in a home explosion at his residence in Texarkana.

Ricky's fortitude during his recovery process was an inspiration to everyone around him at Parkland Hospital and exemplary of his character. On his departure date from Parkland, everyone on two floors of the hospital, estimated to be over 100 people, lined up to give him a standing ovation.

He was transferred to Oklahoma City where he now lives with his daughter. He has been out of the hospital for 11 months after being released in March of 2022.

"Ricky Stewart is the perfect recipient for this year's Gallagher Award," head coach John Smith said. "Growing up he was one of my favorite wrestlers to watch. He went on to coach at four major Division 1 programs across the country and returned to Oklahoma as an athletic director at Duncan High School. The challenges he has faced over the last two years exemplify what a resilient warrior he is and why he is deserving of the Gallgaher Award."

Ricky Stewart was presented the 2023 Gallagher Award to J Robinson during the Cowboys' final home dual of the season by Randy Stafford and Oklahoma State head coach John Smith.

OKLAHOMA STATE YEAR-BY-YEAR COACHING HISTORY AND RECORDS

A.M. COLVILLE

1915 // 0-1-0 Record

Coached the First Oklahoma State Wrestling Team

A.M. Colville coached the Oklahoma State wrestling program for its first-ever varsity competition, a 17.5-7 dual match loss to Texas in Stillwater in 1915. It was Colville's only OSU coaching appearance. In that match, OSU 125-pounder Dan F. Cooley scored the first-ever win for a Cowboy wrestler when he pinned his opponent in 55 seconds and rendered his foe unconscious. Colville's inaugural OSU squad consisted of Cooley, Herman Dose, Millard Harnden, R.W. Havenstrite and Jack Briscoe.

COACHING HISTORY

ED GALLAGHER

1916-40 // 136-5-4 Record // 11 NCAA Team Championships
37 NCAA Individual Champions // 69 All-Americans

"The Father of Intercollegiate Wrestling", as he was eulogized by the New York Times upon his untimely death in 1940, Ed Gallagher meant more to the sport than anyone ever has and likely ever will. Coach of 11 NCAA championship teams and 37 NCAA individual champions during his time at the helm of the Oklahoma State program, he launched the premier dynasty in all of North American sports when he took over the program in 1916. Gallagher, who never wrestled himself, was the first to organize systematic practice situations, and he devoted close attention to diet and training methods. In 23 years of coaching, Gallagher produced 19 undefeated teams and went 136-5-4. At one point, he coached his teams to 69 consecutive victories.

ART GRIFFITH

1941-56 // 78-7-4 Record // 8 NCAA Team Championships
27 NCAA Individual Champions // 64 All-Americans

Facing the unenviable task of succeeding Ed Gallagher at Oklahoma State, Art Griffith took over the program in 1941 and amassed eight NCAA championships. His teams produced 78 victories against seven losses and four ties, and 10 times were undefeated. His wrestlers won 27 individual NCAA titles. When he became the Cowboy coach, they already had won 27 consecutive dual meets. Under his leadership, that streak was extended to a record 76 before a loss in 1951. He was U.S. Olympic coach in 1948. Griffith developed his own style of wrestling, with constant motion as the hallmark. "Every technique has its weakness," he said, "but you can't exploit that weakness by standing still. You must move, and you must force your opponent to move with you."

COACHING HISTORY

MYRON RODERICK

1957-69 // 140-10-7 Record // 7 NCAA Championships
20 NCAA Individual Champions // 79 All-Americans

A fierce competitor as a wrestler and equally as fierce a competitor when a coach, Myron Roderick was a winner of championships in both roles. In his three years as a wrestler at Oklahoma State University, he won 42 of 44 matches and three National Collegiate championships, one at 137 pounds, then two more at 130 pounds. He placed fourth in the 1956 Olympic Games at Melbourne, losing a split decision to the eventual champion. But it was as coach of the Cowboys that he attained his greatest stature. In 1958, when he led the Cowboys to the NCAA team title he was, at 23, the youngest coach ever to guide a national champion team in any sport. In his 13 years of coaching, he produced seven NCAA team champions. His Cowboys won 140 dual meets, lost only 10 and tied seven, once stringing 84 consecutive duals without a loss.

TOMMY CHESBRO

1970-84 // 227-26-0 Record // 1 NCAA Team Championship
19 NCAA Individual Champions // 76 All-Americans

Tommy Chesbro followed a trail blazed at Oklahoma State by not one, but three Hall of Fame coaches. But in 15 years with the Cowboy reins, Chesbro eclipsed the victory totals of all three of his illustrious predecessors. From 1970 through 1984, his teams won 227 dual meets against only 26 defeats. He closed his coaching career with a 43-match winning streak, including 22 victories in 1983. During that season, the Cowboys shut out 10 opponents, one of the foes posting the rare score of minus 1, thanks to a penalty against its coach. Chesbro's Cowboys won the NCAA team championship in 1971 and placed among the top four teams a dozen more times. He coached 19 individual NCAA champions and 20 National AAU and USA Wrestling titlists, headed by World and Olympic champions John Smith and Kenny Monday and three-time NCAA heavyweight king Jimmy Jackson.

COACHING HISTORY

JOE SEAY

1985-91 // 114-18-2 record // 2 NCAA Championships
7 NCAA Individual Champions // 45 All-Americans

A decorated high school and Division II college coach in California prior to taking over as coach at Oklahoma State from 1985 to '92, Joe Seay went 114-8-2 during his time in Stillwater and led the Cowboys to back-to-back Division I crowns in 1989 and '90. He is the only coach to win collegiate team titles at both the Division I and Division II levels. When his collegiate coaching career ended in 1992, Seay quickly stepped into a major role on the international scene. Already closely affiliated with the Sunkist Kids program, he became their head coach and continued the club's still unbroken streak of national freestyle championships. He coached the USA to its first-ever Senior World Freestyle championship in 1993 and repeated two years later, also leading a Pan American Games victory in 1995. And at the Centennial Olympics in Atlanta, Seay's wrestlers won the medal count.

JOHN SMITH

1992-Pres. // 476-72-6 Record // 5 NCAA Team Championships
33 NCAA Individual Champions // 152 All-Americans

Perhaps the greatest American wrestler ever, John Smith has rightfully earned a legitimate spot in the discussion for best collegiate coach as well. Since taking over at his alma mater in 1992, Smith has already earned the distinction of being the winningest coach in Oklahoma State wrestling history with 476 dual match wins. Add in his five NCAA team championships in 1994, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006 and the fact that he has coached 33 of his wrestlers to NCAA individual championships .....and it becomes clear that Smith is one of the best. The Cowboys have dominated on the conference level under Smith, winning 23 team titles and 131 individual championships.

508-45-6 ALL-TIME RECORD AT GIA

BY THE NUMBERS

25 NCAA team championships won by Oklahoma State since Gallagher-Iba Arena opened in 1939.

91 Percent of duals won by OSU at Gallagher-Iba Arena (508-45-6 record) since the building opened in 1939.

67 Longest home unbeaten streak in Oklahoma State history. The streak lasted from 1933-51.

44 Unbeaten and untied seasons for the Cowboys at Gallagher-Iba Arena since the building opened in 1939.

No venue in America has a richer wrestling tradition than Gallagher-Iba Arena, home of Oklahoma State wrestling since 1939. In its beginning as Gallagher Hall, the gymnasium was named for Edward Clark Gallagher, the Oklahoma A&M wrestling mentor who never wrestled competitively but became the greatest coach of his time.

The 1987-88 season brought a new look and a new name to the hallowed hall. When renovations were completed in January 1988, it was renamed Gallagher-Iba Arena to honor the late Mr. Henry P. Iba, Oklahoma State's legendary basketball coach.

Gallagher-Iba Arena took on a new look once again in 2001. On Jan. 4, 2001 the OSU wrestling team hosted Oregon in the first match in the newly renovated arena. Gallagher-Iba Arena underwent a $56 million renovation, that increased the seating capacity of Gallagher-Iba Arena to its current total of 13,611 seats.

The Cowboys set a new wrestling attendance record in the first season, packing in 10,802 for a Bedlam Series dual against Oklahoma on Feb. 18.The OSU faithful surpassed that mark in 2017 when the Cowboys hosted Penn State for the National Dual finals, which drew an arena record of 14,059.

In 2019, Cowboy duals boasted an average attendance of more than 5,200. Cowboy wrestling sold out Gallagher-Iba again for the end-of-the-year showdown with the Iowa Hawkeyes; more than 13,800 fans were in attendanace for the senior day victory. The attendance marked the second largest in GIA wrestling history and the largest attendance for any collegiate winter sports event in the state of Oklahoma.

Since wrestling began in Gallagher-Iba Arena, the Cowboys have won 25 NCAA titles and have had 44 unbeaten and untied campaigns at home. One of their longest winning streaks ran with the arena's opening in 1939 and lasted until Feb. 16, 1951. During that period, Oklahoma State won 37 straight home duals, including no ties.

From the final dual of 1959 through the first five home duals of the 1967 season, Oklahoma State wrestled 67 duals without a loss, finishing with an impressive 60-0-1 record before the streak was broken by Oklahoma, 19-13.

On Feb. 3, 1939, Oklahoma A&M wrestled for the first time inside the arena, defeating Indiana by an 18-6 margin. On Feb. 3, 1989, the Oklahoma State Cowboys hosted the Hoosiers in a celebration of the 50-year anniversary of the first Gallagher Hall dual. The Cowboys defeated the Hoosiers, 28-6, in the 1989 dual.

OSU's home winning streak of 50 consecutive duals was the second-longest such streak without a loss or tie, as it began near the end of the 1986 season and lasted until Jan. 30, 1993.

The Cowboys claimed the 500th dual win in Gallagher-Iba Arena on Feb. 4, 2022 in a 29-6 victory over South Dakota State. The win also began a new home winning streak to close out the season as the most recent 26-match winning streak at home, dating back to Jan. 27, 2018, was broken on Jan. 29 as Northern Iowa defeated OSU, 19-15.

CAMPUS OF CHAMPIONS

Oklahoma State University

A land-grant institution with more than 35,000 students across a five-campus system, we've graduated more than 264,000 students to serve the state of Oklahoma, the nation and the world.

A bold aspiration

Oklahoma State University intends to become the nation's preeminent Land-Grant university

From their founding in the nineteenth century, Land-Grant universities have carried a distinctly American charge captured in the words of the Morrill Act of 1862:

"to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life."

Through teaching, research and Extension, the Land-Grant institutions steward a timeless responsibility: to raise successive generations of servant-leaders; to engage as vital members of their communities; to bring research and new knowledge to bear to prepare students for the world they will enter; and to extend critical knowledge and expertise to meet society's most pressing problems — the "Grand Challenges" facing civilization.

Three Pillars

Instruction
OSU provides the highest quality education in a variety of different majors using the latest teaching methods.

Research
OSU is creating the next generation of scientists, thinkers and scholars through its tradition of research excellence.

Extension
OSU's Cooperative Extension connects people across the nation and world with the latest research and practical solutions.

Core Values

Community
Foster a strong sense of community based on shared governance among student, faculty, staff and administration.

Diversity
Respect and value the diversity of individuals, beliefs and opinions.

Service
Serving others is a noble and worthy endeavor and distinguishing feature of a land-grant institution.

Steward of Resources
Dedicated to the efficient and effective use of resources and sustainability.

Excellence
Seek excellence in all endeavors and commitment to continuous improvement.

Integrity
Commitment to the principles of truth and honesty.

Intellectual Freedom
Believe in ethical and scholarly questioning that respects the rights of all to freely pursue knowledge.

Hailing from all 50 states and more than 100 countries, we are united by the Cowboy Code.

- We end the day knowing we gave it everything we had.
- We dream as big as the sky.
- We know challenges come with pain, but pain will not win.
- We have a passion to do what's right, even when it's hard.
- We stand for what matters, even if we stand alone.
- We finish what we start.
- Being a Cowboy isn't in our clothes, it's in our character.

- Inspired by James P. Owen's 2004 book "Cowboy Ethics: What Wall Street Can Learn from The Code of the West."

Oklahoma State University, in compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category, in any of its policies, practices or procedures. This provision includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid, and educational services. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information. The Director of Equal Opportunity, 408 Whitehurst, OSU, Stillwater, OK 74078-1035; Phone 405-744-5371; email: eeo@okstate.edu has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity. Any person (student, faculty, or staff) who believes that discriminatory practices have been engaged in based on gender may discuss his or her concerns and file informal or formal complaints of possible violations of Title IX with OSU's Title IX Coordinator 405-744-9154." See http://eeo.okstate.edu/title-ix for more information.

University President Dr. Kayse Shrum

Dr. Kayse Shrum

University President
Third Year | OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine

On April 2, 2021, the OSU/A&M Board of Regents selected Dr. Kayse Shrum as the 19th president of Oklahoma State University. A native Oklahoman, President Shrum earned her doctor of osteopathic medicine degree from the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine and has completed executive leadership and management training programs at Harvard University and Stanford University.

In addition to navigating the realignment of the Big 12 conference in her first few months, Dr. Shrum also launched the system-wide strategy process to guide the future of the university. The strategy was unveiled in fall 2022. It provides the roadmap forOSU to become the nation's preeminent land-grant university, creating and discovering solutions to societal problems, providing students with a world-class education and sending them into the world after graduation well-equipped to handle the challenges before them.

During her first year as president of the Oklahoma State University system, Dr. Shrum initiated the development of an OSU energy institute. The Harold Hamm Foundation and Continental Resources contributed a combined $50 million gift creating the Hamm Institute for American Energy at Oklahoma State University. The Hamm Institute's mission is to educate the next generation of energy leaders — in Oklahoma, the United States and from around the world — cementing Oklahoma's legacy as a global energy leader.

Dr. Shrum also celebrated the launch of the new Oklahoma Aerospace Institute for Research and Education (OAIRE), which brings together OSU's historic strength in aerospace engineering, flight training and aeronautics. This university-level institute brings the state's aerospace innovation economy together under one umbrella. OAIRE will support ongoing and future partnerships between university, commercial, military and government agencies, becoming a valuable resource for developing Oklahoma's aerospace ecosystem. That includes generating high-tech jobs and cutting-edge research that brings commercial enterprise and military sustainment support to the state.

In December 2022, the university launched the Human Performance and Nutrition Research Institute (HPNRI). The institute's mission is to discover, develop and deliver scientific knowledge to empower people of all abilities to realize their optimal performance. That includes developing preventative therapeutic strategies to combat obesity and chronic diseases. By studying student-athletes, the institute aims to explore new ideas and methods aimed at developing interventions and treatments to help Oklahomans adopt healthier lifestyle behaviors for the purpose of making a lasting and positive impact on Oklahomans' health.

Before being named president of the OSU system, Dr. Shrum was named president of OSU Center for Health Sciences (OSU-CHS) in 2013, becoming the youngest and first female president and dean of a medical school in the state of Oklahoma. Dr. Shrum holds the George Kaiser Family Foundation Chair in Medical Excellence and Service and the Saint Francis Health System Endowed Chair of Pediatrics.

Under her leadership, OSU-CHS experienced unprecedented growth. Student enrollment more than doubled as new academic programs were established to meet the health care workforce needs of Oklahoma. A strong supporter of collaborative partnerships, Dr. Shrum worked with Cherokee Nation Principal Chief Bill John Baker and his administration to establish the nation's first tribally affiliated medical school, the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine at the Cherokee Nation, which opened in fall 2020. She also helped secure a landmark investment from Purdue Pharma in the amount of $197.5 million to create a center of excellence in addiction treatment and studies to address the opioid addiction epidemic — the National Center for Wellness and Recovery.

Dr. Shrum's leadership, professional and civic contributions have led to notable recognition and rewards. Her honors include:

- 2022 Oklahoma Women's Hall of Fame induction
- 2022 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association DO of the Decade
- 2020 Journal Record Health Care Hero
- 2020 Osteopathic Founders Foundation Outstanding Physician Award
- 2020 Becker's Hospital Review "100 Academic Medical Center CEOs to Know"
- 2019 Connors State College Alumni Hall of Fame induction
- 2019 Tulsa Osteopathic Medical Society Osteopathic Impact Award
- 2019 Journal Record's 2019 Woman of Year Award
- 2018 Newsmaker Award by the Association for Women in Communications Tulsa Chapter
- 2014 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association's Outstanding & Distinguished Service Award
- 2013 Connors State College Athletics Hall of Fame induction
- 2012 Tulsa Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women's Pinnacle Award for Health

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

Chad Weiberg

Athletics Director
Third Year | Oklahoma State, 1994

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years serving as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director. In this role, Weiberg serves on President Kayse Shrum's leadership team that helps to advance Oklahoma State's land grant mission and President Shrum's strategic initiatives for the institution.

The timing of his promotion to athletic director lined up with seismic shifts in the national intercollegiate athletics landscape. Realignment within the Big 12 Conference and the emergence of Name, Image and Likeness in college sports both occurred within a month of Weiberg's start date. Later in his first year came the NCAA Constitutional Convention and subsequent Transformation Committee plus further realignment on the national level. Those foundational changes brought urgent new action items to his list of responsibilities to position OSU for continued success in an entirely new landscape.

In 2023-24, he serves as chair of the Big 12 Athletic Directors and is on the College Football Playoff Future Format Athletic Directors Focus Group.

During Chad Weiberg's first two years as OSU Athletic Director...

- He created a name, image and likeness department with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director.
- OSU Athletics partnered with the Spears School of Business to create the innovative Brand Squad, which pairs the best and brightest students in OSU's famed Spears School of Business with student-athletes for the purpose of creating a personal brand and managing NIL opportunities, as well as coordinating with supporters establishing new collectives to provide NIL opportunities for OSU student-athletes.
- OSU Athletics created the POSSE STAR Fund to provide student-athletes financial rewards for achieving academic success in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling on Alston vs. NCAA.
- OSU Athletics launched the OSU Athletics Vision Plan, which is highlighted by a new Human Performance and Innovation Complex and football center, upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium and entirely new competition facilities for softball and indoor track and field, practice facilities for wrestling and men's and women's basketball and upgrades to Karsten Creek Golf Course, the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center and to Gallagher-Iba Arena.
- He created a student-athlete leadership and professional development program with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director to help best position student-athletes for success beyond sports.
- He formed a partnership with Sport and Story to create OSU's own streaming service, OSU Max.
- He hired Jacie Hoyt as women's basketball head coach. In her first season, Hoyt led one of the nation's largest year-over-year improvements.
- The Cowgirl equestrian team won the first women's team national championship in Oklahoma State history.
- OSU hosted NCAA Championships for men's and women's cross country and wrestling and will host the NCAA Men's and Women's Tennis Championships in 2024.

As OSU's Deputy Athletic Director, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefitted student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium, the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues and expanded concession offerings.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a bachelor of business administration degree. He earned a master's in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a large role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as commissioner of the Big 12.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

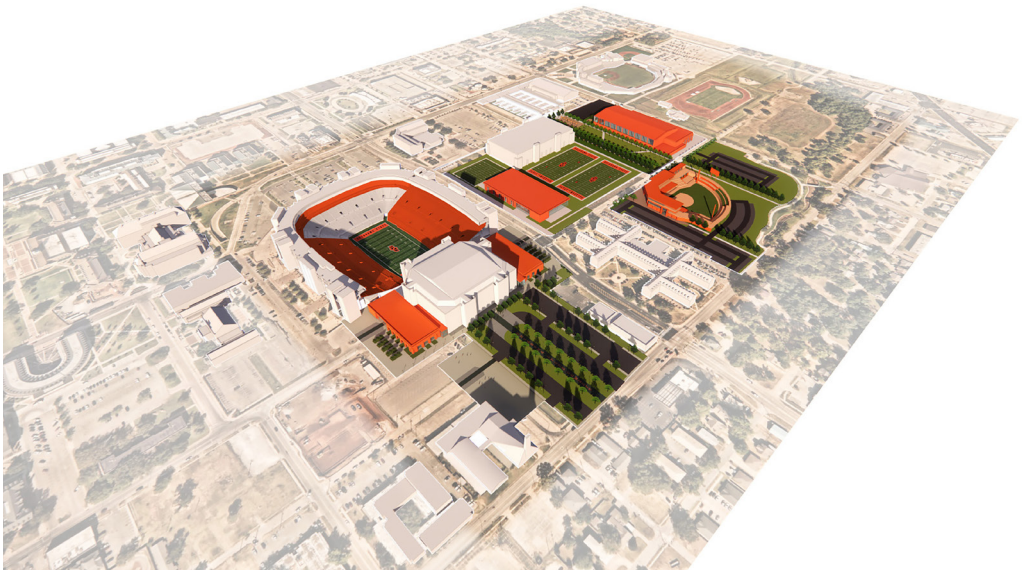
OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Looking into the Future

Oklahoma State is strengthening its position within the national landscape of college athletics with the unveiling of the athletics facilities vision plan announced by Athletic Director Chad Weiberg.

The plan focuses on providing for the success of the student-athletes, improving the fan experience, and bolstering the University's ability to attract student-athletes across all programs through the creation of a unified and connected athletic village unrivaled in college sports.

Included in the plan are a new football operations center, a new wrestling training facility, a new softball stadium, an indoor track, a new training center for basketball, upgrades to the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center and to Karsten Creek Golf Course and repurposed areas in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium and Gallagher-Iba Arena for student-athlete services that include a new academics center and spaces for mental health, leadership and career development.



The athletics vision plan comes at an estimated cost of approximately $325 million. The implementation and order of construction will be determined as funding becomes available for each individual element.

"This is a time of conference realignment and unprecedented transformation in college athletics," Weiberg said. "With a history that includes 52 NCAA titles, for us to continue to achieve championship results, now is not the time to pause or rest on past accomplishments, but to honor those accomplishments by pushing forward and building upon what has been started. This vision plan provides a road map for the next phase of an athletics village that will be unrivaled in collegiate sports."

The plan is in its conceptual stages.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Human Performance Innovation Complex and Football Center

In December of 2022, Oklahoma State University announced its new Human Performance and Nutrition Research Institute with the goal of impacting every community in Oklahoma.

Due to available space and to maximize efficiencies, the institute headquarters will share a roof with the new operations home of Cowboy Football and will be located immediately adjacent to the existing practice fields and the Sherman E. Smith Training Center.

Sharing the same footprint will maximize efficiencies of key elements of the Human Performance And Nutrition Research Institute and Cowboy Football.

Vacated space in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium creates tremendous benefits for student-athletes in every sport and accommodates an athletic department that has grown in recent years to include new areas dedicated to student-athlete success, mental and physical wellness, leadership and professional development.

While the institute itself is funded by the university, the Cowboy Football program will have its own space within the building paid for by athletics funds and private donations.

The 2009 upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium played a significant role in OSU's rise to college football prominence. It also launched a larger mindset – one that Cowboy Football is truly capable of ascending to the highest level of the sport. This new facility provides an opportunity for OSU to reaffirm its commitment to being a national force moving forward.

Student-Athlete Success Center

The program areas currently occupied by OSU Football in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium will be renovated following completion of Human Performance Innovation and Football Center. This includes both student-athlete and coaches/staff areas in the stadium which are currently located on the arena and lower club Levels.

The existing Student-Athlete Dining and Training Table would be expanded and renovated. Premium areas, including both club areas and seating and additional suites would be added, offering new seating types and amenities. Existing student-athlete support programs such as academic services, student athlete development and mental health could be relocated from Gallagher-Iba Arena to the stadium. Sports medicine, along with strength and conditioning could also be expanded and located in the west end zone, offering a central training and recovery space for all student-athletes.

In addition, offices and work areas for OSU Athletics creative teams, encompassing operations, graphic design, creative content and communications would be relocated to Boone Pickens Stadium.

Boone Pickens Stadium

Between 2003 and 2009, Lewis Field expanded and was officially rededicated as Boone Pickens Stadium on September 5, 2009. The expansion included adding nearly 4,000 club seats and 123 suites and connected the north and south by creating a continuous seating bowl in the west end zone. Over time the original seating on the north and south sides stadium bowl has required annual maintenance, resulting in increased repair costs, necessitating the replacement of the existing seating treads and risers. This need allowed OSU Athletics to plan the modernization and improvement of the fan experience in Boone Pickens Stadium.

Following the 2022 football season, work began on a two-year stadium project, beginning on the north side. That scope of work begins at the 200 level with the addition of a cross aisle to the existing seating treads and risers at the 300 level, expanding tread depths and new entrances. The project includes replacing benches, adding stadium seats in some sections, additional aisles, and adding handrails for safety. New intermediate aisles will be located between the existing entrances, reducing the amount of seating between aisles.

Following the 2023 football season, the south will be replaced in a similar fashion. The project includes new entrances at the lower 200 levels, replacing benches, adding stadium seats, additional aisles and adding handrails.

This renovation will keep the overall vision of Boone Pickens Stadium intact, marrying the north, west and south seating sections, and maintaining the existing 100, 200 and 300 level seating bowl levels.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Softball Stadium

The plan includes a new softball facility partially located on the former site of Allie P. Reynolds Stadium. The new home of Cowgirl Softball will provide modern amenities suitable for a premier collegiate softball program and will include championship caliber player-development areas. In addition, typical chairback seating, tailgating corrals, and family friendly areas to enhance the fan experience are planned.

Following the demolition of Allie P. Reynolds Stadium, the project will also create opportunities for additional parking for on-campus residents.

Indoor Track and Field

The men's and women's track and field programs support over 100 student-athletes. These athletes require year-round training and competition space. The vision plan proposes an indoor track and field facility south of the existing outdoor track and field complex. The proposed site is bordered by McElroy Road to the north, the Sherman E. Smith Training Center to the south, the Michael and Anne Greenwood Tennis Center to the west, and North Knoblock Street to the east.

This parcel of land is ideally sized for a full indoor track program. It will include a 200 meter banked track, indoor field event space, spectator seating, athletic training rooms, team meeting/theater spaces, locker rooms, player lounges, and offices for coaching staff.

In addition to strengthening training and development for the track and field programs, this new facility will act as a dynamic new recruiting tool for an already nationally prominent program.

Wrestling Practice Facility

Cowboy Wrestling is the most successful program in the history of the NCAA, regardless of sport. Entering the 2022-23 academic year, Oklahoma State wrestling had won 34 team national championships, 143 individual NCAA championships and had 475 All-Americans. The plan proposes an addition to the existing facility, which would support the ongoing success of OSU Wrestling.

While the program recently received an upgrade to its locker room, additional space is needed to sustain the success of the program.

This addition will increase the size of the wrestling room, allowing for additional mat space and championship-level team amenities. While the team will always compete inside the famous Gallagher-Iba Arena, the training facility will feature a dedicated space for spectators that will enhance recruiting and donor visits. This training facility will also house office and meeting spaces for the coaching staff.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Basketball Practice Facility

OSU's basketball programs have a rich history of success. Since the Cowboys' first game in 1908, OSU has won two national championships and appeared in six Final Fours. In the Big 12, only Kansas exceeds those totals. With 17 postseason appearances and three conference championships, the Cowgirls are continuing to build on an already-established tradition.

While having the benefit of utilizing the game court and backdrop of Gallagher-Iba Arena for practice can be an advantage for both programs, at times they are displaced during other athletic and campus events. A new practice facility is essential in helping both basketball programs continue to recruit, develop and train student-athletes to compete for championships.

The vision plan proposes an addition on the south side of the arena featuring two practice courts and other championship-caliber training spaces.

Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center

Building off the historic 2021-22 season in which the program captured its eighth Big 12 Conference title and its first overall NCEA national championship, several updates to Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center are planned.

Similar in size and scope to the Atherton Family Arena, an additional covered arena will be added to the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center.

Currently the primary practice arena, the Atherton Family Arena is a 135x270 square foot covered arena. The team also uses the Totusek Indoor Arena, a 100x200 foot climate-controlled facility. The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center consists of a saddling barn that includes coaches' offices, locker rooms, a tack room and an athletic training satellite office. It also has a 24-stall horse barn with outdoor runs and several paddocks and pastures. A new multi-purpose team building that includes a team lounge with study area and a fueling station was completed in 2021.

Karsten Creek Golf Course

Opened in 1994, Karsten Creek Golf Course was quickly named the "Best New Course" in the country by Golf Digest. The undulating fairways and challenging bunkers were originally created by renowned golf course designer Tom Fazio. Complementing the course are the clubhouse, three multi-level guest lodges, and a practice and teaching facility. While the course and related amenities have stood the test of time, renovations are needed to improve the facilities infrastructure, create a more challenging course, and enhance the skills of the student-athlete.

Course enhancement will include new irrigation, drainage, fairways, cart paths, and greens. Bunkers and tee boxes will be adjusted to increase the difficulty of play and advance the skills of the golfers. The practice facility will also be renovated to improve the tee boxes, landing zones, short game area and practice putting greens.

Originally constructed in 1997, the indoor practice facility will be upgraded to include state-of-the-art equipment.

Gallagher-Iba Arena Welcome Plaza

Since 1938, Gallagher-Iba Arena has been known as one of the great venues in collegiate athletics. Over time, however, the original east facade of the building has lost its unique prominence as the main gateway of the venue. This project seeks to revive this entrance, creating the welcome that OSU fans and athletes deserve. The plan also proposes adding premium parking and tailgating experiences to enhance the fan experience from the moment they arrive for an event.

The proposed Gallagher-Iba Welcome Plaza parking expansion will create approximately 250 new parking spaces nestled in a park-like setting.

In addition to creating parking, public plaza and walkway, fans will experience an arrival sequence similar to that of Boone Pickens Stadium. With new fan-focused offerings, OSU will have new opportunities to generate revenue.

6.	52	Oklahoma State		36	Oklahoma
7.	50	Arkansas

Very few athletic departments produce the kind of consistent success found at Oklahoma State. OSU has won 52 NCAA team championships - a mark that ranks sixth among all Division I schools.

OSU boasts NCAA team championships in five different sports – wrestling (34 titles), men's golf (11 titles), men's cross country (four titles), men's basketball (two titles) and baseball (one title). Additionally, OSU football and equestrian have been recognized as national champions by other organizations.

That same success translates on the conference level, where Oklahoma State has amassed 334 team conference championships entering the 2023-24 academic year. A team-by-team look at OSU Athletics:

The All-Time Greats

The highest honor the Oklahoma State Athletic Department can bestow upon its former student-athletes, coaches and staff is induction into the OSU Athletics Hall of Honor. Inductees are immortalized with a permanent display on the concourse level of Gallagher-Iba Arena, outside the O-Club room on the arena's west side.

Learfield Directors' Cup

The Learfield Directors' Cup honors institutions and evaluates success in all sports, men's and women's. The Directors' Cup allows athletic departments to measure the success of each sports program evenly and does not weigh the success in one sport above the success in another.

Oklahoma State in the Learfield Directors' Cup

- OSU has finished in the top three in the Big 12 in eight of the last 10 years.
- Because Oklahoma State does not sponsor women's volleyball and does not get credit for its performance in equestrian, it has only 17 sports eligible for Learfield Directors' Cup scoring, while most others count points from 19 sports. Operating with a two-sport handicap, Oklahoma State has still finished in the top 25 nationally the last three years and has finished in the top three of the Big 12 each of the last five years.

Phillips 66 Bedlam Series

The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head to head competition. In sports where there is no head to head matchup, the Big 12 Championship final standings are used.

While Oklahoma State and Oklahoma have been in competition for more than 100 years, the all-sports Bedlam Series did not come into existence until the 1999-2000 academic year. Oklahoma State leads the annual Bedlam Series, 12-11-1. OU controlled the early years of the Bedlam Series, but with Bedlam victories in eight of the last 10 years, OSU has since become the superior school in direct competition.

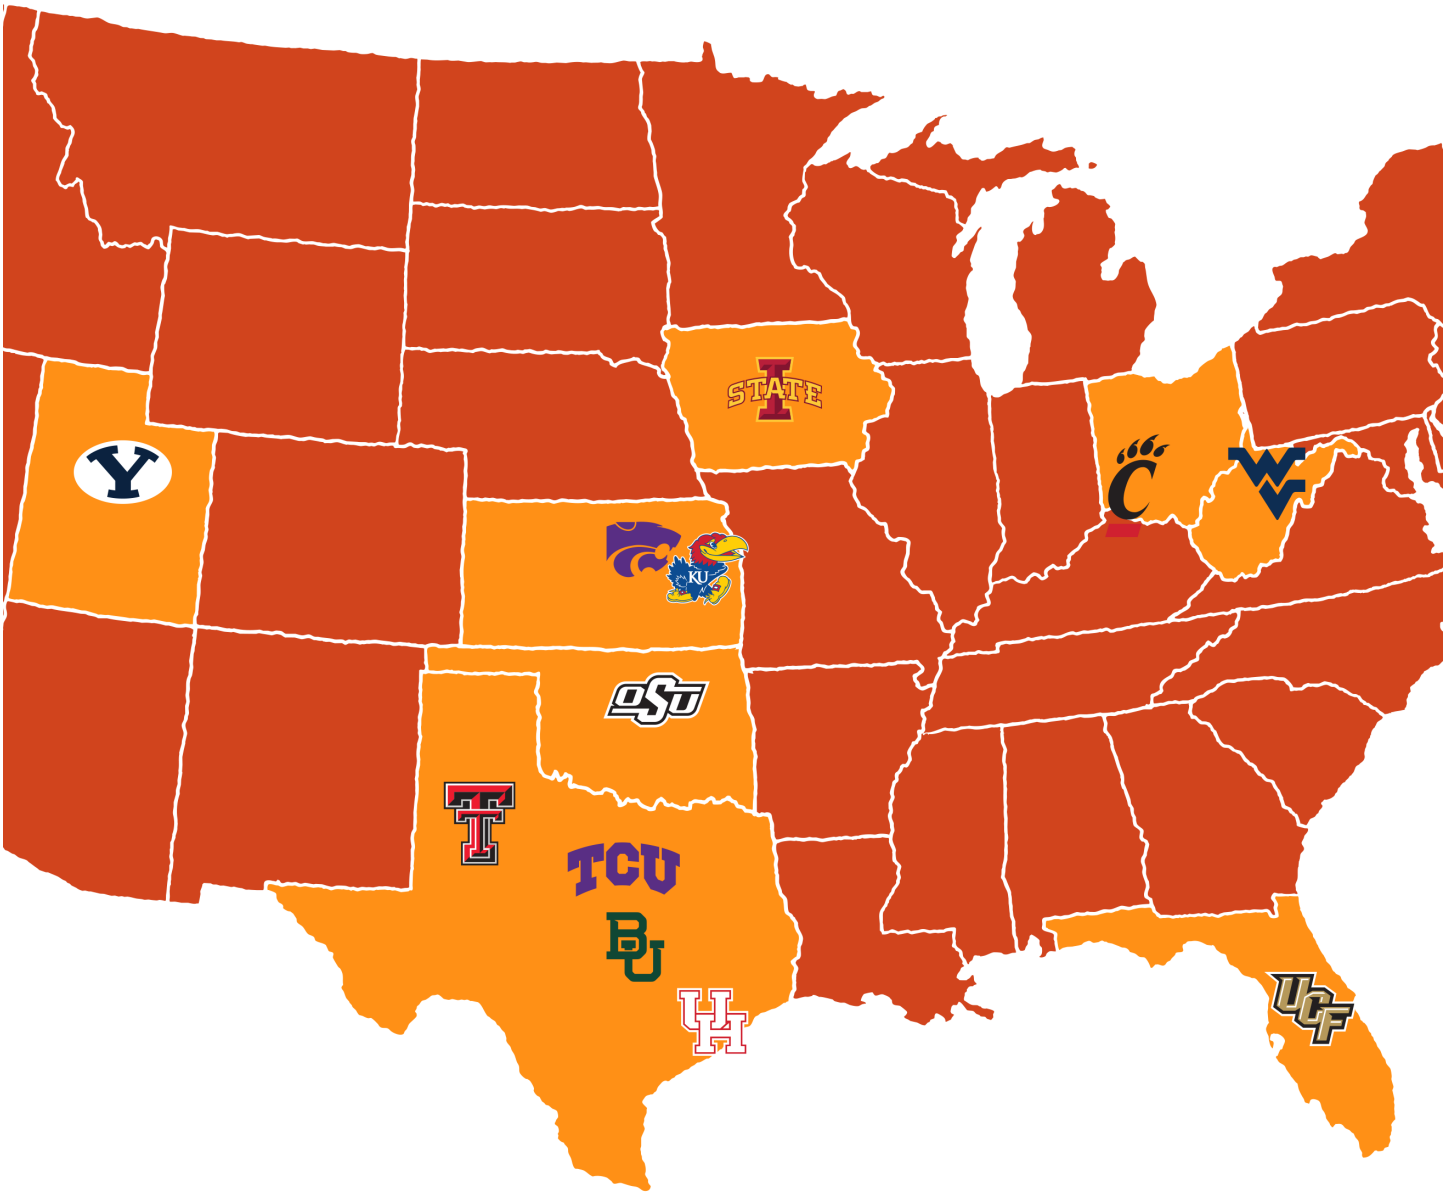
The Big 12 Conference



BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 enters its 28th year as one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of Commissioner Brett Yormark. In his brief time at the helm, Yormark has elevated the Conference to new heights, placing an emphasis on marketing, brand building and storytelling that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

The Big 12 is comprised of 14 institutions after welcoming BYU, UCF, Cincinnati and Houston on July 1, 2023. TCU and West Virginia were the first new additions since inception when they joined the league on July 1, 2012. Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech are legacy members.

In the first year of his tenure, Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox that will run through 2030-31 while leading a revamp of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. He has taken an innovative approach to ensure the Conference resides in places it has never been before including creating the first Big 12 Business Advisory Board. Other highlights are executing a partnership with the National Football League to operate a conference-wide Pro Day, teaming up with New York City Parks Department for a summer activation at historic Rucker Park, and bringing celebrity talent such as Fat Joe, Ashanti, Shaq and DJ Khaled into the Big 12 marketing fold. "Big 12 Homecoming" will debut during the 2023 football season at the four new members' campuses with additional conference members featured in future seasons.

The 2022-23 academic year saw the Conference reach new frontiers with TCU becoming the first league school to reach the College Football Playoff National Championship game. Texas captured the NCAA Women's Volleyball title as well as the Women's Outdoor Track & Field national championship. Oklahoma earned its second straight NCAA Women's Gymnastics trophy and was crowned Women's College World Series champions for the third consecutive season. NCAA Championship runner-up finishes were notched by Oklahoma State Men's Cross Country, Texas Women's Swimming & Diving and UT Women's Indoor Track & Field. NCAA individual titles were collected by 23 student-athletes. The Big 12 tied its own record as the only league to place 70 percent of men's basketball teams in the NCAA Championship and 80 percent of football squads in bowl games in the same academic year, also accomplishing the feat in 2017-18.

The Big 12 office is located in Irving, Texas.

Key Highlights

- Home of 81 NCAA team titles and 742 individual national championships, as of July 1, 2023.
- Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses eight states, three time zones and a combined population of over 79.3 million.
- The league sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.
- The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 22 of its 23 sports.
- Entering the 2023-24 academic year, the Big 12 has over 800 Academic All-America recipients.
- National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) was the recipient of the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. He is the Big 12's fifth honoree since 2000. Since 1996, the Big 12 has 14 recipients of the NCAA Today's Top 10 award. This prestigious honor recognizes former student-athletes for their success on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. In the last 13 seasons, 27 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 award.
- Big 12 Commissioner Brett Yormark announced the formation of a Business Advisory Board to collaborate and help co-author the Conference's business strategy. The Board is comprised of some of the most successful leaders from a variety of fields – entertainment, finance, consumer brands, technology, media and more – that bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise in building global brands and dynamic businesses.

Name, Image and Likeness and POSSE STAR Fund

Oklahoma State is at the very forefront of the Name, Image and Likeness era of college sports and has the accolades to prove it.

OSU was the only Big 12 school recognized as a national finalist for Best Institutional Program at the inaugural NIL Awards at the INFLCR NIL Summit in 2022.

OSU's reputation as an NIL leader was earned not through hype, but through planning and then executing a strategy that placed maximizing NIL opportunities for student-athletes as the top priority.

A sampling of what NIL looks like at Oklahoma State:

Oklahoma State sprinter Tori Ortiz secured an NIL partnership with the WWE, among many others.

▶ OSU Athletics partnered with the renowned Spears School of Business to form the best-in-class Brand Squad – a group of business students who help connect OSU students with NIL partners at no cost to the students.

▶ OSU Athletics appointed Barry Hinson as Associate Athletic Director for Name, Image and Likeness – a new position geared specifically toward identifying and promoting NIL opportunities for its student-athletes.

▶ OSU partnered with industry leader Altius Sports to provide a national perspective and guidance to OSU's NIL programming.

▶ OSU partnered with the Brandr Group, One Team and Fanatics to create group licensing opportunities for its student-athletes, such as selling jerseys and other merchandise co-branded with official OSU marks and the student-athletes' name, image and likeness.

▶ OSU was an early adopter in partnering with INFLCR as a way of helping student-athletes with their individual brand-building efforts through the use of professional-quality photos and videos.

▶ OSU provides ongoing rules education to the nonprofit collective Pokes with a Purpose, which pairs OSU student-athletes with local charities in a way that enables the student-athletes to use their name, image and likeness to raise awareness and funds for causes of their choosing.

▶ OSU Athletics has a standing NIL committee that meets weekly to identify, discuss and pursue NIL opportunities and partnerships that benefit its student-athletes.

▶ While it is not directly tied to NIL, OSU launched the POSSE Star Fund to provide student-athletes with additional education-related benefits including direct financial support in the form of academic achievement awards, up to the legally established maximum of $5,980 per year. In order to receive the full allotment, student-athletes must go through financial planning and education provided through a partnership between OSU Athletics and Simmons Bank.

The OSU NIL marketplace by Opendorse makes it easier than ever for fans and potential name, image and likeness partners to browse and connect with OSU student-athletes by visiting okstate.com/marketplace

Student-Athlete Leadership and Professional Development

Every athletic department has a goal of winning championships, which is something we know a thing or two about there at Oklahoma State. A quick glance to the rafters in Gallagher-Iba Arena illustrates that.

But in addition to banners, developing the next generation of leaders away from the field is a priority for OSU Athletic Director Chad Weiberg, and he made that clear with a key hire just weeks after taking the reins last July.

Jawauna Harding re-joined the OSU Athletics family to head up our new Student-Athlete Leadership and Professional Development office, which is charged with building initiatives and programming focused on career development, leadership and experiential learning, as well as diversity and inclusion resources for the Cowboys and Cowgirls.

Her goal is to enhance the student-athlete experience and ensure that each student-athlete is ready to take the next step once their athletic career in Stillwater has come to a close. Through one-on-one meetings, guest speakers and special events, each student-athlete will learn resume building, career development tools and receive support in finding a job.

Conversely, Harding worked with the OSU Office of Career Services (HireOSUGrads.com) to teach businesses what they're getting when they hire a student-athlete.

"Oklahoma State student-athletes have sought-after skills and experiences that organizations need like teamwork, adaptability, and time management," said Harding. "Our student-athletes have experienced organizational leadership systems and have been immersed in them their entire lives. For us, it is important that companies see value in providing experiences, such as jobs and internships, to help our athletes transition their skills into a professional career."

To promote leadership inside the Athletics Center, Harding worked closely with OSU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, better known as SAAC, to encourage student-athlete-led projects that benefit the community and the players themselves. In April, Harding worked with SAAC members to distribute over $5,000 to Oklahoma teachers to help promote mental health and cultural diversity in the classroom.

"SAAC here at Oklahoma State represents the voice of the student-athlete," said Cowgirl soccer defender and SAAC rep Summer Chaffin. "It's about coming together with the administration to make the student-athlete experience better, and I'm glad I'm a part of it."

Harding spent more than 12 years working directly with OSU student-athletes and alumni through OSU's Office of Career Services. A current member of the athletic department Diversity and Inclusion Council, Harding serves as OSU Athletics' Diversity and Inclusion Designee to the Big 12 Conference and other national organizations and helps support OSU's vision for diversity, equity and inclusion.

Harding graduated from OSU in 2006 with a degree in journalism and broadcasting with an emphasis in public relations. After working for a nonprofit in Oklahoma City, Jawauna returned to her alma mater in October of 2008 and has been working to enrich the student-athlete experience ever since.

Mental Health and Wellness

Oklahoma State student-athletes have access to Dr. Trevor Richardson, who moved to the athletic department after more than 10 years on campus as part of OSU Counseling Services.

For Richardson, a two-time Oklahoma State graduate, being a mental health resource for OSU student-athletes is not just his profession, it's personal.

Richardson is part of a four-person team of trained mental health professionals at Oklahoma State dedicated to serving the needs of OSU student-athletes. Most schools have just one - if any - mental health professionals on full-time staff.

The team's approach to mental health is built through relationships and providing ongoing support.

"Around here, we like the old proverb of if you give a person a fish, you'll feed them once. If you teach them to fish, you'll feed them for a lifetime." Richardson said. "That's kind of how we approach mental health – we want to equip our people with knowledge and strategies they can use long into the future."

There is a misconception that seeking help in the area of mental health is a sign of weakness. Richardson said that is not the case.

"It's a sign of strength to ask for help in mental health because it shows you are secure in yourself," Richardson said. "This is about courage. People who take part in this process show courage and sometimes they view it as a sign of weakness because of what they've been conditioned to think. When you run from something that needs to be addressed, sooner or later it catches up with you. To sit down and take that big, scary, unpleasant thing on and talk with someone about it, that takes real courage."

Honoring Academic Success

Jojo Roberson (equestrian) and Tom Hutton (football) were honored as OSU's 2023 Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Morgyn Wynne (softball) was honored as an OSU Senior of Significance in 2023.

The Oklahoma State Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award acknowledges the remarkable character and performance of one male and one female student-athlete. As the highest honor presented among OSU student-athletes, this award reflects exemplary performance in academic endeavors, athletic activities, and a commitment to community engagement. The award recognizes exceptional character of the student-athlete and a remarkable dedication to academic performance.

The award was initially presented in 1994 as the OSU Student-Athlete of the Year, but the title changed to OSU Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2015.

A Night to Shine

Oklahoma State student-athletes walk the orange carpet at the Cowboy Choice Awards, which has become a highly-anticipated event on the annual calendar, in part because of the awards themselves and in part because it is an opportunity for student-athletes from all sports to come together off the field for a fun and enjoyable evening.

Fan Support

Oklahoma State has a passionate fanbase that appreciates success across all sports and as a result, OSU enjoys an overwhelming advantage when playing at home.

America's Friendliest College Town

Why yes, we really do believe Stillwater, Oklahoma is the place where smiles from strangers are abounding and hometown hospitality is a way of life. Our welcoming spirit is rooted in our Oklahoma history, the diversity forged by Oklahoma State University, and even community hardships that have spurred our strength and camaraderie.

We hope you soak up the vibrancy of our historic downtown, explore Oklahoma State University's stunning campus, dive into our Red Dirt music scene and discover America's Friendliest College Town!

Noting Stillwater

Located in Payne County in north central Oklahoma, Stillwater has easy access (less than one hour drive) to both Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

Stillwater Regional Airport features multiple daily flights to and from Dallas Fort Worth Airport.

The population of Stillwater is about 50,000 and with Oklahoma State University as its heart, it comes as no surprise that approximately 50 percent of Stillwater residents age 25 years or older have a bachelor's degree.

America's Greatest Homecoming

OSU's very first Homecoming was held as part of the Harvest Carnival in the fall of 1913, but it wasn't until seven years later that the OSU Alumni Association hosted its first official Homecoming celebration. On October 30, 1920, 90 Oklahoma A&M alumni returned to Stillwater for festivities including the Aggie football game plus a dance and a dinner hosted by Alumni Association President Monroe Otey.

Of the 90 alumni in attendance, 50 were from the Stillwater area and 40 were from out of state. It was also in the '20s the now-famous tradition of house decorations began when sororities started to decorate their doorways.

In 1930, the first ever Homecoming Parade, a mile long, made its way down Main Street. More than 17,000 alumni returned to Oklahoma A&M that year to renew old friendships and show their pride in the Orange and Black.

In 1942 and 1944, Homecoming was combined with Dads' and Mothers' days and sponsored by the YMCA, YWCA, Dads' and Mothers' Day Association and the Alumni Association. The combination was a result of World War II and impending gas rationing to occur. Even with the gas rationing and cutbacks on parade floats, decorations and visiting bands, the football game and reunion functions were still well attended.

Following the war in 1946, there was a record attendance of 20,000 alumni and the largest parade was held including more than 50 floats, six bands and other community entries. Over time, the size of the house decorations overtook those of parade floats. In 1966, vehicles were abandoned and onlookers tried a new experiment - they simply "walked around" to view the decorations. Three years later, house decorations began being judged and scored.

New events like the Sign Competition, Football Frenzy and Chili Cook-Off were added in recent decades. Since that time, the event has grown and today is recognized as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration," drawing more than 80,000 alumni back to campus each year.

CASE International (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) has recognized OSU's Homecoming as a Seal of Excellence recipient. This is the highest award given by CASE in the field of Alumni Relations. This prestigious award is given only to programs that serve as models for others. OSU was recognized for the widespread participation and outstanding organization of its Homecoming program.

Most recently, the Homecoming celebration has launched onto the world wide web with photo albums, video highlights and live streams of Walkaround and the Sea of Orange Parade.

In 2010, the OSU Alumni Association began fundraising for the $3 million Homecoming and Student Programs Endowment as part of the $1 billion Branding Success campaign. OSU is one of the only schools left in the nation with an event like Walkaround, and once fully funded, the endowment will ensure future generations of Cowboys will be able to experience "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" as we know it today.

OSU's Homecoming is presented by the OSU Alumni Association and is planned by the student-driven Homecoming Executive, Steering and Big committees. OSU's Homecoming is a longstanding, exciting and colorful tradition for both campus and community.

Oklahoma State Spirit

The Cowboys

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.

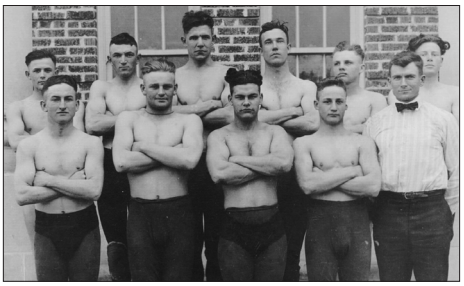
Bullet is a regular part of the Cowboy football game day experience.

THE PROGRAM

There is no greater dynasty in all of sports than Oklahoma State Cowboy wrestling.

What makes Oklahoma State a dynasty? It's a combination of the themes that have been in the Oklahoma State wrestling program for over a century that the tradition and success was built upon. These themes are why Cowboy wrestling is a dynasty defined.

A Dynasty Defined

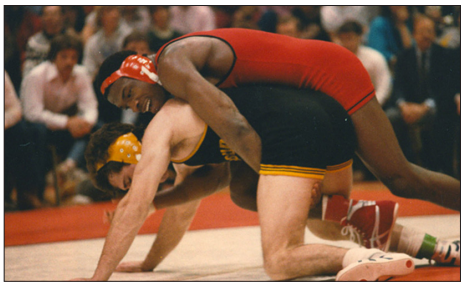


Innovation

Oklahoma State wrestling began with the "Father of Oklahoma Wrestling" Ed Gallagher. The foundation laid by Coach Gallagher has stood strong for over 100 years, and is one of the pioneers of the sport as we know it today.

Lineage

The coaching tree of Oklahoma State and its success. A total of 34 national titles with five head coaches proceeding Coach Gallagher - Art Giffith, Myron Roderick, Tommy Chesbro, Joe Seay, and John Smith. Each of OSU's head coaches is a member of the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

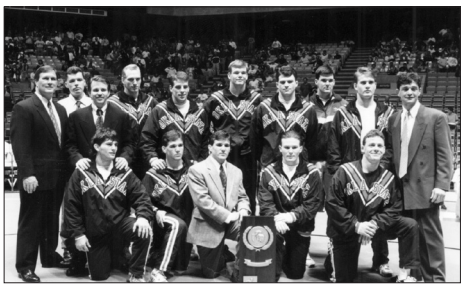


Culture/Diversity

OSU minority athletes have had immense success in the sport of wrestling. Kenny Monday was the first black Olympic champion, while Joe James was the first black Big 8 conference champion and Jimmy Jackson was a three-time NCAA champ. Yojiro Uetake went 57-0 at Oklahoma State and later became a two-time gold medalist representing Japan. In 1965, Jack Brisco became the first Native American to win an NCAA championship.

Family

The ties to grandsons, sons, and siblings are never ending in Stillwater. The Smith family is obvious, but families like the Sheets, Perrys and Kellers have shared the pride of Oklahoma State wrestling through generations.



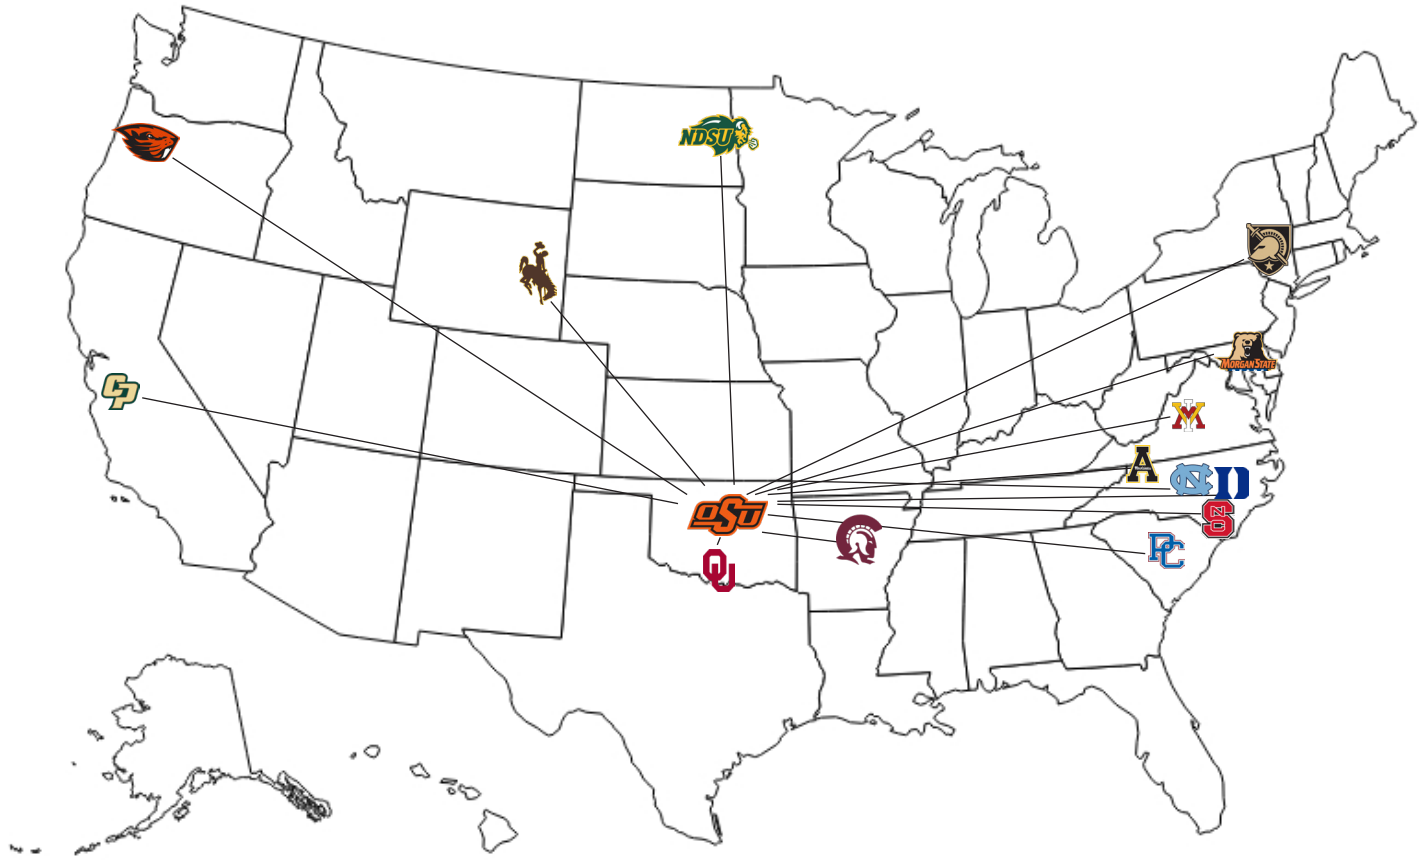
Resilience

The 100 years of success wasn't the smoothest road, and it never is; it took grit to carry the tradition of Cowboy wrestling. David Arndt is the only wrestler to win NCAA championships before and after World War II. The 1994 NCAA championship team came off a year of probation to triumph as team champs.

Performance

The winningest team in all of sports is ultimately what defines the dynasty. No team in any sport has more championships than the 34 boasted by Cowboy Wrestling, along with 485 All-Americans and 143 individual champions. The same level of success is present on the world stage as nine Cowboy wrestlers have won a total of 11 gold medals at the Olympic Games.

The Smith Tree



The legacy John Smith has created in college wrestling extends far beyond Stillwater, Oklahoma. The Cowboy head coach has built a coaching tree that extends from coast-to-coast with 10 of his former wrestlers or assistants having taken the reigns at their own program, and numerous others in assistant roles.

New Facilities

The new state-of-the-art locker room consists of a lounge area and dining room, decorated to tribute the past and current tradition of Oklahoma State wrestling.

Joined by Mike and Glynda Pollard, who donated $1 million for the facility, OSU unveiled the completed locker room on May 31, 2022.

Singlets and Gear

The traditional orange Oklahoma State singlet and the chevron warmup jacket are some of the most iconic looks in all of college wrestling. In 2021, the Cowboys broke out a new wave of secondary singlets to complement their traditional style.

The Cowboys have worn the all-orange singlet for more than 40 years.

The chevron warmups are a staple of the Oklahoma State wrestling tradition.

New Looks

The "Cursive Cowboys" made its first appearance in 2021, popping off OSU's white singlet.

A new look for the Cowboys as a whole, a block font was introduced onto the singlet in 2021. An orange front is paired with black accents and OSU's official logo.

A white block font with white accents is added to an orange singlet with a Pistol Pete logo on the back.

Mirroring the Cowboys' traditional orange singlet, a new black singlet was introduced last season.
