OPENING TIPS

• The Oklahoma State Cowboys will work the late shift Saturday night against the Kansas State Wildcats with a rare 9 p.m. CT tipoff inside Gallagher-Iba Arena.

• OSU is looking to bounce back from a rough defensive showing in Tuesday's 94-79 loss to Baylor. The visiting Bears shot 59% from the field, including 72% during a 57-point first half.

• The Baylor loss spoiled OSU's best home start since the 2009-10 season (11-0) and its longest home winning streak (11) since 2014.

• Head coach Steve Lutz will again take aim at his 100th win in just five seasons as head coach.

• Tuesday aside, Lutz has helped restore home court advantage in GIA, guiding the Cowboys to a 24-5 mark (.828) in his two seasons in Stillwater (8-4 in Big 12 play).

• Three of OSU's first four Big 12 games were against AP top-25 opponents. The Cowboys defeated No. 25 UCF in Stillwater but suffered road setbacks at Texas Tech and Iowa State.

• OSU is averaging 88.4 points (19th nationally) on 48.4% shooting this season. At home, those numbers climb to 92.2 points on 50%.

• OSU is averaging 19.4 points per game at the foul line (19th nationally) and converting 75.3% of its free throw opportunities.

• Five Cowboys are averaging at least 10 points per game, led by Anthony Roy (17.6 ppg). The 6-5 guard has scored in double-figures in all 14 games in an OSU uniform and ranks among the NCAA leaders in three-pointers (17th, 3.43) and three-point percentage (12th, .457). He's also shooting a Big 12-best 90.6% at the foul line.

• In four Big 12 contests, Roy has knocked down a league-best 20 threes on 51.3% accuracy.

• Sophomore guard Vyctorius Miller (14.9 ppg) has also been a dangerous perimeter threat this season, sinking 31-of-64 (.484) treys.

• Senior forward Parsa Fallah (15.1 ppg) is the team's leading rebounder at 6.5 per game and his .626 field goal percentage charts among the top-20 nationally.

• Like Roy, Fallah has found another gear since the start of Big 12 play, averaging 20.8 points on 61.5% shooting through four games.

• Point guards Kanye Clary (4.9 apg) and Jaylen Curry (4.6 apg) lead one the nation's most aggressive attacks (seventh in KenPom adjusted tempo). Curry ranks 22nd nationally in A:TO ratio (3.40) and Clary is 21st in assists-per-40 (8.3).

- 1951 -- Two days after earning the first No. 1 ranking in program history, OSU defeated No. 8 Saint Louis, 55-44, in front of a capacity crowd in Gallagher Hall. It was the 16th straight win for the Pokes, who went on to reach national semifinals.
- 2004 -- Down 16 to K-State with 13:44 to play in the second half, Eddie Sutton's Cowboys rallied for a 57-56 road win. Tony Allen helped seal it, blocking Jarrett Hart's potential game-winning three with five seconds left. These Pokes would also go on to reach the national semifinals.

The Series with Kansas State:

- This is game No. 149 in a series that began in 1922. The Wildcats lead 88-60, but OSU has a 25-21 leg up in the Big 12 era (1996-97 to present).
- This will be the only regular season meeting between the schools in 2025-26, marking the first time since the 2010-11 season that the sides haven't played a home-and-home.
- OSU has a 38-28 advantage on its home floor (35-26 inside GIA) with victories in five of the last six.
- OSU is 19-44 all-time in Manhattan (12-17 at Bramlage Coliseum) with four straight setbacks.
- OSU is 2-4 against KSU's Jerome Tang (2-1 GIA, 0-3 in Manhattan). Steve Lutz is 1-1 against Tang.

Scouting the Wildcats:

- Kansas State lost the top 10 scorers from last year's team, which finished 16-17 (9-11) and tied for ninth in the Big 12 regular season.
- Fourth-year head coach Jerome Tang brought in the nation's fourth-best portal class, per 247sports. A group of five transfers includes both the AAC and MAC players of the year in Memphis' P.J. Haggerty and Akron's Nate Johnson. In addition, 6-7 guard Abi Bashir Jr. won the CAA scoring titles (20.1 ppg) and led the nation in three-point field goals per game

(3.85) last season at Monmouth.
- After going 9-4 in non-conference play (with a Quad 1 win at Creighton), K-State is still in search of its first Big 12 victory. The Wildcats are 0-4 after Wednesday's 82-73 home loss to UCF. Two of their losses have come against NET top-10 opponents (BYU and Arizona).
- The Wildcats average 85.6 points per game and rank among the national leaders in assists (11th, 19.0) and fastbreak points (20th, 16.5). They're second in the Big 12 in three-point field goals (10.1 on 36.7% accuracy).
- Opponents are averaging 80.1 points per game (88.3 in Big 12 play).
- The 6-foot-4 Haggerty is the nation's sixth-leading scorer at 22.9 points and also averages a team-best 4.6 assists. He's topped 20 points in 12 of his 17 games in a Wildcat uniform.
- Bashir (13.1 ppg) has again been one of the nation's best three-point shooters by both quantity (6th, 3.65) and quality (19th, .443).
- Johnson (11.2 ppg) is averaging team-bests 4.9 rebounds and 2.1 steals.
- Sophomore guard David Castillo has been the most-productive of the four K-State returners, averaging 11.8 points off the bench.
- A group of four international additions includes Italian big man Dorin Buca (team-best 23 blocks).

Matchup Mashup:

- OSU sophomore Andrija Vukovic and KSU freshman Andrej Kostic are both products of Serbian club powerhouse Crvena Zvezda's (Red Star) youth system.
- OSU has crossed paths with K-State guard P.J. Haggerty once before -- in a December 2023 win over Tulsa at the Paycom Center. Haggerty finished with a game-high 14 points and four steals for the Golden Hurricane.

A Cowboy Win Would...

- Be Steve Lutz's 100th in less than five full seasons as a collegiate head coach (100-57).
- Push Lutz's GIA record to 25-5 (.833), including 9-4 in Big 12 play.
- Make them 12-1 at home this season (2-1 Big 12).
- Make them 14-4 overall -- one victory shy of their 2024-25 regular season win total (15-16).
- Give them wins in three of the last four with K-State and narrow their series deficit to 88-61.
- Be their third straight against the Cats in Stillwater and their sixth in seven tries.

A Cowboy Loss Would...

- Be their third straight, matching their longest skid under Lutz.
- Deny Lutz his 100th career victory.
- Make them 11-2 at home this season.
- Give them consecutive home losses for the first time in the Lutz era.
- Be K-State's first Stillwater win since 2023.
- Give the Wildcats an 89-60 lead in the all-time series (29-38 in Stillwater).

Up Next: at TCU

SEASON OUTLOOK

- Steve Lutz spent his first year in Stillwater setting a foundation. Now he's ready to build on it.
- The 2024-25 Cowboys played hard, rebounded and fought defensively – ultimately scratching their way to the NIT quarterfinals -- but often struggled for points. Lutz worked to rectify that over the offseason, targeting proven scorers and playmakers, more tailored to his aggressive, up-tempo style.
- OSU reeled in the Big 12's top transfer portal class, per both On3 and HoopsHQ.
- The 12 newcomers (seven DI transfers and five freshmen) join a core of three returners, headlined by senior forward Robert Jennings II, who started all 35 games last season.
- Sophomore forward Andrija Vukovic looks to take on a larger role in year two, while senior guard Kirk Cole provides veteran leadership and stability.
- Kanye Clary, a 6-foot guard who was included on HoopsHQ's preseason top-100 list, averaged nearly 17 points as a Penn State sophomore before an injury-shortened 2024-25 season at Mississippi State.
- Likewise, Green Bay transfer Anthony Roy is playing his way back from a foot injury, suffered in early December of last year. Prior to it, he was the nation's leading scorer, averaging 25.7 points and 4.5 threes over the first 11 games.
- Roy's presence, coupled with freshman sharp-shooter Ryan Crotty (247 threes in two seasons at the Miller School) should give opposing defenses something to think about on the perimeter.
- Guards Jaylen Curry and Vyctorius Miller are two other potential playmakers. Curry averaged 13.3 points and ranked among the top-25 nationally in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.67) last season at UMass, and Miller showed flashes as a true freshman at LSU, averaging 8.9 points.
- The two are not related, but 6-5 Isaiah Coleman (team-highs 15.6 ppg, 5.3 rpg, 1.5 spg at Seton Hall) and 6-8 Christian Coleman (11.6 ppg, 7.1 rpg at UAB) are both long, versatile athletes who can contribute in a variety of ways.
- OSU added an experienced post presence in 6-10 senior Parsa Fallah (second team All-Pac 12 at Oregon State) to lead a youthful front court that includes Vukovic and high upside freshmen Benjamin Ahmed (Putnam Science) and Mekhi Ragland (Sunrise Christian).
- Greek forward Lefteris Mantzoukas and Israeli guard Daniel Guetta aren't your typical freshmen. Both are 22 years old and have extensive international experience.
- The 6-9 Mantzoukas is a career 40% three-point shooter who has played parts of eight seasons in the Greek Basketball League, including four with 2024 EuroLeague champion Pananthinaikos.

Head Coach Steve Lutz

STEVE LUTZ
Head Coach | 2nd Year | Texas Lutheran '95

- The 2025-26 season is Steve Lutz's second at the helm of Cowboy Basketball.
- A rising star, Lutz worked under Greg McDermott at Creighton and Matt Painter at Purdue -- connections that tie him to both Eddie Sutton and Henry Iba's legendary coaching trees.
- The 53-year-old has since launched his own successful head coaching career, becoming the first in NCAA history to guide three different programs to the postseason within his first four years.
- In rapid rebuilds at Western Kentucky (2023-24) and A&M-Corpus Christi (2021-23), Lutz posted a combined 69-35 record with three NCAA tournament bids and a perfect 8-0 mark in conference tournament play.
- Lutz completed another impressive turnaround in his first season in Stillwater, guiding an OSU team that had lost nearly 20 games and nearly his entire roster from the previous year to the quarterfinals of the 2025 National Invitation Tournament.

In addition, the 2024-25 Cowboys…

… added five wins to their previous total.
… jumped 34 spots in the NCAA NET rankings.
… reestablished Gallagher-Iba Arena as one of the toughest places to play in the country, with OSU's best home record in more than a decade (13-4).
… played fast, ranking 12th nationally in tempo.
… played aggressive defense, breaking a 36-year old school record for steals (9.1 per game).
… played unselfishly, leading the Big 12 in both bench scoring (30.6 ppg) and minutes (42%).
… handled business in the classroom, with a 3.51 spring GPA, eight new OSU graduates and the NABC's Academic Team Excellence Award.

At Western Kentucky (2023-24):
- The Hilltoppers finished 22-12 and punched their first NCAA tournament ticket since 2013 by winning the CUSA tournament crown. They led the nation in adjusted tempo, per KenPom, and averaged a league-best 80.6 points per game.

At A&M-Corpus Christi (2021-23):
- Lutz ended a similar, 15-year NCAA tournament drought in Corpus Christi with back-to-back appearances. The Islanders were one of the nation's most improved teams in 2021-22, jumping from 5-19 to 23-12 with help from a dozen transfers and an aggressive, opportunistic defense that ranked among the NCAA leaders in steals (8.5) and forced turnovers (14th, 16.5).
- The Islanders took another big step forward in 2022-23, finishing 24-11 (14-4) while sweeping the Southland's regular season and tournament titles.

As an Assistant Coach:
- Lutz has coached in a total of 10 NCAA tournaments -- three as a head coach in seven during his years as an assistant coach at Creighton (2010-17) and Purdue (2017-21), highlighted by Sweet 16 and Elite Eight runs with Boilermakers in 2018 and 2019.
- Along the way, Lutz had a hand in the development of two national players of the year in Creighton's Doug McDermott (2014) and Purdue's Zach Edey (2023 & 2024), whom he helped recruit to West Lafayette prior to his final season.

Off the Court:
- A class act, on and off the court, Lutz has twice been a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award, given to the head coach who achieves success while displaying strong moral character.

Cowboy Basketball Tradition

NOTING THE PROGRAM

- Cowboy Basketball enjoys a rich history with two national championships (1945 & 1946) and five representatives in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.
- OSU was the first Division I men's basketball program to win back-to-back national titles. Then known as the Aggies of Oklahoma A&M, they defeated NYU, 49-45, in the 1945 NCAA tournament title game and downed North Carolina, 43-40, for the 1946 crown. Both games were played at Madison Square Garden.
- Cowboy teams have been to six NCAA Final Fours and 11 regional finals.

Naismith Hall of Famers with OSU Ties:

Bob Kurland	Enshrined in 1961
Mr. Henry Iba	Enshrined in 1969
Don Haskins	Enshrined in 1997
Bill Self	Enshrined in 2017
Eddie Sutton	Enshrined in 2020

College Basketball Hall of Famers with OSU Ties:

Don Haskins	Inducted in 2006
Mr. Henry Iba	Inducted in 2006
Bob Kurland	Inducted in 2006
Eddie Sutton	Inducted in 2011
Jack Hartman	Class of 2024

- Mr. Henry Iba was one of college basketball first great head coaches, responsible for pioneering modern concepts such as a patterned, motion offense. He was also the first to incorporate the help principles of zone defense with man-to-man defense. Iba won 752 games over his 40-year career -- the last 36 of which came in Stillwater -- and also coached the United States to gold medals at the 1964 and 1968 Olympics.
- A three-time All-American from 1943-46 and the Most Outstanding Player on each of OSU's national title winners, Bob Kurland has not only left his mark in college basketball's record book but also its rule book. One of the game's first 7-footers was known to routinely leap up and grab opponent shots before they hit the rim, leading the creation of the goaltending rule.
- Kurland is also credited with college basketball's first dunk during a 1944 road game at Temple. "The ball happened to be under the basket. I got it up and stuffed it in. That started it, I guess," he told the Orlando Sentinel in 2012. "It was an unintentional accident. It wasn't planned, just a spontaneous play in Philadelphia."
- Eddie Sutton played and coached under Iba in the 1950s and returned in 1990 to lead OSU back to national prominence with Final Fours in 1994 and 2005.
- Before he coached Texas Western to the 1967 national title and inspired the motion picture Glory Road, Don Haskins played for Iba at OSU. The 1952 graduate lettered three years for the Aggies and played on two NCAA semifinalists.
- Kansas head coach Bill Self played four years at OSU (1981-85) and spent seven as an OSU assistant (1986-93) before landing his first head coaching job at ORU.
- The late Jack Hartman, a 1950 OSU graduate and former Iba assistant, was part of the Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame's 2024 class.

GALLAGHER-IBA ARENA

- Gallagher-Iba Arena is one of college athletics' most famous and historic venues.
- Sometime referred to as the Madison Square Garden of the Plains, the building has been home to Oklahoma State basketball and wrestling since 1938.
- A 2000 renovation more than doubled the aren'a capacity from 6,300 to 13,611, yet it still provides an up-close view from any seat in the house, helping give the Cowboys a tremendous home court advantage. OSU men's basketball teams are 881-269 all-time inside GIA, including 313-95 since the expansion. That includes a 466-60 (.885) mark in non-conference regular season home games.
- The arena is named for a pair of OSU coaches who are legends in their respective sports:
- Ed Gallagher coached OSU to 11 national wrestling championships from 1916-40 while compiling a 138-5-4 record in dual matches
- Henry Iba served as coach and athletic director at Oklahoma State from 1935 to 70, and in those 36 seasons, posted a 655-316 record while guiding the Cowboys to 13 league championships, eight NCAA appearances and the 1945 and 1946 NCAA Championships.

- Two seats are permanently reserved for Gallagher (who passed away in 1940) and Iba (1993) in the southeast corner of the arena on the concourse level.
- Along with the expansion of the historic arena, the OSU Athletics Center has many features:
- A total of 14 luxury suites stretch across the west side of the facility.
- Banners honoring Oklahoma State's 53 NCAA championships across all sports are hung from the rafters.
- The pride of OSU athletic triumphs are also illustrated in photographic and trophy displays in Heritage Hall, a museum dedicated to athletic and academic excellence at OSU.
- Even after two major construction projects, today's players still compete on the gym's original white maple floor, which was the country's most expensive when it was installed. On Jan. 15, 2005, it was officially renamed Eddie Sutton Court.
- The arena was built in 1938 at a cost of $1.5 million. National powers Oklahoma State and Kansas opened the facility on Dec. 9 in a game that matched coaching legends Iba and Phog Allen. OSU won the game, 21-15.

Game Notes

PRO POKES

• Three former Cowboys are on NBA rosters:

Cade Cunningham (2020-21) – Pistons

• The former No. 1 overall pick turned potential in production in 2024-25, averaging career-bests 26.1 points and 9.1 assists on his way to third team All-NBA honors. He also made his first all-star team and guided the Pistons back to the playoffs for the first time since 2019.
• The 2025-26 season (Cunningham's fifth) is the first of a new five-year contract worth more than $269 million in guaranteed money.
• During his lone season in Stillwater, Cunningham was the 2021 Big 12 player of the year, national freshman of the year and a consensus first team All-American. He averaged 20.1 points while leading OSU to the second round of the NCAA tournament.

Marcus Smart (2012-14) – Lakers

• Smart begins his 12th NBA season wearing a uniform after signing with the Los Angeles Lakers. In 2025, Smart became the first Cowboy to reach $100 million in career earnings.
• Drafted sixth overall by the Celtics in 2014, Smart played his first nine professional seasons in Boston, earning NBA All-Defensive Team honors three times including Defensive Player of the Year in 2022. He's since suited up for Memphis and Washington.

Lindy Waters III (2016-20) – Spurs

• Waters began his fifth NBA season as a San Antonio Spur and splitting the 2024-25 season between Golden State and Detroit (where he teamed with another former Poke, Cade Cunningham). In 156 career games, the sharp-shooter has knocked down 212 threes on just under 37% accuracy.
• Waters spent his first three seasons with the Oklahoma City Thunder, helping its affiliate, the OKC Blue, to the 2024 G-League title.
• Waters has shined off the court, as well. He was recently inducted into the North American Indigenous Athletic Hall of Fame and was a finalist for the 2024 NBA Social Justice Champion Award.

Profile:

- 6-foot lefty brings a dangerous combo of speed and strength to the Cowboy backcourt.
- Explosive scorer is coming off an injury-shortened season at Mississippi State.
- Prior to it, averaged nearly 17 points per game as a sophomore at Penn State.

Lutz on Clary:

"Kanye is a fast point guard who will fit seamlessly into our up-tempo offense. He has performed at a high level over the course of his career. While his 2024-25 season was, unfortunately, cut short by a leg injury, he's full go now and ready to be a playmaker for our team."

Profile:

• Lanky, 6-8 athlete brings size and versatility.
• Late bloomer, grew seven inches in the two years after his high school graduation before deciding to give college a try. His basketball career has gone through a similar growth spurt with stops at the NAIA and NJCAA levels followed by two years at UAB and now the Big 12 Conference.
• Is using a fifth season of eligibility at OSU through a special NCAA waiver for the 2025-26 academic year, which grants an extra year to student-athletes who previously competed at a non-NCAA school.

Lutz on Coleman:

"Christian's story is one of perseverance, and he plays like it. He's a tough, versatile competitor who knows how to win, and he's just now starting to scratch the surface of what he can become. We're excited to help him take his game to the next level."

Profile:
- One of 20 players named to the preseason watch list for the Jerry West Award National Shooting Guard of the Year.
- Was the NCAA scoring leader (25.7 ppg) last season at Green Bay before suffering a season-ending injury, averaging 4.36 threes on 43.2% accuracy.

Profile:

- A big bruiser with a soft shooting touch.
- Signed with OSU in the Fall of 2024 over finalists Ole Miss, Mississippi State, DePaul and Georgia State.
- At the time, ranked No. 123 in On3's national recruiting rankings.

Steve Lutz on Ragland:

"We always want to play through our big men, and Mekhi gives us that ability. He's a strong and physical post presence who has an outstanding feel for the game, particularly as a passer. He has good hands, quick feet and a shooting touch that extends all the way out to the perimeter."

Profile:

- Experienced wing ranked among college basketball's top 100 off-season transfers, per Lindy's.
- Led Seton Hall in points (15.6), rebounds (5.3) and steals (1.5) last season and also played a key role on the Pirates' 2024 NIT championship team, earning Big East All-Freshman honors.

Steve Lutz on Coleman:

"Isaiah was at the top of every opponent scouting report last year but still found ways to put the ball in the basket at a high rate. He's a dynamic wing who has the potential to impact both ends of the floor with his size and athleticism. He is a player who can score the ball in a variety of different ways. We're excited to welcome him to the Cowboy Basketball family."

Profile:

- Sharpshooting freshman won a pair of state championships in Virginia and set the state's single-season three-point record (142).
- A consensus four-star recruit ranked No. 80 in the Class of 2025, per 247Sports.

Lutz on Crotty:

"Ryan is a tireless worker who puts team goals ahead of his own. Last year he set Virginia's high school three-point record, but what most impressed me was the way that he did it – within the flow of the offense for a state championship team. He's been well-coached and has a real understanding of spacing and how to get himself open. Combine that with his size and a quick release, and you can see why he's become one of the nation's elite shooters. He's also a wonderful person and student. We're glad he's decided to join us for his next chapter."

Profile:

- 22-year-old freshman is as battle tested as they come with parts of eight seasons spent on club teams competing in the Greek Basketball League, including four with 2024 EuroLeague champion Panathinaikos Athens, and international caps with Greece's junior and senior national teams.
- Nicknamed "Lefty" but is, in fact, right-handed.

Lutz on Mantzoukas:

"Lefteris is a proven competitor with championship experience at the highest levels of European basketball. He has a deep understanding of the game, and his size and elite shooting ability will fit well within our offense. We're excited to welcome him to Stillwater."
