GILLOM ATHLETICS PERFORMANCE CENTER

In the spring of 1996, ground was broken for the construction of a new multi-sport facility, and in July 1997, the complex, the Gillom Athletics Performance Center, ushered in a new era in women's athletics at Ole Miss.

The facility recently underwent an extensive renovation that was completed in the summer of 2017. Updates to the facility included additions to the volleyball competition area, a weight room and training room and two video rooms for teams to watch film. The building houses offices and locker rooms for the rifle, soccer, softball and volleyball programs.

The volleyball portion of the Gillom Center experienced upgrades prior to the 2010 season with the playing court being moved and additional grandstand seating added to the facility. Chairback seating was added to the north side of the court behind the team benches to completely surround the playing surface with fans.

On April 28, 2000, the complex was dedicated as the Gillom Center in honor of Rebel basketball legends Peggie and Jennifer Gillom. The Gillom sisters are the top two scorers in the history of the program.

The facility, which was built on the University's intramural fields on Hathorn Road near Highway 6, is a metal structure with a brick front similar to other campus edifices.

Right off the court are locker rooms and a team lounge and meeting room. The team meeting room and lounge provides the volleyball program with a place to congregate during non-practice times and can serve as a home away from home for the team. Athletes watch TV, study or play games, including a pool table in the volleyball team room.

Over the years, the Gillom Center has become a tough venue on visiting teams thanks to a vocal and supportive fan base. Dating back to the 2006 season, the Rebels have posted a 113-61 home record. The Rebels equaled their most home wins in program history in 2017 with a 13-6 record.

All of the top-10 crowds in school history have come in the past decade and the Rebels set a single-season attendance record with 13,168 fans coming to the Gillom Athletics Performance Center throughout the 2017 season.

In 2018, back-to-back at-capacity attendance records were set in Gillom with 1,057 fans on October 19 versus Florida, and then broken two days later when 1,207 fans packed into Gillom to see Ole Miss pick up a 3-1 victory over in-state rivals Mississippi State.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETICS

From Olympic gold medalist to Super Bowl winner to World Series champion, Ole Miss Rebels can be found at the pinnacle of many sports.

(Clockwise from top) - Ole Miss women's golf won its first SEC Championship in 2019; Six-time world champion, 11-time USA champion and 2012 Olympic gold medal long jumper Brittney Reese; Oxford native Sam Kendricks was an Olympic bronze medalist in 2016 and has claimed eight of the last nine U.S. pole vault titles he has competed in; Rafaelle Souza was a starting defender on the Brazilian national team during the 2015 Women's World Cup and played in the 2016 Rio Olympics; Drew Pomeranz was a member of the 2018 World Series Champion Boston Red Sox pitching staff, the 11th Rebel to be on a World Series winning team.

POSTSEASON PEDIGREE

- 13 Rebel sports competed in an NCAA Postseason in 2018-19
- Ole Miss has won four SEC team titles in the last three years

Baseball hosted its own NCAA Regional for the ninth time in program history and punched its ticket to Super Regionals for the sixth time after defeating Jacksonville State in the title game.

Men's Basketball took the SEC by storm in head coach Kermit Davis' first season in Oxford, rising as high as No. 18 nationally and earning a No. 8 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Men's Golf earned a bid to the NCAA Regional for the third straight season and the 12th time in program history, entering the regional ranked as the No. 9 seed in competition.

Soccer earned its second straight NCAA Tournament bid after finishing third in SEC play, the best conference finish since 2005. Ole Miss advanced to the Second Round after beating No. 25 Clemson.

Softball hosted an NCAA Regional and advanced to Super Regionals for the second time in three years after recording the highest SEC finish (fifth) and second-most wins (41) in program history.

Men's Tennis earned its 26th consecutive bid to the NCAA Tournament, while Tim Sandkaulen advanced to the second round of the NCAA Singles Championships.

Ole Miss won the 2018 SEC Men's Cross Country title, the first in program history. The Rebel men went on to finish 17th at the NCAA Championships and the women 22nd, making Ole Miss one of seven schools nationally to place both in the top 25 each year since 2016.

Women's Golf won the 2019 SEC Championship in thrilling fashion, needing playoff holes in its final three matches before prevailing over South Carolina. Ole Miss went on to qualify for the NCAA Championships for the second time in as many years, finishing tied for 13th overall.

OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Touted as the "Cultural Mecca of the South", creativity abounds in Oxford as musicians, artists and writers alike find inspiration in Oxford's rich history, small town charm and creative community. Nobel Prize winning author William Faulkner made his home here and many have followed in his footsteps. Oxford is also known for its exceptional culinary experiences at the many restaurants options, from down home cooking to upscale culinary creations.

"The boys were extremely excited to come to Oxford. I think as a ballclub, with our players and all of the parents talking, I think we are falling in love with Oxford, the people here, how we are being treated and the hospitality. I think we are going to have a lot of people rooting for Ole Miss in every sport down the road after the experience they have given us here."

- Mike Gambino, Boston College baseball coach
(at the 2016 NCAA Oxford Regional)

Ole Miss sporting events regularly attract such celebrities as movie stars Samuel L. Jackson and Woody Harrelson.

In addition to the popular Double Decker Arts Festival that brings thousands of visitors to Oxford each April, the town's thriving music scene has welcomed such acts as Snoop Dogg, Willie Nelson, B.B. King, Brad Paisley, Zac Brown Band, Thomas Rhett, Three 6 Mafia and Wilco. Artists that have recorded at local Sweet Tea Studios include the Counting Crows, Gavin DeGraw, Ben Folds, the Hives, Jars of Clay and Modest Mouse. Oxford's Lyric has been named one of the top 100 music club venues in the world by Pollstar, the leading concert industry trade publication.

Ole Miss

STEVEN MCROBERTS

RUN DOWN

A winner on every level of coaching, Steven McRoberts was hired on Jan. 16, 2014, to take Ole Miss volleyball to the top of the SEC and make it relevant on the national stage.

It's safe to say, the Rebels are well on their way.

McRoberts inherited a team that in the two years prior posted a 26-34 overall record and finished at the bottom of the SEC standings. The Rebels have posted four consecutive winning seasons for the first time in three decades, won 12 regular season tournament titles, set numerous team and individual records, and players have earned All-America, All-Region and All-SEC honors.

In his fifth year at Ole Miss, McRoberts guided the Rebels to 11 straight wins early in pre-conference action, including sweeping the entire Georgia State Invitational Tournament in September in Atlanta. All-SEC and AVCA All-Region selection Emily Stroup broke the single-match kills record three separate times, notching 30, then 31, and finally 32 kills during the season. She also replaced herself as the single-season kills leader, totaling 584 on the season, a statistic she ranked second in the country in.

A historic season capped McRoberts fourth year at the helm, as the Rebels captured the NIVC Championship and set numerous team and individual records. A few close five-set losses in conference play ended the Rebels NCAA Tournament chances, but they took advantage of their opportunity to play in the first NIVC Tournament since the mid 90s. Led by the senior duo of Kate Gibson and Lexi Thompson and NIVC tournament MVP Emily Stroup, the Rebels won six in a row to end the season, including five straight on their way to the NIVC title. They only dropped one set in all five post-season matches played at the newly-renovated Gillom Athletics Performance Center.

Records continued to fall, as the Rebels equaled the most wins in the rally era (22) and set single-season team marks for kills (1,846), assists (1,708), digs (2,238) and blocks (294). Gibson and Thompson became the first members of the 1000/1000 Club at Ole Miss in the rally era, while Thompson secured the career record for kills and aces. Stroup set the single-season kills record (474) and earned AVCA All-South Region honors, while Caroline Adams set the single-season digs record (522). The team also set a single-season attendance record with 13,168 fans coming to Gillom, including a season-high 1,012 for the NIVC Championship match.

In 2016, the Rebels posted their third straight winning season (17-14), which included three tournament titles. Senior setter Aubrey Edie became the career-record holder in assists with 4,834 and joined Thompson on the AVCA All-South Region Team. Thompson led the SEC in double-doubles (21) and set the single-season record for kills with 437. Both Thompson and Gibson tallied their 1,000th kill.

In 2015, the Rebels equaled the most wins (22-11) since the 2007 season in addition to setting the school record with 13 home wins. Nakeyta Clair and the late Ty Laporte were named to the AVCA All-Region team, while Clair earned All-SEC honors. Clair became the school record holder, in total blocks, block assists, block solos and hitting percentage while also surpassing 1,000 kills to rank second all-time with 1,177.

In his first year (2014) at Ole Miss, McRoberts guided the Rebels to their best record (22-10) in seven years and the best start in program history (14-0). The Rebels battled for an NCAA Tournament bid and posted a school-record team hitting percentage in a season (.254) in 2014.

Several individual accomplishments also highlighted McRoberts first year in Oxford. Clair became the first All-American since Regina Thomas earned back-to-back honors in 2010-11 and also earned All-SEC and AVCA All-Region honors. Edie set the single season record for assists with 1,322 and Thompson had the most kills (323) in a season by a freshman.

While setting records on the court, the Rebels have also succeeded in the classroom, earning the highest semester team grade point average (3.37) in seven years in the spring of 2017 and receiving the AVCA All-Academic Team Award for the first time since 2008. Edie became the first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American in program history and the first Rebel volleyball player to earn first team honors. She received a Taylor Medal in 2016, the highest academic honor at the University of Mississippi as well as an NCAA postgraduate scholarship. In addition, the Rebels have earned a perfect 100 graduation success rate seven consecutive years.

A 10-time conference coach of the year, McRoberts boasts a lengthy list of accolades in his 21 years as a head coach at Lubbock Christian University, Central Arkansas, Tulsa and now Ole Miss. He has compiled a career record of 557-212 (.724 winning percentage), including six seasons with 30-plus wins and 19 seasons with 20-plus wins.

At Tulsa, McRoberts compiled a 78-24 record with two Conference USA regular season titles, a Conference USA Tournament Championship and two appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

In 2013, McRoberts coached Tulsa to a 24-7 overall record (12-2 C-USA).

In his second year at Tulsa, McRoberts led the Hurricane to a 26-10 ledger and a 14-2 conference mark. TU won the 2012 C-USA regular season and tournament championship, as the Hurricane made its second straight trip to the NCAA Tournament under McRoberts.

In 2011, his first season as head coach of the Golden Hurricane, TU posted a 28-7 overall record, 18-2 in league play, and won the C-USA Championship. He was named C-USA and AVCA Midwest Region Coach of the Year. The team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

While leading the Golden Hurricane, McRoberts coached five All-America selections, including the NCAA's career leader in kills during the 25-point rally scoring era, and the school's all-time digs leader. He also coached the C-USA player of the year and the libero of the year in 2011 and 2012.

Prior to his appointment at Tulsa, McRoberts served six years as head coach at the University of Central Arkansas, where he compiled a record of 146-58, and won at least 20 games in five of those seasons. His last two teams won back-to-back Southland Conference regular season titles and posted a 31-1 league mark during that stretch. McRoberts was named Southland Conference Coach of the Year in 2008, 2009 and 2010. He coached the SLC player and setter of the year those three years and also boasted the league freshman of the year in 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2010 and the libero of the year in 2009.

In 2013, McRoberts was one of seven coaches named to the Southland Conference All-Time Honor Roll.

Before taking the reins at UCA, McRoberts compiled a 250-81 record during his eight-year tenure at Lubbock Christian University in Texas. His teams won seven conference championships and three region championships in eight years. McRoberts led LCU to its highest national ranking (4th), highest postseason finish (T5th), and most wins in a season (38) and career (250 - held record until 2014). Six times he was named Sooner Athletic Conference Coach of the Year and three times he earned Region Coach of the Year honors.

McRoberts received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a minor in social studies and health from Harding (Ark.) University in 1993, and his master's in physical education from Henderson State (Ark.) in 1996.

McRoberts and his wife, Stacy, have three children: sons, Jackson and Nathaniel, and daughter, Mollie.

RUSS FRIEDLAND

RUN DOWN

Russ Friedland joined the Ole Miss Volleyball staff in August of 2019, serving as an assistant coach where he will work primarily with the setters.

Friedland arrives in Oxford from Louisiana-Monroe, where he has spent the last 19 months at the helm for the Warhawks serving as head coach to both the indoor and beach volleyball teams. Prior to his stint in Monroe, Friedland was hailed as one of the nation's top up-and-coming assistant coaches, providing an integral role in the turnaround of a stagnant East Carolina program.

While in Greenville, Friedland aided the Pirates to a single-season record in conference play with 13 wins in 2017, finishing with their first 20-win campaign since 2005 at 22-11.

Friedland is no stranger to being a Rebel or the Southeastern Conference, spending three seasons at UNLV and serving as a volunteer assistant at Tennessee before his time in Las Vegas. While at UNLV, Friedland primarily served as recruiting coordinator and helped guide the Rebels to nearly 60 wins in three seasons. In 2014, Friedland and the UNLV squad set single-season records for overall and conference wins at 26 and 14, respectively.

In Knoxville, Friedland mentored the setters and defensive specialists and helped guide the Lady Vols to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2012 on a 22-8 clip.

Friedland originates from Mansfield, Conn., graduating from Endicott College in Beverly, Mass., where he lettered all four years in men's volleyball.

TORI PLUGGE

RUN DOWN

Texas native Tori Plugge joined the Ole Miss volleyball staff as assistant coach/recruiting coordinator in January of 2017.

During her second year with the Rebels, she helped lead Ole Miss to 11 straight wins early in pre-conference action, including sweeping the entire Georgia State Invitational Tournament in September in Atlanta. Plugge worked primarily with defensive specialists, guiding libero Caroline Adams to surpass the 1,000 career dig mark and finish her career ranked second in the program in all-time digs.

In her first season at Ole Miss, the Rebels captured the NIVC Championship, equaled the most wins (22) in the rally era and set numerous team and individual records. Directing the recruiting efforts, Plugge helped the Rebels sign an Under Armour All-American as well as a Prep Volleyball Senior Ace.

Prior to coming to Ole Miss, Plugge spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at Arkansas State where she coached the outside hitters and handled the day-to-day operations of the office and travel as well as assisted in recruiting and scouting.

During her first year in 2015, Plugge helped the team to a 28-2 record, a perfect 16-0 mark in Sunbelt Conference play, a conference tournament championship and its first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1999. This past season, Arkansas State finished 25-8, 15-1 in SBC play, and advanced to the conference tournament championship match for the second year in a row.

In 2015, A-State's outside hitters combined for 1,029 of the team's 1,483 kills and also hit at a .259 clip. Additionally, Plugge helped then-freshman Carlisa May earn Honorable Mention All-American honors from the AVCA and a bundle of other awards including SBC Freshman of the Year, First-Team All-SBC, AVCA Southwest Region Freshman of the Year, and Sun Belt Conference Tournament

MVP in 2015. That same year, Mellinger also coached Darby Graff to Second-Team All-SBC honors and AVCA Southwest All-Region Honorable Mention accolades. Graff led the league with a .355 hitting percentage.

Prior to going to Arkansas State, Plugge spent the 2014 season as a volunteer assistant at her alma mater, Texas A&M. Working on Laurie Corbelli's staff, Plugge helped Texas A&M to an overall record of 21-9 and 13-5 in the SEC along with an appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

As a player at A&M (2009-12), Plugge finished her career with 1,480 digs, the second most in school history and most in the rally-scoring era. Her senior year, Plugge helped lead the team to a 25-6 record, including a 16-4 mark in SEC play and an appearance in the NCAA second round.

After spending her first two years at libero, Plugge moved to outside hitter before her junior season (2011) and helped the team to a 23-8 record and an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2009 as a freshman, Plugge started at libero in all but the first four matches and made an immediate impact in A&M's back row defense. She helped lead the Aggies to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

Plugge graduated from Texas A&M in May 2013 with a degree in Sports Management with a minor in communications and coaching.

After graduation, Plugge played a professional season for SCU Emlichheim in Emlichheim, Germany before starting her coaching career.

Plugge resides in Oxford with her husband, Andrew, their dog Harvey, and cat Reed.

Former Rebel and Ole Miss alum Alexis Lee joined the Rebels coaching staff in August of 2019.

Lee played for current head coach Steven McRoberts during the 2015 and 2016 seasons, where she helped guide the team to a record-setting season in '15 with 22 wins, tied for a program-best. During her freshman campaign, she tallied 60 kills, 93 digs, and 11 blocks.

After missing the entire 2016 season due to injury, Lee was given her medical release but remained a loyal and faithful supporter of the Rebels until her graduation in May 2019 with a degree in Integrated Marketing Communications.

Lee attended high school at University High in Normal, Illinois and played for the Illini Elite club program, earning multiple accolades at both levels.

A multi-year SEC honor roll student, Lee hails from Stevens Point, Wisconsin and currently resides in Oxford.

DAMARIS LINKER

RUN DOWN

Damaris Linker is in her third year as the program's director of operations after joining Coach McRoberts' staff in February of 2017. She serves as the liaison for the team for multiple departments, such as administration, academics, compliance, marketing, athletic communications, and facilities.

In the summer of 2018, Linker spearheaded the creation of the Ace Club, which provides additional resources and extraordinary experiences for the squad's student-athletes. Additionally, she oversees all summer camps/clinics and is responsible for all program logistics, including tournaments, travel, budget, and equipment.

Linker served a vital role in coordination with the Rebels NIVC Championship run, as Ole Miss hosted each round of the tournament, including the title game in early December. She also serves as the official director for all of the Rebels home pre-conference tournaments. Prior to joining the Rebels, Linker spent two seasons as director of volleyball operations at Ohio University under head coach Deane Webb.

Linker's responsibilities at Ohio included handling all team travel arrangements, including hotels, transportation, and meals, assisting in planning and execution of camps, planning events for the team, alumni, donors and supporters throughout the season and assisting in other daily operations of the program.

Prior to her stint with Ohio University, Linker served as an assistant coach at Rockford University in 2014. Linker helped guide the Regents to their most wins in seven seasons and a No. 3 ranking in NCAA Division III in blocks per set.

Linker played volleyball at Quincy University from 2009-12, captaining the Hawks and earning Academic All-Great Lakes Valley Conference honors in three of those years. She garnered Northwest Missouri All-Tournament Team honors as Quincy's libero in 2009. In 2011, Linker helped lead the Hawks to a berth in the GLVC Tournament for the first time in eight years. She concluded her collegiate career ranking fifth all-time in Quincy history with 1,094 digs. Linker served as a four-year member of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee at Quincy, holding the secretary position for two years.

A native of Lanark, Illinois, Linker graduated magna cum laude from Quincy in 2013 with two bachelor of science degrees -- one in accounting and one in finance. She completed her master of science in recreation and sport sciences in December of 2016 from Ohio University.

Linker currently resides in Oxford and enjoys playing sand volleyball and attending concerts in her spare time.
