PALMER/SALLOUM TENNIS CENTER

The University of Mississippi's Palmer/Salloum Tennis Center ranks as one of the nation's finest collegiate facilities. Located in the heart of campus and surrounded by towering magnolia trees, the tennis center (completed in 1990) underwent dramatic enhancements in 2012, complementing an already stunning facility.

The $2 million expansion included improving player and coach areas with a new team building for both the men's and women's team--with locker rooms and team meeting rooms--while the existing building was renovated to include new offices for both head coaches and assistant coaches as well as visiting lockerrooms and a stringing room. Rooftop pavilions above each team building provide additional viewing for fans to enjoy all the exciting action. Additional renovations included a gameday operations box next to the pavilion between courts two and five.

A new computerized scoreboard and message center was added in 2011, along with smaller scoreboards on each court providing fans point-by-point scoring for all six courts during each match.

The complex combines the Greek revival architecture that is predominant on the Oxford campus, housing a 500-seat stadium. Courtside pavilions provide additional seating for 300, giving fans the opportunity to be right on top of the action. The varsity facility has nine championship courts all with lighting.

The Palmer/Salloum Tennis Center has served as host to SEC Championships, most recently, the 2012 SEC Women's Tennis Championship. In 2013, the facility will host the SEC Men's Tennis Championship. Other events at the Tennis Center include Women's ITA South Regional Championships, the USTA National Interscholastic Championships and numerous NCAA Men's and Women's first and second rounds, including in 2012.

Legendary Ole Miss men's head coach Billy Chadwick, who coached the Rebels for 35 years, steered the development of the center from its inception.

"Our objective was to build a state of the art tennis center that would enhance and compliment the beauty of the campus," Chadwick said. "With the renovations, it is a showplace for the University. When Palmer/Salloum was built, the objective of creating a state-of-the-art tennis center was met. The expansion is a compliment to the existing space and advances our facilities even further."

The primary benefactor of the tennis center is John N. Palmer, a 1956 alumnus of Ole Miss, who is currently the U.S. Ambassador to Portugal. He was joined in this effort by Mitchell Salloum Jr., a businessman from Gulfport, who is a 1955 alumnus of the University. The center honors the late Mitchell Salloum, Sr., a 1926 law graduate and a 1960-61 President of the Ole Miss Alumni Association. Additional funds were provided by donations to the Drive for Athletics at Ole Miss. Donors who made significant gifts toward other parts of the stadium include Louis Brandt, Jack Dunbar and William Galtney.

Galtney contributed $1 million to the renovation/expansion, and in recognition of his generous donation, the courts were named the William F. Galtney, Jr., Tennis Courts.

WILLIAM F. GALTNEY INDOOR TENNIS CENTER

The Ole Miss men's and women's tennis teams received a huge boost in January of 2018, with the opening of the 11-million dollar William F. Galtney Indoor Tennis Center.

The facility features six indoor courts with individual scoreboards on each one and a big scoreboard at the end by court six. It also features seating for 300 across all six courts allowing for maximum viewing.

The project was first announced as part of the Forward Together campaign in 2015.

The building was formally dedicated in February of 2019, with benefactor William F. Galtney present for the ribbon cutting. Galtney, a Jackson, Miss., native, attended Ole Miss, graduating in 1974 as a member of the tennis team. He went on to receive his Master's in 1976.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETICS

From Olympic gold medalist to Super Bowl winner to World Series champion, Ole Miss Rebels can be found at the pinnacle of many sports.

(Clockwise from top) - Ole Miss women's golf won its first SEC Championship in 2019; Six-time world champion, 11-time USA champion and 2012 Olympic gold medal long jumper Brittney Reese; Oxford native Sam Kendricks was an Olympic bronze medalist in 2016 and has claimed eight of the last nine U.S. pole vault titles he has competed in; Rafaelle Souza was a starting defender on the Brazilian national team during the 2015 Women's World Cup and played in the 2016 Rio Olympics; Drew Pomeranz was a member of the 2018 World Series Champion Boston Red Sox pitching staff, the 11th Rebel to be on a World Series winning team.

POSTSEASON PEDIGREE

- 13 Rebel sports competed in an NCAA Postseason in 2018-19
- Ole Miss has won four SEC team titles in the last three years

Baseball hosted its own NCAA Regional for the ninth time in program history and punched its ticket to Super Regionals for the sixth time after defeating Jacksonville State in the title game.

Men's Basketball took the SEC by storm in head coach Kermit Davis' first season in Oxford, rising as high as No. 18 nationally and earning a No. 8 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Men's Golf earned a bid to the NCAA Regional for the third straight season and the 12th time in program history, entering the regional ranked as the No. 9 seed in competition.

Soccer earned its second straight NCAA Tournament bid after finishing third in SEC play, the best conference finish since 2005. Ole Miss advanced to the Second Round after beating No. 25 Clemson.

Softball hosted an NCAA Regional and advanced to Super Regionals for the second time in three years after recording the highest SEC finish (fifth) and second-most wins (41) in program history.

Men's Tennis earned its 26th consecutive bid to the NCAA Tournament, while Tim Sandkaulen advanced to the second round of the NCAA Singles Championships.

Ole Miss won the 2018 SEC Men's Cross Country title, the first in program history. The Rebel men went on to finish 17th at the NCAA Championships and the women 22nd, making Ole Miss one of seven schools nationally to place both in the top 25 each year since 2016.

Women's Golf won the 2019 SEC Championship in thrilling fashion, needing playoff holes in its final three matches before prevailing over South Carolina. Ole Miss went on to qualify for the NCAA Championships for the second time in as many years, finishing tied for 13th overall.

OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Touted as the “Cultural Mecca of the South”, creativity abounds in Oxford as musicians, artists and writers alike find inspiration in Oxford’s rich history, small town charm and creative community. Nobel Prize winning author William Faulkner made his home here and many have followed in his footsteps. Oxford is also known for its exceptional culinary experiences at the many restaurants options, from down home cooking to upscale culinary creations.

“The boys were extremely excited to come to Oxford. I think as a ballclub, with our players and all of the parents talking, I think we are falling in love with Oxford, the people here, how we are being treated and the hospitality. I think we are going to have a lot of people rooting for Ole Miss in every sport down the road after the experience they have given us here.”

MARK BEYERS

RUN DOWN

He's won two national championships in Division II, led teams to the SEC West Championship and NCAA Sweet Sixteen. He's coached a national champion and Honda Sports Award winner and numerous All-Americans and All-SEC players. His teams are notorious for excellence in the classroom. Mark Beyers has accomplished a lot in over 20 years as a head coach and became the all-time winningest coach in program history in 2019.

While 2019 was the first time in 11 years that the Rebels did not attend the NCAA Tournament, Ole Miss still turned in notable performances. Senior Tea Jandric was named the ITA Southern Region's Most Improved Senior and was also dubbed with All-SEC Second Team recognition. Jandric went 8-1 in league play, including four ranked wins and three in a row, including taking down No. 4 Contreras of Vanderbilt. Then-sophomore Sabina Machalova was named the ITA Southern Region's Player to Watch. In the fall, Jandric reached the finals of the ITA Southern Regional, and the pair of Alexa Bortles and rookie Isolde de Jong also reached the finals, falling in a tough three-set thriller to the reigning national champions. The women ended their season with a huge upset, taking down No. 16 Texas A&M 4-2 on Senior Day.

The 2018 season was a historic one for the Rebels that ended with senior Arianne Hartono becoming the first NCAA Champion in program history. Hartono led the Rebels to their first 20-win season (22-7) since 1999, the NCAA Sweet Sixteen, the most wins in SEC play (9-4), their best finish in the SEC (5th) since 2012 and a final ranking of No. 8, the highest since 1999. Hartono capped a great team season by winning storming through the NCAA singles bracket to win the championship. In addition to winning the NCAA title, Hartono became the first player in program history to be named SEC Player of the Year as well as the first in school history to receive a Honda Sports Award (Tennis). A record five players earned All-SEC honors, with Alexa Bortles, Sabina Machalova, Tea Jandric and Anna Vrbenska joining Hartono on the teams. Beyers earned ITA Southern Region Coach of the Year honors for the third time in his career. Off the court, the Rebels posted a 3.40 grade point average and earned the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 22nd year in a row.

Eleven SEC teams ended the 2017 season in the top 25 and 13 of the 14 made the NCAA Tournament, including the Rebels, who earned their ninth straight bid and advanced to the second round. Arianne Hartono competed in the NCAA singles and doubles with Alexa Bortles. Hartono earned All-SEC First Team honors. Ole Miss became the first No. 4 seed to advance from the ITA Kick-Off to the National Team Indoor Championships, when they beat Virginia and LSU to reach the national indoor for the first time since 2012. Off the court, the Rebels earned the prestigious ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 21st year in a row and six players were named ITA Scholar-Athletes.

In 2016, the Rebels earned their eighth straight NCAA appearance and defeated reigning NCAA Champion Stanford for the first time in program history. Arianne Hartono became the 12th All-American in the history of the program reaching the round of 16 at the NCAA Singles Championship. She also made the All-SEC Team. Seniors Mai El Kamash and Marija Milutinovic picked up ITA Regional honors, earning the Arthur Ashe Sportsmanship and Leadership Award and the Cissie Leary Sportsmanship Award, respectively. Off the court, the Rebels received the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 20th time and six players were named ITA Scholar-Athletes. Hartono was one of nine players in Division I tennis to earn All-America and ITA Scholar-Athlete honors.

For the fourth time in seven years, Ole Miss finished the year ranked in the top 25, earning a final ranking of No. 24 in 2015. The Rebels earned their seventh consecutive NCAA bid and advanced to the second round, narrowly missing out on reaching the Sweet Sixteen. Julia Jones became the 11th All-American in the history of the program and the seventh member of the 100-wins club. She earned All-SEC first team honors, was named the ITA Most Improved Player of the Year and finished ranked No. 12 in the nation. Arianne Hartono made the SEC All-Freshman Team and ended her first year ranked No. 79. Off the court, the Rebels earned the ITA All-Academic Team Award and six players were named ITA Scholar-Athletes.

The Rebels made their sixth consecutive and 17th overall NCAA appearance in 2014 and advanced to the second round before falling to the eventual national champion, UCLA. Julia Jones earned All-SEC second team honors. Off the court, the Rebels earned the ITA All-Academic Team Award and Caroline Rohde-Moe was named to the CoSIDA Capital One Academic All-District Team.

Youth was the name of the game in 2013, as the Rebels did not feature a senior on the team and only two juniors. They earned the program's 16th overall NCAA appearance, and junior Caroline Rohde-Moe participated in the NCAA Singles Championship as well as earned All-SEC honors for the second time. Off the court, the Rebels were one of the best, earning an APR Public Recognition Award and leading all sports at Ole Miss with a 3.64 team GPA in the spring.

In 2012, the Rebels earned their fourth straight NCAA appearance and a final national ranking of No. 18. It marked the third time in the last four years for the Rebels to end the year ranked in the Top 25. The Rebels (18-9) hosted the NCAA first and second rounds for the first time since 1999 and finished among the top four in the overall SEC standings for the second time in three years. The 18 wins are the most since the 1999 team posted 21. The Rebels also advanced to the National Team Indoor Final 16 for the first time since 2000. Kristi Boxx and Abby Guthrie earned All-America honors and were joined on the All-SEC team by Caroline Rohde-Moe and freshman Erin Stephens. Julia Jones made the All-Freshman team along with Stephens.

Beyers was named ITA Southern Region Coach of the Year for the second time in three years in 2012.

The Rebels enjoyed an excellent year in the classroom, earning the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 16th consecutive time, while three players earned ITA Scholar-Athlete recognition. Gabby Rangel was a finalist for the SEC Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete Postgraduate Scholarship and received a Taylor Medal (highest academic honor at University).

Despite dealing with injuries to key players in 2011, the Rebels earned their third straight NCAA bid. Kristi Boxx earned All-SEC first team honors for the third year in a row. Connor Vogel made the second team.

Off the court, the team received the ITA All-Academic Team Award as well as earning the Chancellor's Cup for the varsity team with the highest cumulative grade point average.

Ole Miss advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the eighth time in 2010, captured the SEC West Championship and reached the SEC tournament semifinals for the second year in a row. The Rebels ended the year ranked No. 17 in the nation, posted their best finish in the SEC (2nd) since 1999 and their best league record (8-3) since 2000. Kristi Boxx and Karen Nijssen earned All-America honors, while Boxx was one of only nine players in the nation to earn the honor in both singles and doubles. Laura van de Stroet and Connor Vogel joined Boxx and Nijssen on the All-SEC team.

Academic success continued for the Rebels as they earned the Chancellor's Cup for the women's varsity squad with the highest cumulative grade point average. They also received the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 14th time, while four players were named ITA Scholar-Athletes.

The Rebels ended the 2009 season ranked No. 21 in the nation and advanced to the NCAA second round. With three freshmen and two sophomores in the lineup, Ole Miss defeated five top 25 teams in league play and reached the semifinals of the SEC Tournament. Kristi Boxx and Karen Nijssen earned All-SEC honors and participated in the NCAA Doubles Championship. Boxx also made the singles championship.

Off the court, the Rebels earned the prestigious ITA All-Academic Team Award, and Gabby Rangel and Laura van de Stroet were named ITA Scholar-Athletes.

In 2008, Karen Nijssen earned All-SEC honors in her first year with the Rebels. She also teamed with Nika Koukhartchouk to participate in the NCAA Doubles Championships. The pair ended the year ranked No. 32 in the nation.

Off the court, Ole Miss garnered the ITA All-Academic Team Award for the 12th time. Two members of the team were named ITA Scholar-Athletes. For the first time ever, the team also earned the Chancellor's Cup for the highest grade point average among all women's varsity sports at Ole Miss. Preethi Subramanian was named to the Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholars by the journal Diverse: Issues In Higher Education.

In 2007, senior Ilona Somers, earned All-SEC honors for the second year in a row, ended the year ranked No. 46 in the nation and qualified for the NCAA Singles Championship. In the classroom, Ole Miss received the ITA All-Academic Team Award. Four members of the team earned ITA Scholar-Athlete honors.

In 2006, Ole Miss boasted the SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, in addition to Ilona Somers making the All-SEC second team. Off the court, the Lady Rebels received the distinction of being named an ITA All-Academic team. Also, the entire starting lineup earned ITA Scholar-Athlete honors, believed to be not matched by any other squad in the country.

The 2005 season saw the Rebels capture the SEC Western Division Championship for the first time. In addition, the team made its 11th NCAA Championship appearance. Chloe Carlotti became the seventh All-American in the history of the program and joined an elite group of Division I players to earn that distinction at multiple schools. Carlotti and Virginia Tomatis earned All-SEC honors after going 8-3 in the league at No. 1 doubles.

The 2004 season saw the Lady Rebels narrowly miss making the NCAA Team Championships, but there were plenty of highlights to be noted. Chloe Carlotti and Virginia Tomatis teamed up to post an 8-3 record in the SEC at No. 1 doubles and earn All-SEC honors. Carlotti participated in the NCAA Championships in singles and teamed up with Tomatis in doubles. Off the court, the Lady Rebels were named an ITA All-Academic Team. Florencia Basile, Karem Harboe, Sabrina Pepl and Virginia Tomatis were named ITA Scholar-Athletes and to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

In 2003, current University of Wisconsin assistant coach Mira Radu completed an outstanding career by being named the NCAA Woman of the Year for the state of Mississippi.

Radu earned All-America honors for the second consecutive year as well as All-SEC accolades. Radu finished her senior year ranked No. 18 in the nation and reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Singles Championships. The winner of the 2003 ITA South Region Cissie Leary Award for Sportsmanship, Radu became only the fourth Lady Rebel ever to record 100 wins for her career, finishing with a 108-52 career record. Radu was also the co-recipient of the Eugenia Conner Memorial Award, which is given to the most outstanding female athlete on the Ole Miss campus each spring.

Off the court in the 2003, the Lady Rebels earned the ITA All-Academic Team Award. Radu made the SEC Academic Honor Roll, and Florencia Basile, Karem Harboe and Virginia Tomatis were named ITA Scholar Athletes.

During his first season (2002) at the helm, Beyers guided the Lady Rebels to their seventh consecutive NCAA appearance and a final national ranking of No. 35. He also coached Mira Radu to All-America and All-SEC honors. Radu ended the year ranked among the top 20 singles players. Radu and 2002 graduate Camilla Gould earned the ITA Scholar-Athlete Award, while the squad was named an ITA All-Academic Team.

No stranger to women's tennis, Beyers, a native of Tilburg, Holland, spent three years (1992-95) as head coach of the women's tennis team at Armstrong Atlantic State in Georgia. During his three years, the team captured the NCAA Division II Championship, posted a 50-8 record and won the Peach Belt Conference each year. Beyers earned PBC Coach-of-the-Year honors in 1993, 1994 and 1995. In 1995, he received NCAA Division II South Regional Coach-of-the-Year honors. His teams ranked 10th, ninth and first respectively in the Division II national rankings.

Beyers came to Ole Miss in the fall of 1995 as the men's assistant coach. In his six years as an assistant coach with the Rebels, Ole Miss reached the final four twice (1997, 1999) and won three SEC titles (1996, 1997, 1999). In 1997, Beyers was the first recipient of the ITA Region III Assistant Coach-of-the-Year Award.

During his 25 years of coaching collegiate tennis as an assistant and head coach, Beyers has coached 25 All-Americans, 47 ITA Scholar-Athletes and 20 teams that have

As a collegiate player at Armstrong Atlantic State, Beyers earned four letters, posted a 99-21 record and led his team to a national ranking of No. 4. He earned All-America honors twice in doubles and singles.

Beyers received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Armstrong Atlantic State in 1991. After graduating, Beyers enjoyed a brief professional career on the satellite tour before returning to his alma mater to coach the women's team.

GRANT ROBERTS

RUN DOWN

Grant Roberts joined Ole Miss in the spring of 2018 and immediately made a big impact on the Rebels, helping them to a historic season in 2018, including the program's first national champion, Arianne Hartono.

In his second season in 2019, Roberts helped guide senior Tea Jandric to the ITA Southern Region's Most Improved Senior and was also dubbed with All-SEC Second Team recognition. Jandric went 8-1 in league play, including four ranked wins and three in a row, including taking down No. 4 Contreras of Vanderbilt. Then-sophomore Sabina Machalova was named the ITA Southern Region's Player to Watch. In the fall, Jandric reached the finals of the ITA Southern Regional, and the pair of Alexa Bortles and rookie Isolde de Jong also reached the finals, falling in a tough three-set thriller to the reigning national champions. The women ended their season with a huge upset, taking down No. 16 Texas A&M 4-2 on Senior Day.

In his first season, Roberts assisted head coach Mark Beyers in leading the Rebels to their first 20-win season (22-7) since 1999, the NCAA Sweet Sixteen, the most wins in SEC play (9-4), their best finish in the SEC (5th) since 2012 and a final ranking of No. 8, the highest since 1999. Roberts was on senior Arianne Hartono's court when she made a historic run to the NCAA Singles Championship, becoming the first NCAA Champion in program history. He also helped coach All-SEC honorees Alexa Bortles, Sabina Machalova, Tea Jandric and Anna Vrbenska.

Roberts arrived in Oxford after serving as the women's assistant coach at Colorado. Prior to that, he was a volunteer assistant coach for the men's team at the University of Kentucky for three years.

He helped the Wildcats reach the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament in 2014 where the team finished 13th overall in the country. Roberts worked with ITA Ohio Valley Region Player to Watch, William Bushamuka who became a first-team All-SEC selection and a first team All-American in 2017. Roberts also worked with SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, Ryotaro Matsumura in 2016. Matsumura also earned ITA Ohio Valley Region Rookie of the Year honors and was named to the All-SEC second team.

Roberts was a standout player at Kentucky. Despite battling injuries, he helped lead the Wildcats to the 2012 SEC Championship and the NCAA Sweet 16 three times, including the quarterfinals in 2010. Roberts is Kentucky's all-time leader in matches clinched.

In the classroom, Roberts was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll three straight years.

Roberts earned his bachelor's degree in communications at the University of Kentucky in 2014.

BLAIR SHANKLE

RUN DOWN

It's always a great thing when you can replace an All-American on your coaching staff with another All-American. Ole Miss women's tennis head coach Mark Beyers did that with the addition of Baylor alum Blair Shankle to the program as the new volunteer assistant coach.

Shankle replaced Rebel All-American Julia Jones in the fall of 2018, and is currently in her second season with the program.

In her first season with Ole Miss, Shankle helped guide senior Tea Jandric to the ITA Southern Region's Most Improved Senior and was also dubbed with All-SEC Second Team recognition. Jandric went 8-1 in league play, including four ranked wins and three in a row, including taking down No. 4 Contreras of Vanderbilt. Then-sophomore Sabina Machalova was named the ITA Southern Region's Player to Watch. In the fall, Jandric reached the finals of the ITA Southern Regional, and the pair of Alexa Bortles and rookie Isolde de Jong also reached the finals, falling in a tough three-set thriller to the reigning national champions. The women ended their season with a huge upset, taking down No. 16 Texas A&M 4-2 on Senior Day.

Prior to arriving in Oxford, Shankle served as a student assistant coach at Baylor where she enjoyed a decorated career on and off the court.

A three-time All-American, Shankle ended her career ranked third in doubles wins (99), tied for fourth in singles winning percentage (.826), sixth in singles wins (109) and seventh in doubles winning percentage (.733) at Baylor. She achieved the highest ranking for a singles player in program history, checking in at No. 4 in the Oracle/ITA Rankings and became the first player in program history to earn All-America accolades on the court and in the classroom.

PALOMA COLLANTES

Paloma Collantes was arguably the best player in the history of the women's tennis program at Ole Miss. She became the first Rebel All-America in singles in 1991, her freshman year. That year, Collantes reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championships before losing to defending national champion Debbie Graham of Stanford 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

The native of Miami, Fla., won the Riviera All-American Championships twice in her four-year career and was a four-time All-SEC selection. Collantes was also named the 1993 Mississippi Female Amateur Athlete of the Year.

Collantes participated in the NAAs all four years of her career, advancing to the quarterfinals her junior year and the Final Four her senior year.

Also during her senior year, Collantes defeated the eventual NCAA Singles Champion, Angela Lettiere (6-4, 6-1) to capture the Rolex South Regional Singles title.

In December of 1992, Paloma achieved the distinction of being the first Ole Miss tennis player to ever be ranked No. 1 in the nation in singles by being selected No. 1 in the ITA National Women's Singles Rankings.

In 2000, Collantes became the first Ole Miss women's tennis player to be inducted into The University of Mississippi Athletic Hall of Fame.

Collantes resides in Miami and is a regional events director for Scratch Music Group.

PASCALLE PIQUEMAL

Pascale Piquemal enjoyed a fine career at Ole Miss both on the court and in the classroom. She participated in the NCAA Championships twice, teaming with Marie-Laure Bougnol to reach the semifinals in 1993 and the nationally-televised doubles finals in 1994. The duo advanced higher than any Rebel in the history of the program. Bougnol and Piquemal completed the year ranked ninth nationally.

A two-time All-SEC honoree, Piquemal posted a 63-39 singles record and 38-20 doubles mark in four years. Throughout her career, Piquemal had several impressive upset wins over nationally-ranked opponents, including defeating the nation's second ranked player in 1993, Kelly Pace of Texas, at the All-American Championships.

Piquemal earned All-SEC Academic honors three years and was a member of the Chancellor's Honor Roll. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering (computer science). For her outstanding accomplishments on the court, in the classroom and her involvement in the community, Piquemal was awarded the "Winning For Life" Scholarship sponsored jointly by Entergy Corporation and the NCAA Foundation. The "Winning For Life" program honors the top male and female scholar-athletes for each state, and from there, the top male and female student-athlete from Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Southeast Texas. Piquemal received a $2,000 post-graduate scholarship and used it to attend graduate school in France where she completed her master's degree in Business Administration.

MARIE-LAURE BOUGNOL

1993, 1994, 1996

Marie-Laure Bougnol enjoyed success at Ole Miss both on the court and off the court. The native of Marseille, France, earned All-America honors three times in four years. Bougnol advanced to the NCAA Championship in each of her four years, most notably teaming with Pascale Piquemal to reach the doubles semifinals her freshman year and the nationally-televised doubles final in her sophomore season. She was in the national rankings every year in both singles and doubles and steadily climbed into the top 15. As a freshman, Bougnol earned ITA South Region Rookie of the Year honors.

In 1993, Bougnol won her first grand slam title by capturing the SkyTel National Clay Court Championships in Jackson, Miss. She reached the finals again in 1994.

A three-time All-Southeastern Conference selection, Bougnol also reached the semifinals of the Rolex South Regional Championships twice and won the 1992 SEC Fall Coaches' Classic, giving her the title of SEC Individual Champion for the season.

Twice, Bougnol received the ITA Tennis Match Magazine Rolex South Region Arthur Ashe Jr. Sportsmanship and Leadership Award and was a finalist for the national award in 1995. Her senior year, Bougnol was the recipient of the Eugenia Conner Award for the Most Outstanding Female Student-Athlete at the University of Mississippi. She was the first tennis player to receive this award. Bougnol has also been a star in the classroom, being named to the All-SEC Academic team three times and the Dean's Honor Roll and the Chancellor's Honor Roll. In 1996 she was named to the GTE/CoSIDA District VI Academic All-America Team for her academic accomplishments, and Bougnol received an NCAA $5,000 post-graduate scholarship.

Bougnol completed her doctoral degree at the University of Mississippi and became the second Rebel women's tennis player to be inducted into the Ole Miss Athletic Hall of Fame, joining in 2003.
