OLE MISS SOCCER STADIUM

The Ole Miss Soccer Stadium stands as a beacon for success on the Oxford campus. Since the complex was christened on Sept. 28, 1997, in a regionally televised game against Alabama, the Rebels have been victorious in nearly 70 percent of their home matches, posting an impressive 168-68-32 mark through 2023.

In the five years prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, just over 43,000 fans crossed through the gates at the complex, averaging 816 fans per game in that stretch. In those five years, Ole Miss ranked no lower than 43rd in total attendance, and reached as high as No. 24 in 2015 (11,087).

In terms of facility improvement, plenty of upgrades have taken place to keep the venue near the top of the league. Prior to 2011, a new playing surface was installed, before improvements were again made prior to the 2013 season giving the Rebels one of the top fields in the SEC.

Helping to provide the perfect environment for collegiate soccer, upgrades were again made prior to the 2016 season to the graphics and video elements of the stadium. In a campus-wide project improvement from Daktronics, the venue received a high-definition board, which stands as one of the largest in the SEC.

With seating for over 1,500 spectators, the stadium is located directly behind the Gillom Sports Center, which underwent major renovations in 2017, including a new locker room and coaches offices.

The 2002 season was a momentous one for Ole Miss Soccer Stadium, as it was not only the site of the SEC Tournament, but also underwent one of its first facelifts. A two-story brick building was constructed, supplying a three-room media area on the top floor and new concessions and restrooms on the bottom, facing the outside of the stadium.

MOLLY ROUSE

RUN DOWN

Molly Rouse is in her second season as the Head Coach of the Ole Miss Women's Soccer program. Rouse was named the third head coach in program history on May 18, 2023.

In her first year at the helm of the Rebels, Rouse guided the program to a 7-7-3 record and an impressive 6-1-2 record at home. Rouse won her opening game at Ole Miss against Southern Miss, a 2-0, shutout victory on Aug. 17, 2023. She won the first SEC match of her career against LSU as well, a 1-0 win on Sept. 15, 2023. Rouse led the team to wins over Missouri and Kentucky later in the season and draws against Auburn and at No. 15 South Carolina.

Shu Ohba led the Southeastern Conference in saves and saves per game in 2023. She earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors twice and was named to the 2023 All-SEC Second Team and the 2023 United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region Team.

Rouse came to Oxford from St. George, Utah where she was the head coach of the Utah Tech women's soccer program for three seasons. Rouse was brought on to guide the program as Utah Tech made the transition from Division II to Division I, becoming the first head coach at the Division I level in program history.

During her three seasons at the helm of the program, Rouse won 19 games and picked up the program's first Division I win on March 11, 2021 as they beat Chicago State 4-0. In 2022, Rouse led the Trailblazers to their first winning Division I season in program history, finishing 10-6-2. Utah Tech went 6-3-2 in WAC play and earned a No. 4 seed in the WAC Soccer Tournament, their highest seed since joining the conference.

The 2022 edition of the Trailblazers led the Western Athletic Conference in Goals Against Average and Goals Allowed. They allowed just 14 goals in 18 games for a 0.78 GAA. Utah Tech also posted nine shutouts in 18 games, including a stretch of seven-straight clean sheets. Rouse developed four All-WAC players in three seasons, including three in 2022: forward Karli Nyland and defenders Gracie Knutzen and Ella Carmody.

Before beginning her career as a head coach, Rouse served two seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater, the University of Minnesota. In 2018, she was a part of a Golden Gophers team that won the Big Ten Tournament title over No. 15 Penn State and beat Auburn in the first round of the NCAA Tournament for their first postseason road win in program history.

Rouse also made stops as an assistant coach at four other Division I programs, including Iowa, Nebraska-Omaha, Buffalo, and Alabama State.

Rouse played her collegiate soccer at Minnesota for four seasons from 2007-10. She appeared in 88 career matches for the Golden Gophers and scored 18 total goals with 17 assists, including an assist in a school record tying five-straight matches in 2008. In 2008, Rouse started all 26 games for a Minnesota team that would earn a share of the Big Ten Regular Season Title. That team would win a program-record 22 games and make it to the third round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

After finishing her career as a Golden Gopher, Rouse played professional soccer for the Minnesota Kings and Vancouver Whitecaps in the Women's Premier Soccer League.

Rouse graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education from Minnesota in 2011. She currently holds a U.S. Soccer Federation (USSF) National "A-Senior" Coaching License.

ROB THOMPSON

RUN DOWN

Rob Thompson is in his 15th season as a member of the Ole Miss soccer staff and his 10th as Associate Head Coach since being promoted in 2015. Thompson primarily works with the goalkeepers and is one of the main recruiters in his role on the staff.

In 2023 Thompson brought in goalkeeper Shu Ohba, the reigning SoCon Player of the Year, to take over between the posts for the Rebels. In the 15 games that Ohba played, the Rebels recorded seven shutouts. She made 67 saves throughout the season, good for an average of 4.47 per match. Ohba earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors twice and was selected to both the All-SEC Second Team and the United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region Team. Under Thompson's guidance, Ohba led the SEC in saves and saves per match in her first season for the Rebels. Ohba also competed with Team Japan in the 2023 Asian Games, the 2024 SheBelieves Cup, and the 2024 Olympics.

Thompson was pivotal in the development of Ashley Orkus into arguably the top keeper in the nation since her arrival at Ole Miss in 2018. Orkus was the first-ever three-time SEC Goalkeeper of the Year, one of two players in program history to garner United Soccer Coaches All-America status multiple times and in 2021 became Ole Miss' first-ever First Team All-American. Orkus was also named a semifinalist for the 2021 MAC Hermann Trophy, the only keeper to make the cut for college soccer's top individual honor and just the second Rebel ever to garner a semifinalist nod. When Orkus wrapped up her career in 2022, she has become Ole Miss' all-time leader in both career saves and shutouts and is the only Rebel keeper to ever cross the 300 saves mark.

The 2018 season marked the end of Rebel keeper Marnie Merritt's lauded career between the posts. Under Thompson's direction, Merritt became a four-year starter at Ole Miss, finishing her career ranked second in school history in saves (277), shutouts (21) and wins (40). Additionally, the Hough High School product's 1.31 career goals against average is the sixth-lowest at Ole Miss.

Merritt collected four clean sheets during her senior campaign before having her final season cut short due to injury. True freshman Morgan

McAslan was thrust into the spotlight for the final eight matches of the season and with the help of Thompson's guidance performed admirably. The freshman picked up the win in five of her eight appearances, recording three-straight shutouts to close out the regular season.

The Ole Miss defense proved to be stingy in 2017, especially during the non-conference schedule. The Rebels completed the fifth undefeated non-league slate in program history, allowing a single goal on the way to a 7-0-1 record. In total, the Rebels surrendered 23 goals, including eight shutouts on the season. Following the regular season, Ole Miss earned its third bid to the NCAA Championships in the last five seasons.

Thompson helped guide the Rebels to their first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in program history in 2015. Under the assistance of Thompson, Ole Miss surged to a national ranking of No. 12 midway through the year, its highest rank in school history. The Rebels also closed the book on the season as the No. 16 team in the nation in the postseason poll, the best finish in the history of the program.

Thompson's teachings were apparent in 2015 as the Rebels pitched nine shutouts, including two versus top-10 teams in No. 10 Auburn and No. 10 South Carolina. Merritt, who made her collegiate debut in the 2015 campaign, made it a good one under Thompson's direction. Thompson's instructions paid off as Merritt totaled seven individual shutouts, fourth-most in a single season in school history.

The 2013 season saw the Rebel defense help Ole Miss to a record-setting 16 wins that included 10 shutout victories behind the play of junior keeper Kelly McCormick. The keeper became the winningest keeper in program history, 34 victories for her career under the tutelage of Thompson. In the 2012 season, McCormick helped the Rebels post eight shutout victories, including a stretch of four-consecutive shutouts as Ole Miss rolled to an 8-0 start to set the best start to a season in program history. In that stretch of shutouts, the McCormick and the Rebels played 483 minutes of shutout soccer, setting a new school record.

Upon his hiring Thompson brought high-level experience in training goalkeepers to the Rebel Kelsey Fausett is in her second season as a member of the Ole Miss soccer staff.

Fausett was an assistant coach under head coach Molly Rouse for Utah Tech's historic 2022 season, contributing to the program's success from the sidelines, but she was also a player in the program for five years prior to her first season as a coach. Fausett played for Utah Tech from 2017-2021, becoming an integral piece of the team as it transitioned from Division II to Division I.

Fausett played in 73 games, starting in 63 of them, as a midfielder for the Trailblazers, scoring 16 goals and dishing out 19 assists during that time. She finished her career top-10 in multiple career categories at Utah Tech, including third all-time in assists, sixth all-time in points, seventh all-time in goals, and eighth all-time in matches played. Fausett was named an All-WAC honorable mention in 2020, D2CCA and United Soccer Coaches All-South Central
