Six student-athletes will represent Oregon State University this weekend at the 2019 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships beginning this Thursday, March 21 and concluding on Saturday, March 23 in Pittsburgh at the PPG Paints Arena.

The Beavers are sending six competitors to this year's iteration of amateur wrestling's pinnacle event; Ronnie Bresser (125), Devan Turner (133), Grant Willits (141), Hunter Willits (157), Bob Coleman (184), Amar Dhesi (285).

Each wrestler in the tournament is seeded this year with Bresser (23-1) garnering the highest seed for Oregon State entering the weekend with the No. 4 seed. The redshirt senior, and returning All-American, is coming off his third Pac-12 Conference. Bresser will face No. 29-seeded Gage Curry of American in his first round match.

Devan Turner is making his first appearance at the championship event after picking up an allocation spot at the Pac-12 Championships. Turner finished in third, but won the true second-place match securing his spot in Pittsburgh. Turner (21-9) holds the No. 32 seed and will face No. 33-seeded Zack Trampe (Binghamton) in the pigtail round.

Another first-timer qualified for OSU at 141 pounds, Grant Willits (17-7). The redshirt freshman captured his first Pac-12 title after earning the No. 1 seed in the conference tournament. G. Willits is seeded at No. 31 and squares off with the No. 2 seed Joey McKenna of Ohio State in his opening match.

Grant is joined by his twin brother, and two-time NCAA qualifier, Hunter Willits (157 pounds). The sophomore is making his second consecutive appearance at the championship event, and looks to avenge his 0-2 performance a season ago. Hunter (19-8) takes the No. 28 seed into the tournament for a first round matchup with No. 5, and returning All-American, Hayden Hidlay of NC State.

The Willits twins are one of four sets of twins to be wrestling at the NCAA Championships. Three of the four sets happen to hail from Colorado, including the Willits (Pueblo, Colo.).

Bob Coleman came on at the right time moving his way through the Pac-12 bracket on the way to his first Pac-12 championship. Coleman (16-14) is seeded at No. 32 and opens the tournament with a pigtail match against No. 33 Chris Kober of Campbell.

The final qualifier for the Beavers is two-time All-American heavyweight Amar Dhesi. Dhesi is the highest finisher from the 2018 championship event to return to the 2019 NCAA Championships. After placing third last year, the graduate wrestled for Team Canada at the World Wrestling Championships before rejoining OSU midway through the season.

Dhesi captured his third Pac-12 title two weeks ago improving to 10-1 on the season. The Surrey, B.C. native entered the seeding show ranked No. 4 by multiple publications, but ultimately was seeded at No. 6. Dhesi will face No. 27 Ian Butterbrodt from Brown in his first round match.

Initiated in 2011, Beavers without Borders is a program that offers global service-learning experiences for student-athletes at Oregon State University.

The program has successfully completed eight service projects including trips to Guatemala, Macedonia, Ethiopia, Costa Rica and most recently the Dominican Republic.

Throughout those trips, over 100 student-athletes were able to experience life in a distinct culture, learn about the impact of their work on a community and interact outside of the university context to maximize the intercultural experience.

This year marked the second-straight year that Oregon State Athletics has sponsored two Beavers Without Borders trips. In June, 12 athletes made the trip to the Dominican Republic, with another 12 heading to Guatemala in August. The full list is below:

“Celebrating the never ending tradition of Oregon State Athletics by continuing to honor its past, educate its present, and prepare for its future; while connecting all who have contributed to its legacy.”

In the spirit of camaraderie, Oregon State University's Varsity OSU Association is dedicated to upholding the long tradition of athletic and academic excellence at Oregon State. Varsity OSU serves its membership by enhancing relationships among alumni letter-winners, current student-athletes, and current and former coaches and administrators.

JIM ZALESKY
Head Coach
 13th Season
 (Iowa, 1984)

One of the winningest programs in college wrestling history got one of the sport's winningest coaches when Oregon State hired Jim Zalesky on April 14, 2006.

Zalesky, who coached Iowa to three NCAA team championships, is the 17th head coach in Oregon State wrestling history. The 2017-18 campaign was his 12th with the Beavers.

Zalesky's OSU teams have captured seven Pac-10/12 championships and finished either first or second 10 times. He's mentored 12 All-Americans and 28 conference champions. His 134 victories are third-most in school history.

Zalesky-coached OSU teams have captured the six of the past 10 conference championships, including five in a row from 2012-16. He was rewarded for his success by being named Pac-10/12 Coach of the Year in 2010, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016.

The Beavers found success in the 2017-18 season; Ronnie Bresser (125), Corey Griego (197) and Amar Dhesi (285) were all crowned Pac-12 Conference champions. OSU sent four wrestlers to the NAAs with Bresser earning his first All-American designation. Dhesi earned a 3rd place finish for his second All-American honor.

The Beavers had a rebuilding season in 2016-17, as All-American heavyweight Amarveer Dhesi and standout junior 125-pounder Ronnie Bresser redshirted. The Beavers went 6-8 overall against a challenging schedule and were 4-1 in Pac-12 duals. OSU placed fourth at the Pac-12 Championships and 28th at the NCAA Championships.

Senior Joey Palmer (133) and sophomore Corey Griego (197) captured Pac-12 championships. Palmer won three matches at the NCAA championships; senior Joey Delgado (149) and redshirt juniors Jack Hathaway (141) and Cody Crawford (hwt.) won two apiece and Griego won one.

OSU became just the third team in Division I history with 1,000 dual wins when it defeated Southern Oregon on Nov. 13, 2014, in its season-opener. That was also Zalesky's 100th dual win at OSU.

Zalesky compiled a 127-34 dual meet record at Iowa, serving as head coach from the 1997-98 season through the 2005-06 season. His teams won NCAA titles in 1998, 1999 and 2000, and the Hawkeyes finished second in 2001 and 2004. Zalesky's teams captured three Big Ten team titles and his wrestlers won 10 NCAA individual titles and 45 All-America honors.

While at Iowa, Zalesky was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2000 and 2004 and the National Wrestling Coaches Association Coach of the Year in 1998 and 1999.

Zalesky wrestled for Iowa in the early 1980s and was a four-time All-American and three-time NCAA champion at 158 pounds, ending his Hawkeye career with an 89-match winning streak. He was named Outstanding Wrestler at the 1984 NCAA Championships and Amateur Wrestling News named him the Wrestler of the Decade for the 1980s; he narrowly missed earning a place on the 1988 United States Olympic Team as he placed second in the U.S. Nationals at 163 pounds.

Zalesky was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2004, the University of Iowa Letterman's Club Hall of Fame and the Iowa High School Athletic Association Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2002, and the Iowa Wrestling Hall of Fame in 1994.

Zalesky's coaching career also includes three years as an assistant coach at Minnesota and seven seasons as an assistant under legendary Iowa coach Dan Gable, with Zalesky serving as head recruiter. As an assistant at Iowa,

Zalesky was named the National Wrestling Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 1992 and 1997.
