Season Opener

- Oregon State opens the 2022-23 season Saturday when the Beavers visit Lehigh and participate in the Army Scramble.
- OSU and Lehigh matched up in the 2021-22 season, with the Mountain Hawks taking a 21-12 result at Gill Coliseum.
- Saturday's meet will mark the 12th time OSU and Lehigh will meet on the mat, with the Beavers holding a 7-4 series lead.
- Under Pendleton's direction, the Beavers have split their season openers: a 23-12 win over Campbell last season and a 19-15 setback in his OSU debut to North Dakota State.
- In West Point for the Army Scramble, OSU will compete against Army West Point, LIU and Queens University.

Pendleton Building the Damt

- Oregon State head coach Chris Pendleton is set to start his third season in Corvallis.
- The Beavers had four - Brandon Kaylor (125), Devan Turner (133), Grant Willits (141) and Hunter Willits (157) - earn All-America honors as they led the team to a 12th place finish - the best in a decade - at the NCAA Championships in 2021-22.
- Pendleton was named Pac-12 Coach of the Year - becoming just the second OSU head coach to win the honor within their first two seasons at the helm.
- Under Pendleton, Oregon State has improved its win total each season.

Beaver Notes

- Oregon State has another tough schedule in 2022-23. The Beavers are scheduled to compete against No. 1 Penn State, No. 5 Arizona State, No. 12 Oklahoma State, No. 25 Cal Poly and No. 26 Lehigh.
- In the projected lineup, four have completed at least 25 bouts as Beavers.
- Three returners - Brandon Kaylor, Trey Munoz and Aaron Olmos - won at least 16 in the 2021-22 season.

CHRIS PENDLETON

HEAD COACH

Third season at Oregon State
@ChrisPendleton9

Chris Pendleton, one of the most successful collegiate wrestlers in the history of the sport, was selected to lead the Oregon State program on March 29, 2020. In just two seasons at Oregon State, Pendleton already has the Beavers as Pac-12 Conference and national contenders.

Oregon State finished 12th at the 2022 NCAA National Championships, the Beavers' best finish in a decade. Brandon Kaylor (125), Devan Turner (133), Grant Willits (141) and Hunter Willits (157) all earned All-America honors, the team's most in a single year since 1995.

The Beavers placed second at the Pac-12 Championships, just a half point out of first, with Trey Munoz taking the conference title at 184 pounds. Kaylor (125), Grant Willits (141), Hunter Willits (157), Ryan Reyes (197) and Gary Traub (heavyweight) all finished second at the tournament in Tempe. OSU, meanwhile, placed eight wrestlers at the NCAA Championships after Pac-12s, the team's most in more than a decade.

Kaylor, Turner, Grant Willits and Hunter Willits were all named Pac-12 Wrestlers of the Week during the season; the four selections tied for the most in the conference.

Not surprisingly, after all those team accolades, Pendleton was named the Pac-12's Coach of the Year. He joins Joe Wells (1994) as the only Oregon State coaches to earn the honor within their first two seasons in Corvallis.

In Pendleton's first season at the helm in 2020-21, Oregon State went 4-5 in duals that included wins over Pac-12 foes Cal Poly and Little Rock. OSU finished second at the Pac-12 Championships with 123.0 team points, just 15 points behind first-place Arizona State. Pendleton coached Turner (133) and Grant Willits (141) to their second individual Pac-12 Championship titles. He led Hunter Willits (157), Reyes (184), and J.J. Dixon (197) all to a runner-up finish at the Pac-12 Championships. Kaylor (125) also earned a top-three finish, third-place, at the Pac-12 Championships.

Six wrestlers -- Kaylor, Turner, Grant Willits, Hunter Willits, Reyes, and Dixon -- qualified for the 2021 NCAA Wrestling Championships in the first season under Pendleton. Beaver wrestlers posted a combined overall record of 88-80 (.524) and 44-46 (.489) in duals. In 2021, OSU went 51-45 in matches decided by decision and 23-16 in major decision matches.

Pendleton arrived at Oregon State after spending the previous six seasons as an assistant coach at Arizona State. The Sun Devils had won three of the last four Pac-12 titles prior, including scoring 141.5 points (most by ASU since 1993) on its way to the conference crown earlier this month. ASU finished the shortened season ranked No. 6 in the country and defeated seven top 20 teams, including snapping No. 1

Penn State's 60-match win streak.

During his six-year campaign in Tempe, he solidified himself as one of the premier coaches in the country.

Pendleton represented the United States as one of the USA Wrestling Freestyle Junior Team assistant coaches in Finland in August 2017.

During his time at Wyoming, the Cowboys made great strides, guiding his wrestlers to back-to-back West Regional titles, two-straight All-American honors and multiple conference championships. Pendleton also earned the Cowboys their fourth regular-season Mountain West dual title in six years.

In his time as a student-athlete at Oklahoma State, Pendleton was considered one of the top athletes in the sport. A two-time NCAA Champion and three-time All-American selection at 174 pounds, Pendleton led Oklahoma State to three-straight NCAA Team Championships in 2003, 2004 and 2004, while accumulating an overall collegiate record of 118-12. Pendleton was also the Big 12 champion in his weight class in both 2003 and 2005. In 2012, InterMat tabbed him one of the 10 Best College Wrestlers of the 2000s.

Pendleton is a key figure for Team USA. He was a three-time national team member as a competitor and has since served as a coach.

Pendleton is still active in the U.S. freestyle scene and wrestles in various competitions throughout the world. In April 2014, he competed in the ASICS Las Vegas/Open Wrestling Championships at 97 kilograms (213 pounds). Pendleton was also a three-time member of the U.S. National Team under Arizona State head coach Zeke Jones.

Coach Pendleton was the California prep champion at 145 pounds at Lemoore High School. He is a 2006 graduate of Oklahoma State with a bachelor's degree in sociology.
