Viva Las Vegas

- The Beavers will match up with some of the nation's best in the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational this weekend in the two-day event.
- Action from Las Vegas will start at 9 a.m. and FloWrestling will have live streaming of the event.
- Oregon State will participate in the event for the second time since the 2019-20 season.
- Brandon Kaylor -then ranked 26th- took third place in last season's event at the 125-lb. class. He took down a pair of top-16 opponents.

Perusing the Polls

- Oregon State sits 28th in Flowrestling's latest poll, ranked 27th by InterMat and tabbed at 25th by WIN.

Racking up Titles at the Roadrunner Open

- Six - Brandon Kaylor (125), Cleveland Belton (141), Matthew Olguin (165), Mason Reiniche (174), Trey Munoz (184) and Tanner Harvey (197) - won their weight classes at the Roadrunner Open on November 20.
- Jason Shaner was edged in the 133-lb. final by the 16th-ranked opponent.

Belton and Munoz Unblemished

- Cleveland Belton and Trey Munoz have gone 9-0 and 10-0, respectively, to start the 2022-23 season.
- Among Belton's nine wins, he's defeated two ranked opponents: No. 22 Malyke Hines (Lehigh) and No. 31 Angelo Martinoni (Rutgers).
- Belton was tabbed as the Pac-12's Wrestler of the Week after the first week of competition.
- Munoz started his season with a strong 7-3 decision over Lehigh's Tate Samuelson in the opener back in early November.

CHRIS PENDLETON

HEAD COACH

Third season at Oregon State
@ChrisPendleton9

Chris Pendleton, one of the most successful collegiate wrestlers in the history of the sport, was selected to lead the Oregon State program on March 29, 2020. In just two seasons at Oregon State, Pendleton already has the Beavers as Pac-12 Conference and national contenders.

Oregon State finished 12th at the 2022 NCAA National Championships, the Beavers' best finish in a decade. Brandon Kaylor (125), Devan Turner (133), Grant Willits (141) and Hunter Willits (157) all earned All-America honors, the team's most in a single year since 1995.

The Beavers placed second at the Pac-12 Championships, just a half point out of first, with Trey Munoz taking the conference title at 184 pounds. Kaylor (125), Grant Willits (141), Hunter Willits (157), Ryan Reyes (197) and Gary Traub (heavyweight) all finished second at the tournament in Tempe. OSU, meanwhile, placed eight wrestlers at the NCAA Championships after Pac-12s, the team's most in more than a decade.

Kaylor, Turner, Grant Willits and Hunter Willits were all named Pac-12 Wrestlers of the Week during the season; the four selections tied for the most in the conference.

Not surprisingly, after all those team accolades, Pendleton was named the Pac-12's Coach of the Year. He joins Joe Wells (1994) as the only Oregon State coaches to earn the honor within their first two seasons in Corvallis.

In Pendleton's first season at the helm in 2020-21, Oregon State went 4-5 in duals that included wins over Pac-12 foes Cal Poly and Little Rock. OSU finished second at the Pac-12 Championships with 123.0 team points, just 15 points behind first-place Arizona State. Pendleton coached Turner (133) and Grant Willits (141) to their second individual Pac-12 Championship titles. He led Hunter Willits (157), Reyes (184), and J.J. Dixon (197) all to a runner-up finish at the Pac-12 Championships. Kaylor (125) also earned a top-three finish, third-place, at the Pac-12 Championships.

Six wrestlers -- Kaylor, Turner, Grant Willits, Hunter Willits, Reyes, and Dixon -- qualified for the 2021 NCAA Wrestling Championships in the first season under Pendleton. Beaver wrestlers posted a combined overall record of 88-80 (.524) and 44-46 (.489) in duals. In 2021, OSU went 51-45 in matches decided by decision and 23-16 in major decision matches.

Pendleton arrived at Oregon State after spending the previous six seasons as an assistant coach at Arizona State. The Sun Devils had won three of the last four Pac-12 titles prior, including scoring 141.5 points (most by ASU since 1993) on its way to the conference crown earlier this month. ASU finished the shortened season ranked No. 6 in the country and defeated seven top 20 teams, including snapping No. 1

Penn State's 60-match win streak.

During his six-year campaign in Tempe, he solidified himself as one of the premier coaches in the country.

Pendleton represented the United States as one of the USA Wrestling Freestyle Junior Team assistant coaches in Finland in August 2017.

During his time at Wyoming, the Cowboys made great strides, guiding his wrestlers to back-to-back West Regional titles, two-straight All-American honors and multiple conference championships. Pendleton also earned the Cowboys their fourth regular-season Mountain West dual title in six years.

In his time as a student-athlete at Oklahoma State, Pendleton was considered one of the top athletes in the sport. A two-time NCAA Champion and three-time All-American selection at 174 pounds, Pendleton led Oklahoma State to three-straight NCAA Team Championships in 2003, 2004 and 2004, while accumulating an overall collegiate record of 118-12. Pendleton was also the Big 12 champion in his weight class in both 2003 and 2005. In 2012, InterMat tabbed him one of the 10 Best College Wrestlers of the 2000s.

Pendleton is a key figure for Team USA. He was a three-time national team member as a competitor and has since served as a coach.

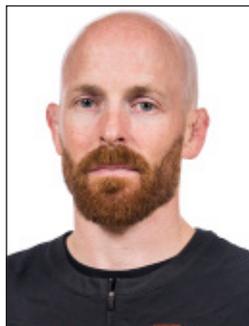

Pendleton is still active in the U.S. freestyle scene and wrestles in various competitions throughout the world. In April 2014, he competed in the ASICS Las Vegas/Open Wrestling Championships at 97 kilograms (213 pounds). Pendleton was also a three-time member of the U.S. National Team under Arizona State head coach Zeke Jones.

Coach Pendleton was the California prep champion at 145 pounds at Lemoore High School. He is a 2006 graduate of Oklahoma State with a bachelor's degree in sociology.
