ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The Oregon State gymnastics program has long prided itself on top performances both on the competition floor as well as in the classroom.

Since 1984, OSU gymnasts have earned 99 Scholastic All-America honors from the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches (now known as the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association, or WCGA for short). In 2017, 17 OSU gymnasts were named Scholastic All-Americans.

Seven Beaver gymnasts have also earned College Sport Communicators/ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America mention throughout the course of the program. Most recently, Yuki Lamb was awarded the academic honor in 2008.

In 1991, the gymnastics team boasted the top grade point average of any team or by any particular sport in the nation (3.61 GPA). That year, nine OSU gymnasts earned NACGC Scholastic All-America accolades, and Joy Selig was a CoSIDA/GTE Academic All-American.

In 1992, OSU again had the top grade point average among all collegiate women's gymnastics teams (3.385 GPA), giving them the distinction at the time as the only team to earn the national academic title twice. From those teams, Kelly Baker, Traci Crover, Chari Knight, Donna Linder and Anne Marie Vassallo were all NACGC Academic All-Americans each of their four seasons.

Knight was also a CSC Academic All-American in 1992 and 1994, and Crover earned CSC recognition in 1994.

Heidi Anderson (1984), Amy Durham (1993) and Rändi Miller (1997) have also earned CSC Academic All-America honors.

OSU'S PAC-12 ALL-ACADEMIC SELECTIONS

The Pac-12 Conference changed the academic award system to an honor roll in 2020. In order to qualify, student-athletes must maintain at least a 3.3 cumulative GPA and at least one year of residence at their respective schools (freshman do not qualify). After seeing 68 athletes earn all-conference first or second team all-academic awards, 59 Beavers have been named to the Pac-12 Honor Roll since that switch, meaning 127 Beaver gymnasts have earned recognition since the first set of academic awards were given out in 1992.
