NOTABLES

» Bolden's 25 points tied her career-high (3/2/24 LaSalle vs. Fordham)
» Paint Points: OSU 34 - ILL 12
» OSU shot 80% in 4th Quarter (8/10)
» Yepes dished out 4 first-half assists and keyed an 11-0 2Q run
» Williamson & Sow each had two steals

STARTING FIVE

» Oregon State hosts more than 7,500 local students and teachers for Tuesday's annual Beavers Beyond the Classroom game against Utah State
» The future Pac-12 foes will square off for the sixth time and first since Mikayla Pivec scored 18 points in a 75-46 OSU win inside Gill Coliseum in 2019
» The Beavers picked up its first of five possible power conference wins on Friday, outlasting Illinois 64-59 inside Legendary Gill Coliseum
» Defense keyed the victory for Oregon State as they held Illinois to just 33.9% shooting and second-leading scorer Gretchen Dolan to 11 points on 4/19 FG
» As one would expect for an early-season game, the Beavs still have room to grow. OSU won just the 24th game while being outrebounded in Scott Rueck's tenure.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

3

Oregon State simply does not foul. The Beavers rank third in the nation in fewest fouls per game with 10. Darmouth leads with 8.3 fouls/game.

Since Scott Rueck started coaching the Beavs in 2010-11 they rank fifth in the nation in FG% defense, holding opponents to 35.7% shooting from the field

5

Oregon State scheduled 17 home games in 2025-26, five more than the 2024-25 season including six to open the year

Lara Alonso-Basurto is the first OSU player to record a double-double in her first two college games

TEAM NOTES

HEADED BACK TO THE PAC (12)

The Beavs are grateful to be affiliate members of the WCC for the 2024-25 and 2025-26 seasons. Next year, Oregon State and fellow original league member, Washington State will resume Pac-12 play with the new members on the conference: Boise State, Colorado State, Fresno State, Gonzaga, San Diego State, Texas State and Utah State. New members will officially join on July 1, 2026.

MS. MAKE IT HAPPEN

Kennedie Shuler's growth is on full display. After struggling at points last season, she is emerging as one of the top table-setters in the WCC. Shuler sits third in the WCC with an assist/turnover ratio of 2.25. Averaging 6.0 assists per game, the playmaker ranks 29th in the country and second in the WCC. Dating back to last season, Shuler dished out at least five assists in five of her last six games including the last four in a row.

CLUTCH KENNEDIE

The Beavers turned to Kennedie Shuler with the game on the line three times last season. She delivered all three times. The then-sophomore point guard hit game-winning and-ones against LMU (in regulation), at Santa Clara (in overtime) to secure crucial conference play victories. With 0.8 seconds left in the WCC Semifinal game against Gonzaga, Shuler clutched up once again with a layup to secure the ticket to the finals.

BOLDEN'S BIG SUMMER

Scott Rueck challenged Tiara Bolden to take 10,000 three-pointers this summer. She doubled that, and the results are plain to see. It's early, but Bolden is shooting more than 10% better from three (43.8% vs. 31.5% in 2024-25) this season on two more attempts per game. The work with Rueck over the summer helped refine the senior's jumper and she's averaged 20.3 points per game through the Beavs opening three games.

BOLD(EN) ON THE BOARDS

In addition to elite speed and work ethic, Tiara Bolden makes an extra impact on the boards with 6 per game to open the season. The senior averaged 3.9 rebounds per game in 2024-25, which ranks third among returning conference guards. Bolden pulled down 5+ rebounds 13 times last season.

NEW ELEMENTS IN THE LAB

Just two games into the season, true freshman Lara Alonso-Basurto has already made Oregon State history to have two double-doubles in a row in her college debut. In the same weekend, LAB led the Beavs against Corban with 14 points and 11 rebounds and posted 12 rebounds and 11 points against Air Force. A powerhouse on the court, LAB is nationally and conference-ranked in the top 30 nationally while leading the WCC in offensive rebounds (5.5, 18th in the nation) and total rebounds (11.5, 29th) per game.

BUILT BETTER

Scott Rueck's next act as an elite post coach might take on a new look with players who received limited touches before OSU developing into difference-makers as Beavers. The veteran coach may have his next two all-conference bigs on the team in Néné Sow and Lizzy Williamson. The duo will look to become his 13th and 14th posts to earn all-league honors in Year 16.

- Before playing under Rueck, Kelsey Rees averaged 3.3 points per game and 16.3% from three. Last season, Rees averaged 12.9 points per game and 32.1% three-point shooting en route to All-WCC First Team and All-WCC Tournament honors.
- Sela Heide's 2.4 points per game grew to 7.3 and she improved her field goal percentage from 53.7% to 71.3%.

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER

Due to a mix of injuries, redshirts, covid years and Pavia waivers, three Beavers will be in at least their sixth season of college basketball this year: Catarina Ferreira (6th), Néné Sow (6th) and Lizzy Williamson (7th).

SHOOTIN' SCHIMEL

Ally Schimel joined Oregon State as a walk-on after dominating 3A Oregon high schools for four years at Corbett on the way to two state runner-ups and a title as a senior. The freshman quickly proved herself as a Beav, leading the team in season plus-minus, and earned a scholarship at the team's holiday party. This year, the sharpshooting sophomore is already a major threat from downtown, making 53.8% of her triples and ranking 29th nationally with 3.5 3PM/G.

NOTES

HELP WANTED FOUND: SHOOTING

Adding shooting - internally and externally - was a priority during Oregon State's offseason. So far, so good. The Beavs shot better than 50% from the floor in back-to-back games against Air Force and Illinois. OSU shot over 50% four times in 2024-25 and just once in back-to-back games. Among internal improvements Kennedie Shuler and Tiara Bolden are each shooting at least 7% better and the additions of Lizzy Williamson and Lara Alonso-Basurto each aided the team's offense as well.

(MISSED) SHOTS! SHOTS! SHOTS SHOTS SHOTS SHOTS! EVERYBODY!

Oregon State's elite defense is predicated on making opponents take the shots they don't want to take. In a survey of anonymous coaches done by The Athletic, one said of Rueck's defense: "Whatever you're really good at, they're gonna take away. If you're good at ABC, you better come with DEF because they're not gonna give you ABC." Notable Oregon State defensive performances the last two seasons include:

- Held Illinois to 33.9% shooting, a season-low and third-lowest in the last two seasons
- Held Air Force to 27.7% shooting and 17.4% from three
- On one weekend, held both St. Mary's and Pepperdine to a six-point quarter in two wins
- Held two teams (USF & Santa Clara) scoreless for 10 straight minutes of game time
- In the first game against Portland, held the Pilots to their fourth-lowest scoring (72) of the year - despite going to OT -and second-lowest FG% (35)of the season
- Limited Boston College to its season-low in scoring (49)

CLEAN DEFENSE

One of the tenants of a Scott Rueck-coached team is defending without fouling. Over the last 10 seasons, the Beavers are the second-most whistle-averse team in the nation. Only UConn does a better job at defending without fouling.

Team	Fouls/Game(15/16-24/25 Seasons)
1. UConn	12.7
2. Oregon State	13.2
3. Marist	13.4
4. Penn	13.6
5. Colorado State	13.6

NO CHARITY

As in year's past, Oregon State's clean defense meant opposing teams rarely make it to the charity stripe. The Beavers allowed the fewest opponent free throw attempts per game in the WCC and fifth-fewest in the nation last season at 11.3. OSU's opponents shot at least one fewer free throw per game than their next closest conference foe.

3. FDU	10.9	12.9

Washington State transfer Jenna Villa brings the versatility to play in Oregon State's system both on the wing and at the four. The junior impacts the game as a smart secondary playmaker and deadeye shooter.

NOTES

TALK TO YOUR DOCTOR ABOUT OREGON STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

With six overtime games last season, watching Beaver basketball wasn't exactly cardiologist-recommended. The Beavs went to overtime in their first three WCC games this season (at Pacific, Gonzaga and Portland), and set a school record with their fifth OT game at Pacific (the second time). Three overtime wins also ties a school record with the 2002-03 and 2018-19 teams.

- The Beavers led the nation in OT games and OT periods played with six.
- Chicago State was in second with five OT games and 10 teams played in four overtime games
- Back-to-back OT contests vs. the Zags and Pilots were the first since at UW and WSU in 2013 (1/25-27)
- The Beavs played overtime in both games against Pacific and Gonzaga

OWNING THE BOARDS

Oregon State has been one of the top rebounding teams in the country over the last ten seasons. The Beavs have a rebounding margin of +8.1 during that time, which ranks ninth nationally. In five of those seasons, OSU ranked top-10 in the country in rebounding margin while finishing in the top-25 twice more (#23 last season at +7.1)

FLOOR GENERAL

Shuler had a steep learning curve to open the 2024-25 season, taking on the starting point guard role after playing just 9.8 minutes per game as a freshman. There were some early bumps in the road, but Shuler came into her own over the last half of the season, averaging 9.5 points, 4.5 assists, 3.5 rebounds and a 2.68 A/TO ratio in the regular season's final 13 games. Shuler also grew from 3 assists per game and an assist/turnover ratio of .91 in her first 17 games to 4.4 assists per game and an assist/turnover ratio of 1.93 in last 18 games of the regular season.

A MILE IN HER SHOES

It's going to take the whole squad to fill Catarina Ferreira's shoes after she suffered a season-ending injury. Her direct minutes are likely to be absorbed by Jenna Villa and Lara Alonso at the 4, but only a team effort can account for her impact. The senior had eight double-doubles last season to lead returning conference players, shot 79.2 percent from the free throw line and recorded 64 offensive rebounds (4th in the WCC last season).

STAYING IN THE PAC

Bringing experience from within the conference, intra-Pac-12 transfer Jenna Villa adds shooting depth and versatility to the Beavers' lineup, showing potential to make an immediate difference on both ends of the floor. The junior from Arlington, Wash. shot better than 33 percent from three in each of the last two seasons at Washington State.

AUSSIE! AUSSIE! AUSSIE!

After successfully developing Aussies like Kelsey Rees and Jasmine Simmons into key contributors, the Beavs added three players from Down Under to this year's roster. Super senior Lizzy Williamson transferred in from NC State while Keira Lindemans and Katie Field joined Oregon State as freshmen. Lindemans and Field made an impression on OSU staff while beating strong American AAU competition in the Phoenix Nike Tournament of Champions together with ATC Academy.

Tiara Bolden (Eugene, Ore. | Churchill HS) is one of three Beaver State products on this year's OSU team. She's joined by two Portland-area guards in Kennedie Shuler (Gresham, Ore. | Sam Barlow HS) and Ally Schimel (Corbett, Ore. | Corbett HS). All three project for major roles in 2025-26.

NOTES

¡VAMOS ESPAÑA!

Lara Alonso, Cloe Vecina and Lucia Navarro make up the Spanish trio on Oregon State's roster. The latter duo were the first Spanish players at OSU under Scott Rueck, Navarro and Alonso played together during tryouts for the U20 Spanish EuroBasket team this summer.

GILL GOT 'EM

Beaver Nation has long been among the best women's basketball fan bases in the nation and last year they set several new records in support of the 2023-24 Beavs as the team went 18-2 at home including the postseason (7,227), single-season (103, 110) and student (2,329 vs. UCLA) attendance records. In 2024-25, Beaver Nation ranked second in the WCC in average attendance at 4,263, more than 3,000 fans better than the third place school and under 1,000 back of Gonzaga.

HOME SWEET HOME

Oregon State played just 12 home games last year, a result of needing to schedule a more challenging non-conference slate. With return trips from multiple power conference teams slated for this season, the Beavs will spend much more time at home. They play their 13th home game on January 31 vs. San Francisco.

VOICE OF THE BEAVS

Voice of the Beavers Ron Callan has called 541 Oregon State women's basketball games since joining the program in the 2007-08 season, holding a record of 332-209 during that span. Ron called his 500th game of OSU women's basketball against Utah in 2024, a 91-66 victory.

PRO BEAVS

Development in the Oregon State program helped several former players earn spots on pro teams all over the world. Numbers fluctuate as seasons start and end, but OSU has 12 alumni playing professionally. Notable performances include Kat Tudor earning a spot on the WBL Team of the Year and Mikayla Pivec earning NBL1 East First-Team honors. Tudor and Tea Adams also led the Caledonia Gladiators to their first Super League Basketball Final with a 68-62 win over the Sheffield Hatters. Marie Gulich (Germany) and Ali Gibson (Puerto Rico) each represented their countries at the most-recent Olympics. Gibson was OSU's first two-time Olympian in women's basketball.

BEAVER STAFF NOTES

» Assistant Coach Deven Hunter enters her fifth season on the Oregon State staff. Hunter worked at San Diego prior to joining the Beavers, and was part of OSU's 2016 Final Four squad as a player. She played a major role in developing All-American post Raegan Beers and All-WCC Forward Kelsey Rees

» Fellow assistant and 2016 Final Four team member Sydney Wiese returned to her second home last season after a lengthy professional career that included stints with the LA Sparks, Washington Mystics and several international teams.

» Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach Eric Ely is back on the bench for his 14th season with the Beavs. A post coach by trade, Ely played a major role in developing players like Pac-12 DPOYs Ruth Hamblin and Marie Gulich during his earlier coaching stint in Corvallis. Ely - whose wife is from Brazil and speaks Portuguese - was the primary recruiter for Catarina Ferreira.

» Assistant Coach/Video Coordinator Jared Vedus joined the staff two years ago as a GA after spending three years as a practice player for the Beavers. He joined the full-time staff this summer.

» Associate AD for Sport Performance Jeff Macy oversees all of Oregon State's strength and conditioning programs and is the strength coach for the Beaver women. He spent ten years in the NBA, five with the Chicago Bulls (2001-2006) and five with the Milwaukee Bucks (2008-2013). Macy is in his second stint with Oregon State.

» First-year Director of Ops Elizabeth Rudisill was a career diplomat with the US Department of State. She spent years working at embassies in South Korea, Mexico, Cuba, Australia, and Côte d'Ivoire.

» Athletic Trainer Jason Lieuw is the longest serving member of the Oregon State staff, currently in his 17th year and worked his 500th game with the program last year (at Pacific, 1/25/25).

HEAD COACH SCOTT RUECK (16TH SEASON)

It was a homecoming of sorts for OSU alumnus Scott Rueck, who was named the fifth head coach in the history of the Oregon State women's basketball program on June 30, 2010.

Rueck has been the architect of an accelerated turnaround of the women's basketball program at Oregon State, bringing the team onto the national stage.

Rueck has led the Beavers to eight NCAA Tournaments, including the 2024 event where he took a team picked 10th in the Pac-12 preseason poll to the Elite 8. OSU was also poised to earn a top-4 seed prior to the cancellation of the 2019-20 Tournament due to COVID-19. Oregon State won three-straight Pac-12 titles from 2015-17, and has made five Sweet-16's, three Elite Eight's and a Final Four.

The two-time OSU graduate entered the Oregon State Hall of Fame for the first time with his 2016 Final Four Team on November 10, 2023. Rueck led the Beavers to a sweep of the Pac-12 regular season and conference titles in addition to the Final Four

The now-15th-year coach has led the Beavers to 49 wins over AP Top 25 programs during his time at Oregon State, including 16 over top-10 teams. Squaring off against some of the best players in the nation, the Beavers have often at least held their own. OSU went 4-4 against Oregon during Sabrina Ionescu's time in Eugene and recorded an 7-1 mark against Washington while Pac-12 all-time leading scorer Kelsey Plum played for the Huskies.

Oregon State also developed its own superstars under Rueck. Five players earned All-America honors in six years between 2015-2020. Jamie Weisner and Ruth Hamblin won back-to-back Pac-12 Player of the Year honors in 2015-16 and Hamblin, Gabby Hansen and Marie Gulich won Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year in four straight seasons between 2015-18. Sydney Weise was another of the All-Americans and also won the Senior Class Award in 2017 after earning All-Pac-12 recognition for four straight seasons.
